10 PAGES

THE DAILY PRESS.

10 PAGES

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1908. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

CARING FOR THE TREES

Miles Roberts, of City Tree Commission, Speaks to P. H. S. Pupils.

TOO MANY SHADE TREES.

Speaker Advocates Thinning Out the Trees for City's Health Betterment—Diseases of Trees.

Miles Roberts, chairman of the city tree commission, gave a short talk on trees before the pupils of the Plainfield High School in connection with the opening exercises at the school this morning. Introduced by Principal Ira W. Travell, who referred to the good work he has been doing in caring for the city's shade trees and keeping them free from disease, Mr. Roberts spoke as follows:

"In planning the setting out or care of trees, one usually has in mind some individual tree, or row or group of trees, of especial beauty or attractiveness. It may be a sugar maple with its great round dome-like top reaching to within twelve or fifteen feet of the ground and its huge arm-like limbs extending out perhaps twenty-five or thirty feet from the trunk all the way around; or it may be a great red oak, equally as large and symmetrical, under which we gathered acorns when little children and of them made tiny cups and saucers; or perhaps a solitary elm, with its vase-like form and great spreading branches; or a white oak, with its gnarled limbs, its slaty gray bark and dark green foliage, turning to a brilliant gold and crimson in the autumn. It may be some of the pin oaks in this immediate neighborhood, with their dropping lower branches and short stubby thongs from which the tree derives its name,—one of the prettiest of trees, especially for the lawn, where its small deeply-cut leaves and its perfect symmetry of form is sure to make it a favorite; or it may be one of our native sweet gums, with its star-shaped leaves and corrugated bark-covered branches; or perhaps the Gingko, or maiden-hair tree, with its tall slender form and perfect fan-shaped leaves.

Whatever tree it is, it is almost invariably one that stands in the open, or, if a row or group of trees, it is one in which each individual tree has plenty of sunlight, and neighboring trees do not crowd its top or rob its roots of nourishment and moisture.

A tree needs food, air, water and sunlight, and if any one of these is denied it, especially in its youth, the tree is dwarfed or warped accordingly. If we want beautiful trees and the greatest amount of comfort from them, we should develop the individual trees and then the aggregate result will be like an army or regiment in which each of the soldiers is a well-developed and well-trained man.

In setting out trees therefore, they should be placed such a distance apart that the branches of the one will not touch those of another at least for many years to come. The Board of Education has wisely recognized this principle in planting the pin oaks in front of this building, although they are perhaps farther apart than we would place them on a residence street. We see just the opposite of this in many of our streets, where the trees are so crowded that they have become unshapely, many branches have been suppressed and died for want of sunlight, and are continually dropping off and littering our lawns and park. Of course most of the trees in the park grew there naturally, but if half of those trees had been cut out a good many years ago, those remaining would have branched lower and formed great spreading tops—each an object of beauty—and would have afforded much better shade than the trees now there, from which cords of dead wood have been cut.

Right here let me call your attention to the way those branches have been cut off. If you will notice when you go out, you will see that they are all sawed off close to the trunk, so that it is almost as smooth as though no limb had ever grown there. The reason for this is that a tree, unlike an animal, grows only from the outside. If therefore a branch is cut off close to the trunk, the tree will grow out over the wound and cover it up completely with live wood. The heart or interior of the tree is dead wood, and is preserved from decay only so long as moisture and air is kept from it; but if a large branch is cut off a little distance from the trunk it will take many years for the tree to grow out over it.

Meanwhile the interior dead wood of the branch is exposed to the elements with the result that it soon decays and thus leaves a hole which increases in size until the entire interior of the tree is hollow. There is one such hollow beech in the city

(Continued on page 5.)

OBSERVED ANNIVERSARY

Monday Afternoon Club Celebrates Twentieth Year with Delightful Affair.

TAKES PLACE AT CASINO.

Reception and Luncheon—Address of Welcome by the President, Mrs. H. M. Maxson.

The Monday Afternoon Club has had many delightful anniversary occasions in the past, but perhaps none more successful than the celebration of its twentieth anniversary yesterday in the Casino. Believing that a literary club should be literary even in its diversions, there may have been a lurking thought in the minds of some that the luncheon only announced was hardly worthy of a literary club numbering a score of years. Yesterday's programme successfully carried out, showed that the executive and entertainment committees were wise enough to keep their own counsel, human enough to enjoy a good luncheon and literary enough to have played in an admirable manner a couple of scenes from "The Merchant of Venice." This drama was a fitting termination to the past winter's club study of Venice. Even the afternoon rain, as it pattered on the Casino roof, was a pretty accompaniment to Portia's speech on Mercy, "It droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven upon the place beneath." The club members and guests were received in the reception rooms of the Casino by the president, Mrs. Henry M. Maxson, and the vice-presidents, Mrs. James R. Joy and Mrs. Gates Willard.

The Casino Hall where the luncheon was served, was decorated with apple and cherry blossoms and the thirteen tables had large baskets of white sweet peas in the centre, the whole color scheme being green and white. The menu and programme were bound in a dainty leaflet with the insignia of the club on the cover. The table for honored guests was on a raised platform, at which sat the president, Mrs. Maxson, Mrs. Henry H. Dawson, president of the State Federation, Miss Kenyon, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Isaac Miller, Mrs. Sterling, Mrs. J. M. Whiton, Mrs. Lowry, Mrs. S. St. J. McCutchen, president of Current Events Club, Mrs. Israel C. Pierson, president of Rasores Club, Mrs. Tennant, president of Sesame Club and charter members, Mrs. Tiffany, Mrs. Huntington, Mrs. Fleming and Mrs. Harmon.

The twelve other tables were presided over by Mesdames James R. Joy, Gates Willard, E. H. Hatch, W. M. Stillman, C. L. Goodrich, D. M. Van Vliet, H. C. White, Leighton Calkins, W. H. Murray, E. S. Barrows, F. D. Warren and Miss Cahoone.

A very delightful luncheon was served by Wimley of Philadelphia, after which Mrs. Maxson gave the following address of welcome:

"Members, friends and guests of the Monday Afternoon Club, we gladly welcome you to our birthday party.

We are twenty years old today, just out of our teens, and you know what that means to a young girl. It is not that we have felt particularly girlish, but now we begin to feel the dignity of our years.

Our club was organized, you know, for intellectual and social culture and we have tried to keep this in mind during all this time. We feel that it is a matter for congratulation that we have still enrolled eighteen of our charter members.

It may be interesting to look back for a moment, and see what we have accomplished in there twenty years. We have studied the lives and works of the great men and women of the past and the present. We have learned of the history and the art of different countries and have discussed and settled questions that would have puzzled wiser heads than ours. The sciences have found a place in our plan of work and even as early as our second year, socialism occupied a large part of our year's work.

While we have not neglected our own country, we have wandered far afield. England, France, Holland, Spain, India and Iceland have been visited by us in our study, while we have paid brief visits to Russia, China and far Japan. Sometimes, a single city has held our attention for a whole year. Florence once gave us pleasure and profit for that length of time and for nearly all of the past year, we have basked in the sunlight of beautiful Venice.

The questions of every day life have, by no means, been forgotten, and problems of interest in home and state have supplied us with abundant interest.

We have, of course, left much undone and there are many things yet to be desired. The story of the coming years will reveal how much we may be able to accomplish.

Again, I welcome you all in the name of the Monday Afternoon

(Continued on page 4.)

Y. W. C. A. GYM EXHIBIT

Women Athletes Show Their Skill in Men's Association Gymnasium.

GIRLS PLAY BASKETBALL.

Miss Margaret E. Mosher, the Physical Director, Leads Pretty Swedish Drills to Piano Music.

It was "ladies' night" at the Y. M. C. A. last night, for the physical department of the Y. W. C. A. gave an exhibition in the gymnasium, and the galleries were filled to the fullest seating capacity to witness the drills and floor work, led by Miss Margaret E. Mosher, physical director of the women's association. The numbers of the program were selected with a view of giving outsiders a clear idea of just what work is being done in the East Front street gymnasium, and the various drills showed careful training by the classes which took part. At the conclusion of the regular program, the North Plainfield High School girls' class played a lively basketball game with the Tuesday Night Class, and won out handily by a score of 20-4.

All the seats in the balcony were filled by visitors when all the members of the classes marched out on the floor, led by Miss Mosher and went through a series of marching drills to the music of the piano, where Miss Florence Wyckoff presided for all the drills. Following this the junior department came on the floor and went through a dumbbell drill and the Clap Dance to music. Twelve of the younger girls took part in this, and the dance was a typical Swedish number. More Swedish gymnastics followed. More squad of young women next went through an elaborate series of steps and various movements known as Swedish frolics.

A squad of well trained women gymnasts went through some intricate movements on the flying rings. The work of Miss Margaret McCutcheon was especially commendable on the rings, and the "stunts" she did were appreciated by sustained applause. Some Swedish dance steps were prettily executed by the North Plainfield High School girls' class as the next number, and a squad of fifteen of the school girls also went through a wand drill. A dozen members of the Tuesday evening class next came on the floor for a dumb bell drill, executed to music as were the other drills of the program.

A relay race with a basketball was a feature of the closing number of the program. In this there were six young women on divided into two teams, one captained by Miss Lillian Fedderman and the other by Miss Harriet Madison. The members of each team lined up the length of the floor and passed the basketbal from one to the other. The player on the end then ran to the basket at the head of the line and shot a goal, after which she took her place in front of the line and the passing and shooting was repeated until each member of the team had shot a basket. Miss Madison's team were the victors.

The North Plainfield girls outplayed their opponents in the basketball game, for the Tuesday evening class was only able to score two baskets while the school girls caged the ball ten times. At the end of the first half, the score was 14-4 in favor of the boroughites. Neither team scored from the foul line. The line-ups:

N. P. H. S.—Miss Marjorie Cooley and Miss Anna Daly, forwards: Miss Margery Hart, centre; Miss Helen George and Miss Ida Englehart, guards.

Tuesday Evening Five—Miss Irene Finn and Miss Myrtie Fedderman, forwards; Miss Ruth Wean, centre; the Misses Olive De Laney, Elizabeth Becker and Lona Becker, guards.

Referee, Miss Mosher; umpire, Miss Margaret McCutcheon. Fifteen minute halves.

J. G. Burdick Injured.

J. G. Burdick, proprietor of the sash and blind factory on West Fourth street, received a deep and painful cut of the forearm and hand this morning trying to set a heavy plate glass in John McIntyre's new store on North avenue. The wind was blowing hard at the time Mr. Burdick was putting the glass in position and caused it to slip out of his hands. In his efforts to save the glass he received the cuts. He went to T. S. Armstrong's pahrmacy, where Dr. T. H. Tomlinson dressed the wounds.

Engagement Announced.

Mrs. A. S. Campbell, of East Second street, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Jessie Scott Campbell, to William Henry Thorn, of this city. The wedding is to take place in September.

DR. MITCHELL MAY BE ELECTED A BISHOP

Methodists of Cleveland and vicinity have launched a boom to elect Rev. Dr. Charles Bayard Mitchell, formerly pastor of the First M. E. church, this city, but now pastor of the First M. E. church at Cleveland, a bishop at the General Conference of the church to be held this month in Baltimore.

Dr. Mitchell's candidacy was announced at the meeting of the Methodist Ministers' Association held this week amid enthusiasm. The support of the East Ohio Conference delegation was practically pledged to him. The opinion was expressed that it would not be difficult to send the entire Ohio body of lay and clerical delegates to Baltimore, pledged to work unanimously for Dr. Mitchell's election to the episcopacy. At the meeting of the ministers' association resolutions bearing on the subject were presented anad adopted.

When the resolutions were adopted Dr. Mitchell, who was present, expressed his appreciation of the honor the meeting had done him. It is probable that there will be seven or eight bishops elected at the Baltimore General Conference. The exact number is to be decided by the delegates. Since the Los Angeles conference four years ago, six bishops of the Methodist church have died. It will be necessary to replace them as well as to increase the total number of bishops, or general superintendents, as they are called by the church, by one or two.

Dr. Mitchell's career in the ministyr has been a brilliant one. After he graduated from Allegheny college he began in the ministry in Kansas. Later he was called to Pittsburg. Since then he has served prominent churches in Plainfield, Kansas City, Mo., and Minneapolis, Minn. He has been pastor of the First Methodist church in Cleveland, for several years. He is a lecturer of ability and it is especially through this activity that he has become well known over Ohio and in other states.

The Methodist general conference meets every four years. The last session was at Los Angeles. At the conference in Baltimore next month there will be between 700 and 800 delegates, of which half will be lay men. The general conference is the chief legislative body and supreme court of the Methodist church.

"SPOTLESS TOWN" PLAY BY BETHEL CHAPEL BOYS

A novel advertising play, "Spotless Town, a Home Drama in Three Acts," was presented at Bethel chapel last night by members of the chapel Boys' Club, in conection with a program of songs and recitations in which those who took part "did themselves" proud and showed the results of careful coaching. The rain kept many away and on this account the performance will be repeated at the chapel tonight.

The familiar "Spotless Town" characters appeared before a scenic setting representing a street in the afore-mentioned clean burg, and the play followed closely the incidents of the advertising verses, said and sung by the characters. The following took part:

Rufus Tilden, the mayor; Clifford Tilden, the cook; Petwyn Robinson, the policeman; Julius Smith, the butcher; William Jeter, the maid; Clarence Jeter, the doctor; Val Shipey, the bore. The program also included recitations by Percy Simmons. Arthur Parsons and Horace Martin, who later gave "a series of mystifying tricks in magic." After the play, there was a sale of articles made by the members of the club who had an excellent exhibition of basket work, weaving and carpentry. Ice cream and candy were sold by members of the club, and Walter Robinson presided at the fish pond. The club is composed of eighteen members, and the proceeds of the entertainment will be used for the purchase of materials for their work.

Gov. Hughes' Father to Speak.

Dr. D. C. Hughes, of Brooklyn, father of Governor Charles E. Hughes, of New York State, will be the speaker at the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon. His topic will be "Christian and Modern Thought." Dr. Hughes is a retired Baptist minister and a powerful speaker. Paul Scarborough will sing and there will be violin selections by Martin A. Korff.

Graduated a Chemist.

Among the graduates of Columbia University to receive diplomas at the graduating exercises held at Carnegie Hall last night, was A. A. Teeter of Grove street.

—A special consignment of twenty-five bunches of choice Jersey asparagus will be placed on sale at Newman Brothers' tomorrow morning. The price will be 25c a bunch.

ELKS' MINSTRELS A HIT

Second Annual Show of Plainfield Lodge Scores a Big Success.

GREETED BY CAPACITY HOUSE.

Many Local Gags Enliven the Elaborate First Part—Topical Song a Feature.

Plainfield Lodge, No. 885, B. P. O. E., presented its second annual minstrel show at the New Plainfield theatre last night and in so doing marked another epoch in the upward trend of black-face entertainment of home variety local people appreciate. The program, arranged carefully to the minutest detail, staged elaborately and presented by a capable company of performers, the program surpassed anything of the kind that has ever been seen in the city. It was witnessed by an audience that packed the playhouse and was unlimited in its applause.

In the customary first part, the curtain rose after an overture by Professor Harry Wettin's orchestra on the entire troupe with the exception of the end men. The latter were six in number and swung in later while the chorus sung, "Way Down in Colon Town." Harry Hamm, Harry Messersmith and William J. Doud handled the tambos while John H. Cose, William J. Cunihan and Tom Muir cracked the jokes. They wore gold-braided, gold-bedecked Colonial costumes, matching a resplendent outfit of the same style that garbed George O. Stevens, occupying the interlocutors chair. The other members of the troupe were in conventional evening dress, the contrast making a striking effect.

Following an opening chorus comprising a medey of popular airs, the fun started in earnest and there were merry quips, ballads and end songs for nearly two hours. Harry Messersmith was the first soloist and got a rousing encore by his rendition of "Got to Go to See the Minstrel Show," backed up by a clever dance. Hamm V. Todd sang "'Neath the Old Grape Arbor Shade, Mary Dear," in fine voice, and Tom Muir got away with a "gag" song, "Somebody Said." One of the catchiest, swinging numbers of the evening was "Summertime," rendered by Elmer Cutting, after which "Bill" Counihan got a "rousing hand" on a double effort. He first sang "Mariutch" like a veteran and when the audience yelled for more he responded with a George Primrose waltz clog that "brought down the house." The people insisted on an encore and would have kept him dancing all night but for the fact that the time was limited. Joseph C. Martin rendered a bass solo, "The Wanderer," William Doud did himself proud in telling the people he was "Bon Bon Buddy," and Fred Miller contributed a ballad, "Sweetheart Days," a quartet taking up the refrain.

A Plainfield minstrel show without a topical song is like bread without salt and last night's production added another successful composition to the long list credited to Judge William N. Runyon. It was entitled, "See a Doctor," and was sung by John H. Cose. There were seven verses in all and somebody or something got hammered in every one of them. Mayor Fisk, Councilman Suydam, the Common Council, the Watchung Hunt Club and Mr. Cose himself were all "touched up." The last end song was a winner and was given by Harry Blimm in a jerky style that almost put him out of the amateur class. The title was "If You Don't Change Your Living, That's the Way You'll Die," and Harry "stepped some" as the chorus joined with him, getting off a typical minshouter's dance. The first part closed with "Under Any Old Flag at All" solo by Horace J. Martin, Jr., the ending with a most effective patriotic display, the curtain going down on a huge American flag made up of strips held by the members of the troupe from the sides and occupying the full stage.

The end men's gags while the half dozen were all crisp and happy and comprised many local hits. Mr. Counihan and Mr. Stevens got off an especially good one in a burlesque on the whipping scene from 'Uncle Tom's Cabin." It led up to the point where Mr. Counihan as "Tom," received a beating from "Simon Legree" and as the latter demanded to know if the old slave would not belong to him, "body and soul," the reply was:

"No, Massa; you may own my body, but my soul belongs to the Public Service Corporation."

Part second, the olio, was opened by Arthur Collins and Byron Harlan, well known as the singers for the Edison Phonograph Company, who gave a very amusing skit. They were followed by a dance number,

Continued on page 8.)

"GUS" FRENTZ A SUICIDE

Scotch Plains Baseball Player Shoots Himself Through the Head in His Room.

DIED TWO HOURS LATER.

No Reason Can Be Given for Young Man's Act, Committed During the Noon Hour.

Without any known reason, Augustus Frentz, a well-known young man residing on Westfield avenue, Scotch Plains, committed suicide shortly after noon today by shooting himself in the mouth with a revolver. He died about 2 o'clock without regaining consciousness.

Frentz, who is a carpenter, had been working with his brothers on a new house near his home, and at 12 o'clock, he left the job to go home to dinner. Nothing strange was noted about his actions at the time, but upon reaching the house he went straight to his bedroom and sitting on the edge of the bed placed the revolver to his mouth and fired.

The report of the revolver aroused the members of the family who were down stairs and rushing to the second floor found the young man lying unconscious on the bed, with the revover close by. Hurried telephone calls were made for physicians, Dr. Albert Pittis being the first to arrive. He used every effort to save his life but to no purpose. In the meantime Dr. F. W. Westcott reached the house, but he, too, was unable to do anything.

Mr. Frentz was very popular among the young people at Scotch Plains, and had achieved considerable fame as a pitcher for the baseball team at that place. So far as known he never had any trouble and his family are unable to account for his taking his life. He is survived by a father, Augustus L. Frentz, three sisters, Mrs. William Pfell, Mrs. William Hazel and Mrs. Frank Putnam, the last named of this city, and three brothers, Charles, Henry A. and George Frentz, of Scotch Plains.

PRIVATE FUNERAL OVER EDITH HARDING CASE.

The funeral of Edith Harding Case, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Herbert Case, of Duer street, was held yesterday afternoon at the parent's home, and was private, there being only relatives and near friends present. Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, pastor of the First Baptist church, conducted the very simple, but beautiful service. He spoke tenderly and impressively of the young life that had gone out and in connection with his remarks, he read a beautiful poem, symbolizing the fact that the pearly gates had been opened to welcome the little one to Heaven and that she was now with the angels.

During the service there were two selections, "Jesus Loves Me," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," sung by Marion D. Blair and Marguerite K. Barkalew, neighbors and playmates of Edith.

The remains rested in a full length white casket, surrounding which was a profusion of floral tributes, including a beautiful one from the officers and directors of the Plainfield Trust Company, with which Mr. Case is identified. The bearers were the four uncles of the sweet little girl, Samuel Case, Joseph Case, Willard Case and Howard Case. The burial was at Hillside Cemetery.

Ex-Bank Burglar the Speaker.

The experiences of a bank burglar were told at the Salvation Army Hall last night by George Miles White, who, under the alias of George Bliss, was well known to metropolitan police detectives some years ago as a safe-cracker. Mr. White was converted through the McAuley Mission, and his address was a feature of last night's meeting. Captain and Mrs. Hopkins sang.

Professional Commendation.

Emile Lubers, for several seasons principal end man in Primrose's minstrels, was an interested spectator of the Elk's black-face show at the New Plainfield theatre last night. He has given many helpful suggestions to members of the cast and saw the show from the wings last night. He was enthusiastic over the production.

Had no License, Fined $1.

Acting Chief Charles Keller, of the North Plainfield police force, caught S. P. Miller, a rug agent peddling without a license yesterday afternoon. He was fined $1 at his hearing before Borough Recorder Dolliver last night. He paid up and bought a license.

Saturday Half Holiday.

In accordance with the annual summer custom, local coal and lumber yards will close at noon Saturdays for the summer months, beginning tomorrow.

Ladies' Home Journal Patterns have been put in stock by us and judging by the tremendous sale the past week we feel convinced that it is the most popular pattern in the country today.

A. E. Force and Co.

We Give "S. H." "THE WHITE STORE" THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY Green Trading Stamps

CANDY DEPARTMENT.

We have the largest assortment of high grade popular priced candy in the city for the price, received fresh twice a week. All flavors in fine Chocolates; price lb 25c.

MONEY-SAVI[redacted]CIALS

FOR SA[redacted]

Parasols and Gloves.

Ladies' plain and white Parasols, natural wood handle; $1.25 value, for ..... .98

Children's Parasols, plain, fancy and ruffled; 39c value, for ..... .29

Ladies' Kid Gloves.

On Saturday only our $1.25 2-clasp Diana Gloves, black, white, and all colors ..... .98

SILK GLOVES—Ladies' long black silk gloves, 16 button, all sizes; sold elsewhere for $1.50; on Saturday we sell them at $1.25

Fancy Goods.

LADIES' BAGS—All of our $1.00 and $1.25 Hand Bags in black, tan and brown, at ..... .79

LADIES' COMBS—A fine shell back comb and bourette on a card; 25c value, for ..... .10

DRESS SHIELDS—Special lot in all sizes, as good as the regular 25c grade; special Saturday ..... .10

Hosiery Department.

Ladies' plain Black Cotton Hose, sizes 8½ to 10; 25c value, for ..... .18

Boys' fine Black Ribbed Cotton Hose, 6 to 9½; 25c value, for ..... .17

Misses' fine Ribbed Black Cotton Hose, sizes 6½ to 9; 25c value, Saturday ..... .15

HAMMOCKS—Do you want a new Hammock? If so we can please you as to price and assortment. Our spring line now in; sale prices 89c up to $4.98

Another Satur[redacted] Tailored Suits,

We will again re[redacted] of last week, tomorrow, for these suits will not 12.00 and 13.0[redacted]

15.00 and 16.00

DRESS SKIRTS—[redacted] terials, brown, blue, b[redacted] $5.00 skirt, special for

LADIES' WHITE [redacted] Lawn, trimmed with a[redacted] small tucks; $1.25 wa[redacted]

WHITE SKIRTS—[redacted] broidery ruffle, with cl[redacted] value, for .....

Ladies' F[redacted]

Ladies' Swiss Ri[redacted] sleeveless and short sle[redacted] at neck, the regular 1[redacted]

Sale of Ost[redacted]

A magnificent colle[redacted] ers in all the new Sprin[redacted] ually Half Price.

$4.00 Feathers, Saturd[redacted]
$6.00 Feathers, Saturd[redacted]
$8.00 Feathers, Saturd[redacted]

Neckwear[redacted]

Ladies' Lace Bow T[redacted] and styles; 25c value f[redacted]

EMBROIDERED C[redacted] broidered collars, all si[redacted] jety of styles; 25c value

CHILDREN'S HA[redacted] chase 100 dozen white [redacted] for dozen .....

BLACK RIBBONS[redacted] in. wide, faille and sil[redacted] value, Saturday .....

[redacted]sement Specials.

[redacted]uptha Soap; Saturday 10 [redacted] ..... .33
[redacted]t 10 cakes to a customer.)

[redacted] PAPER—1,000 sheets to a [redacted] quality; 6 rolls Saturday ..... .25

[redacted]E BOARDS—A regular 25c [redacted]rd on Saturday ..... .15

[redacted]TE SAUCE PANS—10-qt. size, [redacted]t really as good as firsts; [redacted]on Saturday ..... .43

[redacted]E BOILERS—Granite, 3-qt. size, [redacted]perfect, but as good as [redacted] value for ..... .49

[redacted]n's Furnishings.

[redacted]ring and Summer line of Neg[redacted]s are here. While we thought [redacted]large line last year, this year's [redacted] superior.

[redacted] assortment of Men's Negligee [redacted]50c, 59c, $1.00, $1.25 ..... $1.50

[redacted]VESTS—Just opened a new line [redacted]patterns, at $1.49 ..... $2.50

[redacted]DERS—Whiz Suspenders, a [redacted]st opened, the latest nov- ..... .50

[redacted]TIES—Men's 4-in-hand wash [redacted]eceived, in white, figured [redacted]2 for ..... .25

[redacted] UNDERWEAR—Just received [redacted]e for spring, all styles, at [redacted]nd ..... .50

[redacted]ASES AND BAGS—An entire [redacted]eady for those who anticipate [redacted]c up to $6.50.

[redacted].00 up to $9.00.

[redacted]HOSE—In black, tan and fancy [redacted] best to be had at these [redacted] sizes; price 12½c to .... .50

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c. a week.

CITY.

Union News Co. ..... R. R. Station
[redacted] Harper ..... 411 Park Ave.
[redacted] Laing ..... 149 W. Front St.
[redacted] Mallinson ..... Fourth and Liberty Sts.
[redacted]dge Waiting Room .... Watchung Ave.
[redacted] Cahill ..... 111 Park Ave.
[redacted]ndle & Stahl ..... 112 Somerset St.
[redacted]ley & Son ..... 321 Watchung Ave.
[redacted] A. Garthwaite ..... 212 Watchung Ave.
[redacted] Anderson ..... 657 West Fourth St
[redacted]ohn Mottley ..... Cor E. 3d & Richmond Sts

SUBURBAN

[redacted]rvington ..... B. Siriski
[redacted]ew Market ..... R. Burdick
[redacted]und Brook ..... Union News Co.
[redacted]ound Brook ..... L. M. Davis
[redacted]omerville ..... Jacob Genert
[redacted]rfield ..... C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
[redacted]rfield ..... J. W. Wall
Scotch Plains ..... Chas. Elliott
South Plainfield ..... Victor Attlee
[redacted]nwood ..... Chas. Elliott
[redacted]erwood ..... Blaney & Son

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS

BOUND BROOK AND VICINITY.

At the annual meeting of St. Paul's Episcopal church of Bound Brook, the following officers were elected for the coming year: Wardens, Alfred Urch, J. Grenville Fisher; vestrymen, George LaMonte, E. P. Bryan, Clinton M. Cary, J. Frank Suyday, David M. Purcy, George J. Smith, George Clissold, John A. Tibbals. The proposition to provide a parish hall for the use of St. Paul's church was discussed and a committee was appointed to investigate and report on the first Tuesday in June.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Somers in Elizabeth street, Bound Brook, are Mrs. Margaret Giles and daughter, Mrs. Hewlet Graft, of New York.

Mrs. Cornelius Brower, of West Second street, Bound Brook, has returned from a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gray, of Frankfort.

L. C. Rugen Sr., is suffering with inflammation of the optic nerve of the eye at his home in Elizabeth street, South Bound Brook.

Mrs. M. S. Cook, of Rocky Hill, is visiting at the home of her nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Seigert, in Ogontz, Pa.

Russell Hawk, of Allentown, was lately a guest at the home of his brother, Frank Hawk, in East Union avenue, Bound Brook.

Councilman E. A. Lloyd, of High street, Bound Brook, has been spending several days with relatives at Smyrna, Delaware.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey, of Bound Brook, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Irons in Rahway avenue, Westfield.

David Ross, of Woodbridge, was recently entertained at the home [redacted] his parents, in church street, Bou[redacted] Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wall, of W[redacted] Second street, Bound Brook, are [redacted] tertaining Miss Hogan, of Philli[redacted] burg.

Miss Margaret Keishner[redacted] of W[redacted] Second street, Bound Brook, has be[redacted] visiting with relatives in Newark.

NORTH BRANCH.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. D. Ten Ey[redacted] of North Branch, have return[redacted] home from a visit to Mr. Ten Eyc[redacted] sister, Mrs. E. S. Christopher, New Brunswick.

Dr. and Mrs. James D. Van D[redacted] veer, of North Branch, have be[redacted] entertaining their son, John T. Van Derveer and wife, of New Yo[redacted]

Miss Mabel V. Garretson, of N[redacted] Market, has been spending a va[redacted] tion with her parents, Mr. and M[redacted] Peter A. Garretson, at Belle Mead.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. B[redacted] and children, of Plainfield, ha[redacted] been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gar[redacted] Pfaff, in North Branch.

Mrs. Eustance Randolph, of Ne[redacted] ark, is spending some time with [redacted] and Mrs. Thomas Cooper, at E[redacted] Millstone.

Henry Anthony has returned [redacted] his home at Peapack, after a visit[redacted] the home of B. L. Perry, near No[redacted] Branch.

Mrs. John Hipple, of So[redacted] Branch, has been visiting friends [redacted] Somerville for a few days.

Mrs. Oakley has returned to [redacted] ange, after a visit to her sister, M[redacted] John Dunn, at Pluckemin.

Mrs. Sarah Cook, of Brooklyn, [redacted] been spending a few days with r[redacted] tives at Millstone.

RARITAN.

James Cunningham and sister [redacted] na are guests of friends at Dove[redacted]

Fred Becker, of Dover has retu[redacted] ed home after visiting his paren[redacted] Mr. and Mrs. Henry Becker, in Ra[redacted] tan.

Former Sheriff George A. Dilts [redacted] confined to his home with an atta[redacted] of inflammatory rheumatism.

Mrs. John Purcell and daught[redacted] have been spending a week [redacted] Bloomsbury.

Miss Margaret Farmer has retur[redacted] ed from Newark, where she spent [redacted] week.

James T. Hickey has been visitin[redacted] this week in New York.

Miss Rose Becker has been visit[redacted] ing friends in Newark.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

Special Price Savings at Plainfield's New Credit Store Bid You Welcome

Prices made possible only by our gigantic buying and selling organization and becanse of the outpu from our many stores in the state of New Jersey. Everything in our Modern Shop from a child's bonnet to the most exclusively styled and fabricked garments, stands for the highest quality while low prices prevail such as Plainfield had never dreamed of.

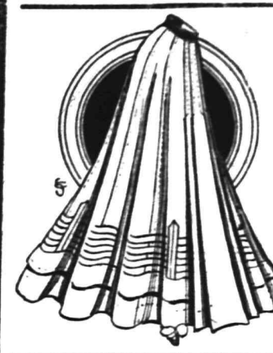
All this at Plainfield's New Model Credit Style Shop on Easy Terms of $1.00 per week or $4.00 per month. Prove our values by opening a charge account today.

Here's Men's Spring Suits

Positive $22 Values $15

We secured 380 of these swagger Men's Spring Suits at an actual saving of hundreds of dollars on the transaction. As usual our customers get the benefit—If they act NOW. They won't last long at these prices, for the values are actual $22 ones and in some cases the suits were to be sold at as high as $25. Every new swagger style including Browns, Blue and Black Serges, Thebets, Fancy Stripes, and in both two and three button styles, with long lapels and close fitting collars.

SALE STARTS TODAY $15



WOMEN'S and MISSES' SKIRTS

A stunning and beautiful variety of models—the most exclusive ever shown in Plainfield—Styles are really too numerous to mention here. Comparison prices prevail at Plainfield's New Credit Style Shop and we want you to see these Skirts to realize the values

Special This Week, $2.98

Women's & Misses' Special Skirts, 4.98 to 17.98

CHILDREN'S SUITS and DRESSES

New Spring Styles for Little Men and Women —Special values

$1.98 to $8.98

PRETTY WAISTS

Lawn and Lace Waists with China Silk Linings and hundreds of other beautiful Waists to select from

$1.49 to $9.98

Open Evenings — Alterations Free

CASH THE CREDIT PLAINFIELD CREDIT OUTFITTING CO. COR. SOMERSET ST ONE FLIGHT UP

103 FRONT ST. PLAINFIELD, N.J.

$1.00 a week Opens an Account — Comparison Prices

[redacted]e prayer and conference meeting [redacted] the Seventh Day Baptist church [redacted]night.

[redacted] Mrs. Emma DeLong and nephew, [redacted]otten Minthrone, have come to New [redacted]arket from their home in New York [redacted]ty to spend the summer.

The Ladies' Mission Circle of the [redacted]irst Baptist church, New Market, [redacted]et this afternoon at the home of [redacted]rs. Sarah Smalley.

'PLAINS AND [redacted]NWOOD.

The storm last night interfered [redacted]aterially with the attendance at the [redacted]evival meeting at the Baptist church. [redacted]ervices will be held tonight in [redacted]harge of Rev. Mr. Atkinson. Mr. [redacted]itzgerald will sing. No service will [redacted]e held tomorrow night.

The local team will present its [redacted]trongest lineup against the Irving[redacted]on team in the game tomorrow after[redacted]oon. Flannery, lf; Baldwin, ss; J. [redacted]lbert, 3b; G. Frentz, 2b; H. Albert, [redacted] Allen 1b; Ellis, cf; Reick, rf; A. [redacted]rentz, p.

The local school will not be rep[redacted]esented on the baseball diamond [redacted]is year. There is material enough [redacted]o make a good team, but so far no [redacted]ttempt has been made to get into the [redacted]ame.

The Township Committee meet to[redacted]ight in the town room. Bill to be [redacted]assed for payments should be turn[redacted]d over to Township Clerk Edward L. [redacted]and, before 8 o'clock.

Notwithstanding the bad weather [redacted]st night, a number from here at[redacted]nded the Elks' Minstrel at the New [redacted]lainfield theatre.

An encampment of gypsies have [redacted]tched their tents for a short stay [redacted] the valley near the white bridge.

The Dan Barker house is being re[redacted]oved from Mountain avenue and [redacted]ill be rebuilt on Cook avenue.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Miss Cora Brokaw will lead the [redacted]ristian Endeavor Society meeting [redacted] the Park Avenue Baptist church, [redacted]night.

Preparatory services will be held [redacted] the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian [redacted]urch tonight, when candidates for [redacted]dmission to membership will be [redacted]ceived.

Rev. Dr. T. L. Gardiner, editor [redacted] the Sabbath Recorder, will preach [redacted] the Seventh-Day Baptist church, [redacted]morrow morning at 10:30 o'clock. [redacted]e text will be from Psalm 104:30. [redacted]llowing this service, Dr. Gardiner [redacted]ll administer the Lord's Supper. [redacted]e week from tomorrow the pulpit [redacted]ll be occupied by Rev. Dr. C. E. [redacted]rring, pastor of the First Presby[redacted]ian church.

"Rogers Brothers in Panama," at New Plainfield Theatre, May 8.

The Hand Storage & Express Co.

Public Truckmen. New storage warehouse now ready.

ALL ROOMS SEPARATE, LIGHT AND DRY.

FURNITURE MOVED, PACKED and SHIPPED

Office: 69 Somerset Street, 'Phone 541.

USE PRESS WANT ADS

PERSONAL.

David Carr, of Newark, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leifke, of West Front street.

Mrs. Abram Stites, of Easton, Pa., has been visiting friends in Plainfield for several days.

Jesse Hetfield, who has been detained at his home on West Front street by illness, is much improved.

Rev. A. S. Peck, rector of St. Stephen's church, is planning to spend his summer vacation in Europe.

Miss Haff, of Madison avenue, is planning a trip to Europe this summer. She expects to be away several months.

Miss Clara Denton, who has been spending some time with Mrs. L. J. Denton, of Washington avenue, has returned to Belmar.

C. M. Meeker, of East Front street, who has been detained at home by illness, is much improved and hopes to be out soon.

Lewis E. Waring, of West Seventh street, is one of the judges at the Brooklyn Horse Show, this week. He is judging saddle horses.

Rev. A. C. McCrea, of the First M. E. church, has returned from Madison, where he attended the annual commencement of Drew Seminary.

Rev. George Hauser, formerly pastor of the German Reformed church, but now of New York, has been visiting friends in town for a few days.

F. C. Iglehart, Jr., formerly the basso at the First Presbyterian church, has entered upon his new position as soloist and choirmaster of a large church at Orange.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Moore, of West Front street, have named their young son, Donald Stuart. The young man was born on the birthday of his great-grandmother, Mrs. Felicia Eckel, of West Front street.

Rotherham Picks Vickers.

Jersey City, May 1.—It was said today that John Rotherham, the successor as boss to Colonel Dickinson, has picked Assistant Prosecutor George T. Vickers as the organization candidate for Congress in the Ninth District.

—Much better progress is being made with the brick pavement work and Contractor Meeker now hopes to complete the contract early this month.

—Armstrong Mulford, the North avenue real estate broker, has sold the Clark residence, 131 Crescent avenue, to William G. Hockridge, of Watchung avenue, and possession was taken today.

—Advertise in The Daily Press

TEPPERS 109-111-113 WEST FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

AGENTS FOR STANDARD PATTERNS

This house has long been known for its underwear values, and its complete stocks in this department. As this is the changing season for light weight underwear for the warmer weather, we call your attention to some of the exceptional values that gives this department the prestige it deserves, by carrying makes of the best mills, assuring well-made garments at no higher prices than inferior goods are constantly offered.

Women's Underwear.

AT 25c.

Pilling & Madely's bleached shaped vests and pants, fine cotton yarn; vests with high neck, short and long sleeves; vests with low neck, short and no sleeves; vests with V neck, short and no sleeves. Pants, wide knee, lace trimmed; pants, tight knee and ankle length.

AT 50c.

Shaped lisle Vests and Pants in two weights. Vests, low neck, no sleeve and short sleeve; vests, high neck, short and long sleeve. Pants wide and tight knee.

AT 50c.

Pilling & Madely's Union Suits, fine light weight cotton; Union Suits with low neck, no sleeve, with tight knee; Union Suits with high neck, long sleeve, with ankle length; Union Suits, high neck, short sleeve, with tight knee; Union Suits, low neck, short sleeve, tight knee; Union Suits, low neck, short sleeve, wide knee.

Fine Mercerised Lisle Vests, pink, blue and white, at 50c

Fine Silk Vests, white and Cream, at....98c

Fine Swiss Ribbed Wool Vests, at 98c & $1.49

Bleached Cotton Ribbed Vests, at 10c, 15c, and 25c.

Infants' Swiss Ribbed Wrappers, fine yarn, at 15c

Boys' Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers, at 25c

Shirts with short and long sleeves; long drawers and knickerbockers, with double seats, equal to those generally offered at 35c, for 25c

De Bevoise Brassicie boned corset covers, made of fine cambric, with torchon edge trimming, sizes 34 to 46, at.....50c

Sale of Kid Gloves.

AT 59c PAIR.

300 pairs Kid Gloves sold at 75c and 85c in the following colors: black, tan, brown, white and grey; not every size in every color, on sale at .....59c pair

AT 79c PAIR.

Our $1.00 Kid Gloves, with the usual guarantee of the first trial at the counter; colors: black, tan, brown and white.

Nine-button Lambskin Gloves, colors, tan, grey, white and black, at.....$1.79

16-button Lambskin Gloves, colors, black tan and white, at $2.49

16-button French Chamois Gloves, white and champagne, at $1.98

Kayser guaranteed Silk Gloves, 2 button, at ..... 50c, 75c and $1.00

12-button, at $1.25
Black and white.

16-button, at $1.49
Black, white, tan and Copenhagen.

16-button, lisle, at.....50c and 75c
Black and white.

2-button lisle, at.....25c
Black and white.

Short Crepe Kimonos, shirred yoke, Japanese border, plain colors, at.....89c

Long Crepe Kimonos, Persian border, at $1.39

Long Crepe Kimonos, Japanese patterns, with satin borders, at $1.98

Figured Lawn Kimonos, in pretty floral effects, with white lawn borders; full sleeves, at 39c

Wash Jumper Dresses at $2.98.

An attractive jumper dress made of colored linen suiting in brown, Copenhagen and linen color; skirts are generously full; this is an exceptionally pretty jumper dress for $2.98

Nemo Back Rest Corsets $3.50.

We have just added to the Nemo line the well advertised back rest corset. Almost every newspaper tells you of the merits of this corset; all sizes; price $3.50

SPORTS HERE AND THERE

BASEBALL.

Snodgrass, the New Yor Nationals' young catcher from the Pacific coast, has a great throwing arm.

Pitcher Gus Dorner of the Boston Americans is taking better care of his arm this year than he did last spring.

Outfielder Bell has been loaned by the New York Americans to the Newark club of the Eastern league.

President Murphy of the Chicago Nationals is quite tickled over the Cubs' new ball park. The improvements have been quite extensive and have been made at an outlay of $40,000.

Larry McLean, the Cincinnati catcher, predicts big things for McHale of the Boston Americans. They played together on the Portland (Ore.) team three years ago.

Trotter Trampfast, 2:12¼.

Trampfast, 2:12¼, is in grand condition at Pekin, Ill. He recently weighed 1,045 pounds and measured 15.2. Matt Williams will be his trainer, notwithstanding all reports to the contrary.

Pacer Brenda Yorke, 2:08¾.

Brenda Yorke, 2:08¾, queen of three-year-old pacing fillies, is in splendid condition and will be hard to beat this year.

The Clinton Avenues will meet the Juniors on Crescent Oval tomorrow afternoon and they promise to give Manager Dorflinger's aggregation a lively time. The Juniors will lineup as follows: Vanderbilt, cf; Hann, lf; Muir, rf; Banks, c; O. Dodge, p; Tune Hewitt, 1b; Beekman, 2b; Leslie Dodge, ss; Newmiller, 3b; Van Arsdale and Lorton, extras.

Clifford Randolph will pitch for Clinton Avenues against the Juniors tomorrow and it is a safe bet that he will hold his opponents down to a few hits.

Pitcher Joe Stoup, of the Newarks, has been loaned to the New Haven club.

Bertwhistle, of this city, is now playing with one of the minor Pennsylvania league teams.

A curious incident occurred in the Eastern League on Tuesday, when all of the winning teams, Newark, Rochester, Buffalo and Toronto secured ten hits each.

"Flick" Luyster, who is on the pitching staff of the Elizabeth club of the Union League, has been doing some great work thus far. This week he shut out Wilmington, allowing them but a couple of hits.

Looks as though Heyniger, of Princeton, is the premier college pitcher this season. On Wednesday he shut out Virginia and but a couple of hits were made off his delivery. He has not lost a game this year.

Jerry Nops is one of the strong men on Manager Nuebeck's Elizabeth team.

Scotch Plains is putting up a fast game for early season work. Its work against the Perth Amboys last Saturday shows the team is stronger this season, both in the field and at the bat, than it was last year. The team meets the crack Irvingtons tomorrow afternoon on the 'Plains diamond. Game will be called at 3:30.

The Highland A. C. will play the Climax A. C. on Hope Common tomorrow afternoon. The Highlands will lineup as follows: Winters, c; Wunderlich or Coon, p; Hearst, 1b; Hanson, 2b; Taylor, ss; Brown, 3b; Kyle, rf; Diggins, cf; Curtis, lf.

GOLF.

Since Walter J. Bells, the homebred professional, has been connected with the Country Club of Ithaca there has been a steady improvement in the organization's nine-hole course. The latter covers a playing length of 2,422 yards, as follows: Four hundred and twenty, 273, 143, 260, 260, 290, 110, 468 and 198. Total, 2,422. In 1906 the club became a member of the Southern Tier Golf League, now composed of the country clubs of Binghamton, Elmira, Oswego and Ithaca. The league will hold four tournaments during the season to decide the title to the championship cup offered by the combined clubs. The schedule includes contests from May 10 to October. L. M. Dennis, a professor at the university, is the present club champion.

Advices from abroad state that Harry Vardon continues to play golf of the kind that placed him in a class by himself a few years ago. At the Pannal's Club course on April 11 Vardon defeated James Braid by 3 up and 2 to play in an eighteen-hole match. The former went round in 74 to 77 for Braid. Vardon's 74 established a record for the links. He went out in 39 and home in 35.

From May to December is the cry of the South Orange Field Club golfers. In other words, beginning with next Saturday up to and including November 28 there will be something going on in a competitive way nearly every week.

The Country Club of Lakewood has arranged a varied programme of outdoor sports to be decided on the club's grounds tomorrow. A horse show, gymkhana and pony races and golf contests are some of the events. There will also be a drag hound contest, in which ten couples of hounds from the Monmouth County Hunt are entered. The scent will be laid through the wooded roads in a circuitous route, about six miles, and the finish will be at the club. Each hound will wear a ribbon, and each rider in the run will be permitted to draw a card with the corresponding color of that worn by one of the hounds. The holder of the color of the hound which first arrives at the finish will be awarded the cup, providing the hound has followed the full course. The rider need not be the first in to win.

The executive committee is Shepherd K. DeForest, Henry Lloyd Herbert, Henry S. Kearny, Charles L. Lindley, Jasper Lynch, John Miley, Frederick A. Potts, David Paton, William Ross Proctor, P. S. P. Randolph and William W. Willock.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Clansman's Farewell. Famous play bids goodbye to Newark the week beginning Monday, May 4. If you are a lover of good plays, do not fail to see "The Clansman" at the Newark Theatre, Newark, Wednesday or Saturday afternoon or any evening of the week beginning Monday, May

The success of "The Clansman" is the marvel of the theatrical world. Now in its third season, it continues to draw as enormous crowds as ever. Men and women alike are brought to their feet by the tremendous climaxes of the play. The thrilling portrayal of the Ku Klux Klan is the secret of "The Clansman's" tremendous vogue. Hooded, masked, armed and mounted on ghostly white-clad steeds, these wild night-riders of the South are shown, first, riding to the defense of Southern womanhood and later convened as a High Court of Justice to try a negro accused of an awful crime.

For "The Clansman's" farewell engagement in Newark the prices are, evenings and Saturday matinee, orchestra, $1.50; orchestra circle, 1.00; balcony, 50, 75 cents and 1.00; gallery admission, 25 cents. Those desiring reserved seats in advance should write Manager George W. Robbins, Newark Theatre, Newark, N. J., stating the kind and price of seats desired, and enclose remittance, upon which the tickets will be promptly forwarded.

At the Wednesday matinee all seats on the lower floor and balcony will be fifty cents, first come first served, and no reservation will be made.

"THE OLD RELIABLE HOME FURNISHERS"
EST. 1860 COWPERTHWAIT AND VAN HORN CO. INC. 1907
73 MARKET STREET. NEAR PLANE ST., NEWARK, N.J.

(B)

"Spring"—time Suggests
NEW Floor Coverings

—and we suggest "No. 73" as the place to get them, provided quality that's sure, and a price that's right, appeals to your taste and purse!
Only weaves that stand our warrant ever get inside our store—here's an "Inducement Sale" to start Spring season's trade!

TAPESTRY BRUSSELS CARPETS

85c. grade at	$1.00 grade at	$1.20 grade at
64c. Yd.	75c. Yd.	90c. Yd.

MADE, LAID AND LINED FREE!

HEAVY CHINESE MATTING
Just in—Regular $18 grade
$14.50
roll of 40 yds.
Many other grades and prices

FANCY JAPANESE MATTING
Cotton Warp Regular $16 grade $13.25
roll of 40 yds.
Broad choice of various other weaves

Best Grade "A No. 1"
Oil Cloth at 45c. Yd. [Reg. 60c.]

Over half a hundred kinds of oil cloth—all new and effective! Ask to see our line of Linoleums—especially the new imported line in carpet patterns—we're sole agents.

Sole Headquarters For
"The Portland Range," "Gunn Sectional Bookcases"
The Acme Washing Machine, "White" Sewing Machine
LOWEST PRICES—EASY CREDIT

MARSHALL & BALL
Spring Raincoat Special!
Friday and Saturday

A man can always use a Raincoat. Spring weather is fickle. There'll be plenty of chilly evenings this Spring when an M. & B. Raincoat will keep you both comfortable and well dressed and, if caught in a shower, your suit will be saved from the need of a pressing.

$16 to $28 Raincoats $13.75

They're herringbones, in gray, brown and olive effects; also Oxfords, cut roomy and fashioned with all the skill of M. & B. Tailors.

This offering is for Friday and Saturday only, so you can't afford to delay.

Boys' $6, $7 and $8 Spring Suits, $4.50

Here's a chance for thrifty mothers of boys to provide their youngsters with the better sort of new Spring apparel at a snug saving.

They're Double-Breasted, Belt, Norfolk, Sailor and Russian Suits, with bloomer trousers; some have extra pair of bloomers. The patterns are extremely attractive, including brown and gray mixtures and striped and plaid effects. They're tailored equal to our men's garments.

HIGHEST TYPE OF READY-TO-WEAR

807-809-811-813 BROAD STREET, NEWARK

HAHNE & CO.
IMPORTERS · NEWARK'S STORE BEAUTIFUL BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STREETS · RETAILERS

Great Sale of 5,000 Crisp, New SUMMER WAISTS.

A big lot of most beautiful Summer Waists we have ever been able to secure to sell at such low prices comes to us from one of the best waist manufacturers we know.

Every waist is crisp, fresh and new without the slightest imperfection.

There are so many kinds in this big lot that we cannot begin to give you detailed descriptions of the styles and trimmings there being no less than twenty-five distinct designs, and we will not undertake to convey in type the beauty which will be best revealed to those who come to see them.

The waists are for dress and general wear, made of the sheerest of Persian lawns and dainty batiste with the most exquisite embroidery in allover panel effects, and some with pretty lace insertions; still some others with yokes, pointed or round, embroidery and lace trimmed.

And there are the smartest sorts of Tailored Waists of Madras Linen, colored and figured, and Striped Lawns, with light or dark grounds; some with laundered collar and cuffs; others with soft finished cuffs, lace trimmed; long or short sleeves; open front or back; all wanted sizes, and this is how we are going to sell them:

1.00 Waists	2.00 Waists	4.00 Waists
50c	1.00	2.00

500 finer waists, worth from $3 to $6, $2.50 and $2.98.

7.50 SET OF SLIP COVERS - - - 3.75

This is truly one of the most remarkable slip cover propositio house.

Here where we make more slip covers than in any other sto manship is done, here where only good materials are used, we will m covers of best quality 28-in. Belgian Striped Damask for any parlor su material, cut by our most experienced cutters, sewed and bound by work-room, made in our regular custom order way, each seam sewe able binding; fit and workmanship guaranteed; on Friday and Satur

Sets of slip covers such as these are worth regularly $7.50.

Sets requiring more than 20 yards of material will be charge additional yard over twenty.

All mail and telephone orders filled for these sets.

BROKAW'S CREAMERY

No need to complain of getting poor butter or cream—go to Brokaw's and get his own make, which is always fresh and good. Our specialties are Fresh-made Butter, both salted and unsalted, Rich Milk and Cream, positively Fresh Eggs and everything in the dairy line. The only place in the city where these goods are made on the spot. Call and see our plant and witness the process.

TEL. 293-W 186 E. FRONT STREET

PLAINFIELD OFFICE
EISELE & KING
Members of the New York and Philadelphia Stock Exchanges
In the Babcock Building, West Front St.
Private wires East and West. Ticker service. Orders executed as rapidly as in any New York office registers, menu and place cards. Orders filled promptly.
W. De LaR. ANDERSON, Manager.

Try a Press Want Ad

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily except Sunday, at 3 p. m.

... North Avenue. Telephone 61.

Painfield, N. J., May 1, 1908.

May 1 In History.

1528—Pamfilo de Narvaez discovered bay of Pensacola, Fla.

1900—Munkacsy, the celebrated Hungarian painter, died; born 1844.

1904—Antonin Dvorak, noted Bohemian musical composer, well known in America, died; born 1841.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

Sun sets 6:52, rises 4:53; moon sets 8:06 p. m.; moon at greatest libration west; outlook for May, 1908—constellations visible 8:30 p. m.; overhead, Canes Venatici, Leo Minor; north, Ursa Minor, Ursa Major, Cassiopeia, Cepheus; northeast, Lyra, Hercules, Corona Borealis, Bootes; east, Ophiuchus, Serpens, Libra; southeast, Centaurus; south, Virgo, Leo, Corvus, Crater, Hydra; southwest, Monoceros; west, Cancer, Gemini, Canis Minor; northwest, Lynx, Auriga. Bright stars visible same hour rank in order of brilliancy following each: Northeast, Vega, 6; Arcturus, 5; south, Spica, 15; Regulus, 19; west, Pollux, 17; Procyon, 9; northwest, Capella, 4. Planets during May: Mercury invisible near the sun; Venus brilliant in west during evening; Mars sets about 9:45 p. m.; Jupiter brilliant, working westward, setting earlier, from 1 a. m. to midnight; Saturn, morning star, rising earlier, from 3:45 to 1.45; Uranus and Neptune always invisible. Sun in constellation Aries till 14th, then Taurus. Sun's declination, 15.2 degrees north of celestial equator.

"ART EXHIBITION" FOR KINGS' DAUGHTERS BENEFIT

Mrs. H. G. Runkle, of West Eighth street, opened her home last night for a private view of the important art collection formed by the well-known amateur, A. A. Hokes, prior to its public exhibition and sale in New York city. The affair was given for the benefit of the King's Daughters' Baby Camp. All of the tickets were quickly disposed of and the City Union, King's Daughters will receive a large sum in support of its work.

The collection of pictures, a choice one, included notable paintings by old and modern masters, rare Kakamonos belonging to an ancient dynasty and an exceptionally fine example of "Peach Blow." The success of the exhibition of pictures was largely due to the work of George Wharton Edwards and T. Randolph Mercein, the artists, who posed them. During the evening a charming musical program was given by Miss Grace Carroll and Miss Winifred Carroll, contralto and mezzo-contralto, and Willard Wadsworth, baritone. A feature was Haydn's great nature "Symfonie in C," by the Kinder Orchestra under the direction of Herr. Von Tinkemeister, who appeared in the person of Daniel Runkle.

The program opened with the "Sympfonie in C," those taking part being Miss Molly Perkins, Miss Kathryn McCutcheon, Miss Dorothy Fisk, Miss Anna Fisk, Mrs. Daniel Runkle, Miss Mary Gray Runkle and Roy Cox, Percy Brown, Willard Wadsworth, Ames Brooks and Daniel Runkle.

Three pictures were then shown as follows: Mrs. Siddons, "Gainsborough;" Miss Molly Perkins, "Three Guardsmen," T. Randolph Merecin; Percy Brown, Daniel Runkle and Roy Cox. Miss Grace Carroll then sang "The Birthday," by Cowen, preceding two additional pictures, "Promise of Spring," Alma Tadema, by Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Runkle, and "Lady Teazle," Ian Van Beers, by Miss Anna Fisk. The next number was a baritone solo, "A Love Song," Haesche, by Willard Wadsworth.

Two of the best pictures were "The Prize Tulip," George Wharton Edwards, by Miss Katherine McCutcheon and Willard Wadsworth, and a "Pair of Kakamonos and Peach Blow," by Miss Dorothy Fisk and Ames Brooks. Another musical number was a mezzo-contralto solo "The Three Thoughts," (memories night and morning), Neidlinger, by Miss Winifred Carroll. The concluding number was "Eine Heitere Schlittenpartie," Chwatal, by the Kinder Orchestra.

The large and fashionable audience was generous in its applause and apperciation of the fine program, and a great many encores were given during the evening.

The Men's Club of the First Baptist church, is planning to have a dinner at the regular meeting, which will be the last one until fall.

Headquarters for

John Gibson's

RYE.

E. C. Westcott, Agent.

115 East Front Street.

OBSERVED ANNIVERSARY

(Continued from page 1.)

Club."

Mrs. Henry H. Dawson then made pleasing address on the work of the State Federation. She claimed that the benefits of the Federation were for those clubs closely associated with it in their study of the subjects,—art, literature, civics, legislation, forestry, sanitation, pure food, libraries, education, reciprocity, civil service reform, industrial conditions of women and children and household economics. For illustration she contrasted the rivers with tides and the puddle that was self sufficient. "Rivers," she said, "bear the world's commerce in their flow, but the fate of the puddle is to dry up."

Mrs. Maxson in a few words expressive of appreciation for Miss Eliza E. Kenyon, the founder of the Monday Afternoon Club, presented her with a large bunch of American Beauty roses and the following resolutions adopted by the club at a previous meeting:

"Whereas, The Monday Afternoon Club of Plainfield, New Jersey, now completing its second decade of vigorous and useful existence, largely owes its inception, early development and later prosperity to the foresight, wisdom and gentle strength of character of Miss Eliza Elvira Kenyon, its founder, first president, and steadfast counselor; be it

"Resolved: That on this, the Twentieth Anniversary of the Organization, we, the Members of the Monday Afternoon Club, do hereby with one accord testify our personal esteem for Miss Kenyon, and our appreciation of her work, by granting to her the Freedom of the Club, the highest honor in our gift, constituting her an active member for life, whereby she may invite her friends at will, without dues or other obligations, save to continue in our Association, and to participate freely in all its activities, intellectual, literary and social."

Miss Kenyon graciously responded, thanking the club for the honor done her while she was still able to enjoy its privileges. With pleasantry she referred to the mule famous in Grecian history, which after long service in bearing burdens of stone up the hills of the Acropolis was given his freedom. The first time after his gift of freedom, when he saw a team of mules drawing slabs of marble up the hill, he put himself by the side of the burden bearers, thinking he was lessening their labors. She said in conclusion the first use of her freedom would be when no toasts were to be given, to propose Rip Van Winkle's famous toast, "May you live long and prosper."

All the guests standing sang an anniversary song written by Mrs. Isaac L. Miller and sung at the 15th anniversary of the club.

The excerpts from "The Merchant of Venice" were charmingly given the stage setting, Venetian costumes and skilful rendering of the parts giving great pleasure to the enthusiastic audience. Mrs. Lemuel Serrell who took charge of the dramatics, made a charming Portia, supported by Mrs. George Stuart Ring as Nerissa in the first act, and she also took the part of Antonio in the fourth act. Mrs. William M. Wherry, in gown and wig, made a dignified ducal judge, even her rod being judicial. Mrs. Henry C. White in this scene was a loveable Bassanio, Mrs. Allen Cowperthwait an admirable Portia costumed at Doctor of Law, Mrs. M. B. Mellor a teasing Gratiano and Mrs. Harold Pender as Shylock impersonated the greedy, revengeful and baffled Jew as very few women could have done. Before and after the play the following musical programme was rendered exquisitely:

Duet, Hungarian Dances—Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4, (Brahms), Mrs. Albert H. Atterbury, Miss Susan Corey; Duett, Dverture—Die Schone Melusine, (Mendelssohn), Mrs. William C. Hubbard, Mrs. Frank J. Hubbard.

The committees in charge were: Entertainment—Mrs. Leighton Calkins, Mrs. Percy H. Stewart, Mrs. C. A. Marsh, Mrs. Cox, Miss Ethel Titsworth. Decorations—Mrs. F. D. Warren, Mrs. E. T. Barrows, Mrs. Tomkins, Mrs. Wallace. Seating—Mrs. Eugene H. Hatch, Mrs. Leighton Calkins.

[redacted]

Annual Meeting Commuter's Club.

The annual meeting of the Plainfield Commuter's Club, who commute to and from New York in the club

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

The Woodhull & Martin Store

New Spring Floor Coverings

Staple grades of Rugs, Carpets, Mattings, Linoleums and the like at exceptionally low prices, together with the largest stocks to be found in the city, in fact greater than all the other stores combined.

MATTINGS—Japanese and China straw mattings in plain and fancy weaves, 25c to 35c a yard. $9.00 to $13.00 a roll of 40 yards.

CREX GRASS MATTINGS, in green, brown, red and blue; cool, clean, sanitary and serviceable, 40c a yard.

HOFI FIBRE MATTINGS, the ideal floor covering, soft, plyable and oderless; the reversible kind, from 35c to 65c a yard.

LINOLEUMS—A large assortment of new patterns in printed and inlaid, ranging in price from 49c to $1.50 a square yard.

WILTON RUGS—A fine selection of new and attractive designs; size 9x12 feet, $25.00, $35.00 and $39.98.

AXMINSTER RUGS—Exact copies of real Oriental designs; size 9x12 feet, $19.00, $22.50, $25.00 and $27.50.

BRUSSELS RUGS—In a wide choice of pretty patterns; size 9x12 feet, $15.00, $20.00, $22.50, $25.00 and $27.00.

KURDISTAN BRUSSELS RUGS—A hard twisted closely wooven reversible rug, very servicable; size 9x12, $11.98.

ORIENTAL RUGS—Machine made, pretty Persian designs; size 9x12 feet, $28.98.

A Bargain in Collapsible Go-Carts.

6.98

instead of 10.00.

THE ANDERSON STEEL GO-CART, the most perfect collapsible cart on the market, made of the finest chilled steel, with steel tubing pushers and handle and finished with baked enamel, upholstered with English leather cloth of the finest quality; the wheels have solid rubber tires, has reclining back and adjustable dash for sleeping purposes; is opened and closed with one motion.

On Sale Monday. Jardinieres and Stands Complete, for 98 cts.

A PRETTY GLAZIED JARDINIERE, 9 inch size, worth to buy regular $1.25, and a weathered oak mission style or bamboo stand worth 50c, Monday we'll sell them complete for 98c.

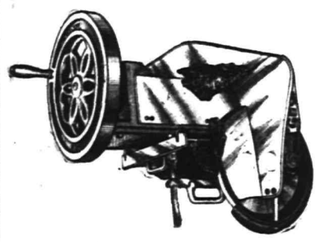
This is a rare bargain and comes just in the nick of time when you are about to put your plants out on the piazza. Only about 100 in the lot and won't last long.

The Woodhull & Martin Store.

BIG HAM AND VEAL SPECIALS —AT— Applegate's Meat and Produce Market

Swift's Premium Hams 12½c
Swift's or Armour's Skin Hams 12½c
Small Lean Regular Hams, 6 to 8 lbs 12c



COOKED HAM, SMOKED BEEF, COOKED CORNBEEF, SLICED WITH THIS SLICER IT HAS TO BE SEEN TO BE APPRECIATED.

Legs Veal 14c
Shoulder Veal 12½c
Loin of Pork to Roast 14c
Loin Veal 14c
Breast Veal 10c
Lard, 3-lb pail 35c

High Grade Butterine 22c

VEGETABLES.

New Potatoes, pony basket 40c
Bermuda Onions, pony basket 45c
Large Sweet Juicy Oranges 30c
Pineapples 10c
Tomatoes, qt 15c
String Beans, qt 12c
Radishes, 4 bunches 10c

Jersey Lettuce, Rhubarb and Asparagus at lowest market prices.

C. L. APPLEGATE,

163 Somerset St. Telephone 360-W

—CAMERAS—

KODAKS AND PHOTOGRAPHIC SUPPLIES
DEVELOPING, PRINTING AND ENLARGING

Bring Your Films in One Day and Get Your Pictures the Next.

"THE PHOTO STORE," 129 NORTH AVENUE.
FORMERLY VAN WINKLE'S.

Lumber Bargain!

The largest quantity of lumber in Plainfield can be found in my yard.

Large and Small Timbers.

Cut prices on new lumber for one week more.

A. KANE

YARD, 312 Filmore Ave.
Telephone 522-J.

...ars Plainfield and Evona, was held ...is week, when these officers were ...lected for the year: President, ...ownsend Rushmore; vice-president, ...ewis G. Timpson; secretary, F. W. ...utler; treasurer, Howard Beebe; ...rustees, Henry L. Hall, H. M. Stock...n, A. V. Heely and F. W. Butler. ...here is now a long waiting list and ...t was reported that there is a substantial balance in the treasury. No new members have been elected during the past year.

WASHINGTON ROCK SPRING WATER

Bottlers of high-class soft drinks, Ginger Ale, Soda Water and Pure Spring Water, and Siphon Goods. Private families' and parties' patronage is solicited.

Henry Pedeflous,

TELEPHONE 670-R
Hotel Pedeflous, Plainfield

Funeral Services Tonight.

The funeral service of Miss Mildred Rathbun, who died yesterday morning at the home of her uncle, Amos Andrews on North avenue, will be held from the late home tonight at 7:30 o'clock, instead of tomorrow morning, as announced. The remains will be taken to Norwich, Conn., tomorrow, where the burial will be on Sunday.

One Day at Plainfield

WEDNESDAY, MAY 6,
HOTEL IROQUOIS
Office Hours, 9 a. m. until 4 p. m.

Our $1.00 Glasses with 10-year Gold Seamless Wire Frame cannot be duplicated in America for $5.00.

Your eyes will be examined by the Dammers Scientific Method which is entirely different from the old way of examining eyes and is the only correct way.

We make no charge for examination. We ask no questions, put no drops in the eyes, do not use any test cards or charts hung on the wall which is a common way used by every one but us, and by that way you are simply fitting yourself and you get so confused you do not know if you are fitted or not.

Don't Suffer With Headaches.

We have produced astonishing results from brain, fag, nervous debility, insomnia, dizziness, nausea, WATERY EYES, blurry vision and other troubles caused by EYE STRAIN. We have corrected by the use of glasses, cross eyes and Astigmatism by our scientific methods.

The Edward F. Dammers Co.,
Old South Bl'd, 294 Washington Street, Boston, Mass.
5 1 4

John S. Lewis

Successor to Lewis & Dilts.
Artesian Well Contractors.

Wells drilled any place, size or depth.
Estimates cheerfully given.

Box 173,
Scotch Plains, N. J.

How Are Your Kids?

The season calls for Evening, Full Dress and Street KID GLOVES

FROM PECK'S.

SPRING FURNISHINGS

Carpets & Mattings

All the best kinds in large variety to please the most exacting requirements. Beautiful Oriental and Floral effects in all grades of Carpets, made, laid and lined free.

Ingrain - - - 75c
Brussells - 65c-1.00
Axminster - 1.10-1.25
Velvet - 1.00-1.35

Rugs.

You will enjoy the beautiful line of these popular goods we have in all the leading makes, well selected patterns in every kind from cheapest to best grade and at prices that are lowest now quoted.

Ingrain, 9x12 - 4.98-8.98
Brussells, 9x12 12.50-27.50
Axmin'r, 9x12 19.98-27.50
Velvet - 22.50-25.00

FURNITURE and BEDDING.

When buying these goods you need the dependable kind with the largest assortment of patterns to select from. This is what we offer you combined with lowest possible prices--prices for really good goods. Our large floor space is just crowded with nice clean desirable goods that will appeal to you.

Awnings.

Now is the time to plan your orders, for the hot weather will come and you will want good Awnings—and that's our kind, always the best.

Shades.

Get our estimate for your shade work, for we do a good job and do it reasonable—and carry the largest assortment of goods in this city.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON,

BABCOCK BUILDING, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

LADIES' AND GENT'S SUITS
CLEANED AND PRESSED

G. O. KELLER,

'PHONE 857-J 125 PARK AVENUE

DO NOT FAIL

to note the reduction in price of

Watchung Spring Water

to take effect May 1st, as follows:

Crate containing 6 bottles - - - - - 60c each
5 Gallon Demijohns - - - - - - 50c each

on and after May 1st

ORDER FROM YOUR GROCER

at the above prices, as our time is so occupied in shipping we are obliged to

DISCONTINUE LOCAL DELIVERIES

Try our WATCHUNG CARBONATED WATER and GINGER ALE at popular prices.

Watchung Spring Water Co.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. 4 27 6

BANDED SAILORS Black & Colors

Bonn's 140 West Front St.

BANDED SAILORS Black & Colors

TRIMMED HATS at $3, $4 and $5

Plenty to choose from, all colors, most desirable shapes, stylishly trimmed with choice materials, exceptionally good values.

For Misses and Children

Handsome Dress Hats at $3, $4 and $5.
School or Knockabout hats of servicable straws, simply trimmed, $1, $1.50 to $2.75.
Jap Straw Flats; all colors, each $1.25.
Daisies and Wild Flower Wreaths, reduced to 50c.
Ladies' Untrimmed Hats of fine Straws, all colors and black, formerly $2 to $2.75 now $150.
Fine French Flowers and Foliage, fancy Feathers and wearable Wings, all colors, splendid assortment at very moderate prices.

CARING FOR THE TREES

(Continued from page 1.)

park. These holes of course make homes for squirrels and owls, but we are not setting out trees for them. The same thing sometimes occurs when one or more chestnut trees grow up from the same stump of a tree that has been cut down. The young trees grow partially around the stump and when it decays it leaves an opening into the heart of the young trees and the decay in them forms a hollow which extends upwards until in some cases it is large enough so that a child or even an adult can stand within the tree. The proper treatment in cases of such holes or hollows is to cut out all the soft decayed wood and after treating the cavity to kill any fungus germs that may remain, fill it up with cement, as a dentist would a cavity in a tooth. If it is done properly, the new wood will grow out over the cement and completely envelop it.

As you know, trees, like everything else, have certain enemies that are continually preying on them and sapping their life. As in the human family, these diseases and enemies seem to increase with civilization. The reason possibly is that our manner of life and the crowding of large numbers into small areas upset the balances of Nature.

The worst enemy of our trees in Plainfield is at present the elm leaf beetle. If you will look up into the trees a little later and study the leaves of some of the elm trees, you will see that they are perforated with small holes like shot holes. This is the work of the adult beetle. The eggs are soon attached to the under side of the leaves, and when they are hatched the real harm begins. The young eat the leaves until nothing but the bare veins or framework of the leaves remain, and then they drop off in mid-summer and the trees are almost bare by August, when they should be clothed in green. The only thing to protect them from this pest is to spray the under side of the leaves with an insect poison, for if the elms are entirely stripped of their foliage for two years in succession the trees cannot survive this protracted cutting off of their breathing power. This is a comparatively recent pest and it will have to be conquered or kept in check, or we shall have no elms left. There are also the cotton maple scale, the oyster shell scale and a host of other pests, which can only be subdued by constant vigilance and aggressive warfare.

The trees have done a great deal in the building up of Plainfield by attracting residents here but they are all the time growing larger and in some of the older sections they shut the sunlight out so completely that the houses and grounds have become damp and undesirable for residence, and will continue to retrograde unless the trees are thinned out. People dislike to cut down shade trees, but it is absolutely necessary that we thin out some of them if we would preserve the beauty and healthfulness of the city."

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair tonight with frost in exposed places; Saturday, fair, warmer.

AMUSEMENTS.

New Plainfield Theatre

PLAYING ALL THE LEADING ATTRACTIONS
W. J. COUNIHAN - - - - Manager

TONIGHT—
AMATEUR NIGHT.

Salisbury's Popular Moving Pictures and Illustrated Songs.
Prices, 10c and 20c.

Saturday, Mat. and Night, May 2—
America's Sweetest Tenor and Yodler
JOE HORTIZ in
FRITZ THE WANDERING MUSICIAN.
PRICES—Matinee, 25c, 35c; Night, 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c.

Friday, May 8—
The Big Show
ROGERS BROTHERS in PANAMA
and a company of 75 people.
Prices 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50.

Watch and Wait for the Plainfield ALL STAR STOCK COMPANY, Headed by Alberta Galatin and an all Star Cast.

Capital and surplus $250,000.00

THE
FIRST NATIONAL BANK
of Plainfield.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS:
A. J. Brunson, President
J. A. Smith, Vice President
O. M. Runyon, Cashier

W. R. Coddington,
J. A. Hubbard,
C. Frank French,
S. F. Corlell,
P. J. Zeglio, M. D.
E. H. Bird.

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS DRAW FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

As William Pace was opening the doors of the furnace at the tower house at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, he was caught by the flames and severely burned about the hands, head and face. He was assisted to his home and Dr. Hughes, of North Plainfield, was at once sent for. He applied local remedies and greatly alleviated the suffering, but it will be a long time before the patient will resume work. Edward Alexandra is taking his place at the tower house at present.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church are planning for the annual strawberry and ice cream festival which will be held within the next few days.

Mrs. Howard Elliot, of Clinton avenue, is seriously ill and is being attended by her sister, Miss Louise Randolph.

Mrs. Patrick Kane is entertaining her sister, Miss Katherine McCarthy, of Elizabeth, for the next two weeks.

Mrs. Adam Deter, who has been staying with Mrs. Harris, has returned to her home in Newark.

Mrs. J. Skinner, of New York, is spending a few days with Mrs. Thomas Linabury.

A. M. RUNYON & SON, UNDERTAKERS.
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 10
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York Office—50 Great Jones Street, Tel. call, 3345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 315.

T. A. MOORE.
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.
Office—508 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 790
Residence—614 East 6th St. " 741-R
New York Office, 27 Great Jones St.
Telephone Call, 2249-Spring.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS.
Office 116 Park Av., Tel. 884-w. Res., 417 W. 2d St., Tel. 903-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2094 Gramercy

GEO. W. COLE.
UNDERTAKER & EMBALMER.
200 West Second St. Telephone 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

FLORIST
A. E. Lincoln, 307 Park Ave.
New stock of palms, ferns, flowering plants and everything in the florist line. Special prices on cut flowers and cut-flower work Floral design work for all occasions.
Tel. 322-W. 4 1 1m

Chas. L. Stanley,
159 East Front St. 'Phone 928.
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

L. L. MANNING & SON,
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Avenue and West Front Street. Opposite First Baptist Church.

DIED.

RATHBUN—On Wednesday, April 30, 1908, Mildred Amy, daughter of Lila J. and the late Frank Rathbun, aged 8 years, 1 month, 14 days.

Funeral services from the residence of her uncle, Amos Andrews, 1268 North avenue, on Friday, May 1, at 7:30 in the evening. Interment at Norwich, Conn.

MORROW—On Friday morning, May 1, at his late residence, 225 East Fifth street, Reverend William Bryce Morrow, in his seventieth year.

Funeral services at Grace church Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment at Carlisle, Pa. 5 1 2

Classified Advertisements

Rates for advertisements under this heading one cent a word for first insertion, one half a cent a word for consecutive insertions of the same advertisement running for less than one month; one month, fifty cents a line (6 words to a line), double rate for advertisement set in capitals.

No advertisements received for less than ten cents.

Copy for death and marriage notices and classified advertising accepted up to 2:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS is not at liberty to give any information regarding advertisements that require an address in care of this office. Persons answering these ads. should mail or leave answers as stated in advertisements.

Help Wanted.

WAITRESS wanted for a hotel, (white). Anderson's Employment office, 659 West Fourth street. 4 29 3

WANTED—Girl for general housework, with or without washing. Apply 34 Washington avenue. 4 29 3

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework. Apply with references, 1423 Watchung avenue. 4 29 tf

WANTED—Experienced chambermaid and waitress, white; must have references. Call 603 Park avenue. 4 28 tf

WANTED — Girl for general housework (white). 326 East Front street. 4 29 3

Fresh Vegetables

Asparagus, Wax Beans, Tomatoes,
Radishes, Beets, Lettuce,
Strawberries, Green Beans, Cucumbers.

Fruit

Oranges, Grape Fruit, Apples.
Malaga Grapes, Figs.

NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS—Watchung Avenue and Fifth Street.
Efficient and rapid delivery service to all parts of the city.

MONO
Fireproof Storage Warehouse.
Separate Rooms, Fireproof Partitions. Clean, Dry, Secure.
Inspection Invited—Open 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.
FURNITURE REMOVED WITH CARE.
Telephone 522-W. Opposite freight depot.

Help Wanted.

WANTED—10 salesmen, men or women; salary and commission. Apply C. H. Thorn, district manager Domestic Sewing Machine Co., 315 West Front street. 4 30 3

WANTED—Boy or young man, by the month, for outside work. Address W. H., Daily Press. 4 30 3

WANTED—a colored woman to do plain cooking with references. 515 Park avenue. 5 1 3

WANTED—First-class chambermaid, white; good wages. Apply 107 West Seventh street. 5 1 3

COOK, waitress and nurse maid wanted at once; white. Mrs. Anderson, 659 West Fourth street. 4 30 2

WANTED—White woman, a competent cook and laundress. 836 West Seventh street. 5 1 3

INFANT'S nurse wanted at once. Call Mrs. Keller's Intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. Tel. 196-W.

WANTED—Competent maid for general housework; no washing; references required. Apply 134 East Ninth street. 5 1 2

WANTED—Good girl for general housework; two in family; good home. Apply 711 Plainfield avenue. 4 29 4

WANTED—Woman as laundress and to assist with other work; must sleep home; references required. Apply 542 West Seventh street. 5 1 tf

WANTED—A cook with good references, white. Apply 1106 Park avenue.

WANTED—Cook, white, reference required. 10 Rockview Terrace. 4 29 3

Poultry and Eggs.

SETTING hens for sale. 48 Rock avenue. 5 1 5

EGGS FOR HATCHING—White Leghorn, White Plymouth Rocks, Buff Orpingtons and Pekin Ducks, from the best strains. Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, Tel. 451-J. 4 14 1m

EGGS FOR HATCHING—Fishel strain; White Rocks, $1 per 13; Gardner and Dunning and Welles strain; Barred Rocks, $2; Black Minorcas, $1. Barred Rock Cockerels for sale. No. 1041 Dunellen avenue. 4 9 1m

SETTINGS of 13 from prize stock. Blk Minorca $1.50, Buff Orpington $3 White or Partridge Wyandotte $2. 100, $10; 50, $5. 234 West 2nd St. 4 3 tf

140 EGG Cyphers incubator for sale, 1906 model; perfect condition. Address Incubator, care Press. 4 30 6

INCUBATOR chicks for sale. Apply 9 Codington avenue. 4 30 6

EGGS for setting, from Orpingtons, Black Leghorns, Indian Game, and India Runner Ducks, corner Grant and Sherman Aves. 3 25 tf

R. I. RED, Barred Plymouth Rock and White Leghorn eggs from the leading strains of the country; $1 per sitting, $5 per hundred. George Howard, Jr., South Bound Brook, N. J 2 21 3m

Situations Wanted.

UNITED States Tea and Coffee Co. want drivers and salesman; must furnish best of reference; none but strictly sober men need apply. Office 1020 East Front street. 4 29 3

COMPETENT help constantly on hand; white and colored. Hall's Employment Agency (originally The Plainfield), station driveway; 'phone 322-J. 4 22 1m

Situations Wanted.

EXPERIENCED chambermaid and seamstress wants situation. Call Mrs. Keller's Intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. Tel. 196-W.

GIRL with Plainfield references would like position as chambermaid or waitress; willing to go away. Address S. S., care Press. 4 29 3

WANTED—Fine washing at home. Call 619 West Third street. 4 27 6

DRESSMAKER would like work by the week in family; good remodeler; references. S., 604 West Seventh street. 5 1 6

RESPECTABLE woman wishes work by the day; laundry or housecleaning. Address T. B., care Press. 5 1 3

COLLEGE student desires employment during summer vacation, qualified to tutor, willing to do anything; has had some business experience. Address Student, care Daily Press. 4 27 6

SOUTHERN girls on hand May 6, just from South. 236 Henderson St., Jersey City. S. Harris. 5 1 2

COOKS and general houseworkers want places; Plainfield references. Call Mrs. Keller's office, 22 Somerset place. Tel. 196-W. 5 1 2

SEVEN experienced waitresses want situations. Mrs. Keller's Intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. Tel. 196-W.

COOKS, waitresses, chambermaid and general houseworkers want positions. Anderson Employment office, 659 West Fourth street. 'Phone 508-W. 4 27 eod

FIRST-CLASS chambermaids, seamstresses and nursemaids want positions. Mrs. Reinhold, 222 New street. Telephone 1321-W. 4 29 3

THREE girls want positions at general housework. Apply Mrs. Anderson's Employment office. 'Phone 508-W.

TWO first-class chambermaids and waitresses on hand at Mrs. Murray's registry, 726 West Front street. 5 1 2

CHAUFFEUR, Japanese, single, machinist, sober, honest, careful driver; two years' experience; any gasoline cars; auto engineering college graduate, wants position in private family; excellent references; moderate wages. Address F. B., care Press. 4 25 7

Rooms and Board.

GOOD accommodations; low rates. Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

FEW boarders wanted. Mrs. M. Fosbre, 659 Essex street. 5 1 12

LARGE front room with or without board. 137 East Fifth street. 5 1 6

TWO pleasant connecting rooms and small rooms, with first-class board. 406 East Fifth street. 4 29 6

TO LET—Newly furnished room in select apartment; centre of town; all improvements. A. C., care Press. 4 27 6

ROOMS to let with first class board. 29 Washington Ave. 4 25 6

WATCHUNG AVE., 724, near 7th St., desirable rooms with first class board. 4 13 1m

TWO communicating rooms with board; sunny exposure; bath adjoining; first class neighborhood; excellent table. 132-134 Crescent avenue. 9 19 tf

FURNISHED rooms with or without board. 440 East Sixth street. 4 28 6

CAN accommodate two gentlemen with rooms and board. 141 East Fifth street. 2 10 tf

For Rent.

FLAT to let. Inquire 18—Craig place. 4 14 tf

TO LET—House in West End; city water; $9. George J. Finger, 120 West Front street. 4 17 tf

TWO furnished rooms for rent. Inquire 8 Craig place. 4 29 3

FOR RENT—Apartment, four rooms, bath room, all improvements, steam heat; in fine condition; rent $18; location, corner Fifth street and Watchung avenue. Apply to A. M. Lederer, 117 West Front St. 4 23 tf

FOR RENT—New house just completed; seven rooms and bath; rent $21. Address O. I. C., Daily Press. 4 24 tf

TO LET—Eight room house, on West Fourth street, near Park avenue; all newly papered and painted; city water and gas. B. Mann, 120 West Fourth street. 4 28 tf

FLAT TO LET—Five rooms and bath. Call 404 Liberty street. 4 29 3

FOR RENT—Store on Richmond street; also stable for one horse. Apply George Staats, 306 Richmond street. 4 29 6

FOR RENT—Two rooms on Liberty street, Plainfield. Address P. O. Box 255, Dunellen. 4 29 3

TO LET—5 room house. Inquire 117 West Second street. 4 29 3

FOR RENT—5 room flat in Dunellen; all improvements; also 4 rooms. B. Siriski, Dunellen, N. J. 4 29 3

SEVEN room house; all improvements. 98 Jackson avenue. Apply 84 Fairview avenue. 4 29 6

FOR RENT—Commodious offices in the Woodhull & Martin building suitable for lawyers, dentists, insurance companies, etc.; will arrange to suit tenant. 4 20 tf

THREE rooms to let. 732 West Third street. 4 6 tf

SEVEN-ROOM apartments to let; all improvements. 937 West Front street; also six-room house. 3 28 tf

TO LET—New 6-room house; $16. Inquire Kinsman, Dunellen. 4 1 tf

COMMODIOUS new 8-room house on West Front street; all improvements, including gas and electric light; large garden and lawn and a variety of fruit; rent very reasonable. Robert Murray, 726 West Front street. 5 1 2

NEW six-room house to let, 1219 West Third street; six-room house, 1424 Willever street, near Safe Works; two apartments, four rooms each, all improvements, or the whole house, 216 Prescott place. J. Sacher, 731 West Third St. 4 3 tf

ROOMS to let. 11 Grove street. 4 30 6

TO LET—Two or three nice rooms, unfurnished, for light housekeeping; bath same floor; five minutes from station. 410 New street. 4 30 2

TWO or three rooms to let, adjoining bath. 435 West Fifth. 4 27 4

TO RENT—Second and third stories of 316 and 318 West Front street, 50x85 feet. Jos. W. Gavett. 4 3 tf

TO LET—9-room house, all improvements; 3 Verdon street. G. W. V. Moy. 3 13 tf

TO LET—4 rooms, upper floor, water. John Manley, insurance, 321 Park avenue. 3 17 tf

Real Estate Agents.

HOUSES, new, for sale or rent, all improvements, excellent location, East End. Inquire M. A. Rose, 301 Watchung avenue, 'Phone 273-J. 4 14 1m

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent or exchange. Edmund Rushmore, 209 North avenue, telephone No. 49 Plainfield; 42 Broadway, New York 10 10 tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield; telephone 44. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; properties that I have picked up in trade that I can sell you for less than market prices; if you want to buy or have anything to sell come and see me. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, 39 Prospect place, North Plainfield. 11 20 tf

REAL ESTAE for sale, rent and exchange at bargain figures, insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

FOR SALE—If you want to buy or sell real estate, please call, write or 'phone Ira L. LaRue, next to station, next to bargain. Office 'phone 752-R, residence 'phone 845-L. 12 19 tf

Real Estate for Exchange.

FINE new house, centrally located; 10 rooms, all improvements; gas and electric light, hot water heating, parquet floors; would exchange for moderate priced lots. J. T. Vail, 177 North Ave. 4 14 tf

Miscellaneous.

COMPLETE line of automobile supplies and tires at lowest New York prices. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

STORAGE for wagon and sleighs. Hand's Boarding Stable, 136 East Second street. 4 13 1m

AUTOMOBILES to hire at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co., telephone 991-J. 4 15 3m

A FIRST CLASS place to turn out horses to recruit, will have good attention; also storage for wagons. Address I., care Daily Press. 4 13 1m

STENOGRAPHIC and typewriting office; all kinds of work handled by an experienced stenographer. Miss Haskard, Babcock building, Tel. 205. 4 7 1m

FIRST-CLASS places and first-class help always on hand. Swedish Intelligence Office, 22 Somerset place, 'Phone 196-W. 8 22 tf

AUTOMOBILES repaired and overhauled by first class mechanics at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

ASHES or rubbish removed, city or borough; good soil for sale. Geo. Miller, 518 West Fourth street. 4 29 3

GRADING, LAWNS REMODELED, SOIL AND SOD FURNISHED; PLANTS AND SHRUBS PLANTED, ETC.; PROMPT, SATISFACTORY. J. M. WELSH, 754 KENSINGTON AVENUE. TEL. 148-J. 4 27 6

GOOD pasture for horses; plenty of water and shade; also 5 tons good hay for sale. H. C. Compton, 1014 West Front street. 4 29 3

PAINTING and Paperhanging; wall papers; estimates given; references. Address Painter, care Daily Press. 4 27 6

MRS. R. Murray's Registry and Employment Bureau for first-class help only; all nationalities. 726 West Front street. Main line cars pass the door. 5 1 2

THE EXCHANGE, 325 West Front street, telephone 901-R. Do you have furniture, carpets, etc., for sale? Do not fail to notify us; we pay 50 per cent. more than anybody else. 11 29 tf

LAWN mowers ground and set at your own place. Richard Thomas, Dunellen. 4 29 6

PLAINFIELD 5 and 10 cent messages and package delivery office. George J. Finger's shoe store, 120 West Front street. 'Phone 874-J. 4 29 3

GARBAGE removed regularly and reasonably. George Christensen, R. F. D. No. 1. 4 21 1m

IF YOU want your watch, clock or jewelry repaired take them to Brown, 124 Watchung Ave. 4 18 1m

STALLS to rent. Hand's Boarding Stable, 136 East Second St. 4 13 1m

PRIVATE storage for carriages, sleighs, furniture, etc. 85 Duer street. 4 28 6

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S., graduate American Veterinary College, N. Y., pet animals a specialty. OFFICE WITH ALBERT HEDDEN, livery, 118 East Fourth street, telephone 114-J. 1 27 tf

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans, Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 4 tf

BABIES crochet sacques for sale; all prices; also ladies' knitted sweaters made to order. Mrs. Mayer, 54 Pearl street, North Plainfield. tf

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer; sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

CESSPOOLS and vaults cleaned, odorless excavator; good work; lowest prices. T. M. Ingraham, Plainfield R. F. D. No. 1. 12 10 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

Money to Loan.

MONEY to loan on first mortgage. Louis A. Clement, lawyer, Babcock building. 4 27 6

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite Depot. 12 28 tf

MONEY to loan on band and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 12 18 tf

LOANS negotiated. J. T. Vail. 1 14 tf

TO LOAN—Money on good mortgages. George F. Brown, 94 Somerset street. tf

Lost and Found.

FOUND—Umbrella at Griffen's store.

LOST—On Sunday, a brindle bull, 7 months old, female, with four white feet, white tip tail and white neck. Letson, 925 East Seventh St.

LOST—On Sunday, a spotted coach dog, answers to the name of "Spades." Finder please return to E. S. Hooley, 70 Rockview avenue; reward. 4 20 tf

For Sale.

4-ROOM cottage; acre of land; $2,200. Wm. Bourgeois, Laramie road. 5 1 1m

FOR SALE, RENT OR EXCHANGE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; also country homes and farms at bargain prices. C. H. Snyder, 221 Park avenue, room 4. 4 18 1m

FOR SALE—1907 35 H. P. four-cylinder St. Louis touring car; fully equipped, 5 lamps, generator, cape top, etc.; good as new; speedy powerful and absolutely noiseless; bargain. Thompson, 413 Park Ave. 4 24 7

FARM FOR SALE—Four acres, all tillable, well adapted for a chicken farm; house six rooms, stable for four horses; situate about one mile from Plainfield, N. J. Inquire of John P. Emmons, 197 North avenue. 5 1 6

FOR SALE—Oak dining-room table, first-class condition; reasonable. Address Bargain, care Press. 4 30 3

GIVING up horses. Contents of stable for sale; fine combination saddle and driving horse, sound, fearless and kind, 9 years old; Brewster Victoria, depot wagon, phaeton, sleigh, rugs and blankets; all in excellent condition; prices reasonable. Can be seen Friday or Saturday next at Stables, No. 9 Rockview Terrace, Plainfield, N. J. 4 30 2

FOR SALE—A fine bay mare, thoroughly broke for riding or driving; a lady can use; also rubber tired runabout, harness, etc. Will sell seperately. "The Homestead," Fanwood. 5 1 3

STANHOPE carriage in fine condition; has been used little; good for pleasure or for doctor's carriage. Address Stanhope, care Daily Press. 4 30 3

FOR SALE—Glenns Falls natural wood open two seat wagon, canopy top, at half price. Address W. E. Lowe, 49 Wall street, New York. 4 30 6

FOR SALE—Good strong work horse. Apply 163 Somerset street. 4 29 3

FOR SALE cheap, conservatory glass and sahr. Inquire 1125 East Seventh street. 5 1 3

BOYS' bicycle for sale cheap. Apply 124 Westervelt avenue, borough. 5 1 2

FOR SALE—A good gray horse, 8 years old; warranted sound, kind and true; useful animal. Address Horse, care Press. 4 29 3

FOR SALE a few pair of English pheasants, mated for breeding; also eggs at $3 per setting. J. McCann, North Ave. and Berckman St. 4 20 12

HOUSE for sale or rent, seven rooms; also barn and wagon shed; partial improvements. 1228 Columbia avenue, Netherwood. 4 30 3

FAST pacing mare for sale for want of use. Can be seen at 146 East Fifth street. 4 30 3

FOR SALE—Finely bred sorrel horse, rubber tired runabout and light buggy harness; may be seen at 37 Albert St. 4 20 tf

PIANO BARGAINS—$75, $100, $125, in slightly used high grade upright pianos, like new; Steinway sacrifice; why pay agents' enormous profit; see us; lowest prices; best terms. Hadley's, 315 West Front St. 4 3 1m

FOR SALE—Oldsmobile runabout, good shape, new tires; top and rear seat, $125. 413 Park avenue. 4 27 6

FOR SALE—The finest lot in Plainfield, on which to build a row of apartment houses. Chas. L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building, Plainfield, N. J. 2 21 tf

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

Wanted—Miscellaneous.

WANTED—Atlas of Union county; state price to Atlas, care Daily Press. 4 30 6

WANTED—One horse platform or farm wagon. C. F., Press Office. 4 27 eodtf

WANTED — Butcher's ice box, good condition. Wm. Olson, 224 New street. 4 29 3 eod

WANTED—Two or three rooms for light housekeeping. Good location. Address J. J., care Press. 4 27 6

WANTED—Five or six room house, with or without improvements, the 15th of May, for two adults; must be centrally located; rent moderate. Address S. S., care Press. 4 27 6

WANTED—Cheap, strong horse for mower. Address, stating terms, D, Daily Press. 4 27 6

IN ONE DAY
we list more positions in our 12 offices than you can reach by a year's advertising and personal effort. There are hundreds of positions now open for salesmen, executive, clerical and technical men as well as male instructors. $600-$5,000. Let us tell you how our unique confidential service helps the ambitious man, how we can market your ability at best salary.
HAPGOODS (INC.), Brain Brokers
305-309 Broadway, New York City.

SILENT BUT FAMOUS MEN

Celebrities That Have Been Noted as Misers of Words in the World's History.

SOME NOTABLE EXAMPLES.

Have Been as Sparing of Language as They Have Been Prodigal of Deeds of Renown.

It is a curious and interesting fact that many of the world's greatest men have been as sparing of words as they have been prodigal of deeds.

It is doubtful if there ever lived a more taciturn man than Wallenstein, the famous commander of the Austrian army during the thirty years' war. It is said of Wallenstein that he "lived in an atmosphere of silence" and never uttered a word that was not absolutely necessary, nor would he permit others to speak in his presence more than was essential. One of his chamberlains was hanged for waking Wallenstein with needless noise. His servants were so many mutes, not daring to open their lips in his presence, and he was surrounded by patrols, and the approaches to his house were barricaded by chains to preserve him from the least disturbance. In comparison with Walenstein, it has been recorded, Diogenes would have been a chatterbox and William the Saint a brawler.

But silence is a characteristic of many of the world's most famous soldiers. Napoleon boasted that in his dealings with men he never wasted a word and made monosyllables answer most purposes. But nothing escaped his eyes, and he could compress more within a sentence than most men could convey in a quarter of an hour.

The great Duke of Marlborough when receiving reports from his generals would produce his watch and say, "I will give you a minute." And it was likely to go hard with the officer who did not observe the limitation. To his staff the Duke of Wellington was always more or less a sphnix. A nod or a shake of the head was often the only response they could get from him, and when once he was asked what he considered the best equipment of a commander he answered, "A long head and a silent tongue."

Von Moltke almost rivated Wallenstein in teciturnity. He never opened his mouth if a gesture would suffice, and when the news was brought to him that the French had declared war he simply said to the aid-de-camp, "Second pigeonhoe on the right, first tier," and turned round to sleep again. But he had said all that was necessary, for in the pigeonhole indicated were complete plans for the campaign which closed in brilliant victory. Von Moltke used to say that one verb in the German language was worth all the others put together, and that was "thun"—"to do."

The worst thing his enemies could say of President Grant was, "He won't talk because he has so much to conceal," and yet it was precisely in this silence that Grant's real strength lay. His orders and dispatches were the briefest ever penned, and when once a charming young lady playfully asked him why he would not talk to her he answered, "My dear, don't you know that silence is one of the greatest arts of conversation?"

But it has been the same in all ages. Charlemagne was a perfect miser of words, holding, with Confucius, that "silence is a friend that will never betray;" Hannibal was a "man of monosyllables," and Julius Caesar was nicknamed by his soldiers "The Oracle."

Even great statesman and writers who cannot suffer from any lack of words have often been among the most reserved of men. Of Addison, Johnson says, "Of his external manners nothing is so often mentioned as that timorous or sullen taciturnity which his friends called modesty by too mild a name." According to Chesterfield, he was "the most timorous and awkard man I ever saw," and even Addison himself, speaking of his own deficiency in conversation used to say. "I can draw bills for a thousand pounds, though I haven't a guinea in my pocket."

Dryden was unutterably dreary as a companion. "My conversation is slow," he once wrote, "my humor saturnine and reserved, and I am none of those who endeavor to break jests in company and make repartees." And Shadwell tells how he once dined with Dryden, and from the beginning to the end of the meal the poet "never opened his lips except to eat."

Thomas Carlyle was a "boarder of the gold of silence" and would sit for hours, puffing away at his pipe, without uttering more than a grunt or a gruff monosyllable. Leigh Hunt, his neighbor and intimate, once wrote to a friend: "Have just spent a pleasant hour with Carlyle. When I went in he growled, 'Hallos; here again!' and at parting he snapped out, 'Good day!' and that is the sum of the conversation he honored me with. But how eloquent his silence is! I just sat and looked at him and came away strengthened for fresh struggle."

—For best results try a Press want ad.

COOPER MET USUAL SUCCESS IN PITTSBURG

Received Thanks from Hundreds While in the Smoky City.

The following article, taken from the Pittsburg Press, describes the results of L. T. Cooper's visit to that city, and the effect of his new preparation as told by people who had become convinced of the soundness of Cooper's theories with regard to the human stomach.

Cooper believes that the human stomach in civilized races has become greatly weakened. He claims that most ill health of the present generation is due to this fact. The article is as follows:

"L. T. Cooper is meeting with the same astonishing success in Pittsburg as in other cities. For the past few days many thousands of Pittsburg people have called at his headquarters to talk with him.

"Cooper's prophecy, made upon his arrival, to the effect that before he left Pittsburg thousands would realize that his theory is correct and would come and thank him for what his medicine had done, is rapidly being borne out.

"On Monday an astonishing number of people called to express their gratitude to Mr. Cooper. Judging from what some of these people had to say to a Press reporter, when interviewed, Cooper's claim that the human stomach is degenerate is distinctly verified.

"One of the most unusual statements was made by Mr. C. W. Woods, of 103 South Highland Street. He said: 'For four years my wife was in very poor health. She was weak and thin, with a hectic flush and cough. Physicians said she had consumption, and I was inclined to believe them. It certainly looked as though her days were numbered, and there appeared to be very little ground for hope.

"'Shortly after Mr. Cooper came to Pittsburg I began to hear of wonderful results that had been obtained by persons who had tried his medicine, so I got some for my wife. She had taken it only two days when she was relieved of a tapeworm 42 feet long. She began to improve immediately—has gained seven pounds since she began taking the medicine. She feels splendid and looks very much better. If any one doubts this statement I would be pleased to have them call at my house and verify it.'"

The Cooper remedies are becoming justly famous. We sell them. —T. S. Armstrong.

LAWN MOWERS
Sharpened and Repaired

Having Installed Electric Power and Improved Grinding Machinery I Can Insure Prompt and Satisfactory Work.

A. M. GRIFFEN,
119-123 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.
'PHONES 6 and 214

SALE

FURNITURE,
BEDS, BEDDING,
FLOOR COVERINGS.

At this season of the year you surely need something new in Furniture, Beds, Bedding, Mattings, Rugs, Oil Cloths, Linoleums, Window Shades or Awnings. We have prepared to meet your requirements with the new Spring stock and invite inspection.

L. B. VAN CAMP
Front and Somerset Streets, Tel. 868-J

112 Piece Decorated Dinner Sets, $7.00
Odds and Ends of Dinner Sets at Half Price

JOS. W. GAVETT.
W. Front St.

Rich Milk 8c a quart.
Rich Cream 12c half pt.
Buttermilk 6c a quart

Plainfield Milk & Cream Co,
MARCHANT BROS.,
112 WATCHUNG AYENUE

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

Scheuer's Special Bargains
For Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

SCHEUER'S BEST XXXX MINNESOTA PATENT FLOUR, 24½ lb bag 85c; a bbl .. $6.50

Borden's Eagle Brand Condensed Milk, a can 12½c	Burnham's Clam Chowder, 18c size, a can 14c	Armour's Corned Beef, 25c size, 2-lb can 19c	Quaker Toasted Corn Flakes, 10c size, a package 8c
Fancy California Evaporated Peaches, a lb 15c	Curtis' Blue Label Catsup, 25c size, a bottle 19c	Beechnut Bacon, large size, reg. 28c, a jar 24c	Swift's Pride Laundry Soap, ten 5c cakes 34c
White Rolled Oats, Fresh Milled, 6-lb bag 25c	Large Queen Olives 25c size, a bottle 21c	Shredded Codfish, 5c kind, a package 3c	Fresh Scallops, Gold Coin Brand, pint can 18c

BEST ELGIN CREAMERY BUTTER, a lb 30c

Lemon Crackers, fresh packed, a lb 5c	National Biscuit Co.'s Uneeda Biscuits, a package 4c	Manzanilla Olives, in bulk, a quart 22c	Swift's Toilet Soap, 3 cakes in box 10c
Fruit Puddine, Rose Vanilla, 10c kind, a package 8c	Jello Jelly Powder, assorted flavors, 10c kind, a package 8c	Pure Jelly Grape or Apple, tumbler 10c	Beechnut Peanut Butter, 10c size, a glass 8c

PREMIUM PURE FRUIT JAM, Apricot, Pear, Peach, Green Gage, 20c kind, a large jar, very special 14c

Best Head Rice (whole grain), 3 lbs for 25c	Dr. Johnson's Educator Bran Meal, 2½-lb pkg. 18c
Choice Carolina Rice, 3 lbs for 20c	Dr. Johnson's Educators, bulk, lb 18c
McCann's Irish Oatmeal, 5-lb can 55c	Dr. Johnson's Toasterettes, bulk, lb 25c
Shimmell's Pure Apple Butter, 3-lb crock.....27c	Educator Butter Crackers, a package 16c
California Evaporated Peaches, lb 15c	Johnson's Educator Ginger Cookies.....23c
Evaporated Apples, lb.....14c	Johnson's Educator Bran Cookies 25c
White or Yellow Meal, 6-lb bag 20c	Fancy Large Layer Figs, 2 lbs 25c
Rye or Graham Flour, 6-lb bag 20c	Choice Pulled Figs, a lb 18c
Scotch Oatmeal, 5c lb, 6 lbs 25c	Fard Dates (small pit), lb 10c
Fine Hominy, 3 lbs for 10c	Pecan Nut Meat, a lb 49c
Maxwell's Potato Chips, pkg 8c	English Walnut Meat, a lb 39c
	Valencia Shelled Almonds, a lb 39c

WATCHUNG SPRING WATER, six 1½ gallon bottles reduced..... 60c case

New Florida Potatoes, pony basket 45c	Large Juicy Lemons, dozen 15c	California Navel Oranges, a dozen 25c, 35c, 40c	Fresh Green String Beans, a quart 12c

MAN-A-CEA WATER, best for indigestion, stops that distress after eating ½ gallon bot..45c

10 STAMPS WITH ANY OF THE FOLLOWING ARTICLES:

3-lb Box Laundry Starch ...20c	1 bottle Ammonia 10c	1 package Spaghetti 10c
4-lb pgk. Grandma's Washing Powder 18c	1 box Shaker Salt 10c	1 package Black Pepper 10c
1 bottle Laundry Blue 10c	1 bot. Lemon Extract..10c or 15c	7-lb bag Salt 10c
1 Box Ball Blue 10c	1 bot. Vanilla Extract.10c or 15c	3-lb box Cal. Prunes 25c
6 cakes Scheuer's Soap 25c	1 bottle 3-In-1 Oil 10c	1 package, 12 boxes, Parlor Matches 12c
1 box Allen's Tooth Powder..10c	1 bottle Bixby Royal Polish..10c	2 pkgs Tooth Picks for 10c
	2 cakes Gondola Toilet Soap..10c

Southern Belle Flour for Bread and Pastry use. 24½ lb bag 69c; a bbl - - - - $5.45

IN OUR MEAT DEPARTMENT.

Fancy Roasting Chickens, lb 20c	Sugar Cured Ham, lb 14c
Choice Young Fowl, lb 18c	Boneless Bacon, lb 16c
Legs of Jersey Veal, lb 16c	Best Salt Pork, lb 12c
Rump of Veal, lb 14c	Plate or Brisket Corned Beef, lb 8c
Loin of Veal, lb 16c	Pork Sausage, 2 lbs for 25c
Fresh Hamburg Steak, lb 12c	Fresh Pork Loin (for roasting), lb 15c

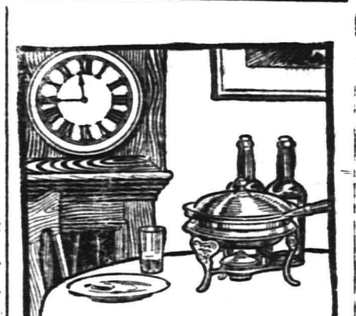
1886 1908
Our Twenty-Second Anniversary Sale
Spring Suits & Top Coats

We are now showing one hundred patterns in Spring Suits and an array of O'Coats that will meet with the approval of the most critical—unusual assortment of Suits in the colors most popular this year, Browns, Greens, Olives, Blues—Sack Suits, $10 to $25.
O'Coats, $10 to $25
Our Furnishing Department is brim full of all the new styles of Shirts, Neckwear, Hats, Caps, Gloves, etc.

Clothing Made to Your Order

WERNER'S Clothing House,
206 West Front Street

"HARD TIMES" DO NOT EFFECT THE SALE OF
"HAWES" $3.00 HATS
WHY?—BECAUSE THEY ARE GUARANTEED
JAS. R. BLAIR



Late Suppers

Welsh rarebits, lobster salads and the like nearly always produce distressing after-effects. Rich food taken at irregular hours, not only causes temporary derangement of the stomach and bowels, but often brings about chronic dyspepsia and indigestion.

If you will eat all kinds of food at all kinds of hours, you can prevent unpleasant consequences by taking

DR. D. JAYNE'S SANATIVE PILLS

For Liver Complaints, Gout, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, Costiveness, Sick Headache, Biliousness and all Bowel Affections, Jayne's Sanative Pills are undoubtedly the oldest, most reliable and effective remedy known. Can be taken as a dinner pill, laxative, purgative or cathartic. Never gripe.

Sold by all druggists, in two size boxes, 25c. and 50c.

Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is a natural, gentle and effective tonic. Splendid for dyspeptics, as it acts directly on the stomach, toning and strengthening that organ, and enabling it to do its work properly.

FATHER'S SKULL BROKEN SON LODGED IN JAIL.

New Brunswick, May 1.—Isaac Meseroll, of 284 Comstock street, is in the hospital with a fractured skull, and his son, Lawrence Meseroll, twenty years old, is in the county jail, committed to await the result of his father's injuries. It is alleged that young Meseroll beat in his father's head with a cobblestone during a fight early yesterday morning.

John Gash, of 278 Comstock street, was awakened by the noise of men quarreling and raised his window just int time to see one man go down under the blows of the other. He pointed his revolver at the man who was standing, and told him to stop beating the other or he would shoot. The man took to his heels.

The elder Meseroll was found lying in a pool of blood. Near him were two blood stained cobblestones. Lawrence Meseroll was arrested later, and in his pocket, according to the police, were found two large stones. The authorities say that he admitted having had a fight with his father.

A QUEER LIGHTHOUSE.

Lampless Beacon in the Hebrides Lights the Mariner's Way.

On Armish rock in the Hebrides, Scotland, there is a lighthouse without a light. That does not mean that the light has been removed from it; that the house is no longer used for its legitimate purpose. On the contrary, it serves as a beacon for the sailors and fishermen every night, and yet there is no light in it.

It is perhaps the most remarkable lighthouse in the world. It is conical in shape, and at the summit is a lantern in which there is a mirror. On Lewis island, 500 feet distant, is an ordinary lighthouse, and from a window in its tower a stream of light is thrown on the mirror in the Armish rock lantern. The rays of this light are rflected to an arrangement of prisms, which make them converge to a focus outside the lantern, and from there they diverge in the necessary direction. Thus a lighthouse exists that has neither lamp nor keeper, and yet it serves all the purposes in its locality of a costly and elaborate structure with all the accessories that modern lighthouses have.

DIED AS HIS BROTHER DID.

Funeral of Othneil De Forest, of Summit, Who Expired of Heart Trouble.

Summit, May 1.—The funeral of Othneil De Forest, who dropped dead in his office in Broome street, New York, Tuesday, from an attack of heart trouble, was held yesterday, interment being in the Long Hill Cemetery. About six months ago, while he was abroad, his brother, William H. De Forest, Jr., died suddenly from heart trouble in his home in Crescent avenue.

The borthers had been engaged for many years in the silk manufacturing business, operating mills in the Palisades and this city. The local mill closed yesterday, but whether the death of Mr. De Forest, who was treasurer of the Summit Silk Manufacturing Company, will cause the mills to be closed permanently, could not be learned today, although some of the employes have been notified not to report for work until notified to do so.

HOME NOTES.

If you scorch a garment when ironing it, rub a lump of dry starch on the mark, then sponge it off. Repeat till the yellow disappears.

To prevent a torn placket place a hook and eye near the bottom of your skirt opening. Never unhook this, and your skirt will never be torn.

The pulverized washing powders last much longer if used from a talcum powder shaker. A baking powder can with holes punched through the lid may be utilized for the purpose.

Spots of wagon grease may be removed from cotton goods by moistening slightly a piece of common brown laundry soap and rubbing it on the spot thickly. Let remain three or four hours and then wash in cold water.

Portieres that are faded can be redyed at small expense. There are several who guarantee the result, provided a sample of the new color desired is furnished. Faded carpets have also been satisfactorily dyed.

Fire Team on Conditions.

William G. Peckham, of Westfield, who presented to the town fire department its first horse, has offered to give the department a team of horses for the new hook and ladder truck, provided Fred C. Decker, chief of the department, will resign. Mr. Decker says he will resign if the town Council wants the team. Mr. Peckham had an argument with the chief at a fire, several months ago, hence the qualification to his offer of the team.

Year's Fire Loss $15.

New Brunswick, May 1.—Chief John V. Puerschner today announced that the net loss to people of this city by fire last year was $15. The total loss from fire was but $6,786.54 all but $15 of which was paid by the insurance companies. Common Council last night appropriated $12,500 for the support of the fire department.

The Sunshine Mission Band of the Crescent avenue Presbyterian church, held a sewing meeting yesterday.

PATENTS FOR JERSEYMEN.

Patents that were issued to Jerseymen the 28th day of April:

Apparatus for lustreing skeins, D. Ashley, Paterson; field adjusting device for electric generators and motors, F. O. Ball, North Plainfield; puff comb, W. S. Bechtold, Newark; swinging window catch, P. Boggio, West Hoboken; watch guard, H. N. Bolton, Paterson; illuminated sign, W. Booth, Edgewater; firing tool for brick kiln furnaces, E. H. Callaway, Westfield; furnace door, A. Cotton, Newark; self-closing drawer, V. A. De Canio, Union Hill; guard for eyeglasses, W. I. Dengler, Atlantic City; pneumatic valve, G. F. Dohring, Cranford; revolving door, H. W. Dyer East Orange; generating and delivering gas under uniform pressure, W. C. Finck, Elizabeth; thread cutting mechanism for sewing machines, G. S. Gatchell, Elizabeth; means for sealing vessels, J. S. Hicks, Summit; system of electrical distribution, A. S. Hubbard, Belleville; dyeing machine, J. Hussong, Camden; ironing machine, J. S. Langworthy, East Orange; sign letter, G. L. Mason, Newark; car underframe, W. McIntosh, North Plainfield; master sheet, P. J. Meahl, Bayonne, conveying apparatus, T. S. Miller, South Orange; apparatus for packing canes, T. W. Morrell, Bloomfield; trolley pole head, A. G. Koenig, Weehawken; telephone stand, W. E. Oliver Collingswood; rotary compressor, C. C. Palmer, Cranford; railway rail joint, W. H. Reel, Pennsgrove; knitted fabric, R. W. Scott, Leeds Point; steering rod connection, J. F. Skirrow, East Orange; means for producing motive power, J. L. Ttate, Jersey City; umbrella, W. B. Thines, Trenton; ignition system for explosion engines, R. Varley, Englewood; ribbozine machine, C. Wiebke, Newark. Designs—Bag handle cap, C. Hiering and A. Fuller, Newark; pedestal for lavatories, E. C. Stover, Trenton. Trademarks—Two, spool cotton and thread, spool cotton, knitting and embroidery cotton and thread, spool cotton, sewing cotton, knitting yarns and thread, American Thread Company, Jersey City, certain agricultural machinery, Bateman Manufacturing Company, Grenloch; ledger paper, bond paper and drawing paper, Keuffel & Esser Company, Hoboken; candies, National Candy Company, Jersey City; non-alcoholic liquid flavoring for beverages, H. A. Seyd, Maywood. Labels—"Nipper Brand," Red Rock Spring Water Company, Spring Valley.

NEW JERSEY CORPORATIONS.

Trenton, May 1.—Certificates of incorporation have this day been granted to the following companies:

Seaboard Engineering and Construction Company, Asbury Park; capital, $125,000; incorporators, Waldo U. Kurtz, Angela J. Flynn and F. T. Haverstick; to act as electrical engineers.

The North Jersey Paint Company, West Orange; capital, $125,000; incorporators, John E. Helm, Hugo Boepple, Jr., and John G. Van Blarcom; to manufacture paints, etc.

John Taylor Fish Company, Holly Beach; capital, $2,000; incorporators, John B. Morton, Frank P. Downs and John Taylor; to deal in fish and sea food.

Coatesville Laundry Company, Camden; capital, $50,000; incorporators, E. C. Lee, W. K. Stager, and Fred Balcom; to operate steam laundries.

Champion Lumber Company, Camden; capital, $125,000; incorporators, Victor J. Humbrecht, George H. Knowles and Michael W. Walsh; to deal in lumber, etc.

Willing to Qualify.

A few days ago a recruit was taken to be sworn in by the magistrate. Everything was going on swimmingly till the magistrate asked the man the following quetion: "Have you ever been in prison?"

At this the man looked starfled; but, quickly recovering himself, he blurted out, "No, sir, I have never been in jail, but I don't mind doing a few days if you think it necessary."—London Mail.

We have purchased the Meat and Provision business conducted by Fred Endress and it will be conducted as The Endress Co. The same high standard and quality of Meats, Poultry and Provisions will be maintained.

The Meats we select will give satisfaction, because they are the best obtainable.

PRIME RIB ROAST

cut from native cattle, very choice and tender, select cuts of Sirloin and Porterhouse Steaks, Chops, Cutlets, Poultry, etc. Give us a trial and be convinced. Prices lower than quality deserves.

The ENDRESS CO.
131-135 West Front Street.
'Phone 690.

L. S. Plaut & Co.
"BEE HIVE," New Jersey's Shopping Centre. NEWARK.
Open 8:30 a. m. Close 6 p. m. Saturdays 10 p. m.
Telephone 5120 Newark.

Sale Girl's Dresses & Coats

A sale here, please, remember, IS a sale—every item a special price; and when the sale ends, the special price is withdrawn; no exception to this rule in this store; otherwise the word "sale" would ve void of significance. Lots may become depleted as the sale goes on and some may be sold altogether; but that means best choice to early arrivals; be sure to be among them—it will pay you handsomely. Every garment bright and new, this season's, and attire for girls of all ages, 2 to 18 years. Read and come.

Sale ends Saturday 10 p. m.

Girls' Dresses worth 75c—Neat striped gingham, waist trimmed side effect, with rows of braid and pique, full gathered skirts; 6 to 14 years; our price has been 59c, but no other store sells such good, pretty dresses at the price; 75c is more like it; but for the sale, here still less ..... .49

Girls' $1.00 to $1.25 Dresses—Blue and white and black-and-white, piped with red; light grounds with pretty overplaid, edge of kimono sleeve and neck low trimmed with solid color; rose, blue and tan ginghams, needlework trimmed; Peter Pan models, ginghams, fancy braid trimmed; sailor styles trimmed with bias plaid gingham, 6 to 14 years, at..... .85

Girls' New $2.50 Dresses—All pretty, jumper style of solid color gingham, trimmed in contrast, white linon or light blue piping; long straight Russian style, with belt; sleeveless jumper of striped gingham, kimono sleeve jumper of striped percale, pique trimming, dots, black and white checks and other; 2 to 14 years $1.95

$6.50 Man-o'-War Dresses—Navy, brown and red, choice summre serge, not only for school uniform, but also for town, country and seashore; white, back and self braids, silk ties, 6 to 14 years; besides these we offer all our dresses of this particular style, called "man-o'-war" at different special prices; these at..... $5

Girls' Dresses Worth $1.00—Some would even be good value at $1.25; indeed, you would not waste effort attempting to make them at twice the price; complete assortment percales, solid color and striped madras, low and high neck, with yoke, piped or side effects; box pleat each side ..... .59

Girls' $2.00 and $2.50 Dresses—Styles of indivaduality; sailors of tan linon with white shield and Copenhagen blue trim; sailors of blue and white stripe, pretty low neck models in large check; solid color percale, with kinmono sleeve, embroidery trimmed; khaki color linen, with darker bdown trim; 2 to 14 years.. $1.59

Girls' to $4.50 New Dresses—Original models, repps, needlework trimmed, side pleat skirt; linens in tan and blue and white; jumper model, trimmed with bands of bias black and white stripe; pure linens in two-inch block plaid, elbow sleeves; fancy cape collar, shoe lace trimmed front, linon jumpers and many more; every one extra fine; 2 to 14 years, at..... $3.75

Girls' to $6.00 Coats—Covert cloth, choice mixtures, red packet cloth, neat cheviots; some solid colors have black and white checked collars and cuffs; the mixture coats have inlaid velvet collars and cuffs; others are plain, flap pockets, pretty buttons; sizes 6 to 14 and for tots 2 to 6 years..... $4.50

No Branch Stores
707 to 721 Broad St.
Mail Orders Filled.
Daily Free Delivery By Our Own Wagons.
Plainfield-Newark Trolleys Pass Our Doors.

STRAUS'S
RELIABLE MERCHANDISE AT LOWEST PRICES
685-687 BROAD ST., 21 W. PARK ST. NEWARK, N.J.

In Greater Newark's Best Suit and Cloak Dept.

Continuation of the April Cut-Price Sale of Women's and Misses'
Tailor-Made Suits and Spring Coats

Bargains out of the ordinary. The result of a great spot cash purchase from one of the best suit tailors in America. Beautiful up-to-date, well made, perfect fitting suits and dresses at an unusual price, representing savings of from 25 to 50 per cent.

$15.00 to $20.00 Tailored Spring Suits, Marked Special - - - - - - - - 10.00

Striped Worsteds, dark mixtures, also Panama cloths in black, blue and brown. THE COATS in hip length effect, either single or double breasted, lined throughout with silk or satin. THE SKIRTS are in plain gore plaited or all-over plaited style with fold trimming at the foot. Women's and misses' sizes; worth $15 to $20; marked special at only - - - - - 10.00

$6.75 to $7.50 Spring Tailored Coats Marked Special - - - - - - - - 4.98

Made of fine quality all-wool Shadow Stripe Covert Cloth, also Black Chiffon Panama. Hip-length coats in semi-fitted Prince Chap style, some prettily trimmed with neat straps, others made perfectly plain with hand-pressed coat shaped collars and revers. Women's and misses' sizes, worth $6.75 and $7.50, marked special tomorrow at only - - - - - - - - 4.98

The David Straus Co.
683-687 Broad Street. Newark. 21 West Park Street.
Unquestionably the Cheapest Store in Newark for Reliable Merchandise.

The Home of Good Clothes.
WE King's LEADING AMERICAN CLOTHIERS
WANT TO SELL
Over Five Hundred Men's and Young Men's Spring Suits This Week.

How can we do it? By giving more value for the money than our competitors. Note reductions.
See our Window Display.

All our Men's and Young Men's Suits, values to $16.00, for..... 8.50
All our Men's and Young Men's Suits, values to $24.00, for..... 11.50
All our Men's and Young Men's Suits, values to $28, for..... 12.50
All our Men's and Young Men's Suits, values to $30, for..... 14.00
All our Men's and Young Men's Suits, values to $32, for..... 15.00
All our Men's and Young Men's Suits, values to $35, for..... 18.00

This includes black, blues and all the newest shades of tan, brown and gray. All the newest models and very best makes. If you are in need of a Spring Suit, right now is the time to buy and save money. Every suit altered free of charge—it must fit exactly before it leaves the house. We carry nothing of the cheap, shoddy order, and anything bought in our house that is not "just right" bring it back and we will adjust matters to your entire satisfaction. "Fair and Square" system is the only motto we work on.

Men's Trousers
Worth $3.00 and Upward
For 1.65 Pair
About 300 pairs Men's Trousers, neat dark worsteds and cassimeres; included are some blues and blacks; values up to $3.00, for $1.65 pair.

Special Bargains in Boys' Suits
Sizes 8 to 17
3.00 values for
1.69

Men's Trousers
Worth $5.00 to $6.00
For 2.85 Pair
In this lot there are about 200 pairs Men's Trousers made of pure worsteds, in neat light and dark effects; $5.00 and $6.00 values, for $2.85.

Correct Furnishings for Men and Young Men.

This store is just as much the home of Good Furnishings as it is the home of Good Clothes.

When it comes to the small things of your wardrobe, such as Fancy Vests, Shirts, Neckwear, Hosiery, Underwear, Collars, Cuffs, etc., you'll always find us with a liberal stock of the better sort of these things.

Fancy Vests, 95c and up. Shirts, soft bosom, 43c, regular value $1.00. Fancy Hosiery, 25c, regular value 45c. Underwear, 43c, regular value 75c. Pajamas, 85c, regular value $1.50. Neckwear, 19c, regular value 35c. Cotton Half Hose, 12c, regular value 25c.

SEE OUR WINDOW DISPLAY

Cor. Market and Halsey Streets, Newark, N. J.
King's
Cor. Market and Halsey Streets, Newark, N. J.
OPEN SATURDAY EVENING UNTIL 11 O'CLOCK.

W. V. Snyder & Co.

Women's Black Voile
Walking Skirts
Well Worth $7 to $10, Special at $5.50 and $7.50

These dressy skirts, made of an excellent quality of fine wiry voile, are in two styles, both extremely fashionable at the present. One full plaited and the other a very full flare. Trimmed with folds of taffeta silk. Value $7.00 and $10.00. Special at
5.50 and 7.50

Sale of Women's 16-Button Silk Mousquetaire Gloves

We will place on sale for Saturday, 500 pairs of Women's 16-Button Mousquetaire Double-Tip Gloves that for fit and finish cannot be excelled. Made by one of the most reliable manufacturers and always giving universal satisfaction. The colors include tans, navy, golden brown, black and white; regular $1.50 Long Silk Gloves, Saturday
1.29

W. V. SNYDER & CO.,
BROAD STREET—NEWARK, N. J.—CEDAR STREET

A Comfortable Home Next Winter

A cozy warm house, warm everywhere, is not impossible to obtain. To have one room comfortable and the adjoining room chilly is very trying, especially when you have guests. The will save you from making apologies, and from furnace dust, and cut down your coal bills. It will warm the house thoroughly from end to end with the minimum of dirt, trouble and expense. The Boynton dealer in your town will tell you why.

BOYNTON

The Furnace with the Square Fire Pot

There are BOYNTON heating plants of all kinds. Ask about our Round or Sectional Boilers for steam or hot water. Also ranges.

THE BOYNTON FURNACE COMPANY,
207-209 Water Street, New York.

The Rayo Lamp
Cannot be equalled for its bright and steady light, simple construction and absolute safety. Equipped with latest improved burner. Made of brass throughout and nickel plated. Every lamp warranted. Write to nearest agency if not at your dealer's.
STANDARD OIL COMPANY, Incorporated.

USE PRESS WANT ADS

SOME STATE NEWS BRIEFS

Moorestown's oldest woman, Miss Rebecca Slim, who is ninety-two years old, was descending the stairs at her home Tuesday, when she fell and broke her right hip.

Positively identified as the colored man who fleeced William P. Weiser, a druggist, out of $10 through a fake telephone call, William Smith was committed to jail in default of $500 bail in the Camden police court yesterday.

In a fifty-foot plunge down the hold of a vessel at the MacAndrews & Forbes Licorice Company wharves, at the foot of Jefferson avenue, in Camden yesterday, Edward Davis, twenty-eight years old, of 800 South Second street, was supposed to have been fatally injured, but at the Homeopathic Hospital it was found that no bones had been broken, although he was badly cut and battered.

A building surmounted by a water tower collapsed in the Baker House Hotel yard, Vineland, and flooded the place. One side of the building struck the hotel and made the patrons think there was an earthquake. Irene Davis, in the laundry building nearby, was found up to her shoulders in debris, and her life was only saved by the peculiar lodging of a timber, which shielded her body.

Miss Mary Woolley and two adopted Indians, John and Henry Foster, narrowly escaped being burned to death in a fire of mysterious origin that destroyed her home at Hamilton yesterday. Half of the house was in flames before the inmates were aroused. Antique furniture, which had been in the Woolley family for many generations, was destroyed. Miss Woolley saved two pictures of her father and mother, but forgot $1,500 in bills, which were consumed.

NO NON-UNION MAN TO BE ON THE JOB.

Washington, May 1.—"No non-union man need apply" is the essence of a rule adopted by the Interstate Commerce Commission in exercising its power to appoint inspectors under the safety appliance act relating to railroads. No person will be appointed to the office of inspector unless he is a member of some railway union, but in addition to that he must have the endorsement of the chief officer or officers of that union.

The commission's excuse for this radical departure is that by virtually transferring the appointing power to the unions themselves the commission expects to make each railway organization responsible in a measure for the men appointed from the ranks of that organization.

There are twenty-three inspectors holding office under the terms of the safety appliance act. Each is paid $125 a month and is allowed $4 a day for expenses. In order to be eligible for appointment each applicant must have been within one year preceding the date of application an engineer, fireman, conductor, trainman or yard man in active railway service and have been in such service for at least six years.

SOMERSET ENDEAVORERS' ANNUAL MEETING MAY 12.

The seventeenth annual convention of the Somerset County Christian Endeavor Local Union will be held in the Second Reformed church at Somerville on Tuesday afternoon and evening, May 12. J. T. Sproull, of Orange, president of the state union, is expected to be present.

The principle address in the afternoon will be delivered by Rev. Albert Erdman, D. D., of Morristown, and Rev. C. A. R. Janvier, of Philadelphia will preach the convention sermon in the evening. An open-air session will be held, if the weather conditions are favorable.

RAILROADS TO SHOW BOOKS.

House Appropriates Money For Federal Inspection.

Washington, May 1.—The House of Representatives placed itself on record yesterday as in favor of having an investigation made of the books of all interstate railroad companies in the country to determine whether they are conducting their business in accordance with federal laws. In a measure this action was a victory for President Roosevelt, who had called representatives to the White House yesterday and urged them to work for a liberal appropriation for the employment of inspectors to conduct the examination of books.

The House voted to appropriate $350,000 for the purpose, thus turning down the committee on appropriations, which had insisted that $50,000 was sufficient to begin the work.

Fire in Edison Plant.

Fire which threatened serious damage to the offices of the Edison manufacturing plants, in Lakeside avenue, West Orange, broke out yesterday morning in the meeting rooms on the third floor. A switchboard spark in some manner communicated with bunting used for decoration, and as the room was not occupied, the office staff was not aware of the blaze until it burst through the wall. The office assistants, with the aid of other employees, managed to stop the fire from spreading, and the West Orange department was not called out. The damage amounted to several hundred dollars.

When you have a case at law to try, you naturally engage a lawyer because the law is his business.

Why not, therefore, engage a trust company to administer your estate; that is their business.

A friend may or may not administer it successfully; a trust company is bound to. Write or call for our booklet; "The Trust Department."

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Assets $2,250,000.00

WEINBERGER'S.

202 WEST FRONT STREET.

GREAT BARGAINS IN

MEN'S and BOYS' SUITS

FOR SATURDAY.

We have for tomorrow special values in suits, bought by us of one of the finest makers of clothing in America at a greatly reduced price. They are the greatest bargains we have offered in a long while.

Men's $10 Suits at $6.50.

They are fancy Cheviots and Worsteds in black, grays, browns and tans, cut and finished in the newest fashion—chooes from a big assortment. At - - - - - - $6.50

Men's $12.50 Suits at $8.90.

This is one of the richest lots offered this season. They are Blue Serges, Cassimeres and Worsted, in checks, stripes and plaids, browns and grays. Positively no equal—suits have never been offered for less than $12.50. Special - - - $8.90

Men's $15 Suits at $10.

A $10 bill never before meant so much in a clothing purchase. Here are brown and olive shades, high-grade Worsted Suits, cut and made in the latest style, coats cut full and long with broad shoulders and hand-made collars. Special at - - $10

Boys' Suits, double breasted style with 2 pair knickerbocker pants. Very special at..... $2.50

Fine Blue Serge Boys' Suits, double breasted coat, knickerbocker pants. Special at..... $3.90

Boys' Fine Worsted Suits, made in the latest style, knickerbocker pants; regular $6 value. Special at.... $4.50

500 pair boys' 35c Knee Pants at.....19c

300 pair boys' 75c Knickerbocker Pants at 49c

New York Clothing Co.,

J. WEINBERGER, Mgr.

202 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

ROTH & CO'S

MARKET NEWS

FOR SATURDAY, MAY 2.

That Veal "ad" took so well last week that we're going to duplicate it.

Breast of Veal, per lb - - 9c
Shoulders of Veal, per lb - 12c
Legs of Veal, per lb - - 14c
Shoulder Veal Chops, per lb 14c
Loins of Veal, per lb - - - 16c

Fresh Shoulders, per lb - - - - - - 10c
Loins of Pork, to roast, per lb - - 13c
Pork Chops, per lb, - - - - - - - 14c
Smoked Calias, per lb, - - - - - 9½c

Roasting Chickens, Fowl, Broilers, Genuine Spring Lamb, Calves Liver, Sweet Breads, Squabs, Oxtails.

ROTH & CO. 132 E. Front St. Tel. 208 and 802. Plainfield, N. J. 38 Markets in the State

New Jersey's Leading Butchers.

Baseball and General Sports

UPSALIANS TRIM P. H. S.

Kenilworth College Boys Win Six Inning Game by Score of 9-4.

SCHOOLBOYS' POOR HITTING.

College Players Score Seven Runs in First Inning—P. H. S. Only Gets Two Hits, but Five Errors.

The Upsala College nine, "the slugging Swedes from Kenilworth," defeated the Plainfield High School team in a six inning game at Crescent Oval yesterday afternoon by a score of 9-4. This gives each team a victory, for when the nines met before the schoolboys won 21-17. The game was won in the first inning, when seven Upsalians crossed the plate. Four errors by the schoolboys in this one inning, together with two singles and a two-bagger by the husky rah-rah boys, were responsible for the runs. VanZandt started the game on the slab for the high school, but was given poor infield support and changed places with Murphy on third at the beginning of the fourth inning. This change steadied the infield. While in the box, VanZandt figured in a pretty double play. This came in the second inning, when he caught a hot liner and handled it to first in plenty of time. Murphy, as pitcher, figured in another double play in the fifth.

The schoolboys were painfully weak with the stick, Giddes and Murphey making the only two hits off "Jake" Jacobson, who fanned seven men, gave six bases on balls and hit two of the Plainfielders. The High School did not score until the third, when "Jake" gave three bases on balls, hit Doane and made a balk. This start from the box, together with a wild pitch and an error, gave the schoolboys two runs. "Jake's" hit in the Upsala half of the same session, scored Bergquist, who got his base on an error. Swanson's two base hit in the fourth, with Anderson's single, scored Lundgren in the fourth. The schoolboys scored another run in the fifth and Giddes' hit brought "Jawn" Riffert home in the sixth. Rain stopped the game while the college boys were at the bat in the seventh, with one gone and two on bases.

The score and lineups:

	R.	H.	E.
Upsala .....7 0 1 1 0 0—	9	7	3
P. H. S. .....0 0 2 0 1 1—	4	2	5

Upsala College: E. Anderson, lf; Lundgren, c; Danberg, ss; Swanson, 2b; Berguist, 1b; C. Anderson, 3b; Jacobson, p; Andeen, rf; Zetterstrand, cf;

Plainfield High School: Giddes, ss; Doane, lf, cf; Rubenstein, rf; Dey, 1b; Murphey, 3b, p; Lidgate, 1b, c; Dodwell, c, lf; Snyder, 2b; Riffert, cf, rf; Van Zandt, p, 3b.

Two base hits: Lundgren and Swanson. Struck out: By Jacobson, 7; by Van Zandt, 2; by Murpery, 2. Bases on balls: Off Jacobson, 6; off Van Zandt, 2; off Murphey, 2. Double plays: Van Zandt-Dey; Murphey-Snyder-Dey. Umpire, William Russell. Scorer, W. B. Caldwell.

Fred VanAuken, of the U. S. Navy team, has not been pitching of late. His work during the early spring was of a high order and he won a majority of his games.

ELKS MINSTRELS A HIT

(Continued from page 1.)

"An octette a la Floradora," in which eight of the minstrels appeared, four as "girls" and four as escorts who sang, "Has Your Mother Any More Like You?" The "girls" were Emer D. Cutting, John V. Todd, Harry Messersmith and Tom Muir, and the boys, Fred Miller, Horace J. Martin, Harry Blimm and Joseph C. Martin. The costuming carried off a big share of the honors. Philip Gasel, a member of Somerville lodge of Elks, appeared in a monologue and musical specialty and Coakley and McBride, late stars of "The Red Mill' company, kept the audience laughing and appauding for half an hour by the presentation of their black face songs and dance sketch.

The show closed with an afterpiece, "The Manager's Dilemma," described as "a whirlwind playet," and serving to introduce Angelo and Arthur Minion, singers and instrumentalists. In the sketch were the following characters: "A. Shoat Bacon, about to take a show on the road," Joseph C. Martin; "Jim Rabbit, who gets the same as last season," Fred Miller; "Hamlet O'Phelia Booth," a disciple of Willie Shakespeare," Harry Blimm; "Mme. Jenny Lind Patty, a regular nightingale," Elmer D. Cutting. The piece was staged and directed by Joseph C. Martin and Elmer Cutting.

The show was directly in charge of John H. Cose, who was chairman of the minstrel committee, the other members being the following: Lewis A. Bellis, Samuel Cunningham, Harry B. McDonald, Joseph Noonan, Ellsworth C. Westcott and Samuel P. T. Wilbur. The dances used in the first part were originated and taught by H. Fletcher Rivers, of New York; Harry Wettin, of Elizabeth, was drill master and musical director, and the stage and electrical effects were devised by William J. Counihan. Mr. Counihan also acted as stage manager and William Kregar was stage carpenter. The soloists and chorus members outside of the principles named were the following: William Anderson, Daniel Applegate, John F. Auten, L. A. Bellis, Edward Bennett, Paul Collier, George B. Cose, Robert S. Craig, Elmer D. Cutting, James A. Davie, Malcolm Davis, Thomas DeMeza, Harold Farrow, William Feiring, John P. Hall, Lester P. Hamilton, Edward Harding, E. E. Hicks, John J. Kenney, Al. Lacey, Charles Leighs, Horace J. Martin, Jr., Albert Matthews, Frederick K. Miller, Otto F. Mueck, William Nischwitz, Joseph O'Keefe, Cecil Pittis, Alfred A. Prudhon, Joseph Randall, Edward C. Searing, Philip Smith, W. G. Smith, Ed. Steuerwald, Frank Strausuer, Clarence E. Teel, John V. Todd, William F. Townley, John C. Traynor and A. J. Williams.

Capt. Daly Resting Comfortably.

Captain James Daly, of the fire department, who was injured yesterday while riding on No. 2 hose wagon to a fire, was reported as resting quite comfortably today, although he complains considerable of a pain in the back and about the head. He was struck in the head by an iron bar projecting from the scaffolding under the Central avenue railroad bridge and thrown off the hose wagon. The physician in attendance has not yet determined whether there are internal injuries, but there are strong indications of it. Officials of the railroad were busy today making a complete investigation of the accident with a view to determining the responsibility.

Miss Edgerton Entertains.

One of the most elaborate and charming luncheons of the post-Lenten season was that given Tuesday afternoon by Miss M. E. Edgerton at her home on East Front street. The guests numbered sixty, and included Mrs. William R. Richards and Mrs. A. J. Bliss, of New York, wives of former pastors of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church. The arrangement of the tables and the decorations were most unique. Each table represented a flower, including American Beauty rose, daffodil, violet, pansy, carnations, etc. During the afternoon a delightful program of music was rendered by an orchestra of four pieces.

—For best results try a Press want ad.

STORAGE VAULTS

For Large Trunks, Boxes, Valuable Packages, Etc., Etc.

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

OF ALL SIZES

ABSOLUTE SECURITY PROVIDED

CITY NATIONAL BANK

CREDIT FREE

TO ALL

The Largest CREDIT HOUSE in New Jersey

It is a fact that even our so-called competitors are compelled to admit that we carry the biggest, most dependable and strictly up-to-date stock of wearing apparel for

Men, Women,

Boys, Children

In This City.

$1 Per Week

WILL KEEP YOUR ENTIRE FAMILY WELL DRESSED.

Look for the NAME

PEOPLES

Credit Clothing Co.,

129-131-133 EAST FRONT STREET,

OVER GAS OFFICE

Levy Bros' TWO STORES

$1.25 Skirts, 89c

Ladies' White Cambric Underskirts, with 18-in. Lawn Flounce, hemstitched; trimmed with four rows of Val. lace and 8 pin tucks; value $1.25, 89c.

Dainty Embroidered Swisses at 14c

Tomorrow we place on sale a dainty lot of White Cross-bar Swisses, with neat colored embroidery figures and dots, real value 20c, specially priced at.....14c

LAWN SUITS—A beautiful assortment of figured and striped lawn princess, jumper and two-piece suits; also white, values up to $6.75 at..... $4.98

SHIRT WAISTS—More pretty waists, striped lawn waists, with jabot and elegant white waists in over 20 different styles; special at 98c

PANAMA CLOTH DRESS SKIRTS—Three lots .....$1.98, $2.98 & $4.98

HOUSE DRESSES—Two-piece house dresses of best quality Bates' seersucker; extra wide skirts and finished seams, at $1.98

Figured cambric house dresses, all sizes, at $1.25

LADIES' 50c BELTS AT 19c—On sale tomorrow a special purchase of ladies' leather and fancy belts, regular 50c grades at.....19c

A Word About Ourselves

At the beginning of a season which already shows a very marked increase over any previous year, The VanArsdale Shoe Store takes this opportunity of thanking those patrons and customers who have made it possible to develop and maintain the Van Arsdale Store. It is our constant endeavor to make this store the best place in the country for shoe buying, not only in the dependability and high quality of the shoes sold, but in the clerical service that is rendered. It is extremely pleasing and gratifying to hear the many expressions of approval and to receive the ever increasing patronage which has been accorded the VAN ARSDALE SHOE STORE.

M. C. VAN ARSDALE,

127 E. Front St. - - The Home of Reliable Shoes

P. P. A. Annual Postponed.

The annual meeting of the Plainfield Protective Association, which was to be held last night, has been postponed until next Thursday night. About a half dozen members of the association gathered at Grace church parish house for the meeting, but at the suggestion of president R. Henry Depew, they adjourned for a week.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

—The contagious disease ward at Muhlenberg Hospital is now occupied by two cases, that of a boy and girl. While both are quite ill their condition is not considered dangerous.

—Among the vegetable specials at Neuman Brothers' tomorrow will be choice Jersey asparagus, egg plant, radishes, wax beans, string beans, rhubarb and lettuce. Fresh strawberries, also.

Will Attend Divine Service.

The members of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., have accepted the invitation of Rev. A. S. Peck, of St. Stephen's church to attend divine services there on Sunday night, May 24.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Chapman and son, Percy, of Stelle avenue, are planning to spend the summer in Europe.

The New Mayor
Based on G. B. Broadhurst's Successful Play

The Man of The Hour

By ALBERT PAYSON TERHUNE.

Copyright, 1907, by George H. Broadhurst.

CHAPTER XV.

WILLIAMS entered with Roberts in tow. The latter wore a haggard, troubled look, and his natural nervousness had visibly deepened, so much so that he had not even noted Phelan's appearance in the corridor as he passed into Horrigan's private room.

"Good evening, alderman," said Horrigan civilly.

"Good evening, sir," answered Roberts palpably ill at ease.

"I understand there's a full meeting today. Even Ellis came back from the south to be here. You're the only man missing."

"I couldn't get here sooner. I"—

"I see. That's all, Williams. You needn't wait. Roberts and I want a little talk before he goes in. Now, then," went on the boss, with a complete change of manner as Williams left the room, "what's the matter with you?"

"I—I can't"—

"Can't what? Speak out, man! Don't stand there and mumble at me!"

"I can't vote for the Borough franchise bill."

"Can't, hey?" roared Horrigan. "Why not?"

"Because—because"— faltered Roberts; then, with a rush of hysterical emotion that blotted out his fear, he cried:

"Have you heard what that man Bennett has done? He organized a voters' committee in my ward and sent them to ask me at my own house what I was going to do about that bill. They had been stirred up by Bennett till they looked on me as a crook and on the bill as a personal robbery. They told me if I voted for it they'd know I was a dirty thief and grafter and that they'd kick me out of the ward."

"Well, well!" rumbled Horrigan soothingly, as though trying to calm a fractious drunkard. "What do you care? When they've forgotten all about the bill you'll still have the dough, won't you? Folks won't ask 'How'd he get it? All they'll care to know is 'Has he got it?'"

"That isn't all!" Roberts blundered on, scarcely heeding the interruption. "Bennett's next step was to organize a committee of voters' wives, and they came to see my wife this morning when I was out and told her they'd heard I was going to sell myself and vote for a dishonest bill. My wife—my wife thinks I'm the squarest, noblest man on earth. Oh, you needn't sneer! Her trust means everything to me. She told the women I wouldn't stoop to any deed that wasn't honest, and they answered: 'Our husbands believe Mr. Roberts is a crook. If he is really honest he'll vote against that bill, as he did before.' Then on my way home this noon I met my little boy. He was crying. I asked him what the matter was. He said that some boys had told him I was a grafter. I tell you," his voice rising almost to a scream, "Bennett's made my life a hell. I'm no crook. I'm honest and"—

"Sure you're honest!" Horrigan exclaimed, as though to a cross child. "Honest as the day! That's why you're voting for our bill. Because the crooked clauses have been cut out of it, and in its present form it's a benefit to the city."

"That isn't why I promised to vote for it," contradicted Roberts, with a despairing dash of courage. "It was because I—because"—

"Never mind why, then, but just go ahead and do it."

"I won't! I dare not"—

"You'll do it, I say!" stormed Horrigan. "You can't welch on me at this stage of the game. Those Sturtevant Trust company notes of yours were sent to you and"—

"And I won't take them!" declared Roberts, slamming two slips of paper down upon the table. "There! Take them back!"

"What do I want of them?" argued Horrigan craftily. "They belong to you."

"They don't. I won't keep them."

"You'll have to. I keep you to your promise."

"What promise?" asked a voice behind them.

Bennett, hastily summoned by Phelan, had entered the room unobserved by either of the excited men.

"What promise?" he asked again. "A promise to"—

"What are you doing here?" bellowed Horrigan in fury. "You called me down once for coming into your private office without knocking. What d'you mean by coming into mine?"

"Yours?" queried Alwyn. "I had an idea it was the city's. The time is past when the words 'Horrigan' and 'city' meant the same thing. Well, Roberts, how are you going to vote? I want to believe you honest, and—Why, what's all this?" his eyes falling on the forgotten notes on the table.

"Nothing of yours!" shouted Horrigan, making a futile, furious grab for the documents which Alwyn was picking up. "Drop them! Drop them, I say, or you'll—"

"Why should I?" asked Bennett calmly, his quick eye taking in the nature of the slips of paper even as his alert brain grasped in full the meaning of the transaction in which they figured. "Do they belong to you?"

"They don't belong to you anyway," retorted Horrigan, "and if you dare read them"—

"I've already read them. Roberts," he added in a kinder voice, turning to the shaking alderman, "these were to have been your bribe, weren't they, for voting for the Borough bill?"

His quietly compelling tone and glance forced from Roberts a frightened "Yes" before Horrigan could interfere.

"I thought so. Be quiet, Horrigan," he commanded as the infuriated boss sought to speak through his choking wrath. "This is between Roberts and me. Now, then"—

"I returned the notes to him!" pleaded Roberts in panic. "Honestly, I did! Just before you came in. I could have kept them, and he couldn't have prevented me even if I voted against the bill. But I'm square and"—

"You are square!" affirmed Bennett, gripping the alderman's cold, moist hand in friendly reassurance. "I knew all along you were honest at heart. Horrigan wanted to bribe you, and you wouldn't be bribed. Now, I want you to go into the council room and vote as your manhood tells you to."

Roberts, comforted, yet still trembling, obeyed, not venturing a second look at Horrigan.

"Now, my friend," said Bennett pleasantly when he and the boss were alone together, "what are you going to do about it? It seems to me your game is up."

"I want those notes!" panted Horrigan, finding coherent speech with an effort through his red mist of rage.

"Why? They're not yours. They aren't made over to you, and there is no cancellation stamp on them. They are the property of the Sturtevant Trust company, and I'll send them back there tomorrow—after I've had them photographed."

"You'll give them to me," shouted Horrigan, his mighty body vibrating with fury, "or you'll never leave this room alive!"

"You're a fool, Horrigan," remarked Bennett, with condescending calm, "for you don't even know the right man to bully!"

Then waged the battle of wills, both men standing motionless.

He gazed unflinchingly into the maddened little eyes of the boss, and so for a moment they stood—patrician and proletariat—in the world old struggle of the two for supremacy.

Horrigan's face was scarlet, distorted, murderous; Bennett's pale, cold, deadly in its repose.

And then waged the battle of wills, both men standing motionless, tense, vibrant with dynamic force.

Slowly, little by little, Horrigan's eyes dropped. He moved awkwardly to one side from his position in front of the door and Bennett, without so much as a backward look, passed out.

The boss, like a man in a daze, sank heavily into a chair and gazed straight ahead of him, his usually red face gray and pasty.

But he was not to enjoy even the scant boon of solitude. From the anteroom Gibbs strolled in.

"They're going over some unimportant preliminary business," remarked the broker, "so I came out for a breath of fresh air. How are things going?"

"We're beat," grunted Horrigan, not looking up.

"Beat?" screamed Gibbs, ashen and inert at the news. "You don't mean it! You can't mean it! Great heaven!"

The sight of the other's cowardly emotion seemed to rouse Horrigan from his apathy.

"If I can stand it, you can!" he snarled. "You only lose your percentage on the deal, while I"—

"A percentage?" echoed Gibbs, too panic stricken to heed his own indiscretion. "Every cent I had in the world! I"—

He checked himself an instant too late.

"So?" drawled Horrigan, his keen little eyes searing the other with boundless contempt. "So it was you who were secretly buying up the stock and tailing in on to our game, hey?"

"I'm ruined! Broke! And"—

"And you've got it coming to you, you whining traitor! The man who goes back on his partners deserves all the kicking he gets."

"I—I didn't mean any harm!" mumbled the crushed Gibbs. "It couldn't hurt you people to have me buy Borough stock for myself, and I'd have cleared up a million and more. Oh, don't glower like that, Horrigan, but try to think out some way of"—

"Of what, you cur?"

"Isn't there any way even now to make Bennett let up on his fight?"

"If there was you couldn't be of use to us, so why should I talk about it to you?"

"But I'd do anything in the world—anything"—

"You would?" cut in Horrigan sharply.

"Yes, yes! Only give me a chance! I'd"—

Horrigan considered, then said reflectively:

"No chance is too slight to take at a time like this, and nobody's too rotten to be of use. I've found there are three things, one of which will always buy any man—a woman, ambition or cash. We've tried Bennett on ambition; he doesn't need money, so only the first of the three remains."

"A woman? I don't understand."

"Miss Wainwright."

"But"—

"Listen here. Bennett's in love with Wainwright's niece. You've cut him out. Go and tell him if he'll let our bill alone you'll smash the engagement and leave her free to marry him. See?"

"I can't! I—hold on, though! Afterward I could deny the whole thing, couldn't I? It'd be his word against mine, and she'd never believe I could do such a thing. I—I might try."

"Yes," growled Horrigan, "you might. A cur that's lost all his nerve can try things that even an ordinary crook would balk at."

But Gibbs did not hear. He had returned to the corridor in search of Bennett. The man scarcely deserved the opprobrium heaped on him by Horrigan. A brilliant, daring operator, he was, unknown to himself, a rank coward at heart. For the first time in his life the cowardice had cropped out, and, to do Gibbs justice, it had driven him temporarily insane. In his normal senses he would never have stooped to the plan he was now so eager to carry out. It was a putrid bit of jetsam at which a financially drowning man did not scruple to clutch.

Horrigan followed him from the room, his own splendid nerve quite recovered from the crushing blow his hopes had received. He had staked heavily on the deal. Moreover, its failure, as he knew, meant the wreck of that mighty political prestige he had so long and wearisomely built up. It might even, if Alwyn fulfilled his threat about the notes, lead to graver personal consequences. Yet the bulldog pluck that had carried this man of iron from the gutter to the summit of political power did not desert him, nor did he show the loss of one iota of his customary monumental calm.

Scarcely had Horrigan quitted the room when Perry and Dallas entered it.

"You could cut the atmosphere in there with a cheese knife," Perry was saying. "Williams doesn't think the Borough bill will come up for half an hour or so. We'd better spend the time till then in here than to stay there and turn our lungs into a microbe zoo."

Dallas did not answer. She sat down by the table and rested her head dejectedly on one little gloved hand. The sight of Bennett, his grave, hopeless appeal to her; the calm, utter despair of his brave face—all these had affected her deeply. Perry noticed with brotherly concern her look and attitude.

"Feeling faint?" he asked.

"No, I'm all right, thanks."

"You look pretty near as blue as Alwyn. He"—

"Don't let's talk of him, please," she begged.

"Why not? He's the whitest chap this side of Whiteville."

"That's what I used to think, but I know better now."

"Then, miss," broke in a voice from the doorway, "you're entitled to another 'know.'"

Phelan, who, passing down the corridor, had heard her last words as he reached the threshold, turned into the room.

"Excuse me for buttin' in on a family chat," he remarked, coming forward, "but I'm pretty well posted on his honor's character, an' when I hear any one knockin' him it's me to the bat. What have you got against Mr. Bennett? 'None of your measly business,' says you. 'Quite so,' says I, an', that bein' the case, let's hear all about it."

Something that underlay the seeming impertinence of the alderman's bluff speech touched Dallas. On impulse she spoke:

"Mr. Bennett," said she, "is opposing the Borough bill, knowing we shall be paupers if he defeats it. He also sold Borough stock short before he announced his veto. What can one think of a man who enriches himself at the expense of his friends?"

"Gee," cried Perry, "that's a terrible thing! Bennett's the original man higher up, I'm afraid. I wonder he isn't afraid to wear the clothes of such a wicked geezer as himself!"

"Oh, Perry! Don't joke about it!" begged Dallas. "Can't you see the serious side of anything? We shall be penniless and dependent on"—

"Fear thou not, sister mine!" declared Perry in his best melodramatic manner. "Paupers, sayest thou? Far be it so! Little Brother Perry will guard thee from the cold, shivery swats of a wintry wind. Maybe we can sell violets or start a fight club or"—

"Don't!" she urged, jarred by his flippancy. "You don't understand. I"—

"As for that story of his honor's sellin' stock short and makin' a pile of cash on his own veto," put in Phelan genuinely worried, "Horrigan's looked it up an' got enough facts to make him think he can prove it. He's goin' to make Williams tell the whole story to the aldermen tonight. It's a lie, of course, but it'll hurt his honor a lot, an' the worst of it is Bennett refuses to deny it."

"He does, eh?" remarked Perry. "Then I'll do some talking about it. I'll have to fracture a promise I made Alwyn, but I guess it's worth while."

"What do you mean?" queried Dallas in wonder.

"I mean Bennett lent me the money to sell enough stock short to make up for what you and I would lose if the bill was quashed, and he gave me a letter to his own broker. We carried it through, and now you and I stand pat to win whichever way the cat jumps. We're on velvet, thanks to Alwyn."

"He did this for us?" gasped Dallas in amaze. "But why didn't you tell me? Why did you let me misjudge him?"

"He made me promise not to let you know a thing about it, and"—

"Say, youngster," broke in Phelan, tingling with excitement, "you come chasin' along with me into the aldermen's meetin'. I'll have you get up there an' tell what you know. It'll knock that lie of Williams' and Horrigan's so high it'll forget to hit groun' again. Come on, bo! There's sure liable to be hot doin's in the meetin' in about eleven seconds. Come along!"

CHAPTER XVI.

DALLAS, left alone in Horrigan's private room, sat at the big table, making no effort to follow her brother and Phelan. A messenger, searching for Horrigan, bustled in, looked inquiringly at the motionless, white faced girl, then passed on to the committee room beyond and on again in his search until the sound of his footsteps died. And still Dallas sat, inert, dumb.

Little by little she was piecing together the facts of the long, miserable complication in the light of what Perry had just told her. It was absurdly easy now that she held the key of the situation. She could understand everything—how Wainwright had put her fortune into Borough stock to influence Bennett; how, failing to move the latter, he had used Alwyn's knowledge of the fact as a weapon against the young man; how Bennett had sought to save her fortune and why he had forbidden Perry to bias her feelings by telling of the generous act.

"From first to last," she murmured in unhappy contrition, "he has acted honorably and as he thought I would have wanted him to and for my happiness. And I, like the wretched little fool I was, couldn't understand and publicly humiliated him. Oh, if only it weren't too late to"—

A vision of Gibbs flashed before her mind, and she shuddered, realizing all that her rash steps had entailed.

"It is too late," she confessed to herself, fighting back the hot tears that seared her eyes. "But at least I can tell him I know and beg his forgiveness and thank him."

The sound of voices in the corridor roused her from her bitter reverie. She sprang up hastily, unwilling that any should see her tear stained face, but the speakers, though they drew near, did not enter Horrigan's office. Instead, they stepped into the adjoining committee room. The messenger had left ajar the door between the two rooms. Realizing this and not wishing to be seen, Dallas shrank back toward the wall, fearful of detection. Then the voice of one of the speakers suddenly arrested her notice.

"Well," Bennett was saying in no especially civil tones, "you said you wished to speak to me in private. What have you to say? Be brief, for I am busy."

Finding herself the unwilling witness to what promised to be a confidential talk, Dallas stole toward the door leading to the corridor, but Horrigan, as was his custom, had locked it on going out. She dared not enter alone the crowded anteroom in her present state, so hesitatingly she paused, forced to remain where she was. The sound of another voice chained her to the spot, and, unconscious of eavesdropping, she stood spellbound, hearing every word distinctly through the half open doorway.

"I—I hardly know how to begin," Gibbs was replying to Bennett's curt demand. "It is a delicate subject and"—

"Then the sooner it is treated to open air the better. Is"—

"You've won the Borough bill fight," began Gibbs.

"Is that all you have to say to me?"

"No. You've won, but you've lost far more. You've lost Dallas Wainwright."

"I hardly need to be reminded of that," retorted Bennett, "and it is a subject I don't care to discuss."

"But listen," pleaded Gibbs as the mayor made a move as though to leave the room. "One minute! I say you've won the Borough fight. I've won Dallas. Can't we"—

"Well, what?" asked Bennett, with ominous quiet as he paused in his departure.

"Can't we—strike some sort of bargain?" said Gibbs tentatively.

"Explain, please," ordered Bennett, with that same deceptive calm.

"Why," went on Gibbs, emboldened at the other's seeming complacence, "suppose you give up this Borough fight and I give up Dallas? I won her by a trick. She doesn't really love me. It is her pride, not her heart, that made her throw you over and accept me. It is you she loves, and I've known it all along, and you are in love with her."

"What then?"

"Just this," returned Gibbs, wondering at Bennett's quiet reception of the strange offer. "She will marry me because she isn't the sort of girl to go back on her promise, especially since she looks on me as a sort of high minded martyr to your oppression, so if I hold her to her word she will not back down. Now, if you, even now, withdraw your opposition the Borough bill will go through. Let it go through and I will break my engagement to Dallas Wainwright and leave her free to marry you."

"Gibbs, I didn't think there was so foul a cur as you in all the world."

"You promise that?"

"Yes!" cried Gibbs, elated. "I promise on my word of honor! Is it a bargain?"

"Gibbs," replied Alwyn slowly, "I didn't think there was so foul a cur as you in all the world. I thought I understood how utterly rotten you were, but I didn't believe there was a man living who could debase himself as you've just done."

"But"— began Gibbs, in bewilderment.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

New Jersey Central

In Effect January 26, 1908.

For New York—2.17, 3.37, 5.36, 6.02, 6.29, 6.57, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.47, 7.56, 8.00, 8.11, 8.30, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.55, 10.28, 10.56 a. m., 12.00, 12.19, 12.42, 1.09, 1.27, 2.21, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.45, 5.53, 6.29, 6.48, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.27, 9.31, 10.17, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.17, 3.37, 4.47, 7.23, 7.58, 8.52, 9.34, 9.45, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.29, 6.57, 7.05, 7.25, 7.28, 7.47, 8.11, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.59, 10.56 a. m., 12.42, 1.09, 1.27, 2.21, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.45, 5.53, 6.29, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.31 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 2.00, 5.22, 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 2.08, 5.47, 7.06 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 5.47 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.37, 8.11, 10.55 a. m., 12.42 (Saturdays only), 3.42, 4.45, 5.53, 8.27, 11.28 p. m. Sundays—3.37, 8.52 a. m., 3.30, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.37, 9.29 a. m., (12.42 Saturdays only), 1.27, 2.44 (3.42 Lakewood only), (5.53 Lakewood only, Saturdays only) p. m. Sundays—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.45 a. m., 1.45 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.13, 7.39, 8.45, 9.13, 10.43 a. m., 12.13, 12.42, 1.39, 2.14, 2.45, 6.13, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 1.17 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.53, 10.39, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.55, 5.39, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 11.25, 1.17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m. Sundays—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

*Change cars at Bound Brook.

W. G. BESLER, Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, Gen. Pass. Agt.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE
Office opens 7 a. m., closes 7 p. m.
On Saturdays close half hour later.

NEW YORK MAIL.
Arrive—7:00, 8:40, 11:30 a. m., 2:30, 5:00 5:30, 9 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:20, 6:00 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 1:30, 3:15 and 7 p. m
Close—7:30 a. m., 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40 and 11:30 a. m., 2:36 7:00 p. m.
Close—7:15, 7:30, 9:30 a. m., 12:35, 2:20 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST
Close—1:00 and 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST AND SOUTH.
Close—12:35, 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton
Close—12:35 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:30 a. m., 2:20, 6:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:15, 7:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:20 and 6:00

WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m.
Close—9:00 a. m.

WATCHUNG.
Close—5:30 p. m.
Arrive—6:45 p. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M.

Advertisements
—FOR—
New York Herald,
World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American, Brooklyn Eagle
—and—
Newark Evening News
Received at
The Daily Press
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

Complete line of AUTOMOBILE
Supplies and Tires
AT LOWEST NEW YORK PRICES.
Thompson Auto Co.
413 Park Ave. Tel. 991-J

Mrs. John Brown,
Successor to
John Burke and Jones & Co.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned from $3.00 Upwards.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Don't give your order until you consult me.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at
J. T. Vail's, North avenue, Plainfield, N. J.
Postoffice Box 715.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

We have made arrangements for a larger supply of first-class milk and and are givng the family trade our special attention. . . If you are not satisfied with the milk or the services you are getting give us a trial.

Price 9 cents a quart, 5 cents a pint. Cream 14 cents a ½ pint.

Lindsay's Dairy,
965 West Front St.
TEL. 792-J.

J. NEUSTADT
MERCHANT TAILOR,
Ladies' Tailoring a Specialty. Cleaning, Pressing, Altering at lowest prices. Work called for and delivered. Formerly with R. A. Rieley, Fifth Avenue, New York.
Spring and Summer Styles now ready.
430 WATCHUNG AVENUE
Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 668-W.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MEN
What is the use of throwing or giving your old clothes away when you can get the highest prices paid for same by dropping a postal to
I. RICHARD, 17 Somerset St.

LAWN TOOLS

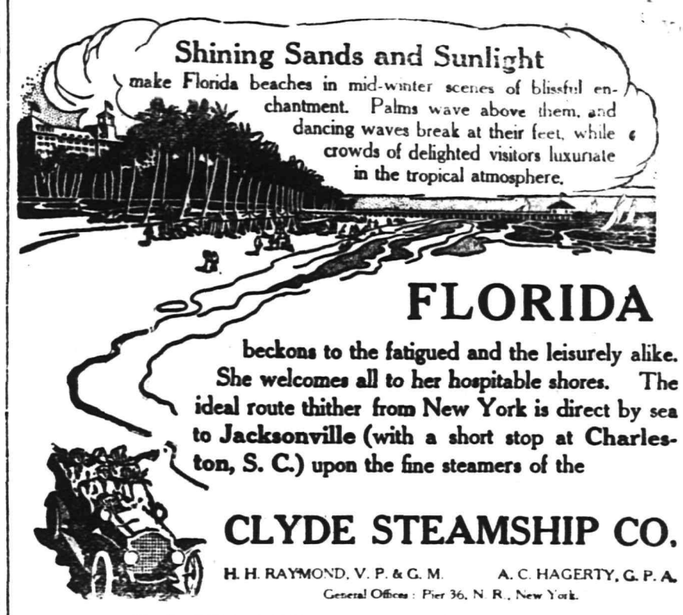
It isn't too late to buy if you have discovered that you need a new Mower this year. You must have heard of our easy running, close cutting, durably constructed Lawn Mowers. They have world-wide reputation.

We also have all other kinds of tools for lawn and garden development.

HOSE, REELS, SPRINKLERS, RAKES, GRASS SHEARS, HOOK, WEEDERS, EDGERS, PRUNERS, ETC.

Gayle Hardware Company

Tel. 468-R. Front St. and Park Ave.



Shining Sands and Sunlight
make Florida beaches in mid-winter scenes of blissful enchantment. Palms wave above them, and dancing waves break at their feet, while crowds of delighted visitors luxuriate in the tropical atmosphere.

FLORIDA

beckons to the fatigued and the leisurely alike. She welcomes all to her hospitable shores. The ideal route thither from New York is direct by sea to Jacksonville (with a short stop at Charleston, S. C.) upon the fine steamers of the

CLYDE STEAMSHIP CO.

H. H. RAYMOND, V. P. & G. M. A. C. HAGERTY, G. P. A.
General Offices: Pier 36, N. R., New York.

W. D. THICKSTUN, Agent, 197 North Avenue.

207 BROAD ST. ELIZABETH LOAN Co. 207 BROAD ST.
"Reliable Money Brokers"
IF IT'S A QUESTION OF DOLLARS.

We may be able to help you out. At any rate if you'll inform us of your needs, we'll try. The winter months just past have raised the expenses of the average householder to their highest point and many of us have been unable to meet all of our obligations as promptly as we would like to and consequently find ourselves in debt.

SUPPOSE we were to advance you sufficient funds to meet your obligations. Do you not think you would be more satisfied to have only one payment to look after on pay day?

There is no place where money will be advanced you more willingly or where you will receive more courteous treatment than from us. It's worth investigating.

The possession of household goods, horses and wagons is sufficient evidence of your ability to pay. Call, write or 'phone.

ELIZABETH LOAN COMPANY.
Room 24 Hersh Bldg. Telephone 778-R. Elizabeth, N. J.

BUY YOUR FURNITURE AT Powlison & Jones.

149 & 151 East Front St.

:-Schreiner's Pharmacy-:
PARK AVE. and SECOND ST. TEL. 898-J.

NOW IS THE TIME
to protect your clothes, furs, feathers, carpets, etc., from the moths by using Duesenbury's Cedar or Lavender Mothalines.
15c Large Package

JACK HORNER 26 SOMERSET ST TEL. 869-W.
Pierce, Cleveland, Crawford and Arrow Bicycles. Renting, Repairing and Sundries. Vulcanizing a specialty. Baby Carriages Repaired and Retired. Work called for and delivered.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR
TRUNKS, SUIT CASES OR BAGS
CALL AT
O. M. DUNHAM'S, 129 Park Ave
TRUNK STRAPS—ALL SIZES.

NEW BUILDING OF THE PHILADELPHIA "BULLETIN"

GREAT NEWSPAPER PLANT

New Home of the Paper With the Sixth Largest Circulation in the United States.

The building of "The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin," a picture of which is shown above, and which has just been occupied, is unsurpassed by any structure of its kind in the world. It was planned along thoroughly practical lines, befitting the home of one of the most complete and up-to-date newspaper plants in existence.

"The Bulletin" has a circulation which now reaches far beyond the highest point ever attained by a daily newspaper in Philadelphia. It stands sixth among the newspapers of the United States. It is equalled or exceeded by only the New York "World", on its morning and evening edition, the "American" and "Journal," of that city, and the Chicago "News."

The structure occupies a commanding position at the N. E. corner of City Hall Square, at the very centre of the city's activities. It is nine stories in height, with a basement. The framework is entirely of steel, reinforced by concrete. The general architecture is in the style of the French Renaissance, with an exterior of terra cotta and a base of granite and limestone. The general aspect suggests grace and massiveness.

"The Bulletin" possesses the largest newspaper printing plant between New York and Chicago. In the basement is the mammoth press room, occupying 10,000 square feet. It contains the battery of ten sextuple web perfecting Hoe presses. Each press has a capacity of 72,000 eight-page papers an hour, 36,000 twelve-page papers or 24,000 sixteen, twenty, twenty-two or twenty-four page papers.

Each of these gigantic presses contains 20,000 integral parts. Any one of them will consume twenty-five or thirty miles of paper an hour when working at full speed. The presses are operated by a system of automatic control, the pressure of a button giving the pressman absolute command of the intricate machinery. The presses are supplied with ink automatically by a specially designed pump. Independent electric motors furnish the power for each press. Every piece of machinery in the building is similarly operated. There is not a belt or a shafting in the building.

The basement contains also four junior autoplates. These machines make the stereotype plates which are put on the press rollers, and from which the papers are printed. Each autoplate is capable of turning out three finished plates a minute. All of the intricate processes of moulding, trimming and cooling the plates are accomplished automatically.

The press room is equipped with an automatic carrier which removes the papers from the presses to the delivery room. Cooper-Hewitt mercury lights, which diffuse powerful rays, make the press room as bright as daylight at all times.

The composing-room occupies the entire ninth floor. It is probably one of the best lighted and most thoroughly equipped of its kind in existence. The battery of twenty-one linotype machines is so arranged that on the most overcast day the operators are able to work without artificial light. On one side of the floor is a sound-proof room in which all cuts are cut and trimmed without any of the noise reaching the workers outside.

Near the sound-proof room is the matrix department. Electric driers, never before employed in journalism, are used to dry the "matrix." The matrix is a sheet of blotter-like paper upon which is imprinted an impression of the type. From the matrix is made the stereotype plates. With the electric driers "The Bulletin" is able to dry its matrices in half the time required with the use of steam driers.

The publication office is on the ground floor opposite the City Hall. It is a spacious room with high ceiling. In the centre is a massive column of Negalla marble brought from Africa. The walls of the room are wainscoted with natural Circassian walnut. The floor consists of marble tiles.

In the rear of the first floor are the delivery rooms, from which the papers are distributed to the newsboys and delivery wagons. Above the delivery rooms is a mezzanine floor. This contains a newsboys' recreation room and offices for the business departments. The editorial departments are on the eighth floor, the intervening floors being used for business and professional purposes.

The readers of this paper are invited by "The Bulletin" management to visit the new "Bulletin" building any time when they are in Philadelphia.

AMUSEMENTS.

Joe Hortiz, the young and capable artist, who comes to the New Plainfield theatre tomorrow afternoon and evening, needs no introduction to a local audience. For he has charmed them before with his tuneful melodies, since he has branched out into the drama, likewise audiences all over the country, with his ever too be remembered "Our Friend Fritz." Now he is equipped with the best stage medium for the display of his talents that he has ever had. "Fritz the Wandering Musician," the play, is what might well be termed a comedy-drama. It is in four acts, from the pen of Crane Wilbur, a rising playright; is clean and bright as a new pin, full to the brim of interesting and sensational periods will hold interest of an audience from the rise of the curtain to its final fall.

Fresh from their triumphant run of three months at the Broadway Theatre, New York, Gus and Max Rogers will be seen in their successful musical comedy offering "The Rogers Brothers in Panama" at the New Plainfield Theatre for next Friday night. As the present season is their tenth anniversary as stars, they have given the theatre-going public a production that eclipses all past efforts and enables them to maintain the reputation they have enjoyed so long as leaders of this style of entertainment.

Every minute detail; costumes; scenic environment; music, lyrics, book, ensemble numbers and electrical effects were looked after with unerring eye and critical ear and as a consequence the dramatic reviewers have been a unit in pronouncing their production one of the most complete, elaborate and enjoyable it has ever been their good fortune to witness.

The book was written by Sylvester Maguire and Aaron Hoffman; the lyrics by Edward Madden and the music was composed by Max Hoffmann, who has contributed so many popular and tuneful melodies in the past. With four bright minds like these working in conjunction it is not surprising that such a successful play was given the public.

The acting company is one of unusual merit. In addition to the two stars, Gus and Max Rogers, there are Marion Stanley, Josie Barrows, Norma Brown, Avita Sanchez, Lottie Greenwood, Dick Temple, George Lydecker, Joseph Kane, Robinson Newbold, Walter Ware, Henry Lehmann, Alexander Kleinman, John M. Coughlin and several other principals just as prominent and a monster chorus.

Ben Teal, one of the best known masters of stage-craft, personally supervised the production and it is his boast that it is the best work he has ever done in his long, successful career. It was a matter of pride with him and he devoted many long, wearisome weeks preparing and rehearsing the big company. Nor were his labors in vain.

With a chorus of fifty, the instruction was quite special and intended solely to develop in the young beauties every art calculated to please the most blase. Grace in stage deportment, walk and gesture; melodious singing, poetic speech, eloquent gentleness of expression, graceful dancing—everything in short, that art can add to this natural charm of woman was taught the innocent beauties by this masterful, experienced producer.

As a consequence, it has been said by some of the most censorious critics that the chorus of "The Rogers Brothers in Panama" is the best dressed, most graceful and talented on the road today.

The Cleveland American league club has turned First Baseman Daubert over to Bill Bernhardt's Nashville club.

WALSH'S Candy

Specials Daily with Changes Every Day.

For Friday This Week:

Tutti Frutti Kisses, lb..... 10c
Cocoanut Caramels, lb..... 15c
Midget Mixtures, lb..... 19c

The above for Saturday also, with Fine Chocolates and Bonbons in one pound box, 29c.

We are now crushing the Fruits for use on Sundae and Ice Cream Soda. We are probably the only retailers doing so. You'll taste the difference, they're so fresh. Price just the same, 5c a glass.

R. Walsh & Co.

Makers of Sweets.
157 Market St., Newark, N. J.
671 Broad St.,
66 Broad St., Elizabeth, N. J.
157 Newark Ave., Jersey City.
Wholesale Department in rear of 157 Market St., Newark.

Advertised Mail Matter.

E. H. BIRD, P. M

April 27, 1908.

Abernethy, Mr H	Marton, Mr J H
Acalla, Mr G	Mgr. 3rd B B Team
Brown, Mr Wm	Lincoln School
Bremmer, Geo F	Mason, Mrs
Boeding, Mr M M	Mahaney, Jr., Pat.
Bailey, Mrs N	McKenzie, Clin
Bartels, Miss O M	McNevin, Mr B
Barclay, Mr John	McCann, Mrs J
Baldwin, Mr Frank	Machbank, Mrs
Barrett, Mrs Alice	Nash, Charlote
Cushing, Mr F J	Omen, Mrs Mary
Caurlander, Mrs H	Reec, Mr Joe
Driscoll, Mr D. W.	Svell, Mr T
Dawson, Mrs H	Stewart, Mr A
Ethel, Mrs	Snyder, Mrs
care Mr. Flyer	Stritt, Johann
Gallagher, Miss B	Smith, Mr. Arthur
Gaston, Mr W F	Smith, Mrs Garrett
Griffin, Mrs E A	Seybolt, Mrs W H
Glauder, Mr F	Strong, Mr G A
Holmes, Mr M S	Watson, Mrs Jesse
Johnson, Mr Sam	Watson, Mrs H R
Lindsay, Mr Wm	Woodruff, Mrs C B
Lewis, Miss Rose	Worthmann, L B
Lawerderman, Bes	Wilson, Mrs Cade
McDonough, Mr J	Wheaton, S
S Moneton, Mr G	Wenfel, Fred
Manning, Mrs L	Warren, Miss G
Mankowski, Dr	Welch, Mr Jas
Count Cassimir	Wall, Edw S
Munken, Miss B	Wittawski, Mr F

(PLEASE SAY ADVERTISED.)

BUY THE GENUINE!

Do not be deceived by any one pretending to sell our goods.

VAN DYK TEA & VAN DYK COFFEE can only be bought at a Van Dyk store or from a Van Dyk wagon

VAN DYK'S

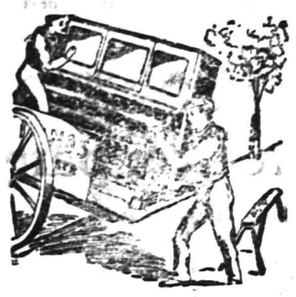
127 WEST FRONT ST.,
Bet. Park and Madison Aves.

50 BRANCHES IN 20 CITIES.

FURNITURE.

Repaired and upholstered. Equal to new. Send a postal to HARRISON, 140 CENTRAL AVE., Cabinet maker, Polisher, Mattress Maker.

The Expense of Moving Your Old Upright or Square Piano or Organ?



The moving season of the year is here. Are you considering the cost of moving your old upright or square

PIANO or ORGAN.

Our letter of credit has been a great convenience to many. Why not to you? At no expense to you whatever we will send our wagon for your old instrument, saving you the cost of moving it, and give you our Letter of Credit for the amount of its exchange valuation which may be applied on the purchase price of any new Upright Piano or Player-Piano from our large and beautiful stock.

A valuation of your old instrument can be arranged by sending postal or telephone or by calling at our wareroom.

The time for the economical disposing of your old instrument is now offered you. Let us hear from you at once.

Mathushek & Son Piano Co.,

310 West Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J.,
'Phone 910-J

Vail JEWELER AND OPTICIAN

103 Park Ave.,

calls your attention to his

Rimless Glasses.

They Look Good and You See Good.

EDUCATIONAL.

JOSEPH Mc INTYRE,
Pianist, Coach, Accompanist
TEACHER OF PIANO and SINGING
New York Studio, 30 E. 23rd Street, Wednesdays and Saturdays.
Plainfield, Residence and Studio, Telephone 386-J 1308 Watchung Avenue
1 9 6mos

ATTEND DRAKE BUSINESS COLLEGE PLAINFIELD

For thorough training in English, Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Penmanship, Commercial Law and correlative branches. The school that does not PROMISE to ASSIST graduates to positions, but that guarantees absolutely to PLACE them, and does it. 11 25 tf

Plainfield Business College
WOODHULL & MARTIN BUILDING.
SCHOOL OF ENGLISH.
A school well equipped for doing high grade work.
Investigate this school—it pays. 1½ hours devoted to English every day. Day and Evening sessions all the year. Capacity 400 students.
A. S. HERR, Prin. and Prop.

REAL ESTATE

RENTALS—REAL ESTATE
Geo. F. Brown,
INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE.
Commissioner of Deeds—Rents.
94 Somerset St. 'Phone 160.

STATIONERY AND TOYS.
HARPER,
411 PARK AVENUE.

Press Want Ads. Pay

DRUGGISTS.

MOTH BALLS

Will save you your money over what might happen to your clothes.
They will insure your clothes being preserved thru the summer and will enable you to have them fresh and whole in the fall. Now is the time to buy MOTH BALLS.

C. M. Nagle's Pharmacy,
Front and Grove Sts. 'Phone 516.

Complete Line of
REXALL
Goods at
MILLER'S PHARMACY
Park Ave. & 4th St. Tel. 233.

Hodge's Pharmacy.
Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Tel. 62.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
EAST FRONT STREET
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Room.

HOTEL KENSINGTON
(Licensed)
WM. J. POULSON, Prop.
107-109-111 North Avenue.
Everything New and Up-to-date
An Inspection Solicited.

HOTEL IROQUOIS
Club breakfast from 6:30 to 10:30 a. m. Business Men's Lunch from 11:30 to 2:30 p. m.
ROOMS
First floor, $1 sing'e; $1.50 double.
Second floor, 75c single; $1 double.
Third floor, 50c single; 75c double.
A LA CARTE 6:30 UNTIL 1 A. M.
Special Sunday Dinner from 12:30 to 2:30 p. m. 50c

Electricians!
Michaelsen & Hage
No. 148 E. Fifth St. Tel. 1077-J

How Refreshing
when you feel tired in body and languid in spirit; when the day's work has left you wearied and in need of a soothing draught, there is nothing that can so completely fill that want as a cup of our delicious Ceylon Tea. We have this excellent Tea, and many other good blends, at reasonable prices.
W. W. DUNN,
THE PARK GROCER,
DUER STREET AND LINCOLN PLACE.

STOP AT
Central R. R. News Stands
for PLAINFIELD PRESS, always on sale. Daily and Sunday papers delivered, all magazines, weekly papers, novelties, back numbers a specialty. R. R. guides, automobile road and state maps, Phila. papers. Fine brand of Cigars and tobacco. Open Sundays.
F. M. WAGNER, Manager.

YOU WILL NEVER BUY A HOME WITH MONEY PAID FOR RENT IN THE PAST.
START NOW TO
OWN A HOME
of your own by taking our shares in
THE CENTRAL
BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION
OF PLAINFIELD.
J. F. MacDONALD, Secretary.
Smalley Building, 149 North Avenue.

McCULLOUGH'S STEAM MILL,
21 Steiner place, North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 517-J.
Furniture, Freight, Baggage Express and Rigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

Try a box of
DOBBINS' CIGARS.
Clear Havana Nickle Yara or any kind that you desire. Manufactured at 120 North Avenue, opposite Kensington Hotel, Plainfield, N. J.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Cedar Posts and Bean Poles. Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
69 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS,
P. O. Box 320.

Mountain House,
Mt. Bethel, N. J.
FRENCH RESTAURANT
Resort for Automobiles and Driving Parties
A. E. BINZ, Prop

COAL DEALERS

Difference In Coal.

All coals may look alike to some people, but compare our "Lehigh" Coal with the Coal you bought somewhere else and you will see a difference.

You will notice that our Coal Burns Brighter, Gives More Heat, and Lasts Longer than any other Coal you ever bought before.

Boice, Runyon & Co.,
Coal, Lumber and Masons' Materials.
Park Ave., opp. North Ave., Plainfield N. J.

JOS. HARRIGAN
OLD COMPANY'S LEHIGH COAL.
Tel. 193 929 South Ave.

The best time to order your winter supply of
COAL
is now. Do not forget that
NASH
is ready to supply you.
Telephones 357-W 833-J.
Evenings 371-W.
OFFICE—130 WATCHUNG AVENUE

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers' Inn.
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 218 West Front Street. Telephone 23-L.

Coal I have on hand some very fine Hard and Medium Coal. All kept undersheds. Pea Coal. Coal
25 cents a ton reduction on cash orders.
L. A. RHEAUME,
148 East Fourth St. Telephone 440-W
Yard, 674 South Second St. Telephone 230.

GEORGE O. STEVENS
747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. H. Rugg & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 430 West Third St. Tel. 93.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

We call your attention to our fine display of
New Wall Papers.
We can't describe the patterns, but they are new, striking and effective, and with our large assortment we are sure to please.
Paints, Oils and Varnishes.
Woolston & Buckle,
145 North Avenue.

STRIKING COLORS
should not be sought in preference to those that have good lasting qualities, but when
PAINTS
are to be had which are both brilliant and durable, take care to secure that kind.
We have all kinds and grades of Paints, Oils, Colors and Varnishes, suitable for all kinds of work at the lowest prices to be found in this city.
Jas. C. Hansen,
Dealer in Wallpapers, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc
141 East Front Street
Estimates Furnished

1908 Wall Papers.
IMPORTED & AMERICAN GOODS.
C. CONOVER & CO.
Decorators, Painters and Paperhangers, Window and Plate Glass.
115 Elmwood Pl. Tel. 1145

W. S. CHEEVER
1326 Park Ave.
Painting and INTERIOR DECORATING. WALL PAPER of every description at the Lowest Prices.
'Phone No. 538-J.

NOTICE.
If you are dissatisfied with your paper service call on or call up
THE HUSTLER,
William H. Olmstead, 331 Watchung Avenue, near Fourth St. Successor to D.H. Blaney & Son
'668-J Either 'Phone 668-J

AZIENZA
cures pimples and all inflammation of the skin. Used by people of refinement. Medicinal and toilet—35 and 50 cents.
CREAM.

SMALLEY BROS.
147 North Ave.
BUTCHERS
Our Specialty, Berkshire Pork
Try Our Berkshire Sausage Made on Premises
Roasting and Broiling Chickens a Specialty.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83-A. 5 1 tf

The Southern Restaurant,
232 West Second Street, corner Madison Avenue, now under new management. Meals served at all hours a la carte and table d'hote. Our own make bread and pastrys all home cooking. The choice of everything is bought for the tables. Our price is reasonable. The place is now under the management of the well known New York caterer. T. H. Royster, Manager. Tel. 923-J. 1 18 tf

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing. Gas Fitting. Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 Watchung Av. Rear.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

JOHN WINZENREID,
Furniture and Freight Express.
Moving Vans and Storage.
312 Lee Place. 'Phone 840-R.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.
Renovating—Offices, stores and private residences. Service day or night. Furniture, china and glassware packed for shipping.
WM. A. KLINE, 611 W. 3d St.

Geo. H. Stagaard,
SHOEMAKING and REPAIRING.
108 CHURCH STREET.

TITUS H. LAURY
MASON AND BUILDER.
Office, 323 East Front Street.
Tile Setting, Mantel and Front Work.
Telephone 464-L.

TURKISH BATHS!
TAKE ONE
Ladies Mornings, Gentlemen Afternoons
Take Trolley to Sanitarium, Somerset Street.

Cleaning, Pressing and Dyeing.
Monthly Contracts.
Dresses called for and delivered.
EVENING DRESSES A SPECIALTY.
Ladies' Waists Cleaned, 75 cents upwards
Gents' Suits Cleaned $1.50
All work done by our own work at
M. A. Brown's, 218 West Second St.

William H. Pope,
ELECTRICIAN.
All kinds of electrical work done at reasonable prices.
116 NORTH AVENUE.

Rouse & Fullagar,
CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS.
117 Plainfield Avenue.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St. Tel. 507-W.

Meat Market.
Choice Meats, Poultry, Fish and Oysters always on hand. Sugar cured Corned Beef. International Hams and Bacon
F. Neidig, 94 Somerset St. Telephone 781

E. B. Maynard's
Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a specialty.
Tel. No. 754-R.
141 NORTH AVENUE.

JOHN WIRTH
(Successor to Henry Liefke.)
Bakery and Confectionery.
201-203 West Front St. Tel. No. 723
All orders delivered at short notice.

HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS
Silver trunks safely delivered to safety deposit vaults.
Furniture Moving Van and Baggage Delivery.
OFFICE 205 PARK AVENUE
Tel. 833-W. Residence Tel. 648-L

REAL ESTATE
Bought, Sold and For Rent.
J. SACHAR,
731 WEST THIRD STREET.

SIS HOPKINS' SAYINGS.

Many a girl surrenders at the pianoforte.

Many a financial upset is the result of a tip.

All plain, blunt men do not use stub pens.

A well-bred man doesn't brag about his dough.

Some weddings are little else than a dress-suit case.

The man who writes with a quill is naturally a goose.

When a man doesn't care a wrap, he generally gets the sack.

The man who lives in the valley of discontent should put up a bluff.

Because a woman wears a chic gown is no sign that she is chicken-hearted.

You can go from New York clean to Pittsburg—but you can't come away that way.

South Bend and the Grecian Bend are in no way related—for South Bend is straight.

Ma's motto for framing: Keep busy, and you won't have to read books on how to be happy.

The man who wears side-whiskers and a white tie may be honest—but appearances are against him.—Rose Melville in St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

FRUIT FROM IRRIGATED LANDS.

First grade Spitzbergen apples bring $2.50 a box.

Four acres of Elberta pears netted $1,000 an acre.

Peter Bach got $2,137 from peaches on an acre and a half.

From five acres of Italian prunes an Oregon man got $3,600.

One and three-quarters acres of Spitzbergen apples brought Russell & Sons $4,000.

Mrs. Thekla Weisberger of Oregon got $2,900 from three and a half acres of peach trees.

One-year pear trees produced pears 11 inches around. Many trees bear in their second year.

From irrigated fruit lands Washington orchardmen are making from $1,000 to $2,000 net per acre.

A yellow Newton apple tree yielded 19 boxes of first grade apples at $2.25 per box, and five boxes of culls at $1.

The Yakima output was, roughly estimated: Peaches, 250 cars, at $800 a car; plums and prunes, 25 cars, $550 a car; pears, 10 cars, at $750 a car; apples, 225 cars, at $900 a car.

JEWS IN THE REVOLUTION.

In America as early as 1765 Jews sided with the colonists in resisting the English governmental oppressions.

In 1769 a body of volunteers consisting entirely of Jews was formed in Charleston, S. C., and fought under Gen. Moultrie.

David I. Franks was an aid de camp for Gen. Arnold, but refused to join in his traitorous schemes, and later testified to the innocence of Mrs. Arnold.

Among other Jews who did good work in revolutionary times were Col. Isaac Frank of Washington's staff; Philip Moses Russell, who assiduously cared for the sick and wounded, and Samuel Lyon of New York; Isaac Moses of Philadelphia and Manuel Mordecai Noah of South Carolina. Mordecai Sheftall, commissary general in Georgia, bravely defended Savannah.

TO THE BOOK BORROWER.

Use a bookmark.

Refrain from using a pencil.

Don't give it to the children to play with.

Don't moisten your thumb to turn the pages.

Don't leave the volume open, face downward.

Don't crack it out of the binding to make it stay open.

Cut the leaves with a paper knife designed for that purpose.

As you value its owner's friendship, don't turn the leaves down.

Read it in good time, and for heaven's sake, return it some time.—Washington Herald.

PROVERBS AND PHRASES.

Be just and fear not.—Shakespeare.

Ants never head their course to an empty granary.—Latin.

In the place where the tree falleth there shall it lie.—Bible.

Be not arrogant when fortune smiles, nor dejected when she frowns.—Ansonius.

BOARD TERS CALENDAR
Sun Sets 6 55 p. m.
Lamps must be lighted 7 55 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, SATURDAY, MAY 2, 1908. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

THE WEATHER

Rain this afternoon or tonight; Sunday fair, colder.
Maximum, 55; minimum, 31; for 24 hours ending at noon. Ther. at noon 44.

REED ADVISES COUNCIL

Borough Fathers' Legal Advisor Saves Illegal Action in Official Capacity.

THE TAX ASSESSOR'S MISTAKE.

Over Assessment by Dr. Cooley to Be Refunded by Him—G. A. R. May Lose Next Year's Appropriation.

The presence of Borough Counsel Charles A. Reed at the session of the borough fathers last night, and his participation as legal advisor in the business of the meeting prevented illegal rulings by the Council in two cases and was the cause of much legal discussion as to the rights and privileges of the body. As a result, Tax Assessor J. H. Cooley will have to make good an over-assessment of $2.50, and the annual donation to the G. A. R. for Decoration Day observances may be diminished or cut off another year. Mr. Reed did not expect to go to the meeting with the idea of acting in official capacity, but gave his opinion freely as a borough official when called upon by Mayor Townsend.

In the matter of the over-assessment, Mr. Reed's advice was positive to the effect that the borough should not stand for the rebate of $2.50 made necessary by Dr. Cooley's statement that a borough tax-payer had been over-assessed. The case is that of a woman who was assessed too much for personal property. The rating was the same as last year, and Dr. Cooley has since learned that sickness has caused the necessity for selling considerable of the property, so that the high rating is unjust. The tax assessor brought this matter up, coming to the meeting for that express purpose. The woman taxed did not enter any protest within the legal time, but since then the matter has been brought to Dr. Cooley's notice. The matter was discussed by the Councilmen and Mr. Reed was called upon for advce. He stated that in his opinion the assessment was certainly illegal, but as the time for protesting values to the borough had expired, Dr. Cooley should make up the difference, refunding the excess assessment. Mr. Reed pointed out that it was a matter which the borough could take no stand in because of precedent which might be established, and the Council ruled according to his advice.

Another legal point was raised when the communication from Captain W. C. Smith, of Winfield Scott Post was read, asking for the borough's appropriation of $35 to defray Memorial Day expenses. The appropriation was voted, but Mr. Reed said that it was only a partially legal measure, defended by a law now on the statute books, but rendered illegal by Paragraph 19 of Article 1, Section 1, of the State constitution. This forbids borough governments from voting money to any organization or individuals.

When the Councilmen were about to vote on a request for a building permit, Mr. Reed interfered on the grounds that the buildings mentioned would be outside of the borough fire limits, stating that no action was necessary by the North Plainfield fathers in the case. The petition came from George W. Arnett, who wants to erect ten frame building on Westervelt avenue, between Fairview and Jackson avenues. In the discussion of the petition before Mr. Reed's ruling, it developed that the Councilmen were opposed to granting it, because of the statement that the ground was too small to warrant the erection of so many houses without crowding. Aside from the Mayor and Mr. Reed, Councilmen Smith, Van Ardsdale, Waldron and Woolston were at the meeting.

PRINCETON SMOKER PLANS ABOUT COMPLETED.

Arrangements are about completed for the smoker for Princeton men of Plainfield and vicinity to be given Wednesday night, May 20, at 8:30 o'clock at the Casino. There will be a quartet and some novelties and every son of Old Nassau in this vicinity is expected to attend and whoop it up for his alma mater. There are about sixty-five Princeton men in Plainfield and efforts are being made by Owen H. Fleming, chairman of the committee, to reach every one.

Robert Bridges editor of Scribner's Magazine; McCready Sykes and William R. Wilder, a member of the faculty at Princeton University, will be among the principal speakers. Any Princeton man in this vicinity who has failed to receive an invitation to the smoker is urged to communicate at once with Owen H. Fleming, 1012 Park avenue.

—Dr. D. C. Hughes, father of Governor Hughes, Y. M. C. A., Sunday 4 p. m.

CURRENT EVENTS CLUB CONDUCTS A MUSICALE

Under the auspices of the Current Events Club, of North Plainfield, a charming musicale was given yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Otis E. Hovey, of West Seventh street. During the past year the club has been studying Scandinavian literature, and this being the last meeting of the club for the season, it was planned to enjoy an hour of Scandinavian music by Joseph McIntyre.

The numbers were selected from among the best of Scandinavian composers and they were enthusiastically received by the members of the club. Mr. McIntyre's interpretation of the several compositions was charming and the reendition was perfect in every detail. He and Mrs. McIntyre gave the first number, a piano duet, in a delightful manner. Another feature of the musicale was the vocal selections by Mr. McIntyre. He gave four numbers and his singing was very pleasing. The assisting artist was Harry Dorr, violinist, whose work was also greatly enjoyed.

The program follows:

"Peer Gynt," suite, Grieg, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McIntyre; "Romance," for violin, Gade, Harry Dorr; songs, "The Gull," Sindung; "A Berdling Song," Soderman, Mr. McIntyre; "Norwegian Melody," for violin, Kjerulf, Mr. Dorr; songs, "The Old Song," and "The Swan," Grieg, Mr. McIntyre; piano solo, "La Tristesse," (Finnish) Sibelius, Mr. McIntyre.

After the musicale a social hour was enjoyed, during which refreshments were served. The officers of the club are: President, Mrs. Samuel St. John McCutchen; vice-presidents, Mrs. A. E. Faber, Jr. and Mrs. Charles W. McCutchen; secretary, Mrs. H. P. Reynolds; treasurer, Mrs. Augustus VanDeventer.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR SOMERSET ST. BRIDGE

At a meeting of the Somerset Board of Freeholders yesterday bids were received and opened for the culvert bridge over Somerset street, near the Arlington hotel, in North Plainfield, as follows: Arthur E. Smith, $12 a cubic yard complete; Schuyler & Allgair, $8.75; F. G. Sutton, $9.90; J. W. Scott, $8.35; W. T. Kirk Co., $8.40. Andrew Lutkins, William Demler and Joel Codington were appointed at a committee to have charge of the construction of the bridge and the bids were referred to them, with the county engineer.

Mr. Scott, the lowest bidder, stated that he could not build the bridge within six weeks and the present structure being in a dangerous condition the committee, after a conference, recommended that the contract be awarded to the W. T. Kirk Co. This was done and the director was authorized to execute the contract.

The matter of the Culver street bridge, Somerville, was laid over until a subsequent meeting.

It was decided to build a new bridge at Harry Hill's on the Pluckemin road, with concrete or stone walls, 12 x 14 feet, concrete floor. Bids for same will be received the second Tuesday in May at the Court House.

A communication was received from the Standard Paint Works at Bound Brook in reference to the condition of the iron bridge in that place. Members Peter Smith, Andrew Lutkins, Joel Codington, Joseph Fitzgarald Edward B. Hoagland, with the director and engineer Doughty, were appointed as a committee for the purpose of examining the bridge, with power to employ a competent and disinterested engineer to report to the board.

The board will meet Friday, May 8, at the Court House, to receive bids for the Watchung bridge.

Senator Ackerman Lectures.

A good-sized audience greeted State Senator Ernest R. Ackerman last evening at the Y. M. C. A., when he lectured for the benefit of the local Christian Endeavor Union. He displayed over 100 beatuifully colored slides of various lands and visiting by proxy remote places in many parts of the world. They included interesting scenes in Nassau, Trinidad, St. Kitts, Maderia, Lisbon, Syria, Java and Ceylon, as well as in China and Japan. The views were considered about the finest ever seen here and the audience thoroughly appreciated them.

Miss Conway Surprised.

A surprise party was tendered to Miss Mary Ella Conway, of East Second street and Terrill road, yesterday afternoon in honor of her eighth birthday. Several hours were spent in playing games, and Miss Conway's uncle, Nicholas Myers, gave violin selections, after which refreshments were served. Among the guests present were about twenty-one school friends who all remembered her with gifts.

PROGRAM OF Y.W.C.A. GLEE CLUB CONCERT

The program for the concert to be given Tuesday night by the glee club of the Y. W. C. A. was announced by Mrs. H. L. DeForest today and includes selections by Miss Jeanette Myers, of Poughkeepsie, Mrs. DeForest, Mr. Smith, William H. Holmes, and a quartet composed of Miss Elsie Goddard, Miss Ursula Rowland, Miss Maida Hyde and Miss Frances VanDeventer, as well as chorus selections by the entire club, of about forty members. The concert will be held in the association building on East Front street. The program follows:

Part one: "Merry June Polka" (Vincent), glee club; selection from Chopin, "Two Preludes," (Schutt), "The Brook," (MacDowell), by Mrs. Henry L. DeForest; "Aus der Rosenzeit, (Von Fielitz), "Allerseelen," (Richard Strauss), by Miss Jeanette Myers; duett, "Excelsior" (Balfe), Messrs. Holmes and Smith; "Father's Lullaby," (Niske), "After the Rain," (Parute), by the glee club.

Part two: "The Angel," (Rubenstein), "Shoozy Shoe," (Grace Mayhew), by the glee club; "An Old Garden," (Hope Temple), by Mr Smith; "Chloe," (Clough-Leighton), "Carmena," (Lane Wilson), by the quartet; "The Mermaid's Song," (Haydn) "O Sleep, Why Dost Thou Leave Me?" (Handel), "When 'Celia Sleeps," (Moir), by Miss Jeanette Myers; "The Kitten," (Bohen-Lynes) "Amorosa," (Boex), by the glee club; Sherzi from Chopin, by Mrs. DeForest.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION CONVENES ON TUESDAY

All plans have been completed for the 124th annual session of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of New Jersey, which will be held in Christ church, New Brunswick, on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. The members of both Christ church and of the Church of St. John the Evangelist will entertain the visiting ministers. It is expected that 200 or more ministers and laymen will attend the convention sessions. Grace, Holy Cross, St. Stephen's and Heavenly Rest churches in Plainfield will be represented by their rectors and lay delegates.

The exercises will open with the celebration of the Holy Communion in Christ church at 10:30 a. m. on Tuesday, with Bishop Scarborough as celebrant. Rev. A. B. Baker, rector of Trinity church, Princeton, dean of the Convocation of New Brunswick, and Rev. Charles M. Perkins, rector of Trinity church, Vineland, dean of the Convocation of Burlington, will read the Epistle and Gospel. Rev. Gilbert Underhill, rector of St. John's church, Camden, will preach the sermon.

Rev. E. B. Joyce will preside, and welcome the delegates to the church.

After the service the convention will assemble for business in the hall of the parish house.

Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock in Graham & McCormick's dining hall by the ladies of the parishes.

At 2:30 o'clock the convention will reassemble in the hall of the parish house.

At 8 p. m. shortened evening prayer will be held, at which the deans of the two convocations will make their missionary reports. Geo. C. Thomas, of the Church of the Holy Apostles, and treasurer of the Board of Missions of the Episcopal church, will make the address on "Methods of Sunday School Work." He is one of the greatest Sunday-school workers in the country. Dr. Thomas is from Philadelphia.

On Wednesday morning there will be an early celebration of Holy Communion at 7 o'clock at Christ church and the Church of St. John the Evangelist.

At 9 o'clock morning prayer will be held, after which the convention will reassemble for business.

Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock.

The last business session will be held at 2:30 p. m., and will conclude about 5 o'clock.

The nomination of the standing committee will take place the first day and the election on the second day of the convention.

Planning Canal Under the Palisades.

Lemuel William Serrell, of West Seventh street, is one of the incorporators with capitalists from Passaic for the construction of a ship canal from Passaic to the Hudson River.

Tyler & Tyler Remove.

William S. Tyler and Cornelius B. Tyler, of the law firm of Tyler & Tyler, have removed their offices to No. 32 Cortlandt street, New York.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

WHY HE SLAYED SELF

Mortified by Speech Impediment 'tis Said, Augustus Frentz Commits Suicide.

SCOTCH PLAINS IN MOURNING.

Amateur Ball Player Popular in the Village Which Grieves Over His Rash Act.

The suicide of Augustus Frentz, Jr., at his home in Scotch Plains, yesterday, has cast a deep gloom over the town, especially among the younger people with whom he was popular. His condition was critical from the first and despite the combined efforts of Drs. Westcott and Pittis they were unable to locate the bullet which apparently had inbedded itself in the brain and he passed away without regaining consciousness.

While the family is unable to assign a reason for the deed, there is strong reason to believe that an impediment in his speech was largely responsible for it. Mr. Frentz was greatly afflicted with stammering, and he was constantly being "jollied" by his many friends. It was a common occurrence for them to imitate him, and being of a sensitive disposition, it is known that he deeply felt the good natured raillery thrust at him. It is said that he had often tried to find a cure for his affliction, but without avail and the fact that he could get no relief preyed on his mind.

His home life was pleasant and his family declare that they noticed nothing strange about his actions that would lead them to be suspcious. Mr. Frentz was especially interested in the 'Plains baseball team and expected to do most of the pitching for the club this season. It was largely through his efforts that the team was organized and in past season's it was due to his great interest that the organization was so successful. He was the crack pitcher for the club last year when it was a member of the Inter-City Amateur League.

Mr. Frentz and his brother, George had been working together in the morning, putting up a new piazza at Henry Keuhn's house on Westfield avenue, and it was noticed that he was in a particularly jovial mood. He quit work at noon and on reaching home started to cut the lawn grass. Suddenly without saying a word to anyone he dropped the task and went to his room. The first the family knew of the shooting was when they heard the report of th pistol.

Rushing upstairs, Mr. Frentz's sister, Jennie, found him lying on the side of the bed, his fingers still working at the trigger of the revolver. Three chambers had already been discharged, but only one bullet, evidently the first, entering the head through the mouth and imbedding itself in the recesses of the brain.

The members of the family declare that the act was not premediatated, as Mr. Frentz had written a friend to be sure and meet him at the baseball game this afternoon, so as to complete plans for a trip they were expecting to take tomorrow.

HARTRIDGE SCHOOL TO HAVE ANOTHER SCHOOL BUILDING.

In connection with the annual exhibition of pupils' work in the elementary department of the Hartridge School, Miss Emelyn B. Hartridge announced yesterday to a gathering of parents of the pupils that the day school would be held in a separate building another year and that plans were practically completed for the establishing of an up-to-date private school. No building has yet been definitely decided upon, but Miss Hartridge has several centrally situated places under consideration.

The exhibition of pupils' work, held in the elementary department building on East Seventh street, was largely attended and examples of the year's work in arithmetic, geography, history, spelling, English and art were shown. Aside from presenting a general report of the year's work, Miss Hartridge spoke of the growth of the school and outlined her plans for the coming year. An important change is that the boys of the fifth, sixth and seventh grades will next year be in a separate department under the supervision of a master.

Plainfield Art at Pittsburg.

Jonas Lie and Allen G. Cram, of this city, enjoy the distinction of having their pictures hung in the Carnegie Art Gallery, Pittsburg, now holding its twelfth international exhibition. Mr. Lee's picture is "Timber Line Cedars," and Mr. Cram's is "Bald Bluff."

Borough Exempts to Elect.

The annual meeting of the North Plainfield Exempt Firemen's Association will be held Monday night, when officers will be elected for the coming year.

DRYDEN TO PRESIDE AT G.O.P. CONVENTION

John F. Dryden, of Newark, formerly United States Senator, has been selected for presiding officer of the Republican State Convention next Tuesday. Thomas J. Hillery, of Morris, president of the State Senate, was mentioned for the place, but he declined to stand when the name of Senator Dryden was suggested.

Senator Dryden is a strong Taft man, and this is expected to lead the convention somewhat in the direction of the Presidential candidacy of Secretary of War, but not to the extent of having the delegates instructed for him or for any one else. It has been the custom to send New Jersey delegates to national conventions without instructions and this is likely to be done again this year.

Present indications are that the delegates at large will be Governor Fort, United States Senators Kean and Briggs and State Assessor Baird, the latter of Camden county. This is the organization slate, although the organization leaders are willing that Franklin Murphy, chairman of the State Committee, shall go in Governor Fort's place if that plan would be more acceptable to Mr. Fort and his friends.

Governor Fort would like to have Mr. Murphy named as one of the "big four" but he is not particularly pleased with the plan of being eliminated himself. He would also like to have John W. Griggs named as a delegate at large. His plan would be to drop out the two Senators.

In addition to the four delegates at large New Jersey will be represented at Chicago by twenty district delegates two from each of the ten Congressional districts.

$1 A DAY FINE TO STOP BOYS "PLAYING HOOKEY"

On complaint of the truant officer, Miss Adelaide Ball, three small boys, George Blount, George Suydam and John Driscoll, were arraigned in the city court, this morning, as habitual "hookey" players. When they lined up in front of the desk, their parents were with them and after Judge Runyon had heard the testimony he addressed his remarks to the latter. He declared that he would hold them responsible for the future appearance of the boys at school and that punishment would fall on the parents at a repitition of the charge.

"This remaining away from school must be stopped," was the judge's comment, "and the best plan to bring it about is to let the punishment fall on the fathers and mothers. I want the parents here now to understand that if these boys are complained against any more I will fine them a dollar for every day they are marked absent."

The magistrate recently made the same disposition of a couple of truant cases and the plan of a dollar fine for each day seems to have effected a radical cure.

JAMES MYERS TRIES SUICIDE; SAID TO HAVE LIVED HERE.

A dispatch from Cumberland in last night's Newark News reports the attempted suicide of James Myers, a former resident here. Inquiry has failed to identify the man as a Plainfielder. The dispatch follows:

"While suffering from dementia, caused by a tooth, which had ache for a week, and which could not be extracted because of its condition, James Myers, formerly of Plainfield, but now superintendent of the Russell estate, near Cumberland, tried to commit suicide by hanging himself yesterday. He was found suspended in the attic, and was cut down just in time to save his life."

Discussing New Fire House.

There was a meeting of the Councilmanic fire committee, last night, when the members discussed informally matters pertaining to the proposed new fire house in the Netherwood section of the city. A. L. C. Marsh will present a set of plans for the structure and the committee is now getting things in shape so that the house can be built this summer. It is not considered likely that the committee will recommend an automobile aparatus for that section of the city. There is an element of uncertainity about gasolene-driven motors, and the committee are more favorable to the use of horses.

Rev. W. Bryce Morrow's Funeral.

The funeral services for Rev. William Bryce Morrow, who died yesterday morning, will be held at Grace church on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be made in the family plot at Ashland cemetery, Carlisle, Pa., on Tuesday afternoon.

—Everything in photographic goods is carried at "The Photo Store," formerly Van Winkle's. ***

BOROUGH FATHERS WON'T BUY SCHOOL FIRE BOX

The petition from the North Plainfield Board of Education for a fire alarm box on the corner at the Watchung School was refused at the meeting of the borough council last night, but the borough fathers will stand for the expense of installing and maintaining a box if the school board will purchase one. The petition was presented by Nelson A. Miller after it had been framed at a meeting of the Board Monday night. In giving the ruling in the matter, Councilman Smith, of the fire, water and lamps committee, stated that the expense of purchasing a box would be $125, while it can be installed for $5 and maintained at a cost of $12.50 a year.

A petition from Henry DeMott, asking permission to build a wooden awning partially over the sidewalk for 48 feet along the front of the store at 59 Somerset street. Borough Counsel Charles A. Reed emphasized that to grant such a petition would be to violate a borough ordinance, and it was voted down. D. W. Force's petition for the erection of two frame dwellings on Warren street, carried over from the last meeting, was rejected on the grounds that it would cause unsanitary crowding of buildings there.

In the reports from the various committees, Councilman Smith, of the fire, water and lamps committee, stated that the cost of the new borough fire horses had been $600. He said that the team is heavier and better matched than the former team, and were perfectly sound. The remaining horse of the old team is to be sold. The report of Borough Recorder Charles M. Dolliver showed that during the month of April there had been eleven arrests and $9 in fines collected.

MORE ATTRACTIVE DANCES FOR KIRMESS

One of the most attractive dances to be given at the Kirmess, for the benefit of Muhlenberg Hospital, at the New Plainfield theatre, May 12-16, will be that of the "Indian Braves," to be chaperoned by Mrs. Jabez Gilbert, assisted by Mrs. J. B. Dumont. Those who are to take part in this dance are the following:

Masters Stanley Burke, F. Warren Butler, Jr., Robert Foote, Robert Gavett, Lawrence Heely, Otis Hovey, Charles Hyde, Ned Jenkins, Donald Ketchem, Ned Stevenson, Ludlow VanDeventer, Philip VanDeventer.

Another dance that is sure to be voted a great success will be the "Harlequin," to be chaperoned by Mrs. G. H. Goddard, assisted by Miss Margaret Goddard. Those taking part are the following:

The Misses Elsie Burke, Grace Helen Brown, Harriett Goddard, Elsie Goddard, Helen Merrill, Marguerite VanDeventer and Frances Van Deventer; Herbert Foster, W. Lester Glenney, Frederick Goddard, Harold Hall, Stuart Johnston, Rudolf Kayser, Morgan Townsend, James Williams. Miss Elsie Goddard will take the solo part.

One of the features of the Kirmess will be the sale of a souvenir, in the shape of a watch fob. On one side is an attractive face of a woman, while the reverse side bears this inscription: "Souvenir Kirmess, for the benefit of Muhlenberg Hospital, held at the New Plainfield theatre, May 12-16, 1908, Plainfield, N. J."

Owl Club Dance.

A highly successful dance was given at Saengerbund Hall last night under the auspices of the Owl Social Club, and nearly a hundred couples took part in the dancing. Music was furnished by Suhr's Imperial orchestra. George Smith was floor manager, assisted by George Schlick and Frank Jellig. The committee on arrangements comprised H. A. Wierenga, C. L. Ryder, Jr., and Jacob Schlick, and the reception committee consisted of Edward Mattell and George Mead. George Smith is president of the association, H. A. Wierenga, vice-president, C. L. Ryder, Jr., secretary and J. A. Schlick, treasurer.

Rugg For Board of Health.

C. H. Rug was appointed a member of the North Plainfield Board of Health at last night's meeting of the borough council. He will succeed Thomas Doud, who is now living in Westfield. In announcing the appointment, which was unanimously endorsed by the council, Mayor Townsend pointed out that the fact that Mr. Rugg is not engaged in business was the prime reason for his choice as an efficient member of the board.

Delegates to State Federation.

Mrs. Henry M. Maxson, president of the Monday Afternoon Club, and Mrs. Charles L. Goodrich were delegates to the annual meeting of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Club held yesterday and today at Riverton.

MOTORMAN'S WIFE GONE; A FIREMAN DISAPPEARS

Louis Kelly's Departure as Sudden and Unexpected as That of Mrs. Ira Dumont.

KELLY'S WIFE IS PENNILESS.

Mrs. Dumont Decamps With Hubby's Coin and Their Child—Kelly Leaves Wife and Child Behind.

Louis Kelly, who has been employed as a driver in the fire department during the past two years, and recently stationed at No. 3 house on West Fourth street, left the city yesterday afternoon, and at the time, it is said, he was accompanied by Mrs. Ira Dumont, wife of a motorman on the Fourth street trolley. In his departure from the city, Kelly left his wife and a young child, while Mrs. Dumont, it is said, took her young child with her. As yet Mrs. Kelly has made no complaint against her husband or had a warrant issued for his arrest, although she has declared her intention of doing so.

According to the story of persons who were apparently acquainted with the movements of the pair, Kelly is said to have told his wife yesterday noon that he had a day off and had planned to take her out riding. The couple came down town from their home on West Fourth street, and Mrs. Kelly remained with a friend, while her husband supposedly went after the rig.

Considerable time elapsed and Kelly not returning the wife became suspicious and decided to return home. When she reached home, it is said, the neighbors informed her that her husband had been there, obtained a dress suit case and had gone away.

In the meantime, it is said, Dumont went home to dinner and not finding his wife there decided to investigate. He went to fire headquarters and inquired for Kelly. There he was told that the fireman had tendered his resignation to Chief Doane two weeks ago and was not on duty at the time.

Those who talked with Dumont seemed convinced that he had no doubt but that his wife had disappeared with their child. Later, it was said, he had decided to break up housekeeping at once and sell all his household goods. He is heartbroken over the affair. Mrs. Dumont was Miss Carrie Wyhuskey, daughter of Charles Wyhuyskey, of Dunellen, and is considered an attractive young woman.

Kelly was formerly employed as a mortorman on the trolley, resigning to take a position as driver in the fire department. He is reported to have remarked frequently that he intended leaving the department, and it was said that he told his wife that he had been granted a month's vacation, after which he said that he had changed his mind and would kee phis job. It is also said that he left a number of unpaid bills about the city, and that he received his wages in full from the city before going away.

It was said this morning that Mrs. Dumont had taken her husband's wages with her, in fact, all the money n the house, and it is said that she had been planning the disappearance for several days.

Considerable sympathy is expressed for Mrs. Kelly and her child. They have been left penniless and with no means of a livelihood. Before her marriage Mrs. Kelly's name was Miss Mowinkel, of North Plainfield.

Services at First Baptist Church.

At the First Baptist church tomorrow morning, Rev. Dr. D. C. Hughes, of Brooklyn, will preach, and the communion service will follow. In the afternoon at the Sunday-school hour, services of an evangelistic nature will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Joseph Chambliss, and the evening service will be of the same character, at which time Dr. Joseph Chambliss will again preach. The special meetings this week were so interesting and largely attended that it has been decided to continue them a few days longer. Dr. Joseph Chambliss will conduct these services Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The public is cordially invited.

Trinity Commandery, K. T., will hold a regular conclave Monday night.

H. & Force and Co.

We Give "S. & H." Green Trading Stamps

"THE WHITE STORE"
THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY

PATTERNS We have put in a complete stock of the best and most popular line of PAPER PATTERNS, handled only by one high-class store in each city in the United States.

Price 10c & 15c The Ladies Home Journal Patterns Price 10c & 15c

We are also agents for the Ladies Home Journal magazine, which has the largest circulation of any monthly book in America. Yearly subscription, $1.50.

Corsets

We carry in stock at all times a full line of sizes in the following makes:

Nemo, Nos. 318, 312, 314 at $3.00
Royal Worcester.....
Nos 409, 453, at $1 00
" " Nos. 532, 541, at $1 50
Bon Ton, Nos. 863, 888, 806 at $3 00
c/b A la Spirite.....
Nos. 482, 575, 557, at $2.50
c/b A la Spirite, Nos. 595, 1623, at $3.00
W. B., Nos. 735, 949, 754, at $1.00
W. B., Nos. 457, 749, at.....$1 50
W. B., Nos. 426, 459, at.....$2 50
R. & G., Nos. A7, 671, A24, at $1 00
R. & G., Nos. 379, B22, at....$1.50
R. & G., No. 382, at.....$3.00
Warner's Rust Proof .....
Nos. 196, 115, at $1.00
" " Nos. 186, 168, at $1.50
D. H. & C. Spirabone.....
Nos. 404, 428, at $1.00
D. H. & C Spirabone, No. 500, at $1.50
La Resista, Nos. 896, 892, at...$3.00
Thomson Glove Fitting.....
No. 165, at $1.50
Ferris Good Sense Waist.....
No. 220, at $1.00

Trading Stamps "S. & H."

Trade where they are given and never fail to ask for them. They are the most valuable of all inducements because they get the Best Premiums on Earth. Be sure to see them. Exhibit on third floor.

Take the Elevator.

Candies

OUR Candy Department has proven the most attractive and popular department in the store. They are received fresh every week, and are guaranteed absolutely fresh and pure under the Pure Food Laws of New York and New Jersey. We carry all staple brands of Candies at 10 and 12½c. lb.

Fine Chocolates and Bon-Bons, all flavors, at

25c. lb.

"THE OLD RELIABLE HOME FURNISHERS"
EST. 1860 INC. 1907
COWPERTHWAIT AND VAN HORN CO.
73 MARKET STREET. NEAR PLANE ST., NEWARK, N.J.

(B)

"Spring"—time Suggests
NEW Floor Coverings

—and we suggest "No. 73" as the place to get them, provided qual ty that's sure, and a price that's right, appeals to your taste and purse!
Only weaves that stand our warrant ever get inside our store—here's an "Inducement Sale" to start Spring season's trade!

TAPESTRY BRUSSELS CARPETS

85c. grade at 64c. Yd. | $1.00 grade at 75c. Yd. | $1.20 grade at 90c. Yd.

MADE, LAID AND LINED FREE!

HEAVY CHINESE MATTING
Just in—Regular $18 grade
$14.50
roll of 40 yds.
Many other grades and prices

FANCY JAPANESE MATTING
Cotton Warp Regular $16 grade $13.25
roll of 40 yds.
Broad choice of various other weaves

Best Grade "A No. 1"
Oil Cloth at 45c. Yd. [Reg. 60c.]

Over half a hundred kinds of oil cloth—all new and effective! Ask to see our line of Linoleums—especially the new imported line in carpet patterns—we're sole agents.

Sole Headquarters For
"The Portland Range," "Gunn Sectional Bookcases"
The Acme Washing Machine, "White" Sewing Machine
LOWEST PRICES—EASY CREDIT

LAWN MOWERS
Sharpened and Repaired

Having Installed Electric Power and Improved Grinding Machinery I Can Insure Prompt and Satisfactory Work.

A. M. GRIFFEN,
119-123 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.
'PHONES 6 and 214

Rich Milk 8c a quart.
Rich Cream 12c half pt.
Buttermilk 6c a quart

Plainfield Milk & Cream Co,
MARCHANT BROS.,
112 WATCHUNG AVENUE

PLAINFIELD OFFICE
EISELE & KING
Members of the New York and Philadelphia Stock Exchanges
In the Babcock Building, West Front St.
Private wires East and West. Ticker service. Orders executed as rapidly as in any New York office
W. De LaR. ANDERSON, Manager.

"HARD TIMES" DO NOT EFFECT THE SALE OF
"HAWES" $3.00 HATS
WHY?—BECAUSE THEY ARE GUARANTEED
JAS. R. BLAIR

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c a week.

CITY

Union News Co ..... R. R. Station
J. M. Harper .....411 Park Ave.
P. A. Laing .....149 W. Front St.
A. O. Mallinson Fourth and Liberty Sts.
Valley Waiting Room....Watchung Ave.
Dr. Ezell .....111 Park Ave.
Fenale & Stahl .....113 Somerset St.
Bailey & Son .....321 Watchung Ave.
T. A. Garthwaite ...212 Watchung Ave.
A. Anderson ...657 West Fourth St
John Mottley Cor E. 3d & Richmond Sts

SUBURBAN

Dunellen ..... B. Siriski
New Market ..... R. Burdick
Bound Brook ..... Union News Co
Bound Brook ..... L. M. Davis
Somerville ..... Jacob Genert
Watchung ....C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield ..... J. W. Wall
North Plains ..... Chas. Elliott
South Plainfield ..... Victor Attlee
Fanwood ..... Chas. Elliott
Netherwood ..... Blaney & Son

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

The subject for tomorrow morning in the Baptist church will be "Because They Forgot the Day of Their Visitation." In the evening the pastor will repeat the story of the "Man Without a Country," which he gave at one of the recent evening meetings.

James Miles, who recently purchased the Jones property on Plainfield avenue, is making extensive improvements and the place, which was always picturesque, will be one of the prettiest on the avenue when finished.

Mrs. Morgan, who has been visiting Mrs. Frank Kellogg at Edgebrook, has returned to her home in Elizabeth. Her father, Rev. J. Maul, was formerly pastor of the Baptist church in this village.

Mrs. William Manning will lead the Christian Endeavor tomorrow evening and will take for her subject "The Silver Lining of Dark Clouds." This will be the consecration meeting.

H. Mundy, of Brookside avenue, who has been for many years operating what is known as the "shifter," is now transferred to the local.

Mildred Johnson, of Plainfield avenue, has returned home after a lengthened visit to her aunt in Newark.

"Mike" Dunham has returned to Plainfield after a visit to his grandparents here.

BOUND BROOK AND VICINITY.

At the recent annual meeting of the Woman's Literary Club of Bound Brook, the following officers were elected: President, Miss Margaret P. Boyle; first vice-president, Mrs. A. S. Phelps; second vice-president, Mrs. William W. Smalley; secretary, Miss A. T. Tappan; treasurer, Mrs. J. V. D. Field; library directors for three years, Miss C. B. La Monte, Mrs. George Stryker and Mrs. C. J. Culp; delegates to the fall meeting of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. W. B. R. Mason and Miss Cone; alternates, Mrs. J. E. Rutt and Mrs. J. V. D. Metler.

Mrs. C. J. Culp, of Bound Brook, is in Philadelphia attending the annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society being held in the Chambers-Wyle Presbyterian church of that city.

Ralph Bache, of Colorado Springs, is spending several days at the home of his brother, L. S. Bache, in Beachwood avenue, Beachwood Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Denoye, who had been visiting relatives in Montreal, Canada, have returned to their home in Bound Brook.

Mrs. Robert Wilkinson, of Elizabeth street, South Bound Brook, has returned from a visit to friends in New York.

Mrs. H. H. Shepherd and mother, Mrs. M. C. Thorpe, of South Bound Brook, spent yesterday in Somerville.

A son was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Andro Heifin at their home in East Second street, Bound Brook.

Miss Ida Wolfers has been spending several days with relatives in Elizabeth.

Mrs. Paul Jablon is ill at her home in Main street, Lincoln.

NORTH BRANCH.

Miss Anna Nelson, principal of the public school at Three Bridges, reports the following pupils present every day during the school month just ended: Furman Griffith, Clifford Smith, Helen Dilts, Cora Harsell, Olive Servis and Laura Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hankinson, of New York, have been visiting Mrs. Hankinson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Serring Bunn, at Lamington, during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Peabody, who had been spending some time with their son, Frederick A. Peabody, at Readington, have returned to their home in New York.

John R. Haver, of Plainfield, has been visiting his parents, former Freeholder and Mrs. William E. Haver, at North Branch Depot, for a few days.

Mrs. Isaac Van Fleet has returned to her home at Three Bridges after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Ten Eyck, at North Branch.

Mrs. Edward Hight and Mrs. J. Myers, of North Branch, have been visiting Mrs. David Park at Dreahook, near Whitehouse Station.

Mrs. Walter Long has returned to her home in North Branch after a visit to Mrs. Edith Melick in Plainfield.

SOMERVILLE.

Miss Abby Crammer, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. William Stockton Crammer, has been made assistant to Professor John C. Van Dyke, at the Sage Library, at New Brunswick.

Mrs. Lewis C. Reigen, who had been spending two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Aaron Vanderveer, on South street, has returned to her home in Montreal, Canada.

Mrs. E. A. Clark, of Hartford, Conn., is a guest of her sister, Miss Elizabeth Voorhees, on Maple street.

Miss Anna Jamison, of West High street, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hilleary Chambers, in New York.

Mrs. A. M. Palmer is a guest of her grandson, Harry P. Dickinson, of North Ninth street, Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Cawley expect to start for a trip in their new touring car next week.

Mrs. Canfield returned yesterday from New York, where she has been staying.

RARITAN.

An entertainment was given in the chapel of the Reformed church last evening. It consisted of drills, recitations and music. After the entertainment cake and cream was sold for the benefit of the Junior Christian Endeavor.

Willis Applegate, of Garwood, spent Wednesday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Applegate.

Mrs. Frank Stryker has returned from Asbury Park, where she had been visiting.

Frank J. Smith and son, of Bayonne, have been visiting Mrs. M. Y. Hickey.

Mss Rose Becker has been spending a week with relatives in Newark.

WES' FIELD.

Fire was discovered Thursday in the centre of the business section of the town in the one-story building occupied by Albert E. Snyder. A large quantity of goods stored in the building were consumed. The loss will amount to about $800.

Miss Linda Savitz, daughter of Dr. J. J. Savitz, of this town, has been appointed instructor in Latin and Greek at the Irvington High School.

The annual election for assistant fire chiefs will be held next Tuesday evening.

The Board of Health held its regular monthly meeting last night.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Freddie Coombs, of Front street, entertained about 20 of his young friends at a party yesterday afternoon in honor of his 12th birthday. The hours being from 3 until 6 o'clock, the afternoon was enjoyed playing games, after which refreshments were served. Freddie received many little reminders of the pleasant occasion, while he distributed as favors baseballs for the boys and dolls for the girls.

The Arbor Day exercises held at the school yesterday afternoon, were enjoyed by a number of the parents and friends of the school, as well as pupils. A pleasing programme of recitations and songs was enjoyed after which school was dismissed for the day.

Rev. H. S. Atkinson will have charge of the services at the Baptist church tomorrow. The every night services which have been held in the church for the past three weeks, will be discontinued unless the deacons decide otherwise tomorrow.

A number of Rev. W. W. Dietricks friends and members of his church, attended the exercises held at Drew Seminary, Madison, on Thursday, the trip being made by stage.

The Township Committee met last night in the town room. Only the regular routine business was transacted.

Rev. W. W. Dietrick will lead the prayer meeting at the Methodist church tonight.

Mrs. George Harper was the guest of relatives in Bound Brook yesterday.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Miss Laura Gesswein will lead the Epworth League meeting at the First M. E. church tomorrow night at 7 o'clock.

There will be communion with reception of members at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church tomorrow morning.

The fifth discourse on "The Apostles Creed," will be given at the First Presbyterian church tomorrow night by Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring.

Communion services will be held at the First Baptist church, tomorrow morning, and services of an evangelistic nature will be held in the evening by Rev. Dr. Joseph Chambliss.

The Somerset County Christian Endeavor Union will hold its seventeenth annual convention in the Second Reformed church, Somerville, Tuesday afternoon, May 12, at 3 o'clock.

The Young Friends Association will hold a meeting on Firstday (Sunday) at 3 p. m. There will be a visiting delegation from Brooklyn Association, and a paper on "Standards of Living" will be read.

The Y. M. B. C. A., of this city, will hold its first public entertainment at Bethel chapel, Thursday night, May 7, at 8:15 o'clock. No charge will be made for admission, but a silver offering will be received. Refreshments will be served by T. H. Royster, caterer. Rev. F. D. Tildon is the president, and Dr. R. H. Wormley the secretary.

'PHONE COMPANP MAKES A BUSINESS CHANGE.

The New York and New Jersey Telephone Company announces a change in its business arrangements, to take effect May 1. On that day the collections and adjustments will be made by the Contract Department, so that all business dealings with subscribers will be carried on by one department instead of several departments, as heretofore. A number of local business offices have been established and enlarged to meet the requirements of the company's customers. The new arrangement should be popular.

Subscribers in Plainfield and vicinity will be asked to pay their bills and transact business at the company's local agency, 109 East Fourth street, Plainfield.

This is a general business office where a complete record relating to the service, contracts and subscribers' accounts will be kept. The office is in charge of P. H. Burns, local agent.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Pefer Garretson, of Clinton avenue, is detained at home by illness.

Miss Minnie Brokaw, of this city, has been visiting her parents at Harlingen.

Alvah Tunison, of Somerville, has been visiting Mrs. William Huff, of this city.

Miss Lillian Messerole, of Somerville, has returned home after a visit with relatives here.

Merrell Higgins, of this city, has returned from a visit with his parents at North Branch.

Mrs. J. H. Stevens, of Watchung avenue, has been visiting the Misses Gallagher, of Somerville.

Mrs. W. K. McClure and daughter, of Somerville, have been spending a few days in town with friends.

Mrs. Alexander Grant, of Whitehouse, is at Muhlenberg Hospital under treatment for eye trouble.

Mrs. Berne Egle and children, of West Front street, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Labaw, of Harlingen.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Runyon and daughter, Miss Ethel Runyon, of the New Madison, have returned from Lebanon, Hunterdon county, where they have been spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moffett.

ELIZABETH CARPENTERS STRIKE AGAINST REDUCTION.

Elizabeth, May 2.—May Day troubles in the industrial line here were ushered in by a general strike yesterday morning of about two hundred and fifty men belonging to the carpenter's union.

The strikers were getting forty-seven and one-half cents an hour, or $21 a week for forty-four hours. The boss builders want to reduce the wages to $19 a week, but with no change in the hours of labor. The journeymen say they were willing to meet the bosses half way, or accept $20 a week, but this the master builders refused to pay.

The carpenters' union, at its meeting Thursday night, ordered the strike. There are half a dozen of the smaller employers who have a few men at work and are paying them the old rate. The plumbers and tinsmiths are still at work and have no grievance, as they are getting paid the usual wages. The bricklayers and masons here, more than two hundred, have been idle since April 1. The master builders have considerable work on hand, but with this fresh difficulty to overcome they will be forced to suspend operations until a settlement of some kind is reached with the strikers.

The master builders object to entering into another contract with the carpenter journeymen to have the rate of wages and working hours remain unchanged for one year. Such an agreement expired Thursday at midnight, and the master builders say they will not renew it.

RAILROAD STATION AGENT HOLD-UP VICTIM.

Hackettstown, May 2.—One of the boldest robberies in local history occurred Thursday night, when the night operator, I. L. Miller, at the Lackawanna Railroad Station in this place, was held up and robbed of all the cash in the money drawer of the company. The operator is also the ticket agent. At 3:15 o'clock yesterday morning a man entered the station and covered Mr. Miller with a revolver and ordered him to give over the money in the drawer. The operator obeyed.

While the thief looted the office he bade Miller to lie upon the floor face downward. Everything in cash was taken, amounting to $130.

The operator, as soon as released, called men from the roundhouse, near by, who came with him to the office and remained with him until morning. The theif was heavily masked, wore a black derby hat and a black overcoat.

The "No Tip" Barber Shop a Failure.

New York, May 2.—That a "no tip" braber shop won't pay in New York has been proved by the experience of a shop which after a thorough trial of the plan has given it up and gone back to the prevailing tipping system. The proprietors put $30,000 into an establishment of the first order, fixed a scale of prices calculated to save money for the patron on the "no tip" basis, and forbade the reception of gratuities by their employes. They ran it with more and more loss every month for a little while over a year. Now the announcement has been made that customers may tip barbers as much as they please and as many times as they please. Since then business has picked up amazingly. The proprietors have made up their minds that tips and prosperity, if they don't inevitably go together, at least can't be separated with pecuniary advantage to the heads of the business.

—The Public Service Corporation has installed new rails at Watchung avenue and Fourth street, replacing the old ones which were worn out in the service. The brick pavement work at that point is now being completed.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT. Notice is hereby given, That the account of the subscribers, Executors of Fitz Randolph Vermeule, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphans Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the twentieth day of May next.
Dated April 16, 1908.
Edward A. Vermeule,
Nicholas Murray Townley, Jr.,
Frederick Meeker Townley.
4 18 5 oaw

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS

Joe Hortiz, who appears at the New Plainfield theatre this afternoon and evening, is, as the patrons of this theatre remember, the star who was last seen here in "Our Friend Fritz." The play he has this time is a comedy drama of Old Kentucky entitled "Fritz the Wandering Musician." It is a play just turned out by the pen of Crane Wilbur and is said to be even more suited to the style of Mr. Hortiz' acting than his former success.

Joe Hortiz in "Fritz the Wandering Musician," at New Plainfield Theatre, This Afternoon and Evening.

Manager Counihan is well pleased to think that he has been able to obtain Mr. Hortiz and his new play for a date at his theatre this spring, as he knew how well the star pleased the patrons of the theatre upon former appearances.

The famous Rogers Brothers will be at the New Plainfield theatre next Friday night, presenting their latest production "The Rogers Brothers in Panama." These clever comedians have changed their geographical situation each season for years creating a great deal of interest with each change they have made, but the present scene of their activity "In Panama" has proven far more interesting than any they have selected in the past. This season they have a genuine comedy possessing not only a comic, but a serious love interest. The story is told in three acts and they are painted from photographs of the localities which they represent. "In Panama" gives every opportunity for blending of rich colors and beautiful scenic effects. The usual large and beautiful chorus will be a big attraction, together with many clever artists headed by Gus and Max Rogers, namely: Marion Stanley, Josie Barrows, Norma Brown, Avita Sanchez, Lottie Greenwood, Dick Temple, George Lydecker, Joseph Kane, Walter Ware, Alexander Kleinman, John M. Coughlin and Henry Lermann. Mas Hoffman, who supplied the music for "In London, Paris and Ireland," has written the best music of his career for this production.

"Rogers Brothers in Panama," at New Plainfield Theatre, May 8.

A feature of the Washburn Trained Animal Shows, which will exhibit in this city Tuesday, May 5, is Signor G. Annetti's famous concert band of thirty soloists, the finest concert band ever organized for an outdoor amusement enterprise. For a half hour before each performance the band gives an elaborate concert, the program being arranged to suit all tastes, and including selections both popular and classical. The Fall River Globe in speaking of the appearance of the Washburn Shows in that city, said: "Among the many other good things which might be mentioned about this show is Signor Annetti's band, which gave the finest concert ever heard at a circus in this city. It was a treat well worth listening to, and in itself was well worth the price of admission."

Leo Slonim to Remove.

Charles P. Sebring has leased one of the stores in his new building on West Front street to Leo Slonim, the jeweler. The store will have a frontage of sixteen feet and a depth of sixty feet. The other store, which has not been leased yet has a frontage of twenty feet and depth extending the entire length of the building.

TEPPERS 109-111-113 WEST FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

AGENTS FOR STANDARD PATTERNS

This house has long been known for its underwear values, and its complete stocks in this department. As this is the changing season for light weight underwear for the warmer weather, we call your attention to some of the exceptional values that gives this department the prestige it deserves, by carrying makes of the best mills, assuring well-made garments at no higher prices than inferior goods are constantly offered.

Women's Underwear.

AT 25c.

Pilling & Madely's bleached shaped vests and pants, fine cotton yarn; vests with high neck, short and long sleeves; vests with low neck, short and no sleeves; vests with V neck, short and no sleeves. Pants, wide knee, lace trimmed; pants, tight knee and ankle length.

AT 50c.

Shaped lisle Vests and Pants in two weights. Vests, low neck, no sleeve and short sleeve; vests, high neck, short and long sleeve. Pants wide and tight knee.

AT 50c.

Pilling & Madely's Union Suits, fine light weight cotton; Union Suits with low neck, no sleeve, with tight knee; Union Suits with high neck, long sleeve, with ankle length; Union Suits, high neck, short sleeve, with tight knee; Union Suits, low neck, short sleeve, tight knee; Union Suits, low neck, short sleeve, wide knee.

Fine Mercerised Lisle Vests, pink, blue and white, at 50c

Fine Silk Vests, white and Cream, at....98c

Fine Swiss Ribbed Wool Vests, at 98c & $1.49

Bleached Cotton Ribbed Vests, at 10c, 15c, and 25c.

Infants' Swiss Ribbed Wrappers, fine yarn, at 15c

Boys' Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers, at 25c

Shirts with short and long sleeves; long drawers and knickerbockers, with double seats, equal to those generally offered at 35c, for 25c

De Bevoise Brassicie boned corset covers, made of fine cambric, with torchon edge trimming, sizes 34 to 46, at.....50c

Sale of Kid Gloves.

AT 59c PAIR.

300 pairs Kid Gloves sold at 75c and 85c in the following colors: black, tan, brown, white and grey; not every size in every color, on sale at .....59c pair

AT 79c PAIR.

Our $1.00 Kid Gloves, with the usual guarantee of the first trial at the counter; colors: black, tan, brown and white.

Nine-button Lambskin Gloves, colors, tan, grey, white and black, at.....$1.79

16-button Lambskin Gloves, colors, black tan and white, at $2.49

16-button French Chamois Gloves, white and champagne, at $1.98

Kayser guaranteed Silk Gloves, 2 button, at ..... 50c, 75c and $1.00

12-button, at $1.25
Black and white.

16-button, at $1.49
Black, white, tan and Copenhagen.

16-button, lisle, at.....50c and 75c
Black and white.

2-button lisle, at.....25c
Black and white.

Short Crepe Kimonos, shirred yoke, Japanese border, plain colors, at.....89c

Long Crepe Kimonos, Persian border, at $1.39

Long Crepe Kimonos, Japanese patterns, with satin borders, at $1.98

Figured Lawn Kimonos, in pretty floral effects, with white lawn borders; full sleeves, at 39c

Wash Jumper Dresses at $2.98.

An attractive jumper dress made of colored linen suiting in brown, Copenhagen and linen color; skirts are generously full; this is an exceptionally pretty jumper dress for $2.98

Nemo Back Rest Corsets $3.50.

We have just added to the Nemo line the well advertised back rest corset. Almost every newspaper tells you of the merits of this corset; all sizes; price $3.50

AMUSEMENTS.

World best vaudeville in its entirety will be offered to the patrons of Proctor's Newark theatre during the week commencing Monday, May 4.

The stellar feature will be Paul Conchas the King of heavy weight jugglers in an act proving conclusively his right to the title of peer of all heavy weight jugglers. A dramatic hit of more than ordinary merit will be "The Operator," a real thriller in one act with appropriate scenic effects and environments.

The famous Watermelon Trust return with new songs, dances and sayings that savor of the real levee dusky.

A. O. Duncan, the well liked ventriloquist, will appear with his clever little figures, Howard and Howard, the Hebrew comedians promises fifteen minutes of laughter. Reattino and Stevens appear in a beautiful singing novelty with pretty stage settings. Norton and Russell, two clever newcomers here will appear in a rapid fire character chafge act. And other acts of like calibre and new animated pictures complete the bill.

SEATS FOR P. H. S. PLAY WILL BE REDEEMED TONIGHT.

Tickets for the performance of "She Stoops to Conquer," to be given by pupils of the senior class, Plainfield High School, next Saturday night, can now be redeemed for seats at the New Plainfield theatre, where the play is to be given. The box office sale began this morning.

The production will be the most elaborate ever attempted by the school amateurs, and the senior class management is sparing no expense in planning for scenery and costumes. Members of the cast were measured for costumes at the high school this afternoon by a representative from Koehler, of New York. The wigs are being made especially for this performance by Plucker and Ahren, of New York.

Pupil Lectures at P. H. S.

George H. Fisher, Jr., a member of the senior class at the Plainfield High School gave an illustrated lecture on drawing in connection with the meeting of the school debating society held Thursday afternoon. The speaker touched on the work of Gibson, Fisher and other present-day artists, as well as the most prominent cartoonists. The slides shown were reproductions made by the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harden and daughter, Mildred, of this city, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Harden, of South Branch.

The best place for rest or recreation or recuperation at this season is

ATLANTIC CITY

and the new Fireproof

CHALFONTE

is especially well equipped to supply the wants of those who come to secure them

Write for Illustrated Folder and Rates to

THE LEEDS COMPANY

ALWYS OPEN 1 11 22—2 11 22—5 2 13 23 ON THE BEACH

MUSIC and COLORS

go hand in hand—if not harmonious they lose their charm.

Next to preserving, paint should beautify—cheap, fading colors do not.

Pure colors and perfect assimilation are the necessary adjuncts to insure bright, non-fading colors—accomplished only by grinding and mixing uniformly in modern machinery—successor to the proverbial bucket and paddle.

This is why the colors of

MOORE'S HOUSE COLORS

Can be relied upon.

When in need of paint, no matter how much, it will be to your interest to obtain prices and color cards from our representatives,

H. E. GAYLE HARDWARE COMPANY, Plainfield.

BENJAMIN MOORE & CO.

Pure Colors, Paints, and Muresco.

New York, Chicago, Cleveland, Toronto.

R. W. BARNES.

217 PARK AVE. 'PHONE 344-L.

Fruits Vegetables and Groceries

Imported and Domestic Cheeses, Olives and Pickles in bottles or by measure, Boiled Corned Beef, Ham, Smoked Salmon, Fresh Cut Chipped Beef, Heinz's Stuffed Melons. Try Them.

—CAMERAS—

KODAKS AND PHOTOGRAPHIC SUPPLIES
DEVELOPING, PRINTING AND ENLARGING

Bring Your Films in One Day and Get Your Pictures the Next.

"THE PHOTO STORE," 129 NORTH AVENUE.

FORMERLY VAN WINKLE'S.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

GOOD NEWS.

Many Plainfield Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of back sufferers in Plainfield are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pils. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

G. R. Leland, of 423 West Second street, Plainfield, N. J., says: "I suffered as much as any person on earth from severe backache, pains in my head and imbs, occasional dizzy spells, sensation of all goneness and a general loss of ambition and strength. I doctored but none of the medicines I used seemed to benefit me. On being advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills I did so, and am glad to say that I met with most satisfactory success, as they drove away all my aches and pains and made me feel like a new man. I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills highly and also willingly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Millburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

EYE-STRAIN

is directly responsible for the major ity of cases of blindness today. If instead of trying to overwork the eyes, one would at once get glasses at the first warning of eye-strain there would be fewer cases of blindness at the present time.

Come to us and have your eyes examined free of charge and we will advise you what to do to save them.

Headache and neuralgia quickly relieved.

STILES & CO.,

Philadelphia Eye Specialist.

At 105 East Front Street.

Every Thursday

Hours 11:15 to 4:30.

RHEUMATISM,

blood and kidney ailments are positively relieved by

Wouter's Wonder Worker

The great rheumatic blood and kidney medicine. It has cured thousands. It will cure you.

50c at all drug stores.

ATLANTIC CITY.

AMERICAN PLAN. EUROPEAN PLAN

HOTEL WINDSOR

ATLANTIC CITY

G JASON WATERS

SEND FOR BOOKLET

GOLF GARAGE CAFE ORCHESTRA

ON THE BOARD WALK

Oxide of Zinc—What Is It?

It's the wearing quality of the L. & M. PAINT while white lead is the elastic quality of L. & M. PAINT. Wears fully 15 years on outside of a house. Costs ready for use about $1.20 per gallon.

Woolston & Buckle, Plainfield; H. C. Meyer, Scotch Plains; P. W. Brakely, Dunellen,

L. & M. Paint Agents.

ESTATE OF CARRIE L. MULFORD, Deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, administrators of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the ninth day of April, 1908, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.

WILLIAM R. TOWNSEND,
FREDERICK S. CUTTER,
4 11 9 oaws Administrators.

SPORTS HERE AND THERE

GOLF.

Today marks the opening of the active season at golf at the Plainfield Club, the initial play being for the Spring Handicap cup. This weekly competition will continue until June 27. In September the Fall Handicap will be the weekly event of interest. The course is in fine condition for the opening and under the direction of a new steward the clubhouse is now ready for the reception of guests and serving of meals a la carte or table d'hote.

Owing to improvements being made at the Park Golf Club the active golf season will not be opened there until Saturday, May 16. There will be the usual weekly competitions as in past seasons. George Anderson has been engaged as steward and will continue the high-class service of the past.

Lewis G. Timpson, Henry L. Hall and F. W. Butler as the house committee at the Plainfield Country Club have taken hold of affairs in earnest and it is their intention to make the service the best possible.

Gold will open the carnival of sports at the Country Club of Lakewood today. The first four events are for golfers and thereafter a card of gymkhana, horse show and hunting features will keep up the sports until evening. The golfing events will be:

10 a. m., golf driving contest; 10:45, approaching and putting contest; 11, women's golf driving contest; 11:15, clock golf putting contest.

George J. Gould is president of the Country Club of Lakewood. On the executive committee are H. L. Herbert, S. K. de Forest, Jasper Lynch, David Paton, John Miley, W. R. Proctor, H. S. Kearney, C. L. Lindley and W. W. Willock.

The Garden City and Morris County teams will play a match today, and also the Midland Golf Club will hold its first handicap of the season on the nearby Salisbury course. It will be at eighteen holes medal play for two prizes.

A novel form of competition that is creating no end of interest among the members of the Fox Hills Golf Club is the event inaugurated by this year's tournament committee which began on April 1 and continued during the month of April, known as the Fox Hills Dozen Club. The twelve men each with the four lowest net scores during the month of April will constitute the club and will receive in the order of their scores very attractive stickpins, numbered from one to twelve, and will also be entitled to wear the club's hat band, a privilege accorded only to prize winners.

After May 1 No. 12 shall be subject to challenge from any member of the club for his place and for his trophy. Each of the other members of the Dozen Club shall be subject to challenge from the member next below him for his place and trophy, thus No. 12 may challenge No. 11; No. 7 may challenge No. 6; No. 2 may challenge No. 1, and so on. The competition will be at handicap match play and closes November 30, when the then holders of the stick pins shall retain them permanently. No. 1 will receive an additional trophy. The challenging member is required to pay 50 cents for each competition, whether the match is actually played or won by default. Credit for this competition is due to A. H. Pogson, chairman; F. P. Barrett, B. A. Bullock, J. M. Fleming and J. J. Hazen, comprising the tournament committee.

BASEBALL.

The local game of interest here this afternoon will be between Clinton avenue and the Juniors at Crescent Oval. It will be the first meeting of these teams and both are confident of victory.

Old Cy Young, of the Boston Americans, is as good as ever. On Thursday he won his fourth victory for the season and his delivery is as hard to solve as in year's past.

Charley Speer is pitching good ball for Arthur Irwin's Washington Union Leaguers. Thursday he held Brooklyn down to five hits.

Josh DeVore is just now the star outfielder on the Newark Eastern League Club. His work is brilliant in the field an at the bat. He frequently takes part in a double play.

Joe Stoup, who was farmed out to the New Haven club by Manager Stallings of Newark, has returned to Newark. He did not like his new job.

There is bad blood between McGraw and Dan McGann and in Boston the other day the two players mixed in a scrap and had to be separated by other members of the teams. McGraw is said to have called McGann an ice wagon, something the former Giant would not stand for.

The Eastern League Clubs seem to be better matched than in several years. Nearly every club has been strengthened by new material and it is impossible to tell which one will have the best bid for the pennant.

SOME STATE NEWS BRIEFS

The Cape May county Prohibiiton convention at Tuckahoe yesterday elected ten delegates to the State convention at Trenton.

Dr. Leo V. Becker, of Ward street, Paterson, had his pocket picked while riding on a trolley car last evening. He lost a valuable gold watch and fob.

Harry Walker, a Gloucester contractor, who has twice broken his leg and received numerous other injuries, was lifting a stove yesterday when it fell and crushed his hand, probably crippling him for life.

The glass factory known as "The Big Tank," the largest operated in Millville, by the Whitnall Tatum Company, will be put out of blast on May 9, unless large orders arrive at once, throwing 250 hands out of employment.

Jennie Hutchinson, of 627 Mechanic street, Camden, sneezed yesterday so hard that she dislocated her jaw. In this condition she was taken to the Cooper Hospital suffering greatly, the jaw having tightly locked. After much trouble the jaw was put into its place.

After spending two months at Leeds, Eng., Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor returned to their home at 350 Lemon street, Camden, yesterday, with the information that they would probably receive $10,000 more than they had expected from an estate in England that they had gone to look after.

Dr. O. W. Saunders, a member of the Camden Council from the Eighth ward, was operated on at Cooper Hospital for hernia, caused by an injury received recently in a railroad accident. The operation was successful and he will be around again in a few days.

An express train on the West Jersey Railroad struck a fish wagon at the Buena Vista crossing yesterday and scattered herring for hundreds of yards around. The wagon was completely wrecked. George Barnhart and Lewis Keider, who were in the wagon, escaped without a scratch, but they landed in a field after being thrown twenty feet in the air. The horse was thrown and rolled thirty feet into a cabbage patch.

Charles Hallings, the man caught after an exciting chase on Tuesday, after he had endeavored to steal a damond ring from the jewelry store of T. L. Bear, 204 Market street, Camden, pleaded guilty to purloining about $200 worth of diamonds from the store of J. C. Demmert, 504 Federal street, before Judge Joline in the Camden Criminal court yesterday. At the suggestion of Prosecutor Scovel sentence was reserved until the defendant's record is investigated.

The April grand jury of Cumberland county, which just concluded its labors, returned twenty indictments. As the result of its investigations of the present county buildings, it condemned the court house, the clerk's and surrogate's offices. It pointed out that the county buildings, located in the business district, are surrounded by all sorts of fire risks and priceless county records are all filed in woden cases. The old court house, built in 1844, is obselete and unfit for use.

Judge Scott announced, in the Court of Common Pleas, at Paterson, yesterday, that hereafter he would pay no heed to anonymous letters addressed to him complaining about the manner in which tavern-keepers conduct their places. The judge made this announcement in conection with the case of Katherine A. Knapp. The Knapp woman applied for a renewal of license, and on the opening day of court Judge Scott said that he would lay the application over because he had received several unsigned letters complaining that liquor had been sold on Sundays. The judge said yesterday that he had hoped that the authors of the letters would put in an appearance. In their absence he said the application woud be granted.

Terrill Road to Be Improved.

Freeholder J. Hervey Doane received word yesterday from Major King, director of the Union County Board of Freeholders, that the plan to improve and macadamize Terrill road had been approved and that steps will be taken at the meeting of the board on May 7, to start the work at once. The plan is to macadamize one mile of this road commencing at Green brook. Next year it is the expectation to complete the work as far as Rahway. At the next meeting of the Somerset county Board of Freeholders the question of improving the borough side of the road will be considered and it is thought acted favorably upon.

Pollard Again Tax Board Head.

The members of the County Tax Board, Caleb C. Pollard, Mulford M. Scudder and Frederick H. Andrews, had a special meeting in their room in the Courthouse at Elizabeth, yesterday morning and reorganizied for the coming year. Caleb C. Pollard was again elected chairman.

Railroad Accident Bulletin.

Trenton, May 2.—According to reports made to the Board of Railroad Commissioners during the week ending April 27, five people were killed and twelve injured on the various New Jersey railroads.

—For best results try a Press want ad.

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.

116 North Avenue. Telephone 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S and Canada.

The Daily Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change the same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

Plainfield, N. J., May 2, 1908.

May 2 In History.

1493—The famous bull issued by Pope Alexander VI. giving nearly all America to Spain.

1857—Alfred de Musset, French poet, died; born 1812.

1904—Edgar Fawcett, well known American author, died; born 1838.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

Sun sets 6:53, rises 4:52; day's length 14 hours; moon sets 9:11 p. m.; 6:44 a. m., moon in conjunction with Mars, passing from west to east of the planet, 2¾ degrees south thereof.

THE TALKING JACKETS.

A Bit of Conversation Overheard From a Closet.

There was an uneasy stir at one side of the closet. It was Lou's jacket. Finally it spoke in a tired, nervous voice:

"Oh, dear! Lou has left me hanging by a loop, and my shoulders sag so that I can hardly get my breath. I don't know how I can ever look nice and fresh if I get no rest."

May's jacket roused itself to answer:

"You poor thing, I am so sorry for you! Now, my shoulders are resting so nicely on this coat frame. May is never in too much of a hurry to slip me well on it. Tomorrow some one will be sure to say to her, 'How fresh and nice your jacket looks!'"

"That's just it!" grumbled Lou's jacket. "And they will say to Lou 'How wrinkled your jacket is! It doesn't seem to keep its shape at all well.' And all the time it is not my fault. How can I rest hung only by a loop, and that not a strong one? There's a button off, too, and a three cornered tear in one elbow that makes me very uncomfortable. I suppose when it is torn bigger her mother will see it and mend it for her. Oh, dear, this loop is giving way, and I am going to fall to the floor! I suppose that means dust and more wrinkles!"

With a gasp, the jacket sat down, falling directly upon a pair of muddy overshoes.

May's jacket peered down through darkness to where the other lay for a moment, then settled itself for a quiet nap. It looked so fresh and bright the next morning that no one ever dreamed it knew all about the troubles of Lou's jacket.

Drama in an Omnibus.

In a motor omnibus in the Boulevard des Italiens, Paris, one day last winter a curious little drama was enacted.

A well dressed man wearing a silk hat and a coat trimmed with astrakhan entered the omnibus and was immediately followed by a less well dressed individual who sat opposite him and stare hard. After a little of this the first man seemed embarrassed and rose to leave, but the other jumped up and said: "Stay, is not your name Etienne Sagnard, aged thirty-eight, who was sentenced three years ago by the Rhone assizes to ten years' penal servitude, and have you not recently escaped from the penal settlement in French Guiana?"

The other man turned very white and uttered a protest. But his interrogator produced his card, "Inspector Mornet of the criminal investigation department," and a pair of handcuffs, and the two got out together.

Leap Year Worries.

Jack—What's the matter, old man? You look worried.

Tom—Oh, Miss Faintheart keeps me guessing. She hasn't proposed yet.

Jack—But you told me you didn't intend to marry her.

Tom—And I don't. But, after all the time I wasted on her, I think she might at least give me a chance to refuse her.—Chicago News.

—Dr. D. C. Hughes, father of Governor Hughes, Y. M. C. A., Sunday 4 p. m.

Headquarters for

John Gibson's

RYE.

E. C. Westcott, Agent.

115 East Front Street.

SUNDAY IN THE CHURCHES

Baptist.

First—Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, pastor—10:30, preaching by Rev. Dr. D. C. Hughes, of Brooklyn; 2:30, Sunday-school; 7:45, preaching by Rev. Dr. Joseph Chambliss.

Park Avenue—Rev. A. E. Finn, pastor—10:30, sermon, communion and reception of new members; 2:45, Bible school; 7:45, sermon by the Rev. D. C. Hughes, of Brooklyn.

Faith Chapel—Rev. J. W. Musson, pastor—10:45, preaching; 2:45, Sunday-school; 3:00, Baraca Class; 7:00, Christian Endeavor; 7:45, preaching.

Mt. Olive—11:00, preaching; 3:30, Sunday-school; 7:45, preaching.

Calvary—Rev. G. W. Bailey, pastor—10:45, preaching; 3:30, Sunday-school; 7:45, preaching.

Colored Mission, corner Second Street and Central Avenue—11:00 a. m., preaching; 3:00, Sunday-school; 8:00, preaching.

Ebenezer, Filmore Avenue—Rev. David W. Cannon, pastor—11:00, preaching, 3:00, Sunday-school; 8:00, preaching.

Reformed.

Trinity—Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor-emeritus—10:30, preaching by Rev. E. P. Johnson, D. D., of New Brunswick, subject, "What is the Chaff to the Wheat?" 2:30, Sunday-school; 6:45, Christian Endeavor meeting; 7:45, preaching by Dr. Johnson, subject, "How May We Know."

German—Rev. C. H. Schneegas, pastor—10:45, preaching in German; 8:00 preaching in German.

Marconnier chapel—Rev. J. Tucker Lansdale, pastor—11:00, preaching; 3:00, Sunday-school; 7:45, preaching

Presbyterian.

First Presbyterian—Rev. Charles E. Herring, Ph. D., pastor—10:00, Sunday-school; 11:00, preaching; 7:45, preaching.

Crescent Avenue—Rev. Dr. John Sheridan Zelie, pastor—10:30, preaching, 7:45, preaching.

Hope chapel—Rev. L. R. Howard, pastor—10:30, preaching; 7:45, preaching.

Warren chapel—Rev. J. O. McKelvey pastor—10:30, preaching; 2:30, Sunday-school; 8:00, preaching.

Bethel chapel—Rev. F. D. Tildon, pastor—Services 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

Episcopal.

Grace church—Rector, Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson—7:30, Holy Communion; 10:30, Holy Communion and sermon; 4:00, organ recital; 4:30, evensong.

Mission Church of the Heavenly Rest—Rev. Charles I. Townsend, rector—9:45, Sunday-school; 11:00, morning prayer and sermon; 8:00 a. m., celebration of the Holy Communion.

St. Stephen's—Rev. Arthur S. Peck, pastor—7:30, low celebration; 9:45, Sunday-school; 11:00, matins, litany and sermon; 7:45, evensong.

Holy Cross—Rector, Rev. George A. Warner—7:30 a. m., holy communion, 9:45 a. m., Sunday-school meets in parish house (the first Sunday of each month children's service in the church at 9:45 a. m., with morning prayer followed by Holy Communion service at 11:00 a. m.); 10:00 a. m., rector's Bible class for young men and women in the parish house; 11:00 a. m., morning prayer and sermon; 7:45 p. m., evensong and sermon.

Grace Church Colored Mission—Rev. J. H. Simons, curate—7:30 a. m., Holy Communion; 9:30, a. m., Sunday-school; 11:00 a. m., morning prayer and sermon; 8:00 p. m., evensong and sermon.

Methodist Episcopal.

First—Rev. A. C. McCrea, pastor—10:30, Communion and reception of new members; 2:30, Sunday-school; 7:00, Epworth League leader, Miss Gesswein, topic, "How to be Untroubled in Trouble;" 7:45, preaching by pastor.

Monroe Avenue M. E.—Rev. Charles S. Kemble, pastor—11:00, preaching; 3:00, Sunday-school; 7:15, Epworth League; 8:00, preaching.

Mt. Zion A. M. E.—Rev. J. T. Diggs, pastor—11:00, preaching by Rev. E. B. Maynard; 3:00, Sunday-school; 7:45, preaching by pastor; Lord's Supper.

Grace M. E.—Rev. Orra J. Shoop, pastor—10:30, preaching, subject, "The Cup of Blessing," followed by communion of the Lord's Supper; 2:30, Sunday-school; 7:45, preaching, subject, "Burdens that Bring Greatness to Life."

Roman Catholics.

St. Mary's—Rev. Bernard M. Bogan rector—Masses, 6:30, 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 2:30; vespers at 3:30.

St. Joseph's—Rev. William H. Miller, rector—Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday-school at 3:00; benediction of the blessed sacrament at 3:30.

Congregational.

Congregational church — Rev. C. L. Goodrich, pastor—10:30, morning worship with Lord's Prayer; 11:55, Sunday-school; 7:30, service in charge of Endeavor Society.

Swedish Evangelical Pilgrim church—Rev. Theodore Englund, pastor—10:30, Sunday-school; 4:00, Young People's meeting; 8:00, preaching.

Friends.

Meeting house, Watchung avenue and Third street—Meeting First-day at 11:00 a. m.

Unitarian.

All Souls'—Rev. A. C. Nickerson, pastor—10:30 preaching; 11:50, Sunday-school.

Lutheran

German Lutheran—Swedish service, 8 p. m., preaching.

St. Peter's German Lutheran—Rev. J. Duerschner, pastor—Grove street—9:30, Catechetical Instruction; 10:30, preaching in English; 8:00, preaching in Swedish.

Christian Science.

Services 11 a. m., in room 323, Babcock building.

Disciples of Christ.

Christian Church—Rev. Phil A. Parsons, pastor—11:00, preaching and communion; 3:00, Sunday-school; 7:45, preaching.

Not Classified.

Gospel Mission, East Front street and Bank place—7:30 p. m.

Y. M. C. A.—4:00, men's meeting.

Salvation Army—11:00 and 3:00, services; 8:00, preaching.

West End Tabernacle—3:00 Sunday-school and Men's Barac Class; 8:00, John La Matty, Supt. Plainfield Rescue Mission, will preach.

Plainfield Rescue Mission—In W. C. T. U. rooms—7:45, Robert Love will conduct the service.

W. C. T. U.—4:00 p. m.

Descriptions in Prose and Verse.

Pass around slips of paper to each player. Each one writes his or her own name at the top of the paper and folds it over to conceal the name. These slips are collected and redistributed, with instructions to compose and write a rhyme or verse about the person whose name is on the paper—of course without looking or knowing whose it is. The apropos or malapropos hits make lots of fun. Then distribute slips to the young men only, each having the name of some girl present written at the top and folded over to keep it secret. The young men are to describe the girls from memory. Not knowing whom they are to portray, the naturally produce glaring misfits which are extremely laughable.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

The Woodhull & Martin Store

New Spring Floor Coverings

Staple grades of Rugs, Carpets, Mattings, Linoleums and the like at exceptionally low prices, together with the largest stocks to be found in the city, in fact greater than all the other stores combined.

MATTINGS—Japanese and China straw mattings in plain and fancy weaves, 25c to 35c a yard. $9.00 to $13.00 a roll of 40 yards.

CREX GRASS MATTINGS, in green, brown, red and blue; cool, clean, sanitary and serviceable, 40c a yard.

HOFI FIBRE MATTINGS, the ideal floor covering, soft, pliable and odorless; the reversible kind, from 35c to 65c a yard.

LINOLEUMS—A large assortment of new patterns in printed and inlaid, ranging in price from 49c to $1.50 a square yard.

WILTON RUGS—A fine selection of new and attractive designs; size 9x12 feet, $25.00, $35.00 and $39.98.

AXMINSTER RUGS—Exact copies of real Oriental designs; size 9x12 feet, $19.00, $22.50, $25.00 and $27.50.

BRUSSELS RUGS—In a wide choice of pretty patterns; size 9x12 feet, $15.00, $20.00, $22.50, $25.00 and $27.00.

KURDISTAN BRUSSELS RUGS—A hard twisted closely wooven reversible rug, very servicable; size 9x12, $11.98.

ORIENTAL RUGS—Machine made, pretty Persian designs; size 9x12 feet, $28.98.

A Bargain in Collapsible Go-Carts.

6.98

instead of 10.00.

THE ANDERSON STEEL GO-CART, the most perfect collapsible cart on the market, made of the finest chilled steel, with steel tubing pushers and handle and finished with baked enamel, upholstered with English leather cloth of the finest quality; the wheels have solid rubber tires, has reclining back and adjustable dash for sleeping purposes; is opened and closed with one motion.

On Sale Monday.

Jardinieres and Stands Complete, for

98 cts.

A PRETTY GLAZIED JARDINIERE, 9 inch size, worth to buy regular $1.25, and a weathered oak mission style or bamboo stand worth 50c, Monday we'll sell them complete for 98c.

This is a rare bargain and comes just in the nick of time when you are about to put your plants out on the piazza. Only about 100 in the lot and won't last long.

The Woodhull & Martin Store.

Capital and surplus $250,000.00

THE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

of Plainfield.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS.

A. J. Brunson, President
J. A. Smith, Vice President
D. M. Runyon, Cashier

W. R. Coddington,
J. A. Hubbard,
C. Frank French,
B. F. Cortell,
P. J. Zeglio, M. D.
E. H. Bird.

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS DRAW FOUR PER CENT INTEREST.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

WASHINGTON ROCK SPRING WATER

Bottlers of high-class soft drinks, Ginger Ale, Soda Water and Pure Spring Water, and Siphon Goods. Private families' and parties' patronage is solicited.

Henry Pedeflous,

TELEPHONE 670-R

Hotel Pedeflous, Plainfield

DON'T WORRY, WE WILL BE HERE SOON.

LEON W. WASHBURN'S

FAMOUS SHOWS.

MUSEUM, MENAGERIE, TRAINED ANIMALS AND CARNIVAL ALLIANCE

Will Exhibit at

Plainfield, Tuesday, May 5.

Afternoon at 2:00; Evening at 8:00.

Rain or Shine.

Lot DARROW AVENUE AND FOURTH STREET.

All New, Larger and Finer Than Ever.

Lady Riders, Contortionists, Aerialists, Tumblers and Leapers.

Gentlemen Riders, Jugglers, Wire Walkers, Tumblers, Leapers, Clowns.

Performing Elephants, Dogs, Monkeys and Ponies.

Baby Elephant, Baby Camel, Smallest Horse on Earth, Animals from every Clime.

GRAND FREE EXHIBITION ON GROUNDS BEFORE EACH PERFORMANCE.

WATCH FOR THE PARADE.

PRICES.....15 and 25 Cents.

4 30 5 2-4

ASK FOR THE FISHER HOLDBACK

The old style holdback for blinds affords a roosting place for birds and causes ugly stains to disfigure the sides of the house under the blinds. Notice this carefully and then you will want to prevent it. No bird can roost on this.

The FISHER HOLDBACK

Geo. H. Fisher, 224 MANSON PLACE PLAINFIELD

1 16 th s tf

The Bakers' Dozen.

There used to be in various countries heavy penalties for short weight in bakers' goods, and the bakers in order to avoid all risk of incurring the fine used to give a surplus number of loaves, thirteen for a dozen.

—Dr. D. C. Hughes, father of Governor Hughes, Y. M. C. A., Sunday 4 p. m.

One Day at Plainfield

WEDNESDAY, MAY 6,

HOTEL IROQUOIS

Office Hours, 9 a. m. until 4 p. m.

Our $1.00 Glasses with 10-year Gold Seamless Wire Frame cannot be duplicated in America for $5.00.

Your eyes will be examined by the Dammers Scientific Method which is entirely different from the old way of examining eyes and is the only correct way.

We make no charge for examination. We ask no questions, put no drops in the eyes, do not use any test cards or charts hung on the wall which is a common way used by every one but us, and by that way you are simply fitting yourself and you get so confused you do not know if you are fitted or not.

Don't Suffer With Headaches.

We have produced astonishing results from brain, fag, nervous debility, insomnia, dizziness, nausea, WATERY EYES, blurry vision and other troubles caused by EYE STRAIN. We have corrected by the use of glasses, cross eyes and Astigmatism by our scientific methods.

The Edward F. Dammers Co., Old South Bl'd, 294 Washington Street, Boston, Mass.

5 1 4

John S. Lewis

Successor to Lewis & Dilts.

Artesian Well Contractors.

Wells drilled any place, size or depth.

Estimates cheerfully given.

Box 173,

Scotch Plains, N. J.

A "TELLING EFFECT"

IS DEFINED.

One lady telling another

PECK'S

is the store for you to trade.

SPRING FURNISHINGS

Carpets & Mattings

All the best kinds in large variety to please the most exacting requirements. Beautiful Oriental and Floral effects in all grades of Carpets, made, laid and lined free.

Ingrain	75c
Brussells	65c-1.00
Axminster	1.10-1.25
Velvet	1.00-1.35

Rugs.

You will enjoy the beautiful line of these popular goods we have in all the leading makes, well selected patterns in every kind from cheapest to best grade and at prices that are lowest now quoted.

Ingrain, 9x12	4.98-8.98
Brussells, 9x12	12.50-27.50
Axmin'r, 9x12	19.98-27.50
Velvet	22.50-25.00

FURNITURE and BEDDING.

When buying these goods you need the dependable kind with the largest assortment of patterns to select from. This is what we offer you combined with lowest possible prices--prices for really good goods. Our large floor space is just crowded with nice clean desirable goods that will appeal to you.

Awnings.

Now is the time to plan your orders, for the hot weather will come and you will want good Awnings—and that's our kind, always the best.

Shades.

Get our estimate for your shade work, for we do a good job and do it reasonable—and carry the largest assortment of goods in this city.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON,

BABCOCK BUILDING, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

LADIES' AND GENT'S SUITS

CLEANED AND PRESSED

G. O. KELLER,

'PHONE 857-J 125 PARK AVENUE

DO NOT FAIL

to note the reduction in price of

Watchung Spring Water

to take effect May 1st, as follows:

Crate containing 6 bottles	60c each
5 Gallon Demijohns	50c each

on and after May 1st

ORDER FROM YOUR GROCER

at the above prices, as our time is so occupied in shipping we are obliged to

DISCONTINUE LOCAL DELIVERIES

Try our WATCHUNG CARBONATED WATER and GINGER ALE at popular prices.

Watchung Spring Water Co.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. 4 27 6

Why Have a Bank Account?

Because---

A Bank Account creates a desire to make it as large as possible, and it is wise for all to provide for the "RAINY DAY," which comes sooner or later.

Start an account today with us,

The

Plainfield Savings Bank.

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Miss E. H. Elfreth, president of the Camden County branch of the W. C. T. U., spoke on the work of the Union at a parlor meeting of the local branch held in the Presbyterian manse yesterday afternoon. There was a large turnout and a social hour followed the address. During her stay in Dunellen, Miss Elfreth was the guest of Mrs. W. W. Casselberry.

Rev. George H. Gardner will give the second of his special sermons a the evening service of the New Market Baptist church tomorrow. His topic will be "The Right Kind of A Dress to Wear." In the morning he will preach from the subject "Gathering A Bundle of Sticks." Special music will mark both services.

Rowland G. Monroe, of Newark, will speak at the morning service in the Methodist church on the work of local option in New Jersey. The speaker is attorney for the Anti-Saloon League of New Jersey. In the evening, W. W. Giddes will speak. His topic will be "Ruth and Naomi."

The Young Ladies' Sewing Circle of the Presbyterian church, met this afternoon at the chapel.

The May meeting of the borough council will be held Monday night.

(Additional suburban news on page 2.)

Exempt Firemen's Meeting.

Elizabeth, May 2.—At the annual meeting of the local Exempt Firemen's Association, Thursday night, delegates were named to attend two conventions of the veterans of the State. On May 20 the State convention of exempt firemen will be held at New Brunswick and the following members of the local association will attend: J. J. Manning, John J. Gardner, G. F. Reagan, James McMaster and A. F. Denman. In September the State Firemen's Relief Association will hold a convention in Atlantic City. M. P. Devine will represent the Elizabeth association. The officers elected to serve for the coming term are as follows: President, M. P. Devine; vice-presidents, Michael Manning and James MacMaster; treasurer, Fred Kurtz, Jr.; recording secretary, G. F. Reagan; financial secretary, William Eckerson.

Young Woman Sues Aged Man.

New Brunswick, May 2.—Sheriff Church has served the summons in the suit brought by Miss Daisy Allerton, a young woman against Frank Ostrander, a wealthy brick manufacturer of Perth Amboy, for $25,000 damages. She alleges breach of promise of marriage. Ostrander has clay and brick manufacturing interests in Perth Amboy and in Troy, N. Y. He is over sixty years old. Miss Allerton declares Ostrander promised frequently to make her his wife. Recently it is said, she discovered he had a wife and a family of children and great-grand-children.

Madison Mayor Again Robbed.

Madison, May 2.—Burglars entered Mayor W. F. Redmond's house on Loantaka way last night and stole silverware which was in the dining-room. The loss was not discovered until one of the servants went to the dining-room to prepare the breakfast. The Mayor's monogram is upon all the pieces stolen. Only a short time ago the house was robbed and a watch and money taken. The police made a careful examination of the means of entering the residence and are on a trail which they believe will lead to the recovery of the property.

Wesley a Vegetarian.

John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, seems to have been not only a pioneer of the temperance movement, but also an apostle of vegetarianism. He states in one of his sermons that for several years he subsisted on potatoes and found that doin so conduced largely to promote that splendid health which he enjoyed.

—Dr. D. C. Hughes, father of Governor Hughes, Y. M. C. A., Sunday 4 p. m.

A. M. RUNYON & SON, UNDERTAKERS.
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York Office—50 Great Jones Street.
Tel. call, 2245-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 315.

T. A MOORE.
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.
Office—508 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 790
Residence—614 East 6th St. " 741-R
New York Office, 27 Great Jones St.
Telephone Call, 2249-Spring.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS.
Office 116 Park Av., Tel. 884-w. Res., 417 W. 3d St., Tel. 903-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2094 Gramercy

GEO. W. COLE.
UNDERTAKER & EMBALMER.
200 West Second St. Telephone 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

FLORIST
A. E. Lincoln, 307 Park Ave.
New stock of palms, ferns, flowering plants and everything in the florist line. Special prices on cut flowers and cut-flower work Floral design work for all occasions.
Tel. 322-W. 4 1 1m

Chas. L. Stanley,
169 East Front St. 'Phone 928
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

L. L. MANNING & SON,
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Avenue and West Front Street. Opposite First Baptist Church.

DIED.

MORROW — On Friday morning, May 1, at his late residence, 225 East Fifth street, Reverend William Bryce Morrow, in his seventieth year.

Funeral services at Grace church Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment at Carlisle, Pa. 5 1 2

FRENTZ—At Scotch Plains, N. J., on Saturday, May 2, 1908, Augustus, W., son of Augustus and the late Emma Frentz, aged 21 years, 2 months, 20 days.

Funeral private on Monday.

GREEN—On Friday, May 1, 1908, Mayes Green, in his 74th year.

Funeral private.

Classified Advertisements

Rates for advertisements under this heading one cent a word for first insertion, one half a cent a word for consecutive insertions of the same advertisement running for less than one month; one month, fifty cents a line (6 words to a line), double rate for advertisement set in capitals.

No advertisements received for less than ten cents.

Copy for death and marriage notices and classified advertising accepted up to 2:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS is not at liberty to give any information regarding advertisements that require an address in care of this office. Persons answering these ads. should mail or leave answers as stated in advertisements.

Help Wanted.

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework. Apply with references, 1423 Watchung avenue. 4 29 tf

THE HALL OF FAME.

At the recent meeting of the town school district of Concord, N. H., Isaac N. Abott was elected clerk of the district for the fifty-first time.

State Senator Russell is trying to organize "acre clubs" in every community in Oklahoma. Eeach member is to plant an acre of some product, and the scheme is a practical school for farmers.

Ernest W. Emery, day manager of the Associated Press at Washington, has been unanimously elected exalted ruler of Washington Lodge, No. 15, of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

Probably no man in Maine holde so many town offices as T. B. W. Stetson, of Hartford, captured at this year's town meeting. The list includes town clerk, treasurer, collector, member of school committee, constable and truant officer.

The Rocha family of the State of Durango, Mexico, are among the largest family owners of land in the world. They count their wealth by millions of dollars and are in supreme control of a mountainous territory embracing about 10,000,000 acres.

General Robilant, who was one of the Italian representatives at the second peace conference at The Hague, has been named to succeed General Giovonna Battista di Giorgis, who died in Rome suddenly on March 13, as head of the international gendarmerie in Macedonia.

Minister L. A. Coromilas is the first resident envoy ever sent by Greece to America. He is a bachelor and one of the most striking looking foreigners that have ever come to this country. The new envoy gained his first knowledge of our tongue from reading the works of Mark Twain with the aid of a dictionary.

Netcong Store Robbed.

Netcong, May 2.—The clothing store of Isaac Setzer at Main and Bank streets was entered by burglars Thursday night, and a number of articles of clothing taken. Entrance was effected by breaking in panels of the rear door. A cap, coat and pair of shoes belonging to the intruders were left in the store. This is the third burglary at Setzer's within a year.

Reduced Rates to Trenton via New Jersey Central for Republican State Convention, Tuesday, May 5. Tickets good going May 4 and 5, and returning until May 6. $1.60 from Plainfield. 5 2 2

The Leading Chefs
Use only
ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure

Fresh Vegetables

Asparagus, Wax Beans, Tomatoes,
Radishes, Beets, Lettuce,
Strawberries, Green Beans, Cucumbers.

Fruit

Oranges, Grape Fruit, Apples.
Malaga Grapes, Figs.

NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS—Watchung Avenue and Fifth Street.
Efficient and rapid delivery service to all parts of the city.

MONO
Fireproof Storage Warehouse.

Separate Rooms, Fireproof Partitions. Clean, Dry, Secure.
Inspection Invited—Open 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.
FURNITURE REMOVED WITH CARE.
Telephone 522-W. Opposite freight depot.

Help Wanted.

WANTED—10 salesmen, men or women; salary and commission. Apply C. H. Thorn, district manager Domestic Sewing Machine Co., 315 West Front street. 4 30 3

A WHITE woman as cook; references. Apply between 7 and 9 p. m. 7 Myrtle avenue. 5 2 2

WANTED—First-class white cook. Apply Saturday evening. 955 Hillside avenue.

WANTED—Boy or young man, by the month, for outside work. Address W. H., Daily Press. 4 30 3

WANTED—A young boy to answer telephone, etc., from 3 until 10 p. m. Apply Truell Court.

A NUMBER of white general houseworkers wanted, with references. Hall's Agency, Station driveway.

WANTED—a colored woman to do plain cooking with references. 515 Park avenue. 5 1 3

WANTED—First-class chambermaid, white; good wages. Apply 107 West Seventh street. 5 1 3

WANTED—White woman, a competent cook and laundress. 836 West Seventh street. 5 1 3

WANTED—Competent maid for general housework; no washing; references required. Apply 134 East Ninth street. 5 1 2

WANTED—Good girl for general housework; two in family; good home. Apply 711 Plainfield avenue. 4 29 4

WANTED—Woman as laundress and to assist with other work; must sleep home; references required. Apply 542 West Seventh street. 5 1 tf

Situations Wanted.

SITUATIONS wanted for white cooks and waitresses; also several colored girls, with references. Hall's Agency, Station driveway. 'Phone 322-J.

COMPETENT help constantly on hand; white and colored. Hall's Employment Agency (originally The Plainfield), station driveway; 'phone 322-J. 4 22 1m

COOKS, waitresses, general houseworkers always wanted. Anderson Employment office, 659 West Fourth street. 4 28 3 eod

WANTED—Fine washing at home. Call 619 West Third street. 4 27 6

DRESSMAKER would like work by the week in family; good remodeler; references. S., 604 West Seventh street. 5 1 6

RESPECTABLE woman wishes work by the day; laundry or housecleaning. Address T. B., care Press. 5 1 3

MAN and wife want situations together. Anderson's Employment office, 659 West Fourth street. 4 29 3 wts

COLLEGE student desires employment during summer vacation, qualified to tutor, willing to do anything; has had some business experience. Address Student, care Daily Press. 4 27 6

SOUTHERN girls on hand May 6, just from South. 236 Henderson St., Jersey City. S. Harris. 5 1 2

POSITION wanted as housekeeper by refined middle-aged woman, in small family, or any position of trust. Address F. A., Press office. 4 18 6 eod

YOUNG Polish girl wants position to do general housework; good references. 94 Somerset street. 5 2 3

COOKS and general houseworkers want places; Plainfield references. Call Mrs. Keller's office, 22 Somerset place. Tel. 196-W. 5 1 2

TWO first-class chambermaids and waitresses on hand at Mrs. Murray's registry, 726 West Front street. 5 1 2

WANTED—Laundry work. Call 518 West Fourth street. 5 2 3

CHAUFFEUR, Japanese, single, machinist, sober, honest, careful driver; two years' experience; any gasoline cars; auto engineering college graduate, wants position in private family; excellent references; moderate wages. Address F. B., care Press. 4 25 7

Rooms and Board.

GOOD accommodations; low rates. Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

FEW boarders wanted. Mrs. M. Fosbre, 659 Essex street. 5 1 12

LARGE front room with or without board. 137 East Fifth street. 5 1 6

TWO pleasant connecting rooms and small rooms, with first-class board. 406 East Fifth street. 4 29 6

TO LET—Newly furnished room in select apartment; centre of town; all improvements. A. C., care Press. 4 27 6

WATCHUNG AVE., 724, near 7th St., desirable rooms with first class board. 4 13 1m

TWO communicating rooms with board; sunny exposure; bath adjoining; first class neighborhood; excellent table. 132-134 Crescent avenue. 9 19 tf

FURNISHED rooms with or without board. 440 East Sixth street. 4 28 6

CAN accommodate two gentlemen with rooms and board. 141 East Fifth street. 2 10 tf

For Rent.

FLAT to let. Inquire 18 Craig place. 4 14 tf

FOR RENT—Apartment, four rooms, bath room, all improvements, steam heat; in fine condition; rent $18; location, corner Fifth street and Watchung avenue. Apply to A. M. Lederer, 117 West Front St. 4 23 tf

FOR RENT—New house just completed; seven rooms and bath; rent $21. Address O. I. C., Daily Press. 4 24 tf

TO LET—Eight room house, on West Fourth street, near Park avenue; all newly papered and painted; city water and gas. B. Mann, 120 West Fourth street. 4 28 tf

FOR RENT—Store on Richmond street; also stable for one horse. Apply George Staats, 306 Richmond street. 4 29 6

SEVEN room house; all improvements. 98 Jackson avenue. Apply 84 Fairview avenue. 4 29 6

FOR RENT—Commodious offices in the Woodhull & Martin building suitable for lawyers, dentists, insurance companies. etc.; will arrange to suit tenant. 4 20 tf

THREE rooms to let. 732 West Third street. 4 6 tf

SEVEN-ROOM apartments to let; all improvements. 937 West Front street; also six-room house. 3 28 tf

TO LET—New 6-room house; $16. Inquire Kinsman, Dunellen. 4 1 tf

COMMODIOUS new 8-room house on West Front street; all improvements, including gas and electric light; large garden and lawn and a variety of fruit; rent very reasonable. Robert Murray, 726 West Front street. 5 1 2

NEW six-room house to let, 1219 West Third street; six-room house, 1424 Willever street, near Safe Works; two apartments, four rooms each, all improvements, or the whole house, 216 Prescott place. J. Sacher, 731 West Third St. 4 3 tf

TO LET—Two or three nice rooms, unfurnished, for light housekeeping; bath same floor; five minutes from station. 410 New street.

STORE TO LET, 60 Somerset street, two blocks from Front street. Call or address H. Texier, Watchung, New Jersey. 5 2 2

ROOMS to let. 11 Grove street. 4 30 6

TO RENT—Second and third stories of 316 and 318 West Front street, 50x85 feet. Jos. W. Gavett. 4 3 tf

TO LET—9-room house, all improvements; 3 Verdon street. G. W. V. Moy. 3 13 tf

TO LET—4 rooms, upper floor, water. John Manley, insurance, 321 Park avenue. 3 17 tf

Real Estate Agents.

HOUSES, new, for sale or rent, all improvements, excellent location, East End. Inquire M. A. Rose, 301 Watchung avenue, 'Phone 273-J. 4 14 1m

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent or exchange. Edmund Rushmore. 20 North avenue, telephone No. 49 Plainfield; 42 Broadway, New York. 10 10 tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield; telephone 44. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; properties that I have picked up in trade that I can sell you for less than market prices; if you want to buy or have anything to sell come and see me. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, 39 Prospect place, North Plainfield. 11 20 tf

REAL ESTAE for sale, rent and exchange at bargain figures, insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

FOR SALE—If you want to buy or sell real estate, please call, write or 'phone Ira L. LaRue, next to station, next to bargain. Office 'phone 752-R, residence 'phone 845-L. 12 19 tf

Wanted—Miscellaneous.

WANTED—Two or three rooms for light housekeeping. Good location. Address J. J., care Press. 4 27 6

SMALL place wanted to rent by month or year, within five miles of Plainfield. Address Chicken Farm, care Press.

WANTED—Five or six room house, with or without improvements, the 15th of May, for two adults; must be centrally located; rent moderate. Address S. S., care Press. 4 27 6

WANTED—Cheap, strong horse for mower. Address, stating terms, D, Daily Press. 4 27 6

Real Estate for Exchange.

FINE new house, centrally located; 10 rooms, all improvements; gas and electric light, hot water heating, parquet floors; would exchange for moderate priced lots. J. T. Vail, 177 North Ave. 4 14 tf

Miscellaneous.

COMPLETE line of automobile supplies and tires at lowest New York prices. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

STORAGE for wagon and sleighs. Hand's Boarding Stable, 136 East Second street. 4 13 1m

AUTOMOBILES to hire at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co., telephone 991-J. 4 15 3m

A FIRST CLASS place to turn out horses to recruit, will have good attention; also storage for wagons. Address I., care Daily Press. 4 13 1m

STENOGRAPHIC and typewriting office; all kinds of work handled by an experienced stenographer. Miss Haskard, Babcock building, Tel. 205. 4 7 1m

FIRST-CLASS places and first-class help always on hand. Swedish Intelligence Office, 22 Somerset place, 'Phone 196-W. 8 22 tf

AUTOMOBILES repaired and overhauled by first class mechanics at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

GRADING, LAWNS REMODELED, SOIL AND SOD FURNISHED; PLANTS AND SHRUBS PLANTED, ETC.; PROMPT, SATISFACTORY. J. M. WELSH, 754 KENSINGTON AVENUE. TEL. 148-J. 4 27 6

PAINTING and Paperhanging; wall papers; estimates given; references. Address Painter, care Daily Press. 4 27 6

MRS. R. Murray's Registry and Employment Bureau for first-class help only; all nationalities. 726 West Front street. Main line cars pass the door. 5 1 2

THE EXCHANGE, 325 West Front street, telephone 901-R. Do you have furniture, carpets, etc., for sale? Do not fail to notify us; we pay 50 per cent. more than anybody else. 11 29 tf

LAWN mowers ground and set at your own place. Richard Thomas, Dunellen. 4 29 6

GARBAGE removed regularly and reasonably. George Christensen, R. F. D. No. 1. 4 21 1m

IF YOU want your watch, clock or jewelry repaired take them to Brown, 124 Watchung Ave. 4 18 1m

STALLS to rent. Hand's Boarding Stable, 136 East Second St. 4 13 1m

PRIVATE storage for carriages, sleighs, furniture, etc. 85 Duer street. 4 28 6

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S., graduate American Veterinary College, N. Y., pet animals a specialty. OFFICE WITH ALBERT HEDDEN, livery, 118 East Fourth street, telephone 114-J. 1 27 tf

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans, Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 4 tf

BABIES crochet sacques for sale; all prices; also ladies' knitted sweaters made to order. Mrs. Mayer, 54 Pearl street, North Plainfield. tf

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer; sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

CESSPOOLS and vaults cleaned, odorless excavator; good work; lowest prices. T. M. Ingraham, Plainfield R. F. D. No. 1. 12 10 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

Money to Loan.

$1,000 to $3,000 to loan; improved property only. C. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 5 2 3

MONEY to loan on first mortgage. Louis A. Clement, lawyer, Babcock building. 4 27 6

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite Depot. 12 28 tf

MONEY to loan on band and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 12 18 tf

LOANS negotiated. J. T. Vail. 1 14 tf

TO LOAN—Money on good mortgages. George F. Brown, 94 Somerset street. tf

Lost and Found.

LOST—On Sunday, a spotted coach dog, answers to the name of "Spades." Finder please return to E. S. Hooley, 70 Rockview avenue; reward. 4 20 tf

FOUND—A pair of eye-glasses; owner can have same by calling at this office.

LOST—Friday, small brown pocketbook, containing a ticket, Fanwood to Ridgeton, money, etc. Reward at Daily Press office.

LOST—Lady's small gold watch, with pin, on Front street, between Central and Park avenues. Liberal reward if left at this office.

LOST—A pair of gold rimmed eye glasses in leather case, with name of Prentice on case. If found please return to 183 North avenue. Reward.

For Sale.

4-ROOM cottage; acre of land; $2,200. Wm. Bourgeois, Laramie road. 5 1 1m

FOR SALE, RENT OR EXCHANGE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; also country homes and farms at bargain prices. C. H. Snyder, 221 Park avenue, room 4. 4 18 1m

FARM FOR SALE—Four acres, all tillable, well adapted for a chicken farm; house six rooms, stable for four horses; situate about one mile from Plainfield, N. J. Inquire of John P. Emmons, 197 North avenue. 5 1 6

FOR SALE—Oak dining-room table, first-class condition; reasonable. Address Bargain, care Press. 4 30 3

FOR SALE—A fine bay mare, thoroughly broke for riding or driving; a lady can use; also rubber tired runabout, harness, etc. Will sell seperately. "The Homestead," Fanwood. 5 1 3

STANHOPE carriage in fine condition; has been used little; good for pleasure or for doctor's carriage. Address Stanhope, care Daily Press. 4 30 3

FOR SALE—Glenns Falls natural wood open two seat wagon, canopy top, at half price. Address W. E. Lowe, 49 Wall street, New York. 4 30 6

FOR SALE—Edison Home Phonograph and 80 records, all in good order, for sale cheap. Apply A. G. Campbell, 912 East Second street, Plainfield, N. J.

FOR SALE—Good sound work horse, $40. David Hand, Netherwood. 5 2 2

FOR SALE—New modern seven-room house; all improvements; hard wood floors; good location; ten minutes from station; sacrifice, $4,000; no agents. Address John Simpson, 222 Fifth avenue, New York City.

HORSE FOR SALE, WITH TWO CARRIAGES, HARNESS, ETC., COMPLETE. PRICE MODERATE. ADDRESS X. Y. X., CARE DAILY PRESS. 5 2 3

FOR SALE—Strawberry plants in quantities. Address Box 73, South Plainfield. 5 2 2

FOR SALE cheap, conservatory glass and sahr. Inquire 1125 East Seventh street. 5 1 3

BOYS' bicycle for sale cheap. Apply 124 Westervelt avenue, borough. 5 1 2

FOR SALE a few pair of English pheasants, mated for breeding; also eggs at $3 per setting. J. McCann, North Ave. and Berckman St. 4 20 12

HOUSE for sale or rent, seven rooms; also barn and wagon shed; partial improvements. 1228 Columbia avenue, Netherwood. 4 30 3

FAST pacing mare for sale for want of use. Can be seen at 146 East Fifth street. 4 30 3

FOR SALE—Finely bred sorrel horse, rubber tired runabout and light buggy harness; may be seen at 37 Albert St. 4 20 tf

PIANO BARGAINS—$75, $100, $125, in slightly used high grade upright pianos, like new; Steinway sacrifice; why pay agents' enormous profit; see us; lowest prices; best terms. Hadley's, 315 West Front St. 4 3 1m

FOR SALE—Oldsmobile runabout, good shape, new tires; top and rear seat, $125. 413 Park avenue. 4 27 6

FOR SALE—The finest lot in Plainfield, on which to build a row of apartment houses. Chas. L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building, Plainfield, N. J. 2 21 tf

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

Poultry and Eggs.

SETTING hens for sale. 48 Rock avenue. 5 1 5

EGGS FOR HATCHING—White Leghorn, White Plymouth Rocks, Buff Orpingtons and Pekin Ducks, from the best strains. Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, Tel. 451-J. 4 14 1m

EGGS FOR HATCHING—Fishel strain; White Rocks, $1 per 13; Gardner and Dunning and Welles strain; Barred Rocks, $2; Black Minorcas, $1. Barred Rock Cockerels for sale. No. 1041 Dunellen avenue. 4 9 1m

SETTINGS of 13 from prize stock. Blk Minorca $1.50, Buff Orpington $3 White or Partridge Wyandotte $2. 100, $10; 50, $5. 234 West 2nd St. 4 3 tf

140 EGG Cyphers incubator for sale, 1906 model; perfect condition. Address Incubator, care Press. 4 30 6

INCUBATOR chicks for sale. Apply 9 Codington avenue. 4 30 6

EGGS for setting, from Orpingtons, Black Leghorns, Indian Game, and India Runner Ducks, corner Grant and Sherman Aves. 3 25 tf

R. I. RED, Barred Plymouth Rock and White Leghorn eggs from the leading strains of the country; $1 per sitting, $5 per hundred. George Howard, Jr., South Bound Brook, N. J. 2 21 3m

DEFENSE OF THE STINGY MAN.

Wherein He Differs Occasionally from the "Good Fellow."

"They say I am stingy. All right, let it go at that: I AM stingy. But did you ever hear that I was a dead beat? There was a time when I threw my money away, and stood off my creditors, in order that I might be known as a good fellow, but now I save my money and pay my debts. There was a time when I spent ten dollars in an evening, bumming around with the boys, and owed the tailor for the clothes on my back; when I went riding every Sunday with a livery rig, and did not pay my board; when I thought it an evidence of smartness to buy cigars and drinks for other people, but now I think it an evidence of sound sense for a man to save the money for which he is compelled to work, in order that he may realize something from it. For this I am called stingy, but I can stand it; in fact, I rather enjoy the title, for there are so many shiftless fools in this town who imagine that they are good fellows, hoping to realize on their wanton waste of money, that I am glad I cannot be classed among them. Ask the bill collectors about the good fellows. The bill collectors will tell you a story worth listening to and they will also tell you that the stingy men pay promptly. There are a lot of old good fellows in Atchison who have not money enough to bury them, and there are stingy fellows in Atchison who began life under more unfavorable circumstances than the good fellows, and the stingy fellows are rich. I recommend that the young fellows deserve the name of being stingy, for a stingy man seldom stints himself or his family, but he often refuses to throw his hard-earned money away, and very properly. A stingy man is seldom bothered for donations, and, altogether, I like the name."—(Found among the papers of an Atchison man who died rich.)—Atchison Globe.

KEEPS STRICT TAB ON CIGARS.

Melancholy Man Tells of Drawback to Wife's Gift.

"My wife," said the melancholy man, "always gives me a box of cigars on my birthday. No; I'm not going to say what you expect me to. They are excellent cigars; they ought to be, for I always give her careful instructions as to what to get.

"The trouble is that she can't seem to separate herself from the gift. I presume it is feminine human nature, but she exercises a watchful guardianship over that box. She has a notion that it ought to be like the widow's cruse of oil, which, as I recall, lasted for a considerable time. Because the cigars are expensive the taking of one of them becomes in her eyes, an event. I have tried to smuggle other cigars into that box, but I've always been caught. Her proprietary interest increases as the number of smokes diminish.

"Why don't you exert your independence?" the melancholy man was asked, "and tell your wife that you will smoke those cigars as you like, at home, or take the whole box to the office?"

"You don't know my wife," replied the melancholy man.

Test Case.

"I'm a 'beauty doctor,'" announced the stranger with the hand satchel full of cosmetics and massage machines. "Do you think I could get any practice around here?"

"Yeou make ugly things pretty, don't yeou?" drawled the old farmer in the speckled shirt.

"That's my business, sir."

"Wall, if yeou'll go down back of my barn yeou'll find an old slate-colored cow with one eye and one horn and wrinkles like canals all over her face. She's the ugliest cow in seven states and if yeou can make her pretty I'll agree that yeou be a 'beauty doctor' an' give yeou a dollar."

Feminine Intuition.

They stood in the purple gloaming of the hazy twilight. Above them drooped the wistaria; from afar drifted the fragrance of the dewy honeysuckles. It was an evening to inspire the heart and to thrill the soul.

"Evangeline," sighed Hector Montmorency, "I cannot begin to tell you how much I love you."

"You"—she hesitated—"you might at least try, mightn't you? If you give me but an inkling perhaps I can guess the rest."

He should have known better than to think of marrying a woman who was such a good guesser.—Judge.

Wary.

"So you heard my speech?" said the orator.

"Yes," answered Farmer Corntossel.

"And you enjoyed it?"

"Very much."

"And you agreed with my opinions?"

"Entirely."

"Then, of course, I can depend on your support."

"No. I've thought it all over, and I've concluded that as slick a talker as you are ain't to be trusted."—Washington Star.

Quite Likely.

"We thought," said the reporter, "you might care to say something about these charges against you."

"No," replied the crooked public official, "I believe that 'silence is golden.'"

"Well," replied the reporter, "perhaps the public might believe it's merely gilt in this case."—Philadelphia Press.

We have purchased the Meat and Provision business conducted by Fred Endress and it will be conducted as The Endress Co. The same high standard and quality of Meats, Poultry and Provisions will be maintained.

The Meats we select will give satisfaction, because they are the best obtainable.

PRIME RIB ROAST

cut from native cattle, very choice and tender, select cuts of Sirloin and Porterhouse Steaks, Chops, Cutlets, Poultry, etc. Give us a trial and be convinced. Prices lower than quality deserves.

The ENDRESS CO.

131-135 West Front Street.
'Phone 690.

Advertised Mail Matter.

E. H. BIRD, P. M

April 27, 1908.

Abernethy, Mr H	Marton, Mr J H
Acalla, Mr G	Mgr. 3rd B B Team
Brown, Mr Wm	Lincoln School
Bremmer, Geo F	Mason, Mrs
Beeding, Mr M M	Mahaney, Jr., Pat.
Bailley, Mrs N	McKenzie, Clin.
Bartels, Miss O M	McNevin, Mr B
Barelay, Mr John	McCann, Mrs J
Baldwin, Mr Frank	Machbank, Mrs
Barrett, Mrs Alice	Nash, Charlote
Cushing, Mr F J	Omen, Mrs Mary
Caurlaender, Mrs H	Rose, Mr Joe
Driscoll, Mr D. W.	Svell, Mr T
Dawson, Mrs H	Stewart, Mr A
Ethel, Mrs care Mr. Plyer	Snyder, Mrs Stritt, Johann
Gallagher, Miss B	Smith, Mr. Arthur
Gaston, Mr W F	Smith, Mrs Garrett
Griffin, Mrs E A	Seybolt, Mrs W H
Glander, Mr F	Strong, Mr G A
Holmes, Mr M S	Watson, Mrs Jesse
Johnson, Mr Sam	Watson, Mrs H B
Lindsay, Mr Wm	Woodruff, Mrs C B
Lewis, Miss Rose	Worthmann, L C B
Lawerderman, Bes.	Wilson, Mrs Cade
McDonough, Mr J	Wheaton, S
3 Moncton, Mr G	Wenfel, Fred
Manning, Mrs L	Warren, Miss G
Mankowski de Count Cassimir	Welch, Mr Jas
Munken, Miss B	Wall, Edw S
	Wittawski, Mr F

(PLEASE SAY ADVERTISED.)

Flor de Timbo

Clear Habana.

Get It at Timbo's

The Evidence in the Case.

33 years' use is evidence—Millions of consumers is evidence—sales made by 16,000 agents is evidence. You buy 4 gallons L. & M. Paint and 3 gallons Pure Linseed Oil (at 60 cents) mix them and make 7 gallons best paint ready for use—cost only $1.20 per gallon—Done in 2 minutes.

Woolston & Buckle, Plainfield; H. C. Meyer, Scotch Plains; P. W. Brakely, Dunellen,

L. & M. Paint Agents.

ESTATE of John B. Probasco, Deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the thirteenth day of March, 1908, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.

Norman H. Probasco,
Gertrude Katharine Probasco,
Executors.
John H. Van Winkle & Son, Proctors.
3 14 9 oaw s

ESTATE OF RICHARD BOWEN BROWN, Deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, administrator of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the ninth day of April, 1908, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

LEROY J. ELLIS, Administrator.
4 11 9 oaw s

ADMINISTRATOR'S SETTLEMENT.—Notice is hereby given, That the account of the subscriber, Administrator with the will annexed of Edmund V. Shotwell, deceased, and trustee thereunder, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the twenty-seventh day of May, next.

Dated April 24, 1908.

WILLIAM H. SHOTWELL.
4 25 oaw 5 s

Burns' Tonsorial Parlors.

Your face is your own, of course. You can treat it as you please. But a duty you owe it, and ought to show it, is to have it shaved with ease.

W. C. BURNS, Prop.,
212 Watchung Ave.

BOYNTON
Square Pot
FURNACES

Greatest heat from least coal; minimum care-taking—all direct benefits of the wonderful Square Pot (patented). Ask dealer.
Boynton Furnace Co., New York—Chicago.

FURNITURE.

Repaired and upholstered. Equal to new. Send a postal to HARRISON, 140 CENTRAL AVE., Cabinet maker, Polisher, Mattress Maker.

The Expense of Moving Your Old Upright or Square Piano or Organ?

The moving season of the year is here. Are you considering the cost of moving your old upright or square

PIANO or ORGAN.

Our letter of credit has been a great convenience to many. Why not to you? At no expense to you whatever we will send our wagon for your old instrument, saving you the cost of moving it, and give you our Letter of Credit for the amount of its exchange valuation which may be applied on the purchase price of any new Upright Piano or Player-Piano from our large and beautiful stock.

A valuation of your old instrument can be arranged by sending postal or telephone or by calling at our wareroom.

The time for the economical disposing of your old instrument is now offered you. Let us hear from you at once.

Mathushek & Son Piano Co.,

310 West Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J.,
'Phone 910-J

Vail
JEWELER AND OPTICIAN

103 Park Ave.,
calls your attention to his
Rimless Glasses.

They Look Good and You See Good.

EDUCATIONAL.

JOSEPH Mc INTYRE,
Pianist, Coach, Accompanist
TEACHER OF PIANO and SINGING
New York Studio, 30 E. 23rd Street.
Wednesdays and Saturdays.
Plainfield, Residence and Studio,
Telephone 386-J 1308 Watchung Avenue
1 9 6mos

ATTEND DRAKE BUSINESS COLLEGE.
PLAINFIELD
For thorough training in English, Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Penmanship, Commercial Law and correlative branches. The school that does not PROMISE to ASSIST graduates to positions, but that guarantees absolutely to PLACE them, and does it. 11 25 tf

Plainfield Business College
WOODHULL & MARTIN BUILDING.
SCHOOL OF ENGLISH.
A school well equipped for doing high grade work.
Investigate this school—it pays. 1½ hours devoted to English every day. Day and Evening sessions all the year.
Capacity 400 students.
A. S. HERR, Prin. and Prop.

CHAS. M. SUHR,
TEACHER OF PIANO.
614 E. 6th Street, Tel. 741-W

REAL ESTATE

RENTALS—REAL ESTATE
Geo. F. Brown,
INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE.
Commissioner of Deeds—Rents.
94 Somerset St. 'Phone 166.

STATIONERY
AND TOYS.
HARPER,
411 PARK AVENUE.

Press Want Ads. Pay

DRUGGISTS.

MOTH BALLS

Will save you your money over what might happen to your clothes.
They will insure your clothes being preserved thru the summer and will enable you to have them fresh and whole in the fall. Now is the time to buy MOTH BALLS.

C. M. Nagle's Pharmacy,
Front and Grove Sts. 'Phone 516.

Complete Line of
REXALL
Goods at
MILLER'S PHARMACY
Park Ave. & 4th St. Tel. 203.

Hodge's Pharmacy.
Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Tel. 62.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
EAST FRONT STREET
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Room.

HOTEL KENSINGTON
(Licensed)
WM. J. POULSON, Prop.
107-109-111 North Avenue.
Everything New and Up-to-date
An Inspection Solicited.

HOTEL IROQUOIS
Club breakfast from 6:30 to 10:30 a. m. Business Men's Lunch from 11:30 to 2:30 p. m.
ROOMS
First floor, $1 single; $1.50 double.
Second floor, 75c single; $1 double.
Third floor, 50c single; 75c double.
A LA CARTE 6:30 UNTIL 1 A. M.
Special Sunday Dinner from 12:30 to 2:30 p. m. 50c

Electricians!
Michaelsen & Hage
No. 148 E. Fifth St. Tel. 1077-J

VEGETABLES
Fresh From the Garden
Here are Vegetables that appeal to the appetite of an epicure, they are so good in quality, fresh and inviting to the taste. Tomatoes, Asparagus, String Beans, Beets Cucumbers, Lettuce, Radishes, etc., at prices that will just suit you.
W. W. DUNN,
THE PARK GROCER,
DUER STREET AND LINCOLN PLACE.

STOP AT
Central R. R. News Stands
for PLAINFIELD PRESS, always on sale. Daily and Sunday papers delivered, all magazines, weekly papers, novelties, back numbers a specialty. R. R. guides, automobile road and state maps, Phila. papers. Fine brand of Cigars and tobacco. Open Sundays.
F. M. WAGNER, Manager.

YOU WILL NEVER BUY A HOME WITH MONEY PAID FOR RENT IN THE PAST.
START NOW TO
OWN A HOME
of your own by taking our shares in
THE CENTRAL
BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION
OF PLAINFIELD.
J. F. MacDONALD, Secretary.
Smalley Building, 149 North Avenue.

McCULLOUGH'S STEAM MILL,
21 Steiner place, North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 517-J.
Furniture, Freight, Baggage Express and Rigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

Try a box of
DOBBINS' CIGARS.
Clear Havana Nickle Yara or any kind that you desire. Manufactured at 120 North Avenue, opposite Kensington Hotel, Plainfield, N. J.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Cedar Posts and Bean Poles. Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
69 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS,
P. O. Box 320.

Mountain House,
Mt. Bethel, N. J.
FRENCH RESTAURANT
Resort for Automobiles and Driving Parties
A. E. BINZ, Prop

COAL DEALERS

Difference In Coal.

All coals may look alike to some people, but compare our "Lehigh" Coal with the Coal you bought somewhere else and you will see a difference.

You will notice that our Coal Burns Brighter, Gives More Heat, and Lasts Longer than any other Coal you ever bought before.

Boice, Runyon & Co.,
Coal, Lumber and Mason Materials
Park Ave., opp North Ave.,
Plainfield N. J.

JOS. HARRIGAN
OLD COMPANY'S
LEHIGH COAL.
Tel. 198 929 South Ave.

The best time to order your winter supply of
COAL
is now. Do not forget that
NASH
is ready to supply you.
Telephones 557-W 633-J.
Evenings 371-W.
OFFICE—130 WATCHUNG AVENUE

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers' Inn.
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 218 West Front Street. Telephone 23-L.

Coal I have on hand some very fine Hard and Medium Coal. All kept undersheds. Pea Coal. Coal
25 cents a ton reduction on cash orders.
L. A. RHEAUME,
148 East Fourth St. Telephone 440-W.
Yard, 674 South Second St. Telephone 280.

GEORGE O. STEVENS
747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. H. Rugg & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 430 West Third St. Tel. 93.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

We call your attention to our fine display of
New Wall Papers.
We can't describe the patterns, but they are new, striking and effective, and with our large assortment we are sure to please.
Paints, Oils and Varnishes.
Woolston & Buckle,
145 North Avenue.

STRIKING COLORS
should not be sought in preference to those that have good lasting qualities, but when
PAINTS
are to be had which are both brilliant and durable, take care to secure that kind.
We have all kinds and grades of Paints, Oils, Colors and Varnishes, suitable for all kinds of work at the lowest prices to be found in this city.
Jas. C. Hansen,
Dealer in Wallpapers, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc
141 East Front Street
Estimates Furnished

1908 Wall Papers.
IMPORTED & AMERICAN GOODS.
C. CONOVER & CO.
Decorators, Painters and Paperhangers, Window and Plate Glass.
115 Elmwood Pl. Tel. 1145

W. S. CHEEVER
1326 Park Ave.
Painting and INTERIOR DECORATING. WALL PAPER of every description at the Lowest Prices.
'Phone No. 538-J.

NOTICE.
If you are dissatisfied with your paper service call on or call up
THE HUSTLER,
William H. Olmstead, 331 Watchung Avenue, near Fourth St. Successor to D.H. Blaney & Son
668-J Either 'Phone 668-J

AZIENZA
cures pimples and all inflammation of the skin. Used by people of refinement. Medicinal and toilet—50 and 10 cents.
CREAM.

SMALLEY BROS.
147 North Ave.
BUTCHERS
Our Specialty, Berkshire Pork
Try Our Berkshire Sausage Made on Premises.
Roasting and Broiling Chickens a Specialty
Orders called for and delivered
Telephone 88-A. 5 1 tf

The Southern Restaurant,
232 West Second Street, corner Madison Avenue, now under new management. Meals served at all hours a la carte and table d'hote. Our own make bread and pastrys all home cooking. The choice of everything is bought for the tables. Our price is reasonable. The place is now under the management of the well known New York caterer. T. H. Royster, Manager. Tel. 923-J. 1 18 tf

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 Watchung Av. Rear.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

JOHN WINZENREID,
Furniture and Freight Express.
Moving Vans and Storage.
312 Lee Place. 'Phone 840-R.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.
Renovating—Offices, stores and private residences. Service day or night. Furniture, china and glassware packed for shipping.
WM. A. KLINE, 611 W. 3d St.

Geo. H. Stagaard,
SHOEMAKING and REPAIRING.
108 CHURCH STREET.

TITUS H. LAURY
MASON AND BUILDER.
Office, 323 East Front Street.
Tile Setting, Mantel and Front Work.
Telephone 464-L.

TURKISH BATHS!
TAKE ONE
Ladies Mornings, Gentlemen Afternoons
Take Trolley to Sanitarium,
Somerset Street.

Cleaning, Pressing and Dyeing.
Monthly Contracts.
Pressing called for and delivered.
RENOVATING DRESSES A SPECIALTY.
Ladies' Waists Cleaned, 75 cents upwards
Gents' Suits Cleaned $1.50
We do our own work at
M. A. Brown's, 218 West Second St.

William H. Pope,
ELECTRICIAN.
All kinds of electrical work done at reasonable prices.
116 NORTH AVENUE.

Rouse & Fullagar,
CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS,
117 Plainfield Avenue.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St. Tel. 507-W.

Meat Market.
Choice Meats, Poultry, Fish and Oysters always on hand. Sugar cured Corned Beef. International Hams and Bacon.
F. Neidig, 94 Somerset St. Telephone 731

E. B. Maynard's
Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a specialty.
Tel. No. 754-R.
141 NORTH AVENUE.

JOHN WIRTH
(Successor to Henry Liefke.)
Bakery and Confectionery.
201-203 West Front St. Tel. No. 723.
All orders delivered at short notice.

HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS
Silver trunks safely delivered to safety deposit vaults.
Furniture Moving Van and Baggage Delivery.
OFFICE 205 PARK AVENUE
Tel. 835-W. Residence Tel. 648-L

REAL ESTATE
Bought, Sold and For Rent.
J. SACHAR,
731 WEST THIRD STREET.

THE WORLD'S GOLD.

Johannesburg has a taxable valuation of $300,000,000 in real estate.

Beloch, the mining expert, says the Johannesburg gold reef is good for at least $15,000,000,000.

The Welcome Stranger, an Australian nugget of pure gold, weighed 2,516 ounces and brought $51,000.

A South African prospector found that part of his claim was under an old Dutch church. He drove his peg under the altar.

The stamps at Kalgurli's Golden Mill, New South Wales, have produced gold valued at $160,000,000. It costs $25 to haul a cord of sage brush, the miserable fuel used at the batteries.

Africa produces more than one-third of the world's gold. Its annual output is $150,000,000; the United States gives out $95,000,000; Australia, $85,000,000, and New Zealand, $10,000,000.

The gold mine owners in South Africa have in three years spent over $1,000,000 recruiting laborers from Central Africa. They only got 17,000 negroes, and few of them could stand the winter. Then 67,000 Chinese were brought, starting the labor troubles.

SPLINTERS.

The bills now come in and the wise man proceeds to pay them.

The popularity of any man or measure is no evidence of intrinsic worth.

The head of a tyrant looks better on a block than on the coin of his realm.

Beauty in a crowded car gets a seat when age and wisdom must stand.

New York seems never satisfied unless it has a mysterious tragedy on its hands.

The loss of conscience and the lack of cash will end your life in one eternal smash.

As a tricky enemy of the human race grip has again walked off with the blue ribbons.

There are few who would not be rich if they could, even with a slight lapse in their honesty.

A good opinion of yourself, backed by brains and bullion, will be convincing to your neighbor.

ALLEGED FACTLETS.

The Chinese smoke no opium on New Year's day.

There are four swear-offs of drinking to one of smoking.

The average bank note is the habitation of 19,000 microbes.

Only on New Year's day are Hottentot widows permitted to remarry.

In Paris, over 2,000 tons of horseflesh is eaten annually by the poor.

The Tartars, to invite a man to drink with them, take hold of his ear and give it a friendly jerk.

The costliest drug is physostigmine—a remedy for certain eye diseases—an ounce of which would cost $1,000,000.

Confectioners say that at New Year's and Lent their business suffers not a little from the swear-offs of the ladies.

MEDITATIONS OF A SPINSTER.

The bride-to-be thinks she is getting the earth, but it turns out to be only a honeymoon.

When you can hardly believe what you hear it is a sign some nice man is talking to you.

A girl can pretend before and afterward that she does not like being kissed, but not during it.

Many a woman thinks a man just grand when what he really is is nothing more or less than a polite liar.

Nearly every man believes he is no coward, but all the same he refuses to do anything when his wife urges him to kick about the gas bill.

Not all women who scream nowadays are really afraid of mice, but they are afraid they will be considered strong-minded if they do not scream.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

SAVAGE PROVERBS.

"The proverbs of the savages of Africa are interesting," said an ethnologist. "They are full of color. Here are a few from the Basutos, the Yorubus, the Wolofs and the Pashtos:

"'Cross the river before you abuse the crocodile.'

"'He who unjustly spears another knifes himself.'

"'Kraals built in a day are mud ruins in a week.'"

"'The mud hippopotamus does not bring forth the gazelle.'

"'One head impaled on the gatepost is more valuable than six on the shoulders of enemies.'

The New Mayor

Based on G. H. Broadhurst's Successful Play

The Man of The Hour

By ALBERT PAYSON TERHUNE.

Copyright, 1907, by George H. Broadhurst.

"Now you'll listen to me for a moment," cut in Bennett, silencing the interruption. "You say I'm in love with Miss Wainwright. It is true. I love her in a way a dog like you could never understand if he tried for a lifetime. I'd give my life for one word of love from her, but I'd sooner go forever without that word than win it by a dishonest deed that would prove me unworthy of her. I asked her love as a free gift and tried to deserve it. She refused, and I won't try to buy what she won't give me, especially since the price would make me as unworthy of her as you yourself are."

"But you take the wrong view of it. You see, if"—

"I see this much: I'll have to speak plainer to get my view of the case into your vile mind. If ever again you meet me, stand out of my way. Don't speak to me or come where I am, for if you cross my path again I'll treat you ten thousand times worse than when I thrashed you in that football game. That's all."

The eavesdropper.

Bennett, restraining his wrath with a mighty effort, turned on his heel and strode off into the corridor, leaving Gibbs staring after him in dumb, impotent despair.

When the broker had recovered himself sufficiently to start from the room Dallas Wainwright stood before him, barring the exit. Her face was dead white, her big dark eyes ablaze.

"Wait!" she commanded. "I must speak to you—for the last time."

"Dallas!" gasped the desperate man, his drawn face turning positively yellow. "You were—you—you heard?"

"Mr. Bennett just now called you 'the foulest cur in all the world,'" said Dallas, her voice scarcely louder than a whisper, yet every syllable stinging as a whiplash. "He put it too mildly."

"But, sweetheart"—

"'Miss Wainwright,' please. I heard you offer to sell me to him in exchange for his conscience. If my own brother had told me such a thing I would not have believed him, but I myself heard it. And I heard his splendid answer."

"But, you know, I was joking! That it was just a trick to"—

"Just such a trick that made me promise to be your wife? Yes, but this time you had to do with a man—a man in a million—not with a poor, credulous little idiot like me. And he answered you as I should have answered you had my eyes been opened in time. I"—

"Dallas," groaned Gibbs, "for heaven's sake don't look at me like that! I can't bear it! I love you! And I"—

"And I to my criminal folly promised to marry you!" she stormed. "I let you kiss me. My lips are degraded forever by that touch of yours. I let you speak words of love to me. I broke a brave man's heart for your worthless sake. Oh, the shame—the horrible shame of it all! But I shall thank God on my bended knees that I have found out the truth before it was too late."

"Too late?" he echoed in horror, his voice rising almost to a scream. "Dallas, you're not going to throw me over? You aren't"—

"Now leave me, please. Your presence sickens me."

"Scott Gibbs," she answered quietly, a world of wondering scorn in her level tones, "you do not even know how vile a thing you are. Now leave me, please. Your presence sickens me."

He tried to speak, but something of the ineffable contempt in her steady eyes silenced him. Without a word he slunk out of the room and out of her life.

Phelan, agog with eagerness for the coming struggle in the aldermanic chamber, bustled past through the corridor. The alderman had many duties today, and as the performance of each brought him nearer to his longed for revenge on Horrigan he was positively beaming with righteous bliss. Dallas caught sight of him.

"Alderman!" she called faintly.

Phelan halted, still in haste to fulfill his mission.

"Could—could I see Mr. Bennett?" she asked, a new timidity transforming her rich voice. "Do you know where I can find him?"

"Is it important? He's pretty busy."

"Very important!" she pleaded. "I must see him at once."

"I'll look him up," agreed Phelan, "but I warn you he's too busy to see you just yet. S'pose you let me take you back to the meetin'? Our bill's comin' up in a few minutes now, an' you don't want to miss it. Then I'll scare up his honor for you as soon as he's got a spare minute an' bring you back here to him. Sorry to keep you waitin'," he went on as they started toward the council chamber, "but before this session's over all sorts of things is due to explode, an' we ain't hardly at the beginnin' of the excitement yet. We're goin' to make a Fourth of July celebration in a giant powder fact'ry look like a deaf mute fun'ral by the time we're done."

CHAPTER XVII.

"HE'S in there!" observed Phelan in high excitement, jerking his thumb toward a door leading off the committee room, "an' I've sent for Wainwright an' Horrigan to meet your honor here. An' I've fixed it so the Borough bill won't come up for ten minutes. Now, all that's left is to touch the punk to the fuse an' set off the whole giddy bunch of fireworks under 'em. Gee, but it's good to 'a' stuck to this old world just for the sake of bein' here today an' seein' what I'm due to see!"

The alderman chuckled, but his joyous anticipation found no reflection in Bennett's white set face. The two were in the committee room, whither Phelan had repaired after depositing Dallas in a chair beside her brother at the meeting and attending to one or two details of greater import.

"Yes," went on Phelan, again nodding mysteriously toward the farther door, "he's in there, trained to the minute for the blowout. There's some one else wants to see you, too—some one who'll make more of a hit with you if I'm not overplayin' my hand. But good news can wait. There's so little of it in this measly life that it gen'rally has to. I"—

From the corridor Horrigan stamped into the committee room, Wainwright at his heels.

"Well!" cried the boss defiantly, glaring at Bennett and ignoring Phelan. "You sent for us. What do you want?"

"One moment!" intervened Wainwright. "We are beaten. We admit that without argument. So we need waste no time going over details."

"Have you sent for us to say what you'll sell out for?" queried Horrigan coarsely, "because if you have you've only to name your price. You've got us where you want us. We've got to pay."

"I should have thought," replied Bennett, with no shade of offense, "you would know by this time that I have no 'price.'"

"Then what do you want?"

"Nothing—from you."

"Why did you send word you wanted to see us?" growled Horrigan impatiently as he and Wainwright, uninvited, seated themselves at the table.

"To tell you," answered Alwyn, glancing from one to the other, "that every step you two have taken in this whole infamous transaction from the very first has been carefully followed, and, to use your own phrase, we've got you with the goods!"

"Same old bluff!" commented Horrigan contemptuously, with a reassuring wink at the somewhat less confident Wainwright.

"By tomorrow noon," resumed Bennett, "you will both be indicted on a charge of bribery. Even now there are detectives on the watch for you. Escape is impossible."

"Rot!" sneered Horrigan. "You've no evidence that will indict, and you know it. Even if you had, don't I control most of the judges and the district attorney's office besides? Swell chance you'll have of getting a conviction past that bunch! Bah! You talk like a man made of mud. I s'pose it's the affair of those Roberts notes you're counting on. That don't faze me any. My lawyer can twist that around so it'll look like a charity gift. No, no, youngster. You'll have to think of something better if"—

"And, anyhow," put in Wainwright nervously, "you can't prove any connection on my part. There's nothing against me or"—

"I think there is," retorted Bennett.

But Wainwright did not hear. He still stared, as one hypnotized, into the blazing eyes of the man he had trusted.

"You've—you've played me false!" he managed to gasp at length. "You have"—

"Sure he has!" cut in Horrigan. "What'd I tell you last summer, Wainwright? I said then you were foolish to trust him so. I said he'd stand watching. The minute I set eyes on that lantern jawed, glum face of his"—

"Played me false!" muttered Wainwright again, dazed and doubting the evidence of his own senses.

"Played you false?" jeered Thompson. "Played you false? Why else did I become your servant? What else have I been waiting all these horrible years for? I've sat at your desk and listened to your orders, never venturing to say my soul was my own. Now you'll listen to me."

"Why do you bother with the little traitor, Wainwright?" scoffed Horrigan.

But the financier was standing motionless, leaning on the table, his fingers spasmodically gripping its edge till the knuckles grew white. Ridiculously like a cowed prisoner before the bar of justice, he faced his fiery eyed young judge.

"They sent for me," went on Thompson brokenly, jerkily, scarce intelligible as the suppressed hatred of a decade battled for expression. "They sent for me. My father had killed himself. My mother lay dead, struck down by grief. Our honored old name was defiled. My sister was a pauper. Who had done all this? You! Oh, they hushed it up, but I found it out! I found it out! And by my murdered father's body I knelt and swore I'd pay you for it. I'd pay you if it cost me my life. I would ruin you in name and fortune, as you ruined my father, and then I'd kill you, as you killed him! I'd"—

"And then I'd kill you, as you killed my father."

With an effort that left him haggard and trembling, Thompson forced himself to calmer speech and continued:

"I answered your advertisement for a secretary. I had no experience, yet out of ninety applicants you chose me. That was fate. I knew then that one day I should have you at my feet, as now I have. Fate fought for me. I made myself necessary for you. I obeyed your hardest orders. I found out ways to please you. I fetched and carried for you. I ran to anticipate your lightest wish, as though I were your adoring son. It was 'I hope you're satisfied, sir,' and 'Let me do that for you, sir,' and 'I am glad to work overtime for you, sir, any time you wish,' while every minute I had to fight hard to keep from striking you dead!"

"I must go!" groaned Wainwright, shuddering. "I can't stand this. I"—

"Oh, I made you think me a paragon!" resumed the youth. "You took to testing my honesty and loyalty in clever ways that you thought I'd never discover. I stood the tests. Then you trusted me. You fool! As if the fact that I wasn't a crook proved I wasn't your enemy! You could see no farther than dollars and cents. When I didn't steal those or sell the market tips you gave me you thought I was incorruptible and devoted to your interests. And all the time I"—

"You were listening at the keyhole that day last summer," broke in Horrigan, "the time I pulled the office door open, and"—

"Then and always," answered Thompson, "and," he added, his eyes returning to Wainwright's, "I copied every confidential telegram or letter you sent. I took down in shorthand every private interview of yours. I tracked the checks that completed your deals, and when they came back from the vaults as vouchers I stole them. I've got proofs, I tell you—proofs—of every crooked transaction you have dabbled in for nine years. I've secured proofs of every step in this borough franchise bribery, and I've turned them all over to the mayor here. That evidence will send you to state prison! To state prison, I tell you! To a cell, with cropped hair and striped suit! I'll send you to prison, where you'll break your heart and be branded forever as a convict! And when your term is up I'll be waiting for you, and I'll kill you! Do you hear me, you foul criminal?" he shouted, screaming hysterically and foaming at the mouth in his abandonment of insane fury. "I'm going to kill you! To kill you!"

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

wheeling about on the financier. "And even if I can't nail the Roberts bribery to you I've plenty more counts to hold you on."

"All these generalities and vague accusations prove nothing, Bennett," answered Wainwright, drawing courage from Horrigan's colossal calm and speaking with more assurance. "Mr. Horrigan and I are not schoolboys to be scared by baseless threats. This is all guesswork on your part. Come, now, name one specific charge you can prove."

"One will be enough to convince you?" asked Alwyn. "Well, then, how about this as a first guess? Mr. Horrigan's bribe of $2,000,000 in money and 25,000 shares of Borough stock for agreeing to put through the Borough franchise? For 'guesswork' that doesn't seem to me very bad."

Wainwright's hard mask of a face twitched convulsively, but the steady brain that had carried him unshaken through a thousand risky financial deals came at once to his rescue.

"An excellent guess," he agreed in splendidly feigned amusement, "but unfortunately the courts demand proof before convicting a man, and there is no proof whatever of"—

"Are you sure?" queried Bennett. Turning to Phelan, he added:

"Please ask Mr. Thompson to come in."

The alderman, with an expansive grin, flung open the door of the farther room.

At sound of his secretary's name Wainwright had sprung to his feet and, dumfounded, was leaning heavily on the table, staring across the threshold of the suddenly opened door.

There, framed in the dark doorway, his face deathly pale, his eyes glowing with a strange light as of murder, stood Cynthia's brother.

His presence in the city hall was no mere chance, but the climax of a series of conferences between Bennett, Phelan and himself, dating from the night of the administration ball, when, despite his own resolve, the secretary's hand had been forced by the inquisitive alderman and his identity revealed.

Bennett had been let into the secret next day, and the trio had had a three hour talk from which Phelan had emerged with the gleeful air of one who had unexpectedly found a $1,000 bill. Thompson, too, had left that conference with a look of calm, intense satisfaction that transfigured him.

Other conversations had followed, one of them in the presence of notary, stenographer and lawyers. The trap at last was ready to be sprung.

The financier for the first time in his nine year close association with the secretary met the younger man's gaze without seeing the latter droop in deferential submission. Now he received back look for look from his former abject slave, and it was his own glance that wavered before that concentrated glare of hate.

"Thompson!" he cried, and his voice bore a world of incredulous reproach.

Before him stood the one man on earth in whom Wainwright had ever placed implicit trust; to whom he had confided his gravest business secrets; the man whom he had so shrewdly tested in countless ways and who had proved stanchly incorruptible and loyal, and now Thompson apparently confronted him in the role of traitor—of exultant spy.

Harry Garrison.

"Thompson!" he exclaimed once more, almost with a groan, as the secretary advanced into the room until only the width of the table separated employer and employee.

Then the newcomer spoke for the first time, in an oddly muffled voice, as though fighting desperately for self restraint.

"No!" he contradicted. "'Thompson' no longer. Henceforth I am Garrison."

Wainwright's face grew gray. Breathless, unbelieving, he peered across at the pallid features of his new foe, tracing in them the likeness to the old friend whose ruin and death he had caused. The haunting resemblance that had often vaguely occurred to him when watching Thompson at work now returned in double force. But now, as in a flash, it was explained, and he knew that his secretary spoke the truth.

"Yes," went on Thompson in that same choked, struggling intonation, "I am Harry Garrison. You wrecked my father's life. You drove him to suicide. You blasted his memory. You beggared his children. I am his son—Harry Garrison. Now do you begin to understand?"

"You see, Mr. Wainwright," intervened Bennett as the secretary's pent-up rage strangled the words in his throat, "my guesswork has a fairly reliable backing."

GERMAN GLEANINGS.

The German fishers brought in during the last season 315,000 tons of herring, valued at $2,000,000.

Having thrown a pot of beer at a fellow officer and broken his nose, a German lieutenant in Danzig was so ashamed that he shot himself.

The supreme court of Germany has in several cases fixed the responsibility of bankers when advising investments to their clients, especially when such advice was volunteered as against another investment desired.

Railway stations of Berlin are shortly to be provided with automatic machines which in the insertion of 52 cents will deliver an umbrella. A ticket will also drop out, and whoever presents it within two days at an office of the automatic society will receive 33 cents in return for the umbrella.

Following recovery from typhoid fever, the black hair of Calvin Myers of Dover, O., turned red.

New Jersey Central

In Effect January 26, 1908.

For New York—2.17, 3.37, 5.26, 6.02, 6.29, 6.57, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.47, 7.55, 8.00, 8.11, 8.30, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.59, 10.23, 10.56 a. m., 12.00, 12.19, 12.42, 1.09, 1.27, 2.21, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.46, 5.53, 6.29, 6.48, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.27, 9.31, 10.17, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.17, 3.37, 4.47, 7.28, 7.55, 8.52, 9.24, 9.45, 10.18, 10 32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.36, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Newark—5.26, 6.29, 6.57, 7.05, 7.25, 7.26, 7.47, 8.11, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.59, 10.56 a. m., 12.42, 1.09, 1.27, 2.21, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.46, 5.53, 6.29, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.31 p. m. Sunday—7.22, 8.52, 9.24, 10.15, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 2.09, 5.22, 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 2.08, 5.47, 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 5.47 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.37, 8.11, 10.55 a. m., 12.42 (Saturdays only), 3.42, 4.45, 5.53, 8.27, 11.28 p. m. Sundays—3.37, 8.52 a. m., 2.20, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.37, 8.29 a. m., (12.42 Saturdays only), 1.27, 2.44 (3.42 Lakewood only), (5.53 Lakewood only, Saturdays only) p. m. Sundays—(7.58 Lakewood only), 8.45 a. m., 1.45 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.12, 7.29, 8.45, 9.12, 10.43 a. m., 12.13, 12.42, 1.29, 2.14, 3.45, 5.13, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 1.17 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.53, 10.29, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.55, 5.29, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 11.25, 1.17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m. Sundays—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

"Change cars at Bound Brook.

W. G. BESLER, Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, Gen. Pass. Agt.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

Office opens 7 a. m., closes 7 p. m. On Saturdays close half hour later.

NEW YORK MAIL.

Arrive—7:00, 8:40, 11:30 a. m., 2:30, 5:00 5:30, 9 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:30, 5:00 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 1:30, 3:15 and 7 p. m
Close—7:30 a. m., 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40 and 11:30 a. m., 2:30 7:00 p. m.
Close—7:15, 7:30, 9:30 a. m., 12:35, 2:30 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST

Close—1:00 and 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST AND SOUTH

Close—12:35, 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton

Close—12:35 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:30 a. m., 2:20, 6:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:15, 7:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:30 and 6:00

WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE.

Arrive—12:30 p. m.
Close—9:00 a. m.

WATCHUNG

Close—5:30 p. m.
Arrive—8:45 p. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M.

Advertisements
-FOR-
New York Herald,
World, Times, Sun, Journal,
Telegram, American,
Brooklyn Eagle
—and—
Newark Evening News
Received at
The Daily Press
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

Complete line of
AUTOMOBILE Supplies and Tires
AT LOWEST NEW YORK PRICES.
Thompson Auto Co.
413 Park Ave. Tel. 991-J

Mrs. John Brown,
Successor to
John Burke and Jones & Co.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned from $3.00 Upwards.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Don't give your order until you consult me.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at
J. T. Vail's, North avenue, Plainfield, N. J.
Postoffice Box 726.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

We have made arrangements for a larger supply of first-class milk and and are giving the family trade our special attention... If you are not satisfied with the milk or the services you are getting give us a trial.

Price 9 cents a quart, 5 cents a pint. Cream 14 cents a ½ pint.

Lindsay's Dairy,
965 West Front St.
TEL. 792-J.

J. NEUSTADT
MERCHANT TAILOR,
Ladies' Tailoring a Specialty. Cleaning, Pressing, Altering at lowest prices. Work called for and delivered. Formerly with R. A. Rieley, Fifth Avenue, New York.
Spring and Summer Styles now ready.
430 WATCHUNG AVENUE
Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 668-W.

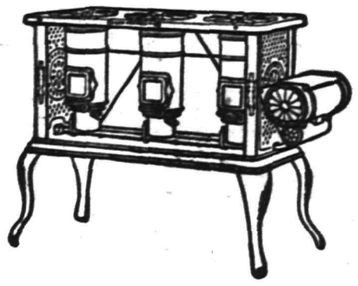
IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MEN
What is the use of throwing or giving your old clothes away when you can get the highest prices paid for same by dropping a postal to
I. RICHARD, 17 Somerset St.

Lumber Bargain!
The largest quantity of lumber in Plainfield can be found in my yard.
Large and Small Timbers.
Cut prices on new lumber for one week more.
A. KANE
YARD, 312 Filmore Ave.
Telephone 522-J.

Try a Press Want Ad

Put This Stove in Your Kitchen

It is wonderfully convenient to do kitchen work on a stove that's ready at the instant wanted, and out of the way the moment you're done. Such a stove is the New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove. By using it you avoid the continuous overpowering heat of a coal fire and cook with comfort, even in dog-days. The



NEW PERFECTION
Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove
is so constructed that it cannot add perceptibly to the heat of a room; the flame being directed up a retaining chimney to the stove top where it is needed for cooking. You can see that a stove sending out heat in but one direction would be preferable on a hot day to a stove radiating heat in all directions. The "New Perfection" keeps a kitchen uniformly comfortable. Three sizes, fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

The Rayo Lamp is the ideal lamp for family use—safe, convenient, economical and a great light giver. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.
STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(Incorporated)

LAWN TOOLS

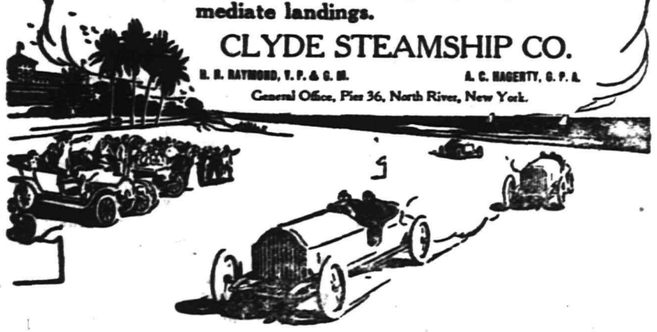
It isn't too late to buy if you have discovered that you need a new Mower this year. You must have heard of our easy running, close cutting, durably constructed Lawn Mowers. They have world-wide reputation.

We also have all other kinds of tools for lawn and garden development.

HOSE, REELS, SPRINKLERS, RAKES, GRASS SHEARS, HOOK, WEEDERS, EDGERS, PRUNERS, ETC.

Gayle Hardware Company
Tel. 468-R. Front St. and Park Ave.

DELIGHTS BEYOND PARALLEL
are the rewards of motor enthusiasts who participate in or witness the annual automobile contests on Ormond's coquina sands. The ideal trip is by the
CLYDE LINE STEAMERS
the only direct all-water route from
New York to Jacksonville, Florida
with a short stop at Charleston, S. C.
St. Johns River Service between Jacksonville, Palatka, De Land, Sanford and Enterprise, Fla., and intermediate landings.
CLYDE STEAMSHIP CO.
H. B. RAYMOND, V. P. & G. M. A. C. HAGERTY, G. P. A.
General Office, Pier 36, North River, New York.



W. D. THICKSTUN, Agent, 197 North Avenue.

207 BROAD ST. ELIZABETH LOAN Co. 207 BROAD ST.
Reliable Money Brokers
IF IT'S A QUESTION OF DOLLARS.
We may be able to help you out. At any rate if you'll inform us of your needs, we'll try. The winter months just past have raised the expenses of the average householder to their highest point and many of us have been unable to meet all of our obligations as promptly as we would like to and consequently find ourselves in debt.
SUPPOSE we were to advance you sufficient funds to meet your obligations. Do you not think you would be more satisfied to have only one payment to look after on pay day?
There is no place where money will be advanced you more willingly or where you will receive more courteous treatment than from us. It's worth investigating.
The possession of household goods, horses and wagons is sufficient evidence of your ability to pay. Call, write or 'phone.
ELIZABETH LOAN COMPANY.
Room 24 Hersh Bldg. Telephone 778-R. Elizabeth, N. J.

JACK HORNER 26 SOMERSET ST TEL. 869-W.
Pierce, Cleveland, Crawford and Arrow Bicycles. Renting, Repairing and Sundries. Vulcanizing a specialty. Baby Carriages Repaired and Retired. Work called for and delivered.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR
TRUNKS, SUIT CASES OR BAGS
CALL AT
O. M. DUNHAM'S, 129 Park Ave
TRUNK STRAPS—ALL SIZES.

For Low Rates

high guarantees, and liberality to the insured, one Life Insurance Contract stands pre-eminent today —the NEW Low-Cost Policy of

The Prudential

When you have a case at law to try, you naturally engage a lawyer because the law is his business.

Why not, therefore, engage a trust company to administer your estate; that is their business.

A friend may or may not administer it successfully; a trust company is bound to. Write or call for our booklet; "The Trust Department."

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Assets $2,250,000.00

Baseball and General Sports

BASEBALL.

"Lou" Wiltse is anxiously waiting an opportunity to show his ability in the box for Jersey City. He claims to be in the pink of condition and able to hold his own with the best of the teams.

The game between the local ball team and Irvington, which was to have been played on the home grounds the afternoon, was cancelled last night by Manager Albert, as soon as he heard of the unfortunate death of Augustus Frentz.

INTER-CLASS PLAYERS DECLARED INELIGIBLE.

Despite the fact that two games have already been played in the Plainfield High School inter-class baseball league, principal Ira W. Travell, of the school, said yesterday afternoon that neither of the games would count, because certain of the pupil players did not have full scholarship standing to make them eligible as members of the class teams. The senior class nine defeated the freshmen team yesterday afternoon on Crescent Oval by a score of 7-5, and the first game of the interclass league resulted in the defeat of the junior nine by the sophomores, who won out 9-7 in a game played at the Oval Wednesday.

In order to maintain the scholarship in the school, principal Travell announced when the league was formed that only those pupils who had "C grade" in their curriculum work would be eligible. This rule has not been observed rigidly, and several of the players in both the league games are said to be below this grade. A meeting of the captains and managers of the four class teams will be held at the school Monday, and at this time a list of eligible players will be made out. The two games already played will be played over, with bona fide players on the teams.

Gave a "Nine Social."

A "Nine Social" was held at Washington Hall, South Plainfield, Wednesday night, under the auspices of the Ladies' Camp, No. 1, Patriotic Order Sons of America. Dancing began at 8:29 and continued until 12:29 at 19 cents a head and admission to the affair was 29 cents. Music for the occasion was furnished by Albert Naylor's orchestra of this city. The Ladies' Camp meets every fourth Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Washington Hall, and the membership is constantly increasing.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

THEATRE DISTURBERS ARRAIGNED IN CITY COURT

Charged by Manager Counihan with disorderly conduct at the amateur performance in the theatre, last night George Nichols, Hugh McIvory, Walter Kettering, Edward Edall, Edward Sayre and J. E. Mosher, all chauffers, were arraigned in the city court this morning. It was asserted that the six men had secured seats in the orchestra and during one of the amateur numbers had tooted an automobile horn, greatly upsetting the audience.

The defendants denied the charge and none of them would admit that they had tooted a horn, although Edall acknowledged bringing one into the theatre. It was plain to be seen that someone of the six was "ducking" the responsibility and Judge Runyon informed them so but he didn't care to fine anybody unjustly. He let them go on suspended sentence after a warning to start no more disturbances.

Danced at Truell Hall.

In return for a leap year dance given by the women of the set February 29 at Truell Hall, the men of the North Plainfield younger set tendered a highly successful dance at the Hall last night. There were about forty couples on the floor and music was furnished by a quartet of Ben LaVere's band. There were twenty-four dances on the card, and the fun continued until after midnight. The committee in charge of the affair consisted of William H. Nischwitz and William Burtis.

Bergen Republicans Dine Tonight.

Nearly four hundred Republicans of Bergen county will give a jubilee dinner tonight at the Hotel Majestic, New York. Governor Fort will respond to the toast "Our State." John W. Griggs will speak on "Our Nation." State Senator E. W. Wakelee will be toastmaster. Joseph A. Brohel, county chairman, will make the address of welcome. Senators Kean and Briggs, ex-Governor Murphy, David Baird, Representative Fowler and several members of the State Senate will be guests.

Bethel Chapel Play Repeated.

The boys' club of Bethel Chopel repeated the presentation of "Spotless Town" at the chapel again last night, and a neat sum has been netted for the club as a result of the two performances. At the conclusion of last night's entertainment, articles made by the eighteen members of the club were sold at various booths in the chapel.

Captain Daly Better.

Captain James Daly, of the fire department, who was injured while responding to an alarm of fire on Thursday, was reported today as being slightly improved. He is still very lame and sore and it will be some time before he can return to work.

BARGAINS IN LOTS AT HIGHLAND PARK

Get your lot now before prices advance. Many houses to be built this year. Sewer, water, electric lights, shade trees and concrete sidewalks on all streets. You can buy lots from $200. to $400., on cash or easy payments.

ELSTON M. FRENCH,

171 North Avenue. Telephone 24. Plainfield, N. J.

NEW YORK OFFICE—141 Broadway. Tel. 5424 Cortlandt

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Rev. Dr. D. C. Hughes, of Brooklyn, will preach at the Park Avenue Baptist church, tomorrow night.

John LeMatty, superintendent of the Plainfield Rescue Mission, will speak at the West End Tabernacle tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Plainfield Sunday-school Teachers' Union will meet at the Y. M. C. A., Monday night. The devotional exercises will be led by Henry Seader, and L. W. Randolph will teach the lesson, "The Mission of the Holy Spirit." A business meeting will follow.

Beginning tomorrow evening Rev. Phillip A. Parsons of the Christian church, will give a series of Sunday evening services of an educational and evangelistic nature. The subject tomorrow evening will be "A Convenient Season." Next Sunday evening, "Seeking the Kingdom." The hour of service has been changed to 8 o'clock.

Plainfielders at Women's Federation.

Mrs. Henry M. Maxson, president of the Monday Afternoon Club, and Mrs. James R. Joy, the vice-president, attended the fourteenth annual meeting of the State Federation of Women's Clubs held at Riverton yesterday. With them was Mrs. Henry H. Dawson, president of the State Federation, who was a guest of honor at the local club's anniversary at the Casino Thursday. Mrs. Dawson read her second annual message and officers for the year were elected.

Fairviews Win From Church Nine.

The Fairview A. C. beat the Holy Cross Third nine by a score of 16-10 on the Fairview avenue grounds this morning. Features of the game were the pitching of Smith, of the Fairviews, who fanned fifteen Holy Cross batsmen, and the hitting of Birch, who got a three-bagger, a two-bagger and two singles. The batteries were Smith and Diamond, for the winning team and Mantz and Martin for the church club.

Y. W. C. A. Secretary to Speak.

Miss Lela Guitner, secretary of the Y. W. C. A. of Ceylon, India, will be the speaker at the vesper service to be held at the local women's association tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. She will tell of her life and work among the Eastern people and show pictures and curios to illustrate the customs and handiwork of the people of India and Ceylon. Mrs. George S. Ring will sing.

Netherwood Park Sales.

John M. Uhler and P. C. Langdon, of Brooklyn, who have been making their home in Fanwood, for some time past, have purchased of A. D. Thompson fine building plots at Netherwood Park, and will erect handsome residences immediately. Robert Langdon, of New York city, is also the purchaser of three fine building plots at Netherwood Park, expecting to build in the near future.

Time of Organ Recital Changed.

The organ recital at Grace P. E. church Monday afternoon will begin at 4:30 o'clock instead of 4 o'clock as on previous occasions. The evensong service will be at 5:30 o'clock.

Mayes Green.

Mayes Green, a resident of the borough, died yesterday after a brief illness. He was seventy four years old and had been a local resident a long time. The funeral will be private.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. John D. Runyon and Mss Anna Boice, of Park avenue, have returned from the South, where they have been stopping for the past few months.

Fred Weed, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weed, of West Front street, who is ill at the home of his grandparents in Jersey City with scarlet fever, is improving slowly. Mrs. Weed is attending her son.

Mrs. Charlotte Baker, widow of the late Francis R. Baker, and mother of Mrs. L. M. Mellick, of this city, died at her home in Westfield, Thursday morning, after a short illness. She was in her 73d year and was the daughter of the late Squire Radley, of Westfield.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Dr. D. C. Hughes, father of Governor Hughes, Y. M. C. A., Sunday 4 p. m.

—The Plainfield Business College has secured postitions for two of the pupils during the past week. James Lynch was placed in the office of President Truesdale, of the Lackawanna Railroad and Alfred Reed, of Lebanon, in the shipping department of the Central Railroad.

CLOSED PORTALS.

Salaam Temple, ancient Arabic Order Nobles Mystic Shrine, of which H. W. Marshall, of this city, is the chief potentate, will hold one more meeting in June before "calling off" the meetings for the summer.

Good Intentions Gone Wrong.

"Aren't you going home?" asked a fellow club member.

"Not for several days," answered Mr. Cumrox. "I'm going to give my family a chance to forget. You see mother and the girls have been trying to educate me to an appreciation of classical music. This afternoon I heard a terrific racket on the piano. So, being anxious to please, I half closed my eyes and said, 'Isn't it perfectly beautiful?'"

"Wasn't that all right?"

"No. It was the piano tuner."—Washington Star.

The Silver Moth.

When tiny pieces of felt are found in various parts of the piano it is evident that the tiny silver moths are at work and will in time do much damage. Camphor gum tied in cheesecloth and suspended inside the piano will dirve them out, while placing a half cupful of turpentine inside, leaving for several days, will be certain of driving out the little pests.

A Deserving Recognition.

Senator Ernest R. Ackerman's name will be presented to the Congressional District Convention for election as a delegate to the National Convention. The selection of Mr. Ackerman to represent this district would be a deserving recognition of his public services and reflect credit and honor on the Republicans of Union county as well.—Rahway Advocate.

London's Lady Mayoress.

Among the many privileges that the lady mayoress of London enjoys during her year at the Mansion House is that of entree at court—that is to say, she, instead of being obliged to take her place among other guests, titled and untitled, enters the palace by a separate entrance and is received by royalty before the other guests.

Joe Hortiz Returns.

Joe Hortiz, the popular singing comedian, returns to the New Plainfield theatre today in his new play, "Fritz, the Wandering Musician," making the third time he has been at the playhouse this season. By special request he will sing at matinee and night performances, "Nora, My Darling."

Madrid's Slums.

Madrid abounds in slums. There are labyrinths of narrow old streets, bordered by the most uninviting hovels, and from the squalor of these abodes spring the components of the ferocious mobs which are the bane of the city.

Senate to Meet May 8.

In accordance with a proclamation issued by Governor Fort yesterday, the Senate will be called together to meet on Friday next to act upon a number of appointments which are to be made by Governor Fort.

Dr. Currie's Mother Dead.

The sudden death of the doctor's mother, which occurred yesterday morning at her home at Thompson's Ridge, N. Y., has called Dr. and Mrs. N. W. Currie, of Central avenue, to that place for a few days.

Imitation Amber.

Imitation amber, made from gum copal, can be detected by soaking in alcohol. Real amber pieces which have been glued or melted together to imitate a solid piece will fall apart if tested in the same way.

Owes Roselle $1,780.45.

According to the decision of Judge Whittemore, Tax Collector Charles B. Trimmer owes the borough of Roselle $1,780.45. The borough brought suit against the collector, charging fraud.

Pendulums.

Pendulums are affected by variations of density of the air as well as by changing temperature.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

RINGLING ADVANCE MEN BRING IN "CIRCUSITIS"

Circusitis has Plainfield in its grip. The fever was circulated by Ringling Brothers' publicity brigade which arrived in town last night. Circusitis is a something that tickles the joy rib and can only be allayed by peeping under the tent.

The big show and its five trains of wonders will roll into town Saturday, May 23, and Johnny and his dad will have opportunity to whet their amusement appetites. Nellie and her dignified mamma will also report for the gentle sex like the circus.

A good circus is always given the welcome hand, but when the visitor happens to be Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Shows, why, it's just like greeting a long lost brother.

The program this season is the greatest ever arranged since the birth of circusdom.

From the Persian palace has come the Mirza Golem troupe of acrobats. These royal entertainers were loaned to the Ringling Brothers by the Shah, which is the first time His Imperial Highness has ever honored the tented world.

The Patty Brothers, a French importation, is a most astounding feature. One of the brothers actually ascends and descends stairs while balanced upon his head. In an inverted position he walks, waltzes, skips the rope and executes numerous other stunts with apparently the same ease displayed by a person in natural position.

Riccobono and his educated horses hail from St. Petersburg, and are without question of doubt the greatest dumb performers in the world. One member of the school wears a coat, vest, pants, hat and boots. He eats supper from plates, reads the evening paper, disrobes, blows out a candle and goes to bed taking great care to pull the covers over his body.

The "Automobile Double Somersault," which by the way, is from across the ocean, is the most hazardous, nerve-racking, breath-taking thriller of the age. Mounted at the summit of a narrow incline are Mlle. La Belle Roche and a huge auto. At a given signal the intrepid rider drives the car earthward. Down, down, the whizzing monster dashes until within a few feet of terra firma. Then it leaps into space. Up, up, it flies like a swift shooting rocket—fifty, sixty, eighty feet—then dips, whirls over, dips and whirls again, describing two somersaults before returning to the ground.

Ringling Brothers are now kings of the circus world. Their holdings run into the millions while their interests are of such size that the employing of 4,000 men, women and children is necessary. They own large winter quarters at Baraboo, Wis., Bridgeport, Conn., and Stoke-on Kent, England, while more than three times the number of animals in captivity in Europe and America are their property.

The street parade will be given on the morning of the exhibition day at 10 o'clock.

In the City Court.

In the city court, this morning, sentence was suspended on Michael Wood, arrested at Park and North avenues by Patrolman Flynn, yesterday afternoon for drunkenness and dirorderly conduct. Mrs. Isaac Beckenstein, arraigned on Miss Annie Bolt's charge that she had continually annoyed her on the street, had sentence suspended with a warning.

Mrs. French Laid to Rest.

Rev. John Sheridan Zelie officiated at the funeral of Mrs. Theodore French, held at her late residence on East Front street yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The service was attended by a large gathering of relatives and friends of the departed and there was a profusion of floral tributes. The interment was in the Methodist cemetery.

AMUSEMENTS.

New Plainfield Theatre

PLAYING ALL THE LEADING ATTRACTIONS

W. J. COUNIHAN - - - - Manager

Saturday, Mat. and Night, May 2—
America's Sweetest Tenor and Yodler
JOE HORTIZ in
FRITZ THE WANDERING MUSICIAN.
PRICES—Matinee, 25c, 35c; Night, 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c.

Thursday, May 7th.
AMATEUR NIGHT.

Salisbury's Popular Moving Pictures and Illustrated Songs.
Prices, 10c and 20c.

Friday, May 8—
The Big Show
ROGERS BROTHERS in PANAMA
and a company of 75 people.
Prices 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50.

Watch and Wait for the Plainfield ALL STAR STOCK COMPANY, Headed by Alberta Galatin and an all Star Cast.

Blue Stone Sidewalks.

If you want the best Blue Stone sidewalks, curbs, etc., call on

J. W. Manhattan,
50 Elm St.

1886 1908
Our Twenty-Second Anniversary Sale

Spring Suits & Top Coats

We are now showing one hundred patterns in Spring Suits and an array of O'Coats that will meet with the approval of the most critical—unusual assortment of Suits in the colors most popular this year, Browns, Greens, Olives, Blues—Sack Suits, $10 to $25.
O'Coats, $10 to $25

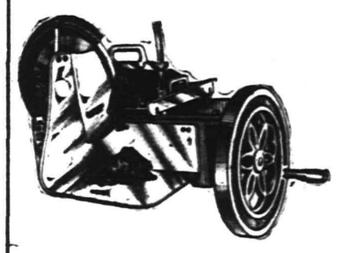
Our Furnishing Department is brim full of all the new styles of Shirts, Neckwear, Hats, Caps, Gloves, etc.

Clothing Made to Your Order

WERNER'S Clothing House,
206 West Front Street

BIG HAM AND VEAL SPECIALS
—AT—
Applegate's Meat and Produce Market

Swift's Premium Hams	12½c
Swift's or Armour's Skin Hams	12½c
Small Lean Regular Hams, 6 to 8 lbs	12c



COOKED HAM, SMOKED BEEF, COOKED CORNBEEF, SLICED WITH THIS SLICER IT HAS TO BE SEEN TO BE APPRECIATED.

Legs Veal	14c
Shoulder Veal	12½c
Loin of Pork to Roast	14c
Loin Veal	14c
Breast Veal	10c
Lard, 3-lb pail	35c
High Grade Butterine	22c

VEGETABLES.

New Potatoes, pony basket	40c	Tomatoes, qt	15c
Bermuda Onions, pony basket	45c	String Beans, qt	12c
Large Sweet Juicy Oranges	30c	Radishes, 4 bunches	10c
Pineapples	10c

Jersey Lettuce, Rhubarb and Asparagus at lowest market prices.

C. L. APPLEGATE,
163 Somerset St. Telephone 360-W

IS IT NOT WORTH WHILE

To keep your account in an Institution as strong as this one?

CITY NATIONAL BANK

3% Interest on Satisfactory Daily Balances

Capital	$150,000.00
Surplus & Profits (All Earned)	$225,000.00
Deposits	$1,600,000.00

BUY YOUR FURNITURE AT Powlison & Jones.
149 & 151 East Front St.

The Hand Storage & Express Co.

Public Truckmen. New storage warehouse now ready.

ALL ROOMS SEPARATE, LIGHT AND DRY.

FURNITURE MOVED, PACKED and SHIPPED.

Office: 69 Somerset Street, 'Phone 541.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

ROADMEYERS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 4.56 a. m.
Sun Sets 6.57 p. m.
Lanterns must be lighted 7.57 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER
Occasional rain tonight and Tuesday.

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, MONDAY, MAY 4, 1908. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

DUMONT SEEKS REDRESS

Prefers a Serious Charge Against His Wife and Fireman Louis Kelly.

POLICE TO APPREHEND THEM.

Aggrieved Husband's Action Prompted by Desire to Secure Possession of His Child.

Oliver P. Dumont, husband of Mrs. Carrie Dumont, whose disapearance from the city Friday afternoon was simultaneous with that of Lewis Kelly, a driver in the fire department, visited police headquarters this morning and swore out a warrant for the arrest of the pair. A serious charge is specified in the complaint and Chief Kiely announced that immediate steps would be taken to apprehend the erring wife and deserting husband. The police are in possession of facts that lead them to believe that the arrests will be made within a short time.

In speaking of the affair, Dumont, who is a motorman on a local trolley line and who has the full confidence of all his fellow-employes, stated that his work calls him out at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and that he is at home but very little of the time. He knew, he said, that his wife and Kelly were acquainted and that the latter occasionally called at the house but he had no idea that their friendship had gone so far. Mrs. Dumont's disapearance was as big a surprise to him as anyone and it was not until late Saturday that he fully realized that she had abandoned her home. His action in preferring a complaint, he said, was more for the purpose of getting back his child, who was taken away by the wife, than anything else.

It was reported from various sources today that Kelly and Mrs. Dumont had gone to Atlantic City but the police have no reliable information to this effect. What they have learned of their whereabouts has not been made public. Another story current on the streets yesterday had it that Kelly and Dumont had met in Newark and a shooting had followed but this had its origin in someboy's fervid imagination.

THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH RECEIVES FINANCIAL REPORT.

The annual report of J. H. Case, treasurer, was presented at the First Baptist church, yesterday mroning, showing the receipts and disbursements for the past years as follows:

Receipts—Balance April 1, 1907, $1,181.86; pew rents, $4,577.48; weekly offerings, envelope system, $1,655.25; basket collections, $794.16; cemetery account, $124; rent, $50; interest, $18,30; sale of chairs, $10; total with balance, $8,421.05. Disbursements—Salaries, $3,921.75; music, $1,000; light, $203.82; fuel, $361.54; insurance, $53.13; pulpit supplies, $175; Evergreen cemertery, $253.50; repairs to Sunday-school anf main building, $1,655.06; church calendar, annual directory and other printing, $298.08; all other exjenses, $384.01; total disbursements, $8,305.89; balance on hand April 1, 1908, $115.16, total, $8,421.05. Statement of specific offerings: Foreign mission, $900; home missions, $485; State missions, $300; Women's missionary societies, $1,233.01; Home Sunday-school, $889.31; deacons' fund, $803.38; sundry beneficience, $856.13; Faith chapel branch, $3,737.39; total, $9,204.22.

Pledged to Attend Communion.

Fathers Downes and Dolan, of Connecticut, who have been conducting mission services at St. Mary's church for two weeks, one for the women and the other for the men, closed their labors last night. The largest congregation attended last night's services, when the Papal benediction was given by Fathers Downes and Dolan. The services, especially those for the men, were considered the most successful in the history of the parish. A special feature of the closing meeting was the general response of the men to the request that they attend communion services at least four times a year. It is said that practically every man present signed a paper to that effect.

Twenty Join Monroe Ave. Church.

Twenty-four members were received into the Monroe Avenue church at the communion service yesterday morning, twenty on probation and four by letter. Previous to the Eucharistic service, eight persons were baptized. This is the largest number of persons to be received into the church at a single communion. Rev. C. S. Kemble, the pastor, preached a powerful sermon before the communion service, outlining the conditions of church membership and urging a more universay alliance with the church.

—Only one week to Kirmess.

CHARMING MUSICALE GIVEN BY KING'S DAUGHTERS

Under the auspices of the Benevolent Band of The King's Daughters, a charming musicale was given at the Casino, Saturday afternoon, the program being arranged by Joseph McIntyre, pianist. The affair attracted a large audience of music-lovers and all the artists were given a cordial reception, and were obliged to respond to encores.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre, who favored the audience with delightful piano duets, the assiting artists were Clifford Cairns, baritone; Miss Anna Lucretia Case, soprano; Harry Dorr, violinist, and Frederick B. Hanson, reader. The program was of unusual merit and so varied that everyone was pleased. Miss Case was in exceptional voice and sustained her reputation as a soloist, while Clifford Cairns, who is somewhat of a stranger here in musical circles, made many friends by his excellent work.

Mr. Hanson charmed all by his recitations, giving some of James Whitcomb Riley's best poems. His work was true to the lines and hearty applause greeted him on every occasion. As a violinist, Mr. Dorr delighted the audience. His selections were of the sort that pleased and his renditions left nothing to be desired. As for Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre their work was of a high character, and as an accompanist Mr. McIntyre was perfect in every detail.

The program:

Overture, "Ruy Blas," Mendelssohn, two pianos, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McIntyre; baritone solo, "The Sands O'Dee," Clay, Clifford Cairns; readings from James Whitcomb Riley, "Knee Deep in June," "When de Folks is Gone," "Ike Walton's Prayer," "When Angelina Johnson Comes Stepping Down de Line," Frederick B. Honson; soprano solo, Aria from "Cameron," Bizet; "Annie Laurie," Miss Lucretia Case; violn solo, "Romance," Svendson, Harry Dorr; baritone solo, "A Border Ballad," Cowen; "The Night Has a Thousand Eyes," Mr. Cairns; readings from James Whitcomb Riley, "Old Aunt Mary's," "Hiram Calkins," "The Old Coast," "When My Ships Come Sailing Home," Mr. Hanson; soprano solo, "The Minstrel," with violin obligato, Hildach; "The Angel's Serenade," Miss Case and Harry Dorr; "Marche Orientale," Liszt, two pianos, Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre.

PUBLIC SERVICE TO HAVE LARGE BOND ISSUE

At a meeting in Newark, tomorrow afternoon the board of directors of the Public Service Railway Company will be asked by the officers of the company to approve a resolution authorizing an issue of $50,000,000 in bonds. The bonds are to be first mortgage 5 per cent. coupon bonds, and will be redeemed on or after May 1, 1913, at 105 and iterest.

The bonds will be issued for the purpose of financing the company, and will be sold from time to time as contingencies may arise. The major portion of the bonds will be used to retire all the gold notes issued by the Public Service Corporation since its organization and the bonds of subsidiary corporations, including the various trolley roads which were merged about seven years ago.

This, it is understood, is a part of the financiering scheme of the railway company, and the bond issue will be authorized for the purpose of taking over the various trolley roads which were merged, so that the Public Service Corporation will own them in fee simple and not simply control them.

This matter has been under consideration of the officers of the company for some time, but at the offices of the company Saturday it was announced that the plans for the bond issue had not been completed. The law department, it was explained, was working on the mortgage which will secure the bonds, and will be ready to report at the meeting of the directors tomorrow afternoon.

The matter will be placed before the stockholders of the company at a special meeting to be held in the board room of the Fidelity Trust Company on May 11.

The Public Service Railway Company was organized last year, with an authorized capital stock of $38,000,000, and the management of the trolley roads was then separated from the gas and electrical department, now known as the Public Service Corporation.

Unlicensed Peddler Fined $5.

J. Ganuzzi, who is a vegetable hukster in the borough, was fined $5 by Borough Recorder Charles Dolliver at the session of court today for peddling without al icense. The man was arrested Friday, but released on bail until his hearing this morning.

ALUMINUM PRESS WORKS RESUMES OPERATIONS

The Aluminum Press Company's plant at Dunellen, which was recently purchased by L. R. Conklin, of New York, for $27,100, resumed operations this morning with a force of fifty skilled mechanics and they will work full time. Since the purchase of the plant the name has been changed and will hereafter be known as The Trinity Syndicate. P. W. Hall is the manager and Joseph White, of Bound Brook, who was formerly assistant superintendent there, has been made superintendent.

The news that the plant was to resume operations this morning spread rapidly and it was welcome to the many mechanics who have been idle for several months. It was taken as an indication that possibly other plants in the city who have been running on half time and with a reduced force, would pick up and the old schedule would be again in force. It is understood that The Trinity Syndicate has received several orders which will keep the plant busy for some time to come.

KIRMESS SEAT SALE GOES BEYOND EXPECTATIONS

The sale of seats for the Kirmess to be held at the New Plainfield theatre, May 12-16, for the benefit of the hospital, is reported to be unprecedented. The sale began Friday morning at 9 o'clock and there has been a steady rush for seats for the different performances. Those in charge of the affair are working earnestly for the success of it and the dances promise to be a strong attraction. Mayor C. J. Fisk, who is also devoting much time to the preliminary arrangements, has been successful in obtaining a long list of patronesses.

The Japanese dance, which will be chaperoned by Mrs. William Newcorn, is considered one of the best. Those who are to take part in it are as follows: The Misses Berlowitz, Sadie Goldstein, Kadish, Tillie Kantor, Levine, Rose Mathanson, Rose Rothberg, Rosen Rosenson and Esther Wolf.

There will be a dress rehearsal of all the dances on Monday night, May 11, but no outsiders will be permitted to attend at this time. The regular performances begin Tuesday night and continue every night for the rest of hte week with a Saturday matinee.

"Phil" Smith Attains His Majority.

In honor of the twenty-first anniversary of his birthday, a dinner was given Saturday night to Philip Smith, son of Judge and Mrs. W. E. Smith, at his home, Brookside Farm, South Plainfield. Covers were laid for twelve, the affair being intended for the members of the family. There were four generations present. Interesting features were a birthday cake which was baked by Mr. Smith's grandmother, who is in her ninetieth year, and the presence of Mr. Smith's nephew, Wilbur Dorland, of Larchmont, N. Y., who is two years his jjunior, who was there to congratulate him on the occasion. Another feature was the reading of an original poem by Rev. C. W. F. Attlee, dedicated to Mr. Smith in honor of the occasion.

Henry Molleson.

Henry Molleson, an old resident and veteran of the Civil War, died Saturday night at his home on East Second street from a complication of troubles. He had been ill seven months. Mr. Molleson was born at Samptown in 1843 and soon afterward moved to this city. After serving in the Cival War, he returned to Plainfield and learned the painter's trade, which he followed all his life, being employed for many years by Woolston & Buckle up to the time of his illness. He is survived by a wife, two sons, Henry L., and Chester D. Molleson, one daughter, Mrs. Nellie Canning, of Philadelphia; also two brothers.

J. T. Armsrtong.

J. T. Armstron, of Brooklyn, died at his home on Wednesday, April 30, following a long illness. The service was held from the late home Saturday night, and the burial took place in Hillside Cemetery yesterday afternoon, Rev. A. C. McCrea, of the First M. E. church, officiating at the grave. Mr. Armstrong is survived by a wife and son, Howard Armstrong. She is a sister to Mrs. L. J. Denton, Miss Mary Brown, Jeremiah Brown, of this city, and Stephen Brown, of Dunellen.

Council Meets Tonight.

The May meeting of the Common Council will be held tonight when among other things the bids will be received for the construction of the proposed new police headquarters' building at Sycamore and Fourth streets. There will also be a report concerning the proposed new fire house in the Netherwood section of the city.

—Don't forget the Kirmess. ***

ON CHRIST'S SUFFERING

Dr. Herring Speaks of His Persecution in Fifth Sermon of Special Series.

IT SHOWED WHAT SIN IS.

In the Lord's Earthly Life Humanity Was Seen in Its Perfection but—"He Suffered."

The fifth discourse in the series on "The Apostles Creed," was given by Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring at the First Presbyterian church, last night, his theme being "Suffered under Pontius Pilate," in which he brought out the important fact that notwithstanding that Christ was sinless and perfect "He suffered." Dr. Herring spoke as follows:

"Last Sunday we were concerned with the unique features of our Lord's life. There were three unique features in that earthly life. First: The birth of our Lord was not the production of a new personality, but the entrance of the Son of God into earthly conditions of life. Secondly: The earthly life of our Lord was as the life of no other man, it was sinless and sinless from the start. Lastly: In our Lord's earthly life humanity was seen in its perfection. We have come today to that part of the Creed which declares to us this fact that sinless and perfect as He was 'He suffered.'

"What a revelation of the sin of the world.—'He suffered.' He who was the ideal of men, for no other man was ever like Him or will be like Him, in sinlessness and the perfection of His humanity.

"One practical result of the sufferings of Christ therefore is this that they show us what sin really is. We judge a thing by its results, a stick of dynamite may be innocent looking. We don't judge of it by its innocent appearance but by the effect it produces when exploded. Sin crucified Christ, it would crucify Him today. I have read of a father who was a drunkard. His one friend was his son who sacrificed everything to save his father. One night the drunken father returned home and in anger felled his son to the ground with a blow. He thought he had killed him, then in an instant the fearfulness of his sin struck home and he hated his sin. Think of the earthly life of our Lord,—think of what that life must have been when the world more and more is rendering Him homage. You study His life and realize He was a man but far more than a man. You confess with the Centurion, 'Truly this was the Son of God.' Then if that be true, think of the awfulness of the sin of the men that crucified Him. The Cross was not the price paid to the Devil for souls. It was not to transform the hate of God into love. There is a depth of meaning in it that we do not perfectly fathom, but it does mean this, the malignity of sin. Think of all the beauty and holiness of that character and then read, 'He suffered' at the hands of men.

"Some one has written a book called 'The Happy Christ.' The writer endeavors to show that happiness was a distinctive mark of Jesus. 'Jesus was happy. People therefore liked to be near Him. His whole idea was to make everybody happy. We are told twice of His tears but His smiles were too frequent for recording.' We fear the author has been trusting too much to his imagination, for the distinctive note in the life of Jesus is suffering and suffering because of the world's sin. He possessed joy and peace but it was in the midst of great sorrow.

"Our Lord's sufferings were caused by those who were selfishly indifferent to Him as well as by those who violently opposed and persecuted Him.

"The Creed has it 'Suffered under Pontius Pilate.' This clause stands out in great prominence, our Lord suffered under a man who let his political ambitions stand in the way of his principles. Pilate is pilloried in the Creed for not standing up for his convictions. He believed Jesus innocent, but his political job might have been endangered so he delivered Christ over into the hands of His persecutors, and mark you the men active in the crucifixion were the Sadduces, the Liberals, and not the narrow minded, bigoted rulers. Think it over. There is wonderful suggestiveness in this part of the Creed,—Suffered under Pontius Pilate, the politician, who cared more for politics than he cared for truth and righteousness. You remember it was Pilate who sneeringly remarked, "What is Truth?" Truth was not his ideal. Policy was. If Pilate had been a man such as Cornelius he would have said, 'I'll know more of the man Jesus Christ.' Why was Pilate not impressed as the Centurion was,—as thief upon the Cross? Think of being in the presence of that personality and delivering Him over to His persecutors.

(Continued on page 4.)

PLAINFIELDERS NAMED IN NEW CORPORATIONS

A certificate of incorporation of the Lebanon Milling and Producing Company was filed with the county clerk Saturday. The location of the principal office in this State is at 152 North avenue, Plainfield. The statuatory agent as named in the certificate of incorporation is Ira L. LaRue.

The objects for which the corporation is formed are to buy, sell, trade and deal in all kinds of country produce; to manufacture flour and other food stuffs; to press hay, straw, etc., and to deal in real estate.

The total amount of capital stock is $50,000, divided into 500 shares of the par value of $100 each. The incorporators are George Gildersleeve, Plainfield; Alvah V. Ten Eyck, Plainfield, and Charles L. Moffett, Lebanon.

A certificate of incorporation was also filed Saturday morning for the Fibre Covered Bottle Company. The objects of the corporation are to manufacture, buy, and sell all kinds of glass and glassware; to manufacture, buy and sell fibre covered demijohns and carboys; to manufacture, buy and sell all kinds of paper, including wood pulp, and to manufacture and deal in all kinds of appliances necessary to the manufacture of such articles.

The authorized capital stock of the corporation is $100,000, divided into 1,000 shares of the par value of $100 each. The principal office in this State, is situated at 440 West Fifth street, Plainfield, and Salmon C. Baker is named as the statuatory agent. The incorporators are Jacob Kirkner and Jacob W. Kirkner, of this city, and William P. Catlin, of New York.

LEAP YEAR FEATURES IN HIGH SCHOOL MAY DANCE.

A May dance, into which were introduced many leap-year features, was held at the Plainfield High School auditorium Saturday night under the auspices of the Girl's Athletic Association of the school. There were about seventy-five couples on the floor, and the card included fourteen dances. Music was furnished by Miss Mabel Maxson, pianist, and Arthur Mosher, violinist.

The dance was arranged entirely by the girls of the school, and each invited her "one best bet" and arranged his entire card for the dance. In many cases, the girls sent flowers, which were worn by their partners; the dance began later than scheduled, because, with girls as escorts, the couples lost time on account of the shower.

A "Paul Jones" was the feature of the evening's card. It was managed by Miss M. Elizabeth Pound, and proved the jolliest of the dances. A barn dance also featured, and the last dance of the card was called a "leap year dance," where the girls led their partners. The committee in charge of the affair included Miss Esther Crampton, Miss M. Elizabeth Pound, Miss Bessie Alpaugh, Miss Barbara Felming and Miss Eleanor Van Tuyl. These were assisted in receiving by Miss Katherine Ball and Principal Ira W. Travell.

Reunion Alumni Association.

On Saturday afternoon at the Hotel Astor, New York, occurred the reunion of the Alumni Association of Centenary Collegiate Institute, of Hackettstown. About 200 were present, among them being Rev. Dr. Geo. H. Whitney ad family, of this city. The almuni represent forty States of the Union and fourteen foreign countries. Several States were represented. It was a very happy gathering of men and women. Brief addresses were made by G. J. Ferry, president of the trustees; Rev. Dr. G. H. Whitney, president emeritus; Carl Price, president of the alumni; O. S. Colt, the valedictorian of the first graduating class of 1876, and Rev. Dr. E. A. Noble, the present president of the Institute. Following the reunion an elaborate supper was served, during which there was music by an orchestra that added much charm to the occasion.

Miss Ethel VanWinkle a Bride.

Miss Ethel M. VanWinkle, daughter of Frank VanWinkle, of Central avenue, this city, and George W. Tice, Jr., of Westfield, were married Saturday night at the Baptist parsonage Westfield by Rev. C. J. Greenwood, of that place. The couple was accompanied by a few relatives and intimate friends. They will reside in Westfield for a couple of months, prior to occupying a home of their own. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. VanWinkle and has a large circle of friends here. Mr. Tice is employed by the Public Service Corporation as an electrician.

Rasores Annual.

The annual meeting of the Rasores will be held with Mrs. Henry Lapsley, 114 Crescent avenue, tomorrow morning. Reports, election of officers, and payment of dues will be in order.

—Kirmess! Kirmess! Kirmess!

CYCLE CLUB HOLDS SEASON'S FIRST RUN

The season's first run of the Plainfield Cycling Club, organized about two weeks ago by Jack Horner, of Somerset street, was held yesterday, when a party of twenty-one members wheeled to Duke's Farm at Somerville. With the exception of a few punctures, the run was made without accident, and the organization members are enthusiastic over the trip. A meeting of the club will be held in the hall over the old police station on East Front street, Wednesday night, and at this time the destination and time of the next run will be decided upon. Meetings are to be held weekly, and plans are being made for a road race to be held Decoration Day. Various hill climbing and coasting contests are to be arranged for the near future.

The organization was effected April 26, with twenty-five charter members. This number has since grow nto fifty, with ten honorary members in adition. The charter members list will be kept open until May 10. A complete list of the officers and members follows:

President, Jack Horner; vice-president, N. I. Wiley; treasurer, Raymond Mantz; recording secretary, Eugene Caffrey; financal secretary, Albert Schmeyer; trustees, Sherman Haberley, Edward Bimble, Paul Otto, G. Harris, M. Schmeyer, Roy Adams, H. Coverley; road officers, George Adams, captain; Roy Adams, first lieutenant; Harry Hook, second lieutenant; Oliver Ulmer, sergeant at arms; Emil Thompson, first road surgeon; Garry Ackerman, send road surgeon; Robert Frone, first color bearer; Harry Ward, second color bearer. Following are the names of members: William Trembath, W. E. Pollette, H. A. Warren, Frank Stites, Lizro Hibard, B. M. Cowles, Sam Rothberg, Joe Getlesen, Fred Brewer, J. A. Benbrook, Roy De Camp, Eddie Conway, James Conroy, J. P. Hoffman, James Massell, Russell McIntyre, W. Neal, David Terry, Percy Terry, C. A. Utzinger, Charles Van Winkle, Richard D. Scott, Rudolf Kampf, Eugene Walsh, J. C. Schmidt, Lee Bonn, Harry Bush, Aaron Higgins, Edward Scott, Elroy Giles. Honorary members: Bert Schreiner, M. R. Giles, E. F. Champlin, R. W. Osling, J. B. Brewer, Andrew Wilson, John Green, W. M. Conover, Frank Neidig.

CITY SCHOOLS TO GET $103,715.56 FROM STATE

County Superintendent of Schools, J. J. Savitz, has announced that Plainfield's share of the school money from the Perkins' Law main stem railroad tax this year will amount to $25,127.88. This is about 85 per. cent. of the amount originally appropriated by the bill. The money is to be paid to Custodian William F. Arnold of the city shcools before July 1 and may be used for the payment of current expenses for the year beginning July 1. If desirable, it may also be applied toward reducing the local school tax for the year.

The apportionment to the various county ctites, districts, townships and boroughs follows:

Clark	$ 299.48
Cranford	5,574.88
Elizabeth	66,288.35
Fanwood	2,404.11
Garwood	995.48
Kenilworth	740.27
Linden	2,0005.49
Mountainside	392.57
New Providence Borough	839.04
New Prov. Township	791.72
Plainfield	25,127.88
Rahway	13,873.07
Roselle	3,866.94
Roselle Park	4,477.64
Springfield	2,409.86
Summit	7,011.03
Union	4,240.43
Westfield	9,357.00

The city schools will also get $78,587.68 from the State school tax, the apportionment of State school money follows:

Clark	$ 787.84
Cranford	18,901.02
Elizabeth	189,257.56
Fanwood	7,352.55
Garwood	3,803.86
Kenilworth	2,498.96
Linden	7,423.82
Mountainside	1,367.00
New Providence Borough	2,998.49
New Prov. Township	2,964.60
Plainfield	78,587.68
Rahway	41,891.60
Roselle	14,709.35
Roselle Park	13,747.81
Springfield	6,978.21
Summit	23,455.37
Union	13,539.19
Westfield	29,697.84

—Choice Jersey asparagus is to be the leading offering at Neuman Brothers' tomorrow, and there will also be fresh consignments of peas, beans, lettuce, egg plant, pineapples, and radishes.

MAIN LINE CARS COLLIDE

Nine Persons Hurt When Trolleys Crash Near River Bridge at Cranford.

PLAINFIELDERS IN THE LIST.

Accident Charged to Motorman Who Claims Drunken Men on Platform Interfered With Him.

Nine persons were injured in a trolley car collision on the Main Line of the Public Service at Cranford just west of the Rahway river bridge, at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening, when two cars, going in opposite directions, crashed together on the single track which crosses over the structure.

The force of the contact threw the passengers on the eastbound car, which was heavily loaded with shoppers bound for Elizabeth and Newark, to the front end of the car with the result that several men and women were injured by others falling upon them. The front ends of both cars were wrecked.

Alvah Waldron, of this city, motorman of the westbound car, jumped and escaped injury. None of the passengers in his car were hurt. All of the injured were in the eastbound car.

Following is a list of the injured:

Abram Meubeck, De Hart place, Elizabeth; painfully injured in the back.

Reinhard Langer, Huntington, Pa.; knee and shoulder hurt.

James Schindler, Roselle Park; shoulder and back hurt.

Mrs. Charles Nathan, Irvington; leg hurt and body bruised.

Mrs. Daniel Foote, South avenue, Cranford, left leg and back injured.

B. F. Van Cott, Plainfield, bruised about body and ankle wrenched.

Miss A. Shafer, Burnside avenue, Cranford; leg hurt.

Miss Ashley, 211 Holly street, Cranford; suffered from shock.

Miss Lucy Cold, Monroe avenue, Kenilworth; leg and arm injured.

William Badesch, of Elizabeth, was the motorman of the eastbound car and Henry D. Hassinger, of Newark, was the conductor. He was busy collecting fares at the time of the accident, as the car had just left Cranford. Motorman Badesch should have brought his car to a stop before crossing the bridge. He attempted to do so and saw the westbound car as he started across. He was interfered with by two drunken men who were on the front platform and the motorman had just pushed them inside the car and had turned to put on all brakes when the crash came. His chin was badly cut by flying glass and his shoulder wrenched. According to rule, the westbound car has the right of way over the bridge. Motorman Badesch knew this and tried to stop the car. Owing to a slippery rail and to the interference of the two men he was unable to do so.

All of the injured got away from the scene of the accident in other cars. They were first taken to the trolley power-house near at hand, and physicians were summoned to care for Messrs. Meubeck, Laner and Schindler and Mrs. Foote. Probably all will recover.

Meubeck was the most seriously injured. The physicians were late in arriving and did not reach the trolley power-house until two hours after the accident happened, owing to the fact that no doctor could be reached by telephone at the time.

Alexander Muir, of Newark, formerly of this city, and George Penelo, of West Front street, were among the passengers on the westbound car who were badly shaken up but not hurt. Muir had a suit case cut to pieces by flying glass. Fred Thompson, of this city, was conductor of the westbound car.

Inspector Hugh Higgins reached the scene of the accident on the first car up and immediately took charge. He set to work clearing the tracks before the arrival of the wrecking crew and had the schedule resumed inside of half an hour.

Randall H. Ludlow.

Randall H. Ludlow, thirty-three years old, a lawyer with offices at 100 Broadway, New York city, died yesterday morning at the home of a friend in this city, whom he was visiting, from acute Bright's disease and valvular congestion of the heart. It was his custom to visit in Plainfield frequently. He was a well-known football player in the University of California, from which institution he was graduated; a member of the Lamb's Club, of New York, and resided at 110 West Eighty-fourth street, New York. His father was the late Brigadier-General Benjamin C. Ludlow, U. S. A. He was unmarried. The remains were taken to the late home in New York, yesterday, where the funeral services will be held.

—Procure your seats for Kirmess. ***

WAISTS—The most extensive and finest line of the best waists are shown here, including the new Tailored Waist, with just a little coloring. We would be pleased to have you see them.

A. E. Force and Co.

We Give "S. H." "THE WHITE STORE" THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY Green Trading Stamps

The Ladies' Home Journal Patterns are the highest and most economical pattern in this country today, and are backed by millions of progressive women in every part of the United States. Prices 10c and 15c.

Dependable merchandise that has the unqualified endorsement of the "White Store." Our aim always is, to give our patrons the newest, best and most seasonable merchandise that can be found, at the very lowest prices.

DOMESTIC DEPARTMENT.

SPECIALS THIS WEEK.

7c Bleached Twilled Toweling for 5

8c Stevens Brown All-Linen Toweling for 6

10c 6-4 Cambric Finished Bleached Muslin for 5

$1.00 quality 72-inch Beached All-Linen Satin finish Table Damask at ..... .79

$3.00 quality ¾ size Napkins to match at $2.50

75c finest quality Imported Mercerized full bleached Satin Table Damask for ..... .65

DRESS GOODS.

Batiste and Nun's Veiling in all the new spring shades, fine and smooth cloth, good, special value at ..... .50

SILKS—Another lot of the silks we offered last week, beautiful materials, stripes and checks, 75c value for ..... .59

WHITE GOODS.

PERSIAN LAWN—45 inches wide, fine and sheer, extra value for ..... .25

EMBROIDERED BATISTE—In a variety of different size dots; the very latest; specially priced ..... .25

ALL OVER EMBROIDERY—On Swiss Lawn and Cambric, small figures and stripes; $1.39 to $1.50 value, for ... .89

LADIES' TAILORED SUITS.

If you contemplate buying a new suit for Spring and Summer, now is the time and the White Store the place. Never have we offered such remarkable bargain values. Come this week. We have a few of the bargains offered last week. Suits from $5.98 up to $30

MILLINERY.

We like to keep before your mind the fact that we are equipped to supply your wants in the Millinery line with everything that a lady wants in Millinery. We aid you in every possible manner in your selection, and do so conscienciously, realizing that serving you well means a continuation of your patronage.

STEAMER TRUNKS.

We are showing a splendid line of new Trunks, the kind we know that is entirely dependable, strongly built of best materials, brass trimmings, good strong locks, neatly finished; prices $9.50 to $4.25

REFRIGERATORS.

Two of the best makes in the country, made of seasoned ash lumber, with solid bronze trimmings, galzanized iron shelves, drip pipe, etc.; prices $18.98 to $9.49

PORCH CHAIRS.

Strait back Porch Chairs that were sold regularly for $1.69; we will close the lot this week at, each $1.19

DRESS SUIT CASES and BAGS

Fine Dress Suit Cases in imitation leather, leather and fibre; strong and durable; trimmed with brass buckles, belts, corners reinforced with leather covers; prices range from $9.50 to $1

BAGS—An excellent assortment of traveling bags; various kinds; sizes and colors, in fact sizes to meet all requirements; prices range from $6.50 to ..... .78

LAWN MOWERS—A new stock of the best kind of lawn mowers.

12 inch $2.98
14 inch $3.49
16 inch $3.98

SCREEN DOORS — Fancy Screen Doors from $1.25 up to $1.49

Plain Doors, in all sizes, at ..... .98

WINDOW SCREENS—The kind that you can adjust; prices 22c to .. .45

BAMBOO SCREENS—Sizes 6x8 to 18x8; prices 85c to $1.49

WIRE NETTING—Sizes 18 to 42 inch; prices, yard, 9c to ..... .21

SEEDS—Canna and Dalhia Bulbs, splendid varieties; special value at, per dozen ..... .50

"THE OLD RELIABLE HOME FURNISHERS" EST. 1860 INC. 1907

COWPERTHWAIT AND VAN HORN CO.

73 MARKET STREET. NEAR PLANE ST., NEWARK, N.J.

(B)

"Spring"—time Suggests NEW Floor Coverings

—and we suggest "No. 73" as the place to get them, provided qual ty that's sure, and a price that's right, appeals to your taste and purse!
Only weaves that stand our warrant ever get inside our store—here's an "Inducement Sale" to start Spring season's trade!

TAPESTRY BRUSSELS CARPETS

85c. grade at 64c. Yd. | $1.00 grade at 75c. Yd. | $1.20 grade at 90c. Yd.

MADE, LAID AND LINED FREE!

HEAVY CHINESE MATTING
Just in—Regular $18 grade
$14.50
roll of 40 yds.
Many other grades and prices

FANCY JAPANESE MATTING
Cotton Warp Regular $16 grade $13.25
roll of 40 yds.
Broad choice of various other weaves

Best Grade "A No. 1"
Oil Cloth at 45c. Yd. [Reg. 60c.]

Over half a hundred kinds of oil cloth—all new and effective! Ask to see our line of Linoleums—especially the new imported line in carpet patterns—we're sole agents.

Sole Headquarters For
"The Portland Range," "Gunn Sectional Bookcases"
The Acme Washing Machine, "White" Sewing Machine
LOWEST PRICES—EASY CREDIT

LAWN MOWERS
Sharpened and Repaired

Having Installed Electric Power and Improved Grinding Machinery I Can Insure Prompt and Satisfactory Work.

A. M. GRIFFEN,
119-123 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.
'PHONES 6 and 214

Rich Milk 8c a quart.
Rich Cream 12c half pt.
Buttermilk 6c a quart

Plainfield Milk & Cream Co, MARCHANT BROS.,
112 WATCHUNG AVENUE

PLAINFIELD OFFICE
EISELE & KING
Members of the New York and Philadelphia Stock Exchanges
In the Babcock Building, West Front St.
Private wires East and West. Ticker service. Orders executed as rapidly as in any New York office
W. De LaR. ANDERSON, Manager.

"HARD TIMES" DO NOT EFFECT THE SALE OF
"HAWES" $3.00 HATS
WHY?—BECAUSE THEY ARE GUARANTEED
JAS. R. BLAIR

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c. a week.

CITY.

Union News Co. ..... R. R. Station
J. M. Harper ..... 411 Park Ave.
E. A. Laing ..... 149 W. Front St.
A. D. Mallinson ..... Fourth and Liberty Sts.
Trolley Waiting Room .... Watchung Ave.
M. Eatil ..... 111 Park Ave.
Cubele & Stahl ..... 113 Somerset St.
Storey & Son ..... 231 Watchung Ave
T. A. Garthwaite ..... 212 Watchung Ave
A. Anderson ..... 657 West Fourth St
Jesse Mottley Cor E. 3d & Richmond Sts

SUBURBAN.

Dunellen ..... B. Siriski
New Market ..... R. Burdick
Bound Brook ..... Union News Co
Bound Brook ..... L. M. Davis
Somerville ..... Jacob Genert
Westfield ..... C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield ..... J. W. Wall
Scotch Plains ..... Chas. Elliott
South Plainfield ..... Victor Attlee
Fanwood ..... Chas. Elliott
Netherwood ..... Blaney & Son

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS

BOUND BROOK AND VICINITY.

The funeral of Mrs. Ann F. Bruss, who died at her home in West Main street, Bound Brook, Thursday, was held at her home yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services were conducted by Rev. P. C. Bascom, pastor of the local Methodist Episcopal church. Interment was made in Millstone. Mrs. Bruss was born about five miles from Bound Brook, April 6, 1820. She leaves one daughter and three sons. They are Mrs. Georgeanna Walker, of Bound Brook; Abram Bruss, of New York; Jacob Bruss, of Orange, and Charles Bruss, of South Bound Brook.

After a week's stay at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cowins, of South Bound Brook, Miss Grenwald has returned to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Gillespie are entertaining Mrs. Gillespie's sister, Mrs. Charles Emery, of Dumfries, Va., at their home in Hamilton street, Bound Brook.

Rev. Robert Davis, of New York, preached in the Congregational church of Bound Brook yesterday morning. His theme was "The Final Measure of Success."

After spending several days in Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. J. V. D. Field have returned to their home in Bound Brook.

Mrs. M. B. Stradling, of Trenton, is a guest at the home of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Stradling, of Bound Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wells, of Bound Brook, are entertaining Mrs. Well's brother, Thomas Bonchal, of Timken, Kan.

Mrs. Sylvester Jennings, of Trenton, is a guest at the home of Mrs. Martin Metz, in East Millstone.

Mrs. J. H. Vannest, of Bound Brook, is spending several days with friends in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Edwin Garretson, of East Millstone, has been visiting friends in New York.

H. M. Herbert, of Bound Brook, is spending some time at Kansas City, Kan.

WESTFIELD.

A meeting of representatives from the Boards of Education of Union county was held at Washington school Friday night. The meeting was called by County Superintendent J. J. Savitz to instruct the members of the boards on the school law and the law relating to the allotment of school money derived from the railroad tax. A resolution was adopted that the presidents of the several boards be made a committee to take steps to form an organization of the county boards.

The elm tree by the drinking fountain at the intersection of Broad street and Westfield avenue is dead and will have to be removed. The tree is considerably over one hundred years old. It bears a bronze tablet placed on it at the time of the Westfield centennial celebration.

Reports made to the Westfield Board of Health at its meeting Friday evening showed no cases of contagious disease during the month. The board is giving close attention to the milk supply, and before warm weather sets in hopes to have all the supply under close supervision.

Funeral services of Mrs. Charlotte Baker, widow of Francis R. Baker, of Westfield, were held at her late home Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Baker was in her seventy-third year and had been a resident of Westfield all of her life. She is survived by seven children.

Rev. F. E. Sturgis, of Natick, Mass., conducted services at the Westfield Congregational church yesterday morning.

NORTH BRANCH.

A. C. Phillips, of Millstone, was summoned to Green Harbor, Mass., last week, because of the illness of his mother, ninety-two years old. Before he reached there she had died.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Pitcher and V. D. Van Liew and daughter, Mrs. Woods, have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Beekman, at South Branch.

Miss Mabel F. Wallace, principal of the public school at Readington, reports Misses Irene and Edna Mattison on the honor roll for the past school month.

Mrs. Elizabeth Field has returned to her home in North Branch after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Howard S. Cramer, at Three Bridges.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Harden, of South Branch, have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harden and daughter Mildred, of Plainfield.

Miss Florence Babcock, of New Brunswick, has been a recent visitor at the home of Judge Louis H. Schenck, at Neshanic Station.

Mrs. Leah Rupell has returned to her home at Frenchtown after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Lemuel S. Wood, at North Branch.

Miss Carrie Collins, of Elizabeth, has been spending a few days with Mrs. P. A. Hoagland, at North Branch.

Miss Edna Shurts has returned to Wells' brother, Thomas Bonchal, of visit of a week with relatives in Somerville.

Miss Endora Wortman, of Pottersville, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. John R. Hunt, at Annandale for a few days.

Mrs. Levi Higgins, of Trenton, is a guest of Dr. and Mrs. William H. Merrell, at South Branch, this week.

Miss Edythe Lane, of Pluckemin, has been visiting relatives at New Germantown.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

SOMERVILLE.

Miss Esther Crampton, daughter of Mrs. Charles Fiske, of Altmount place, will be the valedictorian of the Plainfield High School next month. Miss Crampton leads her class in Plainfield and expects to enter Wellesley College in the autumn.

Alexander Probasco, aged seventy years, died at the home of his son-in-law, Dr. Frances McConoughy, on East High street, Saturday. Mr. Probasco had been an invalid all winter.

Mrs. Wilbur A. Weems, of Clover Hill, is a guest of Mrs. A. W. Suydam on West High street.

Mrs. Clark of Hartford, is visiting her sister, Miss Elizabeth Vorhees, on Maple street.

Mrs. Jacob Kershaw has returned from Buffalo, where she has been visiting.

Mrs. Daniel Porter, of West Cliff street, is a guest of her son at Dunellen.

Mrs. George Kline, of South street, is visiting Mrs. Chapman at Nyack.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

If there is a full meeting of the Borough Council tonight, another attempt will be made by Mayor Swackhamer to appoint a borough recorder. For several meetings past, there has been at least one absentee, and as the Mayor wants all "Doubtful Dunellenites" to feel satisfied that his next appointment is legally endorsed, he is waiting for a full meeting. It is understood that he will again bring up the name of David S. Campbell, his last choice, who resigned because he felt that he was not legally chosen to office.

The Dunellen A. C. nine won a one-sided game from a team of Plainfield players Saturday afternoon by a score of 12-2. While the game was not close enough to be exciting, it showed up the good baseball material on the local nine to a good advantage. The boys show steadiness and ability to hit the ball.

The matter of the Inter-State Telephone and Telegraph Company's right of way will come up for final decision at the meeting of the Township Committee to be held tomorrow night.

Miss Jennie Campbell has gone to Pasadena, California, for an extended visit with her brother, William N. Campbell.

The G. E. Club met this afternoon at the home of Miss Olive Bodine, of Plainfield.

Mrs. George H. Gardner is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Smith, of Boston.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The Italian settlement on Hunter avenue was thrown into great excitement last night at 9 o'clock by the burning of a small barn in the rear of the thickly settled colony. The fire department responded to an alarm and soon had the fire under control. The cause of the blaze is unknown, the fire not being discovered until well under way. The men about the settlement managed to rescue the horses and a wagon or two before the roof fell in.

The Evangelistic services which have been held in the Baptist church for the past three weeks, will be continued another week. Meetings being held every night this week with the exception of Saturday. Rev. H. S. Atkinson will be in charge, assisted by Mr. Frank Fitzgerald, who will lead the Gospel Singing.

On account of the death of Augustus Frentz, no game was played by the local team Saturday afternoon. Saturday of this week Manager Albert has booked the Star A. C. team of Newark.

Funeral services of Augustus Frentz, Jr., who died Saturday morning, will be held from the home this afternoon at 3.30. The services will be private.

The Methodist and Baptist church held a Union Service last night in the Baptist church. Rev. W. W. Dietrick of the Methodist church preached.

The Plains second team were defeated at Rahway Saturday afternoon in a game with the Rahway Juniors, the score being 9-7.

The Monthly Communion was held at the close of the morning services at the Baptist church yesterday.

The weekly meeting of the B. Y. P. U., was held last night in the parlor of the church.

William Deegan has returned from a visit with relatives and friends in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Paff, Sr., entertained friends from out of town yesterday.

Miss Cora Miller has returned from a visit with friends in Orange, N. J.

S. Dana Townsend, spent the week end with relatives in Newark.

FLIPPANT FLINGS.

The really disgusting feature about this mad rush for wealth is that we were left at the post.—Puck.

Beware of Boston in June. Twenty thousands clubwomen are to meet there then—and this is leap year.—Florida Times-Union.

That New York policeman who has just completed his fifteenth year on the force ought to be a very rich man.—Newark News.

Much joy is brought to the common people by the tidings that the diamond trust is about to be "busted." Now for the champagne trust! —Atlanta Constitution.

FACTS FROM FRANCE.

A pawnbroker in France is spoken of as "my aunt."

The oldest parish priest in France is M. Gadenue of Roches, who, although 102 years old, is in full possession of all his faculties.

Auguste Ferrol, a clown in a show in Paris, broke off his engagement with Jeanne Leclerc, a dancer, because she called him a clown in a fit of anger.

Paris has a new kink. It is putting girl models in tailors' show windows, where they sit and chat and walk, displaying the latest cut gowns to the utmost advantage.

Humboldt's "Cosmos."

Alexander Humboldt's achievement, that of beginning and finishing his monumental "Cosmos" after his seventy-sixth birthday, is perhaps the most wonderful mind triumph in all the history of literature.

Big Trout.

The great Mackinaw trout is the largest of all trout. It averages fifteen to twenty pounds and has been known to reach 125 pounds. It is the largest lake fish excepting the lake sturgeons.

SOME STATE NEWS BRIEFS

A rockfish taken from the Mullica River yesterday by Reuben Cavileer weighed forty pounds.

Stumbling against a circular saw, James Fisher, forty-three years old, of Pensauken, was badly cut about the legs.

The war of Atlantic City on roller-chair pushers who accost people on the boardwalk soliciting patrons resulted Saturday in two being arrested and fined $20 each.

County Collector James Butcher, of Salem, has announced the engagement of his daughter, Miss Elizabeth Griscom Butcher, to William H. Andrews, a Salem druggist.

Company I, Fourth Regiment, N. G. N. J., gave a military ball Friday night at Opera House Hall, Bayonne. Many military men were present, Prosecutor Pierre P. Garven was a guest of honor.

Thomas Anthony, colored, of Paterson, swallowed carbolic acid while on Water street Saturday afternoon. He was locked up after physicians at the General Hospital had pronounced him out of danger.

After an exciting contest, in the course of which an indignation meeting was held in the street, the citizens of Collingswood won their fight Friday night against the ordinance to allow the sewer company to increase its rates fifty per cent.

Members of all of the Methodist churches of Trenton united Friday night in giving a reception to Rev. Dr. Alfred Wagg, recently reappointed as presiding elder of the Trenton district. The reception was held in the Hamilton Avenue church.

George Quinby, a Bordentown carpenter, was stricken with heart trouble while working on the switches on the Pennsylvania Railroad Saturday. He died in fifteen minutes after being stricken. He was fifty-six years of age. He leaves a widow.

Philomathean Society, Pennington Seminary, celebrated its forty-seventh anniversary in Shaw Memorial Chapel Friday evening. The entertainment was furnished by the Lorus Glee Club of New York, and more than three hundred alumni were present.

Fire yesterday afternoon destroyed the three-story brick building at 495 Broadway, Bayonne, owned by Joseph Hockstein. The first floor was occupied by Jacob Goldman as a store and upstairs lived half a dozen families who had narrow escapes. The damage was placed at $10,000.

Suit in ejectment is to be instituted by William C. French in Camden, representing Thomas Gaskill and other oystermen, in their fight against the Sooy Oyster Company. The suit will test the right of the company to property valued at $600,000, and for which $1,000 was paid for the riparian grant.

Animal Oddities.

The cry of a wounded hare resembles that of a child in distress.

A very good horse can in ten hours go sixty miles if the vehicle is light and the turnpike good.

The goldfish is a great coward, and a tiny fish with the courage to attack it can frighten it almost to death.

The bird of paradise is found only on the island of New Guinea and the neighborboring coasts of Australia.

A neat little brush is attached to the tail of the glowworm, and it is used to keep clean that part of the insect from which the light gleams so as to make it more distinctly visible.

Agnostic.

The term "agnostic" was invented by Professor Huxley about 1885 to indicate the mental attitude of those who withhold their assent to whatever is incapable of proof. In regard to the divine existence, miracles and revelations, agnostics neither dogmatically affirm nor deny, but simply say "Agnosco" (I do not know; they are incapable of proof).

Looks Easy.

A man walks half a certain distance at the rate of four miles an hour and the other half at the rate of six miles an hour. Does it take a longer or shorter time to return at the rate of five miles an hour.

The Caspian's Overflow.

Twice a year the Caspian overflows and strands millions of fish—sufficient to feed the whole of central Asia if advantage could be taken of these immense resources given by nature.

Miss Margaret H. Schick, of New York, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. George A. Schmidt, of Watchung.

Carl W. Nichols, of the borough, left Saturday for Mason City, Neb., where he will spend a year on a ranch.

NEW PERFECTION
Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove
Ready at any moment for cooking, baking, ironing. Does not overheat the kitchen. A splendid stove for summer cooking. Equipped with all the latest improvements.
STANDARD OIL COMPANY

FOR A
CLEAN SHAVE AND GOOD HAIR CUT
TRY THE
Burns' Tonsorial Parlors
Shoes Polished FREE with Every Shave.
Special Attention to Children's Hair.
212 WATCHUNG AVENUE

TEPPERS 109-111-113 WEST FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

AGENTS FOR STANDARD PATTERNS

EMBROIDERED BATISTE

Value 29c at 18c yard

These rich embroidered mercerized Batistes, white as snow, soft and lustrious, make beautiful Princess dresses. We selected a small lot under value and place these on sale, regular value 29c at, a yard - - 18c

Sale Worsted Suitings

50c values at 29c yard

We place on sale 15 pieces Dress Goods, the popular Worsted Suitings in checks, plaids and stripes, the popular spring shades, for suits, skirts and Jumper dresses, 36 inches wide, regular value 50c, on sale at, yard - - - - - - - - - 29c

44 inch all wool Cream Serge, splendid weight at, yard - - - - 75c

25c and 29c Silk Braids, yd. 19c

New Persian Silk Braid Trimming, in a wide range of styles, regular value 25c and 29c, on sale at, yard 19c

40 inch Figured Fillet Net, white and ecru, 69c value at, yard - - - 50c

42 inch Plain Arabian Fillet Net, 75c value at, yard - - - - - - - 69c

Fine Mesh Dress Nets, full 2 yards wide, white and Arabian, $1.00 value at, yard, - - - - - - - 79c

Phaeton Seamless Collar Foundation, regular price 15c, at, - - - 10c

SALE PEARL BUTTONS

At 10c a Dozen

500 dozen Fine Pearl Dress Buttons in assorted styles and sizes, flat and bullet styles. two and four holes, regular values, 12½c, 15c, 17c, and 19c a dozen, take your pick of these 500 dozen while they last at, doz. 10c

We do not break dozen lots

Sale Ladies' Handkerchiefs

300 dozen of the best 5c Handkerchiefs in town, at 36c dozen or for half dozen - - - - - - 18c

NEMO WEEK

This Week! The Great Corset Event of the Season!

It's our Spring Exposition of the famous NEMO CORSETS.

The time of all times to select a corset that will not only bring out the best lines of your figure, but will assure you the utmost comfort.

The word "Nemo" on a corset means correct style and long wear; and of course you know that the Nemo Corset is "the only corset that is more than a corset—the only one that does something for you that no other corset can do."

New models for slender figures—the "Willow-Shape," and the wonderful "Back-Reefing" Corset. And the famous "Self-Reducing," with the new "Flatning-Back," has no rival—and never had.

Come and be fitted—our expert corsetieres will see that you get genuine Nemo Corset comfort.

HAHNE & CO.

IMPORTERS · NEWARK'S STORE BEAUTIFUL BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STREETS · RETAILERS

"OLD HICKORY"

Porch and Lawn Furniture.

In the days of long ago when Andrew Jackson was alive and kicking, no mansion or hotel seemed complete without a liberal sprinkling of Old Hickory chairs and rockers on the veranda, lawn and even indoors, and nowadays this sort of furniture is coming into more general use than ever for summer use. Folks look now to the furnishing of the porch in Summer as thoughtfully as they do the living rooms, and it is a good custom for nothing is more in harmony without doors than this very Old Hickory—notable for its strength, durability and cool comfort.

Old Hickory Furniture is useful alike for cottages, bungalows, studios lawns, dens, mountain lodges, roof gardens, snuggeries, summer and rustic houses, verandas and field and golf club houses.

There are rockers, chairs, settees, tables, couches, lounges, tabourettes, footstools, swings, lawn vases, log cabins—all ready for you—in our great stock.

We can furnish to order on short notice bedsteads, dressers, chiffoniers, buffets, costumers, breakfast tables, dinner tables, washstands, umbrella stands and other pieces.

This week we show you in our Broad and New Street window just how Old Hickory furniture is constructed. Nothing enters into it except young hickory saplings with the bark on—strongest of native woods, which are chemically treated so that all germs or insect life is destroyed. The seats and backs are plaited by hand of the inner growth of hickory bark which can be stripped from the trees only at certain seasons of the year, and which is far greater in strength than any other seating material.

We think you will be glad to see the miniature factory in our show window.

Andrew Jackson Chairs—This chair, the celebrated "Andrew Jackson," is made of young hickory wood with the bark on, bottom and back are plaited, seat 17 inches wide, 15 inches deep; regular price $2.50; special Tuesday and Wednesday $1.98

No mail or 'phone orders accepted.

Arm Chairs—Very comfortable; 16-inch wide seat, 16 inches deep; extreme height 40 inches; lots of comfort in it; price $4

Andrew Jackson Rockers—"Andrew Jackson" Hickory Rockers, height over all 36 inches; strongly constructed in every detail; reg. price $2.75; special Tuesday and Wednesday.. $1.98

No mail or 'phone orders accepted.

Hickory Rockers—Has high back to give comfort and rest to head; easy arms; runners bolted on; price $5.25

Swinging Settees—Suitable for porch or lawn; 42 inches long, 18 inches deep; price, complete with chains $6

Camp Stools—Folding Camp Stools, suitable for parties, ball games; exhibitions, camping, seashore, lawns, etc. They are light, strong and easily transported; made of selected material, natural finish; seat is slated; price..... .30

Settees—Settee, folding, for child's use, made of natural wood, nicely shellacked; back and slats are carefully screwed on by hand; heads of screws countersunk; 26 inches long; price.. .60

Swinging Seat—This swinging seat; 42 in. long; may be had in natural or green finish; made of round and flat reeds; in each end are pockets for magazines. It is fitted with chains for a 9 ft. ceiling; price complete..... $13.50

Rustic Tables—Round top; shelf underneath; 30 nches in diameter; underneath shelf is 18 inches; 28 inches high; strongly put together in all parts; price..... $3.60

Settees—Settees, made as strongly as it possibly could be; made entirely of hard wood; painted red and green, neatly striped with yellow, 4 feet long, price $4.50; 5 feet long, $4.75; 6 feet long $5

Porch Rockers—Rockers, we sell thousands of this style each season; made of hard maple, natural finish, closely woven reed seat; liberal in size; price ..... .75

Child's Rockers—Child's Rockers, natural maple frame; shellacked; closely woven reed seat; smooth panels in the back; price..... $1

Folding Chairs—Folding Canvas Chairs; canvas is very strong and much more durable than the light ticking commonly used; all woodwork is smoothly machined; all corners rounded; canvas is put in by means of a slot and splint instead of being simply tacked; can be adjusted to 4 different positions and folds flat; price $1.25

SPORTS HERE AND THERE

GOLF.

The many improvements at the Plainfield Country Club were appreciated by the players who visited the course on Saturday for the first time this season. As chairman of the Green committee, George Schoonmaker, is working hard to get the putting greens in condition for use at the earliest date. The great amount of work put on the course shows to the best advantage.

Dennis Hartz, the new steward at the Plainfield Country Club, is now in charge and high-class service will be maintained. Meals a la carte or table d'hote will be served at all times. Mr. Hartz is thoroughly experienced, having been employed at Savoy Hotel, New York.

Preparations are rapidly being made for the opening of the active season at the Park Golf Club. It is expected that the initial competition will take place on Saturday, May 16. On that day the tennis courts will also be opened. In the meantime the course is open for general play.

Although there has been general play on the course of the Westfield Golf Club, the active season will not begin until the middle of the month.

Efforts will be made by the Park Golf Club to arrange a series of team matches this season. They proved popular last year, especially those with Bound Brook and New Brunswick.

F. C. Reinhart will probably be a familiar figure at the Plainfield Country Club this season and it is said that he will take more interest than during the past year or two. Reinhart at one time was very much in the lime-light of golf, but owing to the fact that he took a position in business he was obliged to devote less time to the game.

Golfers will find many improvemens in the Deal Golf Club, which is already open to the members. Alterations have been made inside the house for better facility in the handling of patrons and the greens are being put in good condition. C. Y. Schweitzer, the steward in charge last year, will be at his post again this season. The torunament season will begin about the middle of this month and each Saturday and Sunday, members are expected from the cities.

BASEBALL.

In the death of "Gus" Frentz, manager and pitcher for the Scotch Plains baseball team, the game at the 'Plains has lost one of its chief supporters and it will be hard to fill his place. He was considered the leading spirit in the game and was always the first one to take steps toward organizing for the season.

Ability to field their position seems to go hand and hand with left handed pitchers. There are Wiltse, Pastorius, Flaherty, White and Altrock, for instance.

President Murphy of the Cubs reaffirms his conviction that the world's series should be longer than seven games. It is quite probable that a big majority of patrons of the game are satisfied with seven games, and that is no small consideration.

Campbell of the Cincinnatis apparently is one of the best of the new crop of big league pitchers picked up.

Our reporter was in doubt at a game in Brooklyn the other day as to whether to score a hit or an error on one of the plays. The Merry Widow half mile trotting track on the head of the fair lady in front of him obscured his vision, and O. R. is not the possessor of X-ray eyes.

Ganley of the Washingtons is quoted as saying that the New York Americans were disposed to "rough it." The only rough treatment resorted to by the New Yorks in all their games has been to beat opposing teams if possible. Their play has been clean and sportsmanlike.

Hal Chase is a versatile hitter. He can send them to right or left field, shoot them along the ground, lift them over the infielders, sometimes hit them far and ofttimes beat out infield taps.

Billy Murray says his boxman, McQuillan, has fine control. "He can put them through a hole no bigger than that every tme," said the Philadelphia manager, illustrating with his fingers an aperture the size of a silver dollar.

It begins to look as if the American League race would, as usual, be in doubt as to first place up to the last few days of play.

Pfyle, the first baseman whom McGraw let go to Baltimore, made a home run with three men on bases against Buffalo the other day.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

—Rev. A. C. McCrea, of the First M. E. church, who was elected one of the delegates to the General Conference of the M. E. church, will leave tonight for Baltimore, where the conference will be in session for a month.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Park Avenue Baptist church will hold a leaderless meeting on Friday night. The subject will be "Being a Christian—In our Work and in Our Play."

The following persons were received into membership at the Park Avenue Baptist church, yesterday morning: The Misses Florence A. Crammer, Lillian Van Winkle, Ethel Gaskill and Charles E. Delby and Chester A. Gaskill.

The Women's Foreign Mission Circle of the Park Avenue Baptist church, will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Adelbert Van Brakle. Mrs. Theodosia Steiner will lead the devotional exercises. The subject will be "Missions Contributing to Social Progress," and the leaders will be Mrs. Adelbert Van Brakle and Mrs. L.C. Meeker.

The board of trustees of the Park Avenue Baptist church has organized for the coming year as follows: President, George W. V. Moy; secretary, John H. Doane; treasurer, L. R. Schofield; finance committee, G. E. Hall, S. Arthur Krom, B. H. Hadley; house committee, John H. Doane, Frank T. Ostrom, L. R. Schfield; music committee, B. H. Hadley, Frank T. Ostrom and G. E. Hall.

Tomorrow is Circus Day.

Washburn Famous Trained Animal Shows will positively exhibit in this city tomorrow. The show this season is the largest and finest equipped exposition of its character that was ever offered for the public's patronage, and its continued record of enormous and delighted crowds is proof positive that the efforts of the management to provide an amusement enterprise out of the ordinary is thoroughly appreciated. There are hundred of ponies, horses, dogs, cats, monkeys, apes, baboons, elephants and other animals with the show, and the entire entertainment is given by these animal performers under the direction of Mr. Washburn, long recognized as the master mind among animal educators of this country. To attempt to describe the many seemingly impossible feats which these animals have been taught to accomplish would take too long. Suffice to say, the people of Plainfield are assured the finest and most fascinating show that ever visited the city. Two performances will be given, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and 8 o'clock in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krewson, of Philadelphia, have moved to 103 Manning avenue.

Miss Dorothy Krewson, of Manning avenue, who has been visiting relatives at Flemington, has returned home.

We have purchased the Meat and Provision business conducted by Fred Endress and it will be continued as The Endress Co. The same high standard and quality of Meats, Poultry and Provisions will be maintained.

The Meats we select will give satisfaction, because they are the best obtainable.

PRIME RIB ROAST

cut from native cattle, very choice and tender, select cuts of Sirloin and Porterhouse Steaks, Chops, Cutlets, Poultry, etc. Give us a trial and be convinced. Prices lower than quality deserves.

The ENDRESS CO.

131-135 West Front Street.
'Phone 690.

THE VAN DYK SYSTEM has reduced the tea and coffee business to a science. It means to you BETTER TEA, BETTER COFFEE and Lower Price. Visit a Van Dyk Store and share in these advantages.

VAN DYK'S

127 WEST FRONT ST.,
Bet. Park and Madison Aves.
50 BRANCHES IN 20 CITIES.

Lumber Bargain!

The largest quantity of lumber in Plainfield can be found in my yard.

Large and Small Timbers.

Cut prices on new lumber for one week more.

A. KANE

YARD, 312 Filmore Ave.
Telephone 522-J.

Vail
JEWELER AND OPTICIAN

103 Park Ave.,
calls your attention to his
Rimless Glasses.
They Look Good and You See Good.

EDUCATIONAL.

JOSEPH Mc INTYRE,
Pianist, Coach, Accompanist
TEACHER OF PIANO and SINGING
New York Studio, 30 E. 23rd Street, Wednesdays and Saturdays.
Plainfield, Residence and Studio,
Telephone 386-f 1308 Watchung Avenue
1 y 6mos

ATTEND DRAKE BUSINESS COLLEGE.
PLAINFIELD
For thorough training in English, Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Penmanship, Commercial Law and correlative branches. The school that does not PROMISE to ASSIST graduates to positions, but that guarantees absolutely to PLACE them, and does it. 11 25 tf

Plainfield Business College
WOODHULL & MARTIN BUILDING.
SCHOOL OF ENGLISH.
A school well equipped for doing high grade work.
Investigate this school—it pays. 1½ hours devoted to English every day. Day and Evening sessions all the year.
Capacity 400 students.
A. S. HERR, Prin. and Prop.

CHAS. M. SUHR,
TEACHER OF PIANO.
614 E. 6th Street, Tel. 741-W

REAL ESTATE

RENTALS—REAL ESTATE
Geo. F. Brown,
INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE.
Commissioner of Deeds—Rents.
94 Somerset St. 'Phone 160

STATIONERY AND TOYS.
HARPER,
411 PARK AVENUE.

Press Want Ads. Pay

"Rogers Brothers in Panama," at New Plainfield Theatre, May 8.

—CAMERAS—
KODAKS AND PHOTOGRAPHIC SUPPLIES
DEVELOPING, PRINTING AND ENLARGING
Bring Your Films in One Day and Get Your Pictures the Next.
"THE PHOTO STORE," 129 NORTH AVENUE.
FORMERLY VAN WINKLE'S.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS

Rather an amusing incident occurred one evening during the run of "The Rogers Brother in Panama" at the Broadway theatre, New York. Several battleships belonging to the American fleet were anchored off the battery, and a score or more of middies stayed away one night from their ships in search of a little enjoyment. During their day leave they had ascertained that "The Rogers Brothers in Panama" was playing at the Broadway theatre and determined to witness the performance regardless of risk or penalty. They were unaware of the fact that the Rogers Brothers in their new production, impersonated two admirals, and when Gus and Max came on in their ludicrous make-up, bedecked with tin medals, gold buttons, swords, helmets, etc., the middies were in their glory and made the very walls ring with laughter and applause. At the finale of the first act the two real admirals, whom the Rogers Brothers are impersonating, made their entrance upon the stage. When the time came for their appearance there was a decided hush for the space of about one minute, then a wild stampede as the jolly tars rose in a body and made a rush for the door. By a strange coincidence the two stage admirals were identified as identical counterparts for the two commanding officers of the ship upon which the sailors should have been at the time instead of whileing away the hours at an amusement. Whether or no they discovered their mistake before getting back to the ship has never been ascertained. "The Rogers Brothers in Panama" will be at the New Plainfield theatre next Friday night.

—Charles R. Wyckoff, of Dupont street, the borough, is erecting two seven room houses on the upper end of Duer street.

—Charles E. Ball has leased his property on Sycamore avenue, the borough, to George F. Fisher, of Brooklyn. Mr. Ball has moved to 312 East Fifth street.

C. C. Bager, of West Fourth street, has removed to Bound Brook.

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.

105 North Avenue. Telephone 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S and Canada.

The Daily Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change the same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

Plainfield, N. J., May 4, 1908.

May 4 In History.

J. J. Audubon.

1782—John James Audubon, famous naturalist, born; died 1851.

1796—William Hickling Prescott, historian, born; died 1859.

1798—Outbreak of the last extensive Irish rebellion; it cost 20,000 English and 150,000 Irish lives.

1861—President Lincoln called for 42,000 volunteers for three years and informed foreign powers of his intention to maintain the Union by force of arms.

1906—W. F. Owen, noted American actor, died in New York city; born 1844.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

Sun sets 6:55, rises 4:49; moon sets 11:07 p. m.; 7:42 a. m., moon in conjunction with Neptune, passing the planet west to east.

ON CHRIST'S SUFFERING

(Continued from page 1.)

"A man does not believe Christ because his prejudice or his indifference prevents his making an honest study of that life.

"This part of the Creed reveals this truth that Christ has hallowed every condition in our lives. He was dead, buried, and descended into Hell. Put in the place of the word 'hell,' Hades or 'the realm of departed spirits.' While the body of our Lord was in the tomb, His soul was in the realm of departed spirits.

"Says Westcott, 'He hallowed every condition of human existence. We cannot be where He has not been. He bore our nature as living. He bore our nature as dead.'

"He touches the sorrow of every life. He sympathizes because 'He suffered.' Some one has said, 'there are those to whom work is one half of human life and suffering the other half.' They are as their Master 'acquainted with grief.' They have great ideals, but do not possess vitality sufficient to carry out these ideals, they are earth's suffering ones, but there is great consolation in the thought that 'he suffered' and therefore understands.

"It is in the very sufferings of our Lord that He conquers. You remember the words of Jean Paul Richter, 'with His pierced hands He has lifted the gates of empires off their hinges.' Yes, His throne was a cross, His sceptre a rod, his enemies placed in His hand when they would dishonor Him, and His crown of thorns, yet this is the Man of whom Emerson spoke when he said, 'He has not written His name in human history but has ploughed it in.' Yes, ploughed it in by His suffering, death, and resurrection.

"We have been marking the gradual descent of our Lord. We have brought Him in our thought from the throne to the depths. Let us ask ourselves, why? Because of sin. As we think of this descent does not the malignity of the world's sin impress us? Does not the love of Christ attract us to live the Christ life?"

Raho Rahs Take Double Header.

The Rah Rah Club nine took two games from the Third Ward Social Club on a West End diamond Saturday afternoon. The first was captured by as core of 8-4 and the second game score was 4-1. Kyle and McAfee were the battery for the Rah Rahs, and iKely and Wilson were the points for the Third Ward nine. James Mahoney starred for the Third Wards, making two three-baggers in the first game and the home run which formed his nine's only score in the second. Pierson and Caulfield, of the Rah Rahs were effective in the field.

—The first concert of the Y. W. C. A. Glee Club will be held in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium tomorrow night. All are cordially invited.

Headquarters for

John Gibson's

RYE.

E. C. Westcott, Agent.

115 East Front Street.

GEORGE FISK GRAVES WEDS MISS TYRRELL.

Miss Mildred Tyrrell, daughter of Mrs. Julia E. Tyrrell, of East Fifth street, and George Fisk Graves, son of Mrs. Ellen A. Graves, of Liberty street, were married Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother. Rev. A. C. McCrea, pastor of the First M. E. church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a company of sixty relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was gowned in white crepe de chine and her boquet was of white carnations. The couple was unattended. A pleasing feature of the affair was the singing of the "Bridal Chorus," Lohengrin, by Miss Etta Raybert, soprano, accompanied on the piano by Miss Mary Graves, sister of the groom. Following the ceremony a reception was held and supper was served. After a bridal trip the couple will reside on East Fifth street. The bride received a large number of gifts from relatives and friends. The groom is employed in this city by the Standard Oil Company, and both he and his wife have a host of friends.

DR. CHAMBLISS' BROTHER TO SPEAK AT WEEK SERVICES.

Rev. Dr. Joseph Chambliss, brother of Rev. J. A. Chambliss, pastor of the First Baptist church, spoke afternoon and evening at the church yesterday. In the afternoon he addressed a congregation of young people, and his topic was "What Shall I Do With Jesus." His topic in the evening was "Now Jesus Christ Saves Men From Sin," and the service was largely attended.

Dr. Chabmliss, who is a retired Baptist minister, now living in Kansas City, Mo., will speak at special services to be held in the church tonight, tomorrow night and Wednesday night. The hour of these services is 8 o'clock and on each occasion the speaker will discuss various problems of Christianity.

Spoke in the Interest of Missions.

Mr. Kinports, secretary of Young People's Work for the Reformed churhc in America, with offices in New York, addressed the Sunday-school of Trinity Reformed church, yesterday afternoon on mission work. He spoke more especially of mission work in Japan. His visit here was more particularly to arouse a mission spirit among the young people and his remarks were listened to with a great deal of interest. He complimented the school upon its excellent achievements of the past, adding that it had done a great work in missions, quite in contrast to many hat apparently show no interest.

A Family Mix-Up.

As the result of a family mix-up Saturday night, Richard and Henry Donnelly were arraigned in the city court, this morning, on a charge of disorderly conduct preferred by their brother, Patrick Donnelly. The testimony developed the fact that Mrs. Patrick Donnelley, who was not in court, was at the bottom of all the trouble and the matter was adjourned until she could be arraigned also. When placed under arrest, Richard and Henry declared Patrick has been conducting a "speak easy" at his home and Judge Runyon instructed the police to look this up also.

First Y. W. C. A. Outing.

About a dozen members of the Y. W. C. A. went to the notch at Scotch Plains Saturday afternoon on the first of the summer's outings of the association. With the party were Miss Margaret E. Mosher and Miss Amy Tapping, the secretaries. A fire was lighted near the notch and coffee brewed in the woods. The party brought home a lot of dogwood and wild flowers. Another tramp is being arranged for next Saturday afternoon.

May Term of Court.

The May term of court will open at Elizabeth, tomorrow morning and judging by the number of cases on the calendar, the session will be one of the busiest of recent years. There are several important cases from this city to be tried. Justice James J. Bergen will be on the bench at the opening and will charge the Grand Jury, the Plainfield members of which will be Frank W. Morse, H. W. Marshall, J. Fred MacDonald and Charles W. Runyon.

Borough Pupils Plan Dance.

Invitations will soon be sent out for a reception and dance to be given by the junior class of the North Plainfield High School to the members of the senior class. The dance will be held at Truell Hall Friday evening, May 29. The committee in charge of the affair consists of William Herrmann, Miss Marguerite Lee, Miss Gertrude Berkhan and Miss Florence Fowler.

Y. W. C. A. Abroad.

Miss Lela Guitner, Y. W. C. A secretary at Columbo, Ceylon, India, was the speaker at the association vesper service yesterday afternoon and gave an outline of the progress of the work in the East. She showed some interesting samples of the weaving and tapestry work done by the East Indians, including cloth, rugs and needle-work. Mrs. George Ring sang "Crossing the Bar" in connection with the meeting.

—Advertise in The Daily Press

—Fresh strawberries received daily at Neuman Brothers' Excellent assortment of fresh vegetables includes asparagus, lettuce, radishes, peas, and egg plant.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

The Woodhull & Martin Store

THE CHOICEST STOCK of WASH FABRICS

to be found in the city. Again and again since the new Spring Wash Dress Fabrics came out we have heard enthusiastic comments from those who have surveyed them with more or less care. The stock is immense—the largest we have ever shown; the prices are fair and in many instances astonishingly low. But it is the exquisite beauty of the new Fabrics we want to tell you about; the very choicest patterns and weaves from the best foreign and American mills. How impressive it is in variety may be gathered from this partial list:

Printed Dotted Swisses, in a large variety of beautiful floral designs, 18c yd.

Cotton Voiles, 27 inches wide, in all the popular colorings, at 25c yard.

Satin Striped Madras, specially adapted for shirts and shirtwaistings, 30 inches wide, at 19c yard.

Fine Percales, Standard makes, in an elegant assortment of patterns, 36 in. wide, at 15c yard.

New Dress Ginghams, in a wonderful assortment of pretty checks, plaids and stripes, at 12½c yard.

Silk Tissues, in neat blue, pink, lavender and black and white checks, 27 inches wide, at 25c yard.

Linene Suitings, in tan, blue, and brown, 34 inches wide, at 15c yard.

Galatea Cloth, suitable for boys' wash suits, 28 inches wide, at 19c yard.

Fine Linen Suiting, 36 inches wide, in blue and tan plaids, at 50c yard.

Plain Pongee Linen, in all leading colors, 27 inches wide, at 40c yard.

Grey Linen Suiting, 27 to 36 inches wide, at 20c, 25c, 35c and 50c a yard.

Blue Bell Lawns, a very good quality printed lawn, in all the newest designs and colorings, 30 inches wide, at 10c a yd.

Fine Scotch Ginghams in beautiful checks, plaids and stripes, 33 inches wide, at 25c a yard.

American Beauty Batiste, a fine sheer fabric, 30 inches wide in checks, plaids, stripes and figures, at 15c a yard.

Imported Irish Dimities in an endless variety of pretty patterns, 27 inches wide, at 29c a yard.

Mercerized Silk Gingham, in a wide assortment of new colorings in checks and stripes, 27 inches wide, 25c a yard.

AWNINGS AND WINDOW SHADES—This department is working day and night to keep pace with the orders. If you have any needs in this line kindly let us have your order as soon as possible. We assure you that all work entrusted to us will be done in a first-class manner and fully guaranteed.

The Woodhull & Martin Store.

Capital and surplus $250,000.00

THE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

of Plainfield.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS:

A. J. Brunson, President
J. A. Smith, Vice President
D. M. Runyon, Cashier

W. R. Coddington,
J. A. Hubbard,
C. Frank French,
S. F. Corlell,
P. J. Zeglio, M. D.
E. H. Bird.

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS DRAW FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Indian Fighters Intercepted.

Philip Brackett, Jack Kerg and Victor Mettlesen, Newark boys between the ages of fourteen and eighteen, were picked up by the police last night as they were prowling around the Netherwood district. Kerg and Mettlesen had revolvers and they explained to Patrolman McGinely that they were going west to shoot Indians. Judge Runyon confiscated the guns this morning and instructed the police to see that the trio were taken back home.

Returns from Long Trip.

After an absence of several months, during which he has traveled throughout the United States, H. Russell Voorhees, traveling manager of a New York advertising house, returned home yesterday. Mr. Voorhees remained in California seven weeks and states that he has had a satisfactory and pleasant trip.

Boys Fined for Assault.

Howard Scott and Samuel Hannigan, boys, were fined $5 each in the city court, this morning, on a charge preferred by Joseph Kadish that they had assaulted his son, Charles Barnes, who was arraigned with them proved his innocence and was discharged.

Freight Car Thieves Held.

William Wood and John Harbrack charged with breaking into a freight car on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, at South Plainfield, will be brought up for trial at New Brunswick next Monday. It is alleged that they stole part of the contents of the car.

DON'T WORRY, WE WILL BE HERE SOON.

LEON W. WASHBURN'S

FAMOUS SHOWS.

MUSEUM, MENAGERIE, TRAINED ANIMALS AND CARNIVAL ALLIANCE

Will Exhibit at

Plainfield, Tuesday, May 5.

Afternoon at 2:00; Evening at 8:00.

Rain or Shine.

Lot DARROW AVENUE AND FOURTH STREET.

All New, Larger and Finer Than Ever.

Lady Riders, Contortionists, Aerialists, Tumblers and Leapers.

Gentlemen Riders, Jugglers, Wire Walkers, Tumblers, Leapers, Clowns.

Performing Elephants, Dogs, Monkeys and Ponies.

Baby Elephant, Baby Camel, Smallest Horse on Earth, Animals from every Clime.

GRAND FREE EXHIBITION ON GROUNDS BEFORE EACH PERFORMANCE.

WATCH FOR THE PARADE.

PRICES.....15 and 25 Cents.

4 30 5 2 4

WASHINGTON ROCK SPRING WATER

Bottlers of high-class soft drinks, Ginger Ale, Soda Water and Pure Spring Water, and Siphon Goods. Private families' and parties' patronage is solicited.

Henry Pedeflous,

TELEPHONE 670-R

Hotel Pedeflous, Plainfield

PLAINFIELD EXCHANGE FOR WOMENS WORK,

508 WATCHUNG AVE.

A full line of picture frames, waste baskets, blotters, humid notes, bridge scores, pads, boxes, trays, telephone registers, menu and place cards. Orders filled promptly.

—For best results advertise in The Daily Press.

One Day at Plainfield

WEDNESDAY, MAY 6,

HOTEL IROQUOIS

Office Hours, 9 a. m. until 4 p. m.

Our $1.00 Glasses with 10-year Gold Seamless Wire Frame cannot be duplicated in America for $5.00.

Your eyes will be examined by the Dammers Scientific Method which is entirely different from the old way of examining eyes and is the only correct way.

We make no charge for examination. We ask no questions, put no drops in the eyes, do not use any test cards or charts hung on the wall which is a common way used by every one but us, and by that way you are simply fitting yourself and you get so confused you do not know if you are fitted or not.

Don't Suffer With Headaches.

We have produced astonishing results from brain, fag, nervous debility, insomnia, dizziness, nausea WATERY EYES, blurry vision and other troubles caused by EYE STRAIN. We have corrected by the use of glasses, cross eyes and Astigmatism by our scientific methods.

The Edward F. Dammers Co.,

Old South Bl'd, 294 Washington Street, Boston, Mass.

5 1 4

John S. Lewis

Successor to Lewis & Dilts.

Artesian Well Contractors.

Wells drilled any place, size or depth.

Estimates cheerfully given.

Box 173,

Scotch Plains, N. J.

A "TELLING EFFECT" IS DEFINED.

One lady telling another

PECK'S

is the store for you to trade.

SPRING FURNISHINGS

Carpets & Mattings

All the best kinds in large variety to please the most exacting requirements. Beautiful Oriental and Floral effects in all grades of Carpets, made, laid and lined free.

Ingrain	75c
Brussells	65c-1.00
Axminster	1.10-1.25
Velvet	1.00-1.35

Rugs.

You will enjoy the beautiful line of these popular goods we have in all the leading makes, well selected patterns in every kind from cheapest to best grade and at prices that are lowest now quoted.

Ingrain, 9x12	4.98-8.98
Brussells, 9x12	12.50-27.50
Axmin'r, 9x12	19.98-27.50
Velvet	22.50-25.00

FURNITURE and BEDDING.

When buying these goods you need the dependable kind with the largest assortment of patterns to select from. This is what we offer you combined with lowest possible prices—prices for really good goods. Our large floor space is just crowded with nice clean desirable goods that will appeal to you.

Awnings.

Now is the time to plan your orders, for the hot weather will come and you will want good Awnings—and that's our kind, always the best.

Shades.

Get our estimate for your shade work, for we do a good job and do it reasonable—and carry the largest assortment of goods in this city.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON,

BABCOCK BUILDING, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

LADIES' AND GENT'S SUITS CLEANED AND PRESSED

G. O. KELLER,

'PHONE 857-J 125 PARK AVENUE

DO NOT FAIL

to note the reduction in price of

Watchung Spring Water

to take effect May 1st, as follows:

Crate containing 6 bottles	60c each
5 Gallon Demijohns	50c each

on and after May 1st

ORDER FROM YOUR GROCER

at the above prices, as our time is so occupied in shipping we are obliged to

DISCONTINUE LOCAL DELIVERIES

Try our WATCHUNG CARBONATED WATER and GINGER ALE at popular prices.

Watchung Spring Water Co.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. 4 27 6

Why Have a Bank Account?

Because—

A Bank Account creates a desire to make it as large as possible, and it is wise for all to provide for the "RAINY DAY," which comes sooner or later.

Start an account today with us,

The Plainfield Savings Bank.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Peter's German Lutheran church will meet at the home of Richard Moldenke, Thursday afternoon, meeting at the end of the Somerset street trolley at 2:45 o'clock.

The Seventh-Day Baptist church held its quarterly business meeting last night, when it was announced that the Eastern Association of the denomination is to convene with the Plainfield church on Thursday, May 28, for a session of four days.

The annual meeting of the Women's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society of New Jersey will be held Thursday at the First Bptist church, New Brunswick. There will be morning and afternoon sessions, and Miss J. Ella Shinn and other missionaries will address the meeting.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Miss Mary White will conduct the devotional exercises and Mrs. L. V. F. Randolph and Miss Mary Thickstun will present items of interest to science and civilization.

At the First Presbyterian church, yesterday morning, in connection with the communion service, the pastor, Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring, installed R. H. Radford, J. H. Manning and E. M. Cave as elders; and E. D. George and John S. Johnston as deacons. Nine new members were received.

PERSONAL.

Miss May Burke and Miss Sadie Hibbits, of this city, spent Sunday with friends in Brooklyn.

James E. Church, of Somerset street, has returned from a trip to Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Andrew H. Lipsett, of Myrtle avenue, who has been quite ill with pneumonia, is convalescing.

Dr. Richard G. Moldenke, of Watchung, has returned from a business trip to New Mexico, Arizona and California.

Eldon Miller, of Washington avenue, who will be graduated from the Borough High School in June will enter Syracuse University in the fall.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Welch, of Ohio Wesleyan University, have returned home after spending several days with relatives in the borough.

Rev. Dr. E. P. Johnson, acting pastor of Trinity Reformed church, was entertained yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Woodruff, of East Second street.

Dr. H. K. Carroll and James R. Joy, of North Plainfield, left today for Baltimore, where they go as lay delegates to the General Conference of the Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bonn, of Craig place, left today for Providence, R. I., to attend the funeral of Mr. Bonn's brother-in-law, William J. Brooks. Mr. and Mrs. Bonn will be absent from the city several days.

Ralph P. Bache, formerly connected with the Public Service Corporation in this city, but now of Colorado Springs, Col., has been spending a few days in town with friends. He leaves this week for home.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will hold a special meeting Thursday afternoon at the church to make arrangements for a bazaar to be held sometime during the latter part of the month.

MISTOOK WAGON TONGUE FOR ELEPHANT'S TRUNK.

Leon W. Washburn, general director of the famous Leon Washburn combined shows, which are scheduled to give afternoon and evening performances in Plainfield tomorrow, tells many amusing stories of his experiences in the realm of tented amusements. One which Mr. Washburn relates runs thus:

"As funny an episode as I ever witnessed came under my observation last summer. It was down in a New England town, just before the matinee performance. The day was unusually warm and pleasant and the show lot was crowded. I was on my way around the big top from the dressing room to the ticket wagon. As I neared the latter I happened to glance in the direction of a group of our canvasmen who were moving a light cage. The tongue of the cage had a sort of a crook at the end, similar to the bend of a shepherd's rod, and, in some manner, the tongue slipped and the crooked end was thrust right between the legs of a fellow of about forty years of age, who was standing with his back to the cage. Hastily glancing down at the crooked tongue end, the man actually bounded about four feet in the air, cried out, 'Help, help, the elephant's got me! the elephant's got me!' and started to run wildly away. Instantly every observant bystander gave the fellow the merry 'ha, ha,' and, after he had put several yards between himself and the elephant, he looked over his shoulder, saw that the pachyderm's trunk was none other than a wagon tongue and slunk away in the crowd which surrounded the main entrance."

Reduced Rates to Trenton via New Jersey Central for Republican State Convention, Tuesday, May 5. Tickets good going May 4 and 5, and returning until May 6. $1.60 from Plainfield.

5 2 2

—For best results try a Press want ad.

COUNTRY'S NEEDS SET FORTH.

Wall Street Journal Advocates Return to Old Conditions.

The following editorial from the Wall Street Journal is somewhat remarkable, appearing in a purely financial paper, and is certainly worthy of serious consideration:

"What America needs is a revival of piety, the kind mother and father used to have—piety that counted it good business to stop for daily family prayer before breakfast, right in the middle of harvest; that quit field work a half hour early Thursday night so as to get the chores done and go to prayer meeting; that borrowed money to pay the preacher's salary and prayed fervently in secret for the salvation of the rich man who looked with scorn on such unbusinesslike behavior. That's what we need now to clean this country of the filth of graft, and of greed, petty and big; of worship of fine horses and big lands and high office and grand social functions. What is this thing we are worshiping but a vain repetition of what decayed nations fell down and worshiped just before their light went out? Read the history of Rome in decay and you will find luxury there that could lay a big dollar over our little doughnut that looks so large to us. Great wealth never made a nation substantial nor honorable. There is nothing on earth that looks good that is so dangerous for a man or nation to handle as quick, easy, big money. If you do resist its deadly influences the chances are that it will get your son. It takes greater and finer heroism to dare to be poor in America than to capture a battery in Manchuria."

ELECTRIC CORN POPPER HERE.

Very Different from the Old Time Kind You Held Over a Fire.

The old fashioned wire corn popper in which you pop corn over a glowing fire, is familiar enough, but a novelty is the electric corn popper; in which you pop corn by electricity.

The electric corn popper consists of an aluminum basin with flaring sides, to which is fitted a dome shaped cover of wire gauze; this cover to keep the corn from popping out as it pops, and also to enable one to see how the popping is getting on. To the under side of the basin is permanently attached a resistance coil in which heat is produced when the electric current is turned on.

In one side of the popper are two plug holes. Into these holes you insert the two plugs at one end of a flexible electric wire, the other end of which you screw into the nearest and most convenient electric light socket.

As everybody knows, in popping corn in a wire popper you have to keep the popper moving as you hold it over the fire to keep the corn from burning; to permit keeping it agitated to the same end, the electric popper, which is used on a stand or table, is mounted on wheels.

Didn't See the Joke.

A certain curate was of a painfully nervous temperament, and in consequence was constantly making awkward remarks—intended as compliments—to the bishop and others.

Having distinguished himself in an unusual degree during a gathering of clergy to an afternoon tea in the bishop's palace, he was taken to task for his failings by a senior curate, who was one of his companions on the way home.

"Look here," said Bruce, the senior decidedly, "you are a donkey. Why can't you keep quiet instead of making your asinine remarks? I am speaking to you now as a brother."

Loud laughter interrupted him at this point, and for the moment he did not see the joke.—Rehopoth Sunday Herald.

Muscular Energy in Sugar.

Men performing hard manual labor have a natural taste for sweets, as they supply a great amount of muscular energy, says "What to Eat." They are equally beneficial to persons exposed to severe cold. In the lumber camps and mines of Canada and the colder sections of the United States workmen consume large quantities of sugar in the form of molasses. Tea and coffee are often sweetened with molasses and in some places it is added to almost every article of food. The same is more or less true in the logging districts of the south, where molasses and rice, mixed together, have become almost a staple diet.

Where Politeness Doesn't Pay.

"French and German hats," said a hatter, "only last half as long as ours. It isn't the poor quality of the hats but the fine quality of the manners that causes this.

"Lifting the hat in salutation is the hardest work that falls on the headpiece, and the French and Germans lift it to men and women equally, thus giving it twice as much labor as we do. Naturally, then, it wears out twice as quickly. It goes in the brim in no time over the water."

Outside of His Practice.

"All that is the matter with you, sir," said the eminent physician, after a thorough examination, "is lack of nutrition. You don't eat enough."

"I eat all I can hold, doctor," said the attenuated caller.

"Then you need to have your capacity enlarged, and that's a case for a surgeon. Five dollars, please. Good morning."

Fresh Vegetables

Asparagus, Wax Beans, Tomatoes,
Radishes, Beets, Lettuce,
Strawberries, Green Beans, Cucumbers.

Fruit

Oranges, Grape Fruit, Apples.
Malaga Grapes, Figs.

NEUMAN BROS.

GROCERS—Watchung Avenue and Fifth Street.

Efficient and rapid delivery service to all parts of the city.

MONO

Fireproof Storage Warehouse.

Separate Rooms, Fireproof Partitions. Clean, Dry, Secure.

Inspection Invited—Open 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

FURNITURE REMOVED WITH CARE.

Telephone 522-W. Opposite freight depot.

A. M. RUNYON & SON, UNDERTAKERS.
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York Office—50 Great Jones Street, Tel. call, 3345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 315.

T. A. MOORE.
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.
Office—508 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 790
Residence—514 East 6th St. " 741-R
New York Office, 27 Great Jones St.
Telephone Call, 3249-Spring.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

Established 1875.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS.
Office 116 Park Av., Tel. 884-w. Res., 417 W. 3d St., Tel. 903-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2094 Gramercy

GEO. W. COLE.
UNDERTAKER & EMBALMER.
200 West Second St. Telephone 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

FLORIST

A. E. Lincoln, 307 Park Ave.

New stock of palms, ferns, flowering plants and everything in the florist line. Special prices on cut flowers and cut-flower work. Floral design work for all occasions.

Tel. 322-W. 4 1 1m

Chas. L. Stanley,

159 East Front St. 'Phone 928.
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

L. L. MANNING & SON,
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Avenue and West Front Street. Opposite First Baptist Church.

Classified Advertisements

Rates for advertisements under this heading one cent a word for first insertion, one half a cent a word for consecutive insertions of the same advertisement running for less than one month; one month, fifty cents a line (6 words to a line), double rate for advertisement set in capitals.

No advertisements received for less than ten cents.

Copy for death and marriage notices and classified advertising accepted up to 2:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS is not at liberty to give any information regarding advertisements that require an address in care of this office. Persons answering these ads. should mail or leave answers as stated in advertisements.

Help Wanted.

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework; small family; no washing; good wages; references required. 911 Watchung avenue. 5 4 2

WANTED—At once 2 chambermaids, 2 waitresses and cooks, first-class only with good references. Mrs. R. Murray's Registry, 726 West Front street. 5 4 2

A WHITE woman as cook; references. Apply between 7 and 9 p. m. 7 Myrtle avenue. 5 2 2

WANTED—a colored woman to do plain cooking with references. 515 Park avenue. 5 1 3

WANTED—First-class chambermaid, white; good wages. Apply 107 West Seventh street. 5 1 3

WANTED—White woman, a competent cook and laundress. 836 West Seventh street. 5 1 3

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework. Apply with references, 1423 Watchung avenue. 4 29 tf

Help Wanted.

COOKS, waitresses and general houseworkers wanted at once. Anderson's Employment office. 659 West Fourth street. 5 4 3 eod

YOUNG housework girl wanted at 822 Second place; sleep home.

WANTED—This week, competent white woman for housecleaning. Apply 520 West Eighth street. 5 4 3

Situations Wanted.

COOKS, waitresses, chambermaid and general houseworkers want positions. Anderson Employment office, 659 West Fourth street. 'Phone 508-W. 4 27 eod

DRESSMAKING and ladies' tailoring; experienced. Late with best houses in New York. Desires a few more customers. Room 307 Babcock building. 5 4 3

CHAUFFEUR Japanese machinist, sober, honest, careful driver; two years' experience; any gasoline cars, wants position; private family; highest recommendation; moderate wages. Address F. B., care Press. 5 4 7

COMPETENT help constantly on hand; white and colored. Hall's Employment Agency (originally The Plainfield), station driveway; 'phone 322-J. 4 22 1m

DRESSMAKER would like work by the week in family; good remodeler; references. S., 604 West Seventh street. 5 1 6

PAINTER—Frst-class from New York, has done here a house, wants days work; reasonable. Address W., Postoffice. 5 4 3

FIRST-CLASS help always on hand. Anderson's Employment office, 659 West Fourth street. 'Phone 508-W. 5 4 3 eod

COLORED young man wants work of any kind. 410 East Third street. 5 4 3

RESPECTABLE woman wishes work by the day; laundry or housecleaning. Address T. B., care Press. 5 1 3

WOMAN wants washing. 206 West Front street.

YOUNG Polish girl wants position to do general housework; good references. 94 Somerset street. 5 2 3

WANTED—Laundry work. Call 518 West Fourth street. 5 2 3

Rooms and Board.

GOOD accommodations; low rates. Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

FEW boarders wanted. Mrs. M. Fosbre, 659 Essex street. 5 1 12

FURNISHED room to let. 206 West Front street. 5 4 3

TO LET—Newly furnished room in select apartment; centre of town; all improvements. A. C., care Press. 5 4 6

LARGE front room with or without board. 137 East Fifth street. 5 1 6

TWO pleasant connecting rooms and small rooms, with first-class board. 406 East Fifth street. 4 29 6

WATCHUNG AVE., 724, near 7th St., desirable rooms with first class board. 4 13 1m

TWO communicating rooms with board; sunny exposure; bath adjoining; first class neighborhood; excellent table. 132-134 Crescent avenue. 9 19 tf

FURNISHED rooms with or without board. 440 East Sixth street. 4 28 6

CAN accommodate two gentlemen with rooms and board. 141 East Fifth street. 2 10 tf

For Rent.

FLAT to let. Inquire 18 Craig place. 4 14 tf

FOR RENT—Apartment, four rooms, bath room, all improvements, steam heat; in fine condition; rent $18; location, corner Fifth street and Watchung avenue. Apply to A. M. Lederer, 117 West Front St. 4 23 tf

FOR RENT—New house just completed; seven rooms and bath; rent $21. Address O. I. C., Daily Press. 4 24 tf

TO LET—Eight room house, on West Fourth street, near Park avenue; all newly papered and painted; city water and gas. B. Mann, 120 West Fourth street. 4 28 tf

FOR RENT—Store on Richmond street; also stable for one horse. Apply George Staats, 306 Richmond street. 4 29 6

SEVEN room house; all improvements. 98 Jackson avenue. Apply 84 Fairview avenue. 4 29 6

FOR RENT OR SALE—320 Somerset street, 12 rooms, city water, modern plumbing, electric lights, all improvements. Inquire 328 Somerset street, or Golding, 133 West 65th street, New York. 5 4 6

FOR RENT—Commodious offices in the Woodhull & Martin building suitable for lawyers, dentists, insurance companies, etc.; will arrange to suit tenant. 4 20 tf

THREE rooms to let. 732 West Third street. 4 6 tf

COMMODIOUS new 8-room house on West Front street; all improvements, including gas an electric light; large garden and lawn and a variety of fruit; rent very reasonable. Robert Murray, 726 West Front street. 5 4 2

TO LET—Three-room flat. Inquire 39 Summit avenue. 5 4 6

SEVEN-ROOM apartments to let; all improvements. 937 West Front street; also six-room house. 3 28 tf

TO LET—New 6-room house; $16. Inquire Kinsman, Dunellen. 4 1 tf

NEW six-room house to let, 1219 West Third street; six-room house, 1424 Willever street, near Safe Works; two apartments, four rooms each, all improvements, or the whole house, 216 Prescott place. J. Sacher, 731 West Third St. 4 3 tf

NEW 7-room house, on Cameron avenue, for sale or to let; furnace, open plumbing, gas and city water. Inquire E. Beys, Cameron avenue. 5 4 1m

TO LET—Nice furnished rooms; all improvements; fine neighborhood; near business centre; five minutes walk from R. R. station. Owner 216 East Fifth street. 5 4 3

TO LET—Two or three nice rooms, unfurnished, for light housekeeping; bath same floor; five minutes from station. 410 New street.

TO LET—Three rooms; improvements; centrally located. Call 415 West Second street. 5 4 3

STORE TO LET, 60 Somerset street, two blocks from Front street. Call or address H. Texier, Watchung, New Jersey. 5 2 2

ROOMS to let. 11 Grove street. 4 30 6

TO RENT—Second and third stories of 316 and 318 West Front street, 50x85 feet. Jos. W. Gavett. 4 3 tf

TO LET—9-room house, all improvements; 3 Verdon street. G. W. V. Moy. 3 13 tf

TO LET—4 rooms, upper floor, water. John Manley, insurance, 321 Park avenue. 3 17 tf

Real Estate Agents.

HOUSES, new, for sale or rent, all improvements, excellent location, East End. Inquire M. A. Rose, 301 Watchung avenue, 'Phone 273-J. 4 14 1m

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent or exchange. Edmund Rushmore, 209 North avenue, telephone No. 49, Plainfield; 42 Broadway, New York 10 10 tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield; telephone 44. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; properties that I have picked up in trade that I can sell you for less than market prices; if you want to buy or have anything to sell come and see me. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, 39 Prospect place, North Plainfield. 11 20 tf

REAL ESTAE for sale, rent and exchange at bargain figures, insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

FOR SALE—If you want to buy or sell real estate, please call, write or 'phone Ira L. LaRue, next to station, next to bargain. Office 'phone 752-R, residence 'phone 845-L. 12 19 tf

Miscellaneous.

COMPLETE line of automobile supplies and tires at lowest New York prices. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

STORAGE for wagon and sleighs. Hand's Boarding Stable, 136 East Second street. 4 13 1m

AUTOMOBILES to hire at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co., telephone 991-J. 4 15 3m

A FIRST CLASS place to turn out horses to recruit, will have good attention; also storage for wagons. Address I., care Daily Press. 4 13 1m

STENOGRAPHIC and typewriting office; all kinds of work handled by an experienced stenographer. Miss Haskard, Babcock building, Tel. 205. 4 7 1m

FIRST-CLASS places and first-class help always on hand. Swedish Intelligence Office, 22 Somerset place, 'Phone 196-W. 8 22 tf

AUTOMOBILES repaired and overhauled by first class mechanics at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

THE EXCHANGE, 325 West Front street, telephone 901-R. Do you have furniture, carpets, etc., for sale? Do not fail to notify us; we pay 50 per cent. more than anybody else. 11 29 tf

LAWN mowers ground and set at your own place. Richard Thomas, Dunellen. 4 29 6

GARBAGE removed regularly and reasonably. George Christensen, R. F. D. No. 1. 4 21 1m

MRS. R. Murray's Registry and Employment Bureau for first-class help only; all nationalities. 726 West Front sereet, Main line cars pass the door. 5 4 2

IF YOU want your watch, clock or jewelry repaired take them to Brown, 124 Watchung Ave. 4 18 1m

STALLS to rent. Hand's Boarding Stable, 136 East Second St. 4 13 1m

PRIVATE storage for carriages, sleighs, furniture, etc. 85 Duer street. 4 28 6

GRADING, LAWNS REMODELED, SOIL AND SOD FURNISHED; PLANTS AND SHRUBS PLANTED, ETC.; PROMPT, SATISFACTORY. J. M. WELSH, 754 KENSINGTON AVENUE. TEL. 148-J. 5 4 6

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S., graduate American Veterinary College, N. Y., pet animals a specialty. OFFICE WITH ALBERT HEDDEN, livery, 118 East Fourth street, telephone 114-J. 1 27 tf

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans, Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 4 tf

BABIES crochet sacques for sale; all prices; also ladies' knitted sweaters made to order. Mrs. Mayer, 54 Pearl street, North Plainfield. tf

CONTRACTS taken for care of lawns and gardens for the season. J. M. Welsh, 754 Kensington avenue. Tel. 148-J. 5 4 6

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer; sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

CESSPOOLS and vaults cleaned, odorless excavator; good work; lowest prices. T. M. Ingraham, Plainfield R. F. D. No. 1. 12 10 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

Money to Loan.

$1,000 to $3,000 to loan; improved property only. C. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 5 2 3

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite Depot. 12 28 tf

MONEY to loan on band and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 12 18 tf

LOANS negotiated. J. T. Vail. 1 14 tf

TO LOAN—Money on good mortgages. George F. Brown, 94 Somerset street tf

Lost and Found.

LOST—By poor woman, two one dollar bills on Front street, between Scheuer's and Washington street. Will finder please leave at Randolph's drug store.

LOST—Lady's small gold watch, with pin, on Front street, between Central and Park avenues. Liberal reward if left at this office. 5 4 2

LOST—Sunday night a Roman gold breastpin. Reward at 407 East Seventh street.

LOST—Pair of eye-glasses in the West End. Reward if left at 1217 West Front street. 5 4 2

LOST—A delicate, elastic gold bracelet on Wednesday night, April 29, at Plainfield depot, N. Y. side; reward. Howell, 348 Washington street, New York City.

LOST—On Sunday, a spotted coach dog, answers to the name of "Spades." Finder please return to E. S. Hooley, 70 Rockview avenue; reward. 4 20 tf

For Sale.

4-ROOM cottage; acre of land; $2,200. Wm. Bourgeois, Laramie road. 5 1 1m

FOR SALE, RENT OR EXCHANGE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; also country homes and farms at bargain prices. C. H. Snyder, 221 Park avenue, room 4. 4 18 1m

FARM FOR SALE—Four acres, all tillable, well adapted for a chicken farm; house six rooms, stable for four horses; situate about one mile from Plainfield, N. J. Inquire of John P. Emmons, 197 North avenue. 5 1 6

FOR SALE—A fine bay mare, thoroughly broke for riding or driving; a lady can use; also rubber tired runabout, harness, etc. Will sell seperately. "The Homestead," Fanwood. 5 1 3

FOR SALE—Glenns Falls natural wood open two seat wagon, canopy top, at half price. Address W. E. Lowe, 49 Wall street, New York. 4 30 6

FOR SALE—Good sound work horse, $40. David Hand, Netherwood. 5 2 2

FOR SALE—Two horse wagon cheap; must be sold. 78 Greenbrook road. 5 4 4

FOR SALE cheap, poultry house and run, at 64 Manning avenue. 5 4 3

STANHOPE carriage in fine condition; has been used little; good for pleasure or for doctor's carriage. Address Stanhope, care Daily Press. 5 4 6

HORSE FOR SALE, WITH TWO CARRIAGES, HARNESS, ETC., COMPLETE. PRICE MODERATE. ADDRESS X. Y. X., CARE DAILY PRESS. 5 2 3

FOR SALE—Strawberry plants in quantities. Address Box 73, South Plainfield. 5 2 2

AUTOMOBILE house for sale at a bargain. Address J. M., care press. 5 4 6

FOR SALE cheap, conservatory glass and sahr. Inquire 1125 East Seventh street. 5 1 3

FOR SALE—Finely bred sorrel horse, rubber tired runabout and light buggy harness; may be seen at 37 Albert St. 4 20 tf

FOR SALE—The finest lot in Plainfield, on which to build a row of apartment houses. Chas. L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building, Plainfield, N. J. 2 21 tf

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

Poultry and Eggs.

SETTING hens for sale. 48 Rock avenue. 5 1 5

EGGS FOR HATCHING—White Leghorn, White Plymouth Rocks, Buff Orpingtons and Pekin Ducks, from the best strains. Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, Tel. 451-J. 4 14 1m

EGGS FOR HATCHING—Fishel strain; White Rocks, $1 per 13; Gardner and Dunning and Welles strain; Barred Rocks, $2; Black Minorcas, $1. Barred Rock Cockerels for sale. No. 1041 Dunellen avenue. 4 9 1m

SETTINGS of 13 from prize stock. Blk Minorca $1.50, Buff Orpington $3 White or Partridge Wyandotte $2. 100, $10; 50, $5. 234 West 2nd St. 4 3 tf

140 EGG Cyphers incubator for sale, 1906 model; perfect condition. Address Incubator, care Press. 4 30 6

INCUBATOR chicks for sale. Apply 9 Codington avenue. 4 30 6

EGGS for setting, from Orpingtons, Black Leghorns, Indian Game, and India Runner Ducks, corner Grant and Sherman Aves. 3 25 tf

R. I. RED, Barred Plymouth Rock and White Leghorn eggs from the leading strains of the country; $1 per sitting, $5 per hundred. George Howard, Jr., South Bound Brook, N. J. 2 21 3m

Wanted—Miscellaneous.

WANTED—Good horse and top wagon, suitable for light delivery use. Address Horse, care Press. 5 4 3

LAUNDRY work wanted by the day. 215 East Fourth street. 5 4 6

WANTED — Butcher's ice box, good condition. Wm. Olson, 224 New street. 4 29 3 eod

Real Estate for Exchange.

FINE new house, centrally located; 10 rooms, all improvements; gas and electric light, hot water heating, parquet floors; would exchange for moderate priced lots. J. T. Vail, 177 North Ave. 4 14 tf

RAILROAD POSITIONS OPEN

Offer exceptional opportunities to capable young men. Clerical positions open in large cities and all sections of the country for men with or without experience. Men experienced in railroad work able to do office work, sales and technical men wanted at once. List of Opportunities free. If you write stating age, experience, etc.

HAPGOODS (INC.), Brain Brokers
305-309 Broadway, New York City.

WHERE AUBURN LOCKS ABOUND.

Found in Great Numbers in Northeastern Part of Scotland.

Red hair is found in distinct excess north of the Grampians, and especially in the northeast of Scotland. A scientist who has made the question of pigmentation a special study, and has just been helped to conclude a color survey of the school children—over 50,000—of Scotland, announced this as one of his results.

In most European countries, he said, there is a distinct predominance of one type over the others. In north Germany and Sweden it is the blonde type; in Italy the brunette. No such predominance is found in Scotland. Dark hair and fair are present in equal proportions. The dominant color among Scottish children is brown, and it has to be shown how far brown is really a blend of fair and dark.

The proportion of red hair throughout the country is a little over 5 per cent—high compared with the continent. One cannot overlook the reference of Tacitus to the red haired Caledonians. Some curious facts brought to light suggest that red hair is not entirely or strictly a racial trait. It may have some peculiar physiological if not pathological connection.

USED HIS STORED KNOWLEDGE.

When High School Learning Came in Handy to Business Man.

"I used for the first time to-day something I learned 15 years ago, said a writer in the Milwaukee Sentinel. "It was the application of a principle in geometry in relation to the inscribing of a hexagon in a circle, which I learned when at the high school. I had an order placed for some taborets (that is flower stands) given me and the party that gave me the order wants the tops 16 inches across. Well, that was easy enough to fill, but beside that the sides were to be hexagonal, so I had to sit down and figure out how much five-eighths-inch wood would have to be leveled off to have the parts fit exactly. Here is where I used my geometry.

"Daniel Webster is quoted as saying that he once used a fact which had lain dormant for 14 years, so I have him beaten by a year.

"You often hear people say 'What is the use of learning this?' seeing no use for it at the time, but things which at the time seem most impracticable are often later of use. That is one of the complaints in our public schools, but as in my case it may some day prove of use."

Funny Stories Cured Him.

"Having vainly tried many and various remedies to restore to health a business man whom I know and who had fallen into a morbid condition owing to years of overwork, a famous Baltimore physician at last persuaded his patient to take a course of funny stories, one at each meal, with an extra two at dinner," says a correspondent. "The patient, a solemn and gloomy fellow, at first rebelled, but finally falling in with the idea adopted the course recommended and was in the end restored to health, the effect of laughter being entirely to change his mental and bodily condition. Laughter, in fact, is one of the cheapest and most effective of medicines, breaking up stagnation of mind and body and sending a healthy vibration through one's system. There is very little the matter with the man who can enjoy a hearty laugh."

When Like Cures Like.

"If you want to be forever cured of smoking cigarettes," said the woman who is, "have a cigarette fiend visit you for a couple of weeks. I inherited one recently. Now she is gone. I breathe again. She was like a little chimney, smoking, smoking, day and night. I would wake at the sound of the scratching of a match, then smell the smoke. I shudder at the smell of the smoke. I used to come in out of the fresh air and find the flat filled with smoke and the smell of it. I would throw up every window. I felt like throwing her out of one of them, sitting there with the fiendish cigarette between her teeth, smoking, smoking, smoking. Not any more cigarettes for me, I can tell you. I am cured."—New York Press.

Curious Cyclone in Japan.

In a bulletin printed in Japan Prof. Omori reports a regular phenomenon which attended the passage of a cyclone near Tokio. There was a tilting of the earth's surface in one direction as the storm approached and in the other direction after it had gone. Both movements, registered at the professor's seismological observatory, indicated a sinking of the earth where the atmospheric pressure was lowest. The expert accounts for it by supposing that suction at the storm center raised the level of the adjacent sea, and thus imposed an abnormal burden on the bottom of the ocean.

Parents Held Responsible.

New York has adopted very stringent rules for the preservation of the health of school children, one of the latest developments being the rule that parents who do not keep their children in good health shall be prosecuted. This seems a little autocratic at first glance, but those who have studied the subject will readily understand that it is only common justice, as many parents are utterly indifferent as to the health of their children, exposing them unnecessarily, clothing them inadequately and not providing good food for them, even when their means allow.

L. S. Plaut & Co.

"BEE HIVE," New Jersey's Shopping Centre. NEWARK.

Open 8:30 a. m. Close 6 p. m. Saturdays 10 p. m.
Telephone 5120 Newark.

Sale Men's, Women's, Boys' and Girls' Hosiery.

That quantities are greatest is interesting; that variety most extensive is gratifying, but that average savings are unparalleled will be the lever to raise unbounded enthusiasm and to throng the departments, special hosiery tables and squares as never before in our history. When this store says great it is so—the result of months of systematic gathering in home and European markets. Keenest anticipation will be justified—what we know to be the zenith of our hosiery achievements is only outlined by the following terse items. You should come—you should send, if you cannot come—but by all means secure some of the bargains.

Initials embroidered without extra charge on all Hosiery—Men's, Women's, Boys', Girls'—at 19c and over.

WOMEN'S 15c STOCKINGS at 10c—Black cotton, full seamless, enforced heels and toes; full sizes, elastic; the great saving shows what a wonderful sale this is—women's stockings of real 15c value; little price, but judge not by that; at only..... .10

WOMEN'S 35c and 39c STOCKINGS—Imported black gauze cotton stockings, all black, and ingrain with unbleached soles, black lisle, with lace ankles, newest patterns; all have double soles, Hermsdorf fast-black dye; also fine tan lisle thread stockings, at .24

MEN'S 15c HALF-HOSE AT ONLY 10c—Black cotton, medium weight, extra good yarn, double soles, very elastic, serviceable, astonishing that such good stockings can be sold for so little money, one reason for the greatness of the sale, priced for the sale only at..... .10

MEN'S 25c HALF-HOSE AT ONLY 18c—Imported black lisle thread, very fine; and medium weight cotton half-hose in unbleached "split" soles, very durable, double soles, Hermsdorf fast-black dye, also genuine 25c Shaw Knit gray mixed and black, at..... .18

CHILDREN'S 15c STOCKINGS AT 9c—Medium weight, ribbed black cotton, double knees, extra spliced heels and toes, full size, very elastic; durable, sizes 6 to 9; stockings that mothers will find it will pay them to buy, good 15c values at..... .9

WOMEN'S 25c STOCKINGS AT 18c—Imported black cotton stockings, medium weight, plain; real maco yarns; Hermsdorf fast black dye; also tans and some black with unbleached "split" soles; all double soles, high spliced heels and toes; see this great group, at..... .18

WOMEN'S 50c STOCKINGS AT 34c—Imported gauze lisle, very firm, yet sheer, black and the new tans; garter tops, double soles; also Hermsdorf fast-black lisle, lace ankles, most reliable grades; another tremendous attraction—all at..... .34

WOMEN'S $1 SILK STOCKINGS AT 78c—Extra good quality, plain silk, black and new gold browns, medium gauze weight; beautiful lustre; when have such good stockings been sold for so little before? And here they are for ths sale only, at..... .78

MEN'S 35c HALF-HOSE—Imported black fine cotton, gauze weight, also medium weight black, maco yarn, split foot, none better for wear and comfort; double soles and are Hermsdorf fast-black dye; should sell hundreds of pairs at..... .24

CHILDREN'S 25c STOCKINGS AT 18c—Misses' and Boys', ribbed lisle, full fashioned; tan and black, very fine yarn; double knees, re-enforced heels and toes; sizes 6 to 9½; decidedly strong feature of this strongest of sales—save over a fourth, at..... .18

No Branch Stores

Mail Orders Filled.

707 to 721 Broad St.

Daily Free Delivery By Our Own Wagons.

Plainfield-Newark Trolleys Pass Our Doors.

LAWN TOOLS

It isn't too late to buy if you have discovered that you need a new Mower this year. You must have heard of our easy running, close cutting, durably constructed Lawn Mowers. They have world-wide reputation.

We also have all other kinds of tools for lawn and garden development.

HOSE, REELS, SPRINKLERS, RAKES, GRASS SHEARS, HOOK, WEEDERS, EDGERS, PRUNERS, ETC.

Gayle Hardware Company

Tel. 468-R. Front St. and Park Ave.

Shining Sands and Sunlight make Florida beaches in mid-winter scenes of blissful enchantment. Palms wave above them, and dancing waves break at their feet, while crowds of delighted visitors luxuriate in the tropical atmosphere.

FLORIDA

beckons to the fatigued and the leisurely alike. She welcomes all to her hospitable shores. The ideal route thither from New York is direct by sea to Jacksonville (with a short stop at Charleston, S. C.) upon the fine steamers of the

CLYDE STEAMSHIP CO.

H. H. RAYMOND, V. P. & G. M. A. C. HAGERTY, G. P. A.
General Offices: Pier 36, N. R., New York.

W. D. THICKSTUN, Agent, 197 North Avenue.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR TRUNKS, SUIT CASES OR BAGS CALL AT

O. M. DUNHAM'S, 129 Park Ave

TRUNK STRAPS—ALL SIZES.

DRUGGISTS.

MOTH BALLS

Will save you your money over what might happen to your clothes.
They will insure your clothes being preserved thru the summer and will enable you to have them fresh and whole in the fall. Now is the time to buy MOTH BALLS.

C. M. Nagle's Pharmacy,

Front and Grove Sts. 'Phone 516.

Complete Line of

REXALL

Goods at

MILLER'S PHARMACY

Park Ave. & 4th St. Tel. 203.

Hodge's Pharmacy.

Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Tel. 62.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF

EAST FRONT STREET
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.

Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Room.

HOTEL KENSINGTON

(Licensed)

WM. J. POULSON, Prop.

107-109-111 North Avenue.
Everything New and Up-to-date
An Inspection Solicited.

HOTEL IROQUOIS

Club breakfast from 6:30 to 10:30 a. m. Business Men's Lunch from 11:30 to 2:30 p. m.

ROOMS

First floor, $1 single; $1 50 double.
Second floor, 75c single; $1 double.
Third floor, 50c single; 75c double.

A LA CARTE 6:30 UNTIL 1 A. M.

Special Sunday Dinner from 12:30 to 2:30 p. m. 50c

Electricians!

Michaelsen & Hage

No. 148 E. Fifth St. Tel. 1077-J

VEGETABLES

Fresh From the Garden

Here are Vegetables that appeal to the appetite of an epicure, they are so good in quality, fresh and inviting to the taste. Tomatoes, Asparagus, String Beans, Beets Cucumbers, Lettuce, Radishes, etc., at prices that will just suit you.

W. W. DUNN,
THE PARK GROCER,
DUER STREET AND LINCOLN PLACE.

STOP AT

Central R. R. News Stands

for PLAINFIELD PRESS, always on sale. Daily and Sunday papers delivered, all magazines, weekly papers, novelties, back numbers a specialty. R. R. guides, automobile road and state maps, Phila. papers. Fine brand of Cigars and tobacco. Open Sundays.

F. M. WAGNER, Manager.

YOU WILL NEVER BUY A HOME WITH MONEY PAID FOR RENT IN THE PAST.

START NOW TO

OWN A HOME

of your own by taking our shares in

THE CENTRAL
BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION
OF PLAINFIELD.

J. F. MacDONALD, Secretary.
Smalley Building, 149 North Avenue.

McCULLOUGH'S STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner place, North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

HENRY WIERENGA

Residence 'Phone 517-J.

Furniture, Freight, Baggage Express and Rigger.

PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

Try a box of

DOBBINS' CIGARS.

Clear Havana Nickle Yara or any kind that you desire. Manufactured at 120 North Avenue, opposite Kensington Hotel, Plainfield, N. J.

Kindling and Grate Wood.

Cedar Posts and Bean Poles. Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
69 SOMERSET STREET.

JOHN MOBUS,
P. O. Box 220.

Mountain House,

Mt. Bethel, N. J.
FRENCH RESTAURANT
Resort for Automobiles and Driving Parties
A. E. BINZ, Prop

COAL DEALERS

Difference In Coal.

All coals may look alike to some people, but compare our "Lehigh" Coal with the Coal you bought somewhere else and you will see a difference.

You will notice that our Coal Burns Brighter, Gives More Heat, and Lasts Longer than any other Coal you ever bought before.

Boice, Runyon & Co.,

Coal, Lumber and Masons' Materials.
Park Ave., opp. North Ave.,
Plainfield N. J.

JOS. HARRIGAN

OLD COMPANY'S LEHIGH COAL.

Tel. 198 929 South Ave.

The best time to order your winter supply of

COAL

is now. Do not forget that

NASH

is ready to supply you.
Telephones 357-W 833-J.
Evenings 371-W.

OFFICE—130 WATCHUNG AVENUE

TenEyck & Harris,

Dealers' Inn.

LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.

Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 218 West Front Street. Telephone 23-L.

Coal I have on hand some very fine Hard and Medium Coal. All kept undersheds. Pea Coal. Coal

25 cents a ton reduction on cash orders.

L. A. RHEAUME,

148 East Fourth St. Telephone 440-W.
Yard, 674 South Second St. Telephone 230.

GEORGE O. STEVENS

747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE

(Successor to C. H. Rugg & Co.)

Best Quality Lehigh Coal

Yard and office 430 West Third St. Tel. 93.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

We call your attention to our fine display of

New Wall Papers.

We can't describe the patterns, but they are new, striking and effective, and with our large assortment we are sure to please.

Paints, Oils and Varnishes.

Woolston & Buckle,

145 North Avenue.

STRIKING COLORS

should not be sought in preference to those that have good lasting qualities, but when

PAINTS

are to be had which are both brilliant and durable, take care to secure that kind.

We have all kinds and grades of Paints, Oils, Colors and Varnishes, suitable for all kinds of work at the lowest prices to be found in this city.

Jas. C. Hansen,

Dealer in Wallpapers, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc

141 East Front Street
Estimates Furnished

1908 Wall Papers.

IMPORTED & AMERICAN GOODS.

C. CONOVER & CO.

Decorators, Painters and Paperhangers, Window and Plate Glass.

115 Elmwood Pl. Tel. 1145

W. S. CHEEVER
1326 Park Ave.

Painting and INTERIOR DECORATING, WALL PAPER of every description at the Lowest Prices.

'Phone No. 538-J.

NOTICE.

If you are dissatisfied with your paper service call on or call up

THE HUSTLER,

William H. Olmstead, 331 Watchung Avenue, near Fourth St. Successor to D.H. Blaney & Son
968-J Either 'Phone 968-J

AZIENZA

cures pimples and all inflammation of the skin. Used by people of refinement. Medicinal and toilet—35 and 50 cents.

CREAM.

SMALLEY BROS.

147 North Ave.

BUTCHERS

Our Specialty, Berkshire Pork. Try Our Berkshire Sausage Made on Premises.

Roasting and Broiling Chickens a Specialty.

Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 83-A. 5 1 tf

The Southern Restaurant,

232 West Second Street, corner Madison Avenue, now under new management. Meals served at all hours a la carte and table d'hote. Our own make bread and pastrys. all home cooking. The choice of everything is bought for the tables. Our price is reasonable. The place is now under the management of the well known New York caterer. T. H. Royster, Manager. Tel. 923-J. 1 18 tf

J. C. POPE & CO.,

INSURANCE AGENTS,

110 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

A. H. ENANDER,

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.

125 Watchung Av. Rear.

L. Moraller & Son,

Watchmakers and Jewelers.

Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.

219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

JOHN WINZENREID,

Furniture and Freight Express.

Moving Vans and Storage.
312 Lee Place. 'Phone 840-R.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.

Renovating—Offices, stores and private residences. Service day or night. Furniture, china and glassware packed for shipping.

WM. A. KLINE, 611 W. 3d St.

Geo. H. Stagaard,

SHOEMAKING and REPAIRING.

108 CHURCH STREET.

TITUS H. LAURY

MASON AND BUILDER.

Office, 323 East Front Street.

Tile Setting, Mantel and Front Work.
Telephone 464-L.

TURKISH BATHS!

TAKE ONE

Ladies Mornings, Gentlemen Afternoons
Take Trolley to Sanitarium,
Somerset Street.

Cleaning, Pressing and Dyeing.

Monthly Contracts.
Pressing called for and delivered.
EVENING DRESSES A SPECIALTY.
Ladies' Waists Cleaned, 25 cents upwards
Gents' Suits Cleaned $1.50
We do our own work at
M. A. Brown's, 218 West Second St.

William H. Pope,

ELECTRICIAN.

All kinds of electrical work done at reasonable prices.

116 NORTH AVENUE.

Rouse & Fullagar,

CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS,

117 Plainfield Avenue.

Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

ALEX. LUSARDI,

Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.

211 W Front St. Tel. 507-W.

Meat Market.

Choice Meats, Poultry, Fish and Oysters always on hand. Sugar cured Corned Beef. International Hams and Bacon.

F. Neidig, 94 Somerset St. Telephone 781

E. B. Maynard's

Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a specialty.
Tel. No. 754-R.
141 NORTH AVENUE.

JOHN WIRTH

(Successor to Henry Liefke.)

Bakery and Confectionery.

201-203 West Front St. Tel. No. 723

All orders delivered at short notice.

HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS

Silver trunks safely delivered to safety deposit vaults.
Furniture Moving Van and Baggage Delivery.

OFFICE 205 PARK AVENUE

Tel. 883-W. Residence Tel. 648-L

REAL ESTATE

Bought, Sold and For Rent.

J. SACHAR,
731 WEST THIRD STREET.

PROMISES OF ELECTRICAL ERA.

Advancement That Will Open Nature's Heart to Man.

Fire made man master of the molecule; electricity makes him master of the atom and opens nature's heart. Fire melted sand to glass and prepared the path for a telescope for Galileo, a camera for Daguerre, a microscope for Pasteur, engines for Watt, Stephenson, Parsons and De Laval; all the streams of lead and iron, copper and zinc ever smelted from their ores, all the acids, oils and alcohols. But all these electricity can do, do it better than flame, and greater works than these, tasks beyond the power of fire. The electrical era is only dawning. There are motors and dynamos, heaters and lamps, chemical dividers and batteries. The larger the field of electricity the cheaper it will become and the bigger will be the demand.

When there are not only telephones in every house, but sewing machine motors, fans, smoothing irons, chafing dishes and the like, electricity will begin to mean as much for man to-day as, long ago, did the first kindling of fire with slowly won arts of furnace and lamp, oven and smelter, crucible and still. Thus saith a prophet of electricity.

TYPE THAT HAS PASSED AWAY.

Country Schoolmaster of the Early Days of America.

Apropos of the country schoolmaster of the early days of America, an old manuscript in the New Jersey Historical society contains the following characteristic anecdote:

"A traveling person coming into a country neighborhood where was a vacant schoolhouse offered himself as a teacher. The neighbors convened to examine into his abilities. He was asked what branches he could teach. 'Almost any,' was the answer. He could instruct children how to read without first learning to spell, to write without first making marks, and it was indifferent to him in what rule they first commenced arithmetic. 'Are you acquainted with mathematics, sir?' was the next question. Supposing some great literary character was meant, the fellow assumed an air of great importance and quickly replied: 'Matthew Mattocks, sir? No, sir, I am not acquainted with Matthew, but I know his brother, Tom, very well!'"

Secret of Elaborate Wardrobes.

"You've heard of the little boy that had to stay in bed when his brother had to wear their one dress-up suit of clothes," remarked an exclusive dressmaker. "Well, that plan of trading clothes isn't confined just to little boys or to people in poor circumstances. I know of three sisters out in the East End who have all kinds of money and whose wardrobes are interchangeable.

"The only objection to their plan is that some of their neighbors have been observant enough to notice their exchanges.

"Aside from these sisters I know a number of prominent Cleveland women who think nothing of borrowing a gown apiece from three or four of their friends when they are going away on a visit of a week or two."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Where Woman Excels.

"Woman's sense of color is better than man's. Where one in 30 women are slightly color-blind, one in five men are so."

The speaker, a physician, continued his experiments with the tintometer, or testing machine.

"You," he said, "can't tell green from blue, and are therefore defective, sir. But you are not absolutely color-blind. Absolutely color-blind persons are very, very rare. I have met but one. He couldn't tell red from yellow or yellow from blue.

"Why are men's eyes less reliable than woman's as regards color? Some say it is the tobacco smoke that dulls and weakens them. This may very well be, for I have noticed that non-smokers have a somewhat sharper vision."

Horse with a Speaking Tube.

Perhaps the only horse in the world provided with a "speaking" tube direct from its stall to its owner's living apartments is Birthday, a hunter, owned by Mrs. Walter Wadham-Petre, of London. Hearing it neigh at night, she concluded to have an arrangement constructed so that she could speak to it from her rooms. "Now," said she to a visitor recently, lifting up a trapdoor six inches square, which was hidden beneath a Turkish rug, "when I say, 'Hello, boy!' you will hear Birthday respond with a cheerful whinney." According to a writer in a London paper, no sooner had Mrs. Wadham-Petre spoken than the horse set up a series of whinnies.

These Married Men.

"That excellent actress, Clara Bloodgood, sat beside me one night at a dinner," said a Philadelphia playwright, "and with the fish some one began to talk about wifely extravagance.

"Mrs. Bloodgood listened to tale after tale of the ruinous extravagance of wives and finally she said:

"'Wives' extravagance—oh, yes! You men are all alike. You are all like the broker who, at midnight in his club, hiccoughed, wiped his eyes and said brokenly:

"'This is the sixth bottle of champagne I've drunk to-day, all through my wife making me lose my temper. It is terrible what a lot of money that woman costs me.'"

The New Mayor

Based on G. H. Broadhurst's Successful Play

The Man of The Hour

By ALBERT PAYSON TERHUNE.

Copyright, 1907, by George H. Broadhurst.

CHAPTER XVIII.

UNDER the maniac fury that blazed from Thompson's eyes Wainwright shrank back in panic dread.

"He's—he's mad!" cried the financier. "I won't let him at me!"

For Thompson seemed about to hurl himself on his foe.

"Go easy, son," adjured Phelan, laying a restraining hand on the secretary's shoulder.

The latter, recalled to himself by the pressure, relaxed his tense, menacing attitude and, with hysterical revulsion of feeling, sank into a chair, burying his face in his arms on the table before him.

"Nine horrible years!" he sobbed brokenly. "Nine awful years of slavery, of debasement! Watching, hating, longing to crush him, and, oh, the time has come, thank God! Thank God!"

"You're all in, lad!" muttered Phelan, passing an arm about the shaking youth and lifting him to his feet. "Come with me. I'll send out and get you a bracer."

Thompson, exhausted by his emotions, obeyed mechanically, but at the farther door paused for a moment and again fixed his wild, bloodshot eyes on Wainwright's haggard face.

"Remember," he threatened, his voice dead and expressionless, "when you get out of jail I'll be waiting for you. And as sure as God's justice lives I'll kill you as I'd kill a dog! Nine years waiting and—I'll murder you as you murdered my"—

Phelan had forced him over the threshold, and the slamming of the door behind the two seemed to break the strange spell that had fallen on all.

Wainwright straightened himself, glanced fearfully about, tried to regain his shaken composure and opened his mouth to speak. But the hurried entrance of Williams prevented him.

"Mr. Horrigan," gasped the excited newcomer, "I've been looking everywhere for you!"

"What's wrong now?" snapped the boss. "Has"—

"The Borough bill's come up at last, and"—

"The gallery crowd's rough housing the place? Then"—

"No, they're quiet as death; too quiet. And they have long ropes, and they're stringing them over the"—

"Call in the police, then!" ordered Horrigan. "Now's the time for them."

"I don't dare," protested Williams. "Those men in the gallery are desperate. They're dangerous. If"—

"The police?" interrupted Bennett sharply. "What are you talking about?"

"My orders!" returned Horrigan. "I sent for them. Tell them to"—

"Don't do it!" commanded Bennett in anger.

"Do as I say, Williams!" countermanded Horrigan. "Have them in and"—

"Phelan," interposed Bennett as the alderman, having left Thompson in other hands, came into the room, "go to the sergeant in charge of the police Mr. Horrigan sent for. Tell him I say he must keep his men where they are and take no orders except from me. Understand?"

"I sure do!" grinned Phelan, with a delighted grin at the wrathful Horrigan. "An' I'll see they"—

"You need not trouble!" croaked Wainwright, his throat dry and constricted with fear. "The bill is withdrawn!"

"That goes!" corroborated Horrigan. "Do you hear that, Williams? Mr. Wainwright withdraws the Borough bill. Attend to it in a rush, man. Never mind about the police."

"Well, Friend Horrigan," blandly observed Phelan as Williams hastened out, "I told you I'd cross two sticks of dynamite under you some day. Likewise I done it."

"What had you to"—

"To do with smashin' you? Only that I put his honor on to the bill in the first place an' then sicked him on to Roberts an' discovered Thompson an' turned him over to Mr. Bennett. That's about all. But I guess it's enough to make your p'litical career feel like it had a long line of carriages drivin' slow behind it. Chesty Dick, my old chum!"

Horrigan had turned his back on his victorious tormentor and was facing the mayor.

"Bennett," said he, "you forget I've still got that report about your father, and"—

"Tomorrow's papers will publish it," supplemented Alwyn.

"No, they won't," contradicted Horrigan. "That would be bad politics. The report will hold over till"—

"You're mistaken," interrupted Bennett calmly. "I've sent a copy of that report today to every paper in the city and have accompanied it with a statement that I shall make good to the city treasury every penny overcharged in the library and aqueduct contracts. So"—

Horrigan was staring at him open mouthed.

"Bennett," he muttered in genuine wonderment, "I don't know whether you're the craziest fool or the cleverest politician in the state."

"Your honor," humbly pleaded Wainwright, who for several minutes had been trying in vain to draw Bennett aside for a private word, "I am an old man. Is there no way of—of showing me mercy in my"—.

"Yes," retorted Alwyn. "You shall receive exactly the same mercy you have always shown to your own financial enemies—no more, no less."

"Oh, cut out the whine, Wainwright!" sneered Horrigan in high contempt as he linked his arm in the broken financier's and hauled him roughly from the room. "What's happened to your nerve? You're almost as bad as Gibbs. You're still rich, and as long as you've got plenty of cash no law in America need ever bother you. There's lots of talk about indictments, and arrests, and investigations, and prosecutions, and all that sort of rot. But I don't see any millionaires going to jail. Come on across to my lawyer's."

The boss and financier departed without a backward look, leaving Phelan and Bennett alone on the late scene of battle.

"Say, your honor," observed the alderman slyly, "there's one very important engagement you've clean forgot. Sit right where you are a minute, an' I'll send the party in here and see that nobody butts in on you till you want 'em to. Oh, but we didn't do a thing to Horrigan! He'll have to watch which way his toes point to see whether he's goin' or comin'!"

The alderman sped on his mission, leaving Alwyn seated alone, dejected, miserable, in the deserted committee room.

Now that the crisis was past, his heart was strangely heavy. He had won. But at what cost? At the loss of all he held dear.

Alwyn Bennett knew, too, that the real fight was but just begun—a fight that had waged since the world began and must last to judgment day—the hopeless, uphill battle of decency against evil, of honesty against graft.

Horrigan's sneering words, "I don't see any millionaires going to jail," stuck disagreeably in the young mayor's memory. Their brutal, bald truth jarred on his belief in the inevitable triumph of good. After all, was the dreary, self sacrificing battle against an unconquerable foe worth while? Could the great god graft ever be checked in his mastery of the earth? If—

A rustle of skirts startled Alwyn from his dark thoughts.

"Dallas!" he cried, unbelieving, as he sprang to his feet half dazzled at the wondrous light that transformed her face.

"I love you!" she said.

Slowly she came toward him, her glorious dark eyes on his, her white hands outstretched in irresistible appeal. At last she spoke.

"I love you!" she said.

THE END.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

The Expense of Moving Your Old Upright or Square Piano or Organ?

The moving season of the year is here. Are you considering the cost of moving your old upright or square

PIANO or ORGAN.

Our letter of credit has been a great convenience to many. Why not to you? At no expense to you whatever we will send our wagon for your old instrument, saving you the cost of moving it, and give you our Letter of Credit for the amount of its exchange valuation which may be applied on the purchase price of any new Upright Piano or Player-Piano from our large and beautiful stock.

A valuation of your old instrument can be arranged by sending postal or telephone or by calling at our wareroom.

The time for the economical disposing of your old instrument is now offered you. Let us hear from you at once.

Mathushek & Son Piano Co.,

310 West Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J.,
'Phone 910-J

Did You Burn Too Much Coal?

It's cheaper to have a good furnace, to say nothing of the comfort. The best furnace is the

BOYNTON

The Furnace with the Square Fire Pot

It has the only fire pot that furnishes perfect combustion, burns all the coal cleanly, without clinkers or clogging, and at the same time saves coal and labor. Look up a Boynton dealer and ask him to explain.

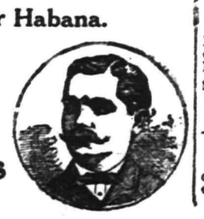
There are BOYNTON heating plants of all kinds. Ask about our Round or Sectional Boilers for steam or hot water. Also ranges.

THE BOYNTON FURNACE COMPANY,
207-209 Water Street, New York.

Flor de Timbo

Clear Habana.

Get It at Timbo's



New Jersey Central

In Effect January 26, 1908.

For New York—2.17, 3.37, 5.36, 6.02, 6.29, 6.57, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.47, 7.55, 8.00, 8.11, 8.30, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.59, 10.28, 10.56 a. m., 12.00, 12.19, 12.42, 1.06, 1.27, 2.31, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.45, 5.53, 6.29, 6.48, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.27, 9.31, 10.17, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.17, 3.37, 4.47, 7.23, 7.58, 8.52, 9.24, 9.45, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.06, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 6.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.12, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.29, 6.57, 7.05, 7.25, 7.28, 7.47, 8.11, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.59, 10.56 a. m., 12.42, 1.09, 1.27, 2.31, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.45, 5.53, 6.29, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.31 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.53, 9.24, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.48, 8.12, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 2.09, 5.23, 5.47 p. m. Sundays—6.46 a. m., 2.09, 5.47, 7.06 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 5.47 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.37, 8.11, 10.55 a. m., 12.42 (Saturdays only), 3.42, 4.45, 5.53, 8.27, 11.28 p. m. Sundays—3.37, 8.52 a. m., 2.30, 8.12 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.37, 9.29 a. m., (12.42 Saturdays only), 1.27, 2.44 (3.42 Lakewood only), (5.53 Lakewood only, Saturdays only) p. m. Sundays—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.45 a. m., 1.45 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.13, 7.39, 8.45, 9.12, 10.43 a. m., 12.13, 12.42, 1.39, 2.14, 2.45, 6.13, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 1.17 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.53, 10.39, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.55, 6.39, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 11.26, 1.17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m. Sundays—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

*Change cars at Bound Brook.

W. G. BESLER, Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr.
W. C. HOPE, Gen. Pass. Agt.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.
Office opens 7 a. m., closes 7 p. m
On Saturdays close half hour later.

NEW YORK MAIL.
Arrive—7:00, 8:40, 11:30 a. m., 2:30, 5:00 5:30, 9 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:20, 6:00 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 1:30, 3:15 and 7 p. m
Close—7:30 a. m., 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40 and 11:30 a. m., 2:36 7:00 p. m.
Close—7:15, 7:30, 9:30 a. m., 12:35, 1:20 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST
Close—1:00 and 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST AND SOUTH.
Close—12:35, 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton
Close—12:35 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:30 a. m., 2:20, 6:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:15, 7:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:20 and 6:00

WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m.
Close—9:00 a. m.

WATCHUNG.
Close—5:30 p. m.
Arrive—6:46 p. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

H. H. BIRD, P M

Advertisements

—FOR—

New York Herald,
World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American,
Brooklyn Eagle
—and—
Newark Evening News
Received at

The Daily Press

AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

Complete line of
AUTOMOBILE Supplies and Tires
AT LOWEST NEW YORK PRICES.
Thompson Auto Co.
413 Park Ave. Tel. 991-J

Mrs. John Brown,

Successor to
John Burke and Jones & Co.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned from $3.00 Upwards.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Don't give your order until you consult me.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at
J. T. Vail's, North avenue, Plainfield, N. J.
Postoffice Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

We have made arrangements for a larger supply of first-class milk and and are givng the family trade our special attention...If you are not satisfied with the milk or the services you are getting give us a trial.

Price 9 cents a quart, 5 cents a pint. Cream 14 cents a ½ pint. ...

Lindsay's Dairy,

965 West Front St.
TEL. 792-J.

J. NEUSTADT

MERCHANT TAILOR,

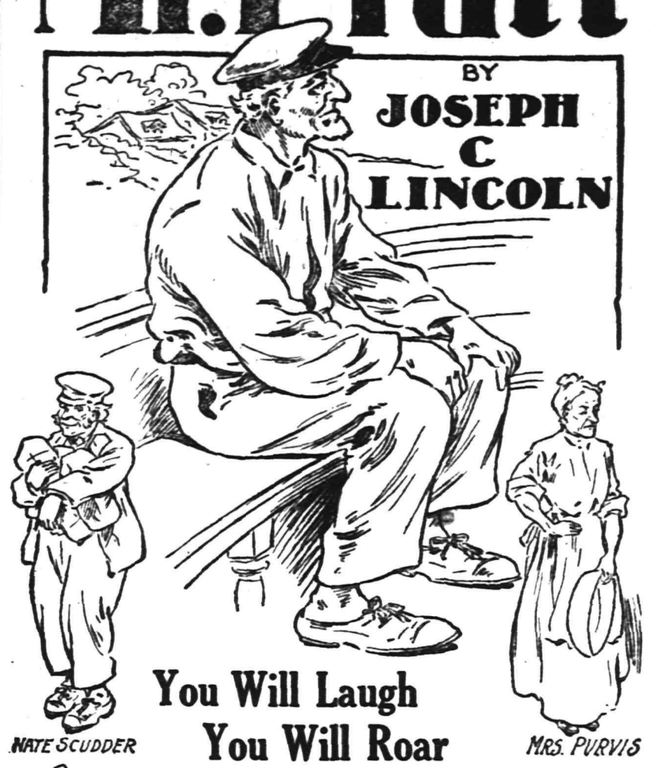
Ladies' Tailoring a Specialty. Cleaning, Pressing, Altering at lowest prices. Work called for and delivered. Formerly with R. A. Rieley, Fifth Avenue, New York.
Spring and Summer Styles now ready.
430 WATCHUNG AVENUE
Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 668-W.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MEN

What is the use,of throwing or giving your old clothes away when you can get the highest prices paid for same by dropping a postal to I. RICHARD, 17 Somerset St.

Mr. Pratt

BY JOSEPH C LINCOLN



You Will Laugh You Will Roar You Will Howl

When you read this latest and best of Joe Lincoln's breezy humorous tales of the Cape Cod fisher folk. It is the narrative of a quaint New England character and his adventures on "Ozone Island" with two satiated city men who are seeking the simple life. The tale abounds in the most amusing situations, and ends with an intensely thrilling adventure and the repairing of what had appeared to be a hopelessly fractured love affair.

It Will Be Published Serially in This Paper

Some Press Comments

"One of the clever productions of the year—the sort of story to put you on good terms with yourself and the world in general."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"Genuinely amusing. These are exactly the kind of foolish things that a couple of wornout business men might do in the exuberance of their release from care, and the humor is not forced."—New York Mail.

"The story is absurd, but it is meant to be; it serves its purpose as a diversion, a gentle satire upon a recent popular fad."—The Outlook.

"There is humor, adventure, love-making, and much else in it, and it is in Mr. Lincoln's best vein, which is saying much."—Minneapolis Journal.

The opening chapters will appear soon, and we assure you the story is more than worth the reading. Don't miss them.

207 BROAD ST. ELIZABETH LOAN Co. 207 BROAD ST.

Reliable Money Brokers

IF IT'S A QUESTION OF DOLLARS.

We may be able to help you out. At any rate if you'll inform us of your needs, we'll try. The winter months just past have raised the expenses of the average householder to their highest point and many of us have been unable to meet all of our obligations as promptly as we would like to and consequently find ourselves in debt.

SUPPOSE we were to advance you sufficient funds to meet your obligations. Do you not think you would be more satisfied to have only one payment to look after on pay day?

There is no place where money will be advanced you more willingly or where you will receive more courteous treatment than from us. It's worth investigating.

The possession of household goods, horses and wagons is sufficient evidence of your ability to pay. Call, write or 'phone.

ELIZABETH LOAN COMPANY.
Room 24 Hersh Bldg. Telephone 778-R. Elizabeth, N. J.

JACK HORNER

26 SOMERSET ST
TEL. 869-W.

Pierce, Cleveland, Crawford and Arrow Bicycles. Renting, Repairing and Sundries. Vulcanizing a specialty. Baby Carriages Repaired and Retired. Work called for and delivered.

USE PRESS WANT ADS

PECULIAR ACCIDENTS.

The "Irony of Life" Illustrated in Stories of Falls.

The "irony of life" was strikingly illustrated recently in the news of a rustic who slipped from a six barred gate and broke his neck and of an Italian aeronaut who fell 1,000 feet with his collapsed balloon with no worse result than a sprained ankle.

A Frenchwoman, Mme. Morel, and her daughter, while climbing in the Alps, near Zermatt, fell a distance of 1,200 feet, not much less than a quarter of a mile, and, although the mother was killed on the spot, her daughter escaped with a few bruises. Mr. Whymper, the famous mountaineer, had a similarly miraculous deliverance from what seemed to be certain death when scaling the Matterhorn. Losing his footing, he fell from rock to rock to the bottom of a precipitous gully, 100 yards in depth, only to recover his feet with no worse damage than a badly cut head. And M. Parville, a French writer, tells the story of an East Indian living in the island of Oghin who fell over a precipice 1,000 feet deep with no more serious consequence than a good shaking, his fall being broken by the dense vegetation which grew at the foot of the cliff.

While climbing a waterworks tower 240 feet high in Chicago a steeplejack dislodged a loose stone and was precipitated to the ground from a height of 175 feet, fortunately striking telegraph wires forty feet above the street and thus breaking his fall. The spectators gasped with horror as they saw the man drop swiftly to destruction. A rush was made to pick up his shattered remains only to discover that he was practically unharmed. Not a bone was broken, and a week later he was walking about as if nothing had happened.

More remarkable and indeed almost incredible was the experience of Charles Woolcot when he was making a parachute descent in Venezuela. At a height of 3,000 feet Woolcot flung himself off his balloon into space, when, to the horror of the thousands of onlookers, the parachute failed to open. The man dropped like a stone with terrible speed until, when about 200 feet from the earth, the parachute flew open and at once collapsed. He was dashed to the ground, his right thigh and hip were broken, both ankles and knees were badly crushed, and his spinal column was dislocated, and yet, after a year spent in hospital, Woolcot was restored to soundness of limb after surely the most terrible adventure of which any man has lived to tell the story.

But it is in the history of ballooning that one encounters the most remarkable cases of sensational drops from the clouds. When Mr. Wise, a famous aeronaut of the early nineteenth century, was once making an ascent his balloon exploded at an altitude of 13,000 feet and began to drop swiftly to the earth, more than a couple of miles below. "The descent at first was rapid," Mr. Wise writes, "and accompanied by a fearful moaning noise caused by air rushing through the network and the gas escaping from above. In another moment I felt a slight shock, and, looking up to see what caused it, I discovered that the balloon was canting over, being nicely doubled in, the lower half into the upper."

The balloon had, in fact, formed itself into a parachute and, oscillating wildly, continued its descent until it struck the earth violently, throwing the aeronaut ten yards out of the car. "The car had turned bottom upward, and there I stood," says Mr. Wise, "congratulating myself and the perspiration rolling down my forehead in profusion."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

EYE-STRAIN

is directly responsible for the major ity of cases of blindness today. If instead of trying to overwork the eyes, one would at once get glasses at the first warning of eye-strain there would be fewer cases of blindness at the present time.

Come to us and have your eyes examined free of charge and we will advise you what to do to save them.

Headache and neuralgia quickly relieved.

STILES & CO.,

Philadelphia Eye Specialist.
At 105 East Front Street,
Every Thursday.
Hours. 11:15 to 4:30.

SHERIFF'S SALE—In Chancery of New Jersey. Between George F. Picken, complainant, and Sadie Myer and husband, defendantts. Fi. fa. for sale of mortgaged premises.

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed I shall expose for sale by public vendue, at the Sheriff's office, in the city of Elizabeth, N. J., on WEDNESDAY, THE SIXTH DAY OF MAY, A. D. 1908, at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all those sixteen (16) certain lots, pieces or parcels of land situate, lying and being in the city of Plainfield, county of Union and State of New Jersey, being lots numbers (40) forty and (41) forty-one, in section "A;" lots numbers (106) one hundred six and (107) one hundred seven, in section "B;" lots numbers (132) one hundred thirty-two, (133) one hundred thirty-three, (134) one hundred thirty-four, (135) one hundred thirty-five, (140) one hundred forty, (141) one hundred forty-one and (142) one hundred forty-two, in section "C," and lots numbered (143) one hundred forty-three, (144) one hundred forty-four, (145) one hundred forty-five, (158) one hundred fifty-eight and (159) one hundred and fifty-nine, in section "D," as shown on a certain map known and designated as "Map of property situated in Netherwood, city of Plainfield, New Jresey, owned by William Picken, Esquire, surveyed by F. A. Dunham, C. E., of Plainfield, March, 1892," and filed in the office of the Registrar of Union county, N. J., May 14, 1892.

WILLIAM H. LAWRENCE, Sheriff.
COLLINS & CORBIN, Sol'rs.
4 6 5m EDJ & DP Adv. Fees—$7.20.

FURNITURE.

Repaired and upholstered. Equal to new. Send a postal to HARRISON, 140 CENTRAL AVE., Cabinet maker, Polisher, Mattress Maker.

Just Satisfied Herself.

People of all sorts weigh themselves on the penny in the slot machines found widely distributed in public places, but never before had this man, anyway, seen anybody weigh on one of them anything but himself or herself as this weigher, a woman, did in a subway station.

She came in carrying in one hand a muff and in the other a box of polished oak that was narrow and proportionately high and maybe a foot in length. That the box was heavy was shown by the fact that the leather handle had been stretched somewhat by its weight.

And apparently its present carrier had found it heavy and was curious about its weight, for now she set the box on the platform of one of those weighing machines and dropped a penny in the slot. It weighed ten pounds, certainly a heavy box to carry. That was all she wanted to know—didn't weigh herself. She just picked the box up again, this time with a smile, and went aboard the train.—New York Sun.

The Amoeba.

The amoeba (Greek "change"), the supposed pioneer in the line of living forms, is a naked mass of living matter, or protoplasm, flowing out in all directions in "blunt processes," and the endlessly varying form has earned for the simple animal the popular name of "amoeba" (Proteus animalculae). They are all minute, but some are distinctly visible to the unaided eye. The jelly-like creature flows along the surface of stone or plant by the slow protrusion of its ever changing processes and in this way gets around its food. It is all stomach, any part of it taking hold of and digesting the food that happens to come in contact with it. On attaining its maximum size the amoeba draws itself out and breaks into two daughter amoebas, each of which contains half of the mother nucleus. This simple organism seems to exhibit in small compass the usual animal functions. It feeds, secretes, grows and reproduces itself.—New York American.

When considering a trip abroad or to the mountains or seashore, the problem of the safety of your valuables presents itself.

A quick solution is to lodge them in our Safe Deposit Vaults; no further concern need then be felt for them. "Safety for Valuables" is a booklet descriptive of our storage facilities. Write for it.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Travelers' Cheques.

:-Schreiner's Pharmacy-:

PARK AVE. and SECOND ST. TEL. 898-J.

NOW IS THE TIME

to protect your clothes, furs, feathers, carpets, etc., from the moths by using

Duesenbury's Cedar or Lavender Mothalines.

15c Large Package

BUY YOUR FURNITURE AT

Powlison & Jones.

149 & 151 East Front St.

SALE

FURNITURE, BEDS, BEDDING, FLOOR COVERINGS.

At this season of the year you surely need something new in Furniture, Beds, Bedding, Mattings, Rugs, Oil Cloths, Linoleums, Window Shades or Awnings. We have prepared to meet your requirements with the new Spring stock and invite inspection.

L. B. VAN CAMP

Front and Somerset Streets, Tel. 868-J

112 Piece Decorated Dinner Sets, $7.00

Odds and Ends of Dinner Sets at Half Price

JOS. W. GAVETT.

W. Front St.

MUSIC and COLORS

go hand in hand—if not harmonious they lose their charm.

Next to preserving, paint should beautify—cheap, fading colors do not.

Pure colors and perfect assimilation are the necessary adjuncts to insure bright, non-fading colors—accomplished only by grinding and mixing uniformly in modern machinery—successor to the proverbial bucket and paddle.

This is why the colors of

MOORE'S HOUSE COLORS

Can be relied upon.

When in need of paint, no matter how much, it will be to your interest to obtain prices and color cards from our representatives,

H. E. GAYLE HARDWARE COMPANY, Plainfield.

BENJAMIN MOORE & CO.

Pure Colors, Paints, and Muresco.

New York, Chicago, Cleveland, Toronto.

USE PRESS WANT ADS

BARGAINS IN LOTS AT HIGHLAND PARK

Get your lot now before prices advance. Many houses to be built this year. Sewer, water, electric lights, shade trees and concrete sidewalks on all streets. You can buy lots from $200. to $400., on cash or easy payments.

ELSTON M. FRENCH,

171 North Avenue. Telephone 24. Plainfield, N. J.

NEW YORK OFFICE—141 Broadway. Tel. 5424 Cortlandt

Baseball and General Sports

GOLFERS BEGIN SEASON

Opening of the Country Club Course Made Under Auspicious Circumstances.

LINKS IN GOOD CONDITION.

Play for the Spring Handicap Cups, Classes A and B, the Initial Competition.

Everything combined to make the opening of the active golf season at the Plainfield Country Club, a success on Saturday. The course was in excellent condition, although the greens were a trifle slow. For this time of the year there was nothing to complain of, and a large field of players were out to enjoy their favorite sport. Not only did the course look fine, but the clubhouse, under the management of Dennis Hartz, the new steward, was made attractive for the reception of members and their friends. This service promises to be a feature during the season.

The initial competition on the course was play for the Spring Handicap cups, Classes A and B. This will take the place of the usual weekly competition for the Golf Committee cup, of the past, and will continue until June 27, when special events will be arranged until play for the Fall Handicap cups begin in September.

In Class A, Dudley H. Barrows was low man with a net score of 75, while J. A. Lane and H. C. Munger were tied for second place with a 76. W. D. Riggs and C. C. Burke, Sr., were also tied with a net score of 78. In Class B, D. H. Rowland finished low with a 75 net, while W. B. Tyler and G. S. Clay finished second and third with net scores of 80 and 81, respectively. The following cards were returned for the day's play:

Class A-D. H. Barrows, 79, 4-75; J. A. Lane, 91, 15-76; H. C. Munger, 92, 16-76; W. D. Riggs, 90, 12-78; C. C. Burke, Sr., 93, 15-78; G. F. Schoonmaker, 89, 9-80; C. B. Morgan, 88, 7-81; H. G. Lapsley, 95, 14-81; S. H. Patterson, 98, 17-81.

Class B-D. H. Rowland, 95, 20-75; W. B. Tyler, 102, 22-80; G. S. Clay, 108, 27-81; C. W. King, 109, 27-82; W. F. Merrill, 108, 25-83.

ADELPHI WON FROM P.H.S. ON BROOKLYN DIAMOND

Unsteadiness in the eighth lost the game for the Plainfield High School team at Brooklyn Saturday afternoon, when the Adelphi Academy nine secured three runs on the local boys' errors and Murphey's weakness, and clinched the game 5-2. The Plainfielders did their scoring in the third, when Giddes and Van Zandt, who hit safely, scored on Murphey's two-bagger. Adelphia tied the score in the fourth, Petty and Halsted, hitting safely, the latter for two bases, and scoring two runs.

With one gone in the eighth, Petty and Frier hit safe and Halsted drew a pass. Two errors brought in all three players, winning the game. Murphey fanned but a single Adelphi batter, and the High School made five errors. Petty, for Adelphi, kept the four hits well scattered and struck out eleven players. The score and lineups:

	R.	H.	E.
Adelphi	0 0 0 2 0 0 0 3 x	5	4 5
P. H. S.	0 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0	2	7 4

Adelphi—Fairburn, cf; Wary, 2b; Donovan, 3b; Petty, p; Frier, ss; Halsted, 1b; Moller, lf; Smith, rf; Jones, c.

P. H. S.—Giddes, ss; Riffert, Rubenstein, rf; Dey, 1b; Murphey, p; Lidgate, cf; Dodwell, c; Snyder, 2b; Van Zandt, 3b.

CLINTON AVENUES WIN FROM JUNIORS' NINE, 4-1

The Clinton Avenues won from the Junior O. U. A. M. team on Crescent Oval Saturday afternoon by a score of 4-1. "Cliff" Randolph did the business, and was a puzzle for the lodgement throughout the nine innings. Banks and Roester were the only two batsmen who could straighten the bends for hits, and a dozen Juniors struck out. The West End nine hit Ora Dodge's curves safely eight times, "Cliff" Randolph and Schott each getting two hits. Dodge fanned but one Clinton Avenue batsman.

Schott scored the first run for the Clinton Avenues in the second inning and Giles' single scored Randolph in the fifth. Hits by Schott and Randolph enabled Emery to come home in the sixth, and he scored again in the eigth on a couple of errors. The only run made by the Juniors came in the seventh, when Leslie Dodge crossed the plate. The summaries:

CLINTON AVENUE.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
O'Loughlin, rf	0	1	1	0	0
Giles, lf	0	1	2	0	0
B. Martin, 2b	0	1	2	1	1
J. Martin, 3b	0	0	3	2	1
Gilman, cf	0	0	1	0	0
Moffett, c	0	0	10	2	2
Emery, ss	2	1	4	0	0
Schott, 1b	1	2	4	1	0
Randolph, p	1	2	0	1	0
	4	8	27	7	4

JR. O. U. A. M.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Newmiller, ss	0	0	3	3	0
Hewitt, 1b	0	0	11	0	1
Beekman, 2b	0	0	2	1	1
Hahn, rf	0	0	0	0	0
S. Dodge, 3b	1	0	2	3	0
Roester, c	0	1	1	0	1
Banks, lf	0	1	3	0	1
Vanderbilt, cf	0	0	2	0	0
O. Dodge, p	0	0	0	5	0
	1	2	24	12	4

Clinton Ave	0	1	0	0	1	1	0	1	x	—4
Jr. O. U. A. M.	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	—1

TENNIS SEASON OPENS WITH MATCHES AT P. C. C.

Local tournament tennis started at the Country Club Saturday, when two rounds of matches in the men's doubles were played off on the club courts in the afternoon. There were thirteen teams entered in the play for the club trophies, and the winning pair and runners-up will receive cups. The courts were in good condition for play, and though most of the matches in the first round were one-sided, the second round developed some god tennis.

Of especial interest was the match between T. M. Day and T. M. Day, third, who won by default in the first round, and F. W. Goddard, paired with Howard Carter. Goddard and Carter took the match, after two hard-fought sets, when the scores ran to 9—7 and 8—6. Young Day, who is but sixteen years of age, played a heady game, paired wth his father, who is chairman of the club tennis committee. Both sets ran to deuce and the boy's playing was applauded by an enthusiastic gallery. The matches:

First round—Harry J. Cochran and A. D. Beers beat H. S. Brown and Henry Brower, 6—1, 6—2; T. M. Day and T. M. Day, third, won from H. L. De Forest and Thatcher Brown by default; F. W. Goddard and Howard Carter beat Arthur Lovell and G. E. Cathcart, 6—2, 6—0; R. S. Rowland and Elliot Cutter beat R. H. Cox and C. Ames Brooks, 6—0, 6—0; W. L. and W. T. Glenney beat J. W. Merrihew and Charles A. King, 7—5, 6—4.

Second round—Cochran and Beers beat A. L. Otterson and G. S. Ring (bye), 6—1, 6—3; Goddard and Carter beat Day and Day, 9—7, 8—6; Rowland and Cutter beat W. L. and W. T. Glenney, 6—2, 8—6; W. B. Cragin, Jr., and Willard Wadsworth (bye), beat Wylie Brown and C. M. Crapo (bye), 6—2, 9—7.

Next Saturday afternoon the tournament will be concluded, when semi-final matches will be Cochran and Beers vs. Goddard and Carter, and Rowland and Cutter vs. Cragin and Wadsworth. The finals will immeiately follow these matches.

Y. M. C. A. NINE WINS IN ELEVENTH INNING

The Y. M. C. A. team started the season at Bound Brook Saturday afternoon by trimming the Laurel A. C. nine 3-1. It took eleven innings for the eagle of victory to decide where to light, and the local association broke the long tie by a happy combination of three singles in the eleventh session with the stick, caging up the eagle by shutting out the Bound Brook nine in their half of the inning.

The local nine played pennant ball; although a young shower at the start made the ball slippery and caused some errors. The local nine started the scoring in the first, when Will Schoonmaker scored the first run of the season. In the next session, the Laurels scored, Jacot's error when there was a man on bases, and a hit filling the bags. Scott hit the next batsman and forced the run. The local team used twelve players and all showed up well for the first game. Conway, on third, showed up in good style, taking thirteen chances with but a single misplay. Scott was replaced by Conover in the sixth, and the latter fanned six batsmen. Harney, on the slab for the Laurels, weakened in the eleventh, but struck out thirteen of the Plainfielders. Moynihan, wearing the big mitt, played a heady game.

The summaries:

										R.	H.	E.
Y. M. C. A.	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	—3	5
Laurels	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—1	5

Plainfield A. C. Win.

The Plainfield A. C. defeated the Lincoln A. C., Saturday afternoon by the score of 12 to 4. Luthman struck out eighteen men and allowed only two hits. The feature of the game was McClinton's three base hits with three men on bases. The Plainfield A. C. will play the Dunellen F. C., Saturday at Dunellen.

Protection Against Glanders.

No horse, ass or mule may be brought into Great Britain from any other country, except Ireland, the Channel islands or the Isle of Man, unless accompanied by a certificate of a veterinary surgeon to the effect that he examined the animal immediately before it was embarked, or while it was on board the vessel, and that he found the animal did not show symptoms of glanders or farcy.

New Method of Resuscitation.

A simple method for resuscitation from asphyxia is reported by Dr. W. Freundenthal of Berlin. He introduced the index finger into the mouth and moved it to and fro over the epiglottis, causing an effort to swallow, which was immediately followed by a return of respiration. This proved successful when the older methods failed, while it makes severe traction on the tongue unnecessary.

Too Late.

A housewife of Newport News, Va., being without a maid, wrote to a young colored girl whom she knew to be out of work, and offered her a position. A day or two later she received this reply: "Dere Mis Payne: I am verry sory but I cant come. I wish I gotten your letter jes a few days before, but now I cant come cause Ime going to get marrid to-morrer. respeckfully Annie."

Rattler Explanation.

The rattles of the rattlesnake lie edgewise. It is evident that they must do so, inasmuch as they are but continuations of the backbone. The snake carries the rattles on the ground except when he raises them to sound his warning. This will be evidenced by the fact that in every snake of any size that is killed the rattles are worn through on the under side.—Forest and Stream.

Poisoned by Tiger Whiskers.

In the recollections of a well-known big game hunter in India it is stated that after skinning a tiger it is always necessary to guard its whiskers, as the natives have an unpleasant habit of cutting them up very small and mixing them with the curry of those they dislike. The finely divided bristles set up an irritant poison, the results of which often prove serious.

Age of the Legal Wig.

The use of wigs by judges and barristers is not very ancient. It was introduced, I imagine, toward the end of the seventeenth or at the beginning of the eighteenth century, when it had become the fashion at court. Bishops continued to use wigs longer than their clergy, but they have discarded them, to their great advantage, for many years now.—London Morning Post.

Old Roman Drinking Vessels.

Tumblers resembling in shape and dimensions those employed to-day have been found in great numbers in Pompeii. They were made of gold, silver, glass, marble, agate and of precious stones.

Uncle Eben.

"When I sees a gemman honin' a rassер," said Uncle Eben, "I's minded of de fact dat some people never gits real active an' industrious 'ceppin' when dey's on de road to trouble."—Washington Star.

Valuable Tame Rattlesnake.

A tame rattlesnake belonging to an Arizona farmer sleeps every night on the front gate of its owner's garden, coiling himself around the gate and gatepost, so that a lock and chain to keep out intruders are not needed.

Danger in Soft Water.

Experience in England shows that in towns supplied with soft water the death rate is 19.2, while in towns that have a supply of hard water it is only 16.5.

Taken at His Word.

"Pinch me if I fall asleep," muttered the Stewed Stude as he lurched against the lamppost, and the Proud Minion of the Law proceeded to do as he was bid.—Yale Record.

Push It Along.

When civilization really advances there will be public institutions for the treatment of grouchy husbands and nagging wives. Hurry, hurry, happy day!

A Way People Have.

There are few people who are not willing to subject themselves to much trouble and expense in order to have their own way.

A Word from Josh Wise.

Th' wife that joshes instead of scolds her husband for his erring ways won't need her neighbors' sympathy.

Egotism.

It is hard for a man whose wife looks like him to dispel the suspicion that he is an egotist.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

1886 1908

Our Twenty-Second Anniversary Sale

Spring Suits & Top Coats

We are now showing one hundred patterns in Spring Suits and an array of O'Coats that will meet with the approval of the most critical—unusual assortment of Suits in the colors most popular this year, Browns, Greens, Olives, Blues—Sack Suits, $10 to $25.

O'Coats, $10 to $25

Our Furnishing Department is brim full of all the new styles of Shirts, Neckwear, Hats, Caps, Gloves, etc.

Clothing Made to Your Order

WERNER'S Clothing House,

206 West Front Street

The Hand Storage & Express Co.

Public Truckmen. New storage warehouse now ready.

ALL ROOMS SEPARATE, LIGHT AND DRY.

FURNITURE MOVED, PACKED and SHIPPED.

Office: 69 Somerset Street, 'Phone 541.

PATENT LEATHER SAILORS $1.00

Bonn's 140 West Front St.

BANDED SAILORS 75c to $2.75

A SPLENDID SHOWING OF TRIMMED HATS at $5

formerly $6, $7 and $8, all colors, stylish shapes, including Sailors, and all trimmed with the choicest materials.

Untrimmed Hats, all colors and black, formerly $2.00 to $2.75, now each $1.50

A fine assortment of Wings, Owlheads and Fancy Feathers, all colors, also fine French Flowers and Foliage, all at very moderate prices. 543

AMUSEMENTS.

New Plainfield Theatre

PLAYING ALL THE LEADING ATTRACTIONS

W. J. COUNIHAN - - - - Manager

Thursday, May 7th. AMATEUR NIGHT.

Salisbury's Popular Moving Pictures and Illustrated Songs.

Prices, 10c and 20c.

Friday, May 8— The Big Show ROGERS BROTHERS in PANAMA and a company of 75 people.

Prices 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50.

Watch and Wait for the Plainfield ALL STAR STOCK COMPANY, Headed by Alberta Galatin and an all Star Cast.

TAKE NOTICE!

That I have opened an up-to-date AUCTION AND COMMISSION ROOM at 316 and 318 West Front St.

Furniture stored at reasonable rates

Martin Hansen COMMISSION MERCHANT

NOTICE!

Having engaged a competent cutter from New York, the business formerly conducted by Robt. Gardner at 325 Watchung avenue will be continued. The same high standard of workmanship will be maintained.

M. F. GARDNER. 546

BOYNTON Square Pot FURNACES

Greatest heat from least coal; minimum care-taking—all direct benefits of the wonderful Square Pot (patented). Ask dealer. Boynton Furnace Co., New York—Chicago.

Officer of State Association.

Arthur L. Case, of this city, was elected vice-president fothe New Jersey State Society of Stationary Engineers held at Camden Saturday.

STORAGE VAULTS

For Large Trunks, Boxes, Valuable Packages, Etc., Etc.

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES OF ALL SIZES

ABSOLUTE SECURITY PROVIDED

CITY NATIONAL BANK

Blue Stone Sidewalks.

If you want the best Blue Stone sidewalks, curbs, etc., call on

J. W. Manhattan, 50 Elm St.

BOARDTREES' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 5[illegible] a. m.
Sun Sets 6 56 p. m.
Lanterns must be lighted 7 56 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER
Fair tonight and Wednesday. Maximum, 62; minimum, 40; for 24 hours ending at noon. Ther. at noon 62.

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, TUESDAY, MAY 5, 1908. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

PUPILS' CLUBS MUST GO

Board of Education Gives P. H. S. Faculty the Power to Break Them Up.

"NUCLEI OF FRATERNITIES."

So Says Mr. Travell In Speaking of Three Societies of the School —The History of the School Clubs.

Open war against three socalled "secret fraternities" existing in the Plainfield High School was declared by the Board of Education at their meeting at the High School last night, when a resolution forbidding members of any such organization whose existence is detrimental to the welfare of the school from taking part in any of the athletic, musical or dramatic activities of the school was unanimously passed by the Board. The resolution was framed by Principal Ira W. Travell, who believes that the tendency toward establishing school fraternities should be immediately checked.

With the resolution, Mr. Travell presented to the board a digest of the research he has made on the subject of school fraternities, and a book full of clippings and letters showing the detrimental effects of such organizations in public schools all over the country. The matter has been occupying the principal's time for several weeks past, and he stated the conditions very fully in the preamble to his report. The resolution suggested was made by E. M. Cave and seconded by ex-Councilman Tyler, the new member of the Board. It was unanimously passed without discussion. Mr. Travell's resolution follows:

"Resolved, That any pupil of the Plainfield High School who shall be, or continue to be, a member of, or in any way connected by pledge or otherwise with, any fraternity, sorority, club, society, or other organization composed wholly or in part of pupils of the High School, whose influence among the high school body is, in the judgment of the principal and teachers, injurious to the best interests of the High School, be prohibited from representing the school or any class by participation in athletic, dramatic, literary, musical, or other activities of the school, excepting the instruction and privileges of the class room and other rights to which the pupil may be entitled by law. And be it further

"Resolved, That any pupil, who, when requested by the principal to do so, refuses to declare whether or not he or she is a member of or is in any way connected by pledge or otherwise with any such fraternity, sorority, society, club, or other organization, be prohibited from such representation and participation in the same manner as if he or she were such member as aforesaid. And be it further

"Resolved, That the principal and teachers of the High School be instructed to carry the foregoing resolutions into effect."

In presenting the resolution, Mr. Travell said:

"Man is a social animal and this is an age of organization. It is admitted that there is in the youth of high school age an instinct for social activity and for social arganization, and that this instinct should be satisfied for the best development of the child. This is well provided for in the Plainfield High School. We have four class organizations, the two athletic associations, the school paper, the musical clubs, the debating society, all of which are controlled by elected boards from the student body, under the advisory control of teachers appointed by the principal to steer them away from the serious mistakes into which the immaturity of their members might lead them.

"It would seem that among such a number of organizations as we now have in the school, there is not only no need of the so-called fraternity, but even that there is no place for it. There is certainy plenty of opportunity for any pupil here who possesses a consuming passion for organization to gratify that passion in a healthy and normal way. The social instincts of the child have no less opportunity of satisfaction in our school. During the course of the year, numerous receptions are given by the various classes of the school, and if anything, there is a protest that too many social events are allowed in our school life, interfering with its more serious side.

"The objection may be made to such social features that they are not select enough. But the public school is founded upon the principle of democracy, and in its whole nature is not in harmony with the existence of any exclusive set or clique whose boundary is determined by anything else than personal ability.

"Evidence collected from all over the country, from those whose ex-

(Continued on page 4.)

POLICE STATION BIDS

Alexander Milne Submits Lowest Figures for Erection of Proposed Building.

THE ENTIRE WORK FOR $17,510.

Contract Will Be Formally Awarded at Adjourned Council Meeting Next Monday Night.

There was sharp competition at the May meeting of the Common Council, last night, in the bidding for the contract of erecting the new police headquarters' building. In all eight bids were received, three from New York firms, three from this city, one from Newark and one from a state concern. Alexander Milne, of this city, was the lowest bidder for the whole contract, his figure being $17,510. W. H. Connolly, of Newark, was the next lowest, $17,997, while the other two Plainfield firms, Wyman & Haberle, bid $18,995 and Rimmer, Apgar & Cuzen bid $19,832. The other bidders were much higher.

There was but $300 difference between the bids of Mr. Milne and Mr. Connolly, a fact that was interesting to all those concerned. With the exception of the New York firms, the others bidding submitted figures for the sub-contract work from local concerns, George J. Tobin, Dennis Galbraith, Albert Pangborn, Charles Burnett and A. H. Enander furnishing estimates on the various branches of the work.

The complete list of bids follows:

Alexander Milne, Plainfield, $17,510; W. H. Connolly, Newark, $17,997; Wyman & Haberle, Plainfield, $18,995; Rimmer, Apgar & Cuzen, Plainfield, $19,832; Northeastern Construction Company, of New York, $21,959; J. H. Parker Company of New Jersey, $23,768; Henry Houghton, of New York, $24,113.86; William Young Company, of New York, $26,000.

The plans for the building were prepared by Tracy & Swartout, architects of New York, and Mr. Tracy was present last night during the reading of the bids. It is expected that the contract will be awarded at the adjourned meeting of the Council Monday night.

When the bids for furnishing crushed stone, crosswalks and culverts were called for there was considerable surprise when it was learned that the Watchung Stone Company represented by Warren B. Travell, did not submit a sample of stone to be furnished. Five bids were presented, but only two samples of stones were submitted. This called forth a vigorous protest from John Y. Wilson, one of the bidders, who objected to the bid of the Watchung Stone Company being considered, or even opened, on the ground that it had not complied with the requirements.

The "joker" in the matter was soon apparent, when it was learned that the company did not present a bid for furnishing crushed stone. This fact became known after the other bids were in, and the laugh was on Smalley Brothers for they had submitted a very low bid, even more so than at the previous meeting. When questioned afterward about the matter, Mr. Travell said that his company had decided not to seek the contract this year, inasmuch as it had already plenty of work for the summer in the vicinity of Plainfield. One large contract is that of macadamizing the Washington Valley road.

The bid of Smalley Brothers for stone according to sample, was as follows: Screenings, 89 cents; half inch, 89 cents; one and one-half inch, 80 cents; two and one-half inch, 70 cents. They also submitted another bid for stone equal to that furnished last year as follows: Screenings, 75 cents; half inch, 80 cents; one and one-half inch, 75 cents; two and one-half inch, 69 cents.

The bid of John Y. Wilson for crushed stone follows: Screenings, $1.20; half inch, $1.10; one and one-half inch, $1.05; two and one-half inch, $1.

Bids were submitted by the Watchung Stone Company, J. W. Manhattan and Andrew Roach for furnishing crosswalks and culverts and the result will be determined at the meeting Monday night. All of the bids were referred to the street and sewer committee and the members together with City Engineer Gavett will consider them in the meantime.

"Rogers Brothers" a Big Production.

The forthcoming production of "The Rogers Brothers in Panama" at the New Plainfield theatre, Friday night, will be one of the largest that has ever been at the local playhouse. The company numbers eighty people and has the same principals and cast as were seen at the Broadway theatre during the winter. Marion Stanley, who made such a decided local hit when she was here last year in "The Rogers Brothers in Ireland," is the leading woman. The advance sale of seats is very large.

PUBLIC SERVICE "JOKER"

Councilmen Believe a Hidden Purpose Prompted Application for a Turnout.

THE REQUEST IS REFUSED.

Members Assert the Plan Is to Get a New Switch and Then Reduce the Number of Cars.

Believing that there is a "joker" in the request of the Public Service Corporation for permission to locate a turnout on the Fourth street trolley line, near Liberty street, under the pretense of giving better service in the city, the Common Council at the May meeting, last night, refused to endorse the action after it had been reported by Mr. Mygatt, chairman of the public affairs committee. It was finally referred to the joint committees, streets and sewers and public affairs.

Among those who were skeptical about the change were Councilmen Charles C. Randolph, Herbert Buxton and H. B. Suydam. In the opinion of these members the Public Service Corporation wants to get an extra turnout at the point mentioned and then operate three cars instead of four on the Fourth street line.

It was explained by Mr. Mygatt that the company had informed him that with this turnout it would be possible to provide better trolley service; also to operate the Netherwood cars through the business part of the city as far west as Grant avenue, giving seven minute service. This is not practicable now because the turnout on West Fourth street is too far away from the Watchung avenue stand.

In the opinion of Mr. Suydam the seven minute schedule on West Front street should go farther west than Grant avenue. That was his only real objection. "All things stop at Grant avenue," said Mr. Suydam, "and I think it is about time a change was made.

"I think there is a 'joker' in the move," said Councilman Charles Randolph, "and for that reason I will not vote for the resolution giving the company the privilege to locate the turnout."

Mr. Mygatt tried to show how the service would be improved. It would mean more cars and a seven minute schedule, but the other members could not see it that way, so the whole matter was referred jointly to the street and sewer and public affairs' committees.

As chairman of the public affairs committee, Mr. Mygatt also reported on the remonstrance and investigation of the soft-coal nuisance in the city. He said that the committee had held conferences with the Public Service Corporation and it had promised to do all in its power to lessen the trouble. A letter was also presented from W. G. Besler, vice-president and general manager of the New Jersey Central, who said that the matter had been turned over to the road foreman with instructions to the flemen to be very careful while running their engines through Plainfield. For these reasons, Mr. Mygatt suggested that no further action be taken until it is learned whether conditions are bettered.

MONDAY AFTERNOON CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS.

The annual meeting of the Monday Afternoon Club was held yesterday at the Casino, when three vice-presidents, a corresponding secretary and treasurer were elected. The president Mrs. Henry M. Maxson, and the recording secretary Mrs. Eugene H. Hatch, were elected last year for a term of two years. The election by ballot resulted as follows: Vice-presidents, Mrs. Orton G. Dale, Mrs. Leighton Calkins, Mrs. James W. De Graff; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William E. Hoyt; treasurer, Miss Ethel L. Titsworth.

A report of the annual meeting of the Woman's Club of Rahway was given by Mrs. William C. Hubbard and Mrs. Henry M. Maxson, president and Mrs. Charles L. Goodrich, who were delegated to the meeting of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, held at Riverton, N. J., Friday and Saturday, gave interesting reports.

Clothes-Line Thief Busy.

A clothes-line thief, evidently a woman as indicated by the tracks in new-made ground, entered the yard of Charles H. Hand on Crescent avenue, last evening, and stole $15 worth of waists and other articles. The loss was discovered at 9 o'clock and the theft took place only a short time before. The matter was reported to the police.

Stole Carpenters' Tools.

James L. Stryker, a contractor, reported to the police this morning that thieves had entered a new house he is erecting on Willever street, and stolen a quantity of tools valued at $50. The lot included fourteen saws and a number of dies.

LAST SAD RITES OVER REV. W. BRYCE MORROW

Attended by many of his former parishoners and old personal friends from New York, Newark, Philadelphia, Milburn and other places, the funeral of Rev. William Bryce Morrow was held in Grace church, yesterday afternoon. The service was conducted by the rector, Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, assisted by Rev. Alexander Stewart, rector of St Albans church, Newark, and Rev William H. Neilson, of this city. The choir under the direction of William E. McClymont, rendered several of Mr. Morrow's favorite hymns.

There were over a score of floral tributes, many of them being large set pieces sent from distant points. Those who acted as pall bearers were Mayor Charles J. Fisk, James E. Martine, Judge William N. Runyon, Rev. A. C. McCrea, Rev. J. O. McKelvey and A. L. Force.

The body rested in the church until this morning when it was conveyed to Carlisle, Pa., where the interment took place this afternoon in the family plot in Ashland cemetery. The service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Dr. Alexander MacMillan, rector of St. John's church, Carlisle. The vestry of this church acted as pall bearers.

LARGE GATHERING AT YOUNG MAN'S FUNERAL

Funeral services of the late Augustus Frentz, Jr., were held from the home on Westfield avenue, Scotch Plains, yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o clock. Although it was announced that the service would be private there was a large attendance of relatives and friends, including many young people with whom Mr. Frentz was popular. Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., of which Mr. Frentz was a member, attended in a body. The baseball team with which he was identified, was also represented.

Rev. W. R. Mulford, rector of All Saints Episcopal church, officiated at the house, while the Junior service in charge of Harvey R. Thorn, of this city, was conducted at the grave. The burial was in the family plot in the Baptist Cemetery.

The floral tributes from societies and friends were beautiful, and included four large pillows, one from the Juniors, another from the baseball team, another from the Clinton Avenue Club, of this city, and the fourth from the young men friends of Mr. Frentz at Scotch Plains, with whom he had been associated since childhood. The pall-bearers were George Vanderbilt, Charles Eller and George Baldwin, representing the baseball team; Squier Reick, George Allen and Harry Flannery from Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M.

CONSUMERS' COAL CO. GETS SCHOOL CONTRACT

The contract for supplying 690 tons of coal to the various city schools was awarded to the Consumers' Coal Company at the meeting of the Plainfield Board of Education held at the High School last night. The firms bid was $3,232.30, the lowest of four bids submitted for the contract.

A discussion as to the possibility of saving money by having direct wire telephone installed at the schools in place of the present part lines at some of the buildings was not acted upon. The Board has been receiving bills for so many excess calls that their monthly message limit is invariably exhausted. With a party line, this limit means but an average of two calls a day, but a direct wire line, while the tolls are more expensive, would give 800 calls a year, a number exceeding the present calls. The work of the school truant officer has brought the school telephones into more use, and it is probable that direct lines will be installed.

The custodian of schools' report showed a balance of $28,532.42 on hand April 30, and the tax collected reported $840.35 of the school money received during the past month. The report of the medical inspectors, Dr. T. H. Tomlinson and Dr. A. F. VanHorn, showed that during April twenty pupils were examined at the various schools. Those present at the meeting were President Leander N. Lovell, Messrs. Cave, Taylor and Woodhull, Superintendent Henry M. Maxson and Principal Ira W. Travell.

Birthday Surprise.

W. W. Lindsey, Jr., of West Front street, was tendered a surprise party at his home last night, when thirty of his neighbors and friends called unexpectedly with birthday congratulations. The evening was passed with games and music, and later refreshments were served.

BOND ISSUE FORESTALLED

Councilmen Told Money for New Fire House Cannot Be Obtained this Way.

WOULD NOT BE LEGAL.

Corporation Counsel Declares the Sum Needed Must Be Charged to the General Fund Account.

The intended action of the Common Council looking to the purchase of the site for the new East End fire house on South avenue through the issue of bonds to the amount of $1,800, has been forestalled by Corporation Counsel Marsh, who informed the Council last night that it cannot legally do this. For the purpose of completing the deal for the land, Mr. Marsh submitted resolutions, one rescinding the previous action of the Council in the matter of issuing bonds, and another providing that the $1,800 be permanently charged to the account of the general fund.

Mr. Marsh explained further in his communication that the issue of bonds could not be authorized as intended unless the Council desired to provide for a sinking fund commission and that would require additional legislation. The suggestions of Mr. Marsh were followed by the Council and both resolutions submitted were offered and adopted.

In his regular report to the Common Council, Mr. Marsh stated that in the Southside sanitary sewer dispute, in which Peter Morgan the city and tradesmen are implicated, counsel representing the various interests had agreed to a dismissal of the suit and the matter will be amicably adjusted.

Regarding the action of Ernest T. Hand against the city for the reduction of a tax assessment of property owned by Mr. Hand and located on Netherwood avenue, Mr. Marsh reported that the appeal had been withdrawn and the assessment will stand.

In the case of Overseer of the Poor A. D. Ayers against the Overseer of the Foor of Readington, in which the care of a pauper was involved, Mr. Marsh stated that the trial was held at Flemington, the city winning the case, thereby being relieved of the support of the pauper. Mr. Marsh stated that the case of the American Sewage Disposal Company against the city, remains statu quo. He also stated that in the case of E. M. French against the city, in an appeal from an assessment the application being for a reduction of the assessment from $18,300 to $10,000, the appeal had been abandoned. In this matter Mr. Marsh employed the services of H. C. Van Emburgh, civil engineer at a cost of $10.50, which he approved and recommended be paid.

The corporation counsel reported adversely on the request of A T. Gallup for the deduction of an assessment of shares of bank stock held by him. He claimed that at the time they were assessed they belonged to the estate of Charles Potter, but it appeared that without authority a change had been made in the transfer of assessment. Mr. Gallup will be notified of Mr. Marsh's opinion.

DEMAND FOR KIRMESS SEATS STILL CONTINUES.

The sale of seats for the Kirmess still continues and there promises to be a large attendance at each performance, beginning at the New Plainfield theatre on Tuesday night, May 12, and continuing every night for the rest of the week with a Saturday matinee. Those who are to take part in the various dances are becoming proficient and are now able to go through the intricate steps with out any trouble.

On one of the nights a company of young people from Elizabeth will give two of the dances, one called the "Russian," and the other the "White Dove." Those who have seen them declare that they are unusually attractive. Those who are to take part in them are as follows:

Russian—Miss Muriel Crawford, Miss Anne Edwards, Miss Charlotte Gaston, Miss Dorothy Muldaun, Miss Marjorie Patterson, Miss Margaret Walker, Miss Dorothy Weaks. White Dove—Miss Marion Blanchard, Miss Elizabeth Hanna, Miss Sarah Hixon, Miss Charlotte Morrell, Miss Catharine Vigelius and Miss Cora Woodruff.

Mary C. Codington.

Miss Mary C. Codington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Codington, of Millington, died yesterday at the parents' home. The funeral will be held Thursday morning at 11 o'clock and burial will be in the Mount Horeb cemetery.

To Camp at Chatauqua Lake.

Charles R. Bostwick, supervisor of manual training at the Plainfield High School, is arranging to have a summer camp at Chatauqua Lake, N. Y. Several of the high school pupils are to be at the camp.

MAY COURT TERM OPENS

Charge to the Grand Jury Delivered by Justice James J. Bergen.

REFERS TO EXCISE VIOLATIONS.

Two Murder Cases to Be Heard—Supreme Court Causes on the Calendar.

The May term of the Union County Court opened at Elizabeth this morning with a large attendance of lawyers from all parts of the county. Justice J. J. Bergen, Judge Benjamin Vail and Judge E. S. Atwater were on the bench and for the first time in their official robes.

Justice Bergen delivered his charge to the Grand Jury, which was short and to the point. He referred to the two murder cases to be tried at this term and drew the attention of the jury to the alleged violations of the excise laws, impressing upon the members the importance of thoroughly investigating these alleged violations. He said that it was their duty to indict such violators and if they failed to do so they were worse than the lawbreakers. He added that the laws must be observed strictly.

The members of the Grand Jury are: Foreman, Charles Russ, of Elizabeth; J. Fred MacDonald, F. W. Morse, C. W. Runyon and H. W. Marshall, of Plainfield; Robert Helfstein, F. A. Pickel, W. F. Marsh, Robert Senskowsky, Fred H. Pierson, Jr., P. J. Ryan, Coe W. Smith, Edward W. Connell, Fred Zior and H. I Schmidt of Elizabeth; George C. Oliver and W. H. Wright, of Rahway; E. D. Miller, of Springfield; W. D. Bonnell, of Roselle Park; Chester M. Smith, of Westfield; William Jeffery, of New Providence; Benjamin P. Holmes, of Summit; F. J. Palmer, of Fanwood; J. P. Howe, of Roselle.

The petit jurors from Plainfield serving at the present term are Arthur C. Aalholm, Gordon W. Abbott, Bolling G. Abercrombie, Harry G. Adams, Hyman Adelberg, George H. Alcorn, Walter Apgar, Alexander D. Ayres, John V. Beekman, Edward J. Cooley, Ferdinand E. Dorman, Thaddeus A. DuFlon, Daniel F Dugan, Frederick W. Dunn, Seely Edsall, Isaac S. Enyard, Charles H. Frost, Arthur C. Griffith, John W. Kirkner, Max Munger and Theodore B. Osborn.

The following Supreme Court causes of interest here are on the calendar for the term:

Newton W. Chambers against the Public Service Corporation, in trot, C. A. Marsh for the plaintiff and John A. Bernhard for the defendant; John D. Dailey and DeWitt C. Ivins against Thomas F. Kiernan, Patrick Kirenan, Frank M. Gettings and William S. Flynn in tort, Reed & Coddington for the plaintiff and John Griffen for the defendants: Frederick Peterson against Quincy-Manchester-Sargeant Co., in trot, W. L. Hetfield, Sr., for the plaintiff and Edwards & Smith for the defendant; Garret A. Powers against John P. Powers, on contract, Edward Kenny for the plaintiff and Reed & Coddington for the defendant; George Voehl against Cornelius Smith and Harry W. Moorehouse, Jr., partners, on contract, Francis J. Blatz for the plaintiff and Robert S. Terhune for the defendants; Horace G. Adams against Hubert H. Hull, on contract, William Newcorn for the plaintiff and George J. Fermier for the defendant; Horace G. Adams against Catharina Wenzel, on contract, William Newcorn for the plaintiff and W. Eugene Turton for the defendant; Horace G. Adams against the Raritan Realty Corporation and Herman Ellis, on contract, William Newcorn for the plaintiff and Joseph E. Stricker for the defendants; Maurice Culbane against Niles, Bement Pond Company, in tort, W. S. Angleman for the plaintiff and Lindabury, Depue & Faulkes for the defendant.

These cases are in the Circuit Court:

J. D. Loizeaux Lumber Company, a corporation, against William H. Kirch, builder, Ernest Dorfinger, owner, etal., on contract, mechanics' lien, Coddington & Swackhamer for the plaintiff and William Newcorn, V. W. Nash, Jr., and Francis J. Blatz for the defendants; Alexander Kane against John H. Doane, in tort, Francis J. Blatz for the plaintiff and G. W. V. Moy for the defendant; Jacob W. Moldezky against Abraham Srager, on contract, William Newcorn for the plaintiff and Clarence L. Murphy for the defendant.

Borough Officials to Attend.

Mayor Samuel Townsend, of North Plainfield, and Chief Woolston, of the borough fire department, have been formally invited by Mayor Fisk to attend the review and inspection of the city police and fire departments to be held on Mr. Fisk's lawn Saturday afternoon.

—Neuman Brothers' olive oil, highest in merit for quality and purity, can be secured by gallons, half gallons and quarts. Give it a trial.

MURPHY TO BE CHOICE FOR VICE-PRESIDENCY

Fort, Kean, Briggs and Baird Fixed Upon as Republican Delegates-at-Large.

ACKERMAN DISTRICT DELEGATE

Griggs Still in the Race This Afternoon but Not Likely to Be Made One of the "Big Four."

Quite in contrast to the stormy and turbulent scenes at the Democratic conventions, there was not more than a good size ripple at the Congressional and State conventions of the Republican party at Trenton today. Unless by some strange and unforseen accident there should be a change, the four delegates-at-large to attend the National convention will be Governor J. Franklin Fort, United States Senator John Kean, Sate Senator F. O. Briggs and David Baird.

John W. Griggs was still in the race this afternoon, but it is hardly thought he will be able to obtain sufficient backing to give him the honor. Former Governor Franklin Murphy today declared that he is not a candidate for delegate-at-large, it being understood that he retires for the purpose of being New Jersey's choice for the Vice-Presidential nomination. However, his name is expected to be presented to the convention.

At the State convention held this morning State Senator Ernest R. Ackerman, of Union, and Richard Williams, of Morris, were chosen as the district delegates from the Fifth district, and the alternates are James White, of Elizabeth, and J. H. Hatstick, of Morris. The selection of Mr. Ackerman disposes of the contest between his friends and those of Hamilton Kean for the honor. The latter was elected a member of the State Republican Committee.

One thing that has caused unusual excitement is the contest between the "regulars" of Hudson county as represented by John Rotherham, who succeeded Col. Dickinson as leader in that county, and Col. Dickinson and the New Idea members of the party. The deposed leader and the New Idea people charge the regulars with using unfair means at the primaries in Hudson county and protest against the seating of the delegates. They appeared before the State committee last night and it is said showed conclusively that unfair means were used. A shoe box with a false bottom was shown, in the bottom of which was found, it is said, a large number of Rotherham ballots. The committee decided to refer the matter to the credential committee and it was considered during an intermission at the Congressional convention.

At the Fifth district convention this morning James McGraw, of Morristown, was the chairman, and Edward Bauer, of Elizabeth, secretary. Little outside of the election of district delegates and the alternates was done. County Chairman F. H. Smith was chairman of the Union county delegation and Edward Bauer was secretary. In the selection of committees the following from Union were appointed: Credential, J. R. Moxon; resolutions, C. N. Codding; organization, Mayor Holmes, of Rahway; rules, G. S. Vreeland.

Robert Clark, Jr., of North Plainfield, was chairman of the Somerset county delegation, and Carl Fleischman, of Franklin, was secretary. These delegates were put on committees: Credential, L. A. Thompson; organization, David Duist; rules, N. B. Smalley; resolutions, C. Ledyard Blair; on vice-president, W. W. Smalley. It is said that four votes from the county delegation will be cast for J. W. Griggs, for delegate-at-large.

The State convention was called at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon by former Governor Franklin Murphy, who after the invocation by Rev. Judson Conkjin, introduced former United States Senator John Dryden, who was the chairman of the convention. Following a short speech, in which he praised the Republican party for its past achievements, the convention adjourned to allow the credential committee time to consider the protest from Hudson county. When the convention reconvenes it is expected that the four persons mentioned will be promptly named as the delegates-at-large to the National

Continued on page 8.)

WAISTS—The most extensive and finest line of the best waists are shown here, including the new Tailored Waist, with just a little coloring. We would be pleased to have you see them.

A. E. Force and Co.

We Give "S. H." "THE WHITE STORE" THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY Green Trading Stamps

The Ladies' Home Journal Patterns are the highest and most economical pattern in this country today, and are backed by millions of progressive women in every part of the United States. Prices 10c and 15c.

Dependable merchandise that has the unqualified endorsement of the "White Store." Our aim always is, to give our patrons the newest, best and most seasonable merchandise that can be found, at the very lowest prices.

DOMESTIC DEPARTMENT.

SPECIALS THIS WEEK.

7c Bleached Twilled Toweling for 5
8c Stevens Brown All-Linen Toweling for 6
10c 6-4 Cambric Finished Bleached Muslin for 5
$1.00 quality 72-inch Beached All-Linen Satin finish Table Damask at ..... .79
$3.00 quality ¾ size Napkins to match at $2.50
75c finest quality Imported Mercerized full bleached Satin Table Damask for ..... .65

DRESS GOODS.

Batiste and Nun's Veiling in all the new spring shades, fine and smooth cloth, good, special value at ..... .50
SILKS—Another lot of the silks we offered last week, beautiful materials, stripes and checks, 75c value for ..... .59

WHITE GOODS.

PERSIAN LAWN—45 inches wide, fine and sheer, extra value for ..... .25
EMBROIDERED BATISTE—In a variety of different size dots; the very latest; specially priced ..... .25
ALL OVER EMBROIDERY—On Swiss Lawn and Cambric, small figures and stripes; $1.39 to $1.50 value, for ..... .89

LADIES' TAILORED SUITS.

If you contemplate buying a new suit for Spring and Summer, now is the time and the White Store the place. Never have we offered such remarkable bargain values. Come this week. We have a few of the bargains offered last week. Suits from $5.98 up to $30

MILLINERY.

We like to keep before your mind the fact that we are equipped to supply your wants in the Millinery line with everything that a lady wants in Millinery. We aid you in every possible manner in your selection, and do so conscienciously, realizing that serving you well means a continuation of your patronage.

STEAMER TRUNKS.

We are showing a splendid line of new Trunks, the kind we know that is entirely dependable, strongly built of best materials, brass trimmings, good strong locks, neatly finished; prices $9.50 to $4.25

REFRIGERATORS.

Two of the best makes in the country, made of seasoned ash lumber, with solid bronze trimmings, galvanized iron shelves, drip pipe, etc.; prices $18.98 to $9.49

PORCH CHAIRS.

Strait back Porch Chairs that were sold regularly for $1.69; we will close the lot this week at, each $1.19

DRESS SUIT CASES and BAGS

Fine Dress Suit Cases in imitation leather, leather and fibre; strong and durable; trimmed with brass buckles, belts, corners reinforced with leather covers; prices range from $9.50 to $1

BAGS—An excellent assortment of traveling bags; various kinds; sizes and colors, in fact sizes to meet all requirements; prices range from $6.50 to ..... .79

LAWN MOWERS—A new stock of the best kind of lawn mowers.

12 inch $2.98
14 inch $3.49
16 inch $3.98

SCREEN DOORS—Fancy Screen Doors from $1.25 up to $1.49
Plain Doors, in all sizes, at ..... .98

WINDOW SCREENS—The kind that you can adjust; prices 22c to ..... .45
BAMBOO SCREENS—Sizes 6x8 to 8x10, prices 85c to $1.49

WIRE NETTING—Sizes 18 to 42 inch; prices, yard, 9c to ..... .21

SEEDS—Canna and Dahlia Bulbs, splendid varieties; special value at, per dozen ..... .50

Ha! Ha!! Ha!!!

That is tame beside the hilarity that will be yours when you read of the many funny situations that occur in the new serial

MR. PRATT

By Joseph C. Lincoln

which we begin publishing in this issue. It is undoubtedly the best of this writer's many humorous tales of the Cape Cod fisher folk. It is the kind of a story all will enjoy, and we want all to read it.

It Begins To-Day

EYE-STRAIN

is directly responsible for the majority of cases of blindness today. If instead of trying to overwork the eyes, one would at once get glasses at the first warning of eye-strain there would be fewer cases of blindness at the present time.

Come to us and have your eyes examined free of charge and we will advise you what to do to save them.

Headache and neuralgia quickly relieved.

STILES & CO.,

Philadelphia Eye Specialist.

At 105 East Front Street,

Every Thursday

Hours 11:15 to 4:30

We have purchased the Meat and Provision business conducted by Fred Endress and it will be continued as The Endress Co. The same high standard and quality of Meats, Poultry and Provisions will be maintained.

The Meats we select will give satisfaction, because they are the best obtainable.

PRIME RIB ROAST

cut from native cattle, very choice and tender, select cuts of Sirloin and Porterhouse Steaks, Chops, Cutlets, Poultry, etc. Give us a trial and be convinced. Prices lower than quality deserves.

The ENDRESS CO.

131-135 West Front Street.
'Phone 690.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

THE VAN DYK SYSTEM has reduced the tea and coffee business to a science. It means to you BETTER TEA, BETTER COFFEE and Lower Price. Visit a Van Dyk Store and share in these advantages.

VAN DYK'S

127 WEST FRONT ST.,
Bet. Park and Madison Aves.
50 BRANCHES IN 20 CITIES.

Lumber Bargain!

The largest quantity of lumber in Plainfield can be found in my yard.

Large and Small Timbers.

Cut prices on new lumber for one week more.

A. KANE

YARD, 312 Filmore Ave.
Telephone 522-J.

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c. a week.

CITY.

Union News Co. .....R. R. Station
J. M. Harper .....411 Park Ave.
M. A. Laing .....149 W. Front St.
A. D. Mallinson..Fourth and Liberty Sts.
Trolley Waiting Room....Watchung Ave.
M. Retll .....111 Park Ave.
Dubois & Stahl .....113 Somerset St.
Blaney & Son .....331 Watchung Ave.
T. A. Garthwaite.....212 Watchung Ave.
A. Anderson .....657 West Fourth St.
John Mottley..Cor. E. 3d & Richmond Sts.

SUBURBAN.

Dunellen ..... B. Striski
New Market ..... R. Burdick
Bound Brook .....Union News Co.
Bound Brook .....L. M. Davis
Somerville ..... Jacob Genert
Westfield ....C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield ..... J. W. Wall
Scotch Plains ..... Chas. Elliott
South Plainfield ..... Victor Attlee
Fanwood ..... Chas. Elliott
Netherwood ..... Blaney & Son

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS

BOUND BROOK AND VICINITY.

Pioneer Council No. 58, Junior Order United American Mechanics, of Bound Brook, will celebrate the eighteenth anniversary of its organization tomorrow night in Hamilton Hall. The program will consist of cartoons, songs and impersonations by S. M. Spedon, of New York. An address will be delivered by Past State Councilor Frank R. Sharp, of Irvington. Music will be furnished by a local orchestra and refreshments will be served. The committee in charge are William B. Larue, Clarence Duryea, Harry S. Johnson, Eugene Duryea and August F. Winberg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Vickery and daughters, the Misses Margaret and Frances Vickery, of Jamacia, Long Island, have been spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Vickery's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin T. Clark, in East Second street, Bound Brook.

Recent guests of the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Olendorf, in Union avenue, Bound Brook, were R. W. Shoppell, editor of the The National Tribune, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Emma Herbert, also of Washington.

Members of the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church of Bound Brook will attend a group rally at the Dunellen M. E. church tonight.

A thimble party will be given by Mrs. S. H. Miller at Oak Lawn, her home in Somerset street, Bound Brook, this afternoon.

E. R. Davidson will in a few days move his family from Hammonton to the Coddington house, in East High street, Bound Brook.

Van Derveer Brown is suffering with a severe attack of rheumatism at his home in Bound Brook.

The Cricket Club of Bound Brook met at the home of J. G. Fisher, of Bound Brook last night.

WESTFIELD.

Arrangements have been made by the Pastors' Association of Westfield for the Memorial Day services. Rev. C. J. Greenwood will make the address at services held in the Presbyterian church on the evening of May 24, to which the Plainfield G. A. R., local Men's Clubs and Westfield Cadets have been invited. The exercises at the cemetery on Memorial Day will be in charge of a detail from Winfield Scott Post of Plainfield.

A. L. Berner, W. B. Toucey, William Heusel, G. W. Dawes, Isaac L. Scudder and Chief Fred C. Decker will represent the Exempt Firemen's Association of Westfield at the annual convention of the State exempt firemen at New Brunswick.

A school meeting has been called for May 15, when the voters will have an opportunity to vote on a reduction of the school tax.

Westfield Town Council held its first meeting in its new quarters last evening.

NORTH BRANCH.

There were no services in the Lutheran church at New Germantown Sunday. The pastor, Rev. Dr. John P. Krechting, is expected home from a two weeks' vacation trip in time to occupy his pulpit next Sunday.

Rev. B. V. D. Wyckoff, pastor of the Reformed church at Readington, lectured Sunday afternoon in the schoolhouse at Pleasant Run.

Mrs. Berne Egle and children, of Plainfield, have been spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Labaw, at Harlingen.

Mr. and Mrs. George Van Arsdale, of South Branch, are visiting Mrs. Van Arsdale's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Marquis, at Neshanic.

Miss Mabel Conover has returned to her home at Readington, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. John Eick, near Lebanon.

Miss Mabel Vanderbeek, of Whitehouse Station, is spending a week with Mrs. A. M. Wilbur, at South Branch.

George W. Kline, of North Branch Depot, has been a recent guest of his sister, Mrs. Oscar J. Force, at Three Bridges.

Miss Anna Case, of Plainfield, has been visiting relatives in North and South Branch during the past week.

Miss Hazel Young, of Annandale, has been a guest of Miss Carolyn Lane, at North Branch Depot.

Marvin and Ethlyn Vanderbeek are visiting their aunts, the Misses Ten Eyck, at South Branch.

In Chancery of New Jersey.

To HOWARD E. BENNETT:

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey, made on the Twenty-second day of April, A. D. 1908, in a certain cause wherein, Rachel J. Bennett is petitioner, and you Howard E. Bennett are defendant, you are required to appear and plead, answer or demur to petitioner's petition on or before the Twenty-third day of June next, or, in default thereof, such decree will be taken against you as the Chancellor shall think equitable and just.

The object of said suit is to obtain a decree of divorce, dissolving the marriage between you and the said petitioner.

Dated, April 22, 1908.

J. HENRY CRANE,
Solicitor for Petitioner,
134 Park Ave.,
Plainfield, N. J.

4 28 5 tu

FOR A

CLEAN SHAVE AND GOOD HAIR CUT

TRY THE

Burns' Tonsorial Parlors

Shoes Polished FREE with Every Shave. Special Attention to Children's Hair.

212 WATCHUNG AVENUE

BOYNTON
Square Pot
FURNACES

Greatest heat from least coal; minimum care-taking—all direct benefits of the wonderful Square Pot (patented). Ask dealer. Boynton Furnace Co., New York—Chicago.

FURNITURE.

Repaired and upholstered. Equal to new. Send a postal to

HARRISON, 140 CENTRAL AVE.,
Cabinet maker, Polisher, Mattress Maker.

The Lesson of the Eagle and the Weasel

The familiar story goes that once, when an eagle pounced upon a weasel and soared with it high into the air, the weasel fastened its fangs deep into the eagle's breast and commenced to draw its life-blood. The eagle tried to shake the weasel off, but the weasel hung on until the eagle fell lifeless to the ground.

There is a moral in this for every sufferer from coughs or colds. Don't let your cough hang on—for every day it weakens your lungs and gradually wears down your system until serious lung troubles develop.

DR. D. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT

is the oldest and most reliable cough remedy known. For 77 years it has been successful in relieving and curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Inflammation of the Lungs, Croup and Whooping Cough. It is sold by all druggists in $1.00, 50c. and 25c. bottles. Get it for your cough today.

Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is a gentle and effective tonic for adults and children. A safe Worm Cure.

"THE OLD RELIABLE HOME FURNISHERS"

EST. 1860 COWPERTHWAIT INC. 1907

AND

VAN HORN CO.

73 MARKET STREET. NEAR PLANE ST., NEWARK, N.J.

(B)

"Spring"—time Suggests

NEW Floor Coverings

—and we suggest "No. 73" as the place to get them, provided quality that's sure, and a price that's right, appeals to your taste and purse!

Only weaves that stand our warrant ever get inside our store—here's an "Inducement Sale" to start Spring season's trade!

TAPESTRY BRUSSELS CARPETS

85c. grade at 64c. Yd. | $1.00 grade at 75c. Yd. | $1.20 grade at 90c. Yd.

MADE, LAID AND LINED FREE!

HEAVY CHINESE MATTING

Just in—Regular $18 grade

$14.50

roll of 40 yds.

Many other grades and prices

FANCY JAPANESE MATTING

Cotton Warp—Regular $16 grade

$13.25

roll of 40 yds.

Broad choice of various other weaves

Best Grade "A No. 1"

Oil Cloth at 45c. Yd. [Reg. 60c.]

Over half a hundred kinds of oil cloth—all new and effective! Ask to see our line of Linoleums—especially the new imported line in carpet patterns—we're sole agents.

Sole Headquarters For

"The Portland Range," "Gunn Sectional Bookcases"
The Acme Washing Machine, "White" Sewing Machine

LOWEST PRICES—EASY CREDIT

R. W. BARNES.

217 PARK AVE. 'PHONE 344-L.

Fruits Vegetables and Groceries

Imported and Domestic Cheeses, Olives and Pickles in bottles or by measure, Boiled Corned Beef, Ham, Smoked Salmon, Fresh Cut Chipped Beef, Heinz's Stuffed Melons. Try Them.

"HARD TIMES" DO NOT EFFECT THE SALE OF

"HAWES" $3.00 HATS

WHY?—BECAUSE THEY ARE GUARANTEED

JAS. R. BLAIR

REGRET LACK OF PROTECTION.

Riot in Califon Hotel Causes Much Indignation Among Leading Residents.

Califon, May 5.—The residents of this village were aroused with cries of "Kill him!" and other shouts indicative that a riot was in progress at the Union House late Saturday night. Those who responded to the cries found a fight on in which a baseball bat and fists were used. Efforts, it is said, were made to "clean house" by the hotel bouncer, a colored man. He wielded a baseball bat, but the crowd objected to the way one of their friends had been handled, and attacked the negro. He ran from the bar-room and was followed by the crowd. He soon disappeared into the building through a convenient entrance.

The row has caused much thinking on the part of many residents, who, in an effort to curb lawlessness here, tried to have the village incorporated into a borough. As has been told, politicians managed to kill the bill in the Senate. It was then the local Law and Order League, incorporated by private citizens, abandoned work.

This village sought to be become a borough is situated in two townships, and neither township, owing to the voting power, will give the village a constable or justice of the peace, and therefore the villagers have no authority to keep order unless at the expense of a body of public-spirited citizens. The rough element from without the proposed borough lines have from time to time disturbed the peace and quietness of the citizens, and the past week has been notoriously bad in that respect. Several bar-room brawls have occurred which resulted in many disfigured countenances and discolored optics.

FORESTERS MAY SECEDE.

Purpose Is to Have U. S. Courts Cut Loose from Canada.

Elizabeth, May 5.—Numerous New Jersey courts of the Independent Order of Foresters have joined in the movement started here, where the first lodge in this country was founded, to have the order secede from Canada and be established under the jurisdiction of the United States. The agitation is a result of the proposed increase in the rates of all members who joined previous to the year 1899, and of other contemplated retroactive legislation.

A meeting will be held next Wednesday at the home of Joseph J. Ogden, 173 Madison avenue, of representatives of many North Jersey lodges, at which resolutions will be drawn up opposing any change of rates. Copies of these will be forwarded to courts all over the State, to the delegates to the convention in June and to the Supreme Council at Toronto.

USES GUN; GETS PUMMELED.

Negro Hit by Ball Tries to Make Off With It.

Jersey City, May 5.—Elias Ellis, a negro employed in the McAdoo tunnel, was watching a number of young men playing baseball at Grand and Hudson streets Sunday afternoon. A thrown ball struck Ellis on the leg. He picked it up and was walking away with it when several of the boys demanded its return. Ellis refusing to give up the ball there was a row. Ellis drew a revolver and fired several shots into the crowd.

One of the bullets hit Matthew McNulty in the leg, and he fell to the street. The crowd forced Ellis up against a wall, closed in on him and beat him unmercifully. They would probably have killed him but for the timely arrival of Roudsman Keilt and several policemen. Ellis was locked up and McNulty was sent to the hospital.

THREATEN TO SECEDE.

Trenton Methodists Will Not Give Up Dr. Jones.

Trenton, May 5.—Threatened with legal proceedings by the New Jersey Conference because they will not accept the Rev. W. A. Frye, the pastor appointed by the bishop, the official members of the First Methodist Episcopal church, this city, now declare that unless they are permitted to retain their own choice, the Rev. Dr. Charles O. Jones, they will quit the conference and hold services in Taylor Opera House, across the street from the church.

The officers assert that 90 per cent. of the members will follow Dr. Jones and leave the church with a heavy burden of debt on the hands of the conference.

—For best results try a Press want ad.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

TEPPERS 109-111-113 WEST FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

AGENTS FOR STANDARD PATTERNS

EMBROIDERED BATISTE

Value 29c at 18c yard

These rich embroidered mercerized Batistes, white as snow, soft and lustrious, make beautiful Princess dresses. We selected a small lot under value and place these on sale, regular value 29c at, a yard - - 18c

Sale Worsted Suitings

50c values at 29c yard

We place on sale 15 pieces Dress Goods, the popular Worsted Suitings in checks, plaids and stripes, the popular spring shades, for suits, skirts and Jumper dresses, 36 inches wide, regular value 50c, on sale at, yard - - - - - - - - - 29c

44 inch all wool Cream Serge, splendid weight at, yard - - - - 75c

25c and 29c Silk Braids, yd. 19c

New Persian Silk Braid Trimming, in a wide range of styles, regular value 25c and 29c, on sale at, yard 19c

40 inch Figured Fillet Net, white and ecru, 69c value at, yard - - - 50c

42 inch Plain Arabian Fillet Net, 75c value at, yard - - - - - - - 69c

Fine Mesh Dress Nets, full 2 yards wide, white and Arabian, $1.00 value at, yard, - - - - - - - 79c

Phaeton Seamless Collar Foundation, regular price 15c, at, - - - 10c

SALE PEARL BUTTONS

At 10c a Dozen

500 dozen Fine Pearl Dress Buttons in assorted styles and sizes, flat and bullet styles. two and four holes, regular values, 12½c, 15c, 17c, and 19c a dozen, take your pick of these 500 dozen while they last at, doz. 10c

We do not break dozen lots

Sale Ladies' Handkerchiefs

300 dozen of the best 5c Handkerchiefs in town, at 36c dozen or for half dozen - - - - - - 18c

Nemo WEEK

This Week! The Great Corset Event of the Season!

It's our Spring Exposition of the famous NEMO CORSETS.

The time of all times to select a corset that will not only bring out the best lines of your figure, but will assure you the utmost comfort.

The word "Nemo" on a corset means correct style and long wear; and of course you know that the Nemo Corset is "the only corset that is more than a corset—the only one that does something for you that no other corset can do."

New models for slender figures—the "Willow-Shape," and the wonderful "Back-Resting" Corset. And the famous "Self-Reducing," with the new "Flatning-Back," has no rival—and never had.

Come and be fitted—our expert corsetieres will see that you get genuine Nemo Corset comfort.

105 AND 107 Market Street, NEWARK

E. A. KIRCH & CO.

WHAT WE SAY IS SO

105 AND 107 Market Street, NEWARK

Removal Sale With Prices That Are the Marvel of All Buyers!

Everything has been reduced so low it will need no argument. Come here and see for yourself. Only a little while and we will be in

Our New Building, 77-79 Market St., Which We Will Occupy Entirely.

Collapsible Go-Cart

Like cut. Regular price $5.50. Sale price 2.98

If hood is wanted add $1.50.

DINING TABLES

Like cut. 42 inch top, golden oak, nicely polished heavy claw feet. Regular price $12.75.

Sale Price 8.62 Sale Price 8.62

Regular $15 kind now.....11.25
Regular $20 kind now.....15.00
Regular $25 kind now.....18.75
Regular $30 kind now.....22.50

HOODED CARRIAGE

Like cut. Regular price $20. Reed hood lined with English Repp. Tubular pushers. Cushion tires. Sale price 12.50

Refrigerators

Like cut. Solid oak, very best construction, size 24x17x19½, reg. price $6.98. Sale price 4.25

Parlor Suits--Like Cut.

3 piece, piano finished mahogany, upholstered in best quality silk plush, loose cushions. Always sold at $60.00.

32.90

Rattan Rocker

Like cut. Shellacked or Empire finish, regular price $4. while they last 1.98

Rugs, Carpets, Linoleums, Oilcloths, Mattings,

¼ Off Regular Prices.

Your Purchases May Be Charged.

Sliding Couch

Like cut. Two distinct couches. Can be used, when placed side by side, as a full-sized bed, regular price $8.50. 2 mattresses, 2 bolsters..... 4.25

Couches--Like Cut.

Frame polished oak, upholstered in green or red velour or chase leather, nicely tufted, 30 in. wide, open spring construction, regular $14. .. 9.50

A big line to choose from at from 8.98 to 65.00.

SPORTS HERE AND THERE

GOLF.

The competitive golf attraction in the metropoitan district this week will be the annual invitation tournament of the Garden City Golf Club, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It is already certain that an unusually high class field will be on hand, as among those who have announced their intention to compete are Walter J. Travis, of the home club; Jerome D. Travers, of Montclair, the national champion, and Fred Herreshoff, the hero of nine open tournaments last season. Archie Graham, of Paterson, may also take part.

An additional incentive for many of the leading amateurs to play appears this season in the rearranged course. Every one with championship aspirations want to familiarize himself with the long Garden City circuit, so as to be able better to meet the changed conditions when he goes there for the national in September. Travis has been working on the links almost constantly for the last few weeks.

He has worked with a spade, showing the men how to make difficulties for his own game, and possibly still greater difficulties for his opponents on his home course. Altogether more than one hundred bunkers have been added. H. H. Barker, the former Yorkshire amateur, now the Garden City professional, has also been pressed into service.

The program for the tournament provides for an eighteen-hole medal play qualifying round, the best sixteen to earn the right to play in the first match round for the chief cup that afternoon. The second and semi-final rounds will be at eighteen holes, and the final at thirty-six holes. There will also be a second sixteen, and in addition to this a trophy has been provided for the beaten eight in the first sixteen. The Saturday handicap will consist of eighteen holes.

No less than six former winners competed in the open tournament at the Country Club of Atlantic City last week. They were W. J. Travis, Findlay Douglas, W. C. Fownes, Jr., F. Oden Horstman, Fred Herreshoff and W. E. Shackelford. By his victory on Saturday Fownes tied Travis for the honor of having won the governors' cup the greatest number of times. Both have now four wins to their credit.

The surprise of the tournament was Dr. M. K. Neiffer, of the Huntingdon Valley Country Club, who has only been playing the game three years. After putting out Jerome Travers, the Huntingdon Valley man won an uphill match against Robert Weir, of Wilmington, and supplemented this by carrying Findlay Douglas to the home green in the semi-final round.

On Friday night a number of the tournament golfers were the guests at a banquet given by Mr. and Mrs. Water E. Edge. An innovation was introduced in the form of a miniature golf course laid out on the table. Real turf was used, and in the centre appeared a water hazard. Inspired by such an atmosphere, experts on the game exchanged views, and, like doctors, frequently differed.

The tournament committee of the country club has come to the conclusion not to attempt thirty six-hole qualifying rounds in future. With a hundred or more starters it is next to impossible to handle the field satisfactorily. On Thursday the first pair started as early as 8 a. m., and the last couple finished its second round at 7 p. m.

BASEBALL.

Following is the standing of the various baseball clubs in the city and vicinity to date:

	Won	Lost.
Clinton Ave.	2	0
New Market F. C.	2	0
Harrison A. C.	2	0
Y. M. C. A.	1	0
Scotch Plains	1	0
Climax A. C.	1	0
Monroe Ave.	1	0
Lincoln A. C.	1	1
Holy Cross	1	1
Social A. C.	1	2
Highlanders	1	2
Jr. O. U. A. M.	1	2
Plainfield A. C.	2	3
Mono A. C.	0	2
Hope Chaple	0	0
Dunellen F. C.	0	0

The Clinton Avenues are still playing in true championship form. On Saturday they defeated the Juniors in a well-played game by a score of 4 to 1. Clifford Randolph was again the "candy boy" and let his opponents down with a couple of bingles.

Manager Bogert Conklin, of Somerville, is still on the job and declares that that town will be represented by a fast team. Furthermore, he says that a series of games will be scheduled with Plainfield.

The fact that Manager Dorflinger has scheduled games with High Bridge should arouse unusual interest among the fans. The Hunterdon county boys will come here determined to win.

The New York Nationals have lost three games in succession. That may not happen again all season.

One of the neatest things in a baseball schedule yet brought out is a booklet called "Just Baseball," got up by Joseph P. Norton of Newark.

In Washington they say Niles fits in much better in the Highlanders infield than did Jimmy Williams. There is no doubt that Niles has been a valuable man for Griffith's team.

"Always play your game if you possibly can; never postpone unless it is absolutely necessary," was a piece of advice once given by Harry Wright to Bill Shettsline of the Phillies.

"The Browns and the Naps are the hardest teams in the League to beat just now," says a Chicagoan. How the deuce he knows that before having stacked up against the Eastern teams passes comprehension.

Within the last few years there has been a tendency toward the garish in baseball uniforms. There's too much of this insignia and curlicue business. The only really artistic diamond apparel brought out in recent seasons was that of the Pittsburg club.

Kid Carsey and J. Cothcart have leased a piece of property at the terminus of the Broadway subway, 232d street and Broadway, on which they expect to have enclosed stands and a half mile track ready for games on Memorial Day. The grounds will be known as Union Park, the ball club as the Unions. Only the strongest semi-professional teams will be booked.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

"Give Us This Day," will be the subject of the prayer meeting at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church tomorrow night.

The special services being held this week at the First Baptist church under the direction of Rev. Dr. Joseph Chambliss are being largely attended and are full of interest.

The Young People's Association of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church will meet Friday night for Bible study in the Epistle of John and in Old Testament characters.

An interesting incident recalled in connection with the preaching of Rev. Dr. Hughes at the First Baptist church Sunday morning, was announced by himself before the morning sermon. He said that he remembered with a great deal of pleasure preaching in the same pulpit for the late Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes in 1874.

Captain Lewis H. Rand, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., has been detached from West Point, and ordered to duty on the Pacific Coast. He formerly resided in this city.

LAWN MOWERS

Sharpened and Repaired

Having Installed Electric Power and Improved Grinding Machinery I Can Insure Prompt and Satisfactory Work.

A. M. GRIFFEN,

119-123 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

'PHONES 6 and 214

Rich Milk 8c a quart. Rich Cream 12c half pt. Buttermilk 6c a quart

Plainfield Milk & Cream Co, MARCHANT BROS.,

112 WATCHUNG AVENUE

PLAINFIELD OFFICE

EISELE & KING

Members of the New York and Philadelphia Stock Exchanges

In the Babcock Building, West Front St.

Private wires East and West. Ticker service. Orders executed as rapidly as in any New York office

W. De LaR. ANDERSON, Manager.

JACK HORNER

26 SOMERSET ST TEL. 869-W.

Pierce, Cleveland, Crawford and Arrow Bicycles. Renting, Repairing and Sundries. Vulcanizing a specialty. Baby Carriages Repaired and Retired. Work called for and delivered.

IMPORTERS HAHNE & CO. RETAILERS

NEWARK'S STORE BEAUTIFUL BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STREETS

The FRENCH FLOWER MARKET

THRONGS filled the little flower lined street which we have built in representation of the French Flower Market. such as is seen in the Boulevard de la Capuchines in Paris.

Little canopied stands are laden with flowers of many beautiful sorts, and not only are we making a show worth seeing, but we are selling flowers much more cheaply than usual, giving you a double incentive to attend.

American Beauty Roses—3 in a bunch; reg. 75c, at 49c.

5 Roses in a bunch, reg. 87c and $1, at 59c and 69c.

Rose Bouquets, reg. $1 and 1.49, at 39c and $1.

Rose with beautiful foliage, 25c kind 15c 39c kind for 19c 59c kind for 39c

Violets, very pretty and natural effects, 98c kind for 87c 69c kind for 49c 59c kind for 39c.

Lilacs, white and purple, reg. 45c to 1.50, special at 25c to 98c.

Crushed Roses, this season's prettiest colors, reg. 19c to 59c, special at 12c to 39c.

Rose Foliage, in great demand for hat trimming this season, reg. prices running from 19c to 1.25, special priced 12c to 87c.

Carnation Foliage, 19c kind at 12c.

Clusters with foliage, reg. 49c and 69c, at 55c and 49c.

Bluets, reg. price 29c to 98c, 15c to 87c

Daisies, reg. 39c to 1.25, at 25c to 87c

Field Flowers in bunches, reg. 87c, at 55c.

Buttercups, 55c kind at 39c.

Forget-me-nots, clusters, reg. 35c to 87c, at 15c to 69c.

Geraniums, reg. 39c to 98c, at 25c to 87c

Poppies, 69c kind at 39c $1 kind at 69c 1.25 kind at 87c.

Hydrangeas, reg. 69c to 1.69, at 49c to 1.25.

Pansies, reg. 69c at 49c.

Lily of the Valley, 19c to 1.25 bunches at 12c to 98c.

Sweet Peas, 98c kind at 87c 19c kind at 15c.

Wistaria, reg. 49c to 1.69, at 25c to 1.25

Chrysanthemums, reg. 49c to 1.49, at 33c to 95c.

Wreaths for women's and children's hats 39c to 6.00.

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.

186 North Avenue. Telephone 61

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S and Canada.

The Daily Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change the same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

Plainfield, N. J., May 5, 1908.

May 5 In History.

1812—The British captured Oswego, N. Y.; other important conquests along the lake border followed.

1821—Napoleon I. died at St. Helena; born at Ajaccio, island of Corsica, 1769.

1904—The canal zone formally ceded to the United States. Maurus Jokai, noted Hungarian novelist, died; born 1825.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

Sun sets 6:56, rises 4:48; moon sets 11:58.

CAMPBELL RE-ELECTED DUNELLEN RECORDER.

David S. Campbell was re-elected recorder of the borough of Dunellen at the meeting of the Dunellen council last night. The vote of Mayor Harry Swackhamer, who made the appointment, was necessary for the election which was held latel n the meeting.

Political deals have kept Mayor Swackhamer from making this appointment before, for last night's meeting was the first full meeting of the council since the organization. Councilman VanMiddlesworth was absent during the first part of the meeting, but came in late. The Mayor immediately made his appointment and put it to a vote. The vote was a tie, and Mr. Swackhamer's ballot was necessary to confirm the election. Campbell was chosen recorder at a meeting of the council several months ago, when the Mayor cast his vote to give him the needed majority. He resigned, believing the appointment to have been illegal, and Dunellen has been without a recorder since January 1.

BOROUGH GOVERNMENT WILL RENT ROOMS TO THE NEEDY.

Because Borough Overseer of the Poor Fred Becker has received so many appeals for aid from homeless families, Mayor Townsend announced today that the old Borough police station would be fitted up as a lodging house and given rent free to those who apply for aid. This action is the result of a consultation between Mr. Townsend, Chief Marshal Weiss and Mr. Becker.

The building is now rented by the borough to one familly, but it is planned to fit up the lower floor as an apartment by removing the old cells, so that the building will accommodate at least two families. The borough has been paying on the average about $10 a month toward the rent of otherwise homeless borough families, and Mr. Townsend believes he has solved the difficulty by founding the "North Plainfield Apartments."

SNEAK THIEF STEALS MRS. FRAZEE'S JEWELRY.

While Mrs. Sidney B. Frazee and her mother, Mrs. Young, were engaged in housecleaning at their home in the Manning building on West Front street, yesterday morning, a sneak thief entered the front of the apartment and stole Mrs. Frazee's jewel box. It contained a gold watch, diamond ring and several trinkets. The thief made a quick getaway as both women were in and out of the front room every little while.

The loss was discovered about noon but no report was made to the police until 5 o'clock. Detective-Sergeant Flynn was placed on the case and is working up one or two slight clues.

Mrs. Donnelly Fined $5.

Mrs. Patrick Donnelly, who was implicated in the fracas at her home on Stebbins place, Saturday night, was fined $5 in the city court, this morning. She admitted using a stove poker on the heads of her two brothers-in-law, Richard and Henry Donnelly, but declared she did so only after they refused to leave the house. Sentence was suspended on Richard and Henry.

Headquarters for

John Gibson's

RYE.

E. C. Westcott, Agent.

115 East Front Street.

PUPILS' CLUBS MUST GO

(Continued from page 1.)

perience has given them the right to speak with authority, shows that in not more than a half dozen schools in the country, among the hundred from which evidence has been contributed—in not more than a half dozen schools where fraternities are estabished are they regarded by the authorities as anything but harmful. The advice offered by those consulted, without exception, is to prevent the entrance of such organizations into schools. Within the last two years town after town has passed regulations refusing graduation and participation to all the activities of the school aside from the regular classroom work to those who belong to such societies. Several States, too, have legislated for the abolition of secret societies in the public schools.

"Some of the evils which these societies are claimed to bring in their train are indifference to and united resistance against the constituted authorities because of their allegiance to the group rather than to the school, and the pupil's reliance upon the support of the group even if at fault; a desire to promote the interests of the society above those of the school; an exaggerated idea of his own importance on the part of a fraternity member because he belongs to a select group; envy on the part of non-members; poor scholarship, owing to absorption in things other than study; the expense of supporting the organization; the development of the loafing habit by a common meeting place; the tendency to propogate immorality and the use of tobacco; the habit of concealment from the parent by the child. Some, if not all of these consequences may be expected if such school socities are allowed to exist in the school.

"Here we do not have to deal with secret societies of long standing, with prestige of long-standing and a strong band of alumni. With us, it is a mere matter of providing against the entrance of the evil, even though the school be temporarily disrupted by the attempt."

The news of the Board's action caused but little surprise among the members of the three clubs at school today, for the opposition by the school fathers has been expected and in part provided for. Mr. Travell said today that his policy in the matter would be conciliatory, but would not state what action he would take in any of the three cases. The members of the school faculty will act as an advisory committee with Mr. Travell in deciding what action will be taken with each of the organizations. Mr. Travell said that no action would be taken until after tomorrow.

There are at present three so-called "secret fraternities" perfectly organized in the school—two of the boys and one of the girls. The idea of secrecy in connection with the school clubs gained ground after an upperclassmen boys' club, known as the "Tuxedo Club," adapted the name of "Sigma Delta Phi" shortly before Thanksgiving and appeared at the school with the Greek letters embroidered in white on purple hat bands on white outing hats.

The "Sigs" are now a perfectly organized club, comprising fourteen members, all but three of whom attend school. The government is in the hands of an executive committee, composed of F. Clyde Doane, W. B. Caldwell and William V. Rafferty, pupils at the school. Paul R. Collier, Egbert Bogardus, Jr., and Chas. E. Loizeaux are members of the club not attending school, and the pupil members are Arthur Bingamin, Guion Fountain, Charles Prior, Stanley Robins, John Riffert, Russel Morris, Augustus Nash and David Smalley. The "Sigs" meet regularly at the homes of the various members and are all leaders in the social and political life of the school, among their members being the captain and manager of the basketball team, captain and manager of the baseball team, two players on the basketball team and two on the baseball team, as well as members of the school orchestra, glee and dramatic clubs.

About a month ago, another "fraternity" or social club cropped out among the boys of the freshman class, including two members of the Stillman school. These boys are known as the "S. X.'s," and Roy Titsworth is their president. The members are Gordon Moy, Ernest Van Zandt, Leslie Bond, John Todd and Kenneth Runyon in the high school and Fred Allen and Donald Gaston in the Stillman school. This club has dues.

Among the girls is the oldest of the school organizations, but the one which has most recently developed similitude to a "fraternity." Yesterday morning, eight of the leading girl pupils of the school appeared wearing pins bearing the Greek letters, "Phi Theta Delta." The pins are of gold, bearing the name on a black enamel ground, and are oval in shape. Miss Barbara Fleming is president of the "Phis," and Miss Ruth Mauger, a pupil at the Seminery, is the only out-of-school member. Aside from Miss Fleming, the High School members are Miss Bessie Alpaugh, Miss Marion Snyder, Mss Mary French, Miss Harriet Knox, Miss Margaret Leggett, Miss Louise Andrews and Miss Elanor De Graff.

This organization was founded about four years ago as the "Girls' Sewing Club," when the present members were in the grammar grades of the local schools. Later it became known as the "Saturday Afternoon Club." Like the "Sigs," the "Phis" include the leaders of the school. Among them are the captain of the basketball player, the manager, and several girls prominent in the social and dramatic life at the school.

Each of the clubs claims to be organized entirely independent of the school.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

The Woodhull & Martin Store

THE CHOICEST STOCK of WASH FABRICS

to be found in the city. Again and again since the new Spring Wash Dress Fabrics came out we have heard enthusiastic comments from those who have surveyed them with more or less care. The stock is immense—the largest we have ever shown; the prices are fair and in many instances astonishingly low. But it is the exquisite beauty of the new Fabrics we want to tell you about; the very choicest patterns and weaves from the best foreign and American mills. How impressive it is in variety may be gathered from this partial list:

Printed Dotted Swisses, in a large variety of beautiful floral designs, 18c yd.

Cotton Voiles, 27 inches wide, in all the popular colorings, at 25c yard.

Satin Striped Madras, specially adapted for shirts and shirtwaistings, 30 inches wide, at 19c yard.

Fine Percales, Standard makes, in an elegant assortment of patterns, 36 in. wide, at 15c yard.

New Dress Ginghams, in a wonderful assortment of pretty checks, plaids and stripes, at 12½c yard.

Silk Tissues, in neat blue, pink, lavender and black and white checks, 27 inches wide, at 25c yard.

Linene Suitings, in tan, blue, and brown, 34 inches wide, at 15c yard.

Galatea Cloth, suitable for boys' wash suits, 28 inches wide, at 19c yard.

Fine Linen Suiting, 36 inches wide, in blue and tan plaids, at 50c yard.

Plain Pongee Linen, in all leading colors, 27 inches wide, at 40c yard.

Grey Linen Suiting, 27 to 36 inches wide, at 20c, 25c, 35c and 50c a yard.

Blue Bell Lawns, a very good quality printed lawn, in all the newest designs and colorings, 30 inches wide, at 10c a yd.

Fine Scotch Ginghams in beautiful checks, plaids and stripes, 33 inches wide, at 25c a yard.

American Beauty Batiste, a fine sheer fabric, 30 inches wide in checks, plaids, stripes and figures, at 15c a yard.

Imported Irish Dimities in an endless variety of pretty patterns, 27 inches wide, at 29c a yard.

Mercerized Silk Gingham, in a wide assortment of new colorings in checks and stripes, 27 inches wide, 25c a yard.

AWNINGS AND WINDOW SHADES—This department is working day and night to keep pace with the orders. If you have any needs in this line kindly let us have your order as soon as possible. We assure you that all work entrusted to us will be done in a first-class manner and fully guaranteed.

The Woodhull & Martin Store.

AMUSEMENTS.

New Plainfield Theatre

PLAYING ALL THE LEADING ATTRACTIONS

W. J. COUNIHAN - - - - Manager

Thursday, May 7th.
AMATEUR NIGHT.
Salisbury's Popular Moving Pictures and Illustrated Songs.
Prices, 10c and 20c.

Friday, May 8—
The Big Show
ROGERS BROTHERS in PANAMA
and a company of 75 people.
Prices 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50.

Watch and Wait for the Plainfield ALL STAR STOCK COMPANY, Headed by Alberta Galatin and an all Star Cast.

CONCERT

MISS MARY LANSING, Contralto.
MISS MAY DALAND, Pianist.
MR. HAROLD KENT, Baritone.
MR. J. FRANK RICE, Violinist.
PLAINFIELD CASINO
Tuesday, May 19, 08
CARDS ONE DOLLAR
On Sale at Armstrong's Pharmacy
5-5 7 9 11 12 14 16 18 19

WASHINGTON ROCK SPRING WATER

Bottlers of high-class soft drinks, Ginger Ale, Soda Water and Pure Spring Water, and Siphon Goods. Private families' and parties' patronage is solicited.

Henry Pedeflous,
TELEPHONE 670-R
Hotel Pedeflous, Plainfield

Blue Stone Sidewalks.

If you want the best Blue Stone sidewalks, curbs, etc., call on

J. W. Manhattan,
50 Elm St.

Corporation Notice.

Corporation Notice of application of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield, to the Court of Common Pleas, of Union County, for the appointment of Commissioners to assess benefits for street improvements.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Act of the Legislature entitled, "An Act to Authorize Improvement of Streets and Highways in Cities of this State and to provide for the Payment of the Expenses of the same," approved June 13, 1898, and amendments and supplements thereto, that application will be made by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield to the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Union, at the Court House, in the City of Elizabeth, on the twentieth day of May, A. D. 1908, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as the said court can hear the said appication, for the appointment of three commissioners, who shall be freeholders and residents of the City of Plainfield, as Commissioners to estimate and assess benefits respectively conferred upon the several lots and parcels of land and real estate peculiarly benefitted by the permanent improvement of streets under the ordinances of said city whose titles are hereinafter specified, and to perform the duties and execute the powers conferred by said Acts of the Legislature. The titles of the ordinances above referred to are as follows:

"An Ordinance for the permanent improvement of certain streets and portions of streets of the City of Painfield, with permanent and durable macadam pavement, and to provide the necessary funds in advance for the collection of assessments for benefits," approved Dec. 15, 1905;

"An Ordinance for the permanent improvement of certain streets and portions of streets of the City of Plainfield, with permanent and durable macadam pavement, and to provide the necessary funds in advance of the collection of assessments for benefits," approved July 5, 1906;

"A Supplement to an ordinance entitled 'An Ordinance for the permanent improvement of certain streets and portions of streets of the City of Plainfield, with permanent and durable macadam pavement, and to provide the necessary funds in advance of the collection of assessments for benefits,' approved July 5, 1906," approved April 1, 1907; and

"An Ordinance for the permanent improvement of certain streets and portions of streets of the City of Plainfield, with permanent and durable macadam pavement, and to provide the necessary funds in advance of the collection of assessments for benefits," approved May 16, 1907; and the streets and parts of streets macadamized under said ordinances are as follows:

Park Terrace, from the easterly curb line of Belvidere Avenue to the westerly curb line of Berkeley Avenue;

Berkeley Avenue, from the southerly curb line of Park Terrace to the southwesterly curb line of Leland Avenue;

Webster Place, from the southerly curb line of Putnam Avenue to a point 183 feet north of the northerly side line of Watchung Avenue;

Berckman Street, from the southeasterly crosswalk to South Avenue to the northwesterly crosswalk of East Seventh Street;

Richmond Street, from the southerly crosswalk of Putnam Avenue to the northerly crosswalk of Watchung Avenue;

Kensington Avenue, from the southerly crosswalk of Watchung Avenue to the macadamizing already constructed on Prospect Avenue;

Division Street, from the southeasterly curb line of West Fifth Street to the northwesterly curb line of West Sixth street;

John Street, from the southeasterly curb line of West Fourth Street to the northwesterly curb line of West Seventh Street;

West Second Street, from the southwesterly curb line of Liberty Street to the northeasterly curb line of Plainfield Avenue;

Randolph Road, from the centre line of Arlington Avenue to the bridge over Cedar Brook;

Arlington Place, from the southwesterly curb line of Park Avenue to the northeasterly curb line of Arlington Avenue;

Cottage Place, from the northeasterly curb line of Washington Street to the southwesterly curb line of Richmond Street;

Park Lane, from the easterly curb line of Woodland Avenue to the westerly curb line of Belvidere Avenue;

Elmwood Place, from the southeasterly curb line of West Front Street to the northwesterly curb line of West Second Street;

College Place, from the southeasterly curb line of West Eighth Street to the northwesterly crosswalk at West Ninth Street;

Denmark Road, from the present macadam on Berkeley Avenue, southeastly 381 feet;

Sycamore Street, from the southeasterly curb line of East Fourth Street to the northwesterly curb line of East Fifth Street;

Hillside Avenue, from the present macadam at Evergreen Avenue to a point 540 feet south thereof;

West End Avenue, from the northwesterly crosswalk at West Front Street to the bridge over Green Brook.

By order of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield.

JAMES T. MacMURRAY,
City Clerk of the City of Plainfield.
Dated, May 4, 1908. 5 5 12 18

Capital and surplus $250,000.00

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK of Plainfield.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS:
A. J. Brunson, President
J. A. Smith, Vice President
D. M. Runyon, Cashier
W. R. Coddington,
J. A. Hubbard,
C. Frank French,
B. F. Corlell,
P. J. Zeglio, M. D.
E. H. Bird.

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS DRAW FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

NOTICE!

Having engaged a competent cutter from New York, the business formerly conducted by Robt. Gardner at 325 Watchung avenue will be continued. The same high standard of workmanship will be maintained.

M. F. GARDNER.
546

The Misses Burnett, of Madison avenue, will sail Saturday for an extended European tour.

A "TELLING EFFECT" IS DEFINED.

One lady telling another

PECK'S

is the store for you to trade.

SPRING FURNISHINGS

Carpets & Mattings

All the best kinds in large variety to please the most exacting requirements. Beautiful Oriental and Floral effects in all grades of Carpets, made, laid and lined free.

Ingrain - - -	75c
Brussells -	65c-1.00
Axminster -	1.10-1.25
Velvet -	1.00-1.35

Rugs.

You will enjoy the beautiful line of these popular goods we have in all the leading makes, well selected patterns in every kind from cheapest to best grade and at prices that are lowest now quoted.

Ingrain, 9x12 -	4.98-8.98
Brussells, 9x12	12.50-27.50
Axmin'r, 9x12	19.98-27.50
Velvet -	22.50-25.00

FURNITURE and BEDDING.

When buying these goods you need the dependable kind with the largest assortment of patterns to select from. This is what we offer you combined with lowest possible prices—prices for really good goods. Our large floor space is just crowded with nice clean desirable goods that will appeal to you.

Awnings.

Now is the time to plan your orders, for the hot weather will come and you will want good Awnings—and that's our kind, always the best.

Shades.

Get our estimate for your shade work, for we do a good job and do it reasonable—and carry the largest assortment of goods in this city.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON,
BABCOCK BUILDING, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

LADIES' AND GENT'S SUITS
CLEANED AND PRESSED

G. O. KELLER,
'PHONE 857-J 125 PARK AVENUE

MATHUSHEK & SON PIANOS

appeal to all lovers of the beautiful in music. They possess the rare quality of tone that is a delight to all.

Every courtesy given to visitors and prospective buyers at our wareroom.

Beautiful catalogue mailed upon request.

MATHUSHEK & SON PIANO CO.,
310 W. Front St., Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 910-J

PATENT LEATHER SAILORS $1.00

Bonn's 140 WEST FRONT ST

BANDED SAILORS 75c to $2.75

A SPLENDID SHOWING OF TRIMMED HATS at $5

formerly $6, $7 and $8, all colors, stylish shapes, including Sailors, and all trimmed with the choicest materials.

Untrimmed Hats, all colors and black, formerly $2.00 to $2.75, now each.....$1.50

A fine assortment of Wings, Owlheads and Fancy Feathers, all colors, also fine French Flowers and Foliage, all at very moderate prices.

543

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Henry S. Garretson and Wilson S. Frederick are in Trenton today attending the Republican conventions. Mr. Garretson was elected delegate to the State convention, and was with his fellow delegates at Taylor's Opera House at noon. Mr. Frederick, delegate to the district convention, was in the session held at 10:30 in the Republican rooms. From New Market, William Hamilton was the delegate to the State convention and R. P. F. Von Minden to the district convention. All the delegates were uninstructed.

An Epworth League rally of Group Four will be held in the Methodist church tonight, when delegates from out-of-town will be present in force. The committee has arranged for a social hour to follow the business session.

Assessor John H. L. Peters will attend a meeting of the County Board for the Equalization of Taxes, to be held at Somerville tomorrow.

Mrs. Mary H. Casselberry, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her son, Rev. W. W. Casselberry, pastor of the Methodist church.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The floral offering, sent by the Clinton Avenue baseball team, to the funeral of "Gus" Frentz yesterday afternon, was a fitting tribute to one who had opposed them in the fight for the Inter City League pennant last season. The two teams have always been rivals for supremacy on the diamond, but for all this the best of friends. Such acts tend to strengthen such friepship and help the national game.

Manager Albert expects to have Johnson of Garwood, in the box against the Star A. C. team of Newark, in the game Saturday on the local diamond.

George H. Johnston is the local representative at the Republican convention being held today at Trenton. Marshall John Logan is representing the borough.

The Gypsies who were encamped on Mountain avenue, have folded their tents and moved on to their next stop.

The evangelistic meetings are being continued this week in the Baptist church. Services being held every night.

William Sprigel, a former resident here, but now of Newark, has been visiting friends in town.

Joseph Schwallbach has taken a position with the Seeley Paper Mill Co.

(Additional suburban news on page 2.)

MUCH INTEREST IN SUIT.

Elizabeth Awaits Result of Freeman-Woodruff Litigation.

Elizabeth, May 5.—There is much interest among local residents in a suit over a piece of property which is expected to come up at the May term of the county courts. About four years ago a Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Freeman, of Elizabeth, purchased a plot of ground at Roselle avenue and Larch street, Roselle Park, from Abraham Woodruff. Six months later Freeman built a house, fronting on Roselle avenue and three feet from the sidewalk on Larch street.

A short time ago Abram Woodruff deeded his brother, Noah Woodruff, a butcher in the borough, and a chosen freeholder, some land adjoining the Freeman property. The freeholder was under the impression he owned Larch street, and began fencing it off. When Mr. and Mrs. Freeman protested, claiming their property on a corner street, Mr. Woodruff said he knew what he was doing, and that there was no Larch street.

Juniors' Second Birthday.

In commemoration of the second anniversary of the founding of Plainfield Council, No. 293, Jr. O. U. A. M., State lodge officers spoke on the growth of the lodge at aspecial celebration and smoker held in the lodge rooms last night. The out-of-town speakers were State Councilor Thompson, of New Egypt, State Past Councilor Frank R. Sharp, of Camden, and State Secretary William Myers, of Trenton. After the "birthday" exercises, tobacco and cigars were distributed and a social hour enjoyed. The committee in charge of the affair comprised William E. Richards, Charles Montfort and William Hand.

Probationer Admits Stealing Wheel.

Petman Robinson, a colored boy who is under probation, admitted to Judge Runyon in the city court, this morning that he had stolen a bicycle from Walter Lanson, ten years old, of East Third street. The wheel was found in his possession and he at first maintained that he had purchased it from a Scotch Plains junkman. He was committed to a cell pending the arrival of Captain Irwin.

DIED.

HAWKINS—At her late residence, 437 East Seventh street, on Monday, May 4, 1908, Mary J., widow of Joseph B. Hawkins, in her 79th year.

Funeral services in the Sunday-school room of the Park Avenue Baptist church, on Thursday, May 7, at 2 p. m. 5 5 2

NUMEROUS PETITIONS RECEIVED BY COUNCIL

Numerous petitions were received at the May meeting of the Common Council, last night, and were referred to the proper committees to be reported upon later. Among these were ones for three electric lights and four hydrants to be located in the vicinity of Randolph road, Cameron and Lennox avenues. Mrs. K. M. Stelle, of Union street, protested against the proposition to macadamize that street, on account of the present hard times. The petition of W. J. Aikens and others for an electric light on Mason place, between West Third and Fourth streets, was on motion of Mr. Montgomery, granted.

W. H. Abbott and others requested the Common Council to use its influence to have the Public Service Corporation extend its electric light wires through Hillside and Putnam avenues. This was referred to the public affairs committee.

The resignation of Lous S. Keily, as a regular fireman, was received and promptly accepted. Mayor C. J. Fisk appointed Andrew McConnell and Wesley J. Dunn as regular members of the fire department and the appointments were confirmed.

As secretary to the Mayor, Leon R. Thurlow through a communication, invited the Common Council and city officials, as well as Mayor Townsend and the Borough Council to attend the annual inspection of the city police and fire departments to be held at Mayor Fisk's home Saturday afternoon. The invitation was accepted, and the clerk instructed to forward the same to the Borough Council.

The April report of Overseer of the Poor A. D. Ayers, showed a total expenditure of $414.92. Horace G. Adams, as clerk of the district court reported receipts of $99 29 and expenditures of $30.62, with a balance of $68.67 for the past month.

Through a resolution offered by Mr. Gloak, chairman of the street and sewer committee, the committee was authorized to apply to the Court of Common Pleas for the appointment of commissioners of assessment in the matter of street improvement work here. The application will be made to the court on Wednesday, May 20.

On motion of Mr. Hibbard, Joseph Harrigan's petition for permission to erect a building of concrete at 929 South avenue, was granted, and a similar motion prevailed in the matter of the petition of J. Fred MacDonald asking for permission to remove a stable on East Front street from part of a lot to another The New York and New Jersey Telephone Company was also given permission to erect two poles on the fire department property at 149 East Second street.

Mr. Mygatt gave notice that at the next regular meeting he would move to amend rules 16, 29, and 38, correcting inaccuracies that exist in them. A resolution offered by Councilman Charles Randolph authorized the alms committee to expend $400 for repairs at the Industrial Home.

On motion of Mr. Gloak, the ordinance providing for the macadamizing of certain streets was adopted on third reading, Mr. Mygatt alone voting in the negative. A resolution offered by Mr. Buxton and adopted, authorized the Mayor and city treasurer to borrow $3,000 for street improvements, and another resolution offered by Mr. Buxton and adopted, provided for the transfer of $5,000 from the general fund to the fire fund and $1,000 from the general fund to the poor fund. Mr. Buxton also called up on third reading the tax ordinance and it was adopted.

When Robert Hall, chairmain of the auditing committee, presented the bills, a question arose as to whether the firemen's increase of wages should be dated from January 1, as in the case of the police department. He said that there had been some criticism of the matter, but inasmuch as the policemen had received their increase from that time he saw no reason why the fireman should not be treated the same way. He had asked the corporation counsel for an opinion, but the latter had been unable to prepare it in time for the meeting. It was finally decided to pay the firemen the increased wages from January 1.

Councilman Frank Randolph moved that when Council adjourn it be to meet on Monday night, May 11, to consider the bids for the erection of the new police headquarters' building.

A. M. RUNYON & SON, UNDERTAKERS.
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York Office—50 Great Jones Street, Tel. call, 3945-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 315.

T. A. MOORE.
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.
Office—508 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 790
Residence—614 East 6th St. " 741-R
New York Office, 27 Great Jones St.
Telephone Call, 324-Spring.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS.
Office 116 Park Av., Tel. 884-w. Res., 417 W. 3d St., Tel. 903-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2094 Gramercy

Fresh Vegetables
Asparagus, Wax Beans, Tomatoes,
Radishes, Beets, Lettuce,
Strawberries, Green Beans, Cucumbers.
Fruit
Oranges, Grape Fruit, Apples.
Malaga Grapes, Figs.
NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS—Watchung Avenue and Fifth Street.
Efficient and rapid delivery service to all parts of the city.

MONO
Fireproof Storage Warehouse.
Separate Rooms, Fireproof Partitions. Clean, Dry, Secure.
Inspection Invited—Open 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.
FURNITURE REMOVED WITH CARE.
Telephone 522-W. Opposite freight depot.

GEO. W. COLE.
UNDERTAKER & EMBALMER.
200 West Second St. Telephone 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

Chas. L. Stanley,
159 East Front St. 'Phone 928.
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

L. L. MANNING & SON,
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Avenue and West Front Street. Opposite First Baptist Church.

Classified Advertisements

Rates for advertisements under this heading one cent a word for first insertion, one half a cent a word for consecutive insertions of the same advertisement running for less than one month; one month, fifty cents a line (6 words to a line), double rate for advertisement set in capitals.

No advertisements received for less than ten cents.

Copy for death and marriage notices and classified advertising accepted up to 2:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS is not at liberty to give any information regarding advertisements that require an address in care of this office. Persons answering these ads. should mail or leave answers as stated in advertisements.

Help Wanted.

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework; small family; no washing; good wages; references required. 911 Watchung avenue. 5 4 2

WANTED — Competent woman, canvasser; a hustler. Address A. H., care Press. 5 5 3

WANTED—At once 2 chambermaids, 2 waitresses and cooks, first-class only with good references. Mrs. R. Murray's Registry, 726 West Front street. 5 4 2

WANTED—White woman, a competent cook and laundress. 836 West Seventh street. 5 1 3

WANTED—This week, competent white woman for housecleaning. Apply 520 West Eighth street. 5 4 3

Money to Loan.

$1,000 to $3,000 to loan; improved property only. C. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 5 2 3

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite Depot. 12 28 tf

MONEY to loan on band and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 12 18 tf

LOANS negotiated. J. T. Vail. 1 14 tf

TO LOAN—Money on good mortgages. George F. Brown, 94 Somerset street tf

Situations Wanted.

TWO young white girls (sisters) want general housework by the day. Address Sisters, care Daily Press. 5 5 3

YOUNG girl, lately landed, for general housework or as nurse. Can be seen mornings this week at 119 East Sixth street. 5 5 3

COLORED woman wants work by the day at washing and ironing. 539 South Second street. 5 5 3

NURSE—Speaks French, German, English; first-class Plainfield references; also young nurse maids and waitresses want positions. Mrs. Rienhold, 222 New street. 'Phone Reinhold, 222 New street. 'Phone

DRESSMAKER would like work by the week in family; good remodeler; references. Address Sealby, care Daily Press. 5 1 6

Situations Wanted.

WHITE laundress wants fine washing at home. Shirts, waists and children's clothes. Address M. A. M., care of Press.

DRESSMAKING and ladies' tailoring; experienced, Late with best houses in New York. Desires a few more customers. Room 307 Babcock building. 5 4 3

CHAUFFEUR Japanese machinist, sober, honest, careful driver; two years' experience; any gasoline cars, wants position; private family; highest recommendation; moderate wages. Address F. B., care Press. 5 4 7

COMPETENT help constantly on hand; white and colored. Hall's Employment Agency (originally The Plainfield), station driveway; 'phone 322-J. 4 22 1m

DRESSMAKER would like work by the week in family; good remodeler; references, S., 604 West Seventh street. 5 1 6

WANTED—Position as butler; first-class references. Call 628 West Fourth street. 5 5 2

COLORED girl wants situation at day's work. Old Nurses' Home, Muhlenberg place, upstairs. 5 5 3

SITUATION wanted by a 30-year-old, faithful and sober man. Address A. B., Daily Press, City.

PAINTER—Frst-class from New York, has done here a house, wants days work; reasonable. Address W., Postoffice. 5 4 3

COLORED young man wants work of any kind. 410 East Third street. 5 4 3

YOUNG Polish girl wants position to do general housework; good references. 94 Somerset street. 5 2 3

COLORED girl wants position; general housework; family of two or three, adults; first-class cook and waitress; no washing; best of references. Address letters only, S. H. Barnwell, 24 West 60th street, New York City. 5 5 2

COLORED woman wants work by the day. 635 West Third street. 5 5 5

WANTED—Laundry work. Call 518 West Fourth street. 5 2 3

Rooms and Board.

GOOD accommodations; low rates. Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

FURNISHED room to let. Address New Madison, care Daily Press. 5 5 3

FEW boarders wanted. Mrs. M. Fosbre, 659 Essex street. 5 1 12

FURNISHED room to let. 206 West Front street. 5 4 3

TO LET—Newly furnished room in select apartment; centre of town; all improvements. A. C., care Press. 5 4 6

LARGE front room with or without board. 137 East Fifth street. 5 1 6

TWO pleasant connecting rooms and small rooms, with first-class board. 406 East Fifth street. 4 29 6

WATCHUNG AVE., 724, near 7th St., desirable rooms with first class board. 4 13 1m

TWO communicating rooms with board; sunny exposure; bath adjoining; first class neighborhood; excellent table. 132-134 Crescent avenue. 9 19 tf

FURNISHED rooms with or without board. 440 East Sixth street. 4 28 6

CAN accommodate two gentlemen with rooms and board. 141 East Fifth street. 2 10 tf

For Rent.

FLAT to let. Inquire 18 Craig place. 4 14 tf

FOR RENT—Apartment, four rooms, bath room, all improvements, steam heat; in fine condition; rent $18; location, corner Fifth street and Watchung avenue. Apply to A. M. Lederer, 117 West Front St. 4 23 tf

FOR RENT—New house just completed; seven rooms and bath; rent $21. Address O. I. C., Daily Press. 4 24 tf

TO LET—Eight room house, on West Fourth street, near Park avenue; all newly papered and painted; city water and gas. B. Mann, 120 West Fourth street. 4 28 tf

FOR RENT—Store on Richmond street; also stable for one horse. Apply George Staats, 306 Richmond street. 4 29 6

SEVEN room house; all improvements. 98 Jackson avenue. Apply 84 Fairview avenue. 4 29 6

FOR RENT OR SALE—320 Somerset street, 12 rooms, city water, modern plumbing, electric lights, all improvements. Inquire 328 Somerset street, or Golding, 133 West 65th street, New York. 5 4 6

FOR RENT—Commodious offices in the Woodhull & Martin building suitable for lawyers, dentists, insurance companies, etc.; will arrange to suit tenant. 4 20 tf

THREE rooms to let. 732 West Third street. 4 6 tf

COMMODIOUS new 8-room house on West Front street; all improvements, including gas an electric light; large garden and lawn and a variety of fruit; rent very reasonable. Robert Murray, 726 West Front street. 5 4 2

TO LET—Three-room flat. Inquire 39 Summit avenue. 5 4 6

SEVEN-ROOM apartments to let; all improvements. 937 West Front street; also six-room house. 3 28 tf

TO LET—New 6-room house; $16. Inquire Kinsman, Dunellen. 4 1 tf

5-ROOM flat to let, $15; 6-room flat, $12; stable to let, $8. Charles Hand.

APARTMENT to let in the Lincoln, 110 West Fourth street; all improvements. 5 5 4

FOR RENT—New house with modern conveniences, suitable for two families. Inquire at Dunellen Postoffice. Mrs. James Roach. 5 5 3

TO LET—Two or three nice rooms, unfurnished, for light housekeeping; bath same floor; five minutes from station. 410 New street. 5 5 tf

TO LET—Very desirable suite of unfurnished rooms on second floor. 315 West Sixth street. 5 5 3

TO LET—5 rooms, water and gas. Apply 705 West Third street. 5 5 3

NEW six-room house to let, 1219 West Third street; six-room house, 1424 Willever street, near Safe Works; two apartments, four rooms each, all improvements, or the whole house, 216 Prescott place. J. Sacher, 731 West Third St. 4 3 tf

NEW 7-room house, on Cameron avenue, for sale or to let; furnace, open plumbing, gas and city water. Inquire E. Beys, Cameron avenue. 5 4 1m

TO LET—Nice furnished rooms; all improvements; fine neighborhood; near business centre; five minutes walk from R. R. station. Owner 216 East Fifth street. 5 4 3

TO LET—Three rooms; improvements; centrally located. Call 415 West Second street. 5 4 3

ROOMS to let. 11 Grove street. 4 30 6

TO RENT—Second and third stories of 316 and 318 West Front street, 50x85 feet. Jos. W. Gavett. 4 3 tf

TO LET—9-room house, all improvements; 3 Verdon street. G. W. V. Moy. 3 13 tf

TO LET—4 rooms, upper floor, water. John Manley, insurance, 321 Park avenue. 3 17 tf

Lost and Found.

LOST—Monday afternoon on West Sixth street or Seventh streets, light rubber coat. Reward for return of same to 827 Third place.

LOST—Tuesday, silver class pin. Reward for return to Press office.

LOST—Girl's grey sweater. Reward if returned to 245 East Ninth street. 5 5 2

LOST — Monday afternoon between the Seminary and Central avenue, via Eighth street, gold-filled Loignette; association makes it only valuable to owner. Please return to 818 Central avenue. 5 5 3

LOST—Pair of eye-glasses in the West End. Reward if left at 1217 West Front street. 5 4 2

LOST—On Sunday, a spotted coach dog, answers to the name of "Spades." Finder please return to E. S. Hooley, 70 Rockview avenue; reward. 4 20 tf

Miscellaneous.

COMPLETE line of automobile supplies and tires at lowest New York prices. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

AUTOMOBILES to hire at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co., telephone 991-J. 4 15 3m

A FIRST CLASS place to turn out horses to recruit, will have good attention; also storage for wagons. Address I., care Daily Press. 4 13 1m

STENOGRAPHIC and typewriting office; all kinds of work handled by an experienced stenographer. Miss Haskard, Babcock building, Tel. 205. 4 7 1m

FIRST-CLASS places and first-class help always on hand. Swedish Intelligence Office, 22 Somerset place, 'Phone 196-W. 8 22 tf

AUTOMOBILES repaired and overhauled by first class mechanics at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

THE EXCHANGE, 325 West Front street, telephone 901-R. Do you have furniture, carpets, etc., for sale? Do not fail to notify us; we pay 50 per cent. more than anybody else. 11 29 tf

LAWN mowers ground and set at your own place. Richard Thomas, Dunellen. 4 29 6

GARBAGE removed regularly and reasonably. George Christensen, R. F. D. No. 1. 4 21 1m

MRS. R. Murray's Registry and Employment Bureau for first-class help only; all nationalities. 726 West Front sereet, Main line cars pass the door. 5 4 2

IF YOU want your watch, clock or jewelry repaired take them to Brown, 124 Watchung Ave. 4 18 1m

FURNITURE stored and sold on commission. Martin Hansen, 316 and 318 West Front street. 5 5 1m

GRADING, LAWNS REMODELED, SOIL AND SOD FURNISHED; PLANTS AND SHRUBS PLANTED, ETC.; PROMPT, SATISFACTORY. J. M. WELSH, 754 KENSINGTON AVENUE. TEL. 148-J. 5 4 6

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S., graduate American Veterinary College, N. Y., pet animals a specialty. OFFICE WITH ALBERT HEDDEN, livery, 118 East Fourth street, telephone 114-J. 1 27 tf

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans, Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 4 tf

BABIES crochet sacques for sale; all prices; also ladies' knitted sweaters made to order. Mrs. Mayer, 54 Pearl street, North Plainfield. tf

CONTRACTS taken for care of lawns and gardens for the season. J. M. Welsh, 754 Kensington avenue. Tel. 148-J. 5 4 6

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer; sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

CESSPOOLS and vaults cleaned, odorless excavator; good work; lowest prices. T. M. Ingraham, Plainfield R. F. D. No. 1. 12 10 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

Real Estate Agents.

HOUSES, new, for sale or rent, all improvements, excellent location, East End. Inquire M. A. Rose, 301 Watchung avenue, 'Phone 273-J. 4 14 1m

HAVE clients for farms, houses, lots in Plainfield and vicinity; also all kinds of property for sale. Address Real Estate, care Press. 5 5 6

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent or exchange. Edmund Rushmore, 208 North avenue, telephone No. 49. Plainfield; 42 Broadway, New York 10 10 tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield; telephone 44. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; properties that I have picked up in trade that I can sell you for less than market prices; if you want to buy or have anything to sell come and see me. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, 39 Prospect place, North Plainfield. 11 20 tf

REAL ESTAE for sale, rent and exchange at bargain figures, insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

FOR SALE—If you want to buy or sell real estate, please call, write or 'phone Ira L. LaRue, next to station, next to bargain. Office 'phone 752-R, residence 'phone 845-L. 12 19 tf

Real Estate for Exchange.

FINE new house, centrally located; 10 rooms, all improvements; gas and electric light, hot water heating, parquet floors; would exchange for moderate priced lots. J. T. Vail, 177 North Ave. 4 14 tf

For Sale.

4-ROOM cottage; acre of land; $2,200. Wm. Bourgeois, Laramie road. 5 1 1m

FOR SALE, RENT OR EXCHANGE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; also country homes and farms at bargain prices. C. H. Snyder, 221 Park avenue, room 4. 4 18 1m

FARM FOR SALE—Four acres, all tillable, well adapted for a chicken farm; house six rooms, stable for four horses; situate about one mile from Plainfield, N. J. Inquire of John P. Emmons, 197 North avenue. 5 1 6

FOR SALE—Glenns Falls natural wood open two seat wagon, canopy top, at half price. Address W. E. Lowe, 49 Wall street, New York. 4 30 6

FOR SALE—Two horse wagon cheap; must be sold. 78 Greenbrook road. 5 4 4

FOR SALE cheap, poultry house, and run, at 64 Manning avenue. 5 4 3

STANHOPE carriage in fine condition; has been used little; good for pleasure or for doctor's carriage. Address Stanhope, care Daily Press. 5 4 6

HORSE FOR SALE, WITH TWO CARRIAGES, HARNESS, ETC., COMPLETE. PRICE MODERATE. ADDRESS X. Y. X., CARE DAILY PRESS. 5 2 3

AUTOMOBILE house for sale at a bargain. Address J. M., care press. 5 4 6

FOR SALE—Small pony, cart and harness; very pretty and gentle. Address J. H. Campbell, 205 Park avenue, City. 5 5 5

FOR SALE—Automobile runabout, cost $950; price $225; in fine condition. Address A. R., Daily Press. 5 5 tf

FOR SALE—Pony, cart and harness. Apply John Coyle, West Front street and Waynewood avenue. 5 5 3

FOR SALE—Gas range; good condition. Apply 97 Rockview avenue. Address 325 Franklin place. 5 5 3

FOR SALE—Finely bred sorrel horse, rubber tired runabout and light buggy harness; may be seen at 37 Albert St. 4 20 tf

FOR SALE—At once for $4,200, in select neighborhood, large light modern house, with large veranda, 8 rooms, reception hall and bath; electric lights; all improvements; quarter oak floors, white enameled throughout, fine graded lot, 50x175 feet; concrete walks, fruit and shade trees; value of house $4,500; value of lot $1,200. Will accept part cash, leaving mortgage at 5 per cent. Apply at 93 Grandview avenue. 5 5 2

FOR SALE—The finest lot in Plainfield, on which to build a row of apartment houses. Chas. L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building, Plainfield, N. J. 2 21 tf

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

Poultry and Eggs.

SETTING hens for sale. 48 Rock avenue. 5 1 5

EGGS FOR HATCHING—White Leghorn, White Plymouth Rocks, Buff Orpingtons and Pekin Ducks, from the best strains. Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, Tel. 451-J. 4 14 1m

EGGS FOR HATCHING—Fishel strain; White Rocks, $1 per 13; Gardner and Dunning and Welles strain; Barred Rocks, $2; Black Minorcas, $1. Barred Rock Cockerels for sale. No. 1041 Dunellen avenue. 4 9 1m

SETTINGS of 13 from prize stock. Blk Minorca $1.50, Buff Orpington $3 White or Partridge Wyandotte $2. 100, $10; 50, $5. 234 West 2nd St. 4 3 tf

140 EGG Cyphers incubator for sale, 1906 model; perfect condition. Address Incubator, care Press. 4 30 6

INCUBATOR chicks for sale. Apply 9 Codington avenue. 4 30 6

EGGS for setting, from Orpingtons, Black Leghorns, Indian Game, and India Runner Ducks, corner Grant and Sherman Aves. 3 25 tf

R. I. RED, Barred Plymouth Rock and White Leghorn eggs from the leading strains of the country; $1 per sitting, $5 per hundred. George Howard, Jr., South Bound Brook, N. J. 2 21 3m

Wanted—Miscellaneous.

WANTED—$1,500 on first mortgage at 6 per cent. on Plainfield property. Frank E. Zeller, Stirling, N. J. 5 5 3

WANTED—A good fresh young cow; good milker. 731 West Eighth street. 5 5 3

WANTED—Good horse and top wagon, suitable for light delivery use. Address Horse, care Press. 5 4 3

LAUNDRY work wanted by the day. 215 East Fourth street. 5 4 6

SOME STATE NEWS BRIEFS

Charles Kimm, a teamster, of Woodbury, was badly injured by a cave-in at the gravel pits Saturday.

The Memorial Day oration at Gloucester will be delivered by Rev. A. C. Gearheart, pastor of the First Baptist church.

Colonel Nathan Haines, former Senator from Burlington county, who has been ill for a long time, was reported in a critical condition at his home in Burlington yesterday.

Incendiaries are suspected of starting a fire Saturday which totally destroyed a newly completed distilling plant on Highland avenue, Passaic, owned by Samuel Turetsky. The loss is estimated at $9,000.

The Gloucester Board of Education will meet tonight and try to elect the teachers for the coming year, but as the board consists of three Republicans and three Democrats a deadlock is feared. There are a number of applicants for the position of supervising principal made vacant by the resignation of Professor Sullivan.

Charles Buck, a blind negro, of 1404 Broadway, appeared at Camden police headquarters yesterday and said he had been held up by footpads and shot in the hand. He was taken to the Cooper Hospital, and later confessed that he had shot himself in an attempt to commit suicide, becoming despondent.

At the recent meeting of the Millville Council Andrew J. Mathis asked for the return of $201.69. Mathis claims that during the years 1881, 1883 and 1884 he paid $80 for license fee for a poolroom and has now discovered that the city had no authority to collect the money. He wants it all back with interest to date. Council does not seem disposed to return the money, and Mathis will probably sue.

Bishop McFaul officiated Sunday, at the dedication of the new Church of the Lady of Mt. Carmel, Fourth and Division streets, Camden. Rev. Father Peter Scharar, of the Church of Sts. Peter and Paul, was in charge of the exercises, assisted by Rev. Father Garmause, of Norristown. The new edifice is of brick and will be used principally by an Italian congregation. It cost $3,300.

The old mansion at Merchantville, which was the home of the late William B. Kempton, and was occupied by his widow and son, James Kempton, was desroyed by fire at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The loss is nearly $9,000, covered by insurance. Young Kempton, who was alone in the house, his mother being in Philadelphia, was awakened by a pet fox terrier, which had jumped upon his bed and was pulling the sleeve of his night robe. He at once started for a room in which was $700 in cash, but the money was lost.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS

Gus and Max Rogers, surrounded by a corterie of capable associates, in their latest musical comedy offering, "The Rogers Brothers in Panama," will be seen Friday night at the New Plainfield theatre. That the play has proven so successful this season is not to be wondered at when the talent involved in making, producing and acting it, is considered. First, the company is one of exceptional merit. There are Gus and Max Rogers, those two funny German comedians who for ten consecutive years have convulsed the American theatre-going public with laughter. Miss Marion Stanley, one of the sprightliest bits of femininity on the English speaking stage who will be remembered for her admiral portrayal of Alice O'Grady in last season's success, "The Rogers Brothers in Ireland," and Josie Barrows and Nanna Brown, two pretty talented girls. Then there is Avita Sanchez, a native of Panama and a rare beauty of the Spanish type who had a part with "The Spring Chicken" company last season, and Lottie Greenwood; Dick Temples, late with James Powers in "The Blue Moon," and Marie Cahill in "Moonshine;" George Lydecker, who played the Prince in "The Prince of Pilsen;" Joseph Kane, who starred last season at the head of his own company; Walter Ware, another popular favorite; Henry Lehmann, Robinson Newbold, Alexander Kleinman, John M. Coughlin and several just as prominent. Ben Teal, one of the best known masters of stage craft, has personally supervised the production and it is his boast that never before in his long career as a producer, has he ever given the public anything so elaborate and enjoyable. It was a matter of pride with him and he put in many long, wearisome weeks preparing and rehearsing the large company. That his labors were not in vain is evidenced by the fact that both press and public have been unanimous in praising his efforts.

George Williams, of Newark, spent Sunday with friends in Plainfield.

Miss Hope Ivins, of Hillside avenue, in company with several friends will sail June 2, for an extended trip in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Patterson, of this city, are planning to spend the summer out of town, and upon their return in the fall they will take possession of their handsome new home on West Eighth street, which has just been completed.

BAMBERGER'S
"THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE"
MARKET, HALSEY & BANK STS.

Housekeepers' Opportunity Week.
Sale of Carpets, Rugs, Upholstery, Beds, Beddings Linens and Housefurnishings

L. Bamberger & Co
NEWARK, N. J.

LAWN TOOLS

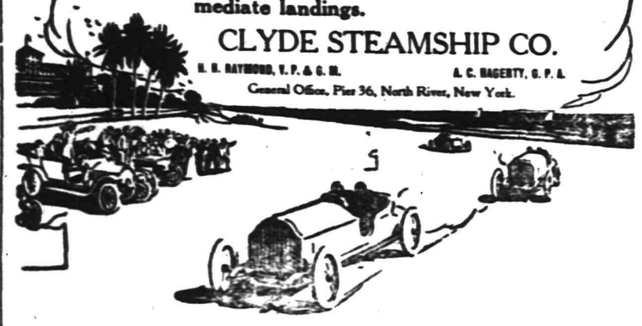
It isn't too late to buy if you have discovered that you need a new Mower this year. You must have heard of our easy running, close cutting, durably constructed Lawn Mowers. They have world-wide reputation.

We also have all other kinds of tools for lawn and garden development.

HOSE, REELS, SPRINKLERS, RAKES, GRASS SHEARS, HOOK, WEEDERS, EDGERS, PRUNERS, ETC.

Gayle Hardware Company
Tel. 468-R. Front St. and Park Ave.

DELIGHTS BEYOND PARALLEL
are the rewards of motor enthusiasts who participate in or witness the annual automobile contests on Ormond's coquina sands. The ideal trip is by the
CLYDE LINE STEAMERS
the only direct all-water route from
New York to Jacksonville, Florida
with a short stop at Charleston, S. C.
St. Johns River Service between Jacksonville, Palatka, De Land, Sanford and Enterprise, Fla., and intermediate landings.
CLYDE STEAMSHIP CO.
H. B. RAYMOND, T. P. & G. M. A. C. HAGERTY, G. P. A.
General Office, Pier 36, North River, New York.



W. D. THICKSTUN, Agent, 197 North Avenue.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR
TRUNKS, SUIT CASES OR BAGS
CALL AT
O. M. DUNHAM'S, 129 Park Ave
TRUNK STRAPS—ALL SIZES.

DRUGGISTS.

MOTH BALLS
Will save you your money over what might happen to your clothes.
They will insure your clothes being preserved thru the summer and will enable you to have them fresh and whole in the fall. Now is the time to buy MOTH BALLS.
C. M. Nagle's Pharmacy,
Front and Grove Sts. 'Phone 516.

Complete Line of
REXALL
Goods at
MILLER'S PHARMACY
Park Ave. & 4th St. Tel. 208.

Hodge's Pharmacy.
Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Tel. 62.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
EAST FRONT STREET
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Room.

HOTEL KENSINGTON
(Licensed)
WM. J. POULSON, Prop.
107-109-111 North Avenue.
Everything New and Up-to-date
An Inspection Solicited.

HOTEL IROQUOIS
Club breakfast from 6:30 to 10:30 a. m. Business Men's Lunch from 11:30 to 2:30 p. m.
ROOMS
First floor, $1 single; $1 50 double.
Second floor, 75c single; $1 double.
Third floor, 50c single; 75c double.
A LA CARTE 6:30 UNTIL 1 A. M.
Special Sunday Dinner from 12:30 to 2:30 p. m. 50c

Electricians!
Michaelsen & Hage
No. 148 E. Fifth St. Tel. 1077-J

VEGETABLES
Fresh From the Garden
Here are Vegetables that appeal to the appetite of an epicure, they are so good in quality, fresh and inviting to the taste. Tomatoes, Asparagus, String Beans, Beets Cucumbers, Lettuce, Radishes, etc., at prices that will just suit you.
W. W. DUNN,
THE PARK GROCER,
DUER STREET AND LINCOLN PLACE.

STOP AT
Central R. R. News Stands
for PLAINFIELD PRESS, always on sale. Daily and Sunday papers delivered, all magazines, weekly papers, novelties, back numbers a specialty. R. R. guides, automobile road and state maps, Phila. papers. Fine brand of Cigars and tobacco. Open Sundays.
F. M. WAGNER, Manager.

YOU WILL NEVER BUY A HOME WITH MONEY PAID FOR RENT IN THE PAST.
START NOW TO
OWN A HOME
of your own by taking our shares in
THE CENTRAL
BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION
OF PLAINFIELD.
J. F. MacDONALD, Secretary.
Smalley Building, 149 North Avenue.

McCULLOUGH'S STEAM MILL,
21 Steiner place, North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 517-J.
Furniture, Freight, Baggage Express and Rigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

Try a box of
DOBBINS' CIGARS.
Clear Havana Nickle Yara or any kind that you desire. Manufactured at 120 North Avenue, opposite Kensington Hotel, Plainfield, N. J.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Cedar Posts and Bean Poles. Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
69 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS,
P. O. Box 320.

Mountain House,
Mt. Bethel, N. J.
FRENCH RESTAURANT
Resort for Automobiles and Driving Parties
A. E. BINZ, Prop

COAL DEALERS.

Difference In Coal.
All coals may look alike to some people, but compare our "Lehigh" Coal with the Coal you bought somewhere else and you will see a difference.
You will notice that our Coal Burns Brighter, Gives More Heat, and Lasts Longer than any other Coal you ever bought before.
Boice, Runyon & Co.,
Coal, Lumber and Masons' Materials.
Park Ave., opp. North Ave.,
Plainfield N. J.

JOS. HARRIGAN
OLD COMPANY'S LEHIGH COAL.
Tel. 198 929 South Ave.

The best time to order your winter supply of
COAL
is now. Do not forget that
NASH
is ready to supply you.
Telephones 357-W 835-J.
Evenings 371-W.
OFFICE—130 WATCHUNG AVENUE

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers' Inn.
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 218 West Front Street. Telephone 23-L.

Coal I have on hand some very fine Hard and Medium Coal. All kept undersheds. Pea Coal. Coal
25 cents a ton reduction on cash orders.
L. A. RHEAUME,
148 East Fourth St. Telephone 440-W.
Yard, 674 South Second St. Telephone 280.

GORGE O. STEVENS
747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. H. Rugg & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 430 West Third St. Tel. 93.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

We call your attention to our fine display of
New Wall Papers.
We can't describe the patterns, but they are new, striking and effective, and with our large assortment we are sure to please.
Paints, Oils and Varnishes.
Woolston & Buckle,
145 North Avenue.

STRIKING COLORS
should not be sought in preference to those that have good lasting qualities, but when
PAINTS
are to be had which are both brilliant and durable, take care to secure that kind.
We have all kinds and grades of Paints, Oils, Colors and Varnishes, suitable for all kinds of work at the lowest prices to be found in this city.
Jas. C. Hansen,
Dealer in Wallpapers, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc
141 East Front Street
Estimates Furnished

1908 Wall Papers.
IMPORTED & AMERICAN GOODS.
C. CONOVER & CO.
Decorators, Painters and Paperhangers, Window and Plate Glass.
115 Elmwood Pl. Tel. 1145

W. S. CHEEVER
1326 Park Ave.
Painting and INTERIOR DECORATING, WALL PAPER of every description at the Lowest Prices.
'Phone No. 538-J.

NOTICE.
If you are dissatisfied with your paper service call on or call up
THE HUSTLER,
William H. Olmstead, 331 Watchung Avenue, near Fourth St. Successor to D.H. Blaney & Son
668-J Either 'Phone 668-J

AZIENZA
cures pimples and all inflammation of the skin. Used by people of refinement. Medicinal and toilet—25 and 50 cents.
CREAM.

SMALLEY BROS.
147 North Ave.
BUTCHERS
Our Specialty, Berkshire Pork
Try Our Berkshire Sausage Made on Premises.
Roasting and Broiling Chickens a Specialty.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83-A.

The Southern Restaurant,
232 West Second Street, corner Madison Avenue, now under new management. Meals served at all hours a la carte and table d'hote. Our own make bread and pastrys, all home cooking. The choice of everything is bought for the tables. Our price is reasonable. The place is now under the management of the well known New York caterer. T. H. Royster, Manager. Tel. 823-J. 1 18 tf

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 Watchung Av. Rear.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

JOHN WINZENREID,
Furniture and Freight Express.
Moving Vans and Storage.
312 Lee Place. 'Phone 840-R.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.
Renovating—Offices, stores and private residences. Service day or night. Furniture, china and glassware packed for shipping.
WM. A. KLINE, 611 W. 3d St.

Geo. H. Stagaard,
SHOEMAKING and REPAIRING.
108 CHURCH STREET.

TITUS H. LAURY
MASON AND BUILDER.
Office, 323 East Front Street.
Tile Setting, Mantel and Front Work.
Telephone 464-L.

TURKISH BATHS!
TAKE ONE
Ladies Mornings, Gentlemen Afternoons
Take Trolley to Sanitarium, Somerset Street.

Cleaning, Pressing and Dyeing.
Monthly Contracts.
Pressing called for and delivered.
EVENING DRESSES A SPECIALTY.
Ladies' Waists Cleaned, 25 cents upwards
Gents' Suits Cleaned $1.50
We do our own work at
M. A. Brown's, 218 West Second St.

William H. Pope,
ELECTRICIAN.
All kinds of electrical work done at reasonable prices.
116 NORTH AVENUE.

Rouse & Fullagar,
CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS,
117 Plainfield Avenue.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W Front St. Tel. 507-W.

Meat Market.
Choice Meats, Poultry, Fish and Oysters always on hand. Sugar cured Corned Beef. International Hams and Bacon.
F. Neidig, 94 Somerset St. Telephone 781

E. B. Maynard's
Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a specialty.
Tel. No. 754-R.
141 NORTH AVENUE.

JOHN WIRTH
(Successor to Henry Liefke.)
Bakery and Confectionery.
201-203 West Front St. Tel. No. 728
All orders delivered at short notice.

HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS
Silver trunks safely delivered to safety deposit vaults.
Furniture Moving Van and Baggage Delivery.
OFFICE 205 PARK AVENUE
Tel. 833-W. Residence Tel. 648-L

REAL ESTATE
Bought, Sold and For Rent.
J. SACHAR,
731 WEST THIRD STREET.

THE ART OF SHOPPING.

"Show me," a doctor once said, "a woman who does not like to shop, and I will venture the assertion that there is something radically wrong with her mental make-up. Shopping is distinctly a feminine vocation, and the joy that the average woman takes in it is to her credit."

But there are ways and ways of shopping—more bad ways, it is to be feared, than good. Too many women return home after an expedition to the stores footsore and weary, even the thought of bargainst which they may have acquired barely sustaining them. Instead of their minds being filled with the new things they have seen in the course of a break in the daily routine, they look back at the hours spent over the counters as a dreary round, after all, fatigue crowding out every other impression. So tired they may have become that they are doubtful about their judgment—and if this is not a pitiable ending to a day, what is? Their families are made to feel the strain to which they have been subjected. Their nerves are uppermost, and they show it.

Such women, it will be found, have as a rule, no well-defined plan in a shopping campaign. They rush madly from place to place, looking at things they do not by any possibility intend to purchase, and then have not sufficient time to buy what they really do want. It has not occurred to them to list the things intended to be bought. A little headwork would have saved their heels, to say nothing of their dispositions.

Again, if the shopping is an all-day affair, it is quite likely that they do not stop for a while about noon and take something sustaining for lunch, giving themselves a half-hour or so for rest. They are always too busy for this sort of thing. True, they may stop for a bite, but that does not satisfy the requirements. Along about 2 or 3 o'clock they will complain of feeling faint, or be forced to acknowledge that a headache is developing. Even such a warning is not always regarded; they think by persevering that they will make up in some measure for the failures of the earlier part of the day, with the result that when the home is reached they are discouraged with themselves and the world in general—a view of affairs which the waiting ones in the house will probably not be long in adopting.

Contrast with these luckless individuals the women who come through a shopping expedition almost, if not quite, as fresh as when they started out. How do these latter women work the marvel? By following, consciously or unconsciously, some such simple rules as these:

Map out the day's tour well beforehand.

Start early before the stores are crowded. This will help you and the salespeople as well.

If you are pressed for time, have purchases sent C. O. D. rather than wait for your change.

Do not allow yourself to be confused by looking at too many things, especially when there is little, if any, intention of purchasing.

If it is a que oitsnfo

If it is a question of getting lunch, remember that food will do you more harm than good if eaten hurriedly. Also, it is false economy to deny yourself the food which you may need. The judgment is not good when you are tired or hungry.

Remember that others may be nervous or fatigued as well as yourself. Think of the golden rule in your dealings with clerks.

Keep your mind alert to what is diverting, whether in the trolley, on the street or in the stores. A sense of humor is the best kind of balance wheel.

Finally do not attempt too much in one expedition. Other days are coming.

How Our Army is Formed.

The average citizen, it is safe to say, has a very hazy idea concerning the size and constitution of the United States army. A writer in Harper's Weekly gives some interesting facts bearing up this matter. The government dreams of an army numbering 70,000 men. The present strength is 57,000. Of the theoretical 70,000 soldiers the fifteen regiments of cavalry, which never lack their full complement, comprise nearly 14,000 officers and men, the six regiments of field artillery $5,500, the coast artillery corps close upon 20,000, the thirty regiments of infantry 27,000, the engineers 2,000, and the remainder consist of the staff corps, Indian scouts and a small number of native soldiers in Porto Rico and the Philippines. The total number of commisioned officers amounts to about 3,900.

Stokes Signs Commissions.

Trenton, May 5.—Former Governor Edward C. Stokes Saturday night took up the executive pen which he dropped four months ago and completed the last work of his administration by signing 137 commissions for National Guard officers. The commissions were made necessary by the reorganization of the National Guard last December under the provisions of the Dick law passed by Congress. The documents could not be engrossed at that time, and temporary commissions were issued. These will now recalled and the the engrossed commissions sent out in their places. The new commissions bear the date of December 10.

The Misses Cahoone, of Watchung avenue, will sail on the Lusitania, June 1, for a four months' tour through Europe.

MR. PRATT.

By Joseph C. Lincoln

Author of "Cap'n Eri" "Partners of the Tide"

Copyright 1907 A. S. Barnes and Company

Illustrations by T. D. Melvill

CHAPTER I.

The Masters.

I heard about the pair first from Emeline Eldredge, "Emmie T." we always call her. She was first mate to the cook at the Old Summer Home house that summer. She come down to the landing one morning afore breakfast and hove alongside of where I was setting in the stern of my sloop, the Dora Bassett, untangling fish lines. She had a tin pail in her fist, indicating that her sailing orders was to go after milk. But she saw me and run down in ballast to swap yarns.

"My sakes! Mr. Pratt," says she; "have you heard about Nate Scudder?"

"Yes," I says. "Ever since I come to Wellmouth."

"I mean about what him and his wife has just done," says she. "It's the queerest thing! You'll never guess it in the world."

"Ain't been giving his money to the poor, has he?" says I, for, generally speaking, it takes a strong man and a cold chisel to separate Nate Scudder from a cent.

"Oh! ain't you the funniest thing!" she squeals. "No indeed! He's let his house to some city folks, and—"

"Ain't that the cook calling you?" I asks. I'm a homeopth when it comes to Emmie T.; I like to take her in small doses—she agrees with me better that way.

It was the cook, and Emeline kited off after the milk, only stopping long enough to yell back: "Folks say they're dreadful rich and stylish. I'll tell you next time I see you."

Well, I cal'lated she wouldn't—not if I saw her first—and didn't pay no more attention to the yarn, except to think that June was pretty early for city folks to be renting houses. There was only three or four boarders at the Old Home so far, and I was to take a couple of 'em over to Trumet in the sloop that very day.

But, while we was on the way over, one of the couple—sort of a high-toned edition of Emmie T. she was—she turns to her messmate, another pullet from the same coop, and says she: "Oh! say!" she says. "Have you heard about the two young fellers from New York who've rented that Scudder house on the—on the—what do they call it? Oh, yes! the Neck road. I heard Nettie Brown say they were too dear for anything. Let's drive past there to-morrow; shall we?"

So there it was again, and I begun to wonder what sort of critters Nate had hooked. I judged that they must be a kind of goldfish or he wouldn't have baited for 'em. Nate ain't the man to be satisfied with a mess of sculpins.

I landed the boarders at Trumet and they went up to the village to do some shopping. Then I headed across the harbor to shake hands with the Trumet light keeper, who is a friend of mine. His wife told me he'd gone over to town, too, so I come about and back to the landing again. And I'm blessed if there wa'n't Nate Scudder himself, setting on a mackerel keg at the end of the wharf and looking worried.

I hadn't hoisted the jib on the way down, and now I let the mainsail drop and went forward.

"Hello, Nate!" I hailed, as the Dora Bassett slid up to the wharf.

He kind of jumped, and looked at me as if he'd just woke up.

"Hello, Sol!" he says, sort of mournful. Then he turned his eyes toward the bay again and appeared to be starting in on another nap.

"Hear you got some boarders over to your home," I says, heaving him a line as a hint for him to come out of his trance and make me fast.

"Yes," says he, paying no attention to the line.

"Come early in the season, ain't they?" says I, grabbing hold of one of the wharf spiles and bringing my boat alongside easy as I could.

"Ya-as," says he, again. Then he fetched a long breath and opened his mouth as if he was going to go on. But he didn't; all that comes out of the mouth afore it shut up was another "Yes."

I made the Dora Bassett fast myself and climbed on to the wharf.

"Are they cal'lating to stay long?" I asks. He'd got me interested. Seemed to have the "yes" disease bad.

"Hey?" says he. "Oh—er—yes."

I was a little mite provoked. Not that I was hankering to have Nate Scudder heave his arms around my neck and tell me he loved me, but I didn't know any reason why my pumps should suck dry every time I tried 'em.

"Humph!" I grunted, starting to walk off. "Well, be careful of yourself; look out it don't develop into nothing worse."

"What do you mean?" he sings out, seeming to be waked up for good, at last.

"Oh," says I; "I judged by the way you kept your mouth shut that you had sore throat and was afraid of getting cold. Good day."

Would you believe it, he got up off that mackerel keg and chased after me.

"Hold on, Sol!" he says, kind of pleading. "Don't be in such a hurry. I wanted to talk to you."

I had to laugh; couldn't help it. "Yes," says I, "I kind of suspicioned that you did, from your chatty remarks. If you'd said 'yes' nine or ten times more I'd have been sure of it."

"Well, I did," he says. "I wanted to ask you—I thought I'd see what you thought—you see—"

Here he kind of faded away again, and stood still and wiped his forehead.

"Look here, Nate Scudder," I says, "for a man that wants to talk you make the poorest fist at it of anybody ever I see. Why don't you try singing or making signs? I wouldn't wonder if you got ahead faster."

He grinned, a feeble sort of lop-sided grin, and tried another tack.

"You were speaking of them boarders of mine," he says.

"Yes; I was," I says.

"They come day afore yesterday—early," say he.

"Um-hum. So I heard," I says.

He fidgeted a minute or so more. Then he took me by the arm and led me back to the keg.

"Sol," he says, "set down. I want to ask you something. By gum! I got to ask somebody. I'm—I'm worried."

"Yes?" I said, giving him a little of his own medicine.

"Yes. Them boarders—they worry me. Me and Huldy set up till nigh 11 o'clock last night talking about 'em. She thinks maybe they stole the money, and I don't know but they're crazy, ran away from an asylum or something. You've seen more city folks than I have, being around the hotel so. See what you think.

"'Twas this way," he went on; "I got a letter from the feller in New York that I sell cranberries to. He said a couple of friends of his wanted to come to a place in the country where 'twas quiet. Did I know of such a place round here? Well, course I wrote back that 'twas nice and quiet right at our house. There wa'n't no lie in that, was there, Sol?"

"No," I says. "I should say 'twouldn't be shaving the truth too close if you'd said there was more quietness than anything else down on the Neck road."

"Well," he goes on, not noticing the sarcasm, "I wrote and never got a word back. Me and Huldy had given up hearing. And then, yesterday morning, they come—both of 'em. Nice lookin' young fellers as ever you see, they are; dressed just like the chaps in the clothes advertisements in the back of the magazines. The biggest one—they're both half as tall as that mast, seems so—he took up his hat and says, kind of lazy and grand, like a steamboat capt'n:

"'Mr. Scudder?' he says.

"'That's my name,' says I. I was kind of suspicious; there's been so many sewing-machine agents and such round town this spring. And yet I'd ought to have known he wa'n't no sewing-machine agent.

"'Ah!' he says. 'You've been expecting us, then. Has the luggage come?'

"What in time did I know about his 'luggage,' as he called it?

"'No,' says I. "Tain't.'

"'Oh, well, never mind,' he says, just as if a ton or two of baggage didn't

"Perhaps You'd Like to Hire the Whole Shebang?" Says I, Sarcastic.

count anyway. 'Can you give us two sleeping rooms, two baths, a setting room, and a room for my man?'

"'Two baths?' says I. 'Can't you take a bath by yourself? You seem to be having lots of funny jokes with me. Would you mind saying what your name is and what you want?'

"He looked me over sort of odd. 'Beg pardon,' he said. 'I thought you were expecting us. Here's my card.'

"I looked at it, and there was the name 'Edward Van Brunt,' printed on it. Then I begun to get my bearings, as you might say.

"'Oh!' I says. 'I see.'

"'So glad, I'm sure,' he says. 'Now can you give us the sleeping rooms, the baths, and the room for my man?'

"'Hump!' says I, lookin' back at the house behind me; 'if me and Huldy bunked in the henhouse and the chore boy in the cellar, maybe we could accommodate you, that is, all but the baths. You'd have to take turns with the washtub for them,' I says.

"He laughed. He was so everlasting cool about things that it sort of riled me up.

"'Perhaps you'd like to hire the whole shebang?' says I, sarcastic, pointing to the house.

"He looked at it. It looked sort of cheerful, with the syringa over the door and the morning-glories hiding where the whitewash was off.

"'Good idea!' he says. 'I would.'

"Well, that was too many for me! I went into the house and fetched out Huldy Ann—she's my wife. There ain't many women in this town can beat her when it comes to managing and business, if I do say it.

"'How long would you want the house for?' says Huldy, when I told her what was going on.

"'A month,' says Van Brunt, turning to the other city feller. 'Hey Martin?' T'other chap nodded.

"'All right,' says Van Brunt. 'How much?'

"Thinks I, 'I'll scare you, my fine feller.' And so I says, 'A month? Well, I don't know. Maybe, to accommodate, I might let you have it for two hundred.' I sort of edged off then, thinking sure he'd be mad, but he wa'n't—not him. 'Two hundred it is,' he says, and fished out a little blank book and one of them pocket pens.

"'Name's Scudder?' he asks.

"'Yes,' says I. 'Nathan Scudder. One T in Nathan.'

"'And I don't know as you'll believe it, Sol,' says Nate, finishing up, 'but that feller made out a check for two hundred and passed it over to me like 'twas a postage stamp. What do you think of that?'

I didn't know what to think of it. On general principles I'd say that a man who wanted to board with Nate and Huldy Ann Scudder was crazy anyhow; but of course these fellers didn't know.

"It beats me, Nate," I says. "What do you think?"

"Blessed if I know!" says Scudder, with another of them long breaths. "All I'm sure of is that they're up home, with the parlor blinds open and the carpet fading, and me and Huldy's living in the barn. She's doing the cookin' for 'em till this 'man' of theirs comes. Land knows what kind of a man he is, too. And that check was on a New York bank, and I've just been up to Trumet here with it and the cashier says 'twill be a week afore I know whether it's good or not. And I can't make out whether them two are thieves, or lunatics, or what. And Huldy can't neither. I never was so worried in my life."

I kind of chuckled down inside. The idea of anybody's skinning Nate Scudder was the nighest to the biter's being bit of anything I ever come across. And just then I see my two passengers coming.

"Well, cheer up, Nate," I says. "Maybe you'll get the reward, whether it's lunatics or thieves. Only you want to look out and not be took up for an accomplice."

He fairly shriveled up when I said that, and I laughed to myself all the way out of Trumet harbor. One thing I was sure of: Them two New Yorkers must be queer birds and I wanted to see 'em.

And the very next afternoon I did see 'em. They come down the Old Home pier together, walking as if they didn't care a whole continental whether they ever got anywheres or not. One of 'em, the smallest one—he wa'n't more'n six foot one and a ha'f—looked sort of sick to me. He had a white face, and that kind of tired, don't-care look in his eye; and the bigger one sort of 'tended to things for him.

"Good morning," says the big one—the Van Brunt one, I judged—cheerful enough. T'other chap said, "Good morning," too.

"Morning," says I.

"Can you take us out sailing?"

"Why—er—I guess so," I says. "I don't know why I can't, if you feel like going. Course—"

I hadn't finished what I was going to say afore they were in the boat. Now, generally speaking, there's some bargaining to be done afore you take folks out for a three-dollar sail. You naturally expect it, you know—not so much from boarders as from towners, but still, some. But not for these two—no, sir! It was this powerful suddenness of theirs that hit me betwixt wind and water, same as it had Nate. Made me feel sort of like I'd missed the train. Stirred up my suspicions again, too.

'Twas a nice day; one of them clear blue and green days that you get early in June. The water wa'n't rugged, but just choppy enough to be pretty, and the breeze was about no'theast, givin' us a fair run down the bay.

"This is grand!" says the big fellow, as the Dora Bassett began to feel her oats and lay down to her work.

"Caesar! Van," said the other one; "why do you bring me down to earth like that? Grand! Bleecker next!" He hollered out this last part in a kind of screechy sing-song. Then they both laughed.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

New Jersey Central

In Effect January 26, 1908.

For New York—2.17, 3.37, 5.36, 6.02, 6.29, 6.57, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.47, 7.55, 8.00, 8.11, 8.30, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.59, 10.28, 10.56 a. m., 12.00, 12.19, 12.42, 1.00, 1.27, 2.21, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.45, 5.53, 6.29, 6.48, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.27, 9.31, 10.17, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.17, 3.37, 4.47, 7.28, 7.55, 8.52, 9.34, 9.45, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.00, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.29, 6.57, 7.05, 7.25, 7.28, 7.47, 8.11, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.59, 10.56 a. m., 12.42, 1.00, 1.27, 2.21, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.45, 5.53, 6.29, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.31 p. m. Sunday—7.28, 8.52, 9.34, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.00, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 2.00, 5.22, 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 2.08, 5.47, 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 5.47 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.37, 8.11, 10.55 a. m., 12.42 (Saturdays only), 3.42, 4.45, 5.53, 8.27, 11.28 p. m. Sundays—3.37, 8.52 a. m., 2.30, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.37, 9.29 a. m., (12.42 Saturdays only), 1.27, 2.44 (3.42 Lakewood only), (5.53 Lakewood only, Saturdays only) p. m. Sundays—(7.55 Lakewood only), 9.45 a. m., 1.45 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.13, 7.29, 8.45, 9.13, 10.43 a. m., 12.12, 12.42, 1.39, 2.14, 2.45, 6.13, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 1.17 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.53, 10.39, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.55, 5.29, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 11.25, 1.17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m. Sunday—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

*Change cars at Bound Brook.

W. G. BESLER, Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, Gen. Pass. Agt.

Arrival and Departure of Mails

PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

Office opens 7 a. m., closes 7 p. m. On Saturdays close half hour later.

NEW YORK MAIL.

Arrive—7:00, 8:40, 11:30 a. m., 2:30, 5:00, 6:30, 9 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:20, 6:00, 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 1:30, 3:15 and 7 p. m.
Close—7:30 a. m., 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40 and 11:30 a. m., 2:35, 7:00 p. m.
Close—7:15, 7:30, 9:30 a. m., 12:35, 2:20, 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST

Close—1:00 and 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST AND SOUTH.

Close—12:35, 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton

Close—12:35 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:30 a. m., 2:20, 6:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:15, 7:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:20 and 6:00

WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE.

Arrive—12:30 p. m.
Close—9:00 a. m.

WATCHUNG.

Close—5:30 p. m.
Arrive—6:45 p. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M.

Advertisements
—FOR—
New York Herald,
World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American, Brooklyn Eagle
—and—
Newark Evening News
Received at
The Daily Press
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

Complete line of
AUTOMOBILE Supplies and Tires
AT LOWEST NEW YORK PRICES.
Thompson Auto Co.
413 Park Ave. Tel. 991-J

Mrs. John Brown,
Successor to
John Burke and Jones & Co.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned from $3.00 Upwards.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Don't give your order until you consult me
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at
J. T. Vail's, North avenue, Plainfield, N. J.
Postoffice Box 715.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

We have made arrangements for a larger supply of first-class milk and and are givng the family trade our special attention... If you are not satisfied with the milk or the services you are getting give us a trial.

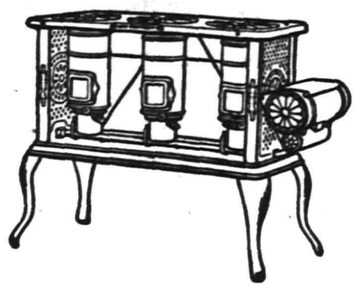
Price 9 cents a quart, 5 cents a pint. Cream 14 cents a ½ pint. ...

Lindsay's Dairy,
965 West Front St.
TEL. 792-J.

J. NEUSTADT
MERCHANT TAILOR,
Ladies' Tailoring a Specialty. Cleaning, Pressing, Altering at lowest prices. Work called for and delivered. Formerly with R. A. Rieley, Fifth Avenue, New York.
Spring and Summer Styles now ready.
430 WATCHUNG AVENUE
Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 668-W.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MEN
What is the use of throwing or giving your old clothes away when you can get the highest prices paid for same by dropping a postal to
I. RICHARD, 17 Somerset St

You Will Need an Oil Stove



When warm days and the kitchen fire make cooking a burden—then is the time to try a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove.

Marvelous how this stove does away with kitchen discomforts—how cool it keeps the room in comparison with conditions when the coal fire was burning. The quick concentrated heat of the goes directly to boil the kettle or bake the bread, and none is diffused about the room to overheat it. Thus using the "New Perfection" is real kitchen comfort. Made in three sizes and fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

NEW PERFECTION
Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove

The Rayo Lamp Just such a lamp as everyone wants—handsome enough for the parlor; strong enough for the kitchen, camp or cottage; bright enough for every occasion. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY,
(Incorporated)

BUY YOUR FURNITURE AT Powlison & Jones.
149 & 151 East Front St.

207 BROAD ST. ELIZABETH LOAN CO. 207 BROAD ST.
Reliable Money Brokers
IF IT'S A QUESTION OF DOLLARS.
We may be able to help you out. At any rate if you'll inform us of your needs, we'll try. The winter months just past have raised the expenses of the average householder to their highest point and many of us have been unable to meet all of our obligations as promptly as we would like to and consequently find ourselves in debt.
SUPPOSE we were to advance you sufficient funds to meet your obligations. Do you not think you would be more satisfied to have only one payment to look after on pay day?
There is no place where money will be advanced you more willingly or where you will receive more courteous treatment than from us. It's worth investigating.
The possession of household goods, horses and wagons is sufficient evidence of your ability to pay. Call, write or 'phone.
ELIZABETH LOAN COMPANY.
Room 24 Hersh Bldg. Telephone 778-R. Elizabeth, N. J.

SALE

FURNITURE,
BEDS, BEDDING,
FLOOR COVERINGS.
At this season of the year you surely need something new in Furniture, Beds, Bedding, Mattings, Rugs, Oil Cloths, Linoleums, Window Shades or Awnings. We have prepared to meet your requirements with the new Spring stock and invite inspection.
L. B. VAN CAMP
Front and Somerset Streets, Tel. 868-J

112 Piece
Decorated Dinner Sets, $7.00
Odds and Ends of Dinner Sets at Half Price
JOS. W. GAVETT.
W. Front St.

BROKAW'S CREAMERY
No need to complain of getting poor butter or cream—go to Brokaw's and get his own make, which is always fresh and good. Our specialties are Fresh-made Butter, both salted and unsalted, Rich Milk and Cream, positively Fresh Eggs and everything in the dairy line. The only place in the city where these goods are made on the spot. Call and see our plant and witness the process.
TEL. 293-W 186 E. FRONT STREET

One Day at Plainfield
WEDNESDAY, MAY 6,
HOTEL IROQUOIS
Office Hours, 9 a. m. until 4 p. m.

Our $1.00 Glasses with 10-year Gold Seamless Wire Frame cannot be duplicated in America for $5.00. Your eyes will be examined by the Dammers Scientific Method which is entirely different from the old way of examining eyes and is the only correct way.
We make no charge for examination. We ask no questions, put no drops in the eyes, do not use any test cards or charts hung on the wall which is a common way used by every one but us, and by that way you are simply fitting yourself and you get so confused you do not know if you are fitted or not.
Don't Suffer With Headaches.
We have produced astonishing results from brain, fag, nervous debility, insomnia, dizziness, nausea WATERY EYES, blurry vision and other troubles caused by EYE STRAIN. We have corrected by the use of glasses, cross eyes and Astigmatism by our scientific methods.
The Edward F. Dammers Co.,
Old South Bl'd, 294 Washington Street, Boston, Mass.
5 1 4

John S. Lewis
Successor to Lewis & Dilts
Artesian Well Contractors.

Wells drilled any place, size or depth.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Box 173, Scotch Plains, N. J.

Vail
JEWELER AND OPTICIAN
103 Park Ave.,
calls your attention to his
Rimless Glasses.
They Look Good and You See Good.

EDUCATIONAL.

JOSEPH Mc INTYRE,
Pianist, Coach, Accompanist
TEACHER OF PIANO and SINGING
New York Studio, 30 E. 23rd Street, Wednesdays and Saturdays.
Plainfield, Residence and Studio.
Telephone 386-J 1306 Watchung Avenue
1 9 6mos

ATTEND DRAKE BUSINESS COLLEGE.
PLAINFIELD
For thorough training in English, Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Penmanship, Commercial Law and correlative branches. The school that does not PROMISE to ASSIST graduates to positions, but that guarantees absolutely to PLACE them, and does it. 11 25 tf

Plainfield Business College
WOODHULL & MARTIN BUILDING.
SCHOOL OF ENGLISH.
A school well equipped for doing high grade work.
Investigate this school—it pays. 1½ hours devoted to English every day. Day and Evening sessions all the year.
Capacity 400 students.
A. S. HERR, Prin. and Prop.

CHAS. M. SUHR,
TEACHER OF PIANO.
614 E. 6th Street, Tel. 741-W

REAL ESTATE

RENTALS—REAL ESTATE
Geo. F. Brown,
INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE.
Commissioner of Deeds—Rents.
94 Somerset St. 'Phone 188.

STATIONERY AND TOYS.
HARPER,
411 PARK AVENUE.

Press Want Ads. Pay

Newark Bay Bridge Builder Dead.

Bayonne, May 5.—William Kelly, a former Hudson county freeholder and for sixteen years a member of the City Council here, died Sunday night at his home, 12 East Eleventh street. He was seventy-six years old. He had charge of the erection of the railroad bridge between Bayonne and Elizabethport, and the Port Johnson coal docks. He leaves two sons and three daughters.

The New York "Examiner" Said

recently, "The substantial benefits of Life Insurance have been so clearly demonstrated . . . that only a very dull mind can fail to appreciate them. We are convinced that a young man . . . can make no wiser investment." Young men and all men should investigate the NEW Low-Cost Policy of

The Prudential

When considering a trip abroad or to the mountains or seashore, the problem of the safety of your valuables presents itself.

A quick solution is to lodge them in our Safe Deposit Vaults; no further concern need then be felt for them. "Safety for Valuables" is a booklet descriptive of our storage facilities. Write for it.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Travelers' Cheques.

A Word About Ourselves

At the beginning of a season which already shows a very marked increase over any previous year, The VanArsdale Shoe Store takes this opportunity of thanking those patrons and customers who have made it possible to develop and maintain the Van Arsdale Store. It is our constant endeavor to make this store the best place in the country for shoe buying, not only in the dependability and high quality of the shoes sold, but in the clerical service that is rendered. It is extremely pleasing and gratifying to hear the many expressions of approval and to receive the ever increasing patronage which has been accorded the VAN ARSDALE SHOE STORE.

M. C. VAN ARSDALE,

127 E. Front St. - - The Home of Reliable Shoes

ARE YOU GOING TO BE ONE OF THE VAST ARMY OF MEN THAT ARE GOING TO KEEP COMFORTABLE THIS SUMMER BY WEARING B. V. D. COAT CUT UNDERSHIRTS AND KNEE LENGTH DRAWERS? IF SO WE CAN BE OF GREAT SERVICE TO YOU WITH OUR COMPLETE LINE OF B. V. D.'S. WE ARE MAKING A SPECIALTY OF THE OTIS KNITTING CO'S. UNDERWEAR.

THE MEN'S SHOP 174 E. FRONT ST.

P. H. S. FACULTY TO CONTROL THE SCHOOL ORGANIZATIONS.

Action giving Principal Ira W. Travell and the faculty of the Plainfield High School full power to control the various school organizations was taken at the meeting of the Board of Education last night, when a resolution to this effect was presented by Dr. Maxson and unanimously passed by the Board. The resolution is merely a formal announcement of what is already being done among the pupils in the management of the athletic, social and literary intersets of the school.

In presenting his resolution, Dr. Maxson stated that the formal power should be given, because of the numerous and involved financial interests connected with the management of the school activities.

John Hand Camp, No. 28, Sons of Veterans will meet tonight in the basement of Reform Hall. Business of importance concerning Memorial Day will be considered.

CHICAGO ART DEALER ENTHUSED WITH PLAINFIELD

Harry Deakin, owner of the Deakin Art Rooms in the Studebaker building, Chicago, spent Sunday and yesterday in this city as the guest of W. J. Counihan, of the New Madison. He was accompanied by Miss Hannah Counihan, who is his private secretary, both having been attending a large art sale in New York.

The Deakin Art Rooms are among the best known in the Middle West, but Mr. Deakin has intentions of moving his offices to New York. After viewing Plainfield from the rear seat of Mr. Counihan's car, Mr. eDakin was highly enthused over the appearance of the city and declared that if he established offices in New York he would become a local commuter. In terms of extreme sincerity he asserted that Plainfield is the prettiest residential city he has ever visited.

—For best results try a Press want ad.

—CAMERAS—

KODAKS AND PHOTOGRAPHIC SUPPLIES
DEVELOPING, PRINTING AND ENLARGING

Bring Your Films in One Day and Get Your Pictures the Next.

"THE PHOTO STORE," 129 NORTH AVENUE

FORMERLY VAN WINKLE'S.

BARGAINS IN LOTS AT HIGHLAND PARK

Get your lot now before prices advance. Many houses to be built this year. Sewer, water, electric lights, shade trees and concrete sidewalks on all streets. You can buy lots from $200. to $400., on cash or easy payments.

ELSTON M. FRENCH,

171 North Avenue. Telephone 24. Plainfield, N. J.

NEW YORK OFFICE—141 Broadway. Tel. 5424 Cortlandt

MURPHY VICE-PRESIDENT

(Continued from page 1.)

convention.

The congressional convertions of the various districts named these delegates to the national convention, and they were presented to the state convention today:

First—Congressman H. C Loudenslager and E. A. Armstrong.

Second—State Senators Robert E. Hand and Samuel K. Robins.

Third—Thomas N. McCarter and George G. Smith.

Fourth—F. W. Roebling, Sr., and C. Ledyard Blair.

Fifth—State Senator Ernest R. Ackerman and Richard Williams.

Sixth—William Barbour and John R. Ramsey.

Seventh—Winton C. Garrrison and Thomas D. Webb.

Eighth—Leslie D. Ward and William F. Allen.

Ninth—Joseph A. Dear, Sr., and Pierre Garven.

Tenth—John A. Blair and George Gonzales.

Boys' Mission Band Elects.

The Boys' Mission Band, of Trinity Reformed church, elected these officers for the ensuing year at its meeting Sunday afternoon: President, Harold Schenck; vice-president, Edson Woodhull; secretary, Ernest Stevens; corresponding secretary, Harold Storr; treasurer, Russel Hoagland; chairman of the entertainment committee, Harold Schenck; chairman membership committee, Arthur Gaskill.

Reliefs' Meeting Postponed.

Because of the absence of Chief Howard Woolston, of the North Plainfield fire department, who is in Trenton today, the meeting of the North Plainfield Firemen's Relief Association, to have been held tonight, has been postponed for one week. The election of officers and presentation of reports will be the principal business next Tuesday night.

MAYOR SOUNDS WARNING

Urges Council to Issue No New Bonds Until Old Ones Are Taken Care Of.

DETAILS CITY'S INDEBTEDNESS.

Presents a Statement of Municipal Obligations Now Outstanding Because of Improvements.

A note of warning was sounded by Mayor C. J. Fisk to the Common Council, at its May meeting, last night, in the matter of expenditure of money, when he presented a statement of city obligations now outstanding in street, sewer and school improvements, and urged the members not to take steps to issue more bonds until those now out are taken care of. He stated that on account of the obligations now outstanding and the financial condition, he would suggest that the members defer any further improvements of streets or the building and equipment of the new East End fire house and not issue any more bonds until the buildings now underway are competed and paid for and the assessments collected.

The city's indebtedness referred to by Mayor Fisk and so reported by him follows:

Street macadamizing bonds issued under ordinance of July 5, 1906, due and payable November 5, 1909, $3,000; street bonds issued under ordinance of October 15, 1905, due and payable December 17, 1909, $2,000; street bonds issued under ordinance May 16, 1907, due and payable September 30, 1910, $10,000; total, $15,000, less cash in treasury applicable to redemption of the above, $2,000, leaving net outstanding issue $13,000.

In addition there is the following indebtedness:

Temporary notes on account of brick pavement, $29,000; amount necessary to borrow to complete the same, $6,000; total, $35,000; Southside sanitary sewer, $40,500; sewer extensions, $24,000; sewer extensions 1906, $10,200; total, $75,000, or a grand total of $123,000.

Besides the above there has been authorized and will be issued $30,0000 worth of bonds for the new police headquarters' building and $90,000 worth of bonds for the new Darrow avenue public school. This does not include the original issue of sewer bonds amounting to $121,000; the sewer issue of 1907, of $68,000; high school bonds, of $136,000, bonds and mortgages issued by the Board of Education under the old law, amounting to $36,000, making a total of $361,000 now outstanding and payable each year.

MRS. MARY J. HAWKINS SUCCUMBS TO LONG ILLNESS.

Mrs. Mary J. Hawkins, widow of the late Joseph B. Hawkins, died at her home on East Seventh street early yesterday afternoon from a complication of diseases. She was seventy-nine years of age, and had been ailing for some time.

Born at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Mrs. Hawkins moved to New Market when a girl, and later to this city, where she has a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Her husband died about fifteen years ago. Mrs. Hawkins has been for many years a member of the Park Avenue Baptist church, and was active in the various societies of the church and Sunday school. Her maiden name was Mosher, and she was one of eight children, three of whom,—two brothers and a sister, survive her. These are Henry Mosher, of Central avenue, Edward A. Mosher, of Newark, and Mrs. Edward A. Burdick, of Westerly, R. I. Mrs. Hawkins leaves a son, Joseph M. Hawkins, and a daughter, Miss Florence G. Hawkins.

The funeral will be from her late home on East Seventh street Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and from the Sunday school rooms of the Park Avenue Baptist church at 3 o'clock. Rev. A. E. Finn will officiate, assisted by Rev. J. W. Richardson, of Stamford, Conn., formerly pastor of the local church.

MRS. I. C. PIERSON NEW PRESIDENT OF RASORES.

At the annual meeting of the Rasores, held this morning at the home of Mrs. Henry Lapsley, Mrs. I. C. Pierson was elected president to succeed the late Mrs. M. E. Kimball. The other officers are: First Vice-president, Mrs. R. C. Leonard; second vice-president, Mrs. W. D. Murray; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. H. R. Halloway. The executive committee for the coming year is composed of Mrs. L. N. Lovell, Mrs. George H. Goddard, Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson, Mrs. H. E. Bowen and Mrs. J. S. Zelie.

Today's meeting was the last of the season, but the members will come together again the first week in October.

Exempts Annual Next Week.

The annual meeting of the North Plainfield Exempt Firemen's Association, which was to have been held last night, was postponed for a week. The necessary quorum turned out last night, but it was decided to postpone the meeting because of the absence of certain officers who were to have presented reports.

WASHBURN'S CIRCUS OPENS THE LOCAL SEASON

Leon Washburn's big shows, the first circus of the season, to visit Plainfield, is under canvas at Darrow avenue and West Fourth street today, and the afternoon performance, which began at 2 o'clock, was attended by crowds that taxed the capacity of the tents. The coterie of trained dogs and ponies, a menagerie of wild animals, and the usual ring performers,—acrobats, riders and clowns, are furnishing a bang-up entertainment.

The street parade wound through the principal streets of the city this morning, headed by an eight-horse float containing the circus band. In line were the trick horses and ponies, the monkey fire department and the equestrians, preceding the "lumbering elephants" and "uncouth camels."

The "canvas city" is headquarters for the small boy and a good-sized delegation were on the grounds early this morning, eager to run errands or lead animals in the parade, seeking in return the pasteboard which would admit them to the performance.

CHRISTIAN WORK SOCIETY HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING.

The twenty-seventh annual meeting of the Ladies' Christian Work Society of Trinity Reformed church, was held yesterday afternoon in the church parlors. The annual reports of the secretary and treasurer and chairmen of all committees were read. The anniversary meeting will be held Sunday night and Rev. Dr. E. P. Johnson will make the address and the annual reports of the secretary and treasurer will be read.

The following officers were reelected for the coming year:

President, Mrs. A. L. Force; vice-president, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Parse; secretary, Mrs. William A. Woodruff; treasurer, Mrs. Louis M. Dunavan.

It was announced at the meeting that $41.50 was netted from the musical held at the church on April 28.

Surprised on 13th Birthday.

Yesterday was the thirteenth birthday of John B. Richards, son of William Richards, of East Third street, and the young man was pleasantly surprised by a birthday visit from about thirty-five of his friends. The affair was a complete surprise and a donkey party was the feature of the evening's entertainment. Other games and music whiled away the time until refreshments were served, just before the party broke up. Many of the guests brought gifts.

Yule-Sandford Nuptials Tomorrow.

Rev. John Sheridan Zelie, pastor of the Crescent Avenue church, will officiate at the wedding of Captain Edward Harrison Yule and Miss Pauline M. Sandford, of West Front street, to be held at the home of the bride's parents tomorrow night. The ceremony will be performed at 7 o'clock. Captain Yule is in command at Fort B. A. Russell, Wyoming, and the bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Sandford.

Police Catch a "Faker."

John McCarthy, who has the appearance of being a most pitable cripple, was taken in custody by the local police today on the ground that he is a "faker." Drs. Lufburrow and Probasco examined him and declared that his alleged deformities are but a sham. Chief Kiely ordered McCarthy out of town after confiscating a number of papers he had which recommended him to the good graces of officials.

Approaching Marriage.

Dr. and Mrs. T. S. Davis, of Park avenue, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Anna Davis, and Richard Rene Muser, of New York. The ceremony will take place Thursday, May 21, at Grace church, and a large number of guests from out-of-town and this city are expected. A small reception will follow at the home of the bride's parents.

Death of Former Resident.

Mrs. Robert Tovell, who formerly resided on West Third street, died in Baltimore, Md., last week following an operation for appedicitis. The family was quite prominent in the West End and moved from this city only two months ago. Mrs. Tovell was an active worker at the Monroe Avenue church. She leaves beside her husband, one son, Edward Tovell, sixteen years old.

C. H. Rugg's First Meeting.

C. H. Rugg, recently chosen member of the North Plainfield Board of Health to succeed Thomas Doud, attended his first meeting of the Board last night. He has been made a member of the auditing committee. Resolutions of regret upon the resignation of Mr. Doud and appreciation of his work while on the Board were framed at the meeting. The business was of a routine nature.

Considered Routine Business.

Nothing but routine business was considered at the April meeting of the Board of Directors of the Plainfield Public Library and Reading room, last night. The treasurer's report was read and filed and after the transaction of minor business, the meeting adjourned.

—Fine assortment of fresh Jersey asparagus at Neuman Brothers' tomorrow. All seasonable vegetables in thec hoicest assortment.

FOR WEEK COMMENCING MONDAY, MAY 4, 1908

Ths Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. is Recognized as the Largest Tea, Coffee and Grocery House in the U. S.

Their Prices are always 25 to 40 per cent. cheaper than you can get the same quality elsewhere. Notice the Special

Cut-Price GROCERIES

AND EXTRA STAMPS EVERY DAY THIS WEEK.

CUT-PRICE LEADERS

Iona Tomatoes, regular price 10c, a can 8c
French Oregon Prunes, regular price 10c, a lb 8c
Pure Lard, a lb 10c
Full Cream Cheese, regular price 18c 15c

EXTRA S. & H. STAMPS

50 Free with 50c worth or more of these Famous Teas and Coffees; Remember, they will do double the work of the same priced goods bought elsewhere.

80 with a large can Pure A & P Baking Powder 50c
30 with a large bottle, any kind, A & P Extracts 25c
Ten with 1 can Sultana Spice 10c
Ten with 1 package Puffed Rice 10c
Ten with 1 can Columbia River Salmon 12½c
Ten with 2 cakes Tar Soap, each 5c
Ten with 1 bottle Snider's Chili or Oyster Cocktail Sauce 15c
Ten with 1 bottle C & Co.'s Sauce 12c
Ten with 4-lb package Washing Powder 16c

TEAS—Best Imported New-Crop Teas, choicest pickings from our own estates. All Teas sold by us are selected by our own agents from the finest pickings. It follows our stores are stocked with the best grown. Blended in the most scientific manner, they are selected especially for their fine drawing qualities and great intrinsic value in the cup.

Good Mixed English Breakfast, Congo and Oolong, a lb 55c
Excellent Mixed, English Breakfast, Young Hyson, Gunpowder, Imperial, Japan, Oolong, Ceylon and Assam.
40c and 50c a lb

THE GREAT ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC TEA CO.

137-139 W. Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

300 Stores in the United States.

HOW ABOUT YOUR SUIT

We are showing the finest line of

KIRSHBAUM SUITS AND TOP COATS

in Brown, Olives, Grey and Blue. Can we not show you these even if you don't buy—the goods are good and prices right. All the new things in Shirts, Neckwear, Socks, Caps and Hats. We put our Straw Tiles on exhibition Today.

CLOTHING MADE-TO-ORDER

Werner's Clothing House

206 WEST FRONT STREET

IS IT NOT WORTH WHILE

To keep your account in an Institution as strong as this one?

CITY NATIONAL BANK

3% Interest on Satisfactory Daily Balances

Capital . . . $150,000.00
Surplus & Profits (All Earned) $225,000.00
Deposits . . $1,600,000.00

The Hand Storage & Express Co.

Public Truckmen. New storage warehouse now ready.

ALL ROOMS SEPARATE, LIGHT AND DRY.

FURNITURE MOVED, PACKED and SHIPPED

Office: 69 Somerset Street, 'Phone 541.

ROADSTERS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 4.54 a. m.
Sun Sets 6.59 p. m.
Lanterns must be lighted 7.59 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER
Rain tonight and Thursday.
Maximum, 53; minimum, 47; for 24 hours ending at noon. Ther. at noon 47.

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, WEDNESDAY, MAY 6, 1908. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

JERSEY'S DELEGATION WILL GO UNINSTRUCTED

Attempt Made to Pledge "Big Four" for Both Taft and Roosevelt Fails.

APPLAUSE FOR EX-GOV. MURPHY

His Withdrawal from the Contest for Delegate-at-Large Cheered by the Republicans in Convention.

The Republican State Convention yesterday named as delegates at large to the National Repubican Convention, Gov. John Franklin Fort, United States Senators Frank O. Briggs and John Kean, and David Baird. The twenty-four delegates go uninstructed, although an attempt was made to instruct both for Taft and Roosevelt. The delegates were instructed to vote for ex-Gov. Murphy as Jersey's choice for the Vice Presidential nomination and National Committeeman.

The selection of these delegates at large came easy when State Chairman Franklin Murphy, in calling the convention to order, stated that in the interests of party harmony he would withdraw his name in the contest for delegate at large, and hoped that it would not be presented. There were all sorts of cheers for Murphy, and Temporary Chairman John F. Dryden came in for a round of applause when he warmly declared for Secretary Taft. Senator Dryden said:

"It now seem probable that the mantle of McKinley and Roosevelt will fall upon the ample shoulders of our great War Secretary, Mr. Taft, and his nomination will be ratified at the polls in November, and if the Nation should turn to our own State, as it did in 1896, when it nominated Hobart for Vice President, whose memory is dear to every Jerseyman, and nominate for second place on the ticket of 1908, a distinguished son of New Jersey, then will our people accept the honor with gratitude."

The convention did not know whom Dryden was alluding to, Fort or Murphy.

The alternate delegates at large elected were Walter C. Edge of Atlantic City, Gen. C. Edward Murray of Mercer, Louis S. Thompson of Somerset, and State Treasurer Daniel H. Voorhees of Morris.

Ex-Gov. John W. Griggs ran for delegate at large, but was defeated. He received but 178 votes to Fort's 611, Briggs 605½, Kean's 597½, and Baird's 568.

There was a determined attempt to pledge the delegates first for Taft and then for Roosevelt, when the Committee on Resolutions reported in favor of an uninstructed delegation, and for a time it looked as though Taft or Roosevelt instructions would prevail.

William P. Martin, the Colbyite leader in Essex, sought to pave the way for Taft instructions, when the Committee on Rules reported in favor of the rule sending to the Resolutions Committee all motions to instruct delegates. He was unsuccessful, but the motion of Surrogate Russel of Essex to instruct the delegates for ex-Gov. Murphy as the Jersey choice for Vice President went through with a rush.

There was a determined effort on the part of the "New Idea" people of Hudson to unseat the Rotherham delegates, who were declared to have been elected by primary frauds, but the Majority Credentials Committee report said the charges were not proved. A minority report was tabled.

As the unit rule was not adopted, the district delegates, who were named in yesterday's Daily Press, can vote for whom they please in the National convention, but they will be influenced by the delegates at large, of whom Fort is for Taft, Baird for Knox, and Kean and Briggs still non-committal. There is a sentiment for Taft in the five northern Congressional districts and against Taft in the northern Congressional districts.

The resolutions indorse the work of the Republican Congress, Fort's administration, and insist that if there is to be revision of the tariff schedule, that all tariff revision be made with the principle of protection well in mind.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Cowling, of Codington avenue, are the parents of a baby girl, born this morning.

—Don't miss the Pantomime. Every performance at Kirmess. ***

MR. AND MRS. MURPHY TENDERED A SURPRISE

A surprise party was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Murphy at their home on East Second street, last night, when a large company of friends enjoyed an evening of delightful sociability. There were games, selections on the piano by Miss Marie Viebrock and Mrs. David Patterson, and vocal solos by Mrs. Charles Quint, David Paterson and Clarence L. Murphy, after which L. W. Randolph claimed the attention of the company while he presented Mrs. Murphy with a handsome hand bag and separate pocketbook, on behalf of those present, all associated with Mrs. Murphy in the work at Faith chapel.

U. B. Crane then spoke of the loss that the Philathea Class at the chapel would suffer by the removal of Mrs. Murphy from their midst and in the name of the class presented her with a beautiful case of Irish linen handkerchiefs. Mr. Murphy replied for Mrs. Murphy with a few well chosen words.

The affair was arranged by Mrs. David Patterson and Frank Stewart and those present were Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Musson, L. W. Randolph, U. B. Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Quint, Mr. and Mrs. David Patterson, the Misses Viebrock, John Viebrock, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Van Nest, Mr. and Mrs. William C. LaRue, Mr. Murgatroyd, Mr. and Mrs. William Sharkey and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Murphy. During the evening refreshments were served.

ATTRACTIVE CONCERT TO BE GIVEN AT CASINO MAY 19.

A concert that will attract music lovers of Plainfield will be given at the Casino Tuesday evening, May 19, when Miss Mary Lansing, contralto; Miss May Gessler Delana, pianist, and Harold Kent, baritone, will appear, assisted by J. Frank Rice, violinist. Miss Lansing recently returned from a successful season abroad, where she studied in Berlin with Lamperti and in Paris with Jean de Reski. She has appeared this winter with the New York Symphony Orchestra under Walter Damrosch in four concerts of the Beethoven cycle and in Washington with the Choral Society.

Miss Deleana has given successful recitals in New York, Elizabeth, Newark and the Oranges and is a pupil of several of the best known teachers of New York city. Mr. Kent is a concert singer, who has had experience in operatic work also. He is a pupil of de Macchi and sings at present in one of the Metropolitan church. His voice has great dramatic power, yet he also excels in the delicacy of his soft tones, giving considerable lyric style to his singing. These artists with the assistance of J. Frank Rice, pupil of vone Ende, should attract a large audience.

Hope Y. M. C. Active.

The Hope Y. M. Club, of Hope chapel, at a business meeting held last night, authorized the entertainment committee to complete all arrangements for obtaining the Atlanta University Quartet for a concert to be given at the chapel under the auspices of the club. The quartet is said to be the best in the history of the university and an excellent program will be given. The entertainment committee consists of Peter C. Sweeney, chairman; Allen Snyder and John Slorah. Clyde Doane, Harry VanZandt, and Benjamin Evans were elected members of the club. Russell Randolph, manager of the baseball team reported that a game will be played with the Monroe Avenue A. C., Saturday afternoon at the Clinton avenue field. The game will be called at 3:45. It will be in the nature of a tryout for the team and Captain Snyder will announce the permanent lineup after the contest.

Attending General Conference.

Rev. A. C. McCrea, of the First M. E. church, left yesterday for Baltimore, to attend the General Conference of the Methodist church. Dr. H. K. Carroll and James R. Joy, also delegates to the same conference, left here on Monday for Baltimore. Rev. Ora J. Shoop, of Grace M. E. church, will spend next week at the conference and other loca Methodist ministers will probably arrange to visit Baltimore for a short time during the month.

New Y. W. C. A. Class.

The first meeting of a class for basketball and games formed by Miss Margaret E. Mosher, physical director of the Y. W. C. A. from members of the association will meet tonight. There are twenty members in the class, which will meet twice each week in the gymnasium.

Men's Club Dinner.

The last meeting of the Men's Club of the First Baptist church to be held this month, will take the form of a dinner, with a few post-prandial speeches, music, etc., just a good social time. H. C. Krebs is the chairman of the committee in charge.

MRS. CHAPEY GETS A SIX MONTHS SENTENCE

Mrs. Gertrude Chapey, her daughter, Miss Gertrude Chapey and John Wallenhagen, the trio that traveled throughout the State passing worthless checks and swindling hotelkeepers, were arraigned in the Union County Court this morning for sentence. Mrs. Chapey and Wallenhagen were each given six months in the county jail, while through the efforts of Mrs. Emily Williamson, the county probation officer, Miss Chapey was placed in her charge upon the promise of Mrs. Williamson to be responsible for her appearance at a later date.

In addressing the court, Mrs. Williamson said that she was convinced that Miss Chapey was not as bad as the rest, that she had been taught bad ways by Wallenhagen and she felt sure that if removed from the influence it would be the means of saving the young woman from further trouble and disgrace.

Y. W. C. A. GLEE CLUB GAVE FINE CONCERT

The first concert of the Y. W. C. A. orchestra was given last night at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, when the thirty women members of the club were assisted by Mrs. Henry L. DeForest, pianist, Miss Jeanette Myers, of Poughkeepsie, soprano, Charles Smith, bass, and William Holmes, baritone. Four hundred people atended the concert, and the music was excellent, the various numbers on the program receiving merited applause for encores.

The club was organized but a short time ago, and has only had a dozen rehearsals for the concert. Mr. Holmes, who is the baritone soloist at the First Baptist church, is musical director of the association organization and leader. A feature of last night's program were the piano selections by Mrs. DeForest, who appeared in two numbers, and whose playing was enthusiastically received. Miss Myers has a remarkably clear voice and accuracy of redition and her songs were especially suited to her voice. Mr. Smith sang a solo and a duet with Mr. Holmes A quartet composed of Miss Ursula Rowland, Miss Maida Hyde, Miss Elsie Goddard and Miss Frances VanDeventer were received with applause in two well-rendered songs.

The chorus singing by the entire club was worthy of especial mention, reflecting great credit on the director and showing careful training. The members of the club are Mrs. Georgia Duryea and the Misses Margaret Bird, Cora Brokaw, Ella Codington, Isabel Conover, Lillian Conover, Mabel Conover, Emily Coriell, Jennie Dehn, Autumn DeLaney, Lillian Fedderman, Mary Flaherty, Leah Hammond, Winifred Hammond, Mabel Grant, Florence King, Grace Karr, Harriet Mattison, Nora Schenck Marion Wakefield, Carrie Konzert, Emma Windham, Florence Windham, Wilhelmina Vroom, Adele Masters, Bertha Saunders, Henrietta Winn, Ada Stark and Amanda Shupp. The committee in charge of the concert was composed of Mrs. Henry L. DeForest and Miss Margaret Leah.

CIRCUS CANVASMAN NABBED FOR STEALING.

Charged with breaking into a Bound Brook saloon and stealing sundry quart bottles of whiskey, John James and John Loring, canvasmen traveling with Washburn's circus, were picked up by the local police at the show grounds yesterday on a warrant from Detective Totten, of Somerville. They were taken to Somerville today in custody of the detective, and will be given a hearing there.

The men got the booze while the show was going through Bound Brook from Somerville to this city. James and Loring, according to the charge, took a couple of tent stakes and broke in the door of Frank Kobeck's saloon, securing several quart bottles of "the real thing," which they partially absorbed and partially distributed among some of the other canvasmen. Kobeck reported the theft to the police, with a discription of the men, whom he knew to be with thes how, and Detective Totten followed them up to this city.

Case Again Adjourned.

The case of Mrs. Lizzie Epwith against Frank Rapp, postponed in the city court, last week, was again adjourned today. Judge Runyon wished additional testimony to be secured and the matter will now be heard tomorrow morning.

Sesame Club's Annual Meeting.

The Sesame Club will hold the annual meeting at the home of Mrs. Chamberlain, East Sixth street, tomorrow morning.

—See the French Dolls dance at the Kirmess. ***

HEALTH BOARD REPORTS

The Number of Communicable Diseases Lower Than in Preceding Month.

MILKMEN GET THEIR PERMITS.

One Thousand Properties Inspected During April—Sanitary Code Adopted on Third Reading.

The reports presented at the May meeting of the Board of Health yesterday afternoon showed that the number of cases of communicable disease was considerably lower than the preceding month. The list is as follows:

Scarlet fever, 2; diptheria, 4; measles, 41; chickenpox, 3; typhoid fever, 1; tuberculosis, 2, total 53. Two cases of diphtheria were sent to the new isolation ward at Muhlenberg Hospital.

A sample of every milk sold in the city was analyzed during April and the following is the average:

Fats, 4.0 per cent.; solids, 13.08; solids not fat, 9.08; lactometer, 112; bacteria per cubic centimeter, 29,843. During the month 131 dairies were inspected, thirty-one stores selling milk, three mreameries and twenty-one bottling places, a total of 186. The majority of the dairies were found to be in good condition; some, however, need certain improvements which will be made as soon as possible.

Permits to sell milk were granted to the following persons: From stores—James Chamberlain, Bernhard Mann, William S. Crook, E. H. Clevely, E. W. Davis, A. B. Cantor, J. C. Blimm, Morris Meyrowitz, George Viebrock, J. A. Smith & Brother; by means of wagon—Burnley Farm, J. I. Brokaw, D. S. Briggs, Charles F. Debele, A. P. Voorhees, E. Schanz, J. H. Knight, John Hummel. Willswood Farm Dairy Company, B. R. Waldron, J. W. Beetham, R. H. Krog, George R. Wooden, William H. Moffett, Joe Muller, G. W. Henry; to sell only a few quarts—Mrs. M. Hanson, Mrs. Mary Bowden. The following applications were laid on the table for one month: Swenson Brothers, C. W. Squires, A. R. Phillips, W. W. Drake, Charles F. Drake, Edward Coughlan, Hiram Templin, William Olson, Claus Peterson, J. I. Finley, John McCarthy.

Permits were granted to Mrs. M. A. Terry to collect garbage and to Fred Endress to collect offal. The application of C. W. Alston for a permit to conduct a barber shop at 310 Liberty street, was laid on the table for one month. The following plumber's bonds were ordered filed: Herman F. Moosebrugger, Carpenter & Young, F. M. Masker, James Harper, Louis Morel, Jr., D. J. Galbraith, Lambert Edmunds, A. M. Griffen, George J. Tobin, James P. Mottley, Michael Armstrong, George Kuldoshes, D. S. Dunavan, D. H. Pound & Brother, I. L. VcVoy, Daniel Hogan and William Hanlon.

The health officer was instructed to notify all milkmen whose permits expired on May 1 and who failed to make application for renewal, that they would be given until May 15 in which to make such application, and upon their failure to do so by that time, the health officer was empowered to take the necessary steps to prevent their selling milk in Plainfield. Mr. Thurlow was also instructed to notify all plumbers who had failed to file a renewal of their bonds, that no plans would be approved, fees accepted or inspections given until the necessary bond is filed.

Much work was done during April on inspections of back yards. Over one thousand properties were inspected, covering almost the entire section of Plainfield east of Park avenue. The ordinance providing for the establishing of a sanitary code, as amended, was adopted on third reading and ordered published. This ordinance amends the present ordinance in regard to garbage, offal and dead animals. The following returns were made during the past month: Marriages, 13; births, 29; deaths, 24, total 66.

MISS EFFIE BAILEY BRIDE OF HOPEWELL MAN.

Announcement was made today of the marriage of Miss Effie Bailey, of Chatham street, and Herman C. Hettmansterger, of Hopewell, which took place on Saturday, March 21, at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. A. C. McCrea on Central avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kesselring, of Chatham street, with whom the bride lived, were the witnesses.

The bride was formerly employed as an operator at the local exchange of the New York & New Jersey Telephone Company and has since been with the Morey Larue Laundry Company, which position she will resign on Saturday night. After a wedding trip the couple will reside at Wildwood, N. J., where the groom is engaged in the bakery business.

CURTIS BATES DIES ON WESTERN BUSINESS TRIP

Taken sick ten days ago, while in Portland, Oregon, on a business trip, Curtis Bates, of East Sixth street, died yesterday before his wife, who left this city for the West Monday night, could reach his bedside. Word of his sickness was received at his home here Monday, and Mrs. Bates immediately left for Portland. At Chicago she learned that her husband had died, and she will return to this city, where the body is to be brought.

Mr. Bates, who was a traveling salesman, had been a resident of this city for about four years. Surviving him are his wife and two sons, Charles Lynn Bates, of Port Arthur, Ontario, Canada, and Stanley E. Bates, who is a student at Columbia University.

WHAT CIVILIZATION OWES TO THE MISSIONARIES

A profoundly interesting paper on "The Contributions of Missions to Science and Civilization" was presented by Mrs. L. V. F. Randolph at the meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the First Baptist church, yesterday afternoon, in the lecture room. The list of evils enumerated by Mrs. Randolph, which the missionaries had to encounter, was appalling. Among the most glaring of them were the opium habit, the alcohol habit, gambling, slavery, cannibalism, suicide, tryanny, extortion, witchcraft, licenteousness, degredation of women, infanticide and immorality in every form.

Mrs. Randolph pointed out the faith and courage of the missionary facing this web of problems, who, while he works for the individual soul, teaches incidentally the art of living and implants tendencies which ultimately accomplishes a beneficent work in the betterment of society. She put the cost of the 100 protestant foreign misionary societies in this country and Great Britian employing about 9000 missionaries at $11,000,000 per year. This large sum, she said, seemed relatively small compared with the appropriation of Congress for govermental uses of $1,000,000,000 per year.

Mrs. Randolph quoted from Dr. Francis E. Clark that national science has been illuminated and that geography, philology and archeology had gained vast new areas of knowledge through the work of the missionary, while commerce had been greatly advanced by the same instrumentality and discovery and exploration had made the world a debtor to missionaries. The statement has been made that these contributions of missionaries to science would have cost millions of dollars if secured in any other way.

In conclusion, Mrs. Randolph quoted from a recent letter from Mr. Randolph, dated at Constantinople in which he said that the greatest things of interest seen at Beyrout and Constantinople were the colleges of the Protestant christian type. "The whole scheme" Mr. Randolph writes, "is an excellent object lesson on the practical significance and value of the New Testament religion."

The paper was preceded by devotional services led by Mrs. George H. Bachelor.

April Weather Statistics.

Weather Prophet John Neagle has completed the statistics of the weather for April, which are as follows: Highest temperature, 85 degrees, date 26; lowest temperature, 21 degrees, date 5; mean temperature, 50.7; normal temperature, 49.4; mean maximum temperature, 62.9; mean minimum, 38.5; greatest daily range, 41; mean daily range, 24.3; total precipitation for the month, 3.93 inches; greatest amount in twenty-four hours, 1.26 inches, date 30; snowfall, a trace, date 3; number of days of precipitation, 15; number of days clear, 12; partly cloudy, 11; cloudy, 7; thunderstorm, date 25; high winds, 2, 3, 4, 11, 12, 30; mean temperature, 1.3 degrees above; normal precipitation, 0.76 inches below normal.

Amateur Night Tomorrow.

Tomorrow night will be amateur night at the New Plainfield theatre, and the weekly try-out will make up the bill in connection with a new display of moving pictures. Manager Counihan has several novelties to spring in connection with the amateur bill.

Petman Robinson Released.

Petman Robinson, the young colored boy, who was committed to jail by Judge Runyon yesterday, on the charge of stealing a bicycle, was released on his own recognizance this morning until the arrival of Probation Officer Irwin Saturday.

—The New Year's Dance at the Kirmess has a surprise for you.

BACKER FREED; WIFE WITHDRAWS COMPLAINT

After nine days imprisonment in a borough police cell, Matthias J. Backer, committed to the lockup on charges of non-support by his wife, who alleged that he has an "affinity," was released this morning. His freedom was directly brought about by his wife, who was left destitute with her four children, and who chose to withdraw the charges she had made against him rather than have him continue rusticating behind the bars.

The affair between husband and wife has been in a large measure patched up by Mayor Samuel Townsend. The "affinity," Miss Annie Becker, dropped out of the case as soon as Backer was committed, and as no one would put up $100 bond necessary for the man's release in accordance with Justice of the Peace Clark Mundy's ruling.

Mr. Townsend suggested a scheme for the two to go out to a farm and live quietly together, raising vegetables and chickens. The Backers favored the idea, the wife being particularly enthusiastic, and peace was easily made. Backer is out of a job, and ready money for the support of the family is sought through the sale of a Jackson automobile purchased by the Backers in the days when there was no financial stringency in the domestic circle.

YOUNG WOMAN'S LONG TRIP WHILE SERIOUSLY ILL.

Miss Rosa Beam, formerly an instructor at Drake's Business College, this city, is seriously ill with typhoid fever at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Beam, at Washington, Warren county. She had been taking a special six months' course of study in penmanship at a college in Columbus, O., where she was to have been graduated a few days ago. She is an expert penman and had promises of excellent positions as an instructor in that line. There are more than two hundred cases of typhoid fever in Columbus, and when she showed signs of the disease she was anxious to reach home.

The young woman showed remarkable pluck. By the aid of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company she had medical treatment from four doctors on the trip, the company, by means of telegrams, having physicians meet the train at different points. The change from the Pennsylvania to the Lackawanna Railroad was made at Newark and after receiving treatment the young woman continued her homeward trip, showing remarkable endurance under the circumstances, not giving up until she was in her own home.

A "RAINBOW FETE."

Delightful Affair Being Held in the Parish House of St. Stephen's Church.

Under the auspices of all the societies connected with St. Stephen's church, a "Rainbow Fete" is being held this week in the parish house. The affair began last night and will continue this afternoon and evening and tomorrow afternoon and evening. It is under the direction of the rector's cabinet, while the various members of the societies take charge of the different booths, tables, etc. An orchestra is in attendance and a program of popular selections is an attraction.

Among the things offered for sale are cake, candy, useful and fancy articles, lemonade, etc. Another attraction is the games of all kinds, one large room being devoted to them. Tonight a one-act farce, entitled "Our New Butler," will be given by some of the young people. It is said to be very funny. The rector, Rev. A. S. Peck, has general supervision of the fete and is assisted by an able corps of workers.

K. G. E.'s District Meeting.

A district meeting of the Knights of the Golden Eagle will be held tomorrow evening, commencing at 8 o'clock, in the rooms of Golden Crown Castle, No. 52, in Somerville. The district includes the castles at New Brunswick, Plainfield and Somerville and it is expected that each will send large delegations. The Somerville castle has made arrangements to entertain 200 guests. The Grand Noble Chief will preside and many of the other Grand Lodge officers will be in attendance.

Dinner to Bridal Party.

Mrs. William M. Sandford, of East Front street, whose daughter is to become the wife of Captain Edgar Harrison Yule of Wyoming, at a military wedding at her home tonight, gave a dinner to the bridal party last night. The dining room was decorated in pink and white for the occasion and covers were laid for nine.

Masonic District Deputy.

John Zulauf of Somerville, has been appointed District Deputy Grand Master of District No. 10, F. and A. M., which includes the Masonic lodges at Westfield, Plainfield, New Brunswick and Somerville.

NEGRO BRUTE COMMITS MURDEROUS ASSAULT

Attacks Aged Mount Bethel Couple With a Club and Leaves them for Dead.

THE COUNTRYSIDE AROUSED.

Fiend Abandons an Attempt to Abuse Helpless Old Woman and Turns His Attention to Robbery —Makes His Escape.

One of the most atrocious assaults ever committed in this part of the state occurred at Mount Bethel, last night, when a tramp negro entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bussi on former Freeholder Robert Zerkibel's place, and while a request for food was being complied with, turned on the aged couple and murderously beat them with a club. The husband, who is seventy eight years old, was rendered insensible and remained that way all night. Mrs. Bussi, who is eighty years old and very feeble, fell to the floor but remained conscious. While in this condition the brute attempted to abuse her but suddenly abandoning his purpose, turned his attention to robbery. He left after two hours of ransacking, taking with him two gold watches but ignoring an unlocked safe that contained a considerable amount of money.

The assault took place about 9 o'clock last night, and the negro remained about the house until 11 o'clock. News of the affair spread throughout the whole countryside this morning, when neighbors found the aged couple in a helpless condition. Fortunately, Mrs. Bussi did not entirely lose consciousness and obtained a good description of the assailant, which she gave to County Detective George Totten, when he reached the scene this morning. John Cooper was one of the first to discover Mr. and Mrs. Bussi and he aroused the neighborhood and started searching parties throughout the whole section. Chief of Police Kiely of this city, and Chief Marshal Weiss, of the borough, received word of the assault and they are aiding in the search for the negro.

According to Mrs. Bussi's description, the negro was very dark, about five feet eight inches in height, weighed about 145 pounds and wore a gray cap and a pair of tan shoes, and was apparently about twenty-five years old. His general appearance was seedy.

The Bussis came from New York and have resided at Mount Bethel for several years. The Zerkibel property is on the back road from Mount Bethel to Liberty Corner. In speaking of the affair this morning to Detective Totten, Mrs. Bussi said that she and her husband had just finished supper, when they heard someone knock at the door. Mr. Bussi responded and was met by the negro, who made a plaintive plea for something to eat. He was invited to step inside, and while the couple was busy getting some food the man, without any warning attacked them both with a club. Mr. Bussi was hit first.

While in a semi-conscious condition, Mrs. Bussi said she she could hear the man walking about the house and that he took time to get himself something to eat. Why he did not open the safe is a mystery. He may have thought it was locked and preferred not to attempt the job of opening it. There was quite a sum of money there and it would have been a good haul for the negro.

Every effort is being made to get a trace of the assailant and Detective Totten believes that he will be captured before he has had an opportunity to get far away, especially as he has such a good description of him.

Juniors Trim Sophs, 9-6.

The junior class nine of the Plainfield High School beat the Sophomores by a score of 9-6 at Crescent Oval yesterday afternoon. The game was the first of the school inter-class league, the two games previously played having been declared unofficial because of the ineligibility of some of the players who were below in their school work. Lyness and Gray were the battery for the juniors, and Ricketts and Cullin, the only two members of the original sophomore nine who can play ball, were the oposing battery.

—Neuman Brothers' olive oil excels in quality and purity. For sale by the gallon, half gallon or quart.

—Photographs of the Kirmess dances will be on sale. ***

WAISTS—The most extensive and finest line of the best waists are shown here, including the new Tailored Waist, with just a little coloring. We would be pleased to have you see them.

A. E. Force and Co.

We Give "S. H." "THE WHITE STORE" THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY Green Trading Stamps

The Ladies' Home Journal Patterns are the highest and most economical pattern in this country today, and are backed by millions of progressive women in every part of the United States. Prices 10c and 15c.

Dependable merchandise that has the unqualified endorsement of the "White Store." Our aim always is, to give our patrons the newest, best and most seasonable merchandise that can be found, at the very lowest prices.

DOMESTIC DEPARTMENT.

SPECIALS THIS WEEK.

7c Bleached Twilled Toweling for 5

8c Stevens Brown All-Linen Toweling for 6

10c 6-4 Cambric Finished Bleached Muslin for 5

$1.00 quality 72-inch Beached All-Linen Satin finish Table Damask at ..... .79

$3.00 quality ¾ size Napkins $2.50 to match at .....

75c finest quality Imported Mercerized full bleached Satin Table Damask for ..... .65

DRESS GOODS.

Batiste and Nun's Veiling in all the new spring shades, fine and smooth cloth, good, special value at ..... .50

SILKS—Another lot of the silks we offered last week, beautiful materials, stripes and checks, 75c value for ..... .59

WHITE GOODS.

PERSIAN LAWN—45 inches wide, fine and sheer, extra value for ..... .25

EMBROIDERED BATISTE—In a variety of different size dots; the very latest; specially priced ..... .25

ALL OVER EMBROIDERY—On Swiss Lawn and Cambric, small figures and stripes; $1.39 to $1.50 value, for ... .89

LADIES' TAILORED SUITS.

If you contemplate buying a new suit for Spring and Summer, now is the time and the White Store the place. Never have we offered such remarkable bargain values. Come this week. We have a few of the bargains offered last week. Suits from $5.98 up to $30

MILLINERY.

We like to keep before your mind the fact that we are equipped to supply your wants in the Millinery line with everything that a lady wants in Millinery. We aid you in every possible manner in your selection, and do so conscienciously, realizing that serving you well means a continuation of your patronage.

STEAMER TRUNKS.

We are showing a splendid line of new Trunks, the kind we know that is entirely dependable, strongly built of best materials, brass trimmings, good strong locks, neatly finished; prices $4.25 $9.50 to .....

REFRIGERATORS.

Two of the best makes in the country, made of seasoned ash lumber, with solid bronze trimmings, galzanized iron shelves, drip pipe, etc.; prices $9.49 $18.98 to .....

PORCH CHAIRS.

Strait back Porch Chairs that were sold regularly for $1.69; we will close the lot this week at, each $1.19

DRESS SUIT CASES and BAGS

Fine Dress Suit Cases in imitation leather, leather and fibre; strong and durable; trimmed with brass buckles, belts, corners reinforced with leather covers; prices range from $9.50 to $1

BAGS—An excellent assortment of traveling bags; various kinds; sizes and colors, in fact sizes to meet all requirements; prices range from $6.50 to ..... .78

LAWN MOWERS—A new stock of the best kind of lawn mowers.

12 inch $2.98
14 inch $3.49
16 inch $3.98

SCREEN DOORS — Fancy Screen Doors from $1.25 up to $1.49

Plain Doors, in all sizes, at ..... .98

WINDOW SCREENS—The kind that you can adjust; prices 22c to .. .45

BAMBOO SCREENS—Sizes 6x8 $1.49 to 8x10, prices 85c to .....

WIRE NETTING—Sizes 18 to 42 inch; prices, yard, 9c to ..... .21

SEEDS—Canna and Dalhia Bulbs, splendid varieties; special value at, per dozen ..... .50

HEARTILY ENDORSE COOPER REMEDIES

Dealer and Patient at Hallowell, Maine, Make Statements Under Oath

In connection with the intense interest manifested by the public at large in the theory of L. T. Cooper as to the human stomach being the source of nearly all ill health, the statements of Mr. W. D. Spaulding, of Hallowell, Me., one of the oldest and best-known druggists in that state, and of Mrs. Frederick Harvey, a well known nurse living in the same place, will be interesting to thousands of persons who are today suffering from ailments directly traceable to the stomach. The fact that these statements are made voluntarily, under oath, removes all element of doubt. The statements follow:

"HALLOWELL, MAINE, July 20, 1907.

"TO THE COOPER MEDICINE CO., "Dayton, Ohio.

"Gentlemen—The policy at Spaulding's drug store is to gain the perfect confidence of the public by never recommending any medicine or treatment until its virtues have been fully established. The Cooper Remedies were to us an unknown quality, we were very skeptical of their medicinal value, and it was not until several of our customers had received such beneficial results from their use that we could no longer doubt their value that we consented to take the agency for the Cooper Remedies in this territory, heartily endorsing the same.

"Herewith we give the testimonial of a lady whose case came under our personal observation from her being a regular customer, and she says:—

"'Gentlemen of the Cooper Medicine Co., Dayton Ohio: It is with pleasure I recommend your New Discovery medicine, of which I have taken the contents of three bottles, and can today eat anything without inconvenience to myself. For a number of years I had suffered intensely with severe headaches, sour stomach, indigestion, pains in my side, and complications which made it exceedingly hard for me to accomplish even my household work. Physicians had given me dozens of prescriptions, which failed to accomplish a cure or even relief. Your New Discovery medicine advertisement attracted my attention, and I purchased a bottle of the medicine, which I took according to directions and before it was half gone, I felt very much better; when I had taken the contents of two bottles I gained courage to eat many things which for years I had denied myself, and found they caused me no ill effects. Today, after having used three bottles of the New Discovery, I can eat anything and feel that I am a well woman once more, and therefore would advise anyone to take Cooper's New Discovery, for I feel sure it will cure them.'—Mrs. Frederick Harvey, Hallowell, Me.

"We endorse the above testimonial, under oath, as being correct.

"W. D. SPAULDING.

"Testimony before me under oath this 22nd day of July, 1907.

"GEO. A. SAFFORD, (SEAL.) "Notary Public."

The Cooper remedies have proven eminently satisfactory wherever introduced. We will be pleased to explain their nature to anyone wishing to know about them. We are agents. —T. S. Armstrong.

"THE OLD RELIABLE HOME FURNISHERS"

EST. 1860 COWPERTHWAIT AND VAN HORN CO. INC. 1907

73 MARKET STREET. NEAR PLANE ST., NEWARK, N.J.

(B)

"Spring"—time Suggests NEW Floor Coverings

—and we suggest "No. 73" as the place to get them, provided quality that's sure, and a price that's right, appeals to your taste and purse!

Only weaves that stand our warrant ever get inside our store—here's an "Inducement Sale" to start Spring season's trade!

TAPESTRY BRUSSELS CARPETS

85c. grade at 64c. Yd. | $1.00 grade at 75c. Yd. | $1.20 grade at 90c. Yd.

MADE, LAID AND LINED FREE!

HEAVY CHINESE MATTING — Just in—Regular $18 grade — $14.50 roll of 40 yds. — Many other grades and prices

FANCY JAPANESE MATTING — Cotton Warp Regular $16 grade — $13.25 roll of 40 yds. — Broad choice of various other weaves

Best Grade "A No. 1"

Oil Cloth at 45c. Yd. [Reg. 60c.]

Over half a hundred kinds of oil cloth—all new and effective! Ask to see our line of Linoleums—especially the new imported line in carpet patterns—we're sole agents.

Sole Headquarters For

"The Portland Range," "Gunn Sectional Bookcases" The Acme Washing Machine, "White" Sewing Machine

LOWEST PRICES—EASY CREDIT

PERSONAL.

Alvord Cook, of Rahway, has been visiting in town for a short time.

Miss Sadie Keller, of Easton, Pa., who has been visiting friends here, has returned home.

Miss Mabel Hooley has returned from Brooklyn with her string of prize-winning horses.

Mrs. Charles Staats, of Brooklyn, has returned home after spending a week with relatives in town.

Charles Battell Loomis, formerly of Scotch Plains and more recently of Hackensack, has moved to New York.

C. M. Meeker, of East Front street, is able to be out again after being detained at home for two weeks by illness.

Mrs. John Vreeland, formerly of East Millstone, has been visiting at the home of Louis VanAlstyne, of West Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. Elon Rogers, of Bensonhurst, L. I., who have been visiting Louis VanAlstyne, of West Front street, have returned home.

Fred Weed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Weed, of West Front street who is ill with scarlet fever at the home of his grandparents in Jersey City, is convalescing.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The Sunday-school of the Park Avenue Baptist church is preparing an elaborate program for the Children's Day exercises to be held early in June.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Park Avenue Baptist church will hold a leaderless meeting Friday night. The subject will be "Being a Christian."

The Boys' Mission Band of Trinity Reformed church will hold an entertainment and sale Friday night in the lecture room of the church. Admission will be free.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:30. A full attendance is desired.

Rev. Ora J. Shoop, pastor of Grace M. E. church, will visit the General Conference of the Methodist church now in session in Baltimore. He will spend all of next week at Baltimore as a guest.

At the mid-week prayer service at Grace M. E. church tonight, Rev. Ora J. Shoop, the pastor, will deliver a lecture on "The Song of Our Syrian Gues—An Interpretation of the Twenty-third Psalm."

FIRE AT CRANFORD CAUSES LOSS OF $10,500.

Cranford, May 6.—Fire caused by a locomotive spark Monday afternoon completely gutted the residence occupied by Frank Nick, and wiped out the barn, outbuildings and all the other property on the premises which, owned by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, are situated at the Junction near here, and along the tracks of the Public Service Corporation at the point where they cross the B. & O. road. The railroad company sustained a loss approximating $7,000, while that of Mr. Nick, on farm implements, furniture and other personal property, was about $3,500.

The fire broke out shortly after half-past four o'clock, and an alarm was sent in at Cranford. The firemen of that place were greatly handicapped, however, though through no fault of their own, because of their failure to secure horses to draw their apparatus. Accordingly, and because of the long distance they had to travel the entire place was in flames when they arrived. It was apparent that the outbuildings could not be saved, and they concentrated their efforts upon the residence, the roof of which had taken fire from the embers which were sent into the air from the other burning structures.

To add to the fire-fighters' discomfiture, the first trolley car which attempted to pass the point of the fire, jumped the improvised tracks and broke the hose. As it was, trolley traffic between Elizabeth and points west of here was delayed fully two and one-half hours.

Puts Ban on Loitering.

Chatham, May 6.—There will be no more loitering around the railroad station of this place, if the ordinance introduced at last night's meeting of the Borough Council passes on its third and final reading. The ordinance was introduced at the request of the officials of the Lackawanna Railroad, who for several years have been making efforts to get rid of the nuisance, particularly on Sundays. The ordinance fixes a maximum penalty of $20 for each conviction, or ninety days in the lock-up or county jail, or both, in the discretion of the court. The ordinance was indorsed by the Borough Council, and was passed by the Council on first and second readings.

Governor to Inspect Waterway Route.

Atlantic City, May 6.—Governor Fort will use the motorboat of former Judge Joseph Thompson, commodore of the Ventnor Motorboat Club, when he comes here this week to inspect the route of the proposed inland waterway from Bay Head to Cape May, in company with Henry Schneider, waterway commissioner, and a party of State officials.

The Women's Relief Corps will meet in Reform Hall Friday night to complete arrangements for Memorial Day observance.

MATHUSHEK & SON PIANOS

appeal to all lovers of the beautiful in music. They possess the rare quality of tone that is a delight to all.

Every courtesy given to visitors and prospective buyers at our wareroom.

Beautiful catalogue mailed upon request.

MATHUSHEK & SON PIANO CO.,
310 W. Front St., Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 910-J

HOW ABOUT YOUR SUIT

We are showing the finest line of KIRSHBAUM SUITS AND TOP COATS in Brown, Olives, Grey and Blue. Can we not show you these even if you don't buy—the goods are good and prices right. All the new things in Shirts, Neckwear, Socks, Caps and Hats. We put our Straw Tiles on exhibition Today.

CLOTHING MADE-TO-ORDER

Werner's Clothing House
206 WEST FRONT STREET

—CAMERAS—
KODAKS AND PHOTOGRAPHIC SUPPLIES
DEVELOPING, PRINTING AND ENLARGING
Bring Your Films in One Day and Get Your Pictures the Next.
"THE PHOTO STORE," 129 NORTH AVENUE.
FORMERLY VAN WINKLE'S.

"HARD TIMES" DO NOT EFFECT THE SALE OF
"HAWES" $3.00 HATS
WHY?—BECAUSE THEY ARE GUARANTEED
JAS. R. BLAIR

IN THE SPRING

The thoughts of a house-owner naturally turn toward painting. If you are going to paint your house, use because it is a strictly pure linseed oil paint and therefore, can be relied upon to give the best satisfaction. When used according to directions, it will cover more surface and cover it better, with less labor, than other paints. These are facts that have been demonstrated right in your own locality, and it will pay you, as it has others, to buy Moore's House Colors this spring from our representative.

MOORE'S HOUSE COLORS

H. E. GAYLE HARDWARE COMPANY, Plainfield.

BENJAMIN MOORE & CO.
Pure Colors, Paints, and Muresco.
New York, Chicago, Cleveland, Toronto.

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c a week.

CITY.

Union News Co. ..... R. R. Station
J. W. Harper ..... 411 Park Ave.
W. A. Laing ..... 149 W. Front St.
A. D. Mallinson ..... Fourth and Liberty Sts
Trolley Waiting Room ..... Watchung Ave
M. Estill ..... 111 Park Ave
Fehnle & Stahl ..... 113 Somerset St.
Blaney & Son ..... 331 Watchung Ave
T. S. Garthwaite ..... 212 Watchung Ave
A. Anderson ..... 657 West Fourth St.
John Mottley ..... Cor. E. 3d & Richmond Sts

SUBURBAN

Dunellen ..... B. Siriski
Raw Market ..... R. Burdick
Bound Brook ..... Union News Co.
Bound Brook ..... L. M. Davis
Somerville ..... Jacob Genert
Westfield ..... C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield ..... J. W. Wall
Scotch Plains ..... Chas. Elliott
South Plainfield ..... Victor Atlee
Fanwood ..... Chas. Elliott
Netherwood ..... Blaney & Son

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS

BOUND BROOK AND VICINITY.

After spending several weeks at the home of her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robinson, in Newark, Mrs. Harriet Robinson has returned to her home in Cedar street, South Bound Brook.

Mrs. John Veerhoff and daughter, Miss Florence Veerhoff, of Clinton street, South Bound Brook, spent yesterday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Koehler, in Garwood.

Guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. Mary Power, in Franklin street, South Bound Brook, were Miss Ada Bennett, of Elizabeth, and George Sebold, of New York.

Mrs. James Donnelley, of New Brunswick, was lately a guest at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Riker, in Canal street, South Bound Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Byer, of Elizabeth street, South Bound Brook, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Byer's mother, Mrs. John Tingley, in Dunellen.

NORTH BRANCH.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church at Neshanic Station will hold a meeting in the lecture room Thursday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Toms and daughter May, of Morristown, were recent guests at the home of Andrew Burd, at Pluckemin.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society will meet in the chapel of the Reformed church at North Branch on Friday afternoon.

The prayer meeting of the Reformed church at Neshanic will be held this evening at the home of John S. Amerman.

Mrs. John Hart has returned to the Reformed parsonage at Neshanic, after a visit to relatives on Long Island.

William B. Wood, of North Branch, who has been confined to his home by illness, is able to be about again.

Miss Helen Rinehart, of North Branch Depot, has been spending some time with relatives in Raritan.

Miss Emma Tolman, of Newark, is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tolman, at Neshanic.

Miss Katherine Sutphen, of Wertsville, has been visiting Miss Elizabeth Hoagland, at Neshanic.

Miss Edna Randall, of Newark, is visiting Miss Alleta Layton, at Pluckemin, for a few days.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

The question of street sprinkling came up before the Council at Monday night's meeting and was discussed at length. It was decided that street sprinkling by the borough would be advantageous, especially on the principal streets, where automobile traffic through the borough raises so much dust. The Public Service car sprinkler has been irregular in its work in Dunellen and this matter is to be looked into. A committee of the councilmen was appointed by Mayor Swackhamer to report on street sprinkling at a special meeting of the Council Saturday night.

Rev. Edward A. Odell, former missionary in Porto Rico, spoke on his work in the mission field at a meeting of the Jr. S. C. E., held at the Presbyterian church this afternoon. The talk was of a practical nature, urging the support of foreign missions, and especially outlining the needs of the Porto Ricans. He will speak at the mid-week prayer meeting in the church tonight.

The Dunellen A. C. will play the baseball nine of the Plainfield A. C. on the borough diamond Saturday afternoon.

The Embroidery Club will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. McDonald, of Plainfield.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Manager Alberts may be unable to get Johnson to pitch for the local ball team, as he is to be given a tryout this week with the Brooklyn team of the Union League.

The meetings being held at the Baptist church every night by Rev. Mr. Atkinson, are being well attended and considerable spiritual irterest is being manifested.

Saturdays game between the Star A. C. team of Newark and the locals should be a good game, as the visitors are rated as Newark's strongest team.

Summons have been issued in Justice Clark's court in the contract case of McNally vs. Brown. Summons are returnable Friday, May 8.

Miss Hazel Gardner, who has been spending two weeks at her home in the borough, has returned to her studies at Vassar College.

Mrs. Otto Peterson of Newark, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Clark, of Prospect avenue.

An important meeting of the Trustees of the Baptist church was held in the church last night.

Anthony Warnock has taken up his residence in Plainfield.

Workmen's Hospital for Chicago.

Chicago, May 6.—Chicago is to have a working men's hospital. It is to be an institution managed cooperatively by the labor unions, in which free treatment and medicine will be given the families of working men in time of sickness. The plans for the hospital have been drawn and negotiations for the purchase of a site are already under way. Through the sale of annual memberships at $2 each it is planned to raise a fund of $95,000 which will cover the establishment of the institution.

—For best results try a Press want ad.

TEPPERS 109-111-113 WEST FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

AGENTS FOR STANDARD PATTERNS

EMBROIDERED BATISTE

Value 29c at 18c yard

These rich embroidered mercerized Batistes, white as snow, soft and lustrious, make beautiful Princess dresses. We selected a small lot under value and place these on sale, regular value 29c at, a yard - - 18c

Sale Worsted Suitings

50c values at 29c yard

We place on sale 15 pieces Dress Goods, the popular Worsted Suitings in checks, plaids and stripes, the popular spring shades, for suits, skirts and Jumper dresses, 36 inches wide, regular value 50c, on sale at, yard - - - - - - - - - 29c

44 inch all wool Cream Serge, splendid weight at, yard - - - - 75c

25c and 29c Silk Braids, yd. 19c

New Persian Silk Braid Trimming, in a wide range of styles, regular value 25c and 29c, on sale at, yard 19c

40 inch Figured Fillet Net, white and ecru, 69c value at, yard - - - 50c

42 inch Plain Arabian Fillet Net, 75c value at, yard - - - - - - - 69c

Fine Mesh Dress Nets, full 2 yards wide, white and Arabian, $1.00 value at, yard, - - - - - - - 79c

Phaeton Seamless Collar Foundation, regular price 15c, at, - - - 10c

SALE PEARL BUTTONS

At 10c a Dozen

500 dozen Fine Pearl Dress Buttons in assorted styles and sizes, flat and bullet styles, two and four holes, regular values, 12½c, 15c, 17c, and 19c a dozen, take your pick of these 500 dozen while they last at, doz. 10c

We do not break dozen lots

Sale Ladies' Handkerchiefs

300 dozen of the best 5c Handkerchiefs in town, at 36c dozen or for half dozen - - - - - - 18c

Nemo WEEK

This Week! The Great Corset Event of the Season!

It's our Spring Exposition of the famous NEMO CORSETS.

The time of all times to select a corset that will not only bring out the best lines of your figure, but will assure you the utmost comfort.

The word "Nemo" on a corset means correct style and long wear; and of course you know that the Nemo Corset is "the only corset that is more than a corset—the only one that does something for you that no other corset can do."

New models for slender figures—the "Willow-Shape," and the wonderful "Back-Resting" Corset. And the famous "Self-Reducing," with the new "Flatning-Back," has no rival—and never had.

Come and be fitted—our expert corsetieres will see that you get genuine Nemo Corset comfort.

HAHNE & CO.

IMPORTERS · NEWARK'S STORE BEAUTIFUL BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STREETS · RETAILERS

Dressing Sacques

A round hundred dozen of crisp, new dressing sacques will be offered tomorrow (Thursday) only, at about one-third less than regular price.

These pretty sacques are made of plain and striped dimity and lawn with light grounds and colored polka dots and ring dots, as well as dainty flowered patterns. They are made with fitted back, belted, with belt attached, with gathered sleeves in three-quarter length and turn-over cuff, the entire sacque scalloped edge; sizes 34 to 46; reg. value 89c; to be sold, Thursday, at..... .50

House Dresses

75 dozen of these house dresses come in this purchase, and they, like the dressing sacques, will be sold at one-third less than they should fetch.

2-piece House Dresses of good quality chambray, blues and grays; percales in black and white, shepherd checks and black and white plaids with light grounds; front of waist made deep side-plaited, tucked collar and generous circular skirt; sizes 34 to 44; value $1.50; Thursday's special price $1

We reserve the right to limit the quantity to each buyer.

Annual Sale

Housekeeping Linens, Sheets, Cases, Bed Spreads, Bed Comfortables, Blankets, Towels, Toweling, Damask Table Cloths and Table Damask by yard, Napkins, Doilies, etc.

Housekeepers for miles around will be interested in this big sale of everyday needs at cut prices. Throughout our lines of housekeeping drygoods we offer the most dependable sorts of goods from our staple stocks at reduced prices all this week.

Tomorrow's Extra Feature—

Huck Towels—Extra large size, hemmed; regular 22c grade at..... .15

Turkish Towels—Large size, white Turkish towels; regular 15c kind at..... .11

Toweling—All linen, white crash toweling; red borders; reg. 12c a yard; special priced.. .8

Extra Heavy Brown Crash; regular 10c grade; tomorrow at only..... .7

American Day

In the Hosiery Section

American manufacturers are becoming proud of their product as they go on and on towards perfection, so you shouldn't be surprised that we should have an American Day in the Hosiery Section.

This is specially arranged to exploit the celebrated Wayne Knitting Mills High-Grade Hosiery, made in America by the most skilled makers of best Maco yarns, dyed a black that never fades.

The Wayne product is something truly to be proud of as it is giving immense satisfaction and competing in every way with the foreign product.

Every pair of Wayne stockings is full fashioned and has reinforced toes, heels and soles; the sizes are correct, the finish the very best.

Women's Full Fashioned Stockings of cotton and lisle in various weights; fast blacks; every pair reinforced—

35c a pair; 6 pairs for $2.

Men's Full Fashioned Socks of fast black cotton; medium and light weight; reinforced toes, heels and soles..... .25

Men's Full Fashioned Socks; fast black lisles and mercerized lisle; extra fine gauze; reinforced heels, toes and soles; extra value—

35c a pair; 3 pairs for $1.

Children's Fast Black Full Fashioned Cotton Stockings; various weights; reinforced toes, heels and soles—

Sizes 6 to 8½, 25c; sizes 9 to 10, 29c.

SOME STATE NEWS BRIEFS

An "unloaded" revolver, with which he was playing, shot Harry Biggs, of Millville, through one hand.

The salaries of all high school teachers and some of the others at Toms River were raised yesterday by the Board of Education.

The Ocean County Board of Taxation reorganized by electing A. O. S. Havens, of Point Pleasant, president, and Harry T. Hagaman, of Lakewood, secretary.

Charles Hauser, alias Charles Hollings, alias Fred Weber, who pleaded guilty last Thursday to stealing diamond rings from J. F. Demmert, of 504 Federal street, Camden, Tuesday, was confronted with his past record yesterday and sentenced by Judge Joline to seven years in the State prison at hard labor.

JUDGE ATWATER GRANTS COUNTY LIQUOR LICENSES.

Many licenses were granted in the Court of Common Pleas yesterday morning by Judge Edward S. Atwater, among which were the following:

John C. Bender, 416 Westfield avenue, Roselle Park, renewal of license; Thomas A. McDevitt, Chestnut street and First avenue, Roselle Park, renewal of license; Eugene L. O'Reiley, Meeker Inn, Union, renewal of license; William Morrison, North avenue, Garwood, renewal of license; Herman O. O. Smith, Kenilworth, renewal of license of Kenilworth Inn; Harry J. Zachar, Linden, renewal of license for the Linden Hotel; John J. Mayer, Springfield avenue, New Providence, renewal of license; Daniel J. Rahilly, Linden, renewal of license for the Bridge Hotel; Amelia Becker, Garwood, renewal of license; Albert W. Sauer, St. George's avenue, Roselle, renewal of license; Berthold Heim, corner Terrell road and South avenue, Fanwood, renewal of license; William H. Lee, Scotch Plains, for renewal of license for Lee's Hotel; Louis A. Kling, Linden, renewal of license; William Sadusky, North avenue, Garwood, renewal of license; The Baltusrol Golf Club, of Union, was granted a license to sell liquor, the license fee being $300. Action on the application of Whitfield J. Slochlower was postponed until Wednesday, May 13.

Action on the following applications was postponed until Saturday: Joseph Kula, Standard Hotel, Linden; Charles Bauzer, 429 Westfield avenue, Roselle Park; John Klop, Mountainside; Dora Stier, Fanwood; Fred Tabe, Union; Raphael Venezio, Fanwood, wholesale license; John Kuntz, New Providence; Charles Weidenhofer, Linden.

NEW TROLLEY LINE LIKELY.

Favorable Prospects for Route From Present Long Branch Terminal to Monmouth Beach.

Long Branch, May 6.—It is said here that the prospects of the Atlantic Coast Electric Railway Company for running a trolley line from the present point of terminal here to Monmouth Beach are very favorable. The question will be definitely decided at the next meeting of the Long Branch authorities, when a hearing on the application for a franchise, that was made some time ago, will be given to the trolley company. The meeting will take place this week. It is proposed to run the new line from Pleasure Bay Point to Atlantic avenue, thence to North Long Branch and thence to Monmouth Beach, and eventually continue as far as Seabright, but this last step will not be attempted at the present time, as there would be a great deal of objection on the part of the owners of cottages in this district, which is select.

At the other end of the trolley line, where it terminates at Sea Girt, work will very shortly begin and the line will pursue its way through the government grounds, then under the Central tracks and son on to Manasquan, eventually going on to Point Pleasant. The laying of tracks from Sea Girt to Manasquan will be hurried along, and before the summer is over the cars will be running. Governor Fort has signed the bill allowing the tracks to pass the State grounds at Sea Girt. The distance is about a mile.

WHISTLE AS A FIRE ALARM.

Hackettstown, May 6.—The May meeting of the Common Council was held last night. In the matter of bettering the present fire alarm system, it was decided to purchase a siren whistle and place it on the power house of the Hackettstown Electric Light Company, which volunteered to connect it and give the town free service. The whistle will be connected from the headquarters of the fire department. The increased service will cost the town about $125. It is intended that other parts of the town will be connected later by an electric system.

President Durling appointed Councilmen Marvin Shields, Roscoe I. Hart and Thomas A. Shields to settle with the Hackettstown Board of Water Commissioners at the annual settlement of the board on Friday, May 15. For the observance of Memorial Day an appropriation of $50 was made, and the Council will act with Mayor Ayres as a committee of arrangements. The license application of Thomas Grogan, to keep a bottling establishment in Liberty street, was renewed.

SPORTS HERE AND THERE

BASEBALL.

The cranks already have their hammers out for the Giants and say that they are not much better than a second division team. Little early to predict, but it is a safe bet that the team will be among the leaders at the finish.

There is no denying the fact, however, that the Chicago Nationals have the goods. The team is practically the same as last year and in that respect they have a strong advantage.

George Wiltse, of the Giants' pitching staff, can be depended upon to do his share this year and with Mathewson should be able to win many games for the team.

McGraw expects McGinnity to be all right to go in the box soon and to have one of his best seasons.

There is talk of Laporte being shifted to first base on the Boston Americans and assigning the second bag to the care of McConnell.

Mathewson won his fifth straight victory Monday. He has not been beaten this season. His scalps include Philadelphia twice, Brooklyn twice and Boston once.

Pitcher Manning delivered the goods for Griffith again Monday. Incidentally it appears that Griffith is at his old tricks of frequently shaking up his batting order.

Even with his smoked glasses Magee had a hard time locating one fly ball in the sun yesterday; but he made a guess at it and had his hands in the right place to make the catch.

It's risky business taking a long lead off first on Mr. Dooin. The redhead can make the ball sing on a quick throw over to the bag and it takes activity and vigilance to keep from being caught napping.

Outfielder John Anderson, now with the Chicago Americans, and Catcher M. E. Heyder of the Kansas City team were Monday reinstated by the National Commission. The commission fined the Washington club $25 in both cases for disposing of the players while they were not actually in the service of the club.

GOLF.

Owing to the fact that she has removed from the city and is unable to come to Plainfield very often, Mrs. N. Pendelton Rogers, has resigned from the membership of the Plainfield Country Club. She will be missed there as one of the leading women players. She has made an enviable record not only on this course, but others in the metropolitan district as well and it has largely been through her efforts that many women have become interested in the game. She will occasionally play at Deal or on the course at Oceanic.

For this season of the year, the members of the Plainfield Country Club declare that the course is in exceptional condition. As soon as the putting greens are put in commission the course will be one of the finest in the State.

The new service at the Plainfield Country Club is meeting with popular approval on the part of the members.

Eight new members were elected at the May meeting of the Eastern Professional Golfers' Association in New York Monday. They were R. M. Thomson, of Knollwood; H. H. Barker, of Garden City; L. S. Jacobs, of Syracuse; Seymour Dunn, of Wycagyl; W. C. Skelly, of Wilmington; Peter Robertson, of Oakmont; James H. Norton, of Trenton, and Stewart Maiden, of Nassau.

Charles Kirchner, who has served as secretary of the association since its organization, declared that he would be unable to serve another year, which means that his place will have to be filled at the annual election to be held in June. The nominating committee, consisting of Jack Pearson, Isaac Mackie and Herbert strong, was appointed yesterday. Rumor has it that Willie Norton and Dave Hunter will be renominated for president and treasurer, respectively, and that Strong will be selected to fill Kirchner's place.

No progress has been made with regard to the association's annual championship tournament, which the officials hope to hold over a course in the metropolitan district during the week of June 10. The Englewood Golf Club and the Fox Hills Golf Club are both under consideration.

The competitive schedule of the Siwanoy Country Club contains a varied list of fixtures. There will be a team match with Columbia on May 23 and dates have been left open for several others. The president's, vice-president's and captain's cups are the principal prizes for men, while the Governor's trophy will be sought after by the women.

Somerset Council, No. 102, Jr. O. U. A. M., will have initiation Friday night.

Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., will meet tomorrow night and receive several applications.

LAWN MOWERS

Sharpened and Repaired

Having Installed Electric Power and Improved Grinding Machinery I Can Insure Prompt and Satisfactory Work.

A. M. GRIFFEN,

119-123 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

'PHONES 6 and 214

Rich Milk 8c a quart.
Rich Cream 12c half pt.
Buttermilk 6c a quart

Plainfield Milk & Cream Co,

MARCHANT BROS.,

112 WATCHUNG AVENUE

PLAINFIELD OFFICE

EISELE & KING

Members of the New York and Philadelphia Stock Exchanges

In the Babcock Building, West Front St.

Private wires East and West. Ticker service. Orders executed as rapidly as in any New York office

W. De LaR. ANDERSON, Manager.

JACK HORNER 26 SOMERSET ST TEL. 869-W.

Pierce, Cleveland, Crawford and Arrow Bicycles. Renting, Repairing and Sundries. Vulcanizing a specialty. Baby Carriages Repaired and Retired. Work called for and delivered.

ATLANTIC CITY

is always delightful and the new fireproof

CHALFONTE

is in the very centre of its varied attractions

There is no better time for a visit than now

Write for illustrated Folder and Rates to

THE LEEDS COMPANY

ALWAYS OPEN

ON THE BEACH

207 BROAD ST ELIZABETH LOAN Co. 207 BROAD ST

"Reliable Money Brokers"

IF IT'S A QUESTION OF DOLLARS.

We may be able to help you out. At any rate if you'll inform us of your needs, we'll try. The winter months just past have raised the expenses of the average householder to their highest point and many of us have been unable to meet all of our obligations as promptly as we would like to and consequently find ourselves in debt.

SUPPOSE we were to advance you sufficient funds to meet your obligations. Do you not think you would be more satisfied to have only one payment to look after on pay day?

There is no place where money will be advanced you more willingly or where you will receive more courteous treatment than from us. It's worth investigating.

The possession of household goods, horses and wagons is sufficient evidence of your ability to pay. Call, write or 'phone.

ELIZABETH LOAN COMPANY.

Room 24 Hersh Bldg. Telephone 778-R. 'Elizabeth, N. J.

:-Schreiner's Pharmacy-:

PARK AVE. and SECOND ST. TEL. 898-J.

Have Your Corns Removed

Without Pain by Applying

SCHREINER'S CORN REMEDY

15c Bottle Guaranteed

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.

196 North Avenue. Telephone 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S and Canada.

The Daily Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change the same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

Plainfield, N. J., May 6, 1908.

May 6 In History.

Bret Harte.

1708—Father Xavier de Lavalle Montmorenci, first Catholic bishop of Canada, died; born 1623.

1758—Andre Massena, Napoleon's marshal, born; died 1817.

1859—Von Humboldt died; born 1769.

1902—F. Bret Harte, noted American author, died; born 1839.

1904—General Oku, with 50,000 Japanese, landed on the Liaotung peninsula, cutting the Russian communications from Port Arthur northward.

1907—Rev. Dr. John Watson (Ian Maclaren), noted Scotch author, died at Mount Pleasant, Ia.; born 1850.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

Sun sets 6:57, rises 4:47; moon sets 12:37 a. m.; 5:34 a. m., moon in conjunction with Jupiter, passing from west to east of the planet, 1¾ degrees north thereof; seen near tonight.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

A Number of Local Interest Filed at County Clerk's Office.

The following local real estate transfers have been recorded at Elizabeth:

Lemuel E. Hart et al. to Horace G. Adams, lot 3, block 4, "Map of Mary Pound," Plainfield.....$1

Hattie M. Bird to William D. Bird, lots 15-16, "Map of Clinton Heights," Plainfield.....$1

John I. Brower et ux. to James Gibbs, northeasterly side Leland avenue, 350 feet southeasterly side Leland avenue, 350 feet southeast-terly of Midway, Plainfield.....$1

Sarah Preger et al. to Werner B. Heideloff, northeasterly side Westervelt avenue, 40 feet of Mary R. Loomis, Plainfield.....$1

David Hand et ux. to Ernest T. Hand, Denmark road, corner Netherwood Park, Plainfield.....$1

Arthur T. Dunn to Louis Sprigg, southeasterly side East Second street, 250 feet southwesterly of Terrill road, Plainfield.....$1

Robert J. Marclay et ux. to John G. McLaughlin, northeasterly corner Second and Centre streets, Plainfield.....$1

John G. McLaughlin et ux. to Albert Wadley, same as above.....$1

Margaret M. Thatcher et al. to Sophus Lassen, East Fourth street, 147 feet northeasterly of Sycamore street, Plainfield.....$6,600

William H. Abbott et ux. to Susan F. Morse et al, southerly side Putnam avenue, corner Hillside avenue, Plainfield.....$1

Ernest Sharp et ux. to C. W. Krauss, southeasterly side Gresham road, 650 feet southwesterly of Leland avenue, Plainfield.....$1

Sarah A. C. et al. to Mary J. McClurg, Spooner avenue, 230 feet southerly of Seventh street, Plainfield.....$1

This contract has also been filed: B. Butensky with Davis Steinman, carpenter work, etc., new building, Plainfield avenue, Plainfield..$2,800

Hetty Green Moves from Hoboken.

New York, May 6.—Mrs. Hetty Green is one of the latest arrivals at the Hotel Plaza. It became known yesterday that the woman frequently called "the richest in the world" had been at the hotel for four or five days. To live at the Plaza Mrs. Green had to abandon the $15 per month apartment in Hoboken where she had made her home for so long. She has taken a $15 per day suite at the Plaza. With her are her daughter Sylvia and a maid, the trio having a suite of several rooms. They breakfast and dine in the hotel restaurant and Mrs. Green visits her office at the Chemical National Bank daily.

—The work of rebuilding kennels for the hounds at the home of the Watchung Hunt Club has been started and will be completed within a couple of weeks.

Headquarters for

John Gibson's

RYE.

E. C. Westcott, Agent.

115 East Front Street.

PER CAPITA COST OF SCHOOLS HIGHEST HERE

According to the State school report for 1907 just issued, Plainfield is highest in the per capita cost of education of all the cities in New Jersey. From the figures compiled the expense to the taxpayers for each pupil is $40.95, just $4.82 more than that paid by any other municipality.

The statistics for ten cities, based on enrolled attendance, are as follows:

Plainfield	$40.95
Englewood	36.13
Montclair	35.80
Rahway	33.36
East Orange	29.46
Newark	25.84
Bloomfield	25.72
Hoboken	24.73
Atlantic City	24.09
Asbury Park	23.77

South Jersey still holds the unenviable honor of conducting the cheapest schools in the State. Bridgeton is the lowest city in the State, with $12.51 per capita.

OBITUARY.

Forcester Sprague.

Forcester Sprague, until a short time ago a resident of this city, died a few days ago at his home in Fanwood. He had been suffering from Bright's disease but had been ill only two days. The funeral was held at his late home Monday and burial was at Hillside. Mr. Sprague was thirty-two years old and had been employed for a long time by A. L. Cadmus at the Commercial mills. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sprague and is survived by one sister and two brothers.

Frances L. Pelletreau.

After a long illness, death came to Miss Frances L. Pelletreau, daughter of the late Charles H. and Frances L. Pelletreau, at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. R. Thiers, of Craig place, this morning. The funeral will be private.

JUDGE VAIL CONCLUDES SOMERSET COURT LIST.

The April term of the Somerset county court is completed as far as Judge Vail, of Elizabeth, is concerned, for the last case ready to be tried before him in the Supreme and Circuit list was finished yesterday. It was the suit of Peter C. VanNuys against Joel Wilson et al., on contract. The plaintiff is an architect and he furnished the plans for a school for the defendants at Finderne. Suit was to recover $337.50 in payment for same. The jury rendered a verdict for the full amount. Clark & Case were counsel for the plaintiff and Dungan & Reger appeared for the defense.

Adjournment was then taken until Monday morning, when the trial of the criminal cases will be taken up by Judge Schenck.

KILLS HIMSELF AFTER MOTHER REBUKES HIM.

Camden, May 6.—After a severe scolding from his mother because he had been paying attention to a young woman contrary to his mother's wishes, Arnold Franzel, twenty-two years old, shot himself in the head in his home at 110 South Sixth street, yesterday afternoon. He died instantly.

He was talking with his mother on the subject of his attentions to the woman and then in anger ran to an outer kitchen. Hardly had the door closed on him when a pistol shot was heard and the mother rushed to her son to find him dead. She fell in a fit and at a late hour last night her condition was serious.

SOMERSET INN BURNED.

Somerset Inn, a well-known summer resort two and a half miles north of Bernardsville, was destroyed by fire early today. Three buildings—the hotel, the servants' quarters, and the laundry—were consumed, and the firemen had hard work to save the eight cottages connected with the hotel. It is said there was an insurance of $246,000 on the hotel property.

Man's Body Found Off Staten Island.

New York, May 6.—The body of Robert Snyder, an employe of the American Linoleum Company, was found floating in the bay off Clifton, Staten Island, last night, and his relatives fear that he met with foul play, as all his valuables and money were missing. There is no reason to believe that he committed suicide, according to his relatives. He was last seen alive while walking home at midnight, Sunday night, near Richmond, Staten Island. No marks of violence were found on the body.

Midgets to Wed in New York.

New York, May 6.—The smallest couple that ever secured a marriage license in New York is to be married within a day or two. They are John Brundish, thirty-nine years of age, and three feet nine inches tall. They are connected with a show at Coney Island and were escorted to a license office by one of the show's managers, a broad-shouldered man, six feet tall.

J. F. Garretson, baggagemaster at the North Avenue Station, suffered a slight paralytic stroke yesterday, which affects his speech a little.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

The Woodhull & Martin Store

THE CHOICEST STOCK of WASH FABRICS

to be found in the city. Again and again since the new Spring Wash Dress Fabrics came out we have heard enthusiastic comments from those who have surveyed them with more or less care. The stock is immense—the largest we have ever shown; the prices are fair and in many instances astonishingly low. But it is the exquisite beauty of the new Fabrics we want to tell you about; the very choicest patterns and weaves from the best foreign and American mills. How impressive it is in variety may be gathered from this partial list:

Printed Dotted Swisses, in a large variety of beautiful floral designs, 18c yd.

Cotton Voiles, 27 inches wide, in all the popular colorings, at 25c yard.

Satin Striped Madras, specially adapted for shirts and shirtwaistings, 30 inches wide, at 19c yard.

Fine Percales, Standard makes, in an elegant assortment of patterns, 36 in. wide, at 15c yard.

New Dress Ginghams, in a wonderful assortment of pretty checks, plaids and stripes, at 12½c yard.

Silk Tissues, in neat blue, pink, lavender and black and white checks, 27 inches wide, at 25c yard.

Linene Suitings, in tan, blue, and brown, 34 inches wide, at 15c yard.

Galatea Cloth, suitable for boys' wash suits, 28 inches wide, at 19c yard.

Fine Linen Suiting, 36 inches wide, in blue and tan plaids, at 50c yard.

Plain Pongee Linen, in all leading colors, 27 inches wide, at 40c yard.

Grey Linen Suiting, 27 to 36 inches wide, at 20c, 25c, 35c and 50c a yard.

Blue Bell Lawns, a very good quality printed lawn, in all the newest designs and colorings, 30 inches wide, at 10c a yd.

Fine Scotch Ginghams in beautiful checks, plaids and stripes, 33 inches wide, at 25c a yard.

American Beauty Batiste, a fine sheer fabric, 30 inches wide in checks, plaids, stripes and figures, at 15c a yard.

Imported Irish Dimities in an endless variety of pretty patterns, 27 inches wide, at 29c a yard.

Mercerized Silk Gingham, in a wide assortment of new colorings in checks and stripes, 27 inches wide, 25c a yard.

AWNINGS AND WINDOW SHADES—This department is working day and night to keep pace with the orders. If you have any needs in this line kindly let us have your order as soon as possible. We assure you that all work entrusted to us will be done in a first-class manner and fully guaranteed.

The Woodhull & Martin Store.

FREE! CARR'S BALLS FREE!

With Each Copy of the

DECLARATION OF THE U. S. at 10c EACH.

Something Every Boy Ought to Know

W. H. OLMSTED, the Hustler

331 Watchung Avenue

BEST DELIVERY SERVICE IN THE CITY

EYE-STRAIN

is directly responsible for the major ity of cases of blindness today. If instead of trying to overwork the eyes, one would at once get glasses at the first warning of eye-strain there would be fewer cases of blindness at the present time.

Come to us and have your eyes examined free of charge and we will advise you what to do to save them.

Headache and neuralgia quickly relieved.

STILES & CO.,

Philadelphia Eye Specialist.

At 105 East Front Street.

Every Thursday

Hours. 11:15 to 4:30.

Borough Pupils Photographed.

Pupils of the primary grades of the Somerset street schools are being photographed in class groups today by T. D. Sampson, of Brooklyn. Pictures of the various classes are taken every year and are used for exhibition.

Mrs. Schenck Vice-President.

The name of Mrs. Cornelius Schenck, first vice-president of the Ladies' Christian Work Society of Trinity Reformed church, was omitted from the published list of officers elected on Monday at the annual meeting.

Silas D. Drake, of Beechwood Heights, was stricken with paralysis on Thursday, his whole right side and speech being affected very much. Mr. Drake retired from business several months ago and has since been residing at Beechwood Heights.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

AMUSEMENTS.

New Plainfield Theatre

PLAYING ALL THE LEADING ATTRACTIONS

W. J. COUNIHAN - - - - Manager

Thursday, May 7th.
AMATEUR NIGHT.

Salisbury's Popular Moving Pictures and Illustrated Songs.
Prices, 10c and 20c.

Friday, May 8—
The Big Show
ROGERS BROTHERS in PANAMA
and a company of 75 people.
Prices 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50.

Watch and Wait for the Plainfield ALL STAR STOCK COMPANY, Headed by Alberta Galatin and an all Star Cast.

CONCERT

MISS MARY LANSING, Contralto.
MISS MAY DALAND, Pianist.
MR. HAROLD KENT, Baritone.
MR. J. FRANK RICE, Violinist.

PLAINFIELD CASINO

Tuesday, May 19, 08

CARDS ONE DOLLAR

On Sale at Armstrong's Pharmacy

5-5 7 9 11 12 14 16 18 19

Capital and surplus $250,000.00

THE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

of Plainfield.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS:

A. J. Brunson, President
J. A. Smith, Vice President
O. M. Runyon, Cashier

W. R. Coddington,
J. A. Hubbard,
C. Frank French,
E. F. Coriell,
P. J. Zeglio, M. D.
E. H. Bird.

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS DRAW FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

John S. Lewis

Successor to Lewis & Dilts.

Artesian Well Contractors.

Wells drilled any place, size or depth.
Estimates cheerfully given.

Box 173,
Scotch Plains, N. J.

WASHINGTON ROCK SPRING WATER

Bottlers of high-class soft drinks, Ginger Ale, Soda Water and Pure Spring Water, and Siphon Goods. Private families' and parties' patronage is solicited.

Henry Pedeflous,

TELEPHONE 670-R

Hotel Pedeflous, Plainfield

NOTICE!

Having engaged a competent cutter from New York, the business formerly conducted by Robt. Gardner at 325 Watchung avenue will be continued. The same high standard of workmanship will be maintained.

M. F. GARDNER.

546

Adjutant Mildred Witton, an old officer of Plainfield corps, will conduct the meeting in the Salvation Army Hall on East Second street tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. All are invited.

A "TELLING EFFECT"

IS DEFINED.

One lady telling another

PECK'S

is the store for you to trade.

SPRING FURNISHINGS

Carpets & Mattings

All the best kinds in large variety to please the most exacting requirements. Beautiful Oriental and Floral effects in all grades of Carpets, made, laid and lined free.

Ingrain - - -	75c
Brussells -	65c-1.00
Axminster -	1.10-1.25
Velvet -	1.00-1.35

Rugs.

You will enjoy the beautiful line of these popular goods we have in all the leading makes, well selected patterns in every kind from cheapest to best grade and at prices that are lowest now quoted.

Ingrain, 9x12 -	4.98-8.98
Brussells, 9x12	12.50-27.50
Axmin'r, 9x12	19.98-27.50
Velvet -	22.50-25.00

FURNITURE and BEDDING.

When buying these goods you need the dependable kind with the largest assortment of patterns to select from. This is what we offer you combined with lowest possible prices—prices for really good goods. Our large floor space is just crowded with nice clean desirable goods that will appeal to you.

Awnings.

Now is the time to plan your orders, for the hot weather will come and you will want good Awnings—and that's our kind, always the best.

Shades.

Get our estimate for your shade work, for we do a good job and do it reasonable—and carry the largest assortment of goods in this city.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON,

BABCOCK BUILDING, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

LADIES' AND GENT'S SUITS

CLEANED AND PRESSED

G. O. KELLER,

'PHONE 857-J 125 PARK AVENUE

Why Have a Bank Account?

Because---

A Bank Account creates a desire to make it as large as possible, and it is wise for all to provide for the "RAINY DAY," which comes sooner or later.

Start an account today with us,

The

Plainfield Savings Bank.

PATENT LEATHER SAILORS $1.00

Bonn's

140 WEST FRONT ST.

BANDED SAILORS 75c to $2.75

A SPLENDID SHOWING OF TRIMMED HATS at $5

formerly $6, $7 and $8, all colors, stylish shapes, including Sailors, and all trimmed with the choicest materials.

Untrimmed Hats, all colors and black, formerly $2.00 to $2.75, now each.....$1.50

A fine assortment of Wings, Owlheads and Fancy Feathers, all colors, also fine French Flowers and Foliage, all at very moderate prices.

543

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

FARMHAND KILLED BY A VICIOUS BULL

FRANK HALLMAN, ATTACKED BY ANIMAL, BATTLES VAINLY FOR HIS LIFE.

AX HANDLE HIS ONLY WEAPON

Is Trampled to Death as Help Arrives —Brute Breaks Out of Pen and Runs Wild Through the Fields.

Chicago.—Armed only with an ax handle, Frank Hallman, a farmhand, fought for his life with a maddened bull on the farm of C. G. Besley, at Park Ridge, the other afternoon.

For 15 minutes the unequal battle waged, both man and beast using all the cunning in their make-up to win a victory, and then the man, exhausted from exertion and loss of blood, fell unconscious at the feet of the animal to be gored to death and tossed over a fence at the feet of fellow workmen who had come to his assistance.

Gladiatorial contests in the heyday of the old Roman empire, when trained warriors went forth to do battle with wild beasts, were hardly more dramatic than this fight on the lonely farm, where the combatants were alone, each sparring for the telling blow, the bull charging, the man dodging, with horn and hoof pitted against human ingenuity and a hickory stick, and each contestant fighting to the death.

The bull, a huge Durham, was known to be a dangerous animal, and was kept tied to a stake in a small inclosure. The other day the hemp fell from the iron ring in the beast's nose, and with a rush he crashed through the fence that lay between him and liberty.

Gaining his freedom, he ran rampant through the fields, chasing cattle, horses, and chickens to shelter, and destroying everything that lay in his path.

Hallman, wearing a red flannel shirt, passed across the lot as the bull was bellowing in triumph on a little hillock. The bright color caught the animal's eye, and with tail in air and head to the ground he charged upon the farmhand at full tilt.

Frank Hallman Fights the Bull.

Hallman stood as if riveted to the spot, the ax handle poised over his shoulder. As the beast bore down upon him he jumped nimbly to one side and brought his crude weapon with all the force at his command down on the head of the animal.

The blow served only to further enrage the beast, and, wheeling about, he again charged full upon Hallman. Another nimble jump and another fall of the ax handle met this second onslaught. The man's aim was untrue and the stick only struck the tip of the animal's horn.

The bull wheeled about, planted his fore feet in the soft earth, threw his head high in the air, bellowed a fierce challenge of defiant rage, lowered his horns for the third attack, and again charged on the little man, who stood bravely awaiting the onslaught. Charge after charge was repeated in those few minutes, until the man fell helpless to the ground.

By this time other farm hands, attracted by the bellowing of the animal, came to the pasture and ran to the assistance of Hallman, but before they reached the fence that separates the field of combat from the orchard, the animal advanced to the prostrate man, drove one of his sharp horns into his temple, and then, tossing the body at the feet of the would be rescuers, scampered off across the fields.

Hallman's body was taken to the asylum morgue at Dunning, and the bull was corralled by five men and returned to his pen.

Many "Friends" Left by Rich Man.

M. Dutuit, who died in Paris in 1902, left a large part of his wealth to all those who could legally claim kinship with him. The court has just rejected the claims of the seven hundredth and seventh "friend."—London Globe.

Against Matterhorn Railway.

The Swiss government has received a petition with nearly 70,000 names, protesting against the building of a railway up the Matterhorn.

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS.

SOUTH PLAINFELD.

The April Honor Roll of the Public School is as follows: Primary, first and second grades—Anna McDonough, Rose and Elizabeth Horn, Essie Shields, Loretta Bohl, Gertrude Moiles, Anna Hamilton, Catherine and Margaret Hane, Stanley and Anton Phillips, Lester Soper, Arthur Holmes, Willie Reilley, Willie Shields, Thomas Bohl, Harry Mundy, Dorey Pace and John Brick. In Miss Soper's room, Tessie Bohl, Madeline Reilly, Helen Richards, Laura Roberts, George Brower and Robert Hamilton.

Under the will of the late John Chamberlain, of Aberdeen, South Dakota, his neice, Mrs. Anna Augusta Ward, of Chamberlain House, will shortly come into possession of a legacy. Mrs. Ward has been notified by the executor, E. D. Jones, of South Dakota, that the bequest will be forwarded to her early in October.

Mrs. W. Sisty, accompanied by her daughter, aAlice, and her neice, Miss Marjorie Voorhees, start tomorrow for a two weeks visit to relatives in Scranton, Pa.

Miss Belle Molleson attended the funeral of her late uncle, Henry Molleson, of Plainfield, yesterday.

F. Ledden, of Roselle, is making a short stay with his son, Frank, on Lakeside avenue.

(Additional suburban news on page 2.)

—For best results try a Press want ad.

AN ORDINANCE

FOR THE ASSESSMENT OF TAXES FOR THE YEAR 1908.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That pursuant to the statutes and ordinances and resolutions in such cases made and provided and certifications thereunder there shall be assessed and raised by tax for the year nineteen hundred and eight, for the general purposes of said city, exclusive of school, library, poor, fire and State and county taxes, the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) (this sum includes the sum of Thirty Thousand Dollars to be raised by general tax for street improvements); for the expense of said year for lighting the public streets and places in said city, as ascertained and determined by resolution of the Common Council and certified to the Assessors of said city, the sum of Fifteen Thousand Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($15,250); for the principal of such sewer bonds (except obligations payable out of assesments and temporary obligations) as may mature during the ensuing fiscal year, under and by virtue of the Act of the Legislature, entitled "An Act to provide for drainage anl sewerage in cities of this State," approved April 7, 1890, and the several amendments thereof and supplements thereto, and proceedings had and taken thereunder in said city, the sum of Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000); for interest on the obligations of the city issued under the said last mentioned Acts, the sum of Ten Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($10,500); for the support of the city poor, the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000), included in the last named sum is the sum of One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500) for the purpose of supporting and maintaining such indigent patients as may be sent to Muhlenberg Hospital by order of the City Physician, Overseer of the Poor, or other proper authority of the city, pursuant to Chapter LXXVI P. L. 1886, payable December 31, 1908, pursuant to contract between the Muhlenberg Hospital and the City; for the maintenance of the Public Library and Reading Room, the sum of Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($7,500); for the maintenance of a Fire Department, to be under the control and government of said city, the sum of Thirty-Four Thousand Dollars ($34,000); for interest on school bonds authorized under City Ordinances to fall due during the said year, the sum of Five Thousand Four Hundrel and Forty Dollars ($5,440); and for principal of one of said bonds maturing during such year the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000); for the amount needed for the current year for the purposes specified in secti n 5 of the Act of the Legislature entitled "An Act to provide for the planting of shade trees on the highways of the municipalities of this State," approved April 28, 1893, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplemental therto, as certified by the Shade Tree Commissioners of the City of Plainfield to the Assessors of said city, the sum of Twenty-Two Hundred Dollars ($2,200); and in addition to the foregoing, a license fee of Two Dollars ($2) to be paid by the owner of every dog within the City of Plainfield.

Adopted by the Common Council May 4, 1908; approved by the Mayor May 4, 1908.

CHARLES J. FISK, Mayor.

Attest: J. T MacMurray, City Clerk.

A. M. RUNYON & SON, UNDERTAKERS.

403 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York Office—50 Great Jones Street.
Tel. call, 3345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 315.

T. A. MOORE.

UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.

Office—508 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 790
Residence—614 East 6th St. " 741-R
New York Office, 27 Great Jones St.
Telephone Call, 3249-Spring.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

DIED.

HAWKINS—At her late residence, 437 East Seventh street, on Monday, May 4, 1908, Mary J., widow of Joseph B. Hawkins, in her 79th year.

Funeral services in the Sunday-school room of the Park Avenue Baptist church, on Thursday, May 7, at 3 p. m. 5 5 2

PELLETREAU — On Wednesday, May 6, 1908, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Charles R. Thiers, 14 Craig place, North Plainfield, Frances L., daughter of the late Charles H. and Frances L. Pelletreau.

Funeral private. 5 6 2

BATES—At Portland, Oregon, on Tuesday, May 5, 1908, Curtis Bates, of 246 East Sixth street, Plainfield, N. J.

Notices of funeral hereafter.

Fresh Vegetables

Asparagus, Wax Beans, Tomatoes,
Radishes, Beets, Lettuce,
Strawberries, Green Beans, Cucumbers.

Fruit

Oranges, Grape Fruit, Apples.
Malaga Grapes, Figs.

NEUMAN BROS.

GROCERS—Watchung Avenue and Fifth Street.
Efficient and rapid delivery service to all parts of the city.

MONO

Fireproof Storage Warehouse.

Separate Rooms, Fireproof Partitions. Clean, Dry, Secure.
Inspection Invited—Open 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.
FURNITURE REMOVED WITH CARE.
Telephone 522-W. Opposite freight depot.

Chas. L. Stanley,

159 East Front St. 'Phone 928.
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS.
Office 116 Park Av., Tel. 884-w. Res., 417 W. 3d St., Tel. 903-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2094 Gramercy

GEO. W. COLE.
UNDERTAKER & EMBALMER.
200 West Second St. Telephone 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

L. L. MANNING & SON,
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Avenue and West Front Street. Opposite First Baptist Church.

Classified Advertisements

Rates for advertisements under this heading one cent a word for first insertion, one half a cent a word for consecutive insertions of the same advertisement running for less than one month; one month, fifty cents a line (6 words to a line), double rate for advertisement set in capitals.

No advertisements received for less than ten cents.

Copy for death and marriage notices and classified advertising accepted up to 2:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS is not at liberty to give any information regarding advertisements that require an address in care of this office. Persons answering these ads. should mail or leave answers as stated in advertisements.

Help Wanted.

WANTED — Competent woman, canvasser; a hustler. Address A. H., care Press. 5 5 3

COOKS, waitresses and general houseworkers wanted at once. Anderson's Employment office, 659 West Fourth street. 5 4 3 eod

WANTED — Experienced white girl for general housework; small family. Apply 156 Westervelt avenue. 5 6 3

COOKS, laundresses and general houseworkers wanted at once. Mrs. Reinhold, 222 New street. 5 6 3

WANTED—Girl for general housework. 1208 Watchung avenue. 5 6 3

WANTED—A reliable white man to take care of lawn one day a week. 40 Prospect place.

WANTED—Man for janitor work. Apply at Y. M. C. A. 8 a. m. Thursday.

WANTED—Girl, general housework; references required; three in family. Call this week 1133 East Seventh street, Netherwood. 5 63

WANTED—This week, competent white woman for housecleaning. Apply 520 West Eighth street. 5 4 3

Situations Wanted.

TWO young white girls (sisters) want general housework by the day. Address Sisters, care Daily Press. 5 5 3

YOUNG girl, lately landed, for general housework or as nurse. Can be seen mornings this week at 119 East Sixth street. 5 5 3

NURSE—Speaks French, German, English; first-class Plainfield references; also young nurse maids and waitresses want positions. Mrs. Reinhold, 222 New street. 'Phone 1321-W. 5 6 3

DRESSMAKER would like work by the week in family; good remodeler; references. Address Sealby, care Daily Press. 5 1 6

Situations Wanted.

DRESSMAKING and ladies' tailoring; experienced. Late with best houses in New York. Desires a few more customers. Room 307 Babcock building. 5 4 3

CHAUFFEUR Japanese machinist, sober, honest, careful driver; two years' experience; any gasoline cars, wants position; private family; highest recommendation; moderate wages. Address F. B., care Press. 5 4 7

COOKS, waitresses, chambermaid and general houseworkers want positions. Anderson Employment office, 659 West Fourth street. 'Phone 508-W. 4 27 eod

COMPETENT help constantly on hand; white and colored. Hall's Employment Agency (originally The Plainfield), station driveway; 'phone 322-J. 4 22 1m

DRESSMAKER would like work by the week in family; good remodeler; references. S., 604 West Seventh street. 5 1 6

FIRST-CLASS help always on hand. Anderson's Employment office, 659 West Fourth street. 'Phone 508-W. 5 4 3 eod

WANTED—Position as butler; first-class references. Call 628 West Fourth street. 5 5 2

COLORED woman wants work by the day at washing and ironing. 539 South Second street. 5 5 3

WANTED—Situation as nurse for children by Protestant young woman. Address A. W., Daily Press.

COLORED girl wants situation at day's work. Old Nurses' Home, Muhlenberg place, upstairs. 5 5 3

PAINTER—Frst-class from New York, has done here a house, wants days work; reasonable. Address W., Postoffice. 5 4 3

COLORED young man wants work of any kind. 410 East Third street. 5 4 3

YOUNG Polish girl wants position to do general housework; good references. 94 Somerset street. 5 2 3

COLORED girl wants position; general housework; family of two or three, adults; first-class cook and waitress; no washing; best of references. Address letters only, S. H. Barnwell, 24 West 60th street, New York City. 5 5 2

COLORED woman wants work by the day. 635 West Third street. 5 5 5

Lost and Found.

LOST — Monday afternoon between the Seminary and Central avenue, via Eighth street, gold-filled Loignette; association makes it only valuable to owner. Please return to 818 Central avenue. 5 5 3

LOST—Three Kirmess tickets for Saturday night, the 16 of May. Please return to Press office. 5 6 2

LOST—Last week, gold hunting case lady's watch. Reward for return to Daily Press office.

LOST—Wednesday, on Madison avenue, between Front and Fourth, gold horseshoe breastpin. Reward at Daily Press office. 5 6 2

LOST—On Sunday, a spotted coach dog, answers to the name of "Spades." Finder please return to E. S. Hooley, 70 Rockview avenue; reward. 4 20 tf

Real Estate for Exchange.

FINE new house, centrally located; 10 rooms, all improvements; gas and electric light, hot water heating, parquet floors; would exchange for moderate priced lots. J. T. Vail, 177 North Ave. 4 14 tf

For Rent.

FLAT to let. Inquire 18 Craig place. 4 14 tf

FOR RENT—Apartment, four rooms, bath room, all improvements, steam heat; in fine condition; rent $18; location, corner Fifth street and Watchung avenue. Apply to A. M. Lederer, 117 West Front St. 4 23 tf

FOR RENT—New house just completed; seven rooms and bath; rent $21. Address O. I. C., Daily Press. 4 24 tf

TO LET—Eight room house, on West Fourth street, near Park avenue; all newly papered and painted; city water and gas. B. Mann, 120 West Fourth street. 4 28 tf

FOR RENT OR SALE—320 Somerset street, 12 rooms, city water, modern plumbing, electric lights, all improvements. Inquire 328 Somerset street, or Golding, 193 West 65th street, New York. 5 4 6

FOR RENT—Commodious offices in the Woodhull & Martin building suitable for lawyers, dentists, insurance companies, etc.; will arrange to suit tenant. 4 20 tf

THREE rooms to let. 732 West Third street. 4 6 tf

TO LET—Three-room flat. Inquire 39 Summit avenue. 5 4 6

FOR RENT—No. 26 Rockview avenue, 12 rooms and 2 baths; large beautiful grounds; large carriage house; immediate possession. No. 806 Third place, 10 room house; immediate possession. Furnished cottages to rent for summer from $50 month up. Edmund Rushmore, 209 North avenue, Plainfield; N. Y. office, 42 Broadway. 5 6 12

SEVEN-ROOM apartments to let; all improvements. 937 West Front street; also six-room house. 3 28 tf

TO LET—New 6-room house; $16. Inquire Kinsman, Dunellen. 4 1 tf

APARTMENT to let in the Lincoln, 110 West Fourth street; all improvements. 5 5 4

FOR RENT—New house with modern conveniences, suitable for two families. Inquire at Dunellen Postoffice. Mrs. James Roach. 5 5 3

TO LET—Two or three nice rooms, unfurnished, for light housekeeping; bath same floor; five minutes from station. 410 New street. 5 5 tf

TO LET—Very desirable suite of unfurnished rooms on second floor. 315 West Sixth street. 5 5 3

TO LET—5 rooms, water and gas. Apply 705 West Third street. 5 5 3

817 RICHMOND street, nine rooms; all improvements; rent $26; immediate possession; act quick. Hayden, room 214, Babcock building. 5 6 2

NEW six-room house to let, 1219 West Third street; six-room house, 1424 Willever street, near Safe Works; two apartments, four rooms each, all improvements, or the whole house, 216 Prescott place. J. Sacher, 731 West Third St. 4 3 tf

NEW 7-room house, on Cameron avenue, for sale or to let; furnace, open plumbing, gas and city water. Inquire E. Beys, Cameron avenue. 5 4 1m

TO LET—Nice furnished rooms; all improvements; fine neighborhood; near business centre; five minutes walk from R. R. station. Owner 216 East Fifth street. 5 4 3

TO LET—Three rooms; improvements; centrally located. Call 415 West Second street. 5 4 3

ROOMS to let. 11 Grove street. 4 30 6

TO RENT—Second and third stories of 316 and 318 West Front street, 50x85 feet. Jos. W. Gavett. 4 3 tf

FOR RENT—In Netherwood, furnished, nine room house, large porch and awnings. Address 875 Leland avenue. 5 6 3

TO LET—9-room house, all improvements; 3 Verdon street. G. W. V. Moy. 3 13 tf

TO LET—4 rooms, upper floor, water. John Manley, insurance, 321 Park avenue. 3 17 tf

Rooms and Board.

GOOD accommodations; low rates. Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

FURNISHED room to let. Address New Madison, care Daily Press. 5 5 3

FEW boarders wanted. Mrs. M. Fosbre, 659 Essex street. 5 1 12

FURNISHED room to let. 206 West Front street. 5 4 3

TO LET—Newly furnished room in select apartment; centre of town; all improvements. A. C., care Press. 5 4 6

LARGE front room with or without board. 137 East Fifth street. 5 1 6

WATCHUNG AVE., 724, near 7th St., desirable rooms with first class board. 4 13 1m

TWO communicating rooms with board; sunny exposure; bath adjoining; first class neighborhood; excellent table. 132-134 Crescent avenue. 9 19 tf

Miscellaneous.

COMPLETE line of automobile supplies and tires at lowest New York prices. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

AUTOMOBILES to hire at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co., telephone 991-J. 4 15 3m

A FIRST CLASS place to turn out horses to recruit, will have good attention; also storage for wagons. Address I., care Daily Press. 4 13 1m

STENOGRAPHIC and typewriting office; all kinds of work handled by an experienced stenographer. Miss Haskard, Babcock building, Tel. 205. 4 7 1m

FIRST-CLASS places and first-class help always on hand. Swedish Intelligence Office, 22 Somerset place, 'Phone 196-W. 8 22 tf

AUTOMOBILES repaired and overhauled by first class mechanics at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

THE EXCHANGE, 325 West Front street, telephone 901-R. Do you have furniture, carpets, etc., for sale? Do not fail to notify us; we pay 50 per cent. more than anybody else. 11 29 tf

GARBAGE removed regularly and reasonably. George Christensen, R. F. D. No. 1. 4 21 1m

IF YOU want your watch, clock or jewelry repaired take them to Brown, 124 Watchung Ave. 4 18 1m

FURNITURE stored and sold on commission. Martin Hansen, 316 and 318 West Front street. 5 5 1m

GRADING, LAWNS REMODELED, SOIL AND SOD FURNISHED; PLANTS AND SHRUBS PLANTED, ETC.; PROMPT, SATISFACTORY. J. M. WELSH, 754 KENSINGTON AVENUE. TEL. 148-J. 5 4 6

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S., graduate American Veterinary College, N. Y., pet animals a specialty. OFFICE WITH ALBERT HEDDEN, livery, 118 East Fourth street, telephone 114-J. 1 27 tf

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans, Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 4 tf

BABIES crochet sacques for sale; all prices; also ladies' knitted sweaters made to order. Mrs. Mayer, 54 Pearl street, North Plainfield. tf

CONTRACTS taken for care of lawns and gardens for the season. J. M. Welsh, 754 Kensington avenue. Tel. 148-J. 5 4 6

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer; sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

CESSPOOLS and vaults cleaned, odorless excavator; good work; lowest prices. T. M. Ingraham, Plainfield R. F. D. No. 1. 12 10 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

Real Estate Agents.

HOUSES, new, for sale or rent, all improvements, excellent location, East End. Inquire M. A. Rose, 301 Watchung avenue, 'Phone 273-J. 4 14 1m

HAVE clients for farms, houses, lots in Plainfield and vicinity; also all kinds of property for sale. Address Real Estate, care Press. 5 5 6

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent or exchange. Edmund Rushmore, 209 North avenue, telephone No. 49, Plainfield; 42 Broadway, New York. 10 10 tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield; telephone 44. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; properties that I have picked up in trade that I can sell you for less than market prices; if you want to buy or have anything to sell come and see me. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, 39 Prospect place, North Plainfield. 11 20 tf

REAL ESTAE for sale, rent and exchange at bargain figures, insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

FOR SALE—If you want to buy or sell real estate, please call, write or 'phone Ira L. LaRue, next to station, next to bargain. Office 'phone 752-R, residence 'phone 845-L. 12 19 tf

Money to Loan.

$1,000 to $3,000 to loan; improved property only. C. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 5 6 3

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite Depot. 12 28 tf

MONEY to loan on band and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 12 18 tf

LOANS negotiated. J. T. Vail. 1 14 tf

TO LOAN—Money on good mortgages. George F. Brown, 94 Somerset street.

For Sale.

4-ROOM cottage; acre of land; $2,200. Wm. Bourgeois, Laramie road. 5 1 1m

FOR SALE, RENT OR EXCHANGE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; also country homes and farms at bargain prices. C. H. Snyder, 221 Park avenue, room 4. 4 18 1m

FARM FOR SALE—Four acres, all tillable, well adapted for a chicken farm; house six rooms, stable for four horses; situate about one mile from Plainfield, N. J. Inquire of John P. Emmons, 197 North avenue. 5 1 6

FOR SALE—Glenns Falls natural wood open two seat wagon, canopy top, at half price. Address W. E. Lowe, 49 Wall street, New York. 4 30 6

FOR SALE—Two horse wagon cheap; must be sold. 78 Greenbrook road. 5 4 4

FOR SALE cheap, poultry house and run, at 64 Manning avenue. 5 4 3

STANHOPE carriage in fine condition; has been used little; good for pleasure or for doctor's carriage. Address Stanhope, care Daily Press. 5 4 6

AUTOMOBILE house for sale at a bargain. Address J. M., care press. 5 4 6

FOR SALE—Small pony, cart and harness; very pretty and gentle. Address J. H. Campbell, 205 Park avenue, City. 5 5 5

FOR SALE—Automobile runabout, cost $950; price $225; in fine condition. Address A. R., Daily Press. 5 5 tf

FOR SALE—Pony, cart and harness. "Apply John Coyle, West Front street and Waynewood avenue. 5 5 3

BARGAIN—$125 due bill, good on purchase of Bradbury piano for $100 in cash. Address L. Edgerton, care Press. 5 6 3

FOR SALE—Gas range; good condition. Apply 97 Rockview avenue. Address 325 Franklin place. 5 5 3

FOR SALE—At once for $4,200, in select neighborhood, large light modern house, with large veranda, 8 rooms, reception hall and bath; electric lights; all improvements; quarter oak floors, white enameled throughout, fine graded lot, 50x175 feet; concrete walks, fruit and shade trees; value of house $4,500; value of lot $1,200. Will accept part cash, leaving mortgage at 5 per cent. Apply at 93 Grandview avenue. 5 5 2

FOR SALE—The finest lot in Plainfield, on which to build a row of apartment houses. Chas. L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building, Plainfield, N. J. 2 21 tf

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

Poultry and Eggs.

SETTING hens for sale. 48 Rock avenue. 5 1 5

EGGS FOR HATCHING—White Leghorn, White Plymouth Rocks, Buff Orpingtons and Pekin Ducks, from the best strains. Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, Tel. 451-J. 4 14 1m

EGGS FOR HATCHING—Fishel strain; White Rocks, $1 per 13; Gardner and Dunning and Welles strain; Barred Rocks, $2; Black Minorcas, $1. Barred Rock Cockerels for sale. No. 1041 Dunellen avenue. 4 9 1m

SETTINGS of 13 from prize stock. Blk Minorca $1.50, Buff Orpington $3 White or Partridge Wyandotte $2. 100, $10; 50, $5. 234 West 2nd St. 4 3 tf

INCUBATOR chicks for sale. Apply 9 Codington avenue. 4 30 6

EGGS for setting, from Orpingtons, Black Leghorns, Indian Game, and India Runner Ducks, corner Grant and Sherman Aves. 3 25 tf

R. I. RED, Barred Plymouth Rock and White Leghorn eggs from the leading strains of the country; $1 per sitting, $5 per hundred. George Howard, Jr., South Bound Brook, N. J. 2 21 3m

Wanted—Miscellaneous.

WANTED—One or two furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Address E. H. D., care Press. 5 6 3

WANTED—$1,500 on first mortgage at 6 per cent. on Plainfield property. Frank E. Zeller, Stirling, N. J. 5 5 3

WANTED—A good fresh young cow; good milker. 731 West Eighth street. 5 5 3

WANTED—Good horse and top wagon, suitable for light delivery use. Address Horse, care Press. 5 4 3

LAUNDRY work wanted by the day. 215 East Fourth street. 5 4 6

SALESMEN

for strong general lines, staples and specialties, men with established trade and territory, capable of representing the best houses. Salaries from $1,200-$5,000. Also openings for young men able to sell goods who want to go on the road in any good line. Offices in 12 cities. Write today for free list of OPPORTUNITIES.
HAPGOODS (INC.). Brain Brokers
305-309 Broadway, New York City.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS

Animated by a desire to maintain the high standard of excellence that has characterized their productions during their ten years as theatrical stars, Gus and Max Rogers have gotten together this season a company that is the talk of the musical comedy world. Their unqualified success in the past has taught them that while the patrons of high-class amusements are hypocritical they will liberally support an organization that has true merit, is well balanced and is complete in all its numerous details. With this conviction firmly imbedded in the minds of the two stars, they cast sentiment to the four winds and proceeded on a purely mercantile basis. First of all, they needed a suitable vehicle, and by a lavish outlay of money, enlisted the talents of four of the best known authors and composers of the day: Aaron Hoffman, Sylvester Maguire, Edward Madden and Max Hoffmann. The result of the collaboration of these four bright producing minds is a play that is coherent in theme, consistent in action, permeated with congruous, wholesome comedy and with a wealth of melodies such as the ear seldom drunk. They called it "The Rogers Brothers in Panama," and in order that it might have the proper local color and environment, Gus and Max Rogers visited the Canal zone of Panama with satisfying results. Next in order was the tack of selecting a company that could interpret the play in the well-known Rogers fashion. Miss Marion Stanley, Josie Barrows, Norma Brown, Avita Sanchez, Lottie Greenwood, Dick Temple, George Lydecker, Joseph Kane, Walter Ware, Henry Lehmann, Robinson Newbold, Alexander Kleinman and John M. Coughlin were secured as principals and coupled with Gus and Max Rogers they form a coterie that it would be hard to equal. "The Rogers Brothers in Panama" will be the attraction at the New Plainfield theatre Friday night.

"Rogers Brothers in Panama," at New Plainfield Theatre, May 8.

JUSTICE ARRESTED.

Roselle Official One of Two Charged With Extortion and Compounding a Felony.

Justice Wooley, of Roselle; Henry Eckerson and Chilton Miller, of Elizabeth, were arrested Monday charged with extortion and compounding a felony. On April 25, Herbert Kennedy, of Linden; Frank Thomas and J. R. Voorhees, of Elizabeth, paid $42 to Eckerson and Miller, bookmakers, to place on a certain horse. The understanding was that should the horse win the race they were to receive $2,700. It happened that the horse did win, but Eckerson and Miller refused to pay over the $2,700. They offered to return the $42, but this was declined. Justice Wooley was sought and through him a warrant was issued for the purpose of scaring Eckerson and Miller, but the complainants claim that he was aiding the defendants. Through a ruse the parties were persuaded to visit Edward Nugent in Elizabeth, yesterday. The latter caught the men with the "goods" and the arrest followed.

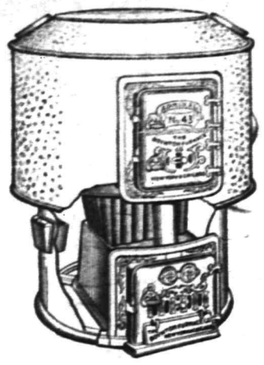
PERTH AMBOY WINS OUT.

Attorney-General Declines to Attack Form of Government.

Perth Amboy, May 6.—Officials of this city feel considerably relieved now that Attorney-General McCarter has declined to institute quo warranto proceedings to test the form of city government here. When the city decided to establish a paid fire department and abolish the volunteer department, counsel for the volunteers attacked the city's form of government to show that the Aldermen were not a legal body, and consequently could not abolish the fire department. If this charge could have been proven, the effect would have been demoralizing upon the business affairs of the city.

The city promptly engaged extra counsel to fight the move, but the Attorney-General has decided that after the city has had fifteen years' existence under the present form of government it would cause confusion to start proceedings.

—Contractor Meeker expects to complete the brick pavement work on Front street by the first of the week. The concrete work will be finished by tomorrow night, when the brickpavers will begin to lay brick.



Freedom From Furnace Dust

To shake a furnace and have the dust sift throughout a freshly cleaned house is exasperating to any housewife, and a needless annoyance. The

BOYNTON

The Furnace with the Square Fire Pot

is constructed with a special flue for carrying off all the dust when shaking, and a cutting bar for smashing clinkers so that no poker is needed. A talk with a Boynton dealer will make you aware of its many labor-saving and coal-saving advantages, and why you should get rid of your old furnace and install a Boynton

There are BOYNTON heating plants of all kinds. Ask about our Round or Sectional Boilers for steam or hot water. Also ranges.

THE BOYNTON FURNACE COMPANY,
207-209 Water Street, New York

We have purchased the Meat and Provision business conducted by Fred Endress and it will be continued as The Endress Co. The same high standard and quality of Meats, Poultry and Provisions will be maintained.

The Meats we select will give satisfaction, because they are the best obtainable.

PRIME RIB ROAST

cut from native cattle, very choice and tender, select cuts of Sirloin and Porterhouse Steaks, Chops, Cutlets, Poultry, etc. Give us a trial and be convinced. Prices lower than quality deserves.

The ENDRESS CO.
131-135 West Front Street.
'Phone 690.

THE VAN DYK SYSTEM
has reduced the tea and coffee business to a science. It means to you BETTER TEA, BETTER COFFEE and Lower Price. Visit a Van Dyk Store and share in these advantages.

VAN DYK'S
127 WEST FRONT ST.,
Bet. Park and Madison Aves.
50 BRANCHES IN 20 CITIES.

Lumber Bargain!

The largest quantity of lumber in Plainfield can be found in my yard.

Large and Small Timbers.

Cut prices on new lumber for one week more.

A. KANE
YARD, 312 Filmore Ave.
Telephone 522-J.

Blue Stone Sidewalks.

If you want the best Blue Stone sidewalks, curbs, etc., call on

J. W. Manhattan,
50 Elm St.

FURNITURE.

Repaired and upholstered. Equal to new. Send a postal to
HARRISON, 140 CENTRAL AVE.,
Cabinet maker, Polisher, Mattress Maker.

DRUGGISTS.

MOTH BALLS

Will save you your money over what might happen to your clothes.
They will insure your clothes being preserved thru the summer and will enable you to have them fresh and whole in the fall. Now is the time to buy MOTH BALLS.

C. M. Nagle's Pharmacy,
Front and Grove Sts. 'Phone 516.

Complete Line of
REXALL
Goods at
MILLER'S PHARMACY
Park Ave. & 4th St. Tel. 208.

Hodge's Pharmacy.
Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Tel. 62.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
EAST FRONT STREET
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Rroom.

HOTEL KENSINGTON
(Licensed.)
WM. J. POULSON, Prop.
107-109-111 North Avenue.
Everything New and Up-to-date
An Inspection Solicited.

HOTEL IROQUOIS
Club breakfast from 6:30 to 10:30 a. m. Business Men's Lunch from 11:30 to 2:30 p. m.
ROOMS
First floor, $1 sing'e; $1 50 double.
Second floor, 75c single; $1 double.
Third floor, 50c single; 75c double.
A LA CARTE 6:30 UNTIL 1 A. M.
Special Sunday Dinner from 12:30 to 2:30 p. m. 50c

Electricians!
Michaelsen & Hage
No. 148 E. Fifth St. Tel. 1077-J

VEGETABLES
Fresh From the Garden
Here are Vegetables that appeal to the appetite of an epicure, they are so good in quality, fresh and inviting to the taste. Tomatoes, Asparagus, String Beans, Beets Cucumbers, Lettuce, Radishes,etc., at prices that will just suit you.
W. W. DUNN,
THE PARK GROCER,
DUER STREET AND LINCOLN PLACE.

STOP AT
Central R. R. News Stands
for PLAINFIELD PRESS, always on sale. Daily and Sunday papers delivered, all magazines, weekly papers, novelties, back numbers a specialty. R. R. guides, automobile road and state maps, Phila. papers. Fine brand of Cigars and tobacco. Open Sundays.
F. M. WAGNER, Manager.

YOU WILL NEVER BUY A HOME WITH MONEY PAID FOR RENT IN THE PAST.
START NOW TO
OWN A HOME
of your own by taking our shares in
THE CENTRAL
BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION
OF PLAINFIELD.
J. F. MacDONALD, Secretary.
Smalley Building, 149 North Avenue.

McCULLOUGH'S STEAM MILL,
21 Steiner place, North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 517-J.
Furniture, Freight, Baggage Express and Rigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

Try a box of
DOBBINS' CIGARS.
Clear Havana Nickle Yara or any kind that you desire. Manufactured at 129 North Avenue, opposite Kensington Hotel, Plainfield, N. J.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Cedar Posts and Bean Poles. Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
69 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS,
P. O. Box 320.

Mountain House,
Mt. Bethel, N. J.
FRENCH RESTAURANT
Resort for Automobiles and Driving Parties
A. E. BINZ, Prop

Difference In Coal.

All coals may look alike to some people, but compare our "Lehigh" Coal with the Coal you bought somewhere else and you will see a difference.

You will notice that our Coal Burns Brighter, Gives More Heat, and Lasts Longer than any other Coal you ever bought before.

Boice, Runyon & Co.,
Coal, Lumber and Masons' Materials.
Park Ave., opp. North Ave.,
Plainfield N. J.

JOS. HARRIGAN
OLD COMPANY'S
LEHIGH COAL.
Tel. 193 929 South Ave.

The best time to order your winter supply of
COAL
is now. Do not forget that
NASH
is ready to supply you.
Telephones 357-W 833-J.
Evenings 371-W.
OFFICE—130 WATCHUNG AVENUE

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers' Inn.
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 218 West Front Street. Telephone 23-L.

Coal I have on hand some very fine Hard and Medium Coal. All kept undersheds. Pea Coal. Coal
25 cents a ton reduction on cash orders.
L. A. RHEAUME,
148 East Fourth St. Telephone 440-W.
Yard, 674 South Second St. Telephone 230.

GEORGE O. STEVENS
747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. H. Rugg & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 430 West Third St. Tel. 93.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

We call your attention to our fine display of
New Wall Papers.
We can't describe the patterns, but they are new, striking and effective, and with our large assortment we are sure to please.
Paints, Oils and Varnishes.
Woolston & Buckle,
145 North Avenue.

STRIKING COLORS
should not be sought in preference to those that have good lasting qualities, but when
PAINTS
are to be had which are both brilliant and durable, take care to secure that kind.
We have all kinds and grades of Paints, Oils, Colors and Varnishes, suitable for all kinds of work at the lowest prices to be found in this city.
Jas. C. Hansen,
Dealer in Wallpapers, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc
141 East Front Street
Estimates Furnished

1908 Wall Papers.
IMPORTED & AMERICAN GOODS.
C. CONOVER & CO.
Decorators, Painters and Paperhangers, Window and Plate Glass.
115 Elmwood Pl. Tel. 1145

W. S. CHEEVER
1326 Park Ave.
Painting and INTERIOR DECORATING, WALL PAPER of every description at the Lowest Prices.
'Phone No. 538-J.

FOR A
CLEAN SHAVE AND GOOD HAIR CUT
TRY THE
Burns' Tonsorial Parlors
Shoes Polished FREE with Every Shave. Special Attention to Children's Hair.
212 WATCHUNG AVENUE

AZIENZA
cures pimples and all inflammation of the skin. Used by people of refinement. Medicinal and toilet—25 and 50 cents.

CREAM.

SMALLEY BROS.
147 North Ave.
BUTCHERS
Our Specialty, Berkshire Pork.
Try Our Berkshire Sausage Made on Premises.
Roasting and Broiling Chickens a Specialty.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83-A. 5 1 tf

The Southern Restaurant,
232 West Second Street, corner Madison Avenue, now under new management. Meals served at all hours a la carte and table d'hote. Our own make bread and pastrys, all home cooking. The choice of everything is bought for the tables. Our price is reasonable. The place is now under the management of the well known New York caterer. T. H. Royster, Manager. Tel. 923-J. 1 18 tf

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 Watchung Av. Rear.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

JOHN WINZENREID,
Furniture and Freight Express.
Moving Vans and Storage.
312 Lee Place. 'Phone 840-R.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.
Renovating—Offices, stores and private residences. Service day or night. Furniture, china and glassware packed for shipping.
WM. A. KLINE, 611 W. 3d St.

Geo. H. Stagaard,
SHOEMAKING and REPAIRING.
108 CHURCH STREET.

TITUS H. LAURY
MASON AND BUILDER.
Office, 323 East Front Street.
Tile Setting, Mantel and Front Work.
Telephone 464-L.

TURKISH BATHS!
TAKE ONE
Ladies Mornings, Gentlemen Afternoons
Take Trolley to Sanitarium, Somerset Street.

Cleaning, Pressing and Dyeing.
Monthly Contracts.
Pressing called for and delivered.
EVENING DRESSES A SPECIALTY.
Ladies' Waists Cleaned, 25 cents upwards
Gents' Suits Cleaned $1.50
We do our own work at
M. A. Brown's, 218 West Second St.

William H. Pope,
ELECTRICIAN.
All kinds of electrical work done at reasonable prices.
116 NORTH AVENUE.

Rouse & Fullagar,
CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS,
117 Plainfield Avenue.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St. Tel. 507-W.

Meat Market.
Choice Meats, Poultry, Fish and Oysters always on hand. Sugar cured Corned Beef. International Hams and Bacon.
F. Neidig, 94 Somerset St.
Telephone 781

E. B. Maynard's
Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a specialty.
Tel. No. 754-R.
141 NORTH AVENUE.

JOHN WIRTH
(Successor to Henry Liefke.)
Bakery and Confectionery.
201-203 West Front St. Tel. No. 723.
All orders delivered at short notice.

HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS
Silver trunks safely delivered to safety deposit vaults.
Furniture Moving Van and Baggage Delivery.
OFFICE 205 PARK AVENUE
Tel. 833-W. Residence Tel. 648-L

REAL ESTATE
Bought, Sold and For Rent.
J. SACHAR,
731 WEST THIRD STREET.

HOUSEHOLD CARES.

Tax the Women of Plainfield the Same as Elsewhere.

Hard to attend to household duties

With a constantly aching back.

A woman should not have a bad back.

And she wouldn't if the kidneys were well.

Doan's Kidney Pills make well Kidneys.

Here is a Plainfield woman who endorses this claim:

Mrs. J. Mottley, of 546 Sixth street, Plainfield, N. J., says: "About two months ago I was seized with a severe backache and dull pains in the top and back of my head. I could not rest nights, and had little desire to do housework, for my strength seemed to be about all gone. I tried Doan's Kidney Pills, procured them at Randolph's drug store and can truthfully say that they gave me relief from my sufferings. My back and head do not ache and I am strong and vigorous, rest well at night, and have some ambition again. I am convinced that Doan's Kidney Pills are a first-class remedy for troubles arising from the kidneys."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ATLANTIC CITY.

103 Park Ave.,
calls your attention to his
Rimless Glasses.
They Look Good and You See Good.

EDUCATIONAL.

JOSEPH Mc INTYRE,
Pianist, Coach, Accompanist
TEACHER OF PIANO and SINGING
New York Studio, 30 E. 23rd Street, Wednesdays and Saturdays.
Plainfield, Residence and Studio.
Telephone 386-I 1308 Watchung Avenue
1 9 6mos

ATTEND DRAKE BUSINESS COLLEGE.
PLAINFIELD
For thorough training in English, Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Penmanship, Commercial Law and correlative branches. The school that does not PROMISE to ASSIST graduates to positions, but that guarantees absolutely to PLACE them, and does it. 11 25 tf

Plainfield Business College
WOODHULL & MARTIN BUILDING.
SCHOOL OF ENGLISH.
A school well equipped for doing high grade work.
Investigate this school—it pays. 1½ hours devoted to English every day. Day and Evening sessions all the year.
Capacity 400 students.
A. S. HERR, Prin. and Prop.

CHAS. M. SUHR,
TEACHER OF PIANO.
614 E. 6th Street, Tel. 741-W

REAL ESTATE

RENTALS—REAL ESTATE
Geo. F. Brown,
INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE.
Commissioner of Deeds—Rents.
94 Somerset St. 'Phone 180.

STATIONERY AND TOYS.
HARPER,
411 PARK AVENUE.

The Rayo Lamp
Cannot be equalled for its bright and steady light, simple construction and absolute safety. Equipped with latest improved burner. Made of brass throughout and nickel plated. Every lamp warranted. Write to nearest agency if not at your dealer's.
STANDARD OIL COMPANY, Incorporated.

MISSING LINK IN ARGENTINA.

Vertebrae Classed as Oldest Human Remains Found in the New World.

The oldest human remains on the American continent have been discovered in the Argentine republic. Some four or five years ago a vertebra was dug up in the neighborhood of Monte Hermoso and deposited in the museum of La Plata. There it attracted the attention of the director, a German, Herr Lehmann-Nitsche. He recognized it as having strong resemblances to a human cervical or neck vertebra and also some relation to the bones of the higher apes, without exactly corresponding with either.

Then he compared it with some other bones in the collection, and the result of his study was the hypothesis of a new type, neither human nor ape, but related to both. The curve of the spine indicated by the bones suggested an animal that walked upright, but the size and formation of the bones made it clear that the head they supported was small and light, with very small brain capacity.

The remains resemble certain bones of a primitive race of men found in Java more closely than any other non-human or near human specimens. They represent altogether the oldest type of humanity, if human they are, ever found in the western continent.

HAVE KEEN EYE FOR BEAUTY.

Instinct of Design Seems Planted in the Japanese.

When a Japanese cannot mold the shape of an object, when he cannot redeem it by a design, when, in fact, he has no control over its creation at all, but it is placed in his hands as it is, finished, says the author of "Kakemono," he will still contrive to add beauty to it merely by arrangement.

"I first noticed this on board the steamer going out," says Mr. Edwards, "where the Japanese 'boy' arranged the extra blanket on the berth in a new design each day. He folded it into lotus leaves and chrysanthemums, into half-opened fans and half-shut buds. He had one wonderful arrangement which, being patriotic, was more often repeated than the rest. The blankets of the steamship company had at top and bottom two wavy red lines on a white ground. By some wonderful twist of his fingers the boy would fold that blanket into the rising sun, with the four red lines coming out of it like blood-red rays. He did it so perfectly that I recognized the flag of Japan the moment I saw it."—Youth's Companion.

Art in Spanish Bank Notes.

To baffle the counterfeiters, who are both numerous and cunning in Madrid, the Bank of Spain has pursued the policy of changing its notes with great frequency and retiring each issue as fast as possible.

The bank has now determined on a new plan. It has placed an order for a series of notes with an English concern, and it will rely for safety upon a special color process. In addition the notes are to present pictures of well-known buildings in Spain, executed with a perfection that will defy counterfeiting.

"The pictures are to be so beautiful that amateurs will be tempted to frame them," says one Spanish newspaper. "Hardly," rejoins another, "the cost of the set will be 1,675 pesetas, you see." To the Spanish mind $338.50 is a great deal of money.

Revived in His Coffin.

A strange case of revivification was that of John Adams of Del Rio, East Tennessee. Adams is a mining engineer and one morning he was found in bed apparently dead. A physician said it was a case of heart failure. The body was made ready for interment and relatives and friends in Philadelphia were notified. A check was received from Philadelphia in payment of the undertaker's bill, but the undertaker declined to accept anything save the hard cash. This caused further delay, and while waiting the coming of the money by express the eyes of the "corpse" opened, there was a yawn and there likewise was a sudden disappearance of the undertaker and others from the room. Mr. Adams recovered and is still alive.

Living Up to His Name.

A teacher in a mission school in Boston had among her pupils a colored boy named Ralph Waldo Emerson Longfellow. As he was absent one Sunday she asked the class if any one knew the reason for his absence.

"I reckon I do," said one small serious-looking boy.

"What is the reason, Johnnie?"

"I guess he's home writing poetry," responded the boy, with a delighted chuckle.—Youth's Companion.

Its Lasting Effect.

"Ripsling, did you ever convert anybody to your way of thinking by your street-corner oratory?"

"I know of one, anyhow, and it made a changed man of him."

"What is he doing now?"

"He's in the insane asylum, Ruggles; in the insane asylum. A glimpse of the truth was too much for his modernized intellect."—Chicago Tribune.

The Ideal Wife.

"What is your idea of an ideal wife?"

"One who will cook the meals, do the washing, look after the furnace, make her own clothes and—and—"

"And what?"

"Keep herself looking as young and as beautiful as an actress who pulls down $400 a week in vaudeville."

MR. PRATT

A Tale of the Cape Cod Fisher Folk

By

Joseph C. Lincoln

Author of "Cap'n Eri," "Partners of the Tide," Etc.

Illustrations by T. D. Melvill

Copyright, 1907, A. S. Barnes & Company.

I looked at 'em. There wa'n't nothing to laugh at, so far as I could see, and the "Bleecker" business didn't appear to have no sense in it, either. They made two or three other speeches that sounded just as foolish. Thinks I: "I wonder if Scudder's right?" They didn't look like lunatics, but you can't always tell. Old man Ebenezer Doane went to church of a Sunday morning just as sensible acting as a Second Adventer could be; but when he got home he fired the bean-pot at his wife, chased his children out door with a clam hoe, and they found him settin' a-straddle of the henhouse singing "Beulah Land" to the chickens. These fellers might be harmless loons that had been farmed out, as you might say, by the asylum folks. There was that "man" that Nate said was coming. He might be their keeper.

"I understand you've got a friend coming," says I, by way of ground bait.

"Friend?" says the big one. "Friend? I don't understand."

"Scudder said you had another man coming to his house," says I.

He smiled. "Oh, I see." Then he smiled again, a queer lazy kind of a smile, like as if he was amused at himself or his thoughts.

"I don't know that I should call him a friend, Mr. —er—"

"Pratt," says I. "Solomon Pratt."

"Thanks. No, I wouldn't go so far as to call him a friend; and yet he's not an enemy—not openly." He smiled again, and the other chap—whose name I found out was Hartley—Martin Hartley—smiled too.

"He's the man Van here belongs to," explained the Hartley one. They both smiled again.

I kind of jumped, I guess, when he said that. It began to look as if the asylum idea was the right one, and this feller that was coming was the keeper.

"Hum," says I, and nodded my head just as if the whole business was as plain as A B C. "Do you belong to anybody?" I says to Hartley.

"I did," says he, "but he's doing time."

"Doing time?" says I.

"Yes," says he, explaining, kind of impatient like. "Up the river, you know."

I chewed over this for a minute, and all I could think of was that the feller must be in a clock factory or a watchmaker's or something.

"Watches?" I asks.

Hartley seemed to be too tired of life to want to answer, but his chum did it for him.

"No," says he. "I believe it was pearl studs on the showdown."

Well, this was crazy talk enough for anybody. I didn't want to stir 'em up none—I've always heard that you had to be gentle with lunatics—so I went on, encouraging 'em like.

"Studs, hey?" says I.

"Yes," says he. "He was a British beast, and Martin was all balled up in the street at the time—away from his apartments a good deal—and the B. B. annexed everything in sight."

"Go 'long!" says I, for the sake of saying something.

"Beg pardon," says he.

"Nothing," says I; and we stopped talking.

They seemed to enjoy the sail first rate, and acted as rational as could be, generally speaking. They didn't know a topping lift from a center-board, so far as boat went, but that wa'n't strange; I'd seen plenty of boarders like that. But never afore had I seen two that acted or talked like them.

We got back to the wharf along about dusk, and I walked with 'em a piece on their way to Nate's. I was keeping a sort of old bach hall just outside the village and so it wa'n't much out of my way. They had me guessing and I wanted more time to work on the riddle.

We cut across Sears' meadow, and the frogs was beginning to squeal and the crickets to chirp. To me them early summer noises are as cheerful and restful as a teakettle singing or a cat purring. But, all at once, Hartley, the sick one, stopped and held up his hand.

"Heavens, Van!" he says. "It sounds like the ticker," and he said it so prayerful and sad.

Van Brunt shook his head. "Don't it?" says he. "I can see the tape running off that tree. 'Green Apples Preferred, 106 bid and 8 asked.' Is there no escape?" he says.

I left 'em on the hill by the Baptist burying ground. I watched 'em walking down the road, big and straight and handsome, and I pitied 'em from the bottom of my heart.

"Sol Pratt," says I to myself, "here's a lesson for you. You're old and homely and your bank account is nothing, minus a good deal, divided by naught; but don't you never complain again. S'pose you was good-looking and rich, but out of your head, like them two poor young chaps. Dear! dear!"

And I thought about 'em and pitied 'em all that evening, while I was frying my herrings for supper. I hope I'll get credit somewheres for all that pity.

CHAPTER II.

The Man.

I see 'em pretty often during the next week. They used to loaf down to the landing of a morning, smoking cigars, and with their hands in their pockets. Crazy or not, there was a something about 'em that kind of got me; I own up I begun to like 'em, in spite of their tophamper being out of gear. As a general run I don't hanker for the average city boarder. He runs too much to yachting clothes and patronizing. Neither the clothes nor the airs set well; kind of look like they was second-hand and made over for him by the folks at home. When one of that kind is out sailing with me and begins to lord it and show off afore the girls the Dora Bassett is pretty apt to ship some spray over the bow. A couple of gallons of salt water sliced off a wave top and poured down the neck of one of them fellers is the best reducer I know of; shrinks his importance like 'twas a flannel shirt.

But Nate Scudder's private patients wa'n't that kind. Not that they wa'n't dressed. Land sakes! I don't s'pose they wore the same vests two days running. But they looked like they was used to their clothes, not as if they'd just been introduced and didn't feel to home in 'em. And they didn't patronize none to speak of; called me "Skipper" and "Sol" just as sociable as could be. And as for the girls, they never looked twice at any of the hotel ones. Them two skittish females that I took over to Trumet used to get in their way and beg pardon and giggle, hoisting flirtation signals, so to speak, but Van Brunt and Hartley wouldn't even come up into the wind; just kept on their course like they was carrying the mail. 'Twas these two females that first named 'em "The Heavenly Twins;" 'twas shortened later to "The Heavenlies."

Every time I took the Heavenlies on a cruise the more certain I was that they were loons—harmless and good-natured, of course, but loons just the same. Most generally they carried a book along with 'em and read it out loud to each other. They'd read a spell and then stop and break out with: "By Jove! that's so. He's right, isn't he?" You'd think that book was a human almost, the way they went on about it. I've heard a minister do the same way over the Scriptures; but this wa'n't the Bible; the name of it was "The Natural Life." I borrowed i once to look at, but 'twas all foolishness to me; telling about money being a cuss, and such rot. I've been cussed considerable sence I first went to sea, but not by money—no, sir!

But Van Brunt would read three or four fathom of rubbish out of "The Natural," and then heave to and say:

"Odd we didn't think of that afore, Martin. It doesn't count for much, does it? Well, we're through with it now, thank God! Look at that sunset. Have a smoke, skipper?"

And then he'd pass over a cigar that had cost as much as ten cusses a box, if I'm any judge of tobacco.

One night, just as we were coming into port, Van says to me:

"Sol," he says. "We may want you and the boat to-morrow. My man'll let you know in the morning. Meanwhile just dodge the nautical bunch at the hotel, will you?"

I was a good deal shook up. I'd almost forgot that keeper.

"Man?" says I. "Oh, yes, yes! I see. Is he here now?"

"No; coming to-night, I believe. By-by. Just consider yourself engaged till you hear from us."

They walked off and left me thinking. Thinks I: "It's a fair bet that that keeper don't let you two go boating by yourselves again."

So the next day about half-past nine, when I'd just about decided to let some of the boarders have the Dora Bassett, I looked up from my fish lines and here was a feller coming down the wharf.

He was a kind of an exhibit for Wellmouth, as you might say. Leastways he was bran-new for me. Six foot two over all, I should judge, and about two foot in the beam. Cast a shadow like a rake handle. Dressed up and precise, and prim as a Sunday school superintendent. He looked sort of gospelly, too, with his smooth upper lip and turned-down mouth, and little-two-for-a-cent side whiskers at half mast on his cheeks. But his eyes was fishy. Thinks I: "No sir-ee! I don't want to subscribe to no Temperance Advocate, nor buy 'The Life of Moses and the Ten Commandments,' nor I don't want to have my tintype took neither."

He stook still by the stringpiece of the wharf and looked me over, kind of grand but well-meaning, same as the prince of Wales might look at a hoptoad.

"Ello," says he.

"Hello, yourself," says I, keeping on with my work.

"Mr. Edward 'as ordered the boat for 'alf past 11," he says.

"I want to know," says I. "How'll he have it—fried?"

"Beg pardon?" says he.

"You're welcome," says I. I can stand being patronized, sometimes, if I'm paid for it, but I didn't see this critter developing no cash symptoms.

"My good man," he says; "you don't understand me. I said that Mr. Edward 'ad ordered the boat for 'alf past 11."

"I know you did. And I asked if he'd have it fried."

He seemed to be turning this over in his mind. And with every turn he got more muddled. I'd concluded by this time that he wa'n't a book agent.

What he was though I couldn't make out nor I didn't much care. He riled me, this feller did.

"Look 'ere," says he, after a minute. "Is your name Pratt?"

"Yup," I says. "On Thursdays it is."

"Thursdays?" says he. "Thursdays? What—what is it on Fridays?"

"Mister Pratt," says I, pretty average brisk.

He seemed to be more muddled than ever. He looked back towards the hotel and then at me again. I had a notion he was going to sing out for help.

"My man," he says, again. "My man—"

"Humph!" I interrupted. "Well, if I'm your man whose man are you?"

And, by time! he seemed to understand that! "I'm Mr. Edward Van Brunt's man," says he, "and Mr. Edward 'as ordered the boat for 'alf—"

And then I begun to understand—or thought I did. 'Twas the keeper. Well, in some ways he looked his job.

"O—oh!" says I. "All right. Yes, yes. I heard you was coming, Mr.—Mr.—"

"'Opper," says he; "James 'Opper."

"Proud to know you, Mr. Opper," says I, which was a lie, I'm afraid.

"Not Hopper," he says. "Opper."

"Sure! Opper's what I said," says I.

He got red in the face. "'Opper," he says. "Hattch—o-p-p-e-r."

"Oh, Hopper!" I says.

"Of course. 'Opper," he says.

I felt as if I'd been sailing a race and had made a lap and got back to the starting buoy.

"All right," says I. "What's an H or two between friends? How's your patients, Mr. Opper Hopper?"

"Look 'ere, my fine feller," he says. "You're too fresh. For a 'a-penny I'd come down and put a 'ead on you."

And right then I give up the idea that he was a retired parson. Parsons don't talk like that.

"You would?" says I. "Well, you go on putting 'eads' on the poor lunatics you have to take care of and don't try any of your asylum games with me. 'Twould be safer for you and wouldn't interfere with my work. What do you want?"

"I'm Mr. Edward Van Brunt's vally —" he says—"'is man-servant; and 'e 'as ordered you to—"

"His man-servant!" I sung out, setting up straight.

"Of course. Didn't I says so? His vally; an—"

Well, I'd made a mistake, I judged. If he was a servant he couldn't be the keeper. I ca'lated 'twas best to be a little more sociable. Besides, I was curious.

"Humph!" says I. "I guess I'd ought to beg your pardon, Mr. Opper—"

"'Opper!" he fairly hollered it.

"All right. Never mind. Come on aboard and let's talk it over."

So aboard he come, making a landlubber's job of it, and come to anchor on the bench in the cockpit, setting up as stiff and straight as if he'd swallowed a marlin-spike. Then we commenced to talk, me dropping a question every once in awhile, and him dropping h's like he was feeding 'em to the hens.

"If They Ain't Crazy, What Made 'Em Come to Live at Nate Scudder's?"

"What kind of a servant did you say you was?" says I, breaking the ice.

"A vally, Mr. Edward's vally."

"Vally, hey?" says I. "Vally! Hum! I want to know!"

I guess he see I was out of soundings, so he condescends to do some spelling for me.

"V-a-l-e-t," says he. "Vally."

"Oh!" says I. "A vallet. Yes, yes; I see."

I knew what a vallet was—I'd read about 'em in the papers—but this feller's calling it a "vally" put me off the course. He was nothing but a foreigner, though, so I made allowances. I give him a cigar that I bought at the grocery store on the way down, and we lit up. Then he commenced to tell about himself and how he used to work for a lord once over in England. According to his tell England was next door to Paradise and the United States a little worse than the other place. "Gawd forsaken" was the best word he had for Yankeeland.

"I suppose you'll quit when the keeper comes," says I.

"Keeper?" says he. "W'at keeper?"

"Why, the feller from the asylum. How long has your boss and his messmate been crazy?" I asks.

"Crazy?" he says. "Crazy? W'at do you mean?"

"Look here," says I. "You tell me straight. Ain't Van Brunt and Hartley out of their heads?"

"Out of their 'eads? 'Eavens, no!" He was so upset that he couldn't hardly speak for a minute. Then he commenced to tell about the Heavenlies, and 'twa'n't long afore I begun to see that 'twas Nate Scudder and me that needed a keeper; we was the biggest loons in the crowd.

Seems that the Twins was rich New Yorkers—the richest and high-tonedest kind. Both of 'em had money by the bucket and more being left to 'em while you wait. They lived on some avenue with a number to it, and they done business in the "Street," meaning that they dickered in bonds and such things, I gathered. Also I gathered they didn't have to work overtime.

"But, if they ain't crazy what made 'em come down here to live," says I, "at Nate Scudder's?"

Well, that was a kind of poser, even for Mr. James Opper Hopper Know-it-All. He commenced to tell about society and pink teas—I guess 'twas pink; might have been sky blue though—and races and opera parties and stocks, and "strenuous life" and the land knows what. It seemed to simmer down finally to that book "The Natural Life." Seems there was a kind of craze around New York and the cities, stirred up by that book, to get clear of luxury and comfort and good times and so on, and get to living like poor folks. Living "the Natural Life," the valet called it.

"So?" says I, thinking of how I had to scratch to keep body and soul together. "I've been right in style all my days and didn't know it. Hain't going cranberrying and fishing and clamming and taking spells of summer folks out on sea-sick parties is the proper think, hey?" And your boss and his chum want to live simple?"

Yes, he said they wanted to live real simple.

"Well," says I, "if Huldy Ann Scudder cooks for 'em that's the way they'll live."

He went on with another rigmarole about how the Heavenlies had lived in New York. Cutting out everything about himself and that British lord—which was two-thirds of the yarn—there was some stuff about a girl named Page that interested me. Seems she was the real thing in society, too. Had money and good looks and fine clothes—all the strenuous nuisances. And she was engaged to Hartley once, but they had a row or something and broke it off. And now she was engaged to Van Brunt.

"But, see here," I says, puzzled. "If she's engaged to Van why ain't he to home courting her instead of dissipating on baked beans and thin feather beds over to Scudder's? Why ain't he to home in New York getting ready to be married?"

Well, the marriage, so James said, was to be arranged later. Near as I could find out Van and this Agnes Page had mighty little to do with the marrying. 'Twas their folks that was fixing that up. Agnes herself had gone to Europe with her ma. When she was to home she was great on charity. She done settlement work, whatever that is, and her one idea in life was to feed ice cream to children that hankered for fishballs and brown bread. This wa'n't exactly the way Lord James give it out, but 'twas about the sense of it.

"Yes, yes," says I. "But how does Hartley like chumming around with the feller that's going to marry his old girl?"

It appeared that that was all right. Hartley and Van was chums; loved each other like brothers—or better. Little thing like a girl or two didn't count. Hartley was kind of used up and blue and down on his luck and suffering from the Natural Life disease; he wanted to cut for simplicity and Nature. So Van, havin' a touch of the Natural himself, come along to keep him company.

"But this Page girl?" says I. "How does she feel on the Natural Life question?"

"Oh, she believes in it too," says his lordship. "Only she's more interested in 'er charity and 'elping the poor and heducating 'em." says he.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Automobiles in Collision.

Morristown, May 6.—Two automobiles belonging respectively to Jesse L. Eddy, of Normandie Park, and L. F. Foster, of Westfield, collided at Sneeden's Corner Sunday, a front wheel being torn off of each machine and no further damage done. There were several men and women in each machine, but as they were going slowly in rounding this corner there were no casualities to the occupants, and as the damage to each machine was about the same there will be no differences to settle between the owners. Mr. Foster had just purchased his auto and he and his family were having their first trip in it.

An entertainment for the benefit of Marconnier chapel will be given at the chapel Friday night, May 15, at 7:45 o'clock, by Miss Augusta Acken, the celebrated elocutionist; Mrs. F. R. Valentine, pianist, and Floyd P. Nuyck and F. R. Valentine, soloists.

New Jersey Central

In Effect January 26, 1908.

For New York—2.17, 3.37, 5.36, 6.02, 6.29, 6.57, 7.25, 7.28, 7.46, 7.47, 7.55, 8.00, 8.11, 8.30, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.50, 10.28, 10.55 a. m., 12.00, 12.19, 12.42, 1.06, 1.37, 2.21, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.45, 5.52, 6.29, 6.48, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.27, 9.31, 10.17, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.17, 3.37, 4.47, 7.22, 7.58, 8.52, 9.34, 9.45, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.36, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.29, 6.57, 7.05, 7.28, 7.47, 8.11, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.50, 10.55 a. m., 12.42, 1.09, 1.27, 2.21, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.45, 5.52, 6.29, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.31 p. m. Sunday—7.22, 8.52, 9.34, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.36, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Bethlehem, Allentown and Manch Chunk—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 2.09, 5.22, 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 2.05, 5.47, 7.06 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 5.47 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.37, 8.11, 10.55 a. m., 12.42 (Saturdays only), 3.42, 4.45, 5.53, 8.27, 11.28 p. m. Sundays—3.37, 8.52 a. m., 2.30, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.37, 9.29 a. m., (12.42 Saturdays only), 1.27, 2.44 (3.42 Lakewood only), (5.53 Lakewood only, Saturdays only) p. m. Sundays—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.45 a. m., 1.45 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.12, 7.29, 8.45, 9.12, 10.43 a. m., 12.12, 12.42, 1.29, 2.14, 2.45, 4.13, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 1.17 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.53, 10.29, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.55, 6.39, 6.44, 8.50 9.46 p. m., 11.26, 1.17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m. Sundays—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

*Change cars at Bound Brook.

W. G. BESLER, Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, Gen. Pass. Agt.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.
Office opens 7 a. m., closes 7 p. m.
On Saturdays close half hour later.

NEW YORK MAIL.
Arrive—7:00, 8:40, 11:30 a. m., 2:30, 5:00 5:30, 9 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:20, 6:00 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 1:30, 3:15 and 7 p. m
Close—7:30 a. m., 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40 and 11:30 a. m., 2:26 7:00 p. m.
Close—7:15, 7:30, 9:30 a. m., 12:35, 2:26 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST
Close—1:00 and 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST AND SOUTH.
Close—12:35, 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton.
Close—12:35 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:30 a. m., 2:20, 6:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:15, 7:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:20 and 6:00

WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m.
Close—9:00 a. m.

WATCHUNG.
Close—5:30 p. m.
Arrive—6:45 p. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 8:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M.

Advertisements
—FOR—
New York Herald,
World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American, Brooklyn Eagle
—and—
Newark Evening News
Received at
The Daily Press
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

Complete line of
AUTOMOBILE Supplies and Tires
AT LOWEST NEW YORK PRICES.
Thompson Auto Co.
413 Park Ave. Tel. 991-J

Mrs. John Brown,
Successor to
John Burke and Jones & Co.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned from $3.00 Upwards.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Don't give your order until you consult me
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at
J. T. Vail's, North avenue, Plainfield, N. J.
Postoffice Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

We have made arrangements for a larger supply of first-class milk and and are givng the family trade our special attention... If you are not satisfied with the milk or the services you are getting give us a trial.

Price 9 cents a quart, 5 cents a pint. Cream 14 cents a ½ pint.

Lindsay's Dairy,
965 West Front St.
TEL. 792-J.

J. NEUSTADT
MERCHANT TAILOR,
Ladies' Tailoring a Specialty. Cleaning, Pressing, Altering at lowest prices. Work called for and delivered. Formerly with R. A. Rieley, Fifth Avenue, New York.
Spring and Summer Styles now ready.
430 WATCHUNG AVENUE
Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 668-W.

NOTICE TO MEN.
Don't Throw Away Your Old Clothes.
Highest Prices Paid for Same.
I. RICHARD, - - 17 Somerset St.

L. S. Plaut & Co.
"BEE HIVE," Newark's Shopping Centre. NEWARK.
Open 8:30 a. m. Close 6 p. m. Saturdays 10 p. m.
Telephone 5120 Newark.

MORE NEW MODEL $25 "Bee Hive" Sewing Machines 10.90

NEWS THAT IS DOUBLING THE FUROR made by the previous sale, when we so overwhelmingly surprised the public, sold out stock on hand on record time and took scores of orders. Every machine sent out has proved its worth! Every user has been telling of the wonderful "Bee Hive" machine to friends. We have had requests for another sale from all quarters. The reason for not having it before—the reason why we can make such a startling offer at all, WE TELL AGAIN, in response to the exclamation of every one.

"HOW IS IT POSSIBLE?"—As much as a year ago we arranged with the maker of our regular "Bee Hive" machine—one of the largest and best known—to turn out a new model that would appeal especially to our patrons. In order that we might introduce it at a special price he was to take it between-order times—just to keep his factory busy—and we were to take them when he could deliver.

A CARLOAD IN THIS LOT—Every machine a veritable triumph in machine making. Not only a fine new model, but not having been made in a rush, has had as much attention as machines at four and five times the price, and will wear as well. Come and see this wonderful machine; come and see it run. You will wonder that so fine a machine can be made at anywhere near the price. A Carload! But how long will it last?

HEAVY OAK FINISH FRAME—Drawer each side and one centre; encased drop head, protects machine when not in use; handsome as well as useful.

NEWEST UP-TO-DATE MACHINE PARTS—Reciprocating cylindrical, self-threading shuttle, feeding operated on new principle, is lockstitch.

Sold for cash or fairest part payments. $3 at purchase; $3 a month. No club fee.

No Branch Stores
Mail Orders Filled.
707 to 721 Broad St.
Daily Free Delivery By Our Own Wagons.
Plainfield-Newark Trolleys Pass Our Doors.

LAWN TOOLS

It isn't too late to buy if you have discovered that you need a new Mower this year. You must have heard of our easy running, close cutting, durably constructed Lawn Mowers. They have world-wide reputation.

We also have all other kinds of tools for lawn and garden development.

HOSE, REELS, SPRINKLERS, RAKES, GRASS SHEARS, HOOK, WEEDERS, EDGERS, PRUNERS, ETC.

Gayle Hardware Company
Tel. 468-R. Front St. and Park Ave.

FLORIDA

beckons to the fatigued and the leisurely alike. She welcomes all to her hospitable shores. The ideal route thither from New York is direct by sea to Jacksonville (with a short stop at Charleston, S. C.) upon the fine steamers of the

CLYDE STEAMSHIP CO.

H. H. RAYMOND, V. P. & G. M. A. C. HAGERTY, G. P. A.
General Offices: Pier 36, N. R., New York.

W. D. THICKSTUN, Agent, 197 North Avenue.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR
TRUNKS, SUIT CASES OR BAGS
CALL AT
O. M. DUNHAM'S, 129 Park Ave
TRUNK STRAPS—ALL SIZES.

USE PRESS WANT ADS

RHEUMATISM,
blood and kidney ailments are positively relieved by
Wouter's Wonder Worker
The great rheumatic blood and kidney medicine. It has cured thousands. It will cure you.
50c at all drug stores.

When considering a trip abroad or to the mountains or seashore, the problem of the safety of your valuables presents itself.

A quick solution is to lodge them in our Safe Deposit Vaults; no further concern need then be felt for them. "Safety for Valuables" is a booklet descriptive of our storage facilities. Write for it.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Travelers' Cheques.

Baseball and General Sports

PUTNAMS WIN TWICE IN TOURNEY GAMES

In the tourney games at Johnny Campbell's alleys last night, the Centrals defeated the Arlingtons and the Putnams took two tallies from the Somersets and Prospects. The scores were as follows:

ARLINGTONS.

Britton	170
Eller	128
Ortleb	149
Martin	132
Herbert	165
	745

CENTRALS.

Blatz	165
C. Ortleb	158
Owens	139
Koons	180
Smalley	162
	805

PUTNAMS.

Garey	168
Runyon	136
McLaughlin	144
P. Gaddis	180
Nash, Jr.	185
	813

SOMERSETS.

Stout	143
Montross	157
Pope	138
Quinn	179
Conklin	138
	755

PUTNAMS.

Garey	162
Runyon	136
McLaughlin	162
Gaddis	200
Nash, Jr.	170
	830

PROSPECTS.

Van Emburgh	174
Nash, Sr.	137
Reville	159
Vail	141
Willett	179
	790

Scorer, Dr. Herbert.

Last nights games conclude the tourney and leaves the Somersets first with a record of six won and one lost. The Madisons and Putnams are tie for second place with five won and two lost. The other teams ended as follows: Arlingtons, four won, three lost;; Watchungs, three won, four lost; Centrals, three won, four lost; Prospects, two won, five lost; Belvideres, seven lost.

The tie between the Madisons and Putnams will be rolled off next Monday night.

STORAGE VAULTS

For Large Trunks, Boxes, Valuable Packages, Etc., Etc.

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

OF ALL SIZES

ABSOLUTE SECURITY PROVIDED

CITY NATIONAL BANK

P.H.S. NINE CRIPPLED BY LOSS OF 5 PLAYERS

The entire outfield of the Plainfield High School baseball team, the catcher and one of the pitching squad have been declared illegible to play on the school nine because they are not up to grade. The players who are ruled off the team by this scholarship rule are John W. Riffert, right field, F. Clyde Doane, centre field, John Dutcher, left field, Harry VanZandt, pitcher, and Benjamin Dodwell, catcher.

In accordance with the faculty rule, pupils who represent the school on the athletic teams must keep up to a 70 per cent. standing in three out of their four school subjects. The report cards came out today, and a crippled ball team is the result. By studying up with a tutor and passing a special examination in the subjects in which they are below grade, the now illegible players may get in the game. Doane and VanZandt are but temporarily affected, but it is doubtful if Riffert and Dutcher get in the game again this year.

The same grade rule has seriously crippled the class teams, some of which are composed of but a few of the original lineup. The freshman class nine has but a single regular player left; the battery of the sophomores were the only players not below grade. These class players can only become eligible again by bringing permission to play from home. If they do not do this, they must stay out of the game until the marks on their next report cards show they are up to grade. Reports are made public monthly.

BASEBALL.

The Junior team will play the Climax A. C., on Hope Common, Saturday afternoon.

"Big Six" Victorious.

"The Big Six" of North Plainfield, with Ralph Smalley and Chauncey Steward as the battery, defeated Leals' Juniors, on the Cricket Field, Saturday afternon, by a score of 18 to 9. Ralph Heely and Stewart Lyons formed the battery for the losing club. The feature of the contest was the pitching of Ralph Smalley. He had perfect control and all kinds of curves and twists, which his opponents could not solve.

"Merry Widow" Actors' Baseball.

A baseball team composed of members of the cast of "The Merry Widow" will cross bats with a nine of local college players on the Middlesex avenue grounds, Metuchen, tomorrow afternoon. Donald Brian will be on the slab for the theatrical team, and a big delegation of rooters from the company now playing at the New Amsterdam will be on hand to cheer the team.

TENNIS.

A club tournament for girls' singles will be held at the Plainfield Country Club Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The entries will close Friday night at 6 o'clock with Miss Elizabeth Goddard, 208 East Ninth street, telephone 809-R.

WOMEN JANITORS FOR YALE.

Bursar Says That Middle-Aged Women Will Receive Preference.

New Haven, Conn., May 6.—Under the heading, "A Startling Innovation," The Yale News yesterday announces that beginning next fall, women janitors will be gradually installed in the Yale dormotories.

The experiment will first be tried in Vanderbilt Hall. Bursar Osborn of the University said yesterday that young women need not apply for the jobs, and that middle-aged women with families and who have been thrown on their own resources would receive the preference. Only staid seniors room in Vanderbilt Hall. The News says:

"The system of employing women has been in vogue at Harvard for years and there has never been any trouble.

—For best results advertise in The Daily Press.

AUTOISTS MAY RETAIN OLD LICENSE NUMBERS

Especially important to the motoring public is the announcement by F. L. C. Martin, of the New Jersey Department of Motor Vehicles, to the effect that all of those who apply at Mr. Martin's office, 312 Park avenue, on or before May 31, can retain their old license numbers, and that after May 31 no old numbers will be issued, for all numbers in existence at the present time, unless renewed, will be canceled upon that date. This ruling of the Department of Motor Vehicles is made to appease those autoists who are proud of the fact that their numbers were among the first issued, and who expect to lose their old licenses under the provisions of the new Frelinghuysen law.

Twenty-five days of grace remain in which automobilists in these parts may have their present licenses renewed. Those who apply after May 31 will receive numbers above 38,000. While a man's license may not expire before July 1 or later, he may take advantage of the ruling and have his number renewed now. That is, every autoist who wishes to retain his present number, no matter when his license expires, by applying to Mr. Martin can have licenses renewed from date of expiration.

Since Commissioner Smith's ruling was received by Mr. Martin some doubt has arisen as to what shall be done in the case of those motorists who have already relinquished their old numbers, often unwillingly, and have been assigned positions above 38,000. There are some twenty cases of this sort in the local district of the Department of Motor Vehicles.

To only one provision of the law has there been severe opposition as yet. The new Frelinghuysen amendment provides that all licenses shall expire on December 31, irrespective of when issued, which means that a man whose license under the old law runs out in August or September, 1908, will have to pay the full year's fee under the new and increased schedule for a permit to drive his car until December 31, 1908.

Motorists can see little justice in this arrangement, and, in fact, Senator Frelinghuysen's original proposition provided that drivers registered under the old law would have to pay only pro rata from the time their old licenses expired, up to December 31.

RIFLED HUBBY'S POCKETS.

He Thrashed Her—She Says Lawyer Advised Her to Do It.

New Brunswick, May 6.—A court ruling yesterday prevented making public the name of a local lawyer who advised a client to search her husband's pockets if he wouldn't divide his pay with her. This occurred in the trial of Harvey Closson, 23 years old, who was found guilty of assault and battery on his wife and not guilty of desertion.

Closson declared that when he had a fight with his wife on December 26 last it was because he found his pockets had been emptied. She told him, he said, that she had been to see a lawyer to find if she could get her husband's pay from his pockets, and the lawyer told her to go ahead, with the protection of the law.

"Did she say what lawyer?" asked Prosecutor George Berdine.

"Yes."

"Who was it?" Counsellor Cook's objection to this question was sustained.

Mrs. Smalley, a sister of Mrs. Closson, who testified for the State and is a willowy blonde, was described by Mr. Cook, in his summing up as the lady with "the bleached puffs." That made her stand up in the courtroom and shake her fist at the lawyer. After leaving the room she declared she would be revenged on him for insulting her.

Triangle Club Here Saturday.

There are still many good seats left for the Kirmess to be given next week at the New Plainfield theatre and persons desiring to witness the performance will have no trouble in obtaining tickets. Word was received today that the Triangle Club of Princeton University will not be able to appear at the performance Friday night, but will surely be here Saturday night. The change is made necessary owing to examinations to be taken on Friday. Progress is being made with the rehearsals for the various dances and those who have seen them declare that every one will make a hit.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

USED HER BABY AS A CLUB.

Mother Swings Child by Ankle to Assault Man in Court.

Pittsburg, May 6.—In the Criminal Court here yesterday, a woman used her four months' old baby as a club to assault a man who had insulted her. It was only by great effort by a woman interpreter that the babe was not killed. As it was, the child was badly hurt.

Agnes Pashkut, was in court with her four months' old baby on her lap. Vincent Bitlsky, her neighbor, took a seat behind the Pashkut woman, and appeared to have said something in a low tone which made the woman wild with rage.

Jumping up and swinging her child by one ankle as a club, she swung it twice around her head and tried to hit Bialsky who got out of the way by tipping his chair over backward to the floor.

TRIP IN BIGGEST BALLOON.

A. Holland Forbes Flies 75 Miles in the Conqueror.

North Adams, Mass., May 6.—A. Holland Forbes of New York, made yesterday the first ascent in his new balloon, the biggest in America. Before the ascent his daughter, Miss Natalie Forbes, named the balloon The Conqueror.

The new balloon has a capacity of 85,000 cubic feet of gas. Mr. Forbes piloted The Conqueror, and was accompained by the builder, Leo Stevens and William F. and Henry Whitehouse, all of New York.

The balloon made a splendid "getaway" rising to a great height, and then sailing rapidly eastward before a brisk westerly breeze.

A message received here last night announces that the balloon landed safely at 4:45 p. m. at Canton, Conn., about 75 miles south of North Adams.

Eagles' Annual Ball Tonight.

Plainfield Aerie, No. 866, F. O. E., will hold its annual ball at the Casino tonight, and elaborate arrangements have been made for the affair. State officers and members of other aeries throughout New Jersey are expected to attend. The Eagles have decorated the Casino in an appropriate manner and a cordial welcome will be given to every member and friend attending. Music will be furnished by a large orchestra and every detail is complete for a fine time.

POOR BILL.

"Bill has given up the cold water cure. He is taking the hot air cure now."

"Why?"

"He's got married!"—Chicago Journal.

Practical, But Not Sentimental.

Miss Rosebud—I s'pose yo' knows dat Jim Jackson has sent me a sealed proposal?

Mr. Johnson (Jim's rival)—Heavens! Jes' like as ef yo' was a excavatin' contractor on a garbage estimate!—Judge.

A Sixth Sense.

Bobby—Sister must be able to see in the dark.

Mother—How so?

Bobby—Because last night, when she was sitting with Mr. Staylate in the parlor, I heard her say: "Why, Tom, you haven't shaved!"—Judge.

Free Translation.

Mrs. Touchem—I would invite those Comeups more to my function, but, indeed, they are so difficult!

Mr. Downrite—I guess that means they're not "easy."—Baltimore American.

He Spoke Carelessly.

Patient—Sorry to bring you all the way out here, doctor.

Doctor—Oh, don't worry about that. I can see another patient and kill two birds with one stone.—Judge.

The Necessary Part.

"How's that mining scheme of yours coming out?"

"Splendid. Why we sold every cent of the stock before we found the mine."—Life.

Bridget's Place.

Book Agent—Good morning! Are you the lady of the house?

Bridget—I wan o' thim.—Life.

—Perfection in coffee—the Mocha and Java blend sold by Neuman Brothers. Superior in quality and flavor. Plain Java is another leading coffee.

Scheuer's Special Bargains

For Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

SCHEUER'S BEST XXXX MINNESOTA PATENT FLOUR, 24½ lb bag 85c; a bbl ... $6.50

SOUTHERN BELLE FLOUR, for bread and pastry use, 24½ lb bag 69c; a bbl ... $5.65

Borden's Peerless Evaporated Milk, a can 8c	Pure Olive Oil, Packed in France, 58c kind, a bottle 49c	Tomatoes, solid packed, 11c grade, Reliance Brand, No. 3 can 8c	Corn, Royal Blue Brand, 10c kind, a can 8c
Robinson's Patent Barley, 14c kind, a tin 11c	Robertson's Orange Marmalade, 17c kind, 1-lb jar 14c	California Muscatel White Grape Juice, pint bottle 25c	Hire's Root Beer Extract, a bottle 12½c
Cox's English Gelatine, a package 9c	Campbell's Salad Dressing, 10c kind, a bottle 8c	Queen Olives, plain or stuffed, 25c size, a bottle 21c	Fresh Scallops, Gold Coin Brand, pint can 18c

FANCY ELGIN CREAMERY BUTTER, a lb 30c; 3 lbs for ... 87c

New Florida Potatoes, pony basket 40c	Large Juicy Lemons, dozen 15c	Pure Jelly Grape or Apple, tumbler 10c	Danish Fruit Juices, Cherry and Raspberry, imported from Denmark 35c
Shredded Codfish, 5c kind, a package 3c	White Rolled Oats, Fresh Milled, 6-lb bag 25c	National Biscuit Co.'s Uneeda Biscuits, a package 4c	Neufchatel Cream Cheese, a package 4c
Manzanilla Olives, in bulk, a quart 22c	Karo Corn Syrup, 10c kind, a can 8c	Fancy Evaporated Peaches, a lb 15c	Johnson's Educator Ginger Cookies, 25c kind, a tin 20c

Try MAN-A-CEA WATER, for indigestion, stops that distress after eating. ½ gallon bot .. 45c

Best Head Rice (whole grain), 3 lbs for ... 25c	Velencia Shelled Almonds, lb ... 39c
Choice Carolina Rice, 3 lbs for ... 20c	English Walnut Meat, lb ... 39c
McCann's Irish Oatmeal, 5-lb can ... 55c	Pecan Nut Meat, lb ... 49c
Shimmell's Pure Apple Butter, 3-lb crock ... 27c	Fancy Pulled Figs, lb ... 18c
Evaporated Apples, lb ... 14c	Extra Fard Dates, lb ... 10c
White or Yellow Meal, 6-lb bag ... 20c	Dr. Johnson's Educator Crackers, lb ... 18c
Rye or Graham Flour, 6-lb bag ... 20c	Dr. Johnson's Educator Toasterettes, lb ... 25c
Pinhead Oatmeal, 5c lb; 6 lbs ... 25c	Maxwell's Potato Chips, package ... 9c
Pearl Tapioca, 7c lb; 4 lbs ... 25c	Pure Ground Horseradish, bottle ... 8c
Best Wheat Farina, 6c lb; 4 lbs ... 22c	Pickled Mussells, bottle ... 10c
Sun Flower Seed, 7c lb; 4 lbs ... 25c	Spratt's Cat Food, 3-lb box ... 25c

WATCHUNG SPRING WATER, six 1½ gallon bottles in case ... 60c

10 STAMPS WITH ANY OF THE FOLLOWING ARTICLES:

3-lb Box Laundry Starch ... 20c	1 bottle Ammonia ... 10c	1 package Spaghetti ... 10c
4-lb pgk. Grandma's Washing Powder ... 18c	1 box Shaker Salt ... 10c	1 package Black Pepper ... 10c
1 bottle Laundry Blue ... 10c	1 bot. Lemon Extract .. 10c or 15c	7-lb bag Salt ... 10c
1 Box Ball Blue ... 10c	1 bot. Vanilla Extract .. 10c or 15c	3-lb box Cal. Prunes ... 25c
6 cakes Scheuer's Soap ... 25c	1 bottle Bixby Royal Polish .. 10c	1 package 12 boxes Parlor Matches ... 12c
1 box Allen's Tooth Powder .. 10c	2 cakes Gondola Toilet Soap .. 10c	2 pkgs Tooth Picks for ... 10c

10 STAMPS with a TEN-CENT PACKAGE of FLOWER or VEGETABLE SEED.

Extra Stamps—TEAS.			Extra Stamps—COFFEES.
100	STAMPS FREE WITH 1 pound Tea ...	60c	30	STAMPS FREE WITH 1 pound Coffee ...	32c
70	STAMPS FREE WITH 1 pound Tea ...	50c	30	STAMPS FREE WITH 1 pound Coffee ...	29c
30	STAMPS FREE WITH 1 pound Tea ...	35c	20	STAMPS FREE WITH 1 pound Coffee ...	27c
100	STAMPS FREE WITH 1 pound Premium Baking Powder ...	45c	20	STAMPS FREE WITH 1 pound Coffee ...	23c

STRICTLY FRESH EGGS, a dozen ... 20c

DOG INVALID BURIED.

Kingsland Terrier Had Been Sent South for Its Health, but Died There.

Long Branch, May 6.—The body of a white fox terrier, the property of H. P. Kingsland, of New York, reached Long Branch yesterday from St. Augustine, Fla., and was buried with ceremony in the Kingsland dog cemetery, near Elberon. The Kingsland dog was sent South last winter for its health. Upon its arrival at St. Augustine it was treated by a specialist. For a time it improved, but finally died.

The body of the dog was first buried in a cedar coffin. Mr. Kingsland then decided to bring the body to Long Branch. Accordingly the body of the animal was exhumed, re-embalmed, and shipped to Long Branch. It was met in New York by Mr. and Mrs. Kingsland, who accompanied it to the Kingsland estate, where the burial took place. Two headstones have already been erected to the memory of two dogs which died several years ago.

—John H. Doane, the real estate dealer, has leased to James H. Clark, of Brooklyn, the residential property, No. 406 East Sixth street, and also No. 326 East Sixth street, to Charles A. Clark, also of Brooklyn, a brother of James H. Clark, and both the men and their families are now residents of Plainfield.

The Women's Relief Corps will hold an entertainment in the new quarters in Reform Hall, Friday night. A musical and literary program has been arranged and refreshments will be served in conclusion.

WE SELL LOTS FOR CASH or INSTALLMENT

We build and sell houses on the same plan. It will pay you to buy before June 1st in Laramie Park.

Write or call on

J. D. LOIZEAUX LUMBER CO.,

Cor. Berkman St. and North Ave. 'Phone 218.

5611 m-w-s

BROKAW'S CREAMERY

No need to complain of getting poor butter or cream—go to Brokaw's and get his own make, which is always fresh and good. Our specialties are Fresh-made Butter, both salted and unsalted, Rich Milk and Cream, positively Fresh Eggs and everything in the dairy line. The only place in the city where these goods are made on the spot. Call and see our plant and witness the process.

TEL. 293-W 186 E. FRONT STREET

BOARDSTERS' CALENDAR.

[illegible] 4.53 p. m.
[illegible] 7.00 a. m.
Lanterns must be lighted 8.00 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER
Rain, warmer tonight; Friday showers

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1908. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

PREPARED FOR OPERETTA

Pupils of the Borough Grammar School Do Fine Work in Dress Rehearsal.

SCORES ARE TO TAKE PART.

"The Enchanted Palace," an Elaborate Fairy Drama, to Be Presented at the Park Club Tonight.

The dress rehearsal for "The Enchanted Palace," an operetta to be presented by pupils of the grammar grades of the Somerset street school at the Park Club tomorrow night, was held at the club last night, and the work of those who are to take part assures the success of the presentation. The sale of seats has been large, and as the operetta is something more elaborate than has ever been presented by school amateurs in this city, much interest is being shown in the piece.

"The Enchanted Palace," the words and music of which are written by Somervell, is a new version of the familiar legend, "The Sleeping Beauty." The fairy scenes, and the dreamlike court of "King Diamond" have required a lot of rehearsal, as has the music. The costuming is to be a especially elaborate, and the court gowns will be a feature of the presentation.

The cast has been coached by Herbert Lloyd, musical director at the school, who has been assisted by Miss Mabel Trenbath and Miss Laura M. Suydenham, of the school faculty. Miss Myra Emmons will be the accompanist. The complete cast follows:

"King Diamond," Elmer Gayle; "Prince Emerald," Arthur Martin; "King's Wise Man," Walter Harrington; "King's Jester," Raymond Westervelt; "King's Poet," George Ball; "Queen Diamond," Miss Florence Daly; "Princess Crystal," Miss Helen Roberts; "Chief Maidens," Miss Helen Roberts, Miss Bernice Berkhan; "Fairy of Life," Miss Natalie Selby; "Fairy of Darkness," Miss Alice Vroom; "Fairy of the Place," Miss Elsa Schwed.

Guardians of the Princess:—The Misses Bertha Bodine, Florence Berkhan, Madeline Blair, Edna Beeching, Mary Bennett, Nellie Culver, Mildred Conover, Irma Codington, Elma Coons, Marielle Dunham, Laura Dawe, Mabel Douglass, Elsie Debele, Lucille Ewart, Margaret Hoagland, Helen Hummel, Bertha Kellar, Kathrine Kellegher, Flora Krausse, Virginie LaPorte, Ella Miller, Dorothy Martin, Florence Newmiller, Ray Preger, Julia Rowley, Emma Ryno, Hilda Storey, Florence Small, Mattie Smith,, Zeta Voorhees, Gilberta Van Nest, Helen Woodruff and Anna Warnock.

Ladies of the Queen:—The Misses Ethel Ball, Grace Beeching, Bessie Carson, Ethel Campbell, Margaret Darby, Kathryn Debele, Myrtle Darling, Clair Fleming, Elsa Hill, Florence Johns, Mildred McCauliff, Alice Peacock, Louise Sanfield, Elizabeth Smalley, Madeline Urhahn, Grace Williams and Margaret Woolston.

Guards of Honor:—Edson Day, Cortlandt Fleming, Frank Fleming, Augustus VanDeventer, Louis Bullman and Walter Kaechlein.

King's Band:—Alfred Cornwell, Glenwood Evans, Loren Giddes, Elmer French, Frederick Harrington, Arthur Howe, Francis McDonough, Matin McDonough, Richard Sutton, Russell Sharp, Alfred Seidel, Edward Wakefield, Edward Windham, Franklin Lowe and Earl Victorsen.

Bazaar at the Kirmess.

In connection with the Kirmess to be held at the New Plainfield theatre next week for the benefit of Muhlenberg Hospital, there will be a bazaar in the rear of the theatre. There will be for sale flowers, cut and in baskets for those wishing to present them to the various dancers, if they desire; jewelry, cut-glass, souvenir watch fobs, photographs of the dances, candy, ice cream, lemonade, while a feature will be an unusual "grab bag." The bazaar will be in charge of a number of women, whose names will be announced in a few days.

Press Advs. Never Fail.

W. F. Merrill, of 830 Carlton avenue, lost three Kirmess tickets and in response to an advertisement in The Daily Press of last night, they were returned to him by Edward Martin, porter at the North Avenue Station, who naturally saw the advertisement in The Daily Press.

Always on the Watch.

A Plainfield woman lost a valuable gold watch yesterday and she advertised it in The Daily Press. The timpeiece was found by LeVergue Bunn, of 203 Prescott place, who being a reader of The Daily Press promptly returned it to the owner and received a reward.

—Kirmess Dances, Thursday, May 14. ***

HUSBAND LEFT WIFE; SHE HAS HIM JAILED

Walter Smalley, arrested on complaint of his wife, who alleges nonsupport, was held in $100 bond by Justice of the Peace Clark Mundy at the session of the Justice's court last night, when the justice ruled that he must give his wife $3 a week for the support of herself and two children, or else go to jail. No money was forth-coming, and Smalley was taken to Somerville today by Chief Marshal Weiss.

Mrs. Smalley, who was Miss Jennie Martial, stated at the hearing that her husband left her several months ago, and since that time has been living with his parents at Scotch Plains. He is out of work. When they were together, the couple lived at the home of Mrs. Smalley's parents on Somerset street, where the wife is still living with her two small children. She secured her husband's arrest for non-support through Borough Overseer of the Poor Fred Becker.

At the hearing last night, Smalley had little to say for himself. He seemed to think that he was saving his wife expense by staying in Scotch Plains with his parents, but stated that he had not planned to desert her. Mrs. Smalley told the judge that she was entirely without means of support and that her appeal to the overseer of the poor had been necessary to provide for her children.

SPECIAL R. R. FACILITIES FOR COMING HORSE SHOW

The Plainfield Riding and Driving Club has made special arrangements with the New Jersey Central for those intending to exhibit at the Plainfield and Philadelphia horse shows, whereby horses and carriages will be transported by special shipments from Jersey City to Chestnut Hill and from Chestnut Hill to Plainfield; also between Jersey City and Plainfield. The charges for this service will be made by the Plainfield Riding and Driving Club as follows:

For the round trip from Jersey City to Chestnut Hill and then to Plainfield, there will be an inclusive charge of $6:50 per horse and $7 per carriage. This also includes transportation from this city back to Jersey City for one or more horses. The charge for shipment from Jersey City to Plainfield and return will be at the rate of $2.25 per horse and the same per carriage each way.

A special train will leave Jersey City on the New Jersey Central for Chestnut Hill, Sunday morning, May 24, at 11 o'clock, and a special train will leave Chestnut Hill for Plainfield on Sunday, May 31, at 12 o'clock noon, and another special train will leave Jersey City for Plainfield direct, Wednesday morning, June 3, at 11 o'clock, returning to Jersey City, Sunday morning, June 7, at 10 o'clock.

A special passenger horse show train will leave Liberty street for Plainfield at 12 o'clock noon, or from 23d street, at 11:30 o'clock in the morning on June 4, 5 and 6. One or more dining cars will be attached. Further information may be obtained from Charles W. Smith, assistant secretary, 16 East 23d street, New York City.

Will Award Building Contract.

There will be an adjourned meeting of the Common Council Monday night when it is expected the contract for the new police headquarters' building will be awarded to Alexander Milne for $17,510, that being the lowest bidder. It is gratifying to Plainfielders that a local contractor submitted the lowest bid. However, a delegation from the Trades Council in calling on Mayor Fisk to protest against outside firms getting local contracts, were met with a statement from Mr. Fisk that if an outside contractor could do the work according to specifications, it would not be good business policy for the city to pay several thousand dollars extra simply for the purpose of having a Plainfield man do the work.

State President of C. E. to Speak.

The Garwood Christian Endeavor Society extends a cordial invitation to the Endeavorers and their friends in Plainfield to attend the third anniversary exercises of their society on Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock in the Garwood church. State president, John T. Sproul will deliver the principal address of the evening.

P. P. A. Annual Tonight.

The annual meeting of the Plainfield Protective Association will be held at 8 o'clock tonight at the Y. M. C. A. Hall and all citizens, whether members or not, are invited to be present. This meeting was postponed from last Thursday on account of the weather.

—Harlequin, French Dolls, Japanese. ***

HORSE SHOW PRIZE LIST

Valuable Cups and Cash Prizes in All Classes at Coming Exhibition.

THE ENTRIES ARE NUMEROUS.

Thomas W. Lawson Cup One of the Features—Entries Close on Saturday—The Classes In Detail.

The Plainfield Riding and Driving Club today issued the prize list for the fifth annual horse show to be held at the club's grounds, Woodland avenue and Randolph road, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 4, 5 and 6. All entries will close Saturday, May 23, with Charles W. Smith, assistant secretary, 16 East 23d street, New York city. The list is one of the most attractive in the history of the club and is sure to bring out a large number of entries.

Special features will be the competition for the Thomas W. Lawson challenge cup, won last year by Avondale Farm's "Lord Burleigh," and "Lord Brook," and the one for "The Official Horse Show Blue Book" challenge cup, won last year by Reginald C. Vanderbilt. Both of these cups must be won twice by the same owner to become his or her property.

In addition there will be the competition for the Plainfield Riding and Driving Club challenge cup, won last year by Miss Emily H. Bedford's "Hildreth." All three cups are valued at $250. Another important class will be the champion saddle, the trophy valued at $100. There will also be the classes for hunters and jumpers, for local horses, the fire department class open to all New Jersey exhibits, besides the various other classes that have made the show one of the best in the country. Besides the numerous cash prizes, there will be the usual second prizes and reserve ribbons. It is fully expected that Avondale Farm and Reginald C. Vanderbilt, as well as all of the former exhibitors and many new ones will be here at the show. The horse show committee, of which Robert A. Fairbairn is the chairman, is now busily engaged in perfecting the many details for the show.

The full prize list follows:

Roadsters.

Class 1—Horse 4 years old or over (Maiden Class). Open only to horses that have not won prior to May 23, 1908, a first prize at any recognized horse show. To be shown to wagon. First prize, $50; second prize, $15. Class 2—Pair of horses 4 years old or over. To be shown to wagon. First prize, $50; second prize, $15.

Challenge Cup.

Class 3—Horse and best appointed road rig (offered by Robert A. Fairbairn). To be won twice by the same owner to become his property. Entrance fee, $10. Cup value, $150; reserve ribbon. Won in 1907 by E. C. Rich's "Amanda Baron."

Horses in Harness.

Class 4—Horses 14.2 hands and not exceeding 15 hands. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 5—Pair of horses 14.2 hands and not exceeding 15 hands. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 6—Horse over 15 hands and not exceeding 15.2 hands. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 7—Pair of horses over 15 hands and not exceeding 15.2 hands. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 8—Horse over 15.2 hands. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 10—Horses to be shown before a carriage suitable for a lady to drive, ladies to drive. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 11—Pair of horses. Horses to count 60 per cent.; vehicle and general appointments to count 40 per cent. Ladies to drive. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 12—Horse, 14.3 and not exceeding 15.2 hands. Suitable for runabout. First prize, $50; second, $15.

Novice Harness Class.

Class 13—Horse 14.2 hands and not exceeding 15 hands. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 14—Pair of horses 14.2 hands and not exceeding 15 hands. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 15—Horse over 15 hands and not exceeding 15.2 hands. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 16—Pair of horses over 15 hands and not exceeding 15.2 hands. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 17—Horse over 15.2 hands. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 18—Pair of horses over 15.2 hands. First prize, $50; second, $15.

Tandems.

Class 19—Tandem. The wheeler not to exceed 15.1 hands. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 20—Tandem. The wheeler to be over 15.1 hands. First prize, $50; second, $15.

Four-in-Hands.

Class 21—Four-in-hand. Horses

(Continued on page 4.)

—Indian, Tarantella, Marsovian. ***

MISS SANDFORD A BRIDE

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Sandford Becomes Capt. Yule's Wife.

AT A MILITARY WEDDING.

Rev. J. S. Zelie, Ph. D., Officiates—Groom Is Ordered to the Philippines. Islands.

A charming home wedding of a decided military nature was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Sandford, of East Front street last night, when their daughter, Miss Pauline May Sandford, became the wife of Captain Edward Harrison Yule, of Fort B. A. Russell, Wyoming. Although the ceremony was witnessed by only the relatives and intimate friends of the couple to the number of sixty, the reception which followed was attended by nearly 400 guests, including many military friends of the groom and scores of guests from out of town.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Sheridan Zelie, pastor of the Crescent Avenue church, and the couple stood in a veritable bower of palms and white roses in the bay window of the drawing room. A large American flag formed an effective background for the floral decorations and the groom and best man, Captain B. M. Koehler, of the Coast Artillery Corps, were in full uniform. The bay window was screened off from the room by a curtain of smilax, and the entire house was lavishly decorated with apple blossoms and palms, the prevailing color scheme being pink and white. The bridal party entered the room to the music of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by a string orchestra, and during the ceremony the musicians rendered "O Perfect Love" and "O Promise Me." The Episcopal form of service was used.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white satin, trimmed with Duchesse and point lace. She wore a dainty tuille veil, caught up with orange blossoms and carried lillies of the valley. Her bridesmaids were Miss Florence M. Tree, of New York city, and Miss Katherine C. Manning, of Dunellen avenue. These attendants wore pink chiffon cloth, over pink silk and carried pink roses. Miss Pauline Sandford, a niece of the bride, and Miss Saidee Sandford, a cousin, acted as flower girls. They wore white net, trimmed with white satin ribbon and carried huge Leghorn hats filled with pink sweet peas.

Following the ceremony was the wedding reception, for which 1,000 invitations were issued. The collation was by Day, of Newark. The groom's gift to his best man was a gold stick pin. The bride's gifts to her attendants were filigree gold pins, set with pearls. The bride received a wealth of wedding presents, including silver, cut glass and china.

Immediately after the wedding reception, the couple left for a short wedding trip. They will return to this city next week and will remain at the home of the bride's parents until June, when they will sail for the Philippines, where Captain Yule has been detailed for two years' service. Captain Yule is a graduate of Iowa State University; he served in the Spanish War with the Second Field Artillery Corps, and later spent two years with the military force in the Philippines. Before being ordered to Fort B. A. Russell, he was stationed at Fort Schuyler.

Miss Beulah Schock a Bride.

Miss Beulah Schock, only daughter of Rev. and Mrs. T. J. Schock, of Prospect place, and Albert Close, of New York, were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents, at 7:30 o'clock, last night, the officiating clergyman being a relative of the bride. Miss Myra Emmons, of Prospect place, played the wedding march. The affair was atended only by a few relatives and intimate friends. Following the ceremony, a reception was held, supper being served by Caterer W. W. Warnock, of this city. After a wedding journey the couple will reside in New York. The bride and her parents have been residents of Plainfield but a short time.

Court Dismisses Case.

After one hearing and two adjournments, the case of Mrs. Lizzie Epwith against Frank Rapp, was dismissed in the city court, this morning. The plaintiff refused to furnish certain evidence demanded and Judge Runyon ordered the proceedings dropped.

Salvation Army Notes.

Adjutant Mildred Witton, a former officer of Plainfield League Corps will conduct the service in the Salvation Army Hall tonight at 8 o'clock. J. D. Loizeaux will be the speaker next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

—Kirmess, Kirmess, Kirmess.

ADMONISHES HIS CLERGY

Bishop at N. J. Episcopal Convention Deplores "Romanistic" Tendencies.

UNITY THERE IMPOSSIBLE.

Rev. Mr. Stevenson's Report on Sunday School Work is Enthusiastically adopted After Debate.

The convention of the New Jersey Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal church which was brought to a close at New Brunswick at noon yesterday with a parting address by Bishop Scarborough was one of the most important in the history of the diocese. The Bishop in his address disapproved of those in the pulpit who had their eyes turned toward the Vatican and declared there was no need to look for church unity in that source. He declared that such in the church were a source of weakness to it.

One of the lively discussions was brought about over the report of the Sunday-school commission in which the conservatives and progressives waged battle. The Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, rector of Grace church, this city, spoke for the report, which commanded the commission in sending the Rev. Thomas A. Conover, of Bernardsville, as a delegate to the Summer School of Methods at Asbury Park last year. The Rev. W. N. Bailey, of the Asbury Park church, was against this, declaring that he had received Mr. Conover with open arms and then had to witness the spectacle of seeing the prayer book of Christ's church opened "for every one to root through." He did not favor joining hands with other sectarian churches. Others did and the recommendation of commendation was enthusiastically adopted after a warm debate. The matter of sending a diocesan delegate to the various parishes and of appointing a commission of ten for this work went over to the next convention.

An amusing question discussed was as to whether the diocese was "he, she or it." This matter came up in the shape of a resolution for a telegram of sympathy to be sent to the Washington diocese in the loss sustained by the death of Bishop Satterlee. The diocese was referred to as "her." Bishop Scarborough said this should read "it" and not "her." They were all males and he did not see how "her" came in. Others questioned the expression and the word of sympathy was not qualified by either "it" or "her." Later a second resolution was introduced in which "them" and "their" were used. This was in a telegram of greeting to the Pennsylvania diocese.

The report of the finance committee with respect to the new plan for levying assessments upon the respective parishes of the diocese to make up the fund for the Bishop's salary, held that the present system is unfair and distributes the burden unequally by providing that each parish shall be assessed a sum equivalent to 7 per cent. of the rector's salary for the Bishop's salary. Some parishes, it is alleged, took advantage of their right to give a bond based upon the rector's salary at the time the bond was given, thus fixing the 7 per cent. assessment at a permanently low figure, unchanged by subsequent increases in the rector's salary.

To effect a change it will be necessary to have 60 per cent. of the parishes approve the necessary change in the canon of the diocese covering that point. The new plan is simply to have the trustees of the Episcopal fund abrogate and surrender all the bonds held by them and permit the churches to abrogate the old bonds. Thereafter the Episcopal fund will be raised by a direct annual assessment based upon the amount paid the rector for salary, the amount of the assessment to be determined by the convention. The basis on which the assessment is figured will be changed annually, as rector's salaries are increased or diminished. It is believed a 5 per cent. assessment now will be sufficient.

When the report came up for consideration yesterday morning two amendments were presented with the report, to make the changes effective. These made the necessary changes in the constitution and the canon.

The outcome of all the discussion was to so amend the constitution that the change was approved, but the reform will not go into effect until the consent of the parishes has been obtained. The final vote on the change will be taken next year, when the matter of amending the canon will come up.

(Continued on page 5.)

—Dutch, New Years, White Hussars. ***

THIRD TRIAL NOW ON IN $10,000 DAMAGE SUIT

The third trial of Newton W. Chambers against the Public Service Corporation, began this morning in the Union County Court at Elizabeth. The action is for $10,000 damages claimed for alleged injuries sustained while riding on a trolley car in this city on December 29, 1905. Craig A. Marsh represents the plaintiff. The injuries which Mr. Chambers claims to have, were received it is alleged in getting off a car. The conductor, it is said, starting the trolley before the passengers reached the ground. Chambers was thrown and the fall is said to have made him permanently deaf.

At the first trial the plaintiff was given a verdict of $5,000, but this was set aside on a technicality. When the second trial was concluded the jury wanted to give him $5,000, but one member failed to agree and the body was discharged. The outcome of the third trial will be waited with more than ordinary interest.

PLAN A CHAUTAUQUA FOR COLORED PEOPLE

Plainfield is the birth-place of the Chautauqua movement, started and organized by bishop Vincent, which has become a popular and satisfactory system of education for the people in general. A valuable property for Chautauqua purposes has been offered The Bible Education Association of Camden, N. J., with branch offices at Philadelphia, Pa., and Washington, D. C. This property consists of 13 acres, with a frontage on the ocean of 700 feet; a hotel of 100 rooms, thoroughly furnished in every respect; a bathhouse of 80 rooms; a fine artesian well, which supplies the hotel; a spring which possesses medicinal properties; a trolley line extends through the property, with fine roads running in every direction; fishing and sailing in a bay and river nearby; a splendid community and all adjacent properties in first-class condition. This property is about two hours from New York City and Philadelphia.

The property is valued at $150,000 but is offered to the association for Chautauqua purposes for the colored people of the United States, for $50,000. The association has accepted the offer and has received already a donation of $11,000 on condition that the balance, $39,000, is raised. It is proposed to raise this amount immediately in order to get the benefit of this donation.

A Chautauqua has been maintained in Point Pleasant for 15 years, in a small but eminently helpful way, by some particular friends in Philadelphia assisted by the professors of Lincoln university. It is to be enlarged by the association and will be in session not less than two months in the summer * * * * * *, and shall consist of the regular work of a Chautauqua, with special attention given to a thorough course in the English Bible; special Normal training for public school teachers; first-class lecture and entertainment courses; special studies in Sociology, and a daily programme of religious services. The professors of Lincoln University, who have been assisting in such work, together with other universities and colleges, will make the Chautauqua programme equal to any in the country.

The following are some of the officers and friends of the association, who most heartily support and endorse the Chautauqua:

David James Burrell, D. D. LL. D., pastor Marble Collegiate church, New York;; Isaac N. Rendall, D. D., ex-President Lincoln University, Lincoln Uuniversity, Ja.; Floyd W. Tompkins, D. D., LL. D., rector Holy Trinity church, Philadelphia, Pa.; Daniel S. Gregory, D. D., LL. D., Secretary American Bible League, New York; Prof. Jesse Lawson, A. M., President National Sociological Association, Washington, D. C.; Prof. Kelley Miller, Howard University, Washington, D. C.; Hon Judson W. Lyons, former Registrar of Treasury, Augusta, Ga., Rev. George A. Marr, Swarthmore, Pa.; Rev. John W. Lee, D. D., pastor First African Presbyterian church, Philadelphia, Pa., and Mr. M. Balderston, 902 Spring Garden street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Local Entries in Steeplechase Meet.

An attractive card of races has been arranged by the Union County Hunt Association to be held at Elizabeth on Saturday. Entries have been made by Lewis E. Waring, W. H. Wildey, C. E. S. Bellows and Charles W. Fisk. Some of the best horses in the Metropolitan district will be entered in the various races.

—The olive oil sold by Neuman Brothers is imported by them from France. They guarante it to be the very best quality obtainable.

—Solo (The Sun) Rainbow Dance. ***

POSSES SEEK ASSAILANT

Negro Who Struck Down the Bussis Believed to Be in Hiding Nearby.

LOCAL POLICE AIDING SEARCH.

Aged Husband's Condition is Serious—Wife tells of the Intruder's Efforts to Get Money.

Though posses have been scouring the woods and fields in every direction, no trace has been discovered of the unknown negro who murderously assaulted Mr. and Mrs. John Bussi in their home at Mount Bethel, Tuesday night, afterward ransacking the house for money and jewelry. County Detective George Totten, of Somerville, is in charge of an organized effort to run the assailant down and he is being assisted by Chief Kiely, of the local police department, and Chief Marshal Weiss, of the borough. The impression prevails about Mount Bethel that the negro did not get far away and that he is in hiding in a barn or outbuilding somewhere in the vicinity. Today every structure within a radius of five miles will be thoroughly searched in the hope of finding him out.

Mrs. Bussi, who was the least injured of the two, still suffers from schock but her recovery will be rapid. Her husband did not fare so well and Dr. Bebout, of Stirling, was with him all day yesterday. He did not regain consciousness until twelve hours after he was hit on the head with a club and has since been in a high fever. The weapon inflicted a severe scalp wound from which blood flowed freely as he lay prostrate on the floor. The physician said today that he has hopes of bringing the patient around but it will take several weeks.

In telling of the assault to a Daily Press reporter, yesterday, Mrs. Bussi said that the negro rummaged the house from top to bottom in his effort to find money or valuables. After he had searched bureaus and closets he examined the clothing of both victims, even pulling off Mrs. Bussi's stockings in his effort to get money. The total of his loot amounted to $10.40, two gold watches and several small articles of jewelry. A small safe in the house, which contained a number of valuables and which was unlocked at the time, was not touched, the robber evidently believing that it would be useless to try and open it. He was in the house in all about two hours entering at 9 o'clock and leaving at 11.

After Mrs. Bussi had given a description of the fellow, at least twenty-five men came forward who told of having seen him on the Coontown road Tuesday afternoon. He seemed to be walking up and down without going any place in particular and it is now believed he was getting acquainted with the territory adjacent to the Bussi home in order to make a quick getaway if necessary after the crime had been committed. Mrs. Bussi stated to the reporter that she would recognize her assailant among 500 colored men as she studied his features carefully as she remained on the floor in a helpless condition.

HEPTASOPHS ENTERTAINED AT JOLLY LODGE SMOKER.

Excellent musical and comedy talent furnished the entertainment at a successful smoker at the Heptasoph's lodge rooms last night, when about forty members of the local protective conclave got together for an evening of jollity, acting as hosts for visiting Heptasophs from Newark, Montclair, Orange, Westfield and Rahway. The program, arranged by R. H. Barnard, chairman of the entertainment committee, included talent from Newark and New York city, as well as some piano selections by Harold Cook. The entertainers were John Inglis, comedian, William Kriegar, magician, Nat Baker, Hebrew comedian, and Silvester Minert, comedy pianist.

During the evening's smoke, there was speeches by J. V. E. Wanderhoef, V. W. Nash, Sr., and Mahlon Hall, of the Newark city conclave. It was reported that a dozen candidates are ready to be received into the local lodge. Late in the evening, refreshments were served. The committee in charge of the affair included Mr. Barnard, U. G. Uhler, E. S. Comschenck, E. L. VanCampen and Allen H. Vanderhoef.

Two Lectures at Hope Chapel.

Professor Julius E. Ward will give two illustrated lectures at Hope chapel, the first one Sunday night, at 7:45, on "The Passion Play," with 175 dissolving views, and the other one on Monday night at 8:15 o'clock on "Abraham Lincoln," with 200 dissolving views. Cards admitting persons to both lectures may be had from members of the chapel.

—Kirmess Dances, Thursday, May 14. ***

WAISTS—The most extensive and finest line of the best waists are shown here, including the new Tailored Waist, with just a little coloring. We would be pleased to have you see them.

H. E. Force and Co.

We Give "S. H." "THE WHITE STORE" THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY Green Trading Stamps

The Ladies' Home Journal Patterns are the highest and most economical pattern in this country today, and are backed by millions of progressive women in every part of the United States. Prices 10c and 15c.

Dependable merchandise that has the unqualified endorsement of the "White Store." Our aim always is, to give our patrons the newest, best and most seasonable merchandise that can be found, at the very lowest prices.

DOMESTIC DEPARTMENT.

SPECIALS THIS WEEK.

7c Bleached Twilled Toweling for 5

8c Stevens Brown All-Linen Toweling for 6

10c 6-4 Cambric Finished Bleached Muslin for 5

$1.00 quality 72-inch Beached All-Linen Satin finish Table Damask at ..... .79

$3.00 quality ¾ size Napkins to match at $2.50

75c finest quality Imported Mercerized full bleached Satin Table Damask for ..... .65

DRESS GOODS.

Batiste and Nun's Veiling in all the new spring shades, fine and smooth cloth, good, special value at ..... .50

SILKS—Another lot of the silks we offered last week, beautiful materials, stripes and checks, 75c value for ..... .59

WHITE GOODS.

PERSIAN LAWN—45 inches wide, fine and sheer, extra value for ..... .25

EMBROIDERED BATISTE—In a variety of different size dots; the very latest; specially priced ..... .25

ALL OVER EMBROIDERY—On Swiss Lawn and Cambric, small figures and stripes; $1.39 to $1.50 value, for ... .89

LADIES' TAILORED SUITS.

If you contemplate buying a new suit for Spring and Summer, now is the time and the White Store the place. Never have we offered such remarkable bargain values. Come this week. We have a few of the bargains offered last week. Suits from $5.98 up to $30

MILLINERY.

We like to keep before your mind the fact that we are equipped to supply your wants in the Millinery line with everything that a lady wants in Millinery. We aid you in every possible manner in your selection, and do so conscienciously, realizing that serving you well means a continuation of your patronage.

STEAMER TRUNKS.

We are showing a splendid line of new Trunks, the kind we know that is entirely dependable, strongly built of best materials, brass trimmings, good strong locks, neatly finished; prices $9.50 to $4.25

REFRIGERATORS.

Two of the best makes in the country, made of seasoned ash lumber, with solid bronze trimmings, galzanized iron shelves, drip pipe, etc.; prices $18.98 to $9.49

PORCH CHAIRS.

Strait back Porch Chairs that were sold regularly for $1.69; we will close the lot this week at, each $1.19

DRESS SUIT CASES and BAGS

Fine Dress Suit Cases in imitation leather, leather and fibre; strong and durable; trimmed with brass buckles, belts, corners reinforced with leather covers; prices range from $9.50 to $1

BAGS—An excellent assortment of traveling bags; various kinds; sizes and colors, in fact sizes to meet all requirements; prices range from $6.50 to ..... .79

LAWN MOWERS—A new stock of the best kind of lawn mowers.

12 inch $2.98
14 inch $3.49
16 inch $3.98

SCREEN DOORS — Fancy Screen Doors from $1.25 up to $1.49

Plain Doors, in all sizes, at ..... .98

WINDOW SCREENS—The kind that you can adjust; prices 22c to .45

BAMBOO SCREENS—Sizes 6x8 to 8x10, prices 85c to $1.49

WIRE NETTING—Sizes 18 to 42 inch; prices, yard, 9c to ..... .21

SEEDS—Canna and Dalhia Bulbs, splendid varieties; special value at, per dozen ..... .50

Corner Market and Halsey Streets, Newark.

King's

LEADING AMERICAN CLOTHIERS

Corner Market and Halsey Streets, Newark.

SALE STARTS SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 9, AT 9 O'CLOCK.

4 Wholesale Clothiers' Entire Stock to Be Sold by Us at ½ MANUFACTURERS' COST.

This Is by Far the Most Sensational and Important Clothing Announcement Made in Newark in Years.

$114,000 Worth of Elegant, New, Stylish Clothing for Men and Boys at ½ and Less.

During the past two weeks four large clothing manufacturers came to us seeking a quick outlet for their immense surplus stocks for ready cash. We offered them less than half the usual manufacturer's prices, and they refused positively to accept our ridiculously low offer until last Tuesday at 4 p. m., when a conference of all four makers was held at our Twenty-third Street Store, New York, and

The Four Manufacturers Came to Our Terms.

This grand total of Men's and Boys' Spring and Summer Suits and Topcoats should have been disposed of by the wholesalers around the Easter holidays, but on account of the Cold April and extremely unseasonable weather the makers have been unable to move their stocks.

That's why they accepted our unprecedently low offer and are willing to take heavy losses in order to move their stocks and get ready cash at once. The goods must be sold at any price, and KING'S Newark Store, corner Market and Halsey streets, will be the distributing point.

SALE STARTS SATURDAY, AT 9 A. M.

There are 5,800 Men's Spring and Summer Suits, 1,900 Spring Overcoats and Topcoats, 948 Cravenettes and Raincoats, 3,100 pairs of Men's Trousers, 2,068 Young Men's Suits, 1,195 Children's Suits with Knickerbocker Pants, 1,940 Men's Blue Serge Suits, 1,400 Elegant Brown Strictly Hand Tailored Suits, and many other styles and patterns.

FIFTY CENTS ON THE DOLLAR.

The savings are simply wonderful. It is necessary to see the clothing, try it on and note its excellence, and the value will become apparent and no printed argument will be needed. It is the most wonderful clothing opportunity presented in Newark for years, and one that cannot be repeated this season.

Men's Sack Suits

Retail Price.	Spring and Summer Weight.	Sale Price.
$12.00	Fancy Cheviot Suits	5.90
$12.00	Black Thibet Suits	5.90
$15.00	Blue Serge Suits	7.90
$15.00	Fine Worsted Suits	7.90
$20.00	Stylish Brown Suits	9.80
$20.00	High Tone Gray Suits	9.80
$20.00	Clay Diagonal Suits	9.80
$25.00	Brown Hand Tailored Suits	12.50
$25.00	Silk Lined Suits	12.50
$32.00	Imported Worsted Suits	16.00
$38.00	Custom Made Suits	18.00
$45.00	Pencil Stripe and Check Suits	20.00

Men's Topcoats

Retail Price.	Box and ¾ Length.	Sale Price.
$10.00	Tan Top Coats	5.00
$12.00	Oxford Top Coats	5.90
$15.00	Black Top Coats	6.75
$18.00	Tan Covert Top Coats	7.90
$18.00	Brown Top Coats, new effects	8.50
$22.00	Stripe Overcoats, silk lined	10.80
$25.00	Hand-finished Top Coats	12.50

Men's Trousers

Retail Price.	32 to 50 Waist.	Sale Price.
$3.00	Cassimere Pants, striped, plain	1.45
$3.50	Black and Blue Serge Pants	1.75
$4.50	Neat Stripe Pants, worsteds	2.15
$5.50	Imported Thibets and Worsted Pants	2.65
$7.00 & $8.00	Stylish Hand Tailored Pants	3.50

Young Men's Suits

Retail Price.	15 to 12 Years.	Sale Price.
$10.00	Fancy Gray Suits	4.90
$10.00	Black Thibet Suits	4.90
$14.00	Blue Serge Suits	6.75
$14.00	Stylish Crown Suits	6.90
$16.00	Imported Worsted Suits	7.80
$16.00	High Grade Blue Serge Suits	7.80
$20.00	Elegant Styles Neat Stripe Suits	9.50
$20.00	Hand Tailored Suits	9.50
$25.00	Finest Imported Worsted Suits	12.50
$25.00	Well Known H. & M. K. Made Suits	12.50

Boys' Suits

Retail Price.	Sizes 6 to 17.	Sale Price.
$3.00	Fancy Cheviot Suits	1.45
$3.50	Fancy Cassimeres and Worsted Suits	1.69
$4.00	Gray Suits, with Knickerbocker Pants	1.95
$6.00	Blue Serge Suits	2.85
$7.00 and $8.00	High Grade Suits	3.65
$10.00 and $12.00	Imp. Blue Serge Suits	4.75

Knee Pants

Retail Price.	Sizes 5 to 17.	Sale Price.
85c	Plain and Fancy Pattern Pants	39c
$1.00	Strong Cassimere Pants	45c
$1.25	Knickerbocker Pants	60c
$1.75	Best Make Pants	79c

Men's Fancy Vests

Retail Price.	Sizes 34 to 46.	Sale Price.
$2.00	Fancy Vests	85c
$3.00	Neat Stripe and Check Vests	1.45
$3.50	Styles 3 or 4 Button Vests	1.69
$4.00 and $5	Fancy Brown and Olive Vests	2.25

In order that customers living out of town can attend this sale, we pay railroad fare within fifty miles. Show your return ticket at the cashier's desk.

Cor. Market and Halsey Streets, NEWARK, N. J.

King's

Cor. Market and Halsey Streets, NEWARK, N. J.

OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS UNTIL 11 O'CLOCK.

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c. a week.

CITY.

Union News Co. ..... R. R. Station
J. M. Harper ..... 411 Park Ave.
B. A. Laing ..... 149 W. Front St.
A. D. Mallinson .. Fourth and Liberty Sts.
Trolley Waiting Room .... Watchung Ave.
M. Estil ..... 111 Park Ave.
Debele & Stahl ..... 112 Somerset St.
Blaney & Son ..... 331 Watchung Ave.
T. A. Garthwaite ..... 212 Watchung Ave.
A. Anderson ..... 657 West Fourth St.
John Mottley .. Cor. E. 3d & Richmond Sts

SUBURBAN.

Dunellen ..... B. Siriski
New Market ..... R. Burdick
Bound Brook ..... Union News Co.
Bound Brook ..... L. M. Davis
Somerville ..... Jacob Genert
Westfield .... C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield ..... J. W. Wall
Scotch Plains ..... Chas. Elliott
South Plainfield ..... Victor Attlee
Fanwood ..... Chas. Elliott
Netherwood ..... Blaney & Son

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS

BOUND BROOK AND VICINITY.

The contents of one of the kitchens of the Lincoln Waterproof Cloth Company of Lincoln, were destroyed by fire yesterday. A kettle containing a compound with which the cloth is saturated became overheated and caught fire. The fire department at the plant kept the fire under control by throwing sand over the burning fluid. The woodwork on the building was destroyed, but the walls, floors and roof are built of concrete and were not damaged.

Wilber Van Nest, of Newark, was lately a guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Nest, at Mountain and Union avenues, Bound Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter R. Hall recently entertained William W. Kimball, of New York, at their home in Raritan avenue, New Bound Brook

Silas D. Drake, who was stricken with paralysis Saturday night at his home in Union avenue, Beachwood Heights, is slowly recovering.

Mrs. Henry Cowins, of Prospect and Elizabeth streets, South Bound Brook, spent yesterday with relatives in New York.

Miss Anna Carroll, of Canal street, South Bound Brook, has returned from a visit to relatives in Philadelphia.

NORTH BRANCH.

Rev. B. V. D. Wyckoff, pastor of the Reformed church at Readington, will lecture next Sunday afternoon in the school-house at Centreville.

Mrs. George W. Field has returned to her home at North Branch Depot after a visit to relatives in Morristown.

Mrs. Vonness, of Raritan, was a recent guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Haver, in North Branch.

John Stryker, of New York, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Edward L. Blaufuss, in North Branch.

Redding Clawson, of North Branch, has returned home from a visit to friends in Elizabeth.

Mr. and Mrs. William Van Doren, of Readington, are visiting relatives in New Brunswick.

WESTFIELD.

The trouble in the building trades at Westfield has been settled amicably and the employers have decided not to declare "open shop." Only union men are being employed in all departments.

The wedding of Miss Anna Anderson and Carl Norloff, Jr., will take place at the home of the bride's parents in Prospect street, Westfield, Friday evening.

Westfield is to have a new town hall. An ordinance to purchase the Gale clubhouse grounds at $8,000 was passed at the last meeting of the Council.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Through the efforts of Township Collector W. B. Lane and members of the Township Board of Education, the comedy "In the Fog" will be presented at the New Market school next Tuesday night. The cast of Bound Brook people will be the same as gave the presentation so successfully there a short time ago. The proceeds of the entertainment will go toward the piano fund of the school, which is all paid up now except about $110.

Catcher Ben Dodwell, of the P. H. S. nine, who has been declared illegible for play because he is below grade in curriculum work, will probably be able to make up his work before the next game, so that he can again be behind the bat. John Dutsher, rightfielder, who was disqualified several weeks ago, will also tutor up and take an examination, so that he may resume his playing in left field.

Raymond and John Dutcher and Miss Marjorie Harris are members of the cast of "She Stoops to Conquer," to be given by the Plainfield High School at the New Plainfield theatre Saturday night. The dress rehearsal is to be held at the theatre tonight. There has been a good sale of the tickets in Dunellen.

Members of the Saturday Night Club have secured the use of the grounds of "Brookview" for a tennis court this season. The next meeting of the club will be at "Brookview," where Mr. and Mrs. James A. Coffey will entertain the members this week.

Plead to Murder Charges.

New Brunswick, May 7.—Justice Bergen heard the pleas of five men in two murder cases yesterday. Tony Giorgino, indicted on a charge of shooting and killing Nicholo Nuzzi, of Cliffwood; on March 15, in a quarrel over Giorgino's attentions to Nuzzi's daughter, pleaded not guilty. His trial was set down for May 12. John Balog, George Vilogus, Alex Marjoras and Joseph Chesney, indicted on a charge of killing Michael Lavo, March 17, in a street brawl, pleaded not guilty. They will be tried on Monday, May 11.

Reproved, She Takes Poision.

Trenton, May 7.—Mrs. Rosetta McElroy, married seven years ago at the age of 16 years, is in a critical condition in St. Francis's Hospital as the result of taking bichloride of mercury tablets because her husband reproved her for being away from home late in the evening. The couple quarreled over the incident and an hour later the woman's two little children found her seriously ill. Doctors fear that she will not recover.

Mrs. George Dufford, of West Front street, has returned from a visit with relatives at German Valley.

"THE OLD RELIABLE HOME FURNISHERS"

EST. 1860 COWPERTHWAIT AND VAN HORN CO. INC. 1907

73 MARKET STREET. NEAR PLANE ST., NEWARK, N.J.

(B)

"Spring"—time Suggests NEW Floor Coverings

—and we suggest "No. 73" as the place to get them, provided quality that's sure, and a price that's right, appeals to your taste and purse!

Only weaves that stand our warrant ever get inside our store—here's an "Inducement Sale" to start Spring season's trade!

TAPESTRY BRUSSELS CARPETS

85c. grade at 64c. Yd. | $1.00 grade at 75c. Yd. | $1.20 grade at 90c. Yd.

MADE, LAID AND LINED FREE!

HEAVY CHINESE MATTING
Just in—Regular $18 grade
$14.50 roll of 40 yds.
Many other grades and prices

FANCY JAPANESE MATTING
Cotton Warp Regular $16 grade
$13.25 roll of 40 yds.
Broad choice of various other weaves

Best Grade "A No. 1"

Oil Cloth at 45c. Yd. [Reg. 60c.]

Over half a hundred kinds of oil cloth—all new and effective! Ask to see our line of Linoleums—especially the new imported line in carpet patterns—we're sole agents.

Sole Headquarters For
"The Portland Range," "Gunn Sectional Bookcases"
The Acme Washing Machine, "White" Sewing Machine

LOWEST PRICES—EASY CREDIT

—CAMERAS—
KODAKS AND PHOTOGRAPHIC SUPPLIES
DEVELOPING, PRINTING AND ENLARGING
Bring Your Films in One Day and Get Your Pictures the Next.
"THE PHOTO STORE," 129 NORTH AVENUE.
FORMERLY VAN WINKLE'S.

"HARD TIMES" DO NOT EFFECT THE SALE OF
"HAWES" $3.00 HATS
WHY?—BECAUSE THEY ARE GUARANTEED
JAS. R. BLAIR

SUMMIT CARPENTERS DECIDE AGAINST STRIKE.

Summit, May 7.—At the meeting of the union journeymen carpenters last night, it was decided to continue work without any agreement with the master builders.

The latter had declined to sign an agreement similar to the one under which the men had worked during the year from May 1, 1907, to May 1, 1908, and a number of the members of the union at last night's meeting favored a strike rather than work without an agreement, as they argued that the abolition of an agreement meant an open shop.

The bosses informed a committee from the union last night that there would be no cut in the present wage scale of $3.60 per day for the present, at least, nor would there be any changes in the working conditions, unless the open shop system in Newark affected the building trade here.

Somerset Council, No. 102, Jr. O. U. A. M., will meet tomrorow night. After the business there will be a social hour.

Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., will meet Tuesday night at Reform Hall to further complete arrangements for Memorial Day. The Post, Women's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans will attend divine services at St. Stephen's church Sunday night, May 24, when Rev. A. S. Peck will preach the sermon.

TEPPERS

109-111-113 WEST FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

AGENTS FOR STANDARD PATTERNS

EMBROIDERED BATISTE

Value 29c at 18c yard

These rich embroidered mercerized Batistes, white as snow, soft and lustrious, make beautiful Princess dresses. We selected a small lot under value and place these on sale, regular value 29c at, a yard - - 18c

Sale Worsted Suitings

50c values at 29c yard

We place on sale 15 pieces Dress Goods, the popular Worsted Suitings in checks, plaids and stripes, the popular spring shades, for suits, skirts and Jumper dresses, 36 inches wide, regular value 50c, on sale at, yard - - - - - - - - - 29c

44 inch all wool Cream Serge, splendid weight at, yard - - - - 75c

25c and 29c Silk Braids, yd. 19c

New Persian Silk Braid Trimming, in a wide range of styles, regular value 25c and 29c, on sale at, yard 19c

40 inch Figured Fillet Net, white and ecru, 69c value at, yard - - - 50c

42 inch Plain Arabian Fillet Net, 75c value at, yard - - - - - - - 69c

Fine Mesh Dress Nets, full 2 yards wide, white and Arabian, $1.00 value at, yard, - - - - - - - 79c

Phaeton Seamless Collar Foundation, regular price 15c, at, - - - 10c

SALE PEARL BUTTONS

At 10c a Dozen

500 dozen Fine Pearl Dress Buttons in assorted styles and sizes, flat and bullet styles. two and four holes, regular values, 12½c, 15c, 17c, and 19c a dozen, take your pick of these 500 dozen while they last at, doz. 10c

We do not break dozen lots

Sale Ladies' Handkerchiefs

300 dozen of the best 5c Handkerchiefs in town, at 36c dozen or for half dozen - - - - - - - 18c

Nemo WEEK

This Week! The Great Corset Event of the Season!

It's our Spring Exposition of the famous NEMO CORSETS.

The time of all times to select a corset that will not only bring out the best lines of your figure, but will assure you the utmost comfort.

The word "Nemo" on a corset means correct style and long wear; and of course you know that the Nemo Corset is "the only corset that is more than a corset—the only one that does something for you that no other corset can do."

New models for slender figures—the "Willow-Shape," and the wonderful "Back-Resting" Corset. And the famous "Self-Reducing," with the new "Flatning-Back," has no rival—and never had.

Come and be fitted—our expert corsetieres will see that you get genuine Nemo Corset comfort.

105 AND 107 Market Street, NEWARK

E. A. KIRCH & CO.

WHAT WE SAY IS SO

105 AND 107 Market Street, NEWARK

Removal Sale With Prices That Are the Marvel of All Buyers!

Everything has been reduced so low it will need no argument. Come here and see for yourself. Only a little while and we will be in

Our New Building, 77-79 Market St., Which We Will Occupy Entirely.

Collapsible Go-Cart

Like cut. Regular price $5.50. Sale price 2.98

If hood is wanted add $1.50.

DINING TABLES

Like cut. 42 inch top, golden oak, nicely polished heavy claw feet. Regular price $12.75.

Sale Price 8.62 Sale Price 8.62

Regular $15 kind now..... 11.25
Regular $20 kind now..... 15.00
Regular $25 kind now..... 18.75
Regular $30 kind now..... 22.50

HOODED CARRIAGE

Like cut. Regular price $20. Reed hood lined with English Repp. Tubular pushers. Cushion tires. Sale price 12.50

Refrigerators

Like cut. Solid oak, very best construction, size 44x17x28½, reg. price $6.98. Sale price 4.25

Parlor Suits--Like Cut.

3 piece, piano finished mahogany, upholstered in best quality silk plush, loose cushions. Always sold at $60.00.

32.90

Rattan Rocker

Like cut. Shellacked or Empire finish, regular price $4, while they last..... 1.98

Rugs, Carpets, Linoleums, Oilcloths, Mattings,

¼ Off Regular Prices.

Your Purchases May Be Charged.

Sliding Couch

Like cut. Two distinct couches. Can be used, when placed side by side, as a fullsized bed, regular price $8.50. 2 mattresses, 2 bolsters..... 4.25

Couches--Like Cut.

Frame polished oak, upholstered in green or red velour or chase leather, nicely tufted, 30 in. wide, open spring construction, regular $14.. 9.50

A big line to choose from at from 8.98 to 65.00.

SPORTS HERE AND THERE

GOLF.

There will be continuation of play for the Spring Handicap cups, Classes A and B at the Plainfield Country Club, Saturday. At the opening play for these cups there was a spirited rivalry and judging by the low scores returned then a majority of the players are in good form and will undoubtedly lower some of the records at the club this season.

Dudley H. Barrows returned a 78 net, which is considered exceedingly good for this time of the year. This indicates that he intends to make a strong bid for club honors this season. He will not be lonesome, however, as several other players are close on his trail.

Women had undisputed possession of the Baltusrol Golf Club Tuesday. They were there for the first one-day tournament of the season open to the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association, and the occasion was marked by a general revival of enthusiasm.

The competitive part of the program consisted of an eighteen-hole handicap against bogie, and the winner proved to be Miss Julia R. Mix, of Englewood. The latter received a handicap of one stroke and finished 4 down. Mrs. N. Pendleton Rogers, of the home club, won second prize, finishing 7 down. Her allowance was two strokes.

The best medal scores of the day were made by Miss Mix and Mrs. Rogers, both returning 96. The former won the North and South women's championships title at Pinehurst last winter. Miss Georgianna Bishop, of Brooklawn, the Metropolitan Golf Association champion, competed yesterday from scratch and finished 12 down. A rather difficult women's bogie of 86 had been arranged, and, considering the lack of practice, the contestants did unusually well.

BASEBALL.

Fred Carisch has reconsidered his decision to quit baseball and has accepted the terms offered him by Manager Stallings to play with Newark, and the big catcher will report to the Indians next Monday at Buffalo Carisch, who caught for Rochester in 1906, was turned over to Newark in the following winter by the Philadelphia Athletics, but he refused to report there last season. Before joining the Broncos Carisch was with the Pittsburg Nationals, and he was afterward drafted by Connie Mack from Rochester.

Carisch lives in California, and is engaged in the wholesale bottling business, which he secured control of early last season, following the death of his brother. Since then Carisch maintained that he would devote all of his time to business and not play professionally again. Stallings, who is an admirer of Carisch's ability as a catcher, had been dickering with the player ever since he purchased the Newark club, but it was not until late last night that the "Big Chief" received word from Carisch that he would report Monday at Buffalo.

Sammy McLean, the Rochester twirler, who hails from Glastonbury, Conn., is one of the little tobacco kings of the Nutmeg State. When McLean's diamond days are over he expects to settle down and devote his whole time to the cultivation of the weed. After the close of last season's campaign McLean purchased a fifteen acre plot of ground, three acres of which will be reserved for tobacco cultivation, while the rest of the land will be taken up with potatoes. After this year, McLean says, the whole plot will be confined to tobacco raising. While McLean's father has been a tobacco planter all his life and McLean Jr. has just entered the business, the latter doesn't smoke nor has he ever used the weed in any form.

McLean is one of the few baseball twirlers who is not affected by the new rule adopted last winter which prohibits pitchers from soiling the ball before delivering it to the batter. McLean said he never "got the habit" of rubbing a new ball on the grass or in the dirt, so the new rule is no hardship to him. "I always thought a rule to prevent roughing the ball would be made sooner or later, so I avoided the practice."

McLean began his professional career with the Bristol team of the Connecticut League seven years ago, and in 1903 he joined the Broncos. He was a classmate of Doc Moriarity, the former Newark pitcher, while a student in the Connecticut State College.

NEW JERSEY CORPORATIONS.

Trenton, May 7.—Certificates of incorporation have been granted to the following companies:

Empire Lead Company, Newark; capital, $300,000; incorporators, Jay E. Whiting, Willard A. Jessup and Charles A. Leggatt; to mine mineral lands, etc.

The Intercity Amusement Company, Newark; capital, $100,000; incorporators, Simon Schiff, George O. Dufour and Martin Schiff; to conduct theatres, amusement halls, etc.

South Jersey Seed Company, Camden; capital, $10,000; incorporators, John A. Ballenger, George H. Horner and Oscar B. Redrow; to deal in seeds, etc.

Sterling Vehicle Company, Jersey City; capital, $300,000; incorporators, H. O. Coughlan, B. S. Mantz and L. H. Gunther; to manufacture and deal in automobiles.

Zacharias Garage Company, Asbury Park; capital, $100,000; incorporators, Charles R. Zacharais, Leonard Hutis and Frank C. Martin; to store automobiles.

Alverz Mining and Milling Company, Jersey City; capital, $5,000; incorporators, H. O. Coughlin, John R. Turner and Robert R. Thein; to mine, mill, etc.

Keswick Grove Land and Improvement Company, Camden; capital, $125,000; incorporators, F. R. Hansell, William F. Bedell and John A. MacPeak; to deal in real estate.

Fibre-Covered Bottle Company, Plainfield; capital, $100,000; incorporators, Jacob Kerkerer, John W. Kerkerer and Will P. Catlin; to manufacture fibre-covered demijohns.

Marinello System Branch No. 1, Camden; capital, $25,000; incorporators, F. R. Hansell, George H. B. Martin and John A. MacPeak; to maintain laundry establishments.

Monmouth Park Villa Site, township of Eatontown, Monmouth County; capital, $125,000; incorporators, Melvin R. VanKewen, Jr., Walter C. VanKewen and Lucien O. Appleby; to deal in real estate.

Equitable Securities Company, Passaic; capital, $100,000; incorporators, H. M. Browne, F. W. Mills and A. H. Nelson; to deal in stocks, bonds, etc.

C. A. Foster Company, Newark; capital, $25,000; incorporators, L. J. Foster, William A. Jones and Edward F. Casebolt; to deal in paints.

EIGHTEEN-YEAR-OLD BRIDE KILLS HERSELF.

West Hoboken, May 7.—Because her parents would not speak to her, Mrs. Anna Priore, eighteen years old, a bride of five weeks, committed suicide yesterday. She married with the consent of her parents and the young couple went to live with them.

Within the past few days for some reason her parents adopted an attitude of silence. They would not speak to her or answer her question and in desperation she drank carbolic acid and died alone in her room. County Physician Converse gave a burial permit.

$15,000 for Charity.

Trenton, May 7.—A total of nearly $15,000 was netted for the three hospitals of the city at the big charity ball and fair just held in the Trenton Armory by the society folk, headed by Quartermaster-General C. Edward Murray, of the New Jersey National Guard.

LAWN MOWERS

Sharpened and Repaired

Having Installed Electric Power and Improved Grinding Machinery I Can Insure Prompt and Satisfactory Work.

A. M. GRIFFEN,

119-123 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

'PHONES 6 and 214

Rich Milk 8c a quart.
Rich Cream 12c half pt.
Buttermilk 6c a quart

Plainfield Milk & Cream Co,

MARCHANT BROS.,

112 WATCHUNG AVENUE

PLAINFIELD OFFICE

EISELE & KING

Members of the New York and Philadelphia Stock Exchanges

In the Babcock Building, West Front St.

Private wires East and West. Ticker service. Orders executed as rapidly as in any New York office

W. De LaR. ANDERSON, Manager.

JACK HORNER

26 SOMERSET ST TEL. 869-W.

Pierce, Cleveland, Crawford and Arrow Bicycles. Renting, Repairing and Sundries Vulcanizing a specialty. Baby Carriages Repaired and Retired. Work called for and delivered.

HAHNE & CO.

IMPORTERS · NEWARK'S STORE BEAUTIFUL BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STREETS · RETAILERS

A Gigantic Purchase and Important Sale of FINE RIBBONS

Due to our ability to handle large lots of goods, a prominent importer and manufacturer of fine ribbons came to us with a proposition that would enable him to convert his stock into cash, and we were able to accept his proposition, pay him the needed cash for his stock, and now we are prepared to conduct one of the biggest and best ribbon sales Newark has ever known.

The price at which we secured these ribbons bore no semblance to their value, so the selling prices will be most sensational. Included are Plain Taffetas, Messalines, French Faille.

Moire, Satin, Dresden.

Warp Print and other weaves.

All this season's most fashionable colors, combinations and patterns are included, and there are ribbons suitable alike for millinery, dress trimming, sashes, hair bows and general fancy work.

LOT 1—Taffeta, Messaline and French Faille Ribbons; 4½ to 6 inches wide; regular values 39c to 55c; special priced for this event, only ..... .19

LOT 2—Taffeta, Messaline, French Faille, Moire and Satin Ribbons; 6 to 7½ inches wide; regular values 65c to $1.25 a yard; in this sale at only..... .29

LOT 3—Fine Dresden Ribbons; 5 inches wide; elegantly Warp Prints, new floral patterns with satin and colored edges; regularly 45c a yard; in this sale at only..... .19

LOOM ENDS AND REMNANTS OF RIBBONS.

Probably 10,000 yards of these short lengths of Plain and Fancy Ribbons; many colors; printings and weaves; widths 4 to 6 inches; regular values 35c to $1.00 a yard; your choice of the lot, while they last at only..... .17

Edwin C. Burt

Shoes $4. Ties $3.50

The product of the Edwin C. Burt factories is known far and wide as of the highest class, and we are proud to be the sole sellers of these shoes in Newark and vicinity.

Each season shows better ones.

Each season the shoes look sleeker than ever.

There have never been so many styles as are shown this season, all of them ultra fashionable; in many ways far in advance of other lines.

Both Shoes and Ties in the Burt make are equally desirable. This season's Ties are particularly pretty. There are the Gibson and Sailor Ties, two eyelet effects, and numerous others, all good, and we have them in patent coltskin, glace kid, tan Russia calf and soft golden brown kid; turned and welted soles; various toe shapes and heights of heel to choose from.

Shoes are $4; Ties are $3.50.

Children's Shoes

Boys' Shoes of Smooth Satin Calf; full kid tops, substantial soles; tipped toes; sizes 1 to 5½, at $1.50

Women's Low Shoes in both tan and black; plain and tipped toes; comfortable shapes; here in a variety of grades and such low prices as $1.98, $2.25 and..... $2.50

Little Men's Shoes of velour calf; broad toe shapes with tips; low mannish heels; stout soles; sizes from 10 to 13½, tomorrow at $1.25

Misses' and Children's Shoes of soft tan vici kid as well as black vici; button styles; full round toe shapes with tips; nice, dressy shoes; sizes 7 to 11, at $1.35; 11½ to 2, at..... $1.69

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.

105 North Avenue. Telephone 61

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S and Canada.

The Daily Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change the same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

Plainfield, N. J., May 7, 1908.

May 7 In History.

1873—Salmon Portland Chase, American statesman, died; born 1808.

1897—Henri d'Orleans, duc d'Aumale, fourth son of King Louis Philippe, died; born 1822.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

Sun sets 6:58, rises 4:46; moon sets 1:19 a. m.; 6:15 a. m., moon at first quarter; 1 p. m., planet Mercury at superior conjunction with the sun, passing that body from west to east and thus becoming evening star; 3 p. m., planet Mercury at ascending node, crossing sun's path upward; 12:48 a. m., moon at apogee, farthest from earth.

VOTE TO SECEDE.

New Jersey Foresters Decide to Cut Loose From Canada.

Elizabeth, May 7.—Representatives of sixteen New Jersey courts of the Independent Order of Foresters assembled at the home of Joseph J. Ogden, 173 Madison avenue, last night, and passed resolutions advocating secession from Canadian jurisdiction; the abolition of the high court of the State, and registering their vehement opposition to the proposed raise in the rates of the order. The resolutions were adopted only after a heated discussion, in which the high officers of the order were warmly criticized.

The meeting was the culmination of agitation carried on here for some weeks to start a national movement looking to secession when the annual convention is held in Toronto next month. Chief Ranger Newsone, at a meeting last week, appointed one representative from all the principal courts in North Jersey outside of Essex County on a committee to draw up resolutions. The resolutions declare that it is for the best interests of the order and the better protection of its moneys and welfare that the funds be transferred from Canadian soil and the order established under American jurisdiction, so that "no longer shall a foreign flag float above us, but the Stars and Stripes of our own great country."

There are one-third more Foresters in the United States than Canada, so that the movement for secession may be successful. The lodges represented at last night's meeting have a membership, it is said, of nearly 10,000.

BOY BURGLARS CAUGHT.

They Had Been Surprised in Two Previous Attempts.

Passaic, May 7.—Three boys, the youngest 7 years old and the oldest 14, were caught breaking into the confectionary store of Philip Suskind, 157 Second street, at 4 o'clock yesterday morning, and were arrested by policemen, who surprised them previously while they were breaking into the hardware store of A. Steinberg & Son, and the drug store of Alexander Kuenstlich, both of Second street. In both of the latter instances the boys escaped.

The boys said they were Ulik Pincuski, Frank Fisher and Walter Henry. All live in the foreign quarter, and they confess to prepetrating several robberies near their homes within the last month. Their method has been to break the fan light and crawl through. They were held for the Juvenile Court. Pincuski was without hat, coat, shoes or stockings.

Women Conduct Revival.

Trenton, May 7.—A revival service conducted entirely by women was one of the novelties of the city last night. The service was held at Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, of which the Rev. Charles H. Elder, Trenton's famous "marrying parson," is the pastor. Miss A. A. Williams led the meeting, preaching the sermon, doing most of the praying and conducting the personal work among the attendants. She was assisted by other women of the congregation.

Headquarters for

John Gibson's

RYE.

E. C. Westcott, Agent.

115 East Front Street.

HORSE SHOW PRIZE LIST

(Continued from page 1.)

to be any height, to be shown before coach, drag or break. First prize, $75; second, $25.

The T. W. Lawson Challenge Cup.

Class 22—For the best pair of horses for a Demi-Mail or Stanhope phaeton, to be judged by their qualifications for the work designated. Dealers and professional drivers barred. First prize, cup, valued at $250; second, reserve ribbon. Won 1907 by Avondale Farm's "Lord Burleigh" and "Lord Brook."

"The Official Horse Show Blue Book" Challenge Cup.

Class 23—Horse 15.2 hands or over, to be shown in single harness to a two or four-wheeled appropriate vehicle. First prize, cup, value $250; second, reserve ribbon. Won in 1907 by Reginald C. Vanderbilt's "Dr. Selwonk."

The Plainfield Riding and Driving Club Challenge Cup.

Class 24—Horse under 15.2 hands, to be shown in single harness to a two or four-wheel appropriate vehicle. First prize, cup, value $250; second, reserve ribbon.

Combination Harness and Saddle Horses.

Class 25—Horse, suitable for harness and saddle purposes. Horses best suited for both harness and saddle to be awarded the prizes, but the winner not to be eligible for the saddle championship class 37. First prize, $50; second, $15.

Ponies in Harness.

Class 26—Pony, 13.3 hands and under. First prize, $25; second, $10. Class 27—Pony, over 13.3 hands and under 14.2. First prize, $25; second, $10.

Victoria Classes.

Class 28—Mares or geldings, not under 15.1 hands, to be shown before lady's single horse Victoria. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 29—Pair of mares or geldings, to be shown before a Victoria. First prize, $50; second, $15.

Saddle Horses.

Class 30—Horse 14.2 hands and not exceeding 15.2 hands. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 31—Horse over 15.2 hands. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 33—Horse over 15 hands up to carrying 200 pounds. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 33—Ladies' saddle horse, 15.1 hands or under, lady to ride. First prize, $50; second, 15. Class 34—Ladies' saddle horse, over 15.1 hands, ladies to ride. First prize, $50; second, $15.

Novice Saddle Classes.

Class 35—Horse 15.1 hands or under. First prize, $50; second, 15. Class 36—Horse over 15.1 hands. First prize, $50; second, $15.

Champion Saddle Class.

Class 38—Pony 13.3 hands and under. First prize, $25; second, $15. Class 39—Pony over 13.3 hands and under 14.2. First prize, $25; second, $10.

Hunters and Jumpers.

Class 40—Qualified hunters (light weight) up to carrying 165 pounds to hounds. Horses entered in this class are not eligible for class 36. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 41—Qualified hunters (heavy and middle weight) up to carrying 190 pounds to hounds. Horses in this class are not eligible for class 35. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 42—Ladies' hunter (qualified or green) up to carrying 165 pounds to hounds. First prize, $50; second, $15. Class 43—Corinthian Class, open to all hunters. Horses must be ridden by members of some recognized hunt club. First prize, $50; second prize, $15. Class 44—Jumping class, open to all. Performance over fences only to count. First prize, $50; second, $15.

Watchung Hunt Club Cup.

Class 45—Cup presented by Chas. D. Freeman. Must be won three times before becoming winner's property. Won in 1906 by Charles W. Fisk's "Apple Jack;" in 1907 by L. E. Waring's "Grand Slam." Open only to horses owned by members of the Watchung Hunt Club. Members to ride. First prize, cup.

Local Classes.

Class 46—Horses, any height. To be shown to appropriate vehicle. First prize, cup. Class 47—Pair of horses, any height. To be shown to appropriate vehicle. First prize, cup. Class 49—Horse to depot wagon for four passengers, driver included, for private depot wagon. Wagon to be a four-wheeler, closed or with top. Horses only to count. First prize, cup.

Class 50—Pony, 14.2 hands or under. Children to drive. First prize, cup.

Saddle Horses—Local.

Class 51—Horse, 14.2 hands and over. Amateurs to ride. First prize, cup.

Fire Department Class.

Class 52—Open to all New Jersey exhibits. Best exhibit of pair of horses to fire apparatus other than steamer or hook and ladder truck. Entries limited to the State of New Jersey. First prize, $50; second, plate or money.

Classes for Plainfield and North Plainfield.

Class 53—Combination harness and saddle horses. First prize, cup. Class 54—Tandem any height. Open only to amateur owners. First prize, cup. Class 55—Horse, 14.3 and over, suitable for runabout. First prize, cup. In these classes amateurs only are allowed to drive or ride. This is also the rule in the local harness classes.

The officers of the club are as follows:

President, Orville T. Waring; vice-president, Charles W. McCutchen; treasurer, Edwin S. Hooley; secretary, Lewis G. Timpson; assistant secretary, Charles W. Smith; directors, George A. Beaton, William J. Buttfield, Robert A. Fairbairn, Chas. J. Fisk, Edwin S. Hooley, Daniel D. Ginna, Charles W. McCutchen, Geo. P. Mellick, Orville T. Waring, Lewis E. Waring, Harry G. Runkle, S. A. Cruikshank; horse show committee, Robert A. Fairbairn, chairman; W. J. Buttfield, George P. Mellick, Chas. W. Smith, Daniel Runkle, Edwin S. Hooley, Lewis E. Waring, Lewis G. Timpson, Harry L. Finch.

The following have been invited to act as judges of the several classes:

Roadsters — Rensselaer Weston and Theodore Frelinghuysen, of New York. Harness horses and ponies in harness—James G. Marshall and Louis Haight, of New York. Saddle horses and ponies under saddle—Joseph Larocque, Jr., of Bernardsville; Louis Haight, of New York. Hunters and jumpers—H. L. Herbert, of New York. Veterinary judge—Dr. R. R. Voorhees, of Somerville.

Five Plead to Murder Charges.

New Brunswick, May 7.—Justice Bergen yesterday took the pleas of five murderers held in jail here and set trial for next Monday. The accused are: Antonio Giorgara, charged with killing Nichola Nuzzi at Cliffwood on March 5; John Balog, George Vilogas, Alex Bajoras and Joseph Chesny, charged with the murder of Michael Lavo on March 13 in this city.

Governor Sees Home Week "Pike."

At the formal opening of the "Old Home Week" celebration in Belleville at Hillside Park Tuesday night Governor Fort, who was the centre of attraction, amused thousands by making two trips in the roller coaster, paraded around the "Pike" and did other stunts. The celebration will be continued during the remainder of the week.

West Long Branch a Borough.

Long Branch, May 7.—West Long Branch voted Tuesday, 163 to 75, to erect itself into a borough. Norwood Park, Kensington Park and West Long Branch are included in the new borough lines. The assessed valuation is over $1,000,000.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

—Lester B. Harris, of West Front street, is more than delighted with his new $800 Claviola Player Piano. The purchase was made from Mr. H. C. Hadley, the piano dealer. **

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

The Woodhull & Martin Store

THE CHOICEST STOCK of WASH FABRICS

to be found in the city. Again and again since the new Spring Wash Dress Fabrics came out we have heard enthusiastic comments from those who have surveyed them with more or less care. The stock is immense—the largest we have ever shown; the prices are fair and in many instances astonishingly low. But it is the exquisite beauty of the new Fabrics we want to tell you about; the very choicest patterns and weaves from the best foreign and American mills. How impressive it is in variety may be gathered from this partial list:

Printed Dotted Swisses, in a large variety of beautiful floral designs, 18c yd.

Cotton Voiles, 27 inches wide, in all the popular colorings, at 25c yard.

Satin Striped Madras, specially adapted for shirts and shirtwaistings, 30 inches wide, at 19c yard.

Fine Percales, Standard makes, in an elegant assortment of patterns, 36 in. wide, at 15c yard.

New Dress Ginghams, in a wonderful assortment of pretty checks, plaids and stripes, at 12½c yard.

Silk Tissues, in neat blue, pink, lavender and black and white checks, 27 inches wide, at 25c yard.

Linene Suitings, in tan, blue, and brown, 34 inches wide, at 15c yard.

Galatea Cloth, suitable for boys' wash suits, 28 inches wide, at 19c yard.

Fine Linen Suiting, 36 inches wide, in blue and tan plaids, at 50c yard.

Plain Pongee Linen, in all leading colors, 27 inches wide, at 40c yard.

Grey Linen Suiting, 27 to 36 inches wide, at 20c, 25c, 35c and 50c a yard.

Blue Bell Lawns, a very good quality printed lawn, in all the newest designs and colorings, 30 inches wide, at 10c a yd.

Fine Scotch Ginghams in beautiful checks, plaids and stripes, 33 inches wide, at 25c a yard.

American Beauty Batiste, a fine sheer fabric, 30 inches wide in checks, plaids, stripes and figures, at 15c a yard.

Imported Irish Dimities in an endless variety of pretty patterns, 27 inches wide, at 29c a yard.

Mercerized Silk Gingham, in a wide assortment of new colorings in checks and stripes, 27 inches wide, 25c a yard.

AWNINGS AND WINDOW SHADES—This department is working day and night to keep pace with the orders. If you have any needs in this line kindly let us have your order as soon as possible. We assure you that all work entrusted to us will be done in a first-class manner and fully guaranteed.

The Woodhull & Martin Store.

AMUSEMENTS.

New Plainfield Theatre

PLAYING ALL THE LEADING ATTRACTIONS

W. J. COUNIHAN - - - - Manager

TONIGHT—
AMATEUR NIGHT.

Salisbury's Popular Moving Pictures and Illustrated Songs.
Prices, 10c and 20c.

Friday, May 8—
The Big Show
ROGERS BROTHERS in PANAMA
and a company of 75 people.
Prices 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50.

Watch and Wait for the Plainfield ALL STAR STOCK COMPANY, Headed by Alberta Galatin and an all Star Cast.

CONCERT

MISS MARY LANSING, Contralto.
MISS MAY DALAND, Pianist.
MR. HAROLD KENT, Baritone.
MR. J. FRANK RICE, Violinist.

PLAINFIELD CASINO
Tuesday, May 19, 08
CARDS ONE DOLLAR
On Sale at Armstrong's Pharmacy
5-5 7 9 11 12 14 16 18 19

STONE ROADS.

PROPOSALS are asked for the construction of Macadam Roads, on West Grand Street, First Avenue and Locust Street in the City of Elizabeth, and in the Boroughs of Roselle and Roselle Park, Union County, N. J., from De Hart Place to Westfield Avenue.

The length of the roadway to be macadamized is about 11,405 lin. ft. The width of the stonework is 16 ft.

The estimated quantities of the items of the work are as follows:

Earth Excavation, 7,820 cu. yds.
8 inch Macadam, 15,020 sq. yds.
4-inch Macadam, 6,850 sq. yds.
Manhole Heads reset, 12
6-inch Underdrains, 1,200 lin. ft.
Rock Excavation, 0.
Crushed stone furnished additional, 270 tons.

Plans, profiles and specifications for this work may be examined at the office of the County Engineer, 215 Broad Street, Elizabeth, N. J.

Bidders must enclose with their bids a certified check for $1,000.00, made payable to the Director of the Board of Chosen Freeholders as a guarantee that if the contract be awarded to such bidder, the bidder will enter into an agreement with the Board of Freeholders for the carrying out of the work.

Bids for the above described work will be received by the County Road Committee of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, at the Court House, Elizabeth, N. J., at 2:30 p. m., on Tuesday, May 26, 1908.

The Board of Freeholders or its committee reserves the right to reject any or all bids, as they may deem best for the interests of the County.

JACOB L. BAUER, County Engineer.
215 Broad Street, Elizabeth, N. J.
5-7, 8, 9, 11, 13, 15, 18, 20, 22

Dudley Alexander, of Liberty street, who recently sustained an injury to his head by a fall off the Liberty street bridge, has about recovered and expects to return home from the hospital shortly.

Capital and surplus $250,000.00

THE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

of Plainfield.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS:
A. J. Brunson, President
J. A. Smith, Vice President
D. M. Runyon, Cashier
W. R. Coddington,
J. A. Hubbard,
C. Frank French,
B. F. Corlell,
P. J. Zeglio, M. D.
E. H. Bird.

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS DRAW FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

John S. Lewis

Successor to Lewis & Dilts.

Artesian Well Contractors.

Wells drilled any place, size or depth.

Estimates cheerfully given.

Box 173, Scotch Plains, N. J.

NOTICE!

Having engaged a competent cutter from New York, the business formerly conducted by Robt. Gardner at 325 Watchung avenue will be continued. The same high standard of workmanship will be maintained.

M. F. GARDNER.

546

Mrs. John Vreeland, of Bensonhurst, L. I., has returned home after a visit with relatives here.

A "TELLING EFFECT"
IS DEFINED.

One lady telling another

PECK'S

is the store for you to trade.

SPRING FURNISHINGS

Carpets & Mattings

All the best kinds in large variety to please the most exacting requirements. Beautiful Oriental and Floral effects in all grades of Carpets, made, laid and lined free.

Ingrain - - -	75c
Brussells -	65c-1.00
Axminster -	1.10-1.25
Velvet -	1.00-1.35

Rugs.

You will enjoy the beautiful line of these popular goods we have in all the leading makes, well selected patterns in every kind from cheapest to best grade and at prices that are lowest now quoted.

Ingrain, 9x12 -	4.98-8.98
Brussells, 9x12	12.50-27.50
Axmin'r, 9x12	19.98-27.50
Velvet -	22.50-25.00

FURNITURE and BEDDING.

When buying these goods you need the dependable kind with the largest assortment of patterns to select from. This is what we offer you combined with lowest possible prices—prices for really good goods. Our large floor space is just crowded with nice clean desirable goods that will appeal to you.

Awnings.

Now is the time to plan your orders, for the hot weather will come and you will want good Awnings—and that's our kind, always the best.

Shades.

Get our estimate for your shade work, for we do a good job and do it reasonable—and carry the largest assortment of goods in this city.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON,
BABCOCK BUILDING, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

LADIES' AND GENT'S SUITS
CLEANED AND PRESSED

G. O. KELLER,
'PHONE 857-J 125 PARK AVENUE

MATHUSHEK & SON

PIANOS

appeal to all lovers of the beautiful in music.
They possess the rare quality of tone that is a delight to all.
Every courtesy given to visitors and prospective buyers at our wareroom.
Beautiful catalogue mailed upon request.

MATHUSHEK & SON PIANO CO.,
310 W. Front St., Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 910-J

207 BROAD ST. ELIZABETH LOAN Co. 207 BROAD ST.

"Reliable Money Brokers"

IF IT'S A QUESTION OF DOLLARS.

We may be able to help you out. At any rate if you'll inform us of your needs, we'll try. The winter months just past have raised the expenses of the average householder to their highest point and many of us have been unable to meet all of our obligations as promptly as we would like to and consequently find ourselves in debt.

SUPPOSE we were to advance you sufficient funds to meet your obligations. Do you not think you would be more satisfied to have only one payment to look after on pay day?

There is no place where money will be advanced you more willingly or where you will receive more courteous treatment than from us. It's worth investigating.

The possession of household goods, horses and wagons is sufficient evidence of your ability to pay. Call, write or 'phone.

ELIZABETH LOAN COMPANY.
Room 24 Hersh Bldg. Telephone 778-R. Elizabeth, N. J.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Willie Deegan may pitch for the locals in the game against the Star A. C. team Saturday afternoon. Johnson who was to have pitched for Manager Alberts, made good in his game yesterday with Brooklyns of the Union League, and he will probably be given a contract for the season.

The evangelistic meetings which have been conducted by Rev. Mr. Atkinson in the Baptist church for several weeks, will be brought to a close tomorrow night.

Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., meet tonight in the library rooms. Business of importance will be transacted and a full attendance of members is desired.

Edward L. Hand and Ernest T. Hand have taken possession of the coal business conducted by the E. M. Johnston estate at the station.

Henry Albert has taken a position with Louis B. Coddington, who is doing the borough road repair work.

Mrs. H. C. Smith, of Boston, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Coddington of Park avenue.

John Alberts of Westfield avenue, is quite ill, being threatened with pneumonia.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

The committee appointed by the fire department was present at the meeting of the Township Committee yesterday, and urged through its speaker, Judge Smith, the appropriations asked for last winter. The matter was again laid on the table. At this meeting a petition was also received requesting the committee to take some action to compel the Lehigh Valley and Central railroads to protect their crossing on Cedar Lane road. This petition was also laid on the table.

Mrs. Anna Ward has received notice from her lawyers that she is one of the beneficiaries named in the will of the late T. Ward, who recently died in Ohio. The legal authorities inform her that the estate of the deceased will shortly be sold, and her share will in all probability be forwarded to her in October.

A delegation from this village consisting of President and Mrs. Jackson, Monroe Pyatt and Rev. C. W. F. Atlee, will attend the union meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society in Plainfield tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Collins, of Chicago, who are staying with Mrs. Samuel Shields in the village, have returned from a week's visit with their cousin, Mrs. James Wilson, of Jersey City Heights.

William Voorhees, of Brooklyn, has returned home, after visiting his farm for a few days.

(Additional suburban news on page 2.)

ADMONISHES HIS CLERGY

(Continued from page 1.)

The consensus of opinion was strongly in favor of the change, and there is no doubt that next year the canon will be amended.

The convention of the Trenton diocese of the Episcopal church will meet next year at St. Mary's church, Burlington. St. Paul's church, Camden, also extended an invitation to the convention, and the convention will probably meet there in 1910, Camden withdrawing this year in favor of Burlington.

Bishop Scarborough announced the receipt of the resignation of the Rev. Charles E. Merritt, of Mount Holly, through illness. Mr. Merritt was renominated and re-elected, the Bishop declaring that he aws one of the "old guard," being one of the five who greeted him when he came to New Jersey, thirty-four years ago.

The Rev. Charles Fiske, of Somerville, was re-elected secretary, and he selected the Rev. Howard E. Thompson, of Freehold, as his assistant. A telegram of congratulation was received from Bishop E. J. Knight, of Western Colorado, and a return greeting was sent to him.

The Rev. James Stoddard, of Mount Holly, for the committee on new parishes, reported three new churches during the year in the diocese—St. Stephen's, at Cranbury; Holy Trinity, at Ocean City, and St. Luke's, at Newbold, Gloucester county.

These officers were elected: Trustee of infirm clergy and widows and orphans' fund, the Rev. B. F. H. Shreeve; trustee of missionary fund and church property fund, the Rev. William D'Olier, Burlington; committee on episcopal residences, the Rev. J. B. Woodward, the Rev. Joseph H. Bruere and the Rev. H. M. Slack; committee on constitution and canons, the Rev. Otis A. Glazebrook, Elizabeth; the Rev. W. Dutton Dale, New Brunswick; Bayard Stockton and the Rev. Rudolph E. Brestell, Camden.

Bishop Scarborough in his annual address referred to the good work done during the year and to the bequests to churches in the diocese during the year just closed.

He also referred to the bishops who had died, naming Bishops Coleman, Satterlee, Worthington and Capers.

The Bishop had this to say about those in the pulpit with a longing eye toward the Vatican for recognition:

"I do hope that the next general convention will either undo legislation about which there is such room for difference or interpretation or give such definition of its intent as will make its meaning clear, and thus relieve the consciences of those who are distressed by the present seeming looseness of practice under the guise of law. If the church means what is ordinarily understood by the phrase "an open pulpit" let it be so stated clearly and distinctly in plain words and free from obscurity.

"There is a spirit of unrest abroad in the Christian world today manifesting itself in many directions and various forms. Quite recently it has come to light, though long suspected, that there is some ministering at our altars in apparent honesty who are looking with longing gaze to the Vatican for recognition, anxious to ally themselves with the Papacy and accept its every dogma, old or new. Such men are dishonest and betrayers and a source of weakness to the church while they remain in it. We long and pray for the restoration of church unity, but it will never come from that direction. Rome will make no concessions. She will not recognize any baptisms, confirmations or ministry but her own as valid. There must be absolute and unconditional submission, and they who are looking and hoping for any compromise in that quarter will surely be disappointed in their hopes. As honest men they should not halt long between two opinions, but boldly make the venture which their consciences seem to approve and demand and seek more congenial associations."

IN MEMORIAM.

Augustus William Frentz.

On Friday last the community of Scotch Plains was startled by the report of a dreadful accident which had happened to one of our most highly esteemed and exemplary young men. Mr. Augustus W. Frentz on his return from work at the close of the forenoon, had retired to his room for a few moments before the mid-day meal. He was much interested in fire arms, which he had been in the habit of keeping about for some time past, and, while examining a pistol, the weapon was unaccountably discharged, the bullet entering through the mouth, penetrating the brain and causing instant paralysis. He became insensible at once and never regained consciousness and there is the consolation of knowing that he was spared all suffering.

Mr. Frentz was generally esteemed and had many friends. Of a bright sunny temperament and a particularly kind and pleasant disposition he had won the regard of many who were deeply pained at his sudden departure. He was a member of the Protestant Episcopal church of Scotch Plains, and though he made no ostentatious display of his religion, frequently attended the services and participated in the sacrament. He was a friend highly esteemed by his pastor.

It is hard to give him up, a sad sudden blow to his family, but there is another side with which we are not now acquainted. The apostle tells us "Now we see through a glass darkly." We may not now know the better things to which he has passed by such a quick and painless journey. We are all only pilgrims here, here we have no continuing city but we seek one which hath foundations whose maker and builder is God.

ONLY ONE SALOON LEFT.

Two Wiped out Through Quarrel of Jamesburg Dealers.

New Brunswick, May 7.—Judge Booraem, yesterday afternoon, refused to renew the retail license of John A. Bennett, who has kept a hotel at Jamesburg for twelve years. There were formerly three liquor places at Jamesburg. Last term Bennett opposed the granting of a wholesale license to James Beckney, claiming that Beckney had sold at retail. Beckney's license was refused.

Today Beckney showed that Bennett, who had applied for both a wholesale and retail license, had sold at wholesale on a retail license, and the court refused both applications. This leaves Jamesburg with but one hotel, and the ministers and W. C. T. U. members are happy because the liquor men by their own fight wiped out two places.

Parasites for Gypsy Moth.

Laboratories in charge of the Massachusetts Gypsy Moth Commission are ready to release clouds of parasites to war upon the gypsy and brown tail moths. The work of raising them has been more successful than anticipated, and the Melrose, Mass., Laboratory will have 80,000 more parasites than were expected.

Poisoned by Eating Dandelions.

Robert Ray, a gardener employed by William A. Manda, of South Orange, is dangerously ill as a result of eating dandelions Tuesday. Yesterday his condition was so serious that the last rites of the Roman Catholic church were administered.

DIED.

PELLETREAU — On Wednesday, May 6, 1908, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Charles R. Thiers, 14 Craig place, North Plainfield, Frances L., daughter of the late Charles H. and Frances L. Pelletreau.

Funeral private. 5 6 2

Fresh Vegetables

Asparagus, Wax Beans, Tomatoes,
Radishes, Beets, Lettuce,
Strawberries, Green Beans, Cucumbers.

Fruit

Oranges, Grape Fruit, Apples.
Malaga Grapes, Figs.

NEUMAN BROS.

GROCERS—Watchung Avenue and Fifth Street.

Efficient and rapid delivery service to all parts of the city.

MONO

Fireproof Storage Warehouse.

Separate Rooms, Fireproof Partitions. Clean, Dry, Secure.

Inspection Invited—Open 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

FURNITURE REMOVED WITH CARE.

Telephone 522-W. Opposite freight depot.

ASK FOR THE FISHER HOLDBACK

The old style holdback for binds affords a roosting place for birds and causes ugly stains to disfigure the sides of the house under the binds. Notice this carefully and then you will want to prevent it. No bird can roost on this.

The FISHER HOLDBACK

Geo. H. Fisher, 224 MANSON PLACE PLAINFIELD.

1 16 th s tf

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. Augustus Frentz and family extend their sincere thanks to the Jr. O. U. A. M., of Scotch Plains, the Scotch Plains Baseball Club, the Clinton Avenue Baseball Club and friends for their kind expressions of sympathy and the beautiful flowers extended to us in our late bereavement.

Wanted for CASH

A comfortable house, modern and up-to-date, with about two acres. Conveniently located to station. $15,000 to $20,000.

CROSS & PLUM, Inc.,

573 Broad and Bank Sts., Newark, N. J

A. M. RUNYON & SON, UNDERTAKERS.

403 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York Office—50 Great Jones Street.
Tel. call, 3345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 815.

T. A. MOORE.

UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.

Office—508 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 790
Residence—614 East 6th St. " 741-R
New York Office, 27 Great Jones St.
Telephone Call, 3249-Spring.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

Established 1872.

P. CASEY & SON.

UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS.

Office 116 Park Av., Tel. 884-w. Res., 417 W. 3d St., Tel. 903-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2094 Gramercy

GEO. W. COLE.

UNDERTAKER & EMBALMER.

200 West Second St. Telephone 158.

OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

Chas. L. Stanley,

159 East Front St. 'Phone 928.
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

L. L. MANNING & SON,

STEAM GRANITE WORKS.

Corner Central Avenue and West Front Street. Opposite First Baptist Church.

Classified Advertisements

Rates for advertisements under this heading one cent a word for first insertion, one half a cent a word for consecutive insertions of the same advertisement running for less than one month; one month, fifty cents a line (6 words to a line), double rate for advertisement set in capitals.

No advertisements received for less than ten cents.

Copy for death and marriage notices and classified advertising accepted up to 2:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS is not at liberty to give any information regarding advertisements that require an address in care of this office. Persons answering these ads. should mail or leave answers as stated in advertisements.

Help Wanted.

WANTED—Neat young girl as nurse; reference. Apply 20 Sycamore avenue.

WANTED — Competent woman, canvasser; a hustler. Address A. H., care Press. 5 5 3

Help Wanted.

WANTED — Experienced white girl for general housework; small family. Apply 156 Westervelt avenue. 5 6 3

A GOOD home and reasonable compensation offered to a refined young woman, who would assist with the care of two children and sewing. Address Reliable, care Press.

COOKS, laundresses and general houseworkers wanted at once. Mrs. Reinhold, 222 New street. 5 6 3

WANTED—Girl for general housework. 1208 Watchung avenue. 5 6 3

WANTED—Girl, general housework; references required; three in family. Call this week 1133 East Seventh street, Netherwood. 5 63

Situations Wanted.

TWO young white girls (sisters) want general housework by the day. Address Sisters, care Daily Press. 5 5 3

YOUNG girl, lately landed, for general housework or as nurse. Can be seen mornings this week at 119 East Sixth street. 5 5 3

NURSE—Speaks French, German, English; first-class Plainfield references; also young nurse maids and waitresses want positions. Mrs. Reinhold, 222 New street. 'Phone 1321-W. 5 6 3

DRESSMAKER would like work by the week in family; good remodeler; references. Address Sealby, care Daily Press. 5 1 6

CHAUFFEUR Japanese machinist, sober, honest, careful driver; two years' experience; any gasoline cars, wants position; private family; highest recommendation; moderate wages. Address F. B., care Press. 5 4 7

COMPETENT help constantly on hand; white and colored. Hall's Employment Agency (originally The Plainfield), station driveway; 'phone 322-J. 4 22 1m

DRESSMAKER would like work by the week in family; good remodeler; references. S., 604 West Seventh street. 5 1 6

COLORED woman wants work by the day at washing and ironing. 539 South Second street. 5 5 3

COLORED girl wants situation at day's work. Old Nurses' Home, Muhlenberg place, upstairs. 5 5 3

WANTED—Place as waitress and chambermaid by Swedish girl. Call 842 West Fourth street. 5 7 3

BOY of 16 wants situation on farm for board and $6 a month. Address Country, care Press. 5 7 3

SITUATION wanted by a 30-year-old diligent and sober man. Speaks several languages. Address A. B., The Daily Press, City.

LADY wishes laundry work or housecleaning by day. 626 West Fourth street. 5 7 3

COLORED woman wants work by the day. 635 West Third street. 5 5 5

Lost and Found.

LOST—Three Kirmess tickets for Saturday night, the 16 of May. Please return to Press office. 5 6 2

LOST—Wednesday, on Madison avenue, between Front and Fourth, gold horseshoe breastpin. Reward at Daily Press office. 5 6 2

LOST—On Sunday, a spotted coach dog, answers to the name of "Spades." Finder please return to E. S. Hooley, 70 Rockview avenue; reward. 4 20 tf

For Rent.

FLAT to let. Inquire 18 Craig place. 4 14 tf

FOR RENT—Apartment, four rooms, bath room, all improvements, steam heat; in fine condition; rent $18; location, corner Fifth street and Watchung avenue. Apply to A. M. Lederer, 117 West Front St. 4 23 tf

FOR RENT—New house just completed; seven rooms and bath; rent $21. Address O. I. C., Daily Press. 4 24 tf

TO LET—Eight room house, on West Fourth street, near Park avenue; all newly papered and painted; city water and gas. B. Mann, 120 West Fourth street. 4 28 tf

FOR RENT OR SALE—320 Somerset street, 12 rooms, city water, modern plumbing, electric lights, all improvements. Inquire 328 Somerset street, or Golding, 133 West 65th street, New York. 5 4 6

FOR RENT—Commodious offices in the Woodhull & Martin building suitable for lawyers, dentists, insurance companies, etc.; will arrange to suit tenant. 4 20 tf

THREE rooms to let. 732 West Third street. 4 6 tf

TO LET—Three-room flat. Inquire 39 Summit avenue. 5 4 6

FOR RENT—No. 26 Rockview avenue, 12 rooms and 2 baths; large beautiful grounds; large carriage house; immediate possession. No. 806 Third place, 10 room house; immediate possession. Furnished cottages to rent for summer from $50 month up. Edmund Rushmore, 209 North avenue, Plainfield; N. Y. office, 42 Broadway. 5 6 12

SEVEN-ROOM apartments to let; all improvements. 937 West Front street; also six-room house. 3 28 tf

TO LET—New 6-room house; $16. Inquire Kinsman, Dunellen. 4 1 tf

APARTMENT to let in the Lincoln, 110 West Fourth street; all improvements. 5 5 4

HOUSE TO LET—6 rooms; also 4 rooms to let. J. Sachar, 731 West Third street. 5 7 6

FOR RENT—New house with modern conveniences, suitable for two families. Inquire at Dunellen Postoffice. Mrs. James Roach. 5 5 3

TO LET—Two or three nice rooms, unfurnished, for light housekeeping; bath same floor; five minutes from station. 410 New street. 5 5 tf

TO LET—Very desirable suite of unfurnished rooms on second floor. 315 West Sixth street. 5 5 3

TO LET—5 rooms, water and gas. Apply 705 West Third street. 5 5 3

817 RICHMOND street, nine rooms; all improvements; rent $26; immediate possession; act quick. Hayden, room 214, Babcock building. 5 6 2

NEW six-room house to let, 1219 West Third street; six-room house, 1424 Willever street, near Safe Works; two apartments, four rooms each, all improvements, or the whole house, 216 Prescott place. J. Sacher, 731 West Third St. 4 3 tf

NEW 7-room house, on Cameron avenue, for sale or to let; furnace, open plumbing, gas and city water. Inquire E. Beys, Cameron avenue. 5 4 1m

TO RENT—Second and third stories of 316 and 318 West Front street, 50x85 feet. Jos. W. Gavett. 4 3 tf

FOR RENT—In Netherwood, furnished, nine room house, large porch and awnings. Address 875 Leland avenue. 5 6 3

TO LET—9-room house, all improvements; 3 Verdon street. G. W. V. Moy. 3 13 tf

TO LET—4 rooms, upper floor, water. John Manley, insurance, 321 Park avenue. 3 17 tf

Rooms and Board.

GOOD accommodations; low rates. Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

TWO fine rooms and board; also table boarders. Mrs. Detweilers, 514 Madison avenue. 5 7 6

FURNISHED room to let. Address New Madison, care Daily Press. 5 5 3

FEW boarders wanted. Mrs. M. Fosbre, 659 Essex street. 5 1 12

TO LET—Newly furnished room in select apartment; centre of town; all improvements. A. C., care Press. 5 4 6

LARGE front room with or without board. 137 East Fifth street. 5 1 6

WANTED—Board on a farm by the year, with use of some land to raise chickens on; terms reasonable. Address Good Board, care Press.

WATCHUNG AVE., 724, near 7th St., desirable rooms with first class board. 4 13 1m

TWO communicating rooms with board; sunny exposure; bath adjoining; first class neighborhood; excellent table. 132-134 Crescent avenue. 9 19 tf

Miscellaneous.

COMPLETE line of automobile supplies and tires at lowest New York prices. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

AUTOMOBILES to hire at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co., telephone 991-J. 4 15 3m

A FIRST CLASS place to turn out horses to recruit, will have good attention; also storage for wagons. Address I., care Daily Press. 4 13 1m

FIRST-CLASS places and first-class help always on hand. Swedish Intelligence Office, 22 Somerset place, 'Phone 196-W. 8 22 tf

AUTOMOBILES repaired and overhauled by first class mechanics at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

THE EXCHANGE, 325 West Front street, telephone 901-R. Do you have furniture, carpets, etc., for sale? Do not fail to notify us; we pay 50 per cent. more than anybody else. 11 29 tf

GARBAGE removed regularly and reasonably. George Christensen, R. F. D. No. 1. 4 21 1m

IF YOU want your watch, clock or jewelry repaired take them to Brown, 124 Watchung Ave. 4 18 1m

FURNITURE stored and sold on commission. Martin Hansen, 316 and 318 West Front street. 5 5 1m

GRADING, LAWNS REMODELED, SOIL AND SOD FURNISHED; PLANTS AND SHRUBS PLANTED, ETC.; PROMPT, SATISFACTORY. J. M. WELSH, 754 KENSINGTON AVENUE. TEL. 148-J. 5 4 6

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S., graduate American Veterinary College, N. Y., pet animals a specialty. OFFICE WITH ALBERT HEDDEN, livery, 118 East Fourth street, telephone 114-J. 1 27 tf

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans, Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 4 tf

DAIRY butter for table, 27c; cooking, 23c. Address Dairy, Press office. 5 7 3

BABIES crochet sacques for sale; all prices; also ladies' knitted sweaters made to order. Mrs. Mayer, 54 Pearl street, North Plainfield. tf

ASHES and rubbish removed, city or borough. Good soil for sale. Geo. Miller, 518 West Fourth street. 5 7 3

CONTRACTS taken for care of lawns and gardens for the season. J. M. Welsh, 754 Kensington avenue. Tel. 148-J. 5 4 6

SOMETHING of interest to every dressmaker and every lady that works at dressmaking. Address D. P. C., care Press. 5 7 6

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer; sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

CESSPOOLS and vaults cleaned, odorless excavator; good work; lowest prices. T. M. Ingraham, Plainfield R. F. D. No. 1. 12 10 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

Poultry and Eggs.

EGGS FOR HATCHING—White Leghorn, White Plymouth Rocks, Buff Orpingtons and Pekin Ducks, from the best strains. Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, Tel. 451-J. 4 14 1m

EGGS FOR HATCHING—Fishel strain; White Rocks, $1 per 13; Gardner and Dunning and Welles strain; Barred Rocks, $2; Black Minorcas, $1. Barred Rock Cockerels for sale. No. 1041 Dunellen avenue. 4 9 1m

WANTED—Bicycle, also woman's wheel in good condition; cheap for cash. Address with particulars, Melbourne, Press office.

SETTINGS of 13 from prize stock. Blk Minorca $1.50, Buff Orpington $3 White or Partridge Wyandotte $2. 100, $10; 50, $5. 234 West 2nd St. 4 3 tf

EGGS for setting, from Orpingtons, Black Leghorns, Indian Game, and India Runner Ducks, corner Grant and Sherman Aves. 3 25 tf

R. I. RED, Barred Plymouth Rock and White Leghorn eggs from the leading strains of the country; $1 per sitting, $5 per hundred. George Howard, Jr., South Bound Brook, N. J. 2 21 3m

Money to Loan.

$1,000 to $3,000 to loan; improved property only. C. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 5 6 3

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite Depot. 12 28 tf

MONEY to loan on band and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 12 18 tf

LOANS negotiated. J. T. Vail. 1 14 tf

TO LOAN—Money on good mortgages. George F. Brown, 94 Somerset street. tf

For Sale.

FOR SALE—Buick touring car, fine shape; all new tires; 5 lamps, etc. $350 to quick buyer. Thompson, 413 Park avenue. 5 7 6

FOR SALE—Oak sideboard, matting. Address Reasonable, Press office.

4-ROOM cottage; acre of land; $2,200. Wm. Bourgeois, Laramie road. 5 1 1m

FOR SALE, RENT OR EXCHANGE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; also country homes and farms at bargain prices. C. H. Snyder, 221 Park avenue, room 4. 4 18 1m

FARM FOR SALE—Four acres, all tillable, well adapted for a chicken farm; house six rooms, stable for four horses; situate about one mile from Plainfield, N. J. Inquire of John P. Emmons, 197 North avenue. 5 1 6

FOR SALE—Two horse wagon cheap; must be sold. 78 Greenbrook road. 5 4 4

STANHOPE carriage in fine condition; has been used little; good for pleasure or for doctor's carriage. Address Stanhope, care Daily Press. 5 4 6

AUTOMOBILE house for sale at a bargain. Address J. M., care press. 5 4 6

FOR SALE—Small pony, cart and harness; very pretty and gentle. Address J. H. Campbell, 205 Park avenue, City. 5 5 5

FOR SALE—Automobile runabout, cost $950; price $225; in fine condition. Address A. R., Daily Press. 5 5 tf

1905 2-Cylinder Elmore touring car; fine shape; 5 lamps, etc. $275. Thompson, 413 Park avenue. 5 7 6

SACRIFICE—Fine business building for sale in the heart of city. Address Sacrifice, care Daily Press. 5 7 3

FOR SALE—Pony, cart and harness. Apply John Coyle, West Front street and Waynewood avenue. 5 5 3

BARGAIN—$125 due bill, good on purchase of Bradbury piano for $100 in cash. Address L. Edgerton, care Press. 5 6 3

FOR SALE—Gas range; good condition. Apply 97 Rockview avenue. Address 325 Franklin place. 5 5 3

FOR SALE—The finest lot in Plainfield, on which to build a row of apartment houses. Chas. L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building, Plainfield, N. J. 2 21 tf

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

Real Estate Agents.

HOUSES, new, for sale or rent, all improvements, excellent location, East End. Inquire M. A. Rose, 301 Watchung avenue, 'Phone 273-J. 4 14 1m

HAVE clients for farms, houses, lots in Plainfield and vicinity; also all kinds of property for sale. Address Real Estate, care Press. 5 5 6

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent or exchange. Edmund Rushmore, 209 North avenue, telephone No. 49, Plainfield; 42 Broadway, New York. 10 10 tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield; telephone 44. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; properties that I have picked up in trade that I can sell you for less than market prices; if you want to buy or have anything to sell come and see me. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, 39 Prospect place, North Plainfield. 11 20 tf

REAL ESTAE for sale, rent and exchange at bargain figures, insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

FOR SALE—If you want to buy or sell real estate, please call, write or 'phone Ira L. LaRue, next to station, next to bargain. Office 'phone 752-R, residence 'phone 845-L. 12 19 tf

Wanted—Miscellaneous.

WANTED—One or two furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Address E. H. D., care Press. 5 6 3

WANTED—$1,500 on first mortgage at 6 per cent. on Plainfield property. Frank E. Zeller, Stirling, N. J. 5 5 3

WANTED—A good fresh young cow; good milker. 731 West Eighth street. 5 5 3

LAUNDRY work wanted by the day. 215 East Fourth street. 5 4 6

Real Estate for Exchange.

FINE new house, centrally located; 10 rooms, all improvements; gas and electric light, hot water heating, parquet floors; would exchange for moderate priced lots. J. T. Vail, 177 North Ave. 4 14 tf

SOME STATE NEWS BRIEFS

The directors of the Bayonne Hospital will award a contract this evening for the erection of a $40,000 addition to the hospital in East Thirtieth street.

The sudden jumping of a horse attached to a cutter at Millville threw the driver, Jacob Schlagel, under the animal's feet, and he was badly hurt by being trampled on and kicked.

Falling from a hay mow on a farm at Sharptown, yesterday afternoon, John Bennett, twenty-nine years old, had his left leg broken and was taken to Cooper Hospital, in Camden.

Members of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church, Atlantic City, have formally adopted plans for their new $60,000 edifice, to be erected at Pacific and Pennsylvania avenues.

The congregation of the People's Baptist church of Bayonne will break ground within the next month for the erection of a new edifice in West Twenty-seventh street, near Broadway. It will cost $10,000.

The Passaic Board of Education has asked the Board of School Estimate for $201,730 with which to run the schools during the coming year, an increase of $1,273.95 over the appropriation of last year.

The body of a six-week-old baby was found in a suitcase buried in the back yard of the residence of Peter V. Bergen, of Haddonfield, by Alexander Moore, who was preparing a garden for Mr. Bergen. Dr. Joel Fithian found that the baby had apparently been strangled with the strings of its cap. According to the coroner, the body had evidently been in the ground a month.

Running to the Lincoln School so that he would not be late, David Rosen, eight years old, of 1162 Sycamore street, Camden, was knocked down by an automobile in Kaighn avenue and the Camden and Atlantic Railroad yesterday afternoon. He was hurled a dozen feet. The chauffeur stopped, picked up the body and then hustled him to the Cooper Hospital. There is was found that Rosen's leg had been broken and that he had sustained many lacerations and bruises. The chauffeur left a card bearing the name of Samuel P. Howe, who is president of the Camden Forge Company. The police are investigating.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS

Fresh from their triumphant run of three months at the Broadway Theatre, New York, Gus and Max Rogers will be seen in their successful musical comedy offering "The Rogers Brothers in Panama" at the New Plainfield theatre tomorrow night. As the present season is their tenth anniversary as stars, they have given the theatre-going public a production that eclipses all past efforts and enables them to maintain the reputation they have enjoyed so long as leaders of this style of entertainment.

Every minute detail, costumes, scenic environment, music, lyrics, book, ensemble numbers and electrical effects were looked after with unerring eye and critical ear and as a consequence the dramatic reviewers have been a unit in pronouncing their production one of the most complete, elaborate and enjoyable it has ever been their good fortune to witness.

The book was written by Sylvester Maguire and Aaron Hoffman; the lyrics by Edward Madden and the music was composed by Max Hoffman, who has contributed so many popular and tuneful melodies in the past. With four bright minds like these working in conjunction it is not surprising that such a successful play was given the public.

The acting company is one of unusual merit. In addition to the two stars, Gus and Max Rogers, there are Marion Stanley, Josie Barrows, Norma Brown, Avita Sanchez, Lottie Greenwood, Dick Temple, George Lydecker, Joseph Kane, Robinson Newbold, Walter Ware, Henry Lehmann, Alexander Kleinman, John M. Coughlin and several other principals just as prominent and a monster chorus.

Ben Teal, one of the best known masters of stage-craft, personally supervised the production and it is his boast that it is the best work he has ever done in his long, successful career. It was a matter of pride with him and he devoted many long, wearisome weeks preparing and rehearsing the big company. Nor were his labors in vain.

ELIZABETH MEN BAILED.

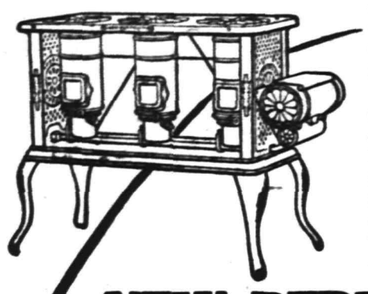
Elizabeth, May 7.—Frank Thomas, Herbert Kennedy and J. H. Voorhees, the young men arrested here on Monday night on a charge of being in a conspiracy to extort money, were released from the county jail last evening, each of them securing a bondsman who furnished the $500 bail demanded by Police Justice Mahon of Elizabeth's Police Court.

Justice of the Peace Frank E. Wooley, of Roselle Borough, who also figures in the case, and is charged with embracery is still in jail, being unable to secure the $1,000 bail under which he is held.

The alleged handbook makers, Harry C. Eckerson and Clinton Miller, of this city, who made the complaint against Wooley and the others, have not been arrested.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

Hot Stove—Cool Kitchen



How do you expect to endure the broiling days of summer if you prepare all the food over a glowing coal fire?

You need a "New Perfection" Oil Stove that will do the cooking without cooking the cook. It concentrates plenty of heat under the pot and diffuses little or none through the room. Therefore, when working with the

NEW PERFECTION
Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove

the kitchen actually seems as comfortable as you could wish it to be.

This, in itself, is wonderful, but, more than that, the "New Perfection" Oil Stove does perfectly everything that any stove can do. It is an ideal all-round cook-stove. Made in three sizes, and fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

The Rayo Lamp

a substantial, strongly made and handsome lamp. Burns for hours with a strong, mellow light. Just what you need for evening reading or to light the dining-room. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
Incorporated)

BAMBERGER'S
"THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE"
MARKET, HALSEY & BANK STS.

Such Carpet Values Are Rare, Indeed.

Our big May time carpet sale is one of the greatest features of "Housekeepers' Opportunity Week." See what an array of good things we have arranged and notice how closely we have marked the various lots. If you need carpets and do not take advantage of this sale you will have yourself to blame.

Windsor Wilton Rugs—9x12 feet, a variety of dainty patterns and colorings—very reasonable at the regular price $50.00, special at $40.50

Axminster Rugs—Size 9x12—a large line of this season's patterns—beautiful floral and Oriental effects—regular $25.00, special at this sale $19.75

Royal Wilton Rugs—Twenty handsome 9x12 Royal Wilton Rugs in beautiful Oriental effects—this season's designs—regular $39.50, at $31.50

Wilton Velvet Carpets—A large line of these very fine carpetings in room, hall and stair effects—our regular price $1.50 per yard, for this sale special at $1.29

Seamless Wilton Rugs—A great variety of new Spring patterns and exquisite colorings: size 9x12 feet—regular price $47.50, special at $42.50

Smyrna Rugs—A large lot of best quality Smyrna Rugs in size 36x72 inches—splendid designs—regular price $4.19—special while they last at $2.98

Body Brussels Rugs—A large assortment of these rugs, size 9x12 feet—very finest quality made—handsome patterns—regular $29.50, special at $23.95

Tapestry Brussels Rugs—Best quality seamless kinds—size 9x12 feet—handsome designs and colorings—regular price $18.00 each—special $13.95

All Wool Smyrna Rugs—Fine quality— size 7.6x10.6 feet, the very latest designs and colorings— regular price $22.00, very special this sale $14.45

All Wool Velvet Carpets—Finest quality— twenty different styles in room, hall and stair effects—regular price $1.15 per yard— very special at ..... .85

Tapestry Brussels Carpets—Finest quality ten wire Tapestry Brussels in room, hall and stair patterns—sold regularly for $1.10 per yard—during this sale ..... .95

Axminster Carpets—Extra quality—the season's newest designs and colorings—regular $1.25 per yard—for this sale special, while the lot lasts, per yard ..... .98

Wool Ingrain Carpets—Best grade of all-wool Ingrain carpet in a large assortment of patterns—regular price 75c per yard—special while they last at ..... .59

Inlaid Linoleums—Splendid quality—twelve patterns to choose from—color goes through to the back—regular $1.25 grade—square yard at ..... .85

Printed Linoleums—Our entire stock of 50c printed linoleums —all perfect goods—thoroughly seasoned—new designs—regular 50c square yard, special at ..... .39

L. Bamberger & Co
NEWARK, N. J.

FREE! CARR'S BALLS FREE!
With Each Copy of the
DECLARATION OF THE U. S. at 10c EACH.
Something Every Boy Ought to Know
W. H. OLMSTED, the Hustler
331 Watchung Avenue
BEST DELIVERY SERVICE IN THE CITY

R. W. BARNES.
217 PARK AVE. 'PHONE 344-L.
Fruits Vegetables and Groceries
Imported and Domestic Cheeses, Olives and Pickles in bottles or by measure, Boiled Corned Beef, Ham, Smoked Salmon, Fresh Cut Chipped Beef, Heinz's Stuffed Melons. Try Them.

DRUGGISTS.

MOTH BALLS
Will save you your money over what might happen to your clothes.
They will insure your clothes being preserved thru the summer and will enable you to have them fresh and whole in the fall. Now is the time to buy MOTH BALLS.
C. M. Nagle's Pharmacy,
Front and Grove Sts. 'Phone 516.

Complete Line of
REXALL
Goods at
MILLER'S PHARMACY
9 Park Ave. & 4th St. Tel. 208.

Hodge's Pharmacy.
Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Tel. 62.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
EAST FRONT STREET
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Rroom.

HOTEL KENSINGTON
(Licensed.)
WM. J. POULSON, Prop.
107-109-111 North Avenue.
Everything New and Up-to-date
An Inspection Solicited.

HOTEL IROQUOIS
Club breakfast from 6:30 to 10:30 a. m. Business Men's Lunch from 11:30 to 2:30 p. m.
ROOMS
First floor, $1 single; $1.50 double.
Second floor, 75c single; $1 double.
Third floor, 50c single; 75c double.
LA CARTE 6:30 UNTIL 1 A. M.
Special Sunday Dinner from 12:30 to 2:30 p. m. 50c

Electricians!
Michaelsen & Hage
No. 148 E. Fifth St. Tel. 1077-J

VEGETABLES
Fresh From the Garden
Here are Vegetables that appeal to the appetite of an epicure, they are so good in quality, fresh and inviting to the taste. Tomatoes, Asparagus, String Beans, Beets Cucumbers, Lettuce, Radishes,etc., at prices that will just suit you.
W. W. DUNN,
THE PARK GROCER,
DUER STREET AND LINCOLN PLACE.

STOP AT
Central R. R. News Stands
for PLAINFIELD PRESS, always on sale. Daily and Sunday papers delivered, all magazines, weekly papers, novelties, back numbers a specialty. R. R. guides, automobile road and state maps, Phila. papers. Fine brand of Cigars and tobacco. Open Sundays.
F. M. WAGNER, Manager.

YOU WILL NEVER BUY A HOME WITH MONEY PAID FOR RENT IN THE PAST.
START NOW TO
OWN A HOME
of your own by taking our shares in
THE CENTRAL
BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION
OF PLAINFIELD.
J. F. MacDONALD, Secretary.
Smalley Building, 149 North Avenue.

McCULLOUGH'S STEAM MILL,
21 Steiner place, North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 517-J.
Furniture, Freight, Baggage Express and Rigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

Try a box of
DOBBINS' CIGARS.
Clear Havana Nickle Yara or any kind that you desire. Manufactured at 128 North Avenue, opposite Kensington Hotel, Plainfield, N. J.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Cedar Posts and Bean Poles. Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
69 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS,
P. O. Box 320.

Mountain House,
Mt. Bethel, N. J.
FRENCH RESTAURANT
Resort for Automobiles and Driving Parties
A. E. BINZ, Prop

SMALLEY BROS.
147 North Ave.
BUTCHERS
Our Specialty, Berkshire Pork.
Try Our Berkshire Sausage Made on Premises.
Roasting and Broiling Chickens a Specialty.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83-A. 5 1 tf

The Southern Restaurant,
232 West Second Street, corner Madison Avenue, now under new management. Meals served at all hours a la carte and table d'hote. Our own make bread and pastrys, all home cooking. The choice of everything is bought for the tables. Our price is reasonable. The place is now under the management of the well known New York caterer. T. H. Royster, Manager. Tel. 923-J. 1 18 tf

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 Watchung Av. Rear.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

JOHN WINZENREID,
Furniture and Freight Express.
Moving Vans and Storage.
312 Lee Place. 'Phone 840-R.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.
Renovating—Offices, stores and private residences. Service day or night. Furniture, china and glassware packed for shipping.
WM. A. KLINE, 611 W. 3d St.

Geo. H. Stagaard,
SHOEMAKER
108—CHURCH STREET—110
Repair work called for and delivered
'PHONE 1062-W.

TITUS H. LAURY
MASON AND BUILDER.
Office, 323 East Front Street.
Tile Setting, Mantel and Front Work.
Telephone 464-L.

TURKISH BATHS!
TAKE ONE
Ladies Mornings, Gentlemen Afternoons
Take Trolley to Sanitarium, Somerset Street.

Cleaning, Pressing and Dyeing.
Monthly Contracts.
Pressing called for and delivered.
EVENING DRESSES A SPECIALTY.
Ladies' Waists Cleaned, 25 cents upwards
Gents' Suits Cleaned $1.50
We do our own work at
M. A. Brown's, 218 West Second St.

William H. Pope,
ELECTRICIAN.
All kinds of electrical work done at reasonable prices.
116 NORTH AVENUE.

Rouse & Fullagar,
CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS,
117 Plainfield Avenue.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St. Tel. 507-W.

Meat Market.
Choice Meats, Poultry, Fish and Oysters always on hand. Sugar cured Corned Beef. International Hams and Bacon.
F. Neidig, 94 Somerset St. Telephone 781

E. B. Maynard's
Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a specialty.
Tel. No. 754-R.
141 NORTH AVENUE.

JOHN WIRTH
(Successor to Henry Liefke.)
Bakery and Confectionery.
201-203 West Front St. Tel. No. 722.
All orders delivered at short notice.

HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS
Silver trunks safely delivered to safety deposit vaults.
Furniture Moving Van and Baggage Delivery.
OFFICE 205 PARK AVENUE
Tel. 833-W. Residence Tel. 648-L

REAL ESTATE
Bought, Sold and For Rent.
J. SACHAR,
731 WEST THIRD STREET.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to Vacate an Unnamed and Unaccepted Street on property of Lemuel E. Hart and others, in the rear of Elmwood Place," a copy of which is subjoined to this notice, has been introduced before the Common Council, read the second time, and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the Common Council to adopt such ordinance at the regular meeting of the Common Council to be held at the Council Chamber, No. 149 North avenue, in the city of Plainfield, N. J., on Monday, the first day of June, Nineteen Hundred and Eight, at eight o'clock p. m., at which time and place, prior to the adoption of said ordinance, said ordinance will be considered by the Common Council, and all persons interested may be heard before the Common Council, with reference to the proposed ordinance.

By order of the Common Council.
J. T. MacMURRAY,
City Clerk.
Plainfield, N. J., April 27, 1908.

AN ORDINANCE

To Vacate an Unnamed and Unaccepted Street on Property of Lemuel E. Hart and others, in the rear of Elmwood Place.

Whereas, It is alleged, that the hereinafter described unnamed street, referred to in two certain deeds from Job Male to Lemuel E. Hart, both dated September 1, 1884, has never been opened to public use or accepted by the city, although dedicated as a street, and that Lemuel E. Hart, Lucy Wooley, Thomas E. Curran, Sr., John Mantz and Edwin E. Vail, are all the owners of abutting lands of said street, and have applied to the Common Council of said city to vacate said street, pursuant to Chapter 139 of the laws of 1897, and have filed with the City Clerk the consents required by said act; and

Whereas, The opening of said street would require a large expenditure of public funds, and it is to the interest of the city that such street should be vacated:

The inhabitants of the city of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That the unnamed street referred to in two certain deeds from Job Male to Lemuel E. Hart, dated September 1, 1884, and recorded in Book 168 of deeds for Union county, pages 491 and 493 which street begins at the intersection of the southeast side line of property of Thomas E. Curran, Jr., with the southwest side line of Elmwood Place and runs thence with property of Thomas E. Curran, Sr., and Lemuel E. Hart south fifty-one degrees and forty-three minutes west, a distance of three hundred and thirty-three (333) feet, more or less, to property of Lucy Wooley; thence with her line south thirty-eight degrees and four minutes east, a distance of forty (40) feet; thence still with property of Lemuel E. Hart, north fifty-one degrees and forty-three minutes east, a distance of two hundred and eight (208) feet, more or less, to west corner of property owned by Edwin E. Vail; thence with property of Edwin E. Vail north fifty-one degrees and forty-three minutes east, a distance of one hundred and twenty-five (125) feet to the southwest side line of Elmwood Place; thence along the southwest side line of Elmwood Place with properties of John Mantz and Lemuel E. Hart, a distance of forty (40) feet to the beginning, be and the same is hereby vacated pursuant to the acts of the Legislature, in such case made and provided.

Vail
JEWELER AND OPTICIAN
103 Park Ave.,
calls your attention to his
Rimless Glasses.
They Look Good and You See Good.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT. Notice is hereby given, That the account of the subscribers, Executors of Juliet D. Man, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphans Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the twentieth day of May next.
Dated April 15, 1908.
RICHARD B. DUYCKINCK, 2nd.,
ALICE MAUD KYTE. 4 16 5 oaw t

EDUCATIONAL.

JOSEPH Mc INTYRE,
Pianist, Coach, Accompanist
TEACHER OF PIANO and SINGING
New York Studio, 30 E. 23rd Street, Wednesdays and Saturdays.
Plainfield, Residence and Studio, 1308 Watchung Avenue
Telephone 386-J
1 9 6mos

ATTEND DRAKE BUSINESS COLLEGE.
PLAINFIELD
For thorough training in English, Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Penmanship, Commercial Law and correlative branches. The school that does not PROMISE to ASSIST graduates to positions, but that guarantees absolutely to PLACE them, and does it. 11 25 tf

Plainfield Business College
WOODHULL & MARTIN BUILDING.
SCHOOL OF ENGLISH.
A school well equipped for doing high grade work.
Investigate this school—it pays. 1½ hours devoted to English every day. Day and Evening sessions all the year.
Capacity 400 students.
A. S. HERR, Prin. and Prop.

CHAS. M. SUHR,
TEACHER OF PIANO.
614 E. 6th Street, Tel. 741-W

REAL ESTATE

RENTALS—REAL ESTATE
Geo. F. Brown,
INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE.
Commissioner of Deeds—Rents.
94 Somerset St. 'Phone 160.

STATIONERY AND TOYS.
HARPER,
411 PARK AVENUE.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning May 10, 1908.

By REV. S. H. DOYLE.

Topic.—Being a Christian—I. In our work and our play.—John v. 17; Eccl. ix. 10; Prov. xvii, 22.

Christianity should enter into every form of our lives. This fact is to be emphasized in this and the two succeeding topics, in which it is to be set forth that it should have a part in our work, our play, our school and home life and even in our political lives. These three topics should enlist the earnest interest of all Endeavorers, and each one should think out for himself the meaning of the topic or should at least inquire concerning himself whether or not his religion does enter into the various forms of his life or whether it is simply reserved for the Sabbath and the various religious activities in which he engages. The present topic deals with the question of being a Christian in our work and play.

1. Being a Christian in our work. The word work does not here apply even principally to our Christian work. While engaged in that the spirit of Christ necessarily predominates our actions. At least it does in most cases, while here and there we do find a lack of such a spirit even in work for Christ. False ambitions, favoritism and even theft have sometimes been found among Christian workers. But the topic applies more particularly to the work of life by which we make our living, whether by trade, business or profession. The question arises, Do we carry our religion into the daily work of life? Work we must. God worked, Christ worked, and if we are truly His disciples we will work also. And if we follow the Master's example we shall work earnestly, sincerely and honestly. "Whatsoever our hands find to do we should do it with our might," remembering that the night cometh, when no man can work. But in the business world there are many temptations. There is the temptation to increase riches more rapidly by falsehood and dishonesty, to advance more rapidly in our professions at the sacrifice of the rights of others. These things are of daily occurrence even among professing Christians. Some claim that you cannot be honest and succeed. If so, then you had better fail. Failure with Christ is better than success without Christ. But men who carry their religion into their work do succeed. We should not be bluffed by the cry of the world. Opportunities may sometimes come to make seeming success more rapid through the sacrifice of our religion. But it is only seeming success. Young people should keep this in mind. Do not lie or steal for any employer. If you steadfastly refuse he will realize your value and probably raise you to a higher position rather than discharge you. And if he should do the latter the business world is greatly in need of honest, upright, trustworthy men, and God will take care of you. Resist every temptation to do wrong in your work, and you will never regret it.

2. Being a Christian in play. The serious, earnest worker deserves a time for play or for recreation and amusement. "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," and men are but boys a little older grown. The Master retired frequently with His disciples for rest. Any healthful and sinless amusement or recreation is suitable for a young Christian. Christ Himself was no ascetic. He did not absent Himself from the social and joyful features of life. He attended a wedding, usually a most festive occasion, and on a number of occasions accepted invitations to feasts and dinners. The disciple can follow the example of his Master even in this respect. As to the character of the amusements in which we can rightly take part, each one must decide for himself. Whatever harms us morally and spiritually must be omitted. Whatever gives enjoyment and pleasure without such results may be indulged in. Go where you can take Christ. Stay away from any place where you would not like to see Him or His ambassador, your pastor. Do what you feel He can bless. Omit what you feel you could not ask Him to bless. If in whatever you enjoy you can be a Christian, have no fear, but if there be a doubt in your mind give your religion the benefit of the doubt. In either case you will be safe.

BIBLE READINGS.

Prov. xii, 25; xv, 13, 15; Neh. v, 9-12; Mark ii, 14, 15; John ix, 4; Acts viii, 5-18; 26-39; I Cor. xv, 58; Gal. vi, 9, 10; Phil. iv, 4.

Christian Endeavor's Figures.

1881—1 society.
1882—7 societies.
1883—56 societies.
1887—2,314 societies.
1890—11,013 societies.
1898—52,022 societies.
1903—62,126 societies.
1908—69,138 societies.

What We Stand For.

[A statement made by the Rev. J. H. Garrison, D. D., a trustee, from the Disciples of Christ of the United Society of Christian Endeavor.]

For the Christ of Galilee,
For the truth that makes men free,
For the bond of unity
Which makes God's children one.

For the love which shines in deeds,
For the life which this world needs,
For the church whose triumph speeds
The prayer, "Thy will be done."

For the right against the wrong,
For the weak against the strong,
For the poor who've waited long
For the brighter age to be.

For the faith against tradition,
For the truth against superstition,
For the hope whose glad fruition
Our waiting eyes shall see

For the city God is reading
For the new earth now ap[illegible],
For the heaven above us clearing
And the song of victory.

MR. PRATT

A Tale of the Cape Cod Fisher Folk

By

Joseph C. Lincoln

Author of "Cap'n Eri," "Partners of the Tide," Etc.

Illustrations by T. D. Melvill

Copyright, 1907, A. S. Barnes & Company.

I fetched a long breath. "Well, Mr. Opper—Hopper, I mean—" I says, "you can say what you want to, but I'll still hang on to my first notion. I think the whole crew is stark, raving crazy."

I'd noticed that he hadn't been pulling at my cigar much—a good five-cent Bluebell cigar 'twas, too. Now he put it down, kind of like 'twas loaded.

"My good feller," he says. "Would you mind if I tried one of me own weeds? 'Ave one yourself," says he.

I took the cigar he handed me. It was one of Van Brunt's particular brand.

"Humph!" thinks I, "your bosses may be simpletons for the love of it, Brother James, but not you. No, sir-ee! You're in it for the value of the manifest."

In another half hour or so the Heavenly Twins showed up alongside. And then 'twould have done you good to see that valet's back get limber. He bowed and scraped and "Sirred" till you couldn't rest. They spoke to him like he was a dog and he skipped around with his tail between his legs like he was one—a yellow one, at that.

When we'd passed the point out comes that everlasting book and the Twins got at it.

"Van," says Martin Hartley, setting up and taking notice; "the Natural Life for mine. I envy the lucky devils who've had it all their lives."

'Twa'n't none of my affairs, but I shoved my oar in here—couldn't help it.

"You fellers ain't getting the real article—not yet," says I. "There's a hotel over back of the village where the boarders get the ginuine simple life—no frills included," I says.

They was interested right off.

"Where's that, skipper?" says Van Brunt. "What's its name?"

"Well," says I, "folks round here call it the poorhouse."

Then they both laughed. Good nice fellers, as I said afore, even if they was crazy.

CHAPTER III.
Too Many Cooks.

It was a day or so after that that I see Nate Scudder again. I'd been out in the sloop with a parcel of boarders—they were beginning to get thicker at the Old Home now, same as the mosquitoes—and on my way home I met Nate driving down the Neck road. He was in the carryall and I hailed him as he come abreast of me.

"Hello, Nate!" I says. "Taking the air, are you?"

He pulled up his horse—it didn't take a hard pull—and, while the critter leaned up against the shafts and took a nap, Nate talked to me. It appeared that there'd been more or less trouble down his way. Huldy Ann and Lord James hadn't agreed any too well.

"You see," says Nate, taking a calico handkerchief out of his hat and swabbing his bald head with it, "it's that valet feller—he's too stuck-up to live."

I wa'n't going to fight with him on that point, so he went ahead with his yarn.

"He come parading out to the barn," says Nate, "and give out that he'd been appointed cook in Huldy Ann's place. Well, she'd been sort of laying herself out, as you might say, to please them two up at the house—giving 'em spider bread and dried apple pie for breakfast, and the like of that—and it riled her to be chucked overboard that way. So she got sort sarcastic. That Opper man, he—"

"His name's Hopper," I says.

"He don't call it so, then."

"That's all right. Him and I had a spelling match here t'other day and Hopper it is," I says.

"Well, then, this Hopper feller he lorded it round, asking where the double biler was and complaining that he couldn't cook steak without a charcoal fire, and so on. Huldy took him down, I tell you!

"'Charcoal your granny!' says she. 'I've fried more steak than you've got hairs on your head, and a plain wood fire always done me,' she says.

"He cooked that steak, and say! I'll bet the Iron-Jawed Man I see once at a dime show up to Boston couldn't have got away with it. Tough! Why, the pesky idiot never pounded it a bit! How do you expect to get tender steak if you don't pound it? Haw! haw!"

When he got through laughing he went on to say that him and Huldy had decided to go over to her sister's at Ostable for a visit.

"We've been intending to go for a good while," he says. "And now we can do it without its costing much. Pay for the house goes on whether we're there or not, and the railroad fare'll be more than made up by the saving in our own grub. I'm a peaceable feller, anyhow," says he, "and there'd be no peace while Huldy and that Britisher was together."

WALSH'S Candy

SPECIALS THE FRESHEST.

You should always remember that the Freshest made Candies in our stores are the Advertised Daily Specials. They are usually made within 24 hours from time of their sale. This is one reason why our Daily Special Sales are so successful.

FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY THIS WEEK.

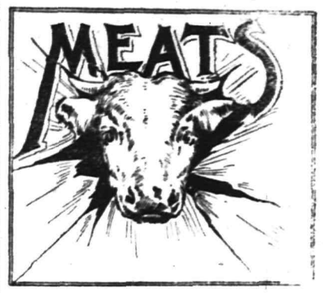
Turkish Nut Caramels, lb. 10c
Creamed Almonds, lb. 15c

FOR SATURDAY ONLY.

Nutted Fig Wafers, lb. 19c
Chocolate Coffee Walnuts, lb. 29c
Dutch Milk Chocolate Creams, lb. 35c
Assorted Creams, coated with Milk Chocolate, delicious!

R. Walsh & Co.

Makers of Sweets.
157 Market St., 671 Broad St., Newark, N. J.
83 Broad St., Elizabeth, N. J.
157 Newark Ave., Jersey City.
Wholesale Department now at 350 Plane St., near Market St., Newark.



Our Refrigerators are filled with Fancy Philadelphia Broilers, Roasting and Fricasseeing Chickens, Jumbo Squab. Hunterdon County Spring Lamb, Tender, Juicy Roasts and Steaks from Native Beeves.

Milk Fed Veal
Jersey Pork

Delicious Sugar-Cured Hams & Bacon Home made Sausage. All Yours to Command at

The ENDRESS CO.

131-135 West Front Street.
'Phone 690.

Satisfaction assured as there is nothing finer produced. Orders called for and promptly delivered.

THE VAN DYK SYSTEM

has reduced the tea and coffee business to a science. It means to you

BETTER TEA, BETTER COFFEE and Lower Price. Visit a Van Dyk Store and share in these advantages.

VAN DYK'S

127 WEST FRONT ST.,
Bet. Park and Madison Aves.
50 BRANCHES IN 20 CITIES.

Lumber Bargain!

The largest quantity of lumber in Plainfield can be found in my yard.

Large and Small Timbers.

Cut prices on new lumber for one week more.

A. KANE
YARD, 312 Filmore Ave.
Telephone 522-J.

BOYNTON
Square Pot
FURNACES

Greatest heat from least coal; minimum care-taking—all direct benefits of the wonderful Square Pot (patented). Ask dealer.
Boynton Furnace Co., New York—Chicago.

WASHINGTON ROCK SPRING WATER

Bottlers of high-class soft drinks, Ginger Ale, Soda Water and Pure Spring Water, and Siphon Goods. Private families' and parties' patronage is solicited.

Henry Pedeflous,
TELEPHONE 670-R
Hotel Pedeflous, Plainfield

Blue Stone Sidewalks.

If you want the best Blue Stone sidewalks, curbs, etc., call on

J. W. Manhattan,
50 Elm St.

FURNITURE.

Repaired and upholstered. Equal to new. Send a postal to
HARRISON, 140 CENTRAL AVE.,
Cabinet maker, Polisher, Mattress Maker.

Press Want Ads. Pay

New Jersey Central

In Effect January 26, 1908.

For New York—2.17, 3.37, 5.36, 6.02, 6.29, 6.57, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.47, 7.55, 8.00, 8.11, 8.30, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.59, 10.28, 10.56 a. m., 12.00, 12.19, 12.42, 1.06, 1.27, 2.21, 3.44, 5.09, 5.42, 6.12, 6.45, 6.53, 6.29, 6.48, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.27, 9.31, 10.17, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.17, 3.37, 4.47, 7.28, 7.55, 8.52, 9.34, 9.45, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.46, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.29, 6.57, 7.05, 7.25, 7.28, 7.47, 8.11, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.59, 10.56 a. m., 12.42, 1.09, 1.27, 2.21, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.45, 5.53, 6.29, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.31 p. m. Sunday—7.28, 8.52, 9.34, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.46, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.25, 9.56 a. m., 2.00, 5.22, 6.47 p. m. Sundays—6.45 a. m., 2.03, 5.47, 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 5.47 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.37, 8.11, 10.55 a. m., 12.42 (Saturdays only), 3.42, 4.45, 5.53, 8.27, 11.28 p. m. Sundays—8.37, 8.52 a. m., 3.30, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.37, 9.29 a. m., (12.42 Saturdays only), 1.27, 2.44 (3.42 Lakewood only), (5.58 Lakewood only, Saturdays only) p. m. Sundays—(7.56 Lakewood only), 9.45 a. m., 1.45 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.13, 7.39, 8.45, 9.12, 10.43 a. m., 12.13, 12.42, 1.39, 2.14, 2.45, 6.13, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 1.17 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.53, 10.39, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.55, 5.39, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 11.26, 1.17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m. Sundays—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

"Change cars at Bound Brook.

W. G. BESLER, Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, Gen. Pass. Agt.

Arrival and Departure of Mails

PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.
Office opens 7 a. m., closes 7 p. m.
On Saturdays close half hour later.

NEW YORK MAIL.
Arrive—7:00, 8:40, 11:30 a. m., 2:30, 5:00 5:30, 9 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:20, 6:00 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 1:30, 3:15 and 7 p. m
Close—7:30 a. m., 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40 and 11:30 a. m., 2:35 7:00 p. m.
Close—7:15, 7:30, 9:30 a. m., 12:35, 2:20 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST
Close—1:00 and 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST AND SOUTH.
Close—12:35, 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton.
Close—12:35 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:30 a. m., 2:20, 6:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:15, 7:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:20 and 6:00

WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m.
Close—9:00 a. m.

WATCHUNG.
Close—5:30 p. m.
Arrive—6:45 p. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M.

Advertisements
—FOR—
New York Herald,
World, Times, Sun, Journal,
Telegram, American,
Brooklyn Eagle
—and—
Newark Evening News
Received at
The Daily Press
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

Complete line of AUTOMOBILE Supplies and Tires
AT LOWEST NEW YORK PRICES.
Thompson Auto Co.
413 Park Ave. Tel. 991-J

Mrs. John Brown,
Successor to
John Burke and Jones & Co.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned from $3.00 Upwards.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Don't give your order until you consult me
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at
J. T. Vail's, North avenue, Plainfield, N. J.
Postoffice Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

We have made arrangements for a larger supply of first-class milk and and are giving the family trade our special attention... If you are not satisfied with the milk or the services you are getting give us a trial.

Price 9 cents a quart, 5 cents a pint. Cream 14 cents a ½ pint. ...

Lindsay's Dairy,
965 West Front St.
TEL. 792-J.

J. NEUSTADT
MERCHANT TAILOR,
Ladies' Tailoring a Specialty. Cleaning, Pressing, Altering at lowest prices. Work called for and delivered. Formerly with R. A. Rieley, Fifth Avenue, New York.
Spring and Summer Styles now ready.
430 WATCHUNG AVENUE
Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 668-W.

NOTICE TO MEN.
Don't Throw Away Your Old Clothes.
Highest Prices Paid for Same.
I. RICHARD, - - 17 Somerset St.

MULLINS & SONS
218-220 Market St., Newark.

Housekeepers' Sale.

Prices that are the marvel of the furniture trade. Reductions before unheard of. Values the greatest we have ever been able to offer, and possibly now only through the immense purchases of the combined Mullins' Stores.

Brass Beds 16.98.

$30.00 BRASS BED..... 16.98

Like cut. Specially reduced price that will silence competition. All brass, strong and well made, finished with extra quality French lacquer.

Chiffonier.

Quartered oak or mahogany, serpentine front, carved mirror frame, artistic shaped French plate mirror

12.50.

You may have seen chiffonieres at this price but not at this value.

75 chiffonieres in solid oak to be closed out this week at 10.50.

10.00 Upright Refrigerator
4.39.

Hardwood, double lined, dry cold air, ice cover, White Mountain make.

Stone White, cold dry air, superior refrigerators 17.25.

Go-Carts 1.29.

Adjustable, rubber tires, steel wheels.

Folding Go-Carts 5.79.

With parasol.

4.50 Reed Rockers

As shown. Large, comfortable, fine reed well made; special at 1.69.

200 High-grade Sewing Machines - - - - - 11.98

Ball bearing, dust proof, beautiful cabinet finished wood work. Regular sold for 25.00 and 30.00.

OPEN SATURDAY TILL 10 P. M.
LOWEST PRICES—$1.00 WEEKLY.

LAWN TOOLS

It isn't too late to buy if you have discovered that you need a new Mower this year. You must have heard of our easy running, close cutting, durably constructed Lawn Mowers. They have world-wide reputation.

We also have all other kinds of tools for lawn and garden development.

HOSE, REELS, SPRINKLERS, RAKES, GRASS SHEARS, HOOK, WEEDERS, EDGERS, PRUNERS, ETC.

Gayle Hardware Company

Tel. 468-R. Front St. and Park Ave.

DELIGHTS BEYOND PARALLEL

are the rewards of motor enthusiasts who participate in or witness the annual automobile contests on Ormond's coquina sands. The ideal trip is by the

CLYDE LINE STEAMERS

the only direct all-water route from

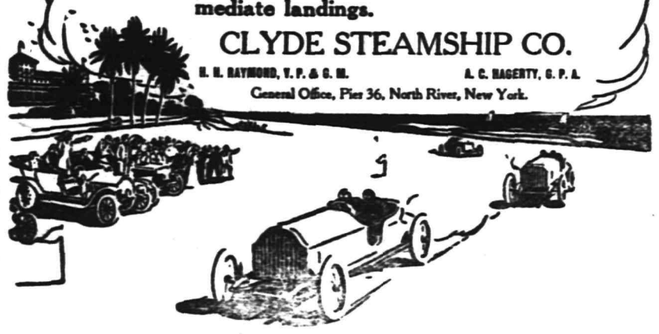
New York to Jacksonville, Florida

with a short stop at Charleston, S. C.

St. Johns River Service between Jacksonville, Palatka, De Land, Sanford and Enterprise, Fla., and intermediate landings.

CLYDE STEAMSHIP CO.

E. E. RAYMOND, T. P. & G. M. A. C. HAGERTY, G. P. A.
General Office, Pier 36, North River, New York.



W. D. THICKSTUN, Agent, 197 North Avenue.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR
TRUNKS, SUIT CASES OR BAGS
CALL AT
O. M. DUNHAM'S, 129 Park Ave
TRUNK STRAPS—ALL SIZES.

COAL DEALERS.

Difference In Coal.

All coals may look alike to some people, but compare our "Lehigh" Coal with the Coal you bought somewhere else and you will see a difference.

You will notice that our Coal Burns Brighter, Gives More Heat, and Lasts Longer than any other Coal you ever bought before.

Boice, Runyon & Co.,
Coal, Lumber and Masons' Materials.
Park Ave., opp. North Ave., Plainfield N. J.

JOS. HARRIGAN
OLD COMPANY'S LEHIGH COAL.
Tel. 198 929 South Ave.

The best time to order your winter supply of
COAL
is now. Do not forget that
NASH
is ready to supply you.
Telephones 357-W 833-J.
Evenings 371-W.
OFFICE—130 WATCHUNG AVENUE

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers' Inn.
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 218 West Front Street. Telephone 23-L.

Coal I have on hand some very fine Hard and Medium Coal. All kept under sheds. Pea Coal. Coal
25 cents a ton reduction on cash orders.
L. A. RHEAUME,
148 East Fourth St. Telephone 440-W.
Yard, 674 South Second St. Telephone 280.

GEORGE O. STEVENS
747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. H. Rugg & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 430 West Third St. Tel. 93.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

We call your attention to our fine display of
New Wall Papers.
We can't describe the patterns, but they are new, striking and effective, and with our large assortment we are sure to please.
Paints, Oils and Varnishes.
Woolston & Buckle,
145 North Avenue.

STRIKING COLORS
should not be sought in preference to those that have good lasting qualities, but when
PAINTS
are to be had which are both brilliant and durable, take care to secure that kind.
We have all kinds and grades of Paints, Oils, Colors and Varnishes, suitable for all kinds of work at the lowest prices to be found in this city.
Jas. C. Hansen,
Dealer in Wallpapers, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc
141 East Front Street
Estimates Furnished

1908 Wall Papers.
IMPORTED & AMERICAN GOODS.
C. CONOVER & CO.
Decorators, Painters and Paperhangers, Window and Plate Glass.
115 Elmwood Pl. Tel. 1145

W. S. CHEEVER
1326 Park Ave.
Painting and INTERIOR DECORATING, WALL PAPER of every description at the Lowest Prices.
'Phone No. 538-J.

FOR A
CLEAN SHAVE AND GOOD HAIR CUT
TRY THE
Burns' Tonsorial Parlors
Shoes Polished FREE with Every Shave.
Special Attention to Children's Hair.
212 WATCHUNG AVENUE

AZIENZA
cures pimples and all inflammation of the skin. Used by people of refinement. Medicinal and toilet—35 and 50 cents.
CREAM.

"Case of too many cooks spoiling the soup, hey?" says I.

"Soup!" he says. "Well, you wait a little spell. If they ain't chasing around after a new cook inside of a week I'm a Jonah, that's all."

He was right. Couple of days later I heard from Emmie T. that the Twins had hired Hannah Jane Purvis to do the cooking for 'em. Hannah Jane's late lamented had been cook on a Banks boat when he was young, so I suppose she cal'lated she'd inherited the knack. But I had my doubts.

I was getting real chummy with the Heavenlies by this time, so one afternoon I walked up to the Scudder place to see 'em. They were sprawled out on the piazza chairs with their feet on the railing and they hailed me as friendly as if I was rich as they was, instead of being poorer than Job's turkey. I noticed Lord James tiptoeing around in the parlor, so I naturally mentioned him.

"Your valet-man, here," I says; "he wa'n't quite to the skipper's taste as cook, hey?"

They both laughed, Van Brunt with his big good-natured "Ha, ha!" and Hartley with that quiet chuckle of his.

"James," said Van, "is a glittering success in the wardrobe, but he dislikes to hide his talents under a kitchen bushel."

"James," said Hartley, "appears to apply the same methods to trousers and steak."

"Presses both of 'em, don't he?" I says, thinking of Scudder's yarn.

"Flat as a board," says Van. "Besides which, this is supposed to be a pleasure cruise for Martin and me, and James serves with the cheerful dignity of an undertaker. He's too complex; we yearn for simplicity and rest."

I grinned. "Well, you've got the simplicity with Hannah, ain't you?" I asked. "I ain't saying nothing about the rest."

Both of 'em groaned. I knew Hannah Jane Purvis, and she had the name of talking the hinges off a barn door.

"Lord!" says Van. "Let's change the subject. By the way, Martin; it's odd that Agnes hasn't written."

Hartley was setting out towards the front of the porch where the sun could get at him. Now he shifted back into the shadow of the vines.

"Is it time for a letter to reach here?" he asked.

"Why, yes. I should think so. She was to reach New York on the first and sail on that day. She would probably write on the seamer. It was a fast boat and, allowing that the letter came back immediately—well, I don't know that it is time yet."

He began to whistle. I gathered that 'twas the Page girl he was talking about. The valet had told about her going on a trip to Europe. But it struck me that, for an engaged man, Van Brunt was the easiest in his mind of anybody ever I see. I've never been engaged myself, but judging by them I've known who was, he'd ought to be shooting telegrams to Europe faster than you could shake 'em out of a pepper box.

Neither of 'em spoke for a minute. Then Hartley asked, quiet as usual: "Have you written her, Van?"

"Oh, yes; dropped a line the other day, telling her we were safe and duly housed and so on. Whooped up the joys of the 'Natural' and begged her to 'go thou and do likewise.' Which she would like to do, probably, but which also—if I know her highly respected mamma—she won't."

"Where did you address your letter?" Hartley asks, after a little.

"Liverpool, care of her usual hotel. She'll get it all right—always provided she hasn't already organized a settlement colony of small Hooligans in the Liverpool slums. But there! Let's forget morals and matrimony. Heigho! Wonder what's doing in the Street? Not that I care a red."

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

REVIVAL OF ORDERS FOR LOCOMOTIVE COMPANY.

New York, May 7.—The American Locomotive Company will begin work on the forty-nine locomotives ordered by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western as soon as specifications are completed. Some of the locomotives will be passenger and some freight. It has not been definitely decided in which plants the locomotives will be built.

The locomotive company expects also to get to work soon on the fifty locomotives ordered a few days ago by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul. These locomotives also will be part passenger and part freight. They will be used on the St. Paul's extension.

Both the Lackawanna and St. Paul locomotives will be built and delivered within the next three or four months. The locomotive company is now at work on the 136 locomotives ordered a few weeks ago by the New York Central. The delivery of these locomotives on a large scale will begin soon.

With these orders it will be possible for the locomotive company to keep one or more of its plants in operation for some time, even if no further orders are received.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

—The Public Service Corporation has been repairing its roadbed on West Front street by spreading fine crushed stone between the tracks, filling up the numerous depressions.

—The brick pavement work has been completed on West Front street as far as Madison avenue, with the exception of a short strip near Somerset street. Unless rain interferes it will be entirely completed within the next few days.

When considering a trip abroad or to the mountains or seashore, the problem of the safety of your valuables presents itself.

A quick solution is to lodge them in our Safe Deposit Vaults; no further concern need then be felt for them. "Safety for Valuables" is a booklet descriptive of our storage facilities. Write for it.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Travelers' Cheques.

Baseball and General Sports

P. H. S. TRACK TRYOUTS FOR THE SCHOOL TEAM

For the purpose of giving the Plainfield High School track material a try out in preparation for the interscholastic tract meet to be held at New Brunswick within a few weeks, a track meet will be held at the Plainfield Driving Park Monday afternoon, when the team will be selected. Place winners in the events of this trial meet will constitue the team to rperesent the school at New Brunswick.

Manager Stanley Robins has arranged to have the events the same as those of the interscholastic meet, and "dope" on the school team's chances in the Rutgers meet will be circulating after Monday's events. The school is strong in the sprints and middle distance runs, and should also make a good showing in the jumps. There are no good men for the weight events.

The list of events for Monday's meet follows: 100-yard dash, in two classes, over and under 16 years of age; 220-yard dash in two similar classes; 440-yard dash; .880-yard run; running broad jump; running high jump; 12-pound shot put; pole vault, and hammer throw. Pupils of the school who are below curriculum grade in their school work will not be allowed to represent P. H. S. at New Brunswick, so the entry lists will not be very large.

H. R. M. A. NINE BEATS BOROUGH HIGH, 14-9

Slippery ground and a wet ball caused lots of errors by the North Plainfield High School nine at Finderne yesterday afternoon, and the Hudson River Military Academy team won handily by a score of 14-9. A total of ten errors was tallied against the North Plainfielders, and in most cases the misplays meant runs for the military school team. Smith and Day, who pitched for the boroughites, were touched for seven hits, fanning five and giving four passes. The local players made four hits and but two struck out. Two players walked to first. The summaries.

H. R. M. A. 2 0 5 1 0 0 6 0 0—14
N. P. H. S. 0 0 1 3 0 0 0 5 0— 9

H. R. M. A.: Walsh, 1b; Higgins, c; Grief, 3b; Lockwood, 2b; R. O'Farrell, ss and p; Brenner, p and ss; E. O'Farrell, lf; Bushman, rf; Del Hoyal, cf.

N. P. H. S.: P. Bailey, lf; F. McClintock, c; Smith, ss and p; Conroy, 3b and ss; Overton, 1b; B. McClintock, 1b; Bowlinson, cf and 3b; Day, p; A. Bailey, rf; Hartley, cf.

Umpires: Lieutenant Wilson, of H. R. M. A.; Benjamin Phelps, of N. P. H. S.

MISS EDNA WILDEY NOW IN TENNIS SEMI-FINALS.

Miss Edna Wildey, the Country Club tennis player, paired with Mrs. Harold Minott in the women's indoor tennis tournament at St. Nicholas rink, sprang a surprise on the gallery at the rink yesterday afternoon when she and her partner defeated Miss Elizabeth H. Moore and Mrs. William H. Pouch and won their way into the semi-final round of the big tournament. The scores were 6-4, 2-6, 8-6.

The principal interest in the afternoon's play was in this set, which was closely contested by several long rallies. Each pair won a set, and in the deciding set, Miss Moore was within a single stroke of winning three times. Her line drives gave her side the vantage point, but each time Miss Wildey brought the score to deuce by her good smashing. Miss Wildey and her partner will play Miss Elsie Little and Miss Louise Hammond in the semi-final round today.

Miss Natalie Wildey, the winning Plainfielder's sister, was less fortunate in yesterday's play, for she and her partner, Miss Gertude de Coppet, were defeated by Mrs. A. H. McCarthy and Miss Leonard. The scores, 3-6, 8-6 and 9-7 show the closeness of the play.

Form Athletic Organization.

The young men of the Monore Avenue church have organized an athletic organization with the following officers: President, N. Mansfield Smith; vice-president, John Fritts; secretary, George Fisher; treasurer, Louis Burger; trustees, for one year, Arthur Fitts; for two years, Samuel Dent; for three years, William McCormack. The association will place a baseball team in the field with John Fritts as manager.

EAGLES' ANNUAL BALL BRINGS OUT BIG CROWD.

Plainfield Aerie, No. 866, F. O. E., held the annual reception and ball in the Casino last night. Despite the threatening weather in the early part of the evening, the attendance was a record breaker, the floor at times being crowded to its capacity. George T. Carroll, Robert Swart and many other enthusiastic Eagles from Elizabeth, as well as State officers, were in attendance.

Suhr's Imperial orchestra furnished the music for dancing and the floor management was in charge of Rudolph Kampf and William Waglow. A supper was served at midnight. Out-of-town guests were welcomed by a reception committee of which Arthur G. Adams was chairman.

The committee of arrangements was composed of Silvester Abieneste, chairman; P. W. Guinee, William Waglow, T. Kromer, J. Callahan, Hugh Reilly, J. H. Adams, A. G. Adams, Frank McCabe and R. P. Kampf.

CLEVELAND GAINS STEADILY.

Formal Statement by Mrs. Cleveland Issued at Lakewood.

On account of the conflicting reports about the condition of ex-President Grover Cleveland, who has been ill at the Lakewood Hotel for the past seven weeks, Mrs. Cleveland has decided to issue a formal statement as to her husband's condition each night.

The statement issued at the hotel last night was: "Mrs. Cleveland says that Mr. Cleveland is getting along very nicely and is gaining steadily."

Dr. Bryant returned to Lakewood yesterday morning and is with Mr. Cleveland tonight.

STEERS CLIMB STAIRS.

Invade Flat and it Takes Two Hours To Get Them Out.

Hoboken, May 7.—Two steers which broke from a herd being driven to a slaughter house in Henderson street yesterday morning, dashed into the vestibule of the double flat house, 552 Newark street. When herders followed, they ran up the stairway and became wedged in the hall on the second floor.

The police reserves and firemen worked in vain for two hours in trying to get the animals out. Finally a fireman blindfolded them, and they were led to the street.

Killed by Express Train.

Struck by the Lehigh Valley express from Chicago near Oak Tree, yesterday, Michael Nolan, a track walker living at South Plainfield, was instantly killed. The body, which was horribly mangled, was identified yesterday afternoon. Nolan, who has been in the employ of the railroad for the past twelve years, lived in the McDonough flats at South Plainfield and is survived by a wife and two children. He was about forty years of age.

Guest at Engineer's Dinner.

Former Mayor William L. Saunders, of the borough, president of the Ingersoll Road Company, will be one of the guests at a complimentary dinner to be given to Charles M. Jacobs at Sherry's, New York, tonight, in honor of his achievements in connection with the construction of the Hudson River tunnels.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Harry Connor, of Bridgeton, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Fritts of West Fifth street.

Mrs. E. C. Deal, of East Front street, has returned home after a visit with relatives at Baltimore.

Mrs. N. Pendleton Rogers, formerly of this city, has been spending a few days in town with friends.

George Wiltse, of the New York Giants, has been visiting his brother, "Lou" Wiltse, of the New Madison.

Mrs. Louis Wooley and Mrs. Minnie Wooley, of Farmingdale, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alpaugh, of West Fifth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGreevy, of West Sixth street, left yesterday for Pensacola, Fla., where they will spend several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Givens, who have been in California for the past year, have retunred to the city and are making their home with Mrs. Givens' mother, Mrs. Graves, of Liberty street.

Rev. A. S. Peck, of St. Stephen's church, will sail for Europe early in June. He will be away the rest of the summer. He has not yet decided as to who will take his place during his absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Murphy, of East Second street, will soon leave for Denver, Col., where they will visit Rev. Lester Leggett, formerly of this city, who is pastor of a church in Denver. They will be away several months.

No Turnout Likely.

There seems to be little likelihood now that the Public Service Corporation will install a turnout on West Fourth street, near Liberty in the near future. The opposition in the Common Council to the proposition is almost sure to hold it up. This means the company will not be able to improve its local trolley service as intended. The company did not request permission to place the turnout at the point mentioned, the fact being that when the Fourth street line was built the plans called for one near Liberty street. The company failed to put it there, and now it was the intention to compell the company to do so. A city official in speaking of the matter yesterday said, "little improvement can be expected in the trolley service if the Common Council is going to block every move for its betterment."

No Fire House This Year.

On account of the message sent to the Common Council Monday night by Mayor Fisk, in which he urged the members to defer any further improvements of streets or the building and equipment of the East End fire house, it is the opinion that the new fire house will not be erected this year. Several members of the Council are opposed to the expense at present, believing with the Mayor that some of the other bonds should be disposed of first. One official declared today that it would not mean much of a loss to defer the improvement until another year. The city has purchased a good site for the fire house and it is the opinion that it can afford to wait awhile before increasing the city's indebtedness.

Attended Loyal Legion Meeting.

The quarterly meeting and banquet of the New York Commandery, Military Order Loyal Legion, was held last night at Delmonico's, New York, when the annual election took place. Rear Admiral Joseph B. Coughlan was re-elected commander, and Recorder A. Noel Blakeman was re-elected over Lieut. Barker, who opposed the former in a lively manner. The paper of the evening was read by Adjutant Henry O. Dwight, 20th Ohio Vol. Infantry, enttiled: "Every Day in Sherman's Army." The Plainfield members attending included Captain S. C. Peck, Captain M. C. Dobbins, Dr. F. S. Wells, Major W. D. W. Miller, Rev. Dr. W. S. Hubbell, DeWitt C. Hubbell, Walter C. Dobbins, W. F. Merrill.

Their Wedding Announced.

Announcement was made today of the marriage of Miss Estelle Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Tiger, of Lee place, and Harry E. Bentley, of New York. The weding took place on Sunday, April 5, at the parsonage of the Dutch Reformed church, Lebanon, Hunterdon county, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Bovey, officiating. The announcement caused considerable surprise among the friends of the bride. She held a position in the New York office of the Liverpool & London Insurance Company, and is well known here in a large circle of friends. Until recently she was an attendant at Trinity Reformed church.

—Only one week to Kirmess.

—Coffee of the very best grades is to be had at Neuman Brothers. Their Mocha and Java or Old Government Java cannot be equalled anywhere in the city.

HOME GUARDS' MUSTER ROLL IN WAR OF 1812

Editor, The Daily Press:

The following is a copy of the original muster roll now in the possesison of William M. Stillman, signed October 13, 1812, for a company of North Plainfield home guards for the war of 1812 with Great Britain.

It may be of interest to many of our readers as the signatures appended, are the grandfathers and great-grandfathers of many of our present residents on both sides of the brook, viz:

"We, the undersigned, being inhabitants of the county of Somerset, in the State of New Jersey, above the age of forty-five years, do here voluntarily engage to volunteer ourselves to form a company to defend the State against our enemies or opposers whomsoever and wheresoever they be in this State. In witness whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names this 13th day of October, 1812.

Jacob Smalley, David Stewart, Rubon Dunn, Parkhurst Corry, Daniel Maxwell, Wm. E. Harris, Isaac Manning, Andrew Drake, Daniel Drake, Daniel Southlon, George Townley, John Cory, Gideon Allen, James Marshall, Dugal Ayers, John Cushing, Samuel Cushing, Benjamin Moore, David Smalley, Ezra Woden, Joseph Tingley, Isaac More, Thos. KirkPatrick, Jacob Tingley, Isaac Smalley, David Allen, Samuel Pope, Samuel Pangborn, John Taynor, Benj. Littill, Ephriam Tucker, Jonathan Drake, Archibald Barth, David French, Moses Millar.

HISTORICUS

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The Christian Endeavor Society meeting at the Park Avenue Baptist church tomorrow night will be of special interest. There will be no leader.

At the Plainfield Rescue Mission tonight at 8 o'clock in the W. C. T. U. rooms, L. W. Randolph will be the speaker. Good singing will be a feature.

Tried to Enter Wrong House.

Confused by the absorption of too much drink, Randolph Thorn was arrested by Chief Marshal Weiss, of the borough force late last night as he was trying to enter a Somerset street house where he had once had rooms. His former landlady refused to let him in and summoned the police. He was released on his own recognizance today and will come up for a hearing before Borough Recorder Dolliver tomorrow morning.

Light Plant for High Bridge.

High Bridge, May 7.—The Borough Council has decided to call a special election for June 9, for the purpose of bonding the borough for $15,000 to build a municipal lighting plant. At a recent special meeting a resolution was passed by unanimous vote of the Council for the erection of a municipal plant.

"Get the Hook."

A barrel of fun is to be on tap at the New Plainfield theatre, tonight, when Manager Counihan will introduce a new batch of amateurs before the footlights. The entries are all local and the list of acts covers an unusual variety. Salisbury's pictures and illustrated songs will be given in the fore part of the evening.

Funeral of Michael Sweeney.

The funeral of Michael Sweeney, whose death occurred Monday after a long illness with diabetes, was held in St. Mary's church yesterday. The mass was said by Rev. Father Bogan and burial was in St. Mary's cemetery. Mr. Sweeney was sixty years old.

Storm Postponed Exhibition.

The exhibition of the Y. W. C. A. educational classes, including millinery, dress-making and embroidery, to have been held at the association today, has been postponed on account of the storm. It will be held tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Dinner For Y. M. C. A. Orchestra.

Arrangements are being made for a supper to be given for the members of the Y. M. C. A. orchestra at the association Thursday evening, May 21. Martin A. Korff, the leader, and Irving W. Bininger are preparing a list of speakers.

Born, Marries, and Dies on May 5.

Charles A. Gundaker, 74 years old, whose dates of birth, marriage, and death were each May 5, died Tuesday night at his home at Rahway, leaving a wife, four children, and sixteen grandchildren.

Commuters' Car Committee.

The Plainfield Commuters' Club, which recently elected officers as published in The Daily Press, has chosen A. V. Heely, Henry L. Hall, William C. Kinney and Howard W. Beebe, as a car committee.

At the meeting of the Women's Relief Corps tomorrow night arrangements will be completed for the Memorial Day exercises to be given by the children.

IN LIGHTSOME MOOD.

Irrepressible.

Through life the grafter scheming goes—
The thought's a blue one.
As soon as old trick we expose,
He learns a new one.

—Washington Star.

DOUBTFUL OF THE GUARANTEE.

Specific Clause Caused Increase in Price of Cloth.

The Arabs, and, indeed, all Moslems, have the practice of re-enforcing promises by adding to their word of honor the Arabic phrase, Inshallah—"please God." How much meaning it conveys in some lands of the east is told in the pages of "In Moorish Captivity."

The pious proviso is a very useful formula to the Moors, and is frequently used in making promises that they have no intention whatever of keeping, as they can then take refuge behind the Almighty when they are taxed with their breach of faith.

There is a story told of a man who kept a shop in Gibraltar, and who knew the ways of the Moor. To him one day came one of the faithful, who was desirous of buying some cloth. On being informed that the price was two dollars a yard, payment in 60 days, he replied:

"All right. I will take so much and will pay you in 60 days, Inshallah."

"No," said the vender, "the price is two dollars, payment in 60 days. For 60 days, Inshallah, the price is two dollars and a half."—Youth's Companion.

MUSICIANS OF TENDER YEARS.

Many "Youthful Prodigies" in the World of Melody.

Like so many of the world's great composers, Sir Edward Elgar was a "youthful prodigy" of exceptional gifts, as was proved by a recent performance of a suite composed by him at the immature age of 12. But even Sir Edward was probably not as precocious as one of his English predecessors, Samuel Wesley, who in his eighth year heard a regimental band play a march which he had composed for it. At 11 Franz Schubert had already placed several songs, string quartettes and piano pieces to his credit. Handel's first attempts at composition were made at eight, and Vieuxtemps, who began to scrape the strings of a tiny fiddle at two, is said to have been even more precocious. Sir Charles Halle was only four years old when he played in public a sonata expressly composed for him; Liszt was a public performer at nine, Chopin and Rubenstein at eight, Lady Halle and Joachim at seven, and at five Mozart composed a piece of music almost too difficult for his father to play.

Women's Rights in Brazil.

"The curse of Brazil lies in the great illiteracy of its men and women," declared Edward B. Norris, an Englishman who has been many years a resident of Rio Janeiro.

"According to the official government figures the illiteracy is 80 per cent. Certainly a country where only one man in five can read and write and only one woman in 20 has cause to blush at the ignorance of its people. A country of enormous area, yet with a population of only 16,000,000, Brazil is sadly handicapped by lack of modern enterprise and an enlightened citizenship. One of the most discouraging features of the country is the low esteem in which woman is held. A great many Brazilian girls marry by the time they are 12 years old and are grandmothers long before they are 30. Woman is regarded as a chattel, and in many a household of the republic never opens her mouth except at the bidding of her husband."

Cotton as a Food.

Absorbent cotton is practically pure cellulose and can be easily converted into a grape-sugar by the action of sulphuric acid. Cellulose and starch are identical in formula to the chemist. When we have learned to actually and cheaply transform cellulose into starch, says Red Cross Notes, absorbent cotton will become a source of food, and the struggle for existence for want of food will be at an end. When bread and cakes are made from absorbent cotton there will be no more "corners" in wheat, no famines, and no high-priced food.

Looking for the Angel.

A new city settlement worker was going the rounds of her district one bright spring morning. In a crowded tenement some five or six little children gazed inquiringly at her as she entered. "Well, well, children," she said, "I never saw so many soiled faces in my life. Why don't you use some soap and water?" "We are waiting for the angel, mum," replied Tommy Tuff. "What angel?" asked the young woman. "Why, de lady dat come frue here last week and give one of de kids a nickel to wash his face."

The Brain After Fifty.

The brain usually stops growing at about 50 and from 60 to 70 it is more likely to decrease. It has been related by Canon MacColl that Mr. Gladstone's head was constantly outgrowing his hats. As late as the Midlothian campaign, when he was nearly 70, he was obliged to have his head remeasured for this reason. Canon MacColl's conclusion that this continual growth of brain contributed to Mr. Gladstone's perennial youthfulness appears not unwarranted.

A Little Vague.

"Is it far from here to the next town?" asked a tourist of a man he met on a rural road.

"Well, it ain't so very fer, nor it ain't so very nigh, an' yit it ain't as nigh as might be if it wa'n't so fer as it is. Still, it'd be ferther if it wa'n't so nigh, so I reckon one might say that it is betwixt an' between fer an' nigh."—Lippincott's.

ROTH & CO'S

Fish Specials for Friday, May 8.

Weakfish, per lb - Flounders, per lb - 8c
Sea Bass, per lb - 12c
Cod (to boil), per lb - 12c
Halibut, per lb - 16c
Newport Porgies, 2 lbs - 25c
Boston Mackerel - 20c to 30c each

Shad, Bluefish, Eels, Fresh Haddock, Catfish Hard and Soft Clams.

EXTRA SPECIAL—Lobsters, all alive, per lb - 20c

Armour Star Hams, per lb - 12½c
For Friday and Saturday only.

ROTH & CO. 132 E. Front St. Tel. 208 and 802. Plainfield, N. J. 38 Markets in the State

New Jersey's Leading Butchers.

HOW ABOUT YOUR SUIT

We are showing the finest line of KIRSHBAUM SUITS AND TOP COATS in Brown, Olives, Grey and Blue. Can we not show you these even if you don't buy—the goods are good and prices right. All the new things in Shirts, Neckwear, Socks, Caps and Hats. We put our Straw Tiles on exhibition Today.

CLOTHING MADE-TO-ORDER

Werner's Clothing House

206 WEST FRONT STREET

IS IT NOT WORTH WHILE

To keep your account in an Institution as strong as this one?

CITY NATIONAL BANK

3% Interest on Satisfactory Daily Balances

Capital . . . $150,000.00
Surplus & Profits (All Earned) $225,000.00
Deposits . . $1,600,000.00

-:-EXTRA SPECIAL-:-

50 Suits for a quick clearance; this season's accumulations of 10.00, 12.00 and 15.00 Suits. Special for Friday and Saturday at 6.90.

THE PARIS CLOAK & SUIT STORE

214 W. FRONT ST.

BROKAW'S CREAMERY

No need to complain of getting poor butter or cream—go to Brokaw's and get his own make, which is always fresh and good. Our specialties are Fresh-made Butter, both salted and unsalted, Rich Milk and Cream, positively Fresh Eggs and everything in the dairy line. The only place in the city where these goods are made on the spot. Call and see our plant and witness the process.

TEL. 293-W 186 E. FRONT STREET

BARGAINS IN LOTS AT HIGHLAND PARK

Get your lot now before prices advance. Many houses to be built this year. Sewer, water, electric lights, shade trees and concrete sidewalks on all streets. You can buy lots from $200. to $400., on cash or easy payments.

ELSTON M. FRENCH,

171 North Avenue. Telephone 24. Plainfield, N. J.
NEW YORK OFFICE—141 Broadway. Tel. 5424 Cortlandt

USE PRESS WANT ADS

10 PAGES

THE DAILY PRESS.

10 PAGES

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1908. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

KIRMESS' PARTICIPANTS

Mayor Fisk Announces Complete List of Those Who Take Part in Dances.

AT THE HOSPITAL BENEFIT.

Young Men of Both City and Borough Will Help to Make the Venture a Success.

Mayor Charles J. Fisk today announced the complete list of participants for all the dances at the hospital kirmess at the New Plainfield theatre Tuesday, May 12, to Saturday, May 16, inclusive.

These take part in the principal dances:

Sailor's hornpipe—Mrs. Evarts Tracy, chaperone, assistant, Miss Martin: The Misses Florence L. Hall, Marion Archer, Dorothy Butler, Dorothy Blendinger, Eleanor Bucklin, Catharine Dutcher, Clara Neuman, Dorothy Simmons, and Robert Becker, Voorhees Borden, Jasper Pugh, Donald King, Charles Ivans, Robert Miller, Richard McIntyre, Rodman Parvis.

Steeplechase—Mrs. Charles J. Fisk, chaperone, assisted by Mrs. L. E. Waring: The Misses Mabel Hooley, Marion Hall, Caroline Hall, Mary Runkle, Helen Timpson, Eleanor Waring, Janet Wildey, Natalie Wildey, Dorothy Fisk, Anna Fisk, and Gordon Abbott, Dudley Barrows, Ames Brooks, Roy Cox, James Dodd, Morris Dumont, J. Hartley Mellick, George Schoonmaker, Harvey Fisk, Charles W. Fisk. Hunting solo by Miss Anna Fisk.

Japanese dance—Mrs. William Newcorn, chaperone; the Misses Berlowitz, Sadie Goldstein, Kadish, Tillie Kantor, Levine, Rose Mathanson, Rose Rothberg, Rosen Rosenson and Esther Wolf.

Russian dance—the Misses Muriel Crawford, Anne Edwards, Charlotte Gaston, Dorothy Koses, Theodora Muldaun, Marjorie Patterson, Margaret Walker, Dorothy Weaks.

White Dove dance—the Misses Marion Blanchard, Elizabeth Hanna, Sarah Hixon, Charlottee Morrell, Cathereine Vigeius, Cora Woodruff.

French dolls—Mrs. George A. Beaton chaperone; the Misses Gertrude Butler, Catharine Drayton, Margaret Fisher, Louise French, Pauline Gates, Gwendolyn Gough, Eleanor Iredell, Ruth Timpson.

The White Hussars—Mrs. H. G. Runkle chaperone, assisted by Mrs. Chapman Fisk and Mrs. Daniel Runkle; the Misses Euphemia Bakewell, Margaret McCutchen, Virginia Hegeman, Grace Kaufman, Ursula Rowland, Georgianna Smith, Helen Valiant, Mrs. Elliott Cutler and Messrs. Elliott Cutler, Harry Eaton, W. Lester Glenney, Charles King, Herbert Rogers, Daniel Runkle, William Schoonmaker, Philip Stillman.

The Swiss dance—Mrs. Katharine Douglass Glenn; the Misses Dorothy Barrett, Arline Brown, Marjorie Brown, Cora Brokaw, Daisy Brouard, Helen S. Callahan, May Doane, Aimee Emmons, Emma Foster, Emilie Harrigan, Viola Hellyer, Anna Littell, Florence Smalley, Dorothy Smith.

Harlequin dance—Mrs. George H. Goddard, chaperone; the Misses Elsie Burke, Grace Burke, Helen Brown Harriett Goddard, Elsie Goddard, Helen Merrill, Margaret Vandeventer, Frances Vandeventer, and Herbert Foster, Fred Goddard, Harold Hall, Stewart Johnston, Rudolph Kayser, Morgan Townsend, James Williams. Solo by Miss Elsie Goddard.

Tarantella dance—Mrs. Walter W. McGee, chperone, assisted by Mrs. James Joy; the Misses Elizabeth McGee, Ethel Most, May Murray, Ethel Murray, Gladys Peck, Rita Pond, Jean Saunders, Mollie Slocum, and Edwin Daniel, William Flanders, John Martin, Vaughn McGee, Arthur Reed, William Schoonmaker, Edward Suffern, John Vandeventer. Solo by Miss Marion Hall.

New Year's dance—Mrs. Henry L. Hall, chaperone, assisted by Miss May Faber; the Misses Anna Garriques, Marion Hall, Frances Hyde, Helen Moody, Gabriel McQuaide, Helen Stephens, Eudora Sullivant, Alice Curtis, Catharine Curtis, Susan Wharton, Felicia Zinkeisen.

Rustic dance—Miss Mary A. Smith, chaperone, assisted by Miss Gilligan; the Misses Elizabeth Casey, Nellie Casey, Elizabeth Fitzgerald, May Huntington, Helen Johnston, May Kennedy, Ellen Lappen, Helen Moran, May Murry, Annabel MacAfee, Mary McCarthy, Blanche Skinner, and William Brown, Edward Carty, Frank Casey, Thomas Connelly, James Cullen, Harry Forrestell, Edwin Harding, Jr., Thomas Kennedy, Jules Linke, James Lynch, Daniel MacAfee, Edward O'Loughlin.

Dutch dance—Mrs. Harry W. Marshal, chaperone; the Misses Mildred Barnes, Ruth Cline, Edna Coles, Marjorie Hart, Reba Marshall, Hattie Nischwitz, Laura Ray Warnock, Grace Woolston, and Frederick Allen, Edward Bingaman, Leroy Gates,

(Continued on page 4.)

BAPTIST MISSIONARY WORKERS PICK OFFICERS

The annual session of the Baptist Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of New Jersey brought mission workers at New Brunswick from all parts of the state yesterday. The delegates were welcomed by Miss M. R. Stelle, of the New Brunswick circle, the response being made by Mrs. E. O. Silver, of Orange.

Mrs. B. J. Shreve, of North Plainfield, read the secretary's report showing that the New Jersey society had voted to increase its gifts for missions to $12,000. These officers were elected:

President, Miss E. O. Silver, of Orange; vice-presidents, Miss Elizabeth Dimnock, Elizabeth; Mrs. W. R. Brooks, Morristown; Mrs. J. M. Dudley, Elizabeth; Miss Nora J. Forster, Jersey City; Miss C. B. Chapman, Montclair; Mrs. Killian, Trenton; Mrs. Anna Rue, Trenton; Miss Maggie Monford, New Monmouth; Miss Ida E. Slater, Matawan; Mrs. B. F. Hires, Bridgeton; Mrs. L. C. Wynn, Camden; Mrs. A. F. Young, Elizabeth; Miss Grace M. Davis, Newark; Mrs. W. J. Jones, Paterson; Mrs. C. B. Bacon, Camden; Mrs. F. C. Foster, Newark; Miss Bertha Hill, Paterson; Mrs. A. Sutphin, New Monmouth; Miss Bullock, Millville; Miss Pauline Long, New Brunswick; Miss Mary Buchanan; secretary, Mrs. C. L. Decker, East Orange; corresponding secretary, and treasurer, Mrs. B. J. Shreve, Plainfield. The former president, Mrs. Alonzo Pettit, of Elizabeth, was made an honorary president.

Given Farewell Surprise.

A successful surprise party, of the nature of a farewell, was tendered to Frank Toense, son of R. G. Toense, of Westervelt avenue, at his home Wednesday night. The affair was arranged by the Misses Margaret Toense and Kathryn Terry, as the family is shortly to move to Philadelphia. Dancing was a feature of the evening's entertainment, and refreshments were served at a late hour. Miss Kathryn Liable rendered several piano selections asd Miss Florence Williams played the violin. Among those present were the Misses Margaret Toense, Hazel Moore, Edna Mosher, Kathryn Terry, Madeline Seaman, Nora Callahan, Nora Meany, Dorothy Huntsman and Henrietta Hants; also Frank Toense, Daniel McCormack, Fred Zweifel, William Coyle, Harry Little, William Little, Arthur Thorn, Earl Moran, Bergen Naylor, Arthur Grisley and Walter Weber.

Negro Carried Revolver.

William Henry, a six-foot negro whose clothes hung in tatters, was picked up by Detective-Sergeant Flynn at the North avenue station, last night. When searched at Police headquarters a revolver and box of cartridges were found in his pockets. The police were afterward informed by a citizen that he had seen Henry in the Reading station at Twenty-fourth and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia, Wednesday night, and that he had attmepted to stab a gateman. He was arraigned in court, this morning, but was remanded until Detective-Sergeant Flynn could look into the Philadelphia story.

W. D. Murray at P. H. S.

William D. Murray, former president of the Plainfield High School Alumni Association, spoke to the pupils of the school at the opening exercisestoday, when he took for his topic "Moral Courage." Mr. Murray urged each of his hearers to live according to the courage of his or her own convictions, stating that such living meant more than merely physical courage in time of danger. Throughout his talk, he made several allusions to his undergraduate days, when he was a member of the class of 1875 at the old high school,—now the Stillman School. Special singing by the pupils was a feature of the morning exercises.

Mrs. Herbert D. Woodland.

Mrs. Jane Pedrick Woodland, wife of Herbert Dean Woodland, a former well known resident of the borough, died Wednesday night in a New York hospital. She was operated on two weeks ago and it was thought she was recovering but a relapse came Tuesday. Mrs. Woodland was a native of Flemington and the funeral will be held in the Methodist church at that place Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Woodland is the son of Hiram Woodland, who lived on Craig place for many years, and was employed for a long time by the Prudential insurance compasy. He has been residing in New York.

Removes to Germany.

The personal goods of Miss Emile Schipper, formerly of this city, are today being removed from storage on West Front street and placed in a large steel van for shipment to Germany. Miss Schipper's future home. The van, which is mounted on a large steel frame automobile, will be taken to New York and placed on a steamer for Germany.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

INVITE REALTY BOOMERS

Board of Trade to Entertain Members of N.J. and N.Y. Real Estate Exchange.

ENDORSE NEW PUBLICATION.

Advertising Proves Rich Investment—No Moving Picture Shows Are Wanted in the Town.

The heavy downpour of rain did not dampen the ardor of at least an even dozen members of the Board of Trade, who attended the May meeting, last night. While the numbers were small there was considerable enthusiasm. President H. W. Marshall was in the chair and through his efforts a lively discussion of various matters followed.

At the suggestion of Elston M. French, the Board voted to invite the Board of Governors of the New Jersey and New York Real Estate Exchange, to visit Plainfield and give the members a sight-seeing automobile trip of the city and vicinity. The date will be determined upon later. The purpose of the visit is to acquaint the real estate men with the advantages of Plainfield as a place of residence.

Francis K. Anderson, city editor of The Evening Times, of Elizabeth, appeared before the Board for the purpose of seeking its endorsement of a monthly periodical, to be known as "The Site Seeker," which will make its first appearance about July 1. Mr. Anderson stated that he was associated with Alden E. Moore, of The Daily Press office, who will attend to the advertising business of the magazine, while he will direct the editorial department. It was explained that in return for the endorsement and cooperation of the Board of Trade, four issues of the magazine each year will bedevoted exclusively to advertising Plainfield and the Board is to have the privilege of deciding what matter shall appear. The first issue will be distinctly a Board of Trade issue and will be fully illustrated with local views. It is the purpose of the publishers to circulate the magazine throughout the whole Metropolitan district, and to have a bona-fide circulation. This fact will permit the members of the Plainfield Merchants' Association to support the periodical and it will not affect them in regard to a resolution recently adopted refusing to advertise in only in newspapers having a bona-fide paid circulation. The magazine will contain thirty-two pages, size 6x9. The Board of Trade gave its unqualified endorsement and spoke highly of the proposition.

Three new members were elected, they being John H. Doane, A. E. Faber, Jr., and Dr. B. VanD. Hedges. Secretary A. S. Herr made a report on the trip of the representatives of the Board to the opening of the McAdoo tunnels, and he also presented a letter from United States Senator John Kean acknowledging one from the Board in respect to his efforts in introducing a bill for a public building in Plainfield.

The secretary also stated that he is constantly receiving letters of inquiry from all parts of the country from persons wanting information about housse and factory sites in Plainfield. This is the result of the newspaper advertising done in Metropolitan dailies. In this connection he read a letter from Edwin B. Wilcox a real estate broker of New York, who wants information about a site here for a metal factory, requiring 25,000 square feet of floor space. The matter will be attended to by Mr. Herr. Another moving picture concern wanted to locate here, but the members decided not to reply to the communication.

Preparing to Improve Streets.

Now that the ordinance providing for the macadamizing of a number of streets throughout the city has been passed on the third reading by the Common Council, the street committee will at once begin the preliminary work. It is not the intention of the committee to do all this work during the present year, yet an effort will be made to do as much as possible. The property-owners will pay two-thirds of the cost, while the city will pay the other third, the amount to be assessed the former being determined by a commission to be appointed by the court. Many of the streets included among those to be improved are in the residential section, which has been neglected for some time.

Miss Kelley's Party.

Miss Kelly entertained a number of her friends Wednesday night. A pleasant time was spent in dancing and with music. The guests were from Hoboken and Plainfield. Those present were the Misses D. Kelly, M. Flatley, A. McShane, M. Rafferty, D. Morley, and John Hopkins, R. Phillips, Joe Fitzmaurice, Peter Kelly, W. Burke, Martin Flatley, F. Malone and Peter McShane.

FORT HANDS OUT PLUMS

Several Newspapermen Named by Governor for Civil Service Commissioners.

DR. JOHNSON IS NOMINATED.

Board of Health, Revision Board and Judes Are Chosen—Tax Board Also Announced.

Dr. Willis Fletcher Johnson, of Union county, is a member of the Civil Service Commission named by Governor Fort today. His nomination along with those not requiring confirmation were presented to the Senate in special session at Trenton today. Charles Bateman, of Somerville, is also a member of the Civil Service body, his selection being credited to Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, while that of Dr. Johnson is due to Senator E. R. Ackerman's efforts. Dr. Johnson is a writer for the New York Tribune and during the fight for the passage of the bill championed the Union county Senator's ideas in that paper. Mr. Bateman is editor of the Somerville Unionist-Gazette.

The Governor's appointments follow:

Civil Service Commission—Willis Fletcher Johnson, Union, four years; James Kearney, Mercer, three years; Charles H. Bateman, Somerset, two years; Col. James R. Mulliken, Essex, one year.

State Board Equalization of Taxes—George M. McCarthy, Hudson; County Board Equalization of Taxes—Hudson, J. E. Connolly; Hunterdon, H. M. Voorhees; Middlesex, Frank Sansel.

State Board of Health—John H. Capstick, Warren, six years; Dr. Bruce S. Keator, Monmouth, five years; George C. Olcott, Essex, four years; H. M. Herbert, Somerset, three years; J. J. Marnell, Hudson, two years; W. H. Chew, Salem, one year.

Judges—First District Court, Newark, Malcolm MaceLar; Common Pleas, Hudson, Robert Carey, of Jersey City; Common Pleas, Essex, Thomas A. Davis, of Orange.

Commission to Revise Public Statutes—W. J. Magie, of Union; Joseph L. Munn, of Essex, and Geo. T. Werts, of Hudson.

James Kearney, of Mercer county, who is on the Civil Service Commission, like Bateman and Johnson, is a newspaper man. He is editor of the Trenton Times.

Seniors Have Final Rehearsal.

The dress rehearsal for "She Stoops to Conquer" to be given tomorrow night by members of the senior class, Plainfield High School, was held yesterday afternoon at the New Plainfield theatre. The interpretation of the play is in many respects different from the rendition given by the class of 1904, four years ago at the Casino and the pupils in the 1908 rendition have been carefully coached fro three months past. Practically the entire house has been sold out for tomorrow night's performance.

To Wed Tomorrow.

Miss Elizabeth Westcott, daughter of County Physician F. W. Westcott, of Fanwood, and George Smith Ranier, of Westfield, are to be married tomorrow night at the Scotch Plains Baptist church. The wedding will be at 6 o'clock and will be followed by a reception at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Westcott.

"Grant—the Man and Soldier."

Hugh Hastings, formerly New York State historian, but now holding the office of tax collector for the city of New York, will deliver an address before the Men's Club of Grace church, Monday night, on the subject of "Grant—the Man and Soldier."

Entertainment at Trinity.

Under the auspices of the Boys' Mission Band, of Trinity Reformed church, a musical and literary entertainment, together with a sale, will be held in the lecture room of the church tonight.

Rainfall was 3.58 Inches.

Weather Prophet John Neagle reports officially that the rainfall of the past two days was 3.58 inches, one of the heaviest for the length of time occuring this year.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Probably rain tonight and Saturday.

—Neuman Brothers will have an exceptionally big display of fruits and vegetables tomorrow. Choice strawberries, pineapples and grape fruit will be among the specialties. Everything will be strictly fresh.

Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will preach at the Seventh-Day Baptist church at 10:30 tomorrow morning. His text will be Psalm 139. Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis will lead the prayer meeting this evening.

TOWNSHIP OFFERS REWARD

Warren Authorities Will Pay $250 for Capture of the Bussis' Assailant.

ONE VICTIM'S DEATH EXPECTED

Attending Physician States Aged Husband Will Probably Succumb to Injuries Today.

Impelled to take official recognition of the crime by the indignation throughout the community, the members of the Warren township committee held a special meeting, last night, and voted to offer a reward of $250 for the capture of the negro who murderously assaulted Mr. and Mrs. John Bussi at their home in Mount Bethel Tuesday night. The money will be paid to any citizen or police officer as soon as the assailant is locked up and his identity established. It was stated at the meeting that there is a possibility of the Somerset county authorities offering a similar amount in order to keep posses on the search.

Not since the murder of Grocer George Williams on the Coontown road by George Wood, have the residents of Warren township been more stirred up by a crime than the attack on the Bussis and the township was still more angered today when it was reported that there is a probability of the old man dying before night. He has been in a precarious condition since he was felled by the negro's club and Dr. Bebout, of Stirling, stated this morning that he is sinking rapidly. The blow on the head and the severe scalp wound inflicted left him in a high fever and his death is practically a certainty within twenty-four hours. He is about eighty-two years old. Mrs. Bussi, who is seventy-six, has fully recovered.

Since first telling of the assault, Mrs. Bussi has discovered that the negro took away with him a black, slouch hat belonging to her husband and it is possible that he has been wearing this. Her description of the fellow tallies with that of a man who stopped at Hugo Maul's hotel in the "Notch," Tuesday afternoon, and later made some purchases at Frone's grocery store at Watchung. Former Freeholder John Cooper, of Warrenville, who has been one of the leading spirits in the hunt for the miscreant, is positive that he is a "tramp" negro, who has been working in the Mount Bethel vicinity. He stopped for several days at Fred Weigand's place and then moved on, saying that he had a job waiting for him "further up the road." In Mr. Cooper's opinion, the fellow is in hiding near the scene of his crime and his belief is shared by the Somerset county authorities.

REV. A. E. FINN PREACHES AT MRS. HAWKINS' FUNERAL.

An impressive service held in the Sunday-school room, and a sermon preached by Rev. Arthur Finn, the pastor, marked the funeral of Mrs. J. Hawkins, held at the Park Avenue Baptist church yesterday afternoon. A large gathering or relatives and friends, including representatives of the various departments of the church and Sunday-school, in which Mrs. Hawkins had been an active worked for many years, marked the last solemn rites, and masses of flowers were given in tribute.

"Our Human Limitations" was the topic of Rev. Mr. Finn's sermon and he alluded feelingly to the many acts of kindness which had marked the life of the departed. Supplimenting his remarks, Rev. J. W. Richardson, of Stamford, Conn., formerly pastor of the local church, spoke briefly upon his association with Mrs. Hawkins in church work. Music was a feature of the service, and Mrs. William H. Sebring, of Merchantville, sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" and "Peace, Sweet Peace." Miss Emily S. Runyon acted as accompanist at the piano, and Alfred S. Mosher played a violin obligato for one of the songs. Mr. Mosher also played "Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me."

The pall bearers were George E. Hall, W. F. Lowry, William R. Mosher, Will Mosher, Charles H. Dunham and Arthur S. Mosher. The body was placed in the vault at Hillside, and committed this afternoon. Floral tributes included tokens from the Sunday-school, Christian Endeavor Society, Home and Foreign Mission circles of the church.

Ice Cream and Confectionery Store.

U. B. Crane has leased his new store on East Front street to George Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace V. Miller, who during the last of the month will open an ice cream parlor, and confectionery business. The place will be fitted up, including a $3,000 soda fountain.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

UNION'S FREEHOLDERS PLAN MORE BRIDGES

Several matters pertaining bridges throughout the county were considered at the May meeting of the Union County Board of Freeholders at Elizabeth yesterday. A committee appointed to consider the advisability of building a bridge on Plainfield avenue, Rahway, recommended the same as a necesaity. The structure will be built of concrete and iron and is not to cost more than $1,500.

The committee apopinted to examine the bridge over Cedar brook, at the junction of Jackson and Midway avenues, recommended that the structure be extended to conform to the width of the road on Midway avenue, the cost not to exceed $350. Resolutions approving the plans to improve and macadamize Terrill road, as previously outlined, whereby it is to become a State aid road, were adopted.

The report of the committee on jail inspection, stated that everything was found to be in a satisfactory condition. During the past month ninety-eight prisoners were committed and a total of 169 were cared for, forty-four receiving medical aid. When the board adjourned it did so to meet on Thursday, May 28, at which time the yearly appropriations will be made.

Plainfielders Going Abroad.

During the coming summer season many Plainfielders will visit places of interest abroad, among them being City Treasurer and Mrs. W. F. Arnold and children and Mrs. Arnold's sister, Miss Clyde Burnet and Miss Marguerite Burnet, who will sail tomorrow on the White Star Liner Cretic, for a seven weeks trip abroad. Hugo Hendrikson and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Blomgrin will sail on May 14 for Norway and Sweden on the Heligof, of the Scandanavian Line. Last Saturday, Mrs. Stephen Haff, of Sherman avenue, and Miss Willard and Miss Reid, of West Seventh street, sailed on the White Star Liner Oceanic for Southampton. All purchased their tickets through the agency of Mulford Estil, of Park avenue.

Weather Man Soaks P. P. A.

Last night's storm interfered with the annual meeting of the Plainfield Protective Association to have been held at the Y. M. C. A. and it has been again postponed—this time "sine die." But three members of the association braved the storm, an even smaller turnout than when an attempt was made to hold the annual last week at the Grace church parish house. In order to prevent the weather man from having another storm to interfere with a third attempt to elect officers, no date has been announced for the meeting, which will probably held next week.

To Walk Over Valley Road.

The Outing Club of the Y. W. C. A. will take a tramp over the Washington Valley road tomorrow afternoon, if the weather be suitable. A feature of this week's outing will be the fact that a wayside supper is to be served when meal-time overtakes the women walkers. The various courses are to be carried in baskets and prepared when the halt is made. The party will assemble at the association rooms early in the afternoon and take the 2:30 trolley from the local stand for Scotch Plains, from which the walk will start.

Mrs. Halsey Moore.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, of the First Baptist church, was called to Kensico cemetery, New York, yesterday, to officiate at the burial of of Mrs. Moore, formerly of East Orange, and at one time a member of his congregation. She died in Connecticut early in the week and arrangements were made for the burial at Kensico. Mrs. Moore was the widow of the late Rev. Dr. Halsey Moore, a well-known Baptist clergyman, who has been heard on several occasions at the First Baptist church here.

Keeping up the Good Work.

The Daily Press is still keeping up its good work as an advertising medium. Yesterday Mrs. J. H. Howell, of Myrtle avenue, lost a bracelet. She advertised it in The Daily Press. James S. Pray, of East Sixth street, a constant reader of The Daily Press, found it and promptly returned the lost article to the owner today.

Rainbow After the Rain.

The Rainbow Fete, which has been held for several days past at St. Stephen's church parish house, was suspended today on account of inclement weather, and will conclude tomorrow, when the booths will be open afternoon and evening. The farce, "Our New Butler" will be presented tomorrow night.

Frank Linke Celebrates.

Frank Linke, of West Second street, entertained a few friends at his home last night at a German supper given in honor of his birthday anniversary.

DESERTING HUSBAND BACK

Louis Kelly Returns to the City and is Jailed on Olive Dumont's Complaint

HELD IN $1,000 BAIL FOR TRIAL.

Admits Leaving Town With Mrs. Dumont and Gives Police Address in Philadelphia Where She Can Be Found.

Louis Kelley, the erstwhile member of the fire department who left the city last Friday with Mrs. Oliver Dumont and against whom a serious charge was preferred by the latter's husband, returned to Plainfield yesterday afternoon. He came in from Philadelphia and after visiting the newspaper offices to give warning that he intended to commence libel suits against the publishers, proceeded to Police headquarters for the purpose of making complaint against Dumont for slander. Instead of taking cognizance of his tale of woe, Chief Kiely immediately ordered him locked up.

Kelley at first assumed an air of injured innocence and when questioned about his escapade, denied going away with Mrs. Dumont or knowing anything of her whereabouts. His whole demeanor was one of bluster and bluff but after remaining in a cell over night his attitude changed. This morning, he confessed everything and told the chief that the woman was in Philadelphia, furnishing the address where she could be found. Detective-Sergeant John Flynn was immediately sent to the Quaker city and if Mrs. Dumont agrees to waive extradition proceedings she will be brought to Plainfield this afternoon.

At this morning's session of the city court, Kelley was arraigned before Judge Runyon but at Chief Kiely's request he was remanded until Monday. Bail was fixed at $1,000 although it was stated he was unable to furnish bonds. Kelley's wife was in court and from her demeanor it was apparent that she has already forgiven her husband and is doing all possible to get him out of his trouble. Dumont also attended the proceedings.

In making a clean breast of the affair, Kelley told Chief Kiely that he and Mrs. Dumont left Plainfield according to a prearranged plan on Friday afternoon and that they went direct to Philadelphia. He sought work at his trade with the intention of remaining there and at the same time kept posted on the way affairs stood in Plainfield through friends. He gave the name of one well known local man who has been writing to him every day and who he said had sent him clippings from the newspapers which told of the affair. It was through this friend, he said, that he returned to the city, being advised to come back and make a "bluff" of everything. He was instructed to "throw a scare into the newspapers" for what they had printed about him and he attempted to follow directions but failed miserably. His courage began oozing away as soon as he was locked up and by the time he was ready to talk it was gone entirely.

"ROGERS BROTHERS" EFFECT CAUSES STIR AT THEATRE.

Expecting an unusually big run of scenic and musical effects, the stage hands of the New Plainfield theatre shifted things around yesterday in anticipation of the coming of the "Rogers Brothers in Panama," but they were in no wise prepared for the "raft of stuff" that was brought by the transfer men this morning. Load after load of drops, set pieces and borders were hauled to the theatre and it was found impossible to get them all in because of house property stacked away. As a result, a force of men was set to work and everything on the stage was taken off and stored in another part of the building. Stage Manager William Kregar declared the equipment to be the heaviest he has ever handled at the theatre.

The supporting company of Gus and Max Rogers numbers eighty people and the production will acordingly eclipse anything that has been in town this season. The show had a big run at the Broadway theatre early in the winter and was then declared to be the best thing the brothers have ever presented. The sale of seats for tonight is very large.

Chambers' Case Before the Jury.

Counsel in the case of Newton W. Chambers, of this city, against the Public Service Corporation for $10,000 damages, devoted the entire morning to summing up. C. A. Marsh for the plaintiff occupied more than an hour, while A. A. Clark, representing the P. S. C., talked for an hour and a half. The case was given to the jury early this afternoon.

LADIES' HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS and the new Summer quarterly are now ready. With every quarterly style book sold we give you any pattern you may select free of charge. These are the very highest grade patterns.

H. E. Force and Co.

We Give S. H. "THE WHITE STORE" THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY Green Trading Stamps

IT PAYS to do your trading here. Not alone do we give Green Trading Stamps, but we give you better values than you get elsewhere. The crowds that fill our store every day is the best possible proof.

SPECIAL BARGAINS FOR SATURDAY.

The kind of bargains that have made the "White Store" the most popular emporium in this section of New Jersey

LADIES' HOSIERY.

Ladies' plain black Cotton Hose, sizes 8½ to 10; regular 25c value; Saturday only ..... .19

MISSES' Fine ribbed black Cotton Hose, sizes 6 to 9; regular 15c value; Saturday only ..... .10

BOYS' Heavy ribbed black Cotton Hose, sizes 6 to 10; the regular 19c hose; Saturday ..... .12½

NOTIONS—Net covered Hair Rolls, all shades; 50c value; Saturday at ..... .25

SUPPORTERS—Ladies' Hook-on Hose Supporters, strong webbing, elastic; 25c value; on Saturday ..... .19

HAIR BRUSHES—Strong bristle, light wood, highly polished; 50c value, for ..... .39

GLOVES.

16-button Black Silk Double Tipped Gloves, the regular $1.50 qualities; Saturday, special $1.25

12-button Black Silk Gloves, with double tips; $1.25 value; Saturday $1.00

LADIES' NECKWEAR.

A new line of Ladies' Embroidered Collars, white and all colors, the very latest effects; 25c value; Saturday, only ..... .15

Ladies' Tailored Suits.

Another lot of Suits, such as caused such a sensation last week.

ONLY 25 AT THIS PRICE.

Beautiful Suits made of fine material, handsomely tailored; worth regularly $12.00 and $13.00; Saturday only $9.00

18 SUITS AT THIS PRICE.

High grade Suits of Panama Cloth; coats satin lined; skirts handsomely pleated and finished; positively worth $15.00; Saturday only 10.98

Waist Bargains.

50 dozen Ladies' White Lawn Waists; all-over embroidery fronts; all sizes; the equal of any waist you have ever seen at $1.25; Saturday, .79

FANCY WAISTS—The new Tailored Waist, pleated, in fancy stripes and plain stiff collar and cuffs; $1.50 value; Saturday $1.00

CORSET COVERS—Lace trimmed back and front; all sizes; 29c value; Saturday ..... .21

CORSETS—Straight front, batiste corsets with hose supporters attached; 69c value for ..... .45

BLACK PETTICOATS—Two lots fine high grade Sateen Petticoats, with deep flounce and rich satin finish.

$1.00 Petticoats for 59c
$1.25 Petticoats for 79c

MEN'S FURNISHINGS.

Men's Negligee Shirts, soft bosom, pleated, attached cuffs, beautiful patterns; the best values ever offered at this price; 75c shirt, Saturday only .... .59

MEN'S NEGLIGEE SHIRTS, with cuffs and collars attached, neat stripes and checks; all sizes; 65c value, Saturday only ..... .49

SUSPENDERS—Men's H. and P. Suspenders, fancy colors, best quality, elastic webbing; 50c value; Saturday, for ..... .29

VESTS—Men's Fancy Vests, washable, with detachable pearl buttons, high grade; what you pay $2.50 and $3.50 for in a furnishing store; Saturday, $1.50 and $2.49

NECKWEAR—Men's Fancy Washable 4-in-Hand Ties, in neat checks and stripes, 2 for ..... .25

MILLINERY SPECIAL.

Ladies' and Misses' Trimmed and Untrimmed Sailors, in blue, brown, tuscan and black; only a limited quantity at this price; these are worth regularly $1.98; Saturday only ..... .79

CANDY SPECIAL.

200 pounds of American Mixed Candies will be sold Saturday at half regular price, lb 71/2

PARLOR BROOMS—Hard wood handles, 4 sewed, a broom regularly sold for 29c; for Saturday only ..... .20

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c. a week.

CITY.

Union News Co. ..... R. R. Station
J. M. Harper ..... 411 Park Ave.
R. A. Laing ..... 149 W. Front St.
A. D. Mallinson ..... Fourth and Liberty Sts.
Trolley Waiting Room ..... Watchung Ave.
M. Estil ..... 111 Park Ave.
Kebele & Stahl ..... 113 Somerset St.
Blaney & Son ..... 331 Watchung Ave.
T. A. Garthwaite ..... 212 Watchung Ave.
A. Anderson ..... 657 West Fourth St.
John Mottley ..... Cor. E. 3d & Richmond Sts

SUBURBAN.

Cranellen ..... B. Siriski
New Market ..... R. Burdick
Bound Brook ..... Union News Co.
Bound Brook ..... L. M. Davis
Somerville ..... Jacob Genert
Westfield ..... C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield ..... J. W. Wall
Scotch Plains ..... Chas. Elliott
South Plainfield ..... Victor Attlee
Dunellen ..... Chas. Elliott
Netherwood ..... Blaney & Son

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS

SOMERVILLE.

The monthly meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Second Reformed church was held in the chapel Wednesday afternoon. Papers were read by Mrs. C. H. Bateman on the "Aftermath of the Russian-Japanese War," and Mrs. Ezra Weldon on "A Tour of our Missions." The hosesses were Mrs. Robert Brunt, Mrs. Alva A. Amerman and Mrs. Archibald Brunt.

The Board of Commissioners has organized for the year by electing the following officers: President, Charles C. Kenyon; treasurer, Chas. Schwed, and secretary, E. E. Stryker.

Miss Grace Crater, Katherine Barwick, is Altamont place.

Mrs. Charles Fiske has been spending two weeks with her mother in Baltimore.

Mrs. Eick, of Annadale, is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. William Conover.

Edward T. Lane is confined to his home on Altamont place by illness.

Miss Louise Tunis is visiting relatives in Morristown.

RARITAN.

Mrs. Frank A. Stryker has returned from Asbury Park, where she spent a few days.

Mrs. George Wetherell and children are guests of her parents in Scranton, Pa.

Mrs. Homan, of Plainfield, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Asa R. Dilts.

Mrs. S. D. Harris has returned from Newark, where she spent a week.

Joseph J. Purcell has been spending this week in Newark with relatives.

Thomas Conboy is suffering from an attack of erysipelas.

John McCarron is spending this week in Erie, Pa.

NORTH BRANCH.

The funeral of Miss Mary C. Codington was held yesterday at Mt. Horeb. Rev. George Oaksen, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated. Interment was in the Mt. Horeb cemetery. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Codington.

Congressman Wood has received word from the commissioner of pensions of Washington, D. C., that the pension of James Tenbrook, of South Branch, has been increased to $20 a month under the special act.

E. C. Van Derbeek, of North Branch, has been entertaining his mother from Plainfield for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Wade Clark, of North Branch Depot, were recent guests of friends in Somerville.

Miss Wilhelmina Hall, of Neshanic, has been visiting at the home of Rynear Herder, at Frankfort.

Ellis Handville has moved his family from Pluckemin to Somerville.

BOUND BROOK AND VICINITY.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Long, in Prospect street, South Bound Brook, were Mrs. Long's son, William Parry, of Somerville; and Peter Lund of Plainfield.

Rev. and Mrs. C. T. Anderson, of Brooklyn, have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Anderson's mother, Mrs. E. Van Syckel, in Clinton street, South Bound Brook.

Mr. and Mrs William J. Ayers, of High and Madison streets, South Bound Brook, lately had as their guest Mr. Ayer's brother, Louis Ayers, of Somerville.

Miss Alie Pearce, of Keyport, is being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Byer, in Elizabeth street, South Bound Brook.

William H. Durling, of Washington street, South Bound Brook, has gone to Allentown, Pa., where he will spend a month.

Miss Elsie Smith, of Newark, has been visiting at the home of Mrs. G. Graham, in East street, Bound Brook.

John Fellows is seriously ill at his home in East Second street, Bound Brook.

WESTFIELD.

The Fair Acres Driving Club of Westfield will continue to hold race meets on the grounds of the Plainfield Driving Club, Plainfield, this season. The first matinee meet of the season will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Councilmen Schmitt and Hohenstein will have charge of licensing of out-of-town peddlers who wish to do business in Westfield. Heretofore the police department has had charge of licenses.

Application has been made to Westfield Council to have a part of Chestnut street closed. A public hearing on the matter will be held by the Council on May 18.

Eugene De Vito, of Elizabeth, a driver for the Rising Sun Brewery, was arrested and fined $20 in Westfield yesterday for selling beer without a license.

The macadamizing of Ross place, Westfield, was completed yesterday and the road opened for use.

Mrs. George Conover, of Jackson avenue, who underwent an operation at Muhlenberg Hospital last week, is steadily improving.

Mrs. H. G. Black and daughter, Ella, of Fairview avenue, have returned home from a two weeks' sojourn at Asbury Park, where they were registered at the Hotel St. Clair.

—For best results advertise in The Daily Press.

HOW ABOUT YOUR SUIT

We are showing the finest line of KIRSHBAUM SUITS AND TOP COATS in Brown, Olives, Grey and Blue. Can we not show you these even if you don't buy—the goods are good and prices right. All the new things in Shirts, Neckwear, Socks, Caps and Hats. We put our Straw Tiles on exhibition Today.

CLOTHING MADE-TO-ORDER

Werner's Clothing House
206 WEST FRONT STREET

:-:EXTRA SPECIAL:-:

50 Suits for a quick clearance; this season's accumulations of 10.00. 12.00 and 15.00 Suits. Special for Saturday only 6.90.

THE PARIS CLOAK & SUIT STORE
214 W. FRONT ST.

207 BROAD ST. ELIZABETH LOAN Co. 207 BROAD ST.

Reliable Money Br[illegible]ers"

IF IT'S A QUESTION OF [illegible]RS.

We may be able to help you out. At [illegible]ate if you'll inform us of your needs, we'll try. The winter mont[illegible] just past have raised the expenses of the average householder to t[illegible] highest point and many of us have been unable to meet all of our obligations as promptly as we would like to and consequently find ourselves in debt.

SUPPOSE we were to advance you sufficient funds to meet your obligations. Do you not think you would be more satisfied to have only one payment to look after on pay day?

There is no place where money will be advanced you more willingly or where you will receive more courteous treatment than from us. It's worth investigating.

The possession of household goods, horses and wagons is sufficient evidence of your ability to pay. Call, write or 'phone.

ELIZABETH LOAN COMPANY.
Room 24 Hersh Bldg. Telephone 778-R. Elizabeth, N. J.

Corner Market and Halsey Streets, Newark.

King's LEADING AMERICAN CLOTHIER

Corner Market and Halsey Streets, Newark.

SALE STARTS SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 9, AT 9 O'CLOCK.

4 Wholesale Clothiers' Entire Stock to Be Sold by Us at 1/2 MANUFACTURERS' COST.

This Is by Far the Most Sensational and Important Clothing Announcement Made in Newark in Years.

$114,000 Worth of Elegant, New, Stylish Clothing for Men and Boys at 1/2 and Less.

During the past two weeks four large clothing manufacturers came to us seeking a quick outlet for heir immense surplus stocks for ready cash. We offered them less than half the usual manufacturer's prices, and they refused positively to accept our ridiculously low offer until last Tuesday at 4 p. m., when a conference of all four makers was held at our Twenty-third Street Store, New York, and

The Four Manufacturers Came to Our Terms.

This grand total of Men's and Boys' Spring and Summer Suits and Topcoats should have been disposed of by the wholesalers around the Easter holidays, but on account of the Cold April and extremely unseasonable weather the makers have been unable to move their stocks.

That's why they accepted our unprecedently low offer and are willing to take heavy losses in order to move their stocks and get ready cash at once. The goods must be sold at any price, and KING'S Newark Store, corner Market and Halsey streets, will be the distributing point.

SALE STARTS SATURDAY, AT 9 A. M.

There are 5,800 Men's Spring and Summer Suits, 1,900 Spring Overcoats and Topcoats, 948 Cravenettes and Raincoats, 3,100 pairs of Men's Trousers, 2,068 Young Men's Suits, 1,195 Children's Suits with Knickerbocker Pants, 1,940 Men's Blue Serge Suits, 1,400 Elegant Brown Strictly Hand Tailored Suits, and many other styles and patterns.

FIFTY CENTS ON THE DOLLAR.

The savings are simply wonderful. It is necessary to see the clothing, try it on and note its excellence, and the value will become apparent and no printed argument will be needed. It is the most wonderful clothing opportunity presented in Newark for years, and one that cannot be repeated this season.

Men's Sack Suits

Retail Price.	Spring and Summer Weight.	Sale Price.
$12.00	Fancy Cheviot Suits	5.90
$12.00	Black Thibet Suits	5.90
$15.00	Blue Serge Suits	7.90
$15.00	Fine Worsted Suits	7.90
$20.00	Stylish Brown Suits	9.80
$20.00	Fine Gray Suits	9.80
$20.00	Clay Diagonal Suits	9.80
$25.00	Brown Hand Tailored Suits	12.50
$25.00	Silk Lined Suits	12.50
$32.00	Imported Worsted Suits	16.00
$38.00	Custom Made Suits	18.00
$45.00	Pencil Stripe and Check Suits	20.00

Men's Topcoats

Retail Price.	Box and ¾ Length.	Sale Price.
$10.00	Tan Top Coats	5.00
$12.00	Oxford Top Coats	5.90
$15.00	Black Top Coats	6.75
$18.00	Tan Covert Top Coats	7.90
$18.00	Brown Top Coats, new effects	8.50
$22.00	Stripe Overcoats, silk lined	10.80
$25.00	Hand-finished Top Coats	12.50

Men's Trousers

Retail Price.	32 to 50 Waist.	Sale Price.
$3.00	Cassimere Pants, striped, plain	1.45
$3.50	Black and Blue Serge Pants	1.75
$4.50	Neat Stripe Pants, worsteds	2.15
$5.50	Imported Thibets and Worsted Pants	2.65
$7.00 & $8.00	Stylish Hand Tailored Pants	3.50

Young Men's Suits

Retail Price.	15 to 12 Years.	Sale Price.
$10.00	Fancy Gray Suits	4.90
$10.00	Black Thibet Suits	4.90
$14.00	Blue Serge Suits	6.75
$14.00	Stylish Crown Suits	6.90
$16.00	Imported Worsted Suits	7.80
$16.00	High Grade Blue Serge Suits	7.80
$20.00	Elegant Styles Neat Stripe Suits	9.50
$20.00	Hand Tailored Suits	9.50
$25.00	Finest Imported Worsted Suits	12.50
$25.00	Well Known H. & M. K. Made Suits	12.50

Boys' Suits

Retail Price.	Sizes 6 to 17.	Sale Price.
$3.00	Fancy Cheviot Suits	1.45
$3.50	Fancy Cassimeres and Worsted Suits	1.69
$4.00	Gray Suits, with Knickerbocker Pants	1.95
$6.00	Blue Serge Suits	2.85
$7.00 and $8.00	High Grade Suits	3.65
$10.00 and $12.00	Imp. Blue Serge Suits	4.75

Knee Pants

Retail Price.	Sizes 5 to 17.	Sale Price.
85c	Plain and Fancy Pattern Pants	39c
$1.00	Strong Cassimere Pants	45c
$1.25	Knickerbocker Pants	60c
$1.75	Best Make Pants	79c

Men's Fancy Vests

Retail Price.	Sizes 34 to 46.	Sale Price.
$2.00	Fancy Vests	85c
$3.00	Neat Stripe and Check Vests	1.45
$3.50	Styles 3 or 4 Button Vests	1.69
$4.00 and $5	Fancy Brown and Olive Vests	2.25

In order that customers living out of town can attend this sale, we pay railroad fare within fifty miles. Show your return ticket at the cashier's desk.

Cor. Market and Halsey Streets, NEWARK, N. J.

King's

Cor. Market and Halsey Streets, NEWARK, N. J.

OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS UNTIL 11 O'CLOCK.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The Young People's Association of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church will meet in the chapel tonight for Bible study in the Epistle of John, under Dr. J. S. Zelie, and in the Old Testament characters, under Miss Harriet Goddard.

C. D. Meigs, familiarly known as the "Western Cyclone," is to speak at both the afternoon and evening meetings of the Plainfield Primary Union and the Plainfield Sunday-school Teachers' Union, Tuesday, May 26, at the First Baptist church.

On account of the severe storm but few members of the local Baptist churches attended the annual meeting of the Women's Baptist Church Foreign Missionary Society of New Jersey, held in the First Baptist church, New Brunswick, yesterday. Miss Julia Shinn, formerly of this city, and other missionaries addressed the meeting.

—William Burtis, of Fairview avenue, who has been employed at the Plainfield Trust Company for the past year, has resigned and is taking a month's rest preparatory to entering the Naval Academy at Annapolis, where he will succeed Fred Van Auken, who is to be graduated in June.

TEPPERS 109-111-113 WEST FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

AGENTS FOR STANDARD PATTERNS

TEPPER'S Offer for Tomorrow, Saturday, in Their MILLINERY DEPARTMENT, 3 Specials in

TRIMMED HATS at $2.98, $3.98, $4.98

Worth $4.00, $5.00 and $6.50

This is an exceptional attractive showing of Stylish Hats just from our workroom and marked one-fourth to one-third less than real value, to demonstrate our leadership in the popular priced Millinery as well as the higher class. Come Saturday and partake of this bargain offering. You will be surprised to see such charming, Stylish Hats at

$2.98, $3.98 and $4.98

Other Bargains For Saturday are:

WOMEN'S SKIRTS—Panama Skirts, pleated with 3-inch band, navy blue and mixed gray; value $3.50; Saturday, special... $2.49

WOMEN'S SKIRTS—Fine mohair skirts, black only, splendid lustre, full pleated with band, made to sell at $5.00; cut full; Saturday, special, at..... $3.98

TAILORED SUITS AT $8.98—All our suits that sold up to $12.50, made of fine Panama, in black, blue and brown, semi-fitting coat, with pleated skirts; none better in town at $12.50; on sale at..... $8.98

CREPE KIMONAS, 50c—Pretty Crepe Kimonas, in floral effects on delicate shades of pink and blue, 75c value, at..... 50c

MEN'S 18c SOX AT 12½c—Fast black, lisle finish, in medium weight, all sizes; Saturday at, pair..... 12½c

IN THE MEN'S DEPARTMENT.
Sale Pajamas and Night Shirts.

The manufacturers of the well-known "Faultless" night robes had their stock damaged by smoke and water. We secured a portion of these at the auction sale. Though the stock is perfectly clean, the boxes having only been damaged by smoke, we secured these at 60c on the dollar and offer them as follows:

FAULTLESS NIGHT SHIRTS, were made for Webber & Hutbrower, N. Y., with their label, to retail at $1.25, made of fine cambric and nainsook; on sale Saturday at 75c

FAULTLESS PAJAMAS, were made for Stern Bros., 23rd St., N. Y., with their label, to retail at $1.50, made of fine madras, nicely trimmed; on sale Saturday at.... $1.00

"CHALLENGE" REAL RUBBER COLLARS, the best made, retail at 25c; any style or size; for Saturday at..... 17c

CELLULOID COLLARS, interlined, dull or glossy, 15c everywhere; any style you want for boys and men; Saturday at..... 10c

SALE OF UMBRELLAS

100 Union Taffeta Silk Umbrellas, for men and women, 26 and 28 inch; every one guaranteed to give satisfaction or we take it back; none in this lot worth less than $1.75; on sale Saturday at..... $1.29

60 Fast Black Twill Umbrellas, worth $1.00, for men and women, 26 and 28 inch; on sale Saturday at ..... .69

75 Women's Union Taffeta Umbrellas, absolutely fast black and guaranteed, worth $1.25; on sale Saturday at ..... .89

HAHNE & CO.

IMPORTERS · NEWARK'S STORE BEAUTIFUL BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STREETS · RETAILERS

4.50 Silk Waists 2.50.

Beautiful Black Taffeta Silk Waists of fine quality; made in three distinct and attractive models; one made with fine pin tucks and hemstitching; open back style; the other two models with silk embroidered fronts with deep side plaits; open front or back; ¾-length sleeves; sizes 34 to 44; waists that would readily enough sell at $4.50 did we choose to ask it; priced while the lot lasts, Saturday, at $2.50

Misses' Tailored Suits.

Charming suits of the better class; made in the most fashionable models, including fancy kimono or cutaway and double-breasted Prince Chap styles; made of shadow striped panamas, serges and other fashionable materials; some strictly tailored, others elaborated with silk braids and moire trimmings in the most wanted Spring shades as well as all black and navy; rich suits truly—faultlessly tailored and finished; many of the styles exclusive with us; none of them commonplace, sizes 14, 16 and 18.

$25 Suits for $15.00 $30 Suits for $19.95

3.50 DOUGLAS MEN'S SHOES 2.59

Almost every day we add to our collection of styles and sizes in Douglas Shoes, thus keeping the stocks full and fresh at all times, enabling every buyer to find something that will satisfy his desires.

These shoes have factory imperfections which do not affect the appearance or wear of the shoes and which cannot be passed by the inspectors as strictly perfect. We contract for the entire output of the Douglas Factory Damaged Shoes and thus are able to make you an offer that no other Newark stores can match. $3.50 Douglas Shoes for..... $2.59

Boys' Douglas Shoes and Oxfords, regular $2.50 kind at $1.98.

MILLINERY.

Our little French Flower Market will continue to be a feature—and it is well worth seeing—for several days. Many special values in fine flowers for hat trimming.

Trimmed Hats—A large variety of distinctivestyles and colorings for dress, street, evening and general wear; values from $12.50 to $15, will be special priced Saturday..... $9.50

Trimmed Hats—A variety of striking effects; not one of them worth less than $6; many would readily sell at $10; your choice of the lot at..... $3.95

Fancy Rough Straw Hats in twelve of the newest and most popular shapes; regular 87c values, Saturday at ..... .25

Misses' and Children's Flats in Fancy Straws; many kinds to choose from; regular 69c value; priced most sensationally for Saturday's selling at..... .15

SPORTS HERE AND THERE

BASEBALL.

It rained Wednesday and yesterday, saving the Bostons from a beating at the hands of the Giants, and it didn't rain in Boston on Wednesday and save the Highlanders from a defeat. Thus does unkind nature distribute her favors with a partial hand.

The Philadelphia Athletics have won four games in succession, which is going some these days.

The knuckle ball already is a back number. One of the big league managers, who declines to allow his name to be used, is said to have a pitcher under cover who can throw the elbow ball. The pitcher has an elbow to prove it.

Walter Clarkson has given up professional baseball to go into the shoe business in Cleveland. Clarkson never made good in big league baseball, though he had the curves, the speed and the control.

Mention is made of the fact that the Detroits have succeeded in winning two games in succession. It merely illustrates how hard champion teams sometimes can get up against it.

Bill Dahlen has been playing a fine all around game for the Doves, and as Bridwell has been doing gilt edged work at short for the New Yorks the cranks are eager to see the swapped pair in action together.

The Cincinnatis are referred to as the recherche Reds. They haven't anything on our New Yorks, who always are au fait, or on the distingue Doves, or on the comme il faut Cubs. And aren't the Brooklyns always en regle and the Quakers simply steeped in savoir faire? Wait until the recherche Reds come here and we'll make them think they're de trop, for our baseball is almost as good as our French.

It's a long time between games for the Pittsburgs, but the victories are pretty frequent when they do play.

Griffith has been exiled from the field indefinitely by Ban Johnson for his clash with Umpire Connolly in Washington. The quality of mercy is appreciated by Johnson in handing out his discipline, and it is not likely that Griff's indeterminate sentence will be for long.

Bill Foxen, the former Jersey City pitcher, made an auspicious debut with the Philadelphia Nationals against New York Tuesday. Foxen was put in the box in the fourth inning, after the Giants had piled up four tallies off Richie and the former Skeeter held them down to four hits and no runs during the remainder of the game. During the game Foxen hit Mike Donlin twice with the ball, which nearly resulted in a clash between the players. Foxen and Donlin engaged in a hot argument, and for a time it appeared as if the players would come together.

LAWN MOWERS

Sharpened and Repaired

Having Installed Electric Power and Improved Grinding Machinery I Can Insure Prompt and Satisfactory Work.

A. M. GRIFFEN,

119-123 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

'PHONES 6 and 214

Rich Milk 8c a quart.
Rich Cream 12c half pt.
Buttermilk 6c a quart

Plainfield Milk & Cream Co,
MARCHANT BROS.,

112 WATCHUNG AVENUE

PLAINFIELD OFFICE

EISELE & KING

Members of the New York and Philadelphia Stock Exchanges

In the Babcock Building, West Front St.

Private wires East and West. Ticker service. Orders executed as rapidly as in any New York office

W. De LaR. ANDERSON, Manager.

JACK HORNER 26 SOMERSET ST TEL. 869-W.

Pierce, Cleveland, Crawford and Arrow Bicycles. Renting, Repairing and Sundries Vulcanizing a specialty. Baby Carriages Repaired and Retired. Work called for and delivered.

W. V. Snyder & Co.

Men's White Negligee Shirts

This large lot of Men's Shirts have been made up of the short ends of materials put in the regular $1.00 Shirts and in many stores are considered a big special at 69c. and 79c. We offer these fancy white madras shirts in checks, figures and stripes, and plain and fancy cheviots, each 49c.

We have just received another lot of those excellent 42 gauge Lisle Half Hose, slightly mended, in tan, navy, gray and black. Regular 50c. goods; 3 pair for 50c., the pair

17c.

150 Men's Suits Special at 9.75

SIZES 33 TO 42.

These suits are new, fresh goods, cut on the new single-breasted models, lined with alpaca. Handsomely tailored, materials are fancy worsteds and cashmeres, also blue serges. This represents one of the best offers we have yet made. A good chance to save money—reg. $12 and $13 9.75

150 Boys' Sample Suits at 3.75

VALUES UP TO 6.50.

These are sample suits and are the best we have yet offered. Norfolk Suits with knicker pants, in all the season's newest fabrics, browns and grays. These suits are made and tailored in the best manner; all sizes, 8 to 16 years; regular values up to $6.50, special - - - 3.75

W. V. SNYDER & CO.,

BROAD STREET—NEWARK, N. J.—CEDAR STREET

STONE ROADS.

PROPOSALS are asked for the construction of Macadam Roads, on West Grand Street, First Avenue and Locust Street in the City of Elizabeth, and in the Boroughs of Roselle and Roselle Park, Union County, N. J., from De Hart Place to Westfield Avenue.

The length of the roadway to be macadamized is about 11,465 lin. ft. The width of the stonework is 16 ft.

The estimated quantities of the items of the work are as follows:

Earth Excavation, 7,720 cu. yds.
8 inch Macadam, 15,020 sq. yds.
4-inch Macadam, 5,850 sq. yds.
Manhole Heads reset, 12
6-inch Underdrains, 1,200 lin. ft.
Rock Excavation, 0.
Crushed stone furnished additional, 270 tons.

Plans, profiles and specifications for this work may be examined at the office of the County Engineer, 215 Broad Street, Elizabeth, N. J.

Bidders must enclose with their bids a certified check for $1,000.00, made payable to the Director of the Board of Chosen Freeholders as a guarantee that if the contract be awarded to such bidder, the bidder will enter into an agreement with the Board of Freeholders for the carrying out of the work.

Bids for the above described work will be received by the County Road Committee of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, at the Court House, Elizabeth, N. J., at 2:30 p. m., on Tuesday, May 26, 1908.

The Board of Freeholders or its committee reserves the right to reject any or all bids, as they may deem best for the interests of the County.

JACOB L. BAUER, County Engineer.
215 Broad Street, Elizabeth, N. J.
5-7, 8, 9, 11, 13, 15, 18, 20, 22

GOLF.

Programmes are out for the tenth annual championship tournament of the Metropolitan Golf Association, to be held at Baltusrol on May 20 to 23. The tournament will begin with a thirty-six hole, medal play, qualifying round, and the sixty-four players making the lowest scores will compete at match play—the first thirty-two for the championship; the defeated sixteen of the first thirty-two for the president's cup; the third sixteen for a prize, and the fourth sixteen for a prize. All match rounds will be eighteen holes, except the final, which will be thirty-six holes.

Special attention is called to the entrance fees this year. One note on this subject states that no entry for the championship will be accepted unless the entrance fee is sent in at the same time. In other words, it will not suffice for club secretaries merely to send in the names of players, leaving it to the latter to remit their own entrance fees. The fee is $2. One of the added attractions will be a club pair, four ball match at eighteen holes, medal play, on the afternoon of Friday, May 22, and there will be the usual metropolitan eighteen hole, medal play handicap on the last day.

The championship trophy is presented by Daniel Chauncey, president of the United States Golf Association. This trophy will remain the property of the Metropolitan Golf Association until it shall have been won three times by the same player, playing from or representing the same club, when it shall become the property of such club. Until permanent possession of the cup passes from the association as indicated, it shall be held each year in the custody of the club whose representative shall have won a leg on the trophy at the last championship. The championship gold medal will go to the winner.

Jerome D. Travers won the title last year, and consequently the Montclair Golf Club is the present holder of the Chauncey trophy. The tournament committee consists of James L. Taylor, chairman; John R. Maxwell, Jr., and C. F. Watson, with W. Fellowes Morgan, Arden M. Robbins, Leighton Calkins and F. C. Jennings as ex-officio members. Entries will close with Leighton Calkins, secretary of the association, at 25 Broad street, at noon on Saturday, May 16.

PERSONAL.

Miss Mary Kenney, of East Fourth street, will sail the latter part of the month for a six weeks' visit in Ireland.

The Misses Cains, of New York, have returned home after a visit with the Misses Woolston of Fairview avenue.

Mrs. William Wildie, of New York, who has been the guest of Mrs. William Taylor, of Grandview avenue, has returned home.

Miss Bessie Congaman, of New York, has returned home after a visit with her aunt, Mrs. William Taylor, of Grandview avenue.

Miss Genevieve Miller, of College Point, L. I., who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. E. Dunn, of Norwood avenue, has returned home.

Mrs. Hugh Hastings, who has been away from Plainfield for several months, returned yesterday and is again stopping at the Seminary, on West Seventh street.

Miss Marguerite Anger, of New York, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Fowler, of Fairview avenue, for the past week, has returned.

BIG STRIKE ON IN SINGER BUILDING.

New York, May 8.—A general strike took place Wednesday on the Singer Building on account of the employment of non-union men by Fischer Bros., Fifth avenue and 137th street, at one of the stores in the building where this firm has the contract for the fitting and wood trim. The strike is the outcome of the old fight of the carpenters against the use of non-union wood trim. On this point the district council of the Brotherhood of Carpenters is now deadlocked with the Master Carpenters' Association.

All work on the building, which has been rushed to completion, was stopped by the strike except the painting. The painters were allowed to remain at work because they knew that men were in readiness to fill their places.

The strike affects 200 carpenters, steam fitters, metallic lathers, electrical workers, asbestos workers, plasterers and helpers, elevator constructors, sheet metal workers, tile layers and helpers, machinists, riggers, cement masons, boilermakers and wire workers. For the last night or two the tower of the Singer Building has been brilliantly illuminated, but was not illuminated last night, because the electrical workers were on strike.

STORM SCARS COAST.

Bulkheads and Jetties at Long Branch Torn Away.

Long Branch, May 8.—One of the worst May storms ever experienced here visited the coast yesterday. Bulkheads and jetties were wrecked and tons of earth in places where there was no protection were carried to sea.

The waves ran like mountains. No damage, however, was wrought till late in the afternoon, when the seas undermined the new bulkhead on Ocean avenue, at foot of Sea View avenue, tearing away fifty feet without damaging the bluff walk. The piling holding the former theatre of the old pier Casino was swept to sea, carrying with it the flooring.

The embankment in front of the old Surf House was washed away for a considerable depth and the bulkheads in front of the Curtis estate at West End were destroyed.

At North Long Branch, where the city is erecting a bulkhead, another slice of the bluff went to sea. All the sound fishermen suffered a loss of nets.

The storm at Seabright was particularly severe, carrying away the new jetty in front of the Packer cottage and damaging the bulkheads in front of the Mason, Lewis and Shippen properties.

Martha Washington Council, Daughters of America, will meet tomorrow night and enjoy a program of special interest.

—Use Press want ads. They pay.

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.

196 North Avenue. Telephone 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S and Canada.

The Daily Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change the same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

Plainfield, N. J., May 8, 1908.

May 8 In History.

1806—Robert Morris, "signer" and financier of the American Revolution, died in extreme poverty after passing several years in a debtors' prison; born 1734.

1873—John Stuart Mill, English writer on logic and political economy, died; born 1806.

1902—Volcanic disasters in the islands of Martinique and St. Vincent. The eruption of Mont Pelee destroyed 30,000 lives at St. Pierre, Martinique, and La Soufriere caused a loss of 1,700 lives in St. Vincent.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

Sun sets 6:59, rises 4:45; moon sets 1:53 a. m..

KIRMESS' PARTICIPANTS

(Continued from page 1.)

Gordon May, Nelson Ramsey, William Thickstun, William Woodruff and Arthur Woodruff.

The Rosebuds—Mrs. John M. Whiton, chaperone, assisted by Mrs. C. T. Rhodes and Mrs. J. B. Beekman; the Misses Marion Frost, Ruth Fuller, Elizabeth Hammond, Dorothy Lynn, Marion Lynn, Elizabeth Martin, Margaret Travell, Constance Veysey. Solo by Miss Adelaide Parker.

Sun dance—Solo by Mrs. Lemuel W. Serrell.

Rainbow dance—Mrs. S. D. Lounsbury, assisted by Mrs. Richard Boardman and Mrs. William M. Wherry. The Blues—The Misses Autumn Delaney, Irene Dunham, Amy Emmons, Florence Flower, Edith Harniford, Florence Flower, Edith Hanaford, Jessie Hill, Eva Kelly, Susie Lowrie. Yellow—Susie Bennett, Bessie Conroy, Marjorie Cooley, Carrie Demler, Loretta Mitchell, Irene Samuels, Helen Smalley, Helen Sutton. Violets—The Misses May Berkham, Gertrude Berkham, Agnes Cooley, Maud Emmons, Helen Farland, Susie Farland, Kathleen Peacock and Hazell Wharton. Pinks—the Misses Grace Buching, Helen Berkham, Veronica McClintock, Laura McKee, Alice Peacock, Jennie Peacock, Helen Roberts and Margaret Woolston.

Marsovia dance—Mrs. Henry C. Irons, chaperone; the Misses Anna C. Fisk, Janet Wildey, Mildred Wildey, Florence Wildey, and Harvey Fisk, M. J. Dumont, Hart S. Farley, Harold C. McCollom.

Indian Braves—Mrs. Jabez Gilbert, chaperone, assisted by Mrs. John B. Dumont; Stanley Burke, F. Warren Butler, Jr., Robert Foote, Robert Gavett, Laurence Heely, Otis Hovey, Charles Hyde, Ned Jenkins, Donald Ketcham, Ned Stevenson, Ludlow Vandeventer, Philip Vandeventer. Solo by Miss Helen Moody.

The general committee consists of C. J. Fisk, chairman; E. H. Ladd, S. D. Lounsbury, Henry L. Hall, F. W. Butler, L. C. Timpson and J. E. Erickson.

Jersey City to Hear M'Adoo Again.

William G. McAdoo, president of the Manhattan and Hudson Tunnel Company, is expected to meet Mayor H. Otto Wittpenn and other Jersey City officials in a conference at the Jersey City Hall today over the company's application for station rights in Jersey City. It is expected that the Jersey City men will hold out for a five-cent fare and a guarantee of adequate train facilities. The Manhattan and Hudson company is constructing the Cortlandt street tunnel.

Priests Extinguish Fire at Fair.

The fact that the rain kept all but twoscore persons from attending the Dominican fair last night in the school hall at South Orange avenue and 9th street, Newark, prevented a panic in the hall. A photographer taking a flashlight picture set fire to the bunting on the roof of the booths. Priests and parishioners tore down the burning bunting before much damage had been done.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

Headquarters for

John Gibson's

RYE.

E. C. Westcott, Agent.

115 East Front Street.

METHODISTS FAVOR AMUSEMENT CLAUSE

Bishop Goodsell of Boston stirred the Quadrennial General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church at Baltimore, Md., when he read the Episcopal address yesterday by recommending an amendment of the clause touching on the amusement question.

Bishop Daniel A. Goodsell of Boston read the episcopal adress to the conference. It notes a gain in the number of communicants during the past four years of 278,357, the greatest gain during any similar period for sixteen years. The total "pastoral army" numbers 20,161. These, according to the address, preach the Gospel in 130 languages and dialects. The address says:

"The total gain in church property for the four years last past is $32,678,431, while the total valuation of our churches and parsonages is $186,924,024. Our membership in the United States is now 3,036,000, while in the whole world the number is 3,307,275, at the close of 1907. Our foreign communicants number 267,000."

Touching the support of the ministry the address says:

"While we still insist that it is unwise to plan for emoluments in the church which are likely to make the accidents of salary and house more attractive than the work itself, it is of the highest wisdom to offer such support as secures freedom from anxiety, as well as modest provision for intelligence, culture, and education of children."

The matter of ministerial appointments is treated thus:

"If there be increasing difficulties in any degree as to making apointments it is because of growing interference on the part of ministers and layment with the judgment of the Bishops as to what is best for the work, since ministers demand to be kept within range of the more lucrative charges, because they have had one or two of that sort, and they feel humiliated and degraded if they are sent even to a small reduction."

It is declared that the church has not yet reached unanimity touching the removal of the time limit from the pastorate.

Recommendations on Amusements.

As to amusements and the book of discipline the address continues:

"We are moved by a profound conviction of duty in again calling your attention to the subject of popular amusements in relation to the spirit and conduct of spiritual life. We regret that the general prevalence of harmful amusements does not diminish. We still firmly hold that they are antagonistic to vital piety, promotive of worldliness, and especially pernicous to youth. * * * We recommend, not that Paragraph 248 be stricken out, but that it be amended, leaving as the ground for church trial, in case such trial becomes necessary, that portios of the paragraph reading: 'Taking such amusements as are obviously of misleading or questionable moral tendency, or disobedience to the order and discipline of the church,' and especially our original rule, 'to taking such diversions as cannot be used in the name of the Lord Jesus.' Grave injustice will be done if this recommendation is interpreted as on abandonment of our early opposition to worldly amusements. Indeed, it is a return to the principles and to the exact words furnished by John Wesley."

In the course of a discussion of civic righteousnes the address says:

"We see clearly that within the next generation there are to be great social changes. The influence of wealth on political life and measures is to grow less, whether it be in the hands of individuals or corporations. The workingmen are to have more power, the idlers less. With us, we must both lead and restrain by religious forces."

As to divorce:

"The consecutive polgamy permitted by the divorce laws of some of our States is a disgrace to our country. We greatly rejoice that the conscience of the Nation is being quickened on this subject, and that the demand for uniform divorce laws increases."

In the section devoted to child labor the address says:

"In the name of Jesus Christ we protest against the sacrifice of childhood on the altar of Mammon, whether it be by the sloth of parents or the greed of proprietors. We demand from legislators such laws as will, in securing freedom to children from exhausting toil, contribute to the vitality, the growth, and the moral power and moral sense of all youthful employes."

The Bishops have quite a little to say as to workingmen and the church and as to trades unions.

The address upholds theright of workingmen to form labor unions, and says that the church and unioss should seek each other's help to uplift mankind.

"Without."

"I'd like a glass of plain effervescing dring," said a thirsty man. "You haf vannilla, or you haf raspberry?" asked the youg woman—a Teuton—behind the counter. "I want a plain drink, no flavoring—understand me? responded the thirsty man testily. "Yes, but vat kind flavoring you vant him mitout? Mitout vanilla or mitout raspberry?"—Philadelphia Inquirer.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

The Woodhull & Martin Store

Stirring News from the Men's Corner

If you know we've got the greatest shirt stock in town. Well we have and you'll find better shirts offered here for the money than you can get elsewhere.

New Spring styles in fine madras, light and dark colors, attached and detached cuffs, extraordinary value 50c

Fine madras shirts with detached cuffs in neat checks and stripes, equal in every respect to regular $1.00 shirts 75c

Two of the best known makes in white and colored madras, closed and coat styles, attached and detached cuffs, in quality, fit and workmanship they are equal to any $1.50 shirt; our price for them is an even $1.00

Here's a genuine Sox bargain. 100 dozen of fine fast black lisle sox, in all sizes, the regular 25c kind; special, a pair 15c

Sale of Suspenders

The regular 50c kind for 29c.

The celebrated "Pioneer" make, a good quality, light weight web, with leather ends.

New Spring Neckwear in all the latest shapes and colorings; extra good values at 25c and 50c

Where do your socks wear out, is it the Toe or Heel? If so, you need the new kind made with the Interwoven Toe and Heel.

The peculiar construction of this hosiery makes it a wonder for wear. Don't fail to try a pair for 25c

A word about Hole Proof Sox.

HOLEPROOF SOCKS

are made of the finest yarns—an ideal combination—soft as silk to tender toes, but with a wearing quality like woven wire. Knit by a process that's unique and as near to perfection in sock making as mankind has reached.

They're different—distinctly different—decidedly better—their "betterness" lies not only in their durability—but in their appearance, fit and feeling as well.

They're antiseptic—soft and soothing to the feet—washing only cleanses them—they won't harden, shrink or fade.

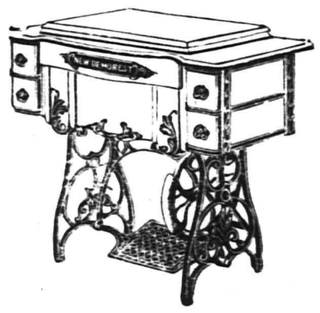
They are guaranteed for six months and sell for a box of six pairs $2.00

Umbrellas, 26 and 28 in. sizes, with paragon handles, steel rod and natural handles; a regular $1.00 umbrella for 79c

How About a New Suit Case?

Rattan Suit Cases, light weight, but strong and durable; leathered bound, two straps, brass lock, all firmly rivited; sizes 14 to 24 in., $2.25 to $4.75

A special 24 inch solid cow hide leather Suit Case, hand finished, linen lined, with shirt pocket; would sell readily for $7.50; special price $5.00



DEMOREST SEWING MACHINES

are equal, if not superior, to any machine on the market, yet we sell them for about half what the others charge.

"OUR CLUB PLAN SYSTEM" enables you to buy a machine at the regular low cash prices and pay for it on very easy terms. The machines sell for $19.50, $21.50, $22.50, $25.00 and $26.50. These prices include a full set of the very latest attachments and the machines are fully guaranteed for ten years. Come in and ask about the Club Plan.

The Woodhull & Martin Store.

Capital and surplus $250,000.00

THE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

of Plainfield.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS:

A. J. Brunson, President
J. A. Smith, Vice President
D. M. Runyon, Cashier

W. R. Coddington,
J. A. Hubbard,
C. Frank French,
B. F. Cortell,
P. J. Zeglio, M. D.
E. H. Bird.

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS DRAW FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

CHALFONTE

is a new Fireproof Building of the best type, located

ON THE BOARDWALK

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

BETWEEN THE PIERS

THE LEEDS COMPANY

Solicits your patronage and invites you to write for Illustrated Folder and Rates.

CHALFONTE IS ALWAYS OPEN

AMUSEMENTS.

New Plainfield Theatre

PLAYING ALL THE LEADING ATTRACTIONS

W. J. COUNIHAN - - - - Manager

Friday, May 8—
The Big Show
ROGERS BROTHERS in PANAMA
and a company of 75 people.
Prices 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50.

Saturday, May 9—
The Class of 1908 of
THE PLAINFIELD HIGH SCHOOL Present
"SHE STOOPS TO CONQUER"
PRICES—25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00.

Watch and Wait for the Plainfield ALL STAR STOCK COMPANY, Headed by Alberta Galatin and an all Star Cast.

Wanted for CASH

A comfortable house, modern and up-to-date, with about two acres. Conveniently located to station. $15,000 to $20,000.

CROSS & PLUM, Inc.,

573 Broad and Bank Sts., Newark, N. J

Tramps Attack School Girl.

Long Branch, May 8.—Alma Dennett, a Scott girl, was atacked by a tramp yesterday. The tramp choked the girl and threatened to kill her if she screamed. Principal Meyer heard the girl's screams and ran to her aid. The tramp made his escape. The school was dismissed and scholars and principal hunted in vain for the tramp.

Why Have a Bank Account?

Because---

A Bank Account creates a desire to make it as large as possible, and it is wise for all to provide for the "RAINY DAY," which comes sooner or later.

Start an account today with us,

The Plainfield Savings Bank.

R. W. BARNES.

217 PARK AVE. 'PHONE 344-L.

Fruits Vegetables and Groceries

Imported and Domestic Cheeses, Olives and Pickles in bottles or by measure, Boiled Corned Beef, Ham, Smoked Salmon, Fresh Cut Chipped Beef, Heinz's Stuffed Melons. Try Them.

USE PRESS WANT ADS

A "TELLING EFFECT"

IS DEFINED.

One lady telling another

PECK'S

is the store for you to trade.

SPRING FURNISHINGS

Carpets & Mattings

All the best kinds in large variety to please the most exacting requirements. Beautiful Oriental and Floral effects in all grades of Carpets, made, laid and lined free.

Ingrain - - -	75c
Brussells -	65c-1.00
Axminster -	1.10-1.25
Velvet -	1.00-1.35

Rugs.

You will enjoy the beautiful line of these popular goods we have in all the leading makes, well selected patterns in every kind from cheapest to best grade and at prices that are lowest now quoted.

Ingrain, 9x12 -	4.98-8.98
Brussells, 9x12	12.50-27.50
Axmin'r, 9x12	19.98-27.50
Velvet -	22.50-25.00

FURNITURE and BEDDING.

When buying these goods you need the dependable kind with the largest assortment of patterns to select from. This is what we offer you combined with lowest possible prices--prices for really good goods. Our large floor space is just crowded with nice clean desirable goods that will appeal to you.

Awnings.

Now is the time to plan your orders, for the hot weather will come and you will want good Awnings—and that's our kind, always the best.

Shades.

Get our estimate for your shade work, for we do a good job and do it reasonable—and carry the largest assortment of goods in this city.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON,

BABCOCK BUILDING, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

LADIES' AND GENT'S SUITS

CLEANED AND PRESSED

G. O. KELLER,

'PHONE 857-J 125 PARK AVENUE

WE SELL LOTS FOR CASH or INSTALLMENT

We build and sell houses on the same plan. It will pay you to buy before June 1st in Laramie Park.

Write or call on

J. D. LOIZEAUX LUMBER CO.,

Cor. Berkman St. and North Ave. 'Phone 218.

5 6 11 m-w-s

A FEW OF THE MANY SPECIALS

—AT—

Applegate's Meat and Produce Market

Premium hams	12½
Small regular hams, 7-9 lbs	12
Best sugar-cured hams	16
Legs Veal	16
Loins Veal	16
Large juicy oranges, dozen	30
High grade butterine	22
Large new potatoes	pony basket 40
Bermuda onions	pony basket 45
Pineapples	10

Strawberries, lettuce, asparagus, rhubarb, string beans, cucumbers and all other vegetables at lowest market prices.

C. L. APPLEGATE,

163 Somerset St. Telephone 360-W

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Mary A. Vail, of Quarrytown, for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Hannah Elizabeth Vail, and Charles Calvin Groff, of Quarrytown. The wedding will be held at the bride's home next Thursday afternoon. The bride is well known in Dunellen, where she formerly lived. She is a graduate of the local school.

Charles E. Richards has been elected a member of the Borough Board of Education to succeed William E. Terry, whose resignation was accepted at Tuesday night's meeting. Mr. Terry whose term does not expire until next year, resigned because he felt that his business would keep him to much engrossed to give proper attention to the school affairs.

Former Borough Marshal Owen Mohan, formerly in charge of the local railroad gang has been transferred to Jersey City, where he is now "boss" of a large floating section gang. A Newark man has been placed in charge of his section gang here. Mr. Mohan will continue to live in the borough.

Rev. Henry N. Jordan, pastor of the Seventh Day Baptist church at New Market, has been chosen county superintendent of the Home Department of the Midland County Sunday School Association.

If the grounds dry up in time, the New Market A. C. nine will play the Highland Park Field Club on Nelson Feld tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Edith Giles, of New Market, is confined to her home with an attack of the mumps.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The local ball team will lineup against the Stars in tomorrow's game as follows: Flanning, lf; Baldwin, ss; Allen, 1b; Washburn, 2b; J. Albert, 3b; Ellis, cf; H. Albert, c; Reick, rf; Harney, p. The Star lineup will be Lyons, 1b; Reilly, 3b; G. Mills, p; Bolty, ss; Bullmant, lf; A. Mills, 2b; Meuk, rf; Wheelan, cf; Speany, c. Game will be called at 3:30.

The mariage of Mary Elizabeth Westcott, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Westcott to George Smith Ranier of Westfield, will take place tomorrow afternoon at 6 o'clock at the Baptist church.

The every night special meetings which have been held in the Baptist church for some time, will be brought to a close with tonight's meeting.

The fans should turn out in force tomorrow to see the game between the home team and Star A. C. team.

The heavy rains yesterday soon raised Green Brook, from a peaceful stream to a raging torrent.

Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., held an important meeting last night, in the Library rooms.

Only one session of school was held yesterday on account of the storm.

Mrs. H. C. Meyer was the guest of friends in New York yesterday.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

The May business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society will take place at the home of Mrs. W. H. Manning this evening.

Mrs. L. Stewart, who is staying for a few days with Mrs. A. Ward, is suffering from an acute attack of rheumatism.

(Additional suburban news on page 2.)

—How a boy can obtain a baseball—read Van Arsdale ad today.

—For best results advertise in The Daily Press.

ATLANTIC CITY.

AMERICAN PLAN. EUROPEAN PLAN

HOTEL WINDSOR

ATLANTIC CITY

G JASON WATERS

SEND FOR BOOKLET

GOLF GARAGE CAFE ORCHESTRA

ON THE BOARD WALK

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS DESIGNS COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York

Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

CLEARED STATESMAN OF DEBT.

Disraeli's "Endymion" Fulfilled Expectations of Author.

In the year 1872 Lord Beaconsfield commenced his last novel, "Endymion," a work undertaken chiefly from the honorable desire to obtain a sum of money that would finally wipe off a residue of monetary engagements. He worked at it pretty steadily until the general election of 1874 called him to office, when his literary work was set aside. Still he wrote at it occasionally till the beginning of the year 1876, when the Eastern question coming to the front and engrossing his attention, he, as he thought, finally laid the work aside. He then wrote a letter to Lord Rowton, inclosing the manuscript, unfinished by something like 100 pages of printed matter. He stated his view that the pressure of public work would preclude his continuing the novel, and in the event of his decease he instructed Lord Rowton to finish the work, but not to volunteer the announcement that it had been left in an incomplete state or to avow his collaboration, leaving the book to stand solely in the name of its original creator. Lord Beaconsfield, however, living through his own administration and finding comparative leisure when in opposition, completed the novel with his own hand, and it was sold for the splendid sum of £10,000, a windfall which enabled him to fulfill his cherished desire of paying off his debts.

NEIGHBORS KNEW HER HABITS.

Matter That Puzzled Mrs. Lawton Really Was Quite Simple.

When the Lawtons had lived in Willow park about a month they were invited to a succession of little dinners at the houses of their new neighbors. Mr. Lawton was on a dyspeptic's diet, and Mrs. Lawton was endeavoring to reduce her weight. "I suppose we shall have to eat all sorts of things we don't wish, or else seem rude," said Mrs. Lawton, mournfully, as they set out for the first dinner.

To their growing surprise the bill of fare placed before them at each dinner, although not remarkably varied, was composed of such dishes as they could both enjoy.

"I don't see how you all hit on just the right things, when Mr. Lawton and I are such difficult guests," said Mrs. Lawton in a burst of confidence one afternoon when the neighbors were taking tea with her.

The ladies looked at each other, and then one of them spoke.

"You know Mary Sloan, who comes to wash for you Tuesday mornings?" she said. "Well, I have her Mondays, and Mrs. Green has her Wednesdays, and she irons for Mrs. Porter Thursdays and scrubs for Miss Homer Fridays, so you see—"

Her voice trailed off into silence, but Mrs. Lawton no longer wondered; she "saw."—Youth's Companion.

Ingratitude to Employes.

It is a pretty serious thing, Mr. Employer, to vent your spleen upon those who are really doing their best to help you succeed. Did you ever think that your success depends very largely upon your employes, that they are really your silent partners, that you could not possibly get rich without them?

Did you ever think that many of those working for you might, given opportunities as good as those you have had, be vastly superior to you?

Many employers do not praise, upon principle. They think it is very bad for the employe; that criticism is much better than appreciation. Nothing is falser than this idea. Some people are so constituted that they live upon appreciation and praise.—Orison Swett Marden, in Success Magazine.

The Life Earnest.

High hearts are never long without hearing some new call, some distant clarion of God, even in their dreams; and soon they are observed to break up the camp of ease and start on some fresh march of faithful service. And, looking higher still, we find those who never wait till their moral work accumulates, and who reward resolution with no rest; with whom, therefore, the alternation is instantaneous and constant; who do the good only to see the better, and see the better only to achieve it; who are too meek for transport, too faithful for remorse, too earnest for repose; whose worship is action, and whose action ceaseless aspiration.—J. Martineau.

Unchanging Laws of Etiquette.

It is astonishing to see how little the standard of good manners seems to have changed since the middle ages.

The strenuous life and the higher education have not altered our conception of the laws of good breeding, even if they leave us little time for the carrying out of them, and the rules of conduct upon which we have all been brought up are in many respects the same to-day as those propounded in the manuals of etiquette of hundreds of years ago.—Ladies' Field.

His Chance.

"But maybe you don't like to hear the smart sayings of other people's children," said the man who had been reeling them off for an hour.

"Yes I do," responded the other man. "I think they ought to be imperishably preserved. I sell phonographs, dollar down and a dollar semi-occasionally. How about one?"

There was nothing to do but invest.—Exchange.

Fresh Vegetables

Asparagus, Wax Beans, Tomatoes.
Radishes, Beets, Lettuce.
Strawberries, Green Beans, Cucumbers.

Fruit

Oranges, Grape Fruit, Apples.
Malaga Grapes, Figs.

NEUMAN BROS.

GROCERS—Watchung Avenue and Fifth Street.

Efficient and rapid delivery service to all parts of the city.

MONO

Fireproof Storage Warehouse.

Separate Rooms, Fireproof Partitions. Clean, Dry, Secure.

Inspection Invited—Open 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

FURNITURE REMOVED WITH CARE.

Telephone 522-W. Opposite freight depot.

NOTICE!

Having engaged a competent cutter from New York, the business formerly conducted by Robt. Gardner at 325 Watchung avenue will be continued. The same high standard of workmanship will be maintained.

M. F. GARDNER.

546

A. M. RUNYON & SON, UNDERTAKERS.

402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York Office—50 Great Jones Street,
Tel. call 3345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 815.

T. A. MOORE.

UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.

Office—508 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 790
Residence—614 East 6th St. " 741-R
New York Office, 37 Great Jones St.
Telephone Call, 3249-Spring.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

Established 1872.

P. CASEY & SON.

UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS.

Office 116 Park Av., Tel. 884-w. Res., 417 W. 3d St., Tel. 908-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 23d St. Tel. 2094 Gramercy

GEO. W. COLE.

UNDERTAKER & EMBALMER.

200 West Second St. Telephone 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

Chas. L. Stanley,

159 East Front St. 'Phone 928.
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

L. L. MANNING & SON,

STEAM GRANITE WORKS.

Corner Central Avenue and West Front Street. Opposite First Baptist Church.

Classified Advertisements

Rates for advertisements under this heading one cent a word for first insertion, one half a cent a word for consecutive insertions of the same advertisement running for less than one month; one month, fifty cents a line (6 words to a line), double rate for advertisement set in capitals.

No advertisements received for less than ten cents.

Copy for death and marriage notices and classified advertising accepted up to 2:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS is not at liberty to give any information regarding advertisements that require an address in care of this office. Persons answering these ads. should mail or leave answers as stated in advertisements.

Help Wanted.

WANTED—First-class cook; also first-class laundress to go to Mountains for the summer; $30 each. Mrs. Reinhold, 222 New street. 5 8 3

WANTED—Locksmith and general repair man. Apply 120 West Front street. 5 8 3

WANTED—Experienced girl for general housework, two in family; reference required. Mrs. Johnson, 207 East Seventh street. 5 8 tf

WANTED—White cooks and general houseworkers; also colored waitress. Hall's Employment Agency, Station driveway.

COOKS, laundresses and general houseworkers wanted at once. Mrs. Reinhold, 222 New street. 5 6 3

COOKS, waitresses and general houseworkers wanted at once. Anderson's Employment office, 659 West Fourth street. 5 4 3 eod

Help Wanted.

WANTED — Experienced white girl for general housework; small family. Apply 156 Westervelt avenue. 5 6 3

WANTED—Girl for general housework. 1208 Watchung avenue. 5 6 3

WANTED—Girl, general housework; references required; three in family. Call this week 1133 East Seventh street, Netherwood. 5 63

Situations Wanted.

COOKS, waitresses, chambermaid and general houseworkers want positions. Anderson Employment office, 659 West Fourth street. 'Phone 508-W. 4 27 eod

NURSE—Speaks French, German, English; first-class Plainfield references; also young nurse maids and waitresses want positions. Mrs. Reinhold, 222 New street. 'Phone 1321-W. 5 6 3

FIRST-CLASS help always on hand. Anderson's Employment office, 659 West Fourth street. 'Phone 508-W. 5 4 3 eod

YOUNG man, 17 years old, would like position on farm. Call 322 Jackson avenue, City. 5 8 2

GOOD cook, English, wants position at once. Call Mrs. Keller's office, 22 Somerset place. 5 8 2

COLORED girl wants position to do general housework or work by the day. Call 327 West Front street. 5 8 3

CHAUFFEUR Japanese machinist, sober, honest, careful driver; two years' experience; any gasoline cars, wants position; private family; highest recommendation; moderate wages. Address F. B., care Press. 5 4 7

COMPETENT help constantly on hand; white and colored. Hall's Employment Agency (originally The Plainfield), station driveway; 'phone 322-J. 4 22 1m

WANTED—Place as waitress and chambermaid by Swedish girl. Call 842 West Fourth street. 5 7 3

BOY of 16 wants situation on farm for board and $6 a month. Address Country, care Press. 5 7 3

LADY wishes laundry work or housecleaning by day. 626 West Fourth street. 5 7 3

COLORED woman wants work by the day. 635 West Third street. 5 5 5

Lost and Found.

LOST—Carrier pigeon, band No. Y-16070. Reward. 608 Madison avenue. 5 8 2

FOUND—Two tickets for Kirmess next Tuesday night. Owner can have same by paying for this advertisement. Apply at Press office.

LOST—On Sunday, a spotted coach dog, answers to the name of "Spades." Finder please return to E. S. Hooley, 70 Rockview avenue; reward. 4 20 tf

Wanted—Miscellaneous.

WANTED—Horse on farm to work a little for its board; good home; best care. Address Home, care Press. 5 8 3

WANTED—One or two furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Address E. H. D., care Press. 5 6 3

WANTED—Bicycle, also woman's wheel in good condition; cheap for cash. Address with particulars, Melbourne, Press office.

LAUNDRY work wanted by the day. 215 East Fourth street. 5 4 6

For Rent.

FLAT to let. Inquire 18 Craig place. 4 14 tf

FOR RENT—Apartment, four rooms, bath room, all improvements, steam heat; in fine condition; rent $18; location, corner Fifth street and Watchung avenue. Apply to A. M. Lederer, 117 West Front St. 4 23 tf

FOR RENT—New house just completed; seven rooms and bath; rent $21. Address O. I. C., Daily Press. 4 24 tf

TO LET—Eight room house, on West Fourth street, near Park avenue; all newly papered and painted; city water and gas. B. Mann, 120 West Fourth street. 4 28 tf

FOR RENT OR SALE—320 Somerset street, 12 rooms, city water, modern plumbing, electric lights, all improvements. Inquire 328 Somerset street, or Golding, 133 West 65th street, New York. 5 4 6

FOR RENT—Commodious offices in the Woodhull & Martin building suitable for lawyers, dentists, insurance companies, etc.; will arrange to suit tenant. 4 20 tf

THREE rooms to let. 732 West Third street. 4 6 tf

TO LET—Three-room flat. Inquire 39 Summit avenue. 5 4 6

FOR RENT—6 room house and barn. 37 Summit avenue, from 9 to 3. 5 8 3

FLAT TO LET—6 rooms corner, first floor. 229 East Front street. Jacob Voehl, 39 Grove street.

TO LET—$9.00, house, city water. West End. U. B. Crane. 5 8 3

TO LET—Second floor, city water, $12.50. 183 Somerset street. Ernest T. Hand. 5 8 tf

FOR RENT—No. 26 Rockview avenue, 12 rooms and 2 baths; large beautiful grounds; large carriage house; immediate possession. No. 806 Third place, 10 room house; immediate possession. Furnished cottages to rent for summer from $50 month up. Edmund Rushmore, 209 North avenue, Plainfield; N. Y. office, 42 Broadway. 5 6 12

SEVEN-ROOM apartments to let; all improvements. 937 West Front street; also six-room house. 3 28 tf

APARTMENT to let in the Lincoln, 110 West Fourth street; all improvements. 5 5 4

HOUSE TO LET—6 rooms; also 4 rooms to let. J. Sachar, 731 West Third street. 5 7 6

TO LET—Two or three nice rooms, unfurnished, for light housekeeping; bath same floor; five minutes from station. 410 New street. 5 5 tf

NEW six-room house to let, 1219 West Third street; six-room house, 1424 Willever street, near Safe Works; two apartments, four rooms each, all improvements, or the whole house, 216 Prescott place. J. Sacher, 731 West Third St. 4 3 tf

NEW 7-room house, on Cameron avenue, for sale or to let; furnace, open plumbing, gas and city water. Inquire E. Beys, Cameron avenue. 5 4 1m

TO RENT—Second and third stories of 316 and 318 West Front street, 50x85 feet. Jos. W. Gavett. 4 3 tf

FOR RENT—In Netherwood, furnished, nine room house, large porch and awnings. Address 875 Leland avenue. 5 6 3

TO LET—9-room house, all improvements; 3 Verdon street. G. W. V. Moy. 3 13 tf

TO LET—4 rooms, upper floor, water. John Manley, insurance, 321 Park avenue. 3 17 tf

Real Estate Agents.

HOUSES, new, for sale or rent, all improvements, excellent location, East End. Inquire M. A. Rose, 301 Watchung avenue, 'Phone 273-J. 4 14 1m

HAVE clients for farms, houses, lots in Plainfield and vicinity; also all kinds of property for sale. Address Real Estate, care Press. 5 5 6

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent or exchange. Edmund Rushmore, 209 North avenue, telephone No. 49, Plainfield; 42 Broadway, New York. 10 10 tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield; telephone 44. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; properties that I have picked up in trade that I can sell you for less than market prices; if you want to buy or have anything to sell come and see me. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, 39 Prospect place, North Plainfield. 11 20 tf

REAL ESTAE for sale, rent and exchange at bargain figures, insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

FOR SALE—If you want to buy or sell real estate, please call, write or 'phone Ira L. LaRue, next to station, next to bargain. Office 'phone 752-R, residence 'phone 845-L. 12 19 tf

Miscellaneous.

COMPLETE line of automobile supplies and tires at lowest New York prices. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

AUTOMOBILES to hire at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co., telephone 991-J. 4 15 3m

A FIRST CLASS place to turn out horses to recruit, will have good attention; also storage for wagons. Address I., care Daily Press. 4 13 1m

FIRST-CLASS places and first-class help always on hand. Swedish Intelligence Office, 22 Somerset place, 'Phone 196-W. 8 22 tf

AUTOMOBILES repaired and overhauled by first class mechanics at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

THE EXCHANGE, 325 West Front street, telephone 901-R. Do you have furniture, carpets, etc., for sale? Do not fail to notify us; we pay 50 per cent. more than anybody else. 11 29 tf

GARBAGE removed regularly and reasonably. George Christensen, R. F. D. No. 1. 4 21 1m

CELLAR digging, grading in all its branches; house cleaning and whitewashing a specialty. 'Phone 862-J. Prompt service; competent help. Samuel M. Thornton, 544 West Third street. 5 8 6

IF YOU want your watch, clock or jewelry repaired take them to Brown, 124 Watchung Ave. 4 18 1m

FURNITURE stored and sold on commission. Martin Hansen, 316 and 318 West Front street. 5 5 1m

GRADING, LAWNS REMODELED, SOIL AND SOD FURNISHED; PLANTS AND SHRUBS PLANTED, ETC.; PROMPT, SATISFACTORY. J. M. WELSH, 754 KENSINGTON AVENUE. TEL. 148-J. 5 4 6

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S., graduate American Veterinary College, N. Y., pet animals a specialty. OFFICE WITH ALBERT HEDDEN, livery, 118 East Fourth street, telephone 114-J. 1 27 tf

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans, Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 4 tf

DAIRY, butter for table, 27c; cooking, 23c. Address Dairy, Press office. 5 7 3

BABIES crochet sacques for sale; all prices; also ladies' knitted sweaters made to order. Mrs. Mayer, 54 Pearl street, North Plainfield. tf

ASHES and rubbish removed, city or borough. Good soil for sale. Geo. Miller, 518 West Fourth street. 5 7 3

CONTRACTS taken for care of lawns and gardens for the season. J. M. Welsh, 754 Kensington avenue. Tel. 148-J. 5 4 6

SOMETHING of interest to every dressmaker and every lady that works at dressmaking. Address B. P. C., care Press. 5 7 6

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer; sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

CESSPOOLS and vaults cleaned, odorless excavator; good work; lowest prices. T. M. Ingraham, Plainfield R. F. D. No. 1. 12 10 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

Poultry and Eggs.

CHICKS for sale; two weeks old. 9 Codington avenue. 5 8 6

EGGS FOR HATCHING—White Leghorn, White Plymouth Rocks, Buff Orpingtons and Pekin Ducks, from the best strains. Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, Tel. 451-J. 4 14 1m

EGGS FOR HATCHING—Fishel strain; White Rocks, $1 per 13; Gardner and Dunning and Welles strain; Barred Rocks, $2; Black Minorcas, $1. Barred Rock Cockerels for sale. No. 1041 Dunellen avenue. 4 9 1m

SETTINGS of 13 from prize stock. Blk Minorca $1.50, Buff Orpington $3 White or Partridge Wyandotte $2. 100, $10; 50, $5. 234 West 2nd St. 4 3 tf

EGGS for setting, from Orpingtons, Black Leghorns, Indian Game, and India Runner Ducks, corner Grant and Sherman Aves. 3 25 tf

R. I. RED, Barred Plymouth Rock and White Leghorn eggs from the leading strains of the country; $1 per sitting, $5 per hundred. George Howard, Jr., South Bound Brook, N. J. 2 21 2m

Money to Loan.

$1,000 to $3,000 to loan; improved property only. C. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 5 6 3

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite Depot. 12 28 tf

MONEY to loan on band and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 12 18 tf

LOANS negotiated. J. T. Vail. 1 14 tf

TO LOAN—Money on good mortgages. George F. Brown, 94 Somerset street. tf

For Sale.

CADILLAC runabout, model K, 1906; top, curtains, extra tubes; elegant condition; $325. Getting larger car. Now at Morris Bros.' garage. 5 8 3

FOR SALE—Good business or family horse; also good surrey; cheap or exchange. George Belcher, depot. 5 8 2

FOR SALE—Buick touring car, fine shape; all new tires; 5 lamps, etc. $350 to quick buyer. Thompson, 413 Park avenue. 5 7 6

4-ROOM cottage; acre of land; $2,200. Wm. Bourgeois, Laramie road. 5 1 1m

FOR SALE, RENT OR EXCHANGE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; also country homes and farms at bargain prices. C. H. Snyder, 221 Park avenue, room 4. 4 18 1m

FINELY matched team of five-year-old bay mares, 15.3 hands high, sired by King Launcelot, half brother to Dare Devil; their dams were half sisters sired by a son of Chimes; never trained for speed but a fine prospect and a splendid road team now. Will be sold right. W. E. Kastendike, New Market, N. J. 5 8 2

FOR SALE—Bargain for quick buyer, Edison Home phonograph, with 150 records. Address Buyer, care Press. 5 8 4

PRIVATE family leaving city have placed in my hands to sell the following: Very pretty black horse, suitable for private family, very gentle and well broke, afraid of nothing, will sell reasonable to get good home; one bay chunk, extra fine looker, suitable for baker, grocer or any delivery or light express; one sorrel horse, suitable for surrey or light delivery; one brown work horse; one big young horse, little sore, suitable for farmer or slow work. The above horses range in price from $40 to $140. One pretty pony, basket cart, new set harness, been driven by children, full pony outfit for $125, cost $300; one new runabout rubber tire, $75; one surrey rubber tires, $55. The above horses can be seen all next week. Also automobile, seat five. No dealers need apply. Baker's blacksmith shop, 29 West Grand street, near Broad street, Elizabeth, N. J. 5 8 2

FOR SALE—Two horse wagon cheap; must be sold. 78 Greenbrook road. 5 4 4

STANHOPE carriage in fine condition; has been used little; good for pleasure or for doctor's carriage. Address Stanhope, care Daily Press. 5 4 6

AUTOMOBILE house for sale at a bargain. Address J. M., care press. 5 4 6

FOR SALE—Small pony, cart and harness; very pretty and gentle. Address J. H. Campbell, 205 Park avenue, City. 5 5 5

FOR SALE—Automobile runabout, cost $950; price $225; in fine condition. Address A. R., Daily Press. 5 5 tf

1905 2-Cylinder Elmore touring car; fine shape; 5 lamps, etc. $275. Thompson, 413 Park avenue. 5 7 6

SACRIFICE—Fine business building for sale in the heart of city. Address Sacrifice, care Daily Press. 5 7 3

BARGAIN in lots for cash in Highland Park. Inquire at 303 Leland avenue. 5 8 6

BARGAIN—$125 due bill, good on purchase of Bradbury piano for $100 in cash. Address L. Edgerton, care Press. 5 6 3

FOR SALE—The finest lot in Plainfield, on which to build a row of apartment houses. Chas. L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building, Plainfield, N. J. 3 21 tf

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

Rooms and Board.

GOOD accommodations; low rates. Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

TWO fine rooms and board; also table boarders. Mrs. Detweilers, 514 Madison avenue. 5 7 6

FEW boarders wanted. Mrs. M. Fosbre, 659 Essex street. 5 1 12

TO LET—Newly furnished room in select apartment; centre of town; all improvements. A. C., care Press. 5 4 6

WATCHUNG AVE., 724, near 7th St., desirable rooms with first class board. 4 13 1m

TWO communicating rooms with board; sunny exposure; bath adjoining; first class neighborhood; excellent table. 132-134 Crescent avenue. 9 19 tf

Real Estate for Exchange.

FINE new house, centrally located; 10 rooms, all improvements; gas and electric light, hot water heating, parquet floors; would exchange for moderate priced lots. J. T. Vail, 177 North Ave. 4 14 tf

STENOGRAPHERS

We cannot secure enough stenographers and private secretaries. We offer you the choice of hundreds of positions in every location, 10%-15% above the market. We also need bright beginners capable of advancement. Write fully of experience, position and salary desired and when you will be ready to change.

HAPGOODS (INC.), Brain Brokers

305-309 Broadway, New York City.

SOME STATE NEWS BRIEFS

Law breakers, most of whom have come from Atlantic City, cost Atlantic County $40,000 during the past year for their "board" in the county jail at May's Landing.

The Southern conference of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of New York and New Jersey will hold its annual session in the Spruce Run Lutheran Zion church, May 18 and 19.

To the gratification of residents of East Millville, the Millville Board of Health has refused to grant permission for the opening of a cemetery in that growing section of the city.

"Old Harry," a faithful fire horse, which had served the Cape May department twenty-two years, became decrepit and was humanely put to death by his driver and long time keeper, John Bush.

Susanna Morris, daughter of Edward Morris, of Thorfare, burst a blood vessel in her head and was operated on at the Hahnemann Hospital, Philadelphia, with but little hope of her recovery.

Woodbury's City Council yesterday refused the bill of Mayor Ladd for affixing the seal of the city to the sixty school bonds, at fifty cents each. The city solicitor said there was no law by which such a bill could be paid.

When they visited the dog pound at the head of Twenty-fifth street, Camden, yesterday, assistants to the city warden discovered that some maliciously disposed person had turned the twenty-three impounded dogs loose in the night.

Last night's meeting in the revival series in Trinity M. E. church, Trenton, was conducted entirely by the women, neither the pastor, Rev. Charles H. Elder, nor any of the men having any part in the service except as members of the congregation.

While repairing a valve on an acid tank at the powder works, Paulsboro, William McLoughlin was badly burned with acid. He was put aboard the company's tug and hurried to Hahnemann Hospital. It is probable McLoughlin will lose the sight of both eyes.

The Bayonne Council yesterday appointed Garrett Crotty captain of No. 2 Truck Company, to succeed Captain George Simmons, dismissed. John Mountain was appointed driver, and Joseph Napelbaum and George Zindler, truckmen. Thomas Mariana was appointed court interpreter.

As he was about to dispose of some clothing at a ridiculously low figure in Camden yesterday, John Banks, colored, was arrested by Hall Officer Beard on suspicion. The man had two pawn tickets and a letter addressed to a girl, with these words: "Keep quiet or up the road I'll go."

Robert Broadbent, proprietor of a chicken farm at Brown Mills, is said to have tried to kill his wife and children yesterday afternoon while insane. They managed to elude him. He was removed to the asylum at New Lisbon. Dr. Parsons, the superintendent, says Broadbent is suffering from melancholia.

A contract for a new telephone exchange costing $53,593 to be erected by the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company, at Jefferson street, near Parisade avenue, Union Hill, was filed with the county clerk Jersey City, yesterday. The building is to be of brick and four stories, and is to be erected by the E. E. Paul Company.

Just as his wife said, "I'll make it diamonds," while playing whist at the home of relatives at Newton, Mass., Harry C. Parker, twenty-five years old, of No. 624 Clinton street, Camden, was attacked with heart trouble and died before medical aid could be summoned. Mr. and Mrs. Parker were on a visit to the home of Mrs. Parker's parents at the time of the death.

PEQUOT HOUSE IS BURNED.

Famous Hotel at New London, Conn., Scene of Many Social Affairs, Totally Destroyed.

New London, Conn., May 8.—The famous Pequot House, which crowned the headland at the Western entrance to New London Harbor, was burned early yesterday and the conflagration lasted for several hours, threatening the entire Pequot settlement of cottages and many splendid summer homes on Pequot avenue. Two of the Pequot cottages nearby were entirely destroyed and one other belonging to Mrs. Andrews, of New York, was wrecked. A strong easterly gale was blowing at the time of the fire, which swept the flames across the lawns to the adjoining buildings, fourteen of which were at one time or another on fire, but which were saved by the city fire departments.

The Pequot House was an old structure, but its sightly location, commanding as it did from the veranda a view of the entire lower harbor, made it very valuable. It was for many years probably the most notable summer resort in New England. The hotel was of ample proportions, built on old-fashioned plans with broad verandas and spacious reception rooms. The building was three stories in height.

The property is owned by an association, of which United States Senator Frank B. Brandegee is the president. The hotel would have been in readiness for its first guest in about a fortnight. The loss is about twenty-five thousand dollars.

Scheuer's Special Bargains

For Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

SCHEUER'S BEST XXXX MINNESOTA PATENT FLOUR, 24½ lb bag 85c; a bbl $6.50

SOUTHERN BELLE FLOUR, for bread and pastry use, 24½ lb bag 69c; a bbl .. $5.65

Borden's Peerless Evaporated Milk, a can 8c	Pure Olive Oil, Packed in France, 58c kind, a bottle 49c	Tomatoes, solid packed, 11c grade, Reliance Brand, No. 3 can 8c	Corn, Royal Blue Brand, 10c kind, a can 8c
Robinson's Patent Barley, 14c kind, a tin 11c	Robertson's Orange Marmalade, 17c kind, 1-lb jar 14c	California Muscatel White Grape Juice, pint bottle 25c	Hire's Root Beer Extract, a bottle 12½c
Cox's English Gelatine, a package 9c	Campbell's Salad Dressing, 10c kind, a bottle 8c	Queen Olives, plain or stuffed, 25c size, a bottle 21c	Fresh Scallops, Gold Coin Brand, pint can 18c

FANCY ELGIN CREAMERY BUTTER, a lb 30c; 3 lbs for 87c

New Florida Potatoes, pony basket 40c	Large Juicy Lemons, dozen 15c	Pure Jelly Grape or Apple, tumbler 10c	Danish Fruit Juices, Cherry and Raspberry, imported from Denmark 35c
Shredded Codfish, 5c kind, a package 3c	White Rolled Oats, Fresh Milled, 6-lb bag 25c	National Biscuit Co.'s Uneeda Biscuits, a package 4c	Neufchatel Cream Cheese, a package 4c
Manzanilla Olives, in bulk, a quart 22c	Karo Corn Syrup, 10c kind, a can 8c	Fancy Evaporated Peaches, a lb 15c	Johnson's Educator Ginger Cookies, 25c kind, a tin 20c

Try MAN-A-CEA WATER, for indigestion, stops that distress after eating. ½ gallon bot .. 45c

Best Head Rice (whole grain), 3 lbs for 25c		Velencia Shelled Almonds, lb 39c
Choice Carolina Rice, 3 lbs for 20c		English Walnut Meat, lb 39c
McCann's Irish Oatmeal, 5-lb can 55c		Pecan Nut Meat, lb 49c
Shimmell's Pure Apple Butter, 3-lb crock 27c		Fancy Pulled Figs, lb 18c
Evaporated Apples, lb 14c		Extra Fard Dates, lb 10c
White or Yellow Meal, 6-lb bag 20c		Dr. Johnson's Educator Crackers, lb 18c
Rye or Graham Flour, 6-lb bag 20c		Dr. Johnson's Educator Toasterettes, lb 25c
Pinhead Oatmeal, 5c lb; 6 lbs 25c		Maxwell's Potato Chips, package 9c
Pearl Tapioca, 7c lb; 4 lbs 25c		Pure Ground Horseradish, bottle 8c
Best Wheat Farina, 6c lb; 4 lbs 22c		Pickled Mussells, bottle 10c
Sun Flower Seed, 7c lb; 4 lbs 25c		Spratt's Cat Food, 3-lb box 25c

WATCHUNG SPRING WATER, six 1½ gallon bottles in case 60c

10 STAMPS WITH ANY OF THE FOLLOWING ARTICLES:

3-lb Box Laundry Starch ... 20c	1 bottle Ammonia 10c	1 package Spaghetti 10c
4-lb pgk. Grandma's Washing Powder 18c	1 box Shaker Salt 10c	1 package Black Pepper 10c
1 bottle Laundry Blue 10c	1 bot. Lemon Extract .. 10c or 15c	7-lb bag Salt 10c
1 Box Ball Blue 10c	1 bot. Vanilla Extract. 10c or 15c	3-lb box Cal. Prunes 25c
6 cakes Scheuer's Soap 25c	1 bottle Bixby Royal Polish .. 10c	1 package, 12 boxes, Parlor Matches 12c
1 box Allen's Tooth Powder .. 10c	2 cakes Gondola Toilet Soap .. 10c	2 pkgs Tooth Picks for 10c

10 STAMPS with a TEN-CENT PACKAGE of FLOWER or VEGETABLE SEED.

IN OUR MEAT DEPARTMENT.

Fancy Roasting Chickens, lb 20c	Sugar Cured Ham, lb 14c
Choice Young Fowl, lb 18c	Boneless Bacon, lb 16c
Prime Leg Mutton 16c	Best Salt Pork, lb 12c
Fresh Pork Shoulders 12c	Plate or Brisket Corned Beef, lb 8c
Fresh Hams for Roasting 15c	Pork Sausage, 2 lbs for 25c
Fresh Hamburg Steak, lb 12c	Fresh Pork Loin (for roasting), lb 15c

STRICTLY FRESH EGGS, a dozen 20c

The Cold of Today

The Pneumonia of Tomorrow

A large proportion of cases of Pneumonia are directly due to neglected colds. That is why you want to cure your cold today.

DR. D. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT

has been successful in relieving and curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Inflammation of the Lungs, and similar ailments for 77 years. It is likewise a splendid remedy for Croup and Whooping Cough, and very effective in relieving the attacks of Asthma.

Sold by all druggists, in three size bottles, $1.00, 50c., and 25c.

Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is a reliable all-round tonic. Especially good for children—a safe Worm Cure.

M & S

MATHUSHEK & SON PIANOS

appeal to all lovers of the beautiful in music. They possess the rare quality of tone that is a delight to all.

Every courtesy given to visitors and prospective buyers at our wareroom.

Beautiful catalogue mailed upon request.

MATHUSHEK & SON PIANO CO.,
310 W. Front St.. Plainfield. N.J. Tel. 910-J

BROKAW'S CREAMERY

No need to complain of getting poor butter or cream—go to Brokaw's and get his own make, which is always fresh and good. Our specialties are Fresh-made Butter, both salted and unsalted, Rich Milk and Cream, positively Fresh Eggs and everything in the dairy line. The only place in the city where these goods are made on the spot. Call and see our plant and witness the process.

TEL. 293-W 186 E. FRONT STREET

WEAK FROM SUFFERING UNABLE TO PERFORM WORK

Discouraged After Spending Money Without Benefit—Found Help at Last.

Mr. Earl McCoy, living at 1506 So. Branson Street, Marion, Ind., has passed through an experience that is being duplicated every day in every town and city of any consequence in the United States. It furnishes abundant proof of the correctness of L. T. Cooper's theory in regard to the degeneracy of the human stomach, and shows conclusively the merit possessed by his New Discovery medicine to restore the weakened system to full strength and vigor.

Mr. McCoy says: "For a long time I have been a sufferrer from stomach trouble. I was unable to retain any food, and became so weak and run down that I was compelled to stop work. My system was nearly a wreck, and I had tried so many remedies and spent so much money without deriving any benefit, that I became discouraged and gave up hope of ever being well again.

"I heard a great deal of Mr. Cooper's theory and medicine, and after much hesitation decided to try it. The result was a pleasant surprise. Before I had taken half of the first bottle I was able to retain all food eaten, and my strength began to return. I have taken six or seven bottles, and am feeling fine. I eat and sleep well, do not cough at night, and am able to perform a hard day's work. I can cheerfully recommend Cooper's New Discovery, for it has done wonders for me."

The Cooper remedies are meeting with remarkable success wherever they are introduced. They are without a rival in toning up a weakened and run-down system. We sell them.—T. S. Armstrong.

L. S. Plaut & Co

"BEE HIVE," New Jersey's Shopping Centre. NEWARK.

Open 8:30 a. m. Close 6 p. m. Saturdays 10 p. m.
Telephone 5120 Newark.

Only Sale Boys' Trousers, Blouses and Hats.

GREAT MONEY-SAVING DAY for parents—great day to bedeck the rising generation with what's good and new at prices not to be had at any other time. Yet these attractions, great as they are, include only part. Saturday will, indeed, be a sale day for boys and girls here.

BOYS' $1.00 TROUSERS at 79c—Bloomers and Knickerbockers—Fancy brown and gray mixed cheviots and cassimeres, neat stripes, checks and plaids, full cut, taped throughout; bloomers have elastic bottoms, knickerbockers have strap and buckle bottoms; sizes 3 to 17 years; as parents of boys realize how convenient it is to buy strong, well made trousers, so they will appreciate this great one-day opportunity to save money—best $1.00 trousers, Saturday only, at ..... .79

A SALE TAM O'SHANTER HATS—For Boys and Girls—A mid-Spring chance to save 11c, 21c and 31c on the freshest, best line in the entire State of New Jersey. A saving on all year around hats—just to have an extra busy day in our boys' hat department.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' 50c TAM O'SHANTERS—All wool cloths, good linings, silk embroidered emblems, blue serge, plain and fancy bands, blue cloth, brown serge, gold, red and covert cloths, not equalled anywhere at 50c, so unmistakable bargain, at ..... .39

BOYS' AND GIRLS' $1 TAMS—All wool materials, silk serge linings, newest silk embroidered emblem, blue serge, and cloth, red cloth, covert cloth, checks and plaids, small, medium and large shapes, special ..... .79

BOYS' AND GIRLS' $1.50 TAMS—Excellent cloth, silk lining; exclusive emblems, blue serge, and cloth, gold red cloth, with and without black piping, high-class tam o'shanters at a decidedly special price at $1.19

SATURDAY SALE BOYS' BLOUSES—Just to introduce the finest and best line ever shown—the best value regular prices can buy—worth your while to buy 6 to a dozen at these prices and save 30c to $1.20.

BOYS' 50c BLOUSES—Madras, seersucker, gingham, white madras, self stripes, figures, checks and dots; tan, gray and blue grounds, hairline stripes, plaids, checks; Russian blouses, have military collars, button at side, mannish blouses, attached collar and without, 3 to 16 years ..... .45

BOYS' $1.00 BLOUSES—Mannish style, plain and pleated fronts, with and without collars; imported madras and ginghams, woven dots, stripes, plaids and checks; white and tinted grounds, tan, gray, brown, and blue, neat figures, black on blue, and many others; new short sleeve blouse, negligee collar, turnback cuffs; tan and blue mercerized chambray; our blouses are noted for fullness, fit and workmanship, 3 to 16 years, at ..... .90

AND BOYS' 29c OVERALLS—Just the garment for the little man to romp about in during the long stretch of mild weather at hand—economical in themselves and save the wear of other clothing; made of genuine blue denim, all sizes, 4 to 13; this is the time to lay in a supply for the season; boys 29c overalls, Saturday, only, 3 pairs, 50c; pair ..... .19

Men's Wear Dept. 1st Floor.

No Branch Stores

Mail Orders Filled.

707 to 721 Broad St.

Daily Free Delivery By Our Own Wagons.

Plainfield-Newark Trolleys Pass Our Doors.

112 Piece Decorated Dinner Sets, $7.00

Odds and Ends of Dinner Sets at Half Price

JOS. W. GAVETT.
W. Front St.

FREE! CARR'S BALLS FREE!

With Each Copy of the
DECLARATION OF THE U. S. at 10c EACH.
Something Every Boy Ought to Know

W. H. OLMSTED, the Hustler
331 Watchung Avenue
BEST DELIVERY SERVICE IN THE CITY

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS

"The Rogers Brothers in Panama," the merriest musical farce of the season will be at the New Plainfield theatre tonight. "The Rogers Brothers in Panama" is without doubt the best play of their career. It is more than a farcical skit for in addition to the uproarious nonsense which has made these players famous, there is a consistent plot, interspersed with strong heart interest. Many novel musical numbers will be introduced by the principals and a large and beautiful chorus. The music by Max Hoffman is all new and catchy and of the whistling kind. Costumes are appropriate and elaborate. The scenery is gorgeous beyond description and must be seen to be appreciated.

"Rogers Brothers in Panama," at New Plainfield Theatre Tonight.

DEATH DUE TO BROKEN HEART.

That Is Believed to Be Cause of Demise of Warren County Doctor.

Washington, N. J., May 8.—The body of Dr. C. B. Warrington, who died at the Warren county almshouse Tuesday night, was brought to the morgue of D. B. Laubach, here, yesterday, and the funeral will be held at Clinton today. Dr. Warrington was seventy-four years old, and had been a practising physician at Clinton. Stewartsville, Columbia and Phillipsburg for nearly a third of a century. His death is attributed to a general debility, but by many friends was thought to have been really due to a broken heart. Dr. Warrington had two sons, John and Penrose Warrington, who, as boys in Clinton, attracted attention.

Several years ago Penrose Warrington became blind, and had been a familiar figure in Warren and adjacent counties as he drove about. Last winter, Dr. Warrington moved from Stewartsville to Nazareth, and lived with his son John. The doctor left Nazareth soon after it became known that he had made a will leaving all his life insurance and lodge benefits to the blind son. The latter could not care for his aged parent, and the doctor was taken to the almshouse.

The aged physician failed rapidly after entering the institution. The blind son now resides at Hampton Junction. He made the arrangements for the burial of his father. Dr. Warrington had a small insurance policy and was also a member of the Red Men and Odd Fellow lodges at Stewartsville.

FELL FROM TRESTLE BUT SLIGHTLY HURT.

Henry Hein has a Remarkable Escape From Death.

Henry Hein, a young man of Avon street, Newark, had a remarkable escape from death yesterday afternoon when he fell from the trestle of the Lehigh Valley Railroad which crosses the Central Railroad just above the Aldene station. Hein was making his way across the structure when he became giddy, and lost his balance, falling to the tracks of the Central Railroad, nearly thirty feet below. He was stunnned by the fall. An ambulance from the Elizabeth General Hospital was summoned and the young man was taken to that city. Upon examination it was found that no bones were broken, a few bruises being the extent of his injuries. He will be able to leave the hospital by today.

The accident occurred at almost the same spot where Albert Maley, another young man from Newark, fell from the bumpers of a Lehigh Valley freight train Tuesday afternoon, losing a leg. Maley is reported to be doing well and his speedy recovery is looked for.

Will Award Stone Contract.

At the adjourned meeting of the Common Council Monday night, it is likely that the contract for furnishing crushed stone to the city will be awarded to Smalley Brothers, who were the lowest bidders. The Watchung Stone Company failed to put in a bid last Monday, while that of John Y. Wilson was much higher than that of Smalley Brothers. The last named firm held the city contract for ten years and during that time no complaint was ever made as to the quality of the stone or the time of delivery.

Lester Matthews, of Somerset street, has purchased a new motorcycle.

MR. PRATT

A Tale of the Cape Cod Fisher Folk

By

Joseph C. Lincoln

Author of "Cap'n Eri," "Partners of the Tide," Etc.

Illustrations by T. D. Melvill

Copyright, 1907, A. S. Barnes & Company.

They seemed to have forgot me altogether. But I was interested in their talk all the same, and I've tried to put it down just as I heard it. 'Twas queer talk, but they was queer folks, and I was learning how the big-bugs done their courting. From what I'd heard so far I liked the Wellmouth way full as well.

The front gate clicked. Van Brunt looked up. "Great Scott!" says he, "it's the phonograph."

'Twas Hannah Jane Purvis coming home from the next house with a dish-pan full of peas. Hannah was a kind of scant patterned critter without much canvas on her poles and her sleeves most generally rolled up. She had brindled hair clewed back so tight off her forehead that her eyes wouldn't shut good, and the impression you got from the first look at her was that she was all square corners—not a round one in the lot.

"Well!" says she, coming up into the wind in front of the piazza and looking at me hard. "I do believe it's Solomon Pratt. Why, what a stranger you be! I ain't seen you for I don't know when."

I didn't know when either and I didn't try to remember. "Sufficient unto the day is the trouble belonging to it," the Scriptures say, if I recollect it right, and 'twas enough for me that she'd seen me this time. She comes over, dishpan and all, and planks herself down on the steps right in front of Van Brunt's chair. There ain't nothing shy or unfriendly about Hannah Jane; she's the most folksy female I ever come across, and always was.

"My sakes!" says she, turning round to Van, "I see Mr. Pratt come in here and I couldn't make out who 'twas. Thinks I: 'They've got company and

"Did He Look Like 'Em?" Asks Van.

I must get there quick.' So back I put, and I don't know as I've got a full measure of peas 'cause it seemed to me that some of 'em spilled off the top when Cap'n Poundberry was emptyin' 'em in. I hope not, 'cause peas is high now. Not that it makes any difference to well-off folks like you, Mr. Van Brunt, but—"

"Hadn't you better go back and pick 'em up?" asks Van, solemn as an owl.

"Oh, land of love! no. There wa'n't enough for that. Besides I want to see Mr. Pratt. Well, Mr. Pratt," says she. "I suppose you're surprised enough to find me working out. Dear! dear! I don't know what Jehiel—he that was my first husband—would have said; nor my second one neither. But there! we can't none of us never tell what's in store for us in this world, can we?"

I made some sort of answer; don't matter what. She went ahead lamenting over what a come-down 'twas for her to work out. You'd think she'd been used to marble halls to hear her. She settles the dishpan between her knees and starts in shelling peas, talking a blue streak all the time. She was a whole sewing circle in herself, that woman.

"Jehiel was such a quiet man," she says, after a spell. "He scarcely ever talked." (Didn't have a chance, thinks I to myself.) "When he died—did I ever tell you how Cap'n Samuels—my first husband as was—come to die, Mr. Hartley?" says she.

Hartley had took up the Natural Life book and was trying to read it. Now he looked up and says, mournful but resigned: "No, Mrs. Purvis, I believe we have never had the pleasure."

"The pleasure was wholly the Cap'n's," says Van Brunt under his breath. If Hannah Jan heard him she didn't let it worry her.

"Well," she says, "'twas this way: Cap'n Jehiel—him that was my first husband—was the most regular man in his habits that ever was, I guess. Every Saturday night all the time we was married—and we was married eleyen year, not counting the two after he was took sick—he always had baked beans for supper. I used to say to him: 'Jehiel,' I used to say, 'ain't you tired of baked beans? I should think you'd turn into beans, you're so fond of 'em.' But he never did and—"

She stopped for a second to get her breath. Van cut in quick

"That wasn't the cause of his death, then?" he asks, very grave.

"Who—what?"

"Turning into beans? Of course not. I believe you said he didn't turn."

"I said he never got tired of 'em. Course he didn't turn into 'em. Who ever heard of such a thing? Well, as I was saying; every Saturday night we had 'em, and one night—'twas the last one, poor thing—" She stopped to unfurl her handkerchief and mop her eyes.

"Pray go on, Mrs. Purvis," says Van, very polite. "You were saying 'twas the last bean—"

"I said 'twas his last well night. There was beans enough, land knows! Well, I had 'em on the table and he set down. 'Hannah,' says he, 'I don't feel like beans to-night.' I looked at him. It wa'n't because they wa'n't good beans. I'm always as particular as can be about cooking beans. Always put such to soak over night on a Friday, and then Saturday morning I take 'em and put 'em in the bean-pot along with some molasses and a nice chunk of pork. You can't be too particular about your pork. 'Don't,' I used to say to the man that drove the butcher cart; 'don't,' says I, 'give me nothing but fat pork. Might's well have plain lard and be done with it. Give me,' says I, 'a streaked chunk; streak of lean and a streak of fat.' Then I put 'em in the oven and bake 'em all day and by night they're ready. So when Jehiel says to me, 'Hannah, I don't feel like beans,' I set and looked at him."

"Did he look like 'em?" asks Van.

Hannah Jane switched round on the step and stared at him. But he was as sober as a church and just running over with sympathy, seemed so, so she sniffed and went on.

"He looked sick," she says, "and I could see that he was sick, too. So I got him to bed and what a night I put in! Oh, the hot jugs to his feet! Oh, the running for the doctor! We had Dr. Blake here then, Mr. Pratt. You remember him, don't you? Great big tall man with gray whiskers. No, wait a minute. 'Twas Dr. White that had the whiskers; Dr. Blake was smooth-faced. No, seems to me he had a mustache. I remember he did because he was engaged to Emma Baker's sister's girl and she used to say that when she once got him for good he'd have to raise more beard than that. She said a doctor without a beard was like a soft-boiled egg without—without—without something or 'nother in it. Strange I can't think! An egg without something in it—"

"Chicken, possibly," suggests Van.

"No, indeed. Salt! that's what 'twas. A soft-biled egg without salt in it. Now you'd ought to be as careful about biling eggs as you had about anything else. Way some folks bile eggs is a sin and shame. I've et eggs so hard that you could build a stone wall out of 'em, seems so; and then again I've et 'em when I've actually had to drink 'em. Now when I bile eggs I always—let me see; I wa'n't speaking of eggs when I fust started. Where was I?"

"You were telling us about beans, I believe, Mrs. Purvis," purrs Van again, sweet and buttery as can be. "I seem to have a dim recollection of beans, Mrs. P."

"Oh, yes, yes! I was going on to tell of Jehiel's sufferin's, Mr. Van Brunt. If I could only begin to give you an idea of that poor critter's agony. Why, he—who's that at the back door?"

'Twas the neighbor's boy, as it turned out, come to borrow a cupful of sugar, but he took Hannah Jane away from us, which was a mercy. She dropped the dishpan and went inside.

Van Brunt looked after her. "Will some one please inform me," says he, "whether I've been at a clinic, or a funeral, or just a cooking-school session?"

"Humph!" says Hartley. "Unfortunate interruption. Now we shan't learn what became of the long-suffering Jehiel."

"Oh, he died," says Van. "I wanted to find out what became of those beans."

"I understand now why they put 'At Rest' on Jehiel's gravestone," I says.

Hartley turned to me. "Skipper," he says, "you mustn't think that Van and I are altogether cold-blooded because we refuse to weep over the departed Samuels. The lady has cheered us with happy little memories of this kind ever since she agreed to demean herself and make 'riz biscuit' at four-fifty per. She began with her cousin, who died of small-pox, and she's worked down through the family till she's got to her husband."

"Yes," says Van, "and he's only her first. We shall hear later how Number Two fell into a stone-crusher or was boiled in oil. Lord!"

"Hank Purvis had five brothers," says I; "and they've all died within the last ten year. You've got more funerals coming to you."

It was quiet for a few minutes. Out back we could hear Hannah Jane laying into the neighbor's boy because he tracked mud on the kitchen floor.

"It was no use," says Van, decided. "I refuse to renew my subscription to The Daily Morgue. All those in favor of parting with the Widow Purvis at once, immediate, P. D. Q., will say 'Aye.' Contrary minded, 'No.' It's a vote. Hannah is erased. What shall we do, Martin—go back to James and dignity, or feed ourselves?"

Hartley seemed to be thinking. "Skipper," says he to me, "you can cook. I—even I, the interesting invalid—can eat your chowder and like it and come back for more. Will you come and help us out? What do you say?"

Van Brunt sat up straight. "Martin," says he, "you're as comforting as the shadow of a great rock in a—in a—something or other. You're a genius, Pratt, you've got to come here and live with us. We need thee every hour, as Mrs. P. sings at 5 a. m., which is her ungodly time for getting out of bed. It's settled; you're coming."

"Well, now; hold on," says I. "Some ways I'd like to, and, if you want plain cooking, why, I guess likely I can give it to you. But business is business and there's my boat and my living for the summer. You're here only a month, as I understand it, and—"

That didn't make no difference. I could fetch the Dora Bassett along too, Van said. Hartley explained that they intended to stay through the summer, anyhow, perhaps later. He went on to tell that he and his chum was what he called "redeemed conventionalities," or some such name, and that they intended to stay redeemed. They'd hitched horses and agreed to find the Natural in all its glory. And the Natural they was going to find if it took a thousand year.

"And while we're giving you the story of our lives, skipper," says Hartley, with one of his half smiles, "I want to say right here that our present surroundings aren't all that fancy painted 'em. They're too much in the lime light." This was just one of his crazy ways of saying things; I was getting used to 'em a little by now. "We're too prominent," he says. "The populace are too friendly and interested."

"Also," says Van, "the select bunch of feminines from the hotel have taken to making our front walk a sort of promenade. Martin and I are naturally shy; we pine for solitude."

There was more of this, but I managed to find out that what they wanted was a quieter place than Scudder's. A place off by itself, where they could be as natural as a picked chicken. I agreed to try and help 'em find such a place. And I said, too, that I'd think about the cooking idea. Money didn't seem to be no object—I could have my wages by the hod or barrelful—just as I see fit.

"Well," says I, getting up to go, "I'll see. Let me sleep on it for a spell, same's you fellers have done on Nate's pin-feather beds. But I ain't so sure about your staying all summer. How about that young lady friend of yours, Mr. Van Brunt? She may take a notion to send for you to introduce her to the king of Chiny or the grand panjandrum with the little round bottom on top. Then you'd have to pack up and cut your cable."

Van, he looked hard at me for a minute. I thought first he was mad at me for putting my oar in where it wa'n't supposed to be. Then he laughed. "Sol," says he, "that young lady and I are kindred spirits. For a year I'm natural and happy, and she can nurse her Hooligans and go on charity sprees. Then—well, then we fall back on our respected parents and wedded—er—bliss. Hey, Martin?"

Hartley, in the shadow of the vines, lit another cigar and nodded. But he didn't say nothing.

For the next three or four days I chased around trying to find a house and lot where them Heavenly lunatics could be natural. I located a couple of bully summer places, all trees and windmills and posy beds and hot and cold water and land knows what. But they wouldn't do; they "smelled of coupons," Van said. What they really wanted, or thought they wanted, was a state's prison in a desert, I judged.

For a week or ten days we kept the hunt up, but didn't have no luck. Whenever I'd think I'd uncovered a promising outfit the Heavenlies would turn to and dump in a cargo of objections and bury it again. After five or six funerals of this kind I got sort of tired and quit. It got to be July and their month at Nate's was 'most over. I was up there the evening of the third and I happened to ask 'em if they wanted me and the sloop for the next day. There was to be a Fourth of July celebration over to Eastwich and some of the boarders wanted to go and see the balloon and the races and the greased pig chase, and such like. If the Twins didn't care I'd take the job, I said. But they took a notion to go themselves. Van said 'twould be an excuse for me to give 'em another chowder, if nothing more. So, on the morning of the Fourth we started, me and Van Brunt and Hartley and Lord James, in the Dora Bassett. Talk about cruises. If I'd known—and yet out of it come—But there! let me tell you about it.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Startling Shoe News!

Marshall & Ball

Announce a Sale of 3,256 Pairs of

Men's $4 and $5 Summer Shoes at 2.85

One of the 50 Styles

Owing to the unusual trade conditions and many retailers being unable to meet their obligations, one of the foremost manufacturers of high-grade footwear who had withheld shipments found his floors overburdened with goods.

Because of our ability to handle extra large quantities we were offered the entire lot of 3,256 pairs at such a big price concession that we are able to sell you $4, $4.50 and $5 Shoes at $2.85

This big Shoe opportunity is your gain.

Never in the 12 years' history of this unusual Shoe Store has footwear of equal quality and attractiveness been offered at so great a saving. Then, too, it's just in the beginning of the Spring season when men need new footwear.

The leathers are patent colt, russet and wine calf, tan and black vici kid, Gunmetal calf, box calf and French calf.

Among them are Oxfords and high shoes, in button, lace and blucher styles, in all sizes and in 50 toe shapes, from the extreme wide to the extreme narrow. Every pair have oak tanned soles, solid leather boxes and counters. Are absolutely perfect and were made for this seasons' selling.

Not a pair among them were made to sell for less than $4. Two-thirds of them are $5 Shoes. There are some $6 grades among them. Models for radical as well as conservative tastes.

Our corner window display is unusually attractive. Limited space will not permit of a complete showing, but the style you're looking for is here.

A Shoe chance like this seldom comes. Don't miss it. Come in early and pick out your size. SALE STARTS TODAY.

HIGHEST TYPE OF READY-TO-WEAR

807-809 811-813 Marshall & Ball Broad Street

NEWARK

STRAUS'S

RELIABLE MERCHANDISE AT LOWEST PRICES

685-687 BROAD ST. & 21 W. PARK ST. NEWARK, N.J.

In Greater Newark's Best Suit and Cloak Dept.

Special May Sale of Fashionable

TAILOR-MADE SUITS

for Women and Misses.

Our great Garment Section on the second floor is teeming with bargains. Suits, Skirts, Coats and Dresses are here in greatest profusion, in the newest styles, in the very best dependable qualities and at Straus' very low prices.

12.75 to 16.50 Tailor-made Suit for only - - 10.00

Light and dark stripes, plaids, checks and mixtures, also plain colors in brown and Copenhagen blue, single or double breasted coat models, very richly satin lined throughout. Full plaited or gored skirts, with fold trimming. Suits that we have been selling by the hundreds all season at 12.75 to 16.50, are now displayed for your choice at only . . . 10.00

18.75 to 22.50 Shadow Stripe Suit for only - - 14.98

You have no doubt seen these fashionable suits and probably wanted to possess one, but the price stood in your way. Now you'll find them here at a bargain price. Prince Chap Coat Suits beautifully tailored. Skirt in plain gore, circular or allover plaited effects, with full folds. Choice of colors and black; women's & misses' sizes, worth up to 22.50 14.98

The David Straus Co.

683-687 Broad Street. Newark. 21 West Park Street.

Unquestionably the Cheapest Store in Newark for Reliable Merchandise.

"THE OLD RELIABLE HOME FURNISHERS"

EST. 1860 INC. 1907

COWPERTHWAIT AND VAN HORN CO.

73 MARKET STREET. NEAR PLANE ST., NEWARK, N.J.

(B)

"Spring"—time Suggests

NEW Floor Coverings

—and we suggest "No. 73" as the place to get them, provided quality that's sure, and a price that's right, appeals to your taste and purse!

Only weaves that stand our warrant ever get inside our store—here's an "Inducement Sale" to start Spring season's trade!

TAPESTRY BRUSSELS CARPETS

85c. grade at	$1.00 grade at	$1.20 grade at
64c. Yd.	75c. Yd.	90c. Yd.

MADE, LAID AND LINED FREE!

HEAVY CHINESE MATTING

Just in—Regular $18 grade

$14.50

roll of 40 yds.

Many other grades and prices

FANCY JAPANESE MATTING

Cotton Warp Regular $16 grade

$13.25

roll of 40 yds.

Broad choice of various other weaves

Best Grade "A No. 1"

Oil Cloth at 45c. Yd. [Reg. 60c.]

Over half a hundred kinds of oil cloth—all new and effective! Ask to see our line of Linoleums—especially the new imported line in carpet patterns—we're sole agents.

Sole Headquarters For

"The Portland Range," "Gunn Sectional Bookcases"

The Acme Washing Machine, "White" Sewing Machine

LOWEST PRICES—EASY CREDIT

Badly Hurt by a Fall.

Califon, May 8.—Raymond Beam, nineteen years old, of this place, a farm hand, was seriously injured by falling from a wagon yesterday. He was driving a horse hitched to a truck wagon belonging to Irwin Philhower, a farmer, at Lower Valley. He was driving to the farm of former Governor Foster M. Voorhees, near High Bridge, when he fell from the seat, landing in the road between the horse and wagon. The horse took fright and ran away. Beam was dragged some distance and the vehicle passed over his head and body. He was taken to the home of William Kice, at Bunnvale, where he is in a critical condition.

William Staats, of Jersey City, has returned home after a visit of several days with Plainfield friends.

When considering a trip abroad or to the mountains or seashore, the problem of the safety of your valuables presents itself.

A quick solution is to lodge them in our Safe Deposit Vaults; no further concern need then be felt for them. "Safety for Valuables" is a booklet descriptive of our storage facilities. Write for it.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Travelers' Cheques.

ROTH & CO'S
MARKET NEWS
FOR SATURDAY, MAY 9, '08

Small Fresh Shoulders, lb
Small Fresh Calais, per lb — 10½c

Armour Star Hams, per lb - 12½c
Smoked Calias, per lb - - 9½c

Breast of Veal, per lb - - - 9c
Veal For Stew, per lb - - 10c
Shoulders of Veal, per lb - 12c
Legs of Veal, per lb - - - 14c
Veal Chops, per lb - - - 14c

ROASTING CHICKENS, CAPONS, BROILERS, GENUINE SPRING LAMB, CALVES' LIVER AND BREADS.

ROTH & CO. 132 E. Front St. Tel. 208 and 802. Plainfield, N. J. 38 Markets in the State

New Jersey's Leading Butchers.

WEINBERGER'S.
202 WEST FRONT STREET.

Great Sale of Men's Suits

MENS' SUITS VALUE $15. $10.00

Stylish to that degree of correctness that the well dressed man demands. The peer of custom made suits in quality and finish. Choicest materials. Every new color in browns, grays and blues; serges, cheviots and worsteds.

What we say we mean---A $15 Suit for - - - - - $10

Positively the Greatest Sale of the Season

New York Clothing Co.,
J. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
202 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

"HARD TIMES" DO NOT EFFECT THE SALE OF
"HAWES" $3.00 HATS
WHY?—BECAUSE THEY ARE GUARANTEED
JAS. R. BLAIR

EXCISE BOARD SPURTS.

Disposes of Two Out of Sixty Cases Pending Since June.

Elizabeth, May 8.—The Excise Board yesterday afternoon resumed the hearing of the cases against saloon keepers charged with violating the Sunday law, which have been pending since last June. The situation had developed into something like a farce, nearly three-score of the eighty odd original cases still remaining to be heard. Probably because of the recent charge by Justice Bergen to the May Grand Jury, and the renewed agitation of the excise question the board decided to get busy again, and called a hearing of six cases for yesterday.

The license of Robert Conlon, of 129 Elizabeth avenue, was revoked. Joseph Dorfned, who claimed he had been told by License Inspector Schlichter that he was immune from the screen law because his place at 300 Third street had twelve rooms, was let off with a reprimand. The board then thought it had done about enough for one afternoon, after its long vacation, and postponed the other cases in common with fifty others.

Parade Route Changed.

Because of the brick pavement work in progress on Front street, the route of the fire and police department parade after the inspection tomorrow, has been slightly changed. It is sow given as follows: Leaving Mayor Fisk's residence, West Seventh street to Liberty, to Fifth, to Central avenue, to Second street, to Fire headquarters and disband. The inspection is scheduled to take place at 3 o'clock and will include the presentation of medals to members of both departments.

Funeral of Miss Pelletreau.

The funeral of Miss Frances Pelletreau was held this morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles R. Theirs, of Craig place. The service was private and was conducted by Rev. George A. Warner. Burial was in Greenwood cemetery, Brooklyn, this afternoon.

Baseball and General Sports

PARK GOLFERS TO BEGIN SEASON'S PLAY NEXT WEEK.

The Park Golf Club will be open for the first this season a week from tomorrow, when the course will be ready for the first play of the season. The course has been put in excellent condition for play, and will be in charge of Green Keeper Giddes, who succeeds E. B. Bennett.

The scheduled events at the club will begin Saturday, May 23, when the President's and Golf Committee cups will again be put up for competition. The monthly handicap cups will also be competed for this season, and it is planned to have a series of golf events for women. There are to be special holiday events for men and women members during the season.

Y. M. C. A. Nine's Lineup.

The Y. M. C.A. baseball nine will play its first home game tomorrow afternoon on Crescent Oval, when the team from the Twenty-sixth Ward branch of the Brooklyn Y. M. C. A. will be the opponents on Crescent Oval. George Conover and Scott will each be given a try-out in the box, and Ralph Schoonmaker will be the other end of the battery. Manager George L. Listman announced the probable lineup of the team as follows:

Jacot, 1b; Gilmore, 2b; James Conway, 3b; Craig, ss; Pond, lf; Will Schoonmaker, cf; Banks, rf. The Brooklynites will have the following team in the field: Liljander, p; Price, c; Kraus, 1b; Johnson, 2b; Wenner, 3b; Moffitt, ss; T. Kiendl, lf; D. Kiendl, cf; Dustwalt, rf.

P. H. S. to Play Cadets.

The Plainfield High School baseball nine will cross bats with the Hudson River Military Academy team tomorrow morning on Crescent Oval, if the diamond drys out sufficiently for play. The military school has a fast team, and the borough school nine was trimmed by a score of 14-9 by them at Finderne Wednesday afternoon. It is probable that all the members of the city high school team with the exception of Doane and Riffert will again be in the game.

Tennis Finals Tomorrow.

If the Country Club tennis courts are in condition for play tomorrow, the semi-final rounds of the men's doubles tournament will be played off in the afternoon. Harry J. Cochran and Albert D. Beers are paired to meet Fred W. Goddard and Howard Carter, and R. S. Rowland and Elliot Cutter will meet W. B. Cragin, Jr., and Willard Wadsworth. Members of the winers' and runners-up's teams will receive silver cups, offered by the club tennis committee.

New Brunswick Cancels.

Manager Albert Miller, of the Holy Cross Club nine, received word today from R. D. VanSickle, manager of the New Brunswick High School nine which was to have played the boroughites in this city tomorrow, cancelling the game. The school boys' nine has been disbanded by action of the school faculty, and the local manager is trying to arrange for a game to be played with the Rahway nine at Rahway.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

"Scenes in Southern China," will be the subject of an illustrated lecture to be given at the Congregational church, Sunday night, by means of the new stereopticon lantern which has been purchased by the Sunday-school. The Chinese residents of the city are especially invited.

Real Democracy Elects Officers.

The Real Democracy League of New Jersey, organized to oppose bossism elected these officers last night: President, John L. Armitage; vice-president, Paul V. Thiery; secretary, Thomas F. Bowers; treasurer, John Hogan.

Dr. N. W. Currie, of Central avenue, has returned home, after attending the funeral of his mother at Newburg, N. Y.

Flor de Timbo
Clear Habana.

Get It at Timbo's

LOVED HIM ONCE, SHE 85; HE, 18, IS JAILED

Through the arraignment in a Brooklyn police court, yesterday of Paul Sharp, a sallow-faced youth of 18, shattered romance of an old and a young person was revealed.

Sharp was charged with having robbed Mrs. Catherine Bohanas of $225, and after she had told her story on the witness stand the young man was held for the grand jury.

Mrs. Bohanan, who coyly admitted that she was "past 85 years old," had to be assisted to the witness stand.

"I loved him once," she sighed, in conclusion, "but I do not care for him any more."

Sharp put in a general denial of the woman's story, but the magistrate considered it so weak he held him for the grand jury without bail.

THE FORUM.

Rhode Island's Independence Day.

Editor, The Daily Press:

During the last few days so much has been said in the Rhode Island papers regarding the one hundred and thirty-second anniversary of that State's independence day, that it naturally makes one feel glad again that he was born a Rhode Islander. By many citizens of our republic it was never known and by many others had been almost forgotten that this small State was the first of the original thirteen colonies to renounce the sovereignty of Great Britain, just two months previous to the Declaration of Independence by our government, on July 4, 1776. May 4, 1776, was the day on which the General Assembly of Rhode Island adopted and signed the instrument above referred to, and on May 4, 1908, the State and municipal departments did just the right thing in recognizing the day, and patriotic societies and military organizations in holding many celebrations. The Westerly (R. I.) Daily Sun of the fifth inst. very well says:

"Very proper attention was given yesterday to the observance of Rhode Island's Independence day. It is only of late, as a result of the study of old facts, that Rhode Islanders have come to realize the importance of the act of their legislators on May 4, 1776, when they deliberately declared that this colony was no longer subject to the King of Great Britain. It was stated yesterday that this step was not surprising, because the people of the colony had always enjoyed a peculiar freedom from thec ontrol of the king, and therefore it was not strange that they should have been the first to put into words the sentiments of the whole country. But be that as it may, it required considerable courage on the part of the Rhode Islanders to lead in a movement which was described as one in which we 'must hang together or hang separately.' Rhode Islanders of today have just cause to take pride in what was done by their ancestors, and they should be willing and ready to pay proper respect and to acknowledge their debt to the forefathers."

J. D. SPICER.

STORAGE VAULTS

For Large Trunks, Boxes, Valuable Packages, Etc., Etc.

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

OF ALL SIZES

ABSOLUTE SECURITY PROVIDED

CITY NATIONAL BANK

IF WE COULD MEET YOU FACE TO FACE!

It would not take us to long SHOW YOU the wisdom of buying CLOTHING in this store.

We would SHOW YOU whether you are a cash buyer or credit buyer that the sterling values we are giving in MEN'S, WOMEN'S and CHILDREN'S CLOTHING cannot be duplicated in any other store.

We would SHOW YOU a suit made in our manufacturing department, which we are selling at 12.00 as good in every respect as suits that other stores are selling at 15.00.

If we could meet you face to face, we would SHOW YOU that with our modern facilities, our competitors cannot come within speaking distance of our prices.

Are you one who has been buying clothes at other stores? If you are, we want to meet you face to face—we want to SHOW YOU just how we can give you better qualities than you are now getting for less money.

We want to SHOW YOU that we can save you at least 25 per cent. in anything you buy here.

We have already the patronage af hundreds of CLOTHING buyers of this county—we ought to have all of yours, and we would have if you would come and let us SHOW YOU.

We are SHOW YOU merchants. We talk facts, not fancies—we will SHOW YOU that our confidence in our goods is so strong that we boldly advertise, "if goods are not satisfactory, money back."

WE will SHOW YOU that our terms are the most liberal in the county—that they are based upon a kindly feeling toward all—that in case of sickness or loss of employment we will SHOW YOU our sympathy in a substantial way.

If we could meet you face to face we could SHOW YOU how fast we have grown during our short stay in Plainfield and other towns—why, we have the confidence of women buyers who know values at a glance.

We would SHOW YOU Stylish Spring Clothing—an immense variety of it—Spring Coats, Suits, Raincoats and Hats for Women and Misses—Snappy Suits for Boys—Raincoats, Topcoats, Suits, Hats for Men and Youths—all new styles—all cleverly tailored. We want to SHOW YOU; it means money in your pocket if you will let us.

$1.00 Per Week Opens an Account.

CASH THE CREDIT PLAINFIELD CREDIT OUTFITTING CO. COR. SOMERSET ST. ONE FLIGHT UP 103 FRONT ST. PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Open Evenings

Alterations Free.

FREEHOLD N.J. PLAINFIELD

Levy Bro's TWO STORES

Ladies' 16-button Gloves Chamois, Color Black, White, Brown, Tan and Grey, $1.00 value 50c

Come to our store Saturday and see the beautiful display of Dolls in our show window with a May Pole party. Also the lovely display of Infants' Dresses, Slips, Bands, Shirts, Booties, Coats and the new style Caps at Special Prices.

Dolls from 15c each to $2.98. Just let the children take a peep at them.

SPECIAL BARGAINS for Saturday and Monday

Extra wide Bleached, five different patterns, double satin damask, warranted; pure flax; 69c kind, ... 49c yard

R. & G. Corsets, 150 pair, samples, all sizes; values ranging in price from $1 to $3, for 89c

Long Gloves in tan, gray, white and black; value 75c, for two days ..... 49c a pair

Ladies' Fancy Emb. Collars, 25c grade 15c

Ladies' Cambric House Dresses, blouse waist and skirt; special $1.98 value, at $1.25

Ladies' Shirt Waists, finely embroidered and Lace trimmed; value $1.25, for 79c

Ladies' Lisle Thread Hose; regular 25c; special ..... 15c pair

Long Cloth, 14c kind, for ..... 10c yard

44 in. White Lawn, 12½c yard, value 16c.

Fancy Dress Lawns and Figured Swisses, all colors, in stripes and figures; 12½c yard; value 15c

White Bed Spreads, full size 75c

Yard wide White Cambric, 6¾c yard; val. 10c

Men's Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers, 39c kind ..... 25c each

Men's tucked and pleated Negligee Shirts, white and colored; value 75c, for ..... 49c each

Men's Fancy Sox in tans, blue and black; 19c kind; 2 pairs for 25c

Ladies' 49c Fancy Belts 19c

Pure Linen Toweling ..... 7½c yard

We Have

about 100 pairs of Boys' and Little Gents' Shoes. Machine sewed, Satin Calf—a good Shoe for the price

11 to 13½ - - - - - - $1.25
1 to 5½ - - - - - - $1.50

And a Baseball Goes With Every Pair.

VAN ARSDALE'S - 127 E. Front St.

CURFEW IN JERSEY CITY.

Plan to Keep Children off the Streets After 10 P. M.

Jersey City, May 8.—Alderman Frank Cox will introduce at the next meeting of the Board of Aldermen a resolution requiring every boy and girl found on the streets after 10 o'clock at night to be arrested and their parents haled to the police court the next morning and asked to explain what their children were doing out of their homes at such an hour.

The resolution further makes it the duty of policemen on posts where there are public or parochial school houses to ring bells on top of the buildings at 10 o'clock each night. This will be a signal to every boy and girl under the age limit to go home.

—To obtain the very best olive oil, place your order with Neuman Brothers. They import theirs from France and guarantee it strictly first grade. It is sold by the gallon, half gallon or quart.

Miss Mary Coyne, of North Plainfield, and Michael Higgins, of West Sixth street, have returned home after visiting friends in New York.

UNION COUNTY FREEHOLDERS.

Official Record of the Proceedings of the Board at Last Session.

Regular meeting of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union county, New Jersey, held on Trusday, April 2, 1908, at 2:30 p. m.

Roll call showed the follow members present:

Director King, Freeholders Adams, Cady, Cladek, Darby, Doane, Fay, Jones, Krouse, Maurer, Meisel, Perry, Pierson, Robinson, Smith, Stephan, Swain, Wilbur and Woodruff—19.

On motion of Freeholder Cady the minutes of the previous meeting were approved as per printed copy on the members' desks.

Director King announced the death of Freeholder John J. Donahue, of the city of Elizabeth, which had occurred since the last meeting, and stated that at an informal meeting of the board he had appointed the following members to draft suitable resolutions, namely, Freeholders Pierson, Fay, Swain, Krouse and Wilbur.

Communications, Etc.

From Mrs. Emily E. Williamson, as follows:

Elizabeth, N. J., March 30, 1908.

Major King, Director of the Board of Freeholders of Union County:

Dear Sir—As President of the State Charities' Aid Association, I have made my annual visit to the jail in Union county, and I feel it incumbent upon me to write you at once, expressing my satisfaction at the conditions of the jail as a whole. It is clean and in perfect order, with no odor, and under excellent discipline. The new sanitary arrangements that have been put in by your honorable board are the best that I have seen in any jail in this country, and in the State of New Jersey there is nothing like it. I asit gear nothing like it. It is a great satisfaction to know that we have an object lesson for the entire State in the sanitary arrangements of the Union county jail and also in the condition of the jail as a whole

It gives me great pleasure, representing as I do the association which overlooks the county taxpayers, public charities, penal and pauper, to repeat the commendatory words that we have always been able to use in connection with your jail, and it is also a pleasure to know that the Union County Board of Freeholders, through its Committee on Jails, is always improving the condition of this institution.

We are glad to take this opportunity of expressing our thanks to your warden for his most excellent discipline in his management of the prisoners, and also to the matron for the excellent manner in which she manages the women's department.

For the board,

EMILY E. WILLIAMSON, President.

On motion of Freeholder Jones received and placed on file.

From the Clerk of Springfield Township, as follows:

Springfield, N. J., March 21, 1908.

To the Honorable Board of Freeholders for Union County, State of New Jersey:

Gentlemen—A number of complaints have been made by taxpayers to the Township Committee regarding the dangerous condition of the sidewalk and roadside on Morris avenue caused by the Morris County Traction Co. laying its track on said avenue.

The committee has written several times to the Morris County Traction Co. and received no reply. The matter was then placed in the hands of the township counsel, Mr. John KK. English, for adjustment. He wrote the company and received no reply, and has advised the Township Committee to lay the matter before your honorable board.

The Township Committee trusts that your honorable board will give attention to this matter and that the existing conditions will be remedied at an early date.

I enclose a letter from Mr. Ernest Truslow, in front of whose property the dangerous condition may be seen. The letter is self-explanatory. Kindly return same to

Very truly yours,

OLIN B. SICKLE, Township Clerk.

Enclosed with the foregoing was a letter from Ernest Truslow, calling attention to present conditions and which was read in full, after which, on motion of Freeholder Meisel the entire matter was referred to the County Road Committee, the County Attorney(together with Freeholder Meisel.

From the Clerk of Fanwood township, as follows:

Whereas, The road known as Terrill road, and which road is the dividing line between the township and borough of Fanwood and the city of Plainfield, has never been macadamized, and is in a bad state and condition; and

Whereas, In the opinion of this board the interests of the township of Fanwood and of the adjacent municipalities would be greatly promoted by the macadamizing of said road; there be it

Resolved, That the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union be and it is hereby requested to take such action looking to the macadamizing of the said Terrill road, from Green Brook to Raritan road, and the adoption of said road as a county road, as said board may deem proper, under the State Aid Act; further

Resolved, That the Clerk of this board be and he hereby is requested to certify a copy of these resolutions and to present the same to the Board of Chosen Freeholders.

March 20, 1908.

This is to certify that the above resolution was adopted by the Fanwood Township Committee, March 20, 1908.

E. L. HAND, Clerk.

Enclosed with the foregoing was a petition signed by David T. Kennedy, Woolston & Buckle and sixty others, residents and taxpayers of the city of Plainfield and of the township and borough of Fanwood, respectfully petitioning this board to macadamize the road known as the Terrill road, which was red, and on motion of Freeholder Pierson, it was ordered that the two communications be received and placed on file.

The following petition was presented and read:

To the Director and Members of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County:

Your petitioners, whose names are hereto annexed, respectfully request that your honoroble body take such action as is necessar yfor the proposed improvement under the provisions of the State Aid Act, in the borough of Roselle, county of Union, and State of New Jersey, namely:

The macadamizing of Locust street, from the line where Westfield avenue meets Locust street to the line where Locust stret meets First avenue, and the macadamizing of First avenue, from the aforesaid line to the line where First avenue meets the boundary line of the city of Elizabeth.

The foregoing was signed by John H. Chilver, Acting Mayor; John Gregory and forty-four others.

On motion of Freeholder Pierson, received and placed on file.

The following petition was presented and read:

Elizabeth, March 16, 1908.

To the Honorable the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, New Jersey:

The undersigned, residents and taxpayers of the city of Elizabeth, would respectfully petition your honorable body to cause all that part of West Grand street, in the city of Elizabeth that lies between DeHart place and the west boundary line of the city line, to be paved with telford pavement. If this improvement could be made promptly it would secure to the public a greatly needed improvement.

Signed, Henry H. Isham, P. H. Gilhooly and fifty-four others.

On motion of Freeholder Pierson, received and placed on file.

From J. F. Ostrander, Clerk of the borough of Roselle, that the following action be taken by the Borough Council at a meeting held March 6, 1908:

Resolved, That the Borough Council of the borough of Roselle hereby endorses the proposed improvement of First avenue by macadamizing the same under the provisions of the State iAd Road Act, as proposed by the resolution introduced by Freeholder Henry Krouse and passed by the Board of Chosen Freeholders at its recent meeting.

This council would respectfully urge favorable action by the Board of Freeholders on this matter, as this road is an important roadfi, is free from street railways, and would furnish straight and easy communication between this borough and the heart of the city of Elizabeth; and be it further

Resolved, That the Borough Clerk be instructed to forward a copy of this resolution to the Board of Chosen Freeholders.

J. F. OSTRANDER,
Borough Clerk.

On motion of Freeholder Cady, received and placed on file.

The following communication addressed to Freeholder Krouse, wa presented and read:

Be it resolved, That the Mayor and council of the borough of Roselle hereby petition the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County to take favorable action upon the proposed improvement under the provisions of the State Aid Road Act, in the borough of Roselle, County of Union and State of New Jersey, namely: The macadamizing of Locust street, from the northerly line of the borough of Roselle to the line where Locust street meets First avenue, and the macadamizing of First avenue from the aforesaid line to the line where First avenue meets the boundary line of the city of Elizabeth; be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to Freeholder Krouse, and that he be requested to urge favorable consideration of the adoption of the proposed improvement.

J. F. OSTRANDER,
Borough Clerk.

On motion of Freeholder Wilbur, received and placed on file.

From the Board of Trade of the city of Elizabeth, stating that at its last meeting the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Board of Trade of Elizabeth endorse the action of the Board of Freeholders of Union County in selecting North Broad street, from the city line to Elizabeth avenue, in Essex county, as a county and State Aid Road, and respectfully requests that the Board of Chosen Freeholders pave the said street wil telford pavement.

Yours respectfully,

WILLIAM F. GROVES, Secretary.

On motion of Freeholder Cady, received and placed on file.

From John F. Kenah, City Clerk, Elizabeth, certifying that the following resolution had been adopted at a meeting of the City Council held March 16, 1908.

By Councilman Schlotterer:

Resolved, That the action of the Board of Freeholders in making West Grand street a State Aid Road, from DeHart place to the city line, meets with the approval of this honorable body, and that the City Clerk be directed to notify the Board of Chosen Freeholders to that effect.

On motion of Freeholder Cladek, received and placed on file.

From John F. Kenah, Clerk of the city of Elizabeth, stating that the following report had been adopted by the City Council,fi at a meeting held on March 16, 1908:

Elizabeth, N. J., March 16, 1908.

To the Honorable the City Council:

Gentlemen—Your Committee on Docks, Wharves, and Piers, reporting in reference to the petition over the creek at the foot of Baltic street, would recommend that this council approve of same and would notify the Board of Freeholders that they have the same erected at their earliest convenience.

Respectfuly submitted,
CHARLES H. MOORE,
JOHN P. FUHRMAN,
Committee on Docks, Wharves and Piers.

On motion of Freeholder Cady, received and placed on file.

From C. A. Swift, Prosecutor, as follows:

April 2, 1908.

Board of Chosen Freeholders,
Courthouse, City.

Gentlemen—In providing telephones for the various county offices, I am informed that the one now placed in the Prosecutor's room at the Courthouse is presumed to be for the use of the Prosecutor, but as a matter of fact it is listed in the telephone directory as the 'phone of the Court Stenographer. I am of the opinion that the Prosecutor's office will have very little need of a separate 'phone at the Courthouse, as there are several throughout the building which can be used upon such infrequent occasions as may from time to time be required; but as the Assistant Prosecutor, Mr. Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., is a resident of Plainfield, and it will be necessary for us to be in constant touch with each other, and as he will require the frequent use of a 'phone for county business, I respectfully request that instead of the 'phone at the Courthouse, one be installed in Mr. Hetfield's office at Plainfield.

With reference to a 'phone at my private office I have been advised by ex-Prosecutor English that his arrangement was to charge to the county one-half of the cost, in addition to tolls for outside calls, he paying the other half to cover his private use, and if satisfactory, I will continue the practice.

Very truly yours,
C. A. SWIFT.

On motion of Freeholder Wilbur received and referred to the Committee on Public Grounds and Buildings with power.

From Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, Plainfield, as follows:

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union county, New Jersey:

Gentlemen—Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, Department of New Jersey, Grand Army of the Reppublic, of Plainfield, N. J., most earnestly petition your honorable body for stone grave markers for the graves of veterans of the War of Rebellion in the soldiers' burial plot in Hillside Cemetery, Fanwood township, county of Union, State of New Jersey, of the size and kind that will conform to the rules and regulations of the lawn plot system, (i. e., sod level with no mounds).

Yours respectfully,
WILLIAM C. SMITH,
WILLIAM HAND,
THADDEUS DOANE,
H. CRAIG SMITH,
Committee.

Freeholder Doane moved that the communication be received and referred to a special committee of three and the County Attorney, report to be made back to this board, which was so ordered.

The director appointed as the said committee Freeholders Doane, Jones and Adams.

From the Citizens' Union of Lyons Farms, through George Compton, president, expressing its appreciation and endorsement of the resolution of this board to make North Broad street a State aid road, suggesting also a telford, rather than a macadam road for this highway.

After being read in full it was on motion of Freeholder Cady received and placed on file.

From John F. Kenah, City Clerk, Elizabeth, N. J.:

Elizabeth, N. J., April 2, 1908.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union county:

Gentlemen—At a meeting of the City Council, held on April 1, 1908, Mr. Daniel P. McGovern was duly appointed to fill the vacancy in your honorable body caused by the death of John J. Donahue. Mr. McGovern has taken the required oath of office and is fully qualified to serve as a member of your honorable bady.

Yours respectfully,
JOHN F. KENAH,
City Clerk.

On motion of Freeholder Krouse received and placed on file.

From the Clerk of the borough of Fanwood, as follows:

Whereas, The road known as Terrill road, which road is the dividing line between the township and borough of Fanwood, and the city of Plainfield, has never been macadamized and is in a bad state and condition, and

Whereas, In the opinion of this board the interests of the borough of Fanwood and of the adjacent municipalities would be greatly promoted by the macadamizing of said road, therefore be it.

Resolved, That the Board of Freeholders of the county of Union be and it is hereby requested to take such action looking to the macadamizing of the said Terrill road from Green Brook to Raritan road, and the adoption of the road as a county road, as said board may doem proper under the State Aid Act; be it further

Resolved, That the clerk of this board be and he hereby is requested to certify a copy of these resolutions and to present the same to the Board of Chosen Freeholders, April 1, 1908.

This is to certify that the above resolution was adopted by the Mayor and council of the borough of Fanwood, Union county, New Jersey, April 1, 1908.

SAMUEL W. McANENY,
Borough Clerk.

On motion of Freeholderer Cladek received and placed on file.

Report of Comittees.

The Committee on Resolutions on the death of Freeholder John J. Donahue present the following report:

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God, in his divine wisdom, to remove from this world the soul of our late member, Freeholder John J. Donahue; and

Whereas, In his death this board has lost the services of an efficient member, and the county of Union an upright public official; therefore be it

Resolved, That we herein express our high appreciation of the valuable services rendered by the late Freeholder to the county of Union. He was faithful in the performance of his public duties, affable and obliging in his personal relations, and in his death we feel that the county of Union has been bereft of one who has earned and was entitled to the respect of all its citizens; and be it further

Resolved, That we tender to the family of the deceased, in this time of their great affliction and sorrow, our most sincere sympathy; and be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread in ful on the minutes of this board, and a copy, suitably engrossed, presented to the family of the deceased.

THOMAS J. PIERSON,
J. LOGAN, FAY,

Does Your Furnace Leak Gas?

Cases of asphyxiation are not uncommon, but even the faintest odor of gas in the house is disagreeable. It's due to the faulty construction of the old style of furnace, and any Boynton dealer will tell you why the can never leak gas under any circumstances, and will give you a cleaner, hotter fire than any round fire pot and do it with less coal and trouble, and no dust in the house. Now is the best time to see him.

BOYNTON

The Furnace with the Square Fire Pot

There are BOYNTON heating plants of all kinds. Ask about our Round or Sectional Boilers for steam or hot water. Also ranges.

THE BOYNTON FURNACE COMPANY,
207-209 Water Street, New York.

Vail
JEWELER AND OPTICIAN

103 Park Ave.,
calls your attention to his
Rimless Glasses.
They Look Good and You See Good.

NEW PERFECTION
Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove
Ready at any moment for cooking, baking, ironing. Does not overheat the kitchen. A splendid stove for summer cooking. Economical and easily regulated. Three sizes.
STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(Incorporated)

Try a Press Want Ad

EDUCATIONAL.

JOSEPH Mc INTYRE,
Pianist, Coach, Accompanist
TEACHER OF PIANO and SINGING
New York Studio, 30 E. 23rd Street, Wednesdays and Saturdays.
Plainfield, Residence and Studio,
Telephone 386-J 1308 Watchung Avenue
1 9 6mos

ATTEND DRAKE BUSINESS COLLEGE
PLAINFIELD
For thorough training in English, Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Penmanship, Commercial Law and correlative branches. The school that does not PROMISE to ASSIST graduates to positions, but that guarantees absolutely to PLACE them, and does it. 11 25 tf

Plainfield Business College
WOODHULL & MARTIN BUILDING.
SCHOOL OF ENGLISH.
A school well equipped for doing high grade work.
Investigate this school—it pays. 1½ hours devoted to English every day. Day and Evening sessions all the year. Capacity 400 students.
A. S. HERR, Prin. and Prop.

CHAS. M. SUHR,
TEACHER OF PIANO.
614 E. 6th Street, Tel. 741-W

REAL ESTATE

RENTALS—REAL ESTATE
Geo. F. Brown,
INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE.
Commissioner of Deeds—Rents.
94 Somerset St. 'Phone 160.

STATIONERY AND TOYS.
HARPER,
411 PARK AVENUE.

DRUGGISTS.

MOTH BALLS
Will save you your money over what might happen to your clothes.
They will insure your clothes being preserved thru the summer and will enable you to have them fresh and whole in the fall. Now is the time to buy MOTH BALLS.
C. M. Nagle's Pharmacy,
Front and Grove Sts. 'Phone 516.

Complete Line of
REXALL
Goods at
MILLER'S PHARMACY
Park Ave. & 4th St. Tel. 208.

Hodge's Pharmacy.
Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Tel. 62.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
EAST FRONT STREET
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Rroom.

HOTEL KENSINGTON
(Licensed.)
WM. J. POULSON, Prop.
107-109-111 North Avenue.
Everything New and Up-to-date
An Inspection Solicited.

HOTEL IROQUOIS
Club breakfast from 6:30 to 10:30 a. m. Business Men's Lunch from 11:30 to 2:30 p. m.
ROOMS
First floor, $1 single; $1.50 double.
Second floor, 75c single; $1 double,
Third floor, 50c single; 75c double.
A LA CARTE 6:30 UNTIL 1 A. M.
Special, Sunday, Dinner from 12:30 to 2:30 p. m. 50c

Electricians!
Michaelsen & Hage
No. 148 E. Fifth St. Tel. 1077-J

VEGETABLES
Fresh From the Garden
Here are Vegetables that appeal to the appetite of an epicure, they are so good in quality, fresh and inviting to the taste. Tomatoes, Asparagus, String Beans, Beets Cucumbers, Lettuce, Radishes,etc., at prices that will just suit you.
W. W. DUNN,
THE PARK GROCER,
DUER STREET AND LINCOLN PLACE.

STOP AT
Central R. R. News Stands
for PLAINFIELD PRESS, always on sale. Daily and Sunday papers delivered, all magazines, weekly papers, novelties, back numbers a specialty. R. R. guides, automobile road and state maps, Phils. papers. Fine brand of Cigars and tobacco. Open Sundays.
F. M. WAGNER, Manager.

YOU WILL NEVER BUY A HOME WITH MONEY PAID FOR RENT IN THE PAST.
START NOW TO
OWN A HOME
of your own by taking our shares in
THE CENTRAL BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION
OF PLAINFIELD.
J. F. MacDONALD, Secretary.
Smalley Building, 149 North Avenue.

McCULLOUGH'S STEAM MILL,
21 Steiner place, North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 517-J.
Furniture, Freight, Baggage Express and Rigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

Try a box of
DOBBINS' CIGARS.
Clear Havana Nickle Yara or any kind that you desire. Manufactured at 120 North Avenue, opposite Kensington Hotel, Plainfield, N. J.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Cedar Posts and Bean Poles. Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
69 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS,
P. O. Box 320.

Mountain House,
Mt. Bethel, N. J.
FRENCH RESTAURANT
Resort for Automobiles and Driving Parties
A. E. BINZ, Prop.

SMALLEY BROS.
147 North Ave.
BUTCHERS
Our Specialty, Berkshire Pork.
Try Our Berkshire Sausage Made on Premises.
Roasting and Broiling Chickens a Specialty.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 88-A. 5 1 tf

The Southern Restaurant,
232 West Second Street, corner Madison Avenue, now under new management. Meals served at all hours a la carte and table d'hote. Our own make bread and pastrys, all home cooking. The choice of everything is bought for the tables. Our price is reasonable. The place is now under the management of the well known New York caterer. T. H. Royster, Manager. Tel. 923-J. 1 18 tf

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 Watchung Av. Rear.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

JOHN WINZENREID,
Furniture and Freight Express.
Moving Vans and Storage.
312 Lee Place. 'Phone 840-R.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.
Renovating—Offices, stores and private residences. Service day or night. Furniture, china and glassware packed for shipping.
WM. A. KLINE, 611 W. 3d St.

Geo. H. Stagaard,
SHOEMAKER
108—CHURCH STREET—110
Repair work called for and delivered
'PHONE 1062-W.

TITUS H. LAURY
MASON AND BUILDER.
Office, 323 East Front Street.
Tile Setting, Mantel and Front Work.
Telephone 464-L.

TURKISH BATHS!
TAKE ONE
Ladies Mornings, Gentlemen Afternoons
Take Trolley to Sanitarium, Somerset Street.

Cleaning, Pressing and Dyeing.
Monthly Contracts.
Pressing called for and delivered.
EVENING DRESSES A SPECIALTY.
Ladies' Waists Cleaned, 75 cents upwards
Gents' Suits Cleaned $1.50
We do our own work at
M. A. Brown's, 218 West Second St.

William H. Pope,
ELECTRICIAN.
All kinds of electrical work done at reasonable prices.
116 NORTH AVENUE.

Rouse & Fullagar,
CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS,
117 Plainfield Avenue.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St. Tel. 507-W.

Meat Market.
Choice Meats, Poultry, Fish and Oysters always on hand. Sugar cured Corned Beef. International Hams and Bacon.
F. Neidig, 94 Somerset St. Telephone 781

E. B. Maynard's
Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a specialty.
Tel. No. 754-R.
141 NORTH AVENUE.

JOHN WIRTH
(Successor to Henry Liefke.)
Bakery and Confectionery.
201-203 West Front St. Tel. No. 723.
All orders delivered at short notice.

HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS
Silver trunks safely delivered to safety deposit vaults.
Furniture Moving Van and Baggage Delivery.
OFFICE 205 PARK AVENUE
Tel. 833-W. Residence Tel. 648-L

REAL ESTATE
Bought, Sold and For Rent.
J. SACHAR,
731 WEST THIRD STREET.

COAL DEALERS.

Difference In Coal.
All coals may look alike to some people, but compare our "Lehigh" Coal with the Coal you bought somewhere else and you will see a difference.
You will notice that our Coal Burns Brighter, Gives More Heat, and Lasts Longer than any other Coal you ever bought before.
Boice, Runyon & Co.,
Coal, Lumber and Masons' Materials.
Park Ave., opp. North Ave., Plainfield N. J.

JOS. HARRIGAN
OLD COMPANY'S LEHIGH COAL.
Tel. 198 929 South Ave.

The best time to order your winter supply of
COAL
is now. Do not forget that
NASH
is ready to supply you.
Telephones 357-W 833-J.
Evenings 371-W.
OFFICE—130 WATCHUNG AVENUE

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers' Inn.
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 218 West Front Street. Telephone 23-L.

Coal I have on hand some very fine Hard and Medium Coal. All kept undersheds. Pea Coal. Coal
25 cents a ton reduction on cash orders.
L. A. RHEAUME,
148 East Fourth St. Telephone 440-W.
Yard, 674 South Second St. Telephone 230.

GEORGE O. STEVENS
747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. H. Rugg & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 430 West Third St. Tel. 93.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

We call your attention to our fine display of
New Wall Papers.
We can't describe the patterns, but they are new, striking and effective, and with our large assortment we are sure to please.
Paints, Oils and Varnishes.
Woolston & Buckle,
145 North Avenue.

STRIKING COLORS
should not be sought in preference to those that have good lasting qualities, but when
PAINTS
are to be had which are both brilliant and durable, take care to secure that kind.
We have all kinds and grades of Paints, Oils, Colors and Varnishes, suitable for all kinds of work at the lowest prices to be found in this city.
Jas. C. Hansen,
Dealer in Wallpapers, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc
141 East Front Street
Estimates Furnished

1908 Wall Papers.
IMPORTED & AMERICAN GOODS.
C. CONOVER & CO.
Decorators, Painters and Paperhangers, Window and Plate Glass.
115 Elmwood Pl. Tel. 1145

W. S. CHEEVER
1326 Park Ave.
Painting and INTERIOR DECORATING. WALL PAPER of every description at the Lowest Prices.
'Phone No. 538-J.

FOR A
CLEAN SHAVE AND GOOD HAIR CUT
TRY THE
Burns' Tonsorial Parlors
Shoes Polished FREE with Every Shave.
Special Attention to Children's Hair.
212 WATCHUNG AVENUE

AZIENZA
cures pimples and all inflammation of the skin. Used by people of refinement. Medicinal and toilet—25 and 50 cents.
CREAM.

WM. H. SWAIN,
HENRY KROUSE
S. P. T. WILBUR,
Comittee.

Freeholder Smith moved that the report be received and adopted, which was so ordered without disent.

By the Comittee of the Whole:

Elizabeth, April 2, 1908.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, N. J.:

Gentlemen—Your Committee of the Whole would report that it has examined West Grand street, in the city of Elizabeth, from DeHart place to the city line, and First avenue, in the borough of Roselle, from the Elizabeth city line to Locust street, and from Locust street to Westfield avenue in said borough, and finds the condition of said roadway very bad, and a large section of the same almost impassible for public use and travel at certain times of the year.

Your committee would therefore recommend the adoption of the resolution submitted with this report.

Benjamin K.
BENJAMIN KING.
Chairman of the Committee of the Whole

On motion of Freeholder Woodruff received and placed on file.

By the Jail Committee:

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County:

Gentlemen—Your Committee on Jail Inspection would respectfully report that it has inspected the jail and also the books of the warden, and finds that 76 prisoners have been committed during the month of March; the number of days' board, 2,226, an average of 75 persons per day; treated by the physician during the month, 37.

Your committee would also report that it has procured a record book in which it is recording the names of each prisoner committed, the number committed, offense charged, by whom committed, number treated by physician, etc.

Respectfully submitted,
E. K. ADAMS,
J. HERVEY DOANE,
J. LOGAN FAY,
Committee.

On motion of Freeholder Pierson received and placed on file.

By the Committee on Gardoow Culverts:

April 2, 1908.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders:

Gentlemen—Your committee, to which was referred the matter of the proposed culvert crossing Spruce street at Centre street, Garwood, N. J., would report as follows:

This culvert runs underneath the street railway tracks, and is now a 12-inch cast-iron pipe. The committee ifos mittee is of the opinion that this pipe is much too small to carry the water, and is laid at an improper grade. We think that there should be constructeed a new box culvert, with 18-inch opening by 53 feet in length, to be built with brick walls and to be covered with cast-iron plates.

The cost will be about $200.

We think the Public Service Corporation should bear a part of this cost, and are negotiating with them to that end. The committee would therefore report progress on the same

E. K. ADAMS,
ROBERT C. MAURER,
JOSEPH PERRY,
Committee.

On motion of Freeholder Smith received and placed on file.

By Committee on Centre Street Culvert, Garwood:

April 2, 1908.

To the Board of Freeholders:

Gentlemen—Your committee appointed to examine into the advisability of building a new culvert crossing Centre street, at North avenue, Garwood, would respectfully report that it has examined and viewed the site of the same, and would recommend that a new iron box culvert, fourteen inches opening by seventy feet in length be built, with brick walls, and with cast-iron plates covering the same. The cost not to exceed the sum of $250.

E. K. ADAMS,
JOSEPH PERRY,
ROBERT C. MAURER,
Committee.

Freeholder Cladek moved that the report be received and recommendation adopted, which was so ordered on roll call by a unanimous vote.

By the Committee on South Broad Street Bridge in Westfield:

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders:

Gentlemen—Your committee appointed to examine and report on the necessity and probable cost of a new bridge on South Broad street, Westfield, would respectfully report that it has examined the bridge and condition of same, and finds that said bridge is two and one-half feet above the established grade of the street; that it is a plank top bridge which will soon be in need of extensive repairs, and the grading of South Broad street will necessitate the lowering of the whole structure two and one-half feet. We therefore recommend that a new iron beam, brick or concrete arch bridge be built at this point at an expense not to exceed $1,300.

Respectfully submitted,
CHARLES A. SMITH,
J. HERVEY DOANE,
GEORGE B. CLADEK,
Committee.

Freeholder Krouse moved that the report be received and recommendation adopted, which was so ordered on roll call by an unanimous vote.

New Business.

By Freeholder Doane:

Resolved, That this board, as a Committee of the Whole, meet at the Central Railroad station in Plainfield on Thursday, April 9, 1908, at 2 p. m., to go over the road known as Terrill road (being the boundary line between the city of Plainfield and township of Fanwood) from Green Brook, on the north, to Two Bridges, on the south, with a view to improving the same under an act entitled "An act to provide for the permanent improvement of public roads in this State," (revision of 1905), and that said committee report at the next meeting of this board.

On motion of Freeholder Robison, the resolution was adopted without dissent.

By Freeholder Krouse:

Resolved, That the compensation and salary of the Superintendent of the Courthouse be fixed at the sum of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, and that the period of appointment of the said superintendent shall be three years from the 6th day of April 1908.

Freeholder Woodruff moved the adoption of the resolution and on roll call it was unanimously adopted.

Freeholder Cady then in a few remarks nominated William H. Hulskamper for superintendent of the courthouse for the term of thre years as provided in the foregoing resolution, which nomination was seconded by Freeholder Swain.

There was no other nominations, and upon the roll being called, Mr. Hulskamper received the unanimous vote of the board, and was declared elected as superintendent of the court house in accordance with the terms of the resolution hertofore adopted.

By Freeholder Jones:

Resolved, That the bill of William Woodruff, Justice of the Peace, of New Providence, N. J., in amount $27.56, be paid when approved and properly sworn to.

Freeholder Woodruff moved the adoption of the resolution, and on roll call it was unanimously adopted.

By Freeholder Pierson:

Resolved, That the Director of this board appoint a committee of five to inspect and report at an early date on the advisability of constructing a bridge over the Elizabeth River at the foot of Baltic street, city of Elizabeth.

On motion of Freeholder Krouse, the resolution was adopted without dissent.

The Director appoint as the said committee Freeholders Pierson, Meisel, Smith, Woodruff and Wilbur.

By Freeholder Doane:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to examine the bridge at Midway and Johnson avenues, Plainfield, for the purpose of ascertaining the probable cost of altering the same to conform with the grading of Midway avenue, and report to the board oat the next regular meeting.

On motion of Freeholder Pierson the resolution was adopted without dissent.

The Director appointed as the said committee Freeholders Doane, Cady and Fay.

By Freeholder Krouse:

Whereas, A committee of the whole, heretofore appointed to examine the road known as West Grand street, in the city of Elizabeth, from De Hart place westerly to the Elizabeth city line; thence still westerly along First avenue in the borough of Roselle, from the Elizabeth city line to Locust street, thence northerly alonfg Locust street to the corner line of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, the same being the division between the boroughs of Roselle and Roselle Par: thence still westerly along Locust street in the borough of Roselle Park to the intersection of Locust street with Wesfield avenue, with a view to permanently improving the same in accordance with the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the permanent improvement of public roads in this State," (revision of 1905), and the supplements and amendments thereto; and said committee of the whole having examined said road, and being of the opinion that it would be advisable and desirable to have the same improved in accordance with the provisions of the act aforesaid; therefore be it

Resolved, by this Board, That said road, to wit:

West Grand street, in the city of Elizabeth, from De Hart place westerly to the Elizabeth city line; thence still westerly along First avenue in the borough of Roselle, from the Elizabeth city line to Locust street; thence northerly along Locust street to the corner line of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, the same being the division between the boroughs of Roselle and Roselle Park; thence still westerly along Locust street in the borough of Roselle Park to the intersection of Locust street with Westfield avenue.

The entire length thereof being about two and a quarter miles and the width thereof throughout being sixty feet, be macadamized and improved in accordance with the provisions of the act entitled "An act to provide for the permanent improvement of public roads in this State," (revision of 1905) and the supplements and amendments thereto; and be it further

Resolved, That upon receipt of the approval of the State Commissioner of Public Roads, the County Road Committee be, and is hereby authorized to cause a survey of said road, so to be improved, to be made, and plans, cross-sections and specifications of the work to be done on the same, be prepared; and that the Clerk of this board send to the State Road Commissioner a copy hereof for his approval.

Dated April 2, 1908.

On motion of Freeholder Cladek the foregoing preamble and resolution were adopted without dissent.

By Freeholder Pierson:

Resolved, That the Committee on Elizabeth Drawbridges be and it is hereby authorized to replank South Front street bridge in the city of Elizabeth at a cost not to exceed $500.

Freeholder Krouse moved the adoption of the resolution, and on roll call it was unanimously adopted.

By Freeholder Wilbur:

Resolved, That the Clerk of this board be and hereby is directed to communicate with Mr. John Keron, expressing to him that it is the request of this board that he hereafter present monthly such claims as he may have against the county.

By Freeholder Cladek:

Be it Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to ascertain cost of building a new bridge on Plainfield avenue, Rahway, New Jersey, either of concrete or an iron beam brick arch, and report at the next meeting of the board.

On motion of Freeholder Wilbur, the resolution was adopted without dissent.

The Director appointed as the said committee, Freeholders Cladek, Darby and Krouse.

The Director announced the appointment of Freeholder Fay to the position of the First Street Bridge Committee, city of Elizabeth, made vacant by the death of Freeholder Donahue.

The following bills, properly audited and approved were read and on roll call unanimously ordered paid, viz:

Court Account—Harry Conlon, $3.15; Jno. Keron & Son, $41; Jno. Keron, $112.90; Jacob L. Bauer, $17.50, $15; H. A. Pierson, $10.80; American Law Book Co., $5.40; The Summit Herald, $6; J. J. Carey, $5; E. B. Lawrence, $15; James Crann, $66.50; Sebastian Petrus, $48; Peter V. Weaver, $63; M. W. Boyle, $50; David H. Ramsey, $54; Robert Walpole, $52.50; Gustave Deinlein, $59.50; Chas. F. W. Eckhardt, $71.50; Frederick Teipel, $55; Robert L. Eaton, $40.60; George C. Tenney, $25.45, $40.75; John A. Galatian, $38.90, $102.10; Emily E. Williamson, $132; Henry Cook, $13, $13.50, $26.50; Wm. Locke, $24; Jas. C. Calvert, $21.14; H. J. Schoppe, $75; Wm. R. Wilson, $75; Jacob Gordon, $216.67; Robert Lightfoot, $20, $21.61, $40, $125; Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., $1.60, $138.88; John K. English, $69.44; C. Addison Swift, $333.32; Edward S. Atwater, $500; Wm. H. Lawrence, sheriff, $2,612.93.

Bridge account—Addison Russell, $30; Hency C. Busch, Jr., $63.77; James J. Potts, $438.86; Fred Lausch, $20.85; Michael Muscarillo, $20.50; Solomon Brown, $25; Courier-News Publishing Company, $9.72; James G. Moore, $47.90, $29.05; Victor Cole, $5.50; The W. T. Kirk Company, $92.80; John L. Tyler, $4; A. B. Campfiled, $5; Robert Clark, $20.50; S. B. High, $10.50; James G. Moore, $22.75; The W. T. Kirk Company, $38.40; G. A. M. Alexander, $4; Cleaves & Hedden, $15.20, $15; James G. Moore, $35.05.

Public Grounds and Buildings Account—West & Fletcher, $61.42; McManus Bros., $14.50, $369.85; H. P. Vandervere, $27; N. Y. and N. J. Telephone Co., $8.99, $2.10, $6.05, $6.90, $3.55, $7, 80 cents, $17.65; J. N. Newman, $36; John R. Rankin, $7.70; Art Metal Construction Co., $625; H. V. Butler Co., $9.22; Joseph Bauer, $8.70; Elizabethtown Gas Light Co., $277.08; W. J. Wellwood, $15.30; West Disinfecting Co., $91; Newark Brush Co., $5; The Cudahy Packing Co., $12; Columbia Refining Co., $21; Wm. H. Hulskamper, $3.45; John Conrad, $20; Albert C. Stein, $15.25; The Cudahy Packing Co., $12; The Hildebrant Co., $11.10; West Disinfecting Co., $32.50; W. H. Hulskamper, $125; J. J. Carey, $60; Kate Runyon, $27; Brucklacher Bros., $95.99; Chas. L. Salathe, $5.15; Chas. W. Dodd, $26.45; Clark Hardware Co., $36.50; The Elizabeth Ice Co., $49.55; Public Service Corporation of N. J., $112.08, $37.28; The Elizabethtown Water Co., $283.36; J. E. E. Levanseller, $7.70.

Lunacy Acount—W. R. Codington, $92.50; N. J. State Village for Epileptics, $489.83.

Jail Account—Joseph Bauer, $72.30; Dr. M. A. Shangle, $62.50; Albert C. Stein, $24.49; The Hildebrant Co., $19.22; W. H. Lawrence, sheriff, $848.85; Henry J. Schmidt, $13.80; A. P. W. Paper Co., $9.25.

Incidentals Account—Frank H. Smith, $175; J. J. Savitz, $87.50; National State Bank, $40; F. L. Graves, Est., $12; W. O. Graves, $44.50; J. E. High, $18; James J. Higgins, $35; A. C. Haines, $35; S. Rusling Ryno $94.25; F. W. Westcott, County Physician, $71.25.

Stationery Account—Charles M. Affleck, $13.75; James E. Warner, $17.75, $416; F. E. Norris & Co., $12.50, $14.50; J. F. Cahill, $17; The Summit Herald, $14.

Contingent Account—Florence G. Stiles, $44.33; Edward L. Mack, $11.15, $100.

State Aid Road Acount—Jacob L. Bauer, $181.

Publication Acount — Elizabeth Revue, $31.25.

Salary Account—James W. Fink, $75; W. R. Codington, $75, $208.33.

Committee Expense Account—Jno. Robison, $6.15; Noah Woodruff, $37.30; J. Logan Fay, $5; C. A. Smith, $7.85; Henry Krouse, $41.70; Bradford Jones, $5.95; J. N. Cady, $8.80; Benjamin King, $34.92; George B. Cladek, $4.70; Robert C. Maurer, $13.20; E. K. Adams, $11; John H. Stephan, $3.75; S. P. T. Wilbur, $39.76; Joseph Perry, $7.15; W. H. Swain, $6.90; P. H. Meisel, $6.50; J. Hervey Doane, $5.35.

Members' Pay Account—John Robison, $20; Noah Woodruff, $44; John N. Cady, $22; C. A. Smith, $16; J. Logan Fay, $34; Benjamin King, $46; Bradford Jones, $28; Henry Krouse, $44; George B. Cladek, $42; E. K. Adams, $38; Robert C. Maurer, $36; John H. Stephan, $50; W. H. Swain, $20; S. P. T. Wilbur, $22; Thomas J. Pierson, $42; Joseph Perry, $24; P. H. Meisel, $24; J. Hervey Doane, $30.

Surrogate's Account—Ethel Dilks, $50; Rosabel Allen, $100; W. B. Parrot, $208.33; George T. Parrot, Surrgoate, $458.33.

Freeholder Krouse moved to adpourn, which was carried.

The Director declared the board adjourned until Thursday, May 7, 1908, at 2:30 p. m.

R. RUSLING RYNO, Clerk.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

Our Refrigerators are filled with Fancy Philadelphia Broilers, Roasting and Fricaseeing Chickens, Jumbo Squab. Hunterdon County Spring Lamb, Tender, Juicy Roasts and Steaks from Native Beeves.

Milk Fed Veal
Jersey Pork

Delicious Sugar-Cured Hams & Bacon Home made Sausage. All Yours to Command at

The ENDRESS CO.
131-135 West Front Street.
'Phone 690.

Satisfaction assured as there is nothing finer produced. Orders called for and promptly delivered.

WALSH'S Candy

SPECIALS THE FRESHEST.

You should always remember that the Freshest made Candies in our stores are the Advertised Daily Specials. They are usually made within 24 hours from time of their sale. This is one reason why our Daily Special Sales are so successful.

FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY THIS WEEK.
Turkish Nut Caramels, lb.....10c
Creamed Almonds, lb.....15c
FOR SATURDAY ONLY.
Nutted Fig Wafers, lb.....19c
Chocolate Coffee Walnuts, lb.....29c
Dutch Milk Chocolate Creams, lb....35c
Assorted Creams, coated with Milk Chocolate, delicious!

R. Walsh & Co.
Makers of Sweets.
157 Market St., Newark, N. J.
671 Broad St.
88 Broad St., Elizabeth, N.J.
157 Newark Ave., Jersey City.
Wholesale Departm't now at 350 Plane St., near Market St., Newark.

THE VAN DYK SYSTEM has reduced the tea and coffee business to a science. It means to you
BETTER TEA, BETTER COFFEE and Lower Price. Visit a Van Dyk Store and share in these advantages.
VAN DYK'S
127 WEST FRONT ST.,
Bet. Park and Madison Aves.
50 BRANCHES IN 20 CITIES.

Lumber Bargain!
The largest quantity of lumber in Plainfield can be found in my yard.
Large and Small Timbers.
Cut prices on new lumber for one week more.
A. KANE
YARD, 312 Filmore Ave.
Telephone 522-J.

WASHINGTON ROCK SPRING WATER
Bottlers of high-class soft drinks, Ginger Ale, Soda Water and Pure Spring Water, and Siphon Goods. Private families' and parties' patronage is solicited.
Henry Pedeflous,
TELEPHONE 670-R
Hotel Pedeflous, Plainfield

Blue Stone Sidewalks.
If you want the best Blue Stone sidewalks, curbs, etc., call on
J. W. Manhattan,
50 Elm St.

FURNITURE.
Repaired and upholstered. Equal to new. Send a postal to
HARRISON, 140 CENTRAL AVE.,
Cabinet maker, Polisher, Mattress Maker.

PLAINFIELD EXCHANGE FOR WOMENS WORK,
502 WATCHUNG AVE.
A full line of picture frames, waste baskets, blotters, humid notes, bridge scores, pads, boxes, trays, telephone registers, menu and place cards. Orders filled promptly.

Press Want Ads. Pay

New Jersey Central

In Effect January 26, 1908.

For New York—2.17, 3.37, 5.36, 6.02, 6.29, 6.57, 7.25, 7.28, 7.46, 7.47, 7.55, 8.00, 8.11, 8.30, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.59, 10.28, 10.56 a. m., 12.00, 12.19, 12.42, 1.06, 1.27, 2.31, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.45, 5.53, 6.29, 6.48, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.27, 9.35, 10.17, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.17, 3.37, 4.47, 7.22, 7.56, 8.52, 9.34, 9.45, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.29, 6.57, 7.26, 7.28, 7.47, 8.11, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.59, 10.56 a. m., 12.42, 1.08, 1.27, 2.31, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.45, 5.53, 6.29, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.31 p. m. Sunday—7.22, 8.52, 9.34, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 2.00, 5.22, 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 2.08, 5.47, 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 5.47 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.37, 8.17, 10.55 a. m., 12.42 (Saturdays only), 3.42, 4.45, 5.53, 8.27, 11.28 p. m. Sundays—3.37, 8.52 a. m., 3.30, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.37, 9.29 a. m., (12.42 Saturdays only), 1.27, 2.44 (3.42 Lakewood only), (5.53 Lakewood only, Saturdays only) p. m. Sundays—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.46 a. m., 1.46 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.13, 7.39, 8.45, 9.12, 10.43 a. m., 12.13, 12.42, 1.39, 2.14, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 1.17 night. Sunday—6.45, 9.53, 10.39, 10.43, 11.43 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.55, 6.39, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 11.26, 1.17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington—3.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m. Sundays—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

*Change cars at Bound Brook.

W. G. BESLER, Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr.
W. C. HOPE, Gen. Pass. Agt.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.
Office opens 7 a. m., closes 7 p. m.
On Saturdays close half hour later.

NEW YORK MAIL.
Arrive—7:00, 8:40, 11:30 a. m., 2:30, 5:00 5:30, 9 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:30, 6:90 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 1:30, 3:15 and 7 p. m
Close—7:30 a. m., 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40 and 11:30 a. m., 2:35 7:00 p. m.
Close—7:15, 7:30, 9:30 a. m., 12:35, 2:20 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST
Close—1:00 and 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST AND SOUTH.
Close—12:35, 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton.
Close—12:35 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:30 a. m., 2:20, 6:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:15, 7:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:20 and 6:00

WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m.
Close—9:00 a. m.

WATCHUNG.
Close—5:30 p. m.
Arrive—6:45 p. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M.

Advertisements
—FOR—
New York Herald,
World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American, Brooklyn Eagle
—and—
Newark Evening News
Received at
The Daily Press
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

Complete line of
AUTOMOBILE Supplies and Tires
AT LOWEST NEW YORK PRICES.
Thompson Auto Co.
413 Park Ave. Tel. 991-J

Mrs. John Brown,
Successor to
John Burke and Jones & Co.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned from $3.00 Upwards.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Don't give your order until you consult me
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at
J. T. Vail's, North avenue, Plainfield, N. J.
Postoffice Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

We have made arrangements for a larger supply of first-class milk and and are givng the family trade our special attention. . . If you are not satisfied with the milk or the services you are getting give us a trial.
Price 9 cents a quart, 5 cents a pint. Cream 14 cents a ½ pint. . . .
Lindsay's Dairy,
965 West Front St.
TEL. 792-J.

J. NEUSTADT
MERCHANT TAILOR,
Ladies' Tailoring a Specialty. Cleaning, Pressing, Altering at lowest prices. Work called for and delivered. Formerly with R. A. Rieley, Fifth Avenue, New York.
Spring and Summer Styles now ready.
430 WATCHUNG AVENUE
Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 668-W.

NOTICE TO MEN.
Don't Throw Away Your Old Clothes.
Highest Prices Paid for Same.
I. RICHARD, - - 17 Somerset St.

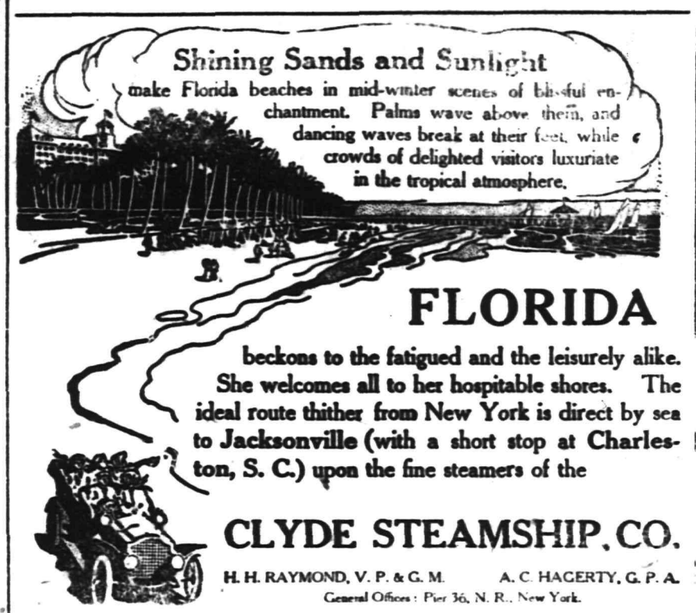
LAWN TOOLS

It isn't too late to buy if you have discovered that you need a new Mower this year. You must have heard of our easy running, close cutting, durably constructed Lawn Mowers. They have world-wide reputation.

We also have all other kinds of tools for lawn and garden development.

HOSE, REELS, SPRINKLERS, RAKES, GRASS SHEARS, HOOK, WEEDERS, EDGERS, PRUNERS, ETC.

Gayle Hardware Company
Tel. 468-R. Front St. and Park Ave.



FLORIDA
beckons to the fatigued and the leisurely alike. She welcomes all to her hospitable shores. The ideal route thither from New York is direct by sea to Jacksonville (with a short stop at Charleston, S. C.) upon the fine steamers of the

CLYDE STEAMSHIP CO.
H. H. RAYMOND, V. P. & G. M. A. C. HAGERTY, G. P. A.
General Offices: Pier 36, N. R., New York.
W. D. THICKSTUN, Agent, 197 North Avenue.

BUY YOUR FURNITURE AT Powlison & Jones.
149 & 151 East Front St.

FURNITURE,
BEDS, BEDDING,
FLOOR COVERINGS.
At this season of the year you surely need something new in Furniture, Beds, Bedding, Mattings, Rugs, Oil Cloths, Linoleums, Window Shades or Awnings. We have prepared to meet your requirements with the new Spring stock and invite inspection.
L. B. VAN CAMP
Front and Somerset Streets, Tel. 868-J

:-Schreiner's Pharmacy-:
PARK AVE. and SECOND ST. TEL. 898-J.
Have Your Corns Removed
Without Pain by Applying
SCHREINER'S CORN REMEDY
15c Bottle Guaranteed

—CAMERAS—
KODAKS AND PHOTOGRAPHIC SUPPLIES
DEVELOPING, PRINTING AND ENLARGING
Bring Your Films in One Day and Get Your Pictures the Next.
"THE PHOTO STORE," 129 NORTH AVENUE.
FORMERLY VAN WINKLE'S.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR
TRUNKS, SUIT CASES OR BAGS
CALL AT
O. M. DUNHAM'S, 129 Park Ave
TRUNK STRAPS—ALL SIZES.

John S. Lewis
Successor to Lewis & Dilts.
Artesian Well Contractors.

Wells drilled any place, size or depth.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Box 173, Scotch Plains, N. J.

ROADSTERS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 4:51 a. m.
Sun Sets 7:02 p. m.
Lanterns must be lighted 8:02 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER
Partly cloudy and colder t night; Sunday fai .

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, SATURDAY, MAY 9, 1908. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

VICTIM OF ASSAULT DIES

John Bussi Succumbs as Result of Wounds Inflicted by Negro Brute.

THE CORONER HOLDS AUTOPSY.

County Detective Totten Hunts Fiend Who Attacked Aged Couple in Their Home.

John Bussi, who was assaulted Tuesday night by a negro in his home at Mount Bethel, died at 6 o'clock, last night, as a result of the injuries he received. The county authorities were notified at once and Dr. Long, of Somerville, county physician, took charge, with the assistance of Coroner John Hebberman. It was arranged to perform an autopsy at the Bussi home today.

Bussi lived with his wife in an isolated place on the back road extending from Mount Bethel to Liberty Corner, and on Tuesday night a negro knocked at the door and demanded food. While the couple was getting the man something to eat, the negro suddenly turned on the aged couple and felled both Bussi and his wife with a club. He then began to ransack the house. Mrs. Bussi was conscious after she had been knocked down and was able to get a good description of the assailant, which she gave to County Detective George Totten.

The whole neighborhood was so wrought up over the assault that the Warren Township committee met Thursday night and voted to offer a reward of $250 for the capture of the negro. Before he got away the man obtained two gold watches and about $10 in cash, overlooking about $500 which was in a nearby safe. Yesterday County Prosecutor Reger ordered signs posted throughout the county, telling of the assault and the reward offered.

Today it was said that Mrs. Bussi's condition is quite serious, for in addition to injuries received Tuesday night, the shock of her husband's death has affected her greatly. The aged couple resided in Brooklyn until a year ago, when they leased former Freeholder Robert Zerkibel's house near Mount Bethel.

NEWSPAPER MEN CONTROL CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

Three of the four members of the Civil Service Commission appointed by Governor Fort as told yesterday in The Daily Press, are newspaper men. Messrs. Johnson and Bateman are Republicans and Messrs. Keaney and Mulliken are Democrats.

Willis Fletcher Johnson was born in New York City on October 7, 1857, and was taken a few weeks later to the family estate at New Providence in this county. He was graduated from Pennington Seminary in 1875. He has been a member of the staff of The New York Tribune since 1880. For several years he has been engaged as a lecturer in the public school free lecture courses in Newark, Jersey City, Bayonne and New York. He is the author of several books. He is a member of the National Civil Service Reform League and many other societies. Mr. Johnson received the degrees of L. H. M. from New York University and A. M. and L. H. D. from Dickinson College.

Charles H. Bateman is a graduate of Princeton University, class of '85. He also was graduated from Pennington Seminary. He is the editor of "The Unionst-Gazette," of Somerville and for twenty-one years was a newspaper correspondent at Trenton. He is a member of the Somerville Board of Education and a member of the executive committee of the Somerset County Republican Committee. He is vice-president of the New Jersey Legislative Correspondents' Club.

Colonel Mulliken was born in New Brunswick on November 1, 1836, but for years has been a resident of Newark. He is a Civil War veteran, and is one of the leading members of the Grand Army of the Republic in New Jersey. He is secretary of the New Jersey Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, and is a member of St. John's Lodge 1, F. and A. M., and Damascus Commandery 5, K. T., of Newark. Colonel Mulliken was secretary of the Merchants' Insurance Company, in Newark, until 1899, when his health failed and he retired from active business.

James Keaney is editor of "The Trenton Evening Times," and is well known at the state capital.

Stabber Gets Three Years.

New Brunswick, May 9.—Frank Johnson, a negro, was sentenced to three years in State prison yesterday for stabbing Frank Bragniol. He has already served two years for a similar offense, committed in Somerset county.

TRINITY BOYS HELP. MISSIONARY CAUSE

A successful entertainment and sale was held in the lecture room of Trinity Reformed church, last night, under the auspices of the Boys' Mission Band to raise money for the cause of missions. Despite the inclement weather there was quite a good attendance and the patronage was liberal.

Those taking part in the entertainment were Edmund D. Young, cornet; Elmer Wheeler, flute; Mr. Manning, violin; Mr. Driggs, drum and triangle; Miss Estella Boss, piano; The various numbers were greatly enjoyed and several encores were given.

A sale of ice cream, cake, candy and lemonade and an exhibition of burnt wood-work followed the entertainment. A feature was the "Eighth Wonder of the World," the art gallery, in charge of Edson Woodhull. The ice cream and cake booth was in charge of Arthur Gaskill; while Russell Hoagland was in charge of the sale of home-made candy, and Millard McAfee the pop-corn; George Hummell the lemonade and Ernest Stevens displayed the burnt wood exhibition. The committee in charge of the affair was as follows: Harold Schenck, chairman; Edson Woodhull, Russell Hoagland and Ernest Stevens.

PLAN A CATHEDRAL FOR N. J. DIOCESE

Before the diocesan convention of the Episcopal church of New Jersey, which met in New Brunswick, came to a close Thursday afternoon, the delegates adopted a resolution to appoint a committee of five clergy and five laymen to consider the plan of erecting a cathedral in the diocese. The resolution met with unanimous approval. While no details were adopted, it is assumed that the cathedral will be erected in Trenton, the see of the episcopate.

The committee is to be appointed by Bishop Scarborough and will be named later. The matter will be taken up again at the next convention, to be held in St. Mary's church, Burlington, the first Tuesday in May, 1909.

BOROUGH POLICE NAB TWO SIDEWALK CYCLISTS.

In accordance with the edict of Mayor Samuel Thompson, of North Plainfield, the borough police are enforcing strictly the ordinance in respect to bicycle riding on the sidewalks in North Plainfield. A. M. Parker, Jr., of Franklin place, was arrested yesterday for biking on the sidewalk up Somerset street, and paid a fine of $3 for violation of the ordinance at his hearing before Borough Recorder Dolliver last night. George Melick, who also lives in Plainfield was caught by Marshal Kiernan on Watchung avenue early this morning and will be given a hearing tonight.

The arrest of yong Parker, who is about 18 years old, was made by Chief Weiss, who raced with the rider on a trolley car and caught him near Fritz place. Marshal Keller, who first saw Parker on the sidewalk, warned him off, and the boy turned into the street. After riding about a block from the officer, he swung up on the sidewalk again, and it is said, turned and laughed at Keller. Chief Weiss was on a north-bound trolley car and had seen the whole affair. He tipped off the motorman and the car speeded up so that the Chief could get off and arrest Parker farther up the street.

ELABORATE PRODUCTION BY HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS.

"She Stoops to Conquer," the play to be given tonight in the Plainfield theatre, ranks as one of the foremost comedies in the English language. It is rich in lively quotable epigrams, and the dialogue is witty throughout. The many amusing situations are cleverly worked out by the master humorist Oliver Goldsmith, and the play is one that might be well seen with instruction as well as entertainment.

The senior class of the City High School which is to present the play has thus far spent $400 in staging the production, and special scenic and electric effects have been secured for the occasion.

Bishop to be at Pastor's Jubilee.

Bishop Vincent and the Rev. Dr. Thomas O'Hanlon, of Ocean Grove, and the Rev. Charles E. Heisley, of Farmingdale, will atend the golden wedding jubilee of the Rev. and Mrs. William C. Nelson, at Nutley, to be held at their home, in Passaic avenue, on Monday night. Bishop Vincent and Mr.Nelson were members of the class of '53, New Jersey conference. He was formerly pastor of the Franklin (Nutley) Methodist church.

ITALIAN COUPLE WED IN STATE BY JUDGE HAND

Tamasadi Nizefiglio, a well-to-do contractor, living in Scotch Plains, and Marietta Ramuinolo-figlia, also of Scotch Plains, were married this morning in the local district court rooms by Judge Hezekiah Hand, when about twenty witnesses, including several of the city officials, were present and helped in the merry-making, giving the couple from Sunny Italy a wedding which is destined to be recorded as one of the leading social events in local Italian circles.

To lend impressiveness to the occasion, the Judge had the room darkened and the ceremony was performed by artificial light. Neither bride nor groom could "speka da English" to any great extent, so Gaetano Miele, a local contractor, acted as interpreter. The two were "in travelling costume," and there were many soft Italian love glances exchanged between them while the interpreter was translating the necessary data for the marriage certificate. When Dan Cupid's knot was finally tied and Marietta had shortened her name five letters by changing it, Tamasadi took a roll of bills out of his pocket and handed a ten spot to the "Marrying Justice." Stories as to the exact diameter of thih roll of bills, the smallest of which is positively stated to be a five, vary, but at all events, it may be said that the Scotch Plains contractor has in no way been effected by the financial stringency. It is reported that the couple will "tak a steamboat" and go on a wedding trip before they settle down to keep house in Scotch Plains.

GOVERNOR AS GUEST OF THE STATE SENATE

Governor Fort and Mrs. Fort went to Atlantic City yesterday afternoon to remain until Monday. Tonight the Governor will be the guest of honor at a dinner to be given at the Marlborough-Blenheim by the members of the New Jersey Senate.

Senator Colby is chairman of the committee on arrangements and President Hillery will be toastmaster. Senator Ackerman will make the chief address. It is expected that all the Senators will be present.

The Governor will spend one day in Washington next week attending the conference between the President and the Governors of many States concerning the national resources of the country. He would remain longer were it not for the fact that his father, who is 80 years old, is very ill at his home in Mt. Holly.

While in Atlantic City Governor Fort will investigate the complaints of the hotelkeepers there about increased railroad fares. He said yesterday that he would look into the situation and if circumstances fully warranted it he might call a special session. He added that he thought it would be found that the circumstances would not warrant issuing the call.

Crokinole Party.

Raymond E. Miller, of Almont place, entertained a number of friends at his home last night by giving a progressive crokinole party. Miss Edna Sebring was the successful winer of the women's prize and Russel Harden won the men's prize. The remainder of the evening was passed in playing games and dancing. Those present were the Misses Edna Sebring, Leonora Miller, Della Voehl, Lucetta Clark, Grace Clark, Florence Fowler, Tina Voehl, Ada Van Horne, Edith Major, Mrs. Arthur V. Austin and William Nischwitz, Frank Merritt, R. Keiffer, B. J. Phelps, Raymond E. Miller, Floyd Miller, Benj. Schuck, Russel Harden, David Smalley and Arthur V. Austin.

Asbestos Club to Celebrate.

Having tired of the name of "The Plainfield Social Club," the members at a meeting yesterday afternoon unanimously voted to return to the former name, "The Abestos Club," by which the association was known for so many years. It was the opinion of all that the original name was by far the best. Preliminary arrangements were also discussed for celebrating the anniversary of the club, to be held in the near future. Meetings are now held in rooms in the Babcock Building and the older members are faithful attendants at the daily sessions of the club.

Five Borough Dogs Poisoned.

A dog poisoner has been getting in some good work over in the borough, and the bodies of five dogs were removed from the locality of Watchung avenue, Chatham and Pearl streets yesterday by the borough officials. Most of the animals were without pedigree, and it is believed the work was done to abate a nuisance.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

COMMITTEES NAMED FOR THE KIRMESS BAZAAR

The committees for the various booths at the bazaar to be held in connection with the Kirmess were announced today by Mrs. Frederic W. Butler, chairman of the general committee. Mrs. W. L. C. Glenney is treasurer of the Kirmess. The committees follow:

Flower Booth: Mrs. C. A. Reed, Mrs. L. G. Timpson, Mrs. Frederic W. Butler, Mrs. F. H. Andrews, Mrs. E. T. Barrows, Mrs. J. B. Dumont, Mrs. R. H. Depew, Mrs. John Drayton, Mrs. Chapman Fisk, Mrs. C. J. Fisk, Mrs. Henry L. Hall, Mrs. A. G. Hooley, Mrs. Edwin S. Hooley, Mrs. Dorsey Hyde, Mrs. Henry Irons, Mrs. E. H. Ladd, Jr., Mrs. Arthur Murphy, Mrs. St. St. John McCutcheon, Mrs. Arthur Otterson, Miss Otterson, Mrs. George S. Ring, Mrs. J. M. Shellabarger, Mrs. Percy Stewart, Mrs. H. M. Stockton, Mrs. E. M. Van Buren, Mrs. Theodore Wilson, Mrs. E. T. Wilson, Mrs. J. S. Zelie.

Lemonade Booth: Mrs. E. E. Iremonger, Mrs. Otis Avery, Mrs. Allison, Mrs. Paul Taylor Brown, Mrs. L. M. Archer, Mrs. W. W. Coriell, Mrs. A. B. Davies, Mrs. H. C. Deknatel, Mrs. G. H. Frost, Mrs. W. L. Lock, Mrs. J. D. Radcliffe, Mrs. M. D. Rae, Mrs. S. S. Schuyler, Mrs. H. S. Tetsuka.

Candy Booth: Mrs. F. W. Yates, Mrs. H. V. Borden, Mrs. F. D. Warren, Mrs. John Gray Foster, Mrs. F. G. Mead, Mrs. Percy Stewart, Mrs. Howard Tracy, Mrs. E. H. Lyon, Mrs. C. H. Tompkins, Mrs. Walter McGee, Mrs. E. S. Hooley, Mrs. B. A. Hegeman, Mrs. Henry McGee, Miss Eva Browne, Miss Helen Harmon, Miss Haida Hyde, Miss Margaret Mead, Mrs. J. P. Stevens, Mrs. N. C. Barnhart, Mrs. Edward J. Patterson.

The Grab: Miss Bessie Flanders, Miss Helen Adams, Miss Lucie Budlong, Miss Anna Campbell, Miss Norma Northrop, Miss Ruth Titus.

Kirmess Souvenirs: Miss Imogene Bass, Miss S. Lena Bass, Miss Roberta Bass, the Misses Brooks, Hyde and Johnson, Mrs. Lewis Squier, Mrs. E. F. Fiekert, Mrs. W. B. Tyler, Mrs. W. L. Righter, Mrs. R. S. Rowland, Mrs. Louise Andrews, Miss Fannie Perkins, Miss Barbara Fleming.

Ice Cream Booth: Mrs. J. O. McKelvey, Mrs. Charles Smith, the Misses Moffett, Zadum, Carver, Kronce, Vermeule, Stryker, Smith, Gunverman, Matthews, Payson, Smith, Peterson, Schenck, Bennett, Cranston, Coddington, M. Coddington, Squier, Bock, Coriell, Holmes, Richter, Pearce, Slorah, L. Lovell, C. Kampman, N. Kampman, E. Osgood, L. Osgood, F. Demarest, E. Demarest, Galloway, Wakefield, Woolston.

W. C. T. U. MAKES BETTER MOTHERS THEY DECLARE.

The Middlesex County Spring Institute of the W. C. T. U., was held in the Presbyterian church at Perth Amboy on Thursday. Mrs. Owen Swain, Mrs. Joseph Barnard, Mrs. Thomas Hulley and Mrs. Crouch attended from this city.

The institute was presided over by Mrs. Emma Bourne, State President, of Newark. There were only twenty-five delegates present.

Ten reasons were given by the representatives of the different unions present for belonging to the W. C. T. U., and the strongest point brought out in the answers given, was that in belonging to the W. C. T. U. better mothers were made; that is members formed a protection of the home and the Nation against the liquor traffic.

Mrs. Mary Teak, president of Essex county, gave an address on the W. C. T. U.'s work. Another address that was appreciated was that on "A Mother's Responsibility in regard to temperance in the Home," given by Mrs. Probasco, of Jamesburg. A question box was conducted by Mrs. Bourne, who answered all questions propounded by those present.

An address on "Emigration" was given by Mrs. Orr, the Temperance Missionary to Ellis' Island. Mrs. Orr told of meeting the girls and women upon their arrival and of her endeavor setting them upon the right path.

The evening session was given over to music under the supervision of Mr. Cox, organist at the Presbyterian church. Vocal solos were rendered by Messrs. Flake and Conklin, of Perth Amboy and by Mrs. Owen Swain, of Middlesex.

Addresses were given at this session by Mrs. Bourne and Mrs. Emily E. Williamson, former probation officer of this county.

Annual Birthday Party.

The thirteenth annual birthday party of The Little Missionary's Day Nursery, 93 St. Mark's place, New York, will be held at East Seventh street, New York, Thursday night, May 21, at 8 o'clock. Miss Sara Curry is the manager of the nursery and will be in charge of the affair.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

CARRIAGE HITS CAR; COUPLE THROWN OUT

Caught between the edge of the trolley tracks and a main west-bound trolley car, a rig in which Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haberle, of Park avenue, were driving, collided with the car at Park avenue and Front street, yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, and the occupants of the carriage were thrown out, sustaining slight injuries.

Mr. Haberle, who was driving the horse, was in a quandary when he reached the corner, as he had his choice of backing his carriage off the tracks, where excavations had been made for the brick pavement or running into the car. The result was that the rig struck the trolley about midway, breaking the shaft, releasing the horse and upsetting the carriage. Mrs. Haberle was thrown over against the car, while her husband fell out on the opposite side.

The couple were assisted to J. J. Kenney's store, and later were able to return home. Aside from general shock and a few scratches and bruises, the injuries were not considered serious. The carriage was considerably damaged and had to be taken to a repair shop. The horse, which ran away, was caught after going a short distance.

Several persons who saw the accident were not inclined to blame the motorman of the trolley. They claim that his car was practically at a standstill when Mr. and Mrs. Haberle came along. On account of the street improvements but little space was left at that point to turn around, and a collision with the car seemed inevitable.

UNEARTH POT OF OLD COINS UNDER A CABIN

While Edward Cotty, of Risley, N. J., was yesterday engaged in digging a cellar under the Lukns cabin, which is situated about six miles east of Millville, near Camp Snyder, a boulder was found about a foot beneath the surface. Assisted by Andrew Snyder, the veteran deer hunter, the stone was removed, and they found an old iron can, containing a considerable sum of money in coin and some valuable papers, including several old deeds, which, it is believed, will affect title to many acres of deer woods surrounding the cabin, which are now held by non-resident sportsmen.

The men will not state how much money they found. The dates of the deeds, which are much faded, indicate that they have been buried for many years. The papers were placed in the hands of a lawyer, and a contest for title to the game reservation is not improbable. This building has been standing for almost a half century and has not been occupied for a number of years except by hunting parties, who when deer hunting would spend the night there.

Excelsior Society Fair.

Under the auspices of the Excelsior Society a fair will be held in Coward Hall, on Park avenue, Friday and Saturday evenings, for the benefit of the Swedish Lutheran church. An attractive program will be given each evening.

The annual basket meeting of the Women's Baptist Foreign Mission Society of the East Association, will be held at the Mount Pleasant Baptist church, Newark, Friday, May 15. It is expected that the local Baptist churches will be well represented.

Non-Support Complaint Withdrawn.

Walter Smalley, arrested on charge of non-support and committed to the borough lock-up in default of $100 abil on complaint of his wife, who was Miss Jennie Martial, was released yesterday afternoon, when the woman withdrew her complaint against him. He has gone back to Scotch Plains, where he has been living with his parents, and she will continue to live at her father's home on Somerset street.

Weapon Carrier Gets Thirty Days.

Henry Williams, the negro arrested on suspicion by Detective-Sergeant Flynn and who was carrying a loaded revolver, was sent to jail for thirty days by Judge Runyon, this morning. He haled from Philadelphia and his record there is being looked up.

Call Promptly for Tickets.

Persons who have made seat reservations for the Kirmess by telephone or mail, must obtain the same by Tuesday night, at 6 o'clock, or they will be sold. Those in charge of the Kirmess have decided that they cannot hold the tickets beyond that date.

Rev. Dr. A. H. Halsey, of New York, representing the foreign mission board of the Presbyterian church will preach at the First Presbyterian church, tomorrow morning and the pastor, Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring, will occupy his pulpit in the evening.

SOMERSET FREEHOLDERS CONSIDER CONTRACT WORK

A special meeting of the Somerset County Board of Chosen Freeholders was held in the rourt room in Somerville yesterday afternoon. All the members were present.

The following bids were received for the bridge to be built on the Watchung road: Canton Bridge Co., $2,940, one-span iron bridge; $2,187, two-span iron bridge; W. T. Kirk Co., $1,405, $1,300, $1,749, $2,448, $3,832; New Jersey Structural Co., $2,459. They were referred to the committee and county engineer, and later on the contract for the concrete abutments to the superstructure of the bridge was awarded to W. I. Smalley at his bid of $5.75; the contract for the superstructure to the W. T. Kirk Company of Plainfield at $1,749, railing to be added.

The contracts for culverts were awarded to Travell & Hare, of North Plainfield, as follows: Mobus culvert, $7.25 per cubic yard; Wilson culvert, $7.25; Milliken culvert, $6.75; Meyers culvert, $6.60; Anderson culvert, $7.95; Wormser culvert, $7; Winans culvert, $7.95; all concrete.

The Director was authorized to execute the contracts.

BOROUGH PUPILS IN SUCCESSFUL OPERETTA

Clever acting, excellent singing and elaborateness and beauty of costumes in the presentation, assured the success of the operatta, "The Enchanted Palace" at the Park Club last night. Nearly 100 pupils of the grammar grades of the Somerset Street School took part, and despite the storm, the seating capacity at the club was taxed to its utmost. The affair netted $110, which will be devoted to the purchase of pictures for the class rooms in the grammar department of the school.

The operetta was in two acts, with a typical fairy story plot, in which all finally ends happily for Prince and Princess. The costuming was especially elaborate for an amateur production and each of the principal characters deserves especial mention for their acting and singing. Howard Riley was an ideal "Prince Emerald" arriving just in time to rescue the Princess, whose part was ably taken by Miss Helen Roberts. George Ball, as the King's poet, deserves praise for his singing and the excellent stage business he used in his interpretation of the part. The complete cast of characters was printed in Thursday's Daily Press, and the musical score follows:

Solo and chorus of fairies, "Borne upon the morning breeze;" chorus of fairies, "Spirit! whosoe'er thou art;" chorus of fairies, "Lo! the maid of beauty rare;" trio (Wise Man, Jester and Poet), "Three servants are we;" march and chorus, "Hail to the King;" song (the Chancellor), "A beautiful scheme of taxation;" chorus, "O sweet Princess;" dance by the fairies; chorus of fairies (behind the scenes), "Peaceful through the silent years."

Part 2—Introduction and chorus, "We are the spirits of love and joy;" song (Prince Emerald) and chorus, "I have wandered o'er the mountains;" solo and chorus, "Ha! I see it now!" (by the chancellor); solo (Princess Crystal), "Upon my couch;" final chorus, "With beams of love and golden smiles."

Herbert Lloyd, musical director at the school, led the operetta, and Miss Myra Emmons acted as accompanist at the piano. Assisting Mr. Lloyd and forming a committee in charge of the affair were Miss Laura M. Sydenham, Miss Mabel Trenbath, Miss Lillian A. Eldredge and Miss A. Margaret Spiedel.

ALL PLEADED GUILTY.

Disorderly House Men Are Fined by Court.

In the Somerset county courts at Somerville yesterday George Daniels and Andrew Stabile, of Raritan, and Frank Kolbeck and John Helfen, of Bound Brook, all charged with keeping disorderly houses, retracted their former pleas of not guilty and pleaded guilty. Judge Schenck fined Daniels $50, Stabile $150, Kolbeck $100 and Helfen $150. The fine on Daniels was made light because his license had been taken away.

Next Monday Judge Schenck will begin the trial of criminal causes.

Divided on Estate.

Creditors of J. Wesley Johnson have been notified by Trustee John J. Hayden that a dividend of five per cent is ready for distribution. A hearing on his application for discharge from bankruptcy will be given in the United States Disthict Court in New York on Monday moring, May 18.

ERRING PAIR HELD IN BAIL

Mrs. O. P. Dumont and Louis Kelly Waive Examination Before City Judge.

WRONGED HUSBAND PRESENT.

Mrs. Dumont Brought Back—Kelly's Wife Displays Her Own Weakness.

Mrs. Oliver P. Dumont, whose whereabouts in Philadelphia were made known by Louis Kelley when he confessed to Chief Kiely, was taken in custody at the adress furnished, yesterday, and agreed to return to Plainfield without requisition proceedings. She was kept at police headquarters over night and this morning was arraigned before Judge Runyon for a preliminary hearing. Kelley was arraigned at the same time and both waived examination. Bail was fixed at $500 in each case. The amount was furnished for Mrs. Dumont by W. G. Runyon, of Dunellen, but Kelley had failed to secure a bondsman at noontime.

In his statement to Chief Kiely, yesterday, Kelley stated that he went away with Mrs. Dumont last Friday, meeting her by appointment at Bound Brook. They proceeded from there to Philadelphia and remained until Wednesday at 1,216 Arch street. On that day he called up a friend in Plainfield on the telephone and when informed that a warrant was out for the arrest of both, he decided to go to another address. He then went to the home of Henry VanNest, a former Plainfielder, who resides at 1,212 Sardine street, where Mrs. Dumont was introduced as Mrs. Kelley.

Detective-Sergeant Flynn went to this address yesterday, accompanied by a Philadelphia headquarters man, and the young woman was found there. She demurred at first to be ing taken back home but when told it must either be that or go to local police headquarters she offered no further objections. Her two-years-old son, who she took away with her, was brought back at the same time.

Mrs. Kelley has been steadfastly remaining by her husband but Dumont refuses to have anything to do with his wife. He preferred the charge against the two in order to secure help in getting his child back and this morning had Counsellor S. S. Swackhamer in court to look after his interests. The wife seemed to feel her disgrace keenly while in court and kept a heavy veil over her face during the proceedings.

"ROGERS BROTHERS" DRAWS RECORD BREAKING CROWD.

The New Plainfield theatre attendance record was broken last night by the big crowd that witnessed "The Rogers Brothers in Panama." Long before the curtain went up, standing room was at a premium and by 8:30 it became necessary to and by 8:30 it became necessary for the police and fire department to stop the admission sales.

The performance met expectations in every way and the Rogers brothers added to their laurels as funmakers. They were on the stage the greater part of the three acts and handed out laughs every few seconds, beside getting off several eccentric dances. Miss Marion Stanley, who was seen with the brothers here last season, was even more charming than before and sang and danced prettily. She received five encores on one song, "Under the Palm Tree."

Scenically, the production was beautiful while the costumes were a wealth of color. The chorus numbered sixty, mostly girls.

Y. W. C. A. Exhibition.

The educational classes of the Young Women's Christian Association closed the second term of regular work with an exhibition of hats, waists and embroidered pieces at the association rooms yesterday afternoon and evening. In spite of the storm, a great many dropped in to see what has been accomplished in the various classes. A spring course in dressmaking will open on Tuesday evening at the association home for a term of seven lessons.

Wedding Reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Suttler gave a wedding reception at their home in Muhlenberg place last Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. Dynos, Mrs. Nellie Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Goldstone, Mr. Jesse Brown, Beele Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Isaac Smith, Mr. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Mr. Vale Horn were among those present.

Adjourned Meeting of Council.

There will be an adjourned of the Common Council Monday night when contracts will be awarded for the furnishing of crushed stone and the erection of the new police headquarters' building at Fourth and Sycamore streets. Other business left over from the regular May meeting will also be considered.

H. & H. Force and Co.

We Give "S. & H." Green Trading Stamps

"THE WHITE STORE"
THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY

PATTERNS We have put in a complete stock of the best and most popular line of PAPER PATTERNS, handled only by one high-class store in each city in the United States.

Price 10c & 15c The Ladies Home Journal Patterns Price 10c & 15c

We are also agents for the Ladies Home Journal magazine, which has the largest circulation of any monthly book in America. Yearly subscription, $1.50.

Corsets

We carry in stock at all times a full line of sizes in the following makes:

Nemo, Nos. 318, 312, 314 at $3.00
Royal Worcester.....
Nos. 409, 453, at $1.00
" " Nos. 532, 541, at $1.50
Bon Ton, Nos. 863, 888, 806 at $3.00
c/b A la Spirite.....
Nos. 482, 575, 557, at $2.50
c/b A la Spirite, Nos. 595, 1623, at $3.00
W. B., Nos. 735, 949, 754, at $1.00
W. B., Nos. 457, 749, at.....$1.50
W. B., Nos. 426, 459, at.....$2.50
R. & G., Nos. A7, 671, A24, at $1.00
R. & G., Nos. 379, B22, at....$1.50
R. & G., No. 382, at.....$3.00
Warner's Rust Proof .....
Nos. 196, 115, at $1.00
" "Nos. 186, 168, at $1.50
D. H. & C. Spirabone.....
Nos. 404, 428, at $1.00
D. H. & C. Spirabone, No. 500, at $1.50
La Resista, Nos. 896, 892, at...$3.00
Thomson Glove Fitting.....
No. 165, at $1.50
Ferris Good Sense Waist.....
No. 220, at $1.00

Trading Stamps "S. & H."

Trade where they are given and never fail to ask for them. They are the most valuable of all inducements because they get the Best Premiums on Earth. Be sure to see them. Exhibit on third floor. Take the Elevator.

Candies

OUR Candy Department has proven the most attractive and popular department in the store. They are received fresh every week, and are guaranteed absolutely fresh and pure under the Pure Food Laws of New York and New Jersey. We carry all staple brands of Candies at 10 and 12½c. lb.

Fine Chocolates and Bon-Bons, all flavors, at

25c. lb.

"THE OLD RELIABLE HOME FURNISHERS"
EST. 1860 INC. 1907

COWPERTHWAIT AND VAN HORN CO.

73 MARKET STREET. NEAR PLANE ST., NEWARK, N.J.

(B)

"Spring"—time Suggests

NEW Floor Coverings

—and we suggest "No. 73" as the place to get them, provided quality that's sure, and a price that's right, appeals to your taste and purse!
Only weaves that stand our warrant ever get inside our store—here's an "Inducement Sale" to start Spring season's trade!

TAPESTRY BRUSSELS CARPETS

85c. grade at 64c. Yd. | $1.00 grade at 75c. Yd. | $1.20 grade at 90c. Yd.

MADE, LAID AND LINED FREE!

HEAVY CHINESE MATTING
Just in—Regular $18 grade
$14.50
roll of 40 yds.
Many other grades and prices

FANCY JAPANESE MATTING
Cotton Warp Regular $16 grade $13.25
roll of 40 yds.
Broad choice of various other weaves

Best Grade "A No. 1"
Oil Cloth at 45c. Yd. [Reg. 60c.]

Over half a hundred kinds of oil cloth—all new and effective! Ask to see our line of Linoleums—especially the new imported line in carpet patterns—we're sole agents.

Sole Headquarters For
"The Portland Range," "Gunn Sectional Bookcases"
The Acme Washing Machine, "White" Sewing Machine

LOWEST PRICES—EASY CREDIT

BOYNTON Square Pot FURNACES

Greatest heat from least coal; minimum care-taking—all direct benefits of the wonderful Square Pot (patented). Ask dealer. Boynton Furnace Co., New York—Chicago.

M. & S.

MATHUSHEK & SON PIANOS

appeal to all lovers of the beautiful in music. They possess the rare quality of tone that is a delight to all.
Every courtesy given to visitors and prospective buyers at our wareroom.
Beautiful catalogue mailed upon request.

MATHUSHEK & SON PIANO CO.,
310 W. Front St., Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 910-J

LAWN MOWERS

Sharpened and Repaired

Having Installed Electric Power and Improved Grinding Machinery I Can Insure Prompt and Satisfactory Work.

A. M. GRIFFEN,

119-123 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.
'PHONES 6 and 214

JACK HORNER 26 SOMERSET ST TEL. 869-W.

Pierce, Cleveland, Crawford and Arrow Bicycles. Renting, Repairing and Sundries Vulcanizing a specialty. Baby Carriages Repaired and Retired. Work called for and delivered.

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c. a week.

CITY.

Union News Co. .....R. R. Station
J. M. Harper .....411 Park Ave.
R. A. Laing .....149 W. Front St.
A. D. Mallinson..Fourth and Liberty Sts.
Trolley Waiting Room....Watchung Ave.
M. Estil .....111 Park Ave.
Debele & Stahl .....113 Somerset St.
Blaney & Son .....331 Watchung Ave.
T. A. Garthwaite.....212 Watchung Ave.
A. Anderson .....657 West Fourth St.
John Mottley, Cor. E. 2d & Richmond Sts.

SUBURBAN.

Dunellen ..... B. Siriski
New Market ..... R. Burdick
Bound Brook .....Union News Co.
Bound Brook .....L. M. Davis
Somerville ..... Jacob Genert
Westfield ....C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield ..... J. W. Wall
Scotch Plains ..... Chas. Elliott
South Plainfield ..... Victor Attlee
Fanwood ..... Chas. Elliott
Netherwood ..... Blaney & Son

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS

WESTFIELD.

The low parts of Westfield were flooded yesterday. The flat lands near the trolley barns were several feet under water. Some of the cellars on Broad street were flooded, but no great amount of damage was done.

Water was so high on the Garwood flats last night that the employes of the aeolian factory could not cross to South avenue, and were compelled to walk nearly a mile to get to the street railway.

Westfield's Assessment Commission will meet tonight at the town hall to assess the cost of laying sidewalks on Cumberland and Downer streets.

William Quigley is organizing an amateur ball team to represent Westfield this summer.

RARITAN.

Mrs. Vanness has returned from North Branch, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Emery Haver.

The woman's prayer-meeting was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Augustus Tillman.

Mrs. Lent, of Newark, has been a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Gainor, in Raritan.

Miss Sadie Lee, of Scotch Plains, is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. James Scully.

Miss Elizabeth Mauer is spending a week with friends in Plainfield.

Mrs. John H. Gulick has been visiting relatives in Newark.

John Brown is visiting friends at Califon.

SOMERVILLE.

The Aid Society of the Methodist church has elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Edward Huff; vice-president, Mrs. John Gernert; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. E. D. Hoffman.

Miss Blanche Chumar, of Elizabeth, has been spending a week with Miss Flora Ayers, on Bridge street.

Miss Elizabeth Galpin has returned from Caldwell, where she has been visiting Miss Anna Taylor.

Mrs. Gray, of Ocean Grove, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter Durling, on East Cliff street.

Miss Nellie Condit is entertaining her cousin, Miss Mattie Burn, of German Valley.

Mrs. H. W. Reussing is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Albert O. Foster, in Utica, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Case are spending a week at Atlantic City.

BOUND BROOK AND VICINITY.

The twentieth annual meeting of the Bound Brook Building Loan Association was held in Ivy Hall Wednesday night, when the following officers were elected: President, W. B. R. Mason; vice-president, Wm. W. Smalley; secretary, H. G. Herbert; treasurer, R. H. Brokaw; directors, R. A. Ross, Howard L. Moore and David Hastings; counsel, H. C. Suydam; loan committee, Wm. Schure, A. S. Coriell and Gaius Hoffman, with George Y. Wyckoff as alternate; auditing committee, Nelson M. Giles, William H. Weart and Henry F. Rugen.

Mrs. William Eichman is on a visit to her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Foster, in McKinley avenue, Trenton.

Mrs. Elmira Hoffman, of Main street, South Bound Brook, has returned from a visit to relatives at Pluckemin and vicinity.

Mrs. John H. Staats, of South Bound Brook, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is reported to be recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wells have been entertaining Mrs. Wells' brother, Thomas, in East Main street, Bound Brook.

AGED D. A. R.'S DEATH.

Mrs. Mary L. Bailey, Eighty-five Years Old, Dies at Whitehouse.

Whitehouse, May 9.—Mrs. Mary L. Bailey, eighty-five years old, widow of Rev. William Bailey, passed away Thursday at the home of her son-in-law, Stephen K. Large, in this place, from old age. She had ben in failing health for some time. Mrs. Bailey was born in New York City and her maiden name was Miss Mary L. Stark. She was a direct descendant of General Stark, and was thus a real daughter of the revolution. Her husband, Rev. William Bailey, was the pastor of the Reformed church in Whitehouse from 1868 to 1882, having come here from the Third Reformed church in Albany, N. Y.

Mrs. Bailey leaves two daughters, Mrs. Stephen K. Large, of Whitehouse, and Miss Bertha Bailey, who is a principal in the Taconic School at Lakeville, Conn. A granddaughter of Mrs. Bailey is the wife of Rev. Henry T. Jones, the present pastor of the Whitehouse Reformed church. Mrs. Bailey's sister is the wife of Rev. Dr. Henry Mellen Tyler, formerly professor of Christian Ethics in Cornell University.

The funeral services will be held at the home of her son-in-law in Whitehouse on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Henry T. Jones will officiate, assisted by Rev. Dr. William H. DeHart, pastor of the Third Reformed church in Raritan. Burial will be in Rural Hill cemetery.

AWARDED $6,000 AS DAMAGES.

Jersey City Girl's Case Involves Points that Mean Further Legal Action.

Trenton, May 9.—Frances Friedman, the ten-year-old daughter of Samuel Friedman, of Jersey City, recovered a verdict for $6,000 damages against the Snare and Triest Company, a construction concern, in the United State Circuit Court yesterday. On April 18, 1903, she had her leg taken off while playing on some heavy iron beams in the street, in front of the Colgate & Co. factory, in Jersey City, where the Friedmans then lived.

The case was tried originally in the Hudson County Circuit Court, where a jury returned a verdict of $7,000 damages for the girl and $800 for her father. Both of these verdicts were set aside and the Court of Errors established as a principle of law that the girl, although playing on beams piled in the street was a trespasser, and therefore not entitled to recover damages. The United States Supreme Court has construed the law in such cases differently, and the girl's counsel began another action in the federal court. The trial of the case began Thursday of last week, and the jury returned its verdict yesterday, after being out nearly twenty-four hours. An appeal will be taken to the United States Court of Appeals.

WATER SNAKE LOSES.

State Board Upholds Assessment on Hillsdale Dam.

Hackensack, May 9.—The State Board of Assessors today notified the County Board of Taxation of Bergen County that it had placed the valuation of the Hackensack Water Company's dam at Hillsdale at $75,000, the original figures placed by the local assessor at Hillsdale.

When the local assessor fixed the valuation, the Hackensack Water Company appealed to the Bergen County Tax Board, which cut the valuation down to $62,000. The water company was not satisfied with this figure and appealed to the State board.

Hubby Drew Line on Hat.

New Brunswick, May 9.—Harvey Closson, who was convicted of assaulting his wife after a few months of wedlock, was sentenced to pay $5 a week to his wife for her support, and was placed in the hands of the probation officer yesterday. Mrs. Closson told the court that the only things that her husband had bought for her since marriage were a pair of gloves, a pair of shoes and a parasol. When she asked him for a new hat he told her that she would have to buy her own hats.

The Misses Philips, of Brooklyn, have been visiting their brother, Frederick Philips, of West Front street.

NEW JERSEY CORPORATIONS.

Trenton, May 9.—Certificates of incorporation have been granted to the following companies:

The Arcade Company, Jersey City; capital, $10,000; incorporators, Jas. J. Evans, Leroy S. Cohen and A. Leslie Turner; to keep a general department store.

International Generator Company, Hoboken; capital, $100,000; incorporators, Jay E. Whiting, Willard P. Jessup and Frank C. Pringle; to manufacture machinery.

Eastern Stock Company, Jersey City; capital, $125,000; incorporators, Charles E. Rook, William C. Perry and Richard F. Tully; to buy and sell municipal bonds.

M. H. Murray, incorporated, Newark; capital, $25,000; incorporators, Andrew C. Murray, Jr., Alphonse Murray and Michael H. Murray; to do a wholesale and retail liquor business.

San Jose Land and Fruit Company, Jersey City; capital, $75,000; incorporators, John D. McTighe, Orville B. Kehr and Harry M. Watkins; to deal in fruits of all kinds.

Millburn Trap Rock Company, Millburn; capital, $100,000; incorporators, Herbert Lighthipe, Herbert V. W. Lighthipe and Charles C. Spencer; to quarry stone, etc.

Independent Film Service Company, Camden; capital, $125,000; incorporators, N. A. Henry, Deering Bellinger and Archworth Marter; to manufacture and sell films, cameras, etc.

Taxi-motor Cab Company of Philadelphia, Jersey City; capital, $300,000; incorporators, Cornelius A. Cole, Richard F. Tully and Franklin Vreeland; to manufacture motors, etc.

Overpeck Building Company, Ridgefield Park; capital, $10,000; incorporators, William Henris, Frank M. Sandberg and John C. Taylor; to deal in real estate.

Avenel Amusement Company, Newark; capital, $25,000; incorporators, George J. Jaeger, William H. Black and Henry D. Bulkley; to operate restaurants, etc.

Receiver for Furniture Concern.

Trenton, May 9.—Peter F., Joseph A. and James A. Farrell, sons of the late Lawrence Farrell, and owners of one of the biggest furniture stores in the State, applied to the Court of Chancery yesterday for a receiver to wind up their business, or at least to get it out of the present tangled condition. Charles B. Case was appointed by Vice-Chancellor Walker. The assets are placed at $75,000 and upward, and the liabilities at $37,611.75.

George Dolliver, of this city, has been visiting friends at Frankfort.

Miss Ruth Ianson, of this city, has been visiting relatives at Somerville.

SOME STATE NEWS BRIEFS

A petition is in circulation for the removal of the voting machines from the East Ward, Salem.

Numerous forest fires in Alloway Township, Salem County, are under investigation by the Forest Reserve Commission.

A cow belonging to A. S. Howitt, of Cross Keys, broke out of the yard and destroyed a hotbed containing 10,000 cabbage plants.

Gilbert Kirkbride of Sewell, spread a quantity of lime on his land during a rain, and is now confined to his bed with burned legs.

The bidders for the Paulsboro gas bonds have been notified by Mayor Adamson to either produce the money immediately or return the bonds, as he has other persons who will take them at once.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Cannon, of Teaneck, gave a dance to a large number of friends in Oritani Hall, Hackensack, last evening. Mr. Cannon is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

While running to catch a Main street trolley car in Paterson, David Watkins, of Great Notch, slipped on the sidewalk at Main and Ward streets last evening, sustaining a fracture of the left arm and a general shaking up.

Prompt action upon the part of Cooper Hospital doctors saved the life of May Forsman, eighteen years old, of 606 Mt. Vernon street, Camden, who by mistake swallowed a dose of poisonous liniment yesterday.

The funeral of Professor William Stoops, principal of Florence public schools, who died last Sunday, occurred yesterday. The schools were closed, and over 400 pupils viewed the body. The members of the Board of Education were pallbearers.

Ventnor City, following the lead of Longport, is planning to buy up the water works and operate it as a municipal plant. The figure fixed for the purchase in the ordinance is $57,000. The population favors the expenditure for the plant and wants it enlarged and improved.

The project of the building of a new electric line from Philadelphia to Atlantic City, which is discussed by several corporations, one of which is the "overhead system," will be indorsed, from all reports, at today's meeting of Atlantic City's Business Men's League.

The State Board of Equalization of Taxes sat at the Salem courthouse yesterday to hear a number of appeals from the assessment of Woodstown Bank stock, but by consent of all parties the appeals were held up, pending the decision of the Court of Errors and Appeals in a similar case.

At the annual meeting of the Salem County Medical Society the following officers were elected: President, L. H. Hummel; vice-president, J. M. Summerill; secretary and treasurer, Henry Chavanne; reporter, John F. Smith; censor, W. H. James; delegate to State society meeting, E. E. De Grofft. Following the election a banquet was served in the Schaefer House.

After spending eight months in the county jail, being released last Saturday, Charles Wilson was sent to the State prison by Judge Joline in the Camden Criminal Court yesterday for three years. Wilson pleaded guilty to breaking into the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Railey at Merchantville, and stealing a large quantity of silverware. Lewis Sharp, a negro, drew a similar sentence on being convicted of robbing the office of the Haddonfield Water Company

The Atlantic City police may be unable to convict four young men arrested for alleged looting of the Allen Hotel in Arctic avenue, because the culprits smoked or drank all the evidence of their crime. The men arrested—Daniel Sayres, William Porter, George Powell and Leo Blonte—are accused of having stolen several quarts of fine whiskey and a big lot of cigars, but all had disappeared when the police descended upon them and the stolen "stuff" cannot be used as evidence.

SEERESS FLEES.

Chance Prophecy Leads to Pestering of Brunswick Matron.

New Brunswick, May 9.—Mrs. George Mallett, of 220 Suydam street, has escaped annoyance from women running to her home to have their fortunes told by going to her summer home in New England, and she hopes that when she returns in the fall that her friends will forget all about her powers as a seeress.

A few weeks ago Mrs. Mallett, while talking with a girl friend who had announced her wedding for two weeks hence, told the girl that the wedding would not be held. The girl was then engaged at putting the finishing touches on her trousseau and laughed at the suggestion. But the wedding did not take place and has not been held as yet. Then Mrs. Mallett admitted that she possessed an unusual power, which she could not explain, from childhood and could look into the future. She told some more fortunes, and then strangers came to her and offered her money. Mrs. Mallett declined all offers of money, but was kept busy looking into the futures of her friends until she fled to her summer home.

Water.

So penetrating is water at high pressure that only special qualities of cast iron will withstand it.

SPORTS HERE AND THERE

BASEBALL.

Says Crawford Should be on First.

Larry Lajoie thinks first base is the place for Sam Crawford. He says a big man like Sam would be all the better for the additional work he would get at first base and hit better. "I know I always hit better when I have plenty of opportunity to handle the ball," declares Larry.

Hickman Makes Good Point.

Charley Hickman of the Cleveland Americans wonders why men who do not get into the game over once or twice a week, if that often, are expected to make hits in pinches when they forget what pitching looks like and what bats are for.

Second Baseman Pattee Makes Good.

If Harry Pattee's present clip is a fair sample of what he can go regularly, the Brooklyn Nationals have found a second baseman who measures right up even with Johnny Evers and Miller Huggins.

Pitching Finds of Season.

Hoch, Maddox, Carter, Lattimore, Schlitzer, Graham, Summers and McQuillen look like the pitching finds of the season, although Maddox and McQuillan were really discovered last season.

Clinton Avenue expected to play the Laurels, of Bound Brook, this afternoon, but the Laurels cancelled the contest yesterday; in fact word has been received that all games have been declared off by the Bound Brook boys.

Next Saturday the Clinton Avenues will play the Elizabeth A. C., on Crescent Oval. This should be a fine contest, as the county seat boys have been showing up very strong.

Manager Dorflinger, of the Clinton Avenues, has June 13 and 27 and July 6 open and would like to schedule games with strong teams. They would like to play June 13 and 27 away from town and July 6 at home.

Boston now takes its hat off to Hal Chase, following the lead of Washington and Philadelphia. There are four cities to be heard from, but Chase hasn't visited them yet this season.

It appears that Moriarty and the spectator he wanted to lick in Washington the other day met that evening in a theatre. Moriarty stepped over to the man, asked him if he wasn't the fellow who had spoken to him at the ball game, and, on receiving an affirmative answer, invited the man outside. The later accepted and the two were on their way to an impromptu battle ground when the player's friends interfered and made him return to the theatre.

The Pittsburg Dispatch has pictures of the Rev. William Sunday in characteristic poses. Some of them look as if he were about to slide for a base.

If J. Pluvius will let up in time so that the teams will not have to take their Southern training trips all over again he will be forgiven.

What with Mathewson of Bucknell, Stahl of the University of Illinois, Lewis of Cornell, Pattee and Tenney of Brown, Chase of Santa Clara College and Devlin and Mahoney of Georgetown, Greater New York undoubtedly has the champion alma mater team.

Bill Dahlen says the Boston Nationals will finish in the first division, and Bill is not one to make rash predictions.

GOLF.

There were never such sheets of water falling or braw gusts of wind blowing across the Garden City Golf Club course as throughout Thursday. Yet forty-four players finished in the qualifying round of the spring tournament that begins the season's open golfing in New York State. There were eighty-one entries, but many who came to play preferred to sit dry and cozy by the fire. The others went about with rainsoaked eyes and blundered through the scoring round. Worse than wet or gales was the sudden drop in the temperature, for in their light attire the golfers were soon as shivery as the proverbial aspen leaf. Fred Herreshoff, for instance, who wore little but a silk shirt and thin flannel trousers, went to the sixth two under fives. Then he began to chill, so that he could not hold the clubs, and after an 8, two 9s, a 10 and an 11, Herreshoff finished with 114. Tillinghast and Turner wore mackintoshes, while Robbins had overshoes strapped on in gaiter fashion.

The one man not discommoded was Walter J. Travis. He is more familiar with the Garden City course than any golfer, probably, has ever been with any golf links in the world. It is Travis' creation, and on the tees he did not have to look ahead, but only to calculate the force of the storm, while strangers had to wipe their eyes and try to pierce the blinding rain to locate the hazards. To be on one's own course has been said abroad to be worth five strokes in eighteen holes, but Travis played in a form to shatter this tradition, for with an 84 he lead the next figure by fifteen strokes.

Travis did not feel the full force of the storm until about the ninth hole and the cold did not faze him. Going out he was 6 over par on the total, but equaled it on the first, second and ninth, while he beat par a stroke on the sixth. On the inward journey, although the stress of weather was more severe, Travis was but 5 over par. He tied the standard on the tenth, thirteenth, sixteenth and seventeenth, missing a 3 on the home green after driving in the teeth of the storm to within eight feet of the pin.

The Colonia Country Club of Rahway held its opening stag dinner this week at which there were about forty present. This club, which has a membership of about 150, has one of the prettiest courses in New Jersey and is less than one hour's ride from New York. On Decoration Day there will be a driving contest and two man team contest, which will be chosen by two captains. Ralph Corbin was elected captain of the club team for the season.

A meeting of the executive committee of the New Jersey State Golf Association was held at the office of the president, Leighton Calkins, on Thursday, to make final arrangements for the championship tournament at Englewood June 4, 5 and 6.

TEPPERS 109-111-113 WEST FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

AGENTS FOR STANDARD PATTERNS

TEPPER'S Offer for Tomorrow, Saturday, in Their MILLINERY DEPARTMENT, 3 Specials in

TRIMMED HATS at $2.98, $3.98, $4.98

Worth $4.00, $5.00 and $6.50

This is an exceptional attractive showing of Stylish Hats just from our workroom and marked one-fourth to one-third less than real value, to demonstrate our leadership in the popular priced Millinery as well as the higher class. Come Saturday and partake of this bargain offering. You will be surprised to see such charming, Sty'ish Hats at

$2.98, $3.98 and $4.98

Other Bargains For Saturday are:

WOMEN'S SKIRTS—Panama Skirts, pleated with 3-inch band, navy blue and mixed gray; value $3.50; Saturday, special...$2.49

WOMEN'S SKIRTS—Fine mohair skirts, black only, splendid lustre, full pleated with band, made to sell at $5.00; cut full; Saturday, special, at.....$3.98

TAILORED SUITS AT $8.98—All our suits that sold up to $12.50, made of fine Panama, in black, blue and brown, semi-fitting coat, with pleated skirts; none better in town at $12.50; on sale at.....$8.98

CREPE KIMONAS, 50c—Pretty Crepe Kimonas, in floral effects on delicate shades of pink and blue, 75c value, at.....50c

MEN'S 18c SOX AT 12½c—Fast black, lisle finish, in medium weight, all sizes; Saturday at, pair.....12½c

IN THE MEN'S DEPARTMENT.
Sale Pajamas and Night Shirts.

The manufacturers of the well-known "Faultless" night robes had their stock damaged by smoke and water. We secured a portion of these at the auction sale. Though the stock is perfectly clean, the boxes having only been damaged by smoke, we secured these at 60c on the dollar and offer them as follows:

FAULTLESS NIGHT SHIRTS, were made for Webber & Hutbrower, N. Y., with their label, to retail at $1.25, made of fine cambric and nainsook; on sale Saturday at 75c

FAULTLESS PAJAMAS, were made for Stern Bros., 23rd St., N. Y., with their label, to retail at $1.50, made of fine madras, nicely trimmed; on sale Saturday at....$1.00

"CHALLENGE" REAL RUBBER COLLARS, the best made, retail at 25c; any style or size; for Saturday at.....17c

CELLULOID COLLARS, interlined, dull or glossy, 15c everywhere; any style you want for boys and men; Saturday at.....10c

SALE OF UMBRELLAS

100 Union Taffeta Silk Umbrellas, for men and women, 26 and 28 inch; every one guaranteed to give satisfaction or we take it back; none in this lot worth less than $1.75; on sale Saturday at..... $1.29

60 Fast Black Twill Umbrellas, worth $1.00, for men and women, 26 and 28 inch; on sale Saturday at ..... .69

75 Women's Union Taffeta Umbrellas, absolutely fast black and guaranteed, worth $1.25; on sale Saturday at ..... .89

DON'T WAIT.

Take Advantage of Plainfield Citizen's Experience Before It's Too Late.

When the back begins to ache,
Don't wait until backache becomes chronic;
Till serious kidney troubles develop;
Till urinary troubles destroy night's rest.
Profit by a Plainfield citizen's experience.

John H. Stewart, carpenter, of 413 New street, Plainfield, N. J., says: "Last winter I suffered from severe pains across my kidneys and what is more commonly called backache. When my back hurt the worst cold sweat stood out on me, and if I caught cold it always settled on my kidneys. I got so bad with these troubles that I had to quit work, but though I doctored faithfully, no medicine struck the right spot until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Randolph's Pharmacy. I took in all three boxes and they stopped my many aches and pains and regulated the action of the kidneys. Since taking them I have worked steadily, without any ill effect on the action of the kidneys."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New Yor, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Paint Ready For Use.

L. & M. PURE PAINT semi-mixed is sold for $1.65 per gallon. Linseed oil is sold from the barrel for 60 cents a gallon. Buy 4 gallons L. & M. PURE PAINT and mix with it 3 gallons linseed oil, and you then make 7 gallons of paint at a cost of only $1.20 per gallon. Done in 2 minutes.

Woolston & Buckle, Plainfield; H. C. Meyer, Scotch Plains; P. W. Brakely, Dunellen,

L. & M. Paint Agents.

Blue Stone Sidewalks.

If you want the best Blue Stone sidewalks, curbs, etc., call on

J. W. Manhattan,
50 Elm St.

FURNITURE.

Repaired and upholstered. Equal to new. Send a postal to

HARRISON, 140 CENTRAL AVE.,
Cabinet maker, Polisher, Mattress Maker.

EYE-STRAIN

is directly responsible for the majority of cases of blindness today. If instead of trying to overwork the eyes, one would at once get glasses at the first warning of eye-strain there would be fewer cases of blindness at the present time.

Come to us and have your eyes examined free of charge and we will advise you what to do to save them.

Headache and neuralgia quickly relieved.

STILES & CO.,

Philadelphia Eye Specialist.

At 105 East Front Street,

Every Thursday.

Hours. 11:15 to 4:30.

WASHINGTON ROCK SPRING WATER

Bottlers of high-class soft drinks, Ginger Ale, Soda Water and Pure Spring Water, and Siphon Goods. Private families' and parties' patronage is solicited.

Henry Pedeflous,
TELEPHONE 670-R
Hotel Pedeflous, Plainfield

Flor de Timbo
Clear Habana.

Get It at Timbo's

STONE ROADS.

PROPOSALS are asked for the construction of Macadam Roads, on West Grand Street, First Avenue and Locust Street in the City of Elizabeth, and in the Boroughs of Roselle and Roselle Park, Union County, N. J., from De Hart Place to Westfield Avenue.

The length of the roadway to be macadamized is about 11,805 lin. ft. The width of the stonework is 14 ft.

The estimated quantities of the items of the work are as follows:

Earth Excavation, 7,720 cu. yds.
8 inch Macadam, 15,020 sq. yds.
4-inch Macadam, 5,850 sq. yds.
Manhole Heads reset, 12
6-inch Underdrains, 1,200 lin. ft.
Rock Excavation, 0.
Crushed stone furnished additional, 270 tons.

Plans, profiles and specifications for this work may be examined at the office of the County Engineer, 215 Broad Street, Elizabeth, N. J.

Bidders must enclose with their bids a certified check for $1,000.00, made payable to the Director of the Board of Chosen Freeholders as a guarantee that if the contract be awarded to such bidder, the bidder will enter into an agreement with the Board of Freeholders for the carrying out of the work.

Bids for the above described work will be received by the County Road Committee of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, at the Court House, Elizabeth, N. J., at 2:30 p.m., on Tuesday, May 26, 1908.

The Board of Freeholders or its committee reserves the right to reject any or all bids, as they may deem best for the interests of the County.

JACOB L. BAURR, County Engineer.
215 Broad Street, Elizabeth, N. J.
5-7, 8, 9, 11, 13, 15, 18, 20, 22

ESTATE of John B. Probasco, Deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the thirteenth day of March, 1908, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.

Norman H. Probasco.
Gertrude Katharine Probasco.
Executors.
John H. Van Winkle & Son, Proctors.
3 14 9 oaw s

ESTATE OF CARRIE L. MULFORD, Deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, administrators of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the ninth day of April, 1908, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.

WILLIAM R. TOWNSEND,
FREDERICK S. CUTTER.
4 11 9 oaws Administrators.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SETTLEMENT.—Notice is hereby given, That the account of the subscriber, Administrator with the will annexed of Edmund V. Shotwell, deceased, and trustee thereunder, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the twenty-seventh day of May, next.

Dated April 24, 1908.
WILLIAM H. SHOTWELL.
4 25 oaw 5 s

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT. Notice is hereby given, That the account of the subscribers, Executors of Fitz Randolph Vermeule, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphans Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the twentieth day of May next.

Dated April 16, 1908.
Edward A. Vermeule.
Nicholas Murray Townley, Jr.,
Frederick Meeker Townley.
4 18 5 oaw s

ESTATE OF RICHARD BOWEN BROWN, Deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, administrator of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the ninth day of April, 1908, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

LEROY J. ELLIS, Administrator.
4 11 9 oaw s

WE SELL LOTS FOR CASH or INSTALLMENT

We build and sell houses on the same plan. It will pay you to buy before June 1st in Laramie Park.

Write or call on

J. D. LOIZEAUX LUMBER CO.,

Cor. Berkman St. and North Ave. 'Phone 218.

5 6 11 m-w-s

CHALFONTE

is a new Fireproof Building of the best type, located

ON THE BOARDWALK

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

BETWEEN THE PIERS

THE LEEDS COMPANY

Solicits your patronage and invites you to write for Illustrated Folder and Rates.

CHALFONTE IS ALWAYS OPEN

Rich Milk 8c a quart.
Rich Cream 12c half pt.
Buttermilk 6c a quart

Plainfield Milk & Cream Co,
MARCHANT BROS.,
112 WATCHUNG AVENUE

207 BROAD ST. ELIZABETH LOAN Co. 207 BROAD ST.

"Reliable Money Brokers"

IF IT'S A QUESTION OF DOLLARS.

We may be able to help you out. At any rate if you'll inform us of your needs, we'll try. The winter months just past have raised the expenses of the average householder to their highest point and many of us have been unable to meet all of our obligations as promptly as we would like to and consequently find ourselves in debt.

SUPPOSE we were to advance you sufficient funds to meet your obligations. Do you not think you would be more satisfied to have only one payment to look after on pay day?

There is no place where money will be advanced you more willingly or where you will receive more courteous treatment than from us. It's worth investigating.

The possession of household goods, horses and wagons is sufficient evidence of your ability to pay. Call, write or 'phone.

ELIZABETH LOAN COMPANY.
Room 24 Hersh Bldg. Telephone 778-R. Elizabeth, N. J.

FREE! CARR'S BALLS FREE!

With Each Copy of the
DECLARATION OF THE U. S. at 10c EACH.
Something Every Boy Ought to Know

W. H. OLMSTED, the Hustler
331 Watchung Avenue
BEST DELIVERY SERVICE IN THE CITY

R. W. BARNES.
217 PARK AVE. 'PHONE 344-L.
Fruits Vegetables and Groceries

Imported and Domestic Cheeses, Olives and Pickles in bottles or by measure, Boiled Corned Beef, Ham, Smoked Salmon, Fresh Cut Chipped Beef, Heinz's Stuffed Melons. Try Them.

PLAINFIELD OFFICE
EISELE & KING
Members of the New York and Philadelphia Stock Exchanges
In the Babcock Building, West Front St.
Private wires East and West. Ticker service. Orders executed as rapidly as in any New York office
W. De LaR. ANDERSON, Manager.

READY TO RENEW CYCLING SPORT.

Vailsburg's New Six-lap Track to Be Formally Opened Tomorrow.

Charles Anderson, the Swede, who is supposed to be the coming opponent for Frank Kramer in the sprints, arrived yesterday from Boston, with bag and baggage, and immediately went to the Vailsburg track to get in shape for the opening meet, which is to be held tomorrow. Iver Lawson is not to be at the track tomorrow. Lawson left town yesterday en route to Salt Lake City.

There are to be nineteen professional riders in the two events for the money-chasers tomorrow, and the amateurs will number about sixty. In the half-mile open Champion Kramer, Jimmy Moran, Walter Bardgett and Joe Fogler are said to be carded to appear in one of the heats. For the three-mile handicap it is expected that the scratch men will be Kramer and Moran. Joe Fogler and John Bedell will probably get about thirty yards, Walter Bardgett and Floyd Krebs sixty yards, Charles Anderson and George Wiley eighty yards, Saxon Williams and Eddie Root about one hundred yards, and the rest of the field will stretch out as far as two hundred and ten yards, which will be the limit mark.

In the five-mile race tomorrow the starters will be Bob Schulz, the local boy who used to ride in amateur races hereabouts, and who has gained a great name for himself as a steerer of the flying motors, and Derosier, Schulz will take Hoyt's place. The bleachers on the backstretch have been completed and the grandstand. The new stand which is being erected to take the place of the old bleachers will not be ready, however, until a week from tomorrow.

Dr. Roller After the Wrestlers.

Dr. B. F. Roller has posted $1,000 at Seattle to wrestle any man in the world.

SUSPECTS FOUL PLAY.

Man Who Died in Cell Insured by Stranger, Wife Says.

West Hoboken, May 9.—Mrs. Oscar C. Baumberger visited Coroner Robert Schlemm yesterday morning and demanded a rigid investigation of the circumstances surrounding the death of her husband in a police cell Thursday.

She asserts that her husband was insured for $1,500 in favor of Mrs. Henry G. Heine, to whom Baumberger had also signed a legacy for $7,500, left him by his father in Zurich, Switzerland. The wife, who has been fighting the assignment, caused Mrs. Heine to be summoned to the 121st street court, New York, last Monday, and the case was postponed for a week to enable Mrs. Heine to produce Baumberger, who, she claimed, had gone to New Jersey.

"My husband and I separated three years ago," Mrs. Baumberger said. "He went to room with Mrs. Heine, and I soon heard that she had him insured for $1,500. At this time my husband's father died in Switzerland and left him $7,500. He had been supported since then by Mrs. Heine and her husband, having signed over the legacy to the woman."

LOVE FOUND THE WAY.

So Mrs. Johnson Withdrew Her Charge of Desertion.

Hoboken, May 9.—After being separated for three months, during which time they did not see each other, Frederick Johnson and his wife Yette met yesterday morning on their way to Recorder McGovern's court, where the wife had made a complaint of desertion against her husband.

When Johnson saw his wife he was at her side in an instant, pouring into her ears words of love and promises of good behavior. They hugged each other, and when they reached court the charge was withdrawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weaver, of this city, who have been visiting relatives at Raritan, have returned home.

Jacob Huff, of Somerville, who recently underwent an operation at the hospital, is improving, and hopes to return home within a short time.

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 8 p. m.

108 North Avenue. Telephone 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S and Canada.

The Daily Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change the same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

Plainfield, N. J., May 9, 1908.

May 9 In History.

Zinzendorf.

1700—Nicholas Ludwig Zinzendorf, count, founder of Moravian Brethren, died; born 1700.

1766—Thomas Arthur Lally, baron of Tolendally (Ireland), French-Irish patriot and soldier, executed at Paris on false testimony; truth discovered and proceedings reversed in 1778.

1863—Stonewall Jackson died after being mortally wounded at the battle of Chancellorsville.

1905—One hundredth anniversary of the death of the poet Schiller celebrated in Europe and the United States.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

Sun sets 7, rises 4:44; moon sets 2:22 a. m.

Three of the four members of the Civil Service Commission are newspaper men. Thus Governor Fort follows the policy of President Roosevelt, who long ago realized the fact that men engaged in that business as a rule have a wider and deeper knowledge of public affairs than those whose general usefulness in politics is but to cast a vote on election day. The Governor's long political career has been such that all must give him credit for knowing a thing or two.

The warning sounded by this paper recently that the bonded indebtedness of the city is being piled up at too fast a clip did not fall upon deaf ears. We are glad to see that the Mayor has taken the same view for it cannot be denied that the big majority of taxpayers feel that unless a halt is called the burdens will become too heavy for them to bear.

It voices the correct consensus of opinion when the Westfield Standard says: Senator Ernest R. Ackerman's selection as a district delegate to the National Republican Convention, meets with the approval of the Republicans of this constituency, whom Senator Ackerman has served so efficiently and faithfully in the State Senate.

Doesn't look much like "hard times" when the box office receipts at the New Plainfield thatre last night broke all previous records. This is significant inasmuch as the history of that popular playhouse shows that the "S. R. O." sign is frequently displayed for the attractions from Broadway.

TO PROSECUTE ABDUCTOR.

Sixteen-year-old Dutch Girl Victim of Rich Hollander.

Hoboken, May 9.—Miss W. C. Schoer, 16 years old, sailed on the Rhyndam for her home in Apeldoon, Holland, to prosecute Pieter Vos, a wealthy young man of the same town, for abduction. The pair had been secretly carrying on a love affair. One day he suggested a trip to Amsterdam for sight-seeing, and she consented. He took her, however, to Bremen, drugged her in a restaurant, and she woke up on a steamship.

Arriving in this country he took her to Galveston, where he deserted her after a three weeks' stay.

Afraid to go home, she went to friends of her family in Grand Rapids, Mich., who wrote to her parents. By return mail her friends received word that Vos had returned to his home, and that the father of Miss Schoer had had him placed under arrest for abduction, and the daughter must return immediately to prosecute him.

Prudential Agent Pleads.

New Brunswick, May 9.—Philip Schumacher pleaded not guilty to embezzling $163.50 of the money of the Prudential Insurance Company in court here yesterday morning. He was an agent for the company. Trial was set for May 18.

Headquarters for

John Gibson's

RYE.

E. C. Westcott, Agent.

115 East Front Street.

HUGE PLANT OF S. O. AT LINDEN PROGRESSING

The Standard Oil Company has increased its holdings in Linden for its big plant by the purchase of one-eighth of a tract, containing seven acres, from Harriet C. and William E. Shotwell, of Denver, Col., for $1,000. The tract is bounded on the north by the property of the Mountain Copper Company, on the east by Morse's Creek, on the south by the lands of Swan, Finch & Company and on the west by the property of the J. T. Lord estate and others.

The work of building the various structures that are to make up the great refinery is being pushed with all possible vigor, and already a number of the receiving tanks for the storage of oil piped directly from the oil fields of the West have been completed.

The New Jersey Dock and Bridge Building Company is driving several thousand spiles to furnish the support for the foundation of one or two large buildings.

It was said yesterday that the purchase of the South Front street property of the Bayway Refining Company with a frontage of 400 feet on Staten Island Sound was planned for the purpose of giving the company a shipping point with a good depth of water.

The property purchased in Linden has ample water frontage, but before it will be available a bulkhead will have to be constructed and acres of marshy land lying inshore covered with filing so as to make it solid.

There is a depth of only seventeen feet of water at high tide along this part of the waterfront, between the bulkhead line and the new 300-foot channel recently cleared by the National Government, while a depth of thirty feet is available at the lands of the Bayway Refining Company, near the foot of Third avenue. This point is at a considerable distance from the Linden property, but there are spurs from the Central Railroad extending from the Linden location directly to the lands acquired from the Bayway company, which will greatly facilitate the transportation of oil products.

It is likely that the new front will be used until a bulkhead is built along the Linden property, south of Morse's Creek. Some effort has been made on behalf of the company to start an agitation in favor of having the Government dredge the channel in front of the Linden property to the bulkhead line. Thus far, however, this has borne little fruit.

HOMEOPATHS IN FAVOR OF LOCAL OPTION LAW.

Resolutions urging the Legislature at its next session to pass a local option bill were adopted yesterday at the annual meeting of the New Jersey Homeopathic Society in Princeton. This action was taken to refute the assertions of the liquor leaders before the legislative committee at Trenton in the recent session that the physicians favored the use of liquor.

Many papers were read at the two sessions of the society, the principal ones being on "Early Diagnosis of Pulmonary Tuberculosis by Means of X-Rays," by Dr. Lewis G. Cole, of New York, and "Medicine and Its Curative Powers in Tuberculosis," by Dr. George Laidlow, of New York. Dr. Cole illustrated his paper with stereopticon views to show the presence of the disease in the lungs long before the patient showed any outward sign of serious illness.

Dr. Ella Prentiss Upham, of Asbury Park, the retiring president, read an exhaustive treatise on "Women in Medicine," tracing their beneficient activity to before the Christian era.

These officers were elected: President, Dr. Charles S. Adams, of Hackensack; vice-presidents, Dr. Lee C. Griscom, of Camden; Dr. R. H. Wintsch, of Newark, and Dr. A. L. Atkinson, of Trenton; recording secretary, Dr. Alfred Drury, of Paterson; corresponding secretary, Dr. Charles F. Hadley, of Camden; treasurer, Dr. Hetrick, of Asbury Park; board of censors, Dr. B. H. Garrison, of Red Bank; Dr. C. C. Straughn, of Matawan; Dr. E. R. Richie, of Moorestown; Dr. Howard Ingard, of Glassboro, and A. Catharine Klein, of Jersey City.

Working For Civil Service.

Jersey City, May 9.—A local civil service league was formed in this city yesterday. Mayor H. O. Wittpenn was elected chairman. State Assessor Charles Henderson treasurer and Walter J. Connolly secretary. A committee on organization comprising twenty-five prominent citizens, was appointed. It is the purpose of this committee to arouse interest in the proposition and to urge the adoption of civil service by the Board of Aldermen and the County Board of Freeholders.

Ice-Breaker Sunk.

Ottawa, May 9.—Word has reached the Marine Department that the government icebreaker, Montcalm, was sunk near the docks at Quebec Thursday night after being rammed by the Canadian Pacific Railroad steamer, Milwaukee. No loss of life is reported. The Montcalm cost $250,00. Immediate steps will be taken to raise her.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

The Woodhull & Martin Store

Stirring News from the Men's Corner

Do you know we've got the greatest shirt stock in town. Well we have and you'll find better shirts offered here for the money than you can get elsewhere.

New Spring styles in fine madras, light and dark colors, attached and detached cuffs, extraordinary value 50c

Fine madras shirts with detached cuffs in neat checks and stripes, equal in every respect to regular $1.00 shirts 75c

Two of the best known makes in white and colored madras, closed and coat styles, attached and detached cuffs, in quality, fit and workmanship they are equal to any $1.50 shirt; our price for them is an even $1.00

Here's a genuine Sox bargain. 100 dozen of fine fast black lisle sox, in all sizes, the regular 25c kind; special, a pair 15c

Sale of Suspenders

The regular 50c kind for 29c.

The celebrated "Pioneer" make, a good quality, light weight web, with leather ends.

New Spring Neckwear in all the latest shapes and colorings; extra good values at 25c and 50c

Where do your socks wear out, is it the Toe or Heel? If so, you need the new kind made with the Interwoven Toe and Heel.

The peculiar construction of this hosiery makes it a wonder for wear. Don't fail to try a pair for 25c

A word about Hole Proof Sox.

HOLEPROOF SOCKS

are made of the finest yarns—an ideal combination—soft as silk to tender toes, but with a wearing quality like woven wire. Knit by a process that's unique and as near to perfection in sock making as mankind has reached.

They're different—distinctly different—decidedly better—their "betterness" lies not only in their durability—but in their appearance, fit and feeling as well.

They're antiseptic—soft and soothing to the feet—washing only cleanses them—they won't harden, shrink or fade.

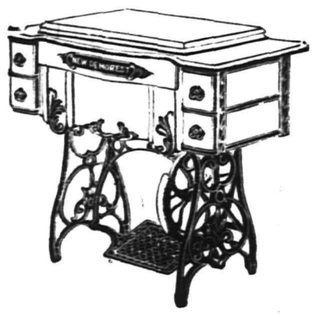
They are guaranteed for six months and sell for a box of six pairs $2.00

Umbrellas, 26 and 28 in. sizes, with paragon handles, steel rod and natural handles; a regular $1.00 umbrella for 79c

How About a New Suit Case?

Rattan Suit Cases, light weight, but strong and durable; leathered bound, two straps, brass lock, all firmly rivited; sizes 14 to 24 in., $2.25 to $4.75

A special 24 inch solid cow hide leather Suit Case, hand finished, linen lined, with shirt pocket; would sell readily for $7.50; special price $5.00



DEMOREST SEWING MACHINES

are equal, if not superior, to any machine on the market, yet we sell them for about half what the others charge.

"OUR CLUB PLAN SYSTEM" enables you to buy a machine at the regular low cash prices and pay for it on very easy terms. The machines sell for $19.50, $21.50, $22.50, $25.00 and $26.50. These prices include a full set of the very latest attachments and the machines are fully guaranteed for ten years. Come in and ask about the Club Plan.

The Woodhull & Martin Store.

SUNDAY IN THE CHURCHES

Baptist.

First—Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, pastor—10:30, preaching; 2:30, Sunday-school; 7:45, preaching.

Park Avenue—Rev. A. E. Finn, pastor—10:30, preaching; 2:45, Bible school; 7:45, preaching.

Faith Chapel—Rev. J. W. Musson, pastor—10:45, preaching; 2:45, Sunday-school; 3:00, Baraca Class; 7:00, Christian Endeavor; 7:45, preaching.

Mt. Olive—11:00, preaching; 3:30, Sunday-school; 7:45, preaching.

Calvary—Rev. G. W. Bailey, pastor—10:45, preaching; 3:30, Sunday-school; 7:45, preaching.

Colored Mission, corner Second Street and Central Avenue—11:00 a. m., preaching; 3:00, Sunday-school; 8:00, preaching.

Ebenezer, Filmore Avenue—Rev. David W. Cannon, pastor—11:00, preaching, 3:00, Sunday-school; 8:00, preaching.

Reformed.

Trinity—Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor-emeritus—10:30, preaching by Rev. E. P. Johnson, D. D., of New Brunswick, subject, "The Best Use of What We Have;" 2:30, Sunday-school; 6:45, Christian Endeavor meeting; 7:45, 27th anniversary of the Ladies' Christian Work Society. Address by Dr. Johnson, subject, "The Right Spirit."

German—Rev. C. H. Schneegas, pastor—10:45, preaching in German; 8:00, preaching in German.

Marconnier chapel—Rev. J. Tucker Lansdale, pastor—11:00, preaching; 3:00, Sunday-school; 7:45, preaching.

Presbyterian.

First Presbyterian—Rev. Charles E. Herring, Ph. D., pastor—10:00, Sunday-school; 11:00, preaching by Rev. A. W. Halsey, of New York; 7:45, preaching.

Crescent Avenue—Rev. Dr. John Sheridan Zelie, pastor—10:30, preaching; 7:45, preaching.

Hope chapel—Rev. L. R. Howard, pastor—10:30, preaching; 7:45, preaching.

Warren chapel—Rev. J. O. McKelvey, pastor—10:30, preaching; 2:30, Sunday-school; 8:00, preaching.

Bethel chapel—Rev. F. D. Tildon, pastor—Services 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

Episcopal.

Grace church—Rector, Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson—7:30, Holy Communion; 10:30, Holy Communion and sermon; 4:00, organ recital; 4:30, evensong.

Mission Church of the Heavenly Rest—Rev. Charles I. Townsend, rector—9:45, Sunday-school; 11:00, morning prayer and sermon; 8:00 a. m., celebration of the Holy Communion.

St. Stephen's—Rev. Arthur S. Peck, pastor—7:30, low celebration; 9:45, Sunday-school; 11:00, matins, litany and sermon; 7:45, evensong.

Holy Cross—Rector, Rev. George A. Warner—7:30 a. m., holy communion; 9:45 a. m., Sunday-school meets in parish house (the first Sunday of each month children's service in the church at 9:45 a. m., with morning prayer followed by Holy Communion service at 11:00 a. m.); 10:00 a. m., rector's Bible class for young men and women in the parish house; 11:00 a. m., morning prayer and sermon; 7:45 p. m., evensong and sermon.

Grace Church Colored Mission—Rev. J. H. Simons, curate—7:30 a. m., Holy Communion; 9:30, a. m., Sunday-school; 11:00 a. m., morning prayer and sermon; 8:00 p. m., evensong and sermon.

Methodist Episcopal.

First—Rev. A. C. McCrea, pastor—10:30, preaching by Rev. C. R. Barus, D. D., former pastor; 2:30, Sunday-school; 7:00, Epworth League; 7:45, preaching by Dr. Barus.

Monroe Avenue M. E.—Rev. Charles S. Kemble, pastor—11:00, preaching, subject, "A Crowning Grace of Christian Character;" new members will be received; 3:00, Sunday-school; 7:15, Epworth League; 8:00, preaching, subject, "A Universal Saviour."

Mt. Zion A. M. E.—Rev. J. T. Diggs, pastor—11:00, preaching; 3:00, Sunday-school; 8:00, preaching by pastor.

Grace M. E.—Rev. Orra J. Shoop, pastor—10:30, preachin, subject, "Loves Transformation;" 2:30, Sunday-school; 7:45, preaching, subject, "Burdens that Bring Greatest Joy to Life."

Roman Catholics.

St. Mary's—Rev. Bernard M. Bogan, rector—Masses, 6:30, 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 2:30; vespers at 3:30.

St. Joseph's—Rev. William H. Miller, rector—Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday-school at 3:00; benediction of the blessed sacrament at 3:30.

Congregational.

Congregational church — Rev. C. L. Goodrich, pastor—10:30, morning worship 11:55, Sunday-school; 7:30, special service. Scenes in Southern China, 80 colored views.

Swedish Evangelical Pilgrim church—Rev. Theodore Englund, pastor—10:30, Sunday-school; 4:00, Young People's meeting; 8:00, preaching.

Friends.

Meeting house, Watchung avenue and Third street—Meeting First-day at 11:00 a. m.

Unitarian.

All Souls'—Rev. A. C. Nickerson, pastor—10:30 preaching; 11:50, Sunday-school.

Lutheran.

German Lutheran—Swedish service, 8 p. m., preaching.

St. Peter's German Lutheran—Rev. J. Duerschner, pastor—Grove street—9:30, Catechetical Instruction; 10:30, preaching in German; 8:00, preaching in Swedish.

Christian Science.

Services 11 a. m., in room 323, Babcock building.

Disciples of Christ.

Christian Church—Rev. Phil A. Parsons, pastor—11:00, preaching and communion; 3:00, Sunday-school; 7:45, preaching.

Not Classified.

Gospel Mission, East Front street and Bank place—7:30 p. m.

Y. M. C. A.—4:00, men's meeting.

Salvation Army—11:00 and 3:00, services; 8:00, preaching.

West End Tabernacle—3:00, Sunday-school and Men's Barac Class; 8:00, preaching.

Plainfield Rescue Mission—In W. C. T. U. rooms—7:45, J. W. Gavett will conduct the service. Mrs. John Manley and son will sing.

W. C. T. U.—4:00 p. m.

AMUSEMENTS.

CONCERT

MISS MARY LANSING, Contralto.
MISS MAY DALAND, Pianist.
MR. HAROLD KENT, Baritone.
MR. J. FRANK RICE, Violinist.

PLAINFIELD CASINO

Tuesday, May 19, 08

CARDS ONE DOLLAR

On Sale at Armstrong's Pharmacy

5-6 7 9 11 12 14 16 18 19

Capital and surplus $250,000.00

THE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

of Plainfield.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS:

A. J. Brunson, President
J. A. Smith, Vice President
D. M. Runyon, Cashier

W. R. Coddington,
J. A. Hubbard,
C. Frank French,
B. F. Corlell,
P. J. Zeglio, M. D.
E. H. Bird.

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS DRAW FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

NOTICE!

Having engaged a competent cutter from New York, the business formerly conducted by Robt. Gardner at 325 Watchung avenue will be continued. The same high standard of workmanship will be maintained.

M. F. GARDNER.

546

Wanted for CASH

A comfortable house, modern and up-to-date, with about two acres. Conveniently located to station. $15,000 to $20,000.

CROSS & PLUM, Inc.,

573 Broad and Bank Sts., Newark, N. J

"Joy Cometh in the Morning"

But For Those Who

COME TO PECK'S

It Cometh in the Morning and Abideth All the Day Long.

HAMMOCKS

The well-known Vudor make, the best yet—strongest constructed, best cords and colors fast. We are agents for these well-known goods and furnish a good assortment at all times.

PORCH Screens

There is only one really good porch screen and that's the Vudor. No question about it. We have sold them for several years and with greatly increased demands each season. Simple in operation.

Vudor PORCH SHADES

Porch Chairs, Bamboo Screens, Net Doors and Screens, Refrigerators, Porch Rugs, Summer Furniture

in large variety of sizes, kinds, colors, and prices always the lowest for quality.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON,

BABCOCK BUILDING, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

LADIES' AND GENT'S SUITS

CLEANED AND PRESSED

G. O. KELLER,

'PHONE 857-J 125 PARK AVENUE

Why Have a Bank Account?

Because---

A Bank Account creates a desire to make it as large as possible, and it is wise for all to provide for the "RAINY DAY," which comes sooner or later.

Start an account today with us,

The Plainfield Savings Bank.

HOW ABOUT YOUR SUIT?

We are showing the finest line of

KIRSABAUM SUITS and TOPCOATS

in Brown, Olives, Grey and Blue. Can we not show you these even if you don't buy—the goods are good and prices right. All the new things in Shirts, Neckwear, Socks, Caps and Hats. We have put our Straw Tiles on exhibition.

CLOTHING MADE TO ORDER.

Werner's Clothing House,

206 WEST FRONT ST.

"HARD TIMES" DO NOT EFFECT THE SALE OF

"HAWES" $3.00 HATS

WHY?—BECAUSE THEY ARE GUARANTEED

JAS. R. BLAIR

USE PRESS WANT ADS

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Richard Harding Davis' comedy "In the Fog," will be given by the original Bound Brook cast in Friendship Hall, New Market, Tuesday night. The proceeds will be used for the piano fund of the New Market school. Tickets have already been placed on sale, and the seats are being disposed of rapidly. Miss Rita G. Ulrich, who headed the cast at the presentations in Bound Brook, will be in charge of the production.

A special meeting of the Dunellen Council will be held tonight to consider the matter of street sprinkling. At the last meeting, M. A. Callagher submitted a proposition for street sprinkling and this will probably be accepted at the meeting. Members of the Council have been finding out the tax payers' sentiment in regard to entering upon this contract.

A successful May dance was held in Jr. O. U. A. M. last night under the auspices of the Dunellen A. C. There were about fifty couples on the floor, and the dance card included several barn dances and a Paul Jones. The floor committee included Percy R. Abbott, William H. Giddes, Robert G. Malthie, Abner S. Coriell, George Rinehart and John Dineen.

The honor roll of the New Market High School for the past months includes the following names: Hazel Piddington, Edith Giles, Sarah Cole, Anna McCullough, Cora Smith, Edith Van Nuis, Sarah Dayton, Barbara Bieler, Ethel Schomp, Edwin Reusch, Emile Nelson and Leslie Randolph.

The announcement of teachers' salaries for next year shows an increase of $25 in the case of three of the instructors in the local school. The other salaries remain the same.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Weather permitting the local fans will be able to enjoy a game this afternoon, as the home team will play the Star A. C. team of Newark, on the home grounds.

A stage load of the members of the Methodist church and congregation attended the entertainment and social held last night at the Willow Grove chapel.

Rev. Mr. Atkinson will occupy the pulpit at both services tomorrow; morning preaching at 10:45, evening service at 8 o'clock.

Judgment for the full amount was rendered in Justice Clark's Court yesterday in the contract case of McNabb vs. Bowers.

The Rainer-Westcott nuptials will take place at 6 o'clock this afternoon at the Baptist church.

Miss Edith Gere has returned from a visit with her brother, Arthur Gere, at Greenville, N. J.

Rev. W. W. Dietrick will lead the prayer meeting tonight in the Methodist church.

Miss Susie Parse was the guest of Newark friends yesterday.

W. S. Harrison and family have removed to Plainfield.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

While no serious damage was done by the long storm this week, yet many parts of the village were strewn with limbs which had been torn off the trees and the waters of the Mill dam and the two private lakes on Lakeside avenue overflowed to such an extent that the roadway was almost impassible and the edges of it were washed away in many places. Nothing but the prompt action of Frank Kellogg, who got up in the middle of the night and opened the water gates prevented a serious flood and much damage to growing crops.

The Christian Endeavor meeting of the Baptit church will be led by Monroe Pyatt, the subject will be "Being a Christian in our Work and our Play." At the business meeting of the society held yesterday another associate member was added to the number. A committee was formed to purchase a new set of hymn books.

The topics of the Rev. C. W. F. Attlee's sermons will be, in the morning "Lord teach us to pray" and in the evening, "For God so loved the World." The communion of the Lord's Supper will be observed after the service in the morning.

Francis Manning of Irvington, Newark, is over here to stay a few days with her grandparents.

(Additional suburban news on page 2.)

Deposits Unclaimed.

The Bank Commissioners of Massachusetts are hunting high and low for George V. and Clara A. Seward, of Roselle, who some twenty years ago placed a sum of money in the North Easton (Mass.) Savings Bank. Today the accounts amount jointly to $1,680.70. The authorities of the State, as well as those where the money is on deposit, would like to hear from the depositors or some of the heirs. There is over one-half million dollars on unclaimed accounts in Massachusetts savings banks.

Receiver for Camden B. and L.

Trenton, May 9.—The Court of Errors and Appeals handed down a decision yesterday to the effect that a receiver must be appointed to wind up the affairs of the State Mutual Building and Loan Association, of Camden, which failed a year ago.

BEQUEST OF $15,000 IF HE CHANGES FAITH

The will of Miss Alice T. Booth, of New York city, filed at New Haven, Conn., yesterday, gives nearly her entire fortune of about $15,000 to the Rev. Henry Dawson of Canton, Ill., on condition that he become a Catholic. As he is married and has a family he cannot join the priesthood, but his tendencies are toward extreme high church, and many of his ecclesiastical friends here believe that he will comply with the provisions of the will.

He left the Congregational church to join the Episcopal body. He was graduated from Yale in the class of '94, which he led in scholarship during most of the course. Miss Booth is his cousin. She became a Catholic convert five years ago. For some time she had been a worker at the St. Rose settlement, 257 East Seventy-first St., New York, where she died of pneumonia last week. She was a Wellesley College graduate. Her will provides for a bequest of $500 for the settlement, $1,000 for the Rev. Father Paige of St. Jean Catholic church, for "The Blessed Sacrament Propagation of the Faith," and leaves the residue to the Rev. Mr. Dawson.

In case he declines to join the Catholic church the estate will go to his mother, Mrs. Sydney Dawson of New Haven. It is understood that the will will be contested by relatives of Miss Booth on the grounds of mental incompetency.

WIFE CHARGED WITH DESERTING CHILDREN.

Husband Appears Against Mrs. Guenther.

Charged by her husband with having turned her two small daughters, Matilda and Annie, out in the street, clad in rags and without food, Mrs. Wilhiminia Guenther, of Elizabeth was arraigned before Justice Mahon in police court in that place yesterday morning.

William Guenther, the complainant, owing to the fact that he could not leave his work, was unable to appear against his wife. She denied the charge, but the children insisted that the nature of their father's charge was correct.

Mrs. Guenther said that her husband had deserted her some time ago and that she thought that it was his duty to see that the children were provided for.

Justice Mahon suspended sentence, pending an examination into the details of the case.

Revoke Liquor License.

Ignoring a subpoena of the Board of Excise of Elizabeth, Robert Conlon, a saloonkeeper of 129 Elizabeth avenue, that city, failed to appear before that body yesterday afternoon to defend himself in a complaint charging him with violation of the screen clause of the bishop's law, and as a result the board revoked his license after the prosecution had duly presented its case.

Mrs. Hobart's Automobile Wrecked.

An automobile owned by Mrs. Garret A. Hobart, widow of Vice President Hobart, crashed through the Erie Railroad gate at the Van Houten street crossing in Paterson, last night and struck a westbound passenger train. John Haskell, the chauffeur, alone in the car, was hurled out on the tracks, but not seriously injured. The machine was badly damaged.

—Advertise in The Daily Press

Advertised Mail Matter.

E. H. BIRD, P. M
MAY 4, 1908.

Autn. Mrs Aaron	Hughes, C A
Aickman, Mr K D	Harrison, Rufus
Black, Mrs A M	Help, Mr And
Brown, Mrs Eliz	Hellwigg, Miss C S
Bowers, Miss Mary	Hopper, Mr G
Burdick, Mr R C	Haung, Mr C C
Bell, Mrs F J	Hansen, Hanna
Brown, Mr J H	Huntley, Mr F
Brandegee, Ed D	Hamilton, Miss M
Burns, Mrs Cath.	Joras, Estelle
Brown, Mrs E S	Jordon, Mr J
Brown, Mr F N	Kennedy, Miss M
Brown, Alice S	Leffersch, Mr L R
Burroughs, Mr H	Lindlesy, Miss F
Bulkley, Mr John	Lang, Mrs Eliz
Blazier, J H	Leary, Mr Mich
Burke, Mr B K	Merrick, Mrs L M
Cooper, Mr Harry	McHullen, Miss M
Cooper, Miss J E	Murray, Mrs.
Cleary, Mrs Frank	Mason, Miss Nancy
Calnay, Mr Wm	McLaughlin, Wm
Condon, Miss B	McGuire, Prop Hotel
Carven, Miss Gen	McLaughlin, Miss
Coles, Miss Jennie	Mgr. The Gay
Colucci, Mr P	Musicians
Clark, Mr G C	Musical Director
Daniels, Miss C B	The Gay Musicians
Driscoll, Mrs Alice	Moran, Miss Kath
Dawson, Mrs Hat.	Macartie, Miss G
De Forest, Mr J	Phelps, Mrs H B
Edgar, Miss Hat.	Penn, Mr Aug
Elliott, Miss Edith	Randolph, Eliz F
Fisher, Walter	9 Schenck, M V
Toorff, Mr Wm	Temple, Miss May
Taxwarthy, Mrs T	Traynor, Mrs Jno
Fauss, Jennie	Thomas, Mr W H
Granger, Miss J R	Vincent, Mrs C R
Getter, Mr C	Taft, Mrs H G
Gair, Mr Robt A	Vanderveer, Miss E
Gaddis, Mr A L	Watson, Miss M
Giddes, Mr & Mrs	Victor, Bag Co
Green, Mr Jas	Wilson, A L
Gabler, Mr G H	Williams Harry
Geargo, Miss Mar	White, Mrs Fan
Howard, Miss E M	Wellesley, Mrs C
Iale, Miss C E

(PLEASE SAY ADVERTISED.)

ASK FOR THE FISHER HOLDBACK

The old style holdback for blinds affords a roosting place for birds and causes ugly stains to disfigure the sides of the house under the blinds. Notice this carefully and then you will want to prevent. No bird can roost on this.

The FISHER HOLDBACK

Geo. H. Fisher, 224 MANSON PLACE PLAINFIELD.

1 16 th s tf

Fresh Vegetables

Asparagus, Wax Beans, Tomatoes,
Radishes, Beets, Lettuce,
Strawberries, Green Beans, Cucumbers.

Fruit

Oranges, Grape Fruit, Apples.
Malaga Grapes, Figs.

NEUMAN BROS.

GROCERS—Watchung Avenue and Fifth Street.

Efficient and rapid delivery service to all parts of the city.

MONO

Fireproof Storage Warehouse.

Separate Rooms, Fireproof Partitions. Clean, Dry, Secure.

Inspection Invited—Open 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

FURNITURE REMOVED WITH CARE.

Telephone 522-W. Opposite freight depot.

John S. Lewis

Successor to Lewis & Dilts

Artesian Well Contractors.

Wells drilled any place, size or depth.

Estimates cheerfully given

Box 173, Scotch Plains, N. J.

Press Want Ads. Pay

A. M. RUNYON & SON, UNDERTAKERS.

403 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York Office—50 Great Jones Street, Tel. call, 3345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1280.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 815.

T. A. MOORE.

UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.

Office—508 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 790
Residence—614 East 6th St. " 741-R
New York Office, 27 Great Jones St.
Telephone Call, 3249-Spring.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

Established 1872.

P. CASEY & SON.

UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS.

Office 116 Park Av., Tel. 884-w. Res., 417 W. 3d St., Tel. 903-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2094 Gramercy

GEO. W. COLE.

UNDERTAKER & EMBALMER.

200 West Second St. Telephone 153.

OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

Chas. L. Stanley,

159 East Front St. 'Phone 928.
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

L. L. MANNING & SON,

STEAM GRANITE WORKS.

Corner Central Avenue and West Front Street. Opposite First Baptist Church.

Classified Advertisements

Rates for advertisements under this heading one cent a word for first insertion, one half a cent a word for consecutive insertions of the same advertisement running for less than one month; one month, fifty cents a line (6 words to a line), double rate for advertisement set in capitals.

No advertisements received for less than ten cents.

Copy for death and marriage notices and classified advertising accepted up to 2:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS is not at liberty to give any information regarding advertisements that require an address in care of this office. Persons answering these ads. should mail or leave answers as stated in advertisements.

Help Wanted.

WANTED—First-class cook; also first-class laundress to go to Mountains for the summer; $30 each. Mrs. Reinhold, 222 New street. 5 8 3

WANTED—Man and wife to run a farm near New Market; man must be thoroughly competent farmer; woman must be thorough housekeeper. Apply W. E. Kastendike, New Market, N. J. 5 9 3

Help Wanted.

WANTED—A girl to do general housework. 418 West Sixth street. 5 9 3

WANTED—Girl (white) for housework. 166 Grove street. 5 9 3

WANTED—White cooks and general houseworkers; also colored waitress. Hall's Employment Agency, Station driveway.

WANTED—Locksmith and general repair man. Apply 120 West Front street. 5 8 3

WANTED—Four strong boys to work at plumbing and heating. Galbraith, 193 North avenue. 5 9 3

USEFUL white man wanted, must be sober, honest, understand horses, heaters, lawns and be handy with tools; good wages and free rent to the right man; references required. Address M. F. G., Press office. 5 9 3

Situations Wanted.

YOUNG man, 17 years old, would like position on farm. Call 322 Jackson avenue, City. 5 8 2

GOOD cook, English, wants position at once. Call Mrs. Keller's office, 22 Somerset place. 5 8 2

COLORED girl wants position to do general housework or work by the day. Call 327 West Front street. 5 8 3

CHAUFFEUR Japanese machinist, sober, honest, careful driver; two years' experience; any gasoline cars, wants position; private family; highest recommendation; moderate wages. Address F. B., care Press. 5 4 7

COMPETENT help constantly on hand; white and colored. Hall's Employment Agency (originally The Plainfield), station driveway; 'phone 322-J. 4 22 1m

WANTED—Place as waitress and chambermaid by Swedish girl. Call 842 West Fourth street. 5 7 3

SITUATION wanted, good boy, age 14, wants a place on a farm, $5 a month and board. Address Lawrence Charles, 214 West 114th street, New York city.

RESPECTABLE woman wants work by the day; good, all round. 150 North avenue, top floor.

WOMAN wants days work. Call 612 West Fourth street. 5 9 4

BOY of 16 wants situation on farm for board and $6 a month. Address Country, care Press. 5 7 3

LADY wishes laundry work or housecleaning by day. 626 West Fourth street. 5 7 3

YOUNG man, colored, wishes days work; lawn mowed and general housecleaning. Address G. S. H., 630 West Fourth street. 5 9 2

RESPECTABLE white woman wants any kind of work. 117 Liberty street.

COLORED woman wants work by the day. 635 West Third street. 5 5 5

Wanted—Miscellaneous.

WANTED—By woman, one large or two small rooms. Mrs. Burke, 94 Somerset street. 5 9 2

WANTED — Second-hand gas range; good condition. Address "Range," care Press. 5 9 3

WANTED—Horse on farm to work a little for its board; good home; best care. Address Home, care Press. 5 8 3

LAUNDRY work wanted by the day. 215 East Fourth street. 5 4 6

For Rent.

FLAT to let. Inquire 18 Craig place. 4 14 tf

FOR RENT—Apartment, four rooms, bath room, all improvements, steam heat; in fine condition; rent $18; location, corner Fifth street and Watchung avenue. Apply to A. M. Lederer, 117 West Front St. 4 23 tf

FOR RENT—New house just completed; seven rooms and bath; rent $21. Address O. I. C., Daily Press. 4 24 tf

TO LET—Eight room house, on West Fourth street, near Park avenue; all newly papered and painted; city water and gas. B. Mann, 120 West Fourth street. 4 28 tf

FOR RENT OR SALE—320 Somerset street, 12 rooms, city water, modern plumbing, electric lights, all improvements. Inquire 328 Somerset street, or Golding, 133 West 65th street, New York. 5 4 6

FOR RENT—Commodious offices in the Woodhull & Martin building suitable for lawyers, dentists, insurance companies, etc.; will arrange to suit tenant. 4 20 tf

THREE rooms to let. 732 West Third street. 4 6 tf

TO LET—Three-room flat. Inquire 39 Summit avenue. 5 4 6

FOR RENT—6 room house and barn. 37 Summit avenue, from 9 to 3. 5 8 3

TO LET—$9.00, house, city water. West End. U. B. Crane. 5 8 3

TO LET—Second floor, city water, $12.50. 183 Somerset street. Ernest T. Hand. 5 8 tf

FOR RENT—No. 26 Rockview avenue, 12 rooms and 2 baths; large beautiful grounds; large carriage house; immediate possession. No. 806 Third place, 10 room house; immediate possession. Furnished cottages to rent for summer from $50 month up. Edmund Rushmore, 209 North avenue, Plainfield; N. Y. office, 42 Broadway. 5 6 12

SEVEN-ROOM apartments to let; all improvements. 937 West Front street; also six-room house. 3 28 tf

HOUSE TO LET—6 rooms; also 4 rooms to let. J. Sachar, 731 West Third street. 5 7 6

TO LET—Six-room apartment, fine grounds, garden, fruit. Address North Plainfield, care Press. 5 9 2

TO LET—Two or three nice rooms, unfurnished, for light housekeeping; bath same floor; five minutes from station. 410 New street. 5 5 tf

NEW six-room house to let, 1219 West Third street; six-room house, 1424 Willever street, near Safe Works; two apartments, four rooms each, all improvements, or the whole house, 216 Prescott place. J. Sacher, 731 West Third St. 4 3 tf

NEW 7-room house, on Cameron avenue, for sale or to let; furnace, open plumbing, gas and city water. Inquire E. Beys, Cameron avenue. 5 4 1m

TO RENT—Second and third stories of 316 and 318 West Front street, 50x85 feet. Jos. W. Gavett. 4 3 tf

TO LET—9-room house, all improvements; 3 Verdon street. G. W. V. Moy. 3 13 tf

TO LET—4 rooms, upper floor, water. John Manley, insurance, 321 Park avenue. 3 17 tf

Poultry and Eggs.

CHICKS for sale; two weeks old. 9 Codington avenue. 5 8 6

EGGS FOR HATCHING—White Leghorn, White Plymouth Rocks, Buff Orpingtons and Pekin Ducks, from the best strains. Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, Tel. 451-J. 4 14 1m

SETTINGS of 13 from prize stock. Blk Minorca $1.50, Buff Orpington $3 White or Partridge Wyandotte $2. 100, $10; 50, $5. 234 West 2nd St. 4 3 tf

EGGS for setting, from Orpingtons, Black Leghorns, Indian Game, and India Runner Ducks, corner Grant and Sherman Aves. 3 25 tf

R. I. RED, Barred Plymouth Rock and White Leghorn eggs from the leading strains of the country; $1 per sitting, $5 per hundred. George Howard, Jr., South Bound Brook, N. J. 2 21 3m

Money to Loan.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite Depot. 12 28 tf

MONEY to loan on band and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 12 18 tf

LOANS negotiated. J. T. Vail. 1 14 tf

TO LOAN—Money on good mortgages. George F. Brown, 94 Somerset street. tf

Lost and Found.

FOUND—On Monday on Front street, near Park avenue, a Marabout boa. For particulars address E. S., care Daily Press.

LOST—Carrier pigeon, band No. Y-16070. Reward. 608 Madison avenue. 5 8 2

Miscellaneous.

COMPLETE line of automobile supplies and tires at lowest New York prices. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

AUTOMOBILES to hire at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co., telephone 991-J. 4 15 3m

A FIRST CLASS place to turn out horses to recruit, will have good attention; also storage for wagons. Address I., care Daily Press. 4 13 1m

FIRST-CLASS places and first-class help always on hand. Swedish Intelligence Office, 22 Somerset place, 'Phone 196-W. 8 22 tf

AUTOMOBILES repaired and overhauled by first class mechanics at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

THE EXCHANGE, 325 West Front street, telephone 901-R. Do you have furniture, carpets, etc., for sale? Do not fail to notify us; we pay 50 per cent. more than anybody else. 11 29 tf

GARBAGE removed regularly and reasonably. George Christensen, R. F. D. No. 1. 4 21 1m

CELLAR digging, grading in all its branches; house cleaning and whitewashing a specialty. 'Phone 862-J. Prompt service; competent help. Samuel M. Thornton, 544 West Third street. 5 8 6

IF YOU want your watch, clock or jewelry repaired take them to Brown, 124 Watchung Ave. 4 18 1m

FURNITURE stored and sold on commission. Martin Hansen, 316 and 318 West Front street. 5 5 1m

GRADING, LAWNS REMODELED, SOIL AND SOD FURNISHED; PLANTS AND SHRUBS PLANTED, ETC.; PROMPT, SATISFACTORY. J. M. WELSH, 754 KENSINGTON AVENUE. TEL. 148-J. 5 4 6

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S., graduate American Veterinary College, N. Y., pet animals a specialty. OFFICE WITH ALBERT HEDDEN, livery, 118 East Fourth street, telephone 114-J. 1 27 tf

PLAINFIELD 5 and 10c messenger and package delivery. Office, 150 North avenue.

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans, Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 4 tf

DAIRY butter for table, 27c; cooking, 23c. Address Dairy, Press office. 5 7 3

BABIES crochet sacques for sale; all prices; also ladies' knitted sweaters made to order. Mrs. Mayer, 54 Pearl street, North Plainfield. tf

ASHES and rubbish removed, city or borough. Good soil for sale. Geo. Miller, 518 West Fourth street. 5 7 3

CONTRACTS taken for care of lawns and gardens for the season. J. M. Welsh, 754 Kensington avenue. Tel. 148-J. 5 4 6

SOMETHING of interest to every dressmaker and every lady that works at dressmaking. Address B. P. C., care Press. 5 7 6

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer; sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

CESSPOOLS and vaults cleaned, odorless excavator; good work; lowest prices. T. M. Ingraham, Plainfield R. F. D. No. 1. 12 10 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

Real Estate Agents.

HOUSES, new, for sale or rent, all improvements, excellent location, East End. Inquire M. A. Rose, 301 Watchung avenue, 'Phone 273-J. 4 14 1m

HAVE clients for farms, houses, lots in Plainfield and vicinity; also all kinds of property for sale. Address Real Estate, care Press. 5 5 6

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent or exchange. Edmund Rushmore, 209 North avenue, telephone No. 49, Plainfield; 42 Broadway, New York. 10 10 tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield; telephone 44. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; properties that I have picked up in trade that I can sell you for less than market prices; if you want to buy or have anything to sell come and see me, J. V. E. Vanderhoef, 39 Prospect place, North Plainfield. 11 20 tf

REAL ESTAE for sale, rent and exchange at bargain figures, insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

FOR SALE—If you want to buy or sell real estate, please call, write or 'phone Ira L. LaRue, next to station, next to bargain. Office 'phone 752-R, residence 'phone 845-L. 12 19 tf

For Sale.

CADILLAC runabout, model K, 1906; top, curtains, extra tubes; elegant condition; $325. Getting larger car. Now at Morris Bros.' garage. 5 8 3

FOR SALE—Good business or family horse; also good surrey; cheap or exchange. George Belcher, depot. 5 8 2

FOR SALE—Buick touring car, fine shape; all new tires; 5 lamps, etc. $350 to quick buyer. Thompson, 413 Park avenue. 5 7 6

4-ROOM cottage; acre of land; $2,200. Wm. Bourgeois, Laramie road. 5 1 1m

FOR SALE, RENT OR EXCHANGE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; also country homes and farms at bargain prices. C. H. Snyder, 221 Park avenue, room 4. 4 18 1m

FINELY matched team of five-year-old bay mares, 15.3 hands high, sired by King Launcelot, half brother to Dare Devil; their dams were half sisters sired by a son of Chimes; never trained for speed but a fine prospect and a splendid road team now. Will be sold right. W. E. Kastendike, New Market, N. J. 5 8 2

FOR SALE—Bargain for quick buyer, Edison Home phonograph, with 150 records. Address Buyer, care Press. 5 8 4

GAS stove, second-hand; in good condition, wanted. C. W. K., care of Daily Press. 5 9 2

PRIVATE family leaving city have placed in my hands to sell the following: Very pretty black horse, suitable for private family, very gentle and well broke, afraid of nothing, will sell reasonable to get good home; one bay chunk, extra fine looker, suitable for baker, grocer or any delivery or light express; one sorrel horse, suitable for surrey or light delivery; one brown work horse; one big young horse, little sore, suitable for farmer or slow work. The above horses range in price from $40 to $140. One pretty pony, basket cart, new set harness, been driven by children, full pony outfit for $125, cost $300; one new runabout rubber tire, $75; one surrey rubber tires, $55. The above horses can be seen all next week. Also automobile, seat five. No dealers need apply. Baker's blacksmith shop, 29 West Grand street, near Broad street, Elizabeth, N. J. 5 8 2

STANHOPE carriage in fine condition; has been used little; good for pleasure or for doctor's carriage. Address Stanhope, care Daily Press. 5 4 6

AUTOMOBILE house for sale at a bargain. Address J. M., care press. 5 4 6

FOR SALE—Small pony, cart and harness; very pretty and gentle. Address J. H. Campbell, 205 Park avenue, City. 5 5 5

FOR SALE—Automobile runabout, cost $950; price $225; in fine condition. Address A. R., Daily Press. 5 5 tf

1905 2-Cylinder Elmore touring car; fine shape; 5 lamps, etc. $275. Thompson, 413 Park avenue. 5 7 6

SACRIFICE—Fine business building for sale in the heart of city. Address Sacrifice, care Daily Press. 5 7 3

BARGAIN in lots for cash in Highland Park. Inquire at 303 Leland avenue. 5 8 6

FOR SALE—The finest lot in Plainfield, on which to build a row of apartment houses. Chas. L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building, Plainfield, N. J. 2 21 tf

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

Rooms and Board.

GOOD accommodations; low rates. Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

TWO fine rooms and board; also table boarders. Mrs. Detweilers, 514 Madison avenue. 5 7 6

FEW boarders wanted. Mrs. M. Fosbre, 659 Essex street. 5 1 12

TO LET—Newly furnished room in select apartment; centre of town; all improvements. A. C., care Press. 5 4 6

LARGE front room with or without board. 137 East Fifth street. 5 9 6

WATCHUNG AVE., 724, near 7th St., desirable rooms with first class board. 4 13 1m

GENTLEMAN desires board and good room near bath with quiet private family until November 1; if comfortable, perhaps permanent; west side preferred; references exchanged. Please give full particulars and terms. Address "Comfort," P. O. Box 1511, New York.

TWO communicating rooms with board; sunny exposure; bath adjoining; first class neighborhood; excellent table. 132-134 Crescent avenue. 9 19 tf

Real Estate for Exchange.

FINE new house, centrally located; 10 rooms, all improvements; gas and electric light, hot water heating, parquet floors; would exchange for moderate priced lots. J. T. Vail, 177 North Ave. 4 14 tf

AMUSEMENTS.

The program offered the patrons of Proctor's Newark theatre during week commencing May 11th will be the initial appearance in Newark of England's daintiest singing soubrette Lily Lena, whose success since her arrival in America some three months ago is almost unprecented. Without doubt the acme of animal training will be reached when Louigi Rossi's wonderful horse "Emir" displays his almost human intelligence. May Tully and her clever company will appear in Mathew White's great sketch "Stop, Look and Listen." Swor Brothers, two clever blackface comedians and dancers will appear. Redford and Winchester in their laughable juggling act will help further merriment as will Chas. and Fanny Van who will be seen in an amusing skit enlivened by lively singing and dancing. Chinese Johnny Williams and Company present a novelty in the way of burlesque on magic. Animated pictures complete the bill.

WORLD'S GREATSST CIRCUS.

Ringling Brothers Exhibition in Plainfield on Saturday, May 23.

giving performances afternoon and evening. No circus has ever reached the public heart like it. Arenic ideas that whet curiosity and arouse stirring comment usually originate with this famous show, and whenever copied by others, never create the same interest or sensation. The reason for this is not far to seek. Ringling Brothers, by their leading position in the circus world and enormous resources command the best feats and features offering in the markets of the world. Everything startingly novel in arenic invention is first introduced to the American public by them, and the varying acts are always interpreted by performers of greatest renown and skill. Each season presents a program of surprising freshness and enjoyment. The myriad ring acts move with the speed of perfect system, and the whole bewildering bill is finished without the slightest tinge of unrest.

Circus day will begin with a gorgeous street parade, leaving the grounds at 10 o'clock. Ringling Brothers will open a down town ticket office show day, and charge the same prices as at the ticket wagons on the circus grounds.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, pastor, will preach both morning and evening at the First Baptist church tomorrow.

Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring of the First Presbyterian church, will deliver another discourse in the series on "The Apostles Creed," at the church tomorrow night. This will be the sixth sermon.

The Men's Club of the First Baptist church will hold its last meeting for the season on Monday night, May 18, which will be in the nature of a banquet. Several interesting speakers will be secured for the occasion.

ATTENDANT AT ASYLUM ACCUSED OF BRUTALITY.

Trenton, May 9.—Charged with beating an insane inmate of the State Hospital for the Insane here, James E. Hunt, an attendant, was arrested by County Detective Kirkman yesterday morning, on complaint of Dr. Henry A. Coton, medical director of the Institution. Hunt was taken before Justice of the Peace Mills and committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

The inmate refused to move fast enough for Hunt Wednesday night, and it is alleged that the attendant struck him in the eye. The assault was witnessed by another inmate and was reported to Dr. Cotton. This is the second attendant arrested within the past few weeks for beating patients, and it is in line with the new policy being pursued at the institution, that of not allowing the attendants to be brutal toward the inmates.

Hunt has been an attendant for two months, and before going there was at the Ward Island Asylum.

ADRIFT IN DISABLED LAUNCH.

Three New Brunswick Men Rescued by Tug When Their Boat Was Drifting Seaward.

Stapleton, Staten Island, May 9.—Three residents of New Brunswick, John and William Schmidt, brothers, and Charles Schroeder, were rescued yesterday morning while being carried out to sea near Sandy Hook in a disabled launch, by Capt. L. D. Potter, of the tugboat Reliance, and later in the day landed here. Two of the men were in a semi-conscious condition from the exposure when rescued.

The men put out in their naphtha launch from Shad Creek, Long Island, Wednesday at midnight, intending to return to New Brunswick. Everything went well until they reached the lower bay, when the continual pounding of the heavy sea put their engine out of gear. The boat was being carried rapidly oceanward when Captain Potter sighted the helpless craft. At the time the Reliance was en route from Fire Island to Manhattan.

Austria's Iron Mountain.

The Erzberg, Austria's iron mountain, will furnish ore for 1,000 more years.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

RHEUMATISM,

blood and kidney ailments are positively relieved by

Wouter's Wonder Worker

The great rheumatic blood and kidney medicine. It has cured thousands. It will cure you.

50c at all d ug stores.

MEAT

Our Refrigerators are filled with Fancy Philadelphia Broilers, Roasting and Fricaseeing Chickens, Jumbo Squab. Hunterdon County Spring Lamb, Tender, Juicy Roasts and Steaks from Native Beeves.

Milk Fed Veal

Jersey Pork

Delicious Sugar-Cured Hams & Bacon Home made Sausage. All Yours to Command at

The ENDRESS CO.

131-135 West Front Street. 'Phone 690.

Satisfaction assured as there is nothing finer produced. Orders called for and promptly delivered.

Vail JEWELER AND OPTICIAN

103 Park Ave.,

calls your attention to his

Rimless Glasses.

They Look Good and You See Good.

AFTER 33 YEARS experience millions of users of L. & M. PAINTS, Claim:—First, it wears 10 to 15 years—Second, it only costs $1.20 a gallon—Third, its the best they have ever used—Fourth, sixteen thousand agents certify to these facts.

Woolston & Buckle, Plainfield; H. C. Meyer, Scotch Plains; P. W. Brakely, Dunellen,

L. & M. Paint Agents.

EDUCATIONAL.

JOSEPH Mc INTYRE,

Pianist, Coach, Accompanist

TEACHER OF PIANO and SINGING

New York Studio, 30 E. 23rd Street, Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Plainfield, Residence and Studio, Telephone 386-J 1308 Watchung Avenue

1 9 6mos

ATTEND DRAKE BUSINESS COLLEGE PLAINFIELD

For thorough training in English, Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Penmanship, Commercial Law and correlative branches. The school that does not PROMISE to ASSIST graduates to positions, but that guarantees absolutely to PLACE them, and does it. 11 25 tf

Plainfield Business College

WOODHULL & MARTIN BUILDING.

SCHOOL OF ENGLISH.

A school well equipped for doing high grade work.

Investigate this school—it pays. 1½ hours devoted to English every day. Day and Evening sessions all the year. Capacity 400 students.

A. S. HERR, Prin. and Prop.

CHAS. M. SUHR,

TEACHER OF PIANO.

614 E. 6th Street, Tel. 741-W

REAL ESTATE

RENTALS—REAL ESTATE

Geo. F. Brown,

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE.

Commissioner of Deeds—Rents.

94 Somerset St. 'Phone 166.

STATIONERY AND TOYS.

HARPER,

411 PARK AVENUE.

DRUGGISTS.

MOTH BALLS

Will save you your money over what might happen to your clothes.

They will insure your clothes being preserved thru the summer and will enable you to have them fresh and whole in the fall. Now is the time to buy MOTH BALLS.

C. M. Nagle's Pharmacy,

Front and Grove Sts. 'Phone 516.

Complete Line of

REXALL

Goods at

MILLER'S PHARMACY

Park Ave. & 4th St. Tel. 208.

Hodge's Pharmacy.

Y. M. C. A. Building.

BELLE MEAD SWEETS.

Tel. 62.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF

EAST FRONT STREET

HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.

Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Rroom.

HOTEL KENSINGTON

(Licensed.)

WM. J. POULSON, Prop.

107-109-111 North Avenue.

Everything New and Up-to-date

An Inspection Solicited.

HOTEL IROQUOIS

Club breakfast from 6:30 to 10:30 a. m. Business Men's Lunch from 11:30 to 2:30 p. m.

ROOMS

First floor, $1 single; $1.50 double.

Second floor, 75c single; $1 double.

Third floor, 50c single; 75c double.

A LA CARTE 6:30 UNTIL 1 A. M.

Special, Sunday, Dinner from 12:30 to 2:30 p. m. 50c

Strawberries

Every day we are receiving shipments of Fine Fresh Strawberries which are carefully selected as to quality and variety.

We also have a good assortment of California Oranges, Figs, Dates, etc., at reasonable prices.

All orders promptly delivered.

W. W. DUNN,

THE PARK GROCER,

DUER STREET AND LINCOLN PLACE.

STOP AT

Central R. R. News Stands

for PLAINFIELD PRESS, always on sale. Daily and Sunday papers delivered, all magazines, weekly papers, novelties, back numbers a specialty. R. R. guides, automobile road and state maps, Phila. papers. Fine brand of Cigars and tobacco. Open Sundays.

F. M. WAGNER, Manager.

Lumber Bargain!

The largest quantity of lumber in Plainfield can be found in my yard.

Large and Small Timbers.

Cut prices on new lumber for one week more.

A. KANE

YARD, 312 Filmore Ave.

Telephone 522-J.

McCULLOUGH'S STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner place, North Plainfield, N. J.

R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.

Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.

Estimates cheerfully furnished.

HENRY WIERENGA

Residence 'Phone 517-J.

Furniture, Freight, Baggage Express and Rigger.

PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

Try a box of

DOBBINS' CIGARS.

Clear Havana Nickle Yara or any kind that you desire. Manufactured at 120 North Avenue, opposite Kensington Hotel, Plainfield, N. J.

Kindling and Grate Wood.

Cedar Posts and Bean Poles. Prompt deliveries. Orders received at

69 SOMERSET STREET.

JOHN MOBUS,

P. O. Box 220.

Mountain House,

Mt. Bethel, N. J.

FRENCH RESTAURANT

Resort for Automobiles and Driving Parties

A. E. BINZ, Prop.

SMALLEY BROS.

147 North Ave.

BUTCHERS

Our Specialty, Berkshire Pork. Try Our Berkshire Sausage Made on Premises.

Roasting and Broiling Chickens a Specialty.

Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 83-A. 5 1 tf

The Southern Restaurant,

232 West Second Street, corner Madison Avenue, now under new management. Meals served at all hours a la carte and table d'hote. Our own make bread and pastrys, all home cooking. The choice of everything is bought for the tables. Our price is reasonable. The place is now under the management of the well known New York caterer. T. H. Royster, Manager. Tel. 923-J. 1 18 tf

J. C. POPE & CO.,

INSURANCE AGENTS,

110 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

A. H. ENANDER,

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.

Contractor for Sewer Connections.

125 Watchung Av. Rear.

L. Moraller & Son,

Watchmakers and Jewelers.

Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.

Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.

219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

JOHN WINZENREID,

Furniture and Freight Express.

Moving Vans and Storage.

312 Lee Place. 'Phone 840-R.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.

Renovating—Offices, stores and private residences. Service day or night. Furniture, china and glassware packed for shipping.

WM. A. KLINE, 611 W. 3d St.

Geo. H. Stagaard,

SHOEMAKER

108—CHURCH STREET—110

Repair work called for and delivered

'PHONE 1062-W.

TITUS H. LAURY

MASON AND BUILDER.

Office, 323 East Front Street.

Tile Setting, Mantel and Front Work.

Telephone 464-L.

TURKISH BATHS!

TAKE ONE

Ladies Mornings, Gentlemen Afternoons

Take Trolley to Sanitarium, Somerset Street.

Cleaning, Pressing and Dyeing.

Monthly Contracts.

Pressing called for and delivered.

EVENING DRESSES A SPECIALTY.

Ladies' Waists Cleaned, 25 cents upwards

Gents' Suits Cleaned $1.50

We do our own work at

M. A. Brown's, 218 West Second St.

William H. Pope,

ELECTRICIAN.

All kinds of electrical work done at reasonable prices.

116 NORTH AVENUE.

Rouse & Fullagar,

CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS,

117 Plainfield Avenue.

Estimates cheerfully given.

Jobbing promptly attended to.

ALEX. LUSARDI,

Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.

211 W. Front St. Tel. 507-W.

Meat Market.

Choice Meats, Poultry, Fish and Oysters always on hand. Sugar cured Corned Beef. International Hams and Bacon.

F. Neidig, 94 Somerset St.

Telephone 781

E. B. Maynard's

Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a specialty.

Tel. No. 754-R.

141 NORTH AVENUE.

JOHN WIRTH

(Successor to Henry Liefke.)

Bakery and Confectionery.

201-203 West Front St. Tel. No. 728.

All orders delivered at short notice.

HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS

Silver trunks safely delivered to safety deposit vaults.

Furniture Moving Van and Baggage Delivery.

OFFICE 205 PARK AVENUE

Tel. 833-W. Residence Tel. 648-L

REAL ESTATE

Bought, Sold and For Rent.

J. SACHAR,

731 WEST THIRD STREET.

COAL DEALERS.

Difference In Coal.

All coals may look alike to some people, but compare our "Lehigh" Coal with the Coal you bought somewhere else and you will see a difference.

You will notice that our Coal Burns Brighter, Gives More Heat, and Lasts Longer than any other Coal you ever bought before.

Boice, Runyon & Co.,

Coal, Lumber and Masons' Materials.

Park Ave., opp. North Ave., Plainfield N. J.

JOS. HARRIGAN

OLD COMPANY'S LEHIGH COAL.

Tel. 198 929 South Ave.

The best time to order your winter supply of

COAL

is now. Do not forget that

NASH

is ready to supply you.

Telephones 357-W 833-J.

Evenings 371-W.

OFFICE—130 WATCHUNG AVENUE

TenEyck & Harris,

Dealers' Inn.

LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.

Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 218 West Front Street. Telephone 23-L.

Coal I have on hand some very fine Hard and Medium Coal. All kept under sheds. Pea Coal. Coal

25 cents a ton reduction on cash orders.

L. A. RHEAUME,

148 East Fourth St. Telephone 440-W.

Yard, 674 South Second St. Telephone 230.

GEORGE O. STEVENS

747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE

(Successor to C. H. Rugg & Co.)

Best Quality Lehigh Coal

Yard and office 430 West Third St. Tel. 93.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

We call your attention to our fine display of

New Wall Papers.

We can't describe the patterns, but they are new, striking and effective, and with our large assortment we are sure to please.

Paints, Oils and Varnishes.

Woolston & Buckle,

145 North Avenue.

STRIKING COLORS

should not be sought in preference to those that have good lasting qualities, but when

PAINTS

are to be had which are both brilliant and durable, take care to secure that kind.

We have all kinds and grades of Paints, Oils, Colors and Varnishes, suitable for all kinds of work at the lowest prices to be found in this city.

Jas. C. Hansen,

Dealer in Wallpapers, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc

141 East Front Street

Estimates Furnished

1908 Wall Papers.

IMPORTED & AMERICAN GOODS.

C. CONOVER & CO.

Decorators, Painters and Paperhangers, Window and Plate Glass.

115 Elmwood Pl. Tel. 1145

W. S. CHEEVER

1326 Park Ave.

Painting and INTERIOR DECORATING, WALL PAPER of every description at the Lowest Prices.

'Phone No. 538-J.

FOR A

CLEAN SHAVE AND GOOD HAIR CUT

TRY THE

Burns' Tonsorial Parlors

Shoes Polished FREE with Every Shave. Special Attention to Children's Hair.

212 WATCHUNG AVENUE

AZIENZA

cures pimples and all inflammation of the skin. Used by people of refinement. Medicinal and toilet—25 and 50 cents.

CREAM.

ATLANTIC CITY.

AMERICAN PLAN. EUROPEAN PLAN

HOTEL WINDSOR

ATLANTIC CITY

G. JASON WATERS

SEND FOR BOOKLET

GOLF GARAGE CAFE ORCHESTRA

ON THE BOARD WALK!

PUBLIC NOTICE.

Public Notice is hereby given that the following ordinance of the Board of Health of the City of Plainfield, on this the 5th day of May, 1908, passed its third reading and was finally adopted.

AN ORDINANCE

To Amend an Ordinance Entitled "An Ordinance Establishing a Sanitary Code for the City of Plainfield," Adopted December 18, 1902.

The Board of Health of the City of Plainfield, by virtue of the provisions of the act of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, entitled "An Act to Establish in this State Boards of Health and a Bureau of Vital Statistics, and to define their respective powers and duties," approved March 31, 1887, the several supplements and amendments thereto, and of other acts, doth hereby ordain as follows:

Section 1. That Article No. 4 of the Ordinance to which this is an amendment be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

ARTICLE NO. 4.

Garbage, Offal and Dead Animals.

Section 1. No person or persons shall collect or convey through the streets of the City of Plainfield, any garbage, swill, offal or dead animals, without first obtaining a permit so to do from the Board of Health.

Section 2. All applications for permits to collect or remove garbage, swill, offal or dead animals shall be made in writing addressed to the Board of Health, and shall state the number and kind of wagons or other vehicles to be used in such collection or removal, the disposition to be made of the material collected or removed and such other information as the Board of Health may from time to time require.

Section 3. Each permit to be granted under the provisions of this article shall expire on the first day of May next, following the granting of the same; provided that if any person so granted a permit as aforesaid or any of the employes, servants or agents shall violate any ordinance or rule of the Board of Health relating to the collection or removal of garbage, swill, offal or dead animals, such permit may at the discretion of the Board of Health be revoked.

Section 4. No permit as required in the three sections next preceding shall be issued until there shall have been paid, to the said Board of Health for such permit the sum of three (3) dollars.

Section 5. Every person who shall collect, remove or convey through or along any street within this city, any garbage, swill or offal, shall use a water-tight metal or metal lined wagon with metal or metal lined covers, or water-tight metal cans provided with tightly fitting metal covers. Said wagons or cans must at all times, while in the city, except when being loaded or unloaded, be tightly covered. Every wagon or vehicle used in the business of the collection or removal of garbage, swill, offal or dead animals, shall have permanently painted on both sides thereof the name of the person using the same and holding a permit under this article, and the number of his permit.

Section 6. During the months from April to November, both inclusive, no person shall collect garbage in the districts bounded by Watchung Avenue, East Fourth Street, West Fourth Street, Arlington Avenue, West Third Street, Central Avenue, Grove Street and Green Brook, between nine o'clock in the morning and eleven o'clock at night following, without the special written consent of the Board of Health. During the months from December to March, both inclusive, no person shall collect garbage in the above mentioned district between eleven o'clock in the morning and eleven o'clock at night following, without the special written consent of the Board of Health.

Section 7. No wagon or vehicle used for the collection or removal of garbage, swill, offal or dead animals, shall stand in the streets or other public places within the limits of the City of Plainfield, at any time, except while being loaded or unloaded.

Section 8. Every householder shall have all garbage, swill or offal removed from their premises as often as once a week between November first and April first following, and not less than twice a week from April first to November first.

Section 9. All garbage which shall accumulate in the City of Plainfield, or which is stored, kept or retained therein, shall be kept in water-tight iron or steel receptacles provided with tightly fitting covers. Said receptacles shall be kept clean and no water shall be allowed to enter therein except for the purpose of cleaning.

Section 10. No ashes or rubbish shall be placed in the same receptacle containing garbage, swill or offal.

Section 11. Garbage, swill, offal or dead animals collected or removed under the provisions of this article shall not be allowed to remain, or be disposed of, within the limits of the City of Plainfield, except by the special written consent of the Board of Health.

B. VAN D. HEDGES, M. D., President.

Attest:
T. S. DAVIS, M. D., Secretary.

5 9 2 oaws

ESTATE OF Frank Anderson, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, administratrix of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the seventh day of May, 1908, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

LOUISA GEIER, Administratrix.

Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., Proctor.

5 9 9 oaws

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT—Notice is hereby given, that the account of the subscribers, executors of Mary E. Forman, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphans' Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the tenth day of June next.

Dated May 7, 1908.

LILLIAN FORD FEICKERT,
EDWARD FOSTER FEICKERT.

Reed & Coddington, Proctors.

5 9 5 oaws

Press Want Ads. Pay

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Even figures are of sum account.

The family tree of an elephant is mostly trunk.

Men do a lot of moralizing, but women are more moral.

When a man bottles up his wrath there's trouble brewing.

No woman is satisfied until she is able to shop in an automobile.

A woman hasn't much faith in another woman who keeps secrets.

We can't help feeling sorry for the self-made man who boasts of his handiwork.

The patriotism of too many men extends only as far as their interest in politics.

None but the brave deserve the fair and none but the brave would tackle the fare dished up by some of the fair.—Chicago Daily News.

The Lion's Face.

"No one can look into the face of the king of beasts," says an animal trainer, "without receiving a more or less conscious uplift. His face is the absolute embodiment of strength, determination, power and fearlessness. He is the only king on earth that looks the part. There are lines of majesty and of power in repose in his countenance not found elsewhere except in the sphinx and in the somewhat idealized portraits of Washington."

Strawberry Shortcake.

Dew of dawn on hills of dream—
Beaten egg and lots of cream!
Breath of bloom from vales of sweet
Taste the flavor while you eat!
Layers of snow and bars of gold
In between them, crushed or rolled,
Berries from the vines that run
To the reddening of the sun!
Gods, upon Olympus' height,
Cross your hands and take a bite.

—Baltimore Sun

The Kingbird.

The kingbird owes his name to the fact that he is the one small bird who ventures to attack the marauding crow and that he always comes off victorious. Rising above his foe, he drops upon his back, attacking him with beak and claws until the unlucky intruder makes off in ludicrous consternation.

Banana Skin Soap.

Banana skins are utilized in soap-making on the west coast of Africa. The skins are rich in alkali, so they are burned to an ash, and this mixed with water and palm oil goes to make a cleanser which is in demand among the whites as well as the natives.

The Lady's Maid's Maid.

Mrs. Jenks—I'm surprised to find you looking for a servant. I thought you engaged one yesterday.

Mrs. Richley—Oh! she's a lady's maid; she waits on me. I'm looking for one to wait on her.—Catholic Standard and Times.

One Advantage.

"I'm glad I'm not like man," remarked
The oyster with a snicker,
"I simply can't get in a broil
As long as I am in liquor!"

—Philadelphia Press.

Chicago to Hongkong.

From Chicago, the distance to Hongkong is, vi New York and Suez, 12,522 miles; via San Francisco, 8,365 miles; via New Orleans and Panama, 11,742 miles, and via Tehauntepec, 10,229 miles.

Obsolete Furniture.

Small is the flat. One scarce can turn about.
To wish we now begin
That we could move the radiator out
And put an ice chest in.

—Washington Star.

Anasthetics.

Anasthetics were known in the days of Homer, and the Chinese 2,000 years ago had a preparation of hemp known as "una yo" to deaden pain, something similar to our modern cocaine.

Pygmy Camels.

The western part of Persia is inhabited by a species of camels which are the pygmies of their kind. They are snow white and are on that account almost worshipped by the people.

The Mirror and Death.

Covering the mirror when there is death in the family originated in the superstition that goblins, sprites, elves or other uncanny creatures would crowd to the glass to look on.

Feline Fishers.

The ancient Egyptians used to fish with cats on the Nile. The animals were trained to enter the water and seize the fish, which were then taken away by the fishermen.

Expectancy.

Dis life wif happiness seems bright
While you kin hope an' wish;
De mo' you never gits a bite,
De mo' you wants to fish!

—Washington Star.

Densely Populated.

The population of the world could be contained in Delaware if it was as congested as the people in eleven New York city blocks, at the rate of 1200 per acre.

The Simplon Pass.

The road constructed by Napoleon over the Simplon pass has 264 bridges and rises to a height of 6,560 feet.

An Oily Nose.

A red, oily nose should be bathed with borax water and afterward anointed with camphor water.

Iron and Oxygen.

Pure iron in the presence of pure oxygen does not rust.

MR. PRATT

A Tale of the Cape Cod Fisher Folk

By

Joseph C. Lincoln

Author of "Cap'n Eri," "Partners of the Tide," Etc.

Illustrations by T. D. Melvill

Copyright, 1907, A. S. Barnes & Company.

CHAPTER IV.

The Pig Race.

I don't cal'late that I ever had a better run down the bay than I done that morning. 'Twas a fair wind, and a smooth sea, not the slick, greasy kind, but with little blue waves chasing each other and going "Spat! spat!" under the Dora Bassett's quarter as she danced over 'em. And that's just what she did—dance. There wa'n't any hog-wallowing for her; she just picked up her skirts, so to speak, and tripped along—towing the little landing skiff astern of her—like a 16-year-old girl going to a surprise party.

An early July morning on the bay down our way is good enough for yours truly, Solomon Pratt. Take it with the wind and water like I've said; with the salt smell from the marshes drifting out from the shore, mixed up with the smell of the pitch-pines on the bluffs, and me in the stern of a good boat with the tiller in my hand and a pipe in my face—well, all right! That's my natural life; and I don't need no book to tell me so, neither.

The Heavenlies enjoyed it, and they'd ought to. 'Twas clear then, though it got hazy over to the east'ard later on. But then, as I say, 'twas clear, and you could see the schooners strung out on the skyline, some full up, with their sails shining white in the sun, and others down over the edge, with only their tops'ls showing. Far off, but dead ahead, just as if somebody had dipped their finger in the bluing bottle and smouched it along the bottom of the sky, was the Wapatomac shore, and away aft, right over the stern, was the Trumet lighthouse, like a white chalk mark on a yellow fence, the fence being the high sand bank behind it.

The Twins laid back and soaked in the scenery. They unbuttoned their jackets and took long breaths. They actually forgot to smoke, which was a sort of miracle, as you might say, and even Hartley, who had been bluer than a spoiled mackerel all the morning, braced up and got real chipper. By and by they resurrected that book of theirs and had what you might call a Natural Life drunk. I never see printing that went to a person's head the way that book seemed to go to theirs. I judged 'twas kind of light and gassy reading and naturally riz and filled the empty places same as you'd fill a balloon.

Everybody was happy but Lord James, and I could see that he wa'n't easy in his mind. He set about amidships of the cockpit and hung onto the thwart with both hands, like he was afraid 'twould bust loose and leave him adrift. If the Dora Bassett had struck a derelict or something and gone down sudden I'll bet they'd have dredged up that Hopper valet and the thwart together. And then they'd have had to pry 'em apart. His lordship wa'n't used to water, unless 'twas to mix with something else.

By and by Hartley shoves both hands into his pockets, tilts his hat back and begins to sing. More effects of the Natural Life spree, I suppose, but 'twas bully good singing. Might have been saying most anything, calling me a short lobster for what I know, 'cause 'twas some foreigner's lingo, but the noise was all right even if I did have to take chances on the words. I cal'late to know music when I hear it.

"Good!" says Van, when his chum stopped. "Martin, you're better already. I haven't heard you sing for two years or more. The last time 'was at the Delanceys' 'at home.' Do you remember the dowager and 'my daughter?' Heavens! and 'my daughter's' piano playing! Agnes told the dowager that she had never heard anything like it. You and she were together, you know. Give us another verse."

But Martin wouldn't. Shut up like a clam and reached into his pocket for a cigar.

"That was A No. 1, Mr. Hartley," says I. "I wish you could hear Solon Bassett play the fiddle; you'd appreciate it."

Van he roared and even Hartley managed to smile. As for Lord James he looked at me like I'd trod on the queen's corns.

Blessed if I could see what there was funny about it. Solon can play like an Injun. Why, I've seen him bust two strings at a Thanksgiving ball and then play "Mrs. McLeod's Reel"—you know, "Buckshee, nanny-goat, brown bread and beans"—on t'other two, till there wa'n't a still foot in the hall.

We made Eastwich Port about noon and had dinner. I cooked up a kettle of chowder—fetched the clams along with me from home—and 'twould have done you good to see the Heavenlies lay into it. Lord James he skipped around like a hoppergrass in a hot skillet, fetching glasses and laying out nine or ten different kind of forks and spoons side of each plate, and opening wine bottles, and I don't know what all. When he hove in sight of the wharf that morning he was toting a basket pretty nigh as big as he was. I asked him what it was.

"Why, the 'amper," says he.

"The which?" says I.

"The lunch 'amper, of course," he says. "The 'amper for the heatables."

Well, I wondered then what in the nation was in it, for 'twas heavier than lead. I remember that the heft of it made me ask him if he' fetched along some of the late Hannah Jane's left-over riz biscuit. But now I see why 'twas heavy. There was enough dishes and truck for ten men and the cook in that basket. We had my

"How Is He, Doctor?" Asked Hartley, Anxious.

chowder and four kinds of crackers with it, and chicken and asparagus, and nine sorts of pickles, and canned plum pudding with sass, and coffee and good loud healthy cheese, and red wine and champagne. When I'd hoisted in enough of everything so my hatches wouldn't shut tight, and pulling on one of the Twins' cigars, I says to Van:

"Mr. Van Brunt," says I, "is this part of what you call the Natural Life?"

"You bet, skipper!" says he. He hadn't finished the chowder end of the layout yet.

Well, I heaved a sigh. 'Twas kind of unnatural to me, having come on me all to once; but I cal'lated I could get used to it in time without shedding no tears. Didn't want to get used to it too quick, neither; I wanted the novelty to linger along, as you might say.

When the dinner was over—the Heavenlies was well enough acquained with the family to nickname it "lunch"—I started in to help his lordship wash dishes. The Twins sprawled themselves under a couple of pine trees and blew smoke rings.

"Hurry up there, messmate," says I to the valet; "I want to get through time enough to run up to the fair grounds and see that greased pig race."

Hartley had been keeping so still I cal'lated he was dropping off to sleep, but it seems he wa'n't. He set up, stretched, and got to his feet.

"I'll go with you, skipper," says he. "Might as well do that as anything. I've never seen a greased pig race. They don't have 'em on the Street."

"Chase nothing but lambs there," draws Van Brunt, lazy, and with his eyes half shut. Then he turned over and looked at his chum.

"Great Caesar! Martin," he says, "you don't mean to tell me that you're going up into that crowd of hayseeds to hang over a fence and watch some one run, do you? Why any one on God's earth should want to run," he says, "when they can keep still, is beyond me; and why you, of all men, should want to watch 'em do it—that's worse yet. Come here and be natural and decent."

But Hartley wouldn't do it. His blue streak seemed to have struck in again and he was kicking the sand, nervous-like, with his foot.

"Come on, Van," he says. "I want the walk."

"Not much," says Van. "Walking's almost as bad as running. I'll be here when you get back." And he stretched out on the pine needles again.

It may be that Hartley did want that walk, same as he said, but he didn't seem to get much fun out of it. Went pounding along, his cigar tipped up to the visor of his cap, and his eyes staring at the ground all the time. And he never spoke two words till we got to the fair grounds.

There was a dickens of a crowd, five or six hundred folks, I should think, and more coming all the time. Everybody that could come had borrowed the horses and carryalls of them that couldn't and had brought their wives and mothers-in-law and their children's children unto the third and fourth generation. There was considerable many summer folks—not so many as there is at the cattle show in August—but a good many, just the same. I counted five automobiles, and I see the Barry folks from Trumet riding round in their four-horse coach and putting on airs enough to make 'em lop-sided.

Hartley gave one look around at the gang and his nose turned up to 12 o'clock.

"Gad!" says he, "this, or something like it, is what I've been trying to get away from. Come on, Sol. Let's go back to the boat."

But I hadn't seen so many shows as he had and I wanted to stay.

"You wait a spell, Mr. Hartley," says I. "Let's cruise round a little first."

So we went shoving along through the crowd, getting our toes tramped on and dodging peddlers and such like every other minute. There was the "test-your-strength" machine and the merry-go-round and the "ossified man" in a tent: "Walk right up, gents, and cast your eyes on the greatest marvel of the age all alive and solid stone only two nickels a dime ten cents," and all the rest of it. Pretty soon we come to where the feller was selling the E Pluribus Unum candy—red, white and blue, and a slab as big as a brick for a dime.

Hartley stopped and stares at it.

"For heaven's sake!" says he. "What do they do with that?"

"Do with it?" says I. "Eat it, of course."

"No?" he says. "Not really?"

"Humph!" I says. "You just wait a shake."

There was a little red-headed youngster scooting in and out among the folks' knees and I caught him by the shoulder. "Hi, Andrew Jackson!" says I. "Want some candy?"

He looked up at me as pert and sassy as a blackbird on a scarecrow's shoulder.

"Bet your natural!" says he. I jumped.

"Lord!" says I; "I cal'late he knows you."

Hartley smiled. "How do they sell that—that Portland cement?" says he. "Give me some," he says, holding a half dollar to the feller behind the oil-cloth counter. The man chiseled off enough for a fair-sized tombstone and handed it out. Hartley passed it to the boy. He bit off a hunk that made him look like he had the mumps all on one side, and commenced to crunch it.

"There!" says I. "That's proof enough, ain't it?"

But he wa'n't satisfied. "Wait a minute," says he. "I want to see what it does to him."

Well, it didn't do nothing, apparently, except to make the little shaver's jaws sound like a rock crusher, so we went on. By and by we come to the fence alongside of the place where they had the races. The sack race was on, half a dozen fellers hopping around tied up in meal bags, and we see that. Then Hartley was for going home again, but I managed to hold him. The greased pig was the next number on the dance order and I wanted to see it.

Maj. Philander Phinney, he's chairman of the Eastwich selectmen and pretty nigh half as big as he thinks he is; he stood on tip-toe on the judge's stand and bellered that the greased pig contest was open to boys under 15, and that the one that caught the pig and hung on to it would get five dollars. In less than three shakes of a herring's hind leg there was boys enough on that field to start a reform school. They ranged all the way from little chaps who ought to have been home cutting their milk teeth to "boys" that had yellow fuzz on their chins and a plug of chewing tobacco in their pants' pocket. They fetched in the pig shut up in a box with laths over the top. He was little and black and all shining with grease. Then they stretched a rope across one end of the race field and lined up the pig-chasers behind it.

"Hello!" says Hartley, "there's our Portland cement youngster. He'll never run with that marble quarry inside of him."

Sure enough, there was the boy that had tackled the candy. I could see his red head blazing like a lightning bug alongside of a six-foot infant with overalls and a promising crop of side whiskers. Next thing I knew the starter—Issachar Tiddit, 'twas—he opens the lid to the pig box and hollers "Go!"

The line dropped. That little lone pig see 20 odd pair of hands shooting towards him, and he fetched a yell like a tugboat whistle and put down the field, with the whole crew behind him. The crowd got on tiptoe and stretched their necks to see. Everybody hollered and hurrahed and "haw, hawed."

Now I've been calling the place where they had the races and so on a field. Well, twa'n't really a field, but just part of the course where they had trotting matches on cattle show days. There was a fence on each side of it and across the ends of the section they was using there was ropes stretched. Back of the fences was the crowd on foot, and back of the ropes was more of 'em, but behind these ropes likewise was lots of horses and wagons and carry-alls and such. Every wagon was piled full of people, and amongst 'em I could see the Barry coach, with the four gray steppers prancing up and down in front of it and old Commodore Barry and his son on the front seat, with the women folks behind.

Well, when that pig started he made a straight course for the lower end of the field, but the sight of the horses and all scared him, I guess, and he jibed and back he come again. Half a dozen of the pig-chasers—them that was nearest to him when he come about—ran into each other and piled up in a heap, squirming like an eel-pot. They got up in a jiffy and started over again, meeting the gang that was coming back on the second lap.

By the time that pig had made three laps round that course he was a candidate for the hogs' lunatic asylum. Twice he'd been grabbed, once by the ears and once by a leg, but his liveliness and the grease had got him clear. About half the boys had given up the job, and was making for harbor behind the fence; covered with sand and grease, they was, and red and ashamed. The crowd was pretty nigh as crazy as the pig, only with joy. Even Hartley was laughing out loud—first time I'd ever heard him.

That little chap with the red hair had been right up with the mourners till the third round; then he was stood on his head in the scuffle and left behind down by the ropes in front of where the Barrys was. The rest of the chasers were scattered around the other end of the field, with the pig doing the grand right and left in and out amongst their legs. One of the boys—that big lanky one whose cheeks needed mowing—made a flying jump and dove head first right on top of the critter's shiny black back. In a shake he was the underpinning, so to speak, of a sort of monument of boys, all fighting like dogs over a woodchuck.

Next thing I knew the pig shot out from underneath the pile same as if he's been fired out of a cannon. He was squealing when he begun to fly and squealing when he lit, but his running tackle hadn't been hurt any. Down the field he went and the only one of the chasers in front of him was that little red head. He makes a grab, misses, and the pig keeps straight on, right into the crowd of men and horses and carriages.

"Look out!" yells everybody. "Let him go!" But that little shaver wa'n't built that way. Under the ropes he dives, right where the jam of wheels and hoofs was thickest. The Barry coach horses rared up and jumped and backed. You could hear wheels grinding and men yelling and women screaming.

I was one of the first over that fence, but, quick as I was, that Hartley invalid was quicker. As a general thing he moved like 'twas hardly worth while to drag one foot after the other; but now he flew. I could see his big shoulders shoving folks over like they was ninepins. Under the ropes he went and in where the tangle was the worst. And then it closed up into a screeching, kicking whirlpool like. Down he went and I lost sight of him.

Everybody on the grounds was crazy, but I cal'late I was the worst Bedlamite of the lot. Somehow I felt responsible. 'Twas me that told about the Fourth of July doing first and got him over there. 'Twas me that coaxed him into staying for the consarned pig business. And I kind of felt that I was his guardian, as you might say, now that Van Brunt wa'n't along. Yes, and by ginger, I liked him! Course I thought of the poor little boy, too, but I'm free to say 'twas Hartley that I thought of most.

For the doings of the next two or three minutes you'll have to ask somebody else. All's I remember real well is catching hold of Issachar Tiddit's Sunday cutaway and ripping it from main truck to keelson. You see, Issachar was trying to back out of the tangle and I was diving in. Next thing I'm sure of is hanging onto the bridle of one of the Barry horses and playing snap the whip with my feet, up and down and over and under.

She cleared up some finally and there was a ring of folks jamming and pushing and climbing between wheels and under wagon bodies, and in the middle of the ring was Hartley, kneeling on the ground and looking pretty middling white and sick, with a dripping cut over his eye, and with that little shaver's red head in his lap. And old Doc Bailey was there, but how or when he come I don't know. Yes, me and the pig was there, too, but the critter was out of commission, being dead, and I was too busy to think where I was.

"How is he, doctor?" asked Hartley, anxious.

The Doc didn't answer for a minute or so; he was bending over the boy, sponging and swabbing like all possessed. Poor little chap; he looked white and pitiful enough, stretched out there amongst that crowd of strangers and not a soul of his own folks around to look out for him. And he was such a gritty little mite. I looked at him; chalk white he was, and still, with his eyes shut and his breath coming kind of short and jerky. And—well, my breath got jerky, too.

"How is he?" says Hartley again.

Just as he said it the boy stirs and begins to breathe more regular. The doctor seemed to feel better.

"He'll come round all right now," says the Doc. "'Twas the kick that knocked him out. The pig got the worst of it and that saved him. There are no bones broken. But he'd have been trampled to death afterwards if it hadn't been for you, sir. Better let me fix up that cut."

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

What They Did to Him.

"Why did Napoleon hate the English?" once asked an instructor in history in a public school of Cincinnati, to which question no immediate reply was offered by any pupil.

"I'm sure somebody knows," said the teacher hopefully, scanning the faces before her.

"I thinkI can tell mum," finally ventured a dirty faced lad in the rear of the room. "He hated the English because they made him live an' die all by himself on the rock of St. Helena."—Harper's Weekly.

So Gallant.

"You know," said the fair patient, "when I met you at the shore last summer it never occurred to me that you were a doctor of medicine."

"No?" replied the young physician.

"And when did you find it out?"

"Not until papa called you in to attend me."

"Ah! But then I became a doctor of divinity."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., will hold an important meeting Tuesday night to consider matters pertaining to the observance of Memorial Day.

New Jersey Central

In Effect January 26, 1908.

For New York—2.17, 3.37, 5.36, 6.02, 6.29, 6.57, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.47, 7.56, 8.06, 8.11, 8.30, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.59, 10.25, 10.55 a. m., 12.00, 12.19, 12.42, 1.06, 1.37, 2.31, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.46, 5.52, 6.29, 6.48, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.27, 9.31, 10.17, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.17, 3.37, 4.47, 7.22, 7.56, 8.52, 9.24, 9.45, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.20, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.29, 6.57, 7.05, 7.25, 7.56, 7.47, 8.11, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.59, 10.55 a. m., 12.42, 1.09, 1.27, 2.31, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.46, 5.53, 6.29, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.31 p. m. Sunday—7.22, 8.52, 9.24, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.20, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 2.00, 5.22, 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 2.08, 5.47, 7.06 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 5.47 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.37, 8.11, 10.55 a. m., 12.42 (Saturdays only), 3.42, 4.45, 5.53, 8.27, 11.28 p. m. Sundays—3.37, 8.52 a. m., 3.30, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—8.27, 9.29 a. m., (12.42 Saturdays only), 1.27, 3.44 (3.42 Lakewood only), (5.58 Lakewood only, Saturdays only) p. m. Sundays—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.45 a. m., 1.45 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.13, 7.39, 8.45, 9.12, 10.43 a. m., 12.12, 12.42, 1.39, 2.14, 2.46, 6.13, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 1.17 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.53, 10.39, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.55, 5.39, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 11.26, 1.17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m. Sundays—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

*Change cars at Bound Brook.

W. G. BESLER, Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, Gen. Pass. Agt.

Arrival and Departure of Mails

PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

Office opens 7 a. m., closes 7 p. m. On Saturdays close half hour later.

NEW YORK MAIL.

Arrive—7:00, 8:40, 11:30 a. m., 2:30, 5:05 6:30, 9 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:30, 6:00 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 1:30, 3:15 and 7 p. m
Close—7:30 a. m., 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40 and 11:30 a. m., 2:2 7:00 p. m.
Close—7:15, 7:30, 9:30 a. m., 12:35, 2:2 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST

Close—1:00 and 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST AND SOUTH.

Close—12:25, 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton.

Close—12:25 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:30 a. m., 2:20, 6:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m., 1 midnight.
Close—7:15, 7:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:20 and 6:0

WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE.

Arrive—12:30 p. m.
Close—9:00 a. m.

WATCHUNG.

Close—5:20 p. m.
Arrive—6:45 p. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P M

Advertisements
—FOR—
New York Herald,
World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American, Brooklyn Eagle
—and—
Newark Evening News
Received at
The Daily Press
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

Complete line of
AUTOMOBILE Supplies and Tires
AT LOWEST NEW YORK PRICES.
Thompson Auto Co.
413 Park Ave. Tel. 991-J

Mrs. John Brown,
Successor to
John Burke and Jones & Co.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned from $3.00 Upwards.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Don't give your order until you consult me
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at
J. T. Vail's, North avenue, Plainfield, N. J.
Postoffice Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

We have made arrangements for a larger supply of first-class milk and and are givng the family trade our special attention...If you are not satisfied with the milk or the services you are getting give us a trial.

Price 9 cents a quart, 5 cents a pint. Cream 14 cents a ½ pint. ...

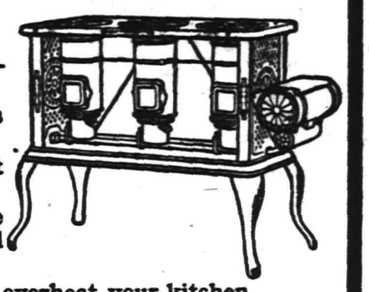
Lindsay's Dairy,
965 West Front St.
TEL. 792-J.

J. NEUSTADT
MERCHANT TAILOR,
Ladies' Tailoring a Specialty. Cleaning, Pressing, Altering at lowest prices. Work called for and delivered. Formerly with R. A. Rieley, Fifth Avenue, New York.
Spring and Summer Styles now ready.
430 WATCHUNG AVENUE
Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 668-W.

NOTICE TO MEN.
Don't Throw Away Your Old Clothes.
Highest Prices Paid for Same.
I. RICHARD, - - 17 Somerset St.

Use A
NEW PERFECTION
Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove

Because it's clean.
Because it's economical.
Because it saves time.
Because it gives best cooking results.
Because its flame can be regulated instantly.



Because it will not overheat your kitchen.
Because it is better than the coal or wood stove.
Because it is the perfected oil stove.
For other reasons see stove at your dealer's, or write our nearest agency.
Made in three sizes and fully warranted.

The Rayo Lamp cannot be equaled for its bright and steady light, simple construction and absolute safety. Equipped with latest improved burner. Made of brass throughout and beautifully nickeled. An ornament to any room, whether library, dining-room, parlor or bedroom. Every lamp warranted. Write to our nearest agency if not at your dealer's.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(INCORPORATED)

LAWN TOOLS

It isn't too late to buy if you have discovered that you need a new Mower this year. You must have heard of our easy running, close cutting, durably constructed Lawn Mowers. They have world-wide reputation.

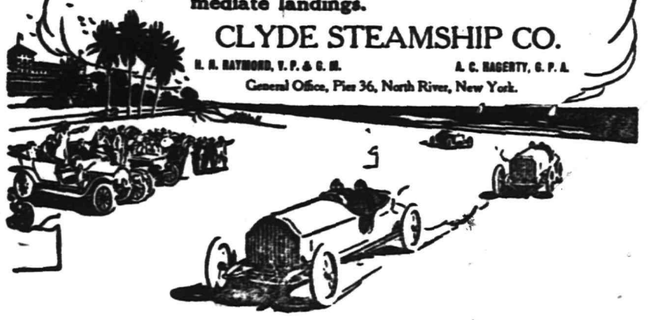
We also have all other kinds of tools for lawn and garden development.

HOSE, REELS, SPRINKLERS, RAKES, GRASS SHEARS, HOOK, WEEDERS, EDGERS, PRUNERS, ETC.

Gayle Hardware Company

Tel. 468-R. Front St. and Park Ave.

DELIGHTS BEYOND PARALLEL
are the rewards of motor enthusiasts who participate in or witness the annual automobile contests on Ormond's coquina sands. The ideal trip is by the
CLYDE LINE STEAMERS
the only direct all-water route from
New York to Jacksonville, Florida
with a short stop at Charleston, S. C.
St. Johns River Service between Jacksonville, Palatka, De Land, Sanford and Enterprise, Fla., and intermediate landings.
CLYDE STEAMSHIP CO.
H. H. RAYMOND, V. P. & G. M. A. C. RAGERTY, G. P. A.
General Office, Pier 36, North River, New York.



W. D. THICKSTUN, Agent, 197 North Avenue.

IN THE SPRING

The thoughts of a house-owner naturally turn toward painting. If you are going to paint your house, use

MOORE'S HOUSE COLORS

because it is a strictly pure linseed oil paint and therefore, can be relied upon to give the best satisfaction. When used according to directions, it will cover more surface and cover it better, with less labor, than other paints. These are facts that have been demonstrated right in your own locality, and it will pay you, as it has others, to buy Moore's House Colors this spring from our representative,

H. E. GAYLE HARDWARE COMPANY, Plainfield.
BENJAMIN MOORE & CO.
Pure Colors, Paints, and Muresco.
New York, Chicago, Cleveland, Toronto.

—CAMERAS—
KODAKS AND PHOTOGRAPHIC SUPPLIES
DEVELOPING, PRINTING AND ENLARGING
Bring Your Films in One Day and Get Your Pictures the Next.
"THE PHOTO STORE," 129 NORTH AVENUE
FORMERLY VAN WINKLE'S.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR
TRUNKS, SUIT CASES OR BAGS
CALL AT
O. M. DUNHAM'S, 129 Park Ave
TRUNK STRAPS—ALL SIZES.

Think For a Moment

of the incalculable amount of good done by the money paid every day to hundreds of beneficiaries of The Prudential. During 1907, the average for each business day was more than $59,000. Thousands of families were kept together by the forethought of the family's head, when he insured his life in

The Prudential

Burglary insurance may replace money value but it cannot insure the associations that often surround a gift.

Store your valuables in our Safe Deposit Vaults where they will be safe from thieves and other hazard.

Our booklet, Safety for Valuables, may be obtained for the asking.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Travelers' Cheques.

New Plainfield Theatre

PLAYING ALL THE LEADING ATTRACTIONS. W. J. COUNIHAN, Manager

SATURDAY, MAY 9—The Class of 1908 of THE PLAINFIELD HIGH SCHOOL Present

SHE STOOPS TO CONQUER

PRICES—25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00

WEEK COMMENCING

MONDAY, MAY 18

MATINEE WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY

ALBERTA GALATIN & Her All-Star Stock Co.

NAT. GOODWIN'S GREATEST SUCCESS

THE COW-BOY and THE LADY

Wednesday, May 20

ROSE MORTIMER

Sale of Seats Opens Monday, May 11

Prices—Nights, 15c, 25c, 35c, 50c Mats. 15c and 25c

BARGAINS IN LOTS AT HIGHLAND PARK

Get your lot now before prices advance. Many houses to be built this year. Sewer, water, electric lights, shade trees and concrete sidewalks on all streets. You can buy lots from $200. to $400., on cash or easy payments.

ELSTON M. FRENCH,

171 North Avenue. Telephone 24. Plainfield, N. J.

NEW YORK OFFICE—141 Broadway. Tel. 5424 Cortlandt

DIDN'T KNOW HE MARRIED.

Allen Says He Was Drunk If He Did.

New York, May 9.—A decision was rendered yesterday by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in a matrimonial action involving some unusual features. The defendant, John P. Allen, in his answer denies that he has "any knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief" that he ever married the plaintiff, Harriet E. Allen. If he ever did marry her, he says, he must have been drunk or drugged.

Mrs. Allen obtained an order in the Supreme Court striking out Allen's answer as frivolous, on the ground that he must have personal knowledge of whether or not he had married her, and could not therefore deny the marriage on information and belief. From this order Allen appealed, and in an unanimous decision the Appellate Division reversed the order and denied Mrs. Allen's motion.

Gov. Fort and Railway Fares.

Gov. Fort said yesterday in reference to the agitation for reconvening the Legislature to take action on a Public Utilities bill incident to the raising of rates of railroad fare between Philadelphia and South Jersey points, that he expected to receive a delegation, which will ask him to reconvene the Legislature for the purpose stated, but that he did not believe that he would find the conditions such as to require the action sought. If conditions warranted it, however, he would, he said, reconvene the Legislature.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

Baseball and General Sports

P. H. S. SHUT OUT, 5-0

H.R.M.A. Nine, Playing Errorless Ball, Trims Local Schoolboys in Morning Game.

PITCHER O'FARRELL A PUZZLE.

Cadets' Crack Twirler Fans Thirteen Schoolboys and Allows But Two Safe Hits.

Playing errorless ball, with a pitcher who struck out seventeen players and allowed but two safe hits, the Hudson River Military Academy nine, of Finderne, shut out the Plainfield High School team by a score of 5-0 on Crescent Oval this morning. The local nine were outplayed in all departments of the game, no player seeing third during the whole game. Brennan, who was on the slab for the visitors, had everything his own way, and was a nine-innning puzzle to the local batters.

Van Zandt was in the box for the local team, and was touched up for nine hits, two of them good for two sacks. He was given poor support at critical times, for six errors were scored against the Plainfielders. The visitors made their runs in the third and the ninth. In the third inning, Grief's single and Lockwood's two-bagger scored Higgins and Grief and Bushman came home on some loose fielding. Again in the ninth, the cadets scored two runs on O'Farrill's single and his brother's two-bagger. The summaries:

H. R. M. A.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Walsh, 1b	0	1	4	1	0
Higgins, c	1	0	14	2	0
Grief, 3b	1	1	1	0	0
Lockwood, 2b	0	1	4	0	0
O'Farrell, ss	1	3	2	1	0
Delhoyo, cf	0	1	0	1	0
L. O'Farrill, lf	1	1	1	0	0
Bushman, rf	1	0	0	0	0
Brennan, p	0	1	1	4	0
	5	9	27	9	0

P. H. S.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Giddes, ss	0	0	1	1	1
Rubenstein, 3b	0	1	1	5	3
Dey, 1b	0	0	8	2	0
Murphey, rf	0	1	0	0	0
Snyder, 2b	0	0	4	2	0
Dodwell, c	0	0	8	2	1
Lidgate, lf	0	0	2	0	0
Doane, cf	0	0	2	1	0
Van Zandt, p	0	0	1	7	1
	0	2	27	20	6

H. R. M. A.. 0 0 3 0 0 0 0 0 2—5
P. H. S.... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0

Two base hits: Lockwood, R. O'Farrell. Bases on balls, off Van Zandt, 0; off Brennan, 1. Struck out, by Van Zandt, 3; by Brennan, 13. Umpire, G. L. Listman. Scorer, W. B. Caldwell.

Dr. T. H. Tomlinson, of East Seventh street, went to the State Hospital at Morris Plains, today, to inquire into the condition of a patient, who has been under treatment there.

CARL STEINER CHAMP IN S.S.A.L. SWIMMING MEET

Carl Steiner, representing the Congregational church in the Sunday-school Athletic League swimming meet held last night, won first place in all the events in the Y. M. C. A. swimming pool, scoring fifteen points and victory for his church team. C. Vail, of the First Baptist church, and Lee, of the same church, together scored ten points on second and third places, and the point won by Hoagland in the 80-yard swim, put the First Methodists in third place.

The event was the first swimming meet ever attempted in this city and proved a success. The best time made last night in the various distances will constitute a set of records, and other meets are to be arranged. But one contestant competed at a time, as the pool is small, and the winner was determined by the timers, after all entrants had swum. The distances had to be cut down several feet on account of the length of the pool, and the contestants were allowed a diving start. There was but a single contestant in the underwater swim, which was not counted in the summary of events. Vail, of the First Baptist church, swam under water for a distance of 35 feet, 2 inches. Brower, of the Crescent Avenue church, was the only boy entered in the junior events. He swam the 23-yard race in 30 3-5 seconds. These stand as association records. The summaries of the contested events:

23-yard swim: Won by Carl Steiner, (Congressional); second, Vail, (Baptist); third, Lee, (Baptist). Time, 15 1-5 seconds.

46-yard swim: Won by Carl Steiner, (Congregational); second, Vail, (Baptist); third, Lee, (Baptist). Time, 29 4-5 seconds.

80-yard swim: Won by Carl Steiner, (Congregational), second, Vail, (Baptist); third, Hoagland, (First Methodist). Time, 67 3-5 seconds.

Starter, Dr. Norman H. Probasco; time, George L. Listman.

Leal's Boys Win Easily.

The Leal's third baseball nine played all around the Holy Cross third team in a one-sided game on the Cricket Field diamond this morning, the final score being 39-7. Hyde, of the Leal's nine, scored a run every time at bat, increasing the total by six tallies. Mantz and Ball, who were in the box for the church nine, were both ineffective, but the Holy Cross could not solve Van Deventer's delivery, and Stevenson, who succeeded him, was just as effective.

Baseball Game Leads to Stabbing.

A number of Italians playing baseball at North and Johnston avenues yesterday afternoon, engaged in a free-for-all fight during which Serafino Mormino was severely stabbed. The police were informed later but the injured man refused to make a complaint against his assailant.

PRESIDENT APPROVED.

Interstate Commission Replies to Foraker's Query.

Washington, May 9.—The Interstate Commerce Commission replied yesterday to the Foraker resolution adopted by the Senate on May 6 calling for information as to whether the commodity clause of the railroad rate law was being violated. The resolution also called for specific information as to whether the Western Maryland Railroad, now in the hands of a receiver, had violated the law since it went into effect on May 1.

The commission transmitted a letter from the receiver of the Western Maryland saying that the railroad had not observed the law and promised to send a letter within a few days pointing out the extent of its violation and the conditions which made it impossible for the Western Maryland to comply with the commodity clause.

As to information regarding other violations the commissioners say there has not been time since the law went into effect (May 1, 1908) to get information as to whether its provisions are being observed or not. The commissioners declare that in recommending that the penalties of the commodity clause should be suspended they acted with the approval of the President.

Returned a Verdict for $4,550.

The jury in the case of Newton W. Chambers, of this city, against the Public Service Corporation, for $10,000 damages, returned a verdict yesterday afternoon for $4,550. At the first trial a verdict for $5,000 was given, but afterward was declared void on a technicality. At the second trial the jury did not agree. It is now said that Mr. Chambers, who claims to have entirely lost his hearing as a result of the accident which occurred while a passenger on a trolley car, has partially regained it and by holding his hand to his ear, is able to hear a little.

New Bank in Jersey City.

Jersey City, May 9.—A temporary charter has been secured from the United States Comptroller for a new bank, with a capital stock of $200,000, in Hudson City. The organizers of the bank are Dr. O. H. Albanesius, former Mayor Edward Hoos, Dr. John Connell and John Doscher, deputy collector of the port. Judge Frederick Stuhr is the attorney.

PERSONAL.

Miss Marie F. Gates of this city, has been visiting friends in Rutherford.

Miss Lizzie Maurer, of Somerville, has been spending the week with relatives here.

Miss Edith Murphy, of this city, has been visiting relatives at New Germantown.

Miss Mary Thomas, of Lebanon, has returned home after a visit with relatives here.

Mrs. John McCullough, of Neshanic, has been visiting friends in town for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gaston, of this city, were recent visitors among relatives at Somerville.

Mrs. S. J. Bergen, of New Germantown, who has been visiting friends here, has returned home.

Mrs. Untiedt, of East Orange, has been visiting her friend, Mrs. J. A. Chambliss, of Central avenue.

Miss Carrie Combs, of Linden avenue, has gone to York, Pa., to spend several weeks with relatives.

Mrs. Augustus Roll, of Watchung avenue, has been removed to Muhlenberg Hospital for treatment.

A. L. Cadmus and wife are spending a few days at the home of G. N. Kamer, 400 Third street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Charles G. and Mrs. Embleton of Westfield were among the American tuorists who enrolled their names on Thursday in the Paris office of the New York Herald.

Allan Wilson, son of former Mayor John F. Wilson, of the borough, sailed today on the steamship Minneapolis, for an eight months' business and pleasure trip abroad.

Mrs. William E. Honeyman of Lincoln place, is planning to attend the meetings of the Assembly of the Presbyterian church which will begin May 18th in Kansas City, Mo.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

J. D. Loizeaux will be the speaker at the Salvation Army Hall tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

An illustrated lecture on 'The Passion Play," will be given at Hope chapel, tomorrow night when a large number of fine views will be shown. Admission will be free and the public is invited.

GOVERNOR MEAD IN EAST.

Washington Executive Confident of Taft's Election.

New York, May 9.—Governor Albert E. Mead, of Washington, is paying a visit to an old college chum in Brooklyn, and on Tuesday will start for Washington, D. C., to take part in the Governors' convention. William Berri gave a luncheon yesterday at the Brooklyn Club in honor of Governor Mead.

Among the guests were Abraham Abraham, Silas B. Dutcher, Colonel William Hester, Timothy L. Woodruff, E. C. Blum, Gardiner D. Matthews, S. F. Rothschild, Clinton L. Rossiter and Andrew McLean. Governor Mead expressed his confidence that Secretary Taft could be nominated and elected President.

TO RESTRAIN HEALTH BOARD.

The Montclair Milk Situation Reaches a Crisis.

The Montclair Board of Health will in all probability be served today with a copy of a writ of certiorari issued out of the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon by Chief Justice Gummere, on application of the Borden Milk Company, restraining the enforcement of that part of the sanitary code of the Board of Health relating to the tuberculin test.

This order of the Chief Justice will prevent the local authorities from carrying out their intention of prohibiting the sale of the Borden Company's product in Montclair after Friday, May 15.

MILITIA BILL REPORTED.

It Will Place State Troops Under Army Regulations.

Washington, May 9.—The militia bill was reported to the Senate yesterday.

After January 21, 1910, the organization, armament and discipline of the organized militia shall be the same as ther egular army, subject to such general exceptions in time of peace as may be authorized by the Secretary of War.

Council Meeting Postponed.

The North Plainfield Council was to have met last night to prepare the borough budget for the next year, but on account of the storm, only two councilmen appeared for the meeting. These were Councilmen Woolston and Van Arsdale, and they spent an hour in the council chamber with Mayor Townsend doing some figuring on the budget, preparing for a speedy disposition of the business at the meeting, which has been postponed until Wednesday night.

Pidcock a Candidate.

James N. Pidcock of Whitehouse, who is President of the Georgia Northern Railroad, has announced his candidacy for the nomination for State Senator on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Pidcock is an unpledged delegate from this district to the Democratic National Convention. His father was for many years a Congressman.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

CIRCUS PLAINFIELD SATURDAY MAY 23

THE ONE SUPREME SHOW OF THE UNIVERSE.

Admission tickets and numbered reserved seats will be on sale show day at T. S. Armstrong's Drug Store, cor. Park and North avenues, at exactly the same price charged at the regular ticket wagons on the show grounds.

5 9-16-22

Important Notice!

KIRMESS

BENEFIT MUHLENBERG HOSPITAL.

On account of the demand for seats, reservations made by mail and telephone not yet paid for,

Will not be held after 6 p. m. Tuesday, May 12.

CHAS. J. FISK,

Chairman Kirmess Committee.

IS IT NOT WORTH WHILE

To keep your account in an Institution as strong as this one?

CITY NATIONAL BANK

3% Interest on Satisfactory Daily Balances

Capital . . . $150,000.00
Surplus & Profits (All Earned) $225,000.00
Deposits . . . $1,600,000.00

BOARDERS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 4 49 a. m.
Sun Sets 7 04 p. m.
Lanterns must be lighted 8:04 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER
Fair tonight; Tuesday showers. Maximum, 75; minimum, 40; for 24 hours ending at noon. Ther. at noon 40.

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, MONDAY, MAY 11, 1908. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

Fire Chief T. O. Doane.

FIREMEN AND POLICE SIGNALLY HONORED

Men of the Two Departments Presented With Medals at Public Inspection.

THOUSANDS VIEW CEREMONY.

Program Arranged by Mayor Fisk Carried Out With Great Success Many Visiting Officials in Attendance.

Though Jupiter Pluvius dipped in now and then and made things a little damp with intermittent showers, Plainfield's first real inspection of its police and fire departments was accomplished Saturday afternoon with all the military pomp planned to make it a highly successful affair. Thousands of citizens viewed the parade of the men in blue to and from Mayor Fisk's home and the ceremonies on the residential lawn met with the hearty approbation of a distinguished gathering of local and visiting officials. The program combined was a fitting and signal honor to the city's protectors and did more than anything in years to show their strength.

According to the arrangements, the police, in charge of Chief P. S. Kiely, and the firemen with the apparatus from all three houses, headed by Chief T. O. Doane in his runabout, assembled at North and Park avenues at 3 o'clock. After lining up for a few minutes, La Vere's military band of eighteen pieces struck up a lively march and the departments proceeded to the mayor's home at Seventh street and Arlington avenue. Arriving on the premises, where an immense crowd had gathered, the men formed in review opposite the main veranda, where the inspection proper took place. The mayor proceeded about each detachment, followed by the president and other members of the Common Council, noting every detail of the men. They presented a handsome appearance in spick-and-span uniforms and several weeks of hard drilling gave them the touch of military bearing sufficient to induce rounds of applause. The mayor was highly delighted with the array and addressed the departments in complimentary terms. In the course of his remarks, His Honor complimented the men of the two departments on their splendid appearance. Fine feathers, he said, do not always make a fine bird, but in this case the records count and he declared that he felt sure that the records were fully as good as appearances. The duties of the men in the two departments are entirely different, but both are important. The discipline, he added, had been very strict, and that fact gave him all the more pleasure in giving formal recognition of the high standard of the two departments by presenting medals to those having clean records since he took office. Some had never had any charges preferred during the whole time of service.

In presenting the gold medal to Chief Doane, the Mayor said that he was a natural born fighter and that after fighting for his country, in 1865, he enlisted as a fire fighter,

(Continued on page 8.)

P.H.S. PUPILS' SUCCESS

Cast of Senior Class Presents "She Stoops to Conquer" at New Plainfield Theatre.

AN ELABORATE PRODUCTION.

Genuine Dramatic Ability Showed by High School Pupils, Trained for Their Parts by Miss Elsie Goddard.

Surpassing all other classes in the history of the school in the elaborateness of the production, members of the senior class scored a decided success in their presentation of the classic English comedy, "She Stoops to Conquer," at the New Plainfield theatre Saturday night. When one attends amateur theatricals the interest as a rule, centres in the persons acting and any shortcomings in their presentation are overlooked by the friendly critic. But Saturday's acting by the pupils left little to be criticised and held the interest of even strangers by the clever intepretations of the various parts.

"She Stoops to Conquer," as rendered at the theatre was produced under the direction of Miss Elsie Goddard, to whom belongs the credit for a large part of the evening's success. With Miss S. Lena Bass, Principal Ira W. Travell and S. B. Howe, Jr., of the school faculty, as coaches with her, Miss Gaddard has been working with the cast for the past three months, and the play was presented according to the professional intehpretation, which differs in many respects from the acting by the class of 1904 cast, as given at the Casino four years ago.

Chauncey R. Murphey, taking the part of "Tony Lumpkin," the mischievous young son of "Squire Lumpkin," made the comedy hit of the night, acting with a spontancity in good accord with the part and winning applause time after time by his clever by-play and stage business. As the Squire, Percy Mygrant deserves especial mention for his interpretation of a staid, though peppery-tempered, old Englishman. Perhaps the most successful scene to a stranger was the ale-house scene in the second act, where Tony and his stablemen comrades are seen making a night of it. Arthur B. Titsworth, John B. Schofield, Mose Rubenstein, C. Walter J. Hammond, who were with Murphey in this scene did some excellent acting and made an even greater hit at the four house servants in a later scene, where the dialect and by-play of Titsworth won applause.

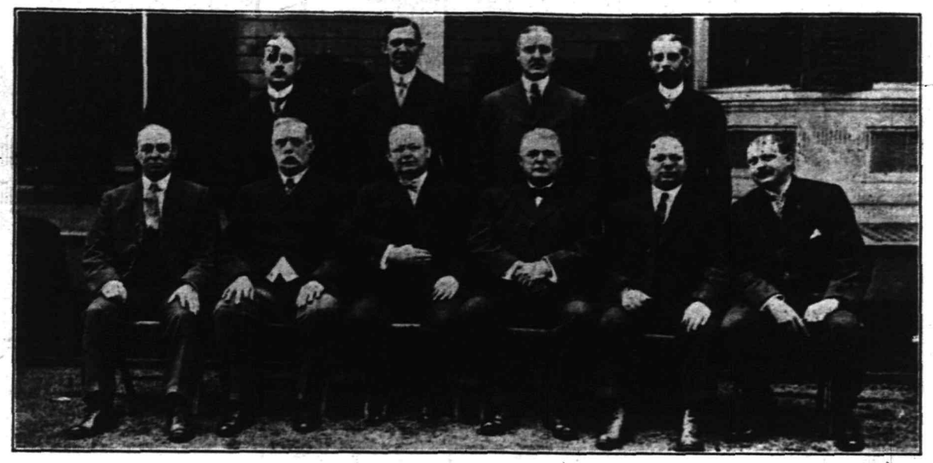
Of the girls, Miss Esther B. Crampton, as "Kate Hardcastle," was particularly successful in her acting. As the leading character of the play, she won the audience by her interpretation in the second act and received the bulk of applause. "Kate's" bashful lover, "Marlowe," was successfully played by Orlando G. Lounsbury. A particularly difficult part, that of "Mrs. Hardcastle" was played by Miss Sara Sanderson in a manner which won much applause. Her emotional acting, calling for displays of anger and fear, was particularly well done. Miss Elsa M. Cook's playing as "Constance Neville," showed that she, too, had admirably succeeded in a rather difficult part.

Although the class was under an expense of nearly $400 for the presentation, of which the elaborate costuming was al arge item, W. B. Caldwell and William V. Rafferty, managers of the production, announce that the net proceeds are about $300.

The complete cast of characters, with the class executive staff for the play follows:

"Sir Charles Marlow," and

(Continued on page 4.)



—Photo by Stone. The Mayor and Members of the Common Council.

Obverse of Police Medal.
—Photo by Stone.

FEATURE OF KIRMESS TO BE "PANTOMIME"

One of the special features each night at the Kiress will be the "Pantomime," which is in charge of Mrs. L. W. Serrell. Among those who are to take part in the program are the following:

"Mrs. Noah," Miss Alverta Holland; "Mr. Noah," Chauncey Runyon; "Nurse," Miss Mary French; "Mr. and Mrs. Byitt," Mrs. L. W. Serrell and George S. Ring; "Buster Byitt," Peter Phillips; "Clown," Bruce Beaton; "Sambo," Jack Greison; "Jack in the Box," Henry Zook; mechanical doll, Miss Adelaide Parker; naughty child, Miss Florence Schwed; workman, L. W. Serrell; "Schwartz," proprietor of the shop, Henry L. Hall. Others taking part include Miss Gabrielle McQuaide, Miss Florence Curtis, Miss Louise Curtis, Miss Sylvian Curtis, George Schoonmaker, James Dodd, Effingham Pinto and William Wentz.

The list of animals will be announced in tomorrow's Daily Press. Schwartz, of New York, has made a very large and generous donation of toys for the affair and after the Kirmess they will be given to the hospital.

Gave a Farewell Reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Staff, of East Second street, entertained a number of friends at their home, Saturday night, previous to their departure for Detroit, Michigan, where they will make their future home. The affair was in the nature of a farewell party and was attended by several guests from Plainfield and the borough. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lasher, of Long Island City; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hebbard, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Laporte, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dunn, Mrs. A. Thorn, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Baily, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Bunner and Mr. and Mrs. Kenney. After spending the evening playing cards, supper was served.

Bought Stolen Property.

Charged by Chief Kiely with buying chickens from "Charlie" Williams that had been stolen by him from a local butcher shop, A. F. Marsh, of East Second street, was arraigned in the city court, this morning. The defendant admitted that he had used no discretion in making the purchases but denied knowing that it was stolen property. As the market proprietor did not care to press the charge, Mr. Marsh was let go with a warning.

Kelley Secures Bail.

Lewis Kelley, who eloped with Mrs. Oliver Dumont and waived examination when arraigned in the city court, succeeded in securing bail, Saturday night. The amount, $500, was furnished by his father-in-law, William Mowinkle, and brother-in-law, Charles Delahunt.

MISS WESTCOTT A BRIDE

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Westcott Becomes Mrs. Ranier.

REV. J. G. BRAKER OFFICIATES.

Friends from Many Points Witness Ceremony at the Scotch Plains Church.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Westcott, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank W. Westcott, of Fanwood, and George Smith Ranier, of Westfield, were married in the Scotch Plains Baptist church Saturday night at 6 o'clock. Rev. James S. Braker, of Lynn, Mass., a former pastor of the church, officiated and the ceremony was witnessed by a large gathering of friends.

Promptly at the hour of 6 o'clock the bridal party entered the church to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Miss Florence Nichol, the bride leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. They were preceded by the four ushers, Edwin Fancher, Harold Todd, Victor Todd, all of Fanwood, and Howard Gilmour, of Princeton; two bridesmaids, Miss Christine Bettman, of Fanwood, and Miss Emhonor, Miss Mildred Bass, of Paterson, and the flower girl, little Miss Edith Fancher, a niece of the bride. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Elmer Mainey, of New York. The Episcopal ceremony was used in plighting their troth. The bridal party left the church to the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march.

Following the ceremony at the church a reception was held at the bride's home and a wedding supper served. The decorations at the church were simple but pretty, white and green being the predominating colors. At the house the colors were, dining room, pink, and the rest of the house being in white and green, as at the church. During the reception Mr. and Mrs. Rainer left for a two weeks' trip. Upon their return they will reside in the borough. The bride was gowned in a handsome creation of white lilies over silk. She wore a bridal veil caught up with lillies of the valley, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The maid of honor was gowned in pink silk mull. The two bridesmaids were gowned in a pretty effect of white flowered mull, while the flower girl was dressed in pink and white. The young couple who were popular among a large circle received many handsome presents. The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond brooch. The bride's gift to the groom was a ring. The ushers received scarf pins and the maid of honor and bridesmaids gold pins set with pearls.

The nuptials were witnessed by friends from Paterson, New York, Plainfield, Boston, Westfield, Philadelphia, Sharon, Pa.; Troy, N. Y.; Scotch Plains and the borough.

George W. Edward's Water Color.

Among the pictures attracting much attention at the exhibition of the American Water Color Society in the Fine Arts Building, Fifty-seventh street, New York, is the "Fair Amalfi," by George Wharton Edwards of Franklin place. The New York critic pronounces it "rich in coloring and so high in key that it blithely sings."

Injured by Falling Ceiling.

Michael Malling, of East Second street, was slightly injured at his home yesterday afternoon, when a portion of the ceiling in the room in which he was reading, fell and struck him on the head and in the face. The injuries were not serious and home remedies proved effective.

—For best results try a Press want ad.

Reverse of Fire Medal.
—Photo by Stone.

NEGRO'S VICTIM BURIED; SUSPECT IN THE TOILS

The funeral of John Bussi, the aged Mount Bethel resident who died as the result of the murderous assault committed upon himself and his wife by an unknown negro, Tuesday night last, was held at his late home yesterday. The service was conducted by Rev. George Bowers and was attended by scores of farmers from all parts of Somerset county and many friends from this city. Burial was afterward made in the Mount Bethel cemetery.

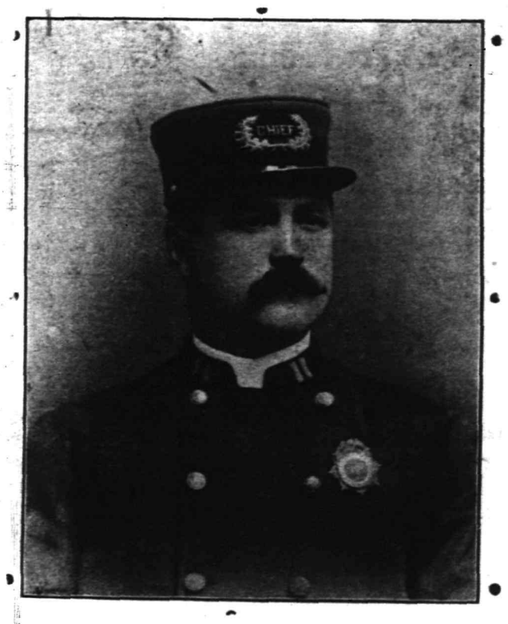
After the casket had been lowered in the grave, fifty of the mourners armed themselves and organized a posse to hunt for the old man's assassin. A search of the surrounding country was made but without any success. The men kept to the wods until late last night and many of the men took up the hunt again this morning. County Detective Geo. B. Totton is still actively engaged in the case and the police of the nearby cities have sent the negro's description all over the State. A man was arrested at Hackensack late Saturday night on suspicion of being the assailant and is being held until he can be identified. He gave his name as George Leslie and claimed to have just come from New Orleans.

Coroner Joseph Hebberman, of Warrenville, conducted a postmortem examination of the body, Saturday, before a jury. It was composed of John C. Cooper, Joel Coddington, Rudolph Sachs, M. E. Blazier, Robert Zerkibel and Adam Sachs. It was found that death had resulted from concussion of the brain produced by a blow on the head from some blunt instrument. The condition of Mrs. Bussi is still critical.

Installing Pumping Station.

M. W. Sherwood, a representative of the Ingersoll-Rand Company, of New York, of which Former Mayor William L. Saunders, of North Plainfield, is the president, and through whom Warren B. Travell, obtained the contract for installing the pumping station in connection with the South side sanitary sewer, is now in Plainfield, getting things in readiness for the work. The first job will be that of installing the electric motors and air compressors, and gasolene engine for reserve. After that the sub-contractors will install the displacement pumps. The remaining part of the sewer work, with the exception of a few manholes and a portion of Arlington avenue, is completed. This will all be finished before the pumping station is ready for use.

Miss Converse, a missionary for many years at Yokohama, Japan, is spending a few days at the home of Mrs. John D. Runyon on Park avenue.



Police Chief P. S. Kiely.

DEATH OF STANLEY DAY

Old Resident of New Market Passes Away After But Two Weeks' Illness.

FOUNDED MAIL ORDER BUSINESS

Prominent as a Newspaper Man and President of Long Established Firm, Mr. Day Was Well Known Here.

Stanley Day, president of the Stanley Day Advertising Agency, the pioneer mail order business in this country, with offices in New York city and New Market, died at 1:10 yesterday afternoon at his home in New Market after an illness of ten days. Mr. Day was in his seventy-sixth year and death was due to a complication of diseases. He had been ailing for the past two years, and his end was hastened by the news of his brother's death in England, of which he received word about two weeks ago.

Mr. Day was for many years prominent as a newspaper man, having worked on the editorial staffs of the New York Tribune, Chicago and Canadian papers. He was born at Ormsby, St. Michael, England, and came to this country fifty years ago. He lived in New York until 1871, when he moved to New Market. Shortly afterward, he went to Chicago, in the year of the Chicago fire, when the house which he was to have occupied there was burned. While in Chicago, he worked as a newspaper man and later was employed on the editorial staff of a Canadian paper. From 1883 until 1888, Mr. Day was advertising manager of the Police Gazette and shortly afterwards founded the mail order business which he turned over last July to his daughter, Miss Irene Day, of New Market, for management. He is well known all over the country as founder of this business.

A resident of New Market for the past twenty-eight years, Mr. Day was a member of the New Market Board of Education and was held in highest regard by the community. His wife died two years ago, but he is survived by four sons and three daughters. The sons are George W. Day and James Day of Dunellen, and Postmaster Charles S. Day and Stanley Day, Jr., of New Market. Miss Irene Day, a daughter, is living at New Market, as is Mrs. Frank Van Nuis. The third daughter is Mrs. A. E. Ahrens, of Stratford, Ontario. Mr. Day is also survived by a sister, living in England.

The funeral will be from Mr. Day's late residence in New Market Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. A. S. Phelps, rector of Holy Innocents' church, will officiate, assisted by Rev. Frank Fletcher, of Atlantic Highlands, formerly pastor of the New Market Baptist church. The interment will be in the South Plainfield cemetery.

Reading Brakeman Injured.

James Proy, aged thirty-one years, of Bound Brook, employed on the Reading Railroad, as a brakeman, received a lacerated wound of the right leg and an injury to his foot, the result of a fall from his train Saturday afternoon at Bound Brook. He was brought to Muhlenberg Hospital, where he is now under treatment. His injuries are not serious and he will be able to return home within a few days.

Steropticon views, moving pictures and illustrated songs will be given at the Salvation Army Hall, East Second street, Thursday night, May 28, at 8 o'clock by Captain Le Grand Chase, of Brooklyn. A small admission fee will be charged.

GEO. H. LELAND, SR. COMMITS SUICIDE

Despondent, Well Known Man Drinks Carbolic Acid with Fatal Effect.

HIS DEATH QUICKLY ENSUES.

Drank Fatal Draught in Bedroom at His Home—Discovery Made Shortly Afterward by His Grand-daughter.

George H. Leland, Sr., a well-known resident of the city for many years, committed suicide at his home on West Second street shortly before noon today by drinking carbolic acid. He was found in his bedroom at 11:30 by his granddaughter, Miss Miriam Hall, and Dr. Rollin Tomlinson reached the house within a short time in response to a call. The physician did all possible to offset the effect of the acid but without success and death ensued at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Leland, who was in his seventy-sixth year, had been acting in a despondent manner of late but on leaving the house early this morning seemed to be quite cheerful. He spent several hours about town and evidently planned to kill himself while he was out as he returned home a little after 11 o'clock with the bottle of acid, purchased in a local drug store. He went direct to his room on the first floor and must have swallowed the contents immediately as he was writhing about in agony when Miss Hall went to the room to call him for something.

The young woman summoned her mother and other members of the family and telephone calls were sent for physicians, Dr. Tomlinson arriving a few minutes afterward. Despite the quickness with which he applied emetics and other treatment, the sufferer had taken too much of the acid to give any chance for relief and he died without giving any statement.

Mr. Leland was a tinsmith by trade and had conducted a business in town for many years. He gave up his downtown office and store some time ago and had since been working only intermittently. He is survived by two sons, George Leland, Jr., of Newark, and Fred Leland, of Boulder, Col., also two daughters, Mrs. May Hall and Mrs. Emma Bird, with whom he lived. He was a member of Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P.

County Physician Westcott was notified by the police and he issued a burial permit after viewing the body.

Monos Win at Dunellen.

The Mono A. C. nine opened its regular season at Dunellen Saturday afternoon by defeating the Dunellen A. C. team 6-1. Conover and Bird were the points for the Monos, the former fanning twelve Dunellenites and allowing but four hits. Groves and Dodwell, who wears the big mitt for P. H. S., were the points for the Dunellenites, and the line-up included John Dutcher, former left fielder of the local school nine.

—The best of everything in fruits and vegetables at Neuman Brothers. Don't fail to see the big assortment tomorrow.

The Ladies' Home Journal Patterns are selling just as fast as we can hand them out. They have the unqualified indorsement of women who have ever used them. Try one next time you need a pattern.

H. E. Force and Co.

We Give "S. H." "THE WHITE STORE" THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY Green Trading Stamps

Millinery—We wish to keep before your mind the fact that the "White Store Millinery" stands unrivalled for true artistic skill in millinery. Original and exclusive models at popular prices.

Special Display of Trunks, Travelling Bags and Dress Suit Cases.

Making a rare display of all that is good, serviceable and durable in this line, and the prices we guarantee the lowest, consistent with the quality of goods. We invite inspection.

DRESS TRUNKS—A trunk that is made for good hard wear, a good looking trunk, fibre bound, with brass trimmings, one tray; priced very low $3.98

DRESS TRUNKS—These are handsomely constructed trunks, fibre bound, brass trimmings, double brass lock, two trunk straps and two trays; special at $6.25

DRESS TRUNKS—A full line of sizes, fibre bound, solid brass trimmings, two locks, patent compartments, leather straps, linen lined; priced very low at $7.75

TOURIST TRUNKS—Sole leather bound, solid brass trimmings, adjustable tray, linen lined, leather straps, a trunk worth $17.50; our price $13.98

STEAMER TRUNKS—Good solid trunks that are made to stand good hard ware, rawhide binding, heavy locks, linen lined, $9.98 and $4.25

Travelling Bags and Suit Cases.

RATTAN CASES—Strongly made, reinforced corners, 16 to 24 inch; priced $2.49 up to $3.49

MATTING CASES—A good assortment of styles, strongly made, good locks and well lined, in sizes 16 to 24 inch, at from $1.98 to $2.39

TRAVELING BAGS—Made of sole leather, hand-sewed, light and dark tans, all sizes, 15 to 20 inch; prices very low; $3.25 up to $8.50

SUIT CASES—An excellent assortment of all kinds and sizes; imitation and all leather; trimmed with brass trimmings and strong heavy locks and straps; prices $1.50 up to $8.50

SEE SHOW WINDOW DISPLAY.

Sensation Sale of Ladies' Tailored Suits

At a time when the thought of buying a Summer Suit is uppermost in the mind of nearly every lady, and then the chance of saving from $5.00 to $7.50 on a suit.

THIS INDEED IS A RARE OPPORTUNITY.

These are manufacturers sample garments that the manufacturer wanted to dispose of for spot cash. We bought them at a price and we will give you the benefit.

THE SALE IS NOW ON.

LOT NO. 1—Ladies' Tailored Suits made in the most approved up-to-date style, every garment a model of perfection, made of Panama, Shadow Stripes, Small Checks; Coats satin lined; Skirts made in the new pleated effects, with deep fold. Not a suit in the lot worth less than $12.00 to $15.00. While they last the price will be

-:- 7.98 -:-

LOT NO. 2—High grade Tailored Suits, made of the finest materials, perfectly tailored and finished in plain and fancy materials; good assortment of sizes. These two lots of suits we consider the greatest bargain event of the season; not a suit worth less than $13.50 to $16.50. Our price while they last will be

-:- 10.98 -:-

We would advise prospective buyers to come as early in the day as possible, as we do not think these two lots will last very long.

SEE SHOW WINDOW DISPLAY.

"THE OLD RELIABLE HOME FURNISHERS"

EST. 1860 COWPERTHWAIT AND VAN HORN CO. INC. 1907

73 MARKET STREET. NEAR PLANE ST., NEWARK, N.J.

(A) Looking about for Summer Furniture?

Furnishing the Cottage, Lawn and Veranda?

Save a lot of useless "shopping" by coming straight here to headquarters—where summer fixin's have been specialized for years and years!

3.50 Reed Rockers full roll back 2.95

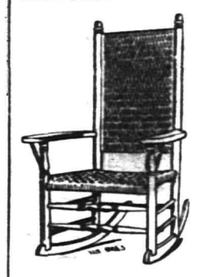
9.00 Reed Couchss full length 7.50

Porch Settees, light Maple and Green, now 5.00

Lawn Benches, Red and Green folding styles from $1.00 to $2.00.

Lowest Prices!
You Can't Beat 'Em!

4.95 Enameled Bed, like cut, with brass mounts and rails at head and foot. Regular value $7.25.



2.45 For this broadarm Porch Rocker—light maple and green—reed seat and back. Regular $3.25.

3.75 Reed Table like cut—round top and lower shelf---platted edge.

Dainty Bedroom Suits in Enamel also Reed and Mission pieces for every part of the home---Refrigerators, Ice Chests, "Crex, Jap and China Mattings, etc., etc.

Sole Headquarters For
"The Portland Range," "Gunn Sectional Bookcases"
The Acme Washing Machine, "White" Sewing Machine

LOWEST PRICES—EASY CREDIT

M & S

MATHUSHEK & SON PIANOS

appeal to all lovers of the beautiful in music.
They possess the rare quality of tone that is a delight to all.
Every courtesy given to visitors and prospective buyers at our wareroom.
Beautiful catalogue mailed upon request.

MATHUSHEK & SON PIANO CO.,
310 W. Front St., Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 910-J

LAWN MOWERS
Sharpened and Repaired

Having Installed Electric Power and Improved Grinding Machinery I Can Insure Prompt and Satisfactory Work.

A. M. GRIFFEN,
119-123 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.
'PHONES 6 and 214

JACK HORNER 26 SOMERSET ST TEL. 869-W.

Pierce, Cleveland, Crawford and Arrow Bicycles. Renting, Repairing and Sundries Vulcanizing a specialty. Baby Carriages Repaired and Retired. Work called for and delivered.

PERSONAL.

Miss Sarah Holland, of New York, has returned after a visit with relatives here.

Mrs. Conrad Sindlinger, of Somerset street, is home from a visit in New York.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, is visiting his son, Hugh Pierce, of Myrtle avenue.

Dr. Richard Moldenke, of Watchung, has returned from a business trip to Pittsburg.

Robert Runyon, of Flemington, has returned home after a visit with borough relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mobus, of Watchung, are parents of a son born to them a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mosher, of Elizabeth, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned home.

William A. Townsend, of the borough, has gone to Colorado on a business trip for Milliken Brothers.

James Arnold, Jr., of the borough, who has been enjoying a pleasure trip through the West, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Clynes, of Mercer avenue, the borough, have returned from a visit at Locust Valley, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. McGee, who were recently married, are now at Old Point Comfort, enjoying their honeymoon.

Silas D. Drake, of Beechwood Heights, who was recently stricken with paralysis, is reported as being slightly improved.

Ralph P. Bache, formerly of this city, but now of Colorado Springs, Col., will return this week after a visit with Eastern friends.

Captain and Mrs. A. B. Shatduck, of Washington, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Brooks, of the borough, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Murphy, of East Second street, will leave this week for Denver Col., where they will visit for an indefinite period.

Elmer E. Garretson, of Allentown, Pa., has been spending a few days here with his father, J. F. Garretson, of West Fourth street. He was called here by the latter's illness.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Hugh Hastings will deliver a lecture before the Men's Club of Grace church tonight on "Grant—the Man and Soldier."

William D. Murray, of this city, conducted the services at the May E. Wilson Memorial chapel, Watchung, last night.

The Missionary and Aid Society of Warren chapel, will meet Friday afternoon and consider missionary affairs at Porto Rico and Cuba and Siam and Laos.

The Women's Guild of the Church of the Holy Cross will hold a tea at the residence of Mrs. John Oscar Stevens, 340 Clinton avenue, Tuesday afternoon, May 19, from 4 to 7 o'clock. A silver offering will be received at the door.

FIREMEN MUST MAKE PLEDGE.

Basking Ridge Novitiates Into Company Will Have to Sign Agreements.

Basking Ridge, May 11.—At the last meeting of the Basking Ridge Fire Company they voted to adopt the following pledge as a requirement for membership.

"I do solemnly promise that I will do all in my power to promote the good of the fire company. I will keep all the secret workings and business of the company from those not members of this company and will do whatever I am asked to do, as long as it pertains to the welfare of the company and does not interfere with my religious or moral duties. I further promise that I will never drink intoxicating liquor when on duty or parade. I further promise that I will never knowingly wrong or defraud any member of this company. I will never let personal feelings interfere when the interests of the company are at stake and I will consider this obligation as binding out of the company as in it, and breaking the obligation, I forfeit all my rights and privileges as a member of the Basking Ridge Fire Company, No. 1. To the faithful performance of this I pledge myself as a man."

CARPENTER SHOOTS HIMSELF.

Herbert Furgerson, Whose Mind Seemed Affected, Fires Tree Bullets Into His Breast.

Hampton Junction, May 11.—Herbert Fugerson, about forty years old, shot himself in the left breast Saturday, under peculiar circumstances. As a carpenter Mr. Furgerson had been working on a new house in this place. For several days his mind did not appear to be right, and as he did not go to work Saturday his friends watched him. He eluded them however, and a search was made for him.

Theodore Hardy saw him at a distance beyond New Hampton, and started after him. Before Mr. Hardy could reach him Furgerson drew a revolver from his pocket and fired several shots in his left breast. He was taken to his home in a precarious condition and sent to the Easton, Pa. Hospital, where but little hopes are entertained for his recovery. He has a wife but no children.

—Advertise in The Daily Press

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c. a week.

CITY.

Union News Co. ..... R. R. Station
J. W. Harper ..... 411 Park Ave
R. A. Laing ..... 149 W. Front St
A. D. Mallinson ..... Fourth and Liberty Sts
Valley Waiting Room ..... Watchung Ave.
W. Estil ..... 111 Park Ave.
Steele & Stahl ..... 113 Somerset St.
Blakey & Son ..... 231 Watchung Ave.
T. Garthwaite ..... 212 Watchung Ave.
A. Anderson ..... 657 West Fourth St.
John Mottley ..... Cor. E. 3d & Richmond Sts

SUBURBAN.

Dunellen ..... B. Siriski
New Market ..... R. Burdick
Bound Brook ..... Union News Co.
Bound Brook ..... L. M. Davis
Somerville ..... Jacob Genert
Westfield ..... C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield ..... J. W. Wall
South Plains ..... Chas. Elliott
South Plainfield ..... Victor Attlee
Fanwood ..... Chas. Elliott
Netherwood ..... Blaney & Son

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS

RARITAN.

Rev. J. J. Brinner sailed last week on the steamer Slavonia for a three months' tour of Europe. Rev. Father Ulrich, the assistant, will have charge of St. Bernard's parish in his absence. A missionary from the Paulist Fathers at Hoboken, had charge of the services yesterday.

Counsel John F. Reger reported to the Board of Commissioners at its meeting Monday evening that it was the opinion of the Board of Education that it would be best not to use the school grounds as a public playground during the summer.

Miss Gertrude Moser, a trained nurse of Brooklyn, is making her home with the Misses Davis on Somerset street.

Mrs. E. F. Williams has returned from Brooklyn, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Michael Craine.

Mrs. William Campbell, of Newark, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Cooper, on Easton avenue.

Willis Applegate, of Garwood, has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Applegate.

James Cunningham has returned from Dover, where he has been visiting.

Miss Tessie Greene is visiting at the home of Mrs. Joseph Harding.

BOUND BROOK AND VICINITY.

Albert Close, of Bound Brook, and Miss Beulah Shock, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Shock, of Plainfield, were married Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, at 37 Prospect place. Mr. and Mrs. Close will reside in Plainfield. The bride was a former resident of South Bound Brook.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Duryea in Prospect street, South Bound Brook, were Mrs. William Polhemus and Mrs. Jennie Smith, of Millstone.

Mrs. Edward Fisher, of Philadelphia, is being entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Harney, in West High street, Bound Brook.

Mrs. N. B. K. Hoffman, of New York, has been spending a week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Weart, in Mountain avenue, Bound Brook.

After running on a schedule of forty hours a week for several weeks, the American Engine Company of Bound Brook is now working full time.

Dr. and Mrs. Donohue and family, of New Brunswick, are now at Cedarhurst, their summer home on the mountainside, north of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Apgar, of Cedar street, South Bound Brook, have been entertaining Miss Florence Stryker, of New Brunswick.

Mrs. Edward Harsell, of New York, is a guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Edward Long, in Prospect street, South Bound Brook.

Mrs. Harriet Polhemus, of West Union avenue, Bound Brook, is spending several days with friends in Plainfield.

Mrs. A. S. Phelps, of Bound Brook, is spending some time with friends at Newton, Mass.

Mrs. G. F. Day, of Bound Brook, is recovering from a severe attack of ptomaine poison.

NORTH BRANCH.

The funeral of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Quick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Quick, of South Branch, was held in her home in that place Saturday afternoon. Rev. Isaac Sperling, pastor of the Reformed church, officiated. Miss Quick passed away early Thursday morning after a short illness.

Rev. John T. Scott, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Lamington, is scheduled for a brief address at the county Christian Endeavor convention tomorrow.

John A. Wickenhaver, of Jersey City, and Charles Hoffman, of Brooklyn, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Wickenhaver, Jr., at Pluckemin.

Mrs. Frederick Dealaman has returned to her home at Martinsville, after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Petty, in North Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Mingle, of North Branch, have been recent guests of Mrs. Mingle's sister, Mrs. David Nevius, in New Brunswick.

Joseph Williams and daughter Hortense, of Bayonne, have been visiting the Misses Belle and Mary Morrison, at Neshanic Station.

Mrs. George Straithe, of Middlebush, has been spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Matilda Higgins, at South Branch.

P. M. Williams is having a concrete sidewalk laid in front of his residence in North Branch.

WESTFIELD.

Property owners on Broad street, Westfield, object to paving that street with brick between Elm street and Westfield avenue. They claim that the cost will be too great and that the work should not be done until he telephone conduits are laid. The Council has agreed not to complete the work until the conduits are in.

Westfield Council will receive bids for 5,500 feet of eight-inch sanitary sewer pipe at the meeting of May 18. The sewers are to be laid in Highland avenue, Tremont avenue, Fairmount avenue, Clinton street, Carlton road and Fairfield circle.

Subscriptions to the Memorial Day fund may be handed to S. W. Reese, who is the chairman of the committee in charge of the exercises at Westfield.

The annual business meeting of the Men's Club of the Westfield Congregational church will be held tomorrow evening in the church parlors.

A reception to new members of the Men's League of the Westfield Methodist church will be held this evening.

Rev. F. E. Sturgis occupied the pulpit of the Westfield Congregational church at both services yesterday.

SOMERVILLE.

The Amusement Club was entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Charles Kenyon and Mrs. Francis Vanderveer at the home of the former on West End avenue. The prizes were taken by Mrs. George Thompson, Miss Beatrice Safford and Mrs. Louis Easton.

A reception was given Friday evening by the pupils of Mrs. Westcott in Germania Hall. It was a very satisfactory social event.

Mrs. Foster and daughter, of Perth Amboy, are visiting at the home of Dennis Wyckoff in East Millstone.

Mrs. Theodore Henry and daughter, Miss Alice, of Philadelphia, are guests of Mrs. Lawler.

Misses Lydia and Florence Conover have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ross Conover in Garwood.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Polhemus are visiting their daughter, Mrs. E. M. Blake, of Brooklyn.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

A mixed entertainment by the pupils of the New Market school was held at the school building Saturday night, when a neat sum was netted for the school piano fund. The program included songs and recitations by the pupils of Miss Smith's class, recitations and drills by pupils of Miss Robins' class, marches, instrumental and vocal solos, by pupils of the upper classes, a flag drill by eighteen boys and girls of the school and a three act drama, "Stage Struck." In this playlet the cast of characters follows: "Mr. Maywood," Milton Randolph; "Frederick, his son," Albert Nelson; "Mrs. Cowslip," Miss Edith Giles; "Cora Neville," Miss Edith VanNuis.

The excavation for the foundations of the addition to John P. Fenner's store, being made by A. A. Gray, the owner, is now practically completed, and the actual work of construction will begin in a few days. The addition will have an eighteen foot frontage and will be as deep as the adjoining store. It will be used as an addition to the hardware store.

The local nine got trimmed by the Mono A. C. team, of Plainfield on the Dunellen diamond Saturday afternoon. The final score was 4-1. The game was won in the first inning, when unsteadiness in the field was responsible for three runs for the Monos. The Dunellenites made their only run in the ninth.

Rev. George H. Gardner, pastor of the New Market Baptist church, preached the third of his sermons from "quaint texts" last night, when his topic was "The Upper Ten and the Lower Five, of the Problem of the Rich and the Poor." Music was a feature of the service, which was largely attended.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The game Saturday between the local team and Star A. C., of Newark, was brought to an end in the first inning by rain. The Star had been retired in one, two, three order and the home team were at the bat with one out and no runs when the downpour came. The game from the looks of the two teams promised to have been an interesting one. Manager Albert has booked the same team for a game later in the season.

The special meetings which have been held in the Baptist church for several weeks past, by Rev. Mr. Atkinson and Frank Fitzgerald the Gospel Singer, were brought to a close last night with a Union service of the Methodist and Baptist churches. The results of the meetings has been encouraging, beside reviving the spiritual interest in the church among its own members, a number of converts have been made.

The local ball team are wearing a mourning band on the left arm of their shirts, in memory of Augustus Frentz, whose sudden death a week ago shocked the whole town.

The Farthers Light Society of the Baptist church held its anniversary meeting yesterday afternoon in the church parlors.

The members of the Epworth League held an interesting meeting in the class rooms of the Methodist church last night.

Miss Caroline Lewis has been entertaining her friend, Miss Baker, of Brooklyn, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Paff, Sr., entertained relatives from out of town over Sunday.

The weekly meeting of the B. Y. P. U. was held in the parlors of the church last night.

The local team play the Junior order team of Plainfield, Saturday afternoon.

S. Dana Townsend spent the week end with relatives in Newark.

RAHWAY VALLEY R. R. USES GASOLINE CARS.

Summit, May 11.—The first trip of a car propelled by a gasoline engine was made over the line of the Rahway Valley Railroad between this city and Aldene Saturday morning and proved highly satisfactory to the officials of the road and those interested in the motor car company.

On board the car Irene, owned by the Strang Car Company, which was used in the experiment on the first trip over the road, were Louis C. Keller and George F. Dankel, vice-president and general superintendent of the Rahway Valley company; L. G. Nilson, chief engineer; John W. Eskoholme, assistant chief; F. S. Loomas, engineer, all of the Strang company, and Henry H. Archer, of the J. G. Brill Car Company and W. F. Ostranda, of the American Car Foundry Company. The car was run yesterday too, and it was said today that if the public expression favors the gasoline-propelled car to that of steam, which has been run over the line since the road began, the gasoline cars will be installed.

Buffalo Rector Going to Orange.

A call to become rector of All Saints' church, Orange, has been accepted by the Rev. John B. Pitcher, at present rector of St. Barnabas's church, Buffalo. Mr. Pitcher will succeed the Rev. J. Woods Elliott, resigned. He will assume his new duties on May 17.

—A special school meeting will be held at Watchung on Tuesday, May 19, to vote on appropriations for the year.

TEPPERS 109-111-113 WEST FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

AGENTS FOR STANDARD PATTERNS

THIS add contains more real money-saving bargains than we have offered in some time—read it through, some of the items will interest you, and prove to our material benefit – as it is our purpose to make these departments more popular —and yours—to save on your purchases.

SILK RUBBERIZED COATS

with satin stripe, full length, with high rolling collar; good for stormy or nice weather; colors black and navy; worth $15, at..... $10

Black Broadcloth Coats, made of high grade cloth, with Belding satin lining, semi-fitting model, 27 inches long, silk stitching; regular $8.49, at $5

Black Taffeta Silk Coats, 24 inch, long semi-fitting, neatly trimmed in silk braid, satin lining, made with ¾ sleeves; a stylish dressy spring coat; worth $10, at..... $6.95

An attractive Butterfly Suit, made of fine Chiffon Panama, in plain and pin stripes, well tailored, coat with good satin lining, full flare skirt; colors black, blue and brown; value $15.98, at $10

27 inch Coat Suit, made of all wool Panama and Serges, semi-fitting; coat double breasted front; skirt is side pleated; colors black, blue and brown; value $12.50, at..... $8.98

Taffeta Jumper Dress, in brown pin stripes, plain brown and black; value $10, at $7.95

Taffeta Jumper Dress, black only, made of fine quality heavy taffeta; jumper has attractive hand work, full wide skirt, pleated, with 5 inch band; excellent $15 value, at..... $11.50

Taffeta Jumper Dress, in Copenhagen and Champagne, trimmed in silk two shades deeper; jumper and skirt as well as the belt, making a pretty, stylish dress; $16.50 value, at $12.75

THE "FAULTLESS" MEN'S PAJAMAS AND NIGHT GOWNS AT 60c ON THE DOLLAR

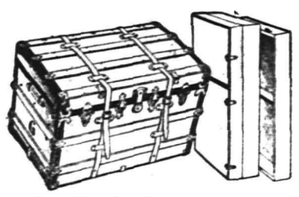
Last Saturday we told you about this well known house having their stock damaged by fire and sold at auction. Though the boxes were scarcely damaged and the goods are really perfectly fresh, we bought two lots that were made up for Stern Bros. on 23rd street, New York, and Webber & Heilbroner, men's furnishers. Both these houses are known to carry only high class merchandise. Their labels are on these garments as well as that of the makers, the "Faultless."

The Night Shirts are made of fine cambric and long cloth, with collars, or the low cut neck, trimmed in fine white braids, 20 dozen of these; were made to retail for $1.25 and $1.50, at.. .75

The Pajamas are made of fine cross bar nainsooks, with the military style coat, or the low neck cut, nicely braided; 5 dozen only; were made to retail for $1.50 and $1.75, at..... $1

Best quality Calicos; only 15 pieces of these, so you have to come early to get this bargain; medium and dark colors; 7½c qquality, at yard 5

Washington Percales; just 18 pieces in the lot, 30 inches wide; colors red and indigo blue; neat patterns; 10c quality, at, yard..... .7½



Here is the Two-Lock Trunk at $7.50

And its the best trunk that $7.50 ever bought. Of course there are better looking trunks made, but they cost much more than this one. No matter what you pay for a trunk you won't get one that will give you better service. But don't get the idea because this trunk is built strictly for the strenuous life, with more thought for strength than for beauty, that it is not good enough looking too. But it's the good looks of solidity and strength rather than of grace and elegance. The sole leather strap around the centre, in addition to the two-lock feature, makes it doubly secure; sizes 30-23, 34 and 36 inches, at..... $7.50

HAHNE & CO.

IMPORTERS · NEWARK'S STORE BEAUTIFUL BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STREETS · RETAILERS ·

Beginning Monday---Our Annual Sale

Dainty Undermuslins.

COMBINATION LOT NO. 1.

Corset Covers; French style, trimmed with lace ruffles, insertions, beading and ribbon.

Drawers of muslin with full ruffles of hemstitched tucks, or lace trimmed ruffles.

Short Skirts of muslin and tucked ruffles; all sizes.

Value 29c, 21c.

COMBINATION LOT NO. 2.

Corset Covers of Nainsook; yokes trimmed with embroidery and ribbon; others with yokes of lace and lace insertions.

Drawers with lace insertions and edge, embroidery and hemstitched ruffles.

Short Skirts and Petticoats with tucked flounce.

Gowns—High and low neck styles; long and short sleeves, with trimmings of lace and embroidery.

Value 50c, 39c.

COMBINATION LOT NO. 3.

Gowns, in high, V and chemise styles; pretty trimmings of embroidery insertions and edge; also lace insertions and ribbons.

Drawers, of all desirable materials, trimmed with open and blind embroidery, hemstitched and lace trimmed ruffles.

Corset Covers, trimmed with a variety of new laces and insertions, embroidering, beading and ribbons.

Long Petticoats, with deep flounce trimmed with embroidery or lace ruffles. Short skirts, hemstitched, tucked, lace or embroidery trimmed.

Chemises, regular length, and Skirt Chemises with tucked ruffles; yokes trimmed with lace insertions and ribbon.

Value 85c, 65c.

COMBINATION LOT NO. 4.

Gowns, Skirt Chemises, Drawers, Corset Covers, Short Skirts, Walking Petticoats and Combination Undergarments, of nainsook, cambric or muslin; trimmed with embroidery or lace insertions in many beautiful designs; finished with beading and ribbon bows; an immense variety to choose from.

Value 1.25, 89c.

COMBINATION LOT NO. 5.

Isabella and Athletic Drawers; lace trimmed.

Night Gowns, in all wanted materials, elaborately trimmed with lace insertions, embroidery medallions, embroidery insertions; bias bands and ribbons.

Corset Covers; open front or back; of allover embroidery, dimity, crossbar, lace insertions and embroidery.

Petticoats with deep flounces or blind or open embroidery, lace insertions and edge; also hemstitched tucked ruffles.

Short Skirts with dainty trimmings of lace insertions and embroidery.

Skirt Chemises; yokes trimmed with lace or embroidery medallions, lace insertions and ribbon bow.

Corset Covers, Skirts or Corset Cover and Drawers combined; variously trimmed.

Value 1.50, 1.19.

COMBINATION LOT NO. 6.

Combination Undergarments, Drawers, Petticoats, Chemises, Gowns and Short Skirts in the newest designs, trimmed with prettiest of laces and embroideries.

Value 2.00, 1.39.

Corset Covers—Felled seams; high and low neck; tight fitting or French styles; value 19c, at ..... .12½

HAND-MADE GOODS — French Hand-made Undergarments—beautifully embroidered or decorated with lace; to go in this sale at just half original prices.

Odd lots and sizes of Gowns, Chemises, Drawers, Corset Covers and Petticoats, slightly soiled from being displayed, at greatly reduced prices. Many garments of the best grade not mentioned in our special items, but it should be remembered that we have reduced every garment in our entire stock for this sale in proportion to those we do quote.

SOME STATE NEWS BRIEFS

By today 100 families will be occupying their summer homes at Pitman Grove.

Rev. Charles D. Parker, pastor of the Baptist church, York, Pa., has accepted a call to the First Baptist church, Woodstown.

A shepherd dog, valued at $150, owned by Edward Owens, and two valuable dogs belonging to William Miller, have been poisoned at Williamstown.

Deputy Sheriff Thomas L. Wilson, of Woodbury, is hustling in the interests of his campaign for sheriff of Gloucester County on the Republican ticket.

Members of Atlantic City Forest, Tall Cedars, of Lebanon, have received gorgeous uniforms in which they will appear at an initiatory ceremony in Philadelphia soon.

Lightning struck the barn of Mrs. Michael Duffield at Clarksboro, and tore most of the roof off, but did not fire the barn or touch several horses and cows in the building.

Known only by men on the barge Owl as "Ed" a man about twenty-three years old, fell overboard on the west side of Cooper's Creek, at Federal street, Camden, yesterday afternoon, and was drowned.

Pastors of all the churches in Collingswood have signed a letter to the Camden County Country Club, whose grounds are within the limits of Collingswood, asking the organization to stop golf playing on Sunday. If the club fails to comply with the request the ministers will appeal to Mayor Collings to enforce the Sunday observance ordinance.

Last Sunday a diamond ear-ring valued at $150, was mysteriously stolen from Mrs. Mary Ortman, North Florida avenue, Atlantic City. It was taken from her ear while she was sleeping in her home. Today she reported to Captain of Detectives Whalen that the ear-ring was as mysteriously returned. She said that upon waking up from a nap she found it upon the bureau in her bedroom. The woman is mystified, as are others in the cottage.

Edward Cotty, of Risley, says he was engaged in digging a cellar under a cabin about six miles east of Millville Thursday, when he struck a huge stone about a foot beneath the surface. Assisted by Andrew Snyder, the veteran deer hunter, Cotty says, they lifted the stone and found an old iron pot containing a considerable sum of money in coin and valuable papers, including several old deeds, which, he says, are believed to cover a large portion of the deer woods surrounding the cabin, which are now claimed by non-resident sportsmen.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS

Grace George, direct from her New York and London triumphs, comes to the New Plainfield theatre Memorial Day, matinee and night, presenting the Margaret Mayo version of Sardou's "Divorcons." Miss George will appear in the part of the captivating and capricious Cyprienne, a role to which she is said to be especially adapted.

"Divorcons" is a comedy in three acts and though it was written more than twenty-five years ago, so modern is the theme, and so adequately has it been translated that the average theatregoer would think it a product of today. As might be presupposed from its title, "Divorcons" has to do largely with the all absorbing question of divorce. The chief character is Cyprienne, a young woman of great beauty who has married a middle aged genius whose whole time is devoted to inventions and who is somewhat eccentric.

In the fullness of time, she realizes that she is being more or less neglected and her fancy turns to a young officer in the Forestry Department of the Government. "Divorcons" might aptly be renamed, "She fell in love with her Husband," for that describes the plot of the comedy as well as anything could.

The husband allows Cyprienne every latitude and thus it comes about that she, woman like, realizes that there is little of romance in an affair of this kind when it is not forbidden and has apparently the full sanction of her husband.

SPORTS HERE AND THERE

GOLF.

At an executive committee meeting of the New Jersey State Golf Association held in New York last week, the Deal Golf and Country Club was elected to membership in the association. Details for the annual championship to be held at Englewood early in June, were decided upon and the program will be issued shortly. The organization, which is in a flourishing condition, has a balance in the treasury of $349.

The year book for 1908 has been printed and is being distributed. It contains the constitution, list of clubs, officers and committees, conditions for the Lesley cup competitions, handicap system and the 1908 association handicap list.

A special one-day tournament open to members of the East Jersey Golf League, will be held at the Canoe Brook Country Club Saturday, May 16. According to the conditions the two lowest gross scores of the morning eighteen-hole medal round will compete at eighteen holes in the afternoon for a prize. There will also be four-ball foursomes in the morning. The team match, four from each club, will consist of thirty-six holes medal play. There will be three prizes in the eighteen-hole medal play handicap during the afternoon.

There are now seven clubs in the league, the Colonial Country Club and the New Brunswick Golf Club having been recently admitted to membership. It has been definitely settled to have the annual spring tournament of the league held at the Forest Hill Field Club, June 19 and 20. These were the dates originally mentioned. The annual championship of the league is slated for the Deal Golf and Country Club October 2 and 3.

BASEBALL.

There was a play in the West the other day in which Dougherty of the White Sox started for home on the squeeze, with Davis at the bat. Payne, the Detroit catcher, stepped in front of the batter and took the ball and touched Dougherty out. Umpire O'Loughlin ruled that Payne had a right to do this and did not interfere with the batter. His ruling was based on the ground that the Detroit pitcher had not started to make his motion and that Payne had a right to step forward just as if he were taking a ball being fielded to the plate. It is asserted that this ruling, if sustained, will kill the squeeze play. There is no reason whatever why it should. Dougherty simply started in too soon, that was all. The way to work the squeeze is to wait until the pitcher begins to wind up, in which event stepping in front of the batter would constitute interference.

They may raise their base lines in Pittsburg, as charged, but it will be a god deal harder to raise a pennant.

Johnny Kling of the Cubs had a putout at second base the other day, this unusual play being due to the forgetfulness of Fred Clarke. With Leach on second, Clarke on first and Wagner at the bat, Clarke thought there were two strikes on Wagner and ran for second on the next pitch. It was only the second strike, and Leach struck to his base. Kling chased out on the diamond from behind the bat and touched Clarke out at second base.

There's a silver lining even to the solid array of clouds that have hung over baseball diamonds the last few days. Nobody has had a chance to speak of a "grand" catch or a "swell" catch.

Billy Sullivan says George Davis makes a base runner hug second so closely that the latter rarely steals third when Davis is in the neighborhood.

Walter Clarkson, the former Jersey City and Yankee pitcher, has not yet come to terms with the Cleveland club, and instead of playing ball he is managing a shoe store in Cleveland.

Evidence that baseball discipline is more rigidly adhered to in the American League than in the National is made plainly apparent by Ban Johnson's action in paying Jake Stahl's $100 fine, recently inflicted by the national commission, and ordering the New York club to deduct the amount from Stahl's salary. Mike Donlin, of the Giants, who was also fined the same amount at the same time as Stahl has not yet paid, and reports from Cincinnati indicate that Garry Herrman will take drastic action if Donlin or the New York club fails to come forward and pay the fine.

President Herrmann, of the national commission, is out for another ball players' field day, which was such a big success in Cincinnati last season. Herrmann stated yesterday that no official action has yet been taken by him, but he added that the carnival will be held in one of the major league cities next fall.

Plainfield Council, No. 294, Jr. O. U. A. M., will hold a regular meeting tonight.

Advertisements
—FOR—
New York Herald,
World, Times, Sun, Journal,
Telegram, American,
Brooklyn Eagle
—and—
Newark Evening News
Received at
The Daily Press
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

Complete line of
AUTOMOBILE Supplies and Tires
AT LOWEST NEW YORK PRICES.
Thompson Auto Co.
413 Park Ave. Tel. 991-J

Mrs. John Brown,
Successor to
John Burke and Jones & Co.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned from $3.00 Upwards.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Don't give your order until you consult me
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at
J. T. Vail's, North avenue, Plainfield, N. J.
Postoffice Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

We have made arrangements for a larger supply of first-class milk and and are givng the family trade our special attention. . If you are not satisfied with the milk or the services you are getting give us a trial.

Price 9 cents a quart, 5 cents a pint. Cream 14 cents a ½ pint.

Lindsay's Dairy,
965 West Front St.
TEL. 792-J.

J. NEUSTADT
MERCHANT TAILOR,
Ladies' Tailoring a Specialty. Cleaning, Pressing, Altering at lowest prices. Work called for and delivered. Formerly with R. A. Rieley, Fifth Avenue, New York.
Spring and Summer Styles now ready.
430 WATCHUNG AVENUE
Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 668-W.

New Jersey Central

In Effect January 26, 1908.

For New York—2.17, 3.37, 5.36, 6.02, 6.29, 6.57, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.47, 7.55, 8.00, 8.11, 8.30, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.59, 10.28, 10.56 a. m., 12.00, 12.19, 12.42, 1.09, 1.27, 2.31, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.45, 5.53, 6.29, 6.48, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.27, 9.31, 10.17, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.17, 3.37, 4.47, 7.23, 7.58, 8.52, 9.34, 9.45, 10.18, 10 32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.29, 6.57, 7.05, 7.25, 7.28, 7.47, 8.11, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.59, 10.56 a. m., 12.42, 1.09, 1.27, 2.31, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.45, 5.53, 6.29, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.31 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 2.00, 5.22, 5.47 p. m Sundays—5.45 a. m., 2.03, 5.47, 7.05 p m

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 5.47 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.37, 8.11, 10.55 a. m., 12.42 (Saturdays only), 3.42, 4.45, 5.53, 8.27, 11.28 p. m. Sundays—3.37, 8.52 a. m., 8.30, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.37, 9.29 a. m., (12.42 Saturdays only), 1.27, 2.44 (3.42 Lakewood only), (5.53 Lakewood only, Saturdays only) p. m. Sundays—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.45 a. m., 1.45 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.13, 7.29, 8.45, 9.13, 10.43 a. m., 12.13, 12.42, 1.39, 2.14, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 1.17 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.53, 10.39, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.55, 6.39, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 11.25, 1.17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m. Sundays—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

*Change cars at Bound Brook.

W. G. BESLER, Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr.
W. C. HOPE, Gen. Pass. Agt.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.
Office opens 7 a. m., closes 7 p. m.
On Saturdays close half hour later.

NEW YORK MAIL.
Arrive—7:00, 8:40, 11:30 a. m., 2:30, 5:00, 5:30, 9 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:30, 6:00, 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 1:30, 3:15 and 7 p. m
Close—7:30 a. m., 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40 and 11:30 a. m., 2:36 7:00 p. m.
Close—7:15, 7:30, 9:30 a. m., 12:35, 2:30, 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST.
Close—1:00 and 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST AND SOUTH.
Close—12:35, 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton.
Close—12:35 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:30 a. m., 2:20, 6:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:15, 7:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:20 and 6:00

WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m.
Close—9:00 a. m.

WATCHUNG.
Close—5:30 p. m.
Arrive—6:45 p. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P M.

Press Want Ads. Pay

Rich Milk 8c a quart. Rich Cream 12c half pt. Buttermilk 6c a quart

Plainfield Milk & Cream Co,
MARCHANT BROS.,
112 WATCHUNG AVENUE

207 BROAD ST ELIZABETH LOAN Co. 207 BROAD ST
"Reliable Money Brokers"
IF IT'S A QUESTION OF DOLLARS.

We may be able to help you out. At any rate if you'll inform us of your needs, we'll try. The winter months just past have raised the expenses of the average householder to their highest point and many of us have been unable to meet all of our obligations as promptly as we would like to and consequently find ourselves in debt.

SUPPOSE we were to advance you sufficient funds to meet your obligations. Do you not think you would be more satisfied to have only one payment to look after on pay day?

There is no place where money will be advanced you more willingly or where you will receive more courteous treatment than from us. It's worth investigating.

The possession of household goods, horses and wagons is sufficient evidence of your ability to pay. Call, write or 'phone.

ELIZABETH LOAN COMPANY.
Room 24 Hersh Bldg. Telephone 778-R. Elizabeth, N. J.

FREE! CARR'S BALLS FREE!

With Each Copy of the
DECLARATION OF THE U. S. at 10c EACH.
Something Every Boy Ought to Know
W. H. OLMSTED, the Hustler
331 Watchung Avenue
BEST DELIVERY SERVICE IN THE CITY

PLAINFIELD OFFICE
EISELE & KING
Members of the New York and Philadelphia Stock Exchanges
In the Babcock Building, West Front St.
Private wires East and West. Ticker service. Orders executed as rapidly as in any New York office
W. De LaR. ANDERSON, Manager.

NO PLACE LIKE HOBOKEN.

Bulgarian Globetrotter Has a Reason for His Belief.

Hoboken, May 11.—Myer Segal, a Bulgarian, has traveled the whole world through during the last four years, and says Hoboken, which he only reached a week ago, is the best town he has yet visited.

The reason for this statement is because through his visit to Hoboken he is likely to recover about $500 worth of baggage which he lost four years ago, when the French liner La Champagne docked in New York.

No Patent Appeals Court.

Washington, May 11.—The House committee on patents has tabled the bill proposing to create a court of patent appeals. A measure of this kind has passed the Senate, but the action of the House committee means that the proposed court will not be created at this session of Congress.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Freck, of Stone street, removed today to Passaic, where Mr. Freck has taken a position.

THE DAILY PRESS.

Plainfield, N. J., May 11, 1908.

May 11 in History.

1778—William Pitt died; born 1708.
1849—Mme. Recamier (Jeanne Francoise Julie Adelaide Bernard), a beautiful and accomplished French lady, died; born 1777.
1871—Sir John Frederick William Herschel, distinguished astronomer, died; born 1792.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

Sun sets 7:02, rises 4:42; moon sets 8:13 a. m.; 5 a. m., planet Mercury at perihelion, nearest approach to sun; sun's declination, 18 degrees north of celestial equator.

The Daily Press was twenty-one years of age yesterday. Though it has just attained its majority in years it became Plainfield's "leading newspaper" soon after it birth. That it maintains that supremacy today is attested by its popularity among all classes of people in both city and borough. Appreciating this reputation, in the future as in the past, the policy of this paper will be to publish all the news, accurately and impartially. This has ever been the aim, and in the years to come no deviation from it will be made. Forty years ago, the Weekly Constitutionalist, was fonuded by the late W. L. and A. L. Force, the latter now the pioneer publisher in Union county. On May 10, 1887, the brothers ventured into the field of daily newspaperdom, still continuing to publish the Constitutionalist, which today enjoys a satisfactory circulation. From the outset, The Daily Press proved popular. At the beginning of its twenty-second year its prosperity is the greatest in its history notwithstanding the so-called "hard times."

P. H. S. PUPIL'S SUCCESS

(Continued from page 1.)

"Stingo," Landlord of the "Three Pigeons," Sallo M. Kahn; "Young Marlow," Orlando H. Lounsbury; "Squire Hardcastle," Percy LaB. Mygrant; "George Hastings," Donald C. Mortimer; "Tony Lumpkin," Chauncey R. Murphey; "Diggory" and "Tom Twist," Arthur B. Titsworth; "Roger" and "Slang," John B. Schofield; "Dick" and "Mat" Muggins," Mose Rubenstein; "Thomas" and "Jeremy," Walter J. Hammond; Bar Boy, Leslie N. Leland; "Mrs. Hardcastle," Sara L. Sanderson; "Kate Hardcastle," Esther B. Crampton; "Constance Neville," Elsa M. Cook; Maid and Barmaid in "Three Pigeons," Katherine Gray.

Business managers, W. B. Caldwell and William V. Rafferty; program committee, Sallo M. Kahn and Arthur B. Titsworth; property managers, Isidare Rothberg and Mose Rubenstein; advertising manager, G. H. Pound; chairman candy committee, Carola E. Hart; ushers, A. C. Nash, Henry Pound, William T. Lambert, John Dutcher and Wallace Pearce. The musical program by the theatre orchestra was under the direction of Charles M. Suhr and was well rendered.

ELKS TO BUILD A CHURCH.

Poughkeepsie, May 11.—As a proof of the appreciation of the order of Elks of the Rev. Marvin V. Jacobs, who gave up his pastoral charge rather than accede to the demands of the Pine Plains Baptist church that he resign from Poughkeepsie lodge, prominent Elks expect to raise a fund of $80,000 for the erection and endowment of an Elks church in this city. The Rev. Mr. Jacobs will be asked to take permanent charge of it. The funds will be raised by a voluntary assessment of 25 cents on each of the 350,000 Elks in the United States.

Plainfield Horses Win.

Several Plainfielders took part in the trial steeplechase meet held Saturday afternoon at the old Linden Park racetrack. There were six events, and several hundred spectators witnessed the races, all of which were well conducted. C. W. Fisk on "Apple Jack," won the second race for the Meadow Lark cup, steeplechase, while C. F. Wildey's "Barry Baylor," owner up, won the fifth race for the Inwood cup. Entered in the different events were horses owned by members of well-known hunt clubs of Northern New Jersey.

Taking Lessons in Tandem Driving.

Miss Mabel Hooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Hooley, of North Plainfield, who has exhibited successfully her thoroughbred string at the various horse shows, this season, as in the past, is taking lessons in tandem driving from Charles K. Fownes, the well-known four-in-hand whip. Miss Hooley has appeared at several shows this year, and will also attend the Philadelphia and Plainfield shows with her prize-winners.

Headquarters for
John Gibson's
RYE.
E. C. Westcott, Agent.
115 East Front Street.

WORKING FOR MISSIONS

Twenty-seventh Anniversary of Ladies' Christian Work Society of Trinity

REPORTS ARE ENCOURAGING.

Rev. Dr. E. P. Johnson Makes Address—Musical Features During Service.

Encouraging reports of the past year's work from the secretary, Mrs. M. G. Woodruff, and the treasurer, Mrs. L. M. Dunavan, together with an appropriate sermon on the subject, "The Right Spirit," by Rev. Dr. E. P. Johnson, combined to make the twenty-seventh anniversary of the Ladies' Christian Work Society of Trinity Reformed church, a pleasant and profitable event, last night. Over thirty members of the society attended the service in a body and occupied seats in the front of the church.

During the opening part of the services, the quartet choir, Miss S. Etta Raybert, soprano; Miss Winifred Carroll, contralto; Fred S. Cutter, bass and Edmund D. Young, tenor, rendered several anthems, with solo parts by Miss Raybert and Miss Carroll.

The report of Mrs. Woodruff stated that of the membership of forty-nine, many were kept from the meetings through the year by illness, but the average of twenty-five is over that of the preceding year. There have been no deaths in the society. The sewing meetings have had a higher average of attendance. One box of useful articles was sent to Rev. Bernard Mollena, of Ringoes, Wisconsin, valued at $165.75. Another barrel valued at $21.92 was sent to Rev. Thomas Nanee, a colored minister working among his people at Lynchburg, S. C. In addition the usual barrels of clothing was forwarded to the Schofield School, Aiken, S. C., which contained all such articles that were deemed unsuitable to be sent either in the box or barrel, but which are always acceptable there in the work of making the negro self-reliant. Three were sent valued at $24.50.

Beside this medical supplies were sent to Grey Hawk, Kentucky, through the mission band, $25 toward the beginning of the work among the Mescalers Apache Indians and $30 for the general work of the Women's Board. The society also sent $40.50 and forty-one articles for the summer sewing guild for general or specific objects for foreign work. Grateful remembrance was also made of Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, who recently severed his pastoral relations.

The report of the treasurer, Mrs. L. M. Dunavan follows:

General fund—Balance on hand, May 1, 1907, $188.13; received during the year from special collections, proceeds of strawberry festival, musical and other sources, $466.89, total $655.02. Disbursements on account of the above, $289.25, balance, $365.77. Missionary fund—Received from collections during year for missionary purposes, $60; special gifts to missionary fund, $35; total, $95. Disbursements—check to Mrs. White for work among the Indians, $25; Board of Foreign Missions to send out a new missionary, $5; Board of Foreign Mission for Arabian work, $5; Board of Foreign Missions, $30; Board of Domestic Missions, $30; total, $95. Sewing fund—amount collected during the year, $12.90; disbursements on account of same, $12.90. Poor fund—balance received from Mrs. Clark, $1.90; amount received during the year, $4.82, total $6.72, which has been rtansferred to the general fund.

Recapitulation—balance received from Mrs. Clark, treasurer, $188.13; proceeds from strawberry festival and collection of fines and dues during the year, $181.60; moneys raised by special collections and musical for church purposes, $267.99; collections and special gifts for missionary work, $95; collections for sewing fund, $12.90; collections for poor fund, $6.72, total, $752.34. Disbursements on account of same, $386.57, with a balance of $365.77.

Following the reports Dr. Johnson delivered an impressive and interesting sermon on the theme, "The Right Spirit," in which he took occasion to commend the members of the Ladies' Christian Work Society and say "well done." He said that he did not doubt but that if the hearing of the women was keener they might hear the Blessed Master say "well done." He said he thought the women were very much like the veterans of the G. A. R., who do not want fulsome praise, when they gather at such services, but rather want the cause they represent magnified, and if any praise is to be given it should be for those who suffered and labored hard and long.

"I realize that it is not fullsome praise you want," said Dr. Johnson, "but your spirit stirred to loftier asperations and devotion to your work. The right spirit would be your desire and prayer to do greater things in the future. In the help of the home church there is none so great as that of the weaker sex. Te women in their puttering way, as some people chose to call it, have accomplished a great deal, collecting pennies, nickels and dimes, and the men of the church are catching some of that spirit and undertaking great things.

"In fifteen cities in this country the men of the churches have promised to raise five times the amount given last year for missions. I expect to live to see the time when we shall still hold the lead, at $5 a member. We were predestinated to conform to the image of His Son. The spirit of the man shapes his character and it is most important what kind of a spirit he has. The actions of our daily life makes it important that we should have that spirit that it pleasing in God's sight."

In conclusion Dr. Johnson spoke personally of the way he had been inspired to loftier things by the helpful music of the choir in anthems and songs and by the unanimous support of the members of the hcurch, helping him to more clearly discern the will of God.

The church was simply, but appropriately decorated with flowers for the occasion by Mrs. George Cole and Mrs. L. B. VanCamp.

Entertained His Classmates.

Dr. Richard Moldenke entertained eleven members of the class of 1885, Columbia School of Mines, at "Castle Elsinore" Saturday night. The host and his classmates had a banquet at the castle, and spent the evening reviewing "the old college days." It is planned to form a regular organization of members of the class in this vicinity.

Season's First Century.

George Adams, captain of the Plainfield Cycling Club, was in charge of the centruy run of the New Jersey Division, N. C. A., which stopped in this city for dinner shortly after noon yesterday. There were about fifty cyclists in line, in two sections. The riders left Newark in the morning, coming to this city and returning by way of Bloomfield.

C. H. Frost's Gift.

Plans of the Peabody Museum, of Yale University, probably will include an effort to obtain a group of sea elephants this summer, the skins of which will be mounted in the mammalian room of the museum. The money for the expedition has been furnished by Charles H. Frost, of Plainfield, of the class of 1892.

Bike Club Takes Long Tour.

The Plainfield Cycling Club took a run to Tottenville yesterday, when sixteen riders, captained by Jock Horner, made the trip without accident. The ride started in the morning and the cyclists dined at Perth Amboy, crossing to Tottenville and thence back by way of Rahway and Elizabeth.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Love and children, of East Orange, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Love's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Dunn, of Grove street.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

The Woodhull & Martin Store

50c DRESS GOODS at 29c a yard

This is without question the best offering of absolutely new Dress Goods made this season. They are in the much wanted neat checks and plaids in light and dark colorings, full 36 inches wide; your choice at 29c a yard.

Grand Display of Trimmed Millinery.

We are exhibiting in our Millinery Parlors a very fine representation of the choicest and newest models, and are offering them at extremely moderate prices; also a large collection of untrimmed hats, tailor suit hats, flowers, foliage, feathers, ribbons, etc., etc.

PETTICOAT TALK.

Heatherbloom taffeta Petticoats in all the newest colorings and black, at 2.25.

The new Klosfit Petticoats, fits without a wrinkle, made of rustling taffeta, at 1.25, 1.50 and 2.50.

Feathersilk taffeta Petticoats, light and durable, in fancy stripes, at 2.25.

New seersucker Petticoats, in blue and white, and gray and white stripes, at 50c and 1.00.

NEW SHIRT WAISTS—EXCELLENT VALUES.

Our models have never been so chic and popular in price as now. Excellent values in both tailored and dress waists.

Fine lawn and batiste waists, elegantly trimmed with lace and embroidery. The newest models, at 98c, 1.25 and 1.50, and other styles ranging from 1.98 to 5.00.

Fancy colored polka dot Swiss Jabot waists; extra special values, at 1.25 and 1.75.

Beautiful lingerie waists, handsomely embroidered, at 5.00, 6.00 and up to 10.00.

Pretty tailor-made linen waists, open front models, at 2.75, 3.50 and 4.00.

Exceptionally Low Prices For Women's Summer Underwear

Plain white cotton ribbed vests, at 10c, 15c, 19c

Half lisle ribbed vests in plain strap, short sleeves and shield styles, at 25c.

Fine Swiss ribbed vests, in plain and fancy styles, at 50c.

Cotton ribbed umbrella pants, open and closed styles, reg. sizes 25c; extra sizes 29c.

Fine lisle ribbed umbrella pants at 50c.

Lisle ribbed umbrella pants, the famous Isabella style, at 50c.

Fancy embroidered white cotton ribbed vests, at 25c.

Pure lisle ribbed vests, plain and fancy, with strap, at 39c.

Fine fancy lisle ribbed vests, at 79c.

Pure silk ribbed vests, very fine quality, at 1.25.

Fine lisle combination suits, umbrella and light knee pants, at 50c.

We're showing a complete line of medium underwear specially adapted for mountain and seashore wear; also high neck, long and short-sleeve, ribbed corset cover.

Special Wash Goods Sale 15c a yd.

About 5,000 yards of extra fine quality American Beauty Batiste, in an endless variety of new and pretty patterns in checks, plaids, stripes, figures and floral effects; these goods are worth to buy regular from 19c to 25c a yard.

LET US DO YOUR AWNING AND SHADE WORK—We'll furnish only the best materials and do the work in a first-class manner, and our charges are very moderate.

The Woodhull & Martin Store.

BARTHOLOMAY
ROCHESTER
Rienzi Beer
IN BOTTLES ONLY
BOTTLED AND DISTRIBUTED BY
HENRY HAURAND,
366-68 SOMERSET STREET,
'Phone No. 229 Plainfield, N. J.

Burns' Tonsorial Parlors.
W. C. BURNS, Prop.
If your car is late,
I will shave you while you wait.
LOCATION—212 WATCHUNG AVE.
Where the trolleys meet.
Shoes polished free with every shave.

THE FORUM.

For Cruelty to Animals.

Editor, The Daily Press:—

Will you kindly allow me space in your columns to ask if we have a Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. If so, they can do some good work by sending an agent to the vicinity of Watchung avenue and Chatham street, to discover if possible the dog poisoner who is doing such dastardly work there. From my windows I have seen several poor beasts taken away who have been poisoned and there are several others who have met a like fate. The dog poisoner should have the contempt of every decent citizen. Any one who can cause such untold suffering to God's dumb creatures, is a most dispicable criminal, and should be apprehended if possible, and punished without mercy.

GEORGE F. WATTS.

(The counsel for the Plainfield S. P. C. A., is W. A. Coddington, Sterling Building, Park avenue.—Editor.

Hartridge School Play.

The pupils of The Hartridge School are preparing to give as their out-of-door play the last two acts of the pastorial part of The Winter's Tale. The play will be given, by the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Mali, at the beautiful Johnston place, on May 29, in the afternoon.

Y. W. C. A. Embroidery Class.

The first meeting of the class in embroidery, formed at the Young Women's Christian Association, will be held at the association building tonight. There are to be meetings every Monday evening for seven weeks.

AMUSEMENTS.

CONCERT
MISS MARY LANSING, Contralto.
MISS MAY DALAND, Pianist.
MR. HAROLD KENT, Baritone.
MR. J. FRANK RICE, Violinist.
PLAINFIELD CASINO
Tuesday, May 19, 08
CARDS ONE DOLLAR
On Sale at Armstrong's Pharmacy
5-5 7 9 11 12 14 16 18 19

Capital and surplus $250,000.00
THE
FIRST NATIONAL BANK
of Plainfield.
OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS:
A. J. Brunson, President
J. A. Smith, Vice President
D. M. Runyon, Cashier
W. R. Coddington,
J. A. Hubbard,
C. Frank French,
B. F. Corieli,
P. J. Zeglio, M. D.
E. H. Bird.
SAVINGS ACCOUNTS DRAW FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

John S. Lewis
Successor to Lewis & Dilts.
Artesian Well Contractors.

Wells drilled any place, size or depth.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Box 173,
Scotch Plains, N. J.

—Use Press want ads. They pay.

"Joy Cometh in the Morning"
But For Those Who
COME TO PECK'S
It Cometh in the Morning and Abideth All the Day Long.

HAMMOCKS
The well-known Vudor make, the best yet—strongest constructed, best cords and colors fast. We are agents for these well-known goods and furnish a good assortment at all times.

Vudor
PORCH SHADES
PORCH Screens
There is only one really good porch screen and that's the Vudor. No question about it. We have sold them for several years and with greatly increased demands each season. Simple in operation.

Porch Chairs, Bamboo Screens, Net Doors and Screens, Refrigerators, Porch Rugs, Summer Furniture in large variety of sizes, kinds, colors, and prices always the lowest for quality.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON,
BABCOCK BUILDING, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

LADIES' AND GENT'S SUITS
CLEANED AND PRESSED
G. O. KELLER,
'PHONE 857-J 125 PARK AVENUE

Why Have a Bank Account?
Because---
A Bank Account creates a desire to make it as large as possible, and it is wise for all to provide for the "RAINY DAY," which comes sooner or later.
Start an account today with us,
The
Plainfield Savings Bank.

HOW ABOUT YOUR SUIT?
We are showing the finest line of
KIRSABAUM SUITS and TOPCOATS
in Brown, Olives, Grey and Blue. Can we not show you these even if you don't buy—the goods are good and prices right. All the new things in Shirts, Neckwear, Socks, Caps and Hats. We have put our Straw Tiles on exhibition.
CLOTHING MADE TO ORDER.
Werner's Clothing House,
206 WEST FRONT ST.

"HARD TIMES" DO NOT EFFECT THE SALE OF
"HAWES" $3.00 HATS
WHY?—BECAUSE THEY ARE GUARANTEED
JAS. R. BLAIR

USE PRESS WANT ADS

DISCOURSES ON CREED

Resurrection and Ascension Theme of Dr. Herring's 6th Talk on Apostle's Creed.

AN INSTRUCTIVE SERMON.

Resurrection a Basic Truth of Christian Faith—Two Great Thoughts.

"The Resurrection and Ascension of Our Lord," was the theme of the sixth discourse by Rev. C. E. Herring at the First Presbyterian church, last night, in the series on "The Apostles Creed." Dr. Herring declared that the Resurrection is the basic truth of the Christian faith and emphasized the fact that it was the Resurrection of body as well as spirit. Dr. Herring spoke as follows:

"The Resurrection of our Lord is the basic truth of our faith for if Christ did not rise from the dead, our faith is vain. That resurrection was not simply the resurrection of His spirit while His body remained in the tomb; it was the resurrection of body and spirit. His body after the resurrection was recognized to be the same body that had been crucified. He showed to His disciples the print of the nails. For forty days subsequent to the resurrection, the body of our Lord while it was the same yet possessed new powers. In this form He was not always recognized, for He had the power of revealing or concealing His identity. The disciples on the way to Emmaus did not recognize Him until He broke bread with them. He appeared in the midst of the disciples tho the door was shut. The clear indication of Scripture is that His body during these forty day had passed through a wonderful transformation; a further transformation awaited the body at the end of this time, when our Lord ascended. Our Lord's material body then is the body that ascended and was glorified.

"There are two great thoughts that are suggested by the resurrection of Christ:

"Firstly, He glorified our humanity. He laid 'nothing aside that belongs to the fullness of human nature.'

"Secondly, He revealed this truth that heaven must be a place, for Christ's body arose to that glorious world.

"This part of the Creed naturally emphasizes the Resurrection and Ascension of our Lord. It tells us that He is an ever-living Lord. In that magnificent picture in the first chapter of the Apocalypse we read our Lord's wonderful revelation to John. Among other things He said, 'I am He that liveth and was dead and behold I am alive forevermore.' Our Lord today is a living Christ. The symbol of our faith is an empty cross. We believe at a particular day in the past, He rose from the dead and forty days after the Resurrection He ascended. That is history. The present inspiring fact is this—He lives, He sitteth at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty.

"He not only lives but He is actively engaged in the business of the world.

"Martin Luther had a very vivid conception of the devil. There is a spot on the wall of Wartburg Castle in Germany, where tradition says he threw his inkstand because he saw the face of the devil. The devil, he said, was his constant tempter, who tempted him to gloom, doubt and despair, but he had just one way to conquer him and that was always successful. He would take up the book on his desk or if he had nothing else he would go to the wall and write with a piece of chalk. 'The Lord lives, the Lord lives' and said Martin Luther, 'The Devil never could stand that.'

"Perhaps you have never had such a vivid conception of the devil as that, but you do know from your own experience, the power of doubt. How shall you conquer it? By bringing to your remembrance the fact that the Lord lives.

"When the followers of John realized that he was dead, we read that they took up his body and buried it, and came and told Jesus. That was all. Three days after Jesus was buried, His disciples returned from the sepulchre with fear and great joy because He was not a dead Christ, but a risen, living Christ.

"This part of the Creed likewise declares this truth; that Christ today is Lord of the world, 'He sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.' That is the place of honor and power.

"We are told of a certain great man whom the citizens of Florence in their enthusiasm would have made King. They said to him, 'To you, Ferrara, we owe everything; our lives, our liberty, our speech and our great city. We will make you King of the Kingdom,'' but Ferrara said in reply, 'Men of Florence, I cannot be your King, but I will tell you of one who will if you let him be a King to you. Men of Florence, make Jesus your King;' and so on the books of Florence there was written, 'Jesus is King of Florence,' and over doors of the Palazzo Vecchio there is this inscription, 'Jesus Christ is King of Kings and Lord of Lords.'

"When that remarkable man Henry Drummond was dying, he rose for a moment to confess Jesus as his Lord. This is his confession: 'I'm not ashamed to own my Lord or to defend His cause, maintain the honor of His word, the glory of His Cross.' To Drummond Jesus was King. Will not every man be better for recognizing the Kingship of the Lord Jesus over his life?"

COMMENCEMENT HONORS FOR BOROUGH PUPILS

Miss Edna Doughty, daughter of John Doughty, of Norwood avenue, has been awarded first commencement honors for the class of 1908, North Plainfield High School, and will make the validictory address at the commencement exercises of the class, to be held Friday evening, June 19. This award means that Miss Doughty has a higher scholarship standing for the four years of the high schol course than any of the other members of her class. Fred McClintock, son of Judson E. McClintock, of Fairview avenue, is to be the salutatorian, having secured second curriculum honors during his course.

Rev. Dr. Charles L. Mead, pastor of the Centenary Methodist Episcopal church of Newark, will be the commencement speaker, but the place of the exercises has not yet been definitely decided upon. It is probable that the commencement will be either in the First Baptist church or in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium. Messrs. Edward Rushmore and E. S. Boyer, of the borough Board of Education, are completing the arrangements for the exercises. There are fifteen members of the graduating class this year, the largest number ever graduated from a four year course at the school.

ATTEMPTED TO WRECK TRAIN NEAR RARITAN

An attempt to wreck a fast freight train on the Central Railroad of New Jersey was made yesterday morning between 12 and 1 o'clock by placing a fishplate on the rails just west of Raritan station.

The train struck the fishplate and shoved it along the rail for some distance, but met with no mishap. The train was stopped and a search made by the train crew in the vicinity of the would-be train wreckers, but none could be found. It is supposed to have been the work of tramps.

FOUND ON RAILROAD; DIES AT THE HOSPITAL.

James Reynolds, who is supposed to have lived at Kingsbridge, N. Y., died in Muhlenberg hospital, Saturday night, having been brought in from South Plainfield Friday night. He was found along the Lehigh Valley tracks where he had evidently laid down on becoming ill. He was able to give his name but no further information could be secured from him.

The body was taken to Cole's undertaking rooms and an effort is being made to locate the man's relatives. Papers found in his pockets gave the clue to his address but it is not known how he came to be in the place where he was found.

Incorrigible Youth Jailed.

William McCarty, Jr., of Richmond street, was arraigned before Judge Runyon today on a charge of incorrigibility preferred by his father, William McCarty, a respected stone mason. The young man is but fourteen years old, but refuses to obey his parents and on several occasions has abused his mother. He was remanded to a cell and will be held without bail for the juvenile court.

Fair for Swedish Church.

For the benefit of the Swedish Lutheran church, a fair and bazaar will be held in Coward Hall, on Park avenue, Friday and Saturday nights, under the auspices of the Excelsior Society of the church. A good program of music and recitation has been arranged for each evening.

Rudolph Schoverling.

Rudolph Schoverling, who died suddenly in New York city Friday, is survived by a widow, who was Miss Gertrude A. Wyckoff, formerly of this city. She is the daughter of Peter Wyckoff, deceased.

Salvation Army Notes.

Ensign Henrickson will conduct the service tomorrow evening in the Salvation Army Hall at 8 o'clock.

Thursday evening Mr. Schcker, superintendent of the Elizabeth Rescue Mission, will relate the interesting story of his conversion. All are invited.

PLAINFIELD EXCHANGE FOR WOMENS WORK,
502 WATCHUNG AVE.
A full line of picture frames, waste baskets, blotters, humid notes, bridge scores, pads, boxes, trays, telephone registers, menu and place cards. Orders filled promptly.

A. M. RUNYON & SON, UNDERTAKERS.
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York Office—50 Great Jones Street, Tel. call 3345-Spring.
New York Embs. mers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 315.

Fresh Vegetables
Asparagus, Wax Beans, Tomatoes.
Radishes, Beets, Lettuce,
Strawberries, Green Beans, Cucumbers.
Fruit
Oranges, Grape Fruit, Apples.
Malaga Grapes, Figs.
NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS—Watchung Avenue and Fifth Street.
Efficient and rapid delivery service to all parts of the city.

MONO
Fireproof Storage Warehouse.
Separate Rooms, Fireproof Partitions. Clean, Dry, Secure.
Inspection Invited—Open 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.
FURNITURE REMOVED WITH CARE.
Telephone 522-W. Opposite freight depot.

T. A. MOORE.
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.
Office—508 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 790
Residence—614 East 6th St. " 741-K
New York Office, 27 Great Jones St.
Telephone Call, 2349-Spring.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS.
Office 116 Park Av., Tel. 884-w. Res., 417 W. 2d St., Tel. 963-a. Office open day and night.
N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2094 Gramercy

GEO. W. COLE.
UNDERTAKER & EMBALMER.
200 West Second St. Telephone 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

Chas. L. Stanley,
159 East Front St. 'Phone 928.
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

L. L. MANNING & SON,
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Avenue and West Front Street. Opposite First Baptist Church.

DIED.

DAY—At New Market, N. J., Sunday, May 10, 1908, Stanley Day, aged 75 years, 5 months and 2 days.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral from his late residence on Wednesday, May 13, at 2 o'clock. 5 11 2

FUHRHANS—On Monday, May 11, 1908, Herrman E. Fuhrhans in his 69th year.

Funeral services from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Kling, 805 Webster place, on Tuesday, May 12, at 8 p. m.

Classified Advertisements

Rates for advertisements under this heading one cent a word for first insertion, one half a cent a word for consecutive insertions of the same advertisement running for less than one month; one month, fifty cents a line (6 words to a line), double rate for advertisement set in capitals.

No advertisements received for less than ten cents.

Copy for death and marriage notices and classified advertising accepted up to 3:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS is not at liberty to give any information regarding advertisements that require an address in care of this office. Persons answering these ads. should mail or leave answers as stated in advertisements.

Help Wanted.

WANTED—Colored girl for general housework. 1014 West Front street. 5 11 3

WANTED—At once a good laundress by the day. Apply 1423 Watchung avenue.

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Apply with reference, 1423 Watchung avenue. 5 11 2

WANTED—Locksmith and general repair man. Apply 120 West Front street. 5 8 3

WANTED—Man and wife to run a farm near New Market; man must be thoroughly competent farmer; woman must be thorough housekeeper. Apply W. E. Kastendike, New Market, N. J. 5 9 3

WANTED—Experienced cook, also chambermaid, waitress, white; friends preferred; personal reference required. Apply 313 Franklin place. 5 11 3

COOKS and general houseworker wanted at once. Call Andersen, 659 West Fourth street. 'Phone 508-W. 5 1 3

Help Wanted.

WANTED—A girl to do general housework. 418 West Sixth street. 5 9 3

WANTED — Girl (white) for housework. 166 Grove street. 5 9 3

WANTED—First-class cook; also first-class laundress to go to Mountains for the summer; $30 each. Mrs. Reinhold, 222 New street. 5 8 3

WANTED—Girl for general housework; small family. Apply evenings 27 North Clinton avenue. 5 11 6

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework; good reference required. Call evenings between 7 and 8, 81 Grove street. 5 11 tf

WANTED—Four strong boys to work at plumbing and heating. Galbraith, 193 North avenue. 5 9 3

USEFUL white man wanted, must be sober, honest, understand horses, heaters, lawns and be handy with tools; good wages and free rent to the right man; references required. Address M. F. G., Press office. 5 9 3

Real Estate Agents.

HOUSES, new, for sale or rent, all improvements, excellent location, East End. Inquire M. A. Rose, 301 Watchung avenue, 'Phone 273-J. 4 14 1m

HAVE clients for farms, houses, lots in Plainfield and vicinity; also all kinds of property for sale. Address Real Estate, care Press. 5 5 6

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent or exchange. Edmund Rushmore, 209 North avenue, telephone No. 49, Plainfield; 42 Broadway, New York. 10 10 tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield; telephone 44. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; properties that I have picked up in trade that I can sell you for less than market prices; if you want to buy or have anything to sell come and see me. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, 39 Prospect place, North Plainfield. 11 20 tf

REAL ESTAE for sale, rent and exchange at bargain figures, insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

FOR SALE—If you want to buy or sell real estate, please call, write or 'phone Ira L. LaRue, next to station, next to bargain. Office 'phone 752-R, residence 'phone 845-L. 12 19 tf

Rooms and Board.

GOOD accommodations; low rates. Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

TO LET—Furnished room; use bath. Address New Madison, care Press. 5 11 3

TWO fine rooms and board; also table boarders. Mrs. Detweilers, 514 Madison avenue. 5 7 6

FEW boarders wanted. Mrs. M. Fosbre, 659 Essex street. 5 1 12

LARGE front room with or without board. 137 East Fifth street. 5 9 6

WATCHUNG AVE., 724, near 7th St., desirable rooms with first class board. 4 13 1m

TWO communicating rooms with board; sunny exposure; bath adjoining; first class neighborhood; excellent table. 132-134 Crescent avenue. 9 19 tf

For Rent.

FLAT to let. Inquire 18 Craig place. 4 14 tf

FOR RENT—New house just completed; seven rooms and bath; rent $21. Address O. I. C., Daily Press. 4 24 tf

FOR RENT—Commodious offices in the Woodhull & Martin building suitable for lawyers, dentists, insurance companies, etc.; will arrange to suit tenant. 4 20 tf

THREE rooms to let. 732 West Third street. 4 6 tf

FOR RENT—6 room house and barn. 37 Summit avenue, from 9 to 3. 5 8 3

TO LET—$9.00, house, city water. West End. U. B. Crane. 5 8 3

TO LET—Second floor, city water, $12.50. 183 Somerset street. Ernest T. Hand. 5 8 tf

FOR RENT—House, 16 Stone street; 6 rooms. Liefke & Laing, 146 Park avenue. 5 11 3

TO LET—6 room house, with half acre ground, $12 per month, on West Third street. M. F. Gano, 142 North avenue. 5 11 tf

TO LET—Lower half of new house on East Second street; $8.00. Apply Martin Hansen, 316 and 318 West Front street. 5 1 3

FOUR rooms to let; all newly papered and painted; city water and gas. Apply B. Mann, 120 West Fourth street. 5 11 tf

FOR RENT—No. 26 Rockview avenue, 12 rooms and 2 baths; large beautiful grounds; large carriage house; immediate possession. No. 806 Third place, 10 room house; immediate possession. Furnished cottages to rent for summer from $50 month up. Edmund Rushmore, 209 North avenue, Plainfield; N. Y. office, 42 Broadway. 5 6 12

SEVEN-ROOM apartments to let; all improvements. 937 West Front street; also six-room house. 3 28 tf

HOUSE TO LET—6 rooms; also 4 rooms to let. J. Sachar, 731 West Third street. 5 7 6

TO LET—Six-room apartment, fine grounds, garden, fruit. Address North Plainfield, care Press. 5 9 2

TO LET—Newly furnished room in select apartment; centre of town; all improvements. A. C., care Press. 5 11 6

NEW six-room house to let, 1219 West Third street; six-room house, 1424 Willever street, near Safe Works; two apartments, four rooms each, all improvements, or the whole house, 216 Prescott place. J. Sacher, 731 West Third St. 4 3 tf

NEW 7-room house, on Cameron avenue, for sale or to let; furnace, open plumbing, gas and city water. Inquire E. Beys, Cameron avenue. 5 4 1m

TO LET, without children, half house; separate entrance; will not come in contact with other family; 6 rooms; city water and toilet; rent moderate. Address Moderate, Daily Press. 5 11 3

TO RENT—Second and third stories of 316 and 318 West Front street, 50x85 feet. Jos. W. Gavett. 4 3 tf

FOR RENT—Flat in Jackson building, 5 rooms and bath; all improvements; also house 634 West Seventh street; all improvements. Liefke & Laing. 5 11 3

TO LET—9-room house, all improvements; 3 Verdon street. G. W. V. Moy. 3 13 tf

TO LET—4 rooms, upper floor, water. John Manley, insurance, 321 Park avenue. 3 17 tf

Poultry and Eggs.

CHICKS for sale; two weeks old. 9 Codington avenue. 5 8 6

EGGS FOR HATCHING—White Leghorn, White Plymouth Rocks, Buff Orpingtons and Pekin Ducks, from the best strains. Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, Tel. 451-J. 4 14 1m

SETTINGS of 13 from prize stock. Blk Minorca $1.50, Buff Orpington $3 White or Partridge Wyandotte $2. 100, $10; 50, $5. 234 West 2nd St. 4 3 tf

EGGS for setting, from Orpingtons, Black Leghorns, Indian Game, and India Runner Ducks, corner Grant and Sherman Aves. 3 25 tf

R. I. RED, Barred Plymouth Rock and White Leghorn eggs from the leading strains of the country; $1 per sitting, $5 per hundred. George Howard, Jr., South Bound Brook, N. J. 2 21 3m

Money to Loan.

MONEY to loan on first mortgage. Louis A. Clement, lawyer, Babcock building. 5 11 6

TO LOAN—$2,500 on first mortgage, six per cent. Address Owner, care Press. 5 11 3 eod

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite Depot. 12 28 tf

MONEY to loan on band and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 12 18 tf

LOANS negotiated. J. T. Vail. 1 14 tf

TO LOAN—Money on good mortgages. George F. Brown, 94 Somerset street. tf

Miscellaneous.

COMPLETE line of automobile supplies and tires at lowest New York prices. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

AUTOMOBILES to hire at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co., telephone 991-J. 4 15 3m

A FIRST CLASS place to turn out horses to recruit, will have good attention; also storage for wagons. Address I., care Daily Press. 4 13 1m

FIRST-CLASS places and first-class help always on hand. Swedish Intelligence Office, 22 Somerset place, 'Phone 196-W. 8 22 tf

AUTOMOBILES repaired and overhauled by first class mechanics at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

THE EXCHANGE, 325 West Front street, telephone 901-R. Do you have furniture, carpets, etc., for sale? Do not fail to notify us; we pay 50 per cent. more than anybody else. 11 29 tf

CONTRACTS taken for care of lawns for the season; grading; soil and sod furnished; planting, etc. J. M. Welsh, 754 Kensington avenue. Telephone 148-J. 5 11 6

GARBAGE removed regularly and reasonably. George Christensen, R. F. D. No. 1. 4 21 1m

CELLAR digging, grading in all its branches; house cleaning and whitewashing a specialty. 'Phone 862-J. Prompt service; competent help. Samuel M. Thornton, 544 West Third street. 5 8 6

IF YOU want your watch, clock or jewelry repaired take them to Brown, 124 Watchung Ave. 4 18 1m

FURNITURE stored and sold on commission. Martin Hansen, 316 and 318 West Front street. 5 5 1m

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S., graduate American Veterinary College, N. Y., pet animals a specialty. OFFICE WITH ALBERT HEDDEN, livery, 118 East Fourth street, telephone 114-J. 1 27 tf

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans. Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 4 tf

BABIES crochet sacques for sale; all prices; also ladies' knitted sweaters made to order. Mrs. Mayer, 54 Pearl street, North Plainfield. tf

SOMETHING of interest to every dressmaker and every lady that works at dressmaking. Address B. P. C., care Press. 5 7 6

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer; sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

CESSPOOLS and vaults cleaned, odorless excavator; good work; lowest prices. T. M. Ingraham, Plainfield R. F. D. No. 1. 12 10 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

Situations Wanted.

COLORED girl wants position to do general housework or work by the day. Call 327 West Front street. 5 8 3

GERMAN woman wants a place as housekeeper. Call Andersen Employment, 659 West Fourth street. 5 11 3

POSITION desired by reliable person; experienced in nursing, to care for invalid or elderly person. No objection to travel. References exchanged. Address H. H., Press office. 5 11 3

YOUNG man wants position as cook or butler. Address W. M., care Press. 5 11 3

YOUNG woman wants place as cook, with reference; sleep home. Call 428 East Sixth street. 5 11 2

WANTED—Position at general housework. Call 602 West Fourth street. Rev. Bailey's. 5 11 2

COOKS, waitresses, chambermaid and general houseworkers want positions. Anderson Employment office, 659 West Fourth street. 'Phone 508-W. 4 27 eod

CHAUFFEUR Japanese machinist, sober, honest, careful driver; two years' experience; any gasoline cars, wants position; private family; highest recommendation; moderate wages. Address F. B., care Press. 5 4 7

FOUR Slavish girls want positions as general houseworkers or waitresses. Call Andersen Employment office, 659 West Fourth street. 'Phone 508-W. 5 11 3

COMPETENT help constantly on hand; white and colored. Hall's Employment Agency (originally The Plainfield), station driveway; 'phone 322-J. 4 22 1m

WOMAN wants days work. Call 612 West Fourth street. 5 9 4

YOUNG man, colored, wishes days work; lawn mowed and general housecleaning. Address G. S. H., 630 West Fourth street. 5 9 2

Real Estate for Exchange.

FINE new house, centrally located; 10 rooms, all improvements; gas and electric light, hot water heating, parquet floors; would exchange for moderate priced lots. J. T. Vail, 177 North Ave. 4 14 tf

For Sale.

CADILLAC runabout, model K, 1906; top, curtains, extra tubes; elegant condition; $325. Getting larger car. Now at Morris Bros.' garage. 5 8 3

4-ROOM cottage; acre of land; $2,200. Wm. Bourgeois, Laramie road. 5 1 1m

FOR SALE, RENT OR EXCHANGE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; also country homes and farms at bargain prices. C. H. Snyder, 221 Park avenue, room 4. 4 18 1m

COWS, Cows, Cows, will receive Tuesday, May 12, a carload of choice fresh cows and springers, which are for sale or exchange at the lowest market prices at Gus Lewis' Stables, 445 18th avenue, Newark, N. J. 5 11 2

FAST pacing mare for sale at a sacrifice for want of use. 146 East Fifth street. 5 11 6

FOR SALE, at sacrifice; party needs the money; two lots on Leland avenue, near George street. Inquire 146 East Fifth street. 5 11 6

ON ACCOUNT change of business wish to sell my property for less than value; good built, newly decorated and painted house, 10 rooms, reception hall and bath; possession at once; also barn. Also two family house, large lot, gas, city water and toilet; sewer conection; brings $35 per month. Addres Bargain, Daily Press. 5 11 3

FOR SALE—Two large handsome green and gold Canton vases; medallion pattern. Can be seen at 114 Crescent avenue. 5 11 6

SECOND-HAND doors for sale cheap. 821 Kensington avenue. 5 11 3

$90.00 WAGON, 2⅛ axles, pole, shafts, whiffletrees, neck yoke, drop and gate. Johnston, 935 South avenue.

FOR SALE—Bargain for quick buyer, Edison Home phonograph, with 150 records. Address Buyer, care Press. 5 8 4

GAS stove, second-hand; in good condition, wanted. C. W. K., care of Daily Press. 5 9 2

FOR SALE—Automobile runabout, cost $950; price $225; in fine condition. Address A. R., Daily Press. 5 5 tf

FOR SALE—Light double harness, rubber covered, hand made, used but little; cost $150; will sell for $75; K collars. Address Owner, care Press. 5 11 3eod

1905 2-Cylinder Elmore touring car; fine shape; 5 lamps, etc. $275. Thompson, 413 Park avenue. 5 7 6

BARGAIN in lots for cash in Highland Park. Inquire at 303 Leland avenue. 5 8 6

FOR SALE—The finest lot in Plainfield, on which to build a row of apartment houses. Chas. L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building, Plainfield, N. J. 2 21 tf

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

Lost and Found.

LOST—Small leather purse on Scotch Plains car leaving Westfield at 9:15 last night; contained monogram pins and sum of money. Finder can keep purse and money if pins are returned to Daily Press office. 5 11 2

WILL party that exchanged umbrella at Grammar School operetta in Park Club last Friday night kindly notify this office and they will receive their own umbrella. The umbrella exchanged had initials L. K. on handle. Call telephone 61. 5 11 3

LOST—Saturday evening at Jersey Central station, Elizabeth, ladies' pocketbook containing sum of money. Finder please return and receive reward. M. H., 1007 South Second street, Plainfield.

LOST—Yellow and white cat. Reward for return to 526 West Seventh street, or information where he can be found.

LOST—Saturday, a fox terrier dog, marked with black and tan over eyes. Reward at 748 Carlton avenue. 5 11 2

Wanted—Miscellaneous.

WANTED by June 1, unfurnished or furnished room in modern dwelling with private family without children; meals. Address Quiet, care Press. 5 11 2

WANTED—By woman, one large or two small rooms. Mrs. Burke, 94 Somerset street. 5 9 2

WANTED — Second-hand gas range; good condition. Address "Range," care Press. 5 9 3

WANTED—Horse on farm to work a little for its board; good home; best care. Address Home, care Press. 5 8 3

WOULD YOU LIKE TO MOVE
To locate elsewhere, to earn more money? We can consider ambitious men for positions in every section of the country. We have to-day, at this minute in our 12 offices, 3,000 places for executive, office, sales and technical men. Salary, $600-$6,000. Write stating experience and salary expected.
HAPGOODS (INC.). Brain Brokers
305-309 Broadway, New York City.

KEEP THE ROOSTERS MUZZLED.

Simple Contrivance That Means Much to Light Sleepers.

They were like fairy helmets—little wire helmets no bigger than a walnut.

"They are rooster muzzles," said the city farmer, as he led the way past the pea beds on the window sills, the potato field on the back porch and the flourishing mushroom crop under the outhouse.

"Even so. Muzzles, not to prevent roosters from biting—for even the gamest fowl has never been known to snap—but to prevent them from crowing. See here."

They had reached the tiny chicken run. The city farmer caught a rooster and gently slipped a muzzle over its fierce head.

"Now," said he, "it can't crow. It can't wake the neighbors with its crows at daybreak. Hence, thanks to this muzzle, it is at last possible to keep chickens in the most crowded city quarters.

"Harrison Weir invented the rooster muzzle. A rooster, to crow, you see, stands erect, flaps his wings, throws back his head and opens his beak wide. If he can't open his beak no crow can come from his little red throat."

FOR SAFETY IN THE SCHOOLS.

European Schemes Intended to Guard Against Disaster.

How to guard against disaster in schools in case of fire is a subject which is receiving much attention in the large cities of Europe. Some of the preventive measures suggested by correspondents of a Vienna paper make interesting reading for Americans. One man writes that in one of the small towns in Bohemia the school sessions are held in two old buildings which were once residences. By an iron door one may go from one building to the other, and in case of fire in one house the children have but to go to this door and find safety in the building in which there is no fire. This plan should be adopted, he says, for all the city schools. "They usually stand among dwelling houses, and from each there should be an exit to the house next door. That would make the schools safe and prevent panics." Another man writes that the expense of placing new doors on the schools to prevent a catastrophe would cost too much. "All danger could be obviated," he says, "by leaving the doors to the street wide open while the schools are in session." No correspondent suggested fire escapes.

Settled the Whole Question.

Rev. William Carter discussed at a dinner in New York his successful experiment of conducting services in the Belasco theater. "One of my theater auditors," he said, "was a Scot from Peebles. This Scot told me that the sight of a clergyman in a theater reminded him of an experience he once had in London. He went to a melodrama at Drury Lane. A man in front of him looked familiar. To his surprise he recognized in this man his minister at Peebles. He leaned forward and laid his hand on the minister's black coat. 'Oh, Dr. Saunders McIntosh,' he whispered, 'what wad the people in the auld kirk say if I tell't them I saw ye here?' 'Deed, they wadna believe ye,' Dr. Saunders answered quickly, 'and ye needna tell them.'"

Moth a Hypnotist.

"Did you ever know," said the hypnotist, as he played with a curious glittering hypnotizing machine of crystal and silver, "did you ever know that hypnotism is practiced among insects?

"Well, it is a fact. A queen bee can hypnotize her whole hive whenever she wants to. She makes a curious humming sound, and within a moment or two every bee in the colony falls into a hypnotic trance.

"The death's head hawk moth is also a hypnotist of great power. This creature, indeed, makes its living out of hypnotism. Entering a hive, it makes a sound not unlike the queen bee's note, and the bees immediately sinking into slumber, the moth proceeds to plunder at its leisure."

Juvenile Logic.

Marie is a very bright kindergarten pupil. She same home to her parents the other day and told them that the kindergarten teacher had said she will grow up to be a very nice looking young lady if she is a good girl, but will grow up to be a very ugly woman if she is a naughty girl. "Is that true, mamma?" asked Marie, and she was informed that if the teacher said so it was true. Marie sat still for a while pondering seriously. "But, mamma," she suddenly burst forth again, "why was the kindergarten teacher so naughty when she was a little girl?"

Ins and Outs.

"What's that noise?" asked the visitor in the apartment house.

"Probably some one in the dentist's apartment on the floor below getting a tooth out."

"But this seemed to come from the floor above."

"Ah! then it's probably the Popleys' baby getting a tooth in."

Proud Papa's Observation.

"It's hard to make some people remember," said the tiresome talker, "that they mustn't 'look a gift horse in the mouth—'"

"Yes," interrupted Popley, "but I'll bet it's still harder to make our baby remember that he mustn't put a gift horse in his mouth."

Our Refrigerators are filled with Fancy Philadelphia Broilers, Roasting and Fricaseeing Chickens, Jumbo Squab. Hunterdon County Spring Lamb, Tender, Juicy Roasts and Steaks from Native Beeves.

Milk Fed Veal
Jersey Pork

Delicious Sugar-Cured Hams & Bacon Home made Sausage. All Yours to Command at

The ENDRESS CO.
131-135 West Front Street.
'Phone 690.

Satisfaction assured as there is nothing finer produced. Orders called for and promptly delivered.

SHERIFF'S SALE—In Chancery of New Jersey. Between George F. Picken, complainant, and Sadie Myer and husband, defendantts. Fi. fa. for sale of mortgaged premises.

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed I shall expose for sale by public vendue, at the Sheriff's office, in the city of Elizabeth, N. J., on WEDNESDAY, THE SIXTH DAY OF MAY, A. D. 1908, at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all those sixteen (16) certain lots, pieces or parcels of land situate, lying and being in the city of Plainfield, county of Union and State of New Jersey, being lots numbers (40) forty and (41) forty-one, in section "A;" lots numbers (106) one hundred six and (107) one hundred seven, in section "B;" lots numbers (132) one hundred thirty-two, (133) one hundred thirty-three, (134) one hundred thirty-four, (135) one hundred thirty-five, (140) one hundred forty, (141) one hundred forty-one and (142) one hundred forty-two, in section "C;" and lots numbered (143) one hundred forty-three, (144) one hundred forty-four, (145) one hundred forty-five, (158) one hundred fifty-eight and (159) one hundred and fifty-nine, in section "D," as shown on a certain map known and designated as "Map of property situated in Netherwood, city of Plainfield, New Jresey, owned by William Picken, Esquire, surveyed by F. A. Dunham, C. E., of Plainfield, March, 1892," and filed in the office of the Registrar of Union county, N. J., May 14, 1892.

WILLIAM H. LAWRENCE, Sheriff.
COLLINS & CORBIN, Sol'rs.
4 6 5m EDJ & DP Adv. Fees—$7.20.

Vail
JEWELER AND OPTICIAN
103 Park Ave.,
calls your attention to his
Rimless Glasses.
They Look Good and You See Good.

The Rayo Lamp
Cannot be equalled for its bright and steady light, simple construction and absolute safety. Equipped with latest improved burner. Made of brass throughout and nickel plated. Every lamp warranted. Write to nearest agency if not at your dealer's.
STANDARD OIL COMPANY, Incorporated.

EDUCATIONAL

JOSEPH Mc INTYRE,
Pianist, Coach, Accompanist
TEACHER OF PIANO and SINGING
New York Studio, 30 E. 23rd Street, Wednesdays and Saturdays.
Plainfield, Residence and Studio, Telephone 386-J 1308 Watchung Avenue
1 9 6mos

ATTEND DRAKE BUSINESS COLLEGE
PLAINFIELD
For thorough training in English, Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Penmanship, Commercial Law and correlative branches. The school that does not PROMISE to ASSIST graduates to positions, but that guarantees absolutely to PLACE them, and does it. 11 25 tf

Plainfield Business College
WOODHULL & MARTIN BUILDING.
SCHOOL OF ENGLISH.
A school well equipped for doing high grade work.
Investigate this school—it pays. 1½ hours devoted to English every day. Day and Evening sessions all the year. Capacity 400 students.
A. S. HERR, Prin. and Prop.

CHAS. M. SUHR,
TEACHER OF PIANO.
614 E. 6th Street, Tel. 741-W

REAL ESTATE

RENTALS—REAL ESTATE
Geo. F. Brown,
INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE.
Commissioner of Deeds—Rents.
94 Somerset St. 'Phone 160.

STATIONERY
AND TOYS.
HARPER,
411 PARK AVENUE.

DRUGGISTS.

MOTH BALLS
Will save you your money over what might happen to your clothes.
They will insure your clothes being preserved thru the summer and will enable you to have them fresh and whole in the fall. Now is the time to buy MOTH BALLS.
C. M. Nagle's Pharmacy,
Front and Grove Sts. 'Phone 516.

Complete Line of
REXALL
Goods at
MILLER'S PHARMACY
Park Ave. & 4th St. Tel. 203.

Hodge's Pharmacy.
Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Tel. 62.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
EAST FRONT STREET
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Rroom.

HOTEL KENSINGTON
(Licensed.)
WM. J. POULSON, Prop.
107-109-111 North Avenue.
Everything New and Up-to-date
An Inspection Solicited.

HOTEL IROQUOIS
Club breakfast from 6:30 to 10:30 a. m. Business Men's Lunch from 11:30 to 2:30 p. m.
ROOMS
First floor, $1 single; $1.50 double.
Second floor, 75c single; $1 double.
Third floor, 50c single; 75c double.
A LA CARTE 6:30 UNTIL 1 A. M.
Special, Sunday, Dinner from 12:30 to 2:30 p. m. 50c

Electricians!
Michaelsen & Hage
No. 148 E. Fifth St. Tel. 1077-J

Strawberries
Every day we are receiving shipments of Fine Fresh Strawberries which are carefully selected as to quality and variety.
We also have a good assortment of California Oranges, Figs, Dates, etc., at reasonable prices.
All orders promptly delivered.
W. W. DUNN,
THE PARK GROCER,
DUER STREET AND LINCOLN PLACE.

STOP AT
Central R. R. News Stands
for PLAINFIELD PRESS, always on sale. Daily and Sunday papers delivered, all magazines, weekly papers, novelties, back numbers a specialty. R. R. guides, automobile road and state maps, Phila. papers. Fine brand of Cigars and tobacco. Open Sundays.
F. M. WAGNER, Manager.

Lumber Bargain!
The largest quantity of lumber in Plainfield can be found in my yard.
Large and Small Timbers.
Cut prices on new lumber for one week more.
A. KANE
YARD, 312 Filmore Ave.
Telephone 522-J.

McCULLOUGH'S STEAM MILL,
21 Steiner place, North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 517-J.
Furniture, Freight, Baggage Express and Rigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

Try a box of
DOBBINS' CIGARS.
Clear Havana Nickle Yara or any kind that you desire. Manufactured at 120 North Avenue, opposite Kensington Hotel, Plainfield, N. J.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Cedar Posts and Bean Poles. Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
99 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS,
P. O. Box 320.

Mountain House,
Mt. Bethel, N. J.
FRENCH RESTAURANT
Resort for Automobiles and Driving Parties
A. E. BINZ, Prop.

SMALLEY BROS.
147 North Ave.
BUTCHERS
Our Specialty, Berkshire Pork. Try Our Berkshire Sausage Made on Premises.
Roasting and Broiling Chickens a Specialty.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83-A. 5 1 tf

The Southern Restaurant,
232 West Second Street, corner Madison Avenue, now under new management. Meals served at all hours a la carte and table d'hote. Our own make bread and pastrys, all home cooking. The choice of everything is bought for the tables. Our price is reasonable. The place is now under the management of the well known New York caterer. T. H. Royster, Manager. Tel. 922-J. 1 18 tf

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE
AGENTS,
110 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 Watchung Av. Rear.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

JOHN WINZENREID,
Furniture and Freight Express.
Moving Vans and Storage.
312 Lee Place. 'Phone 840-R.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.
Renovating—Offices, stores and private residences. Service day or night. Furniture, china and glassware packed for shipping.
WM. A. KLINE, 611 W. 3d St.

Geo. H. Stagaard,
SHOEMAKER
108—CHURCH STREET—110
Repair work called for and delivered
'PHONE 1062-W.

TITUS H. LAURY
MASON AND BUILDER.
Office, 323 East Front Street.
Tile Setting, Mantel and Front Work.
Telephone 464-L.

TURKISH BATHS!
TAKE ONE
Ladies Mornings, Gentlemen Afternoons
Take Trolley to Sanitarium, Somerset Street.

Cleaning, Pressing and Dyeing.
Monthly Contracts.
Pressing called for and delivered.
EVENING DRESSES A SPECIALTY.
Ladies' Waists Cleaned, 25 cents upwards
Gents' Suits Cleaned $1.50
We do our own work at
M. A. Brown's, 218 West Second St.

William H. Pope,
ELECTRICIAN.
All kinds of electrical work done at reasonable prices.
116 NORTH AVENUE.

Rouse & Fullagar,
CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS,
117 Plainfield Avenue.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St. Tel. 507-W.

Meat Market.
Choice Meats, Poultry, Fish and Oysters always on hand. Sugar cured Corned Beef. International Hams and Bacon.
F. Neidig, 94 Somerset St. Telephone 781

E. B. Maynard's
Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a specialty.
Tel. No. 754-R.
141 NORTH AVENUE.

JOHN WIRTH
(Successor to Henry Liefke.)
Bakery and Confectionery.
201-203 West Front St. Tel. No. 723.
All orders delivered at short notice.

HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS
Silver trunks safely delivered to safety deposit vaults.
Furniture Moving Van and Baggage Delivery.
OFFICE 205 PARK AVENUE
Tel. 833-W. Residence Tel. 648-L

REAL ESTATE
Bought, Sold and For Rent.
J. SACHAR,
731 WEST THIRD STREET.

COAL DEALERS.

Difference In Coal.
All coals may look alike to some people, but compare our "Lehigh" Coal with the Coal you bought somewhere else and you will see a difference.
You will notice that our Coal Burns Brighter, Gives More Heat, and Lasts Longer than any other Coal you ever bought before.
Boice, Runyon & Co.,
Coal, Lumber and Masons' Materials.
Park Ave., opp. North Ave.,
Plainfield N. J.

JOS. HARRIGAN
OLD COMPANY'S LEHIGH COAL.
Tel. 198 929 South Ave.

The best time to order your winter supply of
COAL
is now. Do not forget that
NASH
is ready to supply you.
Telephones 357-W 633-J.
Evenings 371-W.
OFFICE—130 WATCHUNG AVENUE

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers' Inn.
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 218 West Front Street. Telephone 23-L.

Coal I have on hand some very fine Hard and Medium Coal. All kept under sheds. Pea Coal. Coal
25 cents a ton reduction on cash orders.
L. A. RHEAUME,
148 East Fourth St. Telephone 440-W
Yard, 674 South Second St. Telephone 230

GEORGE O. STEVENS
747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. H. Rugg & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 430 West Third St. Tel. 83.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

We call your attention to our fine display of
New Wall Papers.
We can't describe the patterns, but they are new, striking and effective, and with our large assortment we are sure to please.
Paints, Oils and Varnishes.
Woolston & Buckle,
145 North Avenue.

STRIKING COLORS
should not be sought in preference to those that have good lasting qualities, but when
PAINTS
are to be had which are both brilliant and durable, take care to secure that kind.
We have all kinds and grades of Paints, Oils, Colors and Varnishes, suitable for all kinds of work at the lowest prices to be found in this city.
Jas. C. Hansen,
Dealer in Wallpapers, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc
141 East Front Street
Estimates Furnished

1908 Wall Papers.
IMPORTED & AMERICAN GOODS.
C. CONOVER & CO.
Decorators, Painters and Paperhangers, Window and Plate Glass.
115 Elmwood Pl. Tel. 1145

W. S. CHEEVER
1326 Park Ave.
Painting and INTERIOR DECORATING, WALL PAPER of every description at the Lowest Prices.
'Phone No. 538-J.

FOR A
CLEAN SHAVE AND GOOD HAIR CUT
TRY THE
Burns' Tonsorial Parlors
Shoes Polished FREE with Every Shave.
Special Attention to Children's Hair.
212 WATCHUNG AVENUE

AZIENZA
cures pimples and all inflammation of the skin. Used by people of refinement. Medicinal and toilet—25 and 50 cents.
CREAM.

Patented
Did You Have Furnace Troubles Last Winter?
Then this is the time to plan for next season's comfort. Get rid of the furnace that clogs with clinkers, wastes coal, leaks gas and dust, and fails to heat the house.
Investigate the difference between the ordinary makes and the
BOYNTON Square Pot FURNACE
The Square Fire Pot insures better draft, larger fire surface, perfect combustion and no clogging. Ask the Boynton dealer in your town to show you its many advantages.
There are BOYNTON heating plants of all kinds. Ask about our Round or Sectional Boilers for steam or hot water. Also ranges.
THE BOYNTON FURNACE COMPANY,
207-209 Water Street, New York.

EYE-STRAIN

is directly responsible for the majority of cases of blindness today. If instead of trying to overwork the eyes, one would at once get glasses at the first warning of eye-strain there would be fewer cases of blindness at the present time.
Come to us and have your eyes examined free of charge and we will advise you what to do to save them.
Headache and neuralgia quickly relieved.
STILES & CO.,
Philadelphia Eye Specialist.
At 105 East Front Street,
Every Thursday.
Hours. 11:15 to 4:30.

WE PICK THEM FROM THE TOP!

The young, tender, delicious leaves. That's why you find our tea so much better. Van Dyk tea and coffee are sold at Van Dyk stores only.
VAN DYK'S
127 WEST FRONT ST.,
Bet. Park and Madison Aves.
50 BRANCHES IN 20 CITIES.

WASHINGTON ROCK SPRING WATER
Bottlers of high-class soft drinks, Ginger Ale, Soda Water and Pure Spring Water, and Siphon Goods. Private families' and parties' patronage is solicited.
Henry Pedeflous,
TELEPHONE 670-R
Hotel Pedeflous, Plainfield

Flor de Timbo
Clear Habana.
Get It at Timbo's

FURNITURE.
Repaired and upholstered. Equal to new. Send a postal to
HARRISON, 140 CENTRAL AVE.,
Cabinet maker, Polisher, Mattress Maker.

NO MUSIC IN THE JAPANESE.

As a People They Are Not Moved by Melodious Sounds.

There is no music in Japan except that made by the birds, the wind, the running streams and the roaring waterfalls, says a writer in the Milwaukee Sentinel. The people have no music in them, they do not sing or even whistle, or play any musical instrument worthy of the name They are not moved by the "concord of sweet sounds." They have a few rude instruments, but the sounds they give forth are harsh, inharmonious and altogether unmusical. There is a dinner band at the Grand hotel, Yokohama, and there was a brass band at the imperial garden party, the only bands I have heard in all Japan. Even at the geisha dances, the most popular in Japan, the music is primitive and discordant. And the dances are worse than the music. It is not in any sense dancing as we know it, it is simply a series of posturings, accompanied by the flirting fans, flags, or handkerchiefs, but lacking the motion and inspiration that thrills and fascinates in the merry mazes of the cotillon and the waltz. The religious dances are slow, dignified and impressive, but have none of the life and intoxication that gives interest and charm to the participant or beholder.

WHITE DEER WAS STONE DEAF.

Remarkable Animal Encountered by Hunters in the Woods of Maine.

Speaking of blindness, deafness and dumbness among cats and dogs, Dr. H. D. Gill, veterinary surgeon and horseman, told incidentally of a remarkable wild animal, a deer, that was once encountered by two friends of his who were hunting near Moosehead lake in Maine.

Out with a guide, the hunters came to a spot from which they could see within shooting distance four deer grazing, one of the four being white, an albino. The hunters fired and shot two of the deer of natural color, the third one at the report of the guns springing away to safety, while the white deer remained stock still.

The wind was toward the hunters and they had not been heard or scented, and apparently the white deer had not heard the guns. But in a moment it turned its head and then it bounded away after the other surviving deer.

It seemed clear to guide and hunters that the white deer was stone deaf.

Sharpened Feminine Barb.

Difficult subjects require careful handling, and for this reason a room clerk at a woman's hotel must have special qualifications, says a New York letter. One of the many applicants to approach a clerk of this class was a young, prepossessing woman who, a few days ago, walked to the desk and hesitatingly asked if a room could be had at moderate price. "Would you like a room at a dollar and a half a day?" With a startled look she replied, "I want one at three dollars a week." "We have rooms at that price, but none vacant. You can see that the office is full of guests, and it is not probable that we shall have such a room as you desire until one of our guests dies—or gets married." Sweeping the office with her eyes, the young woman replied, sweetly, "Oh, then, it is hopeless!"

The Waist Came Back.

"The other day I hung my prettiest waist out on the line at the kitchen window," said the flat-dweller, "after I washed it. Then I forgot all about it, and when I went to look for it two days later it was gone. I rushed frantically down to the janitress, and we climbed together over the coal into the area to look for the waist. I lamented deeply. It was a beautiful waist. We couldn't find it. The janitor came from the next house and helped us look, but there was nothing doing. I came sadly in at the window back over the coal and ascended to my sixth-story flat.

"The next day I looked in the drawer of my chiffonier and found the waist there. Say anything to the janitress? Well, I reckon not."

The Rural Guest.

"So this is a first-class hotel?" drawled Uncle Hiram Hardapple as he carefully flung his weather-stained hat on the corner of a radiator.

"Yes, sir," replied the polite waiter with a low bow.

"Got any cut-loaf sugar?"

"There is a bowl full at your elbow, sir."

"Got a lead pencil?"

"Here is one, sir. Do you wish to mark off on the menu cards?"

"Oh, no, sonny. I just want to mark points on these blocks of sugar, so we can have a sociable game of dominos when Mandy comes in. I calculate it will be some time before dinner is served."

Two Views.

They were already discussing their summer vacations.

"But, don't you think," said the athlete, "that everybody ought to learn to swim?"

"Of course not," said the dyspeptic. "What would you think of a fish that insisted upon learning to walk on dry land?"

Quite So.

"Julius Caesar, young gentlemen, reformed the calendar. What may we surmise from this?"

"That he was a good politician and stuck to harmless issues," answered the class as one man.—Exchange.

MR. PRATT

A Tale of the Cape Cod Fisher Folk

By Joseph C. Lincoln

Author of "Cap'n Eri," "Partners of the Tide," Etc.

Illustrations by T. D. Melvill

Copyright, 1907, A. S. Barnes & Company.

But the Twin shook his head kind of impatient. "'Tend to the boy," he says. So the doctor went on with his sponging and swabbing and pretty soon the youngster opens his eyes.

"Did I get him?" says he.

"What's that?" asked the Doc, stooping over.

"Did I get the pig? Is the fiver comin' to me?"

Well, you'd ought to have heard the crowd laugh. Somebody sings out, "Three cheers for the kid," and they give 'em with a whoop.

"What's the matter with youse?" says the youngster, setting up and looking around, dizzy like. "Aw, cut it out!" he says, when they begun to holler some more. "Did I get the pig?"

"You bet you did," says the doctor, laughing. "You're a spunky little rooster. Whose boy are you, anyway? Belong in Eastwich?"

"Naw," says the little feller, like he was plumb disgusted. "N'York."

Hartley smiled. "A brother outcast," says he, looking up at me.

Major Phinney had been shovfng through the crowd and now he was in the front rank, where, so they tell me, he used to be in war time—after the fighting was over.

"He's one of them Fresh Air boys," says the major, puffing, but pompous. "There's a summer school of 'em been started just outside the town here. Couple of New York women brought the tribe down last week. This one's one."

Little red head turned to Hartley. "Say," he says, "don't you tell her."

"Tell who?" says Martin.

"The teacher. Miss Agony."

"Miss which?"

And just then here comes Issachar, his cutaway hanging graceful and ornamental from the collar and piloting a mighty pretty and stylish young woman to the front. She breaks loose from him and runs for'ard and flops down on her knees.

"Why, Dennis! Why, Dennis!" she says. "How could you run away and behave like this? Are you hurt? Is he—"

She looks up at Hartley as she begins to ask the last question. And he was staring at her as white as a sheet of paper.

"Why, Agnes!" he says. And she went white, too, and then red. "Oh!" says she. And then "Oh!" again. "Oh, Martin!"

CHAPTER V.

The Cruise of the "Dora Bassett."

After that there was a kind of tableau, same as them they have at church sociables. Here was Hartley staring at the young woman, and the young woman staring at him, and the boys staring at both of 'em, and me staring at the three, and the crowd around doing grand double-back-action staring at the whole of us. Then the party broke up, as you might say.

Hartley, red as a beet now, got up and bowed. The young woman got up too and held out her hand in a doubting sort of way. But afore he could take it, she seemed to remember something, or changed her mind, for she dropped the hand and turned to the boy, who was on his feet by this time looking down at the relics of his clothes. And between grease and sand and dirt and rags they made a ruin that was worth looking at—made you think of a rubbish pile with a red danger lantern on top.

"You naughty boy!" says she. "How could you do so? If you knew how frightened Miss Talford and I have been. Are you hurt, dear?"

"Naw," says the dear, brisk and disgusted. "Sure I ain't."

The young woman fidgeted around him, petting and "pooring" him and pinning him together, so to speak. Hartley fidgeted too, not seeming to have his bearings at all. He acted to me like he wished he was ten thousand miles away; and yet I cal'late he didn't really wish it neither. The doctor and Major Phinney were fussing around and the crowd kept getting bigger and closing in.

"If you'll excuse me, miss," says I, interfering as usual where 'twas none of my affairs, "I think perhaps 'twould be a good idea if we went somewheres where 'twan't so popular. Maybe we might go into one of the rooms at the hall or somewheres."

"Why, of course!" says Hartley, grabbing at the notion like 'twas a rope I'd thrown out to him. "We'll go to the hall. Ag—Miss Page, let me present my friend, Mr. Solomon Pratt."

So 'twas the Page girl, after all. I'd guessed as much, though how she come to be in Eastwich when she'd ought to have been in Europe was more'n I could make out. She looked up at me and reached out her little hand with a kid glove on it. Likewise she smiled—not with her mouth alone, same as an undertaker meeting the relatives of the departed, but with her eyes too. 'Twas the right kind of a smile. I'm vaccinated and not subject to women folks as a rule, but I'd have done considerable to get a deckload of them smiles.

"I'm very glad to know you, Mr. Pratt," says she, just as though she meant it. And we shook hands—really shook 'em.

Afore I could get over that shake and smile enough to be sensible, Major Philander shoved her arm into his and headed for the hall. Drat his figurehead! You never could beat that old image when there was a pretty woman around. Hartley looked kind of set back like. Then he takes the boy by the hand and falls into the major's wake. Me and the doctor trailed along behind.

The Doc kept talking about what a brave thing the Twin's diving under the horses was, but I didn't hear more than half of it. I was watching the Page girl's hat and thinking how much prettier 'twas than the ones them boarder girls at the hotel wore. And yet there wa'n't a quarter so many feathers and ribbons and doodads on it.

The little chap was chirping up to Hartley all the way. What worried him was when he was going to get his five dollars. Martin told him he'd get it all right. He'd advance it himself and collect it afterwards.

"What's your name, son?" says he to the youngster.

"Denny," says the boy.

"Denny? Dennis, you mean? Dennis what?"

"Aw, I don't know. Plain Denny, I guess."

"Where do you live in New York?"

"Over around Cherry street most of the time. Me and the old man used to hang out in the back room of Mike Donahue's place on Mott street till he got sent up. Then I got to sellin' papers and doin' shines and things. Sometimes I'd take a shy at the Newsboys' Home nights. That's where Miss Agony—Miss Page, I mean—found me. I'm one of the Fresh Air kids over to her place."

"Many more like you over there?"

"Sure! nine or ten of us; girls and all. We been here a week now. I skinned out of the window this mornin' and hoofed it over here. Wanted to see the show. Gee! what a gang of jays! You're the guy what put up the candy for me, ain't you?"

"Shouldn't wonder. Do you like your teacher?"

"Bet your life. She's a peach. So's the other one; Miss Talford her name is."

"Humph! What do they call you over on the east side when you're at home?"

"Redny," says the little shaver.

Hartley looked down at him and smiled one of his quiet grins.

"Bully for you, Redny!" says he. "You're a brick."

We got through the crowd and into the hall finally. Shutting the door was a job. The folks outside seemed to think they'd been cheated. I'd like to have got rid of Philander, but you couldn't do that without a block and tackle; he stuck to Miss Page like a kedge anchor to mud bottom. The doctor was putting a strip of sticking plaster on Hartley's forehead. The cut wa'n't nothing but a scratch, I'm glad to say.

After a spell I see my chance and I cornered the major and commenced to talk politics. He was hankering for the county representative nomination and I knew his soft spot. Hartley and the Page girl got together then, but they didn't seem to know what to say.

I heard her explaining that she hadn't gone to Europe at all. Her ma had been took sick; nothing to speak of, I judged, spell of "nerves" or the like of that. So Agnes and her chum, this Margaret Talford, had seen the chance they'd been waiting for and had got their poor children tribe together and come down and took the Lathrop place at South Eastwich. Seems Miss Talford had hired it afore, intending to go to the Fresh Air v'yage alone, long's she couldn't get Agnes to go it with her.

"But how is it that you're here?" says she. "I thought you were at the mountains."

Hartley explained that, at the last moment, he had decided to try the seashore. He was at Wellmouth for the present, he said.

"But you should have known I was here," she says. "I wrote to—to Ed, of course—before I left the city. Oh, I see! I sent the letter to your Adirondack address. But it should have been forwarded."

Hartley stammered a little, but he said quiet that he was afraid perhaps Van Brunt hadn't thought to send word to have his mail forwarded.

"I see," she says. "That's like Ed."

Martin seemed to think 'twas too, but all he said was, "He's written you very faithfully. His letters, of course, have gone to Liverpool."

Well, that was about all. We had to be going. I said good-by and we started for the door. Miss Page came over and held out her hand.

"Mr. Hartley," says she, "I want to thank you for saving Dennis; Major Phinney told me about it. It was brave. And I'm glad that you're not hurt."

She was pretty nervous, but a good deal less flustered than he was when he took her hand.

"It was nothing, of course," he says, hurried like. "That youngster was worth picking up. Good morning, Miss Page."

He stopped a second to say something about Van Brunt no doubt coming over to see her in a day or so. And then we left the hall and headed for the street.

We walked along pretty brisk for a ways, neither of us saying much of anything. Whatever there was I cal'late I said. By and by we come to the railroad crossing. And here Hartley stops short.

"Sol," says he, "I believe I'll go back by train. I don't feel like a sea trip this afternoon. That—er—that crack on the head has shaken me up some, I guess. Explain to Van, will you?, Tell him I'm all right, but that I've got a little headache. Understand?"

I presumed likely that I understood—more maybe that he thought I did. Headache is a fair to middling excuse, but I judged there was other things. I'd seen them two look at each other when they met, and—well, they say a nod's as good as a wink to a blind horse, and I ain't blind. I made a sort of note in my mind to get the pumps to working again on Lord James next time I got a chance at him alone.

Hartley left me and went over to the railroad depot and I kept on down the road to the shore. I was loafing along, going over to myself the doings of the afternoon and wondering what Van Brunt would say and so on, when I come out into the clear place at the top of Meeting House hill. And the meeting house clock struck four.

I jumped like I'd set down on a hot stove. I hadn't no idea it was as late as that. The pig and the Page girl and the rest of the mix-up had put all notion of time out of my head. I yanked out my watch to make sure that that clock was right, and then I glanced at the sky. Over to the east'ard a big, fat, gray fog bank was piling up. 'Twas high water at two,

"Put — Your—Helm—Over—to—Port! Port! You Lubber, Port!"

Eastwich Port cove is a nasty place to get out of at low tide, and here was an easterly fog coming.

As a general thing I don't take anybody's wash when it comes to handling a boat or looking out for weather and such, but now I was ready to sing small. A ten-year-old boy brought up along shore would have known better than to do as I'd done. Don't make no odds how good an excuse I had for forgetting; no excuse is good where it comes to sailboating. I went down that hill like the man in the tin coffin went to Tophet, "clinketty jingle." I jumped fences and cut across lots, and I'm ready to swear right now that there's more horse briars to the square inch in Eastwich Port than in any other place on the Lord's green earth. I bust through the pines and come out on the beach yelling: "Hi! Turn out, everybody! Get aboard now. Lively!"

And, by time! there wa'n't a soul in sight. For no less than twenty-two and a half minutes by my watch I walked up and down that beach, seeing the tide go out and bellering "Ahoy!" and "Where are you?" at the top of my lungs. And then, lo and behold you, here comes Van Brunt and Lord James, poking along as if they had all the time there was. Van had been over behind the point taking a swim and his lordship had gone along to set on his boss' trousers and keep the creases in, or some such mighty important job.

"All right, skipper; all right," drawls Van, cool as a Sunday school boy at an ice cream sociable. "You've got good lungs and you'd ought to be careful of 'em. I've heard you whooping for the last ten minutes. What did you and Martin have when you were up town? By the way, where is Martin?"

He was so everlasting comfortable and sassy and I was so biling hot and nervous that it made me mad.

"He's gone home on the train," I snapped out. "Got a headache."

"Headache, eh? Humph! What did you have up town and where did you get it?"

"Never mind where we got it," says I. "You'll get a headache from setting up stuck on a shoal all night if you don't get aboard that boat. Look at them clouds."

He looked at 'em. "Ah," he says; "very like a whale."

I didn't know what he meant and I didn't care.

"Whale!" says I. "Well, we'll be lucky if we ain't the Jonahs. Get aboard with that basket, you Opper what's-your-name, will you; if you want to fetch port to-night."

Lord James looked like he'd like to put another "'ead" on me, but his boss was round and he dassent talk back. Between us we loaded the dunnage. Then Van got aboard, deliberate enough to try a parson's patience, and I cast loose and got sail on the Dora Bassett. We'd made a start, anyhow.

But it turned out that was all we'd made. Van commenced to ask me more about Hartley, and afore I could tell him the news about the pig race and the rest, the Dora Bassett run her nose on a sand flat and there she stuck. I was afraid of that tide all along.

I tried to get her off with the oar, but 'twas no go. Then I pulled the skiff alongside—the one we'd been towing astern—and got into that and tried that way. But that wouldn't work either. Finally I jumped overboard up to my waist and then I got her off.

But she stuck again afore we got out of the cove. I splashed and shoved and worked for another half hour or so, the wind dying out and the fog drifting in. Time I got her afloat this time and had listened to a steady stretch of Van Brunt's lazy sarcasms, my temper was worn to shoe-strings. Consarn the man! It didn't seem to make no difference to him whether he got home that night or a week from then.

We got out of that blessed cove and into the channel somewheres around six o'clock. Then 'twas a dead beat home and the breeze pretty nigh gone. A few minutes, and the fog shut down on us, wet and thick and heavy as ever I see it. We poked along for an hour or so more and then 'twas 'most dark and we wa'n't half way to Wellmouth. Lord James in his usual position, hanging on to the centerboard and moving his head from one side to t'other as if he was afraid of being hit when he wa'n't looking. I'd pretty nigh scalped him with the boom once or twice and now he ducked whenever the tiller squeaked. He certainly looked like a statue of misery in a fountain, with the fog dripping off his side-whiskers.

Van was stretched out on the locker, blowing smoke rings and spouting poetry. I'd been too busy to tell him a word about his girl's being in the neighborhood. Fact is, I didn't like the feel of things. I believed there was wind coming.

"See here," says I, finally, "one of you fellers 'll have to go for'ard and keep an eye out for shoals. We're on the edge of the channel here and I want to be in deep water afore a squall hits us. I cal'late there's one pretty nigh due."

His lordship just stared at me fishy-eyed and pitiful. As for Van, he went on reciting something about being on the sea, "with the blue above and the blue below." He wa'n't going to stir—not him.

"Look here," I says. "If we strike a sand bar and a squall strikes us at the same time we'll go below, way down, where it's a big sight bluer than 'tis here, 'cording to the minister's tell. Go for'ard on lookout, won't you?"

So he went, though I doubt if he'd have known a bar when he see one—not that kind anyway.

Pretty soon the breeze give out altogether. And then, from off in the distance, I heard a noise, a rushing, roaring kind of noise.

"Hark!" I yells. "Do you hear that? Here she comes! Down with the jib. Haul on that rope, Mr. Van, will you? No, no! T'other one! T'other one! Godfrey scissors! Here you Opper; hang on to that tiller! Keep her just as she is."

I made a long arm, grabbed that valet man by the collar, yanked him into the sternsheets and jammed the tiller into his hand. Then I took a flying leap for'ard where the Twin was trying to cast loose the peak halliard, having a notion, it seemed, that it ought to belong to the jib.

The squall struck us. The fog split into pieces, same as a rotten tops'l. The Dora Bassett heeled over till I thought she was going on her beam ends. His lordship turned loose a yell like a tugboat whistle, lets go the tiller and dives headfirst into the cockpit amidships. As for me, I was swinging over the side with my whole weight on the jib downhaul, pawing air with my feet, and trying to get back my balance.

That downhaul was old and some rotten. It broke and I went overboard with a howl and a splash.

I went down far enough to begin to see glimpses of that blue place I was speaking of just now. Then I pawed up for air. When my head stuck out of water there was something big and black swooping past it. I made a grab and caught hold. As luck would have it 'twas the skiff we was towing astern.

I climbed into that skiff like a cat up a tree. I was full of salt water—eyes and all—but I could see the Dora Bassett flopping ahead of me with her gaff halfway down her mast. Seems the halliard had broken just after the downhaul did.

I roared, a sputtering kind of roar. And then Van's head stuck out over the sloop's stern.

"God sakes!" says he. "Are you drowned?"

"Drowned!" I hollers. "Think I'm a pesky lubber just cause you—" I had to stop here to cough. I was a regular tank, as you might say, of salt water.

"Good heavens!" says Van. "Do they always do that—boats, I mean?"

"Always do—" I was so mad at myself and all creation that I could scarcely answer. "Oh, suffering mighty! if ever go to sea again with a parcel of— Catch a hold of that tiller! Bring her into the wind! Cast off that mainsheet! Cast it off! Here comes another one!"

I suppose mainsheets are kind of scarce on the "Street." Anyhow I see that he didn't know what I meant.

"That rope at the stern," I hollers, dancing around in the skiff. "Cast it off! Lively!"

The second squall strick us. I see the Dora Bassett drive off in a sweeping half circle, the end of the boom knocking the tops of the waves to pieces and the spray flying like a waterfall. And, louder than the wind or anything else, I could hear Lord James bellering for home and mother.

But 'twan't till afterwards that I remembered any of this. Just then I had other fish to fry. There was two or three ropes at the sailboat's stern and Van had cast off one of 'em, same as I ordered.

Only, as it happened; instead of the mainsheet he'd cast off the skiff's painter. Me and the Dora Bassett was parting company fast.

From out of the dark ahead of me come a yell, louder even than Lord James' distress signals.

"Sol!" hollers Van Brunt. "Sol Pratt!"

"Ay, ay!" I screams. "I'm all right. Never mind me. Put your helm over to port."

"Port what?"

"Put—your—helm—over—to—port! Port! you lubber! PORT!" My manners had gone overboard when I did and they'd missed the skiff.

'Twas quiet for a minute. Then, from further off comes the screech:

"What—part—of—the—damn—thing—is—port?"

"Never mind!" I yells. "Keep—her—just—as—she—is. You'll—fetch—up—all—right. Better—take—reef. Slack—that—main—sheet!"

Then I had to quit and grab up the oars and bring the skiff bow on to the seas. When I got her headed right I couldn't see nor hear nothing of the Dora Bassett. As Major Philander Phinney says when he gets to telling how much better General Grant would have done if he'd took his advice, I was "disconnected with my base of supplies."

CHAPTER VI.

Ozone Island.

I was pretty busy for the next good while 'tending to that skiff. And scared, d— say a word. Not scared for mys— you understand—no, indeed. When I get drowned, with a tight plank under me and a pair of oars in my hand, 'twon't be in the bay, I'll tell you that. But I was scared for Van Brunt and his lordship in the Dora Bassett. They didn't either of 'em know the jib from the rudder, and the valet was too crazy frightened to be of any use if he had.

But Van was sure to be cool enough, and the broken gaff would act like a double reef, so that was some comfort. And the squall wa'n't going to amount to nothing—'twas only a fair breeze even now—so if Van had sense enough to keep the tiller straight and let her run they'd fetch up somewheres alongshore, I judged. And, to make me hope still more, the squall had brought a complete change of wind with it; now 'twas blowing back up the bay instead of out to sea.

So I squared my shoulders and laid to the oars, heading for where, judging by the wind, the land ought to be. 'Twas darker than a black kitten in a nigger's pocket, but I cal'lated to be able to hit the broadside of the United States somewheres. I got aground on the flats five or six times, but along towards midnight I butted ashore at the little end of nowhere where there was nothing but bushes and sand and pines, no sign of civilization. And by this time 'twas pouring rain.

After a couple of years of scratching and swearing and falling down I come out of the scrub into a kind of clearing. Then I discovered a barbed wire fence by hanging up on it like a sheet on a line and located the back of a barn by banging into it with my head. Then a nice talkative dog come out of the barn and located me, and things commenced to liven up.

While me and the dog were conducting our experience meeting, a light showed in an upstairs window a little ways off and somebody sticks their head out and wants to know what's the matter.

"Who are you?" he says.

"My name's Pratt," says I.

"Where are you?"

"Well," I says, "judging by the feel and smell I'm on top of the pig-sty. But I ain't real sure. I can tell you where your dog is, if you want to know."

"What are you doing round here this time of night?" he says.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

L. J. Plaut & Co.

"BEE HIVE" New Jersey's Shopping Centre NEWARK.

Open 8:30 a. m. Close 6 p. m. Saturdays 10 p. m.
Telephone 5120 Newark.

Momentous May Muslinwear Sale

Quality the keynote—Market conditions impel many stores to aim at more cheapness. We use it as a means not only to lowest prices, but also by its aid come out more strongly than ever before with the quality feature; quality at every point, in every detail—material, cut, trimmings and sewing; all equally, consistently carried out. Not one slighted in one garment to strengthen another; not one group neglected to bolster others. From beginning to end, from 15c corset cover to finest French lingerie quality is more prominent in each garment than you have yet seen at the prices. But that is not all—every inch of lace and embroidery is new—designs of garments new. Every piece made up in the last two weeks, just as for regular stocks and not with the aim to meet a special sale price. In the groups from 44c up are Sample Undermuslins—not handled or soiled, but garments for which no similar trimming could be had. What a relief it is to come to a sale like this, where all is as refreshing as an orchard of apple blossoms. Throngs are showing their appreciation by words and purchases.

Read of Corset Covers

25c Corset Covers	15c
50c and 59c Corset Covers	29c
69c Corset Covers	44c
98c Corset Covers	68c
2.98 Corset Covers	1.97
1.75 Corset Covers	1.25

Read Many Skirt Items

29c Short Underskirts	29c
Women's 98c Skirts	68c
Women's 1.98 Skirts	1.25
Women's 1.98 Skirts	1.44
Women's 2.98 Skirts	1.97
3.98 and 4.98 Skirts	2.97
5.98 and 6.98 Skirts	3.97
Women's 10.98 Skirts	6.90

Read Night Gown News

89c Night Gowns	50c
98c Night Gowns	68c
1.50 Night Gowns	97c
1.75 and 1.98 Night Gowns	1.25
2.98 Night Gowns	1.97
3.98 Night Gowns	2.97
5.98 Night Gowns	3.97

Read Drawer Bargains

Women's 25c Drawers	19c
Women's 59c Drawers	29c
Women's 69c and 79c Drawers	44c
Women's 98c and 1.25 Drawers	68c
Women's 1.50 to 1.98 Drawers	97c
Women's 2.50 and 2.75 Drawers	1.44
29c Extra Large Drawers	29c

No Branch Stores — Mail Orders Filled.

707 to 721 Broad St.

Daily Free Delivery By Our Own Wagons. — Plainfield-Newark Trolleys Pass Our Doors.

LAWN TOOLS

It isn't too late to buy if you have discovered that you need a new Mower this year. You must have heard of our easy running, close cutting, durably constructed Lawn Mowers. They have world-wide reputation.

We also have all other kinds of tools for lawn and garden development.

HOSE, REELS, SPRINKLERS, RAKES, GRASS SHEARS, HOOK, WEEDERS, EDGERS, PRUNERS, ETC.

Gayle Hardware Company

Tel. 468-R. Front St. and Park Ave.

Shining Sands and Sunlight

make Florida beaches in mid-winter scenes of blissful enchantment. Palms wave above them, and dancing waves break at their feet, while crowds of delighted visitors luxuriate in the tropical atmosphere.

FLORIDA

beckons to the fatigued and the leisurely alike. She welcomes all to her hospitable shores. The ideal route thither from New York is direct by sea to Jacksonville (with a short stop at Charleston, S. C.) upon the fine steamers of the

CLYDE STEAMSHIP CO.

H. H. RAYMOND, V. P. & G. M. A. C. HAGERTY, G. P. A.
General Offices: Pier 36, N. R., New York.

W. D. THICKSTUN, Agent, 107 North Avenue.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR
TRUNKS, SUIT CASES OR BAGS
CALL AT
O. M. DUNHAM'S, 129 Park Ave
TRUNK STRAPS—ALL SIZES.

STONE ROADS.

PROPOSALS are asked for the construction of Macadam Roads, on West Grand Street, First Avenue and Locust Street, in the City of Elizabeth, and in the Boroughs of Roselle and Roselle Park, Union County, N. J., from De Hart Place to Westfield Avenue.

The length of the roadway to be macadamized is about 11,905 lin. ft. The width of the stonework is 16 ft.

The estimated quantities of the items of the work are as follows:

Earth Excavation, 7,820 cu. yds.
8-inch Macadam, 15,020 sq. yds.
4-inch Macadam, 5,850 sq. yds.
Manhole Heads reset, 18.
6-inch Underdrains, 1,200 lin. ft.
Rock Excavation, 0.
Crushed stone furnished additional, 270 tons.

Plans, profiles and specifications for this work may be examined at the office of the County Engineer, 215 Broad Street, Elizabeth, N. J.

Bidders must enclose with their bids a certified check for $1,000.00, made payable to the Director of the Board of Chosen Freeholders as a guarantee that if the contract be awarded to such bidder, the bidder will enter into an agreement with the Board of Freeholders for the carrying out of the work.

Bids for the above described work will be received by the County Road Committee of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, at the Court House, Elizabeth, N. J., at 2:30 p. m., on Tuesday, May 26, 1908.

The Board of Freeholders or its committee reserves the right to reject any or all bids, as they may deem best for the interests of the County.

JACOB L. BAUER, County Engineer.
215 Broad Street, Elizabeth, N. J.
5-7, 8, 9, 11, 13, 15, 18, 20, 22

Blue Stone Sidewalks.

If you want the best Blue Stone sidewalks, curbs, etc., call on

J. W. Manhattan,
50 Elm St.

NOTICE TO MEN.
Don't Throw Away Your Old Clothes.
Highest Prices Paid for Same.
I. RICHARD, - - 17 Somerset St.

Try a Press Want Ad

Burglary insurance may replace money value but it cannot insure the associations that often surround a gift.

Store your valuables in our Safe Deposit Vaults where they will be safe from thieves and other hazard.

Our booklet, Safety for Valuables, may be obtained for the asking.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Travelers' Cheques.

Baseball and General Sports

RAIN INTERFERES WITH LOCAL GOLFERS

There were just twenty entries in the weekly competition for the Spring Handicap cups, Classes A and B, at the Plainfield Country Club, on Saturday, but the shower during the afternoon prevented several from finishing, while one contestant failed to return his card. Three other contestants returned cards not attested, and it may be interesting for them to know that according to the rules they will be disqualified from engaging in next Saturday's play for their neglect.

In Class A, the point-winners were Frank O. Reinhart, H. G. Lapsley and W. T. Glenney, while those in Class B were D. H. Rowland, W. B. Tyler and Edward J. Patterson. Again low scores were the rule and the contestants were evenly matched. The putting greens are rapidly getting into condition and will soon be used for regular play. There was a goodly number of members at the clubhouse during the afternoon to enjoy the social features.

These scores were returned in the competition: ,

Class A—Frank O. Reinhart, 83, 4179; H. G. Lapsley, 94, 14-80; W. T. Glenney, 89, 9-80.

Class B—D. H. Rowland, 95, 20-75; W. B. Tyler, 101, 22-79; Edward J. Patterson, 103, 22-31.

BROOKLYN Y.M.C.A. NINE FORFEITS SCRAPPY GAME

The game between the Y. M. C. A. nine and the team from the Twenty-sixth ward, Brooklyn association, broke up in an argument on Crescent Oval Saturday afternoon, and the local boys won a laurel-less 9-0 victory, when umpire William O'Loughlin declared the game forfeited in the eighth inning. O'Loughlin's job was no cinch, for his decisions were hotly disputed on two occasions, and Manager Litsman's failure to have a rule book on the grounds made periodic delay in the game an unpleasant feature.

The final dispute, which broke up the game, came in the eighth. Banks hit a line drive which struck the umpire, but Liljander, who was in the box, winged it to first and caught the runner. O'Loughlin had turned to second to give his decision on a steal when he was hit, and did not feel the ball, which grazed his coat. He declared Banks out, but changed his decision when he realized he had been hit by the ball. Captain Kraus of the Brooklyn nine claimed the out because there was no rule book on the field to prove the point. He withdrew his men from the field and when he refused to continue the game within a time limit, O'Loughlin declared it forfeited to the local nine. The actual score at the time was 9-8 in favor of the Brooklynites.

O'Loughlin's decision at home, when he called Frank, of the Brooklyn nine, out at the plate in the first part of the game, was another point hotly contested by the visitors, and this caused a long, argumentative delay. Rain interfered at the start of the play and it was 6:15 when the nines left the field after an afternoon of debating and some baseball between times.

Both teams played with schoolboy unsteadiness at critical times. After a ragged start, due to difficulty in controlling the wet ball, Scott pitched consistently good ball for the locals for five innings. George Conover, who succeeded him in the box, was very unsteady, and the visitors got five runs in the three innings he passed out the sphere. Liljander pitched steady ball, but got rocky support.

The actual score.

	R.	H.	E.
Plainfield ... 0 2 2 0 0 2 0 2—8	5	2
Brooklyn ... 3 0 0 0 1 3 2 0—9	8	6

Two base hit: Noteboom. Bases on balls: Off Scott, 2 in 5 innings; off Conover, 2 in 3 innings; off Liljander, 2 in 71-3 innings. Struck out: By Scott, 4; by Conover, 2; by lilJander, 1.

Plainfield: W. Schoonmaker, cf; R. Schoonmaker, c; Craig, Gilmore, ss; Pond, lf; Conway, 3b; Gilmore, Banks, 2b; Banks, C. Loizeux, rf; Jacot, 1b; Scott, Conover, p.

Brooklyn, Noteboom, lf; Moore, 2b; Massett, ss; Liljander, p; Kraus, 1b; Werner, 3b; Kiendl, cf; Kappes, rf; Frank, c.

HOLY CROSS NINE BEATS PLAINFIELD A. C., 16-6

The Holy Cross Club nine trimmed the Plainfield A. C. team by a score of 16-6 in a one-sided game on the Cricket Field Saturday afternoon. The outcome of the game was never in doubt after the sixth, when the church nine hammered in ten runs. At the start of this inning, the score was a tie, but five hits and a series of expensive errors, allowed fifteen players to face the Plainfield A. C. pitcher. Mosher, of the church nine, who came to the bat twice in this inning, hit the ball for a two-base hit each time.

Vail, for the Holy Cross nine was effective in the box fanning eleven batsmen, and giving but two bases on balls. Luthman, for the Athletic Club, struck out nine and gave five passes. He was given poor support, eleven errors being tallied against the Plainfields. The lineups and scores:

Holy Cross: Mosher, 1b; Miller and Trenbth, rf; Conroy, 2b; Moran and Blaziarfi lf; Nash, ss; Russell Vail, cf; Ira Vail, p; Coyle, 3b; Grey, c.

Plainfield A. C.: Post, cf; E. Luthman, rf; Howell, 2b; Haberle, ss; McClinton, ss; Ulmer, 1b; Jeader, lf; Francisco, c; N. Luthman, p.

	R.	H.	E.
Holy C. 0 0 1 2 1 1 0 0 2 x—16	10	8
Pl'd A. C 2 0 0 2 0 0 0 1 1— 6	6	11

CRAGIN AND WADSWORTH WIN CLUB TENNIS TITLE

W. B. Cragin, Jr., and Willard Wadsworth won the men's doubles championship in tennis at the Country Club Saturday afternoon by defeating Harry J. Cochran and Albert D. Beers in a hard fought match which took five sets to decide. As winners of the title, the members of the winning team received silver cups presented by the tennis committee of the club, and Cochran and Beers, as runnersup, also received cups.

Saturday's play was in the semi-final and final rounds of the tournament begun last Saturday with sixteen entries from the club. The play began late, on account of the rain, and the courts were heavy and slow for the first matches, drying out in good shape for the finals. The wind was somewhat of a hindrance. Cochran and Beers had an easy time in their semi-final match, trimming F. W. Goddard and Howard Carter by scores of 6-1 and 6-4 Cragin and Wadsworth defeated R. Story Rowland and Elliott Cutter by scores of 6-3 and 8-6, with some fast tennis in the second set.

The title winners took the first set in the final round by a score of 6-3, but Cochran and Beers developed speed after losing this set and captured the next two by scores of 6-3 and 6-2. One more set would have given them the title, and realizing this, Cragin and Wadsworth played hard tennis in the fourth set and completely out-pointed their opponents, winning by a score of 6-1. The "rubber" set was marked by some first-class serving and hard net volleying on both sides, and the score ran to four all. Cochran and Beers weakened at the end, and the title winners took the match by a score of 6-4.

H. R. M. A. Seconds Trimmed.

Although the Plainfield High School nine were shut out by the first team of the Hudson River Military Academy, the Stillman School nine rolled up a score of 16-1 on the cadets' second team. The visitors scored their only run in the first inning, when an error by the schoolboys allowed the tally. The Stillmans were shut out in the first, but scored in every other session at the bat. The score by innings:

Stillman ..... 0 3 2 4 1 2 1 1 2—16
H. R. M. A..... 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1

The Stillman battery was Vail and Nash.

Highlands Won at New Market.

The Highland A. C. nine went to New Market Saturday afternoon and trimmed the New Market Field Club team by a score of 3-1 in a well-played game, marked by light hitting by both teams. Wunderlich and Winters were the battery for the Highlands, and Fulton and Carll controlled the curve department for their opponents. The score by innings:

Highlands ..... 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 0—3
New Market.... 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1

Roll-off Games Tonight.

The Putnam and Madison teams will roll a post-series of games at Johnny Campbell's alleys tonight in order to decide second and third places in the recent tourney. After the games, the distribution of prizes will take place.

Juniors Defeat Climax A. C.

The Jr. O. U. A. M. ball team defeated the Climax A. C., on Hope Common, Saturday afternoon, by a score of 5 to 3.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. R. A. Frazee and her sister, Miss T. Frances Martin, of this city, are spending the week in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Worthington Paige, of Oneonta, New York, is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. D. J. Yerkes, of Grove street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Munger and daughter, Miss Jessie Munger, of Washington avenue, will sail on Saturday for Naples.

Mrs. Herbert Whittingham of Baltimore, Md., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Van Deventer, of Wilton avenue.

Mrs. F. W. Miles, of Grahamsville, N. Y., is spending a few weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Chandler, of Johnston drive.

—Two pupils of the Plainfield Business College have taken positions during the past week; Miss Lidia Apgar, of Califon, as stenographer in the employ of the Youles Exterminating Company, at Annandale, and Louis Van Zandt, of North Plainfield, as clerk at Truell Hall.

MAYOR AWARDS MEDALS

(Continued from page 1)

having served continuously since then. When Chief Kiely got his medal the Mayor said that he had come up from a patrolman to the head of the department. Mr. Kiely, he added, had joined the force in 1890, and had made the department famous in this section of the country. Captain Frederickson was applauded when Mr. Fisk announced that he was one of the men who had never had a charge against him and that he did not know what fear meant.

As the mayor concluded his remarks, Chief Kiely and Chief Doane were called to the porch, where each was presented with a gold badge in honor of faithful services. As an added compliment, Chief Kiely's trophy was pinned in his coat by Mrs. Fisk, while the mayor's daughter, Mrs. L. E. Waring, attached Chief Doane's. It was a very pleasing part of the proceeding and added greatly to the pride of the recipients.

Following the decoration of the chiefs, the firemen, who had occupied the front of the assemblage because of seniority, moved to the left of the rank and other members of the police department were called forward to be honored. A bronze badge was presented to Captain Frederickson by Miss Anna G. Fisk, who also appended one on the coat of Sergeant Herbert Overbaugh. Detective-Sergeant John Flynn's was pinned on by Miss Dorothy Fisk, while Patrolman Morris Higgins received his from Mrs. Fisk. After that the patrolmen who have meritorius records were called forward one at a time and decorated with bronze badges.

With the police roll call concluded, the firemen moved back and all the regular members of the department received one of the coveted trophies, Chief Jennings and the captains being summoned first. Afterward the call men who have answered eighty per cent. of alarms since their appointment, also received badges. The full list of men who were honored is as follows:

Police.

Chief Patrick S. Kiely; captain, Christian Frederickson; detective sergeant, John J. Flynn; sergeant Herbert L. Overbaugh; roundsman, Maurice Higgins; and patrolmen Thomas McCue, James A. Saunders, Martin Vanderweg, Andrew Saffron, Charles A. Flynn, Arthur McGinley, William Messler, John Kelly, Dennis O'Keeffe, George Dobson, Tobias W. Nolan, Cornelius McCarthy.

Firemen.

Chief, T. O. Doane; assistant chief, A. D. Jennings; captain, William H. Townley; captain, J. H. Daly; captain, George Feiring; tillermen, G. H. Freeman, George Mehl, Jr.; driver, E. E. Vail; driver, J. P. Clark; driver, D. Keilderling; hoseman, J. FitzPatrick; hoseman, J. P. Townley; callmen, Captain W. H. Addis; Eph Compton, W. J. Dunn, M. J. Higgins, E. P. Townley.

Hose Co. No. 1—James Conkling, John Cline, James McClane.

No. 3 Hose Co.—C. C. Graves, H. Manning, J. Pennington, J. H. Cose.

Hose Co. No. 2—William C. Chamberlain, E. V. Lorton.

During the presentation ceremony, the departments were officially photographed by P. Frank Stone and when this part of the program was concluded, the police gave an exhibition drill. It was accomplished in a creditable manner and elicited numerous sincere compliments from the visiting officials. Formal dismissal ended the manouevers and the departments reassembled in marching order on West Seventh street. They then marched to Liberty street, to Fifth street, back to Park avenue, to Second street and ranks were broken in front of fire headquarters. It was the intention originally to have the procession pass along Front street but because of the torn-up condition of that thoroughfare it was deemed best not to risk taking the fire apparatus along it.

The men of the two departments adjourned to Timbo's restaurant after a short rest and there enjoyed a six-course dinner, arranged for them by the mayor. They conducted an informal period of speech-making on their own account that was a treat in itself.

According to Mayor Fisk's plans, the city officials, the visiting fire and police chiefs, the local chiefs and other guests remained at his home after the departments moved away, where he entertained them for an hour or more. Refreshments and cigars were passed and addresses were made by Mr. Fisk, Mayor Townsend, of the borough; James E. Martine, Chief Astley, of the Newark fire department; Republican County Chairman Frank H. Smith, Captain Robert Kirkland, of Elizabeth; Chief Doane, Chief Kiely and many others. A large number of the visiting firemen and police were entertained at the same time at the Hotel Waldorf, this being part of the arrangements made by the mayor.

Among the officials who attended the inspection as guests of the city's chief executive were Mayor Albert Bollschweiller and members of the Common Council, of Perth Amboy, and Mayor Samuel Townsend and members of the Borough Council. Chief Doane had as his guests, the following heads of fire departments; Chiefs Black of Atlantic; Somers of Bound Brook; Weill, of Somerville; Stagg, of Paterson, Elfreth, of Camden; Conway, of Jersey City; Arnett, of Lambertville; Allen, of Trenton; Gerstung, of Elizabeth; Wyhuskie, of Dunellen, and Decker, of Westfield; also ex-Chief Kiersted, of Newrak. Chief Kiely entertained Chiefs Burke, of Perth Amboy; Tenney, of Elizabeth; Harding of New Brunswick; Wright, of Rahway; O'Neill, of Westfield; County Detective John A. Galatin, Prosecutor Swift and Assistant Prosecutor Walter L. Hetfield, Jr.

PUPILS MUST OBSERVE NEW ATTENDANCE LAWS

In order to facilitate the work of the truant officer in North Plainfield, Supervising Principal Henry C. Krebs of the Somerset county schools, today issued a statement outlining the requirements of the law for public school attendance. In speaking to a Daily Press reporter of the provisions of the school age limit, which has recently been raised, Mr. Krebs said:

"The last Legislature passed a law which radically effects the compulsory education act and makes a great sptep in the direction of more extended education. Formerly, pupils were only required to attend school until they reached the age of fourteen years, but hereafter they are required to continue at the public schools until a year later.

"If a pupil has not completed the grammar grades by the time he has reached the age of fifteen, he must attend school until he is seventeen. If he completes the grammar school work before he reaches the age of seventeen, he may leave school, provided he has some useful occupation. On the other hand, if he completes the grammar school course before he is fifteen years old, he must go to high school at least until he is fifteen."

This new law is not familiar to many families both in the borough and in the city, and Richard MacDonald, truant officer of the borough schools, as well as Miss Adelaide Ball, who holds the same position in Plainfield have been having trouble enforcing it.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church will meet in the church parlors tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, when reports of the annual Presbyterian meeting held at Cranford, April 14, and of the biennial meetings of the Women's Board, held at Philadelphia, on April 28, 29 and 30 will be presented.

Herman E. Fuhrhans.

Herrman E. Fuhrhans, aged sixty-nine years, died this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Kling, of Webster place. The funeral will be held at the residence tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

The olive oil sold by Neuman Brothers is imported by them from France. That's why they can guarantee it so highly; sold by the gallon, half gallon, quart or pint.

USE PRESS WANT ADS

STORAGE VAULTS

For Large Trunks, Boxes, Valuable Packages, Etc., Etc.

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

OF ALL SIZES

ABSOLUTE SECURITY PROVIDED

CITY NATIONAL BANK

Important Notice!

KIRMESS

BENEFIT MUHLENBERG HOSPITAL.

On account of the demand for seats, reservations made by mail and telephone not yet paid for,

Will not be held after 6 p. m. Tuesday, May 12.

CHAS. J. FISK,
Chairman Kirmess Committee.

KIRMESS

BENEFIT OF

MUHLENBERG HOSPITAL

AT

New Plainfield Theatre

Every Night This Week Beginning Tuesday, With Matinee Saturday

Everybody Should See the Dances at Least Once

Remember, There Are Good Seats to Be Had at 25c, 50c, and 75c as well as $1.00 and $1.50

PROGRAM EQUALLY GOOD EACH PERFORMANCE

If You Cannot Secure Good Seats One Night, Try Another.

WE SELL LOTS FOR CASH or INSTALLMENT

We build and sell houses on the same plan. It will pay you to buy before June 1st in Laramie Park.

Write or call on

J. D. LOIZEAUX LUMBER CO.,

Cor. Berkman St. and North Ave. 'Phone 218.

5 6 11 m-w-s

New Plainfield Theatre

PLAYING ALL THE LEADING ATTRACTIONS. W. J. COUNIHAN, Manager

WEEK COMMENCING

MONDAY, MAY 18

MATINEE WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY

ALBERTA GALLATIN

AND HER ALL-STAR STOCK CO.

NAT. GOODWIN'S GREATEST SUCCESS

The Cow Boy & The Lady

Wed., May 20—ROSE MATINEE

Every Lady attending the Matinee will be presented with an AMERICAN BEAUTY. Miss Gallatin will hold a Reception on the stage after the Performance.

Sale of Seats Opens Monday, May 11

Prices—Nights, 15c, 25c, 35c, 50c Mats. 15c and 25c

—CAMERAS—

KODAKS AND PHOTOGRAPHIC SUPPLIES
DEVELOPING, PRINTING AND ENLARGING

Bring Your Films in One Day and Get Your Pictures the Next.

"THE PHOTO STORE," 129 NORTH AVENUE.

FORMERLY VAN WINKLE'S.

Bonn's

140 West Front St.

CHOICE MILLINERY MODERATELY PRICED

Exclusive too, as we do not make or trim two hats alike. You can select a trimmed hat from our large assortment and be assured you'll not see the same upon another head.

Stylish hats at $3, $4 and $5 each.

Untrimmed hats, all colors and black, formerly $2 to $2.75 each, now $1.50.

A splendid assortment of wings, black and all colors, also owlheads, fancy feathers, flowers and foliage at very moderat prices.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

BOARDERS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 4 48 a. m.
Sun Sets 7 05 p. m.
Lanterns must be lighted 8:0[illegible] p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER
Fair to night, and Wednesday; cooler Wednesday.
Maximum, 78; minimum, 58 for 24 hours ending at noon. Ther. at noon 60.

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, TUESDAY, MAY 12, 1908. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

GRACE MEN'S BANQUET

Hugh Hastings, Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie and Others Make Addresses.

GEORGE S. CLAY, PRESIDENT.

The Rector's Horse, Colors of His Alma Mater Are Adopted—Membership Now One Hundred and Eight.

Interesting reports of the past year's work, election of officers and several adresses, one by Hugh Hastings on "Grant—the Man and Soldier," combined to make the annual meeting and banquet of the Men's Club of Grace church, a delightful affair, last night. The meeting, held in the parish house, was attended by seventy-five members and friends of the club.

The business session was held at 6:30 o'clock, with President Howard Fleming in the chair. He gave a resume of the year's work, which was followed by the report of the treasurer, E. F. Feickert. This showed the receipts to be $303.24 and the disbursements, $272.98, leaving a balance of $30.26. Dr. Harold D. Corbusier, as secretary, present his annual report, which was a brief review of the meetings of the year. The average attendance was fifty-six and the membership has been increased by twenty-five, making the total 108.

These officers were then elected for the coming year: President, George S. Clay; vice-president, Thomas Beard; secretary, Dr. Harold D. Corbusier; treasurer, E. F. Feickert; executive committee, G. M. Holstein, Howard Fleming, R. M. Huse, J. C. Moore, F. W. Iredell, C. G. Monro, Herbert E. Jackson and A. Willis West.

The by-laws were amended making the regular meeting meeting night of the club the first Monday instead of the second Monday in the month, except that the annual meeting shall be held on the second Monday in May.

The address of the evening was then delivered by Hugh Hastings, tax commissioner of New York, who gave a paper on "Grant—the Man and Soldier." It was a masteriy presentation of the most important facts in the career of the famous general, citing many interesting incidents in his life as a man and then recounting his herioc deeds as a soldier and leader of the Union forces throughout the Civil War.

Some pleasant remarks were made by Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, who was a guest of the club. He spoke in a general way, incidently congratulating the organization upon its fine showing. Thomas Beard also spoke concerning the work of men's clubs, showing how important they are today in the church.

Features of the affair were several baritone and tenor solos by Arthur Chamberlain and William J. Tallamy, and recitations by Frederick B. Hanson, who gave a number of James Whitcomb Riley's best poems and a one-act play. Syb. Owen, of New York, entertained the club with cimic songs, and he was considered one of the best artists in his line yet heard by the members.

There were also congratulatory remarks by the new president, George S. Clay, and the retiring head, Howard Fleming. The club voted to adopt as its colors, those of Trinity College, Toronto, Canada, from which institution Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson is a graduate. They are red and black.

All of the speeches and entertainment followed an excellent dinner which was served by Mrs. Henry Johnson, of the Park Club.

T. A. B. ASSOCIATION HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING.

St. Mary's T. A. B. Association held the thirty-sixth annual meeting last night, at which the following officers were elected: President, M. D. O'Keefe; vice-president, Edward T. Lynch; recording secretary, Joseph F. McCure; financial secretary, Clarence H. Walden; treasurer, J. C. Carney; sergeant-at-arms, M. J. Higgins. Three new members were elected.

Following the business session, a smoker was held, during which Rev. Father B. M. Bogan made an address and members of the association contributed vocal selections.

Geo. Leland's Funeral Arrangements

The funeral of George R. Leland, who committed suicide at his home on West Second street, yesterday, will be held at the residence tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock. Burial will be at the convenience of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Hight, of East Second street, are entertaining relatives from Bridgeport, Conn.

—Levy Bros. are preparing a big 10 day sale, starting Thursday to celebrate their 4th anniversary.

QUITS HOSPITAL BOARD

J. Evarts Tracy, Active Member for Twenty-six Years, Now Honorary Governor.

HOUSE PHYSICIANS NAMED.

Maurice Hansell and Joseph Scal Are Elected—Medical Director's Report.

J. Evarts Tracy, who has been connected with Muhlenberg Hospital for twenty-six years as a member of the Board of Governors, tendered his resignation to that body at the May meeting last night. Mr. Tracy removed to New York several months ago and for this reason felt compelled to relinquish his duties here. The resignation was accepted with regret, and in view of his long and faithful services, he was unanimously elected an honorary member.

On the recommendation of the medical board, Maurice Hansell, of the graduating class of the University of Pennsylvania, and Joseph Scal, of Bellevue Medical College, New York, were appointed as house physicians. It is expected that Mr. Hansell will enter upon his duties in July and Mr. Scal in January next.

The report of the medical director for April follows:

Patients remaining at date of last report, 37; admitted, 56; total number treated, 93; discharged cured, 42; improved, 12; died, 3; remaining, 36; hospital days, 1,050; operations, 72. In the dispensary, number of patients treated, 57; visits of patients, 149; operations, 2. In the isolation ward two patients were received.

PYTHIANS TO HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICE

Partial arrangements have been made by Perseverance and Unity lodges, Knights of Pythias, for an elaborate memorial service to be held in the New Plainfield theatre, Sunday night, June 21. It will be conducted on lines similar to the annual lodge of sorrow observed by the order of Elks and which is one of the most impressive gatherings of any fraternal organization. The program will be semi-religious in character and is designed to fittingly commemorate departed brothers.

Past Grand Chancellor Cobb, of Salem, who is one of the best known Pythians in the State and a speaker of wide reputation, will make the principal address on the occasion and further remarks are to be made by local men. A male quartet will render vocal numbers and instrumental music by a stringed orchestra will strengthen the program. Admisison to the service will be by invitation.

As has been the custom in previous years, Crescent Company, No. 13, the uniformed branch of the local Pythians, wil hold memorial exercises in the afternoon of the same day. The graves of Pythians in the Plainfield, Scotch Plains and New Market cemeteries will be decorated with flags and flowers and the company will attend the theatre gathernig in full uniform. It is probable that delegations of uniformed companies in Newark, Jersey City, New York, Brooklyn and Port Chester, N. Y., will accept invitations to be present.

The arrangements for the service are being made by a joint committee appointed by the two lodges and composed of the following: V. W. Nash, Jr., Berthold J. Schreiner and Manning F. Gano, from Perseverance; Jere Van Winkle, Jr., Frank Putnam and Amos Andrews from Unity. The full program will be announced within a week or two.

In Somerset Court.

Judge Schenck begun the trial of criminal cases in the Somerset County Courts at Somerville yesterday. The first trial taken up was that of Frank Delasander, who is charged with assault, with intent to kill, on Michael Graziano in Bound Brook, and the case will probably go to the jury today. The complainant is a marshal in Bound Brook. He found the defendant and two other Italians in a fight. While he was arresting them he was stabbed. The defendant claimed self defense. He declared the officer had struck him.

Father Bogan at Golden Jubilee.

St. Jonh's Roman Catholic church of Newark, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the consecration of the edifice on Mulberry street, and the eighty first anniversary of the founding of the parish with elaborate services on Sunday. Rev. Bertrand M. Bogan, pastor of St. Mary's church in this city, preached the sermon at the vesper service Sunday evening.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

KIRMESS OPENS TONIGHT

Finishing Touches at Dress Rehearsal and All is in Readiness.

AT THE LOCAL THEATRE.

Pantomime and Dances on Tonight's Program—Busy Scene at Show House—Miss Florence Directress.

With the exception of the few details that always arise at the last moment, everything is in readiness for the Kirmess to be given for the remainder of the week at the New Plainfield theatre. The full dress rehearsal took place last night and was carried out to the full satisfaction of Miss Margaret Florance, who is the dancing ihstructor; Mayor Charles J. Fisk and practically the full committee of arrangements. A number of the dances in which the very smallest children take part, will be gone over again this afternoon and made letter perfect.

Though the rehearsal was a semi-private affair, the patronesses and parents of participants who attended, filled the orchestra and balcony and gave the affair the appearance of "first night." The various numbers were a revelation to the spectators, both in regard to costumes and the aptitude with which the many intricate steps have been acquired. Every number was enthusiastically applauded but no "encores" could be given. The Tarentella and Steeplechase dances seemed to be the favorites but not a one was given but what had its quota of friends.

Another number that is sure to make a big "hit" is the pantomime that will open the program each night. It was gone through with without a hitch and Miss Elsa Schweed and Peter Phillips went through difficult parts like veteran Christmas spectacle performers. Mrs. L. W. Serrell is chaperone for this number assisted by Miss Ada Dealaman, and the following will take part in addition to the principals named in yesterday's Daily Press: Brown bear, Morris VanBuren; white rabbit, Carlton Dunham; black rabbit, Ronald Schenck; black dog, Albert Dealaman; reindeer, Albert Coffey, gray cat, Arthur Force; pig, Harold Wyckoff; lion, John Hammann; frog, Henry Hammann and elephant, William Dealaman.

While Miss Florance and her assistants were busily engaged in conducting the rehearsal, members of the general committee appointed by Mayor Fisk were busy in the rear part of the orchestra putting up the fancy booths from which souvenirs of the Kirmess will be sold. Several rows of seats have been removed for this purpose and a very artistic effect has been obtained. An old fashioned chimney and fire place greets the attendant on entering but back of it are a number of cosy bowers and floral bedecked booths.

The program for tonight will be as follows:

Part 1—Pantomime; Part 2—rustic dance, French dolls, Tarentella, India braves, Japanese dance; solo, "The Sun," Mrs. Lemuel W. Serrell; Swiss dance, Marsovian dance, Dutch dance, the White Hussars and the Steeplechase.

MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION. STARTS NEW MOVEMENT.

For the purpose of brining about a closer relationship between the home and the publis schools, the first of a series of meetings will be held Thursday afternoon in the Stillman School at 3 o'clock, under the auspices of the Mothers' Association. The object is to form a parent-teacher association in each one of the city schools, and it has the endorsement of the school authorities, who know of its success in other large cities.

Mrs. E. C. Grice, of Philadelphia, honorary president of the New Jersey State Congress of Mothers and corresponding secretary of the National Congress of Mothers, as well as being chairman of the National Committee on Parent-Teacher Associations, will be present and address the women at the meeting on Thursday. In the evening at 8 o'clock, Mrs. Grice will speak in the Franklin School on the same topic.

Another meeting in the interest of the movement will be held at the Bryant School Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'colck, when Mrs. Alexander Macy, Jr., of Riverton, will address the gathering concerning the proposed organization. The women in this city who have interested themselves in the matter will arrange other dates and for other speakers to be announced next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Braunstein, of Monroe avenue, are the parents of a young son who came to their home yesterday. Both mother and child are doing nicely.

—Kimonas 14c, Thursday, Levy's sale. ***

COUNCIL GRANTS PERMIT FOR TROLLEY SWITCH

Finally a successful attempt was made at the adjourned meeting of the Common Council, last night, to allow the Public Service Corporation to install another tournout on the Fourth street line near Liberty street, as called for by the original official map of 1895. Mr. Hibbard, who could not see any special benefits to be derived from the improvement, and Mr. Suydam, who sought to have the proposed seven minute service through the business section of the city extended to Clinton avenue, opposed the resolution as offered by Mr. Gloak, chairman of the street committee.

Mr. Mygatt declared that the company is not anxious to install the turnout, but that Mayor Fisk and some members of the Common Council thought it best to have the change made. He urged the adoption of the resolution. Mr. Hibbard could not agree that the extra turnout on Fourth street would improve the service on Front street. He said that at present the turnout on West Fourth street is two-thirds the distance from the Watchung avenue stand to the end of that line and it is impossible for the cars to be operated so that they will not hold up all the other cars at the stand, including the main line trolleys. The proposed arrangement it is said would give a seven minute service through the city as far west as Grant avenue, the plan being to run the Netherwood cars through to that point during certain busy hours of the day, on Saturdays and Sundays.

Mr. Suydam argued that the Netherwood cars should run as far west as Clinton avenue at least. He said that he would oppose the resolution because the company is not maintaining a fifteen minute service on Fourth street, west of Grant avenue, after 10 o'clock at night. He believed that the city should receive more than that promised for the privilege of installing the turnout.

When the vote was taken to refer the resolution back to the public affairs and street committee jointly, it was carried, Councilmen Gloak, Hibbard, Frank Randolph, Suydam and Taylor voting in the affirmative, and Councilmen Buxton, Hall, Mygatt and Tolles in the negative.

Later it was decided to go into a committee of the whole and settle the matter after a thorough discussion. This agreement was reached after Mr. Mygatt said that it was not fair to the Public Service Corporation to hold the proposition up any longer. He added that the company had acted fairly and Superintendent Gettings, through a letter, had agreed to abide by the provisions originally decided upon as to the seven-minute service. Remarks favoring the resolution were made by Mr. Buxton, who acted as chairman of the committee of the whole, and Mr. Mygatt, while Councilmen Hibbard and Suydam still opposed. Mr. Mygatt still maintained that the concessions were a step in the right direction, while the opposition insisted on having more light on the subject and laying the matter on the table.

After the proposition had been thoroughly discussed, the members took a straw vote, which indicated that a majority favored the resolution. The members then returned to regular order of business and on motion to adopt the resolution, Councilmen Buxton, Gloak, Hall, Mygatt, Tolles, Frank Randolph, Taylor decided in the affirmative, while Councilmen Hibbard and Suydam still voted in the negative. The resolution was therefore carried, and the turnout will be installed.

Negro Asks to Be Locked Up.

Henry Bracer, a negro, who says he lives in Norfolk, Va., walked into police headquarters at New Brunswick on Saturday night. He said to Night Sergeant Kelly: "I want to give myself up, as it is only a question of time when the authorities will get me anyhow." The sergeant took charge of him, and Recorder Watson committed him to jail for ten days. The local authorities, while he is in jail, will try to find out what crime he has committed.

Publishing Company Chartered.

The International Publishing Co. was incorporated at Trenton yesterday with an authorized capital of $20,000,000. The incorporators are Thomas J. Foster, William L. Connell, Thomas E. Jones, Jacob H. Griffith and John F. Joline, all of Camden.

Shower for Bride-elect.

Miss Lou Randolph, of West Seventh street, gave a linen shower Saturday night for Miss May Hazlewood, of Brooklyn, whose wedding is to take place in the early summer. There were fifteen guests from this city and Brooklyn.

Miss Embury, of Summit, formerly of this city, is visiting at the home of Mrs. John Clapp, of Mercer avenue.

POLICE STATION AWARD

Alexander Milne's Bid of $17,510 Accepted for Proposed Headquarters.

BONDS ARE TO BE ISSUED.

Council Provides for Twenty-five Thousand Dollars Issue to Defray Expense of Erecting Structure.

The contract for the erection of the new police headquarters' building at East Forth and Sycamore streets was awarded to Alexander Milne at the adjourned meeting of the Common Council, his bid of $17,510 for the whole work being the lowest of several submitted. Mr. Milne will do the general contract work, while the sub-contractors under him will be George J. Tobin for plumbing and heating; A. B. Laing for electrical work and Tallamy Brothers for the mason work.

Mr. Milne submitted his surety, Daniel DeWitt Brokaw and Mrs. Isabel Milne, who furnished bonds in the sum of $10,000 for the faithful performance of the work. The bonds were approved by Corporation Counsel Marsh and accepted by the Common Council. It is expected that the work will be started at once.

The contract was awarded to Mr. Milne through a resolution offered by Councilman Frank Randolph, chairman of the police committee, and is also provided that Tracy & Swartout, architects be engaged to superintend the construction according to their accepted plans. The firm is to receive five per cent. of the cost of construction and the fire and building committee is to represent the city and confer with the architects from time to time as necessity arises. The bids of the unsuccessful contractors were ordered returned to them.

In this connection Mr. Buxton, chairman of the finance committee, offered a resolution providing for the issuance of $25,500 worth of bonds to meet the expense of erecting the new police headquarters' building. They are to be coupon bonds of $500 denomination each, paying 4½ per cent. interest, payable semi-annually, and are to run from July 1, 1908 to July 1, 1928, and are to be sold for not less than par value. The resolution was adopted.

In accordance with a resolution offered by Mr. Gloak, chairman of the street committee, the contract for furnishing crushed stone to the city for the coming year was awarded to N. B. Smalley & Co., at last night's Council meeting, that firm's bid being the lowest, and the contract for furnishing culverts and crosswalks to Andrew Roach, his being the lowest for that material.

The bid of N. B. Smalley & C., which was accepted, was for the stone like submitted sample the prices being as follows: Screenings, 89 cents; half-inch, 89 cents; one and one-half inch, 80 cents; two and one-half inch, 70 cents. The clerk was authorized to execute the contract with the firm in the usual manner.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN HIS EIGHTY-NINTH YEAR.

Abram C. Bennett, a former well-known local resident, died yesterday at his home in Suydam street, New Brunswick, of old age. He was in his eighty-ninth year and was one of seven brothers over seventy years of age. Mr. Bennett leaves seven children, as follows: Dr. C. T. Bennett, of Woodbury; E. B. Bennett, of West Sixth street, this city; P. H. Bennett, of Duer street, the borough; M. W. Bennett, of New York, and Mrs. Jacob S. Smith, of Stanton.

The funeral arrangements have not been made but the service will be conducted at his late home.

Four Defendants in Murder Trial.

The first of the two murder trials down for this week was begun yesterday before Justice Bergen at New Brunswick. Four men—John Balog, George Vilgus, Alexander Marjoras and Joseph Chesny—are on trial for the murder of Michael Lavo. They laid in wait for him, it is charged, on one of the public streets here on the night of March 13 and attacked him with bottles and knives. He died from his injuries later in Wells Hospital. Antonio Giorgini, who shot a man at Cliffwood, will be tried tomorrow.

C. E. Mass Meeting at Trinity.

The local union of the Christian Endeavor Society has obtained Trinity Reformed church for Thursday night, May 28, for a public mass meeting. A large chorus choir, under the direction of Charles L. Lewis, will sing. Arthur L. Titsworth will preside at the organ. Several prominent speakers have been secured for the occasion.

—Anniversary sale Thursday. Levy Bros. ***

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Bishop Vincent Presents Purse to Rev. and Mrs. Nelson on Anniversary.

ATTENDED BY MANY FRIENDS.

Celebration at Nutley—Couple Resided Formerly in North Plainfield—Well Known Here.

Rev. and Mrs. William C. Nelson, formerly of North Plainfield, yesterday celebrated their fiftieth anniversary of their wedding at their home on Passaic avenue, Nutley. Friends were received yesterday afternoon, and last night a reception was given in honor of the couple at the Nutley Methodist church, of which Mr. Nelson, now retired, was at one time pastor. Bishop John H. Vincent presided at the exercises and made an address. Rev. Dr. Thomas O'Hanlon, of Ocean Grove, also spoke. Both the Bishop and the Ocean Grove clergyman were members with Mr. Nelson of the class of 1853, New Jersey Conference.

A feature of the exercises last night were the presentation by the Bishop of a purse of gold to Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, as a token of esteem on the part of conference friends of the former. Others who were present at the exercises besides the Bishop and Dr. O'Hanlon, were Rev. Elam M. Gorton, of Summit; Rev. Elbert Clements, of Arconia, and Rev. S. K. Doolittle, of Hackensack, all former pastors of the Nutley church.

BOROUGH'S EXEMPTS ELECT THEIR OFFICERS

These officers were elected at the annual meeting of the North Plainfield Exempt Firemen's Association, held at Lafayette Rosentheil's place of business on Somerset street: President, Louis Feiring; vice-president, Augustus Feiring, Sr.; secretary and treasurer, David Bodine; financial secretary, James Walker; North Plainfield Firemen's Relief committee, James Walker, David Bodine and D. C. Allen; relief committee, to attend a convention to be held in New Brunswick the latter part of the month, Frank Kesselring, Horace G. Adams, William Ricketts, George Hummer and Louis Feiring.

The North Plainfield Firemen's Relief committee, composed of the members of the paid and volunteers, will meet tonight to elect officers and transact other business. The North Plainfield Exempt Firemen's Association now numbers about sixty members and it is in a good condition financially and otherwise.

FAIL TO SEE FORT.

Hudson Men Want Him to Settle Prosecutor Tangle.

Trenton, May 12.—Contrary to expectations, the conference between the warring factions in Hudson county and Governor Fort did not take place at the State House yesterday. Governor Fort was engaged in the Court of Pardons until it was time for him to take his train home.

County Judge Robert Carey, County Clerk John Rotherham, John J. Marnell and George McCarthy were waiting in the corridors during the greater part of the day for an opportunity to get in conference with the Governor. All denied that they were here for a confeernce. McCarthy said he came down for his commission as a member of the State Board of Equalization of Taxes. Marnell put up a like excuse. Judge Carey, too, claimed that his only business here was to receive his commission, but as Rotherham was here and could not use the "commission" story, it was the general belief that they came to Trenton to endeavor to have the Governor settle the assistant prosecutorship fight.

Mrs. Burgess' Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Fanny Burgess, wife of John Burgess, colored, who died Sunday night, will be held from the late home on West Fourth street, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be at Hillside. Mrs. Burgess was ill about three months and leaves an adopted daughter.

Begins Dispossess Proceedings.

Dispossess proceedings have been commenced in Justice Clark Mundy's court by Mrs. Hannah McElroy against Mrs. Laura Backer. The latter is the wife of Charles Backer who was recently jailed on her non-support charge. The papers are returnable this afternoon.

Jacob Voehl, of Grove street, is spending two weeks at the home of his daughter, in Monticello, N. Y.

TWO SUSPECTS IN JAIL

Police of Two Cities Arrest Men Fitting Bussi Assailant's Description.

LOCKED UP AT SOMERVILLE.

Neighbors Fail to Recognize One and Other Will Be Taken to Mount Bethel Today.

As a result of the increased efforts to apprehend the negro who murderously assaulted the aged Bussis at their home in Mount Bethel, last Tuesday night, causing the death of the husband, the Somerset county authorities have two suspects in the toils. One giving his name as George Leslie was arrested at Hackensack Saturday night and turned over to Sheriff Ross Sunday. He has since been "looked over" by several Mount Bethel residents who saw the murderer hanging about the village Tuesday afternoon but has been declared not to be the man wanted. He will be kept a prisoner, however, for a day or two longer. In a statement he said his home is in New Orleans and he was tramping to New York when arrested.

The other man in custody is Bismarck Lock who was picked up on suspicion by the police of the Third precinct, Newark, yesterday. He was brought to the Somerville jail this morning and will be taken to Mount Bethel this afternoon in order that Mrs. Bussi might see him. She is still in a serious condition but declares she could identify the assailant if he stood in a line with 500 other men. Lock claims to be a native of Washington, D. C., and says he left there a week ago to walk to New York. On the night of the Bussi assault, he says, he slept at a farm house near Green Tree, a Camden suburb.

County Detective George Totten is devoting his entire time to the case and has an able lieutenant in former Freeholder John Cooper, of Warrenville. The two have agreed with a number of Mount Bethel residents that the man they are seeking is William Cook, a negro farmhand who was employed six weeks ago by Fred Weigand, of the Liberty Corner road. He left there saying he had been offered a better position "further up the road" but he was not seen in the neighborhood afterward. It is now asserted by a number of people that he is the man who was noticed near the Bussi premises Tuesday afternoon and the description furnished tallies with his.

The Somerset Board of Freeholders will meet this afternoon and there is a strong possibility that a resolution will be passed offering a substantial reward for the arrest of the murderer in addition to the $250 already voted by the Warren township committee. The jury empaneled by Coronor Joseph Hebberman will meet at Mount Bethel Thursday afternoon and render a report relative to the post-mortem examination conducted over the body of John Bussi.

Donated Boxes to Winning Team.

Manager Counihan, of the New Plainfield theatre, has donated all six boxes at the theatre for the opening performance by Alberta Gallatin and her stock company on Monday night, to the winning team in the baseball game between Plainfield High School and North Plainfield High School, to be played at Crescent Oval tomorrow afternoon. Miss Gallatin and her company will occupy seats in the grandstand at the game. The company is now in the city rehearsing for the plays to be given at the theatre this summer.

Birthday Surprise Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Wuergler, of Webster place, gave a surprise party to their daughter, Miss Anna Wuergler, last night, in honor of the sixteenth anniversary of her birthday. The guests numbered about thirty and the evening was spent playing games, listening to vocal and instrumental music, after which supper was served. Miss Wuergler received a number of handsome gifts as reminders of the happy occasion.

Working for Tuskegee.

J. H. McGrew, one of the northern financial agents for Tuskegee Institute, Booker T. Washington's School in Alabama, is here in the interest of that institution. He goes to New Brunswick tonight where he is to speak in the interest of Tuskegee in the Reformed church of which Dr. Hulton is the pastor, but will return to Plainfield tomorrow, with headquarters at Dr. J. C. Anderson's, to continue the work here.

Children's Home Annual.

The postponed annual meeting of the Children's Home Association will be held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A.

—Levy Bros.' big anniversary sale starts Thursday. Ladies' gowns, 29c; gloves, 9c pair. ***

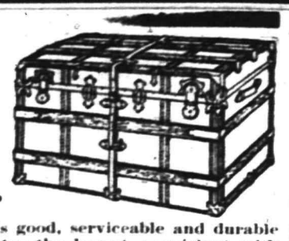
The Ladies' Home Journal Patterns are selling just as fast as we can hand them out. They have the unqualified indorsement of women who have ever used them. Try one next time you need a pattern.

A. E. Force and Co.

We Give "S. H." "THE WHITE STORE" THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY Green Trading Stamps

Millinery—We wish to keep before your mind the fact that the "White Store Millinery" stands unrivalled for true artistic skill in millinery. Original and exclusive models at popular prices.

Special Display of Trunks, Travelling Bags and Dress Suit Cases.



Making a rare display of all that is good, serviceable and durable in this line, and the prices we guarantee the lowest, consistent with the quality of goods. We invite inspection.

DRESS TRUNKS—A trunk that is made for good hard wear, a good looking trunk, fibre bound, with brass trimmings, one tray; priced very low $3.98

DRESS TRUNKS—These are handsomely constructed trunks, fibre bound, brass trimmings, double brass lock, two trunk straps and two trays; special at $6.25

DRESS TRUNKS—A full line of sizes, fibre bound, solid brass trimmings, two locks, patent compartments, leather straps, linen lined; priced very low at $7.75

TOURIST TRUNKS—Sole leather bound, solid brass trimmings, adjustable tray, linen lined, leather straps, a trunk worth $17.50; our price $13.98

STEAMER TRUNKS—Good solid trunks that are made to stand good hard ware, rawhide binding, heavy locks, linen lined, $9.98 and $4.25

Travelling Bags and Suit Cases.

RATTAN CASES—Strongly made, reinforced corners, 16 to 24 inch; priced $2.49 up to $3.49

MATTING CASES—A good assortment of styles, strongly made, good locks and well lined, in sizes 16 to 24 inch, at from $1.98 to $2.39

TRAVELING BAGS—Made of sole leather, hand-sewed, light and dark tans, all sizes, 15 to 20 inch; prices very low; $3.25 up to $8.50

SUIT CASES—An excellent assortment of all kinds and sizes; imitation and all leather; trimmed with brass trimmings and strong heavy locks and straps; prices $1.50 up to $8.50

SEE SHOW WINDOW DISPLAY.

Sensation Sale of Ladies' Tailored Suits

At a time when the thought of buying a Summer Suit is uppermost in the mind of nearly every lady, and then the chance of saving from $5.00 to $7.50 on a suit.

THIS INDEED IS A RARE OPPORTUNITY.

These are manufacturers sample garments that the manufacturer wanted to dispose of for spot cash. We bought them at a price and we will give you the benefit.

THE SALE IS NOW ON.

LOT NO. 1—Ladies' Tailored Suits made in the most approved up-to-date style, every garment a model of perfection, made of Panama, Shadow Stripes, Small Checks; Coats satin lined; Skirts made in the new pleated effects, with deep fold. Not a suit in the lot worth less than $12.00 to $15.00. While they last the price will be

-:- 7.98 -:-

LOT NO. 2—High grade Tailored Suits, made of the finest materials, perfectly tailored and finished in plain and fancy materials; good assortment of sizes. These two lots of suits we consider the greatest bargain event of the season; not a suit worth less than $13.50 to $16.50. Our price while they last will be

-:- 10.98 -:-

We would advise prospective buyers to come as early in the day as possible, as we do not think these two lots will last very long.

SEE SHOW WINDOW DISPLAY.

"THE OLD RELIABLE HOME FURNISHERS"

EST. 1860 INC. 1907

COWPERTHWAIT AND VAN HORN CO.

73 MARKET STREET. NEAR PLANE ST., NEWARK, N.J.

(A) Looking about for Summer Furniture?

Furnishing the Cottage, Lawn and Veranda?

Save a lot of useless "shopping" by coming straight here to headquarters—where summer fixin's have been specialized for years and years!

3.50 Reed Rockers full roll back 2.95

9.00 Reed Couchss full length 7.50

Porch Settees, light Maple and Green, now 5.00

Lawn Benches, Red and Green folding styles from $1.00 to $2.00.

Lowest Prices!
You Can't Beat 'Em!

4.95 Enameled Bed, like cut, with brass mounts and rails at head and foot. Regular value $7.25.

2.45 For this broadarm Porch Rocker—light maple and green—reed seat and back. Regular $3.25.

3.75 Reed Table like cut—round top and lower shelf—platted edge.

Dainty Bedroom Suits in Enamel also Reed and Mission pieces for every part of the home—Refrigerators, Ice Chests, "Crex, Jap and China Mattings, etc., etc.

Sole Headquarters For
"The Portland Range," "Gunn Sectional Bookcases"
The Acme Washing Machine, "White" Sewing Machine

LOWEST PRICES—EASY CREDIT

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c. a week.

CITY.

Union News Co. ..... R. R. Station
J. M. Harper ..... 411 Park Ave
E. A. Laing ..... 149 W. Front St
A. C. Mallinson Fourth and Liberty Sts
Trolley Waiting Room.... Watchung Ave
M. Roth ..... 111 Park Ave
Steele & Stahl ..... 13 Somerset St
Burney & Son ..... 331 Watchung Ave
T. A. Garthwaite ..... 212 Watchung Ave
A. Anderson ..... 657 West Fourth St
John Mottley, Cor. E. 3d & Richmond Sts

SUBURBAN

Dunellen ..... B. Siriski
New Market ..... R. Burdick
Bound Brook ..... Union News Co
Bound Brook ..... L. M. Davis
Somerville ..... Jacob Genert
Westfield ..... C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield ..... J. W. Wall
Scotch Plains ..... Chas. Elliott
South Plainfield ..... Victor Attlee
Fanwood ..... Chas. Elliott
Netherwood ..... Blaney & Son

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS

NORTH BRANCH.

A Sunday-school Association meeting will be held on Thursday evening in the Reformed church at Readington. Among the speakers will be Rev. Dr. E. Tanjore Corwin, of this place. Rev. B. V. D. Wyckoff, pastor of the church, will conduct the exercises.

The freeholders have decided to erect a new bridge near the residence of Harry Hill, at Pluckemin. It is to be a structure with concrete or stone walls. Bids will be opened tomorrow.

Mrs. John M. Smith, of Pottersville, has been entertaining her daughter, Mrs. John H. Swackhamer, of Flanders.

James Brown and family, of Neshanic, spent Sunday with Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stout, of Rileyville.

Redding Clawson has returned to his home at North Branch Depot, after a visit to friends in Elizabethport.

Miss Margaret Bunn, of New Germantown, has been visiting her brother, Sering Bunn, at Lamington.

Mrs. W. Lewis Amerman has returned to her home at Neshanic, after a visit to friends in Trenton.

Miss Ellen Lane is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Henry Van Fleet, near North Branch.

Mrs. Eli Dow, of Pluckemin, who has been ill from gastritis for some time, is recovering.

BOUND BROOK AND VICINITY.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Van Doren at their home at Finderne were C. V. Shaddle, of West Jupiter, Fla., and Prof. Martin N. Wyckoff, a missionary from Tokio, Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. Karsner D. LaRue have been entertaining Miss Malinda Mardrum, of Perth Amboy, at their home at Cedar and High streets, South Bound Brook.

Mrs. William J. Tomlin, of Bayonne, has been spending several days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Nathan Warman, in Cedar street, South Bound Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Reed are entertaining Mrs. Reed's mother, Mrs. P. A. Griffith, of Elizabeth, at their home in John street, Bound Brook.

Mrs. William Cusick, of Bound Brook, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, is slowly recovering.

Cornelius B. Waldron, of Martinsville, who was recently stricken with paralysis, is recovering.

A daughter was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Totten at their home at Martinsville.

105 AND 107 Market Street, NEWARK

E. A. KIRCH & CO.

WHAT WE SAY IS SO

105 AND 107 Market Street, NEWARK

OUR NEW HOME WILL BE AT 77-79 MARKET ST., WHICH WE WILL OCCUPY ENTIRELY

Our prices have stirred the whole town. Some dealers are imitating us by trying to follow us in prices. Others are crying cheap goods. We do not believe in copying or decrying our competitors, it's not our way. The public shall be the judge. Our policy for 20 years has been to give to you big values. Now when we take is there any wonder we are making a noise?

¼ Off Regular Low Prices

Dining Chairs Like cut. Full box frame, cane seat, polished oak; reg. price $2.25. Removal sale price 1.39

We have one with claw feet, that sold regularly for $2.50, now 1.69

Combination Special

Parlor Suit, 5 pieces—Imitation mahogany frame, upholstered in verona velour	Regular Price	40.00 at 25.00
1 Imitation Mahogany Pier Mirror, 18x40 inches	Regular Price	16.00 at 10.00
1 Imitation Mahogany Table	Regular Price	3.50 at 2.00
4 Pictures	Regular Price	3.00 at 2.00
25 yards of Velvet Carpet	Regular Price	31.25 at 23.75
Your Purchases May Be Charged	Regular Price	93.75 All for 62.75

Rattan Rocker Like cut. Shellacked or Empire finish, regular price $4.00, while they last 1.98

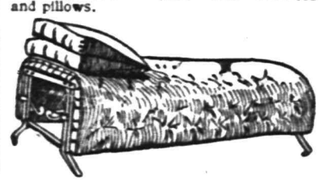
Refrigerators Like cut. Solid oak, very best construction, size 24x17x 49½; reg. Sale price 4.25

We also have a line that is the best made in America. Genuine cork filled, lined throughout with white enamel, nickel trimmings, prices from 13.98 up.

Perambulators Like cut. Upholstered in English carriage leather, usually sold at $18.98. Removal Sale, 12.98

Full size.

This 7.98 Drop Side Couch 3.98 When sides are raised makes a full sized bed, made of heavy angle iron, national wire springs, complete with mattress and pillows.



Sideboards Like cut. Regular price $24. Removal sale price 14.98

$30 kind 22.50
$40 kind 30.00
$45 kind 33.75
$50 kind 37.50
$60 kind 45.00

Collapsible Go-Cart Like cut. Regular price $5.50. Sale price 2.98

If hood is wanted add $1.50

Brass Beds Like cut. Continuous 2-inch post, regular price $32.00. Removal sale price, 17.98

PLAINFIELD EXCHANGE FOR WOMENS WORK,
502 WATCHUNG AVE.

A full line of picture frames, waste baskets, blotters, humid notes, bridge scores, pads, boxes, trays, telephone registers, menu and place cards. Orders filled promptly.

—CAMERAS—
KODAKS AND PHOTOGRAPHIC SUPPLIES
DEVELOPING, PRINTING AND ENLARGING
Bring Your Films in One Day and Get Your Pictures the Next.
"THE PHOTO STORE," 129 NORTH AVENUE.
FORMERLY VAN WINKLE'S.

M X S

MATHUSHEK & SON PIANOS

appeal to all lovers of the beautiful in music. They possess the rare quality of tone that is a delight to all.

Every courtesy given to visitors and prospective buyers at our wareroom.

Beautiful catalogue mailed upon request.

MATHUSHEK & SON PIANO CO.,
310 W. Front St., Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 910-J

LAWN MOWERS
Sharpened and Repaired

Having Installed Electric Power and Improved Grinding Machinery I Can Insure Prompt and Satisfactory Work.

A. M. GRIFFEN,

119-123 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.
'PHONES 6 and 214

JACK HORNER 26 SOMERSET ST TEL. 869-W.

Pierce, Cleveland, Crawford and Arrow Bicycles. Renting, Repairing and Sundries Vulcanizing a specialty. Baby Carriages Repaired and Retired. Work called for and delivered.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Mrs. Payne, one of the managers of the Baptist Home for the Aged, is attending the meeting of that institution today, at which the question of rebuilding or of removal to more commodious quarters will be finally disposed of.

In consequence of many additional pupils who are coming from long distances to the public school the stage accommodation is proving altogether inadequate and new arrangements will have to be made at once.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Strike will remove shortly to Philipsburg. Mr. Strike is at present ticket agent at the local depot and started housekeeping here only a few weeks ago. His transfer was unexpected.

Walter Harris, of Metuchen, a former resident of this village, has a position in the offices at the coal storage plant, but cannot find a house here for rent.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Tappen has so far recovered from the effects of his fall that the splints have been removed from the broken limb.

At the prayer meeting this evening in the Baptist church the pastor will take for his subject "The Merchant of Lyons."

Mrs. J. Voorhees has returned to her home in Asbury Park after a few days visit with her mother, Mrs. Susan Manning.

J. D. McDonough has sold out his milk route to W. Miller, of Plainfield.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

John Alberts of Westfield avenue, is ill at his home. A severe cold has developed with an attack of pneumonia, and he was reported as seriously ill yesterday.

Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Barker, of Lynn, Mass., have been spending several days as the guests of the Misses Hayes of the borough.

Mrs. James H. Parks has been making improvements about her cottage "Home lawn" on Park avenue.

Miss Evelyn Buckley has returned from a visit of several days with Brooklyn friends.

The Junior team of Plainfield play the locals on the home grounds Saturday afternoon.

Andrew Bozak has returned from a visit with friends at West Point, N. Y.

Mrs. George A. Clark has returned from a visit with relatives in New York.

Mrs. Agnes Monte of Brooklyn, has been visiting friends in town.

SOMERVILLE.

The Somerset County Christian Endeavor Union will hold its annual meeting in the Second Reformed church today. There will be three open-air meetings, during the day, led by Bradford Williams, leader of the evangelistic work in New York city and Newark. There will be a business session in the afternoon and an address by Rev. Dr. Albert Erdman, of Morristown, on "Possibilities of Bible Study." President Sproull, of the State society, will conduct a quiet hour in the afternoon. The convention sermon will be preached by Rev. C. A. R. Janvier, of Philadelphia, on "Opportunity in the East—Responsibility at Home." New officers will be elected.

The following officers have been elected by the local Epworth League: President, Edward V. D. Phoenix; first vice-president, Albert F. Hoffman; second vice-president, Miss Anna Burkett; secretary, Miss Wilhelmina Taylor; treasurer, Clifford Phoenix; chorister, L. G. Ayers.

W. W. Ennis, of Morristown, who was one of the charter members of Somerville Engine Company No. 1, has presented that company with a check for $50.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Hoagland have returned from their wedding trip and residing with his mother on North Grove street.

Mrs. Benjamin R. Holcombe, of Montgomery, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. V. T. Van Fleet.

RARITAN.

A committee has been appointed by the Alumni Association of St. Bernard's School to arrange for the annual banquet, which will be given some time after the return from Europe of Rev. J. J. Zimmer.

Miss Cora Lane has returned from a visit to Miss May Drinkwater at Whitehouse.

John Brown is visiting friends in Califon.

WESTFIELD.

Westfield Council has decided that ten per cent. of the town funds may be deposited by the treasurer in the People's National Bank. Heretofore the Westfield Trust Company has been the sole repository of the public funds.

Councilman Schmitt has been put in charge of licensing peddlers, who sell in Westfield.

TEPPERS 109-111-113 WEST FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

AGENTS FOR STANDARD PATTERNS

THIS add contains more real money-saving bargains than we have offered in some time—read it through, some of the items will interest you, and prove to our material benefit—as it is our purpose to make these departments more popular—and yours—to save on your purchases.

SILK RUBBERIZED COATS

with satin stripe, full length, with high rolling collar; good for stormy or nice weather; colors black and navy; worth $15, at..... $10

Black Broadcloth Coats, made of high grade cloth, with Belding satin lining, semi-fitting model, 27 inches long, silk stitching; regular $8.49, at $5

Black Taffeta Silk Coats, 24 inch, long semi-fitting, neatly trimmed in silk braid, satin lining, made with ¾ sleeves; a stylish dressy spring coat; worth $10, at..... $6.95

An attractive Butterfly Suit, made of fine Chiffon Panama, in plain and pin stripes, well tailored, coat with good satin lining, full flare skirt; colors black, blue and brown; value $15.98, at $10

27 inch Coat Suit, made of all wool Panama and Serges, semi-fitting; coat double breasted front; skirt is side pleated; colors black, blue and brown; value $12.50, at..... $8.98

Taffeta Jumper Dress, in brown pin stripes, plain brown and black; value $10, at $7.95

Taffeta Jumper Dress, black only, made of fine quality heavy taffeta; jumper has attractive hand work; full wide skirt, pleated, with 5 inch band; excellent $15 value, at..... $11.50

Taffeta Jumper Dress, in Copenhagen and Champagne, trimmed in silk two shades deeper; jumper and skirt as well as the belt, making a pretty, stylish dress; $16.50 value, at $12.75

THE "FAULTLESS" MEN'S PAJAMAS AND NIGHT GOWNS AT 60c ON THE DOLLAR

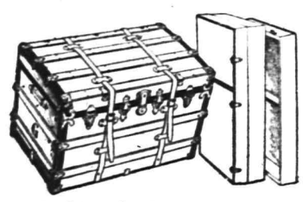
Last Saturday we told you about this well known house having their stock damaged by fire and sold at auction. Though the boxes were scarcely damaged and the goods are really perfectly fresh, we bought two lots that were made up for Stern Bros. on 23rd street, New York, and Webber & Heilbroner, men's furnishers. Both these houses are known to carry only high class merchandise. Their labels are on these garments as well as that of the makers, the "Faultless."

The Night Shirts are made of fine cambric and long cloth, with collars, or the low cut neck, trimmed in fine white braids, 20 dozen of these; were made to retail for $1.25 and $1.50, at.. .75

The Pajamas are made of fine cross bar nainsooks, with the military style coat, or the low neck cut, nicely braided; 5 dozen only; were made to retail for $1.50 and $1.75, at..... $1

Best quality Calicos; only 15 pieces of these, so you have to come early to get this bargain; medium and dark colors; 7½c qquality, at yard 5

Washington Percales; just 18 pieces in the lot, 30 inches wide; colors red and indigo blue; neat patterns; 10c quality, at, yard..... 7½



Here is the Two-Lock Trunk at $7.50

And its the best trunk that $7.50 ever bought. Of course there are better looking trunks made, but they cost much more than this one. No matter what you pay for a trunk you won't get one that will give you better service. But don't get the idea because this trunk is built strictly for the strenuous life, with more thought for strength than for beauty, that it is not good enough looking too. But it's the good looks of solidity and strength rather than of grace and elegance. The sole leather strap around the centre, in addition to the two-lock feature, makes it doubly secure; sizes 30-23, 34 and 36 inches, at..... $7.50

GOVERNOR Refrigerators Are Great Ice Savers.

HAHNE & CO

·IMPORTERS· NEWARK'S STORE BEAUTIFUL BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STREETS ·RETAILERS·

Try Our CLUB PLAN When Buying Furniture.

EVERY DAY NEEDS

AT LOWEST KNOWN PRICES.

EVERYTHING offered here is the best in its grade, and its price the lowest that can be made for a reliable article. Thousands of other needfuls in stock.

WINDOW SCREENS up from 25c.

SPRING HINGES, pair, 7c.

GRASS HOOKS, up from 19c.

STEEL HAMMERS, up from 49c.

COAT HANGER, each 5c.

ICE CREAM FREEZER, up from $1.69

ICE CHISEL, up from 19c.

FRUIT PRESS, up from 25c.

WASHING MACHINE, up from $3.98

CHARCOAL FURNACE, up from 75c.

SELF-WRINGING MOPS, each, 29c.

WASH BOARDS, up from 33c.

STOVE MITS, and dauber each, 10c.

WIRE DOORS, SCREEN DOORS, six sizes, each, 98c.

GAS PLATES, up from $1.15.

STONE JUG, up from 16c.

WHITE PITCHERS, up from 9c.

BEAN POT, up from 10c.

YELLOW BUTTER JAR, up from 17c.

GRASS SHEARS, each, 29c.

WATERING POTS, up from 13c.

SAW BUCKS, each, 29c.

UNIVERSAL BREAD MIXER, each, $2.00

HAND SAW, up from 29c.

WATER COOLER, up from $1.25

ICE CHIPPER, each, 39c.

IRONING TABLE, from $1.19

WASH BOILERS, up from 98c.

STEP CHAIRS, each, $1.29

CARPET SWEEPERS up from $1.25

NEST BOXES, up from 39c.

KNIFE BOX, up from 10c.

EARTHEN WARE TEA POT, up from 16c.

GLASS PITCHER, up from 10c.

FOOD CHOPPER, Universal, up from 75c.

HOSE AND REEL—50-ft. Garden Hose, complete, $6.25

GARDEN RAKE, up from 21c.

BUCK SAWS, up from 89c.

EGG BEATER up from 9c.

TACK CLAW, up from 10c.

CLOTHES HORSE, Household, each, 89c.

REFRIGERATOR, Hard Wood, up from $9.29

SAD IRONS, up from 20c.

GAS STOVE, up from 12c.

SCREW WRENCH, up from 29c.

STAFF CHURNS, up from 75c.

GAS OVENS, up from 65c.

WINDOW BRUSH, up from 49c.

STONE PITCHER, up from 15c.

WATER PAILS, up from 19c.

LAWN MOWER, Dewey Lawn Mower, four sizes, your choice $3.98

PRUNING SHEARS, up from 17c.

HATCHETS up from 59c.

COAT HOOK, per dozen, 10c.

BELL OUTFITS, complete, 67c.

KNOCK DOWN WINDOW FRAMES, each, 25c.

ICE CREAM DISHER, up from 15c.

FLOUR SIFTER, up from 10c.

ICE CHEST, Hard Wood, up from $6.50

CLOTHES LINE, 50 feet, 25c.

MRS POTTS' IRONS, up from 98c.

MEDALLION JUG, up from 10c.

PARLOR BROOMS, up from 25c.

CYLINDER CHURNS, up from $2.50

STEP LADDERS up from 60c.

FEATHER DUSTERS, up from 10c.

WHITE BOWL AND PITCHER, up from 78c.

SPORTS HERE AND THERE

BASEBALL.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Chicago	13	5	.722
Pittsburg	11	6	.647
New York	11	8	.579
Boston	11	9	.550
Philadelphia	10	9	.526
Brooklyn	8	13	.381
Cincinnati	6	11	.353
St. Louis	6	15	.286

Yesterday's Results.

Pittsburg, 5; New York, 2.
Brooklyn, 2; St. Louis, 1.
Boston, 5; Cincinnati, 1.
Philadelphia at Chicago; rain.

Games Today.

New York at Pittsburg.
Brooklyn at St. Louis.
Philadelphit at Chicago.
Boston at Cincinnati.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
New York	13	7	.650
Philadelphia	13	9	.591
Cleveland	11	8	.579
St. Louis	11	11	.500
Chicago	10	10	.500
Detroit	8	11	.421
Washington	8	12	.400
Boston	8	14	.364

Yesterday's Results.

New York, 3; Boston, 0.
Philadelphia, 7; Washington, 2.

Games Today.

Cleveland at New York.
Detroit at Boston.
Chicago at Philadelphia.
St. Louis at Washington.

The Clinton Avenues will play the Elizabeth A. C. at Crescent Oval Saturday. A good game is promised. The county seat boys played semi-professional ball last year and made a good record.

Charles Gilman, of the Clinton Avenues, who lives in New York, came to Plainfield Saturday, not having heard that the game with Bound Brook was postponed. He is in fine condition this year, fielding fast and hitting the ball hard.

As soon as the college season is over the Trenton Y. M. C. A. expects to recruit its team with several fast college players. They promise to make things interesting for the other teams in the Y. M. C. A. league.

The Junior team is showing up much better than expected and the aggregation gives promise of making local teams hustle to defeat them. Van Arsdale apears to be in his best form again. Saturday he allowed the Climax A. C. but two hits.

Clark Griffith, manager of the Yankees, prefers lucky players. While talking on the subject in Boston this week the "Old Fox" said: "When a pitcher is in winning form, he usually finds that luck breaks his way. Give me the lucky player all the time. Of course, ability is everything, but luck counts a great deal."

"Addie" Joss, the star pitcher of the Cleveland team, contends that neither great batting nor fancy fielding and not even phenomenal pitching will win a pennant for a team if its men are dead on the base lines. Good base running is the biggest factor of all in a championship race, according to Joss' views.

Lave Cross, the former star third sacker of the Philadelphia National and American League clubs, has been unconditionally released by New Orleans. Cross is well off financially and will engage in mercantile pursuits in Cleveland. George Rohe, the former Chicago White Sox third baseman, has taken Cross' place with the Pelicans. A report from Philadelphia says that Cross may consider an offer to manage the Union League team of that city.

Fred Clarke, of Pittsburg, remarked the other day: "When Wagner starts hitting the Pirates are sure to climb up to first place. The best pitching staff in the country cannot keep Hans from getting his portion of the hits."

Ty Cobb received a notification from Ban Johnson yesterday that he had been fined $25 for engaging in a dispute with an umpire in a recent game.

Eddie Fertsch, the former Newark pitcher, has signed with Pop Foster's Lancaster team.

PERSONAL.

Miss Ida Backer, of Whitehouse, is visiting relatives in this city for several days.

Russell Giles, of East Third street, has recovered from an attack of pneumonia.

Miss Elizabeth Snow, of Newark, has returned home after spending a week with friends in this city.

Mrs. Joseph A. Blatz, of Somerset street, who has been quite ill for the past two weeks, is much improved.

Miss Estelle Staats, of Bayonne, who has been visiting friends in town for a few days, has returned home.

Adolph Giles, formerly of this city, but now of Dunellen, is quite ill at his home with tubercular pneumonia.

Mrs. A. Kohl, of Norwood avenue, has returned home after a week's visit with her son, Fred Millar, of College Point, L. I.

Mrs. Vail, of Elmwood place, mother of E. E. Vail, who recently underwent an operation at the hospital, is improving slowly.

Mrs. Harry Schaffus, of Fairview avenue, who underwent an operation at Muhlenberg Hospital several weeks ago, has entirely recovered.

Miss Anna Rafferty, of Sandford avenue, a student at St. Elizabeth's College, Madison, has returned to college after a visit with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lasher, of Long Island City, is spending a few days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Staff, of East Second street.

Miss Catherine Hinchcliff, of St. Elizabeth's College, Madison, has returned to her studies after a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rafferty, of Sandford avenue.

SALE

FURNITURE,
BEDS, BEDDING,
FLOOR COVERINGS.

At this season of the year you surely need something new in Furniture, Beds, Bedding, Mattings, Rugs, Oil Cloths, Linoleums, Window Shades or Awnings. We have prepared to meet your requirements with the new Spring stock and invite inspection.

L. B. VAN CAMP

Front and Somerset Streets, Tel. 868-J

2°7 BROAD ST ELIZABETH LOAN Co 2°7 BROAD ST

"Reliable Money Brokers"

IF IT'S A QUESTION OF DOLLARS.

We may be able to help you out. At any rate if you'll inform us of your needs, we'll try. The winter months just past have raised the expenses of the average householder to their highest point and many of us have been unable to meet all of our obligations as promptly as we would like to and consequently find ourselves in debt.

SUPPOSE we were to advance you sufficient funds to meet your obligations. Do you not think you would be more satisfied to have only one payment to look after on pay day?

There is no place where money will be advanced you more willingly or where you will receive more courteous treatment than from us. It's worth investigating.

The possession of household goods, horses and wagons is sufficient evidence of your ability to pay. Call, write or 'phone.

ELIZABETH LOAN COMPANY.

Room 24 Hersh Bldg. Telephone 778-R. Elizabeth, N. J.

112 Piece
Decorated Dinner Sets, $7.00
Odds and Ends of Dinner Sets at Half Price

JOS. W. GAVETT.

W. Front St.

"HARD TIMES" DO NOT EFFECT THE SALE OF
"HAWES" $3.00 HATS
WHY?—BECAUSE THEY ARE GUARANTEED
JAS. R. BLAIR

Rich Milk 8c a quart.
Rich Cream 12c half pt.
Buttermilk 6c a quart

Plainfield Milk & Cream Co,
MARCHANT BROS.,
112 WATCHUNG AVENUE

FREE! CARR'S BALLS FREE!
With Each Copy of the
DECLARATION OF THE U. S. at 10c EACH.
Something Every Boy Ought to Know
W. H. OLMSTED, the Hustler
331 Watchung Avenue
BEST DELIVERY SERVICE IN THE CITY

PLAINFIELD OFFICE
EISELE & KING
Members of the New York and Philadelphia Stock Exchanges
In the Babcock Building, West Front St.
Private wires East and West. Ticker service. Orders executed as rapidly as in any New York office
W. De LaR. ANDERSON, Manager.

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

P. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.

At North Avenue. Telephone 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S and Canada.

The Daily Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change the same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

Plainfield, N. J., May 12, 1908.

May 12 In History.

1634—George Chapman, poet, dramatist and friend of Shakespeare, died; born 1557.

1845—Professor August William von Schlegel, German scholar and critic, died; born 1767.

1884—Charles O'Conor, noted American lawyer, died; born 1804.

1903—Richard Henry Stoddard, noted American poet and critic, died; born 1825.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

Sun sets 7:03, rises 4:41; moon sets 3:40 a. m.; A. D. 1866, new star in northern crown discovered by Dr. Schmidt of Athens.

The Newark Morning Star considers as radical the action of the Montclair Town Council in raising the retail liquor license to $800 a year. What must it think of Plainfield, whose strict excise regulation, including a fee of $1,000, is the pride of every broadminded resident.

It was Mr. Bryan's turn to say "De-lighted" when the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in America, at Baltimore yesterday, passed a resolution to the effect that no man not a total abstainer should receive the support of the Christian voters of America. Placed in this class, the Nebraskan is preeminently entitled to the designation of "The Peerless One."

ARREST BOGUS COUNT IN A RELIGIOUS GARB

Laden with ecclesiastical pictures and literature and dressed in the garb of a monk, "Count" Salvatore, a slick Italian, who has been in this country but a short time, was arrested yesterday by Detective Pilger, in Trenton, and hurried to First district police station in that city before he had a chance to dispose of any of his wares.

The bogus count it is said has been working among the members of the Catholic faith in Plainfield, New Brunswick and Bound Brook, without first obtaining the approval of the church authorities. When it was learned he was bound for Trenton, the police there were asked to look-out for him.

It is believed that he obtains his wares from a broker of church literature in New York, who makes a business of supplying canvassers.

DR. MOTT QUITS MINISTRY; WILL STUDY SOCIOLOGY.

With a view to devoting his time to the study of sociological problems the Rev. Henry Elliott Mott, D. D., pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church, in Elizabeth, handed in his resignation. Dr. Mott's resignation came as a surprise to almost every member of the congregation. It will be acted upon at the next meeting of the Elizabeth Presbytery, to be held in the First German Presbyterian church in this city in June.

Asked yesterday regarding his resignation, Dr. Mott said:

"I have tried on several occasions to take up the study of sociological matters in connection with by pastoral duties, but found it impracticable. My resignation is merely the first step in the gratification of this desire. I have not matured any plans as yet, but I intend to study sociology in New York, as I think that is the best place."

Dr. Mott has been pastor of Westminster church for the last eight years. He came to this city from the Central Presbyterian church, Buffalo. The congregation of Westminster church has in it the wealthiest residents of Elizabeth.

—Advertise in The Daily Press

Headquarters for

John Gibson's

RYE.

E. C. Westcott, Agent.

115 East Front Street.

COMMON COUNCIL'S WORK

Two Patrolmen, Recently Reduced in Rank, are Quickly Restored to Grade.

SPECIALS ARE MADE REGULARS.

Brick Paving Contractor Wants to Have a Claim Assigned—Sidewalk Regulations.

Being indebted to the Fanwood Stone Crusher and Quarry Company in the sum of $693.09, a judgment having been obtained against him for that sum, and wishing to settle the matter, Charles M. Meeker, who has the contract for the brick pavement in the city, petitioned the Common Council at its adjourned meeting last night for permission to make an assignment of money due him from the city to the company to the extent of his indebtedness. The matter was referred to the finance committee to be reported upon later.

Two special policemen were added to the regular force, through appointment by Mayor Fisk. Those appointed were Cornelius McCarthy and Tobias Nolan, both being made specials in February, 1907. In making the appointments Mr. Fisk stated that the men had performed satisfactory service and no charges had been preferred against either since entering the department.

On the recommendation of the Mayor, Patrolmen Nicholas Meyers and John Payne were promoted from Class E to C for good behavior and faithful service. These men were reduced in the ranks a few months ago for infractions of the rules of the department.

For the purpose of obtaining more uniformity in the laying of sidewalks in the future, Mr. Gloak, chairman of the street committee, offered an amendment to an ordinance, which was adopted on first and second readings, providing for the several distances from the curb line in the laying of walks, according to the width of the stone. This excepts walks of four feet and under. Those twenty feet or more shall be eight feet from the curb; twelve feet or less, six feet from the curb; ten feet or more and not less than twelve feet, four feet from the curb; ten feet or less, an equal distance between the property and curb line, except on Johnston or Leland avenues, where on the former street they shall be thirteen feet from the curb and five feet on Leland avenue.

PASTOR SHOOTS A BURGLAR.

But Intruder Escapes.—Citizens Aroused by the Shots.

The Rev. Alexander Ivanow, pastor of St. Valentine's church, in Franklin avenue, Bloomfield, fired three shots at a burglar who attempted to enter his home at an early hour yesterday morning, and, although the man was wounded, he escaped.

The burglar was attempting an entrance through a scuttle on the roof of the minister's home. A maid who slept on the upper floor was awakened by the noise. She got up, and, going to the second floor, awakened the clergyman.

After dressing, Mr. Ivanow took his revolver and went outside to investigate. He reached the side of the house just in time to see the burglar, who had evidently been frightened by the noise, climb down a back piazza post. As the minister called to him to stop, the burglar ran down the yard, and as he jumped the fence the minister fired. The burglar gave a yell of pain and the clergyman fired two more shots.

The neighbors were aroused by the shots, and, forming a posse, made a search of the surrounding premises, but failed to find the burglar. The minister's first shot had been effective, as blood spots were found near the fence.

TEMPLE OF PEACE CORNERSTONE LAID.

Twenty-one Republics of the Western World Represented at the Ceremony.

Washington, May 12.—President Roosevelt yesterday laid the cornerstone of the first international temple of peace, friendship and commerce, the tangible evidence of the desire of the twenty-one American republics that war shall be no more in the Western world. Following the addresses by President Roosevelt, Secretary Root, Ambassador Nabuco of Brazil, and Andrew Carnegie, who gave $750,000 to the project, a cabled sentiment expressing the hearty approval of each President was read. Cardinal Gibbons and Bishop Cranston pronounced an invocation and benediction on the work done, and the United States Marine Band played selections of Pan-American music specially prepared for the occasion.

The new building is to be the joint property of all the republics, and the home of the bureau of American republics, and is to be made the centre of a continuous campaign of education, where one country may obtain accurate and up-to-date information of every other.

—Use Press want ads. They pay.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

The Woodhull & Martin Store

50c DRESS GOODS at 29c a yard

This is without question the best offering of absolutely new Dress Goods made this season. They are in the much wanted neat checks and plaids in light and dark colorings, full 36 inches wide; your choice at 29c a yard.

Grand Display of Trimmed Millinery.

We are exhibiting in our Millinery Parlors a very fine representation of the choicest and newest models, and are offering them at extremely moderate prices; also a large collection of untrimmed hats, tailor suit hats, flowers, foliage, feathers, ribbons, etc., etc.

PETTICOAT TALK.

Heatherbloom taffeta Petticoats in all the newest colorings and black, at 2.25.

The new Klosfit Petticoats, fits without a wrinkle, made of rustling taffeta, at 1.25, 1.50 and 2.50.

Feathersilk taffeta Petticoats, light and durable, in fancy stripes, at 2.25.

New seersucker Petticoats, in blue and white, and gray and white stripes, at 50c and 1.00.

NEW SHIRT WAISTS—EXCELLENT VALUES.

Our models have never been so chic and popular in price as now. Excellent values in both tailored and dress waists.

Fine lawn and batiste waists, elegantly trimmed with lace and embroidery. The newest models, at 98c, 1.25 and 1.50, and other styles ranging from 1.98 to 5.00.

Fancy colored polka dot Swiss Jabot waists; extra special values, at 1.25 and 1.75.

Beautiful lingerie waists, handsomely embroidered, at 5.00, 6.00 and up to 10.00.

Pretty tailor-made linen waists, open front models, at 2.75, 3.50 and 4.00.

Exceptionally Low Prices For Women's Summer Underwear

Plain white cotton ribbed vests, at 10c, 15c, 19c

Half lisle ribbed vests in plain strap, short sleeves and shield styles, at 25c.

Fine Swiss ribbed vests, in plain and fancy styles, at 50c.

Cotton ribbed umbrella pants, open and closed styles, reg. sizes 25c; extra sizes 29c.

Fine lisle ribbed umbrella pants at 50c.

Lisle ribbed umbrella pants, the famous Isabella style, at 50c.

Fancy embroidered white cotton ribbed vests, at 25c.

Pure lisle ribbed vests, plain and fancy, with strap, at 39c.

Fine fancy lisle ribbed vests, at 79c.

Pure silk ribbed vests, very fine quality, at 1.25.

Fine lisle combination suits, umbrella and light knee pants, at 50c.

We're showing a complete line of medium underwear specially adapted for mountain and seashore wear; also high neck, long and short sleeve, ribbed corset cover.

Special Wash Goods Sale 15c a yd.

About 5,000 yards of extra fine quality American Beauty Batiste, in an endless variety of new and pretty patterns in checks, plaids, stripes, figures and floral effects; these goods are worth to buy regular from 19c to 25c a yard.

LET US DO YOUR AWNING AND SHADE WORK—We'll furnish only the best materials and do the work in a first-class manner, and our charges are very moderate.

The Woodhull & Martin Store.

LAY PREACHERS IN EPISCOPAL CHURCH

In Christ church, Broadway and Seventy-first street, New York, occurred Sunday night the commencement of a school which is unlike any other in America or England. It is the Church Workers Commons and was begun last January, somewhat as an experiment. The Rev. Dr. George F. Nelson, archdeacon of New York, presided and addresses were made by laymen from the school.

The Commons is unique in its assumption that there are business men in New York who after working all the week stand ready to go on Sundays and perhaps on a week night or two and conduct religious services in missions too weak as yet to afford the services of ordained men; that there are men also who are desirous of speaking and able to speak upon missionary work before men's clubs and at parlor meetings, even if they have never been to Japan or Alaska, or other mission fields about which they presume to tell others. No pay is offered to these men for their work. They are required to pay their own car fares and often to contribute to causes they might not otherwise be compelled to help.

The commencement of the school last night showed that there are such men in steadily increasing numbers. The school is confined to the Episcopal church. For its initial year more than twenty men enrolled as students besides an equal number of women, or a total enrollment of fifty-eight.

NOVELTY RACE.

Something New to be Put on at the Cycle Track.

Now that cycle racing has been placed on a firm foundation, as was shown by the big turnout at the opening meet at Vailsburg Sunday, the management of the new track intend to introduce a new style of racing next Sunday, with the idea of treating the fans to something novel in the racing game. It is an importation from France and is known as the Repecage Handicap. It will be a two-mile race for amateurs, and it is said it will be the first occasion it will have been tried in this country.

The plan is to assemble the riders on their marks, the same as in a regular handicap, but instead of sending them all off at once, to have a separate heat for the combatants on the different marks, starting the limit men off first, and having only one to qualify in each heat.

In other words, if there were five men on the limit mark at 250 yards, these five would go in the first heat alone, and after they had crossed the tape the three men at 225 yards would be sent away, and so on down, with separate heats, to the scratch men.

Then, after all the heats had been decided, the men qualifying in each heat would go in a "repecage" heat and three from that would qualify for the final, with the others who had qualified in the regular heats.

This style of race has attained great popularity in France, and its novel qualities are expected to make it popular here.

There will be six races on the card Sunday, and they promise some good sport. For the professionals there will be a ten-mile open, with a $1 prize for the leader in each lap; a half-mile handicap, and a sixth of a mile sprint against time. In this latter event each contestant will get off alone and ride alone once around, the man making the best time winning first prize, and so on for four places.

Beside the repecage handicap, the amateurs will have a half-mile open handicap and a one-third mile novice. Jake Derosier, the Frenchman, will appear in an exhibition against time with a motor-cycle, as an extra attraction.

AMUSEMENTS.

New Plainfield Theatre

PLAYING ALL THE LEADING ATTRACTIONS

W. J. COUNIHAN - - - - Manager

Week Commencing

MONDAY, MAY 18—

Matinee Wednesday and Saturday.

ALBERTA GALLATIN

and Her All-Star Stock Co.

Nat. Goodwin's Greatest Success

The Cowboy and the Lady

Wed., May 20—Rose Matinee.

Every lady attending the matinee will be presented with an American Beauty. Miss Gallatin will hold a reception on the stage after the performance.

Sale of Seats Opens Monday, May 11.

Prices—Nights, 15c, 25c, 35c, 50c. Matinees, 15c and 25c.

CONCERT

MISS MARY LANSING, Contralto.

MISS MAY DALAND, Pianist.

MR. HAROLD KENT, Baritone.

MR. J. FRANK RICE, Violinist.

PLAINFIELD CASINO

Tuesday, May 19, 08

CARDS ONE DOLLAR

On Sale at Armstrong's Pharmacy

5-5 7 9 11 12 14 16 18 19

Capital and surplus $250,000.00

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK of Plainfield.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS:

A. J. Brunson, President
J. A. Smith, Vice President
D. M. Runyon, Cashier

W. R. Coddington,
J. A. Hubbard,
C. Frank French,
B. F. Corlell,
P. J. Zeglio, M. D.
E. H. Bird.

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS DRAW FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

John S. Lewis

Successor to Lewis & Dilts.

Artesian Well Contractors.

Wells drilled any place, size or depth.

Estimates cheerfully given.

Box 173, Scotch Plains, N. J.

Refuse to Marry Socialist.

Bayonne, May 12.—When Vincent Williams applied to Father Fwider, pastor of the Polish church, to marry him to Miss Agatha Jacobus, 21 years old, the pastor refused on learning that Williams is a Socialist. The couple then went to Justice of the Peace Boylan, who also refused to marry them when he heard of the priest's action.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davidson have removed from the Stillman building to their new home on Larramie road.

"Joy Cometh in the Morning" But For Those Who

COME TO PECK'S

It Cometh in the Morning and Abideth All the Day Long.

HAMMOCKS

The well-known Vudor make, the best yet—strongest constructed, best cords and colors fast. We are agents for these well-known goods and furnish a good assortment at all times.

Vudor PORCH SHADES

PORCH Screens

There is only one really good porch screen and that's the Vudor. No question about it. We have sold them for several years and with greatly increased demands each season. Simple in operation.

Porch Chairs, Bamboo Screens, Net Doors and Screens, Refrigerators, Porch Rugs, Summer Furniture in large variety of sizes, kinds, colors, and prices always the lowest for quality.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON,

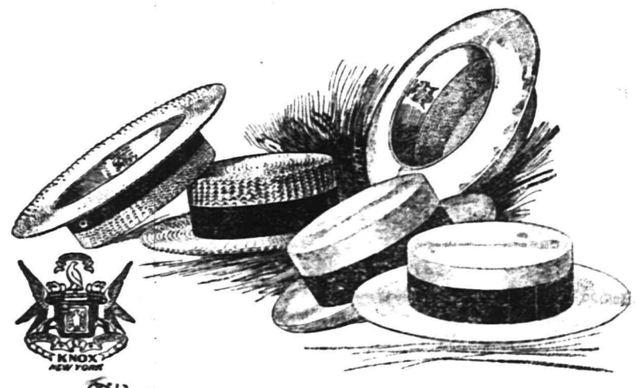
BABCOCK BUILDING, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

LADIES' AND GENT'S SUITS

CLEANED AND PRESSED

G. O. KELLER,

'PHONE 857-J 125 PARK AVENUE



FASHION permits just enough variety in the shape and weave of straw hats to suit every man's requirements, but it forbids extremes. Of course, the only way to be sure of style is to get a

KNOX HAT

And that is not the only reason you should purchase a hat with the Knox trade-mark in it; quality and durability must be present, if you want a fresh-looking hat all Summer. Quality, Durability and Style—only the Knox trade-mark will guarantee all three.

The Men's Shop, 174 E. Front St.

HOW ABOUT YOUR SUIT?

We are showing the finest line of

KIRSABAUM SUITS and TOPCOATS

in Brown, Olives, Grey and Blue. Can we not show you these even if you don't buy—the goods are good and prices right. All the new things in Shirts, Neckwear, Socks, Caps and Hats. We have put our Straw Tiles on exhibition.

CLOTHING MADE TO ORDER.

Werner's Clothing House,

206 WEST FRONT ST.

JUDGE DILL SCORES A LOAN ASSOCIATION

Judge James B. Dill, in the Court of Errors and Appeals, filed a decision yesterday at Trenton in which the officers and directors of the State Mutual and Building Loan Association of New Jersey, including some politicians of note in the State, are vigorously scored for malfeasance in office.

Dennis Ryan appealed to the Court from an order of Vice Chancellor Leaming, who refused to appoint a receiver for the insolvent association, but permitted trustees, selected by the shareholders at the instance of the offending directors, to undertake to wind up its affairs. Court of Errors reversed the Vice Chancellor's decision last week, but the opinion was not filed until today.

Judge Dill holds that the act under which the trustees were appointed is not applicable to insolvent building and loan associations, but is intended only to permit the winding up of the affairs of solvent corporations where the creditors are not involved, and where the shareholders can see that their own interests will be best conserved by the dissolution of the association. The opinion states:

"Insolvency was demonstrated. But, more than this, there was made a prima facie case of malfeasance on the part of officers and directors. The inference is strong that the appointment of these trustees in liquidation was procured by the directors and officers with a view to covertly maintaining the control not alone of the assets of the company but as well of the institution and maintenance of legal proceedings to which officers and directors might be proper parties.

"If this be the fact, then the proceedings resulting in the appointment of the trustees was a palpable attempt on the part of the directors and officers to evade the consequences of the appointment of an independent receiver, whose duty it might be to call the officers and directors to account and to hold them responsible for the failure of the company to the extent they were properly chargeable therewith."

Officers and directors of the association, which had its headquarters at Camden, as shown by the last report made by the State Department of Banking and Insurance, were:—Judge E. Ambler Armstrong, Camden, president; J. Willard Morgan, formerly State Controller, Camden, vice president; the Rev. E. B. Brace, Blackwood, treasurer; Israel G. Adams, Atlantic City; P. Baker, Vineland; Carroll P. Bassett, Summit; Harry S. Dauglass, Cape May Court House; Franklin Dye, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, Trenton; Alexander R. Fithian, Bridgeton; Edward E. Grosscup, Wenonah; Robert N. Gwynne, Jr., Salem; A. C. B. Havens, Toms River; S. Stenger Issard, Woodbury; H. O. Newcomb, Millville; Charles N. Reading, Frenchtown; P. Kennedy Reeves, Bridgeton; Charles H. Richman, Woodstown, and J. Frank Shull, Wenonah, directors.

K. AND L. OF H. ANNUAL.

Twenty-seventh Session of Order to Held in Belleville.

The twenty-seventh grand session of the Grand Lodge of New Jersey, Knights and Ladies of Honor, is being held today in Belleville Hall, Belleville. Officers were elected at the morning session.

The delegates and friends will be tendered a reception in the evening by the members of Golden Stream Lodge of Belleville. The grand march will be led by Supreme Protector Lockhard, of Indianapolis. The committee in charge of the arrangements consists of James McCormack, Walter Reid, Mrs. Elizabeth A Morgan, Mrs. Henry Christman, Miss Jennie Bagnall, Mrs. Sarah Coups, Miss Annie Gilman, Mrs. Mary E. Otter, Miss Jennie Johnston, Mrs. Isabelle Nicholson and Mrs. Lillian Reid. The reception committee consists of Edward C. Menzel, Peter T. Scherf Mrs. L. C. P. Wilson, Andrew L. Bagnall, Mrs. Virginia Schamauder, Mrs. Rebecca J. Faust, Mrs. Elizabeth Bagnall and William Cullen. John D. Morgan will be floor manager, Dr. Edward O. Cyphers and John Hyde will be assistants.

PLEDGE $54,000 FOR CHURCH.

First Baptist Congregation of Montclair Subscribes Sum at Service.

Members of the First Baptist church in Montclair on Sunday at ones ervice pledged themselves for $54,000 with which to erect a new edifice. Payments will extend over a period of three years.

Architects' plans for a new $90,000 church were prepared several months ago and submitted to the members of the congregation for their approval. These plans have been agreed upon, with slight modifications. The new church will be built on a site at Church street and Trinity place, which cost $17,000. It is the intention of the congregation and the pastor, the Rev. Harry Emerson Fosdick, to erect the church without going into debt.

The members of the Swedish Lutheran church will hold a fair and entertainment in Coward's Hall on Park avenue, Friday and Saturday nights, May 22 and 23. There will be special attractions each night.

SON DRIVES OUT MOTHER.

Lured Her from Poland Thinking She Had Money.

Hoboken, May 12.—Beguiled by her son, who believed his father, who died in Poland recently, left her considerable money, Mrs. Katherine Lipschnitz came to this city a little over a month ago, took up her home with him, and was well treated until a few days ago, when the son asked her how much money she had.

When she told him that after she had paid for a second-class passage to Aemrica her entire possession was less than $50, the son became enraged. He told his mother he did not believe her and that she had hidden his father's wealth. From that day the man began to systematically neglect the old woman. He forced her to work about the house, although she was physically unable to do so, saying that she could not support any one in idleness. Saturday she was not well enough to leave her bed, and the son told her she must find a home somewhere else, and that he could not support her.

Today, believing that she would be turned out in the street, Mrs. Lipschnitz sought Justice Seymour for advice. He told her he would send for her son, and that if he refused to suport her, he would turn the case over to Poormaster Barck, who would either prosecute the son or have the neglected mother deported, or perhaps both.

GET "BLACK HAND" SUSPECTS.

Two Arrests Made Following Receipt of Threatening Letter by Middlesex Farmer.

New Brunswick, May 12.—Michael Filoseta and John Sirye, two alleged "Black Hand" men, were arrested here Saturday. It is said they sent a letter to S. De Russo, a wealthy farmer, residing at Franklin Park, near here, demanding $5,000. He was to hide it by an advertiseing sign along the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks. These two men alighted from a train Saturday and went for the money.

Paul Wagi, a special officer, watched them, and followed them down the railroad tracks toward this city. He telegraphed from a railroad tower to the railroad station here, and the police were notified. Sergeant Clinton and Wagi later captured the men here. Both, it is said, were armed with revolvers and extra cartridges.

De Russo had his barns burned a month ago by an incendiary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK.

New Jersey Association Active in Making Improvements.

The importance of the work of the Sunday school is being emphasized this spring in a number of counties of this State by the holding of exercises in the Sunday schools, in which the main features of modern Sunday school work are set forth and the various movements for improvement are explained. The second or third Sunday of May is being used for this purpose in some counties.

The exercises are furnished by the New Jersey Sunday School Association's office at Newark. The near approach of the great international Sunday school convention at Louisville, Ky., June 18-23, makes this observance of "New Jersey Sunday School Day" timely, as many are anxious to learn more of the scope of the united Sunday school work.

HERRING CARRY A BOAT ON THEIR BACKS A MILE.

Baltimore, Md., May 12.—The latest fish story to come in is that of James Maddox, a fisherman, who was caught in the midst of a large school of herring in Gunpowder river, and claims that his boat was fairly carried along on the backs of the fish.

According to Maddox, despite his efforts at the oars, he was carried nearly am ile out of his course before he succeeded in extricating his boat from the school. In one haul of a big 600-fathom seine so many herring were surrounded that it was impossible to land the seine.

Schools of herring moving into the headwaters of Chespeake Bay to spawn are now so thick that they dam the rivers and roawboats cannot get through them.

GIVES UP LEGACY FOR FAITH.

Episcopal Minister Rejects Condition That He Become Roman Catholic.

The Rev. Henry Dawson, of Canton, Ill., to whom was left a legacy and also a considerable residuary legatee interest by the will of his cousin, Miss Alice T. Booth, of New York, on condition that hec hange his faith from the Episcopal church to that of the Roman Catholic church, has refused to comply with thec onditions.

His mother, Mrs. Sophie Dawson, also an aunt and an uncle of Mr. Dawson therefore will receive the interest intended for him.

Six Paroled by Pardons Court.

Trenton, May 12.—The Court of Pardons yesterday granted six paroles, dismissed eleven petitions, remitted fines in five cases and laid over thirteen cases. The latter cases are to be considered at a meeting to be held on May 26.

David T. Kenney of Rockview avenue, has leased his house for the season.

Fresh Vegetables

Asparagus, Wax Beans, Tomatoes,
Radishes, Beets, Lettuce,
Strawberries, Green Beans, Cucumbers.

Fruit

Oranges, Grape Fruit, Apples.
Malaga Grapes, Figs.

NEUMAN BROS.

GROCERS—Watchung Avenue and Fifth Street.

Efficient and rapid delivery service to all parts of the city.

MONO

Fireproof Storage Warehouse.

Separate Rooms, Fireproof Partitions. Clean, Dry, Secure.

Inspection Invited—Open 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

FURNITURE REMOVED WITH CARE.

Telephone 522-W. Opposite freight depot.

A. M. RUNYON & SON, UNDERTAKERS.

402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York Office—50 Great Jones Street, Tel. call, 3345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 315.

T. A. MOORE.

UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.

Office—508 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 790
Residence—614 East 6th St. " 741-R
New York Office, 27 Great Jones St.
Telephone Call, 2249-Spring.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

Established 1872.

P. CASEY & SON.

UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS.

Office 116 Park Av., Tel. 884-w. Res., 417 W. 3d St., Tel. 903-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2094 Gramercy

GEO. W. COLE.

UNDERTAKER & EMBALMER.

200 West Second St. Telephone 153.

OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

USE PRESS WANT ADS

Chas. L. Stanley,

159 East Front St. 'Phone 928.
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

L. L. MANNING & SON,

STEAM GRANITE WORKS.

Corner Central Avenue and West Front Street. Opposite First Baptist Church.

DIED.

LELAND—Suddenly, on Monday, May 11, 1908, George R. Leland, in his 76th year.

Funeral at his late residence, 423 West Second street, Wednesday evening, May 13, at 7 o'clock. Interment at the convenience of the family.

BENNETT—At New Brunswick, N. J., on Tuesday, May 12, 1908, at his late residence, 300 Suydam street, Abram C. Bennett, aged 88 years and 3 months, formerly of this city.

Notice of funeral hereafter.
5 12 tf

DAY—At New Market, N. J., Sunday, May 10, 1908, Stanley Day, aged 75 years, 5 months and 2 days.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral from his late residence on Wednesday, May 13, at 2 o'clock.
5 11 2

Classified Advertisements

Rates for advertisements under this heading one cent a word for first insertion, one half a cent a word for consecutive insertions of the same advertisement running for less than one month; one month, fifty cents a line (6 words to a line), double rate for advertisement set in capitals.

No advertisements received for less than ten cents.

Copy for death and marriage notices and classified advertising accepted up to 2:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS is not at liberty to give any information regarding advertisements that require an address in care of this office. Persons answering these ads. should mail or leave answers as stated in advertisements.

Help Wanted.

WANTED—At once, white cook for family of three, to go out of city for summer. Hall's Employment Agency, Station driveway.

WANTED—Experienced cook, also chambermaid, waitress, white; friends preferred; personal reference required. Apply 313 Franklin place.
5 11 3

Help Wanted.

WANTED—A girl to do general housework. 418 West Sixth street.
5 9 3

WANTED—Man and wife to run a farm near New Market; man must be thoroughly competent farmer; woman must be thorough housekeeper. Apply W. E. Kastendike, New Market, N. J.
5 9 3

WANTED—Colored girl for general housework. 1014 West Front street.
5 11 3

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Apply with reference, 1423 Watchung avenue.
5 11 2

COOKS and general houseworker wanted at once. Call Andersen, 659 West Fourth street. 'Phone 508-W.
5 11 2

WANTED — Competent girl for general housework; small family; no washing; good wages; references required. 911 Watchung avenue.
5 12 2

WANTED — Girl (white) for housework. 166 Grove street.
5 9 3

WANTED—Girl for general housework; small family. Apply evenings 27 North Clinton avenue.
5 11 6

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework; good reference required. Call evenings between 7 and 8, 81 Grove street.
5 11 tf

WANTED—Four strong boys to work at plumbing and heating. Galbraith, 193 North avenue.
5 9 3

USEFUL white man wanted, must be sober, honest, understand horses, heaters, lawns and be handy with tools; good wages and free rent to the right man; references required. Address M. F. G., Press office.
5 9 3

Situations Wanted.

EXPERIENCED dressmaker would like sewing to do at home. Address M. B., care Press.
5 11 2

YOUNG German, 18 years old, wants work taking care of horses. F. Thomas, Dunellen, N. J., near postoffice.
5 12 2

WANTED—Situation at general housework. Call 203 Grant avenue.
5 12 3

TWO girls want situations at general housework. Williams' Intelligence office, 224 Grove street.

GERMAN woman wants a place as housekeeper. Call Andersen Employment, 659 West Fourth street.
5 11 3

POSITION desired by reliable person; experienced in nursing, to care for invalid or elderly person. No objection to travel. References exchanged. Address H. H., Press office.
5 11 3

YOUNG man wants position as cook or butler. Address W. M., care Press.
5 11 3

YOUNG woman wants place as cook, with reference; sleep home. Call 428 East Sixth street.
5 11 2

WANTED—Position at general housework. Call 602 West Fourth street. Rev. Bailey's.
5 11 2

FOUR Slavish girls want positions as general houseworkers or waitresses. Call Andersen Employment office, 659 West Fourth street. 'Phone 508-W.
5 11 3

WANT washing at home. Apply 616 West Third street.
5 12 6

COMPETENT help constantly on hand; white and colored. Hall's Employment Agency (originally The Plainfield), station driveway; 'phone 322-J.
4 22 1m

WOMAN wants days work. Call 612 West Fourth street.
5 9 4

For Rent.

FLAT to let. Inquire 18 Craig place.
4 14 tf

FOR RENT—New house just completed; seven rooms and bath; rent $21. Address O. I. C., Daily Press.
4 24 tf

FOR RENT—Commodious offices in the Woodhull & Martin building suitable for lawyers, dentists, insurance companies, etc.; will arrange to suit tenant.
4 20 tf

THREE rooms to let. 732 West Third street.
4 6 tf

TO LET—Second floor, city water, $12.50. 183 Somerset street. Ernest T. Hand.
5 8 tf

FOR RENT—House, 16 Stone street; 6 rooms. Liefke & Laing, 146 Park avenue.
5 11 3

TO LET—6 room house, with half acre ground, $12 per month, on West Third street. M. F. Gano, 142 North avenue.
5 11 tf

TO LET—Lower half of new house on East Second street; $8.00. Apply Martin Hansen, 316 and 318 West Front street.
5 11 3

FOUR rooms to let; all newly papered and painted; city water and gas. Apply B. Mann, 120 West Fourth street.
5 11 tf

FOR RENT—No. 26 Rockview avenue, 12 rooms and 2 baths; large beautiful grounds; large carriage house; immediate possession. No. 806 Third place, 10 room house; immediate possession. Furnished cottages to rent for summer from $50 month up. Edmund Rushmore, 209 North avenue, Plainfield; N. Y. office, 42 Broadway.
5 6 12

SEVEN-ROOM apartments to let; all improvements. 937 West Front street; also six-room house. 3 28 tf

HOUSE TO LET—6 rooms; also 4 rooms to let. J. Sachar, 731 West Third street.
5 7 6

TO LET—Newly furnished room in select apartment; centre of town; all improvements. A. C., care Press.
5 11 6

TO LET—Neatly furnished parlor and bedroom, use of bath and gas range. Also 3 unfurnished rooms. Address Apartment, care Press.
5 12 3

NEW six-room house to let, 1219 West Third street; six-room house, 1424 Willever street, near Safe Works; two apartments, four rooms each, all improvements, or the whole house, 216 Prescott place. J. Sacher, 731 West Third St.
4 3 tf

NEW 7-room house, on Cameron avenue, for sale or to let; furnace, open plumbing, gas and city water. Inquire E. Beys, Cameron avenue.
5 4 1m

TO LET, without children, half house; separate entrance; will not come in contact with other family; 6 rooms; city water and toilet; rent moderate. Address Moderate, Daily Press.
5 11 3

TO LET—Flat, six rooms, large and light; improvements. Apply 84 Fairview avenue.
5 12 3

FIVE-ROOM house and barn to let, 78 Greenbrook road. Apply John Consoli, 23 Somerset street.
5 12 3

TO RENT—Second and third stories of 316 and 318 West Front street, 50x85 feet. Jos. W. Gavett.
4 3 tf

FOR RENT—Flat in Jackson building, 5 rooms and bath; all improvements; also house 634 West Seventh street; all improvements. Liefke & Laing.
5 11 3

TO LET—9-room house, all improvements; 3 Verdon street. G. W. V. Moy.
3 13 tf

TO LET—4 rooms, upper floor, water. John Manley, Insurance, 321 Park avenue.
3 17 tf

Poultry and Eggs.

CHICKS for sale; two weeks old. 9 Codington avenue.
5 8 6

EGGS FOR HATCHING—White Leghorn, White Plymouth Rocks, Buff Orpingtons and Pekin Ducks, from the best strains. Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, Tel. 451-J.
4 14 1m

SETTINGS of 13 from prize stock. Blk Minorca $1.50, Buff Orpington $3 White or Partridge Wyandotte $2. 100, $10; 50, $5. 234 West 2nd St.
4 3 tf

EGGS for setting, from Orpingtons, Black Leghorns, Indian Game, and India Runner Ducks, corner Grant and Sherman Aves.
3 25 tf

R. I. RED, Barred Plymouth Rock and White Leghorn eggs from the leading strains of the country; $1 per sitting, $5 per hundred. George Howard, Jr., South Bound Brook, N. J.
2 21 3m

Money to Loan.

MONEY to loan on first mortgage. Louis A. Clement, lawyer, Babcock building.
5 11 6

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite Depot.
12 28 tf

MONEY to loan on band and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building.
12 18 tf

LOANS negotiated. J. T. Vail.
1 14 tf

TO LOAN—Money on good mortgages. George F. Brown, 94 Somerset street.
tf

Miscellaneous.

COMPLETE line of automobile supplies and tires at lowest New York prices. Thompson Auto Co.
4 15 3m

AUTOMOBILES to hire at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co., telephone 991-J.
4 15, 3m

A FIRST CLASS place to turn out horses to recruit, will have good attention; also storage for wagons. Address I., care Daily Press.
4 13 1m

FIRST-CLASS places and first-class help always on hand. Swedish Intelligence Office, 22 Somerset place, 'Phone 196-W.
8 22 tf

WE have the finest solid tire applying plant in the State for business wagons, carriages and coaches; also auto tires, baby carriage tires and bicycle tires, at 407 Watchung avenue, corner Fifth street. Plainfield Auto Tire Co.. Famous Firestone side wire tires applied on premises.
5 12 6

AUTOMOBILES repaired and overhauled by first class mechanics at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co.
4 15 3m

THE EXCHANGE, 325 West Front street, telephone 901-R. Do you have furniture, carpets, etc., for sale? Do not fail to notify us; we pay 50 per cent. more than anybody else.
11 29 tf

CONTRACTS taken for care of lawns for the season; grading; soil and sod furnished; planting, etc. J. M. Welsh, 754 Kensington avenue. Telephone 148-J.
5 11 6

GARBAGE removed regularly and reasonably. George Christensen, R. F. D. No. 1.
4 21 1m

CELLAR digging, grading in all its branches; house cleaning and whitewashing a specialty. 'Phone 862-J. Prompt service; competent help. Samuel M. Thornton, 544 West Third street.
5 8 6

IF YOU want your watch, clock or jewelry repaired take them to Brown, 124 Watchung Ave.
4 18 1m

FAMILY sewing of all kinds. Miss Mast, 94 Grove street.
5 12 1m

JOHN P. Van Horn, general machinist and bicycle expert; wheels stored, bought, sold and exchanged. 150 North avenue.
5 12 tf

PLAINFIELD 5 and 10c delivery and messenger service. 150 North avenue; temporary 'phone 752-R.
5 12 tf

FURNITURE stored and sold on commission. Martin Hansen, 316 and 318 West Front street.
5 5 1m

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S., graduate American Veterinary College, N. Y., pet animals a specialty. OFFICE WITH ALBERT HEDDEN, livery, 118 East Fourth street, telephone 114-J.
1 27 tf

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans, Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts.
1 4 tf

BABIES crochet sacques for sale; all prices; also ladies' knitted sweaters made to order. Mrs. Mayer, 54 Pearl street, North Plainfield.
tf

SOMETHING of interest to every dressmaker and every lady that works at dressmaking. Address B. P. C., care Press.
5 7 6

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer; sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street.
2 10 tf

CESSPOOLS and vaults cleaned, odorless excavator; good work; lowest prices. T. M. Ingraham, Plainfield R. F. D. No. 1.
12 10 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St.
tf

Lost and Found.

LOST—Small leather purse on Scotch Plains car leaving Westfield at 9:15 last night; contained monogram pins and sum of money. Finder can keep purse and money if pins are returned to Daily Press office.
5 11 2

LOST—Picture of 3 automobiles in front of Grant's tomb between Front street and depot. Return to this office.

WILL party that exchanged umbrella at Grammar School operetta in Park Club last Friday night kindly notify this office and they will receive their own umbrella. The umbrella exchanged had initials L. K. on handle. Call telephone 61.
5 11 3

LOST—Saturday, a fox terrier dog, marked with black and tan over eyes. Reward at 748 Carlton avenue.
5 11 2

Wanted—Miscellaneous.

WANTED by June 1, unfurnished or furnished room in modern dwelling with private family without children; meals. Address Quiet, care Press.
5 11 2

WANTED — Second-hand gas range; good condition. Address "Range," care Press.
5 9 3

Real Estate for Exchange.

FINE new house, centrally located; 10 rooms, all improvements; gas and electric light, hot water heating, parquet floors; would exchange for moderate priced lots. J. T. Vail, 177 North Ave.
4 14 tf

For Sale.

4-ROOM cottage; acre of land; $2,200. Wm. Bourgeois, Laramie road.
5 1 1m

FOR SALE, RENT OR EXCHANGE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; also country homes and farms at bargain prices. C. H. Snyder, 221 Park avenue, room 4.
4 18 1m

COWS, Cows, Cows, will receive Tuesday, May 12, a carload of choice fresh cows and springers, which are for sale or exchange at the lowest market prices at Gus Lewis' Stables, 445 18th avenue, Newark, N. J.
5 11 2

FAST pacing mare for sale at a sacrifice for want of use. 146 East Fifth street.
5 11 6

FOR SALE, at sacrifice; party needs the money; two lots on Leland avenue, near George street. Inquire 146 East Fifth street.
5 11 6

ON ACCOUNT change of business wish to sell my property for less than value; good built, newly decorated and painted house, 10 rooms, reception hall and bath; possession at once; also barn. Also two family house, large lot, gas, city water and toilet; sewer conection; brings $35 per month. Addres Bargain, Daily Press.
5 11 3

FOR SALE—Two large handsome green and gold Canton vases; medallion pattern. Can be seen at 114 Crescent avenue.
5 11 6

SECOND-HAND doors for sale cheap. 821 Kensington avenue.
5 11 3

FOR SALE—Bargain for quick buyer, Edison Home phonograph, with 150 records. Address Buyer, care Press.
5 8 4

FOR SALE—Automobile runabout, cost $950; price $225; in fine condition. Address A. R., Daily Press.
5 5 tf

FOR SALE—Three fine maple trees, about 6 to 8 at base; must be sold at once. John Mobus, P. O. Box 320, City.
5 12 3

1905 2-Cylinder Elmore touring car; fine shape; 5 lamps, etc. $275. Thompson, 413 Park avenue.
5 7 6

BARGAIN in lots for cash in Highland Park. Inquire at 303 Leland avenue.
5 8 6

FOR SALE—The finest lot in Plainfield, on which to build a row of apartment houses. Chas. L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building, Plainfield, N. J.
2 21 tf

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office.
tf

Real Estate Agents.

HOUSES, new, for sale or rent, all improvements, excellent location, East End. Inquire M. A. Rose, 301 Watchung avenue, 'Phone 273-J.
4 14 1m

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent or exchange. Edmund Rushmore, 209 North avenue, telephone No. 49, Plainfield; 42 Broadway, New York.
10 10 tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield; telephone 44.
tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; properties that I have picked up in trade that I can sell you for less than market prices; if you want to buy or have anything to sell come and see me. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, 39 Prospect place, North Plainfield.
11 20 tf

REAL ESTAE for sale, rent and exchange at bargain figures, insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue.
tf

FOR SALE—If you want to buy or sell real estate, please call, write or 'phone Ira L. LaRue, next to station, next to bargain. Office 'phone 752-R, residence 'phone 845-L.
12 19 tf

Rooms and Board.

GOOD accommodations; low rates. Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St.
tf

TO LET—Furnished room; use bath. Address New Madison, care Press.
5 11 3

TWO fine rooms and board; also table boarders. Mrs. Detweilers, 514 Madison avenue.
5 7 6

FEW boarders wanted. Mrs. M. Fosbre, 659 Essex street.
5 1 12

LARGE front room with or without board. 137 East Fifth street.
5 9 6

WATCHUNG AVE., 724, near 7th St., desirable rooms with first class board.
4 13 1m

TWO communicating rooms with board; sunny exposure; bath adjoining; first class neighborhood; excellent table. 132-134 Crescent avenue.
9 19 tf

13th Annual Strawberry Festival and Dance of Division No. 1, L. A. of A. O. H., of St. Mary's parish, in T. A. B. Hall, Fourth and Liberty Sts.

Thursday, June 18.

Music by Prof. Guhr. 5 12 3 eod Tickets 25c

SOME STATE NEWS BRIEFS

The proposed trust company in Millville is being vigorously opposed by the banks and the stockholders of building and loan associations.

Samuel Owens, of Paulsboro, whose back was broken in the fall of an elevator, is in a critical condition at the Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia.

Suffering from melancholia, William B. Sharp, sixty-eight years old, of 421 Liberty street, Camden, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by shooting himself through the right temple.

John Starr, a gill fisherman, of Gloucester City, made an unusual haul Saturday, when he drew up two kegs of beer in his net—but one got away. Starr got the other keg in his boat and, bringing it to the city, sold it to a saloon-keeper for $2.50.

A woman fainted while being baptized in the Delaware River at the foot of Twenty-eighth street, East Camden, Sunday. She was one of a party of three men and two women immersed by Rev. Thomas Cooper, of St. Paul's Baptist church, DeLancey street, Philadelphia. She was carrried to a nearby cabin, where she recovered in a short time.

Struck by an electric train of the West Jersey and Seashore Railroad in Camden yesterday afternoon, Rachel Gleason, colored, seventy years old, of 1051 York street, sustained a fracture of the ankle and internal injuries. She was in a serious condition at Cooper Hospital last night.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS

A famous revival and the return of a tried and proved favorite which has elements that will lend outlast the ephemeral moment of a popular success give the spice to the dramatic offering at the New Plainfield theatre Memorial Day, afternoon and night. Pronounced interest will center in Sardou's "Divorcons," in which Grace George comes to this city direct from her triumphs both in London and New York. This play made familiar by Rejane in French and Duse in Italian in its adequate adaptation presents a comedy strain, tempered by the deeper feeling which permeates and colors its badinage, that proves particularly congenial to Miss George's abilities. Her comedy touch is light and graceful and she sounds the note of pathos with an agreeable sincerity. While "Divorcons" is almost of another generation, its story must still be remembered. Cyprienne, the heroine, young, vain and fond of attention, is the wife of a man double her age, who, in his devotion to his inventions forgets to testify the love he feels in an everyday thoughtfulness. Neglected and uncomprehending Cyprienne encourages a young officer and plans to leave the man who flouts her. She subjects him to ridicule to gain her end only to find her husband's perfect trust invulnerable to every attack. He ends by winning anew the girl he has married and shipwreck is averted. The story is delightfully told, the man's generosity and the woman's caprice thrown into striking contrast. Frank Worthing as the husband is particularly well cast and in "Divorcons" is said to have done the best work of his artistic career.

LOVE AFFAIR CAUSE OF GIRL'S SUICIDE ATTEMPT.

Woodbury, May 12.—Miss Florence Jennings, sixteen years old, attempted suicide at the home of her mother, Mrs. Joseph Jennings, in Mantua, yesterday afternoon by drinking an ounce and a half of laudanum. The deed was committed because of a love affair.

Yesterday afternoon after going upstairs the girl called to her mother a moment later, saying "I have done it." Dr. William Brower, of this city, was summoned, and made a record run in his automobile of three and a half miles in less than six minutes. Emetics and a stomach pump were used to good effects, but Miss Jennings declares that she will yet kill herself.

LOSES HIS YOUNG BRIDE.

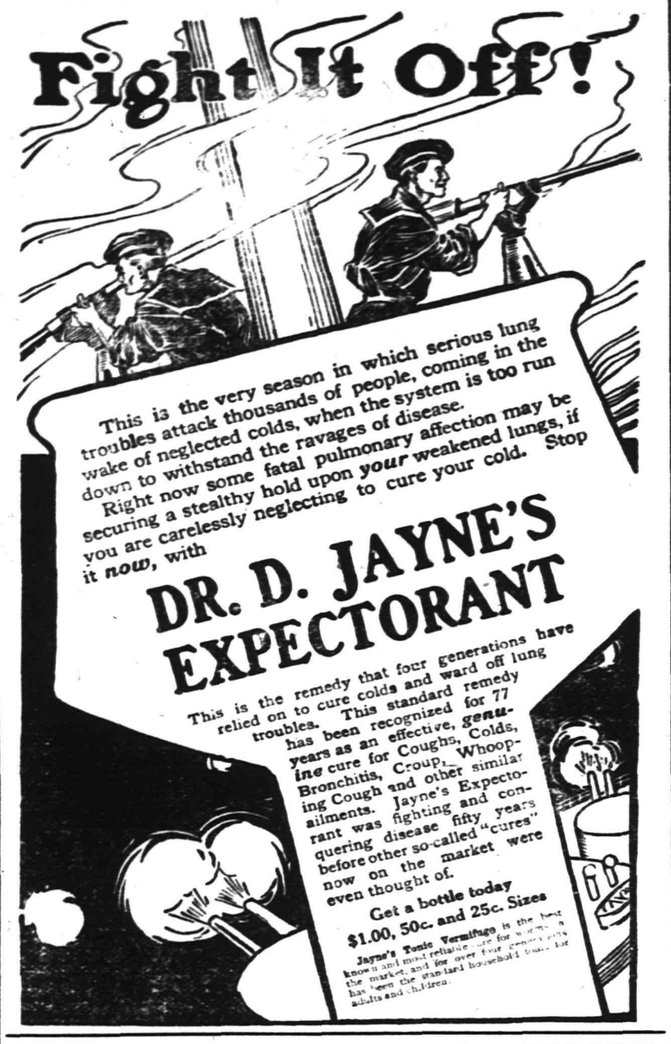
Jersey City Man Takes Daughter, Who Wed Against His Wishes, Away from Husband.

Asbury Park, May 12.—Married three days Harry Griggs, of this city, is brideless. On Thursday he eloped with Miss Olga Feddler, and now her father has taken her away to Jersey City. Her protests are of no avail, for she is under age, says Mr. Feddler, and he will have the marriage annulled.

Becoming acquainted a year ago, the couple decided to marry, but W. O. Luttman, at whose home the girl lived, objected. The girl's father took the same stand. Then the couple took matters in their own hands.

Luttman heard of the marriage, the bride confessed, and then her father, Adam Feddler, took the girl away with him, despite the young husband's protests. The girl gave her age to the parson as eighteen, but her father says she is under the legal age. Griggs says she is his lawful wife and he will fight the annulment proceedings.

Chauncey F. Stout, of Madison avenue, was among those who attended the twenty-fifth anniversary celebration of The New York World, Saturday night.



BAMBERGER'S
"THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE"
MARKET, HALSEY & BANK STS.

MUSLINWEAR SALE.

Many stores, in arranging a sale of this description, sacrifice both quality and width in an endeavor to offer a showy article at an apparently low price. Not so at this store; here, every article of muslinwear must measure up to rigid standard as to fit, finish, fabric and width. Every garment mentioned below was made in a clean, sanitary factory, and every value is exactly as stated—our tremendous outlet at this season of the year enabling us to take advantage of every possible discount.

Muslinwear, Regular 50c and 59c Values—This assortment consists of gowns, skirts, drawers, short skirts, chemise and corset covers, made of good, strong quality muslin or cambric, trimmed in many pretty ways with lace, embroidery, hemstitching and tucks—all well made and nicely finished garments; regular 50c and 59c each; for this sale special at..... .43

Muslinwear, Regular 79c Values—Included in this lot are gowns, skirts, drawers, skirt chemise, corset covers and combination corset covers and drawers or combination corset covers and skirts. Made of fine muslin, nainsook or cambric, and trimmed with dainty lace, embroideries, tucks, and hemstitching; regular 79c goods; selling special, each..... .63

Muslinwear, Regular 1.00 and 1.25 Values—Skirts, gowns, drawers, skirt chemise, corset covers and combination corset covers and drawers or corset covers and skirts, made in the very newest effects of fine quality nainsook, muslin or cambric—prettily trimmed with fine embroideries, laces, tucks and hemstitching— regular 1.00 and 1.25 each, this sale special..... .83

Muslinwear, Regular 2.00 to 2.50 Values—Beautifully made gowns, skirts, drawers, chemise, corset covers and combination corset covers and skirts or corset covers and drawers. Made of very fine quality nainsook, muslin or cambrics and handsomely trimmed with dainty laces, embroideries and ribbons—garments that sell regularly at 2.00 to 2.50 each, special..... $1.79

Muslinwear, Regular 1.50 to 1.75 Values—Gowns, corset covers, skirts, drawers, chemise and combination corset covers and skirts or combination corset covers and drawers. All of the newest and prettiest styles, made of very fine nainsook or cambric and beautifully trimmed with laces, embroideries and ribbons; regular 1.50 to 1.75 each, this sale special..... $1.29

Muslinwear, Regular 3.00 and 3.50 Values—Gowns, skirts, drawers, long chemise, corset covers and combination corset covers and drawers or combination corset covers and skirts. Made in many pleasing styles, of the finest quality nainsook, lawn or cambric and exquisitely trimmed with dainty lace or embroidery; all sizes; regular 3.00 and 3.50 each, sale price..... $2.69

L. Bamberger & Co
NEWARK, N. J.

R. W. BARNES.
217 PARK AVE. 'PHONE 344-L.
Fruits Vegetables and Groceries
Imported and Domestic Cheeses, Olives and Pickles in bottles or by measure, Boiled Corned Beef, Ham, Smoked Salmon, Fresh Cut Chipped Beef, Heinz's Stuffed Melons. Try Them.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR
TRUNKS, SUIT CASES OR BAGS
CALL AT
O. M. DUNHAM'S, 129 Park Ave
TRUNK STRAPS—ALL SIZES.

Our Refrigerators are filled with Fancy Philadelphia Broilers, Roasting and Fricaseeing Chickens, Jumbo Squab. Hunterdon County Spring Lamb, Tender, Juicy Roasts and Steaks from Native Beeves.

Milk Fed Veal
Jersey Pork
Delicious Sugar-Cured Hams & Bacon Home made Sausage. All Yours to Command at
The ENDRESS CO.
131-135 West Front Street.
'Phone 690.
Satisfaction assured as there is nothing finer produced. Orders called for and promptly delivered.

EYE-STRAIN

is directly responsible for the major ity of cases of blindness today. If instead of trying to overwork the eyes, one would at once get glasses at the first warning of eye-strain there would be fewer cases of blindness at the present time.

Come to us and have your eyes examined free of charge and we will advise you what to do to save them.

Headache and neuralgia quickly relieved.

STILES & CO.,
Philadelphia Eye Specialist.
At 105 East Front Street,
Every Thursday.
Hours. 11:15 to 4:30.

Vail
JEWELER AND OPTICIAN
103 Park Ave.,
calls your attention to his
Rimless Glasses.
They Look Good and You See Good.

FURNITURE.
Repaired and upholstered. Equal to new. Send a postal to
HARRISON, 140 CENTRAL AVE.,
Cabinet maker, Polisher, Mattress Maker.

STATIONERY AND TOYS.
HARPER,
411 PARK AVENUE

EDUCATIONAL.

JOSEPH Mc INTYRE,
Pianist, Coach, Accompanist
TEACHER OF PIANO and SINGING
New York Studio, 30 E. 23rd Street, Wednesdays and Saturdays.
Plainfield, Residence and Studio, 1308 Watchung Avenue
Telephone 386-J 1 9 6mos

ATTEND DRAKE BUSINESS COLLEGE
PLAINFIELD
For thorough training in English, Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Penmanship, Commercial Law and correlative branches. The school that does not PROMISE to ASSIST graduates to positions, but that guarantees absolutely to PLACE them, and does it. 11 25 tf

Plainfield Business College
WOODHULL & MARTIN BUILDING.
SCHOOL OF ENGLISH.
A school well equipped for doing high grade work.
Investigate this school—it pays. 1¼ hours devoted to English every day. Day and Evening sessions all the year.
Capacity 400 students.
A. S. HERR, Prin. and Prop.

CHAS. M. SUHR,
TEACHER OF PIANO.
614 E. 6th Street, Tel. 741-W

REAL ESTATE

RENTALS—REAL ESTATE
Geo. F. Brown,
INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE.
Commissioner of Deeds—Rents.
94 Somerset St. 'Phone 169.

DRUGGISTS.

MOTH BALLS
Will save you your money over what might happen to your clothes.
They will insure your clothes being preserved thru the summer and will enable you to have them fresh and whole in the fall. Now is the time to buy MOTH BALLS.
C. M. Nagle's Pharmacy,
Front and Grove Sts. 'Phone 516.

Complete Line of
REXALL
Goods at
MILLER'S PHARMACY
Park Ave. & 4th St. Tel. 208.

Hodge's Pharmacy.
Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Tel. 62.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
EAST FRONT STREET
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Rroom.

HOTEL KENSINGTON
(Licensed.)
WM. J. POULSON, Prop.
107-109-111 North Avenue.
Everything New and Up-to-date
An Inspection Solicited.

HOTEL IROQUOIS
Club breakfast from 6:30 to 10:30 a. m. Business Men's Lunch from 11:30 to 2:30 p. m.
ROOMS
First floor, $1 single; $1.50 double.
Second floor, 75c single; $1 double,
Third floor, 50c single; 75c double.
A LA CARTE 6:30 UNTIL 1 A. M.
Special, Sunday, Dinner from 12:30 to 2:30 p. m. 50c

Electricians!
Michaelsen & Hage
No. 148 E. Fifth St. Tel. 1077-J

Strawberries
Every day we are receiving shipments of Fine Fresh Strawberries which are carefully selected as to quality and variety.
We also have a good assortment of California Oranges, Figs, Dates, etc., at reasonable prices.
All orders promptly delivered.
W. W. DUNN,
THE PARK GROCER,
DUER STREET AND LINCOLN PLACE.

STOP AT
Central R. R. News Stands
for PLAINFIELD PRESS, always on sale. Daily and Sunday papers delivered, all magazines, weekly papers, novelties, back numbers a specialty. R. R. guides, automobile road and state maps, Phila. papers. Fine brand of Cigars and tobacco. Open Sundays.
F. M. WAGNER, Manager.

Lumber Bargain!
The largest quantity of lumber in Plainfield can be found in my yard.
Large and Small Timbers.
Cut prices on new lumber for one week more.
A. KANE
YARD, 312 Filmore Ave.
Telephone 522-J.

McCULLOUGH'S STEAM MILL,
21 Steiner place, North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 617-J.
Furniture, Freight, Baggage Express and Rigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

Try a box of
DOBBINS' CIGARS.
Clear Havana Nickle Yara or any kind that you desire. Manufactured at 130 North Avenue, opposite Kensington Hotel, Plainfield, N. J.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Cedar Posts and Bean Poles. Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
69 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS,
P. O. Box 320.

Mountain House,
Mt. Bethel, N. J.
FRENCH RESTAURANT
Resort for Automobiles and Driving Parties
A. E. BINZ, Prop.

SMALLEY BROS.
147 North Ave.
BUTCHERS
Our Specialty, Berkshire Pork
Try Our Berkshire Sausage Made on Premises.
Roasting and Broiling Chickens a Specialty.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83-A.

The Southern Restaurant,
232 West Second Street, corner Madison Avenue, now under new management. Meals served at all hours a la carte and table d'hote. Our own make bread and pastrys, all home cooking. The choice of everything is bought for the tables. Our price is reasonable. The place is now under the management of the well known New York caterer. T. H. Royster, Manager. Tel. 928-J. 1 18 tf

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 Watchung Av. Rear.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

JOHN WINZENREID,
Furniture and Freight Express.
Moving Vans and Storage.
312 Lee Place. 'Phone 840-R.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.
Renovating—Offices, stores and private residences. Service day or night. Furniture, china and glassware packed for shipping.
WM. A. KLINE, 611 W. 3d St.

Geo. H. Stagaard,
SHOEMAKER
108—CHURCH STREET—110
Repair work called for and delivered
'PHONE 1062-W.

TITUS H. LAURY
MASON AND BUILDER.
Office, 323 East Front Street.
Tile Setting, Mantel and Front Work.
Telephone 464-L.

TURKISH BATHS!
TAKE ONE
Ladies Mornings, Gentlemen Afternoons
Take Trolley to Sanitarium, Somerset Street.

Cleaning, Pressing and Dyeing.
Monthly Contracts.
Pressing called for and delivered.
EVENING DRESSES A SPECIALTY.
Ladies' Waists Cleaned, 25 cents upwards
Gents' Suits Cleaned $1.50
We do our own work at
M. A. Brown's, 218 West Second St.

William H. Pope,
ELECTRICIAN.
All kinds of electrical work done at reasonable prices.
116 NORTH AVENUE.

Rouse & Fullagar,
CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS,
117 Plainfield Avenue.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W Front St. Tel. 507-W.

Meat Market.
Choice Meats, Poultry, Fish and Oysters always on hand. Sugar cured Corned Beef. International Hams and Bacon.
F. Neidig, 94 Somerset St. Telephone 781

E. B. Maynard's
Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a specialty.
Tel. No. 754-R.
141 NORTH AVENUE.

JOHN WIRTH
(Successor to Henry Liefke.)
Bakery and Confectionery.
201-203 West Front St. Tel. No. 723.
All orders delivered at short notice.

HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS
Silver trunks safely delivered to safety deposit vaults.
Furniture Moving Van and Baggage Delivery.
OFFICE 205 PARK AVENUE
Tel. 833-W. Residence Tel. 648-L

REAL ESTATE
Bought, Sold and For Rent.
J. SACHAR,
731 WEST THIRD STREET.

COAL DEALERS

Difference In Coal.
All coals may look alike to some people, but compare our "Lehigh" Coal with the Coal you bought somewhere else and you will see a difference.
You will notice that our Coal Burns Brighter, Gives More Heat, and Lasts Longer than any other Coal you ever bought before.
Boice, Runyon & Co.,
Coal, Lumber and Masons' Materials.
Park Ave., opp. North Ave.,
Plainfield N. J.

JOS. HARRIGAN
OLD COMPANY'S LEHIGH COAL.
Tel. 198 929 South Ave.

The best time to order your winter supply of
COAL
is now. Do not forget that
NASH
is ready to supply you.
Telephones 357-W 833-J.
Evenings 371-W.
OFFICE—130 WATCHUNG AVENUE

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers' Inn.
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 218 West Front Street. Telephone 23-L.

Coal I have on hand some very fine Hard and Medium Coal. All kept undersheds. Pea Coal. Coal
25 cents a ton reduction on cash orders.
L. A. RHEAUME,
148 East Fourth St. Telephone 440-W.
Yard, 674 South Second St. Telephone 220.

GEORGE O. STEVENS
747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. H. Rugg & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 430 West Third St. Tel. 93

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

We call your attention to our fine display of
New Wall Papers.
We can't describe the patterns, but they are new, striking and effective, and with our large assortment we are sure to please.
Paints, Oils and Varnishes.
Woolston & Buckle,
145 North Avenue.

STRIKING COLORS
should not be sought in preference to those that have good lasting qualities, but when
PAINTS
are to be had which are both brilliant and durable, take care to secure that kind.
We have all kinds and grades of Paints, Oils, Colors and Varnishes, suitable for all kinds of work at the lowest prices to be found in this city.
Jas. C. Hansen,
Dealer in Wall Papers, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc
141 East Front Street
Estimates Furnished

1908 Wall Papers.
IMPORTED & AMERICAN GOODS.
C. CONOVER & CO.
Decorators, Painters and Paperhangers, Window and Plate Glass.
115 Elmwood Pl. Tel. 1145

W. S. CHEEVER
1326 Park Ave.
Painting and INTERIOR DECORATING, WALL PAPER of every description at the Lowest Prices.
'Phone No. 538-J.

Burns' Tonsorial Parlors.
W. C. BURNS, Prop.
If your car is late,
I will shave you while you wait.
LOCATION—212 WATCHUNG AVE.
Where the trolleys meet.
Shoes polished free with every shave.

AZIENZA
cures pimples and all inflammation of the skin. Used by people of refinement. Medicinal and toilet—25 and 50 cents.
CREAM.

MR. PRATT

A Tale of the Cape Cod Fisher Folk

By

Joseph C. Lincoln

Author of "Cap'n Eri," "Partners of the Tide," Etc.

Illustrations by T. D. Melvill

Copyright, 1907, A. S. Barnes & Company.

I told him as well as I could. The dog was having a conniption fit, trying to bark itself inside out, and I had to say things over three or four times so's a body could hear. But the feller at the window wa'n't satisfied even then. I never see such a woodenhead.

"What Pratt did you say you was?" he hollers.

I told him my name and where I hailed from.

"Sol Pratt?" he says. "Of Wellmouth? What are you doing way over here?"

"Blast it all!" I yells. "If I wa'n't half drowned already I should say I was getting wet. Turn out and let a feller into the kitchen or somewheres, won't you? And tie up this everlasting dog."

That seemed to wake him up some and in ten minutes or so he comes poking out with a lantern. I knew him then. 'Twas Ebenezer Holbrook, Huldy Ann Scudder's sister's husband, who lives over in the woods on the line between South Eastwich and West Ostable. There was another man with him and blest if it didn't turn out to be Nate Scudder himself. Him and Huldy was visiting over there, same as he said they was going to.

Nate had more than a million questions to ask. Ebenezer tied up the dog—the critter pretty nigh broke down and sobbed when he found I wa'n't to be fed to him—and we went into the kitchen. Then Mrs. Holbrook and Huldy Ann, rigged up tasty and becoming in curl papers and bed quilts, floated downstairs and there was more questions.

When Nate found out that one of his lodgers was cast adrift in the bay he was almost as worried and upset as I was. But Ebenezer agreed with us that there was a good chance of the sloop's getting ashore safe. He said why didn't I turn in on his settingroom lounge for the few hours between then and sun-up, and in the morning me and Nate could take his yawl dory and cruise alongshore and hunt. So I done it, though 'twas precious little sleep I got.

About six o'clock we started. I thought first I'd go up to Eastwich village and telegraph to Hartley. Then I thought I'd better not; no use to scare him till I had to. Nate had heard about the pig chase and Hartley's doings over there and he pestered the life out of me with questions about that.

"Queer that boy should turn out to be his brother, wa'n't it?" he says.

"Whose brother?" says I, leaning out over the yawl's side and watching for signs of the Dora Bassett.

"Why, Hartley's," he says.

"Brother!" says I. "'Twan't his brother. No relation to him."

"I heard different," he says. "I heard 'twas his brother, name of Oscar Dennis. And that woman from the school was his brother's wife. Some says she ain't living with her husband and some say Hartley's right name is Dennis and that she's his wife and he was down here hiding from her. Seems when that boy first dove into the crowd 'twas because he'd seen Hartley. They say that when that woman and this Hartley met, she sings out: 'My God! my husband!' That's what some says she said, and others says—"

"She never said no such thing," I says. "She wouldn't swear if he was her husband four times over; she ain't that kind. And she ain't his wife nor his sister nor his sister-in-law nor his grandmother's cat's aunt neither. She's no relation to him and neither's the boy. Who's been giving you all this rigmarole?"

It seems he'd heard it from a feller that lived next door to Ebenezer; and the feller had heard it from somebody else that had got it from somebody else and so on and so on. Nigh's I could find out it had started from Hartley's telling me that the boy was a "brother outcast." Some idiot with poor ears and worse brains had thought he said "brother Oscar," and the whole string of yarns had sprouted from that. Shows you what good soil there is for planting lies down our way. If lies was fetching ten cents a barrel the whole neighborhood would have been rich years ago.

All the time me and Nate was powwowing this way the yawl was sailing up the bay towing my skiff behind her. There was a nice fair wind and a smooth sea and 'twas so clear after the rain that we could see the hills across the bay. But no sign could we see of the Dora Bassett nor her passengers. I was getting more worried every minute.

We cruised along till we got abreast of the point from where the Old Home pier was in sight. But the sloop wa'n't at the pier. No use going any farther, so we come about and begun to beat back again the way we'd come. Scudder was worried too, but his worriment had caught him in the pocketbook; proves how disease will always get hold of a feller's tenderest place.

"Look here, Sol," says he; "do you cal'late Hartley 'll want to stay to my house if his chum's drowned?"

"I don't know," I says, impatient. "No, I guess not."

"Well now, he agreed to take it for a month and there's five days to run yet. Ain't he liable for them days?" he says.

I was feeling just mean enough to want somebody else to feel that way, so I answers:

"Well, you can't hold a lunatic, 'cording to law. And you and Huldy Ann have agreed that he's crazy."

He thumped the boat's rail. "Crazy or not," says he, "I can't afford to lose them days. I shan't give him back none of his money." Then he thought a minute and begun to see a speck of comfort. "Maybe the shock of t'other feller's drowning 'll make him sick," he says. "Then he'll have to stay longer than the month."

Trust Nate Scudder to see a silver lining to any cloud—and then rip out the lining and put it in his pocket.

By this time he was beating in towards where the Neck Road comes down to the beach. And there on the shore was a feller hailing us. And when we got close in it turned out to be Hartley himself.

He was glad enough to see me, but when he found that Van and Lord James had turned up missing he was in a state. He'd been kind of scared when we didn't come back during the night and had walked down to the beach in the morning to see if he could sight us.

We headed off shore again. Nate watched Hartley pretty close and I suppose when he seen that the Twin didn't show any symptoms of getting sick, he begun to worry again. He got out a piece of pencil and an old envelope and commenced to figure.

"Mr. Hartley," says he, after awhile; "about them lady friends of yours over to Eastwich. Do you cal'late they're going to like where they are? Seems to me a place that's as easy to run away from as that ain't the best place for a boys' school. If they was on an island now, the scholars couldn't run off. I know a nice island they could have cheap. Fact is, I own it—that is, Huldy owns it; it's in her name. That's it over there."

Hartley didn't answer. I looked where Nate was pointing.

"Oh!" says I. "Horsefoot Bar. That's a healthy place for a school. Might do for a reform school maybe, if you wa'n't particular how the reforming was done."

Horsefoot Bar is a little island about five miles from the Old Home House, a mile and a half from the mainland, and two foot from the jumping-off place. By the help of Providence, decent weather, a horse, two whips, and a boat, you can make it from Wellmouth depot in three hours. And when you have made it, you can set in the sand and hang on to your hat and listen to the lonesomeness. I'd forgot that Scudder owned it. When him and I sailed up that morning we'd passed it on the outside; now we was between it and the beach.

"It's a nice dry place," says Nate, arguing, "and you might live there forever and nobody could run away."

"Humph!" says I, thinking of something I'd seen in a newspaper; "Hell's got all them recommendations."

Hartley was looking at the Bar now. All to once he grabbed me by the arm and pointed.

"Sol," he says, "what's that sticking up over the point there? There, behind those trees? Isn't it a boat's mast?"

I looked, and looked once more. From where we was you could see a part of Horsefoot Bar that was out of sight from the rest of the bay. As I say, I looked. Then I gave the tiller a shove that brought the boom across with a slat. It took Nate's hat with it and cracked him on the bald spot like thumping a ripe watermelon. Nate grabbed for the hat and I drove the yawl for Horsefoot Bar. I'd spied the Dora Bassett's mast over the sandspit.

In a jiffy we see her plain. She was lying on her side in a little cove, just as the tide had left her. Her canvas was down in a heap, partly on deck and partly overboard, but she didn't seem to be hurt none. I beached the yawl just alongside of her, dropped the sail, chucked over the anchor and jumped over myself. Hartley and Scudder followed. We was yelling like loons.

Up through the bunch of scrub pines we tore, still hollering. And then, from away off ahead somewheres, come the answer. I was so tickled I could have stood on my head.

In a minute here comes Lord James to meet us. His lordship looked yellow and faded, like a wilted sunflower, and his whiskers seemed to be running to seed. But his dignity was on deck all right.

"Mr. 'Artley," says he, touching what was left of his hat; "'ope you're well, sir."

"Where's Van?" asked Hartley, brisk.

"Mr. Van Brunt, sir? Up at the 'ouse, waiting for you, sir."

"The house?" says Hartley.

"The house?" says I. Then I remembered.

There is a house on Horsefoot Bar. It was built by old man Marcellus Berry, and in Marcellus' day they built houses, didn't stick 'em together with wall paper and a mortgage, like they do now. Consequence is that, though the winter weather on Horsefoot made Marcellus lay down a considerable spell ago, his house still stands, as pert and sassy an old gable-ended jail as ever was. The house was there, and Scudder owned it. Likewise he owned the sheds and barn in the back, and the sickly bunch of scrub pines, and the beach plum bushes, and the beach grass and the poverty grass and the world-without-end of sand that all these things was stuck up in. As for the live stock, that was seven thousand hop-toads, twenty million sand fleas, and green-heads and mosquitoes for ever and ever, amen.

We fell into the valet's wake and waded through the sand hummocks up to the house. And there on the piazza, sitting in a busted cane-seat chair with his feet cocked up on the railing and the regulation cigar in his mouth, was Van Brunt, kind of damp and wrinkled so far as clothes went, but otherwise as serene and chipper a Robinson Crusoe as the average man is likely to strike in one life time.

Wa'n't we glad to see him! And he was just as glad to see us.

"Hello, skipper," says he, reaching out his hand. "So you got ashore all right. Good enough. I was a bit fearful for you after you left us last night."

After I left him! I liked that. And he was fearful for me.

"Humph!" says I, "I had a notion that 'twas you that did the leaving. Talk about dropping an acquaintance! I never was dropped like that afore! Look here, Mr. Van Brunt, afore you and me go to sea together again we'll have a little lesson in running rigging. I want to learn you what a mainsheet is."

"Oh," he says, careless like, "I guess I found it, after a while. At any rate if it's a rope I cut it. I cut all the ropes in sight."

"You did?" says I, with my mouth open.

"Yes. That's an acrobatic boat of yours; it seemed to want to turn somersets. I judged that that sail made it top-heavy so I told James to take the sail down. He didn't know how but we decided that the ropes must have something to do with it. So I cut 'em, one after the other, and the sail came down."

"Sudden?" says I.

"Well, fairly so. Some of it was in the water and the rest of it on James. I resurrected him finally and we pulled most of it into the boat. It went better then."

"Did, hey?" says I. I was learning seamanship fast.

"Yes," says he. "If I were you I wouldn't have any sail on that boat. She does much better without one. Then it began to rain and I got some of the dry sail over me. I believe I went to sleep then—or soon after."

Nate Scudder's eyes was big as preserve dishes. I guess mine was bigger still.

"Good Lord!" says I. "Did his—did James go to sleep too?"

"No," says Van. "I think not. I believe James was holding some sort of religious service. How about it, James?"

His lordship looked sheepish. "Well, sir," he says. "I don't know, sir. I may 'ave been a bit nervous; I'm not used to a boat, sir."

"I shouldn't mind your praying, James," Van says, sober as a deacon; "if you didn't yell so. However, we got here on this island about five o'clock, I believe. Rather, the boat came here herself; we didn't have anything to do with it."

I never in my life! They say the Almighty looks out for the lame and the lazy. Van Brunt wa'n't lame, but—

"Well," says I. "I'll believe in special Providences after this."

Van jumped out of the chair.

"By George!" he sings out. "Talking of special providences; Martin, come here."

He grabbed t'other Twin by the arm and led him down off the piazza and up to the top of a little hill near the house. The rest of us followed without being invited. I know you couldn't have kept me back with a chain cable. I haven't visited many asylums and I wanted to see the patients perform.

"Look here, Martin," says Van, when we got to the top of the hill. "Look around you."

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Corporation Notice.

Corporation Notice of application of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield, to the Court of Common Pleas, of Union County, for the appointment of Commissioners to assess benefits for street improvements.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Act of the Legislature entitled, "An Act to Authorize Improvement of Streets and Highways in Cities of this State and to provide for the Payment of the Expenses of the same," approved June 13, 1898, and amendments and supplements thereto, that application will be made by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield to the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Union, at the Court House, in the City of Elizabeth, on the twentieth day of May, A. D. 1908, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as the said court can hear the said application, for the appointment of three commissioners, who shall be freeholders and residents of the City of Plainfield, as Commissioners to estimate and assess benefits respectively conferred upon the several lots and parcels of land and real estate peculiarly benefitted by the permanent improvement of streets under the ordinances of said city whose titles are hereinafter specified, and to perform the duties and execute the powers conferred by said Acts of the Legislature. The titles of the ordinances above referred to are as follows:

"An Ordinance for the permanent improvement of certain streets and portions of streets of the City of Plainfield, with permanent and durable macadam pavement, and to provide the necessary funds in advance of the collection of assessments for benefits," approved Dec. 15, 1905;

"An Ordinance for the permanent improvement of certain streets and portions of streets of the City of Plainfield, with permanent and durable macadam pavement, and to provide the necessary funds in advance of the collection of assessments for benefits," approved July 5, 1906;

"A Supplement to an ordinance entitled 'An Ordinance for the permanent improvement of certain streets and portions of streets of the City of Plainfield, with permanent and durable macadam pavement, and to provide the necessary funds in advance of the collection of assessments for benefits,' approved July 5, 1906," approved April 1, 1907; and

"An Ordinance for the permanent improvement of certain streets and portions of streets of the City of Plainfield, with permanent and durable macadam pavement, and to provide the necessary funds in advance of the collection of assessments for benefits," approved May 16, 1907; and the streets and parts of streets macadamized under said ordinances are as follows:

Park Terrace, from the easterly curb line of Belvidere Avenue to the westerly curb line of Berkeley Avenue;

Berkeley Avenue, from the southerly curb line of Park Terrace to the southwesterly curb line of Leland Avenue;

Webster Place, from the southerly curb line of Putnam Avenue to a point 183 feet north of the northerly side line of Watchung Avenue;

Berckman Street, from the southeasterly crosswalk of South Avenue to the northwesterly crosswalk of East Seventh Street;

Richmond Street, from the southerly crosswalk of Putnam Avenue to the northerly crosswalk of Watchung Avenue;

Kensington Avenue, from the southerly crosswalk of Watchung Avenue to the macadamizing already constructed on Prospect Avenue;

Division Street, from the southeasterly curb line of West Fifth Street to the northwesterly curb line of West Sixth street;

John Street, from the southeasterly curb line of West Fourth Street to the northwesterly curb line of West Seventh Street;

West Second Street, from the southwesterly curb line of Liberty Street to the northeasterly curb line of Plainfield Avenue;

Randolph Road, from the centre line of Arlington Avenue to the bridge over Cedar Brook;

Arlington Place, from the southwesterly curb line of Park Avenue to the northeasterly curb line of Arlington Avenue;

Cottage Place, from the northeasterly curb line of Washington Street to the southwesterly curb line of Richmond Street;

Park Lane, from the easterly curb line of Woodland Avenue to the westerly curb line of Belvidere Avenue;

Elmwood Place, from the southeasterly curb line of West Front Street to the northwesterly curb line of West Second Street;

College Place, from the southeasterly curb line of West Eighth Street to the northwesterly crosswalk at West Ninth Street;

Denmark Road, from the present macadam on Berkeley Avenue, southeastly 381 feet;

Sycamore Street, from the southeasterly curb line of East Fourth Street to the northwesterly curb line of East Fifth Street;

Hillside Avenue, from the present macadam at Evergreen Avenue to a point 540 feet south thereof;

West End Avenue, from the northwesterly crosswalk at West Front Street to the bridge over Green Brook.

By order of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield.

JAMES T. MacMURRAY,
City Clerk of the City of Plainfield.
Dated, May 4, 1908. 5 5 12 18

WE PICK THEM FROM THE TOP!

The young, tender, delicious leaves. That's why you find our tea so much better. Van Dyk tea and coffee are sold at Van Dyk stores only.

VAN DYK'S

127 WEST FRONT ST.,
Bet. Park and Madison Aves.
50 BRANCHES IN 20 CITIES.

In Chancery of New Jersey.

To HOWARD E. BENNETT:

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey, made on the Twenty-second day of April, A. D. 1908, in a certain cause wherein, Rachel J. Bennett is petitioner, and you Howard E. Bennett are defendant, you are required to appear and plead, answer or demur to petitioner's petition on or before the Twenty-third day of June next, or, in default thereof, such decree will be taken against you as the Chancellor shall think equitable and just.

The object of said suit is to obtain a decree of divorce, dissolving the marriage between you and the said petitioner.

Dated, April 22, 1908.

J. HENRY CRANE,
Solicitor for Petitioner,
134 Park Ave.,
Plainfield, N. J.

4 28 5 tu

WASHINGTON ROCK SPRING WATER

Bottlers of high-class soft drinks, Ginger Ale, Soda Water and Pure Spring Water, and Siphon Goods. Private families' and parties' patronage is solicited.

Henry Pedeflous,
TELEPHONE 670-R
Hotel Pedeflous, Plainfield

New Jersey Central

In Effect January 26, 1908.

For New York—2.17, 3.37, 5.36, 6.02, 6.29, 6.57, 7.25, 7.28, 7.46, 7.47, 7.55, 8.00, 8.11, 8.30, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.59, 10.28, 10.55 a. m., 12.00, 12.19, 12.42, 1.09, 1.27, 2.31, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.45, 5.53, 6.29, 6.48, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.27, 9.31, 10.17, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.17, 3.37, 4.47, 7.28, 7.56, 8.52, 9.34, 9.45, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.29, 6.57, 7.05, 7.28, 7.28, 7.47, 8.11, 8.36, 8.44, 9.29, 9.59, 10.55 a. m., 12.42, 1.09, 1.27, 2.31, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.45, 5.53, 6.29, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.31 p. m. Sunday—7.28, 8.52, 9.34, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 2.00, 5.23, 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 2.08, 5.47, 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 5.47 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.37, 8.11, 10.55 a. m., 12.42 (Saturdays only), 3.42, 4.45, 5.53, 8.27, 11.28 p. m. Sundays—3.37, 8.52 a. m., 3.30, 8.18 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.37, 9.29 a. m., (12.42 Saturdays only), 1.27, 2.44 (3.42 Lakewood only), (5.53 Lakewood only, Saturdays only) p. m. Sundays—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.45 a. m., 1.45 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.13, 7.29, 8.45, 9.12, 10.43 a. m., 12.13, 12.42, 1.29, 2.14, 2.45, 6.13, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 1.17 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.53, 10.39, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.55, 6.39, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 11.26, 1.17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m. Sundays—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

*Change cars at Bound Brook.

W. G. BESLER, Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, Gen. Pass. Agt.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.
Office opens 7 a. m., closes 7 p. m.
On Saturdays close half hour later.

NEW YORK MAIL.

Arrive—7:00, 8:40, 11:30 a. m., 2:30, 5:05 5:30, 9 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:20, 6:00 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 1:30, 3:15 and 7 p. m
Close—7:30 a. m., 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40 and 11:30 a. m., 2:35 7:00 p. m.
Close—7:15, 7:30, 9:30 a. m., 12:35, 2:20 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST

Close—1:00 and 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST AND SOUTH.

Close—12:35, 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton

Close—12:35 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:30 a. m., 2:20, 6:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:15, 7:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:20 and 6:00

WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE

Arrive—12:30 p. m.
Close—9:00 a. m.

WATCHUNG.

Close—5:30 p. m.
Arrive—6:45 p. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M.

Advertisements
—FOR—
New York Herald,
World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American, Brooklyn Eagle
—and—
Newark Evening News
Received at
The Daily Press
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

Complete line of
AUTOMOBILE Supplies and Tires
AT LOWEST NEW YORK PRICES.
Thompson Auto Co.
413 Park Ave. Tel. 991-J

Mrs. John Brown,
Successor to
John Burke and Jones & Co.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned from $3.00 Upwards.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Don't give your order until you consult me
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at
J. T. Vail's, North avenue, Plainfield, N. J.
Postoffice Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

We have made arrangements for a larger supply of first-class milk and and are givng the family trade our special attention... If you are not satisfied with the milk or the services you are getting give us a trial.

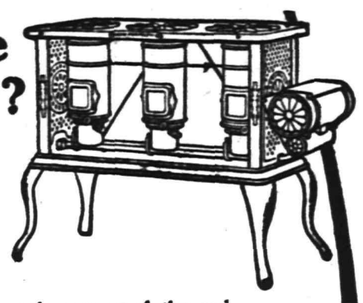
Price 9 cents a quart, 5 cents a pint. Cream 14 cents a ½ pint. . . .

Lindsay's Dairy,
965 West Front St.
TEL. 792-J.

J. NEUSTADT
MERCHANT TAILOR,
Ladies' Tailoring a Specialty. Cleaning, Pressing, Altering at lowest prices. Work called for and delivered. Formerly with R. A. Rieley, Fifth Avenue, New York.
Spring and Summer Styles now ready.
430 WATCHUNG AVENUE
Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 668-W.

Try a Press Want Ad

What Stove for Summer?



Nothing adds to kitchen convenience in summer weather like a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove. Anything that any stove can do the "New Perfection" will do, and do it better. Bakes, roasts, boils, toasts; heats the wash water and the sad irons, and does it without dissipating its heat through the room to your discomfort. The actually keeps the kitchen cool—actually makes it comfortable for you while doing the family cooking, because, unlike the coal range, its heat is directed to one point only—right under the kettle. Made in three sizes, fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

NEW PERFECTION
Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove

The Rayo LAMP affords a mellow light that is very grateful to tired eyes—a perfect student or family lamp. Brass, nickel plated, hence more durable than other lamps.

If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(Incorporated)

LAWN TOOLS

It isn't too late to buy if you have discovered that you need a new Mower this year. You must have heard of our easy running, close cutting, durably constructed Lawn Mowers. They have world-wide reputation.

We also have all other kinds of tools for lawn and garden development.

HOSE, REELS, SPRINKLERS, RAKES, GRASS SHEARS, HOOK, WEEDERS, EDGERS, PRUNERS, ETC.

Gayle Hardware Company

Tel. 398. Front St. and Park Ave.

DELIGHTS BEYOND PARALLEL

are the rewards of motor enthusiasts who participate in or witness the annual automobile contests on Ormond's coquina sands. The ideal trip is by the

CLYDE LINE STEAMERS

the only direct all-water route from

New York to Jacksonville, Florida

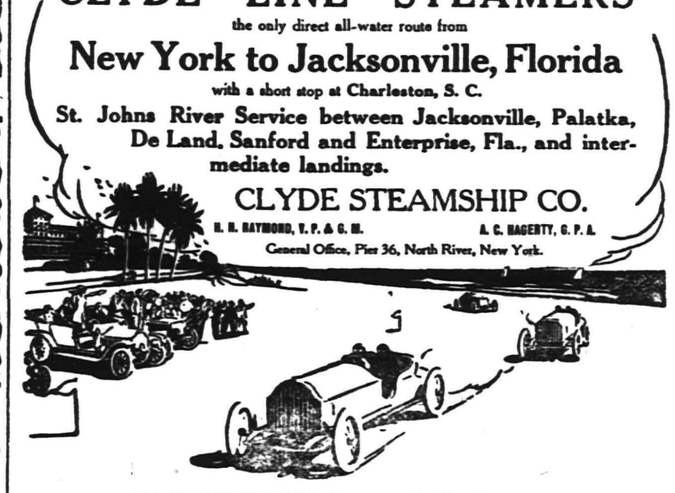
with a short stop at Charleston, S. C.

St. Johns River Service between Jacksonville, Palatka, De Land, Sanford and Enterprise, Fla., and intermediate landings.

CLYDE STEAMSHIP CO.

H. B. RAYMOND, V. P. & G. M. A. C. HAGERTY, G. P. A.

General Office, Pier 36, North River, New York.



W. D. THICKSTUN, Agent, 197 North Avenue.

BUY YOUR FURNITURE AT

Powlison & Jones.

149 & 151 East Front St.

BROKAW'S CREAMERY

No need to complain of getting poor butter or cream—go to Brokaw's and get his own make, which is always fresh and good. Our specialties are Fresh-made Butter, both salted and unsalted, Rich Milk and Cream, positively Fresh Eggs and everything in the dairy line. The only place in the city where these goods are made on the spot. Call and see our plant and witness the process.

TEL. 293-W 186 E. FRONT STREET

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

BOYNTON
Square Pot
FURNACES

Greatest heat from least coal; minimum care-taking—all direct benefits of the wonderful Square Pot (patented). Ask dealer.
Boynton Furnace Co., New York—Chicago.

Blue Stone Sidewalks.

If you want the best Blue Stone sidewalks, curbs, etc., call on

J. W. Manhattan,
50 Elm St.

NOTICE TO MEN.
Don't Throw Away Your Old Clothes.
Highest Prices Paid for Same.
I. RICHARD, - - 17 Somerset St.

The Paterson Evening News Says:

"The Prudential reports a great increase in business. It deserves it. It sells insurance at a profit and the insurer gets his protection at a fixed price. The Prudential pays its dividends in the shape of reduced premiums. The man who insures on this common-sense plan keeps the dividends in his pocket. He knows just how much a thousand dollars insurance costs him. There is no guesswork and no disappointments. The Prudential way is the common-sense business way to insure."

Burglary insurance may replace money value but it cannot insure the associations that often surround a gift.

Store your valuables in our Safe Deposit Vaults where they will be safe from thieves and other hazard.

Our booklet, Safety for Valuables, may be obtained for the asking.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Travelers' Cheques.

ALL THE NEW LASTS AND DESIGNS IN

Women's Oxfords, Sailor Ties, Pumps and Garden Ties

in Patent Leather, Gun Metal, Demi-Glace and Tan Russia Leathers. All sizes and widths.

A Call will Convince You.

M. C. Van Arsdale, 127 E. Front St.

Baseball and General Sports

BASEBALL.

Following is the standing of the various baseball clubs in the city and vicinity to date:

	Won	Lost.
Clinton Ave	2	0
Y. M. C. A	2	0
Harrison A. C	2	0
Holy Cross	3	1
Scotch Plains	1	0
Monroe Ave	1	0
Lincoln A. C	1	1
Lincoln A. C	1	1
Highlanders	2	2
Jr. O. U. A. M	2	2
Hope Chapel	0	1
Social A. C	1	2
Mono A. C	1	2
New Market F. C	1	2
Dunellen F. C	2	3
Plainfield A. C	2	4
West Ends	0	0

MADISONS GET SECOND.

Defeat the Putnams in Roll-off Game of Bowling Tourney at Campbell's Alleys.

The Madison and Putnam teams, of the tourney recently completed at Johnny Campbell's alleys, rolled an extra game last night in order to decide third and fourth positions in the contest. The Madisons won out, the scores standing 805 to 729. The tallies individually were as follows: Madisons—Squier 174, Elsbush 176, Mullen 159, Skelly 156. Putnams—Geary 161, Runyon 125, McLaughlin 130, Gaddis 135, Nash 178.

Following the game, Manager Campbell awarded the prize money to the various teams, amounting in all to $90. No further tourneys will be held on the alleys until next season.

P. H. S. ATHLETES MAKE GOOD SHOWING ON TRACK.

Track material of the Plainfield High School Athletic Association made a good showing at the Plainfield Driving Park yesterday afternoon, when trials were held to determine the track teams which is to represent the local school in the season's meets. There were but few contestants and the track was in poor shape for fast time.

In the junior events Nelson Ramsey, 1911, took first place in the 100-yard dash and 220-yard dash. His time for the hundred was 11 3-5 seconds, and he ran the two-twenty in 27 seconds. Stanley Parsons won the 440-yard dash, running the distance in 65 seconds. He also won the half mile, the time being 2.33. In his race he just succeeded in passing A. D. Beekin, Jr., at the tape.

These four events were the only races of the afternoon. Allen Snyder and Chauncey Murphy, who were at Crescent Oval for baseball practise, could not compete, but both will enter the 220 and 440 yard dashes. The first meet in which the High School athletes will compete will be at New Brunswick Saturday afternoon, May 23, when the annual interscholastic track meet under the auspices of Rutgers College will be held. The P. H. S. baseball team will play Rutgers Prep School at New Brunswick the same day.

Permanent Receiver.

Trenton, May 12.—Vice-Chancellor Walker on petition of creditors made Benjamin J. Parker permanent receiver yesterday for the New Jersey and West Virginia Bridge Company, to succeed Frank Wyant and Edward V. Patterson, the temporary receivers named last week.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

BARGAINS IN LOTS AT HIGHLAND PARK

Get your lot now before prices advance. Many houses to be built this year. Sewer, water, electric lights, shade trees and concrete sidewalks on all streets. You can buy lots from $200. to $400., on cash or easy payments.

ELSTON M. FRENCH,

171 North Avenue. Telephone 24. Plainfield, N. J.

NEW YORK OFFICE—141 Broadway. Tel. 5424 Cortlandt

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The twenty-eighth concert by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra will be given tonight in the association hall. Miss Leila H. Druse will be the soprano soloist.

Resolutions were introduced at a session of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church at Baltimore which, if passed, will have great effect on the political situation of the United States in the next Presidential campaign. These resolutions set forth that no man not a total abstainer should receive the support of the Christian voters of America.

C. E. Notes.

The May meeting of the Congress of the Plainfield Christian Endeavor Union to be held on Thursday evening, at the Park avenue Baptist church will be an important one. The special topic for discussion will be the method of conducting a state Christian Endeavor convention. The societies will decide whether or not they desire to invite the Christian Endeavorers of the State to assemble in Plainfield in 1909. In addition to the regular members of the Congress, all of the members of the various societies of the Union have been invited to participate in the discussion which will be led by John T. Sproull of Arlington, President of the New Jersey Christian Endeavor Union.

Peacemaker Dying.

Union Hill, May 12.—While acting as peacemaker between two brothers, who were fighting near their homes early yesterday morning, Italio Galicorio was shot in the breast, and is dying in the North Hudson Hospital. The man who did the shooting, Carmello Grappalo, is held without bail, and the other brother was fined $20 by Recorder Hauenstein for fighting.

Boy Killed by Anvil.

Union Hill, May 12.—While playing about his yard with several other small boys, Lorento Georgini, the 11-year-old son of Michael Georgini, of 50 John street, was almost instantly killed when a big blacksmith's anvil, which was on top of a pile of wood, fell on him, crushing in his head and chest. He was dead when a doctor reached him.

"Just for Fun."

"Just for Fun," society comedy in three acts, will be given at Hope chapel Friday night, May 29, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society of the chapel.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

PUPILS RECITAL TONIGHT AT THE K. OF C. HALL

The pupils of Miss Alice M. Quinn and Miss M. Katharine Quinn, will give a piano and violin recital in Knights of Columbus Hall, Friday night, May 22, at 8 o'clock. There will also be vocal numbers. The program follows:

Part first, duet, "Andante and Rondo," Bohm, Miss Grace Norman; "Curly Locks," Englemann, Miss Mamie Lappin; "Spinning Song," Elmenreich; "The Fair," Gurlitt, Miss Lorena Harris; "The Merry-Go-Round," Goerderler; "Bell Rondo," Streabbog, Miss Madeline Blimm; "La Bonne Etolie," Von Gael, Joseph Murrey; "Happy Farmer," "Hunting Song," Schumann; "Merry Stories," Fink, Miss Mary Weirenga; "The Guitar," Cooper, Miss May Harlow; "Scherzo," Damm, Miss Charlotte McIntyre; "Heather Rose," Lange, Lloyd Harris; "Flower Fairies," Terris, Miss Ella Schenck; "The Automatons," Lerman; "Dixie," Grobe, Joseph Harlow; vocal solo, "The First Voyage," Draper, Miss Elizabeth Geary; "Evening," "Festive March," Low, Miss Delia Morley; "Gypsy Dance," Johns, Miss Ella Lappin;; "Dance on the Green," Bohm, Miss Katharine Kane; "My Old Kentucky Home," Goerderler, Elidsha McKeon; violin solo, "Arioso," Bohm, Miss Mary Murrey; "Rondo Capriccioso," Mendelssohn, Miss Grace Norman; "Valse Ab," Chopin, Miss Elizabeth Mara; "Slumber Sweetly," Beaumont, Walter Knowlton.

Part second—violin quartet, "La Cinquantaine," Gabriel-Marie, Miss Mary Murrey, Miss Helen Deady, Walter Knowlton and Miss Elizabeth Mara, piano; "Dream of the Shepherdess," Goerderler, Miss Mary Ettinger; "Drawing Room Waltz," Krukow, Miss Flora May; "Pleasures of the Dance," Scharwenka, "Fluttering Leaves," Kohling, Miss Amelia Forristel; "Dance Caprice," Grieg, Miss Marion Geary; vocal solo, "'Lovely Spring," Coenan, Miss Grace Norman; "The Mountain Rill," Holst; "Gypsy Mazurka," Bohm, Miss Nellie Geary; "Sewuedilla," Bohm, Miss Grace Norman; violin solo, "Italian Melody," Bohm, Walter Knowlton; "Martha," arr. by Sydney Smith, Miss Katharine Flynn; "Rondo Capriccioso, E minor," Mendelssohn, Miss Elizabeth Mara.

GIRL AGAIN STOLEN.

Blackmailers Had Demanded $500 from Her Father.

Elizabeth, May 12.—The police of this city have been asked by the New York police to search for 10-year-old May Rossi, who for the second time, has been kidnapped. Giuseppi Rossi, the child's father, ked today with his wife and his other two daughters, Anna, 8, and Josephine, 5 years, to a new haven, which he will conceal from all but the police hoping to elude thetireless pursuit of the band of blackmailers, who demand $500.

He declares that he has no more money with which to ransom the little captive, and that he must now depend on the law to recover her and to punish her abductors.

FOUR BLAZES STARTED.

Incendiary Attempts to Burn House in Paterson.

Paterson, May 12.—An incendiary fire that did about $300 damage was discovered in a house owned by John Holstein at 203 Godwin street early last night. The fire was started with kerosene and whiskey, and when discovered by a chance caller at the house was burning fiercely in four different places.

Chief Stagg detected the odor of kerosene and whiskey and reported the matter at once to the police. It is expected that arrests will be made in the morning. The amount of insurance on the house could not be learned today, as the agent is out of town.

NEW OPENS HEADQUARTERS.

Officers of Republican National Committee Now in Chicago.

Chicago, May 12.—Harry S. New, chairman of the Republican national committee, yesterday opened convention headquarters at the Auditorium Annex. The Coliseum Annex was not ready for the executive offices of the convention, and temporary quarters were established in suit 1614, Auditorium Annex.

Elmer Dover, secretary of the committee, came on from Washington to assist Chairman New. William F. Stone, sergeant-at-arms of the committee, is also here.

Justice Bergen Stops Delay.

New Brunswick, May 12.—Justice Bergen yesterday refused to permit Prosecutor Berdine to question jurors called in a murder trial as to whether they han conscientious scruples against capital punishment, and thus upset an old Middlesex County court practise. Justices Fort and Swayze, sitting here, permitted such questions. This lessened the time of drawing the jjury to half an hour. John Balog, George Vilogas, Alex Majoras and Joseph Chesney, charged with stabbing Mike Lovak to death, are on trial.

Alba VanWinkle, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel VanWinkle, of this city, who is in a New York Hospital under treatment, is improving.

MONTCLAIR INCREASES EXCISE LICENSE FEES

The Montclair Town Council last night, by a vote of 5 to 3, passed a new excise ordinance, which provides for a license fee of $800 for retail licenses; $700 for wholesale license, and $600 for bottling license; that all places where liquor is sold shall be closed from 11 o'clock at night until 7 o'clock the next morning, and on all legal holidays from 1 o'clock in the afternoon until 7 o'clock the next morning. No liquor shall be sold to any boy or girl under 21 years of age, nor is any boy or girl to be allowed to enter or loiter in any place where liquor is sold.

The penalty for this clause is the cancelling of the offender's license. If the proprietor of a hotel or saloon is guilty of being drunk on his own premises he will forfeit his license. For violation of the first sections of the ordinance the penalty is $20, for the first offense; for the second offense $100, and on failure to pay the fine in either of those cases the punishment is thirty days' imprisonment; for the third offense, imprisonment for three months.

PERSONAL.

Miss Lillie McCrea, of Duer street, is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. S. P. Case, of 420 Madison avenue, left today for Boston, where she will visit for a few days.

John H. VanWinkle, Sr., and wife, and John H. VanWinkle, Jr., of Duer street, and his uncle, Daniel VanWinkle, of Park place, go to Washington tomorrow for a week's sightseeing.

Mrs. Hughes Fawcett, of Rockview avenue, will be a cabin passenger on the steamship "Adriatic," which sails for Europe on May 20. Her ticket was procured through the Estil agency.

Mrs. W. A. Woodruff, Mrs. A. L. Force, Mrs. Winfield Schomp and Miss Lillian A. Force, members of the Ladies' Christian Work Society of Trinity Reformed church, are today attending the annual meeting of the Women's Board of Foreign Mission, of the Reformed church in America, being held in New York.

OSTEOPATHS RECOGNIZED.

New York Supreme Court Decides They Are Physicians.

New York, May 12.—Osteopaths must be recognized as physicians, according to a decision handed down in Brooklyn by Justice Dickey, of the Supreme Court, in which he grants the application made in behalf of Dr. Charles F. Bandel, an osteopath, of 148 Hancock street, in that borough, for a premptory writ of mandamus to compel the Board of Health to register him as a physician and accept from him death certificates.

The writ is granted with $50 costs.

His Injuries May be Fatal.

Califon, May 12.—Ira Lutes, about forty-five years old, of Fairmount, was severely, if not fatally, injured Saturday afternoon at Levi Hoffman's farm at Farmersville. He was assisting in butchering a steer, when the animal arose, after being knocked down, and charged upon Mr. Lutes pinning him against the side of the barn. He suffered internal injuries and his hip was hurt.

Young Hollins Pardoned.

Trenton, May 12.—The Court of Pardons yesterday granted a pardon to George C. Hollins, of Elizabeth. Hollins shot a negro named Thorn on March 11, 1907, whom he mistook for a burglar.

Macfadden Appeals.

Trenton, May 12.—Bernarr Macfadden has appealed to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals from his sentence to two years in prison and $1,000 fine.

Aids to Beauty.

The indolent woman regains her lost energy when she learns how to breathe correctly. The sallow girl, with the dark circles under her eyes, discovers that with correct breathing the congested viens will yield to the stimulated circulation, the dark rings disappear, and the luster reappears in her eyes.

Nutmegs have medicinal qualities, which make them most useful in the treatment of various ilnesses. In case of colic and dysentery, for instance, a little nutmeg very finely powdered and mixed with a little milk often has a most beneficial effect. Sleeplessness is often relieved in the same manner, for nutmegs have very soothing qualities.

Tears have their use, apart from the crying aspect, inasmuch as they refresh and wash the eyes. The eye requires to be kept clear and clean, and tears perform this duty. A striking example of this is shown when the eye is hurt. It at once commences to water, and often this natural method of cleansing relieves the pain and removes the cause of the discomfort.

Hip circling can be done with good results in the way of decreasing size if the principle of resistance is employed. Taking a standing position, with hands on hips, rotate the hips, bending the knee and keeping chest and shoulders immovable. Contract all the muscles used in this exercise and desist. For a variant bring the knee up to the chest, remaining as nearly erect as possible. Practice in alternate motion.

FOR WEEK COMMENCING MONDAY, MAY 11, 1908

Best Value All the Time

The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. give you the BEST VALUE for YOUR MONEY ALL THE TIME. Buy your GROCERIES at their store and you will not only be satisfied but you will save money. Their goods are the Best procurable and much cheaper than you can buy them elsewhere.

SPECIAL CUT-PRICE

Snider's Baked Beans, regular price 10c. 15c and 20c. Small can 8c; Medium can, 13c; Large can.	18c
Baker's Cocoa, regular price 22c, ½-lb can	18c
Laundry Starch, regular price 5c, a lb	3½c
A&P Condensed Milk, full weight, full cream, a can	9c

EXTRA S. & H. STAMPS

100 with 1 lb Tea	70c
75 with 1 lb Tea	60c
60 with 1 lb Tea	50c
40 with 1 lb Tea	40c
To Introduce Our Famous Fresh Roasted Coffee, We Will Give 40 with 1 lb Best Fresh Roasted Coffee	35c
This Coffee will do double the work of the same priced Coffee Elsewhere.
35 with 1 lb Coffee	30c
30 with 1 lb Tea	35c
25 with 1 lb Coffee	25c
Ten with 1 lb Coffee	20c
Ten with 2 packages Cream of Wheat, each	14c
Ten with 1 package Minute Tapioca	10c
Ten with One can A&P Plums	15c
Ten with 2 cans String Beans, each	7c
Ten with 2 packages IXL Starch, each	9c
Ten with 2 packages Korn Kinks, each	5c
Tomatoes, Extra Heavy Galls	30c
Tomatoes, Grandmother, N. Y. State, extra tall can	15

THE GREAT ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC TEA CO.

137-139 W. Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

300 Stores in the United States.

Mushroom Sailors $1.25

Bonn's 140 West Front St

Mushroom Sailors $1.25

UNTRIMMED SAILORS, $1

of Jap Braid or fine Split Straws, various sizes, Black, Burnt aud White, value $2 each now only $1

ROSE BUDS AND FOLIAGE, 25c

A pretty Rose with Bud and Foliage, Colors Jack, Pink, White and Tea, only 25c

IS IT NOT WORTH WHILE

To keep your account in an Institution as strong as this one?

CITY NATIONAL BANK

3% Interest on Satisfactory Daily Balances

Capital . . . $150,000.00

Surplus & Profits (All Earned) $225,000.00

Deposits . . . $1,600,000.00

To Be Consistent.

"I hate a liar!" Pecksniff cried.
Said Brightly, "Then 'twould seem
You really ought to try and hide
Your lack of self esteem."
—Philadelphia Press.

The Universal Appeal.

Manager—I want a drama of human interest.

Author—Then why not dramatize a spring cleaning?—Baltimore American.

If He Is Truthful.

Full many a hunter, on my word,
Will boast, but should you ask,
He'll say he never hits a bird,
But often hits a flask.
—Philadelphia Ledger.

More Money for Pat Powers.

Pat Powers is going to have his salary boosted from $3,000 to $5,000 a year. Evidently the Eastern league has made some profitable transactions with the major leaguers.

Chicago's Golf Course.

Chicago has an eighteen hole public golf course in Jackson park.

The Next Door Neighbor.

Down by the stream where I first met Miranda
There's a hammock for two on a shady veranda,
Sings that rasping graphophone,
With a wheeze, a sigh, a moan.
Grrrr—bzzzz * ! ! ! x—zzt—help!
—Harvard Lampoon.

Modern Explanation.

Freshman—Did your father cut your allowance on account of that lark?

Sophomore—No, indeed; probably on account of some business misconduct of his in the past.—New York Evening Sun.

Divination.

"Bet you don't know what I am thinking about."

"Huh! that's easy. You are thinking I don't know what you are thinking about."—Lippincott's Magazine.

No Chance to Save.

I don't believe as has been said,
That "a dollar saved is a dollar made
For a dollar saved today tomorrow'd
Be pretty certain to be borrowed.
—Catholic Standard and Times.

ROADSTERS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 4:47 a. m.
Sun Sets 7.06 p. m.
Lanterns must be lighted 8.06 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair and coo'er tonight; Thursday partly c oudy.
Maximum, 85; m nimum, 56; for 24 hours ending at noon. Ther. at noon 85.

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, WEDNESDAY, MAY 13, 1908. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

HEART ATTACK IS FATAL

Stricken on the Street, George Conover Quickly Succumbs in Nearby House.

PIONEER LOCAL EXPRESSMAN.

Born in Bernardsville in 1852 and Spent Most of His Life in This Vicinity.

George Conover, one of the pioneer express and moving men of the city and borough, died suddenly late last night at the home of William Jones, at 117 West Second street, to which place he was taken after an attack of heart failure on the sidewalk. He was seen to drop by several men who carried him into the house and then summoned physicians. Drs. Zeglio and Probasco responded quickly but he passed away at about 12 o'clock as they were working over him. The police were notified that it would not be necessary to call County Physician Westcott, as death was due to natural causes. He had been subject to heart trouble for a long time.

Mr. Conover was born at Bernardsville in 1852 but came to this city when a young man and always remained. He started the express and moving business thirty years ago and carried it on continuously until the time of his death. He was the first local expressman to use the familiar large moving vans in this city. For the past ten years his son, Walter Conover, has been associated with him in the business. He was known as an enthusiastic horseman and generally owned a trotter or two that was entered in the local race meets.

Mr. Conover married Miss Emma K. Philpott, of Brooklyn, who survives him and who, at the present time is in a New York hospital. There are also four sons, Horace, Walter, George, Jr., and Herbert, all of this city, and one daughter, Mrs. Albert King. There are two brothers, David and Barzilla Conover, and six sisters living; the latter are Mrs. Anna Moore, Mrs. Winifred Allen and the Misses Anna, Capitola, Effie and Phoebe Conover. The funeral will be held at his late home on Jackson avenue, Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

F. J. BLATZ ENTERTAINS KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

In honor of his recent marriage, Francis J. Blatz entertained the members of Watchung Council, Knights of Columbus, at their hall on East Front street, last night, with a "spread" and plenty of cigars. It was the first opportunity that Mr. Blatz had for entertaining his many friends and it was a delightful occasion, during which the host received the congratulations of all.

A feature of the evening was a fine address by James Dunn, missionary worker for the Apostolic Mission House, Washington, on the subject: "Why You Are a Knight of Columbus." It was a masterly discourse and at the close Mr. Dunn favored the members with a song entitled "Sixty Years Ago." Other vocal selections were given by John Traynor and Charles Ward. At the banquet which followed the entertainment, Andrew E. Kenney was the toastmaster, and in a short speech took occasion to extend the best wishes of the Council to Mr. Blatz and his bride. The affair was under the direction of J. J. Varley, lecturer for the Council.

Thieves Enter Tallman's Store.

Thieves effected an entrance into Charles Tallman's grocery store on Liberty street late Monday night and carried away the contents of the money box in the safe, amounting to about $10. Nothing else was disturbed. The robbery was discovered by Mr. Tallman when he opened the store yesterday morning and he reported the robbery to the police at once. Thus far there is no clue. The thieves entered the place through a rear window.

Miss Mary E. Kiley a Bride.

Miss Mary E. Kiley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kiley, of South avenue, and Daniel Doyle, of New York, were married Sunday in St. Joseph's church, New York. The bride was a former member of St. Mary's church but for the past year has been living in New York with an aunt. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle are now on their wedding trip and will stop in Plainfield to visit relatives and friends at the end of the week.

Bergen Water Co. Head.

Following a dinner at Truell Hall, the directors of the Plainfield-Union Water Company at their annual meeting last night re-elected Frank Bergen, of Elizabeth, president. William J. Whelan, of Elizabeth, continues as secretary and treasurer.

—Levy Bros. are preparing a big 10 day sale, starting Thursday to celebrate their 4th anniversary.

FRENCH DOLLS.

ROSEBUDS

Photos by C. B. Morgan.

PATRON AT ONE HOTEL FOR FIFTY-EIGHT YEARS

During his long career as a hotel proprietor, W. J. Poulson of the Hotel Kensington, has had many experiences, but there were none he enjoyed more fully than the one he had while owner of the Globe Hotel, Red Bank, which place he left to come to this city. Among his permanent guests at Red Bank was Charles Preston, one of the oldest residents of that place. For fifty-eight years he lived at The Globe, which speaks well for its management. He moved to Red Bank from Shrewsbury over sixty years ago. He was born at Cream Ridge and at the age of seven years moved to Shrewsbury.

When a young man he learned the carpenter's trade and has worked at it ever since. Mr. Preston was never married and for that reason he selected The Globe as a most desirable place to board, going there in 1850 as one of the first permanent guests and has remained there ever since. The hotel has changed hands ten times since then. Mr. Poulson purchased the hotel from Daniel W. White, who on two different occasions was the proprietor and before coming to Plainfield it was sold to the present owners, Charles DuBois and Charles W. Jones. Mr. Preston has occupied most of the rooms at the hotel at different times and is paying about the same amount for board as he did fifty-eight years ago. He never stays out late at night and has not smoked for fifty years. The current issue of the Red Bank Standard contains an interesting story about Mr. Preston; also an excellent picture of the old gentleman at work in his shop.

STATE ENDEAVORERS MAY CONVENE HERE.

The program for the Congress of the Plainfield Christian Endeavor Union to be held tomorrow night at the Park Avenue Baptist church has been arranged as follows: 8 to 8:30 o'clock, discussion of methods of conducting a State convention. This discussion will be led by State President J. T. Sproull of the Christian Endeavor Union, and will be open to all the members of the societies in the local union. 8:30 to 9 o'clock, regular business meeting of the Congress. A formal decision will be made in regard to holding the State Christian Endeavor convention in Plainfield in 1909. A vote will be taken upon the adoption of an amendment to the constitution providing for an assistant secretary.

The chorus choir of the local Christian Endeavor Union will meet for rehearsal in Trinity Reformed church Monday night, May 18. The Endeavorers are planning to make the music an important feature of the next mass meeting which will be held in Trinity Reformed church on Thursday night, May 28. The choir is in charge of Charles L. Lewis.

Sesame Club Meeting.

The annual business meeting of the Sesame Club was postponed on account of the rain last week and will be held tomorrow morning at the home of Mrs. Chase on Putnam avenue.

—Go to Neuman Brothers for olive oil. They import theirs from France and can give an honest guarantee as to quality. Sold by the gallon, half gallon, quart or pint.

BOROUGHITE HEAD OF SOMERSET C.E. UNION

The seventeenth annual convention of the Somerset County Christian Endeavor Local Union was held yesterday in the Second Reformed church at Somerville and every society in the county sent a delegation. Several open-air meetings attracted large crowds. There were numerous addresses and the gathering was one of the most successful held in years.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected, as follows: President, Chas. F. Windham, of North Plainfield; vice-president, Jacob Wyckoff, of Middlebush; secretary, Miss Gertrude Wrench, of Bound Brook; assistant secretary, Miss Augusta Rugen, of Bound Brook; treasurer, Miss Minnie E. Codington, of Somerville; pastors' advisory committee, Rev. Thomas D Wesley, of Pluckemin; Rev. John A. Thomson, of Middlebush; Rev. Chas. Carvin, of North Branch; Rev. Dr. Henry Stout, of South Bound Brook; missionary superintendent, Mrs. Charles E. Corwin, of North Branch; correspondence superintendent, Mrs. Joseph A. Layton, of Bedminster; superintendent of Junior Department, Mrs. George F. Dey, of Bound Brook.

Ladies' Aid Society Elects.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Faith chapel at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon, elected these officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. J. W. Musson; vice-president, Mrs. John Mackey; secretary, Mrs. Edward Baker,; treasurer, Mrs. Valentine Utzinger; chairman of the missionary committee, Mrs. Christopher Meyers; missionary secretary and treasurer, Mrs. David Patterson; chairman of the visiting committee, Mrs. Charles Jeter.

Willow Grove Benefit.

For the benefit of the chapel extension, the young people of Willow Grove will give a drama entitled "The Elopment of Ellen" in the Willow Grove Chapel on Friday evening, May 15, 1908 at 8:15 o'clock. Stages will leave Scotch Plains trolley and Westfield station at 7:30.

—Anniversary sale Thursday. Levy Bros. ***

SOMERSET BOARD BUSY

Favorably Receives Petition for Suggested Greenbrook Road Improvement.

BOARD WILL BORROW $20,000.

The Somerset County Board of chosen Freeholders met in regular session in the court room in Somerville yesterday, when all the members were in attendance.

A communication was received from the Mayor and Council of South Bound Brook respecting culverts in that borough. It was decided to notify the Mayor and Council that the board will remove the culverts as soon as a street grade is established and the streets graded.

A petition, largely signed, was presented, requesting the improvement of a road in North Plainfield borough, known as the Green Brook road. This was ordered placed on file and will be granted.

tion of a bridge at Hovey's Hill on the Pluckemin road, as follows:

Schuyler & Allgair, $6.75 per cubic yard concrete; $7.75 brick arch; $178.25 complete without wingwell. Isaac Morecraft, $6.30; J. W. Scott, $80 for iron beams delivered; G. Robinson, $5.70; W. T. Kirk Co., $6.25. The contract was awarded to Scuyler & Allgair at their bid of $7.75 a cubic yard, with brick arches, and finishing and placing all iron work and building wingwalls. Messrs. Fitzga, Hoagland and Paulson were appointed as the committee to have charge.

The clerk was authorized to notify the Township Committee of Bernards to remove an obstruction in front of the postoffice at Bernardsville and in the county road.

The County Collector was authorized to borrow $20,000 in anticipation of taxes.

Joshua Doughty, Jr., was re-elected County Engineer until Jan 1, 1908.

John A. Frech we re-elected Counsel of the board until Jan 1, 1908. The usual retaining fee of $50 is to be paid to him.

—Kimonas 14c, Thursday, Levy's sale. ***

SIX HUNDRED HEAR Y. M. C. A. ORCHESTRA

The twenty-eighth concert by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra given at the association hall, last night, attracted a capacity audience, there being more than six hundred persons present to enjoy the program. The program as published was given entire and the orchestra was assisted by Miss Lelia H. Druse, soprano. The concert was given under the direction of Martin A. Korff, who has had charge of the organization for several years.

In addition to the orchestral numbers, Miss Druse sang "O Dry Those Tears," de Riego, accompanied by Miss Alice Miller, with violin obligato, and "I Mind the Day." There was also a violin solo, "Martha," by G. H. Spier, accompanied by E. Spier. A feature number was entitled "Tone Picture," "In a Bird Store," by the orchestra.

Commencement at the Theatre.

The committee from the North Plainfield Board of Education having charge of the arrangements for commencement exercises on Friday night, June 19, has leased the New Plainfield theatre for the affair, it having been decided that the Y. M. C. A. Hall is too small. The change meets with the approval of the entire board. It is also probable that the commencement exercises of the Plainfield High School will be held at the same place on Thursday night, June 18, instead of the First Baptist church, as heretofore.

Fire Destroys House and Barn.

The house and a large barn on the John McGinley farm on Terrill road were completely destroyed by fire which broke out mysteriously at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. The tenant of the place, Joseph Sichora, and his family, were not aroused until the flames had made great headway and escaped in scant clothing.

Another Mrs. Backer.

It was Mrs. Matthew Backer against whom dispossess proceedings were brought by Mrs. Laura McElroy and not Mrs. Charles Backer as reported in yesterday's Daily Press.

GOLDEN WEDDING OF SCOTCH PLAINS COUPLE

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Paff, Sr., of Scotch Plains, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary yesterday at their home on Park avenue, that place. The affair was attended by a number of their relatives and friends who called during the afternoon to extend best wishes. Last night a reception was held and supper served. This was attended only by the relatives and a few intimate friends.

The bride and groom of a half a century ago received a number of gifts in gold in honor of the event. Among those at the reception were Mrs. Jane Darby, of Plainfield, and Mrs. Jane Paff, of Long Island, both of whom were members of the bridal party. Mr. and Mrs. Paff were married at Hempstead, L. I., May 12, 1858, by the Rev. Lorenzo D. Rushmore. For several years they resided at Hempstead, later removing to Plainfield, where Mr. Paff was in business for a number of years. This he disposed of to enter the hotel business, purchasing the De Baud Hotel at Scotch Plains, which he conducted for a great many years.

Retiring from the hotel business he became a real estate and insurance broker, being the pioneer in this line at the 'Plains. He is still actively engaged in business and is considered an expert in determining realty values.

Two children have been born to the couple, one son, Thomas M. Paff, Jr., of Scotch Plains, and one daughter, Mrs. Charles Grant, of West Front street, this city.

CLEMENT F. MERRILL BECOMES A BENEDICT.

Clement Fessenden Merrill, of Mauch Chunk, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Merrill, of Carlton avenue, this city, and Miss Bertha Isabel Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Smith, of Winchester, Mass., were married yesterday in the First Congregational church, in the latter city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Augustine Newton.

The bride was attended by six bridesmaids, the Misses Mary G. Kellogg, and Alice Skillings, of Winchester; Carolyn Weston, of Dalton, Mass.; Eva V. Wilder, of New York; Mary Y. Lord, of Chicago, and Ellen Merrill, of this city, sister of the bridegroom. William Merrill, of Boston, cousin of the groom, was best man. Two of the ushers were Boardman Tyler and F .W. Goddard, of this city. Mr. Merrill is a graduate of Amherst, class '99.

The groom is division superintendent of the New Jersey Central at Mauch Chunk, and has many friends in this city. His parents were among the guests attending the wedding. The bride is prominent in social circles at Winchester.

Plainfield's Pride.

The books used for registering at the Postoffice and also the postal money orders are now being printed on presses made by the Potter Press Works and Manager David E. Titsworth, who has just returned from Washington, was heartily congratulated by the officers of the department on the splendid work being done by his presses.

—Levy Bros.' big anniversary sale starts Thursday. Ladies' gowns, 29c; gloves, 9c pair. ***

HOSPITAL KIRMESS PROVES A REVELATION

Theatre a "Riot of Color" as Handsomely Costumed Dancers Appear Before the Footlights.

CAPACITY AUDIENCE APPLAUDS

Pantomime a Big Feature Number, While French Dolls, Steeplechase and Dutch Dancers Make a "Hit."

Moving with a smoothness and fineness usually foreign to an amateur effort, Plainfield's Kirmess for the benefit of Muhlenberg Hospital opened at the New Plainfield theatre last night and proved a revelation to a capacity audience. Every dance went through without a perceptible hitch and in the phraseology of the dramatic editor, the "production was an instantaneous hit." If the initial performance is any criterion, the participants will be in the professional class before the week is over.

The pantomime, of which Mrs. L. W. Serrell, is the chaperone, opens the program and may be construed as the "feature" of the whole affair. It calls for a cast of thirty four, out of which three stand prominently. First and foremost is little Miss Adelaide Parker, who as a mechanical French doll, will be remembered long after nearly everything else in the Kirmess is forgotten. She is letter-perfect in the part and was greeted with a whirlwind of applause that almost upset the "mechanism" that made her dance and say "Mamma." She divides honors with Miss Elsa Schwed, another very little girl, who as "Dottie Dimple," keeps the toy attendants in a turmoil, and Philip Phillips, appearing as "Buster Buyit," a prototype of the mischievous comic supplement boy. All three fit into their respective "roles" as though they had been written for them.

There were eleven dances in all on last night's program and to say which carried off the honors would be a very difficult matter. The Rustic came first and everyone declared it would be "hard to beat." Whether it was or not is a matter of opinion. The girls in this number were perhaps the most graceful of all and went through difficult groupings perfectly at ease. They were followed by the French dolls, eight in number, who make up the cutest "Pony ballet" ever seen at the theatre. Somehow or other they have absorbed a string of little stage movements and its worth the price of two front seats alone to see tiny Miss Eleanor Iredell quickstep into line for the ensembles. The audience refused to let them go without responding to an encore and even then the people were like Oliver Twist.

The Tarentella, with a clever and fascinating solo by Miss Marion Hall, was third on the list, and will remain as one of the features of the Kirmess. It was followed by the Indian braves and the Japanese, both well executed and characteristic, and led up to the solo, "The Sun," by Mrs. Lemuel W. Serrell. She is well known to Plainfielders for her work in previous affairs of this kind and repeated the success credited to her in other years. She will appear for the rest of the week with the exception of tonight.

A breath of the Tyrolean hills was brought to the stage by the Swiss dancers, who followed Mrs. Serrell, and they varied the uniformity of the preceding numbers by introducing a song solo with individual dance. Miss Florence Smalley was the singer and Miss Aimee Emmons gave a series of graceful steps in accompaniment. It was very prettily done and the girls retired with prolonged applause following them. The Marsovian was exceptionally clever but it remained for the Dutch dance to produce a hearty laugh and keep young and old clapping and even stamping in their enthusiasm as it proceeded. The costumes of the Hollanders have been reproduced from caps to wooden shoes and the "Heinies" and "Katrinas" clattered about with musical rhythm. They also sang "Hi Le, Hi Low," as they sing it at The Hague and taken it all, "its hard to beat the Dutch."

The White Hussars gained applause for their costumes before they had given a figure and the dance was in keeping with the attire. The participants are young men and women as are also the Steeplechasers,

(Continued on page 4.)

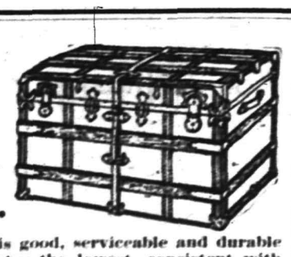
The Ladies' Home Journal Patterns are selling just as fast as we can hand them out. They have the unqualified indorsement of women who have ever used them. Try one next time you need a pattern.

H. E. Force and Co.

We Give "S. H." "THE WHITE STORE" THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY Green Trading Stamps

Millinery—We wish to keep before your mind the fact that the "White Store Millinery" stands unrivalled for true artistic skill in millinery. Original and exclusive models at popular prices.

Special Display of Trunks, Travelling Bags and Dress Suit Cases.



Making a rare display of all that is good, serviceable and durable in this line, and the prices we guarantee the lowest, consistent with the quality of goods. We invite inspection.

DRESS TRUNKS—A trunk that is made for good hard wear, a good looking trunk, fibre bound, with brass trimmings, one tray; priced very low $3.98

DRESS TRUNKS—These are handsomely constructed trunks, fibre bound, brass trimmings, double brass lock, two trunk straps and two trays; special at $6.25

DRESS TRUNKS—A full line of sizes, fibre bound, solid brass trimmings, two locks, patent compartments, leather straps, linen lined; priced very low at $7.75

TOURIST TRUNKS—Sole leather bound, solid brass trimmings, adjustable tray, linen lined, leather straps, a trunk worth $17.50; our price $13.98

STEAMER TRUNKS—Good solid trunks that are made to stand good hard ware, rawhide binding, heavy locks, linen lined, $9.98 and $4.25

Travelling Bags and Suit Cases.

RATTAN CASES—Strongly made, reinforced corners, 16 to 24 inch; priced $2.49 up to $3.49

MATTING CASES—A good assortment of styles, strongly made, good locks and well lined, in sizes 16 to 24 inch, at from $1.98 to $2.39

TRAVELING BAGS—Made of sole leather, hand-sewed, light and dark tans, all sizes, 15 to 20 inch; prices very low; $3.25 up to $8.50

SUIT CASES—An excellent assortment of all kinds and sizes; imitation and all leather; trimmed with brass trimmings and strong heavy locks and straps; prices $1.50 up to $8.50

SEE SHOW WINDOW DISPLAY.

Sensation Sale of Ladies' Tailored Suits

At a time when the thought of buying a Summer Suit is uppermost in the mind of nearly every lady, and then the chance of saving from $5.00 to $7.50 on a suit.

THIS INDEED IS A RARE OPPORTUNITY.

These are manufacturers sample garments that the manufacturer wanted to dispose of for spot cash. We bought them at a price and we will give you the benefit.

THE SALE IS NOW ON.

LOT NO. 1—Ladies' Tailored Suits made in the most approved up-to-date style, every garment a model of perfection, made of Panama, Shadow Stripes, Small Checks; Coats satin lined; Skirts made in the new pleated effects, with deep fold. Not a suit in the lot worth less than $12.00 to $15.00. While they last the price will be

-:- 7.98 -:-

LOT NO. 2—High grade Tailored Suits, made of the finest materials, perfectly tailored and finished in plain and fancy materials; good assortment of sizes. These two lots of suits we consider the greatest bargain event of the season; not a suit worth less than $13.50 to $16.50. Our price while they last will be

-:- 10.98 -:-

We would advise prospective buyers to come as early in the day as possible, as we do not think these two lots will last very long.

SEE SHOW WINDOW DISPLAY.

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c. a week.

CITY.

Union News Co. ..... R. R. Station
J. M. Harper ..... 411 Park Ave.
W. A. Laing ..... 149 W. Front St.
A. D. Mallinson ..... Fourth and Liberty Sts.
Trolley Waiting Room ..... Watchung Ave.
M. Estil ..... 111 Park Ave.
Debele & Stahl ..... 113 Somerset St.
Blaney & Son ..... 331 Watchung Ave.
T. A. Garthwaite ..... 212 Watchung Ave.
A. Anderson ..... 657 West Fourth St.
John Mottley ..... Cor. E. 3d & Richmond Sts.

SUBURBAN.

Dunellen ..... B. Siriski
New Market ..... R. Burdick
Bound Brook ..... Union News Co.
Bound Brook ..... L. M. Davis
Somerville ..... Jacob Genert
Westfield ..... C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield ..... J. W. Wall
Scotch Plains ..... Chas. Elliott
South Plainfield ..... Victor Attlee
Fanwood ..... Chas. Elliott
Netherwood ..... Blaney & Son

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS

BOUND BROOK AND VICINITY.

Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd and daughter, Miss Mary Shepherd, accompanied by Mrs. Shepherd's mother, Mrs. Mary C. Thorpe, of Elizabeth street, South Bound Brook, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George I. Mitchell, in West High street, Somerville.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Englesbee have been entertaining the Misses Jennie McLaughlin and Dorothy Deinzer, of New Brunswick, at their home in Union avenue, Bound Brook.

Mrs. Ernest Miller, of Cherry street, South Bound Brook, spent Sunday at the home of her sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Hess, in Elizabeth.

A son was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Atfield at the home of Mrs. Atfield's sister, Mrs. Arthur Nutting in West Main street, Bound Brook.

Miss Margaret Roach, of Newark, spent Sunday at the home of her mother, Mrs. James Roach, in Vosseller avenue, Bound Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Van Doren, of East Millstone, are entertaining Miss Mary Conover and Miss Ada Lucas, of Trenton.

Mrs. Nathaniel Watts, of West Main street, Bound Brook, has been entertaining her brother, Henry Van Ness, of Newark.

Miss Mary Frey, of Mountain avenue, Bound Brook, spent Sunday with friends in Somerville.

Miss Anna Carroll, of Canal street, South Bound Brook, spent Sunday with friends in Trenton.

NORTH BRANCH.

Because Rev. John Hart, the pastor, expects to attend the sessions of general synod, the communion services in the Reformed church at Neshanic will be held on May 31, instead of June 7.

Mrs. Sarah Van Zandt has returned to her home in Somerville, after spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Philip Van Arsdale, at Pluckemin.

The Ladies' Aid Society connected with the Methodist church at Neshanic Station will hold a strawberry festival on the evening of Decoration Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Van Pelt and Miss Mary Clarkson, of North Branch were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Anthony at Lamington.

Miss Elizabeth Wyckoff and Edward Stoker, both of Neshanic, were married at the Reformed parsonage there recently by Rev. John Hart.

The members of the Literary Circle will be entertained at the home of Mrs. William H. Higgins in North Branch tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Kathryn Flynn has returned to her home in North Branch, after a three weeks sojourn with relatives in Trenton.

The prayer meeting of the Reformed church at Neshanic will be held at the home of A. J. Cortelyou this evening.

Miss Helen Herder, of Montgomery, is spending some time at Neshanic with Miss Elizabeth Hoagland.

Miss Mary Vroom, of Pluckemin, is the guest of relatives in Plainfield this week.

WESTFIELD.

Garwood Board of Health has organized by electing Fred Reeder president, William T. Froat vice-president and Julius L. Hildner secretary. Dr. J. L. Perkins, of Cranford, is medical officer. This is the first regularly organized Board of Health the borough has ever had.

The funeral services of Elmer Miller, son of Daniel Miller, were held at his father's home, Westfield, Monday afternoon. He was in his twenty-ninth year, and had lived all his life in Westfield. He was ill only three days with pneumonia.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Saturday's game with the Junior team of Plainfield should be a good drawing game, as it is the first game between the locals and a Plainfield team.

Charles Elliott, who has been ill with pneumonia for several weeks, is recovering very nicely and will soon be able to be around again.

The pupils and teachers of the public schools enjoyed a May walk on the Mountain, after the regular school session yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dare White, of Passaic, have been visiting Freeholder and Mrs. John Robison, of First avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harper, of Front street, have been entertaining Brooklyn friends.

James H. Buckley, of Baltimore, has been visiting his family over Sunday.

The Town Committee meet Friday night in the town rooms.

George B. Allen, of Linden avenue, is spending a few days in Baltimore.

Among the out of town patients at Muhlenberg Hospital is Mrs. Oliver Alpaugh, of Paterson.

Mrs. Dandford F. Todd and son, of this city, are visiting Mrs. Todd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. William Fleming, of Whitehouse Station.

The Raritan Township Sunday School Association will meet at Marconnier chapel tomorrow night.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society of Trinity Reformed church will give an entertainment in the lecture room of the church Friday night, at 8 o'clock consisting of dialogues and music.

—Use Press want ads. They pay.

WE SELL LOTS FOR CASH or INSTALLMENT

We build and sell houses on the same plan. It will pay you to buy before June 1st in Laramie Park.

Write or call on
J. D. LOIZEAUX LUMBER CO.,
Cor. Berkman St. and North Ave. 'Phone 218.
5 6 11 m-w-s

:-Schreiner's Pharmacy-:
PARK AVE. and SECOND ST. TEL. 898-J.

Have Your Corns Removed
Without Pain by Applying
SCHREINER'S CORN REMEDY
15c Bottle Guaranteed

IN THE SPRING
The thoughts of a house-owner naturally turn toward painting. If you are going to paint your house, use
MOORE'S HOUSE COLORS
because it is a strictly pure linseed oil paint and therefore, can be relied upon to give the best satisfaction. When used according to directions, it will cover more surface and cover it better, with less labor, than other paints. These are facts that have been demonstrated right in your own locality, and it will pay you, as it has others, to buy Moore's House Colors this spring from our representative.
H. E. GAYLE HARDWARE COMPANY, Plainfield.
BENJAMIN MOORE & CO.
Pure Colors, Paints, and Muresco.
New York, Chicago, Cleveland, Toronto.

—CAMERAS—
KODAKS AND PHOTOGRAPHIC SUPPLIES
DEVELOPING, PRINTING AND ENLARGING
Bring Your Films in One Day and Get Your Pictures the Next.
"THE PHOTO STORE," 129 NORTH AVENUE.
FORMERLY VAN WINKLE'S.

MORE GREAT SURPRISES AT
Corner Market and Halsey Streets, Newark.
King's
Corner Market and Halsey Streets, Newark.

$114,000 Worth of Elegant, New, Stylish
Clothing for Men & Boys at 1/2 & Less

This Event is An Unprecedented Opportunity for You and a Magnificent Advertisement for Us.

This store was thronged with appreciative clothing buyers last Saturday and has been the busiest clothing store in Newark every day this week. It is plain that you realize the importance of an occasion like this at KING'S. Manufacturers have been compelled to take heavy losses because of the bad weather conditions, which killed the demand for their output. That't why they accepted our unprecedentedly low offer and are willing to take heavy losses in order to move their stocks and get ready cash at once. The goods must be sold at any price, and KING'S Newark Store, corner, Market and Halsey streets, will be the distributing point.

Men's Sack Suits

Retail Price.	Spring and Summer Weight.	Sale Price.
$12.00	Fancy Cheviot Suits	5.90
$12.00	Black Thibet Suits	5.90
$15.00	Blue Serge Suits	7.90
$15.00	Fine Worsted Suits	7.90
$20.00	Stylish Brown Suits	9.80
$20.00	High Tone Gray Suits	9.80
$20.00	Clay Diagonal Suits	9.80
$25.00	Brown Hand Tailored Suits	12.50
$25.00	Silk Lined Suits	12.50
$32.00	Imported Worsted Suits	16.00
$38.00	Custom Made Suits	18.00
$45.00	Pencil Stripe and Check Suits	20.00

Men's Top Coats

Retail Price.	Box and 3/4 Length.	Sale Price.
$10.00	Tan Top Coats	5.00
$12.00	Oxford Top Coats	5.90
$15.00	Black Top Coats	6.75
$18.00	Tan Covert Top Coats	7.90
$18.00	Brown Top Coats, new effects	8.50
$22.00	Stripe Overcoats, silk lined	10.80
$25.00	Hand-finished Top Coats	12.50

Men's Trousers

Retail Price.	32 to 50 Waist.	Sale Price.
$3.00	Cassimere Pants, striped, plain	1.45
$3.50	Black and Blue Serge Pants	1.75
$4.50	Neat Stripe Pants, worsteds	2.15
$5.50	Imported Thibets and Worsted Pants	2.65
$7.00 & $8.00	Stylish Hand Tailored Pants	3.50

Men's 2-Piece Suits Coats and Pants

Retail Price.	Sizes 34 to 44.	Sale Price.
$10.00	Cheviot Coat and Pants	4.15
$12.00	Stylish Stripe Coat and Pants	5.50
$14.00	Neat Check Coat and Pants	6.90
$18.00	Gray Olive Col. Coat and Pants	7.90
$20.00	Blue or Gray Serge Coat and Pants	9.80

Young Men's Suits

Retail Price.	15 to 20 Years.	Sale Price.
$10.00	Fancy Gray Suits	4.90
$10.00	Black Thibet Suits	4.90
$14.00	Blue Serge Suits	6.75
$14.00	Stylish Crown Suits	6.90
$16.00	Imported Worsted Suits	7.80
$16.00	High Grade Blue Serge Suits	7.80
$20.00	Elegant Styles Neat Stripe Suits	9.50
$20.00	Hand Tailored Suits	9.50
$25.00	Finest Imported Worsted Suits	12.50
$25.00	Well Known H. & M. K. Made Suits	12.50

Boys' Suits

Retail Price.	Sizes 6 to 17.	Sale Price.
$3.00	Fancy Cheviot Suits	1.45
$3.50	Fancy Cassimeres and Worsted Suits	1.69
$4.00	Gray Suits, with Knickerbocker Pants	1.95
$6.00	Blue Serge Suits	2.85
$7.00 and $8.00	High Grade Suits	3.65
$10.00 and $12.00	Imp. Blue Serge Suits	4.75

Men's Fancy Vests

Retail Price.	Sizes 34 to 46.	Sale Price.
$2.00	Fancy Vests	85c
$3.00	Neat Stripe and Check Vests	1.45
$3.50	Styles 3 or 4 Button Vests	1.69
$4.00 and $5	Fancy Brown and Olive Vests	2.25

THIS IS YOUR HARVEST TIME FOR MONEY SAVING!

Buy All Your Spring and Summer Needs Now, and Buy at KING'S.

There Will Be Big Crowds, but THERE WILL BE NO DELAYS. We Have Arranged Extra Tables, Enlarging Our Selling Space and Employed Forty Extra Salesmen.

See Our Blue and Gray Serge Suits, strictly hand tailored, worth 18.00, 20.00 and 22.00, on sale at - - 9.80

In order to make this event of great benefit to out-of-town buyers, we have concluded to allow railroad fare from any point within 50 miles, on presentation of return ticket at cashier's office.

STORE OPEN SATURDAY NIGHT UNTIL 11 O'CLOCK

Cor. Market and Halsey Streets, NEWARK, N. J.
King's
Cor. Market and Halsey Streets, NEWARK, N. J.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following local real estate transfers have been recorded at Elizabeth:

Theodore J. Ackerman et al, to City of Plainfield, northwesterly side South avenue, corner Central N. J. Land and Improvement Co., Plainfield $1.800

Jacob Neustadt, et ux., to Sarah Dickerson, West Fourth street, corner lot 30, "Map of J. Wilson," Plainfield $1

Fred H. Martin et al. to Ella A. Duy, easterly side Ninth avenue, 125 feet northerly of Third place, Plainfield $4,575

George E. Hall et ux., to William H. Abbott, Belvidere avenue, 180 feet southerly of Park lane, Plainfield $1

Benj. Barrington et ux., to Daniel L. McCarthy, West Sixth street, westerly corner D. F. Randolph, Plainfield $2,400

Contract for Mason Work.

William H. Pangborn's son, of Chatham street, the borough, has the sub-contract for the mason work for the new police headquarters' building, the contract for which was awarded to Alexander Milne, and not Tallamy Brothers, as stated.

Engagement Announced.

The engagment has been announced of Aaron A. Vandeveer, of Somerville to Miss Florence A. Ackor, of this city.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

In Somerset Court.

In the Somerset County Court at Somerville, yesterday afternoon, the trial of Frank Delasander, of Bound Brook, charged with stabbing an officer, was completed. The jury returned a verdict of guilty with a recommendation for mercy. The trial of Joseph Fioretti, charged with stealing a domestic fowl, the property of Mrs. Fannie Van Dyke, of Rocky Hill, was taken up today.

Miss Agnes Opdyke, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Opdyke of this city, and who has been registrar at Barnard College, New York, has resigned her position and will be general assistant to the director of the Boston Trade School for girls.

TEPPERS 109-111-113 WEST FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

AGENTS FOR STANDARD PATTERNS

THIS add contains more real money-saving bargains than we have offered in some time—read it through, some of the items will interest you, and prove to our material benefit—as it is our purpose to make these departments more popular—and yours—to save on your purchases.

SILK RUBBERIZED COATS

with satin stripe, full length, with high rolling collar; good for stormy or nice weather; colors black and navy; worth $15, at..... $10

Black Broadcloth Coats, made of high grade cloth, with Belding satin lining, semi-fitting model, 27 inches long, silk stitching; regular $8.49, at $5

Black Taffeta Silk Coats, 24 inch, long semi-fitting, neatly trimmed in silk braid, satin lining, made with ¾ sleeves; a stylish dressy spring coat; worth $10, at..... $6.95

An attractive Butterfly Suit, made of fine Chiffon Panama, in plain and pin stripes, well tailored, coat with good satin lining, full flare skirt; colors black, blue and brown; value $15.98, at $10

27 inch Coat Suit, made of all wool Panama and Serges, semi-fitting; coat double breasted front; skirt is side pleated; colors black, blue and brown; value $12.50, at..... $8.98

Taffeta Jumper Dress, in brown pin stripes, plain brown and black; value $10, at $7.95

Taffeta Jumper Dress, black only, made of fine quality heavy taffeta; jumper has attractive hand work, full wide skirt, pleated, with 5 inch band; excellent $15 value, at..... $11.50

Taffeta Jumper Dress, in Copenhagen and Champagne, trimmed in silk two shades deeper; jumper and skirt as well as the belt, making a pretty, stylish dress; $16.50 value, at $12.75

THE "FAULTLESS" MEN'S PAJAMAS AND NIGHT GOWNS AT 60c ON THE DOLLAR

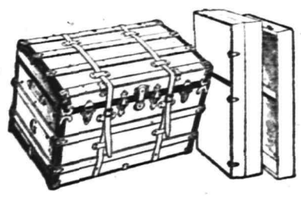
Last Saturday we told you about this well known house having their stock damaged by fire and sold at auction. Though the boxes were scarcely damaged and the goods are really perfectly fresh, we bought two lots that were made up for Stern Bros. on 23rd street, New York, and Webber & Heilbroner, men's furnishers. Both these houses are known to carry only high class merchandise. Their labels are on these garments as well as that of the makers, the "Faultless."

The Night Shirts are made of fine cambric and long cloth, with collars, or the low cut neck, trimmed in fine white braids, 20 dozen of these; were made to retail for $1.25 and $1.50, at.. .75

The Pajamas are made of fine cross bar nainsooks, with the military style coat, or the low neck cut, nicely braided; 5 dozen only; were made to retail for $1.50 and $1.75, at..... $1

Best quality Calicos; only 15 pieces of these, so you have to come early to get this bargain; medium and dark colors; 7½c qquality, at yard 5

Washington Percales; just 18 pieces in the lot, 30 inches wide; colors red and indigo blue; neat patterns; 10c quality, at, yard..... .7½



Here is the Two-Lock Trunk at $7.50

And its the best trunk that $7.50 ever bought. Of course there are better looking trunks made, but they cost much more than this one. No matter what you pay for a trunk you won't get one that will give you better service. But don't get the idea because this trunk is built strictly for the strenuous life, with more thought for strength than for beauty, that it is not good enough looking too. But it's the good looks of solidity and strength rather than of grace and elegance. The sole leather strap around the centre, in addition to the two-lock feature, makes it doubly secure; sizes 30-23, 34 and 36 inches, at..... $7.50

A tag from a 10-cent piece will count FULL value
A tag from a 5-cent piece will count HALF value

TOBACCO

with valuable tags

Save your tags from

STANDARD NAVY TOWN TALK JOLLY TAR

Tinsley's 16-oz. Natural Leaf Eglantine Old Peach Tenpenny

Sailor's Pride Master Workman Pick J. T. Big Four

Black Bear Ivy Horse Shoe Bridle Bit

Old Statesman W. N. Tinsley's Natural Leaf Granger Twist Old Honesty

Coupons from

REDICUT and PICNIC TWIST

Tags from the above brands are good for the following and many other useful presents as shown by catalog:

Gold Cuff Buttons—50 Tags	French Briar Pipe—50 Tags	Lady's Pocketbook—50 Tags
Fountain Pen—100 Tags	Leather Pocketbook—80 Tags	Pocket Knife—40 Tags
English Steel Razor—50 Tags	Steel Carving Set—200 Tags	Playing Cards—30 Tags
Gentleman's Watch—200 Tags	Best Steel Shears—75 Tags	60-yd. Fishing Reel—60 Tags

Many merchants have supplied themselves with presents with which to redeem tags. If you cannot have your tags redeemed at home, write us for catalog.

PREMIUM DEPARTMENT

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO CO., Jersey City, N. J.

HAHNE & CO.

IMPORTERS · NEWARK'S STORE BEAUTIFUL BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STREETS · RETAILERS

Another Rousing Three-Day Sale Toilet Articles and Drugs

Only the highest grades are offered, yet prices will be very low. The selling begins Thursday morning.
All Mail and 'Phone Orders filled.

Alcohol—
16-oz. bot. Wood Alcohol..16c
32-oz. bot. Wood Alcohol..25c
8-oz. bot. Grain Alcohol..20c
16-oz. bot. Grain Alcohol..40c
32-oz. bot. Grain Alcohol..80c

Absorbent Cotton—1,000 lbs. of extra fine quality Absorbent Cotton in 1 lb carton, each...24c

Bland Pills—Bland's Iron Pills, 100 in bottle.....7c

Boracic Acid—
4-oz. carton Boracic Acid... 8c
8-oz. carton Boracic Acid...15c

Borax—1 lb pkg. Mule Team Borax 10c

Big Wonder Soap—Heller's Big Wonder Floating Bath Soap, cake 3½c

Bay Rum—Bradley's Bay Rum, good quality 19c

Buttermilk Soap—Genuine Cosmo Buttermilk Soap, cake....5c

Bathasweet—The genuine Bathasweet Bath Powder.....19c

Camphor—
2-oz. bottle Spirits of Camphor 12c
4-oz. bottle Spirits of Camphor 18c

Camphorated Oil—
2-oz. bottles, at.....7c
4-oz. bottles, at.....12c

Castor Oil—
2-oz. Castor Oil bottle.....7c
4-oz. Castor Oil bottle.....15c

Castile Soap—The celebrated Anchor Brand Castile Soap, small size cake.....3½c

Castile Soap—The celebrated Anchor Brand Castile Soap, large size cake 7c

Cloth Brushes—Good quality Cloth Brushes, wood backs, each 19c

Coke Dandruff Cure—The celebrated make of Coke Dandruff Cure, large bottle.....59c

Coke Dandruff Cure—The celebrated make of Coke Dandruff Cure, small size.....33c

Danderine—The well-known brand—Knowlton's Dandersine Hair Tonic and Scalp Cleanser—large size bottle.....60c

Dressing Combs—Hard rubber black Dressing Combs, each...7c

Flesh Food—Dr. Charles' Genuine Flesh Food, reg. size....35c

Danderine—The celebrated and well-known Danderine Hair Tonic and Scalp Cleanser, small size 15c

Danderine—The celebrated and well-known Danderine Hair Tonic and Scalp Cleanser, medium size 30c

Fountain Syringes—Two-quart extra quality Fountain Syringes, with three hard rubber attachments and rapid flow tubing, each 63c

Florida Water—Bradley's good quality Florida Water, large size bottle 19c

Glycerine—
2-oz. bot. Glycerine for.....7c
4-oz. bot. Glycerine for....12c

Glycerine and Rose Water—4-oz. bottle 12c

Glycerine Soap—½-lb bars Glycerine Soap, good quality, each 6c

Hair Brushes—Extra fine quality bristles, solid back wood Hair Brushes, assorted styles of handles 39c

Hair Brushes—Solid back wood Hair Brushes, good quality bristles, assorted styles.....19c

Nail Brushes—Wood back Nail Brushes, assorted styles, each 7c

Nail Brushes—Extra fine quality wood back Nail Brushes, assorted styles, each.....15c

Witch Hazel Soap—Good quality, 3 cakes in a box for only 8

Utility Cases—Limited quantity; creton covered; rubber lined; separate places for comb, brushes, sponge, wash cloths, etc.; each in a box; value $1; in this sale at 59

Pear's Soap—The genuine Pear's Scented Toilet Soap, per cake 12c

Pear's Soap—The genuine Pear's unscented Toilet Soap, cake 9c

Pumice Stone—In cake form, with and without handles, each 7c

Phosphate—4-oz. Phosphate of Soda 15c

Peroxide—
Hahne & Co.'s Peroxide, 8 ounces 11c
Hahne & Co.'s Peroxide, 16 ounces 18c

Quinine Pills—2-gr. Gelatin-coated Quinine Pills, 100 in bottle, best quality, bottle.....18c

Quinine—
I., D. & Co.'s 2-gr. Soluble Quinine Capsules, 12 in box..5c
I., D. & Co.'s 5-gr. Soluble Quinine Capsules, 12 in box..9c

Rose Water—
2 oz. Rose Water, bottle....8c
4 oz. Rose Water, bottle..12c

Rubifoam—The celebrated Rubifoam Tooth Wash, per bottle 16c

Sugar of Milk—1-lb carton Lehn & Fink Sugar of Milk..19c

Salts—
4 oz. carton Rochelle Salts..8c
8 oz. carton Rochelle Salts..15c

Seidlitz Powders—1 doz. Seidlitz Powders in tin boxes, guaranteed best quality, box.....14c

Sea Salt—10-lb bag best quality Sea Salt for the bath, bag..7c

Soap—Celebrated Sweetheart Soap, reg. 5c size.....3½c

Sanitol Tooth Powder—The genuine Sanitol Tooth Powder 15c

Shaving Soap—
Williams' Mug Shaving Soap, round cakes, cake.....3c
Williams' Yankee Shaving Soap, the genuine kind, at cake 7c

Toilet Soap—Good quality Toilet Soaps, assorted odors, 3 cakes to box 8c

Talcum Powder—Hahne & Co.'s Violet Talcum Powder, glass bottles, perforated top, extra fine quality, each 10c

Tooth Brushes—Special lot of extra fine quality bristle Tooth Brushes, assorted styles, each 11c

Toilet Paper—Our Yale special brand, flat package or roll, regular 10c value, at.....6c

Violet Ammonia—Good quality Violet Ammonia, pint size bottle, at 8c

Violet Ammonia—Good quality Violet Ammonia, just the thing for the bath, quart size bottle, each 16c

Witch Hazel—Hahne & Co.'s pure distilled Extract of Witch Hazel—
8-oz. bottle at.....9c
16-oz. bottle at.....15c
32-oz. bottle at.....25c

SPORTS HERE AND THERE

BASEBALL.

National League Results.
New York, 8; Pittsburg, 2.
Philadelphia, 6; Chicago, 2.
Cincinnati, 8; Boston, 4.
St. Louis, 2; Brooklyn, 0.

National League Standing.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Chicago	13	6	.684
Pittsburg	11	7	.611
New York	12	8	.600
Philadelphia	11	9	.550
Boston	11	10	.524
Cincinnati	7	11	.389
Brooklyn	8	14	.364
St. Louis	7	15	.318

National League Games Today.
New York at Pittsburg.
Brooklyn at St. Louis.
Philadelphia at Chicago.
Boston at Cincinnati.

American League Results.
Cleveland 2; New York, 0.
Philadelphia, 8; Chicago, 3.
Detroit, 4; Boston, 2.
St. Louis, 6; Washington, 3.

American League Standing.

	W.	L.	Pc.
New York	13	8	.619
Philadelphia	14	9	.609
Cleveland	12	8	.600
St. Louis	12	11	.522
Chicago	10	11	.476
Detroit	9	11	.450
Washington	8	13	.381
Boston	8	15	.348

American League Games Today.
Cleveland at New York.
Detroit at Boston.
Chicago at Philadelphia.
St. Louis at Washington.

Other Baseball Scores.
At Milwaukee—Milwaukee, 2; Indianapolis, 0.
At Binghamton—Binghamton, 7; Troy, 5.
At Albany—Albany, 6; Syracuse, 3.
At Scranton—Scranton, 9; Utica, 2.
At Kansas City—Kansas City, 4; Louisville, 2.
At St. Paul—Toledo, 7; St. Paul, 4.
At Minneapolis—Minneapolis, 1; Columbus, 0.
At Portland, Me.—Lewiston, 6; Portland, 3.
At Newport—Newport, 7; Pawtucket 7; 14 innings. Called.

Collegiate Baseball Scores.
At Medford, Mass.—Tufts, 7; Bowdoin, 4.
At Lawrenceville, N. J.—Cornell, 5; Lawrenceville, 3.
At New York—De La Salle, 9; Groff, 7.

College Baseball Games Today.
New York University at Stevens.
Ossining at Pennsylvania.
Cornell at Princeton.
Wesleyan at Yale.
Amherst at Harvard.

Though last in the race the Detroit champions have not been shut out this season.

Recent averages show the New York Americans to be leading their league in long distance hitting.

Bugs Raymond's spitball is said to make almost as much trouble for the catcher as for opposing batters.

Roy Thomas is slated to be let go by the Philadelphia Nationals. Osborne is filling the bill in centre field.

If Griffith should trade Moriarty to Boston for Winter, what would he do for a utility man during Elberfield's absence?

Not long ago the Brooklyns beat the New Yorks three straight, but they seem to have exhausted most of their energy in so doing.

In a schoolboy game in Cincinnati the other day signals were given by reeling off a string of numbers, as in football. A better system is to have a few .300 hitters.

Mathewson has been cleaning up in fine style in the East, and if he doesn't hold his own against the strong Westerners a good many local cranks will be disappointed.

It is said that Hughey Jennings has a string on the services of Rube Marquard, the Indianapolis pitcher, who has been creating a sensation in the American Association.

Clyde Waters, the former Williams College catcher, basketball player and quarterback, has signed with the New Haven club of the Connecticut League. Waters was with Montreal a while last season.

To date the Princeton team has won 13 games and lost 2. Annapolis has won 11 and lost 2, Yale won 8 and lost 2, Holy Cross won 8 and lost 2, Pennsylvania won 12 and lost 5, Cornell won 4 and lost 5, West Point won 3 and lost 5 and Harvard won 5 and lost 5.

It turns out that Barney Dreyfus could have had Lajoie at one time, but did not care to take the chance and give up for that player. There's nobody in the business who has better judgment than Barney in sizing up young talent, and he can be forgiven for an occasional error of judgment.

"Ball clubs that haven't fight enough in them to question a ruling are always low in the race," is a remark credited to Frank Chance. What nonsense! Teams can win pennants without being questioners of rulings, which often is synonymous with umpire baiting, and being a tailender does not imply no kicking.

"Lary McLean backstopped excellently," according to a report. Hal Chase huntfields in fine style, Mike Donlin homeruns with the best of them, Jack Chesbro spitballs in the most effective manner possible, Hans Wagner groundcovers with the best of them and nobody flycatches better than Jimmy Sheckard.

Not a few twirlers can go in when a game is lost and pitch like a house afire who wouldn't do as well were it not that there was everything to gain and nothing to lose. It's pitching under a strain that furnishes the real test. The number of close games won in Overall's long list of consecutive victories makes his record all the more notable.

Fred Goldsmith, the old time pitcher, remarked the other day that there is nothing in baseball of the present era that Anson's team did not have, and Jim O'Rourke agrees with him. Evidently, then, those persons who had the impression that there was a thing in existence as the foul strike rule, which did not hamper the batting of the old timers, are dreaming.

MATHEWSON IN GREAT FORM.

Famous Pitcher Again Mystifying the Heavy Batters.

Christy Mathewson, the New York National league club star twirler, is again mystifying the heavy batters with his great pitching. "Big Six," as he is familiarly called by the fans on the National league circuit, is once more demonstrating that he is the king pin slab artist of the National league. In two recent games with the Brooklyn team the big fellow started the ball rolling for the strike-out record for the season. He fanned twelve in one game and eleven the other. This record may be beaten by other pitchers, but Matty may have something to say about it himself. Let it be understood that "Big Six" is the holder of the strike-out record. He made it during the latter part of the 1905 season, when he struck out sixteen men in one game.

Mathewson is undoubtedly due for a great season in the box. With him in such great form the Giants have an excellent chance of landing the pennant. Watch them.

M'Carter is Preferred.

Despite the large field and consequent liability to interference, the Metropolitan Handicap is today chosen as the race in which the most probably winner looms up. This is McCarter, which, despite his penalty, is considered good enough to hold safe all his opponents. It is not often that a mile is run at the Jamaica track in less than 1:40, as was the case when McCarter won the Excelsior, he and Jack Atkin together running the mile of the mile and a sixteenth in 1:39 4-5. Today McCarter ought to run a mile at Belmont Park in 1:38, and that should win.

—Mrs. William Moore, owner of the vacant property on West End avenue which adjoins Green brook, has decided to flag and curb the same, in conformity to similar improvements made on that avenue.

The best place for rest or recreation or recuperation at this season is

ATLANTIC CITY

and the new Fireproof

CHALFONTE

is especially well equipped to supply the wants of those who come to secure them

Write for Illustrated Folder and Rates to

THE LEEDS COMPANY

ALWYS OPEN 1 11 22—2 1 12 22—5 2 13 23 ON THE BEACH

207 BROAD ST. ELIZABETH LOAN Co. 207 BROAD ST.

"Reliable Money Brokers"

IF IT'S A QUESTION OF DOLLARS.

We may be able to help you out. At any rate if you'll inform us of your needs, we'll try. The winter months just past have raised the expenses of the average householder to their highest point and many of us have been unable to meet all of our obligations as promptly as we would like to and consequently find ourselves in debt.

SUPPOSE we were to advance you sufficient funds to meet your obligations. Do you not think you would be more satisfied to have only one payment to look after on pay day?

There is no place where money will be advanced you more willingly or where you will receive more courteous treatment than from us. It's worth investigating.

The possession of household goods, horses and wagons is sufficient evidence of your ability to pay. Call, write or 'phone.

ELIZABETH LOAN COMPANY.
Room 24 Hersh Bldg. Telephone 778-R. Elizabeth, N. J.

FREE! CARR'S BALLS FREE!

With Each Copy of the
DECLARATION OF THE U. S. at 10c EACH.
Something Every Boy Ought to Know

W. H. OLMSTED, the Hustler

331 Watchung Avenue

BEST DELIVERY SERVICE IN THE CITY

PLAINFIELD OFFICE

EISELE & KING

Members of the New York and Philadelphia Stock Exchanges
In the Babcock Building, West Front St.
Private wires East and West. Ticker service. Orders executed as rapidly as in any New York office
W. De LaR. ANDERSON, Manager.

HOW ABOUT YOUR SUIT?

We are showing the finest line of

KIRSABAUM SUITS and TOPCOATS

in Brown, Olives, Grey and Blue. Can we not show you these even if you don't buy—the goods are good and prices right. All the new things in Shirts, Neckwear, Socks, Caps and Hats. We have put our Straw Tiles on exhibition.

CLOTHING MADE TO ORDER.

Werner's Clothing House,

206 WEST FRONT ST.

THE DAILY PRESS.

Plainfield, N. J., May 13, 1908.

May 13 In History.

1619—Johann Van Olden Barneveldt, eminent and liberal Dutch statesman, died; born 1549.

1717—The Empress Maria Theresa of Austria born died 1780.

1846—The United States declared war against Mexico. The war message of President Polk declared that "war existed by the act of Mexico." The act consisted of armed attacks upon United States troops posted in observation upon soil in dispute.

1865—Last battle of the civil war.

1898—The Spanish squadron under Admiral Cervera reached Martinique, in the West Indies.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

Sun sets 7:04, rises 4:40; moon sets 4:07 a. m.; moon at greatest libration east.

Only recently the Governor stamped his official disapproval on a bill making Good Friday a legal holiday, taking the position that there are already altogether too many such observances. Mr. Fort evidently was of the opinion that what the country needs most just at the present time are working days and not holidays, the industrial situation being such that labor is enforced to rest more than is good for the general welfare.

So too, when a resolution for a "Mother's day" came before Congress a few days since, Mr. Kean advised as a substitute the Fifth Commandment. Most people will agree with the Newark News' view that the New Jersey Senator's was "timely, to the point and right." As that paper says:

"There is no more warrant for a "Mothers' Day" than there is for a "Fathers' Day," and if this business of appointing and recognizing days is carried much farther we will have ministers' day, eldest sons' day, principals' day, superintendents' day and such a number of other days that in time they will al be exhausted, simply because there are only 365 days in the year."

The Democrats might go farther and fare worse, when one soberly considers the qualifications of former United States Senator James Smith, Jr.

Before the day set for the Republican National Convention, the newspaper paragraphers may be depended upon to get in their Knox on Pennsylvania's candidate.

Judging by the size of the crowd on the opening night of the Kirmess, the people of Plainfield do not know what "hard times" mean.

Western man died on journey to see his mother-in-law. But there are some that die rather than see her.

Former Governor Murphy for Vice-President? Now isn't that a joke!

Take your choice—Roosevelt or Taft.

PHOTOGRAPHS MURDER SCENE.

Summit Chief of Police Takes Pictures of Site of Murder at Christening.

Summit, May 13.—Chief of Police Brown yesterday had photographs taken of the scene of the murder of Cucchiara Giuseppi, which occurred Sunday, April 12, when, after a fight at a christening, Giuseppi was shot to death in the roadway. The trial of Gaetano Grosso and Salvatore De Lucca, both of whom are charged with the crime, will probably be begun at this term of the Union County Court.

At an examination conducted by Union County Assistant Prosecutor Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., Chief of police Brown and County Detective John A. Galatian, on the day following the murder, Grosso, who is a young baker, and De Lucca each made statements accusing the other of having murdered Giuseppi. A few days ago, however, De Lucca requested that he be allowed to see Chief Brown and when the latter visited the prisoner in the Union County Jail, he is said to have confessed that he did the shooting.

The authorities, it is said, are not inclined to believe De Lucca's latest statement, as they believed his first story of the murder was correct, since there is said to be strong evidence that Grosso did the shooting, as the result of his inability to collect a bread bill which the murdered man is alleged to have owed him.

Grosso is said to have many friends and considerable financial aid in his behalf, while De Lucca is known to be friendless.

Mrs. Augusta Roll, of East Fourth street, who has been at the hospital under treatment, was discharged cured yesterday.

—One of the contagious disease cases has been discharged from the isolation ward at the hospital, leaving one there.

Headquarters for
John Gibson's
RYE.
E. C. Westcott, Agent.
115 East Front Street.

KIRMESS A REVELATION

(Continued from page 1.)

who galloped on for the final number in hunting costume and closed this part of the program. The Steeplechasers is the most fatiguing dance of all but the performers never shirked a particle. This statement may be slightly amended by saying that Miss Helen Hooley refused to "take" a hurdle, an original conception that made a distinct "hit."

The steeplechase was followed by the voting for the most popular dance, an account of which is given elsewhere, and in conclusion a grand march and tableau were given. This served to show the large number of participants in the Kirmess and also revealed as nothing else could the contrast in costumes. To use an old phrase, "it was a riot of color" and as the dancers moved about in a compact figure it resembled a magnified kaleidascope.

The Misses Florance, of Elizabeth, who arranged and have charge of the undertaking, were highly satisfied with the success of the opening and praised the young people in sincere terms. Mayor Fisk, the leading spirit in the affair, was also greatly pleased with the performance and enthusiastically declared, "Plainfield has never seen anything like it." In an opening address before the curtain arose he stated that he hoped to get $5,000 for the hospital as a result of the Kirmess and that he was sure what would be given in return would be worth the money. The mayor is chairman of the general committee and his assistants are J. E. Erickson, treasurer; Henry L. Hall, S. D. Lounsbury, W. C. Kinney, E. H. Ladd, Jr., Frederick W. Butler, L. G. Timpson and William R. Townsend.

In addition to the attraction furnished by the dances, the visitor to the theatre will find lots of other things to interest him at the same time add to the proceeds. The Women's Auxiliary has placed booths in the rear of the orchestra floor and from these are sold flowers, lemonade, candy, souvenirs, ice cream and chances for a grab bag. Mrs. Frederick W. Butler is the general chairman of this feature, with Mrs. W. L. Glenney as treasurer, while the various booths are presided over as follows:

Flower Booth: Mrs. C. A. Reed, Mrs. L. G. Timpson, Mrs. Frederic W. Butler, chairman; Mrs. F. H. Andrews, Mrs. E. T. Barrows, Mrs. J. B. Dumont, Mrs. R. H. Depew, Mrs. John Drayton, Mrs. Chapman Fisk, Mrs. C. J. Fisk, Mrs. Henry L. Hall, Mrs. A. G. Hooley, Mrs. Edwin S. Hooley, Mrs. Dorsey Hyde, Mrs. Henry Irons, Mrs. E. H. Ladd, Jr., Mrs. Arthur Murphy, Mrs. S. St. John McCutchen, Mrs. Arthur Otterson, Miss Otterson, Mrs. George S. Ring, Mrs. J. M. Shellabarger, Mrs. Percy Stewart, Mrs. H. M. Stockton, Mrs. E. M. Van Buren, Mrs. Theodore Wilson, Mrs. E. T. Wilson, Mrs. J. S. Zelie.

Lemonade Booth: Mrs. E. E. Iremonger, chairman; Mrs. Otis Avery, Mrs. Allison Archer, Mrs. L. M. Archer, Mrs. Paul Taylor Brown, Mrs. W. W. Coriell, Mrs. A. B. Davies, Mrs. H. C. Deknatel, Mrs. G. H. Frost, Mrs. W. L. Lockwood, Mrs. J. D. Radcliffe, Mrs. M. D. Rae, Mrs. S. S. Schuyler, Mrs. H. S. Tetsuka.

Candy Booth: Mrs. F. W. Yates, chairman; Mrs. H. V. Borden, Mrs. F. D. Warren, Mrs. John Gray, Foster, Mrs. F. G. Mead, Mrs. Percy Stewart, Mrs. Howard Tracy, Mrs. E. H. Lyon, Mrs. C. H. Tompkins, Mrs. Walter McGee, Mrs. E. S. Hooley, Mrs. B. A. Hegeman, Mrs. Henry McGee, Miss Eva Brown, Miss Helen Harmon, Miss Maida Hyde, Miss Margaret Mead, Mrs. J. P. Stevens, Mrs. N. C. Barnhart, Mrs. Edward J. Patterson.

Grab Bag: Miss Bessie Flanders, chairman; Miss Helen Adams, Miss Lucie Budlong, Miss Anna Campbell, Miss Norma Northrop, Miss Ruth Titus.

Kirmess Souvenirs: Miss Imogene Bass, chairman; Miss S. Lena Bass, Miss Roberta Bass, the Misses Brooks, Hyatt and Johnson, Mrs. Lewis Squier, Mrs. E. F. Feichert, Mrs. W. B. Tyler, Mrs. W. L. Righter, Mrs. R. S. Rowland, Mrs. Louise Andrews, Miss Fannie Perkins, Miss Barbara Fleming.

Ice Cream Booth: Mrs. Joseph O. McKelvey, and the Misses Moffet, Badum, Carver, Kronce, Vermeule, Stryker, Smith, Gunverman, Matthews, Payson, Smith, Peterson, Schenck, Bennett, Cranston, Coddington, M. Coddington, Squier, Bock, Coriell, Holmes, Richter, Pearce, Slorah, L. Lovell, C. Kampman, N. Kampman, E. Osgood, L. Osgood, F. Demarest, E. Demarest, Galloway, Wakefield, Woolston.

The dances given last night, the chaperons and the participants in each one, are as follows:

Rustic dance—Miss Mary A. Smith, chaperone, assisted by Miss Gilligan; the Misses Elizabeth Casey, Nellie Casey, Elizabeth Fitzgerald, May Huntington, Helen Johnston, May Kennedy, Ellen Lappen, Helen Moran, May Murry, Annabel MacAfee, Mary McCarthy, Blanche Skinner, and William Brown, Edward Carty, Frank Casey, Thomas Connelly, James Cullen, Harry Forrestell, Edwin Harding, Jr., Thomas Kennedy, Jules Linke, James Lynch, Daniel MacAfee, Edward O'Loughlin.

French dolls—Mrs. George A. Beaton chaperone; the Misses Gertrude Butler, Catharine Drayton, Margaret Fisher, Louise French, Pauline

(Continued on page 5.)

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

The Woodhull & Martin Store

50c DRESS GOODS at 29c a yard

This is without question the best offering of absolutely new Dress Goods made this season. They are in the much wanted neat checks and plaids in light and dark colorings, full 36 inches wide; your choice at 29c a yard.

Grand Display of Trimmed Millinery.

We are exhibiting in our Millinery Parlors a very fine representation of the choicest and newest models, and are offering them at extremely moderate prices; also a large collection of untrimmed hats, tailor suit hats, flowers, foliage, feathers, ribbons, etc., etc.

PETTICOAT TALK.

Heatherbloom taffeta Petticoats in all the newest colorings and black, at 2.25.

The new Klosfit Petticoats, fits without a wrinkle, made of rustling taffeta, at 1.25, 1.50 and 2.50.

Feathersilk taffeta Petticoats, light and durable, in fancy stripes, at 2.25.

New seersucker Petticoats, in blue and white, and gray and white stripes, at 50c and 1.00.

NEW SHIRT WAISTS—EXCELLENT VALUES.

Our models have never been so chic and popular in price as now. Excellent values in both tailored and dress waists.

Fine lawn and batiste waists, elegantly trimmed with lace and embroidery. The newest models, at 98c, 1.25 and 1.50, and other styles ranging from 1.98 to 5.00.

Fancy colored polka dot Swiss Jabot waists; extra special values, at 1.25 and 1.75.

Beautiful lingerie waists, handsomely embroidered, at 5.00, 6.00 and up to 10.00.

Pretty tailor-made linen waists, open front models, at 2.75, 3.50 and 4.00.

Exceptionally Low Prices For Women's Summer Underwear.

Plain white cotton ribbed vests, at 10c, 15c, 19c

Half lisle ribbed vests in plain strap, short sleeves and shield styles, at 25c.

Fine Swiss ribbed vests, in plain and fancy styles, at 50c.

Cotton ribbed umbrella pants, open and closed styles, reg. sizes 25c; extra sizes 29c.

Fine lisle ribbed umbrella pants at 50c.

Lisle ribbed umbrella pants, the famous Isabella style, at 50c.

Fancy embroidered white cotton ribbed vests, at 25c.

Pure lisle ribbed vests, plain and fancy, with strap, at 39c.

Fine fancy lisle ribbed vests, at 79c.

Pure silk ribbed vests, very fine quality, at 1.25

Fine lisle combination suits, umbrella and light knee pants, at 50c.

We're showing a complete line of medium underwear specially adapted for mountain and seashore wear; also high neck, long and short sleeve, ribbed corset cover.

Special Wash Goods Sale 15c a yd.

About 5,000 yards of extra fine quality American Beauty Batiste, in an endless variety of new and pretty patterns in checks, plaids, stripes, figures and floral effects; these goods are worth to buy regular from 19c to 25c a yard.

LET US DO YOUR AWNING AND SHADE WORK—We'll furnish only the best materials and do the work in a first-class manner, and our charges are very moderate.

The Woodhull & Martin Store.

STORAGE VAULTS

For Large Trunks, Boxes, Valuable Packages, Etc., Etc.

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES OF ALL SIZES

ABSOLUTE SECURITY PROVIDED

CITY NATIONAL BANK

To Entertain the Japs.

Mrs. William Newcorn will entertain those participating in the Japanese dance at the kirmess, of which she is the chaperoned, at her home in West Front street Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Burns and daughter, of Watchung avenue, entertained Mrs. Alfred Francis and Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Ruffin, of Newark, and W. Wilkinson, of Jersey City, on Sunday.

AMUSEMENTS.

New Plainfield Theatre
PLAYING ALL THE LEADING ATTRACTIONS
W. J. COUNIHAN - - - - Manager

Week Commencing
MONDAY, MAY 18—
Matinee Wednesday and Saturday.
ALBERTA GALLATIN
and Her All-Star Stock Co.
Nat. Goodwin's Greatest Success
The Cowboy and the Lady
Wed., May 20—Rose Matinee.
Every lady attending the matinee will be presented with an American Beauty. Miss Gallatin will hold a reception on the stage after the performance.
Sale of Seats Opens Monday, May 11.
Prices—Nights, 15c, 25c, 35c, 50c. Matinees, 15c, 25c and 35c.

EYE-STRAIN

is directly responsible for the majority of cases of blindness today. If instead of trying to overwork the eyes, one would at once get glasses at the first warning of eye-strain there would be fewer cases of blindness at the present time.

Come to us and have your eyes examined free of charge and we will advise you what to do to save them.

Headache and neuralgia quickly relieved.

STILES & CO.,
Philadelphia Eye Specialist.
At 105 East Front Street,
Every Thursday
Hours 11:15 to 4:30.

Contracts Signed Today.

The contracts for the new police headquarters' building were signed today by Alexander Milne, the successful bidder and sub-contractors, and the work will be started within a few days.

Married by Justice Hand.

Francisco Diana and Miss Concitta Micco, both of Cottage place, were married by Justice Hand yesterday afternoon in the District Court. James Eatz and Alex. Piano were the witnesses.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

Capital and surplus $250,000.00

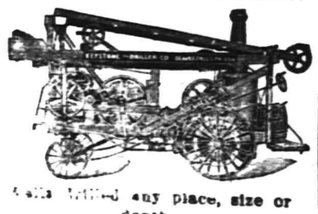
THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK of Plainfield.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS:
A. J. Brunson, President
J. A. Smith, Vice President
J. M. Runyon, Cashier
W. R. Coddington
J. A. Hubbard
C. Frank French,
S. F. Coriell
P. J. Zeglio, M. D
E. H. Bird

PAYING ACCOUNTS DRAW THREE PER CENT INTEREST

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

John S. Lewis
Successor to Lewis & Dilts.
Artesian Well Contractors.



Wells drilled any place, size or depth
Estimates cheerfully given.
Box 173,
Scotch Plains, N. J.

BARTHOLOMAY
ROCHESTER
Rienzi Beer
IN BOTTLES ONLY
BOTTLED AND DISTRIBUTED BY
HENRY HAURAND,
66-68 SOMERSET STREET,
'Phone No. 239 Plainfield, N. J.

"Joy Cometh in the Morning"
But For Those Who
COME TO PECK'S
It Cometh in the Morning and Abideth All the Day Long.

HAMMOCKS

The well-known Vudor make, the best yet—strongest constructed, best cords and colors fast. We are agents for these well-known goods and furnish a good assortment at all times.

Vudor
PORCH SHADES

PORCH Screens

There is only one really good porch screen and that's the Vudor. No question about it. We have sold them for several years and with greatly increased demands each season. Simple in operation.

Porch Chairs, Bamboo Screens, Net Doors and Screens, Refrigerators, Porch Rugs, Summer Furniture in large variety of sizes, kinds, colors, and prices always the lowest for quality.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON,
BABCOCK BUILDING, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

LADIES' AND GENT'S SUITS
CLEANED AND PRESSED
G. O. KELLER,
'PHONE 857-J 125 PARK AVENUE

Why Have a Bank Account?
Because---

A Bank Account creates a desire to make it as large as possible, and it is wise for all to provide for the "RAINY DAY," which comes sooner or later.

Start an account today with us,

The Plainfield Savings Bank.

Rich Milk 8c a quart.
Rich Cream 12c half pt.
Buttermilk 6c a quart

Plainfield Milk & Cream Co,
MARCHANT BROS.,
112 WATCHUNG AVENUE

"HARD TIMES" DO NOT EFFECT THE SALE OF
"HAWES" $3.00 HATS
WHY?—BECAUSE THEY ARE GUARANTEED
JAS. R. BLAIR

NEWS IN THE SUBURBS.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Rev. C. W. Y. Attlee began last evening at the prayer meeting a new series of addresses. He took for his subject, "The Merchant of Lyons." The whole series will comprise thirteen talks, the remainder of which will be as follows: "The Good Parson of Lutterworth," "The Bohemian Witness," "The Monk that shook the World," "The Youthful Martyr," "The Protestants," "The Tragedy of St. Bartholomew's day."

Miss Augusta Acker, the well known elocutionist of Plainfield, will entertain at Oak Tree on Friday for the benefit of Marconnier chapel. Mrs. F. R. Valentine will preside at the piano and Floyd P. Muyck and F. R. Valentine will be the soloists.

(Additional suburban news on page 2.)

KIRMESS A REVELATION

(Continued from Page 4.)

Gates, Gwendolyn Gough, Eleanor Iredell, Ruth Timpson.

Tarantella dance—Mrs. Walter W. McGee, chperone, assisted by Mrs. James Joy; the Misses Elizabeth McGee, Ethel Most, May Murray, Ethel Murray, Gladys Peck, Rita Pond, Jean Saunders, Mollie Slocum, and Edwin Daniel, William Flanders, John Martin, Vaughn McGee, Arthur Reed, William Schoonmaker, Edward Suffern, John Vandeventer. Solo by Miss Marion Hall.

Indian Braves—Mrs. Jabez Gilbert, chaperone, assisted by Mrs. John B. Dumont; Stanley Burke, F. Warren Butler, Jr., Robert Foote, Robert Gavett, Laurence Heely, Otis Hovey, Charles Hyde, Ned Jenkins, Donald Ketcham, Ned Stevenson, Ludlow Vandeventer, Philip Vandeventer. Solo by Miss Helen Moody.

Japanese dance—Mrs. William Newcorn, chaperone; the Misses Berlowitz, Sadie Goldstein, Kadish, Tillie Kantor, Levine, Rose Mathanson, Rose Rothberg, Rosen Rosenson and Esther Wolf.

The Swiss dance—Mrs. Katharine Douglass Glenn; the Misses Dorothy Barrett, Arline Brown, Marjorie Brown, Cora Brokaw, Daisy Brouard, Helen S. Callahan, May Doane, Aimee Emmons, Emma Foster, Emilie Harrigan, Viola Hellyer, Anna Littell, Florence Smalley, Dorothy Smith.

Marsovia dance—Mrs. Henry C. Irons, chaperone; the Misses Anna C. Fisk, Janet Wildey, Mildred Wildey, Florence Wildey, and Harvey Fisk, M. J. Dumont, Hart S. Farley, Harold C. McCollom.

Dutch dance—Mrs. Harry W. Marshal, chaperone; the Misses Mildred Barnes, Ruth Cline, Edna Coles, Marjorie Hart, Reba Marshall, Hattie Nischwitz, Laura Ray Warnock, Grace Woolston, and Frederick Allen, Edward Bingaman, Lerey Gates, Gordon May, Nelson Ramsey, William Thickstun, William Woodruff and Arthur Woodruff.

The White Hussars—Mrs. H. G. Runkle chaperone, assisted by Mrs. Chapman Fisk and Mrs. Daniel Runkle; the Misses Euphemia Bakewell, Margaret McCutchen, Virginia Hegeman, Grace Kaufman, Ursula Rowland, Georgianna Smith, Helen Valiant, Mrs. Elliott Cutler and Messrs. Elliott Cutler, Harry Eaton, W. Lester Glenney, Charles King, Herbert Rogers, Daniel Runkle, William Schoonmaker, Philip Stillman.

Steeplechase—Mrs. Charles J. Fisk, chaperone, assisted by Mrs. L. E. Waring: The Misses Mabel Hooley, Marion Hall, Caroline Hall, Mary Runkle, Helen Timpson, Eleanor Waring, Janet Wildey, Natalie Wildey, Dorothy Fisk, Anna Fisk, and Gordon Abbott, Dudley Barrows, Ames Brooks, Roy Cox, James Dodd, Morris Dumont, J. Hartley Mellick, George Schoonmaker, Harvey Fisk, Charles W. Fisk. Hunting solo by Miss Anna Fisk.

The full cast for the pantomime, is as follows:

"Shop Girls," Miss Louise Curtis, Miss Sylvia Curtis, Miss Curtis, Miss Gabriel McQuaide; "Messengers," Amore Pinto, Charles Wentz, George Schoonmaker, James Dodd; "Mr. Schwartz," Henry L. Hall; "Dottie Dimple," Miss Elsa Schwed; "Dottie Dimple's nurse," Miss Mary French; "Mr. Buyit," George S. Ring; "Mrs. Buyit," Mrs. Serrell; "Buster Buyit," Master Philip Phillips; Mechanical Doll," Adelaide Parker; "Jack in Box," Master Henry Zook; "Musical Clown," Master Bruce Beaton; "Mr. Noah," Master Kenneth Runyon; "Mrs. Noah," Miss Alverda Holland; "Sambo," Master Donald Grieson; Animals—Chaperoned by Miss Dealaman; "White Rabbit," Carlton Dunham; "Reindeer," Albert Coffey; "Brown Rabbit," Ronald Schenck; "Brown Bear," Morris Van Buren; "Lion," John Hammann; "Frog," Henry Hammann; "Pig," Harold Wikoff; "Gray Rat," Harold Eckert; "Black Dog," Albert Dealaman; "Elephant," Edson Woodhull; "Gray Cat," Arthur Force.

Smalley Released on Parole.

Walter Smalley, who was recently arrested on a non-support charge, has been paroled by Justice Clark Mundy on his agreement to pay his wife $3 per week.

—Fresh cut Jersey asparagus and lettuce are features of Neuman Brothers' vegetable display. A new big assortment every day.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

STEEPLECHASE LEADS IN VOTING CONTEST

Standing of the Dances in the Voting Contest.

Steeplechase	1021
White Hussars	860
French Dolls	681
Pantomime	441
Rustic	363
Dutch	236
Japanese	184
Swiss	134
Indian Braves	124
Tarentella	83

As a feature of the Kirmess being given at the theatre for the benefit of Muhlenberg Hospital, Mayor Fisk has inaugurated a voting contest for the most popular dance appearing on the nightly programs. As the numbers are concluded, the participants circulate among the audience and solicit ballots at five cents each the total number secured being announced just previous to the grand march and ensemble. In this way the friends of the dancers can help the successful ones in securing a pennant that will be awarded at the end of the week.

The voting started off with a rush last night and before the "polls" were declared closed, 4,394 ballots had been cast. As they were brought to the stage, the returns were chalked on a blackboard by Mayor Fisk on one side and H. L. Hall on the other. Both the Mayor and Mr. Hall aided the young people in getting votes by "jollying" the crowd in a way that was as good as anything on the program.

The French Dolls were among the most active in campaigning but though everybody declared they were "the cutest ever," the Steeplechasers went on a whirlwind tour and landed a big majority over all contestants. They head the list today with a total of 1,021 votes. The White Hussars also charged the crowd in a decisive way and are credited with 860. The French Dolls are third with 681, the Pantomime has 441, the Rustic 363 and the Dutch dance 236. The others stand as follows: Japanese 184, Swiss, 134, Indian Braves 121 and the Tarentella, 83. There a number of dances that have not appeared as yet, among them the Rosebuds, the Rainbow and the Sailors.

No one has to be registered to cast a ballot and the slogan is: "Vote Early and Often."

METUCHEN, SO. PLAINFIELD, AUTO SERVICE PLANNED.

The question of establishing a passenger automobile service between Plainfield, South Plainfield and Metuchen, was discussed at a meeting of citizens at South Plainfield last night. The proposition was presented by Judge M. Mendel, who suggested that a company be formed which should operate a car, in four different stages, the charge to be five cents for each stage, from Plainfield to Metuchen; thus making the round-trip fare twenty-five cents.

The route proposed is as follows: Plainfield avenue to South Plainfield, and through Oak Tre to Metuchen; the return trip will end by way of Park avenue. It is also proposed that there be a station at Metuchen and in Plainfield and that the company purchase three cars. They will be solid tires and substantially built.

One car will start from Metuchen at the same time that another leaves Plainfield. The third car will be held in reserve, in case of accident which might befall the other cars, and will be used to make short journeys when not on the route.

If posible a half-hour schedule will be adopted, though at first it is more probable that it will be hourly. Arrangements for express packages and light freight, which will be carried by means of a trailer, will be made. Judge Mendel's proposition met with the approval of all present and a committee was appointed of the following citizens: P. C. McDonough, M. Mendel, W. Hamilton, W. E. Smith and Rev. C. W. F. Attlee. This committee will meet tonight to arrange for the incorporation. The capital stock will be either $5,000 or $10,000 in $10 fully paid-up shares. Stock will be sold all along the line of the proposed route.

Lumber Firm Praises Firemen.

Chief T. O. Doane today received a check for $10 for the Firemen's pension fund and an extremely courteous note from the J. D. Loizeaux Lumber Company in appreciation of the fire department's work in putting out a small blaze in the firm's East End yard last week. The letter stated that it was the first time the company has ever had to call upon the department and the quick response made the members keenly appreciate the service rendered.

Captain W. W. Winn Returns.

Captain W. W. Winn has returned to his home on Madison avenue, after his long and perilous sea voyage, during which he lost his vessel, and his crew, as well as himself barely escaped with their lives. He has been absent from home over a year.

Kirmess Pictures.

The pictures of the kirmess appearing in this issue are from photographs taken by Clement B. Morgan, and are reproduced from the New York Herald. Mr. Morgan's photographs of the various dances are on sale nightly at the theatre.

Fresh Vegetables

Asparagus, Wax Beans, Tomatoes,
Radishes, Beets, Lettuce,
Strawberries, Green Beans, Cucumbers.

Fruit

Oranges, Grape Fruit, Apples.
Malaga Grapes, Figs.

NEUMAN BROS.

GROCERS—Watchung Avenue and Fifth Street.

Efficient and rapid delivery service to all parts of the city.

MONO

Fireproof Storage Warehouse.

Separate Rooms, Fireproof Partitions. Clean, Dry, Secure.

Inspection Invited—Open 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

FURNITURE REMOVED WITH CARE.

Telephone 522-W. Opposite freight depot.

A. M. RUNYON & SON, UNDERTAKERS.

603 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York Office—50 Great Jones Street, Tel. call, 3846-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 315.

T. A. MOORE.

UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.

Office—508 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 790
Residence—614 East 6th St. " 741-R
New York Office, 27 Great Jones St.
Telephone Call, 3249-Spring.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

Established 1872.

P. CASEY & SON.

UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS.

Office 116 Park Av., Tel. 884-w. Res., 417 W. 3d St., Tel. 908-R. Office open day and night.
N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2094 Gramercy

GEO. W. COLE.

UNDERTAKER & EMBALMER.

200 West Second St. Telephone 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

USE PRESS WANT ADS

Chas. L. Stanley,

159 East Front St. 'Phone 928.
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
$3,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

L. L. MANNING & SON, STEAM GRANITE WORKS.

Corner Central Avenue and West Front Street.
Opposite First Baptist Church.

DIED.

BENNETT—At New Brunswick, N. J., on Tuesday, May 12, 1908, at his late residence, 300 Suydam street, Abram C. Bennett, aged 88 years and 3 months, formerly of this city.

Funeral services 2 p. m. Thursday, May 14th. Interment Samptown cemetery.

CONOVER—On Tuesday, May 12, 1908, George, son of the late Ralph and Susan Conover, in his 57th year.

Funeral services from his late residence, 95 Jackson avenue, North Plainfield, on Saturday, May 16, at 2:30 p. m. 5 13 2

BATES—At Portland, Oregon, on Tuesday, May 5, 1908, Curtis Bates, of 243 East Sixth street, Plainfield, N. J.

Notice of funeral in Thursday's New York Herald and Times.

Classified Advertisements

Rates for advertisements under this heading one cent a word for first insertion, one half a cent a word for consecutive insertions of the same advertisement running for less than one month; one month, fifty cents a line (6 words to a line), double rate for advertisement set in capitals.

No advertisements received for less than ten cents.

Copy for death and marriage notices and classified advertising accepted up to 2:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS is not at liberty to give any information regarding advertisements that require an address in care of this office. Persons answering these ads. should mail or leave answers as stated in advertisements.

Help Wanted.

WANTED—White girl to cook, wash and iron; references. Apply 1006 Park avenue. 5 13 4

WANTED—Experienced cook, also chambermaid, waitress, white; friends preferred; personal reference required. Apply 313 Franklin place. 5 11 3

Help Wanted.

WANTED—Colored girl for general housework. 1014 West Front street. 5 11 3

COOKS and general houseworker wanted at once. Call Andersen, 659 West Fourth street. 'Phone 508-W. 5 11 3

WANTED — Competent girl for general housework; small family; no washing; good wages; references required. 911 Watchung avenue. 5 12 2

WANTED—Girl to assist with general housework. 144 Westervelt avenue. 5 13 2

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework. 608 Madison avenue.

COLORED woman wants days work or housecleaning of any kind. 508 West Fourth street. 5 13 3

SITUATION wanted; Swedish girl wants place as cook in small family. Call 122 Madison avenue. 5 13 2

WANTED—Girl for general housework; small family. Apply evenings 27 North Clinton avenue. 5 11 6

Situations Wanted.

YOUNG Swedish man, 26 years old, wants position as coachman and useful man; first-class references. Address Swedish, care Daily Press. 5 13 2

YOUNG colored man wants position of any kind. Address 206 A, Watchung avenue. 5 13 2

YOUNG German, 18 years old, wants work taking care of horses. E. Thomas, Dunellen, N. J., near postoffice. 5 12 2

WANTED—Situation at general housework. Call 203 Grant avenue. 5 12 3

COOKS, waitresses, chambermaid and general houseworkers want positions. Anderson Employment office, 659 West Fourth street. 'Phone 508-W. 4 27 eod

GERMAN woman wants a place as housekeeper. Call Andersen Employment, 659 West Fourth street. 5 11 3

POSITION desired by reliable person; experienced in nursing, to care for invalid or elderly person. No objection to travel. References exchanged. Address H. H., Press office. 5 11 3

YOUNG man wants position as cook or butler. Address W. M., care Press. 5 11 3

FOUR Slavish girls want positions as general houseworkers or waitresses. Call Andersen Employment office, 659 West Fourth street. 'Phone 508-W. 5 11 3

WANT washing at home. Apply 616 West Third street. 5 12 6

COMPETENT help constantly on hand; white and colored. Hall's Employment Agency (originally The Plainfield), station driveway; 'phone 322-J. 4 22 1m

WOMAN wants days work. Call 612 West Fourth street. 5 9 4

Lost and Found.

LOST—At Plainfield Station or between Plainfield and the ferry, a flat bill fold containing a sum of money. Suitable reward. Address T., Press. 5 13 2

WILL party that exchanged umbrella at Grammar School operetta in Park Club last Friday night kindly notify this office and they will receive their own umbrella. The umbrella exchanged had initials L. K. on handle. Call telephone 61. 5 11 3

For Rent.

FLAT to let. Inquire 18 Craig place. 4 14 tf

FOR RENT—New house just completed; seven rooms and bath; rent $21. Address O. I. C., Daily Press. 4 24 tf

FOR RENT—Commodious offices in the Woodhull & Martin building suitable for lawyers, dentists, insurance companies, etc.; will arrange to suit tenant. 4 20 tf

THREE rooms to let. 732 West Third street. 4 6 tf

TO LET—Second floor, city water, $12.50. 183 Somerset street. Ernest T. Hand. 5 8 tf

TO LET—6 room house, with half acre ground, $12 per month, on West Third street. M. F. Gano, 142 North avenue. 5 11 tf

TO LET—Lower half of new house on East Second street; $8.00. Apply Martin Hansen, 316 and 318 West Front street. 5 11 3

FOUR rooms to let; all newly papered and painted; city water and gas. Apply B. Mann, 120 West Fourth street. 5 11 tf

FOR RENT—No. 26 Rockview avenue, 12 rooms and 2 baths; large beautiful grounds; large carriage house; immediate possession. No. 806 Third place, 10 room house; immediate possession. Furnished cottages to rent for summer from $50 month up. Edmund Rushmore, 209 North avenue, Plainfield; N. Y. office, 42 Broadway. 5 6 12

SEVEN-ROOM apartments to let; all improvements. 937 West Front street; also six-room house. 3 28 tf

HOUSE TO LET—6 rooms; also 4 rooms to let. J. Sachar, 731 West Third street. 5 7 6

TO LET—Newly furnished room in select apartment; centre of town; all improvements. A. C., care Press. 5 11 6

TO LET—Neatly furnished parlor and bedroom, use of bath and gas range. Also 3 unfurnished rooms. Address Apartment, care Press. 5 12 3

NEW six-room house to let, 1219 West Third street; six-room house, 1424 Willever street, near Safe Works; two apartments, four rooms each, all improvements, or the whole house, 216 Prescott place. J. Sacher, 731 West Third St. 4 3 tf

NEW 7-room house, on Cameron avenue, for sale or to let; furnace, open plumbing, gas and city water. Inquire E. Beys, Cameron avenue. 5 4 1m

TWO 6-room flats to let; improvements. J. C. Pope & Co., Plainfield Savings Bank. 5 13 6

TO LET, without children, half house; separate entrance; will not come in contact with other family; 6 rooms; city water and toilet; rent moderate. Address Moderate, Daily Press. 5 11 3

FURNISHED apartment to rent from June 1 to September; reasonable. 411 West Fifth; up stairs.

TO LET—Flat, six rooms, large and light; improvements. Apply 84 Fairview avenue. 5 12 3

FIVE-ROOM house and barn to let, 78 Greenbrook road. Apply John Consoli, 23 Somerset street. 5 12 3

TO RENT—Second and third stories of 316 and 318 West Front street, 50x85 feet. Jos. W. Gavett. 4 3 tf

FOR RENT—Flat in Jackson building, 5 rooms and bath; all improvements; also house 634 West Seventh street; all improvements. Liefke & Laing. 5 11 3

TO LET—9-room house, all improvements; 3 Verdon street. G. W. V. Moy. 3 13 tf

TO LET—4 rooms, upper floor, water. John Manley, insurance, 321 Park avenue. 3 17 tf

Real Estate Agents.

HOUSES, new, for sale or rent, all improvements, excellent location, East End. Inquire M. A. Rose, 301 Watchung avenue, 'Phone 273-J. 4 14 1m

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent or exchange. Edmund Rushmore, 209 North avenue, telephone No. 49 Plainfield; 42 Broadway, New York 10 10 tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield; telephone 44. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; properties that I have picked up in trade that I can sell you for less than market prices; if you want to buy or have anything to sell come and see me. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, 39 Prospect place, North Plainfield. 11 20 tf

REAL ESTAE for sale, rent and exchange at bargain figures, insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

FOR SALE—If you want to buy or sell real estate, please call, write or 'phone Ira L. LaRue, next to station, next to bargain. Office 'phone 752-R, residence 'phone 845-L. 12 19 tf

Miscellaneous.

MURRAY'S Registry and Employment Bureau for first-class help only; all nationalties; main line cars pass the door; telephone service under operation; several years experience. Mrs. R. Murray, 726 West Front street. 5 13 3 wfs

COMPLETE line of automobile supplies and tires at lowest New York prices. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

AUTOMOBILES to hire at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co., telephone 991-J. 4 15 3m

FIRST-CLASS places and first-class help always on hand. Swedish Intelligence Office, 22 Somerset place, 'Phone 196-W. 8 22 tf

WE have the finest solid tire applying plant in the State for business wagons, carriages and coaches; also auto tires, baby carriage tires and bicycle tires, at 407 Watchung avenue, corner Fifth street. Plainfield Auto Tire Co.. Famous Firestone side wire tires applied on premises. 5 12 6

AUTOMOBILES repaired and overhauled by first class mechanics at lowest rates. Thompson Auto Co. 4 15 3m

THE EXCHANGE, 325 West Front street, telephone 901-R. Do you have furniture, carpets, etc., for sale? Do not fail to notify us; we pay 50 per cent. more than anybody else. 11 29 tf

CONTRACTS taken for care of lawns for the season; grading; soil and sod furnished; planting, etc. J. M. Welsh, 754 Kensington avenue. Telephone 148-J. 5 11 6

GARBAGE removed regularly and reasonably. George Christensen, R. F. D. No. 1. 4 21 1m

CELLAR digging, grading in all its branches; house cleaning and whitewashing a specialty. 'Phone 862-J. Prompt service; competent help. Samuel M. Thornton, 544 West Third street. 5 8 6

IF YOU want your watch, clock or jewelry repaired take them to Brown, 124 Watchung Ave. 4 18 1m

FAMILY sewing of all kinds. Miss Mast, 94 Grove street. 5 12 1m

JOHN P. Van Horn, general machinist and bicycle expert; wheels stored, bought, sold and exchanged. 150 North avenue. 5 12 tf

PLAINFIELD 5 and 10c delivery and messenger service. 150 North avenue; temporary 'phone 752-R. 5 12 tf

FURNITURE stored and sold on commission. Martin Hansen, 316 and 318 West Front street. 5 5 1m

MORTGAGES placed on good security. Francis J. Blatz, First National Bank Building. 5 13 2m

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S., graduate American Veterinary College, N. Y., pet animals a specialty. OFFICE WITH ALBERT HEDDEN, livery, 118 East Fourth street, telephone 114-J. 1 27 tf

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans, Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 4 tf

BABIES crochet sacques for sale; all prices; also ladies' knitted sweaters made to order. Mrs. Mayer, 54 Pearl street, North Plainfield. tf

SOMETHING of interest to every dressmaker and every lady that works at dressmaking. Address B. P. C., care Press. 5 7 6

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer; sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

CESSPOOLS and vaults cleaned, odorless excavator; good work; lowest prices. T. M. Ingraham, Plainfield R. F. D. No. 1. 12 10 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

Money to Loan.

MONEY to loan on first mortgage. Louis A. Clement, lawyer, Babcock building. 5 11 6

TO LOAN—$35,000 on first mortgage, six per cent. Address Owner, care Press. 5 11 3 eod

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite Depot. 12 28 tf

MONEY to loan on band and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 12 18 tf

LOANS negotiated. J. T. Vail. 1 14 tf

TO LOAN—Money on good mortgages. George F. Brown, 94 Somerset street tf

Real Estate for Exchange.

FINE new house, centrally located; 10 rooms, all improvements; gas and electric light, hot water heating, parquet floors; would exchange for moderate priced lots. J. T. Vail, 177 North Ave. 4 14 tf

TECHNICAL MEN

The call for competent and trained superintendents, engineers and draftsmen and specialty men is particularly strong. We offer you the widest range of opportunities, the best opportunity to advance, the highest salaries paid in the market to-day. Write stating experience, salary expected and location preferred. List of positions mailed free for the asking.

HAPGOODS (INC.). Brain Brokers

305-309 Broadway, New York City.

For Sale.

4-ROOM cottage; acre of land; $2,200. Wm. Bourgeois, Laramie road. 5 1 1m

FOR SALE, RENT OR EXCHANGE—Houses and lots in all parts of the city; also country homes and farms at bargain prices. C. H. Snyder, 221 Park avenue, room 4. 4 18 1m

FAST pacing mare for sale at a sacrifice for want of use. 146 East Fifth street. 5 11 6

FOR SALE, at sacrifice; party needs the money; two lots on Leland avenue, near George street. Inquire 146 East Fifth street. 5 11 6

FOR SALE—Very handsome sideboard, $25. 1210 Park avenue. 5 13 tf

FOR SALE—Good seed potatoes, $1.10 per bushel. F. M. Carpenter, R. F. D. 1. 5 13 3

FOR SALE—Fine Ayrshire cow; fresh in milk; good milker. Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue.

SOD for sale cheap. Apply 719 Richmond street. 5 13 3

ON ACCOUNT change of business wish to sell my property for less than value; good built, newly decorated and painted house, 10 rooms, reception hall and bath; possession at once; also barn. Also two family house, large lot, gas, city water and toilet; sewer conection; brings $35 per month. Addres Bargain, Daily Press. 5 11 3

FOR SALE—Two large handsome green and gold Canton vases; medallion pattern. Can be seen at 114 Crescent avenue. 5 11 6

FOR SALE—Two cylinder Ford light touring car, A1 condition; fine top and just painted; musts ell. Call or address Hans Nelson, Oak Tree, N. J. 5 13 3

SECOND-HAND doors for sale cheap. 821 Kensington avenue. 5 11 3

FOR SALE—Automobile runabout, cost $950; price $225; in fine condition. Address A. R., Daily Press. 5 5 tf

FOR SALE—Three fine maple trees, about 6 to 8 at base; must be sold at once. John Mobus, P. O. Box 320, City. 5 12 3

1905 2-Cylinder Elmore touring car; fine shape; 5 lamps, etc. $275. Thompson, 413 Park avenue. 5 7 6

BARGAIN in lots for cash in Highland Park. Inquire at 303 Leland avenue. 5 8 6

SOIL for sale. 57 Chatham street. 5 13 3

FOR SALE—Light double harness, rubber covered, hand made, used but little; cost $150; will sell for $75; K collars. Address Owner, care Press. 5 11 3eod

FOR SALE—The finest lot in Plainfield, on which to build a row of apartment houses. Chas. L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building, Plainfield, N. J. 2 21 tf

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

Rooms and Board.

GOOD accommodations; low rates. Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

WATCHUNG AVE., 724, near 7th St., desirable rooms with first class board. 5 13 6

TO LET—Furnished room; use bath. Address New Madison, care Press. 5 11 3

TWO fine rooms and board; also table boarders. Mrs. Detweilers, 514 Madison avenue. 5 7 6

FEW boarders wanted. Mrs. M. Fosbre, 659 Essex street. 5 1 12

LARGE front room with or without board. 137 East Fifth street. 5 9 6

TWO communicating rooms with board; sunny exposure; bath adjoining; first class neighborhood; excellent table. 132-134 Crescent avenue. 9 19 tf

Poultry and Eggs.

CHICKS for sale; two weeks old. 9 Codington avenue. 5 8 6

EGGS FOR HATCHING—White Leghorn, White Plymouth Rocks, Buff Orpingtons and Pekin Ducks, from the best strains. Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue, Tel. 451-J. 4 14 1m

SETTINGS of 13 from prize stock. Blk Minorca $1.50, Buff Orpington $3 White or Partridge Wyandotte $2. 100, $10; 50, $5. 234 West 2nd St. 4 3 tf

EGGS for setting, from Orpingtons, Black Leghorns, Indian Game, and India Runner Ducks, corner Grant and Sherman Aves. 3 25 tf

R. I. RED, Barred Plymouth Rock and White Leghorn eggs from the leading strains of the country; $1 per sitting, $5 per hundred. George Howard, Jr., South Bound Brook, N. J. 2 21 3m

Wanted—Miscellaneous.

WANTED—A pair of andirons, copper preferred; cheap. Address Andiron, care Press. 5 13 tf

WANTED—Good horse for all purposes. Consumers Coal Co., 225 Madison avenue.

SOME STATE NEWS BRIEFS

Dr. W. H. Demarest, president of Rutgers College, New Brunswick, delivered an address before the students of the Millville High School yesterday afternoon.

Church delegations have asked Mayor Stoy, of Atlantic City, and city officials that the white wings who work on the boardwalk, the beach and the avenues on Sunday, be withdrawn.

Farming has practically been at a standstill in South Jersey for two weeks owing to bad weather, but was renewed with unusual vigor yesterday, and even the women were pressed into service.

Jacob Keller's application for a tavern license for a place in Acquackanock township, near Fairyland Park, was refused by Judge Scott, in the Court of Common Pleas at Paterson yesterday.

Accused of larceny of two watches, two chains, a bracelet, a diamond locket and other jewelry, valued at $200, Francis P. Moore, of Millville, was held in $500 bail in the Camden police court yesterday.

By losing her footing and falling headlong down the stairs at her home on Church street, Bridgeton, Mrs. Delia Winters is in a critical condition. She was badly cut and bruised, one arm broken and it is feared she sustained internal injuries.

A bill to place the Atlantic City fire department under the control of a fire commissioner was started in Council last night. Louis Donnelly, former head of the commission, and organizer of the paid department, is slated for the place of commissioner, which pays $1,500 per year.

Former employes of the Somers' Point branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad were made happy yesterday because of checks sent them from the railroad offices returning all the money they have paid into the railroad relief fund. The 125 men were thrown out of positions when the branch was sold to the syndicate, which has since electrified the line, and were thereby barred from further membership in the relief association.

New Jersey's oldest Odd Fellow, and probably one of the oldest active officers in the order in the country, was the principal at a reception last night given by New Jersey Lodge, No. 1, at Morgan's Hall, in Camden. The veteran is Jesse Ellis, outside guardian of the lodge, and last night marked the sixtieth anniversary of his joining this same lodge. District Deputy Hires and others were present to congratulate Mr. Ellis.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Several new members will be received at the mid-week prayer-meeting in the First Baptist church tonight. It is expected that there will be baptism on Sunday.

The home department visitors of the Park Avenue Baptist church are planning to hold a conference in the near future to plan for a systematic method of carrying on the work.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Park Avenue Baptist church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry F. Johnson, of Watchung avenue, and discussed plans for the season.

The Senior and Junior Endeavorers of the Park Avenue Baptist church will hold a union meeting Friday night. The topic will be "Being a Christian at Home and at School."

John T. Sproul, State president of the Christian Endeavor Society, will address a congress meeting to be held in the Sunday-school room of the Park Avenue Baptist church tomorrow night.

A service in the interest of the McAll Auxiliary Mission in France will be held at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church Sunday night, when Rev. Mr. Berry, the representative of the work, will speak.

The Boys' Mission Band of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church will send a box of useful articles to the Labrador Mission, in care of Dr. Grenfell, the latter part of the month. Contributions may be sent to Mrs. Isaac L. Miller and clothing may be left at the church.

The annual Baptist meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the East New Jersey Association, will be held at the Mt. Pleasant Baptist church, Newark, Friday. There will be morning and afternoon sessions. Mrs. J. Heinrich, of India, and Mrs. W. F. Beaman, of China, will speak.

The Baptist Home Society of New Jersey held its seventeenth anniversary at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church, Newark, yesterday, and the local Baptist churches were well represented. Rev. N. A. Merritt, Jr., of Rahway, made the address. The Home was opened all day for the reception of guests, and luncheon was served at noon.

—Chief Marshal George Weiss, of the borough, has removed from Duer street to Summit avenue.

—The Plainfield Merchants' Association will meet Monday night, May 18, when it will be decided whether the stores in the city are to be kept open on Memorial Day. The matter has been discussed at some length and it is now proposed to settle it by a vote of the members.

TESTED AND PROVEN.

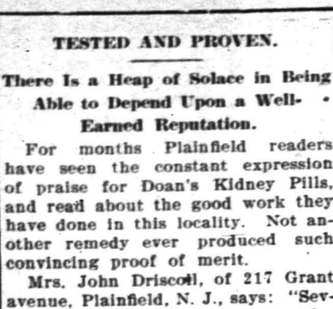
There Is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Plainfield readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

Mrs. John Driscoll, of 217 Grant avenue, Plainfield, N. J., says: "Several years ago I made a statement for publication regarding the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills, and said statement still holds good in every particular. If I were to make a single change in it, it would only be to make it stronger, for during the past few years I have known many people to use Doan's Kidney Pills and have yet to hear of a case in which the remedy failed to do the work it is claime dto do. My own case was a dull aching pain in the small of the back and sides. It clung to me incessantly and hard work seemed to increase it. I was subject also to hard backaches, and spells of dizziness when stooping. I was generally weak and depressed. I tried plasters and used many different remedies without finding relief, an was finally led to get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Randolph's pharmacy. I began using the remedy, finding, at lentgh, the relief I have described in the testimonial given for publication in 1898."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.



Our Refrigerators are filled with Fancy Philadelphia Broilers, Roasting and Fricaseeing Chickens, Jumbo Squab. Hunterdon County Spring Lamb, Tender, Juicy Roasts and Steaks from Native Beeves.

Milk Fed Veal

Jersey Pork

Delicious Sugar-Cured Hams & Bacon Home made Sausage. All Yours to Command at

The ENDRESS CO.

131-135 West Front Street.
'Phone 690.

Satisfaction assured as there is nothing finer produced. Orders called for and promptly delivered.

Vail
JEWELER AND OPTICIAN

103 Park Ave.,

calls your attention to his

Rimless Glasses.

They Look Good and You See Good.

EDUCATIONAL.

JOSEPH Mc INTYRE,
Pianist, Coach, Accompanist
TEACHER OF PIANO and SINGING
New York Studio, 30 E. 23rd Street, Wednesdays and Saturdays.
Plainfield, Residence and Studio, 1308 Watchung Avenue
Telephone 386-J 1 9 6mos

ATTEND DRAKE BUSINESS COLLEGE
PLAINFIELD
For thorough training in English, Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Penmanship, Commercial Law and correlative branches. The school that does not PROMISE to ASSIST graduates to positions, but that guarantees absolutely to PLACE them, and does it. 11 25 tf

Plainfield Business College
WOODHULL & MARTIN BUILDING.
SCHOOL OF ENGLISH.
A school well equipped for doing high grade work.
Investigate this school—it pays. 1½ hours devoted to English every day. Day and Evening sessions all the year. Capacity 400 students.
A. S. HERR, Prin. and Prop.

CHAS. M. SUHR,
TEACHER OF PIANO.
614 E. 6th Street, Tel. 741-W

REAL ESTATE

RENTALS—REAL ESTATE
Geo. F. Brown,
INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE.
Commissioner of Deeds—Rents.
94 Somerset St. 'Phone 160.

DRUGGISTS.

MOTH BALLS
Will save you your money over what might happen to your clothes.
They will insure your clothes being preserved thru the summer and will enable you to have them fresh and whole in the fall. Now is the time to buy MOTH BALLS.
C. M. Nagle's Pharmacy,
Front and Grove Sts. 'Phone 516.

Complete Line of
REXALL
Goods at
MILLER'S PHARMACY
Park Ave. & 4th St. Tel. 208.

Hodge's Pharmacy.
Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Tel. 62.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
EAST FRONT STREET
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Room.

HOTEL KENSINGTON
(Licensed.)
WM. J. POULSON, Prop.
107-109-111 North Avenue.
Everything New and Up-to-date
An Inspection Solicited.

HOTEL IROQUOIS
Club breakfast from 6:30 to 10:30 a. m. Business Men's Lunch from 11:30 to 2:30 p. m.
ROOMS
First floor, $1 single; $1.50 double.
Second floor, 75c single; $1 double,
Third floor, 50c single; 75c double.
A LA CARTE 6:30 UNTIL 1 A. M.
Special, Sunday, Dinner from 12:30 to 2:30 p. m. 50c

Electricians!
Michaelsen & Hage
No. 148 E. Fifth St. Tel. 1077-J

Strawberries
Every day we are receiving shipments of Fine Fresh Strawberries which are carefully selected as to quality and variety,
We also have a good assortment of California Oranges, Figs, Dates, etc., at reasonable prices.
All orders promptly delivered.
W. W. DUNN,
THE PARK GROCER,
DUER STREET AND LINCOLN PLACE.

STOP AT
Central R. R. News Stands
for PLAINFIELD PRESS, always on sale. Daily and Sunday papers delivered, all magazines, weekly papers, novelties, back numbers a specialty. R. R. guides, automobile road and state maps, Phila. papers. Fine brand of Cigars and tobacco. Open Sundays.
F. M. WAGNER, Manager.

Lumber Bargain!
The largest quantity of lumber in Plainfield can be found in my yard.
Large and Small Timbers.
Cut prices on new lumber for one week more.
A. KANE
YARD, 312 Filmore Ave.
Telephone 522-J.

McCULLOUGH'S STEAM MILL,
21 Steiner place, North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 517-J.
Furniture, Freight, Baggage Express and Rigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

Try a box of
DOBBINS' CIGARS.
Clear Havana Nickle Yara or any kind that you desire. Manufactured at 120 North Avenue, opposite Kensington Hotel, Plainfield, N. J.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Cedar Posts and Bean Poles. Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
69 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS,
P. O. Box 320.

Mountain House,
Mt. Bethel, N. J.
FRENCH RESTAURANT
Resort for Automobiles and Driving Parties
A. E. BINZ, Prop.

SMALLEY BROS.
147 North Ave.
BUTCHERS
Our Specialty, Berkshire Pork.
Try Our Berkshire Sausage Made on Premises.
Roasting and Broiling Chickens a Specialty.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 88-A. 5 1 tf

The Southern Restaurant,
232 West Second Street, corner Madison Avenue, now under new management. Meals served at all hours a la carte and table d'hote. Our own make bread and pastrys, all home cooking. The choice of everything is bought for the tables. Our price is reasonable. The place is now under the management of the well known New York caterer. T. H. Royster, Manager. Tel. 923-J. 1 18 tf

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 Watchung Av. Rear.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

JOHN WINZENREID.
Furniture and Freight Express.
Moving Vans and Storage.
312 Lee Place. 'Phone 840-R.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.
Renovating—Offices, stores and private residences. Service day or night. Furniture, china and glassware packed for shipping.
WM. A. KLINE, 611 W. 3d St.

Geo. H. Stagaard,
SHOEMAKER
108—CHURCH STREET—110
Repair work called for and delivered
'PHONE 1062-W.

TITUS H. LAURY
MASON AND BUILDER.
Office, 323 East Front Street.
Tile Setting, Mantel and Front Work.
Telephone 464-L.

TURKISH BATHS!
TAKE ONE
Ladies Mornings, Gentlemen Afternoons
Take Trolley to Sanitarium, Somerset Street.

Cleaning, Pressing and Dyeing.
Monthly Contracts.
Pressing called for and delivered.
EVENING DRESSES A SPECIALTY.
Ladies' Waists Cleaned, 25 cents upwards
Gents' Suits Cleaned $1.50
We do our own work at
M. A. Brown's, 218 West Second St.

William H. Pope,
ELECTRICIAN.
All kinds of electrical work done at reasonable prices.
116 NORTH AVENUE.

Rouse & Fullagar,
CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS,
117 Plainfield Avenue.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St. Tel. 507-W.

Meat Market.
Choice Meats, Poultry, Fish and Oysters always on hand. Sugar cured Corned Beef. International Hams and Bacon.
F. Neidig, 94 Somerset St. Telephone 781

E. B. Maynard's
Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a specialty.
Tel. No. 754-R.
141 NORTH AVENUE.

JOHN WIRTH
(Successor to Henry Liefke.)
Bakery and Confectionery.
201-203 West Front St. Tel. No. 723.
All orders delivered at short notice.

HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS
Silver trunks safely delivered to safety deposit vaults.
Furniture Moving Van and Baggage Delivery.
OFFICE 205 PARK AVENUE
Tel. 833-W. Residence Tel. 648-L

REAL ESTATE
Bought, Sold and For Rent.
J. SACHAR,
721 WEST THIRD STREET.

COAL DEALERS.

Difference In Coal.
All coals may look alike to some people, but compare our "Lehigh" Coal with the Coal you bought somewhere else and you will see a difference.
You will notice that our Coal Burns Brighter, Gives More Heat, and Lasts Longer than any other Coal you ever bought before.
Boice, Runyon & Co.,
Coal, Lumber and Masons' Materials.
Park Ave., opp. North Ave.,
Plainfield N. J.

JOS. HARRIGAN
OLD COMPANY'S LEHIGH COAL.
Tel. 193 929 South Ave.

The best time to order your winter supply of
COAL
is now. Do not forget that
NASH
is ready to supply you.
Telephones 357-W 835-J.
Evenings 371-W.
OFFICE—130 WATCHUNG AVENUE

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers' Inn.
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 218 West Front Street. Telephone 23-L.

Coal I have on hand some very fine Hard and Medium Coal. All kept under sheds. Pea Coal. Coal
25 cents a ton reduction on cash orders
L. A. RHEAUME,
148 East Fourth St. Telephone 440-W
Yard, 674 South Second St. Telephone 229

GEORGE O. STEVENS
747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. H. Rugg & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 430 West Third St. Tel. 93.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

We call your attention to our fine display of
New Wall Papers.
We can't describe the patterns, but they are new, striking and effective, and with our large assortment we are sure to please.
Paints, Oils and Varnishes.
Woolston & Buckle,
145 North Avenue.

STRIKING COLORS
should not be sought in preference to those that have good lasting qualities, but when
PAINTS
are to be had which are both brilliant and durable, take care to secure that kind.
We have all kinds and grades of Paints, Oils, Colors and Varnishes, suitable for all kinds of work at the lowest prices to be found in this city.
Jas. C. Hansen,
Dealer in Wallpapers, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass, etc
141 East Front Street
Estimates Furnished

1908 Wall Papers.
IMPORTED & AMERICAN GOODS.
C. CONOVER & CO.
Decorators, Painters and Paperhangers, Window and Plate Glass.
115 Elmwood Pl. Tel. 1145

W. S. CHEEVER
1326 Park Ave.
Painting and INTERIOR DECORATING. WALL PAPER of every description at the Lowest Prices.
'Phone No. 538-J.

Burns' Tonsorial Parlors.
W. C. BURNS, Prop.
If your car is late,
I will shave you while you wait.
LOCATION—212 WATCHUNG AVE.
Where the trolleys meet.
Shoes polished free with every shave.

AZIENZA
cures pimples and all inflammation of the skin. Used by people of refinement. Medicinal and toilet—25 and 50 cents.
CREAM.

Patented

Don't Shiver Another Winter

Furnace troubles are very real. A cold, uncomfortable house is a menace. You are risking colds—possibly pneumonia—and your coal bills are higher than they would be with a clean, bright fire. The will keep your house warm in every nook and corner. Never clog, leak gas or dust, and use only three-quarters of the coal with one half the trouble. Have any dealer in Boynton Furnaces explain their many superior points.

BOYNTON Square Pot FURNACE

There are BOYNTON heating plants of all kinds. Ask about our Round or Sectional Boilers for steam or hot water. Also ranges.

THE BOYNTON FURNACE COMPANY,
207-209 Water Street, New York.

AN ORDINANCE

FOR THE ASSESSMENT OF TAXES FOR THE YEAR 1908.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That pursuant to the statutes and ordinances and resolutions in such cases made and provided and certifications thereunder there shall be assessed and raised by tax for the year nineteen hundred and eight, for the general purposes of said city, exclusive of school, library, poor, fire and State and county taxes, the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) (this sum includes the sum of Thirty Thousand Dollars to be raised by general tax for street improvements); for the expense of said year for lighting the public streets and places in said city, as ascertained and determined by resolution of the Common Council and certified to the Assessors of said city, the sum of Fifteen Thousand Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($15,250); for the principal of such sewer bonds (except obligations payable out of assesments and temporary obligations) as may mature during the ensuing fiscal year, under and by virtue of the Act of the Legislature, entitled "An Act to provide for drainage anl sewerage in cities of this State," approved April 7, 1890, and the several amendments thereof and supplements thereto and proceedings had and taken thereunder in said city, the sum of Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000); for interest on the obligations of the city issued under the said last mentioned Acts, the sum of Ten Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($10,500); for the support of the city poor, the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000), included in the last named sum is the sum of One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500) for the purpose of supporting and maintaining such indigent patients as may be sent to Muhlenberg Hospital by order of the City Physician, Overseer of the Poor, or other proper authority of the city, pursuant to Chapter LXXVI P. L. 1886, payable December 31, 1908, pursuant to contract between the Muhlenberg Hospital and the City; for the maintenance of the Public Library and Reading Room, the sum of Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($7,500); for the maintenance of a Fire Department, to be under the control and government of said city, the sum of Thirty-Four Thousand Dollars ($34,000); for interest on school bonds authorized under City Ordinances to fall due during the said year, the sum of Five Thousand Four Hundred and Forty Dollars ($5,440); and for principal of one of said bonds maturing during such year the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000); for the amount needed for the current year for the purposes specified in section 5 of the Act of the Legislature entitled "An Act to provide for the planting of shade trees on the highways of the municipalities of this State," approved April 28, 1893, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplemental therto, as certified by the Shade Tree Commissioners of the City of Plainfield to the Assessors of said city, the sum of Twenty-Two Hundred Dollars ($2,200); and in addition to the foregoing, a license fee of Two Dollars ($2) to be paid by the owner of every dog within the City of Plainfield.

Adopted by the Common Council May 4, 1908; approved by the Mayor May 4, 1908.

CHARLES J. FISK, Mayor.

Attest: J. T MacMurray, City Clerk.

STONE ROADS.

PROPOSALS are asked for the construction of Macadam Roads, on West Grand Street, First Avenue and Locust Street in the City of Elizabeth, and in the Boroughs of Roselle and Roselle Park, Union County, N. J., from De Hart Place to Westfield Avenue.

The length of the roadway to be macadamized is about 11,905 lin. ft. The width of the stonework is 16 ft.

The estimated quantities of the items of the work are as follows:

Earth Excavation, 7,720 cu. yds.
8-inch Macadam, 15,020 sq. yds.
4-inch Macadam, 5,850 sq. yds.
Manhole Heads reset, 12.
6-inch Underdrains, 1,200 lin. ft.
Rock Excavation, 0.
Crushed stone furnished additional, 270 tons.

Plans, profiles and specifications for this work may be examined at the office of the County Engineer, 215 Broad Street, Elizabeth, N. J.

Bidders must enclose with their bids a certified check for $1,000.00, made payable to the Director of the Board of Chosen Freeholders as a guarantee that if the contract be awarded to such bidder, the bidder will enter into an agreement with the Board of Freeholders for the carrying out of the work.

Bids for the above described work will be received by the County Road Committee of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, at the Court House, Elizabeth, N. J., at 2:30 p. m., on Tuesday, May 26, 1908.

The Board of Feeeholders or its committee reserves the right to reject any or all bids, as they may deem best for the interests of the County.

JACOB L. BAUER, County Engineer.
215 Broad Street, Elizabeth, N. J.
5-7, 8, 9, 11, 13, 15, 18, 20, 22

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS

It is rare for a star to surround herself with such an exceptionally able company as is this season supporting Grace George who comes to the New Plainfield theatre Memorial Day, afternoon and evening.

Frank Worthing, who has undoubtedly appeared with more stars than any other leading man on the stage today, is again this season with Miss George. He is pleasantly cast and his work as the husband of the frivolous Cyprienne is said to be the best he has yet done. A little later in the season it is announced Mr. Worthing will be starred in a new play from the pen of an English dramatist. Douglas Gerrard, an actor of prominence in London has been specially engaged to enact the role of the foolish young lover "Adhemar." Mr. Gerrard has been associated with such actors of prominence as Beerbohm Tree, Arthur Bourchier, Lewis Waller, and Fred Terry. A master of character acting, Max Freeman, is cast for the role of "Joseph" the amusing head waiter at the Cafe Grand Vatal. Mr. Freeman is also known s a clever stage director and for years staged all the productions made at the New York Casino. Charles Stanley, who was long identified with comic opera but of recent years has joined the legitimate ranks, is seen in the role of the French police officer and is said to play it well. Edward Fielding at one time Olga Nethersole's leading man, who played with her in Sapho upwards of 400 nights, is also numbered in Miss George's support.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

The first performance of "The Thief" outside of New York City, will be given in the Opera House, Colorado Springs, June 15th.

Two thousand and eighty persons attended the single performance of "The Jesters" given by Maude Adams at Foster's Opera House, Des Moines, Ia., last Thursday night.

This season's presentation of William H. Crane in "Father and the Boys" will end Saturday evening, May 30th. Mr. Crane will sail for Cherbourg the following Wednesday joining Charles Frohman in Paris by appointment.

Charles Frohman has announced his intention of ultimately presenting all of his American stars in London and his English stars in America, regardless of any financial result. Mr. Frohman's contention is that, what makes an actor or an actress flexible, versatile, authorative in acting, is not so much many and varied parts, as many and varied audiences and the necessity to please all kinds.

PERSONAL.

Miss Mariam Smith, of Elizabeth, has been spending several days with friends in Plainfield.

Rev. Dr. C. R. Barnes, formerly pastor of the First M. E. church, but now of Jersey City, has returned home after a short visit here.

Tax Collector George F. Brown, of the borough, who has been in Brooklyn for several weeks, is expected to return home within a few days.

James Proy, of Bound Brook, the Reading brakeman who was injured a few days ago by a fall from his train, expects to return home from the hospital this week.

Rev. Dr. Joseph Chambliss, of Kansas City, who has been spending several weeks with his brother, Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, of Central avenue, is now spending a few days in New York State, prior to returning home.

THE NORTH AMERICAN "FEATURES" BIG ORDER.

In honor of the eighty-fifth annual session of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, Independent Oroder of Odd Fellows, in Philadelphia, beginning May 19, The North American will give that fraternity a newspaper display unique in this state. In its issue of Sunday, May 17, The North American will contain a special eight-page illustrated supplement recounting the origin, growth and work of Pennsylvania's most popular fraternity in all its branches.

Odd Fellows' homes, orphanages and charitable works will be subjects of special illustrated articles, and the probable future of the magnificent Odd Fellows' Temple, as indicated by leading members, will receive particular attention. Rebekahs Patriarchs Militant and encampments will receive notice, and the whole will be illustrated by cuts of grand officers of all bodies. To be certain of receiving a copy of this special supplement, place your order at once with your newsdealer for the Sunday North American of May 17.

THE SPORTING WORLD.

Audubon Boy, 1.59¼, is going to have a heavy season. More than thirty mares have already been booked to him.

Eels, the Yale shortstop, handles himself more like a finished ball player than any college product seen in a good while.

Thomas Barry's successor as coach of the Notre Dame eleven will be Dave Place, the former Dartmouth tackle and All American lineman.

Seasick II, W. K. Vanderbilt's colt, has been backed at 25 to 1 in the English Derby. The colt has won two big races in France this season.

MR. PRATT

A Tale of the Cape Cod Fisher Folk

By

Joseph C. Lincoln

Author of "Cap'n Eri," "Partners of the Tide," Etc.

Illustrations by T. D. Melvill

Copyright, 1907, A. S. Barnes & Company.

We all looked, I guess; I know I did. There was the old Berry house, square and weatherbeat and gray. And there was a derelict barn and a half dozen pig pens and hen houses stranded alongside of it. And there was Horsefoot bar all around us for a half mile or so, sand and beach grass and hop-toads, all complete. And beyond on one side was the bay, with the water looking blue and pretty in the forenoon sunshine. And on t'other side was the mile and a half strip we'd just sailed across, with the beach and mainland over yonder. Not a soul but us in sight anywheres. The whole layout would have made a first-rate photograph of the last place the Lord made; the one he forgot to finish.

"I Own It," He Says.

"Look at it!" hollers Van. "Look at it! Now what is it?"

I begun to be sorry the keeper hadn't arrived that time when I thought he was coming. I cal'lated he was needed right now. Martin seemed to think so, too. He looked puzzled.

"What is it?" he says. "What's what? What do you mean?"

"Why this whole business. Island and house and scenery and quiet and all. You old blockhead!" hollers Van, giving the other Twin an everlasting bang on the back; "Don't you see? It's what we've been looking for all these weeks—it's the pure, unadulterated, accept-no-imitations Natural Life!"

I set down in the sand. Things were coming too fast for me. If this kept on I'd be counting my fingers and playing cat's cradle along with the rest of the loons pretty soon. I knew it.

But, would you believe it, Martin Hartley didn't seem to think his chum was out of his mind. He fetched a long breath.

"By Jove!" he says, slow; "I don't know but you're right."

"Right? You bet I'm right! It's been growing on me ever since I landed. We'll be alone; no females, native or imported, to bother us. Here's a bully old house with some furniture, bedsteads and so on, already in it. I broke a window and climbed in for a rummage. Jolliest old ark you ever saw. Here's a veranda to sit on, and air to breathe, and a barn for a cow and plenty of room for a garden and chickens—whew! Man alive, it's Paradise! And I want to locate the man that owns it. I want to find him quick."

He didn't have to say it but once. Nate Scudder was so full of joy that he had to shove his hands in his pockets to keep from hugging himself.

"I own it," he says.

"You do! Scudder, you're a gem. I begin to love you like a brother. Martin and I hire this place; do you understand? It's ours from this minute, for as long as we want it."

Nate commenced to hem and haw. "Well, I don't know," he says. "I don't know's I ought to let you have it. There's been considerable many folks after it, and—"

"Never mind. They can't have it. We outbid 'em. See?"

"What will we do for groceries?" asks Hartley, considering.

"Scudder 'll bring 'em to us," says Van. "Won't you, Scudder?"

Horsefoot Bar—Ozone island, I should say. As for me, I went up to the Old Home house right off, explained matters to the manager and cleared out for my new job. The Heavenlies moved over to Ozone that very morning. Lord James went with 'em and the simple naturalness commenced.

Fast as Nate would arrive in his dory with a cargo of dunnage I'd cart it up to the Berry house and dump it on the piazza. Lord James was flying around, with a face on him as sour as a cranberry pie, opening windows and airing rooms and sweeping out, and the like of that. The old shebang had been shut up for a couple of years and was as musty and damp as a receiving tomb. His lordship looked like

New Jersey Central

In Effect January 26, 1908.

For New York—2.17, 3.27, 5.36, 6.02, 6.28, 6.57, 7.25, 7.28, 7.46, 7.47, 7.56, 8.00, 8.11, 8.30, 8.36, 8.44, 8.59, 9.59, 10.28, 10.55 a. m., 12.00, 12.15, 12.42, 1.09, 1.27, 2.21, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.45, 5.53, 6.29, 6.48, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.27, 9.31, 10.17, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.17, 3.27, 4.47, 7.28, 7.58, 8.52, 9.34, 9.45, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.29, 6.57, 7.05, 7.25, 7.28, 7.47, 8.11, 8.36, 8.44, 9.28, 9.59, 10.55 a. m., 12.42, 1.09, 1.27, 2.21, 2.44, 3.09, 3.42, 4.12, 4.45, 5.53, 6.29, 7.09, 7.37, 8.27, 9.31 p. m. Sunday—7.28, 8.52, 9.34, 10.18, 10.32 a. m., 12.40, 1.09, 1.45, 2.41, 3.09, 3.30, 4.29, 5.32, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.41 p. m.

For Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 2.00, 5.23, 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 2.53, 5.47, 7.06 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.25, 9.55 a. m., 5.47 p. m. Sundays—5.45 a. m., 5.47 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.37, 8.11, 10.55 a. m., 12.42 (Saturdays only), 3.42, 4.45, 5.53, 8.27, 11.28 p. m. Sundays—3.37, 8.52 a. m., 3.30, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.37, 9.29 a. m., (12.42 Saturdays only), 1.27, 2.44 (3.42 Lakewood only), (5.53 Lakewood only, Saturdays only) p. m. Sundays—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.45 a. m., 1.45 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.13, 7.38, 8.45, 9.13, 10.43 a. m., 12.13, 12.42, 1.39, 2.14, 2.45, 3.13, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 1.17 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.53, 10.39, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.55, 5.39, 6.44, 8.50, 9.46 p. m., 11.25, 1.17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m. Sundays—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

*Change cars at Bound Brook.

W. G. BESLER, Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, Gen. Pass. Agt.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

Office opens 7 a. m., closes 7 p. m. On Saturdays close half hour later.

NEW YORK MAIL.

Arrive—7:00, 8:40, 11:30 a. m., 2:30, 5:00 5:30, 9 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:20, 6:00 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 1:30, 3:15 and 7 p. m
Close—7:30 a. m., 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40 and 11:30 a. m., 2:36 7:00 p. m.
Close—7:15, 7:30, 9:30 a. m., 12:35, 2:20 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST

Close—1:00 and 7:15 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST AND SOUTH.

Close—12:35, 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton.

Close—12:35 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:30 a. m., 2:20, 6:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:30, 5:30 p. m., 12 midnight.
Close—7:15, 7:30 a. m., 1:00, 2:20 and 6:00

WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE.

Arrive—12:30 p. m.
Close—9:00 a. m.

WATCHUNG.

Close—5:30 p. m.
Arrive—6:45 p. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M.

Advertisements
—FOR—
New York Herald,
World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American, Brooklyn Eagle
—and—
Newark Evening News
Received at
The Daily Press
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

Complete line of
AUTOMOBILE Supplies and Tires
AT LOWEST NEW YORK PRICES.
Thompson Auto Co.
413 Park Ave. Tel. 991-J

Mrs. John Brown,
Successor to John Burke and Jones & Co.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned from $3.00 Upwards.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Don't give your order until you consult me
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Postoffice Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

We have made arrangements for a larger supply of first-class milk and and are giving the family trade our special attention... If you are not satisfied with the milk or the services you are getting give us a trial.

Price 9 cents a quart, 5 cents a pint. Cream 14 cents a ½ pint.

Lindsay's Dairy,
965 West Front St.
TEL. 792-J.

J. NEUSTADT
MERCHANT TAILOR,
Ladies' Tailoring a Specialty. Cleaning, Pressing, Altering at lowest prices. Work called for and delivered. Formerly with R. A. Rieley, Fifth Avenue, New York.
Spring and Summer Styles now ready.
430 WATCHUNG AVENUE
Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 668-W.

Try a Press Want Ad

L. J. Plaut & Co.
"BEE HIVE" New Jersey's Shopping Centre. NEWARK.
Open 8:30 a. m. Close 6 p. m. Saturdays 10 p. m.
Telephone 5120 Newark.

BUY WASH DRESSES NOW: SPLENDID VALUES

You Benefit Greatly by Buying Here Now—Anticipating our usual great wash business—the largest in Newark—we made contracts while the snow was still flying—keeping makers busy when ordinarily they were not—helping them to keep on their force of workers, and to make large contract for materials. Our reward was lower prices than to stores that buy in regular way. Such are the dresses we offer here, with full benefit of price concession—new styles, from clean country factories; thoroughly well made, no matter how low the price; our cheapest dresses have not been skimpt—all cut full, have extra full skirts, fit perfectly—merit that extends right through the grades—all better than usual at each price. So BUY NOW, have your Summer attire ready when you want it and save money.

Wash Dresses—Special Value $2.50—A "tub" dress bought of us, no matter how low priced, is not slighted in any way—all cut full, have extra full skirts. This little price proves our claim to superiority regardless of price; dresses of percale, light colors, stripes, checks, and medium colors; full tuckt waists, gored skirts, with double deep tucks at bottom, sizes to 44; do not think little of these dresses because the price is little..... $2.50

Wash Dresses—Special Value $3.00—Solid color chambray, blue and gray; stock collars, pointed belts, entire front of waist side bands; others with fancy piped stock collars and tiny bow; skirt fasten with pearl buttons, no danger of rust, band on skirt, piped with white; others white grounds, hairline checks, ¾ sleeves; side pleat skirt, another fine example of how well wo do in wash dresses at a very low price..... $3.00

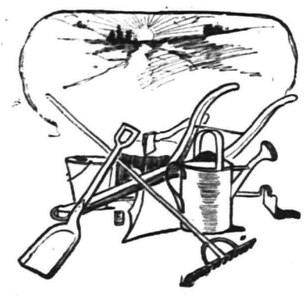
Wash Dresses—Special Value $4.50—Ought not to call these "tub" dresses, tho' are perfectly washable, are really elaborate, pretty enough for any occasion; screw-head dots, checks, stripes, all the product of conscientious makers; an inspection means to buy; imported percales and fine sheer lawns; black-and-white, pink-and-white, lavender-and-white, lace yokes, or embroidered lawn yokes; you will admire beauty, and marvel that they can be made to sell at $4.50

Wash Dresses—Special Value $5.00—Dresses innumerable; princess models of pretty colored lawns; delicate pinks, light blues, lavender and black and white on white grounds; checks, figures, dots and block patterns; yoke of French Val. lace or pink embroidery; wide skirts with bias bands, no end of styles, too numerous to more than begin to tell about; come and see the great display at this one price alone—handsome, new, at only..... $5.00

Wash Dresses—Special Value $8.50—Handsome plaid ginghams, jumper styles, also lawns in dots and checks; with rich embroidered and tuckt yokes; very wide flare skirts; others with rich lace trim; in the collection are jumper dresses for women and misses; brown, white and navy linen and repp; and fine Sea Island percales; more superiority, beautiful dresses; that seem more like $18 or more styles—every one a decided value at the price..... $8.50

No Branch Stores
Mail Orders Filled.
707 to 721 Broad St.
Daily Free Delivery By Our Own Wagons.
Plainfield-Newark Trolleys Pass Our Doors.

LAWN TOOLS



It isn't too late to buy if you have discovered that you need a new Mower this year. You must have heard of our easy running, close cutting, durably constructed Lawn Mowers. They have world-wide reputation.

We also have all other kinds of tools for lawn and garden development.

HOSE, REELS, SPRINKLERS, RAKES, GRASS SHEARS, HOOK, WEEDERS, EDGERS, PRUNERS, ETC.

Gayle Hardware Company
Tel. 398. Front St. and Park Ave.

FLORIDA

beckons to the fatigued and the leisurely alike. She welcomes all to her hospitable shores. The ideal route thither from New York is direct by sea to Jacksonville (with a short stop at Charleston, S. C.) upon the fine steamers of the

CLYDE STEAMSHIP CO.
H. H. RAYMOND, V. P. & G. M. A. C. HAGERTY, G. P. A.
General Offices: Pier 36, N. R., New York.
W. D. THICKSTUN, Agent, 197 North Avenue.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR
TRUNKS, SUIT CASES OR BAGS
CALL AT
O. M. DUNHAM'S, 129 Park Ave
TRUNK STRAPS—ALL SIZES.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

"THE OLD RELIABLE HOME FURNISHERS"
EST. 1860 INC. 1907
COWPERTHWAIT AND VAN HORN CO.
73 MARKET STREET. NEAR PLANE ST., NEWARK, N.J.

(A)
Looking about for Summer Furniture?

Furnishing the Cottage, Lawn and Veranda?

Save a lot of useless "shopping" by coming straight here to headquarters—where summer fixin's have been specialized for years and years!

3.50 Reed Rockers full roll back..... 2.95

9.00 Reed Couchss full length..... 7.50

Porch Settees, light Maple and Green, now..... 5.00

Lawn Benches, Red and Green folding styles from $1.00 to $2.00.

Lowest Prices!
You Can't Beat 'Em!

4.95 Enameled Bed, like cut, with brass mounts and rails at head and foot. Regular value $7.25.

2.45 For this broadarm Porch Rocker—light maple and green—reed seat and back. Regular $3.25.

3.75 Reed Table like cut—round top and lower shelf—platted edge.

Dainty Bedroom Suits in Enamel also Reed and Mission pieces for every part of the home—Refrigerators, Ice Chests, "Crex, Jap and China Mattings, etc., etc.

Sole Headquarters For
"The Portland Range," "Gunn Sectional Bookcases"
The Acme Washing Machine, "White" Sewing Machine
LOWEST PRICES—EASY CREDIT

M X S
MATHUSHEK & SON PIANOS

appeal to all lovers of the beautiful in music. They possess the rare quality of tone that is a delight to all.

Every courtesy given to visitors and prospective buyers at our wareroom.

Beautiful catalogue mailed upon request.

MATHUSHEK & SON PIANO CO.,
310 W. Front St., Plainfield, N. J. Tel. 910-J

LAWN MOWERS
Sharpened and Repaired

Having Installed Electric Power and Improved Grinding Machinery I Can Insure Prompt and Satisfactory Work.

A. M. GRIFFEN,
119-123 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.
'PHONES 6 and 214

JACK HORNER 26 SOMERSET ST TEL. 869-W.
Pierce, Cleveland, Crawford and Arrow Bicycles. Renting, Repairing and Sundries Vulcanizing a specialty. Baby Carriages Repaired and Retired. Work called for and delivered.

"Well, I don't know, Mr. Van Brunt. I'm pretty busy now, and—"

"We'll pay you for your time, of course."

"What about beds and cooking utensils and so on?" asks Hartley, considering some more.

"Scudder'll buy 'em for us somewheres."

"And milk, and eggs, and butter?"

"Scudder—till we get our own chickens and cow."

"And—er—well, a cook" Who'll do the cooking?"

Van Brunt stoops down and slaps me on the shoulder.

"Pratt," says he "Pratt will come here and cook for us, and navigate us, and be our general manager. Pratt's the boy!"

"Hold on there!" I sings out. "Avast heaving, will you. If you think for one minute that I'm going to quit my summer job to come to this hole and live, you're—"

"You're coming," says Van. "Never mind the price; we'll pay it. Now shut up! you're coming."

What can you say to a chap like that? I groaned.

"Live on Horsefoot Bar," I says. "Live on it!"

"Horsefoot Bar?" says Van. "Is that its name? Well, it's Horsefoot Bar no more. I've been evolving a name ever since I began to breathe here. Breathe, Martin," he says. "Draw a good breath. That's it. That's pure ozone. Gentlemen, permit me to introduce to you, Ozone island."

Scudder grinned. He was feeling ready to grin at most anything just then.

"Ozone island?" says Hartley. "Ozone island: A restful name. Well, it's a restful spot. Isn't it, skipper?"

"Yes," says I. "As restful as being buried alive; and pretty nigh as pleasant."

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

ATLANTIC CITY.

AMERICAN PLAN. EUROPEAN PLAN
HOTEL WINDSOR
ATLANTIC CITY
G. JASON WATERS
SEND FOR BOOKLET
GOLF GARAGE CAFE ORCHESTRA
ON THE BOARD WALK

WE PICK THEM FROM THE TOP!
The young, tender, delicious leaves. That's why you find our tea so much better. Van Dyk tea and coffee are sold at Van Dyk stores only.
VAN DYK'S
127 WEST FRONT ST.,
Bet. Park and Madison Aves.
50 BRANCHES IN 20 CITIES.

WASHINGTON ROCK SPRING WATER
Bottlers of high-class soft drinks, Ginger Ale, Soda Water and Pure Spring Water, and Siphon Goods. Private families' and parties' patronage is solicited.
Henry Pedeflous,
TELEPHONE 670-R
Hotel Pedeflous, Plainfield

Blue Stone Sidewalks.
If you want the best Blue Stone sidewalks, curbs, etc., call on
J. W. Manhattan,
50 Elm St.

NEW PERFECTION
Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove
Ready at any moment for cooking, baking, ironing. Doesn't heat the kitchen. A skilled cook for half the cooking. Economical, safe, convenient. Four sizes.
STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(Incorporated)

STATIONERY AND TOYS.
HARPER,
411 PARK AVENUE.

FURNITURE.
Repaired and upholstered. Equal to new. Send a postal to HARRISON, 140 CENTRAL AVE., Cabinet maker, Polisher, Mattress Maker.

NOTICE TO MEN.
Don't Throw Away Your Old Clothes. Highest Prices Paid for Same.
I. RICHARD, - - 17 Somerset St.

Press Want Ads. Pay

Burglary insurance may replace money value but it cannot insure the associations that often surround a gift.
Store your valuables in our Safe Deposit Vaults where they will be safe from thieves and other hazard.
Our booklet, Safety for Valuables, may be obtained for the asking.
THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY
Travelers' Cheques.

Baseball and General Sports

GOLF.

Foreign advices tell of an unusually interesting match played recently between Harry Vardon and A. Matthews at the Rhyl Club. The match was arranged to mark the formal opening of the extended course, of which Matthews is the professional. In the morning Vardon did not act like himself, pulling and slicing his tee shots and getting into so much trouble that he finished the eighteen holes 6 down. He required 80 strokes as against 74 for Matthews.

In the afternoon Vardon was brilliant, driving a long, straight ball, approaching well and putting as if inspired. He won five out of the first six holes, but so well did his opponent play thereafter that they were all square going to the home hole. Both men got on the green on their seconds, and Matthews laid his approach put dead. Vardon's ball being about ten yards distant. He holed it, thus making a dramatic finish and winning by 1 up. His score was 71, a new record. Matthews required 78.

Dave Honeyman, the Arsdale Golf Club professional, is playing at the top of his game these days. He reeled off a 70 Monday, 34 for the first round and 36 for the next, which equals the record. John Waters, a former St. Andrews player, has been engaged as caddie master at the club. Waters is a strong player himself and a long driver. The new house recently purchased for the club will be ready for occupancy in a few days.

The members of the Arsdale Golf Club, of East Orange, have been offered an attractive schedule for the season. Both variety and novelty are included in the long list of events, one of which is a driving handicap. The Arsdale golfers are now in their new clubhouse, on Munn avenue, and, all things considered, prospects are bright for the most successful season on record.

The fourteenth semi-annual golf handicap tournament, open to members of the University Club, will be held over the links of the St. Andrews Golf Club, tomorrow. Conditions call for thirty-six holes, medal play. Handicaps will be based on the metropolitan ratings, so far as possible, and prizes will be given for the three best net scores.

Secretary Calkins is sending out the 1908 year book of the Metropolitan Golf Association. It contains the new constitution, list of clubs, officers and committees, conditions for the Lesley cup competitions and handicap system, with the 1908 general handicap list.

A long programme has been issued by the women members of the Englewood Golf Club, which will carry the season to October 28, when the closing contest will be a handicap for a cup presented by Mrs. E. F. Sandford. There will be a luncheon on that date, and all the prizes won by the women during the season will be presented. The women's committee is: Miss Julia R. Mix, captain; Mrs. S. Vilas Beckwith, Mrs. Frank Enos, Mrs. B. F. Reinmund and Mrs. E. F. Sanford. The Englewood women's championship will begin on June 23.

The Oakland Golf Club's schedule is one of the best arranged of the season. It has been compiled by M. M. Graham, L. B. Malone, H. R. Peck and F. H. Rossiter. The fixtures for next Saturday are a women's putting match and the monthly handicap. Each handicap winner receives a cup and earns the right to compete for the vice-president's cup at match play in November.

HOLY CROSS BOYS' TEAM DEFEATS H. R. M. A. NINE.

The Holy Cross baseball team journeyed to Finderne yesterday where it defeated the Hudson Military Academy nine, by a score of 9 to 2. The home aggregation never had a look in throughout the contest. They scored one run in the second inning and another in the fifth inning. In the third and fourth innings Holy Cross tallied six runs, three in each half, and the borough boys gathered in a total of eleven hits, three of which were credited to Nash. The lineup and score by innings.

Holy Cross: Blazier, rf; Gray, c; Moshey, 1b; R. Vail, lf; Conroy, 2b; Coyle, ss; Terry, p; Nash, 3b; Trenbath, cf.

H. R. M. A.: Brugal, 2b; Lopez, cf; O'Farrell, c; VanDerveer, rf; Berel, lf; Grief, ss; Belhugo, 3b; Dex, 1b; Hillyer, p.

Holy Cross	1	0	3	3	1	0	0	0	1	—9
H. R. M. A.	0	1	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	—2

The third degree was conferred on four candidates at a regular communication of Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M., last night.

—Daily Press want ads. pay

LUNA PARK OPENS ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Luna Park, the biggest, most interesting and most successful amusement park ever built will open its sixth season on Saturday and with its opening the annual summer frolic at Coney Island, the greatest warm weather Joyland in all the world, will begin. Ever since young Frederic Thompson and his late partner Elmer S. Dundy came to New York and in a single day startled the more or less blase city folk and revolutionized the out-door amusement world, Luna has been the barometer of Coney. All the other showmen, big and littletake their cues from Fred Thompson. Before opening their shows they invariably wait for the Luna demonstration in order that they may get a line on the amusement styles for the year. This summer is going to be like all the rest in that respect. Luna will be the first to open and after she is in full swing with ten thousand flags a-waving, five bands a-playing, twenty-four shows doing a land office business, a hundred "barkers" barking and all manner of scenic railways, elephants, ballyhoos, and circuses in full swing the others will trail along in their usual haphazard fashion.

This year Mr. Thompson has devised ten new big shows—more than were ever exhibited before at the beginning of any new season. Since last September when the cold winds began to blow and drive the crowds back to Broadway and fur coats he has spent $240,000 in remodeling and renovating the gigantic Empire of Fun over which he rules. One whole side of the Park has been ripped out to make room for five new shows and for the last three months 700 men have been working night and day to get the Heart of Coney ready for Saturday.

Lockjaw Victim Discharged as Cured.

Albert Rumph, a mason, was discharged from the Mountainside Hospital yesterday after being cured of lockjaw. Rumph had been under treatment a month. He sustained an injury to his hand and lockjaw developed.

—Advertise in The Daily Press

Scheuer's Special Bargains

For Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

SCHEUER'S BEST XXXX MINNESOTA PATENT FLOUR, 24½ lb bag 85c; a bbl $6.50

SOUTHERN BELLE FLOUR, for bread and pastry use, 24½ lb bag 69c; a bbl $5.65

Borden's Eagle Brand Condensed Milk, a can 12½c	Baker's Premium Chocolate, a cake 19c	French Flagolettes, Tiny Lima Beans, 40c kind, a jar 23c	Franklin Mills Pan Cake Flour, 15c kind, a package 11c
Pure Olive Oil Packed in France, 22c size, a bottle 18c	Swift's Pride Washing Powder, 4-lb package 16c	Royalton Fruit jams assorted, 16c kind, a jar 14c	California Sliced Peaches Sun Set Brand, 25c kind, a can 20c
Olives, Plain or Stuffed, a bottle 9c	Campbell's Soups, assorted, a can 8c	Baked Beans, Large No. 3 cans, 10c kind, a can 8c	Shoe Polish, 2-in-1, 10c kind, a box 8c

FANCY ELGIN CREAMERY BUTTER, a lb 28c; 3 lbs for 80c

Uneeda Biscuits, a package 4c	New Irish Mackerel, Small White Fish, 7c each; 4 for 25c	Large Salt Herring, regular 5c each, 12 fish for 30c	Libby's Smoked Herring, boneless, reg. 5c, a tin 3c
Large Fancy Lemons, dozen 15c	New Florida Potatoes, pony basket 40c	Neufchatel Cream Cheese, each 4c	Fresh Scallops, Gold Coin Brand, 20c kind, a can 15c
Fancy Evaporated California Peaches, a pound 15c	White Rolled Oats, Fresh Milled, 6-lb bag 25c	Fine Hominy, Fresh Ground, 5-lb bag 14c	Fruit Juices, Imported from Denmark Cherry and Raspberry 35c

Try MAN-A-CEA WATER, for indigestion, stops that distress after eating. ½ gallon bot. 45c

Best Head Rice (whole grain), 3 lbs for 25c	Choice Carolina Rice, 3 lbs for 20c	McCann's Irish Oatmeal, 5-lb can 55c	Shimmell's Pure Apple Butter, 3-lb crock 27c
Evaporated Apples, lb 14c	White or Yellow Meal, 6-lb bag 20c	Rye or Graham Flour, 6-lb bag 20c	Scotch Oatmeal, 5c lb; 6 lbs 25c
Pearl Tapioca, 7c lb; 4 lbs 25c	Best Wheat Farina, 6c lb; 4 lbs 22c	Sun Flower Seed, 7c lb; 4 lbs 25c	Valencia Shelled Almonds, lb 39c
English Walnut Meat, lb 39c	Pecan Nut Meat, lb 49c	Fancy Pulled Figs, lb 18c	Extra Fard Dates, lb 10c
Dr. Johnson's Educator Crackers, lb 18c	Dr. Johnson's Educator Toasterettes, lb 25c	Maxwell's Potato Chips, package 9c	Pure Ground Horseradish, bottle 9c
Pickled Mussells, bottle 10c	Spratt's Puppy Cakes, 3-lb box 25c

WATCHUNG SPRING WATER, six 1½ gallon bottles in case 60c

10 STAMPS WITH ANY OF THE FOLLOWING ARTICLES:

3-lb Box Laundry Starch 20c	1 bottle Ammonia 10c	1 package Spaghetti 10c
4-lb pgk. Grandma's Washing Powder 18c	1 box Shaker Salt 10c	1 package Black Pepper 10c
1 bottle Laundry Blue 10c	1 bot. Lemon Extract 10c or 15c	7-lb bag Salt 10c
1 Box Ball Blue 10c	1 bot. Vanilla Extract 10c or 15c	3-lb box Cal. Prunes 25c
6 cakes Scheuer's Soap 25c	1 bottle Bixby Royal Polish 10c	1 package, 12 boxes, Parlor Matches 12c
1 box Allen's Tooth Powder 10c	2 cakes Gondola Toilet Soap 10c	2 pkgs Tooth Picks for 10c

10 STAMPS with a TEN-CENT PACKAGE of FLOWER or VEGETABLE SEED.

Extra Stamps—TEAS.			Extra Stamps—COFFEES.
100	STAMPS FREE WITH 1 pound Tea	60c	30	STAMPS FREE WITH 1 pound Coffee	32c
70	STAMPS FREE WITH 1 pound Tea	50c	30	STAMPS FREE WITH 1 pound Coffee	29c
30	STAMPS FREE WITH 1 pound Tea	35c	20	STAMPS FREE WITH 1 pound Coffee	27c
100	STAMPS FREE WITH 1 pound Premium Baking Powder	45c	20	STAMPS FREE WITH 1 pound Coffee	23c

STRICTLY FRESH EGGS, a dozen 20c

Sale Starts THURSDAY May 14 Ends Saturday, May 23

LEVY BROS.,

115 WEST FRONT STREET, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Sale Starts THURSDAY May 14 Ends Saturday, May 23

Fourth Great Anniversary Sale

Ladies' 35c and 50c Gloves
Black Lisle, 2-Clasp Gloves. Some slightly imperfect.
9c pair

To celebrate the beginning of our 5th year in Plainfield we have taken advantage of the unusual market conditions in making our purchases and present a collection of Bargains for your consideration THAT MARKS A MIGHTY MOVEMENT IN MERCHANDISING. OUR PRICES TELL WITH CONVICTION THEIR OWN STORY.

Progressive methods, not luck, built up this business, which is growing daily, with your co-operation, and this 10-Day Anniversary Sale gives us an opportunity of showing our appreciation of your patronage by sharing the profits in the way of cut prices.

Clip out or make a money-saving memorandum of these items and come any time during this sale, criticise and compare.

Kimonas Kimonas
Ladies' Figured Lawn Kimonas, Butterfly Style, fast colors
14c each

FIGURED LAWNS Fast Colors 3 3-4c

HUCK TOWLS 5c Usually 10c

Women's 15c RIBBED VESTS 7½c Just Half Price

Hemstitched HANDKERCHIEFS 1c

LADIES' STOCKINGS 7 1-2c

50c BELTS 19c all sizes

10c Yd. Wide WHITE CAMBRIC 5¾c

25c CORSET COVERS of Fine Cambric and Nainsook; lace trimmed back and front and armholes, and run with baby ribbon .15
35c Corset Covers 19c
50c Corset Covers 27c

$1.00 GOWNS made of good quality long cloth, round neck, with hemstitched ruffle trimmed with ribbon; 3 rows Val. inserting, with alternating rows of hemstitched tucks at .59

SKIRTS $1.29 White Skirts, with 18 inch lawn hemstitched ruffle, 4 rows of fine Val. inserting and cluster of pin tucks .89

Biggest Muslin Underwear Sale on Record
LADIES' GOWNS 29c Good muslin, V necks, cluster of hemstitched tucks.

CORSETS R. & G. Corsets up to $3.00 (Samples)—all sizes in the lot but not of each style; Anniversary Sale price .89

LONG GLOVES of finest English lisles and 2-clasp pure silk gloves with double finger tips; most gloves in this collection are 75c to $1.00, for 39c

LADIES' HOSE 25c Gauze Lisle Hose, 15c a pair. 15c

LADIES' SUITS Choice of our $18, $20 and $22 Suits for this sale $11.98

LAWN JUMPER SUITS White and colored lawns, values up to $7.50, for this sale $4.98

TABLE OILCLOTH 15c

SHIRT WAIST SALE Of the Year
Hundreds of beautiful waists, made up in the newest styles, specially priced for this Anniversary; the cheapest garment in the collection is worth a dollar; many $1.50; sale price .77
Three Higher Grade Lots, 98c $1.48, $1.98 containing values up to $3.00.

MEN'S WEAR
35c Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers 23c
75c Negligee Shirts, pleated 49c
15c Socks 9c
Mixed Socks 7c

MISCELLANEOUS.
15c All Silk Ribbon, yard 9c
39c All Silk Ribbon, 6½ in. wide 23c yd
10c Challie 6½c
Good Ginghams 5½c yd
10c Chambrays 7¾c yd
Children's Stockings 5c pair
Pearl Buttons, all sizes 3c dozen
Children's 15c Knitted Waists 10c
10c Lace 5c yd
Men's Socks 7c pair
18c Dotted Swisses 10c yd
59c Cork Linoleum 39c yd
Shaker Flannel 4¾ yd

HOUSE DRESSES
2-piece House Dresses of Cambric and Seersucker, $1.25 and $1.98

CURTAINS
Swiss Ruffle Curtains at 39c pair.
WINDOW SHADES 22c

50c TOKIO SILK White Tokio Silk, 28 ins. wide, shadow plaid effects for waists and dresses 29c

50c DRESS GOODS All wool homespun Panama, 38 ins. wide 35c

35c DRESS GOODS 36 ins. wide, for suits; neat checks 19c

39c BLACK VOILE 38 inches wide 25c

$1.00 SILK 34 ins. wide, Black Taffeta 79c

DRESS SKIRTS LADIES' PANAMA CLOTH DRESS SKIRTS Pleated Style; wide fold $1.98

ALL WOOL DRESS SKIRTS Value $3.75, at $2.98

$8 and $10 SAMPLE SKIRTS at $5.98

WHITE INDIA LINON some 40 in. wide 6 3-4c

LEVY BROS.

115 W. Front St. Opp. Somerset St.
PLAINFIELD.

SOUND BRIDGE PARTLY DESTROYED BY FIRE

Communication between Elizabeth and Staten Island by railroad was cut off yesterday morning by a fire which destroyed a section of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad bridge which spans the sound from the South Elizabeth shore.

The fire, which started on the bridge a few hundred feet north of South Front street, burnt a gap in the structure over twenty feet in length. Freight traffic on the railroad in either direction was completely blocked.

The blaze was caused by a spark from a locomotive. It was discovered shortly after 7 o'clock yesterday morning. A still alarm was sent in for Engine Company No. 4, which quickly responded. The long run down Front street was made in good time, but by the time the firemen arrived on the scene the fire was spreading rapidly.

For a time it looked as if a large part of the structure would be destroyed. After considerable trouble the firemen managed to get a stream on the blaze and working all the time under difficulties they managed to check the further spread of the flames, and confined them to a small part of the trestle. It was over an hour, however, before they succeeded in putting the fire out and returned to their quarters.

The damage to the bridge will amount to about $500 and would have been considerably greater but for the quick time made by the engine company in reaching the scene.

Mushroom Sailors $1.25

Bonn's 140 West Front St.

BANDED SAILORS 75c to $2.75

MILLINERY COSTS LESS NOW

as we buy cheaper, so do we sell. Fifty dozen new Hats ready at astonishingly low prices.

Untrimmed Sailors of pretty straws, several sizes, black, white and burnt shades, worth $1.50 to $2.50, now each 75c and $1.

All the new shapes of various fine Straws, black, white and colors, formerly $2 to $2.50, now $1.50.

A ROSE BARGAIN 25c

An imported Rose with bud and foliage, all shades, worth fully 69c, now only 25c.

Paterson, May 13.—Sergeant John Sommers was reduced to patrolman for one month at a meeting of the police commissioners last night, after having been found guilty of reporting for duty in an intoxicated condition. He was warned that repetition of the offense would mean his dismissal from service. This is the second time within fifteen years that a police sergeant has been reduced to the ranks, and the two cases are the only ones of the kind in the record of the local police department.

Knights of Honor in Session.

The twenty-seventh annual session of the grand lodge of the Knights and Ladies of Honor of New Jersey was held at Belleville yesterday, with Grand Protector Edward C. Wenzel, of Jersey City, presiding. The total membership of the State is 4,237. Mr. Wenzel was re-elected Grand Protector for another year.

William S. Law, who has spent the winter in New York, has returned to Trnell Court.

ROADSTERS' CALENDAR.

Sun Rises 4:46 a. m.
Sun Sets 7:06 p. m.
Lanterns must be lighted 8:06 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

WEATHER.

Rain late tonight or on Friday. Maximum, 70; Minimum, 56; thermometer at noon 70.

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, THURSDAY, MAY 14, 1908. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

PLAN AUTO BUS SERVICE

Proposed Line to Connec Plainfield with South Plainfield and Metuchen.

ON FIFTEEN MINUTE SCHEDULE.

Circuitous Route Through This City —Promoters Want to Interest Board of Trade.

The proposition to operate passenger automobiles between this city, South Plainfield and Metuchen, as told in The Daily Press of yesterday, is meeting with great success and a large number of citizens are lending their support to the movement. The committee appointed at the meeting Tuesday night, met last night and it was suggested that the number of autos be increased to five and not only operate them between Plainfield and Metuchen, but to also establish a fifteen minute schedule through the western part of Plainfield, starting from the Watchung avenue trolley stand and going as far as the Maple Grove School.

The line would pass along those avenues and street which are not now connected with the trolley system and would take in the Public Library, St. Mary's church, Truell Inn and the Plainfield High School. It was further suggested that the fare be five cents each way and that inasmuch as there is considerable delay in the mail service between Metuchen, South Plainfield and Plainfield, that the Potsmaster-General be asked to establish a direct service by means of the company's automobiles. Milton Mendel was appointed with Chairman P. C. McDonough to wait upon the Plainfield Merchants' Association and the Board of Trade and if possible to enlist their interest and support in the project. As soon as a report is received steps will be taken to form the company.

The proposed western route is as follows:

Starting at the Watchung avenue trolley stand, Watchung avenue, through North avenue to Park avenue, thence south to Ninth street, west on Ninth street to Central avenue, north on Central avenue to Stelle avenue, and west on Stelle avenue to Plainfield avenue, north to Seventh street, thence west on Seventh street to Clinton avenue and south on Clinton avenue to Maple Grove School.

HERE'S A LEADING MAN WHO REALLY DOES LEAD.

Mr. Maurice Wilkinson, leading man with Miss Gallatin, who opens Monday night in "The Cowboy and the Lady" at the New Plainfield theatre as "Teddy North," a role created by N. C. Goodwin, is a young artist of wide experience. He has played with Mary Shaw in "Ghost," the prat of the minister, with the Bush Temple Stock Company of Chicago, and many other well known and first class attractions.

Mr. Wilkinson has just closed a long season at Keith and Proctor's Stock Theatre in New York city, to join Miss Gallatin here. He is young, attractive and far above the average leading man seen in Plainfield in support of $2.00 attractions. As "Teddy" he is sure to please.

Sesame Club Annual Meeting.

These officers were elected at the annual meeting of the Sesame Club held this morning at the home of Mrs. Hattie Chase on Putnam avenue: President, Mrs. C. W. Tennant; first vice-president, Mrs. Ira W. Travell; second vice-president, Mrs. J. Hervey Doane; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Hattie Chase. There was an important discussion as to next year's line of study and it was decided to continue the study of England. The club will meet again in October.

Will Speak of McAll Work.

Rev. George T. Berry, field secretary for the American McAll Association will speak at the Congregational church Sunday morning on "The Dawn of Religious Democracy in France," and in the evening he will give an illustrated lecture in the chapel of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church on the subject, "The Social and Religious Condition in France as Seen with the Camera." The public is invited to attend either or both of these services.

Father Bogan Elected Chaplain.

Rev. Bernard M. Bogan, of St. Mary's church, was elected chaplain of the State Council, Knights of Columbus, held at Lakewood on Wednesday, succeeding Rev. Anthony H. Stein, of Paterson, who held the office for a number of years and who did not seek re-election. The next session of the body will be held at Atlantic City.

Miss Sarah McGrath, of this city, will sail next week on the Furnessia for Londonderry. The passage was booked through the Estil agency.

GAVETT LOSES PLACE ON CORNELL'S CREW

The Cornell rowing camp was thrown into great confusion yesterday at Ithaca, N. Y., when it was learned that four of the strongest men in the 'Varsity ranks had been dropped for the rest of the year. The entire undergraduate community is greatly aroused, for it is the most remarkable incident in Cornell rowing history.

Leonard W. Gavett, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gavett, of this city, member of two victorious 'Varsity crews at Poughkeepsie; J. H. Bromley of last year's 'Varsity and several second 'Varsities, J. H. Holt, stroke of last year's 'Varsity four and stroke of two second 'Varsities, and S. I. Weed, stroke of the 1909 freshman crew, and considered a sure selection for this year's eight, have all lost their places and were tipped off by the management that they had better resign. All four quit the training table and stopped rowing.

Coach Courtney said today that his action was prompted in the interests of the crew. He declared that, although every man dropped was a good oarsman, they did not seem to work together with the other oarsmen, and as he was expected to turn out a winning crew, there was nothing to do but to expel them. In the last three weeks the 'Varsity has gone from bad to worse, and, despite frequent shifts, they have been regularly beaten by the second crew.

To cap the climax the freshmen eight beat them Monday night by 9 seconds in 2 miles. This was "the straw that broke the camel's back," and the "old man" immediately got rid of the men he deemed responsible. With the Harvard race only two weeks away, Cornell's situation is very serious, but Coach Courtney said that, although he might lose at Cortland, he felt confident that he would have a first-class crew at Poughkeepsie. Dissention in the crew is supposed to be at the bottom of the trouble.

ROYAL ARCH MASONS IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

The annual convention of the Grand Chapter of the Royal Arch Masons of New Jersey opened yesterday in Masonic Temple, Trenton, with Grand High Priest Jacob Kirkner, of Plainfield, presiding. There were a number of prominentt visitors, including Deputy Grand High Priest C. C. Hunt, of New York; Grand Masters of the Third Veil C. W. Seneth, and A. A. Adams, of New York; Past Grand High Priests Geo. E. Stivers and D. W. Hamilton, of New York; Grand Representative of New Jersey in the Grand Chapter of New York W. E. Duncan.

At the afternoon session the following officers were elected:

Grand high priest, James S. Ware, of Bridgeton; deputy grand high priest, Samuel G. Rudderrow, of Camden; grand king, Daniel L. Campbell, of Paterson; grand scribe, Frederick G. Wiese, of Bordentown; grand chaplains, Daniel Demarest, of Montclair, and George Maddock, of Trenton; grand trustrees, Thomas H. R. Redway, of Trenton; Leonard L. Greer, of Paterson, and Joseph Mason, of Paterson; grand organist, Thomas S. Hattersley, of Trenton; grand tyler, Alfred T. Osmond, of Trenton.

Firemen's Relief Association Elect.

The Firemen's Relief Association of North Plainfield held its annual meeting at Borough Fire Headquarters Tuesday night, when these officers were elected for the coming year: Chief Howard F. Woolston; vice-president, David C. Allen; treasurer and collector, W. W. Rowley; secretary, David Bodine! The committees will be appointed within a short time. The annual reports presented show that the association is in excellent condition financially and considerable work has been accomplished during the past year.

Funeral of George R. Leland.

The funeral of George R. Leland was held last night at his late home on West Second street. It was conducted by Rev. D. J. A. Chambliss and was attended by a gathering of relatives and friends. During the service two selections were rendered by Elmer D. Cutting and Judge William N. Runyon. Burial was made in Hillside cemetery this morning, a delegation from Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., bearing the casket to the grave.

Richard Binn.

Richard Binn, colored, aged seventy one years, died last night at his house on East Third street. The funeral will be held at the late residence tomorrow night at 8 o'clock and burial will be at Bordentown.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

REFUSES ALTERNATESHIP

"Farmer-Orator" Martine will Hold a Proxy from a Western State to Denver.

FIRM FOR WILLIAM J. BRYAN.

Nebraskan's Close Friend Says He'll Be on Hand but Not Among New Jersey's Delegation.

James E. Martine, the farmer-orator of New Jersey and the close personal friend and admirer of William Jennings Bryan, today reiterated the statement he made before the Democratic State convention that he would not accept an alternateship to Denver. He insists that he will be a delegate to the convention, however, although he has been "turned down" by his own people in New Jersey.

"I have received a great many letters from friends in various parts of the State urging me to reconsider my decision and accept the alternateship," said Mr. Martine. "I have replied that I had never been accused of being a changeable sort of a fellow and that when I speak I do not juggle with words or intentions. I told the convention exactly what I meant; I wanted to be a delegate-at-large. When my wishes were refused, I looked elsewhere for I am determined to go to that convention as a delegate and do all I can for Mr. Bryan, the next President as sure as you are born."

When Mr. Martine asked what he meant when he announced a few weeks ago that he would hold a proxy from a Western State, he declared that it would not be right for him to say this time of what State's delegation he would be a member. He said there is no doubt about his representing a certain State but he declines to tell which one. Mr. Martine said that the vacancy in the Jersey alternateships would be filled by the delegates from this State probably at Denver.

PYTHIAN CHARITY ALTAR COMING TO PLAINFIELD.

The Pythian Charity Altar, which is being presented from one lodge to another all over the country, will be brought to this city next month. It will be extended to Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, by members of Olive Branhc Lodge, No. 78, of Elizabeth, on Friday night, June 5. The Elizabethans will be accompanied by a large delegation of knights from all parts of the State.

The presentation of the altar is of symbolical significance and when it is given contributions are received for the Grand Lodge Charity Fund. The money thus received is to remain in trust for two years and at the end of the Grand Lodge session in 1910 will be applied to some Pythian charity.

Teh altar has ben in the State for several months and has already been held by lodges in Newark, Jersey City, Paterson, Harrison, Orange and Montclair. The perseverance members will later present it to Lodge of the Castle of Somerville.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. DANIEL H. MANNING.

Mrs. Harriet P. Manning, wife of Daniel H. Manning, of Dunellen avenue, died suddenly in Muhlenberg Hospital this noon. She underwent an operation for appendicitis at the institution a week ago and was recovering rapidly until today when she suffered a stroke of apoplexy. This is ascribed as the cause of death.

Mrs. Maning was sixty-eight years old and had been a resident of Plainfield since 1870. She was a member of the First Baptist church and was a regular attendant until illness prevented. Beside her husband she is survived by two daughters, Miss Anna May Palmer, of New York, and Miss Grace Palmer, of this city; also a son, George B. Palmer, of Philadelphia. She was a step-mother to Clifford D. Manning.

For the Cause of Missions.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society of Trinity Reformed church will hold a musical and literary entertainment in the lecture room of the church tomorrow night. There will be no admission, but a silver offering will be received. The proceeds will be for the cause of missions.

To Tell of Conversion.

Mr. Scheckler, superintendent of the Elizabeth Rescue Mission, will relate the interesting story of his conversion, and twenty-four years' Christian service in the Salvation Army Hall tonight at 8 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

—There is never a question about the superiority of Neuman Brothers' high grade olive oil. They import it direct from France especially for the Plainfield trade.

CHARMING MUSICALE AT MRS. E. S. HOOLEY'S

A charming musicale was given yesterday afternoon by the women pupils of Herman Hoveman, of New York. The affair took place at the home of Mrs. Edwin S. Hooley, on Rockview avenue. There was a large attendance of friends of the pupils, including some of the parents. Mr. Hoveman has a number of pupils in this city and they have made noteworthy progress in vocal study. Yesterday each one was in excellent voice and the various numbers were rendered in a delightful manner, calling forth many encores.

There was some disappointment in the announcement that Miss Marie Finch and Miss Helen Ray Hooley were unable to take their parts in the program, being detained elsewhere. Following the musicale refreshments were served under the direction of the hostess and a pleasant social time enjoyed. The program follows:

Aria, "Tannhauser," Wagner, Miss Etta Raybert; "Springtide," Reinhold-Becker; aria, "La Boheme," Puccini, Miss G. H. Smith; duo, "Figaro's Marriage," Mozart; "Greeting," Mendelssohn-Bartholdy, Miss G. H. Smith and Miss Elizabeth Goddard; "Sunshine and Rain," J. Blumenthal; "Lullaby," Dennee, Miss Margarethe Mead; aria, "Lohengrin," Wagner, Miss Josephine Hoveman, daughter of Herman Hoveman; duo, "Hungarian Dances," F. Brahms, Miss Etta Raybert and Mrs. F. M. Ward; aria, "Sampson and Dalila," C. St. Saens; song, "Retreat," F. La Forge, Miss Elizabeth Goddard; "The Lotos Flower," "Dedication," R. Schmann, Miss Maida Hyde; ballade, "The Loreley," Liszt, Mrs. F. M. Ward; trio, "The Violet," E. Curschmann, the Misses G. H. Smith, Maida Hyde and Elizabeth Goddard.

SERVANT GETS VERDICT IN SUIT FOR SLANDER

Miss Jennie Crotty, of New York, formerly employed as a servant at the home of Simeon A. Cruikshank, of Belvidere avenue, was awarded a verdict for $110 in the Union county court today in her action against Mr. Cruikshank, against whom she made a charge of slander. The suit is an old one and has been dragging along for some time. It was the outcome of trouble incident to the plaintiff leaving the employ of Mr. Cruikshank. She inferred from has actions and words that he considered her dishonest and she then brought an action against him for $5,000.

The case occupied the whole morning until 11:15 o'clock when it was given to the jury. They remained out a little over an hour, when they returned a verdict for the plaintiff. Charles A. Reed, of the firm of Reed & Coddington, represented Mr. Cruikshank, while Siegener & Lane, of Jersey City, represented the plaintiff. It was the contention of the defendant that he had been informed by am embes of the household that the servant had taken things and he was acting within his rights when he insisted on searching her trunk before removing it from the house.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT FUNERAL OF STANLEY DAY.

With relatives and friends in attendance from many distant points as well as nearby, the funeral of Stanley Day, New Market's well-known resident, was held yesterday at his late home in the village. It was conducted by Rev. Frank Fletcher, of Atlantic Highlands, formerly of New Market, and Rev. Mr. Phelps, of Bound Brook. There were many handsome floral tributes.

Burial wasc made in the cemetery at Samptown, four sons of the deceased acting as pall bearers. They are George W. Day, Charles and James Day and Stanley Day, Jr.

Last Dance of the Season.

The Tuesday Night Whist Club held its last reception and dance for the season at Truell Hall, last night. There were about twenty-five couples present to enjoy the attractive program of dances arranged. Miss Mygrant presided at the piano, assisted by Arthur M osher, and the music was a feature. During the intermission refreshments were served. The committee in charge consisted of Harry Sanderson and Charles P. Titsworth.

A Battalion Drill.

Arrangemetns have been made for a battalion drill to be given at Westfield Saturday in charge of Mayor William B. Martin. It will take place on Highland avenue, and will be participated in by Company M, of Somerville, Company C, of Elizabeth and Company K, of Plainfield.

—Daily Press want ads. pay.

—Courtesy of Newark Evening News.

BIG DEMONSTRATION OF HOLY NAME SOCIETIES

Plans have been perfected for the processional demonstration of the Holy Name Society, which is to be held in New Brunswick on Sunday afternoon, May 24.

The parade of some 5,000 men representing the societies of Middlesex county, headed by Union band and Grand Marshal William F. Harkins, with his aides, will start from St. Peter's church on Somerset street in that city and proceed to St. John's church on Neilson street, from there to the Sacred Heart church and thence to St. Peter's school, or Columbia Hall, where an open benediction will be pronounced upon the steps of the school by Monsignor J. A. O'Grady and the male choirs of the three local churches will sing hymns.

The idea of having the demonstration has been worked out by Monsignor O'Grady, Rev. James F. Devine and Rev. Joseph Keuper.

Similar demonstrations have met with favor in larger cities, and there is no doubt that this large procession of men who have vowed to refrain from blasphemy will have a deep moral effect.

Brick Pave About Completed.

It is expected that the brick pavement work will be about completed this week, provided the weather remains favorable. The laying of the brick will be finished on Front street today and the grouting started. There is one small section on West Front street, opposite L. W. Randolph's drug store that will have to be relaid, owing to the fact that when the brick was placed there last fall the frost got into the concrete before it was dry. There may be a few other spots to be touched up, but taking the contract altogether experts pronounce it to be one of the best in the country. Contractor Meeker is under bonds for one year after the completion of the work, and in case of any trouble in that time he will have to make it good.

In the City Court.

As the result of a children's quarrel, David Brown, colored, appeared in the city court, this morning, as complainant against Mrs. Stella Anderson, a next-door neighbor. When Judge Runyon learned what was the cause of the trouble he gave all hands a talking to and told them to go home and be good. The parties live on Plainfield avenue.

—1906, 20 H. P. 4-cylinder French Daracq touring car, equipped with 4 brand new anti-skid tires, 2 extra tires, 5 lamps, folding glass front, magneto, etc.; unusual fine shape; cost $4,250, will sacrifice for $850 to quick buyer. This is an opportunity of a lifetime. Thompson, 413 Park avenue. ***

STEEPLECHASE DANCERS STILL LEAD IN CONTEST

Standing of the Vote.

Steeplechase	1790
White Hussars	860
Sailors Hornpipe	802
Rustic	771
Pantomime	721
